SANFORD TOPS SENATORS IN 10 TO 7 TILT

By ARTHUR McKEWITT, JR. Herald Sports Editor The Sanford Celery Feds last night avenged the 13 to 10 drubbing handed them Monday by Orlando as the Feds trounced the Senators by a 10 to 7 margin behind the stellar mound work of Hal Stewart and Jim Payne at the Municipal Park. The Senators opened hostilities in the third inning and tallied four markers as the result of a walk, two singles and a base cleaning triple by Rex Throon.

Sanford retaliated in their half of the canto. Martin Zuba worked manager Bevil for a free ticket to take over at Colorado College. Two other appointments of Grinnell coaches announced today were those of Ben Dobbs as head basketball coach and Francis Cretzmever Jr. as track coach.

The Senators opened hostilities in the third inning and tallied four markers as the result of a walk, two singles and a base cleaning triple by Rex Throon.

The last Fed scoring spree netted four runs. Zuba and Payne singled. Lastres walked. Tuttle singled to right field sending Zuba and Payne home. Snider singled to score Lastres, and Tuttle crossed the plate on an error by Stullenberger.

A ninth inning rally chalked up three runs for the visitors. Consecutive singles by Hyde, Manning and Justice, combined with an infield out and error allowed the Senators to add the runs. Rob Tuttle paced the Fed attack on the Senators as the diminutive third sacker poled three hits in four trips to the plate. Snider blasted two safeties in five appearances. Score by innings: Orlando 004 000 003 7-9-6

Six Greyhounds Destroyed By Fire

MIAMI, Apr. 11—At least six racing greyhounds were destroyed yesterday in a fire which swept part of the kennels of the West Flagler Club. Track employes said the kennels were full when the fire broke out. The barking of the dogs attracted owners and trainers to the kennels and most of the greyhounds were released in time. The dogs destroyed by the fire were in the kennels of F. B. Stutz and Paul Sutherland.

Boy Saves Life Of Dog That Bit Him

RICHMOND, Va., Apr. 11—The plea of a 14-year-old boy has saved the life of a dog that bit him. The dog, a Pinscher-Boxer named Champ, must leave Richmond and never come back.

That was the decision handed down in Juvenile Court after Rogers Miller had pleaded that the dog not be killed. It was Champ's second offense. Young Rogers' face still was sore from bites requiring 13 stitches. The court banished Champ from the City forever.

Russia Agrees To Begin Negotiations To Settle Lend-Lease

Gromyko Lashes Out In UN Meeting Against Truman's Greek Aid Plan

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14—Russia finally agreed today to negotiate for the settlement of her $11,000,000,000 Lend Lease account with the U. S. According to the State Department, the negotiations will begin in Washington as soon as Russian Ambassador V. G. Novikov returns from Moscow. Novikov will act as negotiator for Moscow with Assistant Secretary of State Willard Thorpe representing the American Government. The two negotiators also may take up the Soviet request for a postwar American loan of $1,000,000,000.

The Russian Lend Lease account represents the original purchase cost of the planes, tanks, locomotives, trucks, tractors and other American equipment which were poured into the Soviet Union during the war. The total stands at $11,000,000,000—not counting goods on order or in shipment when Lend Lease was stopped by President Truman shortly after V. J. day.

Russia agreed to settle the account under the State Department had made six requests to get the negotiations started.

Pepper said he would support what he called "reasonable regulation" of labor strikes. But he said he did not want to crush or curb collective bargaining, or permit unjust abuse of workers.

The Florida House re-convened at noon today while the Senate was scheduled to swing into action at 4 P. M.

Phone Strike Drags On With Truman Silent

Union Head To Make White House Plea; CIO Gives Promise To Aid Strikers

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14—The White House continued today to maintain a hands-off policy in the nationwide telephone crisis. Presidential Secretary Charles Ross advised newsmen that strike negotiations are in the hands of the Labor Department, and there is still no word from President Truman, who declined to comment on the strike on his return from Grandview yesterday.

At the telephone strike entered its second week, President Joseph Beene of the National Federation of Telephone Workers went ahead with plans for a direct appeal to Mr. Truman to settle the dispute. Beene continued to insist that he will not ask the President to seize the telephone industry.

At the same time, the CIO promised to cooperate effectively with the striking telephone union. The CIO aid was announced formally by organization director Allan Haywood. He said that CIO regional directors will meet in Washington tonight to discuss the telephone strike.

Haywood said in his announcement that the CIO considers that the telephone workers are fighting a battle in which all American working people should be interested and eager to help. The CIO organization director added that a victory for the telephone workers would be a victory for all labor.

In Atlanta, state director of the Southern Federation of Telephone Workers were called to a meeting today.

