BOYCOTT OF JEWS BEGINS IN GERMANY

Official Ban To Begin On April 1, But Al- ready Actions Have Been Inaugurated

BERLIN, Mar. 29.—(A.P.)—Germany's boycott of Jews, although it will not begin officially until the morning of Apr. 1, already has begun to take form. The Berlin city government today ordered that from Apr. 1 on, all supplies for municipal projects and offices be purchased only from nationalistic merchants.

Forty-eight Jewish shops, picketed by national socialist storm troopers, were quickly closed by their owners and a number of other shops, run by non-Jews on money borrowed from Jews, also were picketed.

Jewish professors were prevented from entering the class room buildings at the University of Westphalia. One university faculty member and three Jewish attorneys were placed under "protective arrest."

Mass meetings held in foreign countries, it was said, have not made the lot of moderate members of the government easier, as modification of the boycott movement of its prohibition now might be construed as having a foreign character.

The call for the boycott was set forth in a long communication issued from Nazi headquarters in Munich and entitled "For the defense of the Nazi party against the atrocious propaganda."

The statement explained that special committees will be formed in every Nazi group to carry out the campaign plans systematically.

Yesterday's newspapers showed little excitement about the Jewish picketing which held Monday night in New York. The reports characterized the speeches delivered there as moderate or neutral.

Shelly's Condition Remaining Critical

Advice received here today from the DeLand Memorial Hospital states that the condition of W. F. Shelly, veteran Atlantic Coast Line Railroad engineer who underwent a major operation on Monday, remains critical. He is being attended by a specialist who ordered an immediate operation when Mr. Shelly consulted his physician shortly after he became ill.

Mr. Shelly is widely known up and down the Coast Line system for his political and fraternal activities. He has resided here for many years, and with his family at 608 Elm Ave.

Body Of Man Found Beside Apartment

MIAMI BEACH, Mar. 29.—(AP)—The body of J. J. Cullen, about 33, and in whose pockets were found lodge cards from New Port News, Virginia, was found today in a yard beside an ocean front apartment building with a bullet wound in the right temple. On the beach a block from where the body was found, detectives found a pistol with one exploded cartridge, a pair of men's spectacles and a whiskey flask partly full. Two men, said by police to be occasional occupants of the apartment, are held. Their names were not divulged.

U. S. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA GETS BUDGET SLASHES

Supply Bill Will Be Cut $11,000,000 In '34 to $30,322,000

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—The capital yesterday felt the force of the Roosevelt economy pressure with Lewis W. Douglas, budget director, recommending that the District of Columbia supply bill be cut $11,000,000 during 1934 to $30,322,000.

This was the first budget message sent to Congress by the new administration and so far as it alone was concerned, it more than fulfilled campaign pledges to interest 25 per cent off of every dollar expended.

Hitting drastically at the extensive improvement program that has been in progress here, Douglas has recommended a reduction of hundreds of thousands of dollars of public works, a general 15 per cent salary cut and less funds for schools.

He provided, however, for an increase from $625,000, to $1,250,000 in emergency relief funds. Included in the 24.8 per cent reduction was a cut in $5,700,000 in the federal government's slump sum contribution to the district. During the present fiscal year this fund was $7,775,000.

Alleged Receiver Of Loot Takes Own Life

NEW YORK, Mar. 29.—(AP)—Ralph Krakauer, under charge of being the criminal receiver of much of the loot of Harry S. Truman, International jewel thief, arrested in Miami Beach recently, committed suicide by poison in his apartment today. Krakauer was 48 and was a jewelry salesman. Krakauer was found lying by his wife, Dora. They have two children. Beside him lay a note he had written in which he blamed "this arch thief" for wrecking his life. He did not amplify his reference.

"Community Kitchen" Will Provide Canning Facilities For Indigents

An entirely new local development is the work of various individuals that are directing the expenditures of Reconstruction Finance Corporation money in this county will have its beginning in the Mayfair Hotel kitchen tomorrow morning at about 9:00 o'clock when a group of indigent persons from various sections of the county will be taught how to can home grown or purchased vegetables and citrus.

The enterprise, sponsored by the Seminole County Employment Relief Council which is entrusted with the disposition of R. F. C. funds locally, will be termed "Community Kitchen." Its facilities are open to the public without any charge except to those persons who are able to pay for the cans and incidentals needed in canning fruits and vegetables.

