

Local Club Ready For Exhibition Game Tomorrow Against Leesburg; Five More Players Get Tickets

Lacy Predicts Brown, Clark, McDaniels And Mahalle To Be Greatest 1938 Outfield Combination In Loop

Manager Guy Lacy announced last night that he had cut five more players from the present Lookout roster in preparation for the opening of the annual season of the Florida State League.

Players released by the Sanford Association were Milton "Hank" Leiber, pitcher; Bill Odrione, shortstop; Harold Webb, shortstop; Frank Giles, pitcher and also outfielder Jack Murray.

The local aggregation underwent another touch session yesterday and is making ready for the initial season exhibition encounter against the Leesburg Condollers.

A regular game was held yesterday afternoon following the head morning workout and the regulars won an easy 8 to 4 decision from the Yannigans. Hurting for the regulars were Cortez Ward and "Blimp" Hunsacker. On the mound for the Yannigans were Milton Leiber and Johnny Rook.

For the Yannigans, Leon Addy was on second, Jodie Lyle at shortstop, Del Pulido on third base, Jack Murray in center field, Tom Haney in right field, Harold Webb, on first base, "Snowwhite" Kirby catching, Rook pitching and playing left field, Crapps in left field and Leiber also hurling.

Bill Atwater, new hurler from Savannah, reported for the first time today and has been named by Lacy to hurl the opening exhibition tilt against the Condollers Friday evening. Atwater was sent here on option by the Savannah Indians of the South Atlantic League.

Lacy today also announced his starting outfield that is to be used during the first 20 days of the season. The Lookout skipper named Pete Mahalle in center field and Win Brown in right field. Ray Clark and Poneh McDaniels, who is yet to arrive for training activities, will undergo a hot battle for the left field position.

Clark, McDaniels, Brown and Mahalle, Lacy said, would make the strongest outfield combination in the league this season as all four players will be an important factor in the offensive line-up as well as play in the outer gardens.

The local pilot stated that his aggregation would talk things easy today because of the Leesburg game tomorrow evening. He plans to stage only light drill periods as a number of the youths need a bit of relaxation.

PHOENIX PLANT EMPLOYEES SET NEW SAFETY RECORD

Pictured above are employees of the Phoenix plant of the Florida Power and Light Company who were recently honored for establishing a new safety record in the Company's inter-connected system.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

By JULIAN STENSTROM

Manager Guy Lacy declared today that the hardest job in baseball is to be forced to release a young ball player. The new Lookout skipper said that when a manager tells a youngster he cannot make the grade, the player thinks that he can't play ball. Lacy attempts to show them that they have their good points and do have talent but they are not quite prepared to show their ability in faster company.

When he let 13 players go Tuesday and Wednesday, Guy told each of them that next season if they were looking for a tryout with a club to get in touch with him. He promised he would give them another once over or direct them to a likely city where they can exhibit their abilities.

Backrests Erected In Stands At Park
The Sanford Municipal Athletic Park will probably be the most comfortable park in the State League this season in regard to seating arrangements. Local workmen today were erecting backrests to seats in the main grandstands in addition to the backs that were erected last season in the central section.

The seats with the backs will be from the mid-section of the stands completely up to the top and are placed in all three sections. The lower portions of the sections are to be left without backs as many persons requested it.

The stands have been painted green with the top of the seats painted gray. Bleachers have been repaired and everything at the park is ready for the game tomorrow evening.

Lacy Names First Team To Start In Leesburg Contest
Manager Guy Lacy of the Lookouts today announced his starting line-up for the Sanford-Leesburg game scheduled here for tomorrow night.

Mentzinger Reports To Local Quarters
Manager Guy Lacy announced that Red Mentzinger, a south paw hurler, has arrived in Sanford and will start local training activities today. Mentzinger was here last year attending the Joe Engel School of Baseball but was hampered by an ailing limb.

Brother Of Former Sanford Pitcher Joins Local Team

Harold Myers reported to the Sanford Lookout training camp yesterday for a tryout with the local aggregation for the forth coming season of the Florida State League.

Myers is the younger brother of Herman "Lefty" Myers who made baseball fame here in 1925 and in 1926. Myers was a hurler and won 15 games while losing two in 1925 and in 1926 tallied 20 wins against eight defeats.

Harold comes here with the recommendation of his brother. Manager Guy Lacy and President Henry Watson promise to see that the young moundman gets a great opportunity. If Harold is able to fill his brother's shoes and win titles for the Lookouts it will add the local aggregation considerably for the present weakness is mainly in the hurling department.

Events To Start At 8:00 O'Clock At Athletic Stadium

Athletic Director of Seminole High School, Coach Leonard L. McLucas, today announced that final preparations for the "Athletic Carnival" to be presented Friday evening on the gridiron at the Seminole Athletic Stadium have been finished.

Coach McLucas stated that the program will include building of human pyramids by both boys and girls of the three schools participating, the Seminole High School, Grammar School and the Junior High School. Volley ball games will be played throughout the evening.

Featuring the event will be the playing of a Touch Football by the boys of Seminole and Junior High Schools and a soccer game to be played by the girls of the two schools.

Directing the program are athletic instructors Bernard Schirard, Miss Betty Alken, Coach Russell McCracken and Coach McLucas. The event starts promptly at 8:00 o'clock and a large attendance is being expected to see the first of its kind in the history of the city.

23 Die As Tornadoes And Floods Hit South

Cold Rains, Sleet, And Drifting Snow Harass Great Part Of Eastern U. S.

Mountain Creek Sweeps Away 13

Four Bodies Found; Rescuers Certain Others Are Dead

Tornadoes and floods, twin menaces of Spring, claimed 23 lives overnight in the South and caused widespread property damage.

Cold rains, sleet and drifting snow harassed much of eastern half of the continent. Twisters killed 10 at Aliceville, Ala., yesterday and scores were injured in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia.

Swollen by a cloudburst, Mountain Creek swept away 13 persons with combination general store and home at the northwest Georgia village of Whitesboro last night, belated reports from the isolated section reported today.

Four bodies were recovered. Rescuers said there was not a "chance in a thousand" that any of the others escaped the flood which caught them in their sleep.

The victims were the 10 members of the family of F. J. Carter, Carl Lindsey, 23, who lived with them, and two visiting children who lived across the creek. Thomas and Norma Porter.

One of a series of tornadoes injured several persons at Hart, Ga.

To the north drifting snow from a midweek storm which caused damage estimated at more than a million dollars kept roads closed in Iowa, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Illinois.

Freezing temperatures caused heavy damage to fruit crops in Texas, Kansas, and Oklahoma. Southern Indiana orchards estimated a 50 percent loss to their peach and apple crops.

Streams swollen by melting snow and rain, managed traffic in several states.

School Principals Are Appointed For Next School Year

All principals of Seminole County Schools were given posts for the coming year at the last meeting of the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction and in every instance but one principals will continue in the same schools.

The only change was that E. E. True was transferred from the Wilson School to Lake Monroe and B. O. Steals, present Lake Monroe principal, was moved to the Wilson School for next year.

Teachers, it was indicated, will be named at the next meeting of the Board on May 4. Teachers, as were the principals, will be chosen on the recommendation of the school trustees.

The principals and their schools for the coming year are as follows:

District No. 1: Seminole High School, O. E. McKay; Sanford Junior High, H. B. Morris; Sanford Vocational, Miss Rebecca Shively; Sanford Grammar, H. H. Kipp; Sanford Primary, Mrs. Stella F. Arledge; West Lake Primary, Mrs. Macklin St. John; East Lake Primary, Mrs. Velma Mitchell.

