

Kennedy Asked To Make Cold War Concessions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Communist diplomats here are busy spreading the word that President Kennedy should make some cold war concessions in return for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's withdrawal from Cuba.

They took to talks with their diplomats and envoys of that Khrushchev's removal of offensive weapons from Cuba was a contribution to world peace which calls for some similar action somewhere by the United States.

"This has been, but parallel campaign is assumed by authorities here to be the beginning of an all-out 'peace offensive' which Khrushchev is expected to launch as soon as the current Communist Party Central Committee meeting in Moscow has reviewed the world situation period.

Such an offensive presumably would be designed to regain some of the neutralist support Khrushchev lost in the Cuban affair and possibly new some discord among Western Allies who differ in varying degrees on just how far to go in trying to negotiate diplomatic settlements of critical East-West issues.

The public diplomatic campaign by Communist envoys here overlooks the fact that there would have been no threat of nuclear war over Cuba in the first place if Khrushchev had not placed long-range missiles and bombers in the heart of the Western hemisphere just off the American coast.

Nevertheless, it is on the record that Kennedy agreed in his October exchange of letters with Khrushchev to intensify efforts on disarmament and other major issues if the Russians ended the nuclear threat from Cuba. The President reaffirmed the hope at his Tuesday news conference that settlement of the Cuban issue would open the way for progress on other problems.

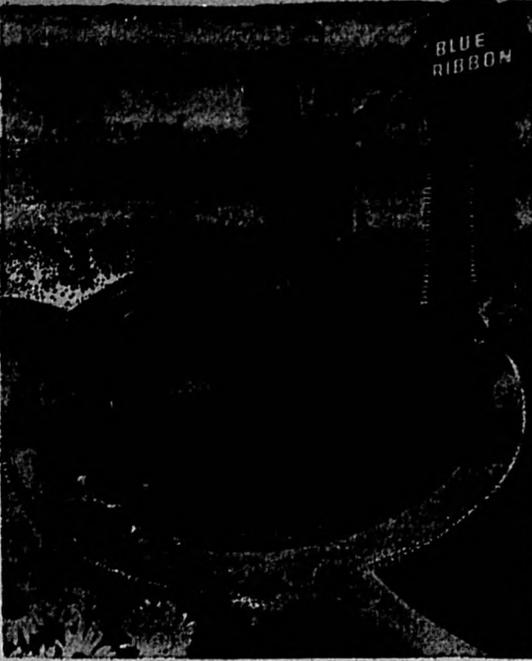

Anything else he may have suggested in communications to the Soviet leader which are as yet unpublished is not known.

CUBAN SUGAR
One planting of sugar cane in Cuba yields between four and eight crops a year, while a set of canes will yield only one crop annually in other parts of the world.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VRESHEL
A FEW SHOTS IN THE DARK...

Francis Boumillat Jr. will probably be the next president of the Chamber of Commerce... Hunt Co. plant will be finished by Jan. 15... Further plans call for a shopping center as well as 60 unit apartment house development... New phone books coming out in February... will be green covered and twice as big... The post office has received a letter going to Santa. It was embroidered with the prettiest ribbon you ever did see.

The County Home committee will ask the County Commission tomorrow to farm out those old folks at the county home. Will throw on construction of any nursing home facility... Emphasis will be that nursing home regulations are so strict most counties can't cope with them.

Builders are still trying to assess whether or not they will be hurt by the presidential edict relative to "non-discriminatory" housing... they KNOW they're hurt—but to what extent they can plan... Nationally, a forecast of 1.4 million housing starts was predicted for 1963 (about the same as 1962), they say, but now—???

Very little, if any speculative construction is planned now, and this has been "the backbone" of the house building industry... Many in the construction field feel that the effect locally (Central Florida) will be more pronounced than in areas farther north... Building trades, supply yards, realtors are all in the shut-down in planning it is HURTING!

Seminoles football fans in post mortems of the season that has just closed are talking about the excellent game Gene Williams played against DeLand—some say it was the best of his season; that HE was the one that made the first TD; Riser carried the ball, but he was following Gene almost step for step and when the terrific tackle bumped the linebacker after clearing out the linemen, Butch stepped into pay dirt territory... "determined" running of Butch Riser, Jack Calko, Earl Black... Lloyd Freeman's kicking... without a shoe on pants, with one on place kicks... the TEAM spirit of the Jayvees that was carried over into their varsity rumples after their season closed, and predictions are they will have it next year... the fine coaching job done by the two Jims, Pigott and McCoy, with the Indians and Ralph Stumpf and John Colbert's development of the Jayvees... the spirited work done by the cheer leaders... the pageantry of the Marching Seminoles band... the above-average work done by ALL tackles, and the rock-ribbed "inside line" gridlers.

Sports enthusiasts believe that one of the most outstanding accomplishments in their field in a LONG time, and surely for this year, is the job done at Oviedo... That group not only raised the funds for an athletic field, but starting from scratch, built one... And on top of that, as if to prove how right they are, they fielded a football team that gave a fine account of itself and MUST have been a pride and joy to the high school and to the town.

