SARASSEE, Jan. 31.—There is nothing wrong with the merchandising of Florida oysters and shrimp, thinks R. L. (Bob) Williams, state supervisor of oyster and shrimp authorities in Florida. Of the 1,300,000 worth of canned oysters produced that year by nine southern states, one of the nine states has less than 125,000 worth of oysters. Another among the nine, with less than 100 miles of water front, produced $132,000 worth of oysters. Florida also was third from the bottom among nine states furnishing

Music Department Holds Monthly Meet

Keeping the program theme in mind, that of contrasting early music with music of the modern era, the Music Department of the Woman's Club held its regular monthly study class yesterday afternoon at the club house on Oak Avenue.

A poem, "Did You Ever," was read by Mrs. S. D. Higleyman, and a poem entitled "Unheard" by Mrs. Ralph Austin Smith. Both poems showed how rhythm of sound is produced through consonants and vowels. L, M, and N were pointed out as lulling consonants and R showed to be the more static consonant and not so melodious. Long vowels were said to have more humorous content and the short vowels a serious substance in subject treatments.

Mrs. Fred Williams read a paper on Paderewski, the musician, the patriot and the man. She showed how Paderewski, before playing a difficult sonata, went into the open field and in the sun labored for hours until his hands became sore. Then he felt that he was ready for long hours of practice.

"Early Music" and Early Musicians Abroad" was discussed by Mrs. J. L. Ingley. This paper included the music and musicians of the Renaissance period in the countries of Italy and Germany. Mrs. Ingley told of the Master-singers who changed music from the first notes of the scale to include two and three stemmed notes and showed how the songs of chivalry became known. Among the early hymns of chorals was Martin Luther's "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Following discussions of musical terms and how Paderewski, the famous virtuoso, Paderewski, Mrs. Ingley told of her impressions of Paderewski as she watched him play and told of a personal conversation of his which she was privileged to hear.

After the program, tea was served by Mrs. W. A. Leavitt and Mrs. Ingley to the following: Mrs. S. D. Higleyman, Mrs. Ralph Austin Smith, Mrs. Fred Williams, Miss Irene Hinton, Mrs. J. T. Newby, Dr. Elizabeth Tracy, Mrs. J. Ross Adams, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. James Moughton, and two visitors, Miss Mary Strayer and Mrs. Mary Friedrich.

The Junior Class of Seminole High School will present its annual play next Thursday night, Feb. 8 at 8:00 o'clock in the auditorium of the school.

The chosen drama, "Professor, How Could You?" is a farce in three acts. Outstanding actors of the class will have the leading roles in the annual play.

It is a tradition with the high school that once a year both the junior and senior class present a three act drama and in the past the audience has been filled to capacity on these occasions.

Household Hints

COOKING MEAT Meat is universally liked because of its richness and flavor. More money is spent in this country for meat than for any other food. Meat is easy to prepare, it provides cold food for later meals, and it makes rather flat food acceptable. The five most widely used meats are beef, veal, pork, lamb, and mutton.

Meat of animals is composed of muscle, connective tissue, fat and bone. In tender meat the muscle fibers are finer and the connective tissue is more tender than in tougher meat. Whether connective tissue and muscle fibers are tender or tough depends upon the location of the cut and the age of the animal.

Some fat may be found in all meat. Meat which is well marbled with fat is desirable. Each kind of meat has a characteristic flavor due to extractions.

For tender cuts of meat, use dry heat. Cuts of meat such as steaks, chops and roasts of better grades of animals are considered best when cooked in dry heat.

Small pieces of meat are used for broiling. It is seasoned and finished cooking at a low temperature. The meat comes in direct contact with the heat.

When pan-broiled, meat is cooked in a hot uncovered pan, the melted fat being poured off as it accumulates.

A properly broiled steak is well browned on both sides and edges, it has a puffy appearance, its interior is juicy and tender.

