Amendment Passed Providing Recall Of Law Officers

Constitution Change Would Give All Prosecuting Duties To State Attorneys

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 13.—The Florida Senate today passed 32-1 the bill to prohibit political contributions by officers, clerks or stenographers of any law enforcement agency. The measure apparently gave out of circulation the bill which would have given the state attorney general the right to remove any law enforcement officer who had been convicted of a crime and to appoint a successor.

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Proposed constitutional amendments providing for the recall of law enforcement officers and placing all prosecuting duties under state attorneys were approved by a Senate committee today.

The proposals, which if passed by the Legislature must be ratified by the voters in the 1952 general election, were recommended by the Senate's Crime Study Committee.

The committee unanimously rejected an amendment to have the Supreme Court act on suspension by the Governor. The Senate now has jurisdiction, and either may confirm or reject the suspensions.

Attorney General Richard Ervin recommended the amendment.

Under the amendment putting prosecuting duties under the state attorney would be abolished after June 30, 1953. However, those in office at the time would be permitted to serve out their terms.

Senator Raymond of St. Petersburg, one of the sponsors, said the proposal would "take this back biting" in counties that have criminal courts of record and county solicitors. The proposal was unanimously approved.

The state attorney, who would be prohibited from practicing law in private law, would be given per capita county in his district and special investigators. Assistants are now appointed by the Governor.

A bill to raise the minimum contract county commissions could let without competitive bidding was also offered only in the Senate. It hikes the minimum in counties having less than 25,000 population from $500 to $500, and in counties over 25,000 population, to $1,000.

Celery City Grill Makes Additions

The Celery City Grill at 215 Magnolia Avenue has recently been renovated and enlarged to accommodate approximately 40 more persons. It was announced today by E. E. Walker and son, Leon, who with their wives operate the restaurant.

New equipment includes 28 steel chairs and seven more tables. Interior walls have been painted in contrasting shades of light and dark green and red. Installed in the ceiling are four of the new overhead tile has been laid. Increased patronage made it necessary to add the extra space, said Mr. Leon Walker. Future connection will include a new serving window and during the summer an air conditioning system will be installed.

FRIDAY CHANTS

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 13.—(AP)—A group of about 200 persons, who are singing from the new regulations on the radio, were gathered in the downtown area of Jacksonville today for a "Friday Chants" event.

Haley Will Head Group In Probe Of State Corruption

Committee Will Have Power To Subpoena Records, Witnesses

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Rep. James A. Haley of Sarasota, former President of the Ringling Circus, will head a special legislative committee to investigate charges of corruption in Florida's government.

House Speaker B. Elliott named Reps. Dekle of Taylor county, McFarlin of Jackson, Bollinger of Palm Beach and Morgan of Duval to serve with Haley on the committee authorized by the House yesterday.

The committee has broad powers to look into the "conduct, affiliations, associations and actions of any or all elective or appointive public officials or employees" of the State.

It can subpoena witnesses and their records, put them under oath by a law that sets a maximum jail sentence of 20 years for false testimony.

The investigation was ordered after demands for impeachment of Governor Warren followed his resignation of Sheriff Jimmy Sullivan to office in Duval county.

The investigation, resolution took notice of the calls for impeachment, but mentioned no names in providing for the inquiry. The committee said "that's a rather short time to do a real job," but the committee "will actively itself immediately and get to work to accomplish the purposes of the House."

Haley, who served part of a jail term in Connecticut for the disastrous Hartford Ringling fire that five years later confessed setting, said there would be no whitewash by the committee.

He said no individuals would be picked out as targets for the committee's investigation, but if the probe touches anyone in Tallahassee it won't slow down.

"If individuals have knowledge of misconduct they should cooperate," he said.

La Nacion Comes To La Prensa's Defense

Business Aires, Apr. 13.—(AP)—La Nacion, last major independent newspaper left in Argentina following government expropriation of the paper, lashed out editorially today at the government of President Juan D. Peron.

Speaking in defense of the magazine, La Nacion said the congressional vote to expropriate Peron's newspaper was "a blow to the press which had no legal basis but was intended to prevent the appearance of the newspaper as an organ of independent opinion."

La Nacion, which promised 78 years ago when La Prensa was shuttered to carry on as standard bearer of independent thought in Argentina, published a stinging editorial against the Peron administration's drastic move.

Improved Service For Press And Radio Declared To Be A. P. Aim

NEW YORK, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Do you find your newspapers more interesting these days? Are the news reports you get over the radio more informative than formerly?

Frank J. Starzel, general manager of the Associated Press, noted in his annual report today that there has been behind-the-scenes activity by newspaper and radio groups to improve service to the reading and listening public.

The public hasn't been generally aware of the campaign, but it includes improved writing techniques and a broad program of stories which give better background and explanation to spot news developments. It includes also more cultural and religious news.

Starzel said the content of the Associated Press news report is being studied in an effort "to find fields in which the report does not come up to the volume and quality justified by reader interest."

The AP, worldwide news cooperative, serves 2,788 newspapers and radio stations in the United States and nearly 1,000 in 73 other countries.

Starzel's report was mailed to Associated Press members in advance of the association's annual

Marshall Opposes Move Decreasing Draft Limit To 24 Corps Manpower

Leathernecks Called "Best In World" By Senator Douglas

WASHINGTON, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Marshall said today he "strongly recommends against" a proposal to double the authorized strength of the Marine Corps.

He also informed the Senate Armed Services Committee that the Joint Chiefs of Staff—which includes top Army, Air Force and Navy officers—unanimously opposed giving the Marines commandant a place on the JCS.

A Senate Armed Services subcommittee opened public hearings sponsored by Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) today.

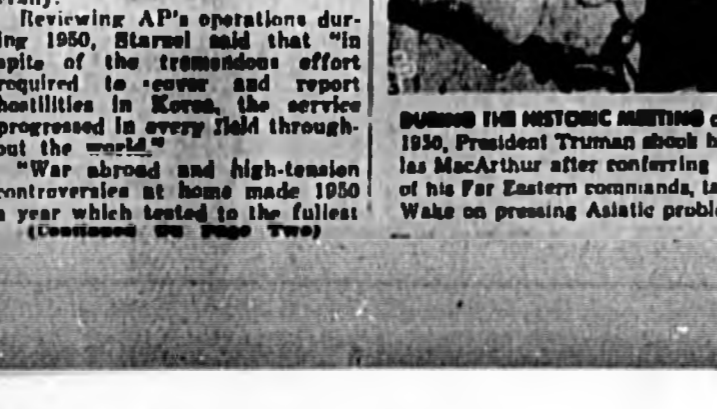

Roads And Bridges Committee Named

H. James Gut, president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, today announced the formation of a Roads and Bridges Committee, which is designed to work closely with the County Commission in estimating the road and bridge needs of the county.