And to show how keen the competition in our county high schools is, the Lyman Greyhounds had a football season that left all the fans with "Ooooooh's and aaaaah's" for accomplishment... Buck Metts proved that he was the one to take over the reins when Bill Proctor decided to "get some more education"... Those folks out Longwood way are looking forward to the next season, feeling that it will show even better results... Gee, how could that be? They didn't lose until after the regular season was closed, did they?

LETTER CARRIERS, formerly working from the post office annex on Second St. are now operating out of the new post office on the lakefront. The men, working voluntarily over the weekend, moved equipment to be ready for today's delivery, with some of the carrier's wives also lending a helping hand. It is expected that all other postal equipment will be moved in next weekend. Photo shows Carriers Clifford Wynn and Gordon Honeycutt putting names on letter boxes. (Herald Photos)

Knowles To Ask First St. Library

City Manager W. E. Knowles will ask the City Commission tonight to take over the vacant post office building on First St. and utilize it for a new Municipal Library.

Knowles stressed the space at the library is being used at the ultimate now. If the city doesn't acquire the facility, the General Services Administration reported it would be turned over to the school board to use for administrative purposes.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwe, when queried by the Herald last week, said he could not tell whether the school board would accept the building or withdraw their request. The post office site committee of the Chamber had recommended that both the city and school board withdraw their request and that the building be put on the tax roll and used for commercial purposes.

Mayor Jim Crapps reported this morning he would recommend the city take over the facility and hold it until something could be worked out with GSA to allow the building be put up for bid.

Municipal Vote Deadline Ends

The weekend deadline for candidates to qualify for next week's municipal elections in Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Longwood and Oviedo brought only one last minute entry as incumbent Mayor Carl Stoddard of Casselberry filed for re-election just under Friday's closing date.

Elections will be set and dried affairs in Altamonte and Oviedo where none of the candidates have opposition. Running for council in Altamonte are Gene R. Stephenson for ward three and Stuart D. Fritch for ward four. In Oviedo incumbents Ben Jones, W. R. Clonta and W. H. Martin were the only men to come out.

A somewhat different picture appears for Casselberry and Longwood. In Casselberry races for three seats on the Board of Aldermen and for the office of mayor are contested and candidates for the two council seats in Longwood also have opposition.

Running for alderman in Casselberry are Art Logo, Dennis S. Long, Ed Lunn, Lou Woodhams, John M. Burns and J. D. Self; for mayor are Stoddard and Fred G. Heath. Marshal Gus Sawyer and Clerk Mrs. Lillian Henning are unopposed.

Longwood council seats are being sought by incumbents R. C. Carlson and John Reams. Also in the races are E. E. Williamson, a former councilman and newcomers Vernon Finch and Mark Bullock. A. Lormann for mayor and Mrs. Onnie Rockett Shomate for clerk are running unopposed and Roy Shomate is the only candidate for the office of tax collector.

A Political Rally will be sponsored in Longwood by the Volunteer Fire Dept. on Thursday at 8 p. m. in the City Park with R. T. Milwe serving as moderator. Free coffee and doughnuts will be served by the firemen.

The car was found by speculators who gathered to assist Ray Casselberry, 17, Mailand, who had flipped his motorcycle on the curve.

Cordell Honored By JFK

President John F. Kennedy honored the memory of the late Capt. Terry Cordell when he sent a personal letter to Cordell's widow, Susan, last week.

The letter: The White House Washington Dear Mrs. Cordell: It was with deep regret that I learned of the death of your husband, Captain Terry D. Cordell, United States Army, who died in a combat operation in Viet Nam when the aircraft he was aboard was shot down by hostile fire.

From the time that he was designated a "Distinguished Military Student" at The Citadel to his recent assignment with the 1st Special Forces he exhibited outstanding professional skill, leadership and devotion to duty. His many fine qualities won for him the respect and admiration of both his brother officers and the soldiers with whom he served.

I realize words cannot lessen the heartache suffered by you in the loss of your husband. It is my hope that the knowledge of your husband's devoted service to our country will be a source of comfort and pride to you and, in later years, to your daughter. His noble sacrifice is attested to by the award of the Purple Heart from a grateful nation.

Mrs. Kennedy joins me in extending our heartfelt sympathy to you and Judith in your tragic loss. Sincerely, J. F. Kennedy

2 Oil Companies May Locate Here

Murray Hey, vice president of the Hunt Oil Co., Dallas, told the Herald today that two of the world's largest petroleum companies are interested in securing sites at the Hunt Industrial park, and said there are two other, nationally known concerns that have expressed an interest in locations here.

In a telephone conversation today Hey said his company was very disappointed and surprised, that the Frito-Lay people made the decision on the Orange County site.

Hey said, "the crucial point in the negotiations was the extensive disposal facilities necessary for their type of food processing operation. We had to spend hundreds of dollars to determine whether or not we could meet their requirements."

The decision of the Frito-Lay Corp., of Dallas, Texas, to purchase an industrial site at an Orange County industrial park for their proposed new plant, came as a surprise and a "disappointment" to Sanford city officials who had been trying to influence the potato chip firm in a Sanford location.

Sanford Mayor Jimmy Crapps said, "We had been given to understand by W.E. Freeman, vice president of Frito-Lay, that the company would make no decision on a future Central Florida location before next year, and for that reason we decided to lay low and not run them in to the ground. We were very disappointed to learn that the company had made a decision without any further conversations with us."

