Landon Calls For Aid To President On Foreign Affair

Republican Leader Is Critical Of Members Of Congress Who Imply Distrust

Republicans And Democrats Are Hit

Connally Objects To Unprecedented Radio Address By Saito

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Alf M. Landon gave President Roosevelt today a pledge of "co-operation and support in the difficult foreign situations confronting your administration."

In a telegram made public at the State Department, the 1936 Republican standard bearer and former Kansas Governor, criticized members of Congress of both parties who he said "by their actions helped to create the impression among foreign nations that they do not trust your administration of foreign affairs."

Senator Butler, republican, Oregon, introduced a resolution today asking him to submit to the Senate the number of American nationals in China; the estimated number of officers and enlisted personnel of United States army, navy or marine corps now stationed there and the approximate amount of American capital invested in China by whom.

Butler awaited a reply from Tokyo to this government's ultimatum and various pronouncements against the Japanese bombing and machine-gunning of the U.S. gun boats and three Standard Oil steamers in the Yangtze River. The communication, delayed by the Tokyo government's investigation of the incident which presented a grave threat to Japanese-American relations, is expected within 48 hours.

Following Japan's Ambassador Hata's public apology to the American people in a two-minute unprecedented radio speech in which he described the bombing as a "grave blunder," Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, commented in the Senate on the "very unusual procedure" followed by Hata.

Called It Unusual

"It is a very unusual procedure for the ambassador of a foreign country to make an address directly to the people of our country without clearing that statement through the regular departments of government," Connally protested.

He made his observation after Senator Capland, democrat, New York, brought the matter to the Senate's attention by inquiring of Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, chairman of the foreign relations committee, whether he had been informed of Hata's plan before the speech was delivered. Pittman said he had not, and that first word of the speech reached him through the newspapers.

Barto spoke on a commercially sponsored program over the red network of the National Broadcast System. His remarks were transmitted over 23 stations but reached no farther west than St. Louis. The ambassador did not indicate and it could not be learned whether he

Commission Of 5 Percent Assured Jinkins By Order Amount To Be Figured With Costs In Tax Certificate Sales

Those who wish to purchase delinquent tax certificates as provided under the Murphy "low dollar" tax certificate act are now required to pay five percent of the amount of delinquent taxes included in the tax certificates as sold to the State in the years 1931-35 inclusive as part of the costs before the certificates can be delivered, according to a recent order issued by Circuit Judge Millard B. Smith.

If the court order had not been issued, the tax collector would have received only a pro rata amount of the proceeds of the auction which, in most instances, would be considerably less than the five percent which the law allows.

Seminole County Tax Collector Joe D. Jinkins obtained the court order so that his commissioners may now be collecting all parts of the costs other tax collectors throughout the state have taken similar action in their respective counties.

The final decree of Circuit Judge Millard B. Smith in the proceedings brought about by the Tax Collector is as follows:

"Ordered that Mr. P. Horrigan, as clerk of Circuit Court of Seminole Co., Fla., be and he is permanently enjoined and restrained from delivering under provision of Chapter 18296, Act of 1937, Tax Certificates or Certificates issued to the State of Fla. for the years 1931 to 1935 both inclusive, to any one or any bid or bids heretofore or hereafter made by them, under said Act, unless said bid, in addition to all costs, costs and advertising expenses, is for an amount sufficient to pay Plaintiff Joe D. Jinkins, the Tax Collector, a sum equivalent to 5 percent of the amount of such delinquent Tax, as his commissioners, without first collecting for Plaintiff, his compensation due him."

Capt. H. C. Washburn Addresses Guard Unit

Capt. H. C. Washburn, commanding officer of Company D, was the guest speaker at the annual Christmas Party of the Medical Detachment of the 124th Infantry in the Sanford Armory last night.

Capt. Washburn told the nearly 30 members of the Company present of plans for maneuvers of the Third Army near Gulfport, Miss., at the annual encampment in the summer, which is expected to be by far the largest in which the Washburn Companies have ever participated.

Major A. W. Knox, commanding officer of the Medical Detachment, acted as toastmaster for the occasion. He told the Company that approval for the promotion of Lt. D. G. Scott to the rank of captain has been tentatively approved.

Gifts from the Company were presented to both Major Knox and Lt. Scott by Sgt. Lawrence Reid. Guests present at the party included Capt. H. C. Washburn, Lt. Karl Nordgren, of Company D, Lt. W. F. Runge, also of Company D, and Lt. W. D. Hoffman of Head quarters Company.