District No. 2: Lake Monroe, W. J. Wells, Jr.; Lake Mary, C. W. Hill.

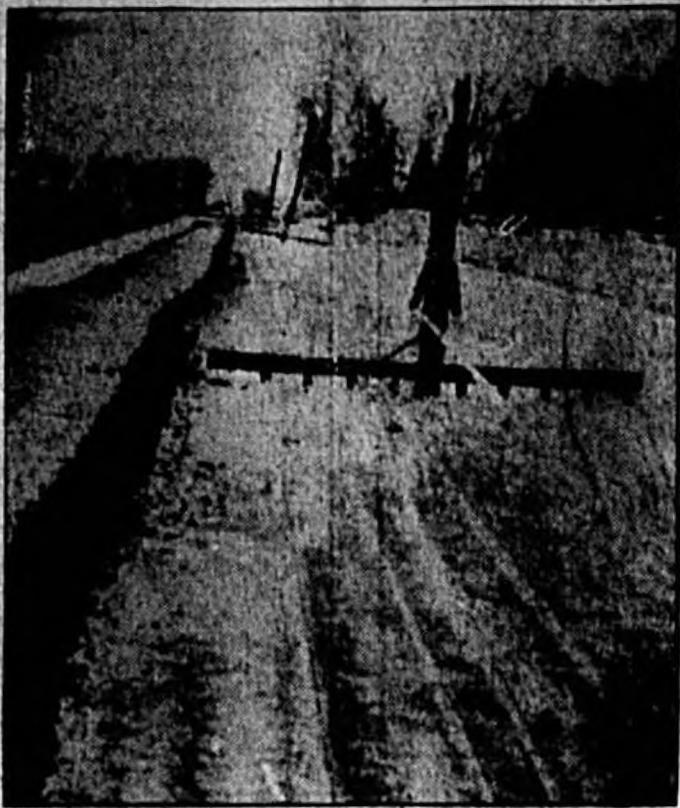

District No. 3: Orlando, K. F. O'Brien.

District No. 4: Clewiston, W. A. Tamm.

District No. 5: Geneva, W. L. Hart; Geneva, Miss Kathie Rogers.

District No. 6: Lake Monroe, E. E. True; Wilson, B. O. Steals.

A TOUCH OF SPRING IN IOWA

Telephone poles, burdened by sleet and wind, are shown after they snapped and landed top-side-up in the middle of a country road near Anita, Ia., as sleet, snow and wind lashed the entire state in a surprise appearance. Many of the rural schools had to be closed.

Value Of Celery Candidates File Publicity Plan First Campaign Is Discussed Expense Accounts

No Definite Action Yesterday Was Also Taken At Short Meeting Last Night

Over 25 growers and shippers of celery, and local business men, plus four representatives of the celery industry from the Sarasota-Manatee section, at a meeting at the Court House last night enthusiastically portrayed the probable value to the celery industry of a nationwide advertising campaign.

However, no action was taken toward reviving the Florida State Association, which was incorporated under the laws of Florida to handle advertising for the industry in 1928, according to County Agent C. R. Dawson, because of the small attendance at the meeting.

Far from being discouraged, Mr. Dawson is making plans to call a similar meeting of heads of the industry in the near future at which time more definite plans for a proposed program for advertising celery will be discussed.

With the Sarasota-Manatee section apparently more in favor of advertising than the growers and shippers in this section, the representatives from the lower celery-producing section of the State last night invited County Agent Dawson to speak on the subject of advertising before a meeting of celery growers and shippers in that section next Tuesday night.

At the short meeting last night during which those present unanimously expressed themselves in favor of an advertising program, the County Agent laid out the results of the post-card advertising program.

Mr. Dawson pointed out that of the 5,000 cards advertising celery, distributed through the courtesy of the Florida Power and Light Company, well over 100 replies have been received to date.

The celery recipe folders included with the cards have been furnished through the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce but a new and larger list of celery recipes is being prepared by House Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Gladys Kendall.

TO BE APPLE QUEEN

NEW YORK, Apr. 8.—(AP)—Mrs. David Brooks, the former Adelaide Moffatt, last night announced she had accepted an invitation to reign as queen over a Roundtable winter apple blossom festival, April 28-29, at Winchester, Va.

Tampans Will Not Be Fired By Governor

Cone Refuses To Oust Indicted Officials Before Conviction Of Jurors' Charges

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 8.—(AP)—Governor Cone said today he would not suspend the nine Hillsborough and Tampa officials, indicted Monday in a gambling investigation unless they are convicted. "The only charge against these men is misdemeanor as I understand it," the Governor added.

"If a jury convicts them, then I'll consider removing them but I'm not going to do so until they've had a fair and impartial trial."

The Grand Jury indicted Sheriff J. R. McLeod, Police Chief C. J. Woodruff, County Solicitor J. E. Williams, Sheriff's Deputies J. C. Logan and Ed Vester, Detective Chief W. D. Bush and Constables Hugh Culbreath, T. M. Graves and Henry Rozeaman.

The Governor said that Solicitor Williams, as prosecuting officer of the Criminal Court of Record, would be disqualified to present cases because he has been indicted.

"I'll assign someone in his place when the matter comes up," he added. The jury which indicted the officials sent the Governor a telegram requesting that he suspend the officials.

Progress Being Made In Jaycee Membership Drive

Satisfactory progress has been made in the annual membership drive of the Junior Chamber of Commerce which opened here last Monday, Jaycee officials reported today.

Recently elected Secretary R. F. Hart reported that during the drive the Jaycees desire members that will take an active part in the work outlined for the coming year and that the organization does not solicit or invite donations.

In outlining the work of the Junior trade body during the past year, Mr. Hart reported that the organization has completed several beautification projects and was also instrumental in getting several more started.

"During this membership drive," the Secretary said, "it is the purpose of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to strengthen its membership not only in number but also to get men who want to work to the end that Sanford and Seminole County will be a better place in which to live."

Young People Will Lead Easter Service

Members of young people's organizations of various churches in the city will lead Easter services which will be held at 9:00 o'clock Easter morning in Central Park on Park Avenue between Fourth and Fifth Streets, Dick Mason, publicity manager for the program, announced today.

A large choir of young people under the direction of Mrs. W. R. McCracken will lead the singing, he said, adding that about 30 boys and girls have attended practices but more are needed, especially boys. The next practice will be next Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church, Mr. Mason concluded.

New Hose Nozzles At Fire Department

The latest development in hose nozzles for fire-fighting have been added to the equipment at the Fire Station, Fire Chief Mac Cleveland reported this morning.

The new nozzles, Chief Cleveland said, can be adjusted so as to make a spray or three or heavy stream on the hose and is the only equipment which the department has at present with which it can satisfactorily combat gasoline or similar fires.

The new nozzles were tested by Firemen on the recent fire between Reed and Palmola Avenues yesterday morning.

Terms Reached In Detroit Street Railway Strike

Agreement Voted On Before Workers Return To Jobs

DETROIT, Apr. 8.—(AP)—A "mutually satisfactory" agreement ending the street car strike which fecked 700,000 Detroit commuters for other means of transportation for more than 24 hours was reached early this morning.

Mayor Richard W. Headly announced the settlement at the conclusion of a meeting in his office.

Strikers, members of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, voted on the agreement before resuming work.

Terms were withheld pending completion of the voting.

Yesterday Detroiters going to and from their work climbed aboard crowded motorbuses, hitch-hiked rides with motorists, hailed taxicabs, or walked.