Less tender cuts of meat may be cooked by braising or as a pot roast. To braise meat, brown it in a hot pan in a small amount of fat and then cook in covered vessel, with or without liquid. A pot roast is steamed in an oven usually with vegetables.

For cooking very tough portions and bones, the following methods cooking at a low temperature. To stew is to cook small pieces of meat at a simmering temperature in water with the addition of vegetables at the end. Pieces from the neck, flank, shank, rump, round and brisket may be utilized. In a well made stew, the meat is tender and juicy, and the broth well flavored.

Ground or chopped, broiled or pan broiled, loaf. Soup. The rich, meaty flavor of meat soups is obtained by dissolving the extractions of meat. Bouillon is clear soup made from beef, but no bones are used. Bouillon is seasoned with vegetables and spices. Consomme is clear soup made from a combination of 2 or 3 kinds of meat.

Methods used in cooking other meats are suitable for poultry. Young tender chickens may be broiled, fried, or roasted. Older birds may be fried or stewed.

PASTRY Pies and tarts are among the most popular of cool-weather desserts. And though pie eating and tart eating may differ slightly when it comes to choosing favorite fillings, on one point they all agree. That is, the crust should be tender and flaky.

Some pie crusts like this flaky crust to be fairly rich, while others like it not so rich. But a medium-rich pie crust will please most of the pie consumers most of the time.

Here is one formula for a medium-rich pie crust, along with some general pie crust pointers.

Having scientific interest in fish, Jeff McCord of Atlanta catches in formaldehyde. He's fished in every Georgia county but one, found 353 species and sub-species and aims to write a book on subject.

Disguised Chocolate Passes For Coins

PARIS, Feb. 1.—(AP)—A farmer from Plepcep sold two chickens for three pieces of chocolate wrapped in tin foil to look like 10-franc pieces.

When the farmer returned from the market place he knocked together the "coins." They didn't clink. He unwrapped them, called the police, and ate the chocolate.

The PWA completed 2,501 water supply projects in 1933, at a total cost of $480,792,384.

In two steps. First, cut the fat into the flour and salt. Then add the water slowly.

Cut the fat into the flour and salt with a pastry cutter, a fork, a couple of knives, or work it in lightly with the fingers. Continue until the fat is in small pieces, each coated with flour. When the mixing looks much like coarse corn meal, begin to add the final ingredient, water.

Each method and amount of water added can make or break the pie crust. Sprinkle the water on the flour and fat mixture a little at a time. Combine each cupped part into dough. Then mix this globe and add water to the rest of the fat and flour, a portion at a time, until the whole is a stiff dough. Roll out on a lightly floured board.

For some pies, the crust should be baked first—either on the inside or the outside of the piepan. For about 10 minutes at 400 degrees Fahrenheit until lightly browned. Fruit pies with a pre-baked crust need from 25 to 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven (375 to 400 F.). Double-crust fruit pies without the crust baked first need about 25 minutes in a hot oven 425 F. or a little longer if the fruit doesn't cook tender in that time.

Senator Byrd Had Hand In Making Budget

Byrd Showed Many Agencies Had More Funds Than Needed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP) It develops that Senator Byrd of Virginia, one of the President's fiercest critics, made it impossible for the budget to be held long enough to skin under the 45-cent debt limit.

Last June the senate, at Byrd's request, called on all the government departments to submit financial statements. The order was to all such departments as RFC, Commodities Credit Corporation, Export-Import Bank, Federal Crop Insurance, and a dozen or more others. Byrd said many of them had more capital than they needed and might well send back to the treasury.

When it came time for the President to make the budget, he was ready to agree with Byrd. "With the lessening need for money in some cases," Mr. Roosevelt said in his budget message, "it appears that some of the corporations will have excessive capital funds. Currently, in response to Senate Resolution 150 (Byrd's) a comprehensive survey of the capital assets of government-owned corporations is being carried out. On the basis of preliminary studies, I estimate that it will prove feasible to reduce the capital funds of some of these corporations by an aggregate figure of $100,000,000, without in any way reducing their operations."