R. F. Wheeler, Jr., Oviedo, will serve as chairman of the new committee, which includes J. Y. Harris, Oviedo; R. F. Quipper and Henry Wright, Sanford; C. F. Hixson, Lake Mary; Robert E. Bradford, Altamonte Springs; and Robert Elgin, Longwood.

This is the fourth new committee created by the Chamber of Commerce this year. Manager Ed Whitney said. These included the Naval Affairs Committee, Karl Housholder, chairman; Legislative Committee, G. W. Spencer, chairman; and the Beautification Committee headed by Edmond Stowe.

They Were Buddies Then

During the historic meeting on Wake Island in the Pacific on Oct. 19, 1950, President Truman shook hands with Supreme Commander Douglas MacArthur after conferring a decoration. MacArthur Invited To Testify Before Armed Services Group; Chinese Air Attacks Expected

250 Jets Tangle In Biggest Air Battle Of Korean Conflict; Reds Lose 8 Planes

TOKYO, Saturday, Apr. 14.—(AP)—Red Chinese withdrawals in North Korea Friday coincide with a warning that they might be preparing the way for heavy air strikes at the advancing Allied ground forces.

In the wake of history's greatest jet air battle, Lt. General George E. Stratemeyer, commander of the U. S. Far East Air Forces, and the growing Communist air arm might soon start ground attacks.

In nine air-to-air encounters of war, such Red raids have been limited to minor nuisance bombings by one or two planes.

Allied airmen are forbidden to strike at the Manchurian bases of the Red Air Force, General Stratemeyer noted in an interview. "Our only recourse is to blow the attack once it is launched," he said.

Stratemeyer's warning came in the wake of the jet battle. In that fight 80 Russian-type MIG-15 jets attacked 115 U. S. jets and 42 American B-29 Superfortresses.

The Allied warplanes destroyed eight of the speedy Red planes, probably destroyed seven, and damaged 18 others.

Accounts of American loss differed. The Far East Air Force said no planes were lost but two B-29s were damaged and had to land in Korea.

Brumley Replaces Haynes As School Board Member

John L. Brumley was installed as a member of the County School Board yesterday, school supervisors and principals of all schools were reappointed, and a program of instruction in swimming for pupils was approved, Supt. J. W. Lawton announced this morning.

Mr. Brumley, who was appointed a member of the School Board by Governor Warren following the latter's acceptance of the resignation of Walter M. Haynes, presented his commission to serve until January 1955.

He was recognized, sworn in and installed as a member of the board to represent District No. 1. His father was the late L. A. Brumley, who for many years served as chairman of the County Commission.

The board approved the plan submitted by Supt. Lawton to offer swimming instruction to school pupils. In compliance with the safety education program of the county schools, Mrs. P. M. Gingles was named as instructor of the course. The City Commission has offered the board of municipal pool without charge, said Mr. Lawton.

Only those pupils who are able to swim, and whose parents will give written permission, retaining the board from liability in case of accident, will be admitted to the class, he added.

Mrs. Gingles is an experienced instructor of swimming, and it is not likely that any difficulty will be encountered, Mr. Lawton declared.

The instructor of an initial class of 15 Grammar School pupils will start Tuesday morning at 9:30 a. m. Pupils from other schools will be admitted in rotation in a program agreed upon by Mrs. Gingles and principals.

The board will furnish bus transportation in the pool and back to school. There will be four or five classes a day.

In accordance with the recommendation of the trustees, the following supervisors were reappointed: Miss Ruth Hand, general supervisor; Mrs. Vaguerde Gahm, corrective speech; Mrs. Orlan Wilson, school lunch program; Mrs. Loran Price, music; Mrs. Mildred Babcock, art; and Fred C. Murray, physical education.

She was jumping quickly to the side of the road on the edge of a ditch was able to avoid being hit, she said. A small dog which had run out to bark at her was hit by the car. The driver did not stop.

Previously it has been announced that the driver was arrested.

General Bradley May Be Asked To Stay On As Head Of Joint Chiefs

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Military Affairs Reporter

WASHINGTON, Apr. 13.—(AP)—General Omar Bradley may be asked to stay on for another term as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, it was learned today.

The five-star general, now 58 years old, had planned to take off his uniform and do some fishing and hunting after next Aug. 16. That's the date his two-year tour of duty in the JCS post ends.

But President Truman is said to want the "GI General" to remain on.

Bradley would have been eligible to retire five years ago under the 30-year retirement provision of the Army. However, he passed on retirement to serve first as Chief of Staff of the Army, then as chairman of the Joint Chiefs.

In the latter post, he has had to handle problems equal to any he encountered either as General Dwight D. Eisenhower's ground deputy in the European war or as Army staff chief.

To the purely military troubles arising from the Korean war and the buildup of American forces in Western Europe was added the stormy political controversy

Returning General Is Invited To Comment On United States Policy In Far East

WASHINGTON, Apr. 13.—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur today was invited to appear before the Senate Armed Services Committee to give his views on American policies in the Far East.

The committee—made up of seven Democrats and six Republicans—voted unanimously to extend the invitation. It also decided to undertake a general review of U. S. Far Eastern policies.

Republican congressional leaders continued nevertheless to press for an invitation for MacArthur to address a joint Senate-House session.

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the House GOP floor leader, filed a new conference that unless MacArthur is invited to address Congress next Wednesday or Thursday the General will make a public speech in New York City.

If Congress wants to hear him first, Martin said, it will have to be quick about it.

"He can't wait," he said of MacArthur. "He's got other plans to make."

MacArthur expects to leave Tokyo Monday to fly to the United States. He has indicated through an aide that he would be happy to address Congress or to appear before Congressional committees to tell his side of the clash of opinions which led President Truman to fire him summarily from his Far Eastern command last Wednesday.

Republicans introduced resolutions on Wednesday for the Senate and House to invite MacArthur to address a joint session of the two bodies.

Naval Commander Declares Formosa Will Be Defended

By SPENCER MOORE
TAINPEI, Formosa, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Vice Admiral Harold M. Martin today reaffirmed U. S. determination to protect Formosa from Communist aggression.

And 140 American carrier planes, coming low over this Chinese Nationalist island, added emphasis to his words. The U. S. Seventh Fleet commander said a news conference.

"I hope the Chinese Communists interpret our movements exactly as we mean them: that the Seventh Fleet can exercise the influence of its power anywhere where we damn well please."

"The Seventh Fleet cannot guarantee there will not be an attack on Formosa, as may be in Korea."

"But we can guarantee that the President's last June 27 island promise will be carried out and that there will be no invasion of Formosa."

Martin was flown here from his flagship, the Philippine Sea, a cruiser and two destroyer squadrons did much to reassure Chinese Nationalist moral when U. S. planes plunged low with the firing of General MacArthur.