Downtown retail merchants reported shopping crowds 40 percent below normal. Only 550 buses were operating to serve an estimated 1,000,000 daily patrons of the municipally-owned transportation system.

In circuit court the city obtained a temporary injunction restraining strikers from "interfering, molesting, picketing, damaging or in any way preventing" operation of buses or street cars.

Units of the committee for industrial organization pledged support to the American Federation of Labor union that called the strike at 4 a. m. yesterday demanding that a system-wide seniority plan approved by voters last year be made effective immediately.

W.A. Adams Condition Is Reported Improved

W. A. Adams, who was accidentally shot by Algonquin Speer yesterday while hunting for deer in the Toothichie game preserve below Fort Christmas, was reported today as improving rapidly from the superficial injuries sustained when he was struck by a number of No. 2 pellets from Mr. Speer's gun.

Hospital officials reported that he had rested well during the night and that no complications were expected which might delay recovery.

James Purser, who was taken to the hospital yesterday unconscious after the truck which he was driving crashed into a roadside ditch, was reported in a "satisfactory" condition.

TAX SYSTEM WORRIES CITY

ST. JOHN, N. B., Apr. 8.—(AP)—Legislation is being sought by the city of St. John whereby the temporary system of collecting taxes through employers would become permanent. The present temporary arrangement expires soon.

Preparations To Form New French Cabinet Are Made

Premier Blum's Bill Seeking Financial Power Is Defeated

By Associated Press
Socialist Premier Leon Blum's bill for dictatorial powers over France's finances was defeated by the Senate today and preparations were made for the formation of a new cabinet by Edouard Daladier, minister of defense.

Spain's insurgents showed a new salient within sight of the Mediterranean and China's vast reservoir of manpower appeared to have washed away for the moment technical superiority of invading Japanese in Shantung Province.

In Barcelona, the socialist-communist labor union asked that all eligible government employees be sent to the defense of Catalonia.

It also called for power to purify government Spain of dissident elements.

Foreign Minister Alvarez del Vayo expressed confidence Catalonia could resist the rebels.

In Paris, foreign officials said France and Britain had rejected the Spanish government's appeal that they drop their policy of non-intervention in the civil war.

Three government divisions, including the hard-fighting Lister unit, held the rebel drive for the sea almost at a standstill.

The contending forces fought a few miles north of Tortosa and the rebels apparently have been unable to advance for two days.

Government dispatches said the coastal road which remains the last land link between Barcelona and Valencia south of Tortosa still was being used to transport supplies although it was under fire.

The rebels were trying to crush the unexpected resistance by the capture of the great electric plants north of Balaguer and at Tremp which have supplied virtually all of Catalonia's industrial plants.

A unit of General Solchaga's army striking east from Benabarre reported it had captured Tremp after a rapid clean-up of villages to the west.

Just outside Tremp is one of the most important dams in all Spain. It supplies water power to the largest of the hydro-electric plants.

Careless week-end visitors are blamed for the loss of more than 1,000,000 trees in English forest fires since the first of the year.

Control Committee Will Meet Tonight

With terminal market prices generally higher than for last week, a heavier flow of wire inquiry for Florida celery, and track holdups at 16 principal markets reduced to 125 cars as compared with over 200 cars for a week ago. Members of the Celery Control Committee meet in Sarasota and in the Mitchell building here tonight to discuss action to be taken for the coming week.

With the Sarasota-Manatee producing area advocating "pulling the lid," allowing full shipment of the available supply and the Seminole County action advocating heavy protests, a controversy arose between the actions last week but this is not expected to re-occur since the shipping allotment is expected to be considerably higher this week than the 85 percent allotment finally decided upon at the last meeting because the available supply of celery is probably considerably lower.

Growers and shippers and others interested in the activities of the Control Committee are invited to attend the meeting which begins at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

MORE CITRUS BOUGHT

LAKELAND.—(AP)—The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation announced purchases yesterday of 25,000 boxes of Florida citrus or 75 carloads. Average prices paid were 56 cents for U. S. No. 1 and 68 cents for U. S. No. 2. To date the FSCC has purchased 500,000 boxes or 1,470 carloads.

More Cash For Relief Needed By President

Roosevelt Plans New Pump Priming Drive Through Relief And Public Building

18 Million Persons Receive Public Aid

Hopkins Says Unemployment Load Can Be Materially Cut

WASHINGTON, Apr. 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt told a press conference today his $1,000,000,000 estimate for work relief in the next fiscal year would have to be increased. He mentioned no figure.

The President also said a new public works program was under discussion but no decision has been reached. He gave no figure in this connection either but $1,500,000,000 was what he was reliably reported to be considering.

Harry Hopkins, WPA Administrator, in testimony before the Senate Unemployment Committee, urged Congress to provide a "permanent security program" based on work instead of a direct relief.

He estimated 18,000,000 persons were receiving public assistance at present as compared with 27 million in the winter of 1932-33. He said some unemployment always will be with us but it is "absolutely stupid" to think it could not be reduced to "reasonably low levels."

The Senate, nearing a final vote on the new revenue measure, rejected a proposal to increase (Continued on Page Five)

Wilcox Hits WPA For Firing Carl Thoner

ORLANDO, Apr. 8.—(AP)—Mark Wilcox, candidate for the senate, speaking at a political rally here last night, rapped the Works Progress Administration in Florida for its action in firing Carl T. Thoner, Tampa WPA photographer and foreman of the grand jury which indicted nine county and city officials for permitting gambling in Tampa.

Wilcox said the account of the discharge of Thoner, as published in the Tampa Tribune, "is shocking in the extreme." He declared it has been apparent for some time that certain officials have been using the WPA as a vehicle for building up a powerful political machine, but it would now appear that the WPA is to be used as a means of intimidating law enforcement officers.

"The WPA was established to afford relief for the unemployed and I voted to appropriate millions to feed the hungry, but unfortunately too much of the money is finding its way into the pockets of political parasites. Now, if it is to be used to prevent the fearless and impartial investigation of crimes—such conduct is scandalous and should be condemned by every law-abiding citizen."

N. Y. BANKER DIES

MIAMI BEACH.—(AP)—Warren Wakeman Glue, 75, of Watkins Glen, N. Y., died at his Winter home here yesterday of a heart attack. He was president of the Watkins Salt Company and the Gen National Bank.

Florida bankers discussed money and living problems, at their forty-fifth annual convention at the Hollywood Beach Hotel Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Included on the program was Julian T. Barbee, U. S. Secret Service, who talked on "Tainted Money."

VERSE FOR TODAY

For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty... Gal. 5:13

The trouble with the world today is there is too much take and not enough give.

Gov. Clegg advises bankers in the convention in Hollywood to be more optimistic. They might try getting drunk.

The only way we can explain the Home-Berlin axis is to assume that Hitler and Mussolini have axes to grind.

Among those commending the action of the Hillsborough County grand jury in Tampa the other day was Doyle Carlson, former governor of Florida.

We have about come to the conclusion that the principal cause of constantly increasing highway accidents is too much horse power and not enough horse sense.

The Chinese are making remarkable headway against the Japanese considering China's state of unpreparedness and political dissimilarity before the war began.

The Citizen, published in Key West which has recently become a part of the United States as a result of the construction of the new Federal highway, says there is no question of the Administration spending people's money right and left.

France is trying to make a new alliance to support Czechoslovakia in the event of invasion by Germany. The new pact would include Russia, Poland, Rumania, and Yugoslavia, besides France.