Union officials said all of the nine states in the southern group were represented except the Mississippi director who was grounded by bad weather.

While the directors were meeting, some 3,000 Atlanta Telephone Company workers arranged a mass meeting of their own. Strikers from surrounding Georgia towns were invited to attend.

Meanwhile, New Jersey's governor, Alfred Dorell, announced that the New Jersey Bell Telephone company has agreed to arbitrate all issues in the current strike. The arbitration would take place under terms of the state's new utility strike law.

Improvement In Farm Production Shown Recently

Growing Weather For Last Week Is Contributing Factor

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Apr. 14 (Special)—Production conditions have shown substantial improvement in most areas through out Central and South Florida during the last week according to reports received from managers of State Markets and information available from other sources, said William L. Wilson, Director of State Markets today.

Producers of fruits and vegetables have had to contend with a lack of weather during the last week, and a lot of it has been bad. That makes it a big relief to hear from one manager that "growing weather" for the last week has been excellent, from others such comments as "we have enjoyed good growing weather, and weather favorable prices, too, come to be holding a good level of most instances."

Meanwhile, state Director of Markets, Walter L. Moore, reported that the production of such commodities in that section has about reached its peak. Offerings during the week will be at an (Continued on Page Four)

PEIPING, Apr. 14—Government troops today successfully attacked Communist forces attacking a rail junction city 172 miles southwest of Peiping. The situation is said to have eased there although Red forces are threatening to occupy two nearby towns. Nationalists said they evacuated the two towns in order to "secure a more advantageous position."

Meanwhile, American Military Attaché General George South left Peiping for Changchun. There he will attempt to secure the release of two assistant attaches captured by Communists on Mar. 1. A Communist broadcast yesterday said the "Americans have been excited out of the territory." However, their whereabouts is unknown to American officials.

They had landed at Calcutta's Dum Dum Airport at 3:05 A. M. after a 1400 mile flight from Karachi, India. At that time Reynolds had run up an elapsed time of nearly 34 hours since his departure from New York late Saturday afternoon. He hoped to complete the global jaunt in 60 hours.

Weather Handicaps Guerrillas In Greece

ATHENS, Apr. 14—Wintery weather was said today to be slowing operations of the 15,000 Greek guerrillas fighting the Communist forces in the southern Pindus Mountains.

Despatches from the battle area said 20 inches of snow have fallen on two days on peaks 5 to 6,000 feet high. A communique said, however, that the government forces have squeezed the insurgents into an area of about 450 square miles.

An Athens newspaper correspondent said the latter cold is proving a serious handicap to the guerrillas. The correspondent said the insurgents have been forced from their billets into snow-covered and unprotected heights.

Byrd Expedition's Flagship Back In U. S.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14—Admiral Byrd's antarctic flagship, the USS Mount Olympus, was scheduled to dock at the Washington Navy Yard at 10 o'clock this morning, completing its 145-day, 20,000-mile voyage to the bottom of the world and back.

Byrd's return from the Antarctic will revive the question whether the United States should claim a substantial sector of the frozen continent. Byrd, an ardent champion of American dominion over the Antarctic, dropped flags and claim sheets over wide areas during survey flights over the area.

Legal Aspect Of Wallace's Talks Raised

Representative Says Justice Department Could Prosecute Under Law

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14—The chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities said today he believes Henry Wallace can be prosecuted by the Justice Department for statements he made in Britain criticizing American foreign policy. Rep. J. Parnell Thomas said the Justice Department has no alternative to taking legal action against Wallace under the terms of the Logan Act.

Meanwhile, the White House turned aside all questions as to what President Truman may do about Wallace's speechmaking.

House News Secretary Charles Ross said "No comment" when he was asked about the matter. "There is no comment," he added, "on the Wallace situation in any way, shape or form."

Members of Congress have been sharply critical of remarks by Wallace in England concerning the President's program to aid Greece and Turkey. Some Republicans have made it clear that they will have little patience with talk about bipartisan cooperation.

Senators J. H. H. Moore of Oklahoma and J. H. H. Moore of Oklahoma said today the Republican position on Wallace (Continued on Page Four)

Canada Asked By Senator To Join Pan-Am Union

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14—Canada received an invitation today from Senator Arthur Vandenberg to join the Pan American Union. The Michigan Senator in a speech before the Senate today, marking the 25th anniversary of the Union's formation, said that the Union's membership in the organization is necessary to complete what he termed total pan-world unity.

Representatives of the 21 American republics heard Vandenberg say: "The 22nd chair in the Union has been empty long enough. By every rule of justice and equity it is eligible to this association and by every rule of reason we should wish to be here."