Three calls were answered by the Fire Department yesterday. Fire Chief Mack Cleveland reported this morning.

Shortly after noon yesterday the Department was called to extinguish a small grass fire between Park and Oak Avenues near Eighteenth Street. Later the Department was called to the home of Mrs. Jarrell at 210 W. Fifteenth Street where the roof was burning from a fire and was called to the scene shortly afterward for the same reason. No damage was done.

The suggestion has been made that persons living on the main thoroughfares of Sanford make special efforts to decorate trees in order that tourists and passers-by may be impressed with Christmas decorations in Sanford.

Ring Around Nazis Helped By Alliances

France And England Conclude An Aerial Accord For Mutual Help If Attacked

PARIS, Dec. 21.—(AP)—France has strengthened her ring of alliances around Germany to bolster her position in Central Europe and has concluded an aerial accord with Britain. It became known today.

The aerial accord, disclosed by a highly placed political source, pledges close cooperation between the aerial forces of the two nations—just as the navy and army of Britain and France are already pledged to mutual assistance.

The Central European alliances are intended as a prelude to negotiations for a general European settlement. By the alliance France hopes to hold the upper hand in dealing with Germany.

The 1937 edition of Jane's Fighting Ships, the authoritative British yearbook on the world's navies, disclosed the race for sea power was limited only by the supply of men and materials.

Jane's disclosed Britain has 12 battleships and three battle cruisers in service, five battleships building and "rumor will have five more battleships will be provided for in the 1938 and 1939 estimates."

The first two of the five battleships now being built—the King George V and the Prince of Wales—were laid down January 1, 1937.

Of a revolutionary design, the 35,000-ton, $10,000,000 battleships were the first to be built by Britain since 1925.

In addition to the five 35,000-ton battleships, Jane's said, the British program for 1937—"the most important undertaken since the war ended"—included two aircraft carriers, seven cruisers, 16 destroyers, six submarines and many other craft.

No Danger To Citrus In Tonight's Weather

By Associated Press

Upper New York state and the New England section had decidedly colder weather today, several places in the Adirondack mountains reporting temperatures from 10 to 20 degrees below zero. The northern plains states and western section of the Great Lakes area had much warmer weather.

Elsewhere temperatures remained about the same. For the most part the South had cold, fair weather. The government's frost warning service at Lakeland, said temperatures at night and tomorrow would not endanger citrus.

Weakened Positions

Military advice at Madrid said positions throughout Spain by the rebels had weakened their moving an army of reinforcement to relieve the besieged city.

Trains of trucks were said to have been bringing thousands of rebel troops and heavy artillery into the area.

Contest Is Made Of State's License Law

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Sam Murray, Miami automobile dealer, started a contest today of the State's new occupational license law.

Assistant United States Attorney W. Madison Dickerson said the gang's operations resulted in two killings, one by officers.

The defendants included three city policemen and a former inspector of the alcohol tax unit.

William Mc. Christie of Jacksonville, speaker of the 1937 House, described the Murray suit as a test case on behalf of automobile dealers.

He is Murray's counsel.

The court directed Hayes Wood,

Dade County tax collector, to show by January 5 why he should not issue license to Murray for payments less than set out in the 1937 law.

Murray said he offered Collector Wood $75.50 for licenses on his automobile sales places in Miami and $150 for each employee over five in the service department; and $2.25 per thousand dollars on the maximum inventory of new and used automobiles.

Murray contended he should not be required to pay for the service department and its employees because service is incidental to selling automobiles.

Its does not owe the inventory tax, he said, because he pays the State's gross receipts tax on his same reason. No damage was done.

With only three days remaining until Christmas Eve, the deadline for filing entries in the Sanford

Garden Club's annual lighted

Christmas tree contest, attention has been called to the coupon appearing in The Sanford Herald for the purpose of registering. All coupons must be in The Herald office no later than Dec. 24.

According to Mrs. Homer Little,

chairman of the Sanford Garden

Club committee sponsoring the contest, considerable interest has been manifest in this year's competition and all indications point to an even greater number of entries than in previous years.

The suggestion has been made that persons living on the main thoroughfares of Sanford make special efforts to decorate trees in order that tourists and passers-by may be impressed with Christmas decorations in Sanford.