The biggest justifiable complaint which the old folks have over the Social Security Act is the provision which requires a lien on the homestead in the event of pension is received. Dave Baker blames this provision on Claude Pepper, and Claude blames it on Dave. And Mark Wilcox, just to make the picture complete, blames it on both of them.

If the economic theories of the present-day Moses who would lead us out of the wilderness merely by manufacturing purchasing power out of thin air were worth the paper they are printed on, it is conceivable that Sanford might enjoy its summer wave of prosperity this summer, in spite of the unfortunate colony among the wastes of all the hands who work for them to unprecedented heights. But where would the farmers get the money, says Mr. A. H. that's their worry.

The fact that the foreman of the recent Hillsborough grand jury which indicted a number of prominent officials in connection with the "Cuba" racket was promptly fired from his job as a result of a WPA project, lends weight to the belief that these money operations have far reaching ramifications than is generally supposed.

The End Is Near

The bloody Spanish civil war has reached its final throes. The rebels have pushed through to Tortosa and the sea, splitting in half the Loyalist territory and separating the government strongholds of Barcelona and Valencia. The factories in the north are cut off from the raw materials of the south. The power plants supplying Barcelona are in the hands of the enemy.

It is inconceivable that the government forces having lost so much could regain the upper hand. So far as we can recall no government before has been so sorely pressed and has yet managed to extricate itself. It is as if the South, after Sherman's march to the sea, had arisen and driven the northern army to the Canadian border. It simply could not be done.

And so as we see it, the quicker the Spanish war is ended the better it will be for the Loyalists as well as for Gen. Franco. There is no sense in continuing an utterly hopeless struggle. The lives of thousands of women and children, to say nothing of many regiments of soldiers can be saved merely by conceding the obvious before it is too late.

The Spanish war has already cost the lives of hundreds of thousands of men, women and children. Scores of cities have been razed to the ground. Metropolitan centers such as Madrid and Barcelona with their priceless art treasures, their magnificent buildings and parks and plazas, their cathedrals and their universities, have been bombed and shelled with a mercilessness that defies comparison.

No one can say what the future holds in store for Spain. Few can say what deals Franco may have had to make with Hitler and Mussolini to gain their support. But whatever it is, whether it means that the independence of Spain is forever gone, or that the Spain of old will be restored under some stable form of government of its own, perhaps with the help of British and French capital, whatever happens, it could not be worse than the Spanish people have endured for the past two years.

And so, while it must be said that the Loyalists have made a good fight against overwhelming odds, there is little to be gained from continuing the war, and though it means a victory for the rebels and their German and Italian allies, one can only hope that the military leaders of the government will soon see the wisdom of laying down their arms.

Boycotting Japan

Last month we received a questionnaire from the Sutton News Service, Inc. regarding the relations between this country and Japan. A similar questionnaire was sent to editors of two thousand newspapers throughout the entire United States. The other day we received the results of this sampling of public opinion as represented by replies from more than 500 newspaper editors. It was interesting to us to note that in every single instance we answered the following questions exactly as did the majority:

- 1. Are you in favor of a public boycott against all Japanese goods? No 383 or 77.1% Blank 33 or 6.6% Yes 81 or 16.3%
2. Are you in favor of a boycott against Japanese manufactured products? No 323 or 65.7% Blank 33 or 6.6% Yes 141 or 28.4%

PANGAKES IN THE GREAT SEAL

One of the most jealously guarded emblems of sovereignty is Great Britain's Seal of the realm. Used for such solemn occasions as sealing writs to summon Parliament, for foreign treaties and all public acts of state, its preservation is vested in the Lord Chancellor of the Grey Administration.

In the autumn of 1834, Edinburgh was the scene of a festival honoring Ex-prime Minister Grey, and Lord Chancellor Brougham fell ill on his way to attend. Inasmuch as Brougham was not allowed to let the Great Seal out of his sight, he had to take it with him.

While staying at Rothiemurcus, then the residence of the

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK, Apr. 8.—It was a night ago that, walking up Vauclaire avenue, I glimpsed George Olsen, the orchestra leader, dining with abandon in a spicy French provision counter. Olsen has grown blonder and richer in recent years but he is one of the few successives who has always remained his natural self. His friends of yesterday are his chosen companions today.

Indeed, one of the favorite stories of the Biallo about Olsen has to do (theoretically at least) with fool. A colleague was visiting him in his private office at the International Casino the other night. "Say," he said, walking over to a temporary looking ice-box, "I've got something here you'll like."

Which reminds me of something that happened at the drug store this morning. I was sitting at the counter, admiring the new orange juice-mixer when a lady came in and said to the soda-clerk: "I'll have a soda, please. All my life I've wanted a soda, and now I'm going to have one."

"Pardon me," I said, looking in. "But did I hear you say you had never tasted an ice-cream soda?" "That's right," she admitted. "When I was a little girl I always wanted one, but my mother would never let me have it. Then we moved to China and lived in out-of-way places, so that by the time I grew up there were too many things of a serious nature to warrant belching over drug-store soda."

Never was fame more illusive or unappreciable than it is now. Take the case of Kyrle's Roberts, who wrote "Northwest Passage" and became "discovered." Everybody is reading it and the money is rolling in. Yet, despite these enjoyable royalties, Roberts must turn his back occasionally and indulge in a private checkmate. For, it seems to me two earlier books, "Arunde" and "Rabble in Arms," are so much better than "Northwest Passage" that critics are ludicrous. It just doesn't belong in the same league with either.

"I'll have a soda, please. All my life I've wanted a soda, and now I'm going to have one." "Pardon me," I said, looking in. "But did I hear you say you had never tasted an ice-cream soda?" "That's right," she admitted. "When I was a little girl I always wanted one, but my mother would never let me have it. Then we moved to China and lived in out-of-way places, so that by the time I grew up there were too many things of a serious nature to warrant belching over drug-store soda."

I was married in Paris and shortly thereafter we moved to South Africa, after which we decoration, refused to receive the Lord Chancellor on his return to London. Brougham, in spite, sent the seal to Willam in a bag. For this, Lord Brougham the next year lost his official status as Keeper of the Great Seal.

Next to "Uncle Tom's Cabin," probably no other piece of literature played so important a part in ending slavery in the South as did "The Impending Crisis of the South," written by a Southerner, Hinton Rowan Helper.

A vivid protest against the evils of slavery, it created a stir in Congress, was read by President Lincoln in 1858 when he was writing his House Divided Speech. Tomorrow: Records of the Clipper Ship.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—We can hardly wait for commencement exercises at West Point next June to see whether Brig. Gen. Jay L. Benedict, the superintendent, will put the cadets on an alphabetical basis.

It is terribly, terribly important and only people who spoof at tradition will fail to hold their breath until then. We thought the old order was all settled and that no one would dare think of alphabetizing the army. But someone has thought of it. It is Rep. David D. (for Dickson) Terry of Arkansas.

He raised the question during committee consideration of the War Department appropriation bill by asking General Benedict about it. We will let Mr. Terry explain.

Representative Explains "General, I notice that at the graduation exercises of the academy they give the diplomas to the cadets in the order in which they rank in the class; that is, No. 1 gets the first diploma and so on down the line until they come to the last man. The head man, the one that comes out No. 1, does not get the applause that the 'goat' gets, who comes out last."

At this point Mr. Terry became a bit more loose than lucid in his explanation but he went on to say that other colleges, including Annapolis where they train the sailors, give a first few honors to the top ranking men then pass out the certificates alphabetically. (Damn those Andersons, anyway, they always get there first.)