Vandenberg, who is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, made no reference today to his previous criticism of State Department policies toward Latin America. Nor did his speech to the Pan American delegation mention directly any current policy differences between the United States and Argentina.

"If and when," he observed, "there are any unfortunate lapses in our close and friendly relationships it is a necessity that such situations be swiftly and equitably cured."

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

ALL ARE EQUAL IN THE GRAVE, BUT WE TAKE WITH US OUR MEMORIES. TRY TO HAVE GLORIOUS MEMORIES.
YOU CAN: The small and the great are there; and the servant is free from his master. Job 31:17

We see by the paper where they're having "growing pains" down in Orlando too.

Americans getting tough with Russia and planning our Army.

Give to the Red Cross. A hurricane could do as much damage to Sanford as the bridge did to Woodward.

Dr. Brooks characterized our little imbroglio last week as "Much Ado About Nothing." Wasn't it also "A Tempest in a Teapot"?

Well, after all, may be Henry Wallace is running for Parliament in England, or is he premier of France?

"The people don't realize that today monopoly generally is at the highest peak it has ever been in America," says Senator Pepper.
Well, here's one that does, and we think it is time for a change.

A bill has been introduced to create a state utilities commission.
And if such a law is enacted the commission should be empowered not only to fix rates, but also to maintain service, to protect the public's interest, as well as the company's and the employees'.

The attention of the Florida Legislature shifted toward the end of last week from the very important question of what to do about Florida schools to the more controversial but less constructive matter of establishing a "white primary." There are many things the matter with this so-called
"white primary" bill of Senator Mathews, but not the least of them is that it may prevent the legislature from keeping their minds on more serious business.

A fight is shaping up in the Legislature between the administration and the anti-administration forces. Under the circumstances it is possible that a deadlock could emerge resulting in nothing being done. More likely, we will see a lot of bills passed appropriating money for everything under the sun but without any provision for raising the money. We hope there will be enough wisdom and devotion to the state in the Legislature to prevent anything such as this from happening.

What we can't understand is why the trade unions don't lay more emphasis on the standard of living than they do on mere wage increases. It isn't how much pay you get that counts; it's how much you can buy with it after you get it. A man working for $25 a week ten years ago was better off than a man working for $50 a week today. Yet the unions are constantly striking for higher and higher wages. If they'd strike for lower prices, that would be wise to the point.

President Truman who seldom is business and obviously playing politics last week when he placed the entire responsibility for high prices on businessmen. The primary reason for high prices, as everyone knows, is the shortage of labor and consequently the high cost of labor, and high taxes. Labor costs in some businesses are as three or four hundred percent and federal taxes, particularly for high businesses, have increased more or four hundred percent.
It is pretty hard to hold prices down under such circumstances.

Youth Marches On

A million new families are starting out on their own. The birth rate has reached a new high with 29 children being born to every 1,000 adults in the population, as compared with 18 in the pre-war years. The increased births are due not entirely to new families, but also to the fact that more children are being born per couple than for a long time.

Many conclusions as to national trends can be based on such a story of American vigor. It means good news for the vast group of manufacturers, jobbers and retailers handling home items. This covers a tremendous range, from electric bottle warmers to safety pins, from oil furnaces to window curtains and life insurance.

The accumulating hazards that beset modern living have no effect on this forward establishment of new family units. Not even the old HCL is a deterrent. The young are brave, and all things are possible with courage—even life in the mid-nineteen hundreds.

History Of Man

Modern readers, beset with the increasing flood of printed material loosed upon them, are now confronted with a six-volume story of mankind. Possibly there will be three more volumes before the story is completed. The author is the English historian, Arnold J. Toynbee. His work is The Study of History.

Twentieth century man, busy with making history at a faster rate than ever made before, has not had much time to stop and contemplate his handwork. The Briton has been doing it for him. Fortunately for author and reader alike, one scholar, D. C. Somervell, has come along with a single volume abridgement of the colossal Toynbee so far published.

Condensations of all kinds are the fashion in the publishing business. Readers like these short cuts and there is a good chance that the Somervell-Toynbee abridgement may become a best seller. Man likes to read about himself.

JOHNNY EVERS' DEATH leaves only Joe Tinker living of baseball's most famous double-play combination, Tinker to Evers to Chance. The odd circumstances about the rarely equaled smoothness of this combination is that two of its members were not on speaking terms. Tinker and the hot-tempered Evers quarreled early in their careers and never made it up. Either must often have been tempted to fail in handling the ball quickly in order to show the other up. Neither was ever known to do so. People who complain that their inefficiency is due to the unpleasant nature of those with whom they have to work could learn from Tinker and Evers.

