REBEL FORCES APPROACH WITHIN 40 MILES OF MEXICO CITY WITH CAPTURE CITY OF CUERNAVACA

CAPITAL OF STATE MORELOS CAPTURED SUNDAY STEADY ADVANCE

Rebels Also Deny That Puebla Has Been Evacuated; Still Hold That City

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 24.—The capture of Puebla Sunday after hard fighting around Cuernavaca fort was announced in Apizaco specials and corroborated by information received at the railway offices, although the war department has not received official confirmation.

According to wireless messages intercepted at the Chapultepec station, revolutionary headquarters ordered the evacuation of Puebla for strategic reasons, and that an appeal be made to Yucatan authorities for arms and munitions.

Villareal Castro and his forces, according to unofficial advices, are retreating in the direction of Atlixco. It is said armed workers and agrarians organized under Gen. Celestino Escobar, labor leader, would probably capture Puebla, leaving the organized forces at liberty to attack on the Vera Cruz and Jalisco fronts.

VERA CRUZ, Dec. 24.—Rebel forces have made their nearest approach to Mexico City so far with the capture Sunday of Cuernavaca, 40 miles south of the capital. It was noted in revolutionary communiques issued here.

Forces advanced from their position in the state of Guerrero into Morelos of which Cuernavaca is the capital. The statement said Puebla has not been evacuated despite a government bulletin issued at Mexico City.

CHINA SITUATION HAS CLEARED UP

CANTON, Dec. 24.—The critical situation which has prevailed here for nearly two weeks as a result of the demand of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, South China leader for surplus customs revenues, is believed to have passed. Negotiations for a settlement of questions are said to be progressing satisfactorily.

Countess Markievicz Released From Prison

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Dec. 24.—The free state government Monday announced the release of Countess Georgiana Markievicz, one of the leading women Republicans who was arrested here November 20. The government also announced that between December 1 and 23 political prisoners to the number of 3,481 had been liberated.

CLEARWATER MAN AND SON DROWNED

(By The Associated Press)
CLEARWATER, Dec. 24.—Clifford McMullen, an experienced operator of fishing boats in these waters was drowned Monday morning with his five year old son Jack. The son fell from a large motor boat off the Belleview dock. The father jumped after him but Mrs. McMullen and two small children in the boat were unable to operate it and it kept going. The father finally became exhausted. The boat was later stopped by other craft.

WEST VIRGINIA CAPITALISTS TO ERECT HANDSOME BUILDING; WILL BE ONE OF FINEST IN THIS STATE

MRS. MINNIE E. KEY PROBABLY BEGIN WORK WITHIN THREE MONTHS SITE IS SELECTED

Hood And Associates Responsible For Bringing Money Interests To City

A 200 room hotel of the latest design in architecture and including the most modern and up-to-date features in hotel building is to be erected in Sanford.

This fact was definitely assured on Saturday when R. W. Griffith of Huntington, W. Va., a prominent capitalist representing large financial interests in that state, signed an agreement to begin work on the new structure within 12 months. The agreement specifically states that the hotel shall contain not less than 200 rooms and work will probably begin within three months.

Mr. Griffith, who has been spending several days in Sanford in the interests of the project, has returned to his home but will return some time early in January bringing with him his family to make this city his permanent home. He is convinced, as he said to parties here, that Sanford has great undeveloped resources and it is no reason why this city should not enter to tourists as well as Orlando or any other inland city of the state.

He has pointed out that the climate is to be had here. "The natural beauty of the surrounding country is all that can be asked. The wonderfully developed farm lands of this section, he said, are a big asset. Coupled with these features, the city has progressive citizens. All that Sanford needs is to advertise to the world what it has to offer and make a concerted effort to bring tourists here."

To show how much he is sold to Sanford, Mr. Griffith, before his departure for his home, closed a deal with the Lakeford Improvement Co. of which J. B. Hood is the president, whereby he and his associates become the owners of one of the most valuable pieces of property in Sanford. Upon this desirable property will be located the new hotel.

The property purchased lies a frontage on Park Avenue of 250 feet and on Seminole Boulevard a frontage of 250 feet. The consideration paid for the property was not given out. The location for the hotel is almost the same as that picked out for a hotel which was to have been built several years ago. It is a most desirable site for a hotel as was pointed out by Mr. Hood. It will face the Seminole Boulevard and overlook Lake Monroe.

It is estimated that the hotel as proposed will cost not less than a half million dollars and when completed will be one of the most buildings of its kind to be found in this state if not in the entire south.

In interesting outside capital in this project and insuring Sanford of a real hotel building, Mr. Griffith is finalizing a deal with the progressive people of Sanford. Back in 1921 he advocated the construction of just such a hotel but at that time it didn't seem possible.

For years Mr. Hood has made Sanford his home and has been prominently identified with the progressive steps which this city has taken. He believes, as he stated, Monday, that Sanford is on the threshold of a great future.

Rockwell's Medals To Be Given Native State

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 24.—The war medals won by Kiffin Yates Rockwell, member of the Lafayette Escadrille, who was killed in action prior to the time the United States entered the war, are being sent to the North Carolina Hall of History, it was announced here Saturday. Colonel Fred A. Olds, collector for the hall, announced that he had received a letter from Paul Rockwell, brother of the dead aviator, now a magazine writer in Paris, stating that he was sending the medals which include the Cross of the Legion of Honor, commemorative medal of the great war with volunteer's clasp; the French victory medal, and the wounded ribbon.

CONGRESSMAN LEE ESTABLISHES FUND FOR ORPHAN HOME

Congressman Lee is in Rome for a few days.

Trustees appointed to administer the fund are Gordon L. Hight, of Rome; Horace L. Smith, of Dalton; William G. Wright, of Newnan; G. E. Maddox, of Rome, and Thomas W. Lee, of Chickamauga. They are authorized to use the fund so as to produce the best possible income for the orphan home.

Sells Woman For Sum of $400; Is Arrested

YONKERS, N. Y., Dec. 24.—A charge when Mr. Mary Leta, of Williamsport, Pa., was sold by Frank Converse of Yonkers, to Peter Cerrato, of North Tarrytown, for $400 last Thanksgiving day was made Saturday by the police after the trio had been arrested—the woman as a material witness.

Cerrato paid $200 down and $200 on December 8 after Mrs. Leta had gone to live with him, it was alleged, and got receipts for both payments. Mrs. Leta was seeking to return to Conserve when the police heard of the case.

Mrs. Leta's two children which she took to North Tarrytown with her were placed in custody of the Children's society.

Mrs. Leta was alleged to have separated from her husband in Williamsport last February.

CHRISTMAS DAY TO BE OBSERVED WITH JOY IN THIS CITY

XMAS DAY is to be fittingly and appropriately observed in Sanford.

For weeks preparations for this holiday have been in progress. Sanford people have been busy rushing from store to store purchasing remembrances for loved ones. Today these numerous shopping expeditions have come to a climax in one grand rush for little things that have been forgotten. While many people in Sanford did their Christmas shopping early, there were some who put their buying off until the last minute, and these belated shoppers were disappointed because the complete lines of Christmas suggestions offered by Sanford merchants have been nearly exhausted.

The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs together with the Elks have appropriated a large sum of money with which to bring cheer to those that are in need of help. They plan to purchase food, clothing, toys and other articles to help make the unfortunate happy. Aside from these clubs there will be the various church organizations to supply happiness in those homes.

In the different churches of the city there will be Christmas trees where gifts in abundance will be distributed to everyone. Special Christmas sermons will be delivered by Sanford's clergymen and along with these messages will be musical programs rendered by the different choirs. The singing of Christmas Carols will be a prominent feature.

Business houses will be closed all day Tuesday. The postoffice will also be closed, except for one hour from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m., when the windows will be open to distribute Christmas packages.

There will be no issue of The Sanford Herald on Christmas Day.

Patriarch Tikhon Is Again About To Take Over Russian Church

MOSCOW, Dec. 24.—Within six months of his release from prison, pending trial of Patriarch Tikhon, who was deposed and deprived of his priesthood by the new church authorities, has so far succeeded in regaining control of the church that the clergyman who unfrocked him are now packing up their effects to effect a compromise with him.

The new Holy Synod has called an All Russian Church Council for January 15 and has invited Tikhon to appear before it. Archbishop Gylodkin, head of the Synod, admitted in a conversation with the correspondent that the conference may never be held if Tikhon declines to attend. The new church group insists that it was legally and canonically correct in deposing and unfrocking the patriarch, and contends that sooner or later the Soviet government will bring the patriarch to trial.

If the church council does meet, it is expected to reveal dozens of petty differences and several bitter feuds that have developed within the various church movements during the past year. One group wishes to unfrock Antonin, the Archbishop of Moscow and Head of the Church of the Regeneration movement. Another group is said to be very anxious to attack Archbishop Vedensky, the fiery orator who swayed the previous church council in its denunciation of Tikhon.

Rum Runners Tighten Blockade Jersey Coast

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., Dec. 24.—The coast guard's mosquito fleet of speedy run chasers tightening their blockade of the Jersey coast as Christmas draws rich and desperate rum runners grow more bold, have had a busy time of it since last night.

The airplane-propelled craft operated by "Al the Shark" was reported captured when it attempted a quick dash out by the coast.

"Al" one of the best known rum runners of the sector of the coast, was taken prisoner charged with being in possession of one quart of Scotch whiskey. His boat was empty.

Coast guards reported they broke up a rum landing party and captured a small cargo of bottles containing rum. They also captured a party of 20 men and boys who swam down to the beach to help a ransomed rum runner unload his goods before government men arrived.

Soviet Organ Bears Out Hughes' Claim

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Acknowledgment of the connection between the Soviet republic and the communist international was made in the Izvestia, the Soviet organ, on November 7, 1923, it was said at the state department. The date was made public in connection with Moscow press dispatches quoting Stecklof, the editor of the paper, as challenging Secretary Hughes to produce the date on which quoted in his recent statement the article was printed.

Stecklof branded the document from which Mr. Hughes dealing with Russian propaganda as a "forgery, probably purchased by the American secret police from some white guard organization, such as exist in Latvia for the express purpose of fabrication."

State department officials did not comment on these charges, merely furnishing the date asked for by the Russian editor, adding that the Izvestia was accessible in many of the large public libraries.

Previous statements of Soviet officials that the documents quoted by the secretary of state were forgeries had brought the statement that such form of propaganda designed to mislead the American public.

Although the United States is the world's greatest producer of tale and soapstone it consumes more than it produces.

OFFICIALS ARREST ALLEGED ROBBER

Sheriff C. M. Hand and Chief of Police R. G. Williams Monday arrested a negro whom they believe to be one of the parties responsible for the series of robberies that have occurred in Sanford during the past few weeks.