He visited President Chiang Kai-Shek and lunched with other Nationalist leaders.

U. S. Minister Karl J. Rankin and senior military attaché Rear Admiral Harry B. Jarrett accompanied Martin to the luncheon. Also present were Nationalist Premier Chen Cheng, General Staff chief Chou Chih-lun, Navy commander Admiral Kwei Yung-Ching and Foreign Minister George Yeh.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

He never did find a city nor a country where security reigned. He did find spiritual security and that in all any one can be assured of.

Congratulations to former Sanford Rector Martin Bram, whose wife is the former Miss Mable Howler of this city, upon his election as suffragan bishop of the Episcopal diocese of South Florida.

Well, we see we were Miami and one of its hoodlums in spite of Governor Warren. Charles Fischetti, cousin of the late Al Capone, and one of the seven lords of the underworld died of a heart attack there Wednesday.

Republicans have no grounds for impeaching President Truman because of the MacArthur dismissal.
The President has the right to fire any of his generals for insubordination, or for any reason at all.
You can't impeach a man for being a dumbhead. But it seems to us you should be able to impeach him for some of the RFC disclosures.

The British government is advocating the return of Formosa to Red China and inviting the Chinese Communists in on the writing of a Japanese peace treaty. If they do, no peace treaty will ever be written, or the Chinese will take over the Japanese islands. Either the loss of Formosa or Japan would be a severe blow to the security of the United States. But we have come to expect nothing better from Socialist minds. They see eye-to-eye with Communists on many things. And one has to remember that most of the governments in Europe are Socialist.

The decision of the State Legislature to ask Congress to open State Welfare rolls to public inspection is one which should be welcomed by every person who is legitimately entitled to relief. Anyone can see that with a government such as ours, with corruption rampant in many departments, some persons not entitled to relief might easily get on relief rolls, and do. Publicity is the best means of getting them off. There is no reason why such publicity should be embarrassing to any person entitled to relief, in fact, it probably would not be given at all to them.
But it would be given to chiselers who are not entitled to relief.

Speaking on the need in Sanford of hospital facilities, sewage disposal, port terminal and yacht basin, youth and recreation centers,
City Manager McKibbin points out that of $446,000,000 paid in taxes by the people of Florida last year, only $64,000,000 went to city governments, including such large cities as Miami, Jacksonville and Tampa. That's only 7 percent of your tax dollar went to support such services to the people as police and fire protection, collection of garbage, street maintenance and cleaning, and such public improvements as swimming pools, baseball stadia, parks and play grounds. If a fairer share of the tax dollar were contributed to the state, all of us would be better off.

President Truman explains that he fired MacArthur over a fundamental difference of opinion on how to win the war in Korea. It would be interesting to know who made the President's speech for him. It would be interesting to know who told him to fire Mac-Arthur? Who conceived the strategy which he is following in the Far Eastern war? If we could be certain to do with it, or the Chief of Staff, we to be an assassin? But The President has to be used
And even Eisenhower really thinks of his own country.

Polluted By Gambling

The story of the "unholy relationships" between criminals and the law in Miami, and details of how Al Capone's heirs muscled in on the lucrative gambling racket in Florida are told by Senator Estes Kefauver in the second of his series of articles on U. S. crime in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Members of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee were not naive, the Senator says, but all of them came away from Miami "shocked and disgusted" with the flagrant, cynical nature of political-criminal corruption found there.
The "classic and tragic story" on such corruption, he says, was told the committee by George Patton, a former deputy sheriff under Jimmy Sullivan in Miami. Patton took orders directly from Chicago criminals, and in a period of nine months collected some $1,000 in graft from gamblers, according to Senator Kefauver. At the same time a number of other denunciations were collecting similar amounts.

It is hard to stomach the admissions of characters such as Sheriff (Smiling Jimmy) Sullivan of Dade county (Miami) and Sheriff Walter Clark of Broward county (Fort Lauderdale) that they grew rich in office, far out of proportion to their modest salaries," the Senator declares. "The same was true later when we moved over to Tampa, where 14 murders and 25 attempted assassinations have gone unsolved in the past two decades, and heard a similar tale from Sheriff Hook Callahan, who even the local 'Melon' gambling racketeers refer contemptuously as 'Calzade Melon'—'Melon Head.' The damage such men do to the prestige of the law is appalling."

The removal of Sheriffs Sullivan and Clark, Senator Kefauver says there is hope in the fact that other reforms have been instituted, and that the Florida Legislature has appointed a crime commission to make further recommendations.

The "major scandal" into which the committee delved in Miami, however, was the S. & G. Syndicate operation, Senator Kefauver writes. This syndicate, operated by five "local boys," had established an almost 100 per cent control over bookmaking activities on Miami Beach; and had an annual gross ranging between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000, with a net profit of from $4,000,000 to $6,000,000.

Details of how Chicago mobsters muscled in on this operation by depriving the syndicate of racing-horse services and how eventually the whole operation was disrupted, partly by local pressure and partly by the Crime Committee's activities, are told by the Senator.

In the deceptively beautiful setting of Miami, so blessed by nature and polluted by man, Senator Kefauver declares, the committee uncovered a complete pattern for the type of political-criminal corruption that exists on a national basis.

United Americans

The unanimous agreement of the 21 American republics on the principle of hemisphere defense is gratifying, although account must be taken of certain reservations. The action unanimously approved was a resolve to increase the size of the armed forces of each nation, for defense of the Western Hemisphere and possible service with the United Nations.

The reservations were made by Argentina and Guatemala. Although both voted for the resolution, both partly contradicted their votes by saying that they would not send troops outside their borders to help other American republics or the United Nations. They would help to defend themselves, in other words, but not to defend anyone else. This is a halfway recognition of common interest; perhaps it is better than no recognition at all.

The reservations of Guatemala stem from the leftward sympathies of its present government. Those of Argentina come from the opposite extreme, the fascist dictatorship of the Peron government. Both probably went along with the hemisphere action from a sense of need. Guatemala is too small to try to stand alone. Argentina might have visions of doing so, but covets leadership in the Americas. Peron may also have observed that his saber rattling and bluster have produced any great effects.

The sense of need is after all a strong element in the United States feel it, too. In recognizing this sense of common need we are far ahead of every other continent. It may hold us together while stronger and more enduring ties develop.

Needless Deaths

No statistics are available to show how many persons dying from accidents might have been saved by quick and accurate first aid, but the New York Life Insurance Company thinks that the number is high.

After citing the high prevalence of accidents among the causes of death, it points out that there are three frequent accident situations in which quick first aid may mean the difference between life and death. These are drowning, poisoning, and suffocations, asphyxiation or drowning. In all of these life may usually be saved, unless there are other fatal injuries, if the proper measures are taken promptly.

