American And French Forces Retake Wonju; Reds Counter-attack

Chinese Attempt At Outflanking U. N. Lines Is Repelled In Savage Battle

TOKYO, Jan. 10.—(AP)—A small tanked American and French force fought through a crust of Red Koreans today into the key road-rail center of Wonju. The allies found the town empty. Allied intelligence said, however, the Reds have 200 tanks and 500 Chinese planes poised farther north for a big push into the heart of South Korea. It said the Communists have massed a force of possibly 280,000 troops for a new offensive.

The Allies had abandoned Wonju to the Reds only Monday after two days of fighting for the gateway town to South Korea's interior. Fighting swirled in new fallen snow throughout the Wonju area. Centurion obscured the shaly details but permitted disclosure in a field dispatch that the U. S. Second Division supported by French units was attacking strong enemy forces in the area.

A brief A. P. field dispatch from the Second Division front indicated the Korean Reds had counter-attacked in force. Timed at 10:43 P. M. Wednesday, it said that an attempt to outflank U. N. forces was beaten back. The high point of the enemy attack came at 3 P. M. the dispatch said. The Allied artillery barrage was stepped up greatly but bad weather held off air support for the second day.

Suspected Bank Bandit Is Caught In Daytona Beach

MIAMI, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The FBI today announced the arrest of a man in Daytona Beach, in connection with the $21,000 robbery of a Belleville, N. J., bank Monday night.

Ed Mason, special agent in charge of the Miami FBI office, said Paul Jurjia, 28, of Motley, N. J., was arrested by FBI agents, sheriff, deputies and local police last night.

Mason said a girl friend, identified as Marion Goodford, a former bank employee, had been arrested in Belleville, N. J. The FBI said the DuWitt Savings and Loan Association at 330 Washington Avenue, Belleville, N. J., was entered Monday night and that later that night Jurjia flew to Daytona Beach. Agents found $2,240 in Miss Goodford's home there, Mason said, and recovered all but about $2,000 of the money when they nabbed Jurjia.

"There was money all over the place, in a bureau drawer, in a brief case under the bed," Mason said, adding that Jurjia said he didn't know where all the money came from.

British Want Reds To Help Write Jap Treaty

LONDON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—British Commonwealth of Nations has moved that Communist China be suspended from the group. The move was made at a meeting of the group's foreign ministers in London today.

Cramer Appointed Co. Home Head By Commissioners

New Superintendent Has Been With Road Department 6 Years

The County Commission this morning appointed Harry Cramer, 38, of Longwood, as superintendent of the County Home and Mr. Cramer as patron.

The appointment was made, according to members of the Commission, in recognition of Mr. Cramer's six years of capable and faithful service as a member of the County Road Department in which he was formerly superintendent of road and bridge construction.

He served for a year and a half as acting superintendent of the road work prior to the appointment of H. B. Gray. Of late Mr. Cramer has been in charge of drag line work, but has been finding it too heavy to handle, he pointed out to the Commission.

The vacancy was created at the County Home by the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ballew as superintendent and patron, respectively. During the interval of a month following the resignation, Mrs. Edith Colbert has been serving as acting superintendent. Mr. W. W. Lutz, who has been a resident of Longwood since Cramer came originally from northwestern Florida.

R. F. Cooper, chairman of a committee of the Seminole County Farm Bureau that includes Ugras, Malaga and W. W. Lutz, asked the Commission to investigate the possibility of building a farm to market road designed to shorten the distance between Sanford and Ovidio by at least three miles.

Mr. Cooper pointed out that State Senator L. F. Boyle and Representative M. E. Smith had been working with the state on the project which would include a fill over Lake Jessup from South Sanford Avenue to join the Tuscawilla Road.

Senator Boyle replied that the State at present has designated the project as secondary, which would mean that it would have to be built by Seminole County. Since the cost of such construction by the County would be prohibitive, he stated, it must be designated as a primary road which carries state wide traffic.

Mr. Boyle added that he would try to have the project designated as primary during his coming trip to Tallahassee, and added that the State had already designated it as a farm to market road.

Mr. Cooper said that the Farm Bureau has highly commended the Commission for the splendid road work completed by the County during the past year.

McGough Purchases Local Paint Store

Howard McGough, former Kentucky painter and glass dealer, purchased the Sanford Paint and Glass Co., from Fletcher Bolls on Jan. 3 and is now operating the business.

Assisting in the operation of the store, which is located at 117 Park Avenue are J. P. Thurmond, salesman and bookkeeper and A. B. McRaney, who is in charge of the glass and window department.

Mr. McGough operated a paint store in Princeton, Ky., a town of about 8,000 following his discharge from the Navy five years ago. He saw service in the Aleutian and Far East during the war, and is a member of the American Legion on the V. P. W. Post at Sanford, and the Methodist Church.

A. W. Johnston of Ocala, Ky., his father-in-law, purchased the Bolls home at 1431 Valencia Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. McGough are living with their parents.

Acheson Declares He Is Willing To Confer With Taft

Failure To Act On Korea Won't Kill UN. Secretary Asserts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today he would be glad to talk with Senator Taft, or any other member of what he called the minority party, on foreign policy matters.

Answering questions at a news conference, Acheson also told reporters he thought failure of the United Nations to solve the problem of the Korean crisis would naturally diminish its prestige and power. But he characterized as an overstatement a suggestion that a U. N. failure to take strong action now would wreck the organization.

Taft, Republican Policy Chairman chief in the Senate, has been carrying on a continuous criticism of the Administration's foreign policy.

At the same time, a number of Senate Democrats rallied to the Administration's support in its plan to help Western Europe man its defenses against possible Soviet aggression.

Most of the questioning at Acheson's brief (15 minutes) news conference concerned Taft and his views.

On another subject, however, Acheson said that the United States is consulting with Britain and France on a new note to Russia about a Big Four meeting of foreign ministers. He said no differences of views have developed among the three Western powers and that a note will go out to Moscow very soon.

Taft said in a speech at the National Press Club yesterday that he was ready to sit down with President Truman or "any" body else on the majority side and work out a domestic and foreign program that would command national support.

Acheson was asked about Taft's offer. He said that where domestic or military policies were concerned the matter was out of his field and would be up to President Truman and Secretary of Defense Marshall.

With respect to foreign policy Acheson commented that he and his associates have been discussing foreign policy with the people selected by the minority for that purpose. In the Senate, he went on to say, the men who constitute the official channel for discussion are the members of the foreign relations committee.

But Acheson said that he has often talked with other members of the minority party outside the foreign relations group and that he is always willing and glad to do so.