Mrs. Helen T. Morse, county welfare relief director, made the announcement this morning and stated that Mrs. B. A. Howard, a member of her staff, will have direct supervision over all canning activities at the hotel. Miss Hazel Wilson, home economics instructor at Seminole High School, has offered her assistance, and she will be on hand to help teach persons how to can foods properly.

Mrs. Morse also announced that women members of the Home Improvement Club have offered their services, and that they will be present at various times during the next several weeks, assisting wherever possible. A third group which has offered its assistance is the Seminole County Federation

3-POINT RAIL PROGRAM PUT BEFORE CHIEF

Measure Calls For Ap- pointment Of Fed- eral Co-ordinator With Broad Powers

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—A three-point railroad measure calling for the appointment of a federal co-ordinator with extraordinary power to serve reorganizations is before President Roosevelt.

The President plans early study of the proposal and a conference late in the week of all interested parties, including operators, labor and shippers. Two parts of the legislation—repeal of the restrictive clause of the transportation act and Federal regulation of holding companies—already are pending in the House.

It is the administration plan to include these with the more general proposal to appoint a director general or co-ordinator of railroads.

Re-adjustment of top-heavy financial structures through appropriate reduction of fixed charges is one of the objectives of the program. The co-ordinator also would give authority to suggest and to connect consolidations in "the interest of efficiency and economy."

Another proposal that was presented vigorously in the days of conference here over emergency railroad legislation would have pooled the interests of the railroad for the elimination of mergers and operating costs. This, however, has been sidetracked.

The measure that went to President Roosevelt's desk yesterday emanated from a conference of experts headed by Secretary Roper and including Joseph B. Eastman, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and W. W. Spawan, rail authority.

Citrus Men Who Had Fly Losses To Meet

The Orlando Chamber of Commerce building will be the scene of a gathering of Central Florida growers, farmers, and other persons who suffered losses in the fruit fly campaign. It was announced today. The meeting, open to the public, will start at 2:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

This county will send a large delegation, it was indicated today. Among those going to this meeting are H. M. Papworth, and S. C. Chase, who handled claims made by nearly 400 local and county residents during the past several months. R. F. Haines, of Altamonte Springs, W. A. Lottler, Carl Lehmann, and others.

"Community Kitchen" Will Provide Canning Facilities For Indigents

of Women's Clubs which will aid in bringing persons from county towns to Sanford where they may take advantage of the canning lessons.

Canning paraphernalia has been gathered and placed in the Mayfair Hotel kitchen, including pressure cookers, sealers, and several hundred cans. Mrs. Morse said that indigent persons unable to provide cans will be given them without cost, but all other persons must purchase cans which may be secured at wholesale cost.

The Community Kitchen is not only open to the indigent, Mrs. Morse said, but to all persons who wish to conserve some of their fruit or vegetables. "Many growers or small garden owners are unable to dispose of vegetables," Mrs. Morse said, "now that a large supply on hand. If they wish to, they may bring it to the Community Kitchen where it will be prepared for canning, and in this way, they will be assured of good, wholesome food during the summer months."

Concluding, Mrs. Morse asked for the co-operation of all farmers and growers who have fruits or vegetables which they care to donate for canning purposes. "We can use any amount of produce," she said, "and we would appreciate any grower telephoning us at 273-J. All persons who expect to take advantage of the Community Kitchen facilities must make arrangements through the welfare office in the basement of the Court House."

GOVERNOR'S VETO OVERRIDDEN BY ALABAMA SOLONS

Action Will Permit People Of State To Decide Upon Trepel

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Mar. 29.—(AP)—Over the objection of Gov. B. M. Miller, the Alabama legislature yesterday told the people of the state they could decide upon repeal of prohibition.

Acting immediately after the governor vetoed the measure calling for a prohibition repeal convention, both houses of the legislature overwhelmingly passed it.

The bill provides for the election of 116 delegates whose vote at the convention will be controlled by a statewide, repeal referendum to be carried on the ballot. The delegates will be elected in the state at large and the others according to their legislative representation.

The election will be held 90 days after adjournment of the legislature, and the convention three days after. The legislature convenes in its customary three days a week schedule, adjournment will be next Friday, placing the election of convention delegates in mid-July.

Argument In Miller F.P.L. Case Put Off

S. R. Dighton, attorney for the former commissioner F. L. Miller who is seeking an injunction restraining the Florida Power and Light Co. from cutting off electricity furnished to him, today stated that a hearing of arguments in the matter, scheduled for today, has been postponed by agreement until Friday, Apr. 7.

