Fail to Observe Food Rules and Fall as Patriots

"What is your definition of an American, Mr. Skipper?" J. Walker Pope, Federal Food Administrator for Polk county, fired at E. E. Skipper, wealthy cattle man of Bartow, at a late hearing of a sugar violation, with which Skipper was charged.

"Why a man who stands for every thing a good citizen should," Skipper answered.

"Are you an American citizen, Mr. Skipper?" was the next question. "Certainly, I am," Skipper shot back.

"And I suppose your willful disregard of the United States Food Administration's regulations, which require each American citizen two pounds of sugar a month is what is to be expected of a good citizen," Mr. Pope queried. When Skipper failed to answer, Mr. Pope said, "That may be your idea of a good citizen, Mr. Skipper. It isn't mine. It isn't the idea of the several million men in the United States who are good American citizens."

Skipper, against whom charges were preferred of having taken his own sugar in a can to the hotels and boarding houses at which he stopped and having declared the'd have all the sugar he wanted in spite of Food Administration regulations, failed to prove his innocence during the trial and at the close, Mr. Pope shot at him, "If you are guilty as evidence submitted makes apparent, you are a cowardly, selfish and unpatriotic American."

Skipper is one of the wealthiest men in the Polk county section, owning several thousand acres of land and head of cattle. He has two sons in service. During the hearing the fact came to light that he does not own any War Savings Stamps, nor any Liberty Loan bonds. He admitted he bought a $1,000 bond during the last drive but exchanged the part payment he has made on it for a Ford car.

Mr. Pope advised him, "Get acquainted with the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Liberty Loan and War Savings Stamps and prove you are patriotic. Any individual who forces others to go without by using more than his allotment of sugar is unworthy the title American."

Notice to Patrons of Seminole County Schools

All white schools of Seminole county will open for the fall term on the 16th of September, next Monday and pupils are urgently requested to be present for enrollment on the first day of school, in order to be assigned to their proper grades.

Children who will arrive at the age of six years during the term are requested to enroll at the beginning of the term, not waiting until their sixth birthday, as in the past. Much confusion and unnecessary work has resulted from pupils entering school in the midst of the school term, and the principals of the primary departments have asked that all who expect to enter during the year, do so at the beginning of the term.

A full faculty has been appointed for the schools, and the names of all teachers will be published in Friday's issue of the Herald, by which time the teachers will have been assigned to their respective grades.

For further information, apply to the superintendent.

Very respectfully, T. W. Lawton, Supt.

Banks Will Close

The First National Bank, The Peoples Bank and the Seminole Bank will close next Thursday, Sept. 12, on account of the day being Registration Day. This is in accordance with the proclamation of Governor Catts.

East Side Red Cross Auxiliary

The East Side Red Cross Auxiliary will resume their sewing days on Thursday at Moore's Station church.

BRITISH OFFICER TO SPEAK

MAJOR FERGUSON HERE TOMORROW NIGHT.

Assigned to command heavy artillery of the Belgians at Antwerp and Lorraine, Major K. B. Ferguson of the British Heavy Artillery pictures vividly a terrific assault made by the Germans on these two Belgian strongholds in 1914, which forced these fortified towns to capitulate.

Major Ferguson will speak here Sept. 11th, at 8:00 o'clock (tomorrow evening).

Major Ferguson has been in the British Army for eighteen years and since August 1915 has been an officer.

OUR SCHOOLS WILL OPEN MONDAY NEXT

PUPILS ARE REQUESTED TO BE THERE PROMPT.

The schools will open next Monday, September 16th and a full attendance is desired on that day. A corps of teachers have been engaged and every grade will have a teacher despite the fact that teachers are scarce and that many schools throughout the state have been unable to obtain them.

The entrance examinations for the Sanford schools will be held at the school buildings Thursday and Friday, September 12 and 13, and the principal and some of the teachers will be present to give examinations and meet the pupils. The examinations will be held from 9 to 12 a. m.

BRITISH STRIKE AGAIN AT VITALS OF HUN CANAL OBJECTIVE POINTS

WANT FLORIDA MEN

Y. M. C. A. War Council Asks for Twenty Five

On September 25th the next Y. M. C. A. War Work School opens at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. The Southeastern Personnel Department has asked Florida to furnish twenty-five men for this school. The following communication from Dr. W. W. Alexander, Gen. Personnel Secretary, Atlanta, explains the urgent need of immediate response.

"The present Blue Ridge Training School has only sixty men. This is not by any means enough men to take care of our home work. We should have not less than twenty-five men a month from each of the seven states in order to take care of the growing needs of our home camps. We have one entirely new camp coming on, which will have at least 50,000 men, and will require from 75 to 100 new secretaries."

We are in need of business men who can carry executive responsibility; of religious workers who have had training and experience; and of educational men who can teach and supervise the educational work in the development battalions.

Capt. Dinglee Leaves

Capt. C. H. Dinglee left last night for Jacksonville where he will be engaged with the J. Y. Wilson Contracting Co. in a large contract at Camp Johnson where he will have charge of the plumbing, etc. Mrs. Dinglee expects to join him the last of the week and they will make their home in Jacksonville probably for the duration of the war. Mr. and Mrs. Dinglee have been residents of Sanford for the past twenty-three years and their many friends hope to see them go but hope that they will come back some time in the future and take up their abode here.

Mr. Dinglee has been identified with the upbuilding of Sanford in many ways and served several terms as alderman, being at this time chairman of the street committee and president of the city council. He is a deacon in the Presbyterian church and teacher in the Seminole County Democratic executive committee and in many ways has taken an active interest in public affairs. He was one of the prime movers in the organization of the Seminole County Guards, being second lieutenant and afterward being elected captain and under his able leadership it has the distinction of being one of the crack companies of the state. He has been engaged in the plumbing business here for many years but had a chance to obtain a much better position in war construction and the best wishes of their many friends will go with Mr. and Mrs. Dinglee to their new home.

Registrars—Take Notice

A meeting of the registrars for Precincts Nos. 1 and 3, who have been appointed to assist in the registering of the man power of the nation at their respective precincts has been called to be held in the county commissioners room at the court house THIS afternoon at 5 o'clock. This meeting is to be held for the purpose of discussing laws and rules and to give out instructions to the registrars. Meeting is to be held under the advice of the government and all registrars of Precincts Nos. 1 and 3 must be present.

The principal and teachers will receive the new pupils and examine those who have made grades during the summer months.

The teachers will meet Saturday, September 14th at the High School building at 9 in the morning to arrange for the opening of the schools on Monday.

It is the desire of the officials and the teachers that all the parents of the pupils will keep these dates in mind and that the opening of the schools will be on time and that every pupil will be on hand at the appointed time on the opening day.

GERMANS ALLOWED NO TIME FOR BREATH.

After pausing for several days along the line west and northwest of Cambrai, where the Germans settled themselves last week behind the Canal du Nord, the British today are reported attacking a section of this line in considerable length.

What is unofficially described as a "formidable thrust" was developed this morning by Field Marshal Haig's forces along the Arras-Cambrai road, which crosses the canal about six miles from the outskirts from Cambrai. Whether this will prove to be the expected attack to break the canal line or merely a reconnaissance in force, however, remains to be seen.

It is definitely reported, however, that on the line to the south the British are pressing forward toward St. Quentin and are only five miles from the Hindenburg line in this area, where the German retreat has been slowest and accompanied by the greatest resistance.

Successes also have been scored by the French in the St. Quentin region, where their line joins the British. There have been indications that the Germans intended making a stand along the Crozat canal, defending the stronghold of La Fere, the principal outlying protection of the St. Gobain massif on the north. This plan appears already to have been frustrated by the French, a crossing of the Canal opposite Liese, about three miles northwest of La Fere, having been forced last night by Gen. Petain's forces.

Elsewhere the French are right up to the Crozat positions along virtually the entire length of the canal, with their infantry only four miles from St. Quentin and their cavalry patrols hard upon La Fere. There has been no further marked advance by the French along the more southern stretches of the St. Gobain defenses before Laon, where the German resistance is desperate. The enemy is reported to have missed many divisions in this region and to be hurriedly strengthening the already strong positions. Inroads have been made upon the massif on the west by the French, and there are no indications that they intend accepting the stabilizing of the line in this sector where the Germans so evidently desire. Berlin reports an attack by the French along this line yesterday but declares it was repulsed along the whole front with heavy losses to the French.

Northeast of Soissons the Germans reacted, counter attacking in the Lafaux region in strong force. The French repulsed the drive and took prisoners from five different regiments—an indication of a considerable massing of forces by the enemy in this limited area.

The German retrograde movement in Flanders seemingly is not yet at an end. Their artillery now is reported to have been removed to the east of Lys river.