The negro gave his name as Joseph Scott and is said to be about 25 years old. Scott was captured in a swamp south of town after he had been surrounded by the sheriff, chief of police and their deputies. Scott is said to have fled to the swamp after robbing the home of F. J. Gonzalez at 107 Tenth Street.

No one was at home when the negro made his entrance by means of prying open a rear window. When Mrs. Gonzalez and her daughter returned home during the noon hour the negro was seen making his escape from the house.

Me made his way from the house to the swamp where he was later captured. Some money, jewelry and other valuables which he had stolen were found on his person when captured.

The officers believe that in Scott and a negro giving his name as Willie Edwards, who was arrested Sunday night as a suspicious character, they have the ringleaders of a gang of thieves who have been operating in the residential section of Sanford for a few weeks.

Sanford People Disclose Their Wishes to Dear Old Santa Claus

Tell Saint Nicholas What They Want In Christmas Stockings

By R. J. BOLLY
Saturday night on busy First Street and all was bustle and hustle in preparation for a big Christmas morn. Our merchants were all as busy as bees waiting on the thousands of shoppers from the surrounding territory and I was finally pushed and pulled down Park Avenue toward the lake front.

Attracted by a bright light on the pier that looked like a top light on a ship I strolled that way and beheld a beautiful yacht moored at the city dock and a pleasant faced old gentleman on deck that looked strangely familiar stirring within me memories of childhood days and snow and rain-decks and chimney trips.

He hailed me at once and invited me aboard and as the spacious cabin was reached he excused himself only to return a few minutes later clad in his original costume and to und

Could Not Be Located.

AN ATTRACTIVE COUNTRY HOME

For the country or the open suburbs, a low rambling house with spacious porches is the most fitting; it seems always to be on friendly terms with the surroundings, and it reflects the true country living in the hospitality it extends.

The house illustrated is a good example of this type.

A spacious porch extends the full length of the front and massive columns support the main roof; the sun porch extends past the corner of the house, giving three sides exposed.

The open porch is ten feet by thirty-six feet, and the sun porch is thirteen feet by eighteen feet. The porches are but one step above the grade.

By allowing the main roof to extend out over the porch a charming cottage effect is obtained, while the generous dormer gives a full second floor.

The house measures forty-nine feet across the front, including the sun porch, and should have a lot not less than seventy feet in width.

The plan arrangement of the house is good; all rooms are large and are so placed as to give a convenient and livable layout.

The second floor provides three bed rooms, a sewing room and a bath, with plenty of closets.

Cost about $10,300.

Complete working plans and specifications of this house may be obtained for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to House A-79.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

How to get on:—Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find.—Matthew 7:7.

Make someone happy tomorrow.

The Herald wishes you a Merry Christmas.

There will be no issue of The Herald tomorrow.

And after Christmas comes the New Year resolutions.

Only a few hours are left for you to do your Christmas shopping late.

Swat the Grouch. Christmas is no time to tolerate anyone with a frown.

As soon as Christmas is over it would be fine if the band concerts could begin.

Did you send a Christmas contribution to the Children's Home at Jacksonville? It's not too late.

Sanford needs a larger post office. And the Postmaster needs a larger force.

Strangers in the city would appreciate a little friendliness at Christmas time.

News from Russia. Something wrong with Trotsky's stomach. Couldn't be, he has nothing in it.

Seminole county has good roads. That's more than can be said about some of the counties not far away.

The girl who sends her mother to bed when her date arrives at nine o'clock is not the old-fashioned girl who knew how to cook and sew.

Priestesses who are credited with the power of destroying enemies by cursing them are regarded with awe by one tribe in Central Africa.

Fox must serve the rest of his natural life in jail. This is a convincing argument that it is very poor judgment for any man to commit murder.

The Christmas Number of The Fort Myers Tropical News was issued on Friday and contained forty pages. Issues of this character do lots of advertising for Florida.

After the Christmas dinner a drive out in the farming sections of Seminole will prove interesting. Note the prosperous farms and the well kept property of Seminole citizens.

Sanford voters should see to it that their poll taxes are paid so that they are eligible to vote in the bond election which is of great importance to the future of this city.

Be considerate of the clerks in the stores. They have had trying days and have been working long hours trying to assist Sanford people in selecting Christmas gifts.

Sanford merchants did a capacity business Saturday night. Every store was crowded and extra clerks were kept on the jump trying to wait on the customers.

Florida newspapers have produced some wonderful Christmas editions. An evidence of progressiveness on part of the newspapers as well as the growth of the state.

Rotary Clubs throughout America will spread good cheer tomorrow among the needy of the land. Rotarians will have a Happy Christmas.

Living quarters are in great demand in Sanford these days. People who have vacant rooms should make the fact known. Each day many people are consulting Herald want ads in an effort to secure suitable accommodations in this city.

You may not believe it but there are people owning their own property in Sanford and Seminole county who have never done a thing to improve that property—never even planted a tree or a flower. Such property owners are not desirable.

The Tampa Tribune issued a 200-page paper Sunday, filled with advertising and interesting reading matter. Each copy of the paper weighed four pounds. This is one of the largest papers ever issued in any section of the country and The Tribune is to be congratulated on the fine showing they made. The Herald does not hesitate to say that Sunday's Tribune was the finest it has ever seen.

Christmas Spirit and Sanford's Future

Tomorrow is Christmas—the day of days for the old as well as the young, a day when the people of the entire world will pause to reflect on its significance.

The Herald first would wish a most happy Christmas to every man, woman, and child in Sanford and Seminole county but the Herald's greatest desire is to impress on the minds of its readers the fact that the true meaning of Christmas spirit is the spirit of helpfulness and cooperation and that such a spirit must exist here in Sanford during the coming years if Sanford is to come into her own.

"Peace On Earth, Good Will to Men" cannot mean anything else but friendliness, aiding one another, and working together for the best of all. No individual, city, state or nation has ever gotten anywhere by a do-it-alone policy.

Sanford will not grow and prosper as Sanford should until there is a greater out-pouring of the Christmas spirit—the spirit that has made possible the great strides of the city during the past few years.

In a Christmas editorial the St. Augustine Record says that the world is too big for any one person to get all there is in life by himself. Now and then we find a man who imagines that he can start a business and make it go without the help of anybody else. These men are getting scarce for bitter experience has shown that it can not be done. He will struggle along for maybe a few years paying no attention to what his city and his neighbors are doing. He makes no effort to serve his community other than for profit. He takes no part in public activities and does not seem to care whether the world moves or not. That man is doomed but for one thing—failure. He will wake up some day and find that the city has advanced so far that he is left entirely behind. That is the reward of no cooperation. His competitor across the street believes in cooperating with the other merchant of the city in an effort to live. His business will grow while the other fellow fails. That is the reward of cooperation. In the early days of civilization, men saw that cooperation was necessary in order to protect themselves from the wild animals and ravages of nature. The same thing was true two thousand years ago. Cooperation is necessary in order to preserve your business. Times and conditions change but the fundamental laws of nature stay with us forever.

The above statements with reference to an individual may well apply to a city. Sanford's growth during the coming year will be measured by the growth of the spirit of the cooperation. The Christmas spirit must prevail every day as well as tomorrow.

The Reason For Christmas

An exchange gives the following interesting "Reason for Christmas":

The observance of December 25 as the anniversary of our Savior's birth has been maintained long enough to create a presumption in the belief that it is an original institution of Christendom. Nevertheless, the oldest authority for the observance of that day as the birthday of Christ belongs to an epoch separated by a distance of three centuries from the original event, and the festival itself was celebrated on December 25 in the West before it was assigned to that day in the East. It is certain that in A. D. 336, December 25 was observed in Rome as the Festival of the Nativity of Christ. The authority for this statement is a Festal calendar drawn up by the local church at Rome in that year. Early in the third century—i. e., about 130 years before the compilation of this festal calendar—Hippolytus, Bishop of Portus, had assigned Wednesday, December 25, in the forty-second year of the reign of Augustus, as the date of our Lord's birth.

FAIRFAX HARRISON, president of the Southern Railroad, asks himself some searching questions:

"Do you like your work?"

"Have you learned the best, quickest and easiest way of doing it?"

"Have you a fixed goal in line with your supreme talent?"

"Do you believe absolutely in your own future?"

"Are you correcting your own weaknesses: mental, financial, social or spiritual?"

"Are you independent, fearless, courteous?"

"Do you wish your rivals well, and never speak ill of them?"

"Can you relax entirely in your leisure hours?"

"Are you saving money systematically?"

"Do you enjoy art, music, literature and the presence of little children?"

"Does your highest ambition include some real service to humanity?"—Wall Street Journal.

THIS IS TRUE philanthropy, that buries not its gold in ostentatious charity, but builds its hospital in the human heart.—Harley.

IT IS THE easiest to "be all things to all men," but it is not honest. Self-respect must be sacrificed every hour in the day.—Abraham Lincoln.

WHEREVER A PROCESS of life communicates an eagerness to him who lives it, there the life becomes genuinely significant.—Prof. William James.

A Sound Decision

Palmetto Post

Because the legislature sees fit to enact a lot of things and calls them laws is not sufficient to make them constitutionally legal, has been a long realized fact; but often such enactments stand because the courts find a way to pass on the act without questioning its constitutionality.

Not so with Judge J. J. Dickinson of the Seventh Florida Judicial Circuit. On a habens corpus proceeding brought before him by a man who was arrested, tried and convicted in Volusia county for shooting a quail—a test action—Judge Dickinson has knocked out section 2 to 7 of Special House Bill 897, passed at the last session of the legislature, regulating hunting in this state, leaving only sections 1 and 8, which provide, respectively, that no wild animals shall be killed, and providing the penalty.

Section 2 prohibited carrying a gun in the woods—clearly unconstitutional. Section 3 provided that wild game could be killed only when hunting growing crops or property—left out the possible danger to life or person from any ferocious wild animal such as are found commonly in Florida.

Section 4 has reference to the Game Warden; and no official can take office unless elected by the people or appointed by the governor, or the office is provided for by special act of the legislature. The judge holds that the office of Game Warden is not an appointive one and that only the sheriff or his deputies can enforce the hunting law, and they, only, can do it on warrant sworn out by citizens, and further, in order to convict a man, the dead game must be found on him.

The other sections refer to the various enforcement measures of the act.

This is another example of trying to measure everybody's corn in your half bushel, on the part of the legislature. The unconstitutionality of many laws enacted at every session is undoubted, and all that is needed is for someone to bring a test case and take the thing through the courts to rid the state of a lot of fool legislation.

There must be some preventive legislation against hunting at all seasons, and during the state's open season, but this thing of attempting to put over on the people the most preposterous sorts of hampering their rights, merely because it is recognized that the average man will rather give up than fight, must be stopped.

