Nine Bills Received Affecting Seminole County's Residents

Big Question Today Is What Happened To $678,000 Haul?

TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif. (AP)—What happened to the $678,000? That's the question No. 1 today in Twentynine Palms, an oasis where the financial well has run dry.

The doors of Joshua National Bank, the only banking facility in 50 miles, have been closed by the federal government, and the bank's vice president and chief cashier, Roscoe D. Coon, 46, is in San Diego County Jail.

Bank examiners closed the doors Monday when an audit showed $678,000 missing. Coon, owner of a trucking stable, was arrested at the Del Mar race track on a federal embezzlement charge. He is accused of keeping $100,000 ordered from the Federal Reserve Bank in Los Angeles for deposit to the Joshua National.

Coon yesterday sought to have his case transferred from San Diego to Los Angeles, but the request was denied. His preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 19 and he was returned to jail in lieu of $50,000 bail.

"I didn't know so many local bills had been passed in Tallahassee," O. P. Herndon, Seminole County Clerk of Court said today as he revealed the receipt of nine certified copies of bills affecting Seminole County.

Herndon said that the copies are on file in his office for reference.

They include: House Bill 1914, a hospital lien law which provides a method of collection for hospitalization and treatment.

House Bill 1085, a plat law requiring the approval of County Commissioners whereby width of roads, streets, alleys and other thoroughfares may be designated.

House Bill 1311, to define the corporate limits of the town of Altamonte Springs and to provide for a town council, mayor, and to provide for their election, term of office, power and duties.

Senate Bill 1186, which is an act to provide it unlawful to operate motor boats or water skis in a reckless manner under penalty of law.

House Bill 1357, setting the salary of the supervisor of registration at $1800.

House Bill 1194, provides that the registration books be open one day a week and 30 days prior to an election.

House Bill 1310 fixes the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Seminole County at not less than $1500 or more than $9000. The salary to be set by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction.

House Bill 1395 sets the authority for the County Commissioners to appoint four physicians as a "Board of Medical Examiners."

House Bill 1611, sets the salaries of the Clerk of Circuit Court, Tax Assessor, Tax Collector, Sheriff, and County Judge at a sum not to exceed $9000 from the fees collected and earned by each office.

Rest Of Program Seems To Be Down To Six Main Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—The remaining legislative program for the 1955 congressional session appeared today to have dwindled to six major bills. But the final adjustment date remained uncertain.

Sen. Clement (D-N.Y.), acting majority leader, said he was quite hopeful the lawmakers can head for home, or on trips, "by Saturday night or sooner."

House leaders kept Saturday as their official windup target. But they had more work on hand than the Senate, and some said privately they expected the session to spill over into at least a few days of next week.

The six measures which constitute the bulk of the remaining program include three money bills—all "must" items—as well as a housing bill, a minimum wage increase bill and the multi-billion-dollar highway construction bill.

The House votes today on the controversial highway bill, with the issue in doubt.

Progress Reports On Road Projects In Seminole County

Chairman Wilbur E. Jones of the State Road Department today issued a monthly construction progress report showing that a total of $26.4 million dollars worth of projects were underway state wide at the end of June.

These included three projects in Seminole County. Chairman Jones also reported that a total of $12.5 million dollars worth of projects were completed and accepted by the Department during June.

Projects in progress of construction in Seminole County and their percentage of completion are: State Road No. 15-600, 2.542 miles, French Ave., grade pavement type of construction, 33 per cent completed; State Road No. 4-425, 1.566 miles, SR 4-46-A to SR 46, mineral seal, 100 per cent completed; S. E. 1/4 Road No. 8-427A, .840 miles, 27th St. to SR 15 to SR 425, grade-pavement, work has not begun.

WAGE SCALES ENDED
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department said today that wage scales for union construction workers rose 5 cents an hour during the three-month period ended July 1.

Join Air Force To See Morocco Then Discover Added Excitement

NOUAMSEUR, French Morocco. (AP)—Join the U.S. Air Force and see picturesque Morocco. Maybe there will be a small bomb under your car some morning to add to the excitement.

This is the hot, dusty meadow some 50 miles south of tumultuous Casablanca where Uncle Sam has built the biggest of his five air bases on the northwest hump of Africa.

The 30,000 Americans living in French Morocco feel some uneasiness about their future amid the bitter strife between Moroccan nationalist terror and European counter terror.

The overwhelming majority of these Americans are Air Force personnel—pilots and aircrew—along with their wives and children. Some 1,000 or more families live in and around Casablanca, where rising bomb attacks more than 100 deaths since July 14.

Poisoning Listed As Cause Of Death

SOUTH DARTMOUTH, Mass. (AP)—The death of Mrs. Mary Donovan, 37, daughter-in-law of Maj. Gen. William J. "Wild Bill" Donovan, today was listed as caused by "barbiturate poisoning—circumstances undetermined."

The cause of death was reported by a medical examiner after an examination of Mrs. Donovan's vital organs. Her body was found in bed Monday by the general's wife at the Donovan summer home here. She had come from her home in Berryville, Va., only two days earlier with her daughter, Patricia, 14, eldest of five children.

Mrs. Donovan, the former Mary Grandin of Warren, Pa., married the general's son, David, in 1938. Gen. Donovan was head of the Office of Strategic Services during World War II.

Additional Term Comes From Slap

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Doris Gordon, 20, started out of Superior Court yesterday to face a two to three-year prison term for setting fire to the apartment house in which she lived.

A few minutes later she faced another one to two years.

On the way out she gave state witness Louise Stanton a resounding slap on the face.

Judge Walter E. Johnston rapped for order, reopened the case and told the woman she was getting more prison time to cool her temper.

Mrs. Gordon admitted setting fire to her husband's clothing June 19 after an argument in their apartment.

CARDINAL SPELLMAN AVOIDS ARGENTINA
NEW YORK (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman has messaged his office that he will stay out of Argentina, scene of recent church-state feuding, even though his ship makes a call there. He has been in South America in connection with the Roman Catholic Church's eucharistic congress in Brazil.

ALTAR BOY LIGHTS THE CANDLE in the body of Cordell Hull, former Secretary of State, lies in state in the historic chapel of Washington Cathedral in Washington, D. C. He will be buried in a Cathedral crypt not far from the tomb of former President Woodrow Wilson. (International)

Texas Prison Riot Ends Before Midnite

Insufficient Food Claimed Cause Of Disturbance By Several Inmates

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—More than 200 prisoners rioted for nearly three hours last night at the Bexar County Jail.

The riot came to an end shortly before midnight after promises were made that no one would be punished. A reinforced crew of jailers stood guard through the night.

Some prisoners claimed insufficient food caused the disturbance. Others said they were angry about damage done to the fourth and fifth floors of the jail was extensive. Sheriff's officers said some of the rioting prisoners suffered "bumps and cuts." None of the sources of officers who tried to quell the riot was reported hurt.

Some jailers who tried to stop the disturbance with fire hose had the hose taken from them and were themselves driven from the floor with the high-pressure restraints.

Plumbing was ripped from the walls. Prisoners hoisted and rattled at officers.