Mr. Dighton contacted Mr. Erskine Landis, D-Land attorney for the power company, and the two men agreed that inasmuch as Judge Millard B. Smith is confining himself to the regular spring term of Circuit Court at Titusville this week, that a hearing of the case should be postponed.

New Trucking Line To Open Sanford Branch

H. E. Bates, of Unalaska, operator of a truck line operating in various sections of Florida, was in Sanford today to announce that because his firm has been awarded a contract to transport freight for the Central Florida Transportation Co. Inc., operators of the steamer "Osceola," it is necessary that a Sanford branch of his firm be opened at once.

He has leased a garage building near Sanford, Avenue and Tenth Street, and several of his larger trucks and equipment for repairs and additional building facilities will arrive in Sanford this week.

Mr. Bates also announced that five families, the heads of which are employed by his firm, also will move to Sanford at once. Mr. Bates appeared at the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce office this morning making five homes, and several listed locations were handed him.

FOREST BILL WITH SENATE CHANGES O. K.

Roosevelt Has No Ob- jections To Altera- tions And Passage By House Expected

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—Representative Byrnes, Democratic leader, after a talk with President Roosevelt today, announced that the executive has no objection to the Senate amendments to the forest conservation bill. "Consequently, we have three to further work from the White House later in the day we will pass the bill as is before adjourning tonight."

Passage of the Roosevelt revision, measures marked the fourth of the President's cabinet energy measures to be introduced in the Senate this session. The others were the banking, open shop and free labor bills.

It is only the first of a series of bills planned by the Chief Executive, however, to reverse the Nation's million-dollar loss.

In addition to the creation of the $500,000 relief fund, the President plans a large public works program, amounting to about $1,200,000,000, and probably liberalization of the law under which the Reconstruction Corporation makes loans for public construction by states and municipalities.

Williams Enters Race For Seat In State Legislature

W. B. Williams, of Oviedo, resident of this county for the past 20 years and former Sanford City Manager, today entered the race for the House of Representatives seat left vacant by the recent death of Representative-elect I. S. White.

His announcement is as follows: "I wish to announce my candidacy for the position to Florida House of Representatives left vacant by the late I. S. White, in a special election to be held in this County on Apr. 12."

"My record as a citizen of this county for the past 20 years, my broad experience in public office and public works, and my knowledge of the wishes and needs of people of Seminole County is my platform. I am for strict economy in all departments of the State Government and will support any and every measure in every way possible if I am elected to this office."

Mr. Williams is a native of Illinois. He brought his family to Florida in 1910, and before coming to Sanford he resided at Oviedo and St. Petersburg. He entered the contracting business and until 1923, when he came to Sanford, he and his firm were responsible for the construction of the new wall at St. Petersburg and Sanford, some 30 miles of drainage canals in the Blue Hill drainage basin of this county, and a large drainage canal near Davenport.

He was named City Manager here in 1923, and served that office until 1928. Since that time he has been engaged as a contractor at Oviedo.

Martin Is Released. Leaves For Carolina

Earl "Bud" Martin, former Sanford baseball player who was arrested last Friday upon a charge of larceny after being released from the County Jail Monday afternoon, was released today after a settlement of Martin's difficulties with Mrs. T. J. Muff, who caused his arrest, and paid the most costs involved in the arrest.

Martin, together with Jack Sanford who was also a member of the local team, left Sanford Monday night for North Carolina. The former stated to friends here that he planned to play baseball in that section this summer, while Sanford is reported as expecting to be given a try-out with the Charlotte, Piedmont League club.

Bernard Shaw Forced To Alight On Beach As Storm Closes In About Airplane

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Mar. 29.—(AP)—George Bernard Shaw, Irish dramatist, flew to Southern California yesterday and made a dramatic forced landing on the beach north of the movie colony of Malibu, some 15 miles from his airport destination.

"I thought the pilot was going after a fish," the white-headed critic said in commenting upon his feelings when he saw the airplane swooping down upon the ocean's surface.

A perfect but successful landing on a beach 25 feet wide, was made when a storm closed in upon the calm plane in which Shaw was traveling.

The pilot, who was identified as George Board, San Francisco publisher, were flying from San Simeon, Calif., to Clover Field, here.