Attention has been called to the fact that trees on front lawns would form the most suitable background for colored lights, tin-el and other ornamentation.

All trees must be lighted on Christmas night and be illuminated each night through New Year's between the hours of 6 P.

M. and 10 P. M.

The following prizes and their donors were announced by Mrs.

Little:

Best living lighted Christmas

Power and Light Co.; second prize,

table lamp by Randall Electric Co.

Best ensemble, $2.50, awarded

THE ROUNDED LIFE

If wealth were all to be desired
Then misers would be most admired.
If strength were all that matters, then
The strongest then would best succeed;
If skill alone were reckoned here
The cleverest scoundrel we'd revere;
But none's so skillful, rich or wise
None with these to live for long.

The lousy thing, called manhood ticks
For more than strength for mighty tasks.
The killing blow: the crushing grip.

May gain the brute a championship.
But if at heart a brute he stay
From his all others turn away
And he shall sit beside his fire.

With none to comfort or admire.

Another, shrewd, may tell that he
The greatest man on earth shall be,
But if he have no other trait
Then he must share the miser's fate.

Men cheer the dazzling feats of skill.
They always have and always will.

But if his life all else betrays They'll scorn the man whose deeds they praise.

There's more demanded of a man
Than working out of one selfish plan.

The thing called ultimate success

Lies not alone in cleverness Or strength or skill. Unless we find

An honest and a gentle mind.

eion haled

Despite his gains, will still have failed.

Is It Worth It?

Joe Jarrell has been sentenced to one year in the State Penitentiary in Raiford. For some time, popularly believed to be the operator of the biggest "Cuba" lottery in Seminole County, he was convicted last week on all five counts of an indictment charging violation of State lottery laws. He must also pay all the costs incurred in the prosecution of the case.

A few years ago Jarrell was an employee of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad. For ten years he had worked as a fireman on various Coastline trains and from what we have been able to learn he had a very creditable record. We have been told that when he quit, he was in line for promotion, and by this time, if he had continued at his work, he would have been coming along as well as any of the young men of his age.

Thousands of other young men at some time or other in the early part of their lives are faced with the same alternatives. They have good steady jobs, paying them regular wages, with excellent chances for promotion, with a long life of usefulness, both to themselves and to their community ahead of them, and with the opportunity for retirement at 60 or 65 to comfort and ease throughout the rest of their lives.

And then the chance to make some easy money comes along. Sometimes it's nothing more serious than a hot tip on a horse race, and then the borrowing of the company's funds in order to make the bet. Sometimes it is a speculation on the stock market which is such a sure thing that for the moment it seems to justify using someone else's money without his knowledge.

During the prohibition era, the most popular method of making easy money was bootlegging. Literally thousands of young men could not resist the temptation to sell liquor at fancy prices even though they knew it was against the law. Many of them were killed in racketeer warfare, or in brushes with officers of the law. Many of them have long since been lodged in federal penitentiaries.

Why shouldn't a man violate the law if he wants to and if he's smart enough to figure out a better scheme than the other fellow for making some easy money? Why shouldn't he take a flier on the market with the other fellow's money if he intends to pay it back? Why shouldn't he borrow from the company's vaults if he expects to use it for only a little while and then return it?

It seems like such an unconvincing argument simply to say, "It's against the law." Why, no one will ever find it out. You could settle with them if they did. The Grand Jury would never indict for a thing like that. A sympathetic jury would turn you loose. They couldn't prove it anyway. There are so many ways of getting out of these scrapes. Why worry? Shoot the works! Nobody pays any attention to the law! You don't want to be a working man all your life.

But it's not the "dumb guys" that keep plugging along day after day, year in and year out at the same old job, taking home the same old pay envelope, dividing with the missus and the kids. They're the wise guys. Anybody could make a million dollars if he didn't respect the law. But a million dollars isn't worth it if it means a term in jail.

How Are You Doing?

Are you among those comparatively few particularly unfortunate individuals who don't know whether they are healthy or not? If so, you can easily find out by taking the following health examination suggested by the Division of Public Health Nursing, and reproduced recently in the Tampa Times. Syracuse University is credited with the questionnaire:

Are you rested when you get up in the morning? (score 40).

Can you usually work and play all you wish without being more than naturally tired? (score 40).

Is your appetite good for wholesome food? (score 40).

Are you free from habitual small worries? (score 30).