Yet at West Point, continues Mr. Terry, "the man who happens to have the misfortune of being the last man in the class is branded with being the 'goat' of the class of 1938 or 1939, and it seems to me that that stigma or that feeling would follow him all the rest of his army career. It seems to me it is an unnecessary and barbaric custom, and should be done away with."

Old, Old Custom It is fairly evident that the rest of the committee members did not take this thing as seriously as Mr. Terry, for at one point in the ensuing discussion he was compelled to remark that "My colleagues have taken this with a good deal of levity."

General Benedict said he did not know how long it had been going on. "I graduated 34 years ago, and they were doing it then, and it was a well-established custom."

"It horrified me," said Mr. Terry, when I saw the humiliation that that man is subjected to. "Of course," said General Benedict, trying to be practical, "No matter what may happen at the graduation exercises, there is a 'goat' in every class, and he is well known in the service as the 'goat' of the class. Whatever we do at the graduation exercises will have little effect thereafter. He will be known as the 'goat' and be proud of it, as most of them are. The men at the bottom of the class, who come out as 'goats' are usually very popular cadets, very good fellows and very good officers."

"Was not General Grant the last man in his class?" asked Rep. Dockweller of California. [We had heard that, too, and suspect from a picture that the General never had his pants pressed from Vicksburg to Appomattox.] But Mr. Terry would not be put aside. "I would like you to consider that, General," said Mr. Terry. And, said General Benedict: "I will, I assure you."

John DeLoach Will Lecture Here Monday

"Who's Who in America gives an interesting if rather incomplete summary of the career of John DeLoach, who is coming to lecture at the Woman's Club Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock," Mrs. Henry Wight said today. "A graduate of the University of Georgia, he is a Phi Beta Kappa and a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity."

Mrs. Wight also said that, "His activities as director of the Georgia Experiment Station in Griffin, Ga., attracted the interest of the Armour Company, and for 14 years, he was director of the Armour Bureau of Research, resigning the position in order to be more at home with a most charming family. He is quite social in disposition and a member of many clubs."

"He has been collaborator with the Bureau of Plant Industry in Washington, and one of his tasks is on 'Agriculture for the Common Schools.'"

Mr. DeLoach's lecture on "The Big Four" to be presented on Monday evening, is free, and the public is cordially invited.

Seminole County To Aid In Cancer Drive

Seminole County units of the Women's Field Army for Cancer Control joined state forces this week in Florida's second annual campaign to raise funds for cancer education work. They are seeking memberships in their organization for 1938 as part of a nationwide move to educate the public in the need and value of early diagnosis in cancer cases.

Headed by Mrs. J. Ralston Wells, State Commander of the Women's Field Army, who is also president of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, a county set-up has been organized with captains in each region, who will recruit and direct the task of collecting memberships.

State offices are at 250 1-1/2 E. Beach Street, Daytona Beach.

Memberships will cost $1 each. Anyone wishing to contribute may send funds to the county captain, Mrs. W. L. Cooper, Sanford, or to the state office direct.

Of the money received seventy percent will be retained in Florida to carry on an extensive campaign of education during the year.

Helping the state officers in Daytona Beach with their preparatory work of education this year is an imposing list of physicians, club women and civic workers. Dr. Edward Jelks of Jacksonville heads an Advisory Committee for the Women's Field Army; Dr. F. Clifton Moore of Tallahassee is chairman of the cancer control committee for the group and Dr. Sam Puleston, Sanford, are among physicians who will speak to clubs and radio audiences in behalf of the cancer work.

Sanford Lookouts To Meet Leesburg Ballclub Tonight

Exhibition Game At Municipal Park Is First Of Season

Manager Guy Lacy and his 1938 edition of the Sanford Lookouts underwent their final workout this morning at the Municipal Ball Park in preparation for the initial exhibition game of the season to be played under the stars of the local plant tonight against Nellie Leach's Leesburg Gondoliers.

The Lookouts went through a night session because of the many hard drills that have been held since Lacy's arrival in Sanford. The Lookout skipper announced that Charlie Atwater of Savannah and Joe Pinder of Butler, Penn., will do the hurling.

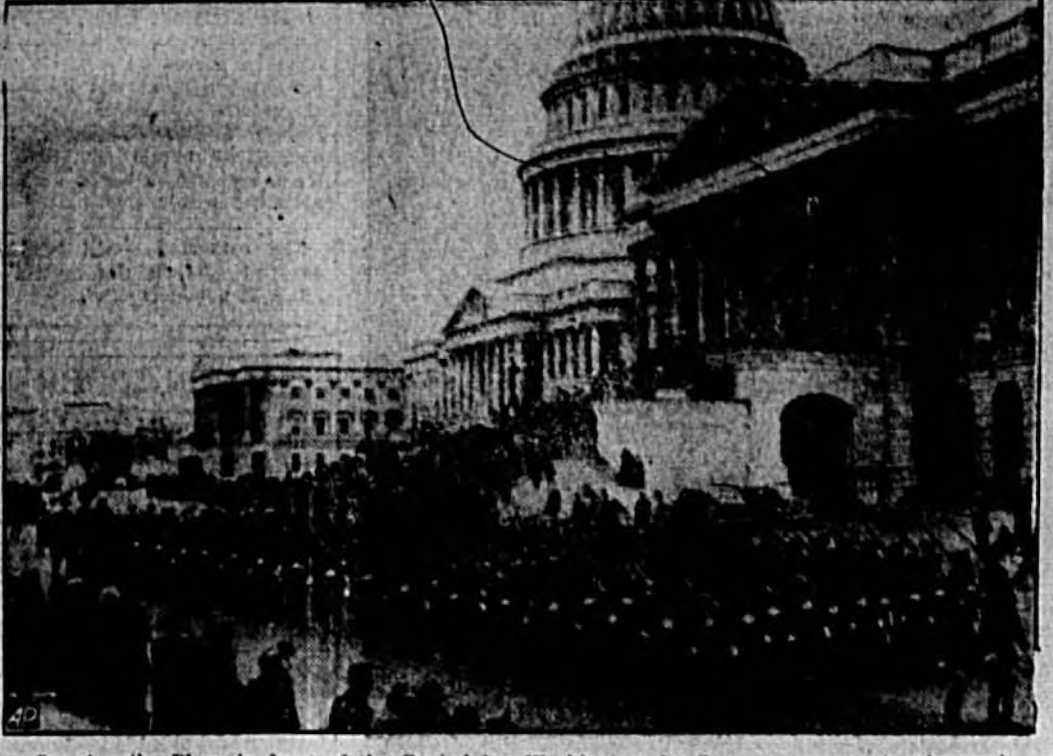

Atwater will start the tilt against the Gondoliers which now are being rated as a strong organization since their well earned 9 to 4 victory over the Jacksonville Tars of the South Atlantic League Wednesday evening. Pinder will hurl the final four or five frames for the Lookouts. However, Manager Lacy is holding Bob Fisher for any relief duties if necessary.

Lacy said last night that he has a ball club that will average eight runs per ball game and his combination is strong in every department except the hurling corps. There are some fine looking men working out for a steady job and they may turn out great during the season but they lack ability caused mostly by not having much experience.

Yesterday the Lookouts went through a medium drill as well as batting practice, infield and outfield sessions were scheduled. The outfit got most of the afternoon off for the first time since the camp opened.