POSTERS ATTACK DANIELS AS NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 29.—(A.P.)—The storming of the American Embassy as a protest to the appointment of Joseph Daniels, a United States ambassador to Mexico, was disclosed today. Several windows were broken. Police have not made the incident public and it is not known if arrests have resulted. Daniels was secretary of the navy when United States troops landed in Vera Cruz in 1914.

Posters attacking Joseph Daniels, the new American ambassador to Mexico, appeared on walls in Mexico City yesterday.

The posters were captioned "Out With Daniels" and they called him "The Murderer of Anzures and Uribe." These men were Mexicans who were killed in the fighting when United States forces landed at Vera Cruz in 1914. At the time Mr. Daniels was secretary of the Navy.

The posters were signed "The Communist Party of Mexico, Section of the Communist International." They called for workers, farmers, students, soldiers and sailors and "all patriots" to join in general strikes and force Mr. Daniels from Mexico.

Plans Are Arranged For Salvation Army Fund Drive Beginning Tuesday

With the announcement today that H. M. Papworth has accepted the post as general chairman of the Salvation Army Budget Appeal Campaign, which opens next Tuesday morning, local workers declared that almost every detail of organization has been worked out and the success of the drive seems assured.

The Budget Committee composed of Linton E. Allen, W. A. Jeffery, T. J. Muff, Karl Lehmann and V. A. Speer met Saturday afternoon and decided that $2500 will be needed to handle the local relief work of the Army for the coming year. Last year's budget requirement was $1900.

W. A. Lottler and H. J. Lehmann have accepted the responsibility of being vice chairmen of the campaign.

Under present plans, all officers, division heads and program captains are scheduled to meet at the First Street Salvation Army headquarters Friday night to be devoted to a meeting of details for the drive.

The campaign opens shortly after 8:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, at which hour all workers will gather at Army headquarters for a "Doughboys' Kick-off" break-

U. S. CHECK ON SECURITY SALE IS REQUESTED

Roosevelt Sends Mes- sage To Congress Asking Supervision For Investments

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt asked Congress today to provide federal supervision of investment securities. In another direct special message, his sixth in less than three weeks, the President declared the public has sustained "severe losses through practices neither ethical nor honest."

Thereupon he proposed to invoke the power of the federal government to "interstate commerce traffic to control new securities."

Preparations were already under way in the House and Senate to expedite the new administration legislation. Consideration of the administration's half billion dollar unemployment relief bill was blocked in the Senate by Senator McNary, Republican leader, but the measure was taken up for informal debate.

Administration forces in the Senate agriculture committee called and beat off two efforts to limit commodities to which the sweeping Roosevelt farm bill would apply.

FLAT 15 PERCENT CUT IN FEDERAL WAGES ORDERED

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—(AP)—A flat 15 percent cut in the salaries of government officers and employees—the maximum permitted under the recent economy bill—was ordered yesterday by President Roosevelt to begin next Saturday.

It is to continue until June 30, the end of the present fiscal year. What action will be taken in that time will depend on what other change has taken place in the cost of living.

In ordering the new salary slash, the President automatically did away with the present 8.13 percent cut brought about by the furlough system put into force by the Hoover administration. The present reduction is from the basis enjoyed before the previous cut.

The pay cut—to aid the government in balancing the budget—was estimated to save $30,000,000 the remainder of this fiscal year.

Mr. Roosevelt said he had determined the cost of living had dropped 21.7 percent since the first half of 1928.

Under the economy measure, passed at his request, the Chief Executive is empowered to reduce salaries in proportion to the drop in cost of living since the first six months of 1928, taken as the base period. It is specified, however, the slash must not exceed 15 percent.

Bishop Predicts Half Of States Will Not Vote For Dry Repeal

COLLINGSWOOD, New Jersey, Mar. 29.—(A.P.)—The one-half of the states that will repeal the Eighteenth Amendment, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., head of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, said in an address here that present efforts of Wets to gain complete repeal will not amount to anything. He spoke at a city rally sponsored by the state prohibition league. After the meeting, thousands reported to police that their pockets had been picked.

Bert Hanabury Hurt In Fall From Truck

Bert Hanabury, resident of Glenderville, is in the Erskine-Langston Memorial Hospital with a fractured skull and other bruises which he suffered when he fell from a trailer attached to an automobile moving along the old Sanford-Orlando in the vicinity of Elder Springs early this morning. A Mr. Bromberg, also fell from the trailer and received a broken arm and collar bone. He was treated by Dr. C. M. Mitchell and allowed to return to his home in Glenderville. Details of the accident could not be secured.