OIL

NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

It is a curious phenomenon of modern world politics that the short and simple word "oil" injected into the discussion of any effect. Honest citizens bristle with suspicion or indignation at the very mention of the prosaic substance which runs their cars and heats their homes. The most sober debate on the most abstruse question of boundaries or bases can be thrown into a state of high emotion by the merest whisper involving oil. Indeed, for the present generation, oil has taken on a good many of the connotations of "pieces of eight" in an earlier, and more frankly piratical era.

The latest instance of this can be seen in the workings of the special Senate committee investigating the national-defense program. Mr. James A. Moffett has charged that the United States Navy paid much too much for the oil it purchased from American companies holding concessions from King Ibn Saud. The Navy retorts that its total purchases of oil in the Persian Gulf region amounted to less than the profit which Mr. Moffett asserted the companies received. And Senator Brewster, chairman of the committee, links the whole subject to the proposed plan for American aid to countries in the Near East.

The miasma of suspicion which clings to petroleum dealings is a not unnatural product of a number of unsavory episodes in the history of the petroleum industry—including Teapot Dome, of unhalloved memory. It also results, in a distorted fashion, from the fundamental importance of oil in the modern economy, an importance which makes the substance a real or potential irritant in relations among nations. But while these elements in the petroleum problem justify close public scrutiny of any national oil policy, including the activities of private companies operating in areas involving national security, they do not warrant the sort of sanctimonious approach which would regard any suspicion concerning petroleum as intrinsically wrong. In other words, it is time that the American people shut their complex about oil and begin to face the facts. Oil is a legitimate concern of any modern state. It is also a matter of world interest. It would be greatly to the advantage of the world at large if an international policy could be worked out covering the exploitation, development, oil resources. Such a policy can be credited to the United States, and it is not necessary to see the program as well as the oil itself, but the national policy for the oil industry, and its products, must be quite openly and frankly developed in oil policies in any a policy which will be justified and supported by the American people.

If this involves special attention to particular regions, such as the Near East, let that fact be stated clearly. If it poses problems in respect to other states, if there is any connection between the Turkish military budget, for example, and the American concessions in Saudi Arabia, let that, too, stand on the record. The search for oil, the exploitation of petroleum resources, can produce evils. Let them be discussed officially and authoritatively, and measures taken to guard against them. But the lack of oil can be disastrous, and it is obscure that state that under an attitude of hostile racial disparagement is dangerous folly.

Inside WASHINGTON

Vandenberg Goal Remains | Lewis to Continue Demand
State Post, Friends' Insist | For Uniform Safety Code.

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Friends of Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg (R), Michigan, are convinced he means to when he says he does not seek the 1948 GOP presidential nomination.

They say that Vandenberg still has his sights set on being secretary of state in a Republican administration—and that he regards this as his highest ambition in public service.

Big Van is reported authoritatively to believe that he would be too old to run for the presidency next year when he will be 63—a year younger than President Truman.

He is said to be strongly of the opinion that his role as elder statesman would best be climaxed in the senior cabinet post.

Vandenberg's voice as chairman of the foreign relations committee now is the voice of the Republican majority on international affairs. He speaks with the authority of the party on Capitol Hill.

The Michigan soloist is said to be willing to become secretary of state under any successful Republican nominee—including Minnesota's Harold E. Stassen.

That, of course, includes the possibility that either Tom Dewey or Bob Taft, the GOP domestic policy boss, wins the nomination and the election.

THE EMPHASIS ON MINE SAFETY as dramatized by the "memorial" work stoppage of soft coal miners will continue in John L. Lewis' negotiations with bituminous operators.

Lewis is certain to demand a uniform national safety code—contained in the United Mine Workers' contract with the government—in any agreement with the private operators.

During his appearance before the House labor committee after the Centralia disaster, Lewis asked for speedy legislation requiring federal mine inspectors to close pits they find violating safety standards.

As Lewis talked came the announcement that Secretary of Interior Julius A. Krug had ordered 518 soft coal mines closed as "dangerous."

The code was a major stumbling block in the negotiations which collapsed a year ago and led to federal seizure of the mines. Lewis will be more insistent than ever on the matter now, in view of the recent Illinois disaster.

The mine safety issue also will figure heavily in Lewis' demand that the private operators accept the government-approved health and welfare fund for miners.

Anthracite operators agreed to the welfare fund, but soft coal miners have not assented. The five-cents-a-ton royalty on bituminous coal for a welfare fund exists only by reason of the government-UMW contract which expires June 30.

THE DRIVE AGAINST COMMUNISTS in the United States is in full swing, with the House un-American activities committee determined to throw the national spotlight on American Reds. The Communist party probably won't be outlawed, but the committee will have no stone unturned in its efforts to expose the Reds to the American public.