It pays to get sound, authoritative training in first aid.
It may be the means of saving a life at any moment.

Draft Bill

just relieved of his Far East command, has provoked hot controvery over his contention that he should have authority to bomb
Red Chinese bases in Manchuria.

The House hoped to reach a final vote during the day on the bill to lower the draft age, extend the length of military service and provide for a national reserve training corps.

Elsewhere in the nation's capital, screen writer Paul Jarrico refused to say today whether he was a Communist and bitterly declined to answer the following Hollywood writer who told the House Un-American Activities Committee that he was.

But Jarrico, balding and bespectacled, declined to tell the committee in what respect he claimed perjury had been committed.

Writer Richard J. Collins, an admitted ex-Communist, yesterday named Jarrico and 24 other movie people as members of the Red Chinese base in Manchuria.

Invoking his constitutional rights against self incrimination, Jarrico today refused to say whether he attempted to dissuade Collins from disclosing names of Hollywood Communists to the committee.

"Of my political belief." That included any question of membership in the Communist Party,
he said.

Preceding Jarrico before the committee today, writer Waldo Salt also joined the ranks of Hollywood witnesses who have declined to talk about Communist in the movie capital.

Salt told the House Un-American Activities Committee that the answers might tend to in-criminate him.

But he told the committee

Five Gunmen Shoot Guard And Rob Towle Silver Plant

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Apr.
13.—(AP)—Five gunmen, wearing red bandanas over their faces, grabbed a $38,000 payroll at the nationally known Towle Sterling Silver plant today and shot and critically wounded a policeman in a gun battle.

Patrolman George F. Lawler was shot twice—in the neck and leg—as the gunmen sped off.
A wide manhunt was begun and state police sped 10 cruisers to set up roadblocks.

Patrolman George F. Lawler

A wide manhunt was begun and
state police sped 10 cruisers to set up roadblocks.

He said the holdupmen, armed with sawed-off shotguns, seized him from bank messenger, Elmore Hirvone near a loading platform behind the plant. Lawler, who was escorting the messenger, opened fire.

Lawler was dropped, but as he fell one of his shots punctured a tire on the car in which the gunmen were riding.

They jumped out of it as it jerked to a stop, and, with drawing guns, seized the car of a passing motorist and sped away.

Hale said he did not see the holdup but knew of it first when "i saw everyone running to the windows when they heard the shot."

About three years ago a watchman at the factory was shot to death when he surprised a man who had sneaked into the plant to steal silver. Hale and his three partners were spotted about 2 A. M.

MacArthur To Testify

have been unable to get action on them.

Martin said he believed a meeting of the House Rules Committee originally scheduled for today, was called by the Democratic leader ship to make sure the committee did not act on the House resolution.

In announcing the Senate Armed Services Committee's invitation to MacArthur, Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) said he feels "the American people are entitled to know all of the facts involved, except those which cannot be released for reasons of security" about the Truman-MacArthur clash of policies.

No date was set for the committee to hear MacArthur.

On the point of how public hearings could be held, Russell pointed out that MacArthur would be heard as one witness in general hearings on Far Eastern policies.

He said the hearings generally will be behind closed doors, but that MacArthur requests a public hearing if it is in opinion that the committee will grant it.

Republican leaders in Congress have been insisting that Mac-Arthur should be asked to address a joint Senate-House session.

What may be done about that is still undecided but the possibility is not ruled out by the Armed Services Committee's invitation.

Praising MacArthur as "one of the truly great captains of history," Russell said, he regrets
"the conflict of opinion which has brought about his relief from his command in which he has rendered such valuable services."

He said the issue between the foreign policy is clear, and added:
"General MacArthur favors an all-out effort to destroy Communism in Asia. It is the policy of the Administration to limit the war in Asia to operations such as are now in progress in Korea, while strengthening the defenses of the free peoples of Europe."

"This issue could only be resolved by a change in policy on the part of the Administration or by the relief of General MacArthur."

Russell said the people are entitled to know the facts "in order that they may reach an intelligent decision on this country."

Flanked by attorneys Ben Martins and Robert Kenny of Los Angeles, the 57-year-old writer spoke quietly as he said the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution protected him from having to testify against himself.

Remnants of a North Korean di-

the reverse side of the ridge, but the main body of the Red divi-leaving their well-entrenched posi-

Hard-hitting artillery paid di-back slowly before all Allied units in this area.

Other Allied troops operating

On the west-central front, Altered Yonchon, seven miles inside North Korea, but found no Reds and withdrew.

U. N. forces on the western front beat off Red counterattacks

Korean patrols drew Red small arms fire north of the Imjin River.

deposed General MacArthur.

Ridgway told frontline corres-

He said he would need time to

FRIDAY
The cultural events of the winter season are fast drawing to a close. The brilliance of noted personalities adorning the Central Florida scene is fading as the summer abruptly casts its hot and quietus on the tourist trade, and gives reason for residents to seek intermittent change at beaches elsewhere. In manner of review, we shall briefly sum up what the past season has brought us in entertainment, and the composite picture is one of variety and color.

In Sanford was born the Seminole Choral Society which made its debut in Handel's "Messiah" and drew forth the best of the talent of the local church to hear the work.

The Stetson High made its mark as it appeared in the South Side Primary School, and led by the name of Joseph created the next day's gossip for those who heard his renditions of "Matter's" lovely "Non E Ver" and the famous Rossini aria, "Large Al Factum."

The Seminole High School Glee Club presented a sprightly lilt variety show called "Show Boat Follies" which proved there was budding talent in great amount. And a play called "Seventeenth Summer" under Mrs. Coleman's direction, was beautifully done and elicited many comments of praise.

Early April saw the Princeton University Glee Club present a concert at the High School auditorium. The comic group known as the Octet seemed to be the brightest of all the performers.

Central Floridians have seen Chardon, and have happily and enthusiastically accepted this artistic little Frenchman as the leader of their symphony orchestra. They have seen, too, the artistry of his wife, Henrietta De Constant, a virtuoso cellist. The newly formed Central Florida Choral Society, led by the Sanford Presbyterian Choir is a part, performed Brahms' German Requiem on Easter Eve. Earlier in the season, Verita Escandon, an actress, presented a vocal program highlighted by excerpts from Oscar Straus' "Chocolate Soldier." And Lily Pons sang in Winter Park.

The Hollins College annual Animated Magazine drew a capacity crowd who saw and heard the personalities so often appearing in the news. Basil Rathbone recited Hamlet's Soliloquy to a hushed audience and sang with a Shakespearean Sonnet.