63 Cities Do Not Get Cigarette Revenues

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Comptroller C. M. Day is holding up cigarette tax distributions to 63 municipalities because they have not reported property tax reductions.

The receipts being held up are those for November, the first month of the new tax distribution year.

Day said most of the municipalities which have not reported they reduced property taxes by 50 percent of the amount of cigarette taxes they received last year are small.

Among the larger of those not reporting are St. Augustine, Panama City and Jacksonville Beach. The cigarette tax distribution law requires the Comptroller to hold up receipts of municipalities which do not report property tax reductions.

Day said the November receipts will be released as soon as the municipalities file their reports.

Lewis Asserts Wage Controls Are Not Needed

Coal Production Can Be Up 50% Without Federal Fiat, Mine Leader Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—John L. Lewis told the Wage Stabilization Board today the nation's miners oppose any wage freeze. He said the economy could be stabilized through normal collective bargaining.

The United Mine Workers' chief, first of the top labor and industry leaders to appear before the wage board, said the miners oppose "putting the American economy in irons."

Lewis also called for immediate repeal of the 1945 War Relocation Act, which he said would "freeze" the workers, as he put it, so they could get on with bargaining. Lewis told a news conference following his session with the wage board that a 25 percent increase in production was possible "without government fiat."

"We hold that a freeze is not necessary, that stabilization can be achieved without it."

As for coal, Lewis said his mine could produce another 100,000 tons or 200,000 tons, and double "if the country needs it."

"It is available—load it away—that's what free men will do," Lewis said.

The 1950 production was approximately 200,000,000 tons, Lewis wound up his news conference by saying:

"We say the free market should be taken from the hands of our workers" and explained he meant the Taft-Hartley act.

He said Chairman Curtis C. Kling of the Wage Board had not asked him to give a "no strike" pledge which most labor leaders, including Lewis, gave in World War II.

Spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) also were called before the wage board today.

Man Is Drowned In Explosion Of Pleasure Cruiser

POMPANO BEACH, Jan. 10.—(AP)—One man was drowned and four others rescued today when the 32-foot cabin cruiser Ben Goll exploded and burned in the intracoastal waterway south of Hillsboro Inlet.

The men were employed by George Schroeder, Pompano Beach gravel truck operator, and were starting out for a day's fishing when the accident occurred.

The dead man was identified as Donald Hammond, 35, of Fort Lauderdale. He came to Florida last May from Newcastle, Pa., with his wife and son.

Saved were Schroeder, Larry Williams, Fort Lauderdale, 32, and Harold Harrison, Pompano Beach, and J. Hall, Deerfield Beach.

Police said Schroeder rented the boat from George Rabe of Hillsboro shores, and the explosion apparently was caused by gasoline in the bilge.

Taxi Driver Chases Gunmen Into Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Charles Schuman, taxi driver, outwitted two gunmen today. Then chased them right into a police station.

Schuman, 48, said the men pulled guns after he'd driven them $20 worth yesterday. Instead of forking over his money, he jumped from his car and blew a police whistle.

The men fled about 100 yards in hot pursuit through backyards and over fences, and until they pulled up short at Traval Precinct police station.

Jailed on suspicion of attempted robbery, the men gave their names as Arthur Hillman, 19, AWOL from the Navy, and James Bishop, 19, AWOL from the Army.

C. A. P. PICTURE
A motion picture depicting the beginning of the Civil Air Patrol during the days following Pearl Harbor and following its progress to date with the present cadet program, will be shown tonight at 8:00 o'clock to members of the C. A. P. at the Airport Hangar.

No cadet training program is on schedule tonight as the Sanford cadets will meet this week end in Orlando with Central Florida Squadron Cadets for last minute instruction for "Baran", the sea and air route program.

Sinclair Lewis Is Killed By Heart Attack In Italy

Novelist Was First American Writer To Win Nobel Prize

ROME, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Sinclair Lewis, intently realistic novelist of modern American life who brought American literature its first Nobel prize, died here today. He would have been 65 next Feb. 7.

The noted author of 21 books, most of them best sellers, died at the Villa Eletta Clivio, where he had been a patient with bronchial pneumonia since Dec. 31. Hospital attendants said he suffered also from an inflammation of the heart.

Creator of George Babbalanza, the typical American businessman of the 1920's, Lewis made literary history also with such scathing studies of American life as "Main Street," "Arrowsmith," "Elmer Gantry," "Dodsworth," "It Can't Happen Here" and "King of the Babel."

He was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1930, chiefly for Babbalanza. Four years before he had refused a Pulitzer Prize because he disagreed with the terms of Joseph Pulitzer's will setting up the prize.

His 21st book, "The God-Sekers," was published in 1949.

The famous author had been under treatment for some time, Friends said he realized his death was near and wanted to die in Italy, where he wrote "Babbalanza" and where he met his second wife, a columnist-commentator Dorothy Thompson.

After a visit to Italy in 1949, he returned to the United States, his friends said, to put his affairs in order. He returned here early this year and after a sojourn in Florida took an apartment in Rome with his secretary, Alexander Manson.

Associates disclosed that he had (Continued on Page Two)

Marshall Asks Bill To Allow Induction Of 18-Year-Olds For 27-Month Period

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Price Director Michael V. DeSalle said today the government has not yet decided whether to put price and rationing controls on meat.

He made the statement to newsmen after meeting with representatives of the meat industry. The industry objected to controls, contending they would "throw the meat industry into the hands of black marketers."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The Administration called today for the drafting of 18-year-olds and the levying of taxes still enough to balance the equally expanding budget.

Both are items of pressing and immediate interest to the 82nd Congress, now getting organized for lawmaking.

In addition, Secretary of State Acheson let it be known that he is willing to talk with Senator Taft of Ohio, or any other Republican, on foreign policy matters which have stirred a lobby making no debate in Congress.

The proposal for drafting youths of 18, for 27 months of service and combat duty if necessary, came from General George C. Marshall, Secretary of Defense.

He told a Senate Armed Services Subcommittee that a system of Universal Military Training and service by "the best way to meet our immediate need for enlarged combat forces and at the same time to provide an enduring base for our military strength."

Although the present Selective Service law requires all males register at the age of 18, they cannot be drafted before reaching 19, and then for a limit of 24 months.

Under Marshall's plan, the youths would serve 27 months and then be enrolled in the reserves for a specified period.

Gambler Is Killed In Washington Club

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—A gambler was shot and killed early today by another gambler in a private club while two policemen were visiting the place on a routine check.