Income Tax Leins Over $5 Million Made On Erickson

FREEMOND, N. J. (AP)—Camille Frank Erickson has been slapped with federal income tax liens totaling more than five million dollars.

The liens, filed yesterday by the Brooklyn office of the Internal Revenue Service, were recorded here and in New Orleans.

Erickson, longtime kingly bookmaker, has served five months in Milan, Mich., federal penitentiary for income tax evasion, and spent 10 months in New Jersey State Prison for bookmaking and conspiracy.

Since his release from the Michigan penitentiary last May, Erickson has led a quiet life in New York.

Knowles Says City Will Finish Year In Black Letters

CITY MANAGER WARREN E. KNOWLES today said that the City of Sanford will not wind up in the red at the end of this fiscal year.

Following a survey of the entire year's budget, Knowles revealed that the Utilities Department will wind up the 1954-55 business year in good condition with a sizeable surplus.

However, in his analysis of the General Government appropriations and budget, he said that the city is "in good shape" and will finish the year in "the black."

The Sanford City Commission, several weeks ago, instructed Knowles to look into the city's business with an eye toward a "cut-back" should present spending exceed budgeted items.

Mrs. E. Ravenel In Halifax Hospital

Mrs. Elinor Ravenel of Sanford is confined to the Halifax District Hospital in Daytona Beach, with injuries sustained in an automobile accident on July 7 near the Daytona Airport.

Mrs. Ravenel, in the letter received in Sanford today, said that she is suffering from head injuries, lacerations, bruise, and fractures of both knees.

Miss Mary Eliza Cowan, 107 E. Seventh St., said that her injuries were facial lacerations and internal. She is still under the doctor's care, she says.

The 1950 Plymouth was a total loss, according to the report from Mrs. Ravenel and Miss Cowan, who found the car one day with the door open and a bomb.

Airliner Goes Down; All But One Of 58 Aboard Feared Dead

George Renews Call For Meet Of Ministers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) renewed today his call for an early foreign ministers' conference with Communist China—the time for which Secretary of State Dulles says has not arrived.

George, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, expressed surprise at Dulles' news conference announcement yesterday that U. S. Ambassador L. Alexis Johnson will sound out his Soviet counterpart at Geneva next week on the Peking government's attitude toward a cease-fire in the Formosa Strait.

George said he has no objection to such proposals, but that he doesn't think any substantial progress will be made toward relieving Far Eastern tensions until Dulles sits down with Chou En-lai, Communist China's premier and foreign minister.

"In my opinion," George told reporters, "the only talks that will be profitable will be those that take place in direct contacts with Chou En-lai and other high officials of their government."

Americans Reported On Plane

Greek Officials Tell Of Gunfire

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—An Israeli airliner was forced down in flames in Communist Bulgaria today.

Greek authorities said Bulgarian antiaircraft gunners shot it down near the Greek border and that all but perhaps one of the 58 persons aboard must be considered dead.

Four of the passengers were Americans.

Israel, alerted that the Constellation had crashed from some cause, said it had no official information that Bulgarians fired on it. A Foreign Ministry spokesman in Jerusalem said the Israeli legation in Sofia has been instructed urgently to investigate circumstances of the crash.

A special Greek government statement, based on observations of soldiers of the 10th Greek army division in Macedonia, said the four-engine American-built craft of the El Al Airlines was felled north of Petritson on a flight from London to Lydda, Israel.

The crash in rugged territory of Bulgaria, a member of the Communist's Warsaw military alliance, came only four days after the winding of the Big Four summit conference to ease world tensions.

The first word that anything was amiss with the Constellation was a SOS intercepted by the alert operations office and Rome airmen. The message said the plane was going down in flames.

Bertha Lindley Is Freed From Prison On Murder Charge

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Bertha Lindley was suddenly and quietly freed from jail on a murder charge yesterday and today was on her way to Indiana where she once lived.

Circuit Judge Truman G. Fitch released her on her own recognizance in custody of a daughter, Mrs. Ruby Hookersmith, "to return when required" because "right now it is out of the question to try her unless we can try him."

He was referring to her husband, Edward, 73, who was charged with the murder of a woman on Monday and committed to the Florida State Hospital at Chattahoochee.

They had been indicted in the slaying of three officers during an hour's gun battle at the Lindley home here May 24 that grew out of a neighborhood dispute.

State Atty. A. P. Bue made no objection to the release.

Bernard Davis, 39, Waives Extradition

BUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Bernard Davis, 39, yesterday waived extradition to Florida to face charges of killing a man who roomed in his former wife's home at Orlando.

Davis, a stocky television repairman, is accused of entering the house of his ex-wife Rosa Marie Finley, 26, early Sunday and fatally wounding Jack Cohen, 34, a roomer. Deputy Sheriff L. F. Neal said he mistook Cohen for Mrs. Finley's husband.

Mrs. Finley was in the kitchen in the couple's former bedroom.

Mrs. Finley who came running out of another room was wounded. Davis was arrested here Monday.

Registration Urged For Scout Camp

All Girl Scouts and Brownies interested in attending Day Camp Aug. 1-5 are asked to register by Friday noon with Mrs. Lee Butler Jr., phone 781-M, or with R. A. Cobb, 614.

The bus schedule runs as follows: leaving Grammar School at 8:30 a. m.; Southside Primary at 8:45 a. m. and McReynolds Drug Store at 8:50 a. m.

Parents are being asked to pick up their children at 4 p. m. at the place where they boarded the bus.

GREAT GRANDFATHER PASSES OUT CIGARS
NEW YORK (AP)—Vincent Ferraro, a 75-year-old great-grandfather, is passing out cigars on his own account again. The retired furniture polisher, who had eight children by his first two wives, is celebrating the birth of an 8-pound, 8-ounce son to his third wife Antonella, 34.

Cdr. W. R. Hazlett VC-9 Exec Officer

Cdr. W. R. Hazlett has assumed his duties as executive officer of Composite Squadron VC-9 aboard the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station replacing Cdr. R. F. Thompson who has left for Newport, R. I., to attend the Naval War College.

A native of Sandusky, Pa., Cdr. Hazlett is the recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with six bronze stars, and a Presidential Citation with a bronze star. He began his naval career in 1911.

The Hazletts make their home with their two children at 2412 DeCotter Ave., Sanford.

Varner Wins Right To Keep Selling

DAYTONA BEACH (AP)—Tom Varner has won the right to sell milk at his Port Orange grocery in spite of a Florida Milk Commission order suspending his license.

Circuit Judge George W. Jackson threw out the commission order in a decision signed Monday at St. Augustine. He said the commission did not prove it complied with the law by posting in its principal office its orders on minimum prices and, exciting the Flagler-Veneta brand milk marketing area.

Railroads, Roads Shouldn't Cross Says Little Girl In Appeal To Ike

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP)—An appeal to President Eisenhower from a nine-year-old Ohio girl whose father was killed in a railroad crossing accident has prompted an official investigation into the possibility of installing signals at the crossing.

Pamela Sue Huff of near Hillsboro wrote the President last April after her father, James W. Huff, was killed on his way home from work, Dec. 12, 1954.