It is still against the law in Florida to hunt out of season, or without the provisions of the protective dates of the doves, ducks and other wild animals, fowl or birds, that come within the same class, as the constitutional right of the state to protect these, and to provide a penalty for the violation, is undoubted and stands. But any man may carry a gun in the woods and fields any time he wishes and not have it taken as prima facie evidence that he has violated the hunting law. He may kill wild animals endangering his life or person, and further, he cannot be arrested without affidavit made by a citizen, and a formal warrant for his arrest served by the sheriff or his deputy, only, nor can he be convicted unless the evidence of dead wild game is found on him.

The World's Great Holy Days

By Moses Folsom

Except for Jesus there would be no Christmas festivities and joys. No roes filled with gifts would be found on December 25, standing in the home of the civilized. Nor would stockings of children be hung up on "the night before Christmas," as so well old in Moore's famous poem. Says Susan Coolidge:

"We ring the bells and we raise the strain,
 We hang up garlands everywhere
 And bid the tapers twinkle fair,
 And fast and frolic—and then we go
 Back to the same old lives again."

Isn't that true? Why should we go back to the old grind? Why not make the season and spirit of Christmas service a regular all the year round proposition, as related by Tranville Kleiser, in these words: "The Christmas spirit and sense of service should not be only for one day in the year, but a perennial and eternal expression of the love in our heart. If the spiritual good cheer of Christmas Day were generally manifested throughout the year, it would transform mankind. Love is still the greatest thing in the world, and the world grows better in proportion as love increases. Do not wait for others to practice the golden rule, but diligently apply it in your daily life. Like the stars that are beautiful because of what they are, and not because of what they do, so you can make your life a beneficent influence to others by developing a continual spirit of Christmas within your mind and heart."

That was the spirit of Charles Dickens when he said: "I will honor Christmas in my heart and try to keep it all the year. It is good to be children sometimes, and no better than at Christmas when its mighty founder was a child himself."

Christmas makes the fireside the center of a thousand charms and lothes the flame in most beautiful garments. It is the anniversary of the day when angels sang "Peace on earth, good will to men." Sainly Phillips Brooks tells us that "The earth has grown old with its burden of care,
 But at Christmas it is always young,
 The heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair,
 And its soul, full of music, breaks forth in the air,
 When the song of the angels is sung."

while the good Quaker poet, John G. Whittier, says:
 "Blow, bugles of battle, the marches of peace;
 East, west, north and south, let the long quarrel cease;
 Sing the song of great joy that the angels began,
 Sing of glory to God and of good will to man."

Jesus came to the world as a babe. He might have come as man, as Adnan did, but He came as a little child, to glorify the cradle, to beautify boyhood, to sanctify motherhood, and save the world. Make the anniversary of His coming one of genuine joy for the children. Says Marion Harland: "Never deny the babies their Christmas. It is the shining seal set upon a year of happiness. Let them believe in Santa Claus, or St. Nicholas, or Kris Kringle, or whatever name the jolly Dutch saint bears in your religion."

Except for Jesus there would be no Easter celebration to typify a risen Saviour, with its accompaniment of flowers, hats and gowns, denoting the return of spring with its blessings, would not have sung:
 "Christ the Lord is risen today,
 Sons of men and angels say,
 Raise your joys and triumphs high;
 Sing ye Heavens and earth reply."

On Eastern morn Jesus burst the bars of death, and He wears the name above every name. The resurrection bids us watch and pray for the coming of the King. Easter can be well termed the Queen of Festivals. The risen Saviour answered affirmatively the forty-century old query: "If a man die, shall he live again?"

"We Christians," says Spurgeon, "do not believe that Jesus Christ was the only one that ever rose from the dead. We believe that every deathbed is a resurrection; that from every grave the stone is rolled away."

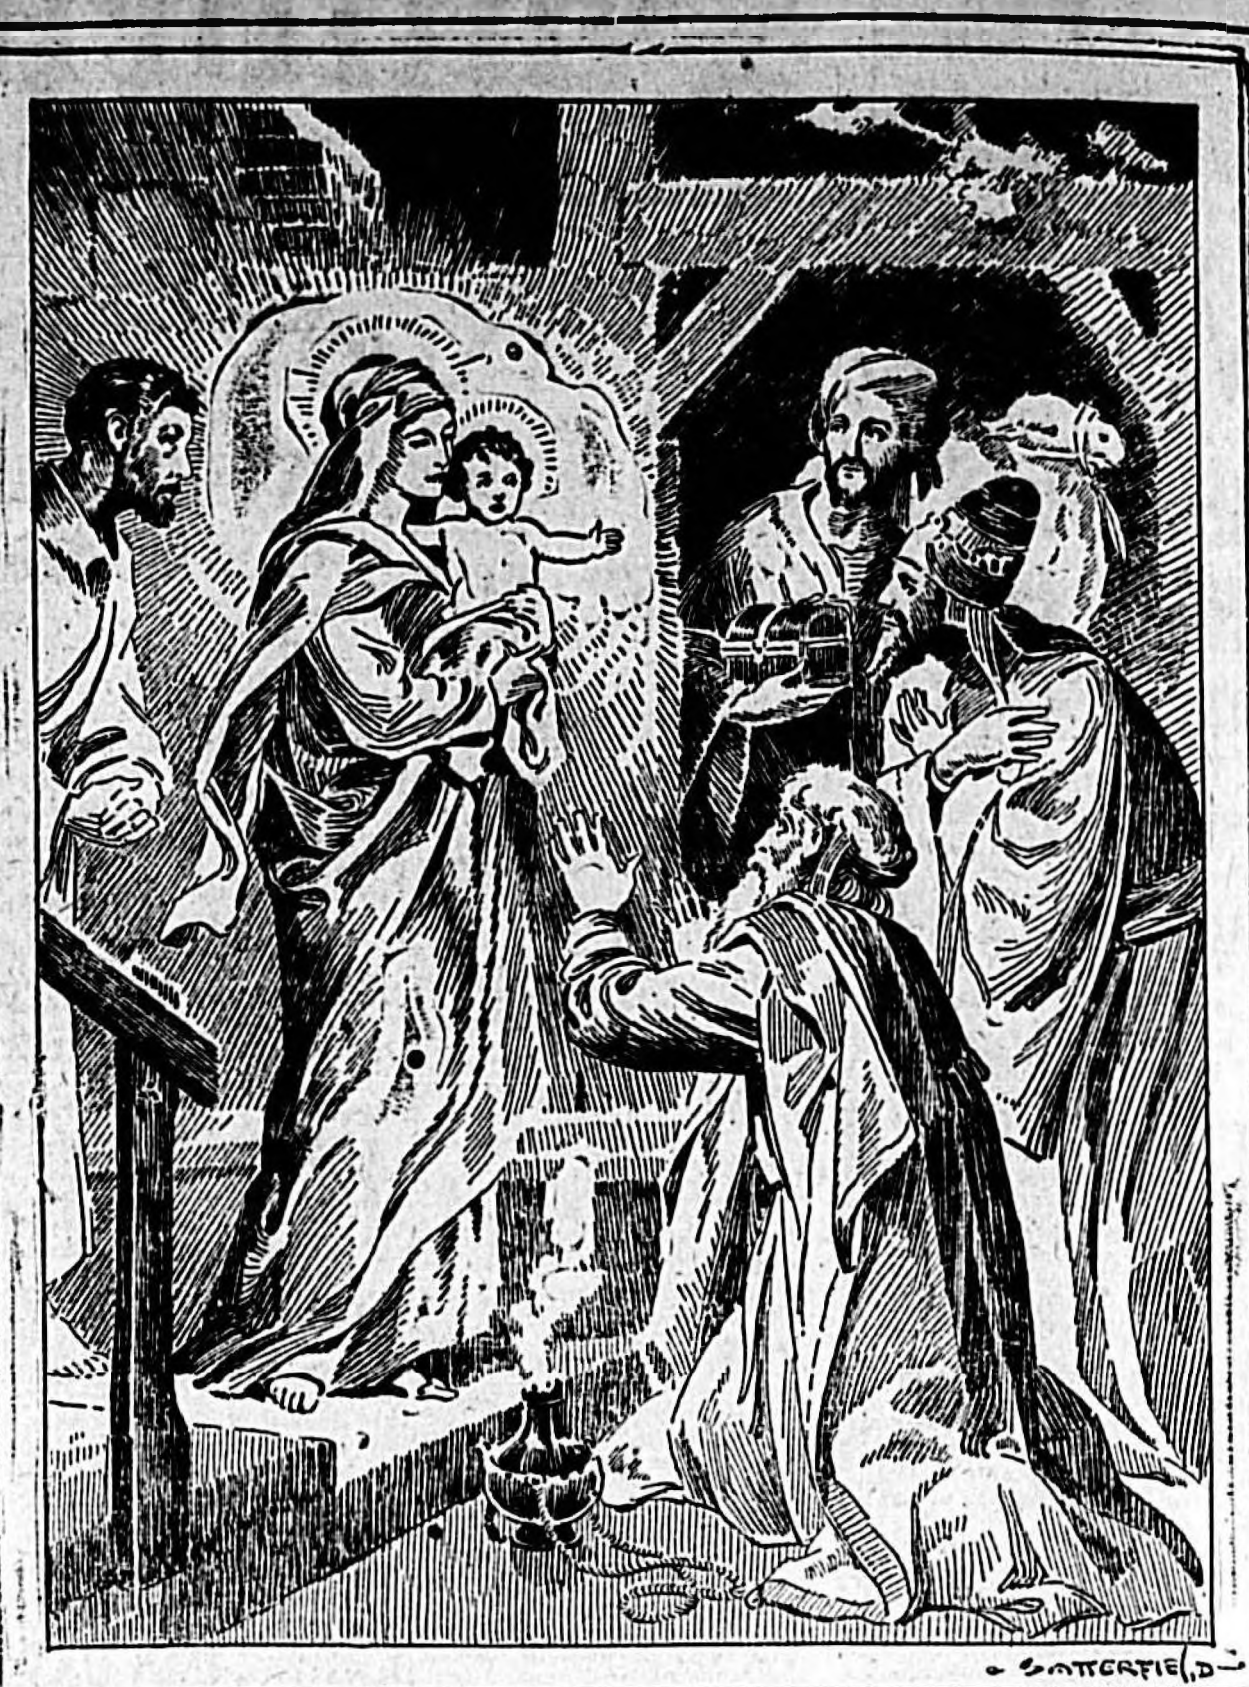

So potent in its influence, appealing, as the Easter celebration does to the sense of the beautiful, to the appreciation of the harmony of nature, it is small wonder that society joined the church in observing Easter day. During the Lenten period it gave up in most part many social functions and rested. With the advent of Easter begins the spring season of social activity, not only for society people, but those who cater to their material needs and luxuries.