The committee plans to make public a series of reports on Communist infiltration into almost every level of American life. It also plans to conduct additional hearings on the activities of leading Red agents in the United States.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R) New Jersey, says that two cases similar to the Gerhardt Kistler case will be aired in the near future. The hearings undoubtedly will bring out details of the work of Russian-trained saboteur specialists who are roaming the country.

SANFORD FORUM

April 10, 1947

Mr. R. L. Dean, Editor
Sanford Herald
Sanford, Florida

I have just received a copy of The Sanford Herald, April 4, featuring the story of the action of the Board of Trustees concerning Principal Morris of the Seminole High School. The utter stupidity of the situation amazes me.

As you may know, I was born and raised in Sanford and have made my faltering way through each and every one of its five public schools. In looking back over this period I feel that no other personality has contributed quite so much to my guidance in the ways of good citizenship and fair play as that of Herman Morris. My only regret is that I had him for Principal only one year.

I trust that by this time the students and citizens of Sanford have succeeded in rectifying this ruling.

Sincerely,

Rheumatic Fever

By W. V. BITTING

Townsend Drug Co.

Rheumatic Fever is a disease that usually strikes children or young people; it is characterized by pain in the joints, and may be accompanied by a fever.

Serious cases will demand the physician's care—but it is the slight attacks that often mislead medical attention. Yet it is these less serious cases that often produce heart disease in later life.

When your child complains of pains in the legs or arms, however slight, let the physician check him or her for rheumatic fever.

Let medication compounded of fresh effective drugs be supplied by a trusted druggist.

Southern Bell's Position On The Union Shop
Company Will Not Compel An Employee To Become A Member Of Any Union As A Condition Of Employment
Many of our Employees and Members of the General Public have asked what the Company's Position is in regard to the Union Shop. For their information we make the following statement:
Since its formation in 1879 the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company has operated on the Open Shop Basis.
In our recent bargaining sessions with Representatives of the Southern Federation of Telephone Workers a demand for a Union Shop was made. We fully discussed and bargained on this matter with those Representatives but informed them of the Company's unwillingness to make membership or lack of membership in any Labor Union a condition of employment. We took the position with them and are still convinced that the services of an employee satisfactory to the company should not be terminated simply because that employee has incurred the disfavor of the Union. We also reminded the Union Representatives that the Union Shop is illegal under the laws of some of the States in which the company does business and is in conflict with an existing and binding agreement between the Union and the company.
On April 5 the Union informed Representatives of the United States conciliation service and the company that the Union Shop was being withdrawn by the Union as one of its strike issues. The Policy of the Company May Be Stated as Follows:
The Company will not compel an employee to become a member of any union as a condition of employment.

The group ensembles were colorful and springlike with the pastel shades of the girls' gowns. The program opened with the lively "Country Gardens" and Gerwin's "Strike Up The Band" by the Ninth Grade Chorus.

A negro spiritual, "It's Gwine To Sing In De Heavenly Choir," was sung by a girls' quartette of well-balanced voices: Anita Aiken, Peggy Pippin, Mona Ruth Mills and Helen Slaughter.

Seven solos followed: "Invictus" by Huston Babcock; "Carmen" by Nancy Williams; "The Rainbow Trail" by Harold Kastner; "A Brown Bird Singing" by Mary Alice Herndon; "Kashmiri Song" by Nollie Trapp; "Take Joy Home" by Anita Aiken and "The Open Road" by Spencer Harden.

Applause was generous for these talented soloists. "Oh What a Beautiful Mornin'," hit song of "Oklahoma," also "I Got Shoes" was sung by a double male quartette: Bobby Pullin, Leonard Rudd, Nollie Trapp, Harold Kastner, Jan Jenkinson, Clarence Grantham, Huston Babcock and Spencer Harden.

The girls' glee club then sang Fred Waring's arrangement of "Now The Day Is Over," with solo by Delores McLellan, "Mah Lindy Lou," Cole Porter's popular "Begin the Beguine" and "Dream Boat." Miss Moran's solo followed.

Numbers by the boys' glee club were: "March of the Grenadiers," "King Jems Is A-Listening," "Sing Me A Chanty" and a Russian song, "Dance, My Comrades."

Fred Waring's arrangement of "Onward Christian Soldiers" was sung by the mixed glee club. Other numbers were "Send Forth Thy Spirit," "Good News From Heaven," "Madame Jeantette" and "One World" by O'Hara which with its appeal for world peace was a brilliant presentation. The program closed with the Alma Mater.

Glee Club officers are: Harold Kastner, president; Myra Southward, vice-president; Helen Slaughter, secretary and treasurer; Peggy Pippin, librarian and Huston Babcock and Clarence Grantham, business managers.