Eisenhower forwarded the child's appeal to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The ICC asked the Ohio Public Utilities Commission to investigate. The commission scheduled a hearing on the matter for Sept. 2 to determine whether flasher signals should be installed at the crossing.

The New York Central railroad, whose trains use the crossing said it would oppose installation of lights. A railroad spokesman inated the "crossing was not dangerous and anyone injured there was at fault."

Huff was returning home from work in a factory when his auto was struck.

Pamela wrote the President, "I think the railroad people should have to obey safety rules too. Can you tell them to put lights? Please, I think you are a good president."

And she wrote the Ohio Public Utilities Commission, "If you put a light at the crossing, it will mean an awful lot to me for it will protect other children's dad's on their way home from work."

Pamela gave Eisenhower an alternate suggestion too. "I could like to see either a light," she wrote, "or that railroads and roads do not cross."

For Many Workers Promised Land Lies In Eastern Areas

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—For many workers in the West Indies, the promised land lies eastward.

Reversing a trend of three centuries, a steady migration from the new world to the old is helping with two problems—a labor demand in England and a surplus of laborers in Jamaica.

More than 12,000 Jamaicans have in two years left their tropical island to seek jobs in Britain, only about one in a hundred has returned.

Supplying lines after chain migration, employers in England's industrial Midlands are advertising for West Indian workers.

Many Jamaicans went to England during the war, then remained and found good jobs in postwar prosperity. They sent word back to the Caribbean. Last year more than 8,000 made the trip. But this number made only a dent in the estimated 100,000 who are unemployed during the island's agricultural off-season.

Talbot Tells Men He's Getting Out Of Mulligan Firm

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Air Force Donald H. Talbot told investigating senators today he is getting out of the business consulting firm of Paul H. Mulligan & Co.

Even as Talbot was giving this word to the senators, President Eisenhower was telling a news conference he will leave after the Senate approves such a measure. Talbot has used his office improperly and should be fired.

Eisenhower said that in general the actions of a public official must be impeccable from the standpoint of both fact and ethics, and should avoid any appearance of impropriety.

Talbot told the Senate Investigations subcommittee he declined five days ago to get out of the Mulligan firm because he has received $100,000 as public secretary in early 1954.

The air secretary said he has already written his partner, Mulligan, saying he is taking legal steps to divest himself of his role in the partnership.

52 Seats At Stake In General Voting

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—Malaya's multiracial population elects a majority of its legislators today for the first time in history.

At stake in the general election are 52 seats in the Federation of Malaya's bicameral Legislative Council. The high commissioner of the British protectorate, Sir Donald Marshall, will appoint the other 16 members.

The British government views the election as an important step toward self-government for the federation, composed of the nine Malay states and the former Straits Settlements of Penang and Malacca.

The party winning the most seats will form a cabinet to head most of the government departments but the high commissioner will retain a veto.

Red Government To Film Pictures

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Soviet government is going to film four pictures for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The studio says there won't be any Communist propaganda in them either.

These pictures are paintings by French artist Vincent Van Gogh, and they now hang in the Moscow Museum of Art. MGM explained yesterday that it asked the Russians to film the four works for use in MGM's version of Van Gogh's biography, "Lust for Life."

Proposed Increase Gets Opposition From Farm Bureau

Orlando—Full scale opposition by the Florida Farm Bureau to the proposal to increase the federal tax on gasoline from 2c to 6c a gallon and on diesel fuel from 2c to 6c a gallon was expressed by T. K. McClane, Executive Vice-President of the farm group, in a statement issued here today. Known as House Resolution 7072 this proposal also increases the tax on heavy duty truck tires from 8 to 15c per pound.

He declared the Florida Farm Bureau has traditionally urged the repeal of these levies on the grounds that they are "taxes on farming itself." The farm group official pointed out that these taxes were first levied as a "temporary" measure and in a period of declining farm prices that the levies should be repealed instead of increased.

It was pointed out that the federal tax differs from the state gasoline tax in that it applies to both highway and non-highway use, not only raising the cost of transporting agricultural products, but also the cost of producing them.

"This further invasion of a field of taxation by the federal government, which rightfully belongs to the states, is a dangerous threat to states' rights, a trend Florida farmers have long opposed," McClane said.

The increased taxes are being proposed to finance a National Highway Program with emphasis placed on the interstate system. The farm spokesman stated there is much about the federal highway program itself that farmers do not like. Not only will it increase their tax load but it places full emphasis on limited access urban and interstate highways and gives scant attention to the roads which farmers really use.

"If national defense is the primary consideration in the proposed highway program, then the cost should be borne by every citizen instead of just those who use gasoline, fuel and tires," McClane said.

"Farmers have traditionally supported more and better roads, both primary roads and secondary farm-to-market roads. We still do, but believe that the decisions involving roads should be principally with the states, along with the major portion of financing and accompanying responsibility.

"We must, of economic necessity, vigorously object to these increased taxes which discriminate against the farmer by not only increasing the cost of transporting his crops to market, but also increasing the cost of producing these crops. The cost of transporting agricultural products to the consumer has always been charged to the farmer who produced them, and there is no reason to surmise it will ever be otherwise," McClane concluded.

Iced Coffee, Greatest Refresher of All

WE doubt whether the First Aid VV Book gives any hints on the care and feeding of slightly wilted friends on hot summer afternoons, but we're going to remedy the deficiency, right now. Our suggestion is that you feed them iced coffee — lots of iced coffee — in tall, elegant glasses with little droplets of frosty condensation clinging to the outside of each glass!

Of course, you must be certain that the coffee is just the best you know how to make. It will always be that if you bear in mind the very simple rules of good iced coffee-making.

First, remember that good iced coffee starts with good hot coffee, and that takes two level measuring tablespoons, or one Standard Coffee Measure, of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of fresh cold water. You have a choice of several ways to convert it into iced coffee.

Quick Method with Coffee Ice Cubes
Process regular strength coffee in your freezer tray to make coffee ice cubes. (This may easily be done by brewing extra coffee at breakfast time for the purpose.) When the time comes that you need your iced coffee, make it regular strength and pour it immediately into tall glasses filled with coffee ice cubes. They will cool the coffee quickly without diluting it.

Quick Double Strength Method
Make coffee double strength by using half the amount of water to the usual amount of coffee. Pour over regular ice cubes in tall glasses. The extra strong coffee allows for the dilution caused by the melting of the ice.

Pre-Cooled Method
Make regular strength coffee. Cool in a non-metallic container for not more than three hours or, if the container is tightly covered, chill in the refrigerator. Pour over regular ice cubes when the iced coffee is needed.

Finally, don't forget that instant coffee, made according to the directions on the label of the jar, makes a truly delicious brew with a minimum of fuss and bother.

Serve your iced coffee with a splash of cream and sugar, or a simple sugar syrup, to taste.

'I Never Knew Such Good People' Exclaims Mother Of 9 Children

Reading Clinic Is Helpful To Youths

PAW PAW, Mich. — Children once called dumbbells come alive at Dorothy G. Anderson's Reading Center, a clinic for retarded readers.