The gunman was looked as Joseph Francis Neelke, 39, and his victim was identified as George F. Harding, 39. Police said both had police records dating back to their youth.

Police Lt. Karl McCormick, one of the policemen visiting the club at the time, said Neelke surrendered a pistol and quoted him as saying:

"I just had to do it."

McCormick gave this account of the shooting:

The two, sitting at different tables, had been exchanging bitter words for a couple of hours. Harding left the floor to go to an upstairs room. Neelke followed a few minutes later. The two met on the stairway. A few words were exchanged and then there was a shot.

Eisenhower Meets With Dutch On Tour Of Western Powers

THE HAGUE, IN NETHERLANDS, Jan. 10.—(AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived in Holland today for the third of a 10-day check-up on Western European contributions to his Atlantic Alliance army.

Eisenhower proceeded immediately from Schiphol Airport, near Amsterdam, to the Hague, seat of the Dutch government. He was greeted by H. S. Ambassador Selwin Chavin, General Hans Krulds, chairman of the Dutch Chiefs of Staff Committee, Vice-Admiral Jonkheer E. J. Van Holthe, Chief of the Navy Staff, and Lt. General I. A. Arer, Chief of the Air Force Staff.

A crowd of several hundred applauding Belgians shouting "good luck, Ike" greeted the General's departure earlier from Brussels, where he conferred with high political and military leaders.

An American officer there said "The results of the working session" have been excellent."

Earlier, Eisenhower was described as "reasonably well satisfied with his survey of defense prospects during his first two stops."

The General's arrival at The Hague had been preceded by the distribution of anti-Eisenhower leaflets, presumably the work of Communists.

Eisenhower is expected to delay conferences with Dutch leaders until tomorrow, to be followed by a news conference, after which he is scheduled to fly to Copenhagen, Denmark.

Faith is the chief ingredient of all healing; mental, moral and physical. If thou wilt thou canst make me clean.—Mk. 1:40.

Marriage Spurt

There were nearly 1,675,000 marriages in the United States in 1950, or 5 percent more than in 1949, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company reports.

"In the early months of 1950," the Metropolitan explains, "there was every indication that the decline in marriages would continue for the fourth successive year.

The rise in marriages in 1950 was fairly general throughout the country. Generally speaking, in the first 10 months of the year the largest increases were recorded in the Mountain (14.2 percent) and the East North Central States (10.8 percent).

Increases of only about 1 percent occurred in the West South Central and the Pacific States. Marriages in the East South Central States as a group actually fell below the number in 1949, but this is accounted for entirely by the sharp drop in Kentucky.

Although the marriage boom had already passed its peak in October, indications are that marriages still remained above their 1949 level in November and December," the Metropolitan observes.

"Despite the rise in marriages this year, the rate of 110 per 1,000 population, including the armed forces overseas, was the fourth lowest since 1939. The outlook is that the rate in the near future will fall to one of the lowest levels in our history."

THE WORLD TODAY

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The reluctance of the United Nations to condemn and punish Red China as an aggressor against Korea places the peace organization in the fateful position of the deceased league of nations in its relations to Japan in 1931.

It's only 19 years ago that Nippon, feeling her special position in Manchuria endangered by Chinese Nationalism, intervened militarily and established an independent state under the name of Manchukuo.

Naturally that was a terrific challenge to the authority of the league, which had been established to prevent just such use of force in settlement of disputes.

The question of sanctions immediately arose in the league. But then, as now in the case of the United Nations, the league could employ only such methods as the majority of its leading members supported.

There was a lot of vigorous talk about sanctions. But the major powers, which would have to enforce the sanctions, declined to take the chance of creating war with Japan.

So the league tried impractical investigation and conciliation. A special commission was sent to Manchuria and it reported back that Japan had been a very bad and was indeed an aggressor.

The commission decided that a restoration of the status quo in Manchuria wasn't desirable but it proposed a plan to preserve China's integrity while maintaining Japanese privileges in Manchuria.

That was a good trick if you could do it—and it was a good trick if you couldn't. But Japan refused any settlement which didn't recognize Manchuria's independence, and withdrew from the league.

There is a wide split between America and numerous other non-Communist members of the U. N. over the method of handling the Chinese Communist action in Korea.

The U. S. wants the U. N. first to brand the Peiping regime an aggressor, and with this as a basis to proceed to sanctions—economic, diplomatic or military.

Appropos of this American position, President Truman declared in his state of the Union message yesterday that Korea is a symbol which stands for right and justice in the world against aggression and slavery.

"The free world," he added, "must always stand for these principles—and we will stand with the free world." At another point the President said:

"Our men are fighting, alongside their United Nations Allies, because they know as we do that the aggression in Korea is part of the attempt of the Russian Communist dictatorship to take over the world, step by step."

Both European and Asiatic members of the U. N. have been studying the American idea warily and unhappily—France and Britain among them.

Britain has been taking refuge in the argument that the non-Communist countries can't label Communist China as an aggressor until the U. N. fails in its attempts to achieve a cease-fire.

The British Commonwealth, now Other important members of the U. N. are afraid of adopting the American program on the grounds that it may involve them in war with Red China.

One can understand those fears. For Russian-backed Communist China, with its millions of fighting men, is a formidable power.

That's the problem the U. N. is against. It's very life may depend on arrival at a correct solution, for this is a crucial issue, just as was the Manchurian affair of '31—only much bigger and more dangerous.

outlined the plot of a new book, to be titled "Courage," on the theme that courage is a commodity belonging to those who are afraid.

Beyond the outline, however, he had done no writing on the work, they said.

His condition became grave three days ago, his doctors said. His heart collapsed this morning.

Born in Sauk Center, Minn., on Feb. 7, 1885, Lewis after student days at Yale and a minor career on newspapers and magazines, became one of the great social historians among American novelists.

His books blasted the fables of "typically American" people and communities of the 1920's and 1930's with biting satire and down-to-earth realism.

Amid ever-stormy controversy, he left Main Street on the map and Babbitt into the language.

"Elmer Gantry," story of an evangelist with unministerial appetites, aroused a religious storm. Business men rallied at "Babbitt" and "Dodsworth."

Germany and Italy in the mid-1930's banned "It Can't Happen Here," a warning against Fascism in the United States.

Lewis was married twice. Both his first wife Grace Livingston Hegger, and Miss Thompson, divorced him.

Dear Mr. Dean: On behalf of the Seminole County Farm Bureau I wish to express our appreciation for the coverage of our meetings in your newspaper.

We are especially thankful for the services of your Mr. Willard Connelly who has been giving good accurate reports of our meetings.