Reports on the situation along the Aisne where the Americans have been facing the Germans abreast the canal paralleling the river on a long stretch east from Conde were lacking today. The latest advices showed the Americans to have pushed their line further forward to the east of Reuillon, where it turned off southeastward toward Rheims. The village of Muscourt, about 3 miles southeast of Reuillon and about the same relative position to the river, was reported to be in American hands.

Presbyterian Church

Last Sabbath was Registration Day at the Presbyterian church. There was a fairly good congregation in spite of a rain. The Sunday school had the largest attendance since summer set in.

The pastor announced an interesting subject for the sermon next Sunday night: "Ought there to be a Hell?" There was a short Service program at the morning hour as eight stars were added to the flag.

Thursday Is Registration Day

Be Prompt And Help Your Country On That Day

The Department of War has put out for itself a herculean job—the REGISTRATION OF THIRTEEN MILLIONS OF MEN IN A SINGLE DAY.

It has planned to list every man in the country who is 18 to 45 years old (both ages inclusive), excepting those previously registered, on Selective Service Registration Day—which is on SEPT. 12.

This will might be a job for the whole month of September; but the Department of War says it must be done within a day, and that it can be done.

It can be done if every man, woman and child on and before Registration Day makes it a point to speed the work of registration.

It can be made an easier job if everyone plans for the day, builds for the day, and does everything in his or her power to make the preparations complete.

Of course, the big part of the undertaking is to educate our men to register without delay. In this education, the Department of War is counting on the co-operation of leading men and women in every section of the land—in fact, of every patriotic citizen who will interest himself or herself.

TEAM WORK EVERYWHERE

Any effort that can bring every man of the ages specified 18 to 45 to realize that he must register should not be omitted. He should be made to appreciate registration as a patriotic obligation, but the neglect of which will entail on him a year in prison.

This can be accomplished in many ways by men and women who have these ways at the tips of their fingers—figuratively. Merchants, public speakers, instructors, advertising men, preachers, and all effective spreaders of information should direct their abilities and efforts toward scattering broadcast the meaning of Selective Service Registration Day—Sept. 12.

They should fix a clear understanding in the minds of eligible men near them or employed under them. They should use newspapers, billboards, posters and cards in whatever manner they see fit at their disposal.

They must awaken public conscience to appreciate the obligation of selective military service in our great war.

That is right now the important work of every American citizen, whatever his or her age.

PREPARATION BY THE GOVERNMENT

Thousands of Registration Boards will be ready on Registration Day (Sept. 12) to take care of the millions who must register that day.

The great registration organization, brought to perfection when the men 21 to 31 years old registered, is expected to surpass the wonderful record it made in the first registration.

No preparation that would speed the work has been overlooked by the Provost Marshal General. The government is determined that the vast registration shall be hastened through in the day allotted to it. All the schedule of placing a huge army in Europe next year is based upon a one-day registration.

WHY SPEED IS NEEDED

The enlarged military program requires that the selective-service system, which must supply the additional soldiers needed, shall have a Class 1 of more than 2,000,000 available to be drawn from on and after Oct. 1 next.

In order to obtain 2,000,000 of Class 1 men, the nation must register about 13,000,000 more men FOR CLASSIFICATION. These 13,000,000 represent the total of our males who are 18 to 21 and 32 to 45 years old.

Why does our army need more than 2,000,000 additional soldiers? Because the program of the Entente Allies to "speed up" the final overthrow of the German armies calls for early mustering of America's final contribution.

The Department of War has stated that our army must not fall below 5,000,000. Of this number, nearly 3,000,000 are under arms now. This leaves more than 2,000,000 to be made ready (including replacements)—and the time is here to obtain them.

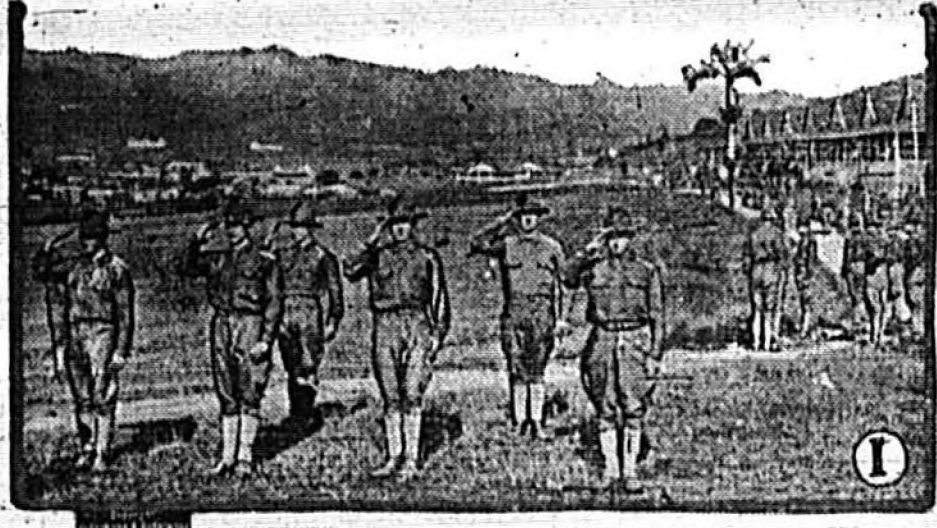

OCTOBER TRAINING

Why must these 2,250,000 Class 1 men begin to be available by October 1?

Because by Oct. 1 at the present rate of dispatching troops to Europe our army contingents will be depleted, and by the process of refilling their places the Class 1 men obtained by the 1918 classification will have been exhausted. It will be necessary, therefore, to call more Class 1 men to the camps. In order to obtain more Class 1 men, we must proceed to this new registration. As soon as the whole number has been registered, the classification will begin, and a new quota will be called each month, beginning in October, to fill the places vacated in the camps by those departing to join our boys "over there."

Therefore the registration had to take place not later than Sept. 12 in order that the first installment of the new Class 1 men may be ready by Oct. 1.

REMEMBER REGISTRATION DAY—THURSDAY, SEPT. 12. SPREAD THE NEWS ABOUT IT.

1—View of the encampment in Porto Itico where patriotic Porto Ricans are training for service in the American army. 2—Wounded Italians sitting by a roadside east of Gorizia, waiting for an ambulance. 3—Nicholas Romanoff, deposed czar of Russia, with a stump for a throne. 4—Hjalmar Branting, leader of the socialists of Sweden and editor of the organ of the labor party.

AMUSEMENT

A Letter
My Dear Madam:
If you, a beautiful young French girl, lived in France and the Germans overran the territory around your chateau, how would you act? Suppose, too, that one of the German officers made love to you—you French girl, with your heart and soul stirred for your country's welfare—again I ask how would you act?

I have no doubt you would do exactly as Miss Virginia Pearson does in her latest William Fox photoplay, "A Daughter of France," which I am presenting at my theatre next Tuesday.

Miss Pearson has a stirring play and enacts her part in such a way as to give many thrills. The story itself will strengthen your patriotism, no matter how strong it has been. It shows a section of beautiful France soon after war is declared. It is so calm, so peaceful. Then come the Germans and for that section "the deluge." German troops set just like German troops and you have read what that means. The officers take the best in the neighborhood and the men take the balance.

If you care to see how hard and how faithfully the French are fighting against the invader, this play will please you for that reason alone.

There is romance and adventure here a plenty.

Yours truly,
E. F. Lane, Manager,
Lyric Theatre.

"A DAUGHTER OF FRANCE"

Scene is Laid in Territory Occupied By The Kaiser's Army

Louise de Ciron, of an impoverished French family of noble blood, bids farewell to her brother, Paul, leaving for the front, to join his regiment as a captain.

In Germany, at the same time, Col. Rudolph von Knorr, an Alsatian departs for the Bavarian Guards.

Just as Marie, Louise's maid is jealous of her mistress, so is Capt. Fritz von Meyring envious of his superior, Col. von Knorr.

Hard fighting weeks pass. The troops of which von Knorr is leader break through a sector of the French front. Rudolph billets himself, his staff in the de Ciron chateau, where Louise, disdainful to flee before has remained. Marie and Fritz become friendly at once. Rudolph protests his love for Louise, but she spurns his pleas. Fritz eyes Louise avidly—and then stirs Marie's hatred for Louise. Fritz then conceives this plot to place Louise in his power.

He forces Mathilde, her foster sister, to write a note saying that there is illness in the family and that she needs her. He encloses a pass through the lines for Louise, to which he forges von Knorr's name. Louise suspects nothing. Rudolph follows her. As Louise enters the house, von Meyring hides behind a door. A moment afterward Rudolph comes. Louise sees immediately that she is the victim of a scheme, but thinks Rudolph engineered it. Von Knorr, drunk and lust-crazed, seizes her. They struggle. He strikes her down—unconscious. Half dazed he staggers from the room.