Mayfair Inspected As Possible Site For Boys School

Major E. M. Allen, headmaster of Mohagan Lake Academy on the Hudson, New York state, was in Sanford this afternoon inspecting the Mayfair Hotel and surrounding properties with a view of locating a school somewhere in Florida next season.

Major Allen was accompanied on his tour of the hotel by Mayor V. A. Speer and City Clerk F. S. Lamson. The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce had previously extended him an invitation to visit this section on his present tour in search of a suitable location.

Speaking to Sanford businessmen today, Major Allen stated that his school had been located at Mohagan Lake, 45 miles from New York City, for the past 28 years. Growth of that community now finds the school properties being encroached upon by private home owners, with the result that the freed-in once enjoyed by the students and faculty is considerably reduced. Major Allen and members of his faculty have agreed to remove the site of their academy, and they believe Florida to be the proper location. About 75 boys comprise the student body, he said.

Unemployment Relief

The extent of unemployment in the United States is better understood with a realization that one of the 30,000,000 unemployed in the entire world, as estimated by the International Labor Office late in 1932, more than one-third are in the United States alone.

But this measure, like the Roosevelt re-forestation proposal, is a direct departure from the established custom of this government. Hitherto such aid as has been given to unemployed has been in the form of loans to states which, of course, must be repaid, or as a part of the federal building program which included only necessary or self-liquidating construction.

What other countries have come to in their efforts at combating unemployment is indicated in figures given out by the International Labor Office. In Belgium, for instance, relief expenditures increased from 32,000,000 francs in 1930 to 366,000,000 francs in 1931. Germany spent 1,161,000,000 marks on unemployment aid in 1932; by 1931 this fund had increased to 2,987,000,000 marks.

England was doing much for unemployment as early as 1924 when more than fifty million pounds were devoted to unemployment insurance, otherwise known as the dole. But by 1930 this sum had been increased to 101,000,000 pounds. Under the "economy program" of Prime Minister MacDonald, the dole was further increased to 166,000,000 pounds in 1932. Italy has had much the same experience, increasing its unemployment insurance expenditures from 22,800,000 lire in 1924 to 115,600,000 lire in 1930.

The policy of attempting to relieve unemployment by direct government aid is at best a dubious one, like trying to lift one's self by one's own bootstraps, or seeking to bail out the ocean. The only way in which the government can get the money to provide for unemployment is ultimately through taxation. Every additional dollar which the government takes in taxes, is just one dollar less which the consuming public can spend for supplies, the manufacture of which, of course, provides jobs.

The relief program of this country, however, has the redeeming feature that it does not contemplate raising the relief funds by immediate taxation, but rather by borrowing. Hence, the dollars provided for relief are not taken from the consuming public but from the investing public and might otherwise be idle. This plan has its advantages only so long as the government's credit is preserved and the other measures, adopted by the government, produce the desired results in restoring prosperity before the time comes to repay the borrowed funds.

But unemployment relief, like farm relief, is just another one of those things. Nothing attempted, nothing done. Undoubtedly something has got to be done.

Ill-Mannered Shaw

George Bernard Shaw, brilliant English playwright and essayist, who has always avoided visiting the United States and is only doing so now because, he says, the world-cruise ship he is on stopped here, is sometimes described as a happy and harmless old man who doesn't take life seriously and therefore can be excused for the "cracks" he takes at everything and everybody, especially Americans.

As long as his criticism and comments are comparatively harmless and cause no one any personal pain we can forgive him and overlook his attitude, but when his jibes transgress the rules of gentlemanly conduct, then he must be taken seriously and accorded the same treatment we give anyone who hasn't any manners.

Some time ago in England he was being introduced to Helen Keller, an introduction of which, by the way, he should have been proud. To her first words, Shaw said: "Why do Americans always say that?" Lady Astor, standing nearby, in attempting to ease the situation, told him that Helen Keller was blind. To which he replied quickly: "Yes, I know, all Americans are blind, and deaf, and dumb, too."

It would have been excusable for him to have said that about anybody, but to direct such insulting remarks to a person who is afflicted and who is equally as great and famous as Mr. Shaw himself, despite her affliction, is unforgivable. Even the lowest type of individual, it seems, would have had finer sensibilities than to have addressed a blind woman in such a manner.