Deputies today are hunting for a Hookertown Negro in connection with a series of stabbings in the area Sunday night, the Sheriff's office said.

The Negro was identified as George Fisher. He is accused of stabbing W. Campbell in the chest after an argument and also knifing Campbell's sister.

Campbell is reported in satisfactory condition at Seminoles Memorial Hospital today.

Lake Mary Station student Robert Stubbings has been named as one of seven nominees at the university to receive the Woodrow Wilson scholarships of the 1962-63 academic year.

Each award brings a living allowance of $1,500 a year for single students and pays the full cost of tuition and fees to the university.

Others nominated were Alene Armburgh of Jacksonville, Jon Clifton of Richmond, Va., Diane Disney of Vernon, Ind., Janet Hawkins of Miami, Don Humeycutt of Green, S. C., and Karen Beason of Griffin, Ga.

Hey feels that the possible choice had narrowed down to Orlando or Sanford and the Orange County location was selected because of the existing facilities there, rather than having to depend on the construction and installation of suitable equipment here.

However, Hey does not expect any building in the immediate future and he is not sure that the deal has been closed as yet for the Orlando industrial site.

The decision of Frito-Lay not to locate in the Sanford area was based in part that the company was "not confident future Sanford officials would be in a position to honor commitments made by the present board," W. E. Freeman, vice president of the company said today.

Shocked, City Official Says

"The decision to locate our plant in Orlando was based on future growth requirements of the company. We are not confident future Sanford City officials would be in a position to honor commitments made by the present Board," Freeman said.

"The Frito-Lay Company does not want to be a burden on any community. In the opinion of the officials of my company, Frito-Lay would be more secure in Orlando," he added.

Freeman continued by expressing his sincere thanks and appreciation to the Sanford City officials for their interest and fine cooperation in all negotiations, and regrets that the decision did not favor the Sanford location.

Macmillan Sets DeGaulle Meet

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will confer with French President Charles de Gaulle in France Dec. 15-16 for "a personal and direct exchange of views" on international problems, it was announced today.

The announcement in London and Paris had been predicted for several days and was seen as a prelude to Macmillan talks with President John Kennedy prior to Christmas.

8 Rescued From 'Ice'

QUONSET POINT (UPI)—Eight men aboard a Navy transport plane which crashed on Davis Glacier in the Antarctic were rescued apparently uninjured, the Navy said today.

A spokesman said the ski-equipped twin-engine transport plane went down on ice about three hours after leaving the McMurdo Sound Naval air facility.

Deputies Hunt Negro Assailant

Deputies today are hunting for a Hookertown Negro in connection with a series of stabbings in the area Sunday night, the Sheriff's office said.

The Negro was identified as George Fisher. He is accused of stabbing W. Campbell in the chest after an argument and also knifing Campbell's sister.

Cuba Demands U. S. Dismantle Training Camps

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro's government demanded today that the United States dismantle "training camps of mercenaries, spies, saboteurs and terrorists" under United Nations inspection as a price for international inspection of Cuba.

The demand by the cabinet and the national board of the Integrated Revolutionary Organizations (ORI) was printed today in the government newspaper Revolution.

It was formulated at a two-hour joint session Sunday night and was designed to answer President Kennedy's statements on the Cuban crisis in his press conference last Tuesday.

Kennedy at that time announced he was lifting the naval quarantine of Cuba because Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev had told him all Russian bombers would be withdrawn from the island within 30 days.

The President noted, however, that Cuba "has not yet permitted the United Nations to verify whether all offensive weapons have been removed and no lasting safeguards have yet been established against the future introduction of offensive weapons back into Cuba."

Today's Cuban statement was released shortly before Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan was scheduled to return to New York after a 24-day visit to Cuba.

Yule Cheer Comes Early

Christmas cheer came early this year to three Sanfordites who were the recipients of three prizes at the merchants drawing held Friday in downtown Sanford.

Mrs. Beatrice Polley of 701 E. 25th St. was top winner and took the $45 in merchant's gift certificates.

Thomas Lawson's name was drawn next and he took home $25 in gift certificates to his residence at 1411 W. 11th St.

Mrs. Laurane Poff of 110 Temple Drive in Ravenna Park won the $20 give-away sponsored by the Downtown Merchant's Association in conjunction with the big three week pre-Christmas sales promotion.

Two more big sales-bargain weekends are planned by the Sanford Downtown Merchant's Assn. with $100 in gift certificates to be given away each Friday night.

Specials, bargains, sales and price cuts will be in order for the next two weeks as merchants repeat the successful sales campaign here, according to E. C. Harper Jr., president of the association.

Peace Corps Applications Often Strange

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A kindly parent listed as a reference by a youth trying to get into the Peace Corps reported indignantly that "even police policemen that have arrested him in past years stated they liked him."

This showed up in the process of checking the nearly 20,000 applications the Peace Corps has handled in the past 20 months. Officials said today it's hard to tell who's best at forwarding applications — the applicant or his references.

One applicant, school to list his primary skills, wrote respectfully "I don't remember."

Another, arriving at a question asking what he hoped to accomplish in the Peace Corps, summed it up in a nutshell: "Peace."

One youth described himself as a "jack of all trades," and added he was "a master of one."