We have the Bible telling us: "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept." And Phillips Brooks tells us that "Up and down our lives obedient, Walk, dear Christ, with footsteps radiant."

Till those garden lives shall be
 Fair with duties done for Thee
 And our thankful spirits say,
 "Christ arose on Easter day."

Ernest Renan, the French free thinker and the most widely read writer of religious history in his day, visited the Holy Land. He stood by the walls of Jerusalem and by the place of the cross, walked along the Jordan, by the sea of Galilee, and in the narrow and story streets of Nazareth and of Bethlehem. Then he wrote his "Life of Jesus," and this is his conclusion:
 "Whatever the unexpected phenomena of the future, Jesus will never be surpassed. His worship will constantly renew its youth; the legend of His life will bring ceaseless tears; His suffering will soften the best hearts; and the ages will proclaim that amongst the sons of men none has been born who is greater than Jesus."

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST

7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were afraid.

10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.

12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying:
 14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.
 15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing, which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.
 16. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
 17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
 18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

STADIUM WILL NOT BE ERECTED, SAYS COACH J. L. WHITE

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Dec. 24.—That there is no foundation to the rumor that an athletic stadium is to be erected at the University of Florida in the near future, is the statement made by James L. White, athletic director of the institution.

"A stadium would not be practicable here on account of our climate," said Mr. White when asked about the rumor current among the student body and friends of the University since the beginning of the present term. In explanation of this, he said that a very important factor in a football game and that the stadium would cut off all wind from the field.

"Even if a stadium was practical," he added, "we have no funds with which to build one. However, we will erect steel bleachers to accommodate 2,000 to 2,500 people on Fleming Field before next fall. They will take care of the crowds which we will have here for several years. Everyone thinks a stadium would be a nice thing to have because they have them everywhere else."

At the beginning of the present term, the report was circulated that the work then progressing on Fleming Field was part of a plan to erect a stadium at the institution in the near future.

SCOTT HIGH NOT TO PLAY IN FORT MYERS THIS YEAR

FORT MYERS, Fla., Dec. 24.—Explaining that it had signed to meet Portland, Ore., on New Year's day and therefore could not come to Florida, Scott High School, of Toledo, Ohio, rational interscholastic football champions, Saturday wired an offer to Fort Myers for a two year contract calling for home-and-home games.

After obtaining more than $3,000 of the $4,000 guarantee to underwrite the game here New Year's day, James E. Hendry, supporter of the team and leading citizen dropped his efforts when the Ohio school informed him of the fact that it had signed a contract to play Portland because time was short.

The telegram from Scott follows in part: "Have just accepted an invitation with full expenses and percentage to play in Portland, Oregon. Very sorry your offer did not come sooner as we much preferred to play in your state and made every effort and concession to Tampa, Lakeland, Jacksonville and Miami. Did not know at that time what a live town you had. Would like to make arrangements for a game in your city next year and would be willing to bring you to Toledo the following season."

Whether Fort Myers would open negotiations for the two game series offered, Mr. Hendry would not say Saturday night, but James L. Orr, superintendent of the schools and coach of the team, said the offer would be considered seriously and indicated that it would be accepted if Fort Myers could see its way clear on the financial end.

WEST COAST TOURNEY.

A list of 17 prizes, the highest for $500, will be offered the competing professionals who enter the tournament. Sale of gallery tickets will be looked to for reimbursement. The tournament is expected to bring some of the most noted players of the country to the "Sunshine City."

COURT HOUSE ADDITION.

FORT PIERCE, Dec. 24.—Additions to the St. Lucie county courthouse costing $45,000 are under way. ## Freak Play Features Inter-College Series

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Dec. 24.—A 30 yard run in the wrong direction after a pass was intercepted was the feature of the inter-college football tournament at the University of Florida, which was won by the Arts and Science team. The junior class team won the inter-class tournament without a tie or defeat on their record.

The spectacular run was made when the A. and S. bowled over the Lawyers, their greatest obstacle and favorites of the meet—6-2. The Lawyers were clearly outplayed, but the game was hard, with few noticeable faults, and interesting from the spectators' viewpoint, according to many of the 100 or more students present.

The teachers fell easily before the A. and S., 25-0, while the Engineers, which had previously played the Teachers a scoreless tie, put up a stiff fight in the final and deciding game of the tournament, being defeated 6-0. The Agricultural College representatives, considered strong contenders for the championship, after dominating the Pharmacists, 13-0, were eliminated by the Engineers.

In the first round of the inter-class tournament the Juniors called through the Sophomores, 13-0, while the Freshmen trimmed the Seniors, 12-0. The Juniors showed a marked superiority over the "Rats" by a 6-0 victory, winning the championship.

An indication of the strong defensive work, only two points were scored in both tournaments by losing teams.

Per Capita Cost of State Equals $5.34

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The department of commerce announces that the costs of government for the state of Georgia for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1922, amounted to $15,864,270, which was a per capita cost of $5.34. In 1917 the per capita cost was $2.69 and in 1914, $2.32, the totals for those years being $7,879,017 and $6,330,349, respectively. The per capita costs for 1922 consisted of expenses of general departments, $4; payments for interest, $0.09; and for outlays, $1.26, over $3,500,000 being spent for highway improvements.

The net indebtedness (funded and floating debt less sinking fund assets) of Georgia was $1.81 per capita for 1922, $2.14 for 1917, and $2.30 for 1914.

For 1922 the assessed valuation of property subject to ad valorem taxation was $1,190,515,726; the amount of taxes levied was $5,952,679; and the per capita levy $2.00.

SPRING TRAINING EARLY.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 24.—Members of the Boston Braves' baseball squad of 1924 will begin arriving here February 20 for their spring training, according to information received from the Braves' management by the local chamber of commerce. Pitchers and catchers will be included in the first contingent. They will be followed about a week later by the infielders and outer gardeners. Work already has been started in making the field ready for their use.

Hollywood "Pro" Will Compete Against Stars

HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA, Fla., Dec. 24.—Leo Nelson, golf professional at the Hollywood course will compete in several big championships in Miami and vicinity this winter. He will play against such "cracks" as Gene Sarazen, Johnnie Farrell, Walter Hagan and professionals of that class. Besides, "crack" amateurs, who will be in Florida for the winter season.

Nelson is practicing on the Hollywood course for these competitions and is playing a strong game. He was former state open champion of Indiana.

Leo Nelson is one of six brothers who are golf professionals. Two of them, Leo Nelson and Edwin Nelson will be strong competitors in these open tournaments.

The Hollywood golf course is one of the newest and best in southern Florida. The par for the 18 holes is 72—difficult enough for the professional and "crack" amateur but not too hard for the player of ordinary ability.

The new Hollywood golf club house will open shortly after the new year. This club house is of beautiful Spanish architecture with every convenience for men and women golfers.

U. C. T. CONVENTION. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 24.—More than 1,500 members representing councils from all parts of the state are expected to attend a rally here some time in March of the United Commercial Travelers' Association. Plans are being made, it is announced, to entertain the visitors. The date of the gathering has not been fixed.

ACQUIRES UTILITY PLANTS. ORLANDO, Dec. 24.—W. S. Barga, law company of New York has obtained by means of a deal closed here the Cheney interests in this section, including electric light, ice and gas plants, DeLand, Daytona Beach, Leesburg, Eustis and Lake Wales. It is understood that the new owners plan to furnish all stations in the group from one central plant, probably Orlando on account of its central location.

benefits of the latest information on scientific farming. These classes are usually well attended, according to Professor Day, and in them many live and perplexing problems are threshed out. At these classes the instructor in addition to the other work tries to get men who have made marked success in their special lines of endeavor to make talks on their methods and results. This work has been of marked benefit to the communities where held, and it is now hoped that in the near future the numbers of these schools can be greatly increased.

The earth's population is estimated to be 1,747,000,000. The figures are those of 1920, the latest.

WINTER COUGHS AND COLDS. With the changeable weather which we have at this season of the year coughs and colds are very prevalent. Be prepared for them. Have a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND hand, and with the first sign of a cough or cold take a dose and prevent a serious attack. Florida ought to be a good place for baseball the year round. Judging by the weather of the past few days the Giants, Yankees, Red Sox, Browns, Indians, and other big league teams would have an ideal place to practice the national game during the winter months if they would step down to sunny Florida.

Judge Landis asks that heavy fines be imposed upon pool ticket agents. The Judge would be doing the country a real favor if he built a concrete and iron structure to keep such "villains" in.

Luis Firpo is seeking a match at home with an American boxer. The "Angel" evidently believes in the age old saying "that a man can fight better on his own home ground."

John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants will leave for a trip to Florida in a few days to look over possible training grounds for the Giants. The "baseball general" will take a look or two at Sarasota as a good spot for the Giants.

After reading so much in other papers in regard to the number of tennis courts in some of the cities in Florida, about the size of Sanford, the writer can not help but think what poor chances this city offers its net enthusiasts. Sanford has not but one court, and while in a good location, it is in very poor condition. Perhaps a gentle hint to our busy city commissioners would help a little.

Sanford, without a doubt, could easily fill eight tennis courts. To the many who know this game it would be a delight to know that Sanford was going to have more than one little shabby court. Perhaps it would be a good idea, to use a little bit of the money which was voted by the last bond issue for the purpose of building an athletic field, to build several new tennis courts.

Agriculture Work Taught in Schools Is A Great Help

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Dec. 24.—The Smith-Hughes Act providing for the teaching of agricultural education, trades and industries, and home economics in the United States is destined to have an important relation to the prosperity and progress of the American people in the future development of the nation, according to James W. Day, professor of agricultural education, addressing one of his university classes.

Since the bill was passed in the year period of 1917, in order to insure a greater production of crops to the United States and the world at large, there has been a gratifying increase in the amount of farming along scientific lines, said the professor. He added that this went hand in hand with better crops of finer quality, increased yields on the same or lesser amounts of ground, and the whole was done with less effort and worry on the part of the operator, due to knowing how to plan and carry out the operation so as to accomplish the most with the least effort.

At present there are within the state 27 departments of vocational agriculture running in conjunction with the regular high schools for white students. In addition to the classes conducted for the benefit of the high school pupils, where there is sufficient demand, classes are also given at convenient hours for adult farmers who are anxious to get the

HAROLD TRAYNOR VERY VERSATILE BASEBALL PLAYER

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Harold Joseph ("Pie") Traynor, third sacker of the Pittsburgh Nationals, ranks among the first five in all-around performance in the National League during 1923, in the opinion of many keen baseball students. His rivals in versatile prowess, they declare, Rogers Hornsby, of the Cardinals, and Frank Frisch, of the Giants.