But the eminent writer does not appear to have shown any remorse over what he said, for only recently he took occasion to insult Alm Harding, well known and talented stage and screen actress. When she told him that she would begin work on one of his plays, he asked her where she had played it before. When she told him, he asked for the name of the manager and said: "I'm sure it must have been a piratical performance." Miss Harding replied stinging: "Indeed it was not. Hedgerow had permission in writing from your agent." She then went in her dressing room where she wept and said: "It was an uncalled for bit of rudeness to an organization, which has sincerely admired him for years."

Whatever the failings of Americans are, we have yet to see any eminent American, or for that matter any gangster, display such a lack of gentlemanly conduct as Shaw has displayed. Before criticizing us too freely we suggest that he first study the rudiments of decent conduct.

Divorce for Mrs. James Walker

MIAMI, Mar. 29.—Mrs. Janet Allen Walker yesterday received final decree of divorce from James J. (Jimmy) Walker, former mayor of New York City.

The decree was signed by Circuit Judge Worth W. Trammell, and was in accordance with the recommendations of Master in Chancery T. J. Dowdell, who heard evidence in the case here last Tuesday.

Mrs. Walker asked for the divorce on a plea of desertion, and testified her husband left her home in New York in October, 1923. She testified she was ignorant of his reason for moving to the Ritz Carlton Hotel at that time and said he "just left me." Walker, now in Cannes, France, was represented by an attorney, Benjamin Cohen, who yesterday joined with A. Frank Katzantine, Mrs. Walker's attorney, in waiving Florida legal requirement that final divorce decree, after hearing before a master in chancery, shall not be entered for 10 days after the hearing.

Mrs. Walker and other witnesses at the hearing testified she moved to Miami Beach four years ago and had established residence there, that she attempted to have Walker come to Florida on several occasions, and that he never did.

She asked no alimony, and testified that Walker had supported her since he left their home.

Last Dipping Day In Osceola County Was On March, 25

ST. CLOUD, Mar. 29.—(AP)—Saturday was announced as the last "dipping day" for cattlemen in Osceola county, except for a narrow stretch around Kenansville in the southeastern portion of the county, leaving the great cattle ranges of Osceola county "lick free" for the first time in more than 30 years.

Before the infestation of herds here by the Texas fever tick about 1900 Osceola county cattlemen shipped trainloads of some of the finest steers butchered on the northern markets, and the eradication of the pest is seen as a boon to the industry and fortune again for Florida livestock producers.

When dipping was inaugurated here a couple of years ago the cattlemen, some of whom drove as many as 5000 cattle to the vats every two weeks, suffered severe losses, but co-operated with government authorities to again establish the business on a paying basis. It was especially errors on dairy herds. Notwithstanding, as the tick became eradicated, both milk and beef cattle of Forest City, were in the city on Monday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walmsa.

At the present time there is no place for the launches and motor boats to tie up in case of a heavy blow and the city council would be doing a great work for the city if they could devise some means of dredging the creek west of the city and make a safe harbor for the water craft.

The Jacksonville Florida says Senator Nathan P. Bryan has appointed William T. Bauskett as his private secretary. Mr. Bauskett gave up the position of city editor of the Times-Union to accept the secretaryship to Senator James P. Tallafiero, and his twelve years' service in that capacity better qualifies him for the position than any other man Senator Bryan could possibly have elected.

Depression Given Credit For Change In U. S. Home Life

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 29.—(AP)—A re-birth in American home life, with families forsaking the expensive social past for the pleasures of their fathers—fudge making in the kitchen, story-telling and games—is revealed at the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. David B. Rogers, professor of sociology, announced the first results of a survey dealing the American home under economic stress, and based on an investigation conducted among a group of Pitt students representing 109 families.

His finding indicates that the "eat and sleep, hello and goodbye" type of home is rapidly disappearing, and the days of household fun are here again.

A Pitt co-ed told the professor that "we depend more on family facilities and the home for recreation. Instead of buying cakes and candies for our parties, we make them at home. Instead of going to a dance, we roll up the old parlor rug and turn on the radio. Boys who come around are more inclined to have 'house dates' and use our kitchen for lunch."

Advertisements are the daily record of civilization's progress. They are civilization's open diary—brought to you in the columns of this paper. Diaries make good reading, and the advertisements are no exception. Read them every day... and keep posted on the things that make civilized living ever more livable.