The former public school teacher helps children to gain the interest and self-confidence they need in acquiring reading skill. She started her clinic last January as part of her project for a master's degree from Western Michigan College. She has won the degree and plans now to expand her reading classes.

Mrs. Anderson works with retarded readers—not with mentally-retarded children. Discussing the inability of some youngsters to make progress in reading, Mrs. Anderson said:

"There's nearly always a frustration angle that arises when, for one reason or another, a child fails to get the proper start."

Most striking, she said, is the personality change that occurs when children find they aren't dumbbells and can learn to read after all.

They may be inhibited and withdrawn at the start, but as their interest and confidence grow, they become responsive and relaxed. As Mrs. Anderson describes them:

"They come alive."

She makes use of such technical training devices as a reading speed, and a tachistoscope, which flashes a picture and corresponding word on a screen to increase eye span.

But her big contribution is rapport, or getting in close contact with her pupils.

"It's a matter of finding something the child is interested in, and which he can read with success," she explains. "I just got them started and then it's up to them."

Mrs. Anderson keeps the atmosphere informal and sometimes

Methodist Church Youth Planning Hayride, Picnic

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship will have a hayride and a picnic Thursday at Rock Springs. The group will leave the First Methodist Church at 6:30 p. m.

Pretty Suzan Ball 'Doing Beautifully' Says Hubby Long
HOLLYWOOD — Richard Long today told how the news of the recurrence of cancer was kept for months from his wife Suzan Ball.

Doctors told the actor about her condition almost a year ago, but the pair went ahead with night club engagements.

"It was what Suzan wanted to do," Long said, "so we did it." They teamed in a song and dance act and played Tucson, Palm Springs and Buffalo.

He managed to keep her unaware of the return of her cancer until three months ago.

"It's a strange disease," he explained. "It can be going on in your body without you knowing it. Unless it touches a nerve, there is no pain or discomfort."

"When Suzan did have some trouble, we managed to camouflage the symptoms. The doctors thought it would be better that way, in order to keep up her mental attitude."

"She was in and out of Cedars of Lebanon (hospital in Hollywood). Finally, we couldn't keep the news from her."

"Sure, she was disheartened. She had known there was a danger of recurrence, but she never suspected it would happen to her."

"She came through it beautifully. Of course, you never really know how you will take it until it happens to you, but I know I could never take it as beautifully as she has."

The 21-year-old beauty whose leg was amputated Jan. 12, 1954, because of cancer is now at the City of Hope Medical Center in nearby Duarte. Long makes the 30-mile drive to the hospital every night after his movie work.

"She is in wonderful spirits," he reported, "and feeling much better. She can't walk now because it is harder for her to walk after losing so much strength. But I take her out for rides in a wheel chair."

"She reads a great deal and we watch television together. Under my tutelage she has become a great baseball fan."

"The public reaction has been tremendous. She has received an enormous amount of messages and her room is like a greenhouse. It has been very heartwarming."

"And I can't say enough about the studio. Studios are supposed to be pretty cold operators, but U-I has been simply wonderful."

Suzan has remained on the payroll throughout her illness. The Universal-International Studio also has picked up the medical expenses, which have been reported at $70,000.

Long did not say where cancer has now attacked the actress. Asked if doctors held hope for her, he replied:

"I can't speak for the doctors. Does she still have hope?"

"Yes, indeed," Long said.

Group From VFW Attends District Meet In Apopka

The VFW Auxiliary of Seminole County Post 332 held its regular meeting July 19 at the American Legion hut.

The Auxiliary received a citation from the State of Florida and also from VFW national headquarters for its community service.

A new member, Martha Hardwick, was initiated into the group. Five members besides president, Betty Smith, attended the district meeting held in Apopka July 24.

The auxiliary is increasing and at the present time has 30 members and any woman desiring to join is asked to contact the president, Betty Smith, phone 1150-R.

Ike's Souvenirs Start Protests From Doll Assn.
NEW YORK, N.Y. — Those dolls that President Eisenhower bought in Geneva for his grandchildren have brought an "official protest" from the National Assn. of Doll Manufacturers.

The entire American doll industry is "shocked" by such "spot-lighting of foreign dolls," said Association President David Rosenfeld in a wire to the White House Monday.

Rosenfeld said he is sending the President some 100 per cent American dolls "as gifts and constant reminders."

Among the American dolls is one that drinks, wets, cries and blows her nose. Others are a walking doll with "mink coat, rooted hair impossible to pull off the head," a talking doll that recites "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," and a remote-controlled boy doll that walks, talks and has eyes that light up.

Between scenes, the other members of the trio told what they have been doing since the quartet broke up. Baby of the outfit is vibraphonist Lionel Hampton, 41, the only one who has stuck with a big band.

"I left Benny and I formed my own band in 1946," said Hampton. "We had been playing at Avalon when Benny got sick with his back ailment and flew to Rochester, Minn., to see the Mayo brothers. He broke up the band. I've been touring with my own band ever since."

Krupa, 46, scarcely looks 30. He's still the fast-cracking, gum-chewing character who can beat the skins more frantically than anyone alive. He left the Goodman band in 1939.

"I kept my big band until 1951," he remarked. "Then I broke it up to play in small combos. Nowadays there's more money in small combos than big bands."

Teddy Wilson, 42, soft-spoken and a sublime piano player, left the BG band to form his own in 1938.

"It lasted about a year," he recalled. "It had been badly set up by the management."

Since then, he has played in small eight club combos, rejoined Benny briefly, toured Europe and lately dabbled in radio and TV in New York.

ONE BY ONE SHRIMP
TAMPA, Fla. — A new process has been developed for freezing shrimp individually aboard the shrimp boats.

Shrimpers using the process say there is less damage than in bulk handling and it is more convenient to the housewife to take from her freezer the exact number of shrimp needed instead of having to thaw out a large block.

"That's one thing she has never lost,"

The pair met when both were under contract to U-I. They married in Santa Barbara April 11, 1954, and she walked down the aisle dramatically on her artificial leg.

When she returned to work in "Chief Crazy Horse" it appeared that her fight against cancer finally had been won.

Hollywood was saddened to learn two weeks ago that her fight was still going on.

Benny Goodman Quartet United In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, N.Y. — One of the most famous fourpieces has been reunited in Hollywood—the Benny Goodman quartet.

Solid five is emanating from Universal-International, where they are filming "The Benny Goodman Story." For swing fans, the big news is the rejoining of Lionel Hampton, Gene Krupa, Teddy Wilson plus the great Benny in the combo that used to send the rug-cutters back in the frantic '30s.

Benny's mellow baritone stick will be heard in the picture, but he's being portrayed by Steve Allen, the TV wisecracker. The remaining trio will play themselves.

Though some of the scenes take place 20 years ago, no makeup tricks are needed. All seem to have aged very little since the jitterbug days.

How do they do it? "It certainly can't be from good, clean living," laughed Krupa.

Maybe it's the music that keeps them young. At any rate, they sparkled in a scene in which Goodman, Krupa and Wilson discovered Hampton in a Los Angeles night spot. This actually happened in 1936. Watching the scene on the sidelines was Goodman himself, also remarkably young-looking for his 46 years.