This latest big league sensation wound up his second season in the majors with a batting average of .238, ranking eighth among the senior circuit's batsmen. Proof that his stickwork was timely is that he drove in 100 runs. He fielded at the rate of .951, making the unusual total of 310 assists and taking part in 32 double plays.

Traynor has speed too, for he stole 23 bases, ranking fifth. In this department he was exceeded only by Grantham, Carey, Frisch and Smith. And he took part in every game of his club's schedule but one, thus proving his durability.

Traynor is only 23 years old. He attracted notice before completing high school at Somerville, Mass., was bought by the Pirates after but brief minor league experience, and scored a year with Birmingham in the Southern Association. He made good in his first test with the Pirates in 1922.

Another Fine Record

The die making division of the Ford Motor Company set a remarkable record when within eight weeks it designed and manufactured a complete set of dies and tools necessary for the production of the new Tudor Sedan body. Five to six months would previously have been considered a standard of speed for such an undertaking.

Contributing greatly to the speed in producing these tools were the mechanical-electric engraving machine, available now for only two years.

Many changes were made by Ford engineers in the original design of curves and "sweeps" before the desired staunchness and beauty of appearance was secured and final designs were turned over to the Tool Design department. In all 110 new dies and punches were required to produce the new Tudor Sedan bodies which like other Ford car bodies are made from pressed steel sections assembled to a hard wood and metal frame.

As master dies were completed they went to the mechanical-electric engraving machine, which has revolutionized die making and has done away with 80 per cent of the hand work, and these machines cut into steel exact replicas of the master dies.

Operation of these machines is most interesting. Movement of the tracer point, which passes over the design to be reproduced, is transferred to the cutter by electric impulses and so sensitive is this tracer to pressure that it has been possible to cut the form of a human finger in tough steel simply by placing a finger under the point as it moved back and forth.

The significant feature, however, is that in the Ford organization nothing is spared to produce the finest possible results in the shortest time and with the least mental and physical effort on the part of the workmen by providing them with every mechanical aid inventive genius has devised.

You Can Now Safely Hold Your Fruit for Higher Prices

Many growers in California, as in Florida, have found grove heaters an insurance which increases the value of their crops whether a freeze comes or not.

- Assured of protection, they dare to hold their fruit longer and can, therefore, wait for the most advantageous market.

In the event of freeze, the heaters not only save fruit which naturally commands unusual prices, but preserve fruit-bearing wood, insuring profitable crops in the years immediately following—thus effecting a double gain in place of a double loss.

You can save your grove—fruit, bud and blossom—and make the small investment in heaters and labor pay assured returns.

Investigate—Ask for a demonstration in your grove where you may see just how easily and cheaply the improved Skinner Coke Heater may be installed and operated. Send in the coupon.

Cornerstone For Famous Cathedral Was Laid in 1892

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The uncompleted cathedral of St. John the Divine, which occupies a commanding position on Cathedral Heights, at 110th Street, will celebrate next Thursday the fifteenth anniversary of its inception, and the thirty-first of the beginning of actual construction.

When the structure is finished its area will be 109,002 square feet, the largest in the English-speaking world. Its size will be exceeded only by St. Peter's in Rome and the Cathedral of Seville in Spain. Today, however, only the great choir stands, with radiating chapels and a section of the crossing.

A clause in the state charter provides that rents in the cathedral shall always be free, and although it is the administrative center of the Diocese of New York, Protestant Episcopal Church, persons of many creeds and many races have gathered under its roof to worship in their own way.

Besides the Bishop, the Right Rev. William T. Manning, the speakers at the celebration will be the Rev. Dr. S. Parker Cadman, pastor of Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, and George W. Wickersham, former attorney general of the United States and one of the cathedral trustees.

Services in the cathedral are held at times in foreign languages, as varied ethnic groups from New York City's mixed peoples gather there. Many services are conducted in Italian and Spanish; occasionally in Armenian, Japanese, Chinese, Swedish and Welsh. On Kossovo Day a Serbian Archimandrite celebrated the liturgy of the Holy Orthodox Church at the high altar of the cathedral, and a choir composed of Russians and Jugoslavs made the response. On such occasions as the memorial service for President Harding throngs filled the cathedral and stood about the doors.

The portion of the building now standing might be the end of an enormous loaf. It is faced over temporarily on the end that will be joined to the nave, and on the sides that will be continued as the transept. Around the circular end at the east, opposite the junction with the nave, are seven chapels of tongues.

This standing portion, the choir, is late Romanesque in style, with a Byzantine influence. A feature of its construction is the great granite pillars, which weigh 130 tons apiece. The dome is 128 feet above the floor of the crossing.

Construction was halted by the war, but the diocese intends soon to resume building and to complete the structure much more speedily than the choir was erected.

RUM RUNNERS

Conservative, unofficial estimates of the seizures by Coast Guards, Customs and Treasury department agents, prohibition agents and policemen develop the following list:

Small rum-running speed boats	150
Deep-sea craft	10
Seaplanes	1
Motor vehicles	40
Men	375
Cases of liquor	27,000

In addition to the seizures Coast Guards caused more than 100 runners to jettison their cargoes, averaging 50 cases a boat.

The monetary loss to smugglers through these captures is estimated at about $5,000,000, but they only laugh at this, claiming the loss to be but "a drop in the bucket" compared to the gain of successful operations.

Rum-smuggling, begun on a small scale off the New Jersey Coast in 1921, was extended all along the Atlantic seaboard in 1922, and the first big anchorage of rum-carriers established in the waters south of Ambrose Lightship last January established the now famous Rum Row, a location desirable for the runners of Long Island as well as for those of New Jersey. Nineteen rum boats, including three steamers, were parked on the Row at the height of the January trade, and since that time there has been always at least one rum carrier out there doing business.

Federal agents ashore began concerted operations against the motor-truck runners, and many rich prizes fell into their hands. Still the business continued. The gaps made in the runners' rank by captures filled like a hole dug in dry sand. Captures increased in number, smuggling increased in volume.

In the summer months a seaplane was employed by the runners on the Long Island shore for scout work. One day the seaplane, disabled, made a forced landing near a Coast Guard station and was captured.

Some of the bigger craft of the smugglers became venturesome then and were caught close inshore. Morning when the Coast Guard cutters on rum patrol sighted the Tomoka, a British schooner, about six miles off the Jersey beach. They chased her through haze, overhauled her and took her captain and crew, and "Bummy Bill" McCoy, the king of rum smugglers.

A week later the Dragon, a palatial cabin cruiser equipped with radio wireless, was captured. She is said to have been the mother-boat of the swarm of small-runners, her duties being to warn them of impending danger and the whereabouts of the government craft.

The latest seizure of consequence, the Dutch auxiliary schooner Zeeland, ended the career of the transport used by "Mannie" Kessler, the

Jacksonville Preparing For Gipsy Smith Meet

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 24.—Great preparations are under way for the coming of Gipsy Smith, world famous evangelist, who opens a three weeks series of meetings here January 6 in the Market Street tabernacle.

The coming of the Gipsy is expected to mark an epoch in the religious world of Jacksonville, in view of the phenomenal success he is achieving in other cities. The fact that this will be the last opportunity people of Florida probably will have to hear the evangelist, as this is the final tour of the United States, also is adding interest to his coming.

Conceded one of the greatest figures evangelism has produced, the Gipsy started his life work at the age of 17, and since that time has brought hundreds of thousands to Christianity. His name is revered on three continents. The evangelist also has a shining war record, having served for three and one-half years with the "Y" forces on the fields of France. He wears the highest war honor within the power of the King of England to bestow. During a recent meeting in Wichita, Kan., a city of 75,000, more than 135,000 people heard the evangelist. These who have had the opportunity of hearing him, declare his dignity on the platform is a decided relief from the "pulpit athletics" of many evangelists. It also is said of him that he literally "loves his hearers to Christ."

The coming of Mr. Griffith to this city backed by big moneyed interests of the east, he believes, is but a beginning. Other capitalists of the country, he said, are going to be quick to see the opportunities offered by Sanford and are going to invest many thousands of dollars in various projects here.

REBEL FORCES

"The Mexican embassy has been officially advised by Mexico City," the statement said, "that Saturday at noon, after severe fighting the government troops recaptured the city of Puebla, the reactionary rebels' stronghold in the central plateau, where they had concentrated the main body of their forces to withstand the advance of the federal troops. Gen. Martinez, commander of the victorious troops, in announcing the recapture of Puebla, reports that up to that time more than 1,000 prisoners fully armed and equipped, had been taken and that the rest of the rebels disbanded in all directions and are being actively pursued.

"One of the forts defending the city surrendered at the beginning of the attack, and the others were taken by storm by the federal troops. This victory is a decisive blow to the rebels and enables the government to continue unhindered the offensive for the stamping out of the rebellion.

"The rest of the republic continues under the full control of the government and conditions are normal.

"Military operations against Guadalupe have already begun, and a heavy military column has been placed on the Colima railroad, thus cutting the rebels' retreat to the Pacific.

MRS. MINNIE KEY

July 21, 1859, at Fort Gratiot, Mich. She lived there for 21 years and in 1879 with her father, mother and two brothers and one sister came to Florida and located at Tangerine.

The Wright family were among the first settlers of Tangerine and it was Mrs. Key's father who laid out the townsite. The entire family was identified prominently with the earlier history of Tangerine.

In 1884 Minnie Elizabeth Wright married Arthur D. Key of Eustis, who had formerly lived at Halbeach, England, where he was born. After the marriage the couple made their home at Eustis until 1896 until the death of Mrs. Key's father at Tangerine. They then returned to Tangerine and made their home at the old Wright home for a number of years.

In 1901 Mr. and Mrs. Key moved to Sanford with their son, Arthur Raymond Key. Mr. Key died in 1919 and since that time Mrs. Key has lived with her son.

Mrs. Key is survived by her only child, Arthur Raymond Key of this city, a sister, Mrs. Lottie Wright Twichell, of Daytona Beach, and a brother, Charles Raymond Wright of Battle Creek, Mich.

In the case of a vacancy, the remaining trustees may elect a successor, who must belong to the same religious faith as the man he succeeds.

There is a provision in the establishment of the fund, that in the event the Presbyterian denomination ceases to support the Theowell orphanage at Clinton, and establishes an orphan's home in Georgia, the new home shall receive the portion of the fund that had been assigned to the Clinton home.

As memorials to Mrs. Olive Emily Berry Lee, his deceased wife; Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon Lee, his deceased mother, and Mrs. Hibernia Dougherty Berry, deceased mother of his wife, Congressman Lee has designated that the money going to the Presbyterian home shall be known as the Olive Emily Berry Lee fund, that going to the Methodist home shall be known as the Elizabeth Bordon Lee fund, and that going to the Baptist home shall be known as the Hibernia Dougherty Berry fund.