Outside he looks up at the window. The silhouette of von Meyring on the glass brings him to his senses. Rudolph kills Fritz, then presents himself before his general for court martial. He tells the whole truth of the affair at the trial, but Louise, who was unconscious during the fight does not believe him. She thinks von Meyring died trying to protect her. After the court martial she stabs Rudolph, wounding him slightly. Soldiers are about to arrest her when von Knorr cries out: "She is guiltless. I slipped—and fell upon the knife."

With this statement love dawns for Louise. Marie, meantime, has made her way through the lines to Paul de Ciron's regiment. She tells Paul that his sister is the sweetheart of a German officer. Paul compels Marie to carry back a letter to Louise, in care of von Knorr, to the effect that he is dying. In getting back to the village Marie is shot, but the message is delivered. The ending is a pleasant surprise. Lyric Tuesday.

As You Like It.
Treat the other fellow just as you would like to be treated.

STATE MARKET BUREAU NOTES

Cull oranges and pineapples can be utilized by making vinegar and wine. Particulars can be had from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Housewives can get useful information about making bread and other eatables from corn by sending to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and asking for Farmers' Bulletin No. 565.

A book entitled "The Thinking Hand" is used in English schools. It is profusely illustrated. The idea is that handwork stimulates the intellectual activity of children. By means of manual exercises in which diverse materials as wood and metal, cardboard, leather, rope, paper, etc., are used. The pupils are taught elementary physics, domestic science, gardening and farming.

On many of the islands of the West Indies corn is kiln-dried. The advantage of kiln-dried corn is that given proper storage conditions it will keep indefinitely, and therefore finds a ready sale and a better price than corn which has only been sun-dried, and which quickly deteriorates in quality owing to the excessive amount of moisture retained in it.

The rust diseases in cereal plants have so far proved very difficult to deal with, and the problem of their control has practically resolved itself into one of breeding resistant varieties. This is a fine field of effort for intelligent growers.

Extensive experiments at the West Indies Experiment Stations show that in feeding hogs on corn that light hogs, weighing less than 200 pounds make the most rapid gains with whole corn on cob, in a natural state; while heavy weight swine make the most rapid gains with soaked shelled and soaked ground grains.

Panama hats are made of Roquilla straw derived from a species of stemless screw pines, the most important growing wild in the hot, moist regions of Ecuador and Columbia, and also along the waters of the Amazon. Many attempts have been made to cultivate the plants but unsuccessfully, for it seems to be only in the wild state that the characteristic qualities are developed.

European canned vegetables are packed in a more condensed form than ours, with a smaller percentage of water, and are sometimes dehydrated or evaporated before canning, being put into tin chiefly for protection in storage and shipping.

In the Trade Products of the British Empire reference is made to fish meal as a supplementary food for cattle, hogs and fowls. It is said to be generally used in Germany. In the first test with this product it was found that this class of feed increases the appetite and consequently the weight of the animal. Opinion of investigators seem to differ as to the influence of such feed on the taste for milk and butter, but it is said that lard obtained from hogs fed with fish meal is quite free from the odor of fish, and that no fishy taste is noticeable. Florida is one of the great fish states. Why not a fish meal factory?

Comprehensive experiments have been carried out with a view to preserving cut flowers by the addition of salts to the water in which the stalks are placed. In no case have any striking results been obtained. The best treatment to adopt is to add a trace of sine sulphate or of copper sulphate to the water, which will prevent fouling, due to bacterial action. Daily removal of the cut ends of the stalks has been found to prolong the life of the flower.

The control of corn caterpillars, the ear worm and the boll worm is explained in Farmers' Bulletin No. 872, issued free by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. The feeding habits of both pests are about the same, but they differ in laying their eggs which are deposited in quantities ranging from 500 to 3,000.

The sweet potatoes weevil is a serious pest, and every precaution should be taken to prevent its spreading. The weevil is a slender insect about a quarter inch in length. Its head and wing covers are blue in color, while the legs are reddish. Communicate with the State Plant Board when you discover weevils in your sweet potatoes.

A plant has just been discovered in South America, the leaves of which furnish a substance 180 times as sweet as sugar. The dry powdered leaf, is 40 times as sweet and contains nothing harmful.

Experiments show that after the roots of the sweet potato are harvested there occurs a rapid transformation of starch into cane sugar and reducing sugars. During its growth the sweet potato root is characterized by a very low sugar content, most of the reserved material being starch. If sweet potatoes are kept in cold storage there is a rapid increase in cane sugar.

Experiments at the Minnesota Station as regards the strength of rope, showed that four strand ropes have about 16 per cent more strength than three strand ropes. Tarring ropes decreases its strength by 25 per cent, because the high temperature of the tar at the time of its application injures the fibres.

Shipments of olive oil to the United States from Spain were considerably increased in 1917 compared with 1916. The quantity increased from 449,874 to 1,558,050 gallons and the value from $506,374 to $1,505,420. There was a decided increase in the shipments of castile soap. And yet refined vegetable oils made at home, and just as good, do not seem to take as something from "abroad."

The Manufacturers Record says the U. S. Bureau of Chemistry has found that certain mineral oils can be made cheaper than castor oil and can be used effectively for lubricating airplane engines. What effect this will have on the future of the castor bean industry remains to be seen.

Peru's Great Museum.
Peru's capital is the home of a national museum, one of the world's most interesting institutions of this nature. It shares with that of Cairo in displaying to modern peoples various incidents of life and activity of bygone races. Also the gallery of paintings of Peruvian history is particularly noteworthy. The remains of the first airplane to cross the Alps in which the Peruvian airman, Don Jorge Chavez, lost his life, is another interesting exhibit.

Not as Progressive.
A scientific magazine says the motorcar has passed out of the experimental stage. True, but what a pity it is that as much cannot be said of the drivers of motorcars.

OUR PLEDGE

"Appreciating to the utmost the supreme unselfishness of our American manhood which is offering its very life upon the altar of freedom for the world, we, the members of the South Florida Press Association, in semi-annual session assembled, do hereby
'Resolve, That in this crisis and as long as life shall last, we dedicate all that we are and all that we have to the support of our glorious nation, our righteous cause, and our illustrious government. And be it further
'Resolved, That every newspaper holding membership in this association display this resolution in bold type at the masthead of its editorial page throughout the month of August, and that copies be sent to the president and our representatives in congress.
'Done and ordered in the city of Wauchula, state of Florida, this 12th day of July, 1918."

A paragon of a writer has been located at Sanford. He defends the cattle tick on the ground that it protects cattle against anthrax and a horde of other ills, and he plaintively inquires what we are going to do when we get rid of the cattle tick and the other ills come? Dead easy. We'll get rid of them also. No use to throw troubles of that kind. Palm Beach Post.

THANKS, GOVERNOR

The editor of The Herald is in receipt of a beautiful commission from Governor Catts giving us the chance to attend the National Waterways meeting at Boston. The commission is beautiful in gold seals and engraving but at the bottom it states that no expenses will be paid by the state. Thanks, Governor, for the honor conferred. But don't you know that an editor in war times could never go to Boston and pay his own expenses? In fact we could not even go to Jacksonville and while we appreciate the honor of representing the great commonwealth of Florida we must of necessity decline. We have the water but not the ways.

NO MORE JOBS

To all of our friends and well wishers in the state who are anxious to foist jobs of all kinds on us during the war we wish to say that none of them can be handled now. We have been working overtime since the war started on jobs of every description and have never failed in them or refused to take them but now that we want to leave in some capacity for the front we would like to announce that no more jobs can be accepted. Some of the other good patriots here will have to take them, and since none of them pay anything it will take a patriot to fill them. Meantime don't send us any more gilt edged commissions, promotions, positions, requisitions, etc. We have been keeping the home

SANFORD'S CRISIS

There is a crisis in the life of every city that is not making war munitions or that has no camp or other war work that is bringing new money into the community. Sanford is one of them and there is no need to call attention to the fact that the people are leaving and that while others are coming in to take their places they are not coming fast enough and the new industries are not coming fast enough. The war is crimping us and crimping us hard and we might just as well face the music boldly and while facing it get together and form some good plans for the winter season. There is but one place to get relief and that is through the Seminole County Board of Trade that is still working for every man in the county but that lacks much of having every man in the county for a member. The Board of Trade will keep the home fires burning in the business line as well as in all other lines while the boys are away and it behooves every business man in Seminole county to get on the band wagon and ride with the active members who are holding the business of the county together, despite the many drawbacks and vicissitudes through which we are passing. The people are going and we are feeling the mental and financial depression of their going and yet we must and will keep up our part of the war work and to do this we must keep our business going and to keep business going we must keep the Board of Trade going. It is our salvation and our duty and those who have not taken part can see just where they failed in the past and can see just where they could have accomplished so much more had they been wide awake, active members and real citizens. Now is the time to rally to the banner of the organization that will hold your town together.

FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Secretary Lane has presented to the President and congress a plan for preliminary study of the unused lands of the country, looking to the irrigation of some 15 million acres of arid land, the drainage of some 75 million or more of swamp lands, and the clearing of approximately 200 million of cut over lands, with the purpose in view of reclaiming these lands through government agency and providing homes for returned soldiers.

This is indeed a most laudable scheme, and that the secretary's plan has touched a popular chord is evidenced by the many letters of approval received by him from U. S. senators and congressmen, as well as hundreds of editorials that have appeared in the leading papers of the country.

Secretary Lane has addressed a long letter to the Hon. Swager Sherrley of Kentucky, chairman of the house committee of appropriation, in which he recites the fact that similar steps have already been taken by many of the allied countries.

Among the best brief paragraphs favoring the measure yet observed are the following, the first by the Evening Mail of New York, and the second by the Bulletin, Seattle, Washington:

"It is realized that all other countries are giving attention to this utter war situation, and already suggesting home making arrangements which have caught the imagination of the American soldiers in the trenches. Under this plan, the soldier is not to be given a bounty; he is not to be made to feel that he is a dependent. On the contrary, he is to continue in a sense in the service of the government. Instead of destroying our enemies, he is to develop our resources."

"We cannot be over generous in providing opportunity for our returned soldiers. Financially, farm ventures for those who desire a life in the open and an opportunity to make a success in agricultural or stock-raising pursuits is fair to those who have risked their all, and is eminently good business for the country at large, as any such plan would open up idle lands to cultivation and produce greater commercial wealth for the nation."

ON TAKING THE DOCTORS

As the war has progressed and the need has been shown for surgeons for camps and battlefields, thousands of physicians have responded and are doing splendid work, and of the many professions represented in the great army of Americans now busy with war, there is probably no one that requires more self sacrifice. The voluntary leaving of an established practice to take the field, without great chance for promotion and even the remote opportunity for fame or signal achievement is likely not appreciated by thousands who have but small knowledge of the situation. But the demands have been heavy and dozens and scores and hundreds and thousands of physicians and surgeons have entered the service and are in camp and abroad; doing work that will never be told of; work that calls for heroism as great as that demanded of the men who "go over the top" or stand firm in an assault. The work of the surgeon is practically continuous, always requiring his best nerve and his greatest skill.

Volunteers have been many and in the first draft a large number of younger physicians were called to go with the troops and in every instance there has been no tardiness or drawing back. But the new draft brings about a somewhat different proposition. Graduating in medicine and surgery at twenty-one or over the young physician called to the colors after a few years of practice has really been awarded a post graduate course, with many wonderful and splendid opportunities to show his skill and ingenuity and initiative—but the physician who has been established perhaps for a score of years in a community or section of a city does not so much need this additional and unusual experience. His years of work for humanity—and this is well recognized as the life of "the doctor," have given him insight not even accorded the family lawyer or the minister, and he knows every phase of human suffering and its panacea. His "dependants" are numbered by the score. It is likely that he will be ready to go to the camp or battlefield, if called, but will the call be persistent and the situation be viewed from a single point—that of the need of the soldiers?

What of the "folks at home?" It might be imagined, for example, that the soldiers themselves be consulted like this—but if they could, what would they say? "There's father and mother at home," let's imagine the boy in khaki saying, "and mother hasn't been very well the past few years. And there's sister and her children—and Agnes—and little Jack—God bless them—wonder if they would have gotten along so well if 'the doctor' had been taken? There are other doctors, of course, but 'our doctor' knew all about us, and the folks, and—well, I hope he won't have to leave Billville, at least not until I get home." Unselfish? Yes; that's the American son and brother and husband. They would readily "take a chance" with the younger men of the profession—but they like to feel that the family doctor is at home, where the folks can get him over the phone when they are in trouble.

It may be that the rules for the new draft will not provide for any exemptions on account of such home necessities, or that the framers may not have thought of the possible assignment of a sufficient number of skilled and experienced physicians, of mature judgment and wide influence, to home sections. The wise authorities are applauding the splendid increase in population shown in recent statistics, and urging the care and safeguarding of babyhood—and it would seem well to see that there were sufficient experts left at home to assist old Dr. Stork in his mission, and to comfort and help the sick and the wounded at home, who are doing their best always to aid and encourage the boys at the front.—Times-Union.

Rhodes Scholarship Examinations

Although, because of the war, no elections will be made this autumn for the Rhodes scholarship of 1919, the examinations will be held October 1st and 2nd in all states where candidates present themselves, in order that candidates who have prepared to take the qualifying examination may do so and by passing, become eligible at the next election of scholars. The trustees have decided that candidates who are eligible this year will be held to be qualified whenever the selections for the scholarships are made. The elections now postponed will be completed as soon as war conditions permit.

The Rhodes scholarship carries with it an annuity of three hundred pounds, or $1600.00, and an education at the great English University of Oxford. There, through training in any of the professions is offered and every facility for enlightening travel is furnished. The scholarship is good for three years. No applicant for these examinations can be considered unless his application is received, not later than SEPTEMBER TWELFTH (12th), by President A. A. Murphy, Chairman, Rhodes Committee of Selection, University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida.

The Fellsmere company in the very near future will begin the fencing of 100,000 acres of land south and west of Fellsmere to be used as a cattle range. This range will be well stocked with a good breed of cattle as fast as necessary preparations can be made for the proper care of the stock.

THE SECOND CAMPAIGN W. S. STAMPS
BEGAN YESTERDAY WITH PLENTY OF PEP.

The Second War Savings drive began yesterday morning with a meeting of the Captains of the teams at the office of the county chairman, Mr. Maines in the court house. At this meeting instructions and working material was given out and the various teams went forth to battle in an enthusiastic mood, vouching among themselves that they would do their very best to get the people of Seminole to show the government that Seminole county is behind the boys in France a full 100 per cent strong.
The Captains of the teams are:
Team No. 1—C. L. Britt and Mrs. R. J. Holly.
Team No. 2—W. M. Haynes and R. R. Deas.
Team No. 3—R. A. Newman and Mrs. T. L. O'Connor.
Team No. 4—Dr. Brownlee, Mrs. James Moughton.
Team No. 5—S. J. Shinholser, Mrs. H. G. Dietrich.
Team No. 6—Ed. Lane, Mrs. M. L. Wright.
Team No. 7—Geo. D. Hart, Mrs. Vaughan.
Team No. 8—L. A. Brumley, Mrs. E. P. Morse.
Team No. 9—Ed. Putnam and Mrs. S. Jewett.

The colored workers are under the direction of Wm. W. Lewis, Supt. of the territory from Park avenue east, and W. B. Boykin, Supt. of the territory from Park avenue west, with S. E. Monroe, Supt. of the Midway-Canaan division.
All of these Captains have various workers on their teams, a complete list of whom cannot at this time be obtained.

YOUR government calls on you to do a thing—will you not heed this call?

Florida owes $10,000,000.00 on her pledge to the boys who have gone to fight her battles.

Seminole county owes $125,000.00 on her pledge to the Seminole boys who are being wounded in France every day—those noble Americans who have offered themselves, offered to give their very life, if need be to make good their promise to their government.

UNTIL EVERY MAN, WOMAN and CHILD in SEMINOLE COUNTY has lent to the government their quota in War Savings, then Seminole county is not keeping its promise to her boys.

Your government calls on you to do this thing—invest your money in War Savings—don't give anything, just invest your money. Will you do it? WILL YOU HELP SEMINOLE TO KEEP HER PROMISE? Then invest your limit in War Savings This Week.

Schelle Maines, County Chairman, War Savgs. Comm.

Pinellas county is building a long fence, the people of the county having voted to have all the stock kept up, and the action requires that the adjoining county be fence off. The Times of St. Petersburg says that the posts have been set along the county line for five miles and the sides will be strung shortly. "Besides setting the posts," says the Times, "the county commissioners have had a right of way cleared right through a big cypress swamp and this will prevent the fence from being injured by forest fires.

BRITISH OFFICER TO SPEAK HERE

Chief of the British Heavy Artillery and a portion of the time on staff duty. He was invalided last November with trench fever and was sent to this country a short time ago to tell the American people just what war is from the viewpoint of heavy artillery. He indicates how really unprepared England was when the war began, and how rapidly it has developed one of the most essential pieces of machinery in the war in the heavy-artillery which he now pronounces as the best in the world. He says that there is no doubt of the superiority of allied artillery now and that it will be constantly maintained.

The present continued success of the allies in France is an indication of this superiority of fire. Major Ferguson believes that there will be now once that the allied forces have co-ordinated their staff work and placed it under one general head of such an experienced general as General Foch.

The great trouble in the early stages of the war according to Major Ferguson was lack of staff experience. The British did not have it, the Russians did not have it, and America has not yet got it, but the French and Germans did have it, and Great Britain has learned it, and America is learning it.