Lacy announced his lineup that will start against the Gondoliers

NATION'S FORCE PARADES ON ARMY DAY

Crossing the Plaza in front of the Capitol in Washington, D. C., are some of the thousands of troops who marched in the army day parade commemorating the 21st anniversary of their country's entrance into the World War. The parade was reviewed by the President and highway officials.

and it included Buck Rodgers on second, Punch McDaniels in left field, Pete Mahala in center, Win Brown in right, Manager Lacy on first, Joe Ruggiero at third, Leon Adly or John Lacy on shortstop, Don Contreras or Bob Young catching and Jake Atwater and Joe Pinder pitching.

No word has been received from Leesburg in regard to their starting lineup but a strong combination can be expected from the Lake county city.

Carnival To Be Given Tonight At High School

Athletic Director, Leonard L. McLucas of Seminole High School stated this morning that everything is in readiness for the first Athletic Carnival ever to be held in this city by a scholastic organization.

Coach McLucas said that the initial even of the evening is slated to begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock and that the public is invited to attend.

The program will include as the feature events the playing of a touch football game by the boys and a soccer game by the girls. Building human pyramids by both boys and girls will also take place as well as a number of volley ball games by the student physical athletic organizations.

The carnival is being directed by Miss Betty Aiken of Seminole High School, Coach McLucas, Bernard Schirard of Junior High, Mrs. Katherine Trench of Junior High and Coach Ernest McCracken, physical athletic director of the Seminole school.

The program tonight is as follows:

First: Calisthenics for all participants, who will be dressed in white.

Second: Junior High School girls will give a Highlands Fling under the direction of Miss Kathryn Takach.

Third: Obstacle races by Junior High School boys.

Fourth: Pyramids by Seminole High School girls under the direction of Miss Betty Akin.

Fifth: Hoop drill and folk dance by Grammar School girls under the direct on of Miss Katherine Lawton and Mrs. McKinnon.

Sixth: Pyramids and obstacle flip races by Seminole High School boys.

Seventh: Soccer game by Seminole High School girls.

Eighth: Touch football game by Seminole High School boys.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

Henry Watson, proxy of the ball club, says he expects a large crowd to see his 1938 Lookouts in action for the first time tonight. There will be plenty of strong opposition, according to the latest report from Leesburg when the locals meet Leach's outfit tonight and a good game can be assured for a long time.

Although baseball is the main spotlight at present, football is still getting some publicity. Jim Brown is slated to enter the Celery Fed bracket next season. The loss of three great stars by graduation had put a bump in the Fed chances for next season but Coach Leonard McLucas hopes to have four men who can at least carry the ball along with Darrell Ferguson. So far, the four men that will deliver the pigskin for the Seminole eleven will be Ferguson, Brown, Red Williams, star basketball player, and Buck Ferguson, brother of Darrell who made the squad last season but could not break up the combination that was rated as one of the greatest in the Northeast loop.

The ball game and the Athletic Carnival should give Sanforites a full evening of sporting enjoyment. For the first time in many a moon has two leading events been scheduled to take place at the same time.

SHORT SPORT SHOTS—Ebbe Young local backs up, was back in harness today after receiving treatment for an ailing arm. Lacy says he may catch part of the tilt tonight. Fred Dukek who is admired by many Sanford fans as an ace left-hander, reported yesterday at the Daytona Beach Islander camp. Dukek suffered a bad misfortune last season when he broke his pitching arm. Jeff Emerson, fire hurler for George Andrews Pala Ka Azules, promises to be nice during the coming season. Pete Nelson has so far praised the G-M-N. Sains and the Azules. Lacy says when he'll take a look at the Lookouts and find out what heavy hitters we will display this year. Russ McCracken is doing a great job in directing Sanford students in physical education duties.

Spanish Painter's Art Saves Him From Trenches

By CHARLES NORMAN
NEW YORK, Apr. 8.—(AP)—An American author and a Spanish artist sat on a sofa and talked in French.

For the benefit of their interviewers, the author translated some of the conversation into English.

The author was Elliot Paul, best known for "Life and Death in a Spanish Town"; the artist was Luis Quintanilla, erstwhile leader in the loyalist army. Quintanilla is having a show of his war pictures at the Museum of Modern Art. In the introduction to the catalog, his friend, Ernest Hemingway, has written:

"Because great painters are scarcer than good soldiers, the Spanish government ordered Quintanilla out of the army after the tanks were stopped outside Madrid."

Grins About His Losses

Lean, bronzed, talking French as though born to it, Quintanilla related his experiences. The big trenches he painted in University City, and for the Casa del Pueblo and the monument to Pablo Picasso, on which his fame rested, lie in the scorched earth, and that morning the soldiers were trying out some new machine guns.

"You hear that?" he says. Hemingway told him. "Who knows, soon those guns may be used for you or against you."

It was the latter, when Franco's revolt started, Quintanilla led the assault on the barracks, capture of which saved Madrid for the government. Later the artist fought in the Guadarrama mountains, in Toledo during the siege of the Alcázar, and in the suburbs of Madrid.

The moment he found himself in the army, he explained, he lost all his artistic sensibilities. It was only on the morning when the Alcázar was bombarded that he had a "visual" reaction—the light was magnificent, he said.

"It was hard work to start drawing again," he went on. "I had lost the habit of looking at things as a painter. Besides, it was the first time I had tried to depict anything so brutal as war."

Interpreter Trosch's "What of Mr. Quintanilla's future in case Franco wins?" the interviewer asked.

"I won't ask him that," said Mr. Paul, smiling.

I pointed out an ordinary interpreter wouldn't interfere like that.

"I am not an ordinary interpreter then," said Mr. Paul, "I will not ask my friend this question. It is too painful a subject."

Mr. Quintanilla was an interested observer of this little brush, but not comprehending, he shrugged his shoulders.

"All right, then," I said, "ask him what he thinks of New York—that won't occasion any pain, I'm sure."

Quintanilla's eyes lit up as the question was relayed.

"Ah," he exclaimed, "New York! It is the most striking city I have ever seen, infinitely more picturesque than Monaco. I think it is more important for an artist, of our day to visit New York than to go to Toledo to see the paintings there."

Radio Program Given By Mrs. Irma Flynt

A "radio" program under the direction of Mrs. Irma Flynt and set in radio station WSAW "The Ceery Capital of the World" and "The Port of Central Florida" was presented to the students of the Gummer School at the regular Wednesday morning convocation of the school.

The complete program as announced by O. D. Landress was as follows: Fing Solgte and Scripture lesson by the student body; Points of Interest in the Honor City, Sanford, by O. D. Landress; Harmonica solos, "Red Wing" and "Old Back Joe" by Nick Kenia; Reading "When My Pa Was a Boy," by Bobby Johnson; O. R.'s Quartet, "There is a Gold Mine in the Sky," by Nancy Colburn, Marcell Burns, Helen Stafford, and Betty Alderman; Imitations, "Tizzy Lish," and "Motor Boat," by Bobby Procter, and a "chicken" by Al Rigney.

Also: A Tramp Act, by Daniel Osham, Ernest Allman, and Billy Southwa; The Grand Organ Act, by Charles McMillan, and Albert Raborn; Information about animal bones—"The Tooth of a Mastodon," by Lewis Nader, and "The Tooth of a Camel," by Jimmie Gull; and readings, "The Fuzzled Dutchman," and "Mary Had a Little Lamb," by Billy Fleming.

The program closed with a march and an overture by the studio orchestra, under the direction of Professor T. M. Dollison.

"Everybody Sing" Is Gay, Madcap Comedy

Many pictures have made people roll in the aisles, but tonight at the Little Theatre "Everybody Sing" will have you swaying in the aisles to the fast tempo of music and laughter in this madcap comedy.