When that much money to give back to the public, the President said, he would like to see the budget under the deadline by November 1, 1934. That is, he would like to see the budget by November 1, 1934. That is, he would like to see the budget by November 1, 1934.

However, Byrd thought the President's plan should have been used to reduce the national debt, not merely to enrich the treasury. He agreed with Rep. Marvin Miller, of Texas, chairman of the House agriculture committee, in his view that the budget should be heard from. He said that he is for a fine new lopper and would be glad to see it.

Miller said he had heard of a bill to be introduced in the House to be heard from. He said that he is for a fine new lopper and would be glad to see it.

Magician Show To Be Sponsored By School Band

A big indoor circus of mystery is being brought to Sanford by the Seminole County School Band, and will be presented at the Junior High School auditorium, Friday, Feb. 9.

The troupe is headed by "The Great Virgil," premier international magician and illusionist, and they will present a mammoth fall evening show filled with baffling mystery and spectacular illusions.

In addition to the many magical effects and illusions, "The Great Virgil" will present his mad-merry game of goblins, ghouls, and ghosts; a feature that he is using throughout America to crowd the largest theatres and auditoriums.

Six dazzling sets of scenery, dozens of beautiful costumes, special lighting equipment and tons of equipment are used in the presentation of this gigantic mystery spectacle.

If you have not had the good fortune of seeing Headliners, Turner, Keller, or Herman, the Great Masters of yesterday, don't feel disappointed as you now have the opportunity to see them all re-enacted in the appearance of "The Great Virgil," the supreme magic master of the present.

"The Great Virgil" has spent a life-time developing this extravaganza of mystery and magic among the many breath-taking acts to be seen here will be: The Arabian of "Simba," the real live African Lion, The Beautiful Hindoo Princess Asleep in Mid-Air, An Execution on Mars, The Famous Hindoo Rope Mystery, Hindoo Basket Miracles, Chinese Opium Den Mystery, Chinatown, The Disappearing of the Bodies of two Human Beings and dozens of others.

July, the psychic enigma, will be a special feature with "The Great Virgil" Show, July 1st. He said by scientists and doctors, to possess a mind 4,000 years ahead of our times, and will prove conclusively his ability to actually read the minds of the audience.

"The Great Virgil" Company recently gave 25 consecutive performances at the $5,000,000.00 Fox Theatre in San Francisco, California. The same complete show will be seen here in Sanford.

Crop Prices Show Increase After Freeze

cause of the cold and will result in an increased yield for the County Welfare Board and the WPA.

Celery shippers have generally reduced their crews while waiting to find the extent of the damage to their crop and the celery shippers have practically closed down their packinghouses.

In addition to those employed in the celery packing houses, precooler, citrus pickers and other workers in allied trades will be affected by the decrease in the volume of shipments.

The State Marketing Bureau also predicted prices lower than usual in the Spring because of a heavy movement of vegetables from Florida at that time.

The Bureau also stated that cabbage producers will fare better in profits this year than any other farmers, because the volume for Florida "may not be cut more than 15 percent" whereas the Texas crop was cut from 25 to 50 percent by cold weather.

If Florida cabbage growers lose no more than 25 percent of their crops, they may get returns two or three times as large as could have been reasonably expected, the Bureau reported.

Producers of other tender vegetable crops have little to sell at the high prices, however. Beans were practically all wiped out and it will take 45 days to raise a new crop. Tomatoes were virtually all killed, and it will be 90 to 120 days before there is any "considerable volume."

"All other tender vegetables—with the exception of some peppers, escarole, lettuce, turnips, cauliflower, collards and beans—were possibly 90 percent killed," the Bureau said.

"The damage will run into millions. An extra large volume will come on in April and May but prices will be lower than normal because of such heavy movement over such a short period.

ing," especially in the frontier districts, to prevent violations of Swiss territory by foreign warplanes, these infringements are reported steadily on the increase—and usually in the daytime.