Do you enjoy mingling with other people? (score 30).

Do you have confidence in yourself in ordinary affairs? (score 40).

Is your weight about the average for your height and age? (score 40).

Do you stand well? (score 30).

Are your eyes comfortable when you read for a long period? (score 20).

Can you hear ordinary conversation at sixteen feet? (score 20).

Is your hair glossy and free from excessive oil? (score 20).

Is your skin smooth and clear? (score 20).

Are your teeth in good condition? (score 20).

Are you free as a rule from colds? (score 20).

Are you free from recurrent pains? (score 20).

Ask yourself these 15 questions, giving a thoughtful answer to each question and scoring yourself accordingly. Apparently a perfect score is 440, the total of the individual scores, although no "par" for the course is specified. How do you feel now?

Today, despite drastic operat-

As indicated by figures published a few days ago, the telegraph companies are operating either at a deficit or on a very slender margin, and it is pointed out, if this condition continues it will shortly impair their ability to continue rendering the efficient service on which no advertising.

The other day the movie producer ran into the fellow who produced it originally on the stage.

That's great stuff for the first two acts," said the movie man, "but the third act takes a terrible drop."

The stage producer got to thinking.

"Say," he said, "what script did you use? You know the third act was awful until we rewrote it when it clicked."

The movie man groaned. But it was too late. The picture had been finished—from the original script. Proving that Hollywood is still Hollywood.

China Communists Seize Control Of 430 Legal Camps Political Setup For Auto Tourists

Change In Authority Seen As Encouraging Soviet Support

SHANGHAI, Dec. 21.—(AP)—China's powerful communist party, taking advantage of the fall of Nanking and disorganization of the central government, today seized control of China's political set-up in a major upheaval which forced out six ranking leaders of the Kuomintang party, bitterest foe of the Chinese communists.

The shift of control, confirmed in dispatches from Hankow, the current capital of the Chinese republic, is expected to change the complexion of Chinese resistance to Japan, bringing with it two important threats which the Japanese regard as gravely as they do the Panay bombing incident.

These wayward intrusives of the rolling road provide a total of 3685 cottages—the majority having 15 or less, and a few with 35 to 40 cabins each. Ninety-four of these seasonal villages accommodate trailers only.

In the house Representative

Fish, republican of New York, a member of the house of foreign affairs committee, charged that "communists, Russians, Chinese and possibly some English" are seeking to "inflame the American eagle against Japan." He said that war with Japan would be "criminal folly" and urged full non-partisan support of the policy which President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull have followed to date toward the Panay bombing.

Inspected by State

The Florida state board of health issues a list of cabin and trailer parks which meet requirements of the bureau of sanitation.

Tourist camps in Florida increased from 213 during 1927-28 to a record 562 last season. Although only 430 are listed so far this year, the 1937-38 season bids fair to equal or exceed the 1936-37 total, Director Safay said.

"The cottage tourist camp of to-day shows a decided improvement over the original cabin of 10 years ago," he declared.

"There are all types and designs of cottages from the simple, single cabin providing only beds and lights in connection with community sanitary facilities, toilets and showers, to the very complete cottages' central heating systems, electric fans, telephones and radios—accommodations to please the most critical tourist."

Demand Resignation

These developments even overshadowed the Panay bombing to-day. Dispatches from Hankow said Yu Yu-Jen, president of the executive Yuan, had demanded the re-signation of Dr. H. H. Kung, brother-in-law of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, in response to demands from the communist group.

Chinese headquarters previously announced abolition of the central political council, automatically stripping six high government leaders from their post, including Wang Ching-Wei, former premier, and Chen L-Fu, head of the mass organization department.

It was understood the mass organization department would be placed under the control of Chou En-Lai, communist representative in the former Nanking war council, or Commander Mao Tze-Tung, one-time red army leader.

Informants said admiral-ally experts had told the cabinet six major warships—battle ships or battle cruisers—were necessary for adequate protection of British interests in the Chinese-Japanese war.

The official announcement of Sir Archibald's appointment said King George had approved his succeeding Knatchbull-Hugessen, who later will be given another post.

Britain had hoped, the foreign office said, to leave the Chinese embassy in charge of a counselor until Knatchbull-Hugessen was able to return to his post next spring. The announcement emphasized confidence in R. G. Howe, who was sent to China as special chargé d'affaires after the ambassador was wounded.