Major Ferguson does not discredit the fighting ability of this nation's army and says that it is a lamentable fact that once the fighting ability was discredited by the Canadians and Americans and that they will have to be taught that at the beginning of this war Germany had superior soldiers because of the superior training. He says now that the allied soldiers not only equal in training, but are far superior in initiative and self-reliance and that there can be no doubt of the final outcome, if we refuse to listen to German propaganda which no doubt will soon begin in an effort to split the allies, the French from the British, the British from the Italians, and Americans from their allies.

Major Ferguson will speak of intimate knowledge of the war gained during four years in the trenches and artillery stations back of the lines. Weather permitting the speaking will take place on the streets, corner Park and First, Wednesday evening, eight o'clock.

PAINTED CAR YELLOW

Oviedo Man Rode to Church On Sunday

Oviedo, Sept. 9.—The spirit of the joker "is abroad somewhere in Oviedo, as brought to light Sunday evening, when one of Oviedo's prominent citizens who was attending Christian Endeavor class had the experience of finding on returning to the car he drove to church had suddenly changed color, as white in the church some one had painted his car yellow. This naturally upset the worthy gentleman greatly and we are wondering just what amount of his religion he lost in "cussing" quietly of course, for it is rather unusual for one's car to play chameleon and turn color in a minute, and especially while one is attending church. Of course the new color is to him like a red shawl to the proverbial bull and he is much incensed. However, the answer is that Oviedo is trying to adhere to Fuel Administration request and not ride in motor cars on Sunday unless on urgent need. All in all he would have been able to greet his car in its natural color in the garage at home if he had not rode in.

The moral is good here: Beware of the extra comfort on Sunday. Walk and not ride in a yellow car.

Must Have Pure Milk

Tallahassee, Sept. 9. Florida's need for milk was emphasized at the War Work College here, by Miss May Morse, assistant state home demonstration agent in the following statements:

"The existence of a nation is dependent on her children. Milk is an absolutely necessary food for infants and children, and is practically indispensable in feeding the sick and aged. It has been conclusively proven that wounds heal much more readily when the patient has milk in the diet.

"Milk contains all the food elements or substances required to build and nourish the human body. These substances are protein, fat, carbohydrates, minerals and water.

"Florida is falling far short in the production of an adequate amount of dairy products. We import $16,000,000 worth annually. This money goes to the farmers of the north and northwest. Why should not our Florida farmers supply these products, thus helping to relieve transportation conditions, and keep this vast sum at home.

"The average daily consumption of milk in the United States is approximately one pint per capita. In Florida our daily average is less than one-half pint. Our comparative consumption of butter and cheese is proportionately low. The children of the family, up to the age of 12 years, should have a quart a day. Pellagra, an all too common disease in Florida, is caused by an unbalanced diet.

"Our county home demonstration agents report that under their supervision 581 farm women are making butter and 399 fire making cheese. This is a step in the right direction if our farmers and stockmen will rid Florida of the cattle fever tick. By the simple process of systematically dipping the cattle, in a short time our beef will improve and our dairy products increase materially.

For Miss Lydia Yowell. Mildred Holly entertained a number of young friends at her home on Park avenue last night in honor of her friend, Lydia Yowell of Orlando, who is her guest this week. The guests played games of various kinds and also danced on the porch and in many ways enjoyed the evening.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and the little guests departed at a late hour with the feeling that they had enjoyed the evening and the company of their hostess and Miss Yowell. Those present were LeClair Jones, Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Kitty DuBose, Camilla Puleston, Kathleen Brady, Ruth Henry, Olive Newman and Ralph and Harry Woodruff, Hamlin DuBose, Albert Connelly, Robert Holly.

NEED WOMEN ON RAILROADS

Many Jobs Opened to Them by the War at Same Salaries Men Have Been Receiving

The number of railroad jobs that women are able to hold has increased tremendously since the war began. One of the first new jobs for women was car cleaning, and they have been engaged in this work in the Boston yards of the Boston & Albany Railroad for many months.

Now the Railroad Administration contemplates employment of women almost exclusively as clerks, accountants, ticket sellers, station agents, crossing watchmen and car cleaners, in which jobs they can release men for the army or for more important work. To some extent, it is understood, women will be employed as track laborers.

Every effort will be made to guard the safety and health of these women workers, and it is probable that the work of the Women in Industry Service of the Department of Labor will be of great value in solving problems connected with their employment. Women will be paid the same as men for the same work. English and French railroads were long ago compelled to hire women for railroad work on an extensive scale. In France the women even act as firemen on locomotives.

There are training schools for women ticket agents in several large cities already, where young women between the ages of 21 and 35 years are given two months' courses in railroad geography and simple accounting. They are paid $25 a month while learning and afterwards receive from $65 to $200 a month.

The board of county commissioners of Brevard county did a good stroke of business at a special session held on July 15th, when they purchased a large shell mound located in Volusia county about six miles south of New Smyrna, paying at the rate of thirty-five cents per cubic yard. The total amount agreed upon was $9,000, payable $3,000 at the August meeting of the board and the balance of $6,000 to be provided for at the regular October meeting. The Dixie Highway through the county is constructed for the most part with shell, and during the past year this road has been kept in a very good state of repair.

King Bros., one of the largest cattle companies in South Florida are constructing eight concrete dipping vats in the eastern part of DeSoto county, D. C. Ryan, who has the construction work in charge has already finished several vats and will complete the contract as soon as the material arrives. These concrete vats are in addition to a number of wooden vats owned by these people in different localities where their cattle range, and will cost in the neighborhood of $400 each. They may be used by the public for dipping purposes and will go a long way toward tick eradication in DeSoto county.

Arthur Lossing Wounded. Word was received Monday morning by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lossing that their son, Arthur had been badly wounded, both legs having been broken by the explosion of shells. Letter was dated Aug. 9th and stated Arthur was receiving the best of care and getting along as well as could be expected.

Pleasure resorts and beaches on the west coast were hard hit by the Fuel Administration's order regarding the non-use of gasoline on Sunday. Last Sunday only sixteen cars crossed the two-mile bridge to Clearwater Beach, when formerly they were counted in hundreds, the same condition existing at all other beaches.

Does Work of Six Horses on Diet of Kerosene

One of these little Avery 6-10 H. P. Tractors which we sold down at Bellaire is doing the work of six horses and mules. And is doing it better. Hot days don't worry it. And, instead of two-dollar corn, its diet is common kerosene. A pair of the mules it displaced sold for almost as much as the tractor cost.

This little tractor is one of six sizes which we sell—all specially equipped and adapted for Florida service. It will allow the small farmer to adopt the same methods as used by the big fellows. Write us of your tractor needs, and let us suggest the solution.

PERSHING CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

BY BREAKING THROUGH GERMAN LINES.

American forces this morning launched an attack on the German positions. At 9 o'clock they had progressed generally along the line. Some prisoners were taken at different parts of the sector.

The attack was preceded by a barrage lasting four hours.

On the American side of the St. Mihiel salient they attacked on a front of 12 miles; on the western side the attack was along a front of 8 miles. There has been a concentration of Franco-American artillery and allied airplanes are operating in large number.

French and American forces this morning launched an attack against the German positions on both sides of the St. Mihiel salient.

The weather is fine. The attack made by the French and the Americans was a most daring one and so far successful.

The Germans now are falling back on the fronts on each side of the St. Mihiel salient.

Though undoubtedly suspicious of the intentions of the Americans in this region, the Germans were unaware at the time of the direction of the attack. The American troops are all intensely eager and are fighting magnificently.

French and American artillery this morning directed a terrific barrage fire on the German positions on this front. The reply of the German big guns was vigorous at some places, although as a whole it was weak.

There are some indications that German withdrawal of artillery of large dimensions was in progress.

The Germans at some points are increasing the volume of their big gun fire, but ineffectually.

Washington, Sept. 12.—With French and American troops striking on a wide front southwest of Verdun, the greatest battle, perhaps the decisive struggle of the war may have begun. Early reports show that this first employment of General Pershing's new army is on the wide front, the joint French and American thrust covering 20 miles.

Apparently the initial effort is to force the enemy out of the St. Mihiel salient, which he has held since 1914.

American forces have held the front on the southern and eastern sides of the salient. Their lines, according to the last information available, were on the Moselle river, which would be the first available highway to Metz.

Officials here believe Marshal Foch has struck the blow he has had in preparation ever since he took hold of the American army.

Francic efforts to stem the tide of the entente allied advance has caused the German command to take divisions out of quiet sectors around Verdun and in the Woeyre and Lorraine, where they had been sent to recuperate, and to put them into the line after a very brief rest even though the troops need recuperation.