Between scenes, the other members of the trio told what they have been doing since the quartet broke up. Baby of the outfit is vibraphonist Lionel Hampton, 41, the only one who has stuck with a big band.

"I left Benny and I formed my own band in 1946," said Hampton. "We had been playing at Avalon when Benny got sick with his back ailment and flew to Rochester, Minn., to see the Mayo brothers. He broke up the band. I've been touring with my own band ever since."

Byrne Offers Answer

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It was the young pitcher, Whitey Ford, Bob Grim and Bob Turley, who were to give New York an American League pennant this year. But now that the heat's on, it's Tommy Byrne, and "old Yankee," who's winning the big ones.

A week ago, the Yanks needed an opening victory in their showdown series with Chicago to hold the lead. It was the 35-year-old Byrne who answered the call and won.

Last night the situation was the same and Manager Casey Stengel again called on his southpaw surprise. Byrne elicited again, holding Chicago to four hits and wrapping up a 1-0 decision at Yogi Berra slammed his 17th home run.

That made New York's lead two games while Chicago stayed in a virtual second-place tie with Cleveland, beaten 5-1 at Boston.

Byrne, from the Reynolds-Raschli era, was in a bases-loaded, two-out jam in the third, giving a single and two walks. But he came through it and from then on didn't give Chicago another hit.

Dick Donovan was the loser at Ebbetsfield, fifth-place Detroit swept a two-night pair at Baltimore 4-0 and 7-3. Washington split two with Kansas City, winning the first 3-2 and losing 3-1.

In the National, ever-winning Brooklyn and Don Newcombe stayed at it, besting Cincinnati 4-3 for his 11th victory. Runners-up Milwaukee called Philadelphia 4-2. New York beat Chicago 4-2.

St. Louis 6-5 and Pittsburgh 5-1. Boston rapped Herb Score, the rookie who's failed five times against the Red Sox, 5-1. The Yankees and Don Mossi for 11 hits, including home runs by Ted Williams and Sam Rice.

Chicago's five-game streak at Cleveland's five-game streak at St. Louis. Sullivan gave five hits, one Larry Doby's 17th homer, for his 13th victory.

Baltimore earned a 6-6 tie with the Tigers when Al Kaline lost a two-out fly in the eighth in the ninth. Then Ray Boone doubled the tie breaker in the 12th with his fourth hit. Ned Garver took charge in the nightcap, winning his 10th while topping the AL with 13 complete games. Jim Wilson, burning wild, was the loser.

Newcombe was touched for seven hits, three by Ted Kluszewski, and was in a bit of a jam in the ninth when Carl Furillo scored a two-run fly ball to leave the Cubs on third and second. Newt's rookie Milt Smith on a fly ball.

Five runs in the fifth—with Johnny Logan and Hank Aaron bringing home two each with a double and single, respectively—carried Milwaukee in ahead of the Phils, who had won 14 of 15. Warren Spahn won his ninth against 20 strikeouts. Norm Womack was the victim.

Don Fendly dropped Al Dark's bid for two out in the 12th of Chicago and Dark followed it up with a run-scoring single that lost roller riel Jeffcoat and the Cubs. Don Liddle was the winner, retiring Don Maglie, who gave up the home run in the first.

St. Louis could have replaced Chicago in fifth place except for Bob Liddle's six-hit pitching and home run by Johnny O'Brien and Gene Freese. Luis Arroyo, the loser.

The front running clubs of the Florida State League got it in the neck from the tailenders last night.

Cellar dwelling West Palm Beach defeated leading Orlando 4-2 and seventh place St. Petersburg mastered runnerup Sanford 13-11. Fisticuffs enlivened the latter proceedings.

The fight began in the fourth when Chuck Francis, third Sanford pitcher, hit Gaspar del Monte a glancing blow in the ribs with a fast pitch. Del Monte started for Francis and slapped him.

That was the signal for both teams to rush in and join battle. Police restored order after four minutes and Francis and Del Monte were shoved off to the showers.

Del Monte said later he was sorry but that his "Spanish temper" got out of hand.

The Saints got seven runs during the wild inning, before and after the fight, to build up a lead Sanford could not overcome.

West Palm's victory was its second straight over Orlando. Nick Berberia, a recent addition to the Braves' lineup, held the Flyers to three hits in six innings then had to have help from Billy Boyette when the sacks filled in the seventh.

Daytona Beach whipped Lakeland 4-2 and Cocoa conquered Gainesville 5-3.

Cocoa's Arnold Rodriguez, the league home run king, hit No. 17 in the ninth before 637 fans at Gainesville. The game, however, already had been decided by three runs in the fifth. Lefty Jack Herlihy posted his 12th victory against 10 strikeouts on a nine hitter.

Gene Bennett's two-run triple in the fourth assured victory for Daytona Beach which was behind by one run at that point. Vern Watercutter singled in an insurance run in the ninth.

Willie Pastrano Holds High Hopes For Championship

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Pastrano, a 19-year-old from New Orleans with hopes of some day taking over the light heavyweight championship, meets Chuck Spelzer of Detroit in Chicago Stadium tonight.

The 10-round bout will be televised nationally. (ABC 8 p.m. EST).

The nimble and shifty Pastrano's last bout was with Joey Maxim, the Cleveland spoiler. Willie outsped and outpointed Maxim, who had previously beaten both Floyd Patterson and Paul Andrews, a pair of promising light heavies.

Pastrano's trainer, Angelo Dundee, is convinced Willie is ready to move to the top.

First Tourney Games Played In Softball

By H. P. GORDIN

In the first game of tournament play last night, W. Atlee-Burpee Co. defeated the Hunt-McRoberts team by a score of 5 to 2. Playing "heads-up" ball, each team made only one error.

Burpee pitcher Carl Witt allowed four hits, while C. O. Jones of Hunt allowed five.

Robson Sporting Goods dominated the second game by downing Wilson-Maier 7 to 5. "Able" Abe Fennel of Robson allowed five hits, while his team mates picked up eight hits from Wilson-Maier pitchers Red Hires and Larry Churnat.

Eddie Duke caused Wilson-Maier the most trouble by blasting a triple and bringing in the two winning runs. Tomorrow night's games will pit the winners of last night's games against each other and the losers against the losers.

This is a double-elimination tournament, so every team still has a chance.

Faltering Minors Looms As Subject Of Called Session

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—A major realignment of faltering minor leagues loomed today as minor league president George Trautman called for meetings in Texas and in the Southeast.

Trautman, here for conferences with President Howard Green of the Big State League and with officials of the Corpus Christi club in that league, said he would meet with representatives of the Class B Big State and West Texas-New Mexico and Class C Longhorn Leagues at Abilene tomorrow.

These circuits may figure in a Class A League that might have 10 members.

Next month Trautman will hold a meeting involving the Class B Carolina and Class C Tri-state Leagues and he said the Class A Sally and Class B Piedmont Leagues also may be included.

Miami University of Oxford, Ohio, and Northwestern will meet in football for the first time this season with a game in Hawaii on Sept. 24.