The Japanese reply to the latest British protest against attacks on neutrals was not expected to arrive before Wednesday, but even if it should it was not expected to affect greatly the cabinet's decision.

Produced with great skill, and with tremendous fidelity to the period, "Dr. Syn" tells the tale of the notorious Captain Clegg, who escapes the gallows to settle down

Daytona Beach Sunset Is Shown In Diorama

DELAND, Fla., Dec. 21: A diorama, "Sunset at Daytona Beach," was shown to the Board of Directors of the New York World's Fair of 1939 at a meeting on Monday by Manager Grover Whalen as an example of what may be achieved in the exhibit field, in which Florida is the acknowledged leader, it was announced today by Earl W. Brown, manager of the Florida National Exhibit.

"Upon my visit to New York last week to complete arrangements for Florida's participation in the New York World's Fair," said Mr. Brown, "I placed the diorama in the exhibit halls at the World's Fair headquarters in the Empire State Building where it attracted such crowds that Mr. Whalen asked permission to show it to his directors."

"Mr. J. A. Appleton, General Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad upon seeing it, asked that it be placed in an outstanding location in the Pennsylvania station in New York where no exhibit had ever been allowed before because he thought it would greatly increase travel to Florida. It will remain there throughout the Florida exhibit which will open in the Pennsylvania Station on January 1st and continue through March to be viewed daily by some 64,000 people."

The diorama is a lifelike, animated reproduction in the third dimension of the world famous beach and boardwalk bathed in sunset rays. Waves ripple along the shore, people stroll along broadwalk and tiny clouds sail across a translucent amethyst sky, creating the illusion of a perfect Florida twilight."

A novel taffy will appeal to children. Braid together two tafties of different color and flavor. Each must be flavored and colored before it is pulled. It may then be braided and left in long strands or cut into two-inch strips.

New Highway Over Florida Keys May Honor H. Flagler

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Henry M. Flagler, who built the overseas railroad from Miami to Key West, may have his name perpetuated in the highway that replaced the rail line.

Many have suggested "Flagler Overseas Highway" as a name for the road that goes to sea over the same bridges that once supported the great volume of freight and passenger traffic to and from the southernmost city of the United States.

Now the State Road Department has stepped in with a suggestion to the Overseas Road and Toll Bridge District that the road should have a name.

"Practically all who have offered suggestions seem to think the name of Flagler should be incorporated in the designation," said A. B. Hale, road department chairman. "This, of course, would be entirely fitting since without the work of this great pioneer the present highway would NOT exist."

Names of highways have NOT meant much in Florida, since roads are known more generally by numbers. The Flagler road "may be an exception," chairman Hale said, "because of the many unique features and novelty of this great project and its wide appeal throughout the country."

Hale suggested the bridge district sound out public sentiment in the lower east coast and decide upon a fitting name for the road.

The 1935 Labor Day hurricane damaged the rail line and the Florida East Coast Railway sold the right of way to the district.

Probe May Be Made Of Newsprint Prices

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Senator Pope, (D.-Idaho) appealed Saturday to Attorney General Cummings to give his "earliest consideration" to reports that "monopolistic practices" were skyrocketing the price of newsprint paper.

Newspaper publishers and magazine distributors are generally alarmed," he wrote.

Idaho publishers, he added, advised him the price charged for paper was higher than could be reasonably justified or accounted for unless it is subject to monopolistic practices.

Pope said he understood the Department of Justice was undertaking "a substantial program in connection with trusts and monopolies" and urged on Cummings "the advisability of investigating, with a view to appropriate action, the enterprises responsible for the continual increase in the price of paper."

Future Farmers Plan For Tampa Exposition

Extensive preparations are being made by the Seminole Chapter of Future Farmers of America for their exhibit at the annual Tampa Fair to be held in that city shortly after the New Year, Alex E. Johnson, advisor of the Chapter, reported today.

In addition to their regular exhibits of meat, cured in their own curing plant, the club is planning a 30-foot display of Seminole County grown cereals.

B. N. Nipper, local decorator, is aiding the boys in preparation of the display while they hope will win a prize at the annual exposition.

Mr. Johnson plans to attend the livestock auction in Gainesville Tuesday to purchase hogs to be butchered by the boys for their display of cured meats at the fair.

The magpie is very tame in Norway, nesting even in the gardens of town houses.