Goodfellows again delivered its stroke of brilliance by procuring such artists as Lauritz Melchior and Mario Lanza; the former to charm and thrill a mature audience in whose minds Melchior is a synonym with Wagner and Grand Opera; the latter to cater to a new generation as he flashed his youthful dynamism with a dramatic selection of songs in the Caruso tradition, and concluded with the high C of the Bobby Sox swoon song, "Be My Love."

Ephraim Kurtz and the Houston Symphony Orchestra appeared, and the magic of Tchaikovsky's Overture to Romeo and Juliet seemed most pleasing of all.

These are just a few of the events which have highlighted the past few months for many Sanford people. We have omitted, for the sake of space, some of the happenings. In retrospect, however, we can see that there is a lot to do, a lot to make us think, and a lot to make us happy in our leisure hours. Every winter season is one of lustre for Central Florida. The New York highlights are brought to our own door and entertainment is prolific.

To make a cup of appeasement to use for appeasement cake wash, apples, Cook, covered, with three quarters, and core four to a tablespoon's water, until mushy, stirring often. Press through sieve or put through a food mill. Here's a quick topping for cupcakes: spread the tops with tart red jelly and cover thickly with moist shredded coconut. Pretty, too!

Sanford Giants Open Season Against Orlando Tonight

Manager Richie Klaus Depends On Speed; Neville Or Shultz Will Pitch Opener

By ED HARPER

"Speed and hustle will be our main assets," Sanford Giants Manager Richie Klaus said today as the local club awaited the opening game of the Florida State League season which gets under way tonight at 8 P. M. with the Giants meeting Orlando at the Municipal Stadium.

Sanford Mayor Fred Dyson will throw out the first ball and the Seminole High School band will be on hand to serenade an expected crowd of 1,500 fans.

Manager Richie Klaus has an "A" list of pitchers. Neville and Shultz will be either Al Neville or Gerry Shultz and the rest of the lineup, with the exception of left field, is pretty well set up.

Don Bailey, 1936 Giant veteran, will start behind the plate. Joe Farnese, talented southpaw, will hold down first base. Fast-moving Frank Thelma will guard the keystone and Manager Richie Klaus will be at shortstop. Bob Shuller, who has been relieving Klaus at short, will move to the hot corner. Tim Dolan, the St. Louis Irishman who will be in center and Fred Petty will fly chase in right. So far left field is wide open.

Manager Klaus has been reluctant to forecast the Giants' chances in the league inasmuch as he has had only a brief look at the opposition, but he definitely guarantees that the eager youngsters will put out a hustle which will be the keynote of the club as it is with the parent New York Giants.

Speed, on the bases and in the field, is definitely the local team's greatest asset. Fred Petty and Tim Dolan are among the fastest outfielders in the league and Dolan has a strong accurate arm as well, Klaus said.

Through the middle the Giants will be hard to beat defensively with Klaus, former Piedmont League fielding champion, and Thelma backed up by Dolan.

Behind the plate Bailey will provide the steady influence of a veteran as well as a strong arm and the power needed in a backstop.

Biggest question marking the Giants' camp is the hitting—can the lineup produce the runs against top flight P. M. hurling? Klaus thinks Farnese and Petty will be the club's mainstays at the plate—and this writer would add the name of the manager to that list as well.

In two practice games the old ball park has been set up adequately with the addition of the new left field bleachers moved temporarily from the new stadium. The makeshift arrangement will continue in effect until the new stadium is completed sometime in June.

The lighting in the park at Mellonville and Celery Avenue is better than average with special new lamps adding considerably to the old illuminating power.

Fans will not be able to use the grandstand proper although the reserved seat section will be open. The left field bleachers are expected to make up for the lost space.

17th Basketballer Is Arrested For Fixing Of Games

LIU's Feutado Confesses To Taking Bribes On 3 Games

NEW YORK, Apr. 13—(AP)—Dick Feutado, former Long Island University basketball player, will be arraigned today on bribery charges growing out of the college sport's biggest game-rigging scandal.

The 24-year-old was station-arrested at his home in California, being held as a material witness.

An 18th man, a former player, being held as a material witness, was also arraigned yesterday to talk with District Attorney Frank S. Hogan.

Several hours later the former player was arrested and held in $1,000 bail for his appearance today in felony court. Now married, Feutado quit school in January, 1950, during his senior year.

Hogan said Feutado got $1,000 for helping to fix three LIU games in the 1949-50 season and one game the previous season. LIU lost all four contests.

The LIU games—all played at the garden—were with Duquesne (52-64), North Carolina State (52-55), Cincinnati (53-85), and Syracuse (52-60).

The Syracuse game dropped LIU out of the first round of the National Invitation Tournament.

Hogan said the fixmaster in the four games was Salvatore T. Solazzo, New York jewelry manufacturer now awaiting trial on 13 counts of bribery involving alleged fixing of 20 other Garden games.

Besides LIU, the courtmen involved attended Manhattan, New York University and CCNY.

Solazzo is one of five alleged fixers under arrest. The district attorney said Eddie Card, another ex-LIU player already in custody, was the go-between for Feutado and Solazzo.

Feutado and Solazzo met Solazzo in a Manhattan night club and that the accused gambler paid the dinner bill.

Both Feutado and Card, Hogan said, once lived in Solazzo's Central Park West apartment after a fixed game and pocketed a hankerchief "stuffed with bills."

WASHINGTON, Apr. 13—(AP)—Dan Bankhead, Brooklyn Dodger right-hander, is improving, but he still allows the long ball hit. Against Washington last night he yielded a two-run triple to Mickey Vernon. In the fifth he again was belted for a two-run three-bagger, this time by Sam Mele.

Don Laz May Break Pole Vault Mark In Southern Relays

BIRMINGHAM, Apr. 13—(AP)—Pole vault and high jump records of the Southern Relays will be in danger from a pair of cloud-busters in the fourth annual competition tomorrow.

Drawings for the preliminaries are slated at 3 P. M. for the 356 colleges and 417 high school trackmen entered.

Illinois and East Texas State will be represented by two potential relays record breakers.

Don Laz of Illinois is expected to better his pole vault mark of 11 feet 11 1/2 inches, which he set last year.

Towering Charles Holding, from East Texas State, already has smashed the 110 yard high hurdles record of 17:4.4 set by the late Earl Browder.

A big field of 27 college track teams was led to Birmingham by Yale's 19-man team. Harvard was due in today.

The 418 high school trackmen come from 38 schools in Alabama and adjoining states.

Seventeen relays records were smashed last year.

The entry list includes:

University Class—Alabama, Auburn, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Mississippi U., Mississippi State, Tulane, Louisiana State University, Ohio State, Yale, Harvard, Florida, Miami (Fla.), Illinois, and Oklahoma A. and M. College Class—Howard, Birmingham North Texas State, East Texas State, Louisville, Michigan Normal, Baldwin-Wallace, Mississippi-Southern, Loyola, New Orleans, Oklahoma Baptist, Florida State and Howard Payne.