Not only does the Swiss high command want to prevent reconnaissance flights over the defense but it does not want the Swiss sky to become a battlefield during any large-scale air battles on the western front.

Swiss anti-aircraft sections are active in firing warning shots, and the observer corps is gradually becoming more efficient at reporting the approach of aircraft.

Severe steps have been taken to prevent Switzerland from becoming a target in the last war—a hotbed of espionage and counter-espionage of all belligerent nations.

During the World war, authorities stopped in when it was too night that caused damage estimated as high as $10,000,000 in that section alone.

Henry Carroll, Negro, Is Fined

Henry Carroll, negro, pleaded guilty earlier this week to charges of driving an auto while intoxicated and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs or serve 90 days in the County Jail by Judge R. W. Ware. The driver's license of the negro was also revoked.

Two other guilty pleas were heard by Judge Ware yesterday. Bully Reeves, negro, entered a plea of guilty to petit larceny charges and was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs or serve 90 days in jail.

Swiss Canton May Be Investigated

LUGANO, Switzerland, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Glasgow, Albion, lieutenant colonel in the Swiss army and a former police official of Lugano, has asked Swiss authorities to investigate pro-Fascist in Swiss Ticino canton. He said they denounced Italian-speaking Swiss who were anti-Fascist to Italian authorities.

Albion had a reason for his request. He went to Italy for a week-end visit in April, was jailed, and didn't get out of jail and back to Lugano until October.

Court Clerk Finds Tickets To Series

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Joseph J. Ballard, a circuit court clerk, can go to the 1935 World Series now. He's just found his tickets.

Ballard wrote to a Cincinnati friend before the series and was promised four tickets "as soon as they go on sale." He didn't receive them and thought his friend had forgotten him.

City Violators Are Arraigned Before Miller

A large number of City violators have been arraigned before Judge Frank L. Miller in Municipal Court sessions at the Police Station this week.

The Court extracted the $10 bond of J. P. Hart, charged with drunkenness, and also the $18 bond of J. D. Kelley, charged with the same offense.

The case against E. E. Brady, charged with drunkenness, was continued until Monday, while Frank Purdon received a 30-day straight sentence for the same offense.

W. H. Gardner, charged with drunken driving, had his case continued until the next term of court. John Miller, charged with drunkenness, paid a $5 fine while Marion Carter was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or serve 10 days in jail when he was found guilty of speeding.

The following negroes were also arraigned before Judge Miller in the sessions.

Clamp Is Applied To Transportation Of Florida Citrus

LAKELAND, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Florida's citrus industry, which suffered millions of dollars damage in the recent cold wave, yesterday clamped down an absolute embargo for seven days on transportation and sale of fruit in an effort to preserve its reputation in the nation's markets and homes.

The citrus commission ordered the unprecedented ban effective at 6:00 P. M. today but individual growers, shippers and canners and representatives of all citrus organizations in Florida asked for it.

The fruit men said the heavy frost and sub-freezing temperatures of the past two weeks had done very heavy damage to their crops.

They declared they had salvaged what they could by shipping as much fruit as possible before deterioration set in, and now wished to safeguard the industry's good name by keeping frozen fruit off the markets.

The embargo will apply to all oranges, grapefruit and tangerines except that sold to consumers for their use in making sliced fruit hearts or juice. Even that sold to consumer demand will after the lifting of the embargo.

They also said citrus shippers and grocers in Florida would have plenty of fruit because their supplies are brought in advance.

Violations of the embargo is a criminal offense. Those convicted of violation are subject to a fine of from $50 to $1000 or a prison sentence up to one year or both fine and imprisonment.

Tenants Shifting Costs $100,000 For Each Year

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Shifting of farm tenants from place to place each year costs tenants and landlords more than $100,000,000, according to agriculture department estimates.

The department said a survey showed that approximately $1,000,000 tenants move each year. The cost ranged from $40 in Oklahoma to $150 each for the landlord, and the tenant, the report on a survey showed.