One said his occupation was "connector of steel girders," and another had experienced "guilt workers."

The references ran the gamut from malice to bombing headquarters.

One applicant was described as "making good strides toward developing from a shy, self-conscious girl into a person, self-confident, led."

Another said the person in question "is Catholic, but tolerates an occasional Baptist."

One hopeful got this glowing report: "I have seen her react favorably when her hand was smashed in a car door."

One reference reported darkly that the applicant "hasn't been arrested yet."

Famed Author Dead At 64

LAMPASAS, Tex. (UPI) — Veteran newsmen and author, Stanley Walker, 64, shot himself to death Sunday.

He gained national attention as city editor of the New York Herald Tribune from 1938-1955 and was known as a newspaperman's newspaperman.

Walker had written nearly a dozen books and numerous magazine articles. Most dealt with Texas customs and folklore, but some were about New York.

'Kilroy Was Here' Creator Dead At 60

BOSTON (UPI)—James J. Kilroy, 60, Halifax, Mass., reportedly the man who originated the famous World War II slogan, "Kilroy was here," died at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital Saturday night after a long illness.

Kilroy, former Boston city councilor and Massachusetts state representative, coined the phrase while inspecting tanks at the Fore River shipyard early in the war.

It caught on and before the war ended, American GI's had scrawled "Kilroy was here" around the world.

Mikoyan Tells Cubans: Your Cause Is Soviets

HAVANA (UPI) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan today closed out a 24-day visit with a pledge that "the cause of Cuba is the cause of the Soviet Union."

Mikoyan made his farewell address Sunday night over a nationwide radio and television hookup and predicted that Cuba's "enemies are going to die."

The Soviet trouble-shooter arranged to fly today from Havana to New York where he was invited to dine with United Nations Acting Secretary General Thant.

Mikoyan did not disclose the results of his talks with Premier Fidel Castro and other Cuban government leaders during his visit which started Nov. 2. Castro had said before his arrival that Cuba wanted to discuss Soviet-Cuban "differences" on a basis of equality.

Mikoyan did make an indirect reference to the Soviet decision to withdraw missiles and bombers from Cuba by hailing "the wisdom of the policy of avoiding a thermonuclear war."

He said Russia was "helping the Cuban people achieve their independence" and "construct a new social order under comrade Fidel Castro together with comrade Raul Castro and comrade Carlos Rafael Rodriguez."

Kill Inmate Who Attempted To Stop Prison Kidnaping

FOLSOM, Calif. (UPI) — A deeply religious Folsom prison inmate died Sunday in a futile attempt to stop three other prisoners from kidnaping and holding hostage members of a church choir who had come to sing for them.

Conrad N. Becker, 41, serving time for burglary, was stabbed three times with a makeshift knife. He died without knowing that the three convicts released their prisoners unharmed after negotiations with prison authorities.

The stabbing occurred in the prison chapel of the maximum security prison just as the 16-member Bethel Choir from nearby Sacramento finished its first hymn of the afternoon services.

Becker noticed the three convicts, all armed with some sort of weapons, walking purposefully up the aisle toward the choir. He screamed, "Praise God," and attempted to tackle one of the men who turned and stabbed him repeatedly.

The convicts, all serving life sentences, hustled six of the startled choir members and the prison chaplain into the chaplain's seven-by-seven foot office.

Then they began negotiations for release with Warden Robert A. Heinze, and Richard A. McGee, director of the California prison system. Discussions were carried on through a window of the door which one convict smashed.

"They wanted us to open the gates, and we just don't open gates," said Heinze. "It's possible that these fellows just wanted to give it a try to see if it would work."

After three and a half hours the convicts, Farrell Fenton, 29, Edward W. Maher, 27, and Edward Caugh, 29, released their seven hostages.

The inmates then were questioned and placed in solitary confinement.

McGee, called to the prison from Sacramento, said later that he promised the men he would ask the district attorney not to prosecute them under a state law which makes the death penalty mandatory for a lifer convicted of assault with a deadly weapon.

Nevertheless Asst. Dist. Atty. Oscar Kistie said he would ask the Sacramento grand jury for murder indictments against all three.

Becker was described as a man with deep religious convictions. He attended Sunday choir sessions whenever possible in order to take part in the group singing.

The members of the choir held prisoners were identified as Frank Dotson, Howard Hooper, Naamaa Hall, Joseph Cripe, Herbert Dean, and their leader, the Rev. Frank Mapes. Prison chaplain Heath Owry also was held.

1851 Women Plan Sale

Ladies attending today's 8 p.m. meeting of the Women's Organization affiliated with Sanford Lodge 1851, Loyal Order of Moose, will mark and price rummage for a sale to be held Dec. 7-8 in the Woodruff Bldg. in Sanford.

Members of the group are asked to bring their collection of sales items to this meeting. Proceeds from the sale will go towards a lodge sponsored Christmas party for the children.

Caesar 'Special' Turns Out 'Bore'

By Rick Du Brow
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Sid Caesar's special on ABC-TV Sunday night never reigned but it bored.
 For a half hour, things were fast, frantic and energetic, but seldom funny, as the consistent excellence of Caesar's early years on pioneer television continued to elude his returns to the medium.
 Such an air of adulation has grown up around the star that one wonders whether his associates grant leeway to his comedy excesses out of sheer awe; whether, for instance, anyone would approach him with the suggestion that his patented nervous stammering is just a tedious, irritating pain when accompanied by inferior material.