Palace Peacock Sulks After Ouster

GENEVA (AP)—Pierrot the palace peacock still sulks in a U.N. tree today after being barred from every session of the Big Four summit conference.

"It's the first conference he ever missed," said U.N. policeman Andre Rueff, "and his feelings are hurt."

Pierrot is no ordinary peacock, as delegates to many Geneva conferences know.

He was born on the spacious grounds of the Palace of Nations. That was in the days of the old League of Nations. Ever since then he has been living on the grounds, walking its gravel paths and perching over sculptured doorways.

"Conferences always attract him," the policeman explained. "It must be the coming and going of cars and people. He struts up and hangs around the conference doors."

Delegates to last year's conference on Indochina and Korea remember Pierrot well. Sometimes too well, for his piercing screams often penetrated the august rooms where the East and West conferred.

When the Big Four decided this spring to come to Geneva in an effort to ease world tension, palace officials decided Pierrot would not contribute to the much-sought relaxation.

"He has a terrible scream," Rueff said. "There's something idiotic about it. We decided to keep him off the conference premises."

Last Monday, when the Big Four began meeting, Pierrot strolled up to see what was going on. The policeman promptly picked him up and took him away.

"Did you lock him up?"

"No," Rueff said, "but we deposited him several hundred yards from the conference."

Pierrot returned 10 times. After being tossed out the 10th time, he caught on that he was not wanted. For the last three days he has sulked.

"I expect we'll relent for the atomic conference and let him back," Rueff said. "Peacocks are great grievers. Pierrot could grieve himself to death."

Milk Commission Official Resigns

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—B. S. Waring of Madison has offered his resignation as a member of the Florida Milk Commission, the second man to do so in the past few days.

Waring, a producer member of the agency which fixes milk prices, said heavy demands on his time made it necessary for him to give up the state post.

No action will be taken on the resignation until Gov. Collins returns from a goodwill trip he is making this week to Northern cities.

Board Chairman C. Raymond Lee of Clearwater offered his resignation last week, saying he was not in accord with commission purposes.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

A FEW minutes later she heard the heavy clon of a horse coming up the trail. She knew the tread of Tim Larrabee's old roan. Raising herself on one elbow, she let her eyes run over the chaos of the cabin. It looked as though a violent struggle had been raging there. As the power of thought came back to her, her lips parted in the beginnings of a smile. Maybe she wouldn't have to disappoint Wayne after all. She could still do anything she pleased with Tim. Maybe she could still work out Wayne's scheme the way he wanted it—and pay Kerry florian for throwing her off like she was dirt. She caught the neck of her dress between her hands. A few feverish jerks, and the shoddy cloth was ripped apart halfway to the waist. She snatched the few remaining pins from her hair and tossed it into confusion. She rubbed unmercifully at her eyes with a swift glance at her cracked mirror assured her she looked as though she'd been crying. The picture, she told herself, was good enough to fool Tim. Then, as she heard the clump of his boots outside the door, she crouched forward, watching the rags of her dress between her hands, and let her whole body begin to shake with great sobs.

Kerry pulled up before the Shash T ranch-house in a father, and ran up the steps almost into Christie's arms. Her kiss was long and satisfactory, and made him feel clean again. She leaned back happily in the circle of his arms, and demanded, "What made you so late? I thought you weren't coming," and then, "Kerry what happened to your face?"

"Just had a little accident," he muttered. "Ran against a mesquite limb."

"Billy," she chuckled. "After all these years, haven't you learned to duck?"

He'd had almost without thinking, and her ready acceptance made him squirm inwardly. He didn't want to tell her about the He'd told her the truth—later. But he didn't want to talk about Lita yet.

They sat there on the porch, not talking much, not needing to. Her hand was linked through his; he could watch her face, serene in the slanting late afternoon light. Its strong lines softened by tenderness as she looked at him. The ugly acne he'd been through seemed like a bad dream.

It was like that when they saw the horseman ride up. Christie asked idly, "Who could that be?"

It was none of 'em men. It doesn't even look like a cow-pony," And then, as the rider came nearer, "Why, it's Tim Larrabee. What do you suppose he wants here?"

Larrabee reined the big, raw-boned roan horse up in front of the house with vicious saving of the reins, and thudded to the ground. "Lloriani!" he yelled hoarsely. "Come down here!"

His eyes didn't see the girl on the porch. They were mad eyes, such as Kerry remembered seeing once in a story that another steer had fatally gored.

The only feeling Kerry was conscious of was pity. He came down the steps and spoke gently. "What do you want with me, Tim? I know what you think about my father, but you can't think I had anything to do with it. I wasn't even here."

"I know who killed Dad," Tim's words came in hard, sobbing gasps, as if he'd been running. "an' he's goin' to burn in hell for it—before I'm through with him. But I'm settin' with you right now. I told you once before to stay away from Lita."

"Lita? But, Tim, I—" Kerry heard Christie's sharp intake of breath behind him, and it shook him more than the nester's fury. Why had he been such a fool as to tell her the truth right away? He didn't dare look at her as he stumbled on. "Listen, Tim, I only want to see her today to—"

"You only got about a minute to live, Riordan," Tim cut him off. "Don't waste it tellin' lies. I been waitin'."

"Well, whatever she told you—" Kerry's voice dropped away with the hopelessness of trying to convince the crazed man before him. No telling what Lita might have said in the temper he'd left her in. But Tim's next words still came like a blow to the face.

"Try to make out she lied to me, would you? But I saw her, I tell you—her dress tore half off her—"

"You—" Tim raged. "It's the last time you put your dirty hands on a decent woman. You're carryin' a gun. Reach for it!"

All the broken spur outfit had been going headed since Joe Larrabee's death. Kerry's hand went instinctively to his belt, even as he made one last attempt. "Tim, you're crazy."

The nester's answer made no sense to him. "You're not gettin' away with this time, I been waitin', I know how to use it now."

Tim's gun came clear of its holster. Kerry knew death was looking at him, along that grey steel barrel. His hand moved without any conscious order from his brain.

Rob and Sandy had done their training thoroughly. Two guns spat flame. He was conscious of the searing pain along his side at the same moment that he saw Tim pitch forward.

His gun-hand dropped to his side like a dead thing. He stared down at the big body sprawled in the dirt, face down, arms spread in a last futile clutch at air. A spasm of sickness gripped his throat. He'd seen dead men before, but they hadn't been his doing.

Blindly he turned toward the steps. "Christie—let me—let me tell you now—"

Christie was looking at him, her face white and cold and hostile. She was only a few feet away from him, but he felt as though a vast distance was stretching between them. He made a desperate effort to cross it. "Christie, listen—let me tell you—"

"Don't bother lying, Kerry." Her words, icy and tired, seemed like an echo of the dead man's. "You lied to me once today. You expect me to believe you now?"

He stumbled up the steps toward her. There was a sound from upstairs, a feeble cry that ended in a choking moan. His ears registered it without giving it any meaning. He reached out his hand to catch her arm. She pushed him off. "Get out of my way. Dad needs me."

She was gone. Kerry stood a moment watching the closed door in numb, hopeless misery. Then his eyes fell again on Tim's body. It couldn't be left lying there.