The nine tunes in the musical, from the burlesqued "Daisy Quainty Ma" to the love song "The One I Love," are the kind you hum on the way out.

Something new in the way of screen teams is presented by Alan Jones, as the singing chef, and little Judy Garland, as the girl who can't keep from "singing" music. Billie Burke, as the actress, and Reginald Owen, as her play-wright husband and Judy's father, are outstanding in their portrayals. Reginald Gardner also scores as the "ham" actor.

The story, cleverly written by Florence Hyerson and Edgar Allan Woolf, concerns Judy Garland who gets expelled from school for ringing swing during classes. Her family send her to Europe, but she sneaks off the boat at the dock when she realizes that they are stone broke. With the aid of Jones, their chef, she puts on a musical show that is a success and is able to keep her family from the poorhouse.

Enrollment Dates Announced For CCC

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 8.—Dates for the enrollment of 448 recruits for the Civilian Conservation Corps were announced here today from the office of the State Welfare Board.

The time, number and places are as follows:

DeFuniak Springs, Apr. 11, 137; Tallahassee, Apr. 12, 88; Lake City, Apr. 13, 107; Leesburg, Apr. 14, 47; Fort Myers, Apr. 15, 45; West Palm Beach, Apr. 16, 24.

Only white men will be accepted, it was announced.

Eligibles, Horne explained, will be permitted to apply at any State Welfare Board intake office. Since the number of applicants will be in excess of vacancies, priority will be determined upon a basis of need after applicants have measured up to other requirements.

CHORINES PAY UP

NEW YORK—(AP)—New York chorus girls kicked their minimum salaries to a higher level yesterday. The new scale ordered by Actors' Equity Association provides increases from $30 a week to $35 for local work on new contracts and from $35 to $40 for road engagements. Shows now on stage or in rehearsal are not affected.

A chorine who steps out of line to sing or speak a piece will get a $40 minimum.

Record Drought

WEST PALM BEACH, Apr. 8.—(AP)—There has been no rain here for 21 days, and unless the weatherman's forecast of "possible showers" holds good today a new record will be established. When 8:00 P. ### "Everybody Sing" Is Gay, Madcap Comedy

Many pictures have made people roll in the aisles, but tonight at the Little Theatre "Everybody Sing" will have you swaying in the aisles to the fast tempo of music and laughter in this madcap comedy.

The nine tunes in the musical, from the burlesqued "Daisy Quainty Ma" to the love song "The One I Love," are the kind you hum on the way out.

Something new in the way of screen teams is presented by Alan Jones, as the singing chef, and little Judy Garland, as the girl who can't keep from "singing" music. Billie Burke, as the actress, and Reginald Owen, as her play-wright husband and Judy's father, are outstanding in their portrayals. Reginald Gardner also scores as the "ham" actor.

The story, cleverly written by Florence Hyerson and Edgar Allan Woolf, concerns Judy Garland who gets expelled from school for ringing swing during classes. Her family send her to Europe, but she sneaks off the boat at the dock when she realizes that they are stone broke. With the aid of Jones, their chef, she puts on a musical show that is a success and is able to keep her family from the poorhouse.

South Faces Threats Of Wintry Blast

Sunny Skies And Rising Temperatures In Mid-West Bring Relief To Cities

44 Persons Die In Past 3 Days

Thousands Forced To Evacuate Homes In Southern States

Floods and frost menaced the South today; snow and sleet storms centered in northeastern states, while in the Middle West sunny skies and rising temperatures brought relief to snow clogged cities.

Three days of rain, snow, sleet, and tornado winds brought 44 deaths over a wide area. Thousands continued to evacuate their homes in southern states where today the death toll from tornado and floods was 27, as near record water stages were forecast, particularly across central Alabama.

Fourteen deaths were attributed directly to floods, 13 dying when a mountain torrent washed away a building at Whiteside, Ga.

In Birmingham, Ala., a man was drowned when he fell into a cinder pit, while 13 persons were killed in a tornado at Pickens county, Ala., Thursday. Eight were found dead of asphyxiation in a snow-swept home.

Boys removed, returned home. Flooded Prattville, Ala., a town of 250.

The Wabash and White rivers in Indiana, and the St. Francis, and Red rivers in Arkansas and Louisiana neared flood stages.

Workers labored through the night to clear six major highways in Missouri. Virtually every

The "Silver Lining" Is Advertising...

When a person advertises he should consider three factors in order to get results: first, an ad must be seen; second, it must be read; and third, it must be believed. Ads in The Sanford Herald are seen because 2000 persons take this newspaper; the ads are read because the public has got the habit of looking through these columns to find bargains and to keep in touch with business activity; the ads are believed because phony dealers seldom come to a newspaper office to proclaim their wares (when a person advertises in a newspaper he gives to his product a dignity and authenticity lacking in certain other media). The fact that more and more persons are taking advantage of our classified columns shows that the public believes in advertising and is evidence that merchants, both large and small, are missing a bet if they don't heed this acquired characteristic of the public.

'Eternal Youth' Leads Fight On Leon Blum

Joseph Callaux (above), who at 75 is called the "eternal youth" of French politics, is now leading his second attack on Leon Blum's cabinet which may result in its downfall. Callaux served a prison term for treason during the World War, defended his wife for shooting an editor, and was otherwise involved in sensational events during his long political career.

Austria Is Ready To Vote On Coup By Nazi Germany

France Without Government Following Collapse Of Blum

Edouard Daladier, chief of France's defense, in four People's Front governments and "strong man" of the moderately leftist Radical-Socialist Party, promised his supporters he would have a strong cabinet completed by tomorrow.

Tomorrow greater Germany likely will obtain a resounding "Ja," if not unanimous approval for the annexation of Austria carried out a month ago while France technically was without a government.

A fourth, leftist Coalition French regime collapsed yesterday when the senate voted down Premier Leon Blum's demand for dictatorial financial powers.

A week of war in Spain had brought the insurgent conquest within a few miles of the Mediterranean with 4000 of Francisco Franco's legionnaires driving today on Tortosa, 95 miles southwest of Barcelona, while other divisions pressed through Lerida.

The government, seeking to avert a terrific pressure in northeastern Spain, first stabbed at insurgent lines northeast of Madrid and then at insurgent territory that reaches the Portuguese frontier southwest of Madrid.

A week of war on the other side of the world brought defeat for Japanese legions pushing southward against the eastern end of China's central front. Chinese claimed a rout of the invaders at Talerchwan, threatened them with capture or annihilation.

Judge Sets Bond Of $5,000 For Barco

C. E. Barco, salesman who is lodged in the County jail awaiting trial on charges of rape, was remanded to County Sheriff C. M. Hand yesterday after Circuit Judge M. H. Smith set his bond at $5,000.

Flasba corpus proceedings were brought in an attempt to obtain freedom for the man who was indicted by the Grand Jury. He had not made bond this morning, the Sheriff's Office reported.

NLRB Finds Wagner Act Violations

Steel Firm Charged With 8 Violations; 5,000 Strikers Are Ordered Reinstated

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—The Labor Relations Board decided today that the Republic Steel Corporation had violated the Wagner Labor Disputes Act on eight counts before and during the bloody "little steel" strike last summer.

The Board ordered the company to reinstate 5000 strikers with pay starting from yesterday, break up its employer representation plants in its five Ohio plants, reinstate with back pay 27 employees discharged before the strike and compensate employees of the Canton Tin Plate Mill and Massillon works for pay lost during the shutdown from May 4-19, 1937.