MERRY CHRISTMAS UNCLE SAM

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE MILANE

An outstanding event of the dramatic season, in the strictest sense of the term, is the coming of the screen version of "The Green Goddess," starring George Arliss, to the Milane Theatre for one day, Tuesday. The original play by William Archer enjoyed a run of no less than two years at the Booth Theatre, New York. The screen version, the same in every particular, will be shown at the Milane Theatre, also had a record-breaking run at the Sam H. Harris Theatre, New York, equalling in every way its tremendous popularity as a play. "The Green Goddess" is hailed as the greatest art achievement of the screen to date. For sheer compelling melodrama superbly acted, and magnificently set, it is said that nothing has ever been done to approach this production.

Distinctive Pictures Corporation, producers of the film, have most certainly spared nothing to transfer Mr. Archer's clever work to the screen satisfactorily. The leading feminine role opposite Mr. Arliss is played by none other than Alice Joyce, that gorgeously beautiful young lady who, after her recent marriage to one of New York's wealthiest young men, swore the screen would never see her again. The lure of a part with such possibilities as the young Englishwoman in "The Green Goddess" was too great and Miss Joyce succumbed to persuasion of Arthur S. Friend and Henry M. Hobart of Distinctive, to return to the screen. For which, incidentally, they deserve a vote of thanks.

To the eye 5,000 stars are visible. Telescopes reveal at least 50,000,000 more.

Women real estate agents in the United States total 9,208, according to the last Federal census.

HAREM AN ISSUE IN TURKEY.

Not long ago Turkey abolished the harem, and the Turkish men said hereafter and for all time they would be content with one wife. The women of the harem were enthusiastic, because they were free at last. Then it was discovered there were 1,000,000 more women in Turkey than there are men, that the birth rate of the country was falling off at an alarming rate, and not enough babies were being born. "That's what comes of a man being allowed only one wife," said one of Turkey's eminent statesmen. Already those for and against the harem are making ready for a showdown on the issue when the Turkish Parliament meets. To be sure, 1,000,000 surplus women is a problem.

ROMANCE OF A BACHELOR.

A strange woman in black attended the funeral of J. Wheelock, Memphis bachelor, killed at the age of 59 in an auto accident. She told the mourners she was his wife and showed papers to prove it. One was an agreement by which Wheelock and his wife separated two days after their marriage, the woman being given 150,000 in lieu of any future claims on her husband's estate. Copies of the agreement were found in the papers of the dead man. The widow declined to explain the secret marriage and sudden separation, saying: "I came merely to show him the same respect in death I held for him while he was living. I know that in his last moments I was uppermost in his mind." Times change, but romance never dies.

TOBACCO WILL BE RAISED ON LARGE SCALE BY FARMERS

MADISON, Fla., Dec. 24.—Farmers of this county are going into the tobacco-raising business on a scale many times as large this year as heretofore. An experienced tobacco farmer has been engaged and brought here from North Carolina to direct those interested in this new money crop for 1924. More than a 1,000 acres already have been signed up for next year's planting.

In the neighborhood of Greenville between 800 and 300 acres have been signed up, and seven miles west of that place, at Aucilla, approximately 100 acres have been subscribed and will be looked after by the tobacco expert. As a measure to encourage tobacco culture, farming interests have organized a small concern and will plant 16 acres at Hickory Hill in sun tobacco.

W. D. Burch, an experienced tobacco farmer and demonstrator of Aberdeen, N. C., will assist the farmers throughout the county, while farmers in the Greenville, Sirmans and Hamburg territory have contracted with a demonstrator who will devote his attention to their crops alone. The demonstrators will assist the planters in selecting the right kind of land, give instructions as to barns, seed beds and any other details that may be required.

Madison county has heretofore confined this phase of agricultural development to the shade-grown variety of tobacco. Last year it had 258 acres in cultivation and produced 241,500 pounds, which was sold for a total of $181,700. Gadsden county was the only section of the state that went into the open field culture in 1922. There 664 acres were planted, producing 528,570 pounds that sold for $52,910. The same county produced 2,778,325 pounds of shade-grown tobacco which brought $1,308,594.

CARE FOR WIDOWS.
Eight widows in the town of Auxerre, France, are to celebrate the 500th anniversary of an act of King Charles VII, decreeing that eight widows in that particular village shall always have rent free. A member of Charles' suite, who was wounded at the battle of Cravant, was nursed and cured by eight widows, and he provided for his nurses in his mansion in Luxerre. Later Charles added the provision that the house should forever be the refuge of eight widows.

THE DECOY.
A clergyman, taking occasional duty for a friend in a remote country parish, was greatly scandalized on observing the old verger, who had been collecting the offertory, quietly abstract a fifty-cent piece before presenting the plate at the altar-rail.

After service he called the old man into the vestry and told him with some emotion that his crime had been discovered.

The verger looked puzzled for a moment. Then a sudden light dawned on him.

"Why, sir, you don't mean that old half-dollar of mine? Why, I've led off with that for the last fifteen years!"—Everybody's Magazine.

A sufferer who lives close to a railroad yard in the suburbs wrote the following to the company complaining about the racket made by a switch engine:

"Gentlemen: Why is it that your switch engine has to ding and dong and fizz and spit and bang and hiss and pant and grate and grind and puff and bump and chug and hoot and toot and whistle and wheeze and jerk and howl and snarl and puff and growl and thump and boom and clash and jolt and screech and snort and snarl and slam and throb and roar and rattle and yell and smoke and smell and shriek all night long?"

Round Table Knights Take In Sec. Hughes

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 22.—Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes has been made the third Honorary Knight of the Round Table, it is announced here by J. A. McDonald, secretary of the international board of Loyal Knights of the Round Table. Membership in the Honorary Knights is limited to 128 throughout the world, in imitation of the number said to have made up the ancient round table of King Arthur.

The Loyal Knights of the Round Table is a luncheon-service club similar to Rotary; it emphasizes loyal performance of the responsibilities of citizenship, and a cooperative spirit in each community. The Loyal Knights appoint the honorary knights, a tribute conferred only in recognition of exceptional service to humanity. The first two to be elevated to the knighthood were Thomas A. Edison and Luther Burbank. Then Mr. Hughes was chosen, for constructive service in the field of statesmanship.

In his acceptance Secretary Hughes wrote: "The honor is highly appreciated, and in view of the sentiments which animate the organization as a non-political, non-sectarian, friendship club, devoted to loyal cooperative living, and in view of the emphasis placed upon the loyal service of citizens in the performance of public duty, it gives me much pleasure to accept."

WHAT'S IN A NAME.
A southern family had in their employ as cook an old negro mammy whom they called "Aunt Mary."

One hot summer day she came and asked her mistress if she could get off to go on "a scursion." The mistress said, "Aunt Mary, can't you put that off, as I shall have company next week and can't spare you?"

She reluctantly consented to stay that week, at the end of which she presented herself with the request to go on another "scursion to Memphis."

"But," said the lady, "I don't see why you want to go now; why don't you wait until later on. Sam, your husband, will be home from the cotton patch, and you can go together and have a good time."

"Yassum; I knows dat," said Aunt Mary, "but I want goin' with Sam; I was goin' wid my stephusband."

"Stephusband!" I never heard of such a thing!

"Wy, yassum; a stephusband is one where when your husband steps out he steps in."

Melvin was aged -1; one of your veritable city lads, as much at home on the farm as a canary in a snake's den. He was out visiting his uncle on their farm, when the following little episode occurred:

He went out to harness one of the horses, and, after briding him, was perceived to be noticing closely the action of that animal, which stood chewing on the bit. After watching the movement of the jaws for a few minutes, he came into the house, saying:

"Uncle Sam, come out and see. I've got the bit on the right side of that horse's tongue."

 Junction against The Herald from talking about the Southern Utilities for a month.

Electrically yours,
H. R. ROSBRO.

Dear Old Top:

Take a chance, old dear, and see if you can get me a location for a drug store where people are sick at least once a year. Sanford is too darn healthy for my health, you know what I mean, old whiskers.

Pharmaceutically,
R. C. BOWER.

Dear Kris:

You know me, Kris. I am the man that put the Sand in Sanford and if you can arrange some more bond issues for 1924 it is all that I ask in my stocking this year.

Yours financially,
FOREST LAKE.

Dear Mr. Claus:

I address you this way because you seem to be a relative of mine. The thing I want is a delay in the water plant so I can sell more Elder Springs Water in 1924 than has ever been sold before.

Aquatically,
H. J. CLAUSE.

Dear Santa:

Send an athletic field to Sanford within the city limits and in walking distance so all the big league teams will want to train here. Do this and I will not worry about next year's contract.

Yours ballped up,
BERT CHAPMAN.

Dear Friend Santa:

Please send me an airplane that will make 120 an hour at night with a pair of arms that will catch the sneak thieves up an alley or on the street. Either do this or tie my goat.

CHIEF WILLIAMS.

Dear Santa:

Would it be possible for you to send me a lake or river that would flow just behind my store so I could fish early in the morning before breakfast?

Piscatorially yours,
ARTHUR YOWELL.

Dear Old Friend:

All I want is a football team for next year that will be 100 per cent in their classes first. Send me this and I will be satisfied for another year.

PROF. G. E. MCKAY.

Dear Friend and Soforth:

Don't bring me any more oranges. They were all right in other years but I have been fed up on them this year and have enough to last me until your next trip.

Yours fraternally,
S. O. CHASE.

Dear Kris:

Please send me a diagram of the income tax so that I can tell whether I am coming or going and in which direction I have moved to the country but am still in the United States.

You know me,
JACK DAVIDSON.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please send me an iron to smooth out some of the wrinkles in the stomach of Sanford in the year of 1924.

Yours in haste,
DR. C. J. MARSHALL.

Dear Old Comrade:

Send us plenty of money and support for the year of 1924 so we can get our Legion headquarters in shape and put over the big things for Sanford and for the American Legion.

Your buddy,
JOE CHITTENDON.

Dear Old Scout:

Bring me a promise of brain and brawn for the next football team of Florida High and may they never lose a game.

Athletically,
ATTORNEY WILKINSON.

Dear Neighbor:

Don't bring me any more bank buildings this year. Have enough for immediate needs but wish to thank you for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same I beg to remain and soforth ad lib.

Your old college chum,
FRANK P. FORSTER.

Dear Old Chap:

I wonder if you could send me some ideas on advertising Sanford for the year of 1924 and especially some that would catch New Yorkers. This will be sufficient for this time. Why didn't you tell me you were coming up the St. Johns? I would have met you with Mr. Donnelly.

Secretariially,
R. W. PEARMAN, JR., A. B. C.

Dear Old Schoolmate:

Glad you are giving out something once more. All I want is one million dollars to build new homes and apartment houses and hotels, etc. This is not much for Sanford and I know you will do it. If you can't please give me the names of 100 men who will.