 Instead of sharp, superior satire, pared to fineness with swift blackouts, we got sloppy stuff that just seemed to get out of control and ended with hardly any punch. Could anything be more overworked than a takeoff on various television shows? That was one sequence, and one to forget.

 A skit about a fellow who gets greedy when given lots of money by an angel yielded nothing but overdone mugging by Caesar; and a sketch about two couples splitting a restaurant check was simply bad.
 The only reasonable amount of humor came when Caesar, by stuff that just seemed to get out of control and ended a laboratory scientist conducting a "big experiment in chapped lips"—hers. The girl, the talented Barbara Harris, was almost the entire show as she blankly nuzzled him or chewed an apple as a reporter questioned him.

 Miss Harris, who will star in a Richard Rodgers-Alan Jay Lerner Broadway musical, should have been given much more of a chance overall to open up her comic ability Sunday night; she was badly needed.

 Needed most, however, is someone strong enough to stop Caesar from running away with himself. I haven't seen his new Broadway show, "Little Me," but in his future video ventures beyond those already finished he might do well to consider some words of Sir Max Beerholm:
 "My gifts are small. I've used them very well and discreetly, never straining them; and the result is that I've made a charming little reputation."

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?
 After 21, common kidney or bladder irritation affects lives of many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondary you may lose sleep and suffer from headache, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CUREX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by soothing irritating areas in strong, safe and by absolute pain relief. One CUREX at drugstore. Feel better fast.

CORRECT METHODS of applying armings is one of numerous first aid steps being taught in the accelerated course held at the Forest City Baptist Church each Tuesday and Thursday morning. At Least Nine Are Killed In State Weekend Traffic

MIAMI (UPI) — At least nine persons died in Florida weekend traffic accidents, including two army sergeants

HARRY ROBSON JR. has been promoted to Airman 2/c and will now be stationed in Guam for two years, according to word received here. Robson graduated with the class of 1960 of SHS, and attended Miami Junior College until March 1961 when he joined the Air Force. After basic training at Lackland in San Antonio, Tex., he was stationed in Jacksonville, Ark.

stationed at Homestead Air Force Base.
 Police said Staff Sgt. Charles W. Schollar, 38, of Rowlesburg, W. Va., and Sgt. 1-C Kenneth F. Poyner, 32, of Augusta, Ga., were killed Sunday when their car crashed into a parked semi-trailer truck in Hialeah.
 John L. Eichenseher, 64, of Lantana was killed on State Road 12 in Palm Beach County Sunday when he was struck by a freight train while walking along the railroad tracks.
 In another Dade County wreck, Anthony Oliver, 72, was killed in a two-car collision in Miami Sunday.
 A Saturday night accident near Milton killed Delores Sanchez Mantes of Mexico City, Mexico, and injured seven others.
 An Orlando woman, Myrtle Horne, 49, was killed in an Orange County accident. Woodrow Wilson Kersey, 54, died in an accident just south of Ormond Beach.

Income Tax Cut?

... getting it and spending it — is always one of the major concerns of Congress, but it could spend more than the ordinary amount of five weeks when the 80th Congress convenes in January.

The President has committed himself to a general tax reduction as part of a general tax reform. Now the Bureau of the Budget announces that the federal deficit for fiscal year 1960, which began last July, will be about $7.5 billion — the largest since the unlimited spending years of World War II.

To The Editor

Dear Editor:

This is a letter to you on my topic, the changing of precincts. You published my letter in the Herald, Tuesday and the answer from Mr. Larry Verabel. I am glad that I have a good sense of humor. When it comes to this topic of vote and such.

check and check very much.

As I read the statement of Camilla Bruce, I wondered if I had put my head in a noose.

This change of precincts on our last voting spree I was sent to Longwood, instead of Lake Mary.

But please won't you tell me, where I have been while all were signing, 46 times with their pen?

This isn't the answer, I was looking for, I didn't mean there's a precinct outside everyone's door.

WASHINGTON — (SMA) — Condemnation of Undersecretary of State George C. McGhee's recent trip to the Congo and the recall to Washington for consultation of U. S. Ambassador A. Gullion emphasizing the performance with which the State Department views latest developments in the new African state.

When McGhee left the Congo at the end of October he had some assurances that negotiations would be resumed and that the cease-fire agreement would be signed. It was to be made effective Nov. 15.

On the other hand, the Congo Republic now charges that Russian and Czech diplomats are trying to promote succession of Kasai province from the central government, which would further weaken unification.

Matter Of Fact

It is sad to note how far the art of warfare has come in the 20th century. With all the worry about fallout from nuclear weapons, it is hard to believe that it has been less than 50 years since gas was considered a major menace in war. It was first used as a weapon by the Germans against Allied forces north of Ypres in Belgium on April 22, 1915, during the first World War.

Seminole Citrus Quality Small, 'Good'

LAKELAND (UPI) — Florida Citrus Mutual reported today that the current crop condition indicates fruit is slow in sizing in most areas, but internal quality of all varieties is excellent.