We will, at times, reciprocate for you and Mr. Connelly's kindness with as much paid business as possible throughout the year.

With kindness regards and thanks I wish to remain Sincerely yours, Bonner L. Carter, Secretary, Seminole County Farm Bureau morning at four o'clock for her floor-cleaning job. George Godfrey, father of the family, works at night as a waiter.

The only hope left, said Mrs. Godfrey, lies in Dr. Ade T. Milhorat, who is giving his full time to the fight against the disease.

He is on the staff of the New York Hospital—Cornell Medical Center. Mrs. Godfrey said that Dr. Milhorat tries all the new treatments on Roy. When the $10-a-day hospital bill got to be too much, the doctor paid it himself.

Roy said: "Some of that stuff he gave me last time, I felt maybe the strength was coming back to my leg muscles. Then it faded away; it always does."

His mother said: "I'm pretty sure the doctor is going to strike some cure soon."

Plantation Estates

By BESS PATTERSON

On New Years Eve a party was held in the Plantation Room of the Club Diamond for about 40 people from Plantation Estates with Mrs. Amanda Hoffman as hostess. There was piano playing, singing and dancing. Mrs. Edwards furnished the revelers with hats, noise maker and confetti. At 12:30 a supper was served consisting of an turkey sandwich, potato salad, fish and coffee. There was much fun and merrymaking until 2 P.M. when the party broke up, some folks to go home to sleep and others to finish the party at various private homes.

There were many other small parties that night at the private homes, among them being at the home of Col. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Sepp on Angelus Road for a group of about 12 and another at the home of Mrs. Ann Demsey of Palmyr Drive for a similar group.

The Saturday night dance club and the gee club were both skipped Christmas week but were held this past week with a very fine attendance in spite of the very busy holiday season. Mrs. Lou Hoffman was hostess for the Saturday Night Dance Club on Jan. 6.

On Monday evening a New Year's Day dinner and Card Party was held in a private dining room at the Mayfair Inn in Sanford for a group of about 30 people. Dr. Harry Whitaker was host. A delicious dinner of shrimp, cocktail, mushroom soup, turkey or roast beef, water, cream salad, dessert and coffee was served. The table was a U shaped arrangement with gladioli center pieces. After dinner card tables were set up for Canasta playing and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the group.

They moved into their new home on Mr. and Mrs. Gustav King have Medina Road. Mrs. King has just retired from his position with the New York City department.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Seufert have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reif Frank Reif, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Scherf, all of Long Island, N. Y. They expect to stay for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Skinner of Naranja Road had an especially fine Christmas. Their children were able to bring gifts from Cleveland, Ohio to help them spend their first Christmas in their new Florida home on Plantation Estates. They are, Miss Georgiana Skinner, who is a teacher in the Cleveland High School, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilmore and their children, Charles and Ginny. Mr. Gilmore is associated with the Harris-Seibert Co. of Cleveland manufacturers of primitive pressed-steel desks.

Mrs. James Senton, owner-manager of the Montezuma Hotel informed us yesterday that the reason she is in Sanford is because she saw and read a Sanford Herald article about the city in Wisconsin. She had planned to come to Florida but like so many out-of-towners with their eye on the sun, she didn't know which part. However, she perused the pages of the paper and was pleased with the attractive pictures and descriptions, the diversified business apparent by the many ads. This is why Sanford is her home today.

It will be a few short weeks before another Mail-Away issue comes off the press and goes rolling off into the homes of people scattered from Maine to Washington State. And the people who will be reading may be living here or visiting here in the not too distant future.

Representing Sanford both editorially and pictorially, the Mail-Away issue will come to the attention of people who may never have heard of our city before, or in those cases where they may have heard, the impression may be vague and incomplete. Now they will be able to see the city made alive through the medium of a newspaper.

People like to read the ads in an out-of-town newspaper. Here is represented the city's business; lumber companies, men's stores, department stores, famous chain stores, loan companies, restaurants, real estate offices, are all represented and give the prospective visitor an "at home" feeling which otherwise would be lacking. This mid-winter Mail-Away issue in no small way has been and will continue to be one of the major sources from which our winter business flows.

While we're on the subject, it might be well to mention that now is the time for you to compile your list of people to whom you wish the special sent. However, you should do it now, for it usually goes something like Christmas shopping. Some people wait until it is too late. Reserve your copies early. You'll be glad you did and so will the people who receive them.

At The Movies
Yvonne De Carlo in the "Desert Hawk," An Arabian Nights affair that has been told probably a million times, each time adding only prettier girls, a more dashing squire, and a more intriguing heroine. Technicolor helps this along, however, and it should be pleasant enough to sit through, even though routine stuff.

Also playing is "Nancy Goes to Rio" with Ann Southern and Tom Powell. A flimsy story, but plenty of songs and eye appealing scenery. Enjoyable.

St. James' Panthers Slaughter Sanford Court Five 34 To 28

Clause Leads Celeryfeds With Thirteen As Panther Defense Handcuffs Local 5

By ED HARPER

Utilizing a leech-like zone defense and a flashy passing skill the St. James' Panthers easily defeated a sluggish and unimpaired Sanford five 34-28 at the Sanford High School Gym last night.

Sparked by short blocky George Georgopoulos, Coach Conlin's team gave the Celeryfeds a stinging lesson in the art of ball-handling and close-in defensive play.

In the first quarter the local five, unable to solve the Oklahoma system of the careful Panthers, was able to score only two points—both on foul shots by Covington and Hardin.

Georgopoulos—who dropped in 16 points for the visitors—checked loose repeatedly under the Celeryfed basket in the first quarter on a variation of the fast break.

Seemingly unable to find any spark of cohesion, the Celeryfed squad played like confirmed individuals ignoring each other wherever possible. Throughout the game shot after shot would miss the basket by as much as a foot in the team's worst showing so far this year.

As in previous games Clarence Clause was high scorer with 11 points, but he was not brilliant in doing it. Whit, Covington, and Hardin each scored five for the remainder of the Celeryfed markers as the frustrating system used by the cautious Panthers disrupted Sanford's timing, made them over-anxious and finally disgusted.

Smith took the tip off as the first quarter began and missed a 20-foot set shot as Hardin recovered the rebound nicely, and was fouled. Clause was short a good two feet on a conventional set shot from the left hand corner of the court with White leaping high to match the ball out of the hands of a St. James' player.

Covington got one on a foul for the only time in the game that Sanford took the lead. The Panthers short curly-headed guard Jim Hinky, sank a hook shot to make the score 2-1. Georgopoulos got two on a push shot and Hardin, fouled in the act of shooting, sank one of it free throws.