Your old friend,
A. P. CONNELLY.

Dear Old Bird:

For many years you have been coming down my chimney and have worn it smooth but I want you to come one more time and don't bring a stork with you. All I want is better roads. Henry and I will do the rest.

EDWARD HIGGINS.

Bully Old Boy:

You are the stuff. You are my friend. You send me the business all the time and especially at Xmas. Send me a new stomach in time for that big Xmas dinner. That will be about all for this time.

J. G. BALL.

Dear Friend:

If you have any more big stores for Sanford send them along and we will have a new building ready for them.

MEISCH REALTY CO.

Dear Patron Saint:

You have been good to me in 1923. But don't send me any more post-offices or don't come here again for a long time. We are all fed up on this Christmas stuff in our backyard. It is all right for little Joe but his father is all in.

Good Bye,
POSTMASTER HALL.

Dear Kris Kringle:

Having brought me a wife some time ago I guess that will be about all for this time. No, don't bring any dolls.

Your old friend,
T. J. MILLER.

Old Friend Santa:

Send me a gun that will sight turkeys a mile away and kill them with No. eight shot twice that distance. If you can do this I will die happy.

Yours as ever,
GEORGE SPEER.

Dear Old Grouch:

Here you are coming again just when I am not ready for you and now it will cost me a lot of money for Xmas and New Year's and people are worrying me to death asking about new goods. Don't come around again for several years.

Yours in sorrow,
FRANK MILLER.

Dear Santa:

If you bring us anything bring Newman, Puleston and I a portable bungalow that we can carry around in the woods and in case we lose our way it will be ready to use and keep out the cows and other insects.

Primarily yours,
D. L. THRASHER.

Dear Old Chap:

If you intend to bring anything to Drummond, Bishop, Rosebro or any other folks on Upper Magnolia you might bring me a Boy Scout uniform—something that little George and I can wear together.

Yours,
COL. GEORGE KNIGHT.

Dear Old Friend:

Send me a song book and let it contain just two songs—"The Mummy Song" and "Yes, we Have No Old Fossils." That will be enough. I have everything else and then some.

Your old friend,
HARRY B. LEWIS.

Dear Old Man:

Don't send Frank Whitner, Frank McMahon, Jimmy Stewart, G. F. Smith, Archie Betts, Raymond Key, S. M. Lloyd or any of those fellows any presents this year. All they want in their golf stockings is a new Parish House.

Yours with love,
FATHER PECK.

Dear Santa:

If you can really do your stuff send me a French chateau with a collar one mile long and half a mile deep and plenty of cobwebs in it—you know what I mean, old man, so send it. P. D. Q. but not C. O. D.

Yours in French,
TRACEY McCULLER.

Dear Old Scout:

You have been good to us every year for which we are thankful. Don't send me anything but send Bruce a wife.

Yours,
GENE ROUMILLAT.

Dear Old Santa:

Please fill our stockings with a lot of mufflers on Christmas—not the kind that go round your neck but the kind that kills the loud noises of the passing autos on Sunday morning and night.

Prayerfully,
SANFORD PREACHERS.

Dear Old Top:

It may be asking a lot of you but please make me and Bob Deane the golf champions of Seminole county.

Yours, etc.,
HODGSON BALL.

Friend Santa:

Send me the election for sheriff's office for 1925 and I will not ask you for anything else.

SHERIFF HAND.

Dear Friend:

You will remember me as the man who lived in Jersey a long time in spite of the mosquitoes and am now living near Sanford. Don't send me any more country homes. I have enough.

As ever and ever,
W. H. TUNNICLIFFE.

Dear Friend Santa:

Please send me a big gun for Christmas—one that will spread and kill all the game for five miles around.

BOB NEWMAN.

Dear Old Sport:

Please send me six chorus girls for the Milano Theatre. Wrap them up in tissue paper and put in celerity crates. Will meet them at the station.

Yours in a hurry,
ED LANE.

Dear Kris:

Send me a bottle of anti-fat. The bottle you sent last year was only forty per cent and did not give results.

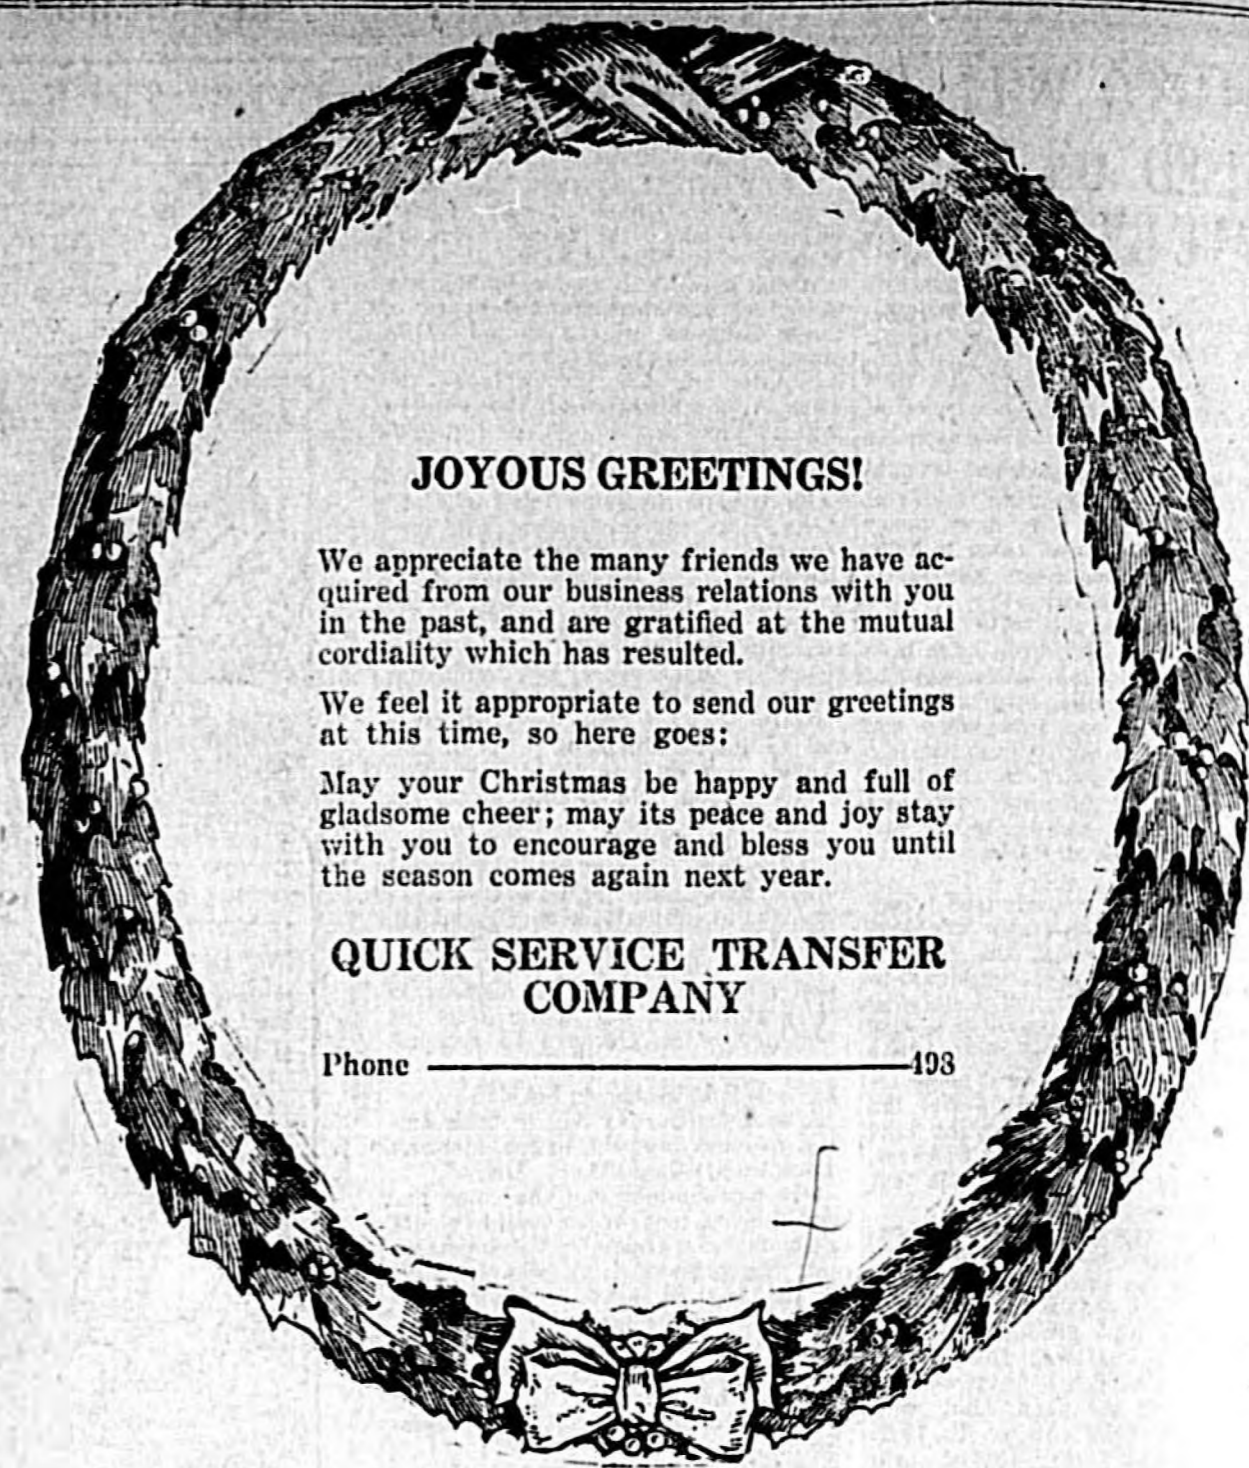

Yours to a cinder,
DEANE TURNER.

Dear Whiskers:

Send me that new theatre building that you promised me last year. If you can't make good don't come around.

MY LIFE WITH MAGGIE

By Jiggs

CHAPTER XII.
ME AND MONAHAN.

One of the best friends I ever had in me life was a lad by the name of Tim Monahan. He was a brother of Mike Monahan, leader of Monahan's Shamrock Band, and he played the trombone for Mike till he found there was more money in the pocket pickin' business.

I was beholden to Tim Monahan for this reason. Maggie had given me her watch to have it fixed at a jeweler's and me bein' in need of a few dollars to offset losses due to her habit of goin' through me pants at night, I had pawned the watch for the price of a ticket to the ballgame show.

Not two days later, Tim Monahan comes into Dinty's with the watch in his hand! "Jiggs," said he, "I lifted this offen a lady in the street car who was tellin' another lady how her husband pawned it and she found the ticket and redeemed it herself. I didn't know it was your wife till I looked in the back of the watch. Here it is!"