Robert W. Rutledge, executive vice president, said the report was made up from surveys in 25 of the state's citrus-producing counties.

Receipts from the county-by-county report:

Palm—Oranges are coloring up well, but big problem is small size with some reports indicating slow small-size in years. Recent rains have brought relief from drought conditions.

Lake, Citrus and Sumner—Fruit maturing slowly as far as internal quality is concerned, but many oranges on older trees have not sized up as well as last season. Small size are handicapping movement of fresh fruit in some cases.

Orange, Ocala and Seminole—Early fruit size are quite small and this is holding back a lot of fruit from the fresh market. Quality is quite good.

FASHIONABLE
Fashionable colors, such as avocado and honey beige, can be readily applied to wood paneling on interior walls. According to the Southern Pine Association, the desired hue can be achieved simply by tinting the finish with oils. Such finishes are transparent and do not obscure the wood grain.

Stetson Professor Gets Governor's Award

The chairman of Stetson University's art department, Fred Messersmith, has been awarded this year's "Governor's Award for the Outstanding Florida Scene."

A walnut plaque with an outline of the state of Florida in polished brass was presented to Messersmith in Lakeland recently by G. Evans, assistant to Gov. Farris Bryant.

The award was for Messersmith's watercolor painting entitled "Tracks." When the presentation was made at the 35th annual Florida Federation of Arts convention, Evans said the plan was to hang the watercolor in Gov. Bryant's office.

The Governor's Award is an annual presentation. This year's jury was composed of Lamar Dodd, art director, University of Georgia; Edward Shorter, director, Columbus Art Museum, Columbus, Ga., and Joseph Jeffers Dodge, director, Cummer Gallery, Jacksonville.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our son had only one more year before graduating from law school when his wife made him quit. She said there was no future in law. She talked him into selling on commission. One week they eat chicken and the next week they eat feathery. Now she says they need $1,000 to get his teeth fixed—for "business reasons." How can teeth be important in business unless you are a horse? If she would let him finish law school, he would have something in his head and nobody would look at his teeth. She has made a horse of him! He's our only son and we love him. Should we give him the money?

THE OLD FOLKS
DEAR OLD FOLKS: If your son is required to meet the public, his teeth ARE important. You don't help children (some child!) to stand alone by GIVING them things. LEND him the money.

DEAR ABBY: We have a neighbor who is a nice person, but she has a 4-year-old boy who has long curls hanging down his back. He can almost sit on his hair and it is a pity to see how the other children tease that boy. Even adults look at him twice and wonder whether he is a boy or girl. The woman is either divorced, deserted or separated because there is never a husband around. Some of the neighbors say it's none of our business, but I think it is. Am I wrong to worry about the child?

JUST A NEIGHBOR
DEAR NEIGHBOR: No, you are not wrong. The mother is doing her son a great disservice. Perhaps you should become friendlier with the mother and tell her in a nice way to separate the boy from the curls.

DEAR ABBY: Although I am only 15, I am the "Dear Abby" of our block. I've helped many girls (and some boys) with their problems, but here is one that has me stumped. A girl (my age) is madly in love with my brother. He is 17 and he can't stand her. This girl tells me she can't eat or sleep for thinking about him. She says he's not good-looking, is conceited and treats her like dirt, but she is an emotional wreck over him. I told her she might as well forget him, but she says she can't. If she knew how my brother really felt about her she would die. How can I help this girl?

"DEAR ABBY OF WASHINGTON STREET"
DEAR "DEAR ABBY": Your advice was exactly what mine would have been. To give her false hope would be cruel. Tell her to focus her attention elsewhere because your brother likes her "as a friend" and nothing more.

DEAR ABBY: Is it possible to fall in love with a picture?
C.C.

DEAR C.C.: Yes. But it invariably ends in frustration because a picture can't love back.

CONFIDENTIAL TO B. C. I.: As Lord Chesterfield said to his son, "Make other people like themselves a little better, my son, and I promise you they will like you very well."

Canned Stew Vs. Good Stew

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department's marketing bulletin No. 22 apparently has received only limited circulation, for which I am extremely grateful. If a copy of the bulletin ever found its way into my household, there would be trouble right here in River City. No. 22 makes a study of the cost of serving canned, frozen and "instant" foods as compared to the cost of preparing the same dishes at home. This is certainly innocuous enough and might even be considered a public service. But the bulletin does not stop there.

It goes on to provide charts which show how much a housewife's time in the kitchen is worth. In my opinion, gentlemen, that disclosure is not only potentially dangerous but downright subversive. Take, for example, an eight-ounce serving of beef stew. According to the agriculture bulletin, the retail cost for the canned variety is 71 cents. But if a housewife makes the same amount of stew from scratch, the cost is 77 cents. There have been times when the beef stew my wife cooked (tasted as if it might have been made from scratch. Culinary merits, however, are not the issue here. In the second column of the chart, the time spent in preparing this dish is listed as two minutes for canned stew and 30 minutes for a home-cooked serving. A bit of quick arithmetic shows that this is a saving of six cents and 28 minutes. If word of that gets around, you can guess who is going to have canned stew for supper from now on. An even more ominous chart is one which computes the value of her time for preparing eight potato dishes which are available in frozen, dried and canned form. It shows that "for six of the eight products, the homemaker is earning less than 50 cents an hour." My favorite potatoes are french fries, and my wife hates to fry anything. According to the bulletin, when she is frying potatoes she is, in effect, earning four cents an hour. This is what I mean about the bulletin stirring up trouble. Domestic bias is hard enough to achieve without letting housewives know that they are being overpaid.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

This week's series will stress the great importance of planning the whole play of the hand right off the bat. The first thought should occur before playing from dummy on the opening lead.