Georgopoulos again sank a field goal on pivot shot to push St. James in front 6-2. Clause in the most spectacular shot of the game, leaped high into the air, feet spread wide apart and lunged in two points on his favorite freak shot. Berry sank one for the Panthers as he was fouled making the score 8-4. Georgopoulos got one on foul and Clause sank a layup for two more. Again the St. James' guard looped in a foul making the score 10-7.

Hinky sliced through the foul circle for a jump layup as Clause and White follow with one a piece on free throws. In quick succession Clause dropped in two foul points to pull Sanford within two points of the Panthers.

But Georgopoulos quickly followed up with two one-handed push shots after Hinky had stolen the ball on the nearest piece of ball hawking of the game as the half ended with St. James leading 18-12.

The Celeryfeds caught fire in the third quarter scoring 11 points but only after St. James had widened their lead to 22-13 on two opening field goals. Hardin got two on a pivot shot and Clause looped in two free throws to pull up somewhat. But as always the Panther defense tightened and a free throw and one handed push shot by Berry made the score 22-13. White sank a beauty from the left hand corner, but Georgopoulos weaved between two flat-footed Sanford players for a lay-up to neutralize it.

White put one making the score 27-21 at the end of the third quarter. Berry, second highest St. James' scorer with 11 points, sank a foul shot as did Georgopoulos making the score 29-21 and the Panthers surged ahead. Hinky got two on a layup and Georgopoulos followed with an overhead hook making the score 33 to 23 as the Celeryfeds belatedly caught fire.

Hardin tipped in a field goal and Clause shot a neat set shot through the basket making the score 35-27. Clause and Hinky sank foul shots as the game ended 34-28.

In the Junior Varsity game, Sanford pulled within one point of the tall, ball-hawking Panthers at the end of the third quarter, but, unable to keep the rally alive, scoring only two points in the final period to lose 26-20.

Guards Chester Harper and George Hardin were high scorers for the Celeryfeds with six a piece. For the Panthers Bourke scored 88 to top the visitors.

Shuffleboard Tourney Scheduled Thursday

Sanford's shuffleboard team will play its first tournament of the season here Thursday night against Orange City at 8 P.M. L. C. Hughes announced today. A second tourney is scheduled with Deland on the local court at 2 P.M. Saturday.

A four man team has also been sent to Orlando to compete in the Men's Singles Division of the Central Florida Shuffleboard Tournament, Mr. Hughes said.

Junior High Five Meets Enterprise

Seminole Junior High School travels to Enterprise for its second basketball game of the year tonight, Coach H. P. Gordie said today.

The local five was beaten 30 to 15 in their first game against Deland, but the game was unequal in that their opponents were 9th graders.

Coach Gordie said his starting five would be as follows: Joe Hunt, Jr.; Hubert Balboni, g.; Larry Bates, f.; Charles Swann, f. and Homer Miller, g.

Sophomores Haywood Sullivan, Florida's great football pitcher, will be a catcher when the Gator baseballers take the field next spring.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

By ED HARPER

Last year's Dixie Conference champions have been having a rough time this season. Five defeats in the last five starts.

But the answer is not the obvious one—for Florida Southern has a good basketball team. But a small school cannot compete on equal terms with the power packed court aggregations of the University of Miami and the University of Florida without suffering almost certain defeat.

Last season the Moccasins triumphed on Howard College, Florida State University and Mercer University to win the Dixie Conference tournament at Tallahassee.

This year they stand a very good chance of repeating that victory in spite of their dismal early season record.

Coach Paul Holloman has moulded a fighting team out of the remnants of Florida Southern's 1948-50 five, but he has had to build from the bottom and only now is his team rounding into a cohesive unit.

Five regulars have returned from last year's championship team and they have given the eager but inexperienced Moccasins just the leaving needed so far to play good but inadequate basketball—only the smoothness which comes with continual play together has held them up and that precision is developing rapidly.

Defensive stand-out of the Moccasin five this season has been Basil "Rocky" Peng, co-captain and winner of the Dixie Conference Player of the Year award. Rocky in the fast, deceptive player who specializes in ball stealing and set-up plays for his teammates. No great scorer himself—his last year's game averaged only a shade over seven points. Rocky is superb at making openings which his fellow players can exploit.

Called the "Midget Moccasin" sometimes, the Florida Southern team doesn't quite live up to the name unless there are people who call six feet four peanut size. That's what Bill Valentine stands in his sock feet. He's the tallest man on the squad along with center Bill Whitman and was high scorer last season with 222 points. He and Rocky make up an ideal combination under the basket with the short, quick Rocky setting up the tall accurate Valentine.

But these two don't make up the team nor are the returning lettermen the whole show.

Freshman guard Fred Lappner, whose shooting style is reminiscent of Gene Robbins, is a comer at guard. He has been giving opponents trouble with an uncanny set-shot from the left hand side of the court all year.

And up from the B squad where he compiled a 14.5 points per game record is Bud Stone, senior whose hustle has given the varsity a dose of that indefinable quality called spirit.

All in all the Moccasins should be on the upgrade after meeting some of the toughest court fives in the state during the past months. Tough competition is the best possible seasoner—and the Moccasins have met some powerful teams.

Whether they can come back after such a heartrending succession of early season failures will be the question facing them when they meet Tampa tonight—in the state during the past months. A win would wipe the Moccasin slate clean.

Robinson Receives "Fighter Of Year" Award From Louis

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—(AP)—Welterweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson boasted another prize possession today—the Edward J. Neil Memorial Plaque.

Robinson was honored last night at the annual dinner of the New York Boxing Writers Association, receiving the award as the man who did the most for advancement of the sport during 1950. Joe Louis, an old friend of Robinson's, presented the plaque as some 300 guests looked on at the Waldorf Astoria.

The Award, presented annually since 1938, is in memory of Neil, Associated Press Boxing Writer who was killed while serving as a correspondent in the Spanish Civil War.

Robinson recently completed a European tour during which he won five fights.

Victorious in all 19 starts last year, Sugar Ray fought mostly middleweights and won the Pennsylvania version of the world middleweight title by defeating Robert Willmalls at charter crown for charity against Charlie Frazier. Robinson is slated to meet Jake LaMotta for the middleweight title at Chicago Feb. 14.

The James J. Walker Memorial Award for services in the sport over a period of years was presented to Wilbur Wood, sports editor of the now defunct New York Sun, by James A. Farley, former chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission.

Heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles received a championship belt and Ring Magazine's medal as "Fighter of the Year" from Ring editor Nat Fleischer. Charles won the Neil award last year.

Robinson, in receiving the plaque, paid tribute to his friend

Classy Amateurs To Represent US In Argentine Games

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 10—(AP)—The United States will be represented by a well conditioned, classy fighting crew in the Pan American games at Buenos Aires next month.

The eight boxers composing the U. S. team won their berths last night in national finals here.

Three champions are from the U. S. Army ranks, two from a good team representing the Philadelphia Police Athletic League, and one each from Kansas, San Francisco and the U. S. Air Force.

There were no knockouts in the finals and only one clearcut knockout in the entire show of two nights that featured the finest amateur talent in the nation.

Approximately 4,000 spectators saw last night's semifinal and final bouts.

Final results (winners receiving places on the U. S. team):

112 pounds: Gilmore Slater, U. S. Army, Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., outpointed George Davis, U. S. Army, Ft. George Meade.

118 pounds: New Donoghly, Kansas City, outpointed Henry Brown, Philadelphia.

126 pounds: Cortez Jackson, Philadelphia, outpointed Jimmy Hairston, Kansas City.

135 pounds: Willie Hunter, U. S. Army, Ft. Bragg, N. C., won by TKO over Alex Williams, Kansas City, 1:32, second round.

147 pounds: Louis Gage, San Francisco, won by TKO over Ray Gil, Camp Stoneman, Calif., 34 seconds, first round.

160 pounds: Harold Cules, U. S. Army, Ft. Dix, N. J., outpointed Willard Henry, Kansas City.

175 pounds: John Stewart, Hamilton, Pa., San Rafael, Calif., won by TKO over Al Williams, U. S. Army, Ft. Sheridan, Ill., 29 seconds, second round.

Heavyweight: Naval Lee, Washington, outpointed Bob Miller, Leavenworth, Kas. Lee fought as a member of the Philadelphia team.

and long-time idol, Louis, whom he referred to as his "inspiration."

Slowdown Court Game Criticized As Uninteresting

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—(AP)—Nat Holman added his voice to basketball's "should-we-freeze-out-the-freezers" controversy today by warning that slowdown teams may become subject to schedule boycotts.

"I don't know how feasible it would be to try to legislate against this uninteresting style of basketball," the dapper coach of CCNY's grand slam champions said. "I do know you can't sell that kind of show to the public."

"We must remember we are in the entertainment business as well as sports and that we have a definite responsibility to the fans."

"I feel that teams which insist on playing possession basketball may find it difficult to get a schedule. The big teams in cities may find them unprofitable."

Holman's 1950 tournament sensations have had their troubles this year with hold-the-ball adversaries, dropping decisions to Missouri, Oklahoma and Arizona, all slowdown teams, and to St. John's, which used the possession style to a degree.

In the last three of those games, however, CCNY was without the full services of its great pivot star, Ed Warner, who has a leg injury.

The University of Texas' Jack Gray, a member of the rules committee, predicted earlier this week that a rule may be made in the near future to limit the time a team may control the ball without making a shot at the basket.

Gray criticized Hank Iba's Oklahoma A. and M. team for its ball-control tactics and called the recent all-college tournament at Oklahoma City, won by the Aggies, "the dullest you ever saw."

He said, carried in an extreme, this kind of basketball would "kill the game in a year."

Iba, whose Oklahoma Aggies are second in the Associated Press national standings, was quick to defend his famous possession methods.

"When you compete against left teams," he said, "the only way you can beat them is ball control."

Holman said he felt the desire to win sometimes has to be subordinated to pleasing the public.

"You can't very well take the attitude that you've got to win at all costs and the public be damned," he CCNY coach added. "The public pays the freight."

Holman said at one time many coaches took the stand they wouldn't play a team using the zone defense because it made for dull, sleep-producing play.

"The fans want to see a lot of zip and dash and a lot of scoring," he declared. "If you didn't give them that they're liable to start tossing pennies on the floor."

Ed Hickey, who brought his St. Louis Hillbillies to town for a game with the Aggies, took a sort of neutral stand on the question.

"It's not that these teams are turning to the slowdown style of play," Hickey said. "The boys

Southeastern Conference Breaks Records With Race-Horse System

By STERLING SLAPPEY

ATLANTA, Jan. 10—(AP)—Southeastern Conference fast breaking basketball teams are fast breaking records.

The fast break system, which calls for quick relays down court to get the ball into scoring position, has broken eight records and tied a ninth so far this season.

Mississippi State is the major record setter. Coach Paul Gregory's team has either set or helped set five marks.

Mississippi State's 103 points against Mississippi College Monday night in a 103-82 victory are the most ever scored by a Southeastern team. State's 49 field goals also are tops.

The most points scored before state's cutoff were 101 by Louisiana State over Camp Livingston in 1948. L. S. U. sank 46 field goals in that 101-50 game, but state moved that record off the books also.

Mississippi College sank 21 field goals against State, making the game total 70. The old record for a non-conference game was 66 in the L. S. U.-Livingston meeting.

Mississippi State defeated L. S. U. 94-69 on Dec. 15, 1950, and the game total of 123 points topped the previous Southeastern Conference game mark of 169 when Kentucky defeated Georgia Tech last year 97-62.

The 163 points for State and L. S. U. are tops for a SEC game, but even that figure has been topped in an out-of-league game.

North Carolina State defeated Tulane in the Dixie Tournament last month in Raleigh, N. C., 89-75 for a 164 total. The old non-conference mark was 160 by Tulane and Holy Cross in 1949. Tulane won 81-79.

The 38 field goals for state and 27 for L. S. U. last month set a new Southeastern game mark of 65. The old mark was 61 in the 1940 Kentucky-Tech game.

The 38 field goal for state and losing a 78-76 offensive battle to Southern California in December were the most ever scored by a losing SEC team against outside competition.

The Auburn-Tennessee game in Knoxville Monday tied a record in the fouling department. Auburn committed 30 fouls and had five men charged off the court. Alabama committed 30 fouls against Mississippi State and Florida committed 30 against Vanderbilt.

are just getting smarter. They don't just throw the ball at the basket any more. They wait and take a shot."

Blacklisted Teams May Get Chance To Clear Themselves

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Jan. 10—(AP)—Four schools may be removed from the National Collegiate Athletic Association black list today while the way has been opened for six others to possibly escape going on trial for violation of the sanity code governing financial aid to athletes.