Sanford Celery Feds And Orlando Senators Will Meet Here Tomorrow

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

Tomorrow night at the Municipal Ball Park the lid will be blown off the 1947 Florida State League baseball season with the Orlando Senators invading the local field to meet the Sanford Celery Feds in the opening day festivities. The game will get under way at 8:00 o'clock.

Pre-game activities include a parade of Sanford and Orlando baseball fans, the teams in their respective busses and automobile dealers driving models of cars they have for sale.

The parade is slated to start at 6:00 o'clock in the downtown area and end its way to the park in time for the teams to be on the field at 6:30 o'clock. The two teams will gather on the field with Mayor H. James Gut of Sanford and Mayor William Beardall of Orlando.

Mayor Gut will take his position on the mound with Mayor Beardall behind the plate, at which time Mayor Gut will throw the first ball of the season and Mayor Beardall will attempt to catch the pitch.

Manager Buddy Lake stated this morning that either Charlie Dison or Hal Stewart will open on the bill for the Celery Feds tomorrow night. The other positions on the team will be worked out after the workout today, Lake asserted.

Goose Kettles will face the Senators in Orlando Wednesday night.

Jim Spencer Cops Club Championship

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

According to the Associated Press a smiling, completely genial Larry MacPhail held a news conference yesterday, White House style, to talk about the Durocher case.

The freckle-skinned president of the New York Yankees met a band of New York newsmen in his Fifth Avenue office and consented to answer questions, all of which had to be written out about his part in the ruling by Commissioner Chandler, which suspended Leo Durocher for one year.

Although Chandler had ordered all parties in the matter to keep silent about it, the Yankees boss unctuously pointed out that he had scheduled the conference before the Commissioner made his ruling. He then stated that it was the policy of the Yankee club to release to the press and public any factual information about the team.

Among other things, MacPhail made known an exchange of correspondence between him and Chandler, which established that coach Charlie Dressen of the Yankees had not been put on the reserve list of the Brooklyn Dodgers last Fall. That established Dressen as a free agent, but he was suspended for 30 days by Chandler for giving broken as so-called oral agreement to stay with Brooklyn.

Despite this, MacPhail said that the Yankees had no immediate plans to appeal Dressen's suspension and said that it was a matter between Charlie and the Commissioner.

Owing gentility, like a newly-crowned heavyweight champion, MacPhail laughed when asked if there had been an argument between him and Durocher at any time.

He was shown a quote by Durocher of last Fall calling him one of the greatest men that he, Durocher, knew.

Said laughter, Larry: "I recip-

The Clubhouse

By FRANK ECK AP Newfeatures Sports Editor MIAMI, Fla.—It used to be "Bet on Bradley" at Kentucky Derby time but now that the colonel has gone to greener pastures the slogan is getting to be "Bet on Plain Ben."

Plain Ben is Ben A. Jones, general manager of Warren Wright's vast Calumet Farm at Lexington, Ky. Jones has his heart set on winning another Derby that come May 3—Derby Day at Churchill Downs—Ben Jones will be listed as the trainer of two Calumet horses, Faultless and Fervent. His son Horace A. (Jimmy) Jones has been training these horses but Ben is taking over from here on in.

If he wins it he will tie the record held by H. J. (Dick) Thompson, who trained Brokers Tip, Burgoon King, Bubbling Over and Heave Yourself for the late Col. E. R. Bradley.

Ben's three previous Derby winners were Herbert M. Woolf's Lawrin in 1938, and Calumet's Whirlaway in '41 and Pennic in '44.

"Faultless and Fervent are very even as to class," said Ben Jones, and he made ready to ship 43 Calumet horses north. Jimmy was to take 21 to Baltimore with his dad taking the other 22 to Kentucky.

"Last fall I thought Fervent was the best of the pair but Faultless has come along so well that I'd say they are about even. Both are training well and I hope they'll be ready. The Derby is a wide open race this year," said Ben.

Fervent won $35,310 last fall, taking four races in eight starts and finishing second once. The chestnut colt by Glenheim 2nd dam Faultless, a brown colt by Bull Hug again took the measure of Faultless by a head in the Walden Stakes at Pimlico last November. Lea-Unerring, started four times this winter and was beaten only once. His big win was the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Park.

In 1946 Faultless won $10,940 as a 2-year-old, showing two victories, one second and a third in seven outings.

Lonnie Frey of Cincinnati has been in two World Series and has yet to get his first hit.

In 1932 Bucky Walters played third base for the Boston Braves. George Case has a lifetime stolen base record of 344 thefts.

Robert Zittrower Wins Race Trophy

Marvin Dunn and F. B. Earl of Orlando, and Joe Culley of Oviedo copped top honors in the motor boat events held on the St. Johns River yesterday afternoon.