Thus, South's preliminary thoughts should be, "If trump break nicely all I can lose are two trumps and a club, but East doubled. Probably, he holds four trumps. In that case I can't make my contract, but I don't want to go down more than one trick. How can I protect myself and still make the hand if East has doubled without four trumps?"

Then, South follows to that to see how he can draw trumps without risking a casualty. He solves his problem by leading a low trump. East wins the trick and his best play is to lead a trump right back because if he plays a third club South will ruff in dummy. Now South takes his ace of trumps and plays diamonds. East will set him one trick, but that is nothing to what would have happened if South had played ace and another trump when he gained the lead. East would have drawn all the trumps and led a club to set South four tricks instead of only one.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Eric Gurney, whose "How to Live with a Neurotic Dog," was a best-seller, has written a new book "How to Live with a Calculating Cat." Calculating cat owners will probably find the second book as entertaining as neurotic dog owners found the first book to be.

Never having owned a cat and never expecting to own one I can't pass judgment on the book. All I know about cats I've learned from other people's cats and what I've learned is that cats have a sense of humor.

There are in the world, along with his many cat lovers, a goodly number of people who don't like cats. To them a cat isn't charming, he's a sinister character more at home in haunted houses and in dark alleys or stealthily stalking birds than in being a companion to human beings.

If you happen to feel that way about cats, they know it without ever a "scat" being said. It's something they sense.

So what does a cat do when he realizes that in a room full of cat lovers there is one lone cat loather?

He ignores everybody saying "Here, kitty, kitty" and heads straight for the one person trying to ignore him. Then he either leaps lightly in that one cat-loather's lap and settles down, or he slides up and rubs his fur against the person all the while meowing, and right there he stays.

The more the cat loather tries to inch away from him the more attentive the cat becomes, all the while wearing a sinister smile that seems to say, "So, you don't like cats? Well, just what are you going to do about it, make a fuss? You wouldn't dare, would you? After all, you're just a guest here, and I belong. So smile and act like you like me because that's all you can do, you cat loather, you. With my owner watching you, you stay."

Pottery Design
Struts made of nickel-chromium-iron alloy are used to separate pottery while it is being enamel fired at about 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit. This alloy was found to resist scaling and distortion which could mar the finish on fine china.

MAGAZINE

By GEORGE E. PAPCUN

If you are on the prowl for a new TV set, may we pass along a few hints? Look for a picture which is crisp and clear even in daylight. Cabinet style is a matter of taste, but ease of tuning is important. Look for full edge-to-edge focus, free of creeping of the horizontal lines which provide the picture.

All of these features and many more are regular build-ins of the popular WESTINGHOUSE TV line. How about satisfying your curiosity on just exactly how the new color TV looks? Can you think of a better gift for the family? Come in anytime for a demonstration. TOWN and COUNTRY TV SERVICE, 2556 Park Drive, Phone FA 2-5362.

Invictas Hold Kegler Lead

With minds on Thanksgiving the Bill Hemphill Motor-ettes League had a rather lackadaisical day of it at Jet Lanes with Yvette Hunter being the only one to put out with a high 181 and a 483 score for the day.

The Invictas are still commanding first place with the Pontiacs not too far behind in place position and the Starbells coming up with show for the week.

There was only one turkey rolled last week and that was by Sally Ewell of the Catalinas who strung three strikes together with a beneficial effect on her overall performance for the meeting.

Part of the imports AT A STUNNING LOW PRICE! When you realize how little it costs to own the famous, aristocratic Fiat 1100 Special, you're likely to find 4-door unit-body construction, full-size windows all around, roomy interior with luxury leathers, padded dash, superb bidirectional light, easy payments. Call for a demonstration. It's really a feather.

There used to be some things you could depend on, like ducks flying south for the winter.
Now, you can't be sure. The world is getting so mixed up that nature's creatures are beginning to act like people—confused, that is. I don't get around much in the world, but when an example comes to the St. Johns River, that's my territory. Latest indication that things ain't what they used to be was brought to light by a duck hunter, Mel Stevens, who spent two days last week getting opinions on the denominations of three ducks which were foreigners to these parts. Experts like Jim Crowe and Mort Haines helped pin down one as a fulvous tree duck — the other two still are being guessed at.
These two were oddballs any way you look at 'em — they had wings like geese and bills like muscovy ducks from the barnyard and, whatever they are, they're way out of their territory here.

overnight feathered tourists and some Florida barnyard dwellers?)
The identified victim of Stevens' shotgun was a reddish-brown duck, with a white streak on its sides and a white tail base. It was about the size of a mallard, with a hook on the end of its bill.
The hook says its range is in far flung areas from California to central Mexico, north sections of South America, East Africa and India — but not Florida.
The Cuban crisis has been blamed for putting a scare in the human tourists from up north this winter, and the Indian-Chinese battle probably didn't help Tibetan tourism either, but wonder why the ducks got excited?
Were they heading north for the winter? Were they heading for Africa from California? Were they escaping the Chinese Reds along the Indian border?
Or do they know something we don't know?