High School Class—Ramsay, West End, Woodlawn, Phillips, Enley, Oak Grove, Moor, Fairfield Jones Valley, Shaders Valley and John Carroll, Birmingham; Bass, Brown, Murphy, Roosevelt, Grady, Hoke Smith, Sylvan and O'Keefe, Atlanta; Dentler, Tusculooosa, Ala.; Dalton, Ala.; Cedartown, Ga.; Tusculooosa County.

Girl Plays Third On Vanport Team; Is Leadoff Hitter

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 13—(AP)—One of the leadoff men in a baseball game here today between Vanport College and Clark Junior College won't be a man at all.

He, or rather she, will be Margaret Dubson, 19-year-old Vanport co-ed. She will be at third base when the umpire hollers "play ball."

Vanport's coach, Arba Agre, says the girl has real talent. She is a right-handed batter and thrower and was the leading batter in last year's World's Amateur baseball tournament.

Agre said she was a member of the All-American team for the second year in a row.

She's pretty, smart, and stands 5 feet 2 inches tall with dark hair and blue eyes and dimples.

She broke into softball five years ago.

Mary has good form at the plate, Agre says she holds the bat high and motionless near the shoulder and takes a full cut.

So far she won't even listen to professional offers. The Chicago Cardinals asked for her on the goal is to get a physical education first draft last season but her tuition degree and teach.

Krider Urges Record Attendance For Opening Day Games Tonight

SILVER SPRINGS, Apr. 13—(Special)—Making no predictions as to attendance but promising top-drawer competition throughout the season, Florida State League President John Krider today urged central Florida's thousands of loyal baseball fans to visit parks in Sanford, Leesburg, Palatka, and Daytona Beach tonight to help celebrate the opening of the league's 12th season of play.

This is the Golden Anniversary year of professional baseball, Krider pointed out, "and while we must all admit that it is undoubtedly going to be a most unusual year, I cannot help but feel that the Florida State League will gain new patrons to add to its thousands of old ones as the season unfolds."

He admits that 1947 saw him reach his pitching peak for that was the year he won 16 hits, including 11 shut-outs, and lost but two games for 147 outs.

Krider's leadership on the Sanford city commission found him in the forefront of the system to that city, and he is today their local representative.

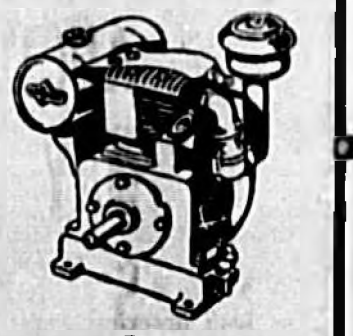

Assisting Krider in the operation of the league this year will be Vice-president Jack Donnelly of St. Augustine, George Duke of Gainesville, J. B. Delfoy of DeLand, R. L. Weaver of Daytona, Bill Weaver of Leesburg, John Gavel of Orlando, Weldon Henley of Palatka, Charlie Morrison of Sanford, and Secretary-Treasurer Statistielan Peter Schulz of Silver Springs.

Continuing, he said, "There are those who will say that world conditions may make it difficult for us to operate without heavy loss. Ordinarily, this is a sound argument. Yet, our eight cities are among the fastest growing in Florida. They are bulging at the seams with new people, and more are arriving daily. I find it hard to believe that there won't be at least 1,000 people in each of our parks tonight. If such an average can be maintained through the season, the men who are financing each club will be well repaid for their faith in the future of professional baseball in this part of Florida, and fans will be rewarded by better than average play on the part of ambitious players."

Krider is a veteran in baseball, the league's first president who came "up from the ranks." A native of Macon, Ga., he has resided in Sanford since 1935 where he is a retired wholesale gasoline dealer and former member of the city commission.

A right-hander with plenty "on the ball," Krider reported to the Chicago White Sox in the spring of 1930 and remained in that game until 1936. He appeared briefly with the Brooklyn and Philadelphia teams of the National League, and hurled for such minor league clubs as Jersey City, Baltimore, Nashville, of the Tigers and of Louisville, Kansas City, the St. Louis Cardinals, and Newark. In 1938 he played in the outlaw California State League.

Egan was born in Ewart, Mich., June 10, 1892.

Ex-Detroit Tiger "Wish" Egan Dies In Ford Hospital

DETROIT, Apr. 13—(AP)—Wish Egan of the Detroit Tigers, one of big league baseball's best known scouts, died in Henry Ford Hospital early today.

Egan was 66 years old. He had been ill for many months.

Since 1946 Egan had been the Tigers' "scout emeritus," a lifetime job created for him by owner Walter O. Briggs, Sr., in deference to his long service.

Olovis Jerome Egan's career spanned baseball's earlier days with the modern. He started as a pitcher in the early 1900's and became a scout for Detroit in 1913.

His No. 1 prize discovery over and Tusculooosa, Ala.; Russellville, Ala.; Bessemer, Ala.; Marietta, Ala.; Emma Bannum, Gadsden, Ala.; Benjamin Russell, Alexander City, Ala.; Dadeville, Ala.; Sidney Lanier and Starke, Montgomery, Ala.

He was probably was Detroit's own sandlotter, Hal Newhouser, for years now the majority of the Tiger pitching staff.

Wish had a keen eye for baseball talent. Along with this he also had a big heart for the kids. He was an inspiration to youngsters and was credited with doing much for juveniles.

One biographer has referred to him as the Tigers' "ambassador without portfolio."

In 1944 the sporting news named Egan baseball's scout of the year.

Before becoming a Tiger scout, Egan was on the playing rosters

Emergency Powers For Governor Are Provided In Bill

Proposal Would Provide For Confiscation Of Property In Event Of Attack

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 16 (AP)—A proposal to give Florida's Governor with unusually broad and stringent powers in the event of a war emergency was put up to the Legislature today.

A House bill, introduced by nine representatives, is designed to set up a civil defense agency for the State and put legal teeth in the present defense agency.

Should an enemy attack or other emergency come the Governor would assume directional control of the defense agency.

The bill provides the Governor's seizure powers could be invoked after an emergency declared by the Congress or the President or an enemy invasion.

The Governor could seize private property, communications facilities, buildings. These could be sold, distributed or handed in any way the Governor or council wished.

Methods for reimbursing persons whose goods are seized are laid down in the bill.

Local defense agencies also are authorized under the measure. Taxes to foot the bill in case of an emergency could be levied under provisions of the bill.

Rep. Murray of Polk, one of the sponsors of the bill, said it was introduced at the request of the State Defense Council. He explained it was a model bill suggested by the Council of State Governments.

He said he would stress that provisions in the bill under which the Governor could use the stringent emergency powers would be cleared.