Dunn captured honors in the in-board event, Earl took first place in the free for all event for outboards and the outboard runabout race was won by Culley.

Robert Zittrower was awarded the Sanford Outboard trophy which has to be won three times to become permanent property of the winner.

In the free for all event, Earl and Westbrook were rated best, but Westbrook's motor went out on him on the turn and before he could get his motor started he had been lapped.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary and the Sanford Outboard Assn. sponsored the meet and announced that they plan to make the event an annual affair.

Sales Tax Bill Sent To Legislature

Measure Would Levy 3 Per Cent Rate On Commodities, Including Rentals

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 15—A general sales tax hit the hopper in the Florida Legislature today.

Senator Shands of Gainesville introduced the measure to levy a 3 percent sales tax on nearly all commodities, including real estate sales, rentals and amusements.

Shands estimated the sales tax would bring in $40,000,000 to $100,000,000 a year. He would earmark the money for public schools, college construction and welfare.

At the same time, Senator Shands introduced another measure hiking chain department store license taxes. Under this proposal, the department store levy would begin at $15 and go to $2,400 for stores in a large chain.

Collections from the increased department store tax would go for public schools.

A bill which would appropriate $2,500,000 for a South Florida state hospital was introduced in the House today by Rep. Moore of Highlands and Rep. Taylor of Hardee.

The institution would be established in Highlands county on a tract already turned over to the State. It would be a branch of the State Hospital for the Insane at Chattahoochee.

Meanwhile the Legislature focused attention on an omnibus education bill containing most of the recommendations of the Citizens Education Committee.

The far-reaching measure would increase public school expenditures by about $18,000,000. It provides for extension of the school system to kindergartens and junior colleges and for a reorganization of the school boards. All local school districts would be consolidated at each county.

The House Education Committee gave the bill unanimous approval last night and the next step is debate on the floor of the Legislature. But clerical details may delay appearance of the bill until tomorrow.

Queen Elizabeth 85,000 Ton Liner Aground On Bar

LONDON, Apr. 15—A British news agency said that tug-pulled the massive liner Queen Elizabeth from the sandbar where she ran aground yesterday. The Queen, prize of Britain's warship sales, had been stuck on the sandbar outside Southampton Harbor for 24 hours.

BOUTHAMPTON, England, Apr. 15—The largest ocean liner in the world, the 85,000 ton Queen Elizabeth, is hard aground today off the entrance to the British port of Southampton and some harbor authorities have expressed fear it may be June before the giant liner can be refloated. The Queen ran into a mudbank yesterday in a dense fog as she was making port.

All efforts to refloat her so far have proved fruitless. Another attempt is expected to be made at high tide but one tug master at Southampton said he believed it would be at least three days before the Queen Elizabeth could be moved. He said nothing could be done until the vessel's tanks were emptied, her 2,400 passengers, and all luggage, taken off.

Still another Southampton harbor man said it was possible Queen Elizabeth is bound to sink deeper. Plans have been made to remove first class passengers by tender today, with cabin or tourist class passengers, to be removed later.

Czechs Condemn Head Of Nazi Puppet State

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia, Apr. 15—The president of the Nazi puppet state of Slovakia, Dr. Jozef Tiso, was sentenced today to die on the gallows. He was charged with committing crimes against the state. The verdict was handed down by a special Czech national court.

Tiso was known before the war as a distinguished Roman Catholic leader. He was charged with 111 counts in a 218-page indictment. Any one of these counts could have brought the death penalty.

Lewis Issues A New Warning

Sanford Baseball Association Is $5,300 In Debt

The Sanford Baseball Association is $5,300 in debt as the season opens tonight, it was revealed at the board of directors meeting last night by John Krider, vice president of the organization.

Krider told those present that ticket sales for the coming season are below all expectations.

"The sales are below our expectations for two seasons. Most people thought that the Association had a sizeable reserve left from last year. Another reason for poor ticket sales is that there are not enough workers aiding in the drive," Krider asserted.

"After paying all obligations for the 1946 season, including $900 for income tax and the $1,125 guarantee fund for the 1947 season the club had $2,300 in the bank. Before the season opened

General Clay Raps German Leaders For Food Crisis Actions

STUTTGART, Germany, Apr. 15—German leaders in the American zone of occupation took sharp rebuke today from General Lucius Clay, the United States commander. Clay denounced German methods of handling their own food crisis. He said riots, strikes and disturbances over the lack of food only hurt the Germans themselves.

Clay addressed the German leaders upon his return from Moscow foreign ministers' conference. About that meeting, he warned the Germans that they must not expect too much. Clay pointed out that the problems of a peace treaty for Germany are complicated and difficult, and that they cannot be solved in a few weeks.