FLORIDA HIGHLIGHTS

THE POINSETTIA stands unrivaled among the decorative plants of the world and is now known as the Christmas flower. Its real flowers are the inconspicuous yellow dots in the center, and not the brilliant scarlet parts which are but bracts and not the true flowers. In Florida the Poinsettia begins to attain its full beauty in November, and continues to bloom until killed by cold. It requires about thirty-two degrees to kill it, therefore it usually keeps long in flower in various parts of the state.

Once quite abundant and well distributed over Florida the ROSEATE SPOONBILL is today so rare that it is seldom seen; in the early tourist days of Florida the feathers of this bird were in great demand and as a result such vast numbers were slaughtered by the feather traders that it may now be too late to save it from extinction. As the name implies it has a spoon-shaped bill and its plumage is of a decided pinkish hue. Its food consists of small fish, marine life and snails taken in shallow water where its long legs and spoon-shaped bill serve it well.

LONGWOOD

The beautiful operetta "When Christmas Comes" was given at Lyman Auditorium Friday night before a capacity audience.

Large choruses of students put on in every room at Lyman Friday afternoon when refreshments were served and after the operetta each student received a gift. The Home Room Mothers were hostesses with the teachers.

The South Neighborhood Card Club met Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Blake, while the West Neighborhood Club of five tables met with Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore. Celebrations are planned for Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve at the Library Hall and at the Park.

Schooling Races are being held each week day night at the Dog Track. Official rates were set for Dec. 27.

Fifteen morning and three evening newspapers are published daily in London.

For Chest Colds

Dressing cold in chest or lungs, never safe to neglect, generally gives up when scalding, warmed with terete is applied.

Better than mustard plaster, Masterole gets action because it's NOT just a salve. It's a complete emollient, antiseptic, stimulant and helpful in drawing out heat, congestion and pain.

Used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong, approved by Good Housekeeping.

Four Are Killed In Rumanian Outbreak

BUCHAREST, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Four persons were killed and a number of Rumanian police wounded today in outbreaks at Orheiu and Muresch during elections for a new national chamber of deputies.

First returns showed the national liberal party, supporting the present government, was in the lead.

Though interest in the election was high, heavy snows reduced the number of votes cast.

Senate elections will be held Wednesday.

Jap Foreign Office Holds Shooting At Panay An Accident

Roosevelt Serves Notice On World U.S. Not Interested In Peace At Any Price

Cooperation Seen For World Peace

Landon Joins Roosevelt In United Effort On Aggression

TOKYO, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The Foreign Office, in what it called an "interim report" on the sinking of the United States gunboat Panay by Japanese planes, declared today the Japanese surface boats were machine-gunning Chinese at the time "and there might have been stray bullets flying toward the Panay" from these surface boats.

The report declared also that the Japanese flier, who sank the gunboat in the Yangtze River above Nanking, also bombed Japanese troops killing two soldiers despite the fact the troops waved 10 Japanese flags.

The report said: "So far it is established that Japanese soldiers boarded the Panay with friendly intentions, but no evidence has been discovered showing the ship was the target of intentional shooting."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(AP)—President Roosevelt served notice on world powers last night that the United States will not remain aloof from international unrest and that it will co-operate and even lead efforts to restore general peace, cost what it may.

The President's views, made known in an exchange of messages with former Gov. Alf M. Landon, of Kansas, 1936 Republican candidate, were interpreted as a warning to so-called "hand-in-hand" nations that this government rejects a "peace-at-any-price" foreign policy.

The messages were made public at the State Department upon instructions from the White House after Secretary of State Cordell Hull had lunched with Mr. Roosevelt and while the Chief Executive was conferring with Chinese Ambassador C. T. Wang.

London Reaches Pledge.

The former Kansas Governor reiterated a pledge, made after his defeat by the President, to cooperate with him toward "difficult foreign situations" confronting the New Deal. He also congratulated Mr. Roosevelt for firmly opposing the proposal of Rep. Louis Ludlow, (D Ind.) requiring a national referendum before war could be declared. Ludlow's measure comes up for

42 Percent Of Year's Tax Roll Paid In November

Jinkins Report Shows $129,607.27 Is Collected In 1 Month

Through the response of Seminole County residents in early payment of their State and County taxes, over 42 percent of the entire tax rolls for the current year were collected in November, according to a tabulation of collections in the office of the Seminole County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jinkins.