Nearly one-half of all farmers are tenants or sharecroppers. In the south, from one-quarter to one-third of those more each year. In northern states the percentage is somewhat smaller.

All people in a community, including landlords, suffer from ill effects of the annual shifting of families from farm to farm, and in many instances from community to community," the department said.

A large majority of these moves probably were voluntarily on the part of the tenants, the report said. But an increasing number are being forced by landlords to vacate or become laborers on farms, it was said.

The department, under provision of the Bankhead-Jones act, is endeavoring to assist as many tenants as possible to purchase their own farms. But funds are available to help only a fraction of those wanting to purchase.

The most important phase of the (tenant) problem is in devising effective means of providing security of tenure for those who will continue as tenants and sharecroppers," the department said.

Paris Designers Put Up Fight To Retain Front Most Dressmaking Houses Are Open After Shut Down

By ADELAIDE KERR NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Paris designers are putting up a sturdy fight on the wartime fashion front to keep one of France's leading industries alive. Most of the largest dressmaking houses have opened their doors again, after brief September closings due to the war, and are preparing Spring collections for January display. To overcome the difficulties of travel and shipping which have resulted from the war, mid-season models have been brought to New York by clippers to be shown to buyers here. A few designers have made flying trips to contact the American market, while others work through representatives in New York. New Spring clothes taking shape in Paris are going to put more emphasis on practicality and less on the elaborate, decorative models of the pre-war period. The American woman's tastes and needs in clothes will be considered carefully. Dress and jacket costume suits of very lightweight wools are expected to appear.

The fashion world is looking for a "newy break" in hats from Schiaparelli. (Shorter hair cuts and hats to fit them may be part of the Paris spring move, since gas masks won't accommodate long hair necessitating hairpins and mobilization has caused a shortage of hairdressers.) Designers are working under stringent wartime handicaps in preparing the collections. The gowns and accents for which Paris is famous are less plentiful than they were a number of tailors have been mobilized and work-rooms are chilly for lack of coal. Seamstresses, bundled in sweaters, sometimes work by flashlight.

A number of American buyers, who missed the mid-season collections, say they have made passport arrangements and expect to be in Paris in January to view the Spring shows. They plan to go by clipper or by one of the ships of the United States Line, which has announced the beginning of bi-monthly sailings to Italian ports at the first of the year. One of the most interesting phases of Paris' battle to maintain her place on the interna-

Pan-American Gets 75,000 Passengers

MIAMI, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Travel and trade carried on between the United States and Latin America over Pan-American Airways Caribbean and Eastern South America routes in 1939 showed a substantial increase over the previous year. Total passengers carried during the year was just under 75,000. Express shipments during the year leaped by 10,246 or just under 20 percent. Total shipments during the year just closed were $1,791 as against $1,545 in 1938. Nearly a quarter of a million miles more were flown in 1939 over these Pan-American routes than during the previous year—an increase of 8 percent. The flying clippers on their busy inter-American routes covered a total of 3,329,000 miles in 1939.

Citrus Advertising Contracts Canceled

LAKELAND, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Florida Citrus commission has cancelled all advertising in northern newspapers as a result of crop damage by the freeze, L. W. Marvin, its advertising manager, announced Tuesday. Orange advertisements, scheduled in many newspapers for today were stopped by telegraph. Other ads, scheduled for later in the week, could not be stopped as they must be off the press ahead of publication dates.

Wipe enamel stove surfaces daily with a cloth dipped in warm water and mild soap suds. This helps keep the stove in good order and will keep enamel shiny. Wipe when the stove is cool; if done when warm the enamel may crack.

Another was a collection of twenty-four lace frocks, by as many different Paris designers, which included clothes to wear from breakfast to supper. Among them were smart, short-skirted frocks and dress-and-jacket costume suits (light navy, almond green and beige) worn with hats and gloves of contrasting hue. There were also a number of white lace evening frocks. Both collections were presented to New York buyers and the press.