"The American general declared that solving the food problem is up to Germany. He said the Germans have failed to collect all possible production from their own farms. He warned that the United States and Britain can not be expected to continue importing food to Germany unless all possible German output is made available.

Eisler Released By Federal Government

NEW YORK, Apr. 15—The federal government in a surprise move today released Gerhard Eisler from custody under a presidential warrant. This makes it possible for Eisler, the man described as "the No. 1 Communist in this country," to obtain his freedom in ball of $25,000 later today.

Eisler was to be arraigned later today under two indictments filed by a Washington grand jury. One charged contact of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The other alleged that he falsified an application for an alien departure permit in 1945.

United States Attorney John P. X. McGhee explained that he had been authorized by the United States attorney general to release Eisler.

Deadline For Strike Offer Is 5:00 P.M.

Labor Secretary To Make Two Broadcasts Tonight On New Developments

WASHINGTON, Apr. 15—Labor Secretary Schwellenbach today called for a quick acceptance of his formula for settling the nationwide telephone strike and arranged a broadcast for tonight to tell the public the latest news on the strike situation. He will speak over one network, ABC, at 9:30 P. M. and over another, MBS, at 10:15 P. M.

By 5 o'clock this evening, Labor Secretary Lewis Schwellenbach hoped to have an answer to his plan for ending the nationwide telephone strike Thursday. The secretary set that deadline for a reply from the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the striking federation of telephone workers. Officials of both groups have indicated their hopes of having an answer ready by that time.

Schwellenbach has proposed that the two sides in the dispute turn over to arbitrators the issues involved in the union demand for a $12 weekly pay boost. Other issues would be negotiated until 5 o'clock Thursday evening, when the strike would be ended, and presumably, three after that settlement was reached by then.

Allied Reports Reveal Greece Dominated By Communist Group

ATHENS, Apr. 15—Associated Press correspondent L. S. Chankley disclosed confidential allied reports today on the Balkan situation after a tour of northern Greece, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia with the United Nations Commission on Balkan border problems.

Confidential allied reports revealed that a super administration of the Balkans decides territorial questions, supervises military operations across the Greek border and directs political thought in Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania.

The reports declare that the organization is composed of Moscow-trained men and women. It receives orders from Moscow and carries out its agreements. The agreements are said to have been drawn up at three meetings at Prague in October, 1945, February, 1946, and April, 1946.

The reports say the Prague meetings were held on orders from the Moscow Politburo to enlighten the Moscow Politburo on the situation in the Balkans.

Arms Reduction Meet Delayed Third Time

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Apr. 15—The five major powers today announced the third postponement of their initial meeting to discuss negotiations for world-wide arms reduction. There was no official explanation of the continued delays.

However, some representatives of the Big Five are said to be none too enthusiastic about tackling the problem handed them last Wednesday by the United Nations commission for convention armaments. The five-nation sub-committee, composed of Britain, France, China, Russia and the United States, originally planned to meet last Friday, but the session was put off until today.

Relief Pouring Into Tornado Hit Towns

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Relief for the tornado-razed towns of Higgins and Glasper resumed Monday today, after indications that illness from exposure and contaminated water is spreading in the two small Panhandle communities.

The towns virtually were wiped out in a tornado last Wednesday night, which claimed 85 lives in Texas, before sweeping into Oklahoma to claim 94 more lives in the city of Woodward alone.

Globe Circling Flight Expected To End Tonight

SEATTLE, Apr. 15—Northwest Airlines' flight control office in Anchorage, Alaska, said manufacturer Milton Reynolds took off from Adak in the Aleutians, at 7:24 A. M. today. The control office said the Bombshell's destination is unknown, and the air line interpreted this as meaning either the flight would be to Edmonton, Alberta, or, possibly, direct to New York.

Reynolds telephoned to his Seattle agent, Frank Lamb, from Adak shortly before taking off and said he expected to be in New York about 8:00 o'clock tonight. Lamb and Reynolds told him the plane turned back to Adak because it was running out of headwinds and its fuel was running low.

The Chicago industrialist telephoned his wife at her New York hotel before talking to Lamb.

The converted Douglas A-26 attack bomber returned to Adak while enroute from Yokota Army Airfield, in Japan, to Alaska. The pilot, Captain William Odum of Roslyn, N. Y., had said in Japan that he planned to stop either at Fairbanks or Anchorage, Alaska.

The trip began from La Guardia Field, N. Y., last Saturday.

The present world-circling flight record of 91 hours and 14 minutes was set in 1938 by Howard Hughes. If Reynolds arrives in New York at 8:00 P. M. He will have made the trip in 74 hours and 49 minutes, which would be a new unofficial record.