He got into the saddle; the effort sent waves of pain through him, but he gritted his teeth and made it, and headed for town. On the way he passed the mesquite of the Shash T grove. Tim Larrabee's dead up at the house," he told them. "Take care of him, and rode on, leaving them with questions half-asked on their lips."

An hour later a passing rider found Kerry, slumped unconscious in his saddle, and took him to Broken Spur.

Kerry woke up to dull, throbbing pain and a fevered, leaden sensation all through his body, and to an aching depression he couldn't remember the reason for at first. Then it came back to him. He'd killed a man, and Christie despised him. She thought he was a faithless liar, and he'd never get her to believe different—not with a dead man's last words between them. It would have been better, he reflected miserably, if Tim's bullet had finished him. He'd made a mess of everything, and probably always would. He was that kind of fool.

Different Plates Go For Three Years Unnoticed By Men

WEST PATERSON, N.J. (AP)—Would you notice if you had different numbered front and rear license plates for three years?

Patrolman Carl Von Stetten, borough marshal, didn't.

He discovered recently that his front plate was his normal registration, YF261V, but the rear plate was YF27V.

The Motor Vehicle Department theorized there had been an error in wrapping the five-year plates in 1952.

Von Stetten tracked down the man who had registration YF27W—George Mackey of Bonton Turnpike, Lincoln Park—who hadn't noticed his odd set either.

They exchanged plates and now have their sane numbers.

2 Gunmen Invade Workshop In Bronx

NEW YORK (AP)—Two gunmen invaded a Bronx workshop for the Lottie Friedlander, 40. All were partially disabled Wednesday in a vain bid for a $5,000 payroll. They fled empty-handed after a blazing gun battle with a guard.

One of the gunmen, shot in the left shoulder, was nabbed minutes later by an off-duty policeman.

Also wounded in the shooting were the guard, Gerald Elliot, 40, the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies.

Some 150 sewing workers, almost all suffering from tuberculosis or heart ailments, hit the floor as gunfire echoed in the halls of Altro Workshops, Inc., run by the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies.

They exchanged plates and now have their sane numbers.

Red Negotiator Named By China

TOKYO (AP)—Wang Ping-nan, Red China's choice as negotiator in the Geneva talks with the United States, holds high rank in Chinese Communist councils and is a close associate of Chou En-lai, premier and foreign minister.

Peiping radio announced Wang's selection yesterday soon after President Eisenhower told a press conference the Geneva session starting Monday could lead even-

Smathers Helpful In Getting Bill Slated For Action

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special)—Senator George Smathers (D-Fla.) was today instrumental in getting the "trip lease bill" which is so beneficial to all agricultural interests, favorably reported out of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. The bill will now be placed on the calendar for action by the Senate.

In answer to inquiries, Sen. Smathers stated the action by the committee was a great step forward since this problem has been under consideration by the congress since 1953.

Smathers also stated that he will exert every possible effort to bring this legislation up for floor consideration and to work towards its early passage.

The legislation as reported out of the committee would allow the agricultural producers to continue to trip lease on a return trip home after having carried agricultural products, livestock or fish to market centers. The practice of trip leasing is extremely beneficial to the citrus industry and all agricultural interests in Florida for it permits quick and flexible transportation of perishable crops to distribution centers resulting in a considerable saving to not only the farmer but consumer as well.

Ax-Slaying Cases Quietly Reopened By Senate Group

NEW YORK (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee "has quietly reopened" the case of the late ax slayer of three American army officers in Peenemunde, Germany, the New York Daily News said today.

Former Army Capt. James H. Beach of Lima, Ohio, was charged with the crime last year in Washington, D.C.; Capt. Adrian L. Weaver, New Rochelle, N.Y.; and Lt. Stanley M. Rosewater, Omaha, Neb.

They were discharged in their beds at a luxurious villa in Peenemunde and their rooms were not searched until last May 10, however, a week after West Germany regained its sovereignty, the German state prosecutor started a new investigation.

Natural Gas Bill Outcome Uncertain

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to exempt natural gas producers from direct federal regulation came to the House floor today. Neither friends nor foes made any confident predictions.

If it should be passed, it is unlikely that Senate leaders, driving for early adjournment, would call it up for what promises to be a lengthy debate there. It still could be acted upon next year.

The bill would remove the present authority of the Federal Power Commission to fix producers' prices for gas sold to distributors through interstate pipelines.

Bakers claim it would not increase prices to consumers.

ACTRESS SAVED
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dolores Costello, a Hollywood actress, was rescued from a burning house today by a fireman who saw her in the flames and threw her out.

Miss Costello, 32, was being taken to the hospital, which she had been visiting, when the fire broke out.

A doctor who happened to be on duty at the hospital, said she was not seriously hurt and would not be hospitalized.

THE CASE WITH WHICH a typical American farmer washes her face by using an automatic washer is viewed with mild amazement by one of the Soviet farmers now touring the West. To show the Russians how simple it is, farmer Tom Cooper has taken off his shirt in his Jefferson, Ia. home and his wife has it in the machine.

Evidence Of Arson Sought In Blazes At Saratoga Track

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Chief of Police Robert Fianagan hurried here today from a conference in Buffalo to take charge of an investigation of two fires that destroyed three barns and damaged another at the historic Saratoga race track. Evidence of arson was sought.

No horses were harmed in either fire. The first, Tuesday night, destroyed a barn at a training track across the street from the main track. The second yesterday burned down two barns and damaged another near the main track.

Mayor Addison Mackery said yesterday's fire, "we have a firebug in our midst." Fire Chief George Kirkpatrick agreed.

Saratoga opens its 80th season Monday. Hundreds of thoroughbred horses are being shipped here. Much of the stable space hit by yesterday's fire was unoccupied. A caterer chopped out the back of one barn so that grooms could lead out 21 horses, well known.

Mickcliff Building Sold To J. H. Lee

A singing auctioneer sold the Mickcliff Apartments, 606 South Park Ave., in Sanford yesterday for $18,000 as a crowd of over 100 spectators and prospective buyers gathered for the sale.

The apartment building, property of Dr. J. C. Boyce, was purchased by J. H. Lee of Sanford.

Bidding started at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued until 6 o'clock. $10,000 was the first bid offered with several prospective buyers vying for the main - thoroughfare apartment building.

Manborough National Realty Company handled the transaction.

WEATHER NOT "HOT"
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Harry F. Wahlen, the government weather man here, has made many references in his forecasts to the "warm" weather this summer but not once has he mentioned that ugly word "hot."

A reporter, persisting in 90-degree heat, asked why not.

"There is no point in saying it is continued hot and humid, at least not when it stays under 100 degrees," Wahlen explained.

"They'll be hotter than ever if we do that."

45 Girls Swept To Sea

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—A giant wave swept a junior high school swimming class to sea today and 34 teen-age girls died amid confusion and delay in rescue work, police said.

Forty-five girls taking their final swimming ability test were swept away by the great breaker. Twelve teachers, swimmers and other helpers recovered all 45 within an hour.

The last one of delay in giving rescue work, however, only one girl was rescued.