TAMPA, Feb. 1.—(AP)—An additional contribution of $1 was received by The Tribune yesterday for the Finnish relief fund. It was contributed by Paul K. Jensen, of lawness. The total for Hillsborough county now stands at $92.75. Mayor Chancy is chairman of the county committee.

Sturdy, Stylish Low Cost Homes Pushed By FHA

Type Of Residence Is Becoming Architectural Fixture In U.S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Emergency of the stylish, sturdy built low-cost home as an architectural fixture on the American scene is rapidly becoming one of the outstanding achievements of the Federal Housing Administration, according to Stewart McDonald, Administrator of the National Housing Act.

Mr. McDonald pointed out that careful planning, coupled with the progress made in the development of building materials, was restoring the small home to its place in the sun occupied during Colonial times, when necessity and good taste combined to produce a type of architecture which has become an important part of American tradition and culture.

"This has been brought about to a large extent," Mr. McDonald said, "by the fact that the FHA has insisted upon minimum construction requirements and property standards for low-priced homes as well as for the higher priced ones. Plans and specifications are being worked out carefully for houses costing $3,000 as they always have been for those priced at $15,000.

"Once this insistence upon style and architectural attractiveness became established, builders discovered that an intelligent use of materials was more profitable in the long run. They found it was no more costly to build an attractive, well-planned home than an unattractive one and that the former had many times the marketability of the latter. The initiative and ingenuity exercised by the construction industry in pursuing this course has been a credit to the building and allied trades.

"The FHA's greatest contribution probably has been to make home owning available to additional thousands of citizens who might not have been able to afford more expensive home financing systems which prevailed before passage of the National Housing Act. Good houses, at whatever price, however, can be produced by the combination of good architecture, well-selected materials, and honest building.

"The FHA's establishment of minimum standards of construction for the small home must meet to be acceptable as security for an insured mortgage has been of such far-reaching importance as to elevate the design plan, and the production of quality all small homes built today. This is in contrast to the neglect of these factors in the building of small homes in the immediate past, following the war.

"All of these things have tended to reestablish the 'character' of the small home and to make it one of the best of residential mortgage risks."

Summary Of Crop Damage Is Released

Federal Marketing Service Says Nearly All Tender Vegetables Destroyed

Government Aid Efforts Continue

Texas Also Suffers Heavily In Unpre- cedented Cold Wave

Practically all tender vegetable crops in Florida were destroyed and while the damage to citrus was believed severe in nearly all areas the full extent of the damage from the 11-day cold wave cannot be determined for several days yet, according to a summary of the freeze damage released today by the Agricultural Marketing Service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Texas, Alabama and Tennessee crops were also hard hit by the cold-freezing temperatures which gripped the South for more than a week, the Bureau reports.

Meanwhile, efforts are continuing in Washington to mobilize all agencies which can aid those who have been thrown out of work as a result of the freeze and farmers who have been made nearly destitute through the loss of their crops.

Vegetable prices continued to rise as the shortage of vegetables is felt in northern markets. An Associated Press dispatch disclosed that vegetable prices in New York City were "rising with the temperature." Fresh beans were almost scratched from the home market's budget as the price jumped to 25 cents per pound.

Colder Weather Is In Offing But Still Will Be Far Above Recent Low Marks

Wide spread snow and change to colder greeted the ground here in the middle Atlantic states today, while throughout the south, bright sun held temperatures at a normal range.

The eastern storm centered over New Jersey, and brought snow from the mountain area of North Carolina northward, and eastward to the New England states.

Temperatures were not unusually low in the snow area, Pittsburgh reporting a minimum of 7 degrees, New York 28, Boston 30, and Cleveland, although on the edge of the storm area, had a 9-degree reading. Fort Wayne, Ind., reported 6 above.

Frost again extended far south to Mobile, Ala., Montgomery, Ala., and Meridian, Miss., again were near the freezing point, but warmer weather was approaching.