"Monahan," said I, "you have saved me life! Now to get home with the watch before Maggie gets there!"

I made it just in time to put the watch back in the drawer.

"Where is me watch, you big ape?" demanded Maggie, when she came in at the door.

"Why, right there in the drawer where I left it, Maggie darlin'," said I. "I forgot to take it to get it fixed."

She looked in her bag and her face turned 40 colors. She looked in the drawer and she saw the watch, and her face turned 40 colors more. And for three days afterward, Maggie went around mutterin' to herself:

"How did it get there? However did it get there?"

Do you wonder—after that—I'm beholden to Monahan?

property. We own this protection to them and it is a good plan for the farmers and the city to take up after Christmas.

SPOKEN IN ANGER.

A German couple had a heated argument concerning household affairs. At the conclusion of the disagreement, the wife exclaimed, "I wish I was in heaven!"

Not wishing to be ousted, the husband said, "Und I wish I was in a beer garden."

The wife, still trying to get the best of the argument, shouted, "Und you vont effery ding goot for yourself."

Herald Want Ad will sell that old piece of furniture.

A BILLION FOR $1.

An American dollar brought 1 billion German marks in New York the other day. A year ago an American dollar would have brought only 2,000 marks. A slump from 2,000 to 1,000,000,000 is beyond comprehension. That would make one mark if placed in the contribution box of less value than the traditional button.

RIGHTLY NAMED.

The special congressional election in the Spokane district of Washington was won by the Democratic nominee on a platform of a $1.75 guaranteed price for wheat and election of Federal judges, including the United States supreme court, by popular vote. The new congressman revels in the appropriate name of Sam Hill.

Weather Report For Florida Given Here

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 24.—Need of rain, especially in most of the peninsula section of the state, absence of sunshine, and a wide range in temperature, featured the weather in Florida during the week ended December 17, according to the weekly Florida section of the United States weather bureau.

Temperature varied from normal in the extreme west to as much as nine degrees above normal in the central division, the bulletin states, and says that the rainfall at Titusville, Brevard county, was an exception, the week's total there exceeding four inches. The area covered, however, was limited almost to the immediate environments of that station, although beneficial showers fell throughout the Atlantic coast line counties from Key West to Jacksonville.

Droughty conditions became more acute over portions of the central division and in the coast district of the southern division. Lands in the Okeechobee district, nevertheless, are greatly improved, having dried out and trucking and general farm work are diligently prosecuted there, the bulletin adds. The deficiency in rainfall in the western division approximated one-half an inch, or more.

Farm work made good progress in the northern division but the growth of truck and uplands was retarded by the lack of soil moisture; rain is needed even on some lowlands. In the central division the weather was too warm and dry throughout, although showers, irregularly distributed, were beneficial. Both in the western and southern divisions there were occasional scattered but insufficient showers.

JUST IN PASSING
BY R. J. HOLLY

Every once in a while in going around and noting various developments in the city and county I run across some of the ideas of my dear and late lamented friend, Hon. Joseph Whitner. We put ourselves on the back about our present improvements and developments but in the early days of Sanford there were giants also and they had good ideas of their own even if they were far in advance of their time. Some day I will take up the subject of these really great men of some fifteen years ago and give a short history of their achievements. We miss Joe Whitner, George Fernald, Dick Marks, William Holden, C. R. Walker and others who were the salt of the earth and who were bousters of the days gone by.

If the price on electric lights in this city were cheaper there would be much more of it used and while this might not be the idea of the Southern Utilities Company it is certainly what the people want. For instance, right now there are many barbers and much petty thieving around the holiday time. If every alley within a certain district were well lighted it would minimize the danger not only of holdups but the chances of miscreants getting away after a robbery for the dark alley offers much in the way of a safe harbor when the thieves are abroad. It is safe to say that if this city could be lighted as it should be there would be but little crime of this sort. This city, however, cannot be well lighted until the rates are lowered and we are waiting patiently for this to happen.

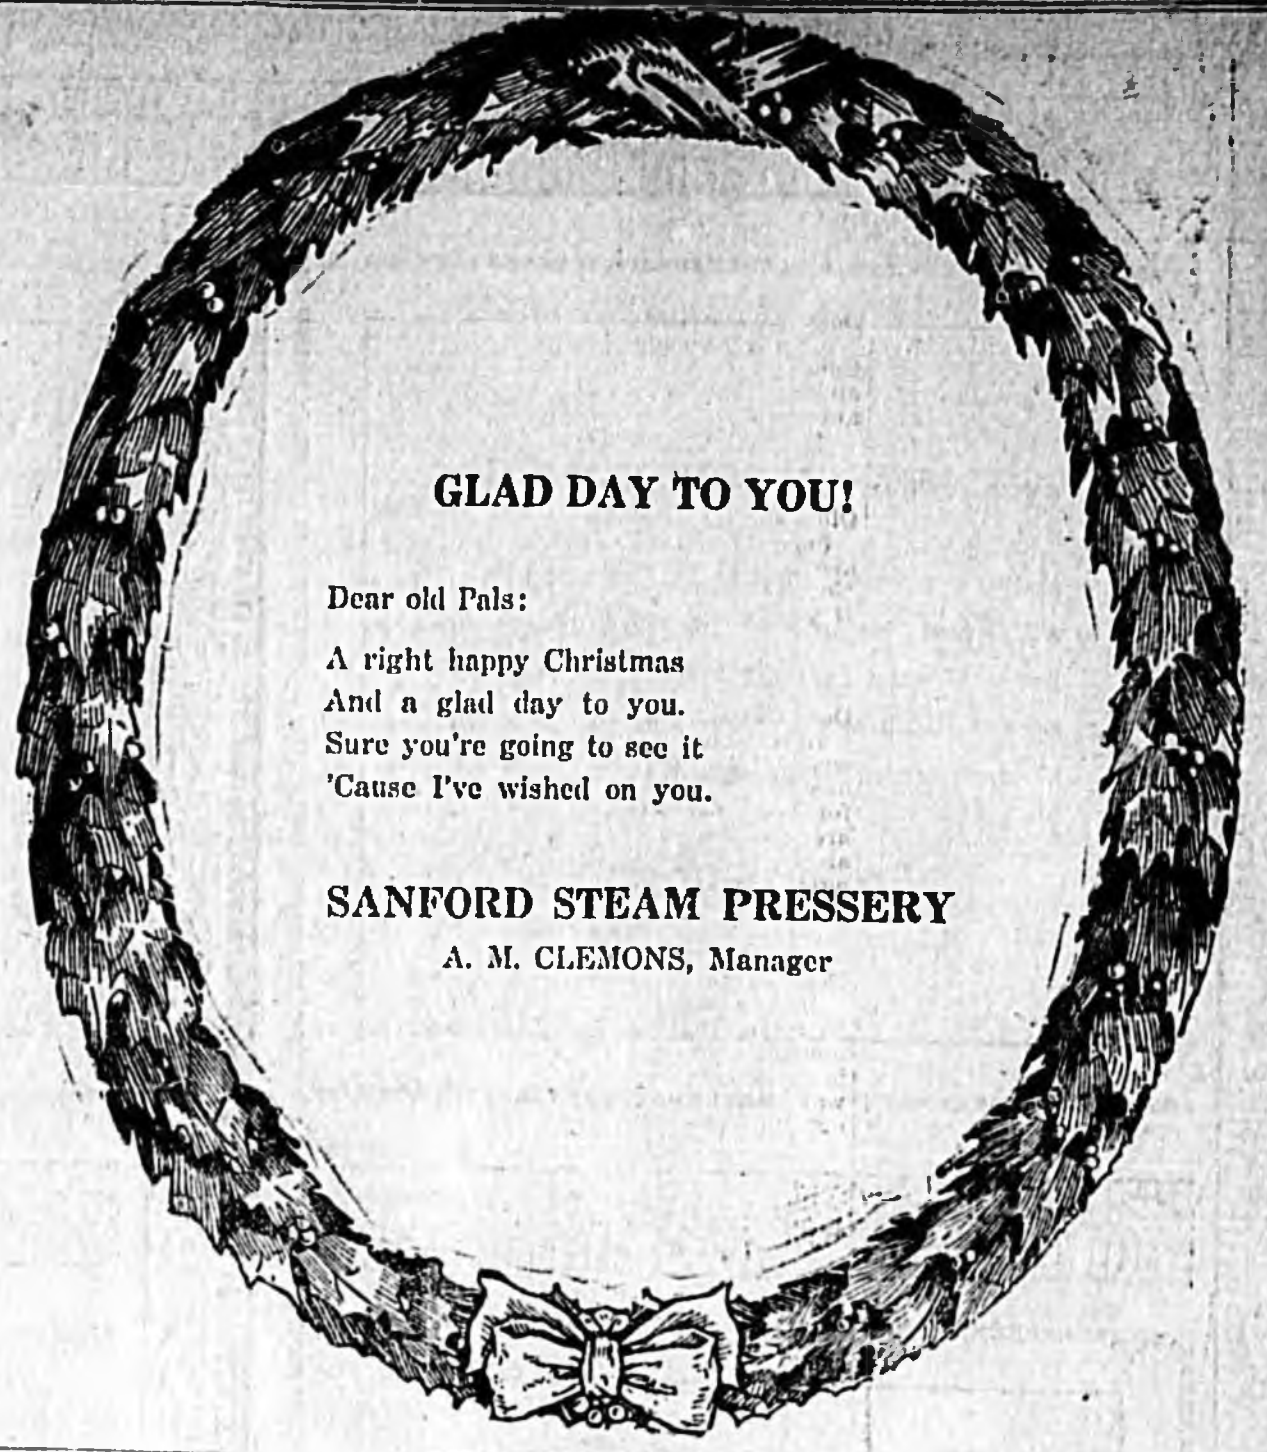

It is gratifying to note the many improvements that are contemplated for the year 1924 and Sanford will have just what is needed in buildings and streets and the lake front improvements and many other adjuncts for a growing metropolis. Having over ten thousand people now in and around Sanford we should double this population in five years. Let your money stay here, Bill.

The same line of thievery goes on every year just about this time and it is almost impossible to stop it with any ordinary means. If you will remember several years ago it became so prevalent here that we called out the American Legion to patrol the streets at night and after a few nights of this patrolling and picking up all suspicious characters the thieves moved on to better pastures. It all shows that with a few extra policemen the thieves will get wise and move on or be caught. We can safely trust the matter to Chief Williams for he is on his mettle now and will not let a crimp in the aspirations of the light fingered gentry.

Putting down the wells as fire protection is the right idea but it should have been done before. It is old stuff as far as the people of Sanford are concerned and has been talked about