An appropriation of $111,200 is proposed in the bill, but this would be continued on page 31a.

First 400 Soldiers Are Sent To Pusan For Rotation Home

PURAN, Korea, Apr. 16 (AP)—The first 400 soldiers to be returned from the Korean front by the Army's new rotation policy arrived today to board a transport for the United States.

About 40 officers and 360 enlisted men comprised the first shipment from various combat units in Korea. They are scheduled to leave Tuesday, said Lt. Col. Robert T. Shaver of San Antonio, Tex. He is commanding officer of the new Eighth Army Rotation Center at Fort Benning.

Shaver said the group was enthusiastic about being the first to be rotated home. A sign in the rotation compound said, "Welcome, you've earned your trip home."

Lt. General Edward H. Brookes, Army Department personnel chief, predicted the rotation program will hit full speed by mid-summer, "unless obstacles go way up."

Brookes, who flew to Korea to inspect troops and talk over personnel problems with field commanders, added, "of course, it would like to end the war and get them all home."

"General Ridgway is very much interested in rotating these men as fast as possible. He and I want to get out as many men who have had long or dangerous periods in Korea as we can. However, we must maintain combat efficiency."

The first man to arrive for rotation was Sgt. Paul D. Deacon of Grand Ronde, Ore.

Allied Troops Smash 9 Miles Across Border

Red MIGs Flee Into Manchuria Before Allied Sabre Jets; Offensive Looms

YONCHON, Apr. 16 (AP)—Allied troops smashed into Yachon nine miles deep in Red Korea today and hammered out limited gains along the rest of the 150-mile North Korea front line.

Communist forces fled from light to bitter. Yachon is three miles northeast of Yanggu. The Red supply base captured Sunday on the east-central front.

About 50 North Koreans fled from Yachon before the attack. Then they stopped and threw mortar fire back into the town.

Farther east, South Korean troops occupied a high ridge north of Inje.

In the air war, F-86 Sabre jets twice tangled with Russian-type MIG-15s Monday afternoon. In the first air battle 16 F-86s mixed with 30 MIGs. American pilots reported two MIGs damaged and one probably destroyed. Later in the afternoon 18 Sabre jets clashed with more than 15 MIGs and chased them back across the Yalu River. The Communist planes escaped damage.

Monday's score brought to 150 the number of Communist jets destroyed or damaged in air battles since Nov. 1 when MIGs first appeared in Korean skies.

Since the Korean war started June 25 Allied planes have destroyed or damaged 317 Communist planes of all types. American losses for the same period are listed as 184.

The Sabre jets were also out on a strategic mission Monday. They dive-bombed an important supply bridge across the Yalu River at Inje, upstream from Sinuiju. The direct hits with 500 pound bombs were reported.

In all Fifth Air tactical planes were shot down by U. S. F-86 Sabres.

American and Turkish soldiers made the day's best gains on the ground as the United Nations maintained the initiative across the Korean front.

Allied infantry and tanks were firmly entrenched in Yanggu, once a Red troop-massing point on the central front.

Another U. N. force held the high ground northeast of Yanggu, seven miles inside Red Korea on the eastern tip of the huge Hwachon reservoir.

Tanks lumbered into Yanggu Sunday afternoon after breaching strong Chinese and North Korean Communist defenses.

The Reds massed troops and supplies there early last week, apparently in preparation for an expected counterthrust against the Allies.

On the west-central front U. N. troops advanced against only light resistance. They now have full control of the south bank of the Hwachon reservoir.

At correspondent Robert Emmott on U. S. Eighth Army headquarters said the Reds were using brush fires to smoke up the countryside and hide their ground movements from the prying eyes of Allied airmen.

Allied troops captured a large supply dump near east of Yonchon Sunday. The Reds put up a bitter one-hour fight before drawing back.

Auction Sales Are Resumed At Market

Auction sales were resumed this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Sanford State Farmers Market with Vern Slater, noted auctioneer from Plant City in charge of operations. The auctions will be continued at 2:00 P.M. and 4:00 P.M. daily.

Manager Sandy Anderson announced this morning that the auctions are for the sale of vegetables and fruit only.

Produce sales were heavy throughout last week, he stated, with 116,821 units selling for $169,679.

Total sales for this season amount to $424,026, and sales of only $194,554 are needed to exceed the entire season of 1949-50.

Unless climatic conditions interfere, the Market will show sales valued at more than $5,700,000 said Mr. Anderson, who pointed out that the present marketing season has two and a half months yet to continue.

QUICK TRIP

Ensign and Mrs. Bobb Mero and daughter Patricia made a quick cross country trip in their automobile in order to visit relatives here, including Sheriff and Mrs. F. A. Mero.

Leaving San Diego, Calif., at 8:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, they made their first stop in Texas and arrived in Sanford at midnight Sunday.

MacArthur Is Invited To Address Joint Congress Session Thursday; General's Plane Lands In Hawaii

Photographers As MacArthur's Plane Lands At Airport

HONOLULU, Apr. 16 (AP)—General Douglas MacArthur, stripped of his top military command, arrived early today from Tokyo on his way to the mainland for a hero's welcome and a political battle over American policy in Asia.

His big transport plane glided onto Hickam Field's runway at 12:28 A. M. Seven minutes later he stepped on American soil for the first time since his 1950 Wake Island conference with President Truman.

He has not been on the U. S. mainland for 14 years.

The deposed supreme commander of United Nations forces in the Korean war will leave Tuesday to carry his views on U. S. policy in Asia to Congress and the American public.

He arrived when most of Honolulu was asleep. But today the public will get a good look at him—and he will get his first taste of an American city's welcome for a returning hero.

The general will ride at the head of a parade through Honolulu's streets, receive an honorary degree from the University of Hawaii and visit famed Waikiki Beach.

Post Office Thief Takes More Than $500 Refund Checks

FORT PIERCE, Apr. 16 (AP)—Thief of an undetermined amount of loot from the local post office, including an estimated 200 to 250 government checks, presumably income tax refunds, was revealed this morning.

Postmaster C. W. Peters said the office was broken into sometime between 10 P. M. Saturday and 5 A. M. Sunday when a custodial employee reported for work. Entrance was gained by breaking the glass in an unbarred window. In the postmaster's office, unslatching and raising the window.

The theft was not revealed, however, pending a check by postal and local authorities.

Peters estimated that 2,000 to 3,000 pieces of mail that had been sorted for rural and general delivery were scooped up and taken. Most of it was first class but some packages were stolen.

Only one package was left that had been opened—it contained a woman's dress.

Peters said apparently the burglar used a key to get into the post office but other clues had been found. The thief left the post office by the same opening through which he entered, and even hesitated long enough to reach the window.