The powerful 17-man NCAA Council, highest authority, except for the NCAA convention itself, holds its first meeting and one of its duties will be to determine if four unnamed schools, given until today to comply with the code, have done so. NCAA President Hugh Willitt explained that they had expressed hope of attaining compliance and if they now are found in that Category will not be brought before the convention Friday and Saturday.

He said the six other schools, also unnamed had expressed hope of compliance, but they will be subject to suspension by the convention.

Moccasins have met some powerful teams.

Whether they can come back after such a heartrending succession of early season failures will be the question facing them when they meet Tampa tonight—in the state during the past months. A win would wipe the Moccasin slate clean.

Son-In-Law's Advice Pays

Frank W. Woche, 531 Apache Street, Houston, Texas, can't say enough for HADACOL. A retired steamfitter and plumber, he says that he's really enjoying life these days—for up until a few months ago he was run-down and just couldn't seem to get. Then his son-in-law suggested he start taking HADACOL and after the first 30-day trial he picked up energy, and increased his appetite.

He's now taken four large bottles, and says that he just wouldn't be without HADACOL. Mr. Woche found that HADACOL helped his system to overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Nicotin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Woche's own statement: "I was so run-down and my son-in-law suggested I take HADACOL. I had lost lots of weight and was tired all the time. After the first small bottle I started feeling better and now I have now taken four more large bottles and wouldn't be without HADACOL. HADACOL has done so much for me. It's wonderful and all of my friends saw how bad I was looking and now tell me how much better I look. I can't say enough for HADACOL."

Administration

(Continued from page one) called for "extension and revision" of the draft law. Before today's hearing, Senator Bridges (R-MI) came out for a two or three year extension of the act, which is due to expire July 9. Some other law makers were talking in terms of a 10 to 20 year continuation of the law.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said President Truman is going to ask Congress this week to adopt a pay-as-you-go taxation policy. Giving a preview of Mr. Truman's economic message, due Friday, and his budget message, which will be presented next Monday, Snyder told a news conference.

The President is going to say that the taxes to protect revenues should be levied to balance the budget. Details of the President's program are expected in a special tax message before Feb. 1. Snyder declined to give any estimate of the amount of new taxes that will be needed, or the size of the 1952 budget. There have been guesses it would take as much as $20,000,000,000 more revenues to keep the Treasury's books in balance next year.

Before Snyder spoke out, there had been some talk on Capitol Hill that individual income taxpayers might get a year's "breather" from an additional load. "Snyder's remarks about his willingness to confer with Taft or other Republicans also came at a news conference. Taft, in a speech at the National Press Club yesterday, said he was ready to sit down with President Truman or anybody else on the majority side to work out a domestic and foreign program that would commend the nation's support.

Meanwhile, five Democratic Senators worked on speeches upholding Mr. Truman's program for strengthening Western Europe. Majority leader, McFarland, of Arizona, and Chairman Connally, Texas, of the Foreign Affairs Committee, were two of the five who started work on foreign policy speeches.

The others were: Senators Douglas (D), McMahon (Conn) and Fulbright (Ark). Douglas tentatively proposed that the Senate go on record as approving preliminary defense agreements made at the Brussels conference for setting up a 12-nation European defense force.

The President's right to commit U. S. troops to that force was challenged last Friday by Sen. Taft, of Ohio, the Senate GOP policy chief. Secretary of Defense Marshall was called before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee to brief the members of the Administration on the overall military manpower request.

In another military manpower session today, the House Armed Services Committee called upon the top civilian and military men of the Air Force for details on a bill to reorganize the youngest branch of the service. Air Secretary Finletter and Chief of Staff General Vandenberg want the tactical (troop supporting) branch of the Air Force put on the same command level with the strategic (heavy bomber) command.

Committee members said they would question the two officials.

Korean War

A tank-supported company of the Second Division swept into the town from the southeast after beating off fierce Red Korean counterblows.

A second column driving up from the south brushed off Red counterattacks mounted by six battalions and occupied the southern sector of hills looking down on the scorched town. This second division unit was only two miles from Wonju. There were no Reds in the city. A. P. correspondent William Barnard reported from the front.

The American-French assault teams launched their assault to retake Wonju in a swirling snowstorm Tuesday. They fought through a hail of enemy mortar and small arms fire. Wonju controls a web of roads leading into the heart of South Korea.

The attack by the Second Division veterans of the Nakdong and Chongchon River battles of last summer was the biggest United Nations offensive effort in days. "We are in contact with North Koreans now and we intend to give them hell," the Allied commander said as the attack started.

Correspondent Barnard said the battle scene was like a Christmas card picture. He added: "There was the soft white valley, majestic frosted mountains and a peaceful looking road, snow sifted down.

"But murderous enemy fire from foothills... Swept the valley and the road. The thunder of Allied artillery rolled continuously and echoed through the valley and around the peaks. "Small arms fire crackled inclose about the effectiveness of tactical air support in the Korean fighting. The bill in question would establish three other major Air Force commands: Continental Air, Air material and European support.

Meanwhile, Rep. Rankin, chairman of the House Veterans Committee, said today he plans to introduce a new servicemen's insurance bill before the house very soon. Quick approval of the fire insurance proposal is considered likely.

It would underwrite a $10,000 no-premium policy for all men and women who have entered the service since June 25, last year. It would abolish the present (World War II) National Service Life Insurance plan under which servicemen may insure their lives monthly premiums.

The proposed, automatic coverage plan would not affect any existing NSLI policy.

Anonymous Sniper Fires At Bus With Small Bore Rifle

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10 (AP)—An anonymous sniper shot cranking through the windows of a bus in suburban Roxborough last night and early today. No one was hurt.

There was no obvious indication that the marksman was the same man who has terrorized Oak Lane for two months. Oak Lane is some five miles north of Roxborough. But police did not rule out the possibility that the assailant of the buses was the so-called "Mad Sniper" sought for the killing of Mrs. Claire Cohen, 28-year-old housewife and for the shooting of seven seven or eight other persons.

One bus, operated by William C. Linden, was peppered shortly after 7 P. M. yesterday and two windows were shattered. The second, driven by James Cole, was hit at about 2 A. M. today and one window was splintered.

Lieutenant John Ragnell of the detective bureau said the sniper may have used either a .38 rifle or a .22 caliber rifle. Apparently the Communists were throwing their main strength into the twin drives down the South-Sawon-Taegon highway and on the central road route through Wonju.

The Red Korean radio at Pyongyang was reported of the air since 8 A. M. Tuesday. B-29 Superfortresses dumped 100 tons of bombs on the Red Korean capital Tuesday. Foul weather slowed fifth air force fighter and night bomber strikes.