Sanford Artists

A large sign at the postoffice for the War Savings Stamp drive bears a cartoon of Ben Guthrie our well known cartoonist, who shows a real American Eagle flying from a dollar into the face of Kaiser willis, who is falling back in astonishment and great surprise. On the other side is the emblem of the War Savings Stamps, the Torch of Liberty.

The work was done by C. J. Rumph, the A. C. L. artist, who is probably one of the finest in the business today. Both Mr. Guthrie and Mr. Rumph are modest gentlemen whose hearts are in the war and who are doing their bit with the pen and brush and they are entitled to more glory than they can get in such a restricted area, but that they are the real thing is attested by all those who have seen their work and this work is greatly appreciated by the local committees and by the government of the good old U. S. A.

Death of H. B. Connelly

H. B. Connelly one of Sanford's respected citizens passed away last Wednesday morning after an illness of several months.

Mr. Connelly was born at Connelly Springs, Burke County, North Carolina on June 15, 1870 and passed his early boyhood at the old home there. He came to Florida 22 years ago and most of the time was passed in Lake and Polk County where he was engaged in railroad and the phosphate business.

He moved to Sanford about seven years ago taking the position of dispatcher with the A. C. L. Railway Co., and worked faithfully almost up to the time of his death. He made a valiant fight against the grim reaper and recently went to a sanitarium at Port Orange for treatment where everything in the power of skilled physicians was done for him but the One who knows best thought fit to call him to his reward after a life well spent and he passed away Wednesday surrounded by family and loving friends.

The funeral occurred at Bartow Thursday morning, Rev. R. E. Reed of the Baptist church officiating. Interment was made in the Bartow cemetery where some of the children were before were interred in the family tomb.

Deceased leaves a devoted wife and two children, Mrs. T. W. Getzen and Mary Connelly to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father.

He also leaves an aged mother in North Carolina who was too feeble to attend the funeral of her boy, also a brother here, A. P. Connelly, two brothers in Illinois and a sister in Washington.

H. B. Connelly was a man who while of a retiring disposition and a man too busy in the office to take part in public affairs yet withal was one of our staunch citizens who had the interest of the city at heart and his loss will be keenly felt by those who knew him best.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family.

Dr. J. N. Rabson, after spending a vacation of several days at Daytona Beach, is in Sanford and gives glowing reports of bathing at the beach.

REAL AMERICANS SERVED BOARDS WITHOUT PAY.

Patriotic Americans everywhere yesterday went to the registration booths and registered the fact that they were ready to help Uncle Sam whip the Hun in whatever capacity they were needed. This was the case in Seminole County and while the official figures are not obtainable today from the country precincts they were there and we can depend upon every man doing his duty when Uncle Sam makes a call.

Here in Sanford the boys from 18 to 45 walked right up to the counter and gave in their names with the feeling that they were ready and willing to fight. There was no backing down or hesitancy about the manner in which these men/boys of 18 are men now went about this great task of registering the man power of the country.

Precinct 3 had headquarters in the corner room of the Clark building corner of Palmetto and First street Here Schelle Maines was chief registrar and his valuable assistants were W. M. Haynes, Chas. L. Britt, Thos. W. Jones, Frank B. Adams, Will E. Watson, Angus R. Chappell, Osborne P. Herndon, Jas. C. Roberts, Will McKinnon, Ernest F. Houacholder, Milo H. Massey, Harry J. Wilson, Sanford, Doudney, and F. Eugene Roundhill.

Here they registered an even 500 Americans.

In Precinct 1 the headquarters was in the office of H. C. DuBose and Mr. DuBose was chief registrar. His assistants were Richard C. Maxwell, W. Gayne Fox, Alex. K. Powers, Archie L. Betts, Bart W. Herndon, E. Darnall Brownlee, Geo. D. Hart, Jno. D. Jenkins.

Here they registered 317 Americans. All of these busy men worked all day long and into the night at this task and asked not one cent of pay for it and they are to be commended. Seminole County will have the lists in and they will be complete in every particular.

British Officer Here

Major Ferguson, a British officer in the heavy Artillery and a man who has been in the fighting over there for four years gave an interesting talk here Wednesday night. The meeting was opened by Chairman Schelle Maines who seated that the second campaign for War Savings Stamps was now on and told in a few brief words just why the people should come across and buy more stamps. He then introduced Major Ferguson who gave one of the most interesting talks on the war since the trenches and in the artillery branch of the service that has been delivered here in some time. He punctuated his remarks by photos taken at the front lines and his address was listened to with marked attention by the large crowd present.

At the conclusion of his talk Chairman Maines announced that it was a good time to see how many Americans wanted War Savings Stamps and he sold a number of them on the spot. The campaign is progressing favorably this week in Sanford and especially in the county where several precincts have gone over the top.

After A Man's Done His Bit

What then? He may be a returned soldier, or a civilian; is there a rebound, or does the work go on? This will be the subject of the sermon at the Congregational church Sunday evening. The usual song service will precede, and the hour is 7:30.

In the morning the pastor will speak on "Slackers in the Great Cause; Or the Neglect of Religion". This service of worship and study follows the Sunday School hour which begins at 9:45. The Bible Class topic for the day is: "The World Program of the Christian Church". If not attending elsewhere you are invited to join this class.

He turned around with sudden gloom; she said, "Love, be at rest; You cut the grass, worked soon and late, you did your very best. That was your work; you've naught at all to do with wind and rain; And do not doubt, but you will reap rich fields of golden grain; For there's a heart and there's a hand we feel, but cannot see; We've always been provided for, and we shall always be."

Certain-teed

Roofing

"Service" and "Conservation" are written in italics across the war-time record of Certain-teed Roofing.

It has given vitally needed shelter for munition plant, barrack, shipyard, factory, barn and granary.

It has taken nothing of military value in its manufacture, — waste rags and asphalt are its principal components, and both are useless for war purposes.

Its manufacture is accomplished largely by machinery, conserving labor; by water power, conserving fuel; by women workers, conserving manpower.

Certain-teed endures under all conditions. It is weatherproof, waterproof, spark proof and fire retarding. Rust cannot affect it. The heat of the sun cannot melt it or cause it to run. It is not affected by gases, acids, fumes, smoke, etc. These qualities have made Certain-teed the choice everywhere for factories, warehouses, stores, hotels, garages, office buildings, farm buildings and out-buildings.

In shingles, red or green, it makes an artistic roof for residences.

Certain-teed Roofing is guaranteed 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness.

Sold by good dealers, everywhere.

EAST SANFORD.

Rev. Mr. Hilderbrand will be here on Sunday Sept. 15th from Enterprise to fill his usual appointment on the third Sunday in the month. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lucas and little daughters Susannah and Nora are at Formosa attending a ten days series of Seventh day evangelists meetings.

John Ingram is here from Pahokee on a business and is the guest of his daughter Mrs. W. R. Guerré meanwhile.

Mrs. Will Raynor has been very ill for some weeks at her home on Celery Ave.

Mrs. Tina Bealy from Jacksonville is here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren. Her husband is leaving soon for "over seas" as cook in U. S. A. Service.

Mrs. G. C. McDougal entertained her brother John Edwards last week. Mr. Edwards enroute from Boston Mass. to Key West where he is employed by the Government. Mrs. Edwards is with her people in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herby, who have spent many winters on Celery Ave. are to remain at their home near Dayton Ohio this winter.

Mrs. E. M. Galloway is returning this week from several months stay in the north.

Mrs. W. E. Prevatt entertained her brothers Talmage, Luther and Clyde this week. The two latter boys from New Smyrna and Talmage is a radio operator in U. S. Army Service.

Norman N. Swanson is driving a fine new Overland Six.

Since the advance in rates for telephone service several phones have been removed from here, and the number are A. Marshall, J. F. McClelland, J. C. Ellsworth and G. W. Drosser.

Among the first to get celery in the field are J. F. Hickson, Charlie Merrigarth, Chevis Bucarel and Chase and Co. Eggplant and peppers look fine. Ideal weather for plant setting.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE.

Mrs. E. W. Lundquist is spending Thursday with Mrs. Henry Lundquist. Roy Lee and wife and baby have moved into the house owned by his uncle, J. A. Thompson, this week. Roy Lee has recently purchased an auto from his brother Jesse.

Mrs. Tyner and mother, Mrs. Bengston, spent Monday in the settlement calling upon old neighbors and taking dinner with Mrs. Bertleson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson and niece, Miss Elberta Thompson visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee.

Mrs. J. E. and E. F. Lundquist were callers at the home of Mrs. T. O. Tyner Wednesday.

Andrew Bertleson is expecting his wife home this week from her visit in Georgia. During her absence he has been keeping his mother company.

Mrs. Jesse Thompson, Miss Elberta Thompson and Mrs. Emma Wynne and son, the latter being here on a visit from Montgomery, Ala., spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee.

The neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lundquist gathered Saturday evening at their pleasant home to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

In all 41 were present and all seemed to have a jolly good time, showering their host and hostess with pretty little glassware and wishing them many more such occasions.

We are all made sad by the continued illness of Niels Peterson, who has been slowly sinking, having apparently suffered a third stroke Saturday evening and is since unconscious. His son Carl is constantly by his but is heart-broken at not being able to get in touch with his brother, Waldred, who it is feared has left with his regiment for France. The two boys are all that are left of the immediate family, the mother having died having died about 17 and another brother about 14 years ago. The neighbors have been very attentive and have shown their sympathy in many ways.

Rev. Swanson will have preaching service morning and evening next Sunday at the Lutheran church and there will be a baptism at the morning session.

As the rain prevented the service at the Presbyterian church last Sunday, there will be a service led by Rev. Brower next Sunday at three o'clock.

Mrs. Buchanan and nurse came back Tuesday from a Jacksonville hospital and is again at Mrs. Keely's. Mrs. DeForrest is hoping to come South again soon, being somewhat improved in health after having undergone a serious operation at the Battle Creek hospital. She is now with her son Norman.

The summer bath so many songs— That set my heart a singing. Such gladness to her reign belongs. For me joy-bells are ringing. When brooklets dance along the way. When brooklets dance along the way. It's good to live—just live, I say. With summer o'er the land. —L. Mitchell

GOOD THINGS FOR THE FAMILY.

A most satisfactory griddle cake may be prepared by using sour milk, soda, a beaten egg and corn flour to thicken. Add the soda, a half teaspoonful, to a cupful of sour milk, then add a beaten egg, a little salt and corn flour to make the batter of the consistency liked. A little baking powder sifted into the corn flour will improve the cakes. Buttermilk Drops.—With a pint of buttermilk, add three eggs, a tablespoonful of fat, a teaspoonful of salt, and corn flour enough to make a batter, sifting a teaspoonful of baking powder to each cup, adding a small amount of soda if the buttermilk is at all sour. Bake in a hot oven.

Beet Piquante.—Take two cupfuls of boiled beets cut into cubes; two tablespoonfuls of butter, two of flour (barley) and one-half cupful of water in which the beets have been cooked, one-fourth cupful of vinegar, one-fourth cupful of cream, one teaspoonful of sugar, a half teaspoonful of salt. Melt the butter, add the beet liquor and cream. Then add the vinegar slowly and cook until the four tastes cooked. Add salt and pepper and then the beets. Serve hot.

Baked Bananas Belgium Style.—Remove the peel from six or eight small bananas, separate each banana to remove all coarse fibers and lay them slightly side in a baking dish suitable to serve them. Grate over them the rind of an orange and half a lemon; mix the juice of the half lemon, the orange and three-fourths of a cupful of sugar, pour this over the bananas and bake in a quick oven until soft throughout. Serve from the baking dish, one banana being a portion. This is a nice dish to serve with game or lamb, veal or fowl.

Use junket tablets for dessert. They are simple to use, make good, wholesome desserts, especially for the little people. When topped with sweetened whipped cream they are still more nutritious.

Nellie Maxwell

No Romance. After Chamberlain left, the court chamberlain reported the finding of a slipper. "The prince yawned. " 'Tis a marvelously small one." "Yes, they buy 'em too small and then they have to slip 'em off to rest their feet." And that's all there was to the episode.

A Handy Hammer Might Help. A Chicago minister says he doesn't think a street corner number ought to be killed outright, as there may be a chance to reform him. Him! As the late Sam Jones used to say, you may be able to reform a scoundrel but what in the name of God can you do with a fool?

Tilling the Soil. No race can prosper till it learns that there is as much dignity in tilling a field as in writing a poem. It is at the bottom of life we must begin, and not at the top. Nor should we permit our grievances to overshadow our opportunity.—Booker T. Washington.

A SANFORD MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this citizen? You can verify Sanford endorsement. Read this:

A. W. Wathen, farmer, 400 W. First St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and they are the best kidney remedy to be had. I suffered a lot with my back and kidney weakness. On several occasions Doan's Kidney Pills have come to my rescue when I was completely down and out with kidney trouble. Whenever I feel their need now they always bring the same quick results and I can't say too much in their praise." (Statement given May 22, 1914.)

On March 19, 1918, Mr. Wathen said: "I am still as strong in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills as ever. I haven't needed Doan's since giving my last endorsement."

On Peacemaking.

For a nation to make peace only because it is tired of war, and as it were, in order just to take breath, is in direct subversion of the end and object of the war which was its sole justification. "It is like a poor weary foot traveler getting up behind a coach that is going the contrary way to his—Coleridge (in 1805).

A Patriotic Duty.

We owe it as a patriotic duty to ourselves and our friends to keep in a happy frame of mind. With depressed spirits we cannot do our best. And now, if ever, we should keep ourselves in such condition that we can fulfill to the utmost every duty imposed upon us. Let us cultivate daily the happy frame of mind which makes the rest of the world laugh with us.

The Important Question.

It is all right to say that a bug of sand tied to a mule's tail will stop his traveling, but who will do the something good.—Ohio State Journal.

The Branch House Man

This is one of the Swift & Company Branch House Men.

They are all pretty much alike in the way they feel toward their work—and that is what this ad is about.

They know that most people couldn't get such good meat promptly and in good condition if it weren't for the branch houses of which they are in charge.

They know that the branch house is one of the most important links in the chain of preparing and distributing meat for a nation.

They know that Swift & Company must have its branch houses run at the highest notch of usefulness; that even a Swift & Company branch house won't run itself, and that it is up to the branch house man to run it properly.

Any branch house man who doesn't see his work in this light is transferred to some other place with Swift & Company to which he is better adapted.

They are picked men, these branch house men. Every time you sit down to a steak or chop, or cut of roast, you can give a grateful thought to the whole crew of them.

And remember, in a general way, that everything that makes life smoother and more convenient for you, is the result of the thoughtfulness and effort of a lot of people of whom you have never heard.

Advertising Right On In Spite Of War and High Water. If you wanted to sell a second-hand automobile, or rent a house, you would put an advertisement in the paper and run it a few times or until you sold the machine, or rented the house, and then you would quit.

If you were manufacturing goods or running a store, you would maintain your advertising continuously, because you would not be aiming to make one sale, but many—as many as you could. All right. Now comes along a war and upsets your supply of raw material, or made-up goods, or maybe the government takes over your output or curtails it, thereby either completely or partially eliminating your civilian trade. Would it be worth while to continue your advertising? That is the question that many of our big industries are facing. What are they doing? With hardly an exception, they are continuing. Not with a view of influencing immediate sales. Not at all. But, realizing that present conditions are going to melt back into history at no very distant date they are KEEPING ALIVE THEIR NAMES AND REPUTATIONS. If they discontinued, think of the millions of dollars of good-will value back of all those trade marks and names that would be lost, or greatly reduced. Preservation is nature's first law. Preservation of prestige is likewise the first law of business.

Among the larger industries to maintain, and in fact increase, their advertising this Fall, the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company is noted, as evidenced by the "copy" now running on a frequent schedule in the Herald. Welcome, Mr. Wrigley, and we hope our local merchants will be heartened by your energy.

Also, Mr. Wrigley, may we commend your attitude of injecting a strong patriotic note in your advertising, instead of the usual sales talk about "Wrigley's" being great for appetite and digestion? We understand the soldiers and sailors are taking most of your output and that we at home will have to chew Mr. Wrigley's a little longer. All right. "The flavor lasts," anyway, and we won't have to go completely without judging from the stocks of your goods our merchants are apparently able to maintain in spite of war and high water.

We agree with Gen. Sherman in his definition of war, and we also agree with Mr. Wrigley in his statement that WE MUST WIN the WAR and that until we do nothing else really matters. In this connection, may we be permitted to remark that newspaper space is receiving earnest attention in these days of momentous news, and that the columns of the Herald, are just as valuable as they ever were, if not more so, in stimulating good will and in maintaining the prestige of the goods, the trade marks and the names set forth therein. Settle!

Always Good Styles in Furs

It is rather late in the season to consider buying furs, but for that very reason it is a good time to buy. Merchants sometimes find themselves with a few sets of really good furs left over after the holidays and are willing to sacrifice a little on them rather than carry them over to another year. Changes in styles may hurt their sale for the merchant, no matter how valuable the skins. But changes in styles need not worry the woman who owns good furs, for they are among the things that need not bow to fashion's whims. A neckpiece and muff like those shown in the picture are not likely to be ever out of style. If tails and head-paws disappear in the sets for the new season, it is no trouble to take them off and put them away until fashion calls for them again. A plain muff of moderate size is always good style, and in scarfs style is as much a matter of adjustment as shape. A plain scarf can be adjusted and worn in accordance with the mode. The set shown in the picture is of fox fur dyed black and tipped with white. Fox is a very popular fur and the rarest pelts are extravagantly high priced, some of them bringing upwards of a thousand dollars. But the inexpensive pelts are beautiful, the fur long and silky. It is called a "soft" fur by furriers because it does not wear as long as the fur from some other animals, as mink or skunk—both of them beautiful furs. Squirrel, in the natural and dyed colors, is a satisfactory fur, so far as wear is concerned, and what is known as martlet will give most excellent service. It takes an expert to pass judgment on furs and from the present outlook, good furs may be regarded as a paying investment.