Peters warned banks and business men to exercise caution in the cashing of checks until the matter is cleared up. He also asked that any discovery of quantities of mail or mail sacks be reported immediately either to him or the authorities.

MacArthur Testimony May Clear Up Mysterious Wake Island Meeting

By KETON C. FAY
Associated Press Military Affairs Reporter
WASHINGTON, Apr. 16 (AP)—Out of General Douglas MacArthur's appearance before Congress may come a new account of what the General and President Truman did at Wake Island last October.

Until now, the only official version of the short talk between the United Nations commander in the Far East and the man who later fired him from the job has come from the President—a formal, generally phrased statement issued by Mr. Truman.

A mystery grew up about the meeting. An element of the original mystery probably developed out of the fact that the Wake Island session really was composed of two meetings—a private two-man talk between the General and the President, then a general huddle attended by the two and the men who accompanied them.

Last Wednesday, in relieving MacArthur, the President issued a series of documents involved in the controversy which led to the firing. Many of them in considerable detail. That night the

Dispatch Of Grain To India Is Urged To Relieve Famine

Secretary Of State Declares Starvation Is Imminent

WASHINGTON, Apr. 16 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today urged Congress to act quickly to send 2,000,000 tons of grain to India where, he said, a famine is developing more rapidly than this country anticipated.

Acheson went before a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to discuss the Indian aid proposal. He seemed certain, too, to run into questioning about Far Eastern policy, generally.

That policy has run into in (Continued on page 31a)

U. S. Planes Win In Skies Over Korea; Reds Lose 147 Jets

By TOM STONE
TOKYO, Apr. 16 (AP)—U. S. jets are kicking the daylight out of Russian-made jets every time they tangle over South Korea.

Since the Reds first started using jets in the Korean war, Nov. 1, they have lost 147 destroyed or damaged by U. S. Fifth Air Force pilots.

U. S. losses are secret but an Air Force official said known losses are kicking the daylight out of Russian-made jets every time they tangle over South Korea.

Overall the Communists have lost 24 planes of all types since the Korean war started June 25. That includes aircraft knocked out on the ground as well as in the air.

American losses for the same period were listed as 90. Eleven of these were lost in air combat. The others were shot down or damaged by ground fire. Many returned to base or landed behind their own lines.

Of the 147 enemy jets claimed by U. S. pilots, 42 were known destroyed, 12 were listed as probable. (Continued on page 31a)

Man Shot With Wife Of Doctor Improves

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 16 (AP)—James R. Howie, 27, shot in the head Saturday when found in bed with the wife of Dr. Hans Strasser of Tusculum, was improving today in a hospital here.

Police said Dr. Strasser, 40, Brevard county health director, admitted firing the shots that wounded Howie and killed Mrs. Strasser. He was held without formal charge in Brevard county jail.

Howie, a civilian technician at the guided missile proving grounds near Titusville, and his wife were weekend guests of the Strassers.

Mrs. Howie told police she and Dr. Strasser drove off for some cigarettes and when they returned found the two in bed. Mrs. Strasser nude and Howie clothed except for shoes. She said that Dr. Strasser "got a gun from somewhere and shot them."

Company I Fights Simulated Battle In Osteen Region

National Guard Unit Executes Tactical Training Problem

Company I, 12th Infantry, the National Guard, got a "tugged workout" in its first major tactical problem Saturday night and early Sunday morning in a wooded area near Osteen.

Carried out in a densely wooded area under the orders and plans of Capt. David Gatzel, the operation simulated battle conditions as closely as possible, said First Lieut. Bob Newman, executive officer.

Major G. Lee, Third Army instructor, stayed with the troops throughout the problem and commended Capt. Gatzel for the way he laid out the maneuvers and the way that the men executed the operation.

Two new officers served with the group, Lieut. Jack Tinberg and Sgt. L. C. Terence Brown, who was recently promoted to rank of warrant officer.

Other officers serving were Capt. Roy Green and Capt. Bob Baker, who with Capt. Wilson served as the elusive "enemy force."

The officers and 47 enlisted men met at the Armory at 8:45 P. M. Saturday night, and after being briefed on their problem, boarded trucks at 10 P. M. They arrived at the proving ground an hour later and departed (Continued on page 31a)

White House Declares General Is Welcome To Call On Truman While In Capital

WASHINGTON, Apr. 16 (AP)—The White House agreed unanimously today to a joint meeting with the Senate Thursday to hear General Douglas MacArthur.

Democratic leader McCormack (Mass.) asked that the House empower speaker Rayburn to declare a recess during the regular session Thursday so that MacArthur could be heard.

There was no objection to the matter was settled.

No further action by Congress is necessary, since the unanimous consent request implied an invitation to the deposed General to speak. However, the Senate tomorrow must go through the formality of deciding to come to the House chamber Thursday to hear MacArthur. The Senate was not meeting today.

Meanwhile, President Truman notified Congress he has authorized use of $29,000,000 of government funds to enable Yugoslavia to obtain critically needed raw materials for its armed forces.

Elsewhere in the nation's capital Rep. Adair (R-Ind.) today introduced a resolution calling for the dismissal of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State, and Rep. Hakeswell (R-Mo.) offered one to give General Douglas MacArthur a special medal.

Both proposals were made shortly after the House agreed to a joint session with the Senate Thursday to hear MacArthur. The resolutions were sent to committee, with no early action in sight, in other action today.

The Senate Crime Investigating Committee and a special commission of the American Bar Association met to hammer out legislation striking at the underworld.

The final report of the committee's long look into crime is due in two weeks. The special commission is helping "pick up recommendations for new anti-crime laws."

Senate investigators classified the nation's basic military training camps—all but one—from "excellent" down to "minimum satisfactory."

The exception among the 16 training centers is the army processing center at Fort Benning. Conditions there were called "excellent."

The White House meantime, said MacArthur is welcome to call on President Truman while here if he asks for an appointment.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short made this clear at a news conference today. (Continued on page 31a)

A-Bomb Defenses Are Called Inadequate

WASHINGTON, Apr. 16 (AP)—Mildred Caldwell, Civil Defense Administrator, was quoted today as saying adequate steps have not yet been taken to protect the nation from atomic attack.

Caldwell, his aides and air force officers appeared before a closed session of the Senate armed services committee to give their views on the damage an atomic attack might cause.

Chairman Russell (R-Ga.) of the committee told a reporter later the Civil Defense Administration officials said that not nearly enough has been done to meet the danger.

Russell said the witnesses also outlined what they hope to do to prepare for such attacks. He declined to go into details.

He said, however, he presumes Caldwell will ask Congress for more money to help prepare the civilian population to meet atomic bombing.

Members of the Seminole County Farm Bureau and the Veterans Agriculture Training Class will hold a joint meeting following a supper at 7:00 o'clock at the High School farm building.