A wingspread of 46 inches on the two strangers was the subject of much conversation as that is just about as big as a goose wing span. Their coloring also geared up the guesswork.
They were of a blackish cover, with greenish hues on the back, wide white ring around the neck and white edging on speculum and greater wing coverts. They had yellow feet and legs, but bills very similar to the ring neck or muscovy duck.
(I wouldn't want to inject a confidential style element, but do you suppose these critters are the offspring of some seasonal hanky-panky between

While discussing the vagaries of the duck world, I found out that the first roe shad of the season has been landed.
A three pounder with a small roe was brought into Crowe's Camp Saturday and Jim said he may revise his calculations on the arrival of the first big run.
Several other shad have been caught and people actually are fishing for them now. Crowe said if the cool weather and water level remain the same, there possibly may be a good run on the first full moon in December — that's not long.

Grid Giants Nearing Chance To Wrap Up Eastern Title

By United Press International
Y. A. Tittle and Del Shofner, New York's "TD twins," take the high-scoring Giants' serial circus to Chicago next Sunday with a chance to wrap up the National Football League's Eastern Division title against an ancient and often dangerous foe.
The Giants once again demonstrated—this time to capacity crowd of 66,219 in Washington D. C. Stadium—that an accurate pass and a sure-handed receiver are the shortest route to a score in the NFL. With Tittle piling and Shofner catching, the Giants steam-rolled the Washington Redskins, 42-24, Sunday and now need only one more victory in three remaining games to nail down their second straight Eastern title.
However, the task may not be as easy as all that, for the first roadblock is the Chicago Bears, who, alternately good and bad this season, put on a high-scoring show of their own only 23 miles away in Baltimore Sunday with a pulverizing, 57-0, rout of the Colts.
Of course, if they don't get by the Bears, then the Giants will have a chance to wrap up the title against the Cleveland Browns—another time-honored opponent—the following Sunday or against the Dallas Cowboys in the finale on Dec. 18. The Browns, written off only two weeks ago, rebounded back into the Eastern race by whipping the Pittsburgh Steelers, 25-14, while the Philadelphia Eagles defeated the Cowboys, 28-14; the San Francisco Forty Niners downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 24-17, and the Los Angeles Rams and Minnesota Vikings battled to a 24-24 tie.

The defending champion Green Bay Packers, beaten by the Detroit Lions on Thanksgiving Day for their first loss of the season, were idle Sunday along with the Lions. Both resume action this Sunday with the Packers hosting the Rams in Milwaukee and the Lions entertaining the Colts. Only a game separates Detroit and Green Bay in their race for the Western title.
The Giants opened their assault on the crippled Redskins with a score on the opening kickoff. Rookie Johnny Coons ran it back 90 yards and the avalanche was on with a momentary interruption for a field goal by Bob Kneyrat in the first period and a 15-yard TD loss from Norm Head to Bobby Mitchell just before the half.

Tittle, who set a new club record of 25 TD tosses in a season, ripped off scoring passes of 20, 10 and 44 yards to Shofner and running backs Phil King and Alex Webster smashed over on short runs to make it 42-10. Then, with the game out of reach, Washington reserve quarterback Galeo Hall connected on scoring passes of 18 and 48 yards to Dick James. Shofner's three TD receptions tied him with Mitchell for the NFL lead, each with 10.
The Bears had an even easier time with the Colts, who suffered the worst beating in their history.

Abner Haynes Becomes Big Man In Pro Circuit Wars
By United Press International
L'I Abner Haynes is a big man in Texas and the pro football world, too, today—ranking alongside Steve Van Buren and Jimmy Brown in the record book as he helped the Dallas Texans clinch a tie for the Western Division title in the American Football League.
Haynes, a 6-foot, 180-pounder, scored his 17th and 18th touchdowns of the season to lead the Texans over the winless Oakland Raiders, 35-7 Sunday on runs of 33 and 19 yards. The pro football record of 18 touchdowns was set by Van Buren of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles in 1945, matched by Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns in 1958 and tied by the Houston Oilers' Bill Groman last season.

Van Buren set his mark during a 10-game season, Brown in 12 games and Groman in 14 games. Haynes has three more games in which to surpass the trio.
In the AFL's only other action Sunday, Houston took over sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division with a 33-27 victory over the San Diego Chargers. The Oilers, with an 8-3 record, hold a half-game lead over the Boston Patriots, 7-3-1.

Strikers Pace Pinecrest Loop
Action in the Pinecrest Inn League found Gladys Piolan holding the spotlight with a spectacular bit of bowling that included a pin busting 219 high game and a 518 series, three strikes in a row and the conversion of a 2-7-8 split.
Next high game for the evening was rolled by Dot Johnson who came through with a 186/450, while Maxine Masay, Carol Mixon and Peggy Dooley picked up the 3-10 split.
Dot Green spared a tri-ty 5-6-10 and Marge Waters picked up the 6-6-10.