First African Explorer. The first organized attempt to explore the interior of Africa was made by Mungo Park, who set sail on his initial voyage to the Dark Continent 123 years ago. He returned two years and seven months later after having explored a considerable section of Africa never before visited by a white man, although he failed in his main purpose, which was to trace the source of the Nile.

Crime and Dreaming. Murderers seldom dream, which is exactly contrary to the idea that a man with a crime on his mind would usually have bad nightmares. Of 125 murderers carefully watched and examined, 96 seldom or never dreamed at all. The greater the criminal the less he dreamed.

Power of the Buzzard. The power of the buzzard to sail through the air for long periods with little or no apparent movement of the wings is due to its expanse of the wing surface. Birds with smaller wing surface make up for this by rapidity of the motion of the wings.

Saving Sugar Saves Shipping

AMERICAN families would have less sugar than the people of war torn France, if we depended entirely on our home-grown sugar stocks. Approximately 75 per cent. of our sugar is shipped to our shores. We produce about 1,000,000 tons of sugar a year. Our imports from abroad amount to over 3,000,000 tons a year in normal times.

The United States Food Administration asks each family to limit its use of sugar to two pounds per month per person for household use. The military situation demands that every available ship be placed at the disposal of the Army or Navy. When we save sugar, we save shipping.

No. 11000 - Cross-Stitch Vase.

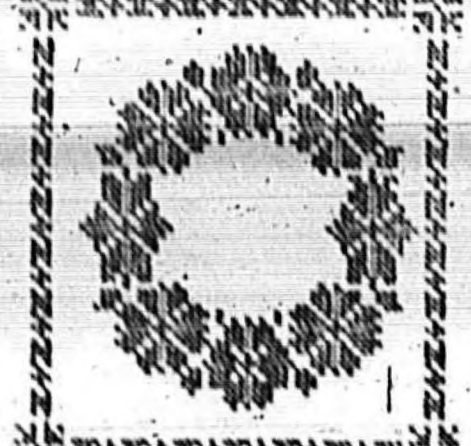

A taste for the simplest form of needlework cross-stitch embroideries are in great demand. The beauty of the latest pieces is an independent reason for their popularity. Most colored embroideries do not have to match the decorations of a living room if they are skillfully blended. The designs illustrated here are distinctly different and their coloring is gay and cheerful without being obtrusively enough to clash with any coloring the room already may have.

The design forms a good background for both squares which may be used for either a cushion top or table cover. The cross-stitch embroidery is done in red, green, brown, yellow and three shades of blue. Light and deep rose with brown, olive-green and blue-green may also be combined in the needlework with emphatic skill. A color diagram is supplied to show the arrangement of the colors. Blue, green and olive-green are a little unusual in combination but the effect is very satisfactory. The olive-green holds with the brown well and the blue shade gives tone and life.

The colors used in the development of the vase are two shades of pink, bright green for the leaves and brown and blue for the vase, with the border of green. Both designs, the wreath and the vase are conventionalized, as there is nothing more fashionable just now than in the arrangement of embroidery patterns.

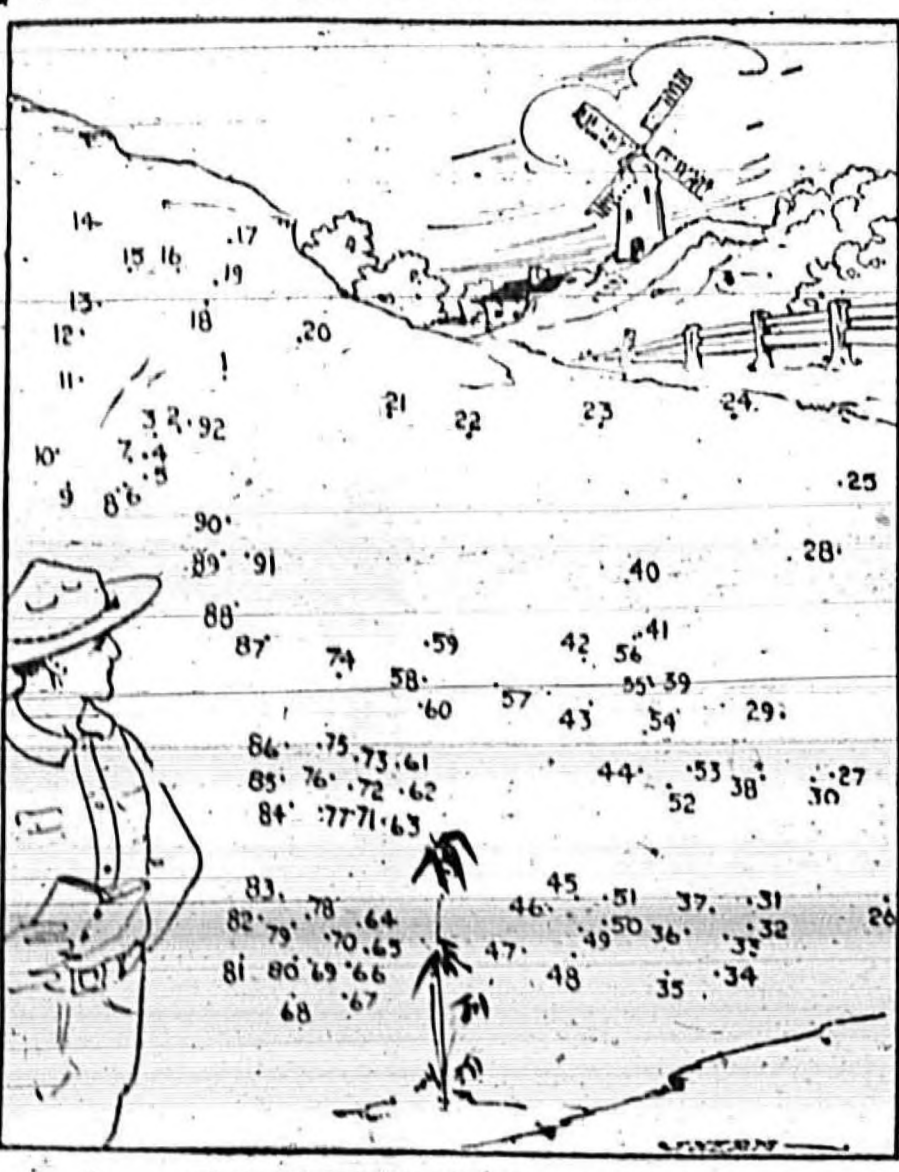

No. 11001 - Wreath in Cross-Stitch.

It takes, however, a clever artist to conventionalize in accordance with the meaning of expression. The work is accomplished in these two cases.

Worked on white art linen, serim or some linen substitute the squares may be used not only for the living room but for many other purposes.

SHERM'S DOTS

THE DOTS SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

Dear Folks:—Map work isn't all that we have to take up in this camp. And the more we study the more there seems to be to learn. You may remember I was never very strong on mathematics when I was in school. This morning I was stumped when the examining officer asked me how far it was to a distant windmill. I had to tell him I had forgotten how to do it. "Triangulate my eye," said he. "You can count, can't you, and multiply steps by thirty-three inches?" "Why thirty-three inches?" I inquired. "That is the length of the stride of your....." SAMMY.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

It is easy to say how we have new people and what we think of them, but words can never trace out all the things that knit us to the old.

Those who are privileged to have rabbits wild or tame will enjoy this dish. Wash two rabbits which have been cut in pieces for serving, place in a large casserole or stone covered dish; then cover with a layer of finely sliced onions, a few whole peppers, three cloves, a quarter of a bay leaf and a sprinkling of salt. Repeat the layers until the rabbit is all placed; then cover with water and vinegar, using one part vinegar to two parts water; cover the dish and let stand two days. Pour off a quantity of liquid and cook soup until the rabbit is tender. Remove the most carefully and strain the soup. Cook two tablespoons of sugar to a shag oatmeal and add very slowly to the soup. Smokeless Powder.
The advantages of smokeless powder, besides its virtue of high explosiveness, are twofold. It does not create a smoke cloud that betrays the location of the gun or snipers, and at the same time the man behind the gun is not confused for a second by a puff of smoke that obscures the range of vision in the direction of the enemy.