The tragedy, Japan's worst swimming beach disaster, occurred on the sea of the about 10 miles northwest of Nagoya on Monday.

"I saw an ambulance go by and learned of the accident from the hospital. The beach was isolated. There was too much delay in administering first aid."

Dr. Susumu Nagai said, "We were called too late. Many picked up were laid on the beach and remained there at least 15 minutes before artificial respiration was begun."

The girls, all Japanese students from the Yui community, had started a working swimming course last Thursday.

They had gone about 25 feet out into the sea today for their final ability test.

A watchman was broke over them. The powerful abo event them covered in deep water. Shouts of "Save them" came from the shore.

Mysterious Circumstances Surround DeLand Slaying

Judge Tells Need For Juvenile Home In Seminole County

Speaking before the Jaycees noon luncheon today was Seminole County Judge Ernest Housholder, also juvenile judge for the county. After being introduced by program chairman Tommy Stringer he gave the background of the beginning of juvenile courts in 1899 in Colorado and brought the history up to the current time.

The speaker brought out that Seminole County does not have a detention home which creates a hardship since under the present conditions, any child which must be held overnight is placed in the County Jail.

Judge Housholder further explained that the juvenile court is not a penal court but a court of correction. He went on to say that he hopes to get every civic club and organization that will listen to him to start a juvenile welfare committee made up of local groups this fall. The problems in the county are not juvenile delinquents, but prevention of same, the speaker continued.

He went on to say that prevention should start in the home, school, and always the church. He appealed to the Jaycees to set a better example for a way of living that the teenagers could follow. He stated that only five percent of juvenile aged youths are ever admitted to court.

The Judge explained the reason for the request for the $8000 appropriation for the juvenile court which would be a full time judge, commissioners and is still under consideration.

Larry Jones, juvenile counselor for this county, was also a guest today. Among other visitors were Larry Condit, president of the Orlando Jaycees who offered an outline of the summer conference to be held in Orlando Aug. 5, 6, 7. One of the main speakers will be Sumner Priddy, international vice president, of West Virginia.

Man Pays Off Debt; Clears Conscience

BRIGHTON CITY, Ohio (AP)—A man walked into the police station here yesterday and asked officer R. C. Hampton: "How much do I owe you for two blankets I walked away with three years ago?"

The man explained to the surprised officer that one cold night three years ago, "when I was down on my luck," police let him stay in a cell overnight.

In the morning, he said, he decided, "Manketa would come in handy so he pushed them through the bars and picked them up after checking out."

"My conscience has bothered me ever since," said the man, who gave no name and address. "I vowed the first time I got to Brighton City again I'd drop in and pay for them."

Police decided $8 would be a fair price. The man paid and left.

Jap Red Party Told To Let Go Underground

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's Communist party has been instructed to abandon all underground activities and become totally legal under Japanese law, Kyodo news service said today.

The Japanese news agency said the orders were given to the party's National Council, meeting here, by Shochi Kasuga, chairman of the party's central directorate.

The Communists have not allowed Japanese or foreign newsmen into the convention, attended by some 100 top party functionaries in Japan.

Kyodo said Kasuga's statement to the convention had been obtained by Japanese law enforcement authorities but did not say how.

In the past the party has operated both above and underground. As a political party it is not outlawed in Japan, has actively campaigned in past elections and now has three members in the Diet (Parliament).

Sparkman Suggests Exchange Of Visits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators Aiken (R-Vt.) and Sparkman (D-Ala.) suggested today that top Soviet leaders be invited to the United States and that Vice President Nixon be sent on a reciprocal visit to Russia.

The two members of the Senate Foreign Relations committee made these proposals after President Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday that exchange visits "throughout the whole echelon of government" had been discussed informally at the Geneva Big Four conference. Eisenhower added that no definite invitations were issued.

Church Men's Club Will Meet Tonight

The Church of the Redeemer will meet tonight at 7:30 at the home of J. C. Jorjensen, 618 Park Ave. This is the regular meeting of the group held monthly on the last Thursday.

Allamonte Springs Office Is Entered; Few Things Missing

Crowbars were used last night to tear down two doors at the Allamonte Springs express office. The office was entered about 9 o'clock. Sheriff Luther Hobbs' office.

Deputy Sheriff Morgan McClelland said that the express office was entered about 9 o'clock last night.

Apparently the intruders were scared away when a Negro attempted to deliver some form to the express office. The unidentified Negro said that he saw someone running from the place when he approached.

Deputies found an electric adding machine and two Underwood typewriters behind an oak tree about 150 feet from the building. The only item missing from the ransacked building was an electric radio and clock.

Deputy Sheriff McClelland, O. G. Owens, and Hubbard Eubanks investigated the attempted burglary. They say that an early arrest is expected.

Ike Will Release Personal Decision About Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "personal" decision President Eisenhower says he will make on Harold E. Talbott's future as secretary of the Air Force apparently will have to be made without any advice from the Senate.

There was no indication that an early report would be made by the Senate Investigations subcommittee which inquired into Talbott's about-to-be-severed outside business connection.

Talbott dramatically told the subcommittee yesterday he is giving up, effective next Sunday, the partnership in the New York firm of Paul B. Mulligan and Co., which has paid him $12,000 in the 2 1/2 years since he took his Pentagon job.

Red East Germany Endorses Program Offered By Soviets

BERLIN (AP)—Communist-controlled East Germany, supporting Soviet policies as usual, has endorsed Russia's plan for German unification as part of an all-European security system.

The agreement was announced last night in a joint communique after the four-day visit to East Berlin by Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev, on their way home from the Geneva Big Four meeting.

Bulgaria Admits Firing On Airliner

LONDON (AP)—Bulgaria admitted today its anti-aircraft guns shot down an Israeli airliner, killing all 36 persons aboard. It said the plane was off course for 100 miles over Communist territory.

Bulgaria expressed regret for the tragedy and appointed a government commission to inquire into the disaster in which 12 Americans perished.

Breaking a 24-hour silence, the Bulgarian Telegraph Agency, in a broadcast communique, said the El Al Constellation left its course over Yugoslavia yesterday entered Bulgarian air space "without warning" over Tim.

The plane, by Bulgarian account, moved within a short distance of Sofia on its errant course, then flew south before being shot down in flames near Petrich, just a few miles from the Greek border.

The Bulgarians said their anti-aircraft defense was "unable to identify the plane, and after a few warnings, fired."

Residents Seeking Relief From Rains

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Residents of low-lying areas in northern Albuquerque apprehensively watched rain clouds today, hoping their sudden homes could dry out.

Torrents pouring down arroyos yesterday from a cloudburst east of here made a lake of many blocks in low areas of the city's north end.

Water was hip deep in places. Then, late at night, water from two more heavy showers high on the 10,000-foot range began flooding another area about one mile north.

Touring Americans Surrounded By Food

ODESSA, Ukrainian Soviet Republic (AP)—Soviet hospitality will get the blame if the wives of the touring American farm delegation don't like the poundage their spouses are acquiring.

The 19 Americans have experienced an all-out effort in the food and drink department ever since they arrived in the Soviet Union. Sometimes one eating session almost piles up on top of another, and waitresses are showing the effect.