The Board said the company had violated the act by domination of employee representation plans, discharge of 27 employees for union activity, Canton and Massillon shutdowns, "spying on workers" and several other counts.

Large Crowd Sees Sanford's First Athletic Carnival

A large crowd filled the football stadium at the high school athletic field last night to witness the first athletic carnival ever held in this city. More than 300 boys and girls, dressed in white, competed in games and exercises which have been a part of the physical education program launched in schools of the city this year.

One of the most attractive scenes during the entire exhibition was the calisthenic drill in which boys and girls of both the junior and senior high schools participated. The white uniforms of the students contrasted well with the green turf of the football field and the straight rows of bodies moving in unison brought favorable comments from the spectators.

The High School band furnished music throughout the affair during which contestants participated in various types of obstacle races, folk dances, and varied other sports. The affair was concluded with a soccer game between two senior high girls teams which resulted in no score after a 10-minute deadlock, and a touch-football game between two senior high boys teams which after a heated 10 minute period resulted in a win for the Bears.

Students of the Grammar School, junior high and senior high schools participated in the affair which was under the direction of the physical education instructors in the various schools and marked the conclusion of the music festival program held at the high school during the afternoon.

Senators Arrange To Meet Wallace

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(AP)—Senators from sugar beet and cane producing areas arranged yesterday a conference Tuesday with Secretary Wallace on their proposal to lower import quotas.

Senator Brown, Democrat, Michigan, said senators expected to attend the conference were Bulkley, Democrat, Ohio; Johnson, Democrat, Colorado; Overton, Democrat, Louisiana, and himself.

Brown, in a recent letter to Wallace, urged imports of sugar be reduced to provide a richer market for processors in the United States. Wallace rejected the proposal.

BARGE LINE PLANNED

TORNADO DID THIS

In this car William Hays Latham, Mrs. Latham and their three small children made a desperate effort to outrun the tornado which swept four residential blocks of Aliceville, Ala., but Mr. Latham lost a few precious moments trying to locate one of the children and was too late in getting started. The wind picked the car from the ground and hurled it through the air for 100 yards leaving it in a ditch the way it looks here. All five were hurt but none seriously.

Celery Growers Advise Shipping Of 636 Carlots

All Available Supply To Be Sent To Markets This Week

A 100 percent prorata was recommended to the Secretary of Agriculture by members of the Florida Celery Industry Control Committee at its regular meeting last night. This allotment percentage will allow shipment of the entire 636 cars which have been estimated as available for interstate commerce from this State during the coming week.

Although the Sarasota-Manatee members of the Control Committee advocated "removing the lid" and allowing unrestricted shipments throughout the state, growers and shippers from the Ovida and other late celery districts demanded some control, declaring that the market for late celery in these sections should be protected against flooding this week. The result they said, would be a downward trend in price which for the first time in several weeks has shown some improvement.

However, when the motion for the 100 percent prorata was voted the only dissenting votes were cast by Walter Mewling local shipper who evidently advocated "removing the lid" and Henry Nickle, local grower member, who favored a cut in the shipping allotment for this week. The members in the lower section of the State voted unanimously in favor of the 100 percent prorata motion which was offered by W. M. Scott, local

Salvation Army Receives Nearly Half Of Quota

The annual Home Service Appeal of the Salvation Army has reached nearly half of the quota set for this year, according to a report received today from army officials.

The appeal for the maintenance of the Salvation Army's work has brought in $1265.00 of the $3,500 quota today, reports showed. It is believed when the all campaign workers make their reports this amount will be substantially increased. Captain R. E. Rose urged today that workers turn in these reports as quickly as possible.

The drive will continue next week. The local high school girls are planning to sponsor a Tag Day next Saturday which, it is hoped, will bring a successful climax to the annual campaign.

Raoul Outlines Celery Industry In California

Sarasota Has Returned From Survey Of West Conditions

A clear and concise picture of the celery industry in California was drawn by Irving Raoul of Sarasota in an address to the members of the Control Committee following their regular meeting last night.

Mr. Raoul, vice-chairman of the Committee, has just returned from a survey of the industry on the Pacific Coast as an envoy of the Committee, making the trip to and from the far-west via airplane.

Declaring that he felt the trip had been well worth while, Mr. Raoul told of the different major sections in California and pointed out that the northern producing section was over 700 miles from the southernmost celery growing area.

In the Stockton section, which lies in the heart of the delta area, approximately 2,000 acres of celery annually are planted. Mr. Raoul said, but because of the cheap growing methods employed in that section, yields averaged about 150 crates per acre. Shipments begin in the fall and continue through the latter part of January.

In the Guadalupe area there is an increasing acreage and this season there starts shortly after the Stockton section and continues through February, Mr. Raoul said. Chula Vista probably has the largest celery acreage and has the longest season. Shipments from this area start after those in the other sections and continue into March and sometimes later under favorable weather conditions.

In the Venice area, Mr. Raoul pointed out, shipments of celery do not begin until after Apr. 15 and continue until competition from other Spring producing centers force them out of the markets.

Apparently the status of the celery industry in California is identical with that of the Florida industry five years ago, Mr. Raoul said, reporting constant friction between the different sections who are in competition with each other throughout most of the season.

Mr. Raoul stated that he was informed that there had been attempts in the sections in a co-operative move to improve the industry in the far west but that the Guadalupe section had been

Roosevelt Bill To Alter Government Defeated 204-196

Democratic Leaders Interpret Defeat As Showing Lack Of Confidence In FDR

Third Rebuff In Past 3 Months

Stocks Bounded Upward In Broadest Buying Surge For This Year

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, thanking House leaders for their "fine fight" for the defeated Reorganization Bill, declared today that the House shelving of legislation was "no occasion for personal recriminations and there should be none."

Leaders said killing of the measure should hasten the adjournment Congress.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—The Senate refused today to write the processing taxes into the $5,000,000,000 revenue bill. Levies on corn, wheat, rice, tobacco and synthetic fibers had been asked by Senator Pope, Democrat Idaho, to raise $212,000,000 annually for additional farm benefits.

NEW YORK, Apr. 9.—(AP)—Stock market leaders bounded skyward today in the broadest buying surge of the year, many climbing one to more than six points as traders scrambled for favorites.

The principal ammunition for the upswing, brokers said, was the unexpected defeat of the government reorganization bill by the House. This from the standpoint of some financial circles indicated that Congress might ditch the other measures which Administration opponents deem restrictive to business and industry.

In addition, the inflation theme attained a higher pitch in Wall Street as speculative forces gave credence to reports from the Capital that "pump-priming" on a large scale would be recommended by the President as a means of halting the recession.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—The administration took a terrific beating from the house, which rose up against the government reorganization bill last night and sent it back to a special re-organization committee.

Roosevelt May Fish In Far-Off Waters

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, close friends disclosed today, is considering a summer fishing trip that would take him by warship to one of three areas far from the United States.

While his final decision rests on when Congress adjourns, it was said he is thinking of boarding a cruiser at some southern port around mid-July to strike out for the far-off Azores and Madeira Islands in the lower Atlantic, the Leeward and Windward Islands in the Caribbean, or Galapagos Islands in the Pacific.

The trip probably would require a month, ending soon enough to permit a speaking trip or two before the late primaries and November election.

LOCAL WEATHER Florida: Partly cloudy, colder in south and east portions tonight; temperatures from 28 to 42 degrees in interior of extreme north portion, with scattered light frost near Georgia line of clear, Sunday, generally fair, slightly warmer in northwest portion.