B-26 light bombers hit several targets in the Seoul area Tuesday night and cratered the P'yongyang airfield. Mrs. Cohen was killed last Dec. 16 while she was washing dishes at the home of her mother. The fatal bullet was fired through closed venetian blinds.

Police have been patrolling the northern and western streets of the city ever since in a hunt for the killer. One police officer said "there's no doubt there's a maniac on the loose."

"This very large force is capable of mounting a powerful offensive supported in great depth," MacArthur's summary said. "Because of its large manpower potential it can strike in a number of places at the same time with ample reserves to support each forward thrust."

While the Wonju battle raged, A. P. correspondent John Randolph reported there was no contact southeast of Osan where Eighth Army forces were withdrawing.

Eighth Army officers said mud and snow may have slowed the Red advance but there was no lessening in the Communist buildup. MacArthur's summary said, "Because of its large manpower potential it can strike in a number of places at the same time with ample reserves to support each forward thrust."

U. N. patrols likewise reported hearing tanks rumbling during their scouting of the area north of Chechon Tuesday night. Eighth Army reports indicated one area of Red buildup was north of Yoju. Sizable numbers of Com-

Prime Minister Calls Arming Of Japan Dangerous

Yoshida Advises Free Nations To Begin Nerve War On Reds

TOKYO, Jan. 10 (AP)—Japan's prime minister, Shigeru Yoshida, told the world tonight that rearmament of his nation should not be undertaken without "discreet handling as well as mature deliberation. The political chief of Japan's 80,000,000 people said putting arms into the hands of the Japanese was not to be taken lightly.

In a speech at the Tokyo correspondent's club, Yoshida said there were two prime reasons why building up of an army would be a serious move: 1.—Some nations are desperately afraid of the implications of the rearmament of Japanese armies. "Internally, we have every reason to avoid doing anything which might intensify that fear."

2.—"Moreover, the cost of rearmament would upset our entire program for economic rehabilitation."

Yoshida advised the Democratic world to adopt "war of nerves" tactics to counteract Communist moves and penetrate the Iron Curtain. He advised the free nations to fight fire with fire, to "employ the same methods and tactics" the Communists have used successfully.

Yoshida told the Tokyo press corps that they, as representatives of the free world, had an important role to play in the fight to penetrate the minds of those in Communist nations.

The Japanese leaders said they thought the Communists were out to "scare the governments of the free nations out of their wits." He expressed the hope that those nations would "stay cool and firm."

The Prime Minister said his nation was "ranced wholeheartedly" on the side of the United Nations and was giving every support to the U. N. cause. "We shall use its power to give."

Yoshida told the foreign correspondents—including two for Tass, the Soviet News Agency—that his government and the Japanese people hoped for a peaceful treaty "so that we may play a more active and effective role as a sovereign and independent nation."

The 73-year-old leader said he considered his primary job to be institute such economic measures as will insure independence of substance as well as in name." Yoshida said Japan could not be independent unless it was self-sustaining economically. Earlier, a strong advocate for Japanese rearmament—ex-prime minister Hitoshi Asada—predicted defeat of a proposal to rearm the nation for defense. The constitution Japan adopted after World War II renounces war. A popular vote is to be taken on the question of revision to permit rearmament.

Joe Daniels Case Goes To The Jury

At 3:00 o'clock this afternoon and following a hour of deliberation a jury in Circuit Court was still considering a verdict in the $50,000 damage suit of Joe Daniels against Police Captain Roy Tillis and Patrolman Charles B. Sparks charging that without cause he had been beaten, bruised and injured by fists and blackjacks, following his arrest, Jan. 6, 1950, on charges of assault and resisting arrest after an argument with police about a parking ticket given to him on the previous day.

He had been found guilty in Municipal Court of the charges and was fined $500 by Municipal Judge J. G. Shann. The trial opened in Circuit Court yesterday morning with Judge M. B. Smith presiding. G. W. Spencer represented Mr. Daniels and George A. Spivey served as attorney for Capt. Tillis and Patrolman Sparks.

Ronald H. Multhead Dies At Age Of 77

Ronald H. Multhead, 77, died yesterday afternoon in an Orlando hospital where he had been confined for the past 10 days. A resident of Brison Avenue, Sanford, Mr. Multhead had been in ill health for two years.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 27, 1873 he came to the United States in 1896 and moved with his family to Dade City where he lived until moving to Sanford, 1907. For many years he was engaged in celery farming and for the past several years he was engaged in the growing of flowers for shipping.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church he was also an elder in the church where funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 2:00 P.M. with Rev. A. G. McInnis officiating. Burial will follow in Lake View Cemetery.

Mr. Multhead is survived by the widow and three daughters, Mrs. E. F. Saunders of Glen, N. Y., Mrs. Henry W. Hold of London, N. J., and Mrs. William Jewell of Milledgeville, Ga.

Surviving also are two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Multhead of Columbus, Ohio; one brother, J. H. H. Multhead of N. Y. City; one sister, Mrs. A. S. Norwood of St. Paul, N. C.

Impressive Ceremony Marks Opening Of Memorial Building

By MARIAN K. JONES
OVIEDO, Jan. 11—(Special)—In a very beautiful and impressive ceremony, amidst a colorful array of flowers the new Memorial City Hall of Oviedo was dedicated Tuesday evening at an open house held in new building.

An artistic arrangement of flowers, donated and arranged by members of the Oviedo Woman's Club and the Oviedo Garden Club, greatly enhanced the beauty of the hall.

Mayor M. L. Gary and Town Clerk T. L. Lingo escorted visitors through the new building for inspection tours.

Mrs. James Parin, president of the Oviedo Woman's Club, circulated among the guests acting as general hostess, as did Mrs. Charles T. Niblack, president of the Oviedo Garden Club.

Some of the ladies of the Woman's Club and Garden Club greeted the guests at the door. These included Mrs. T. L. Lingo, wife of the town clerk; Mrs. George W. Morgan; Mrs. Joseph Leinhardt; Mrs. James Wilson; Mrs. R. W. Eaton, wife of one of the ex-councilmen and Mrs. C. R. Clout, wife of the mayor.

Ladies from the same two clubs also served, including Mrs. John Duda, Mrs. Max Leinhardt, Mrs. George Meunier, Mrs. T. H. Daniel, Jr., Mrs. Leon Olliff, Mrs. Merritt Staley, Mrs. John Courier, Jr., and Mrs. B. F. Wheeler, Jr.

The guests, thanking all of those who had contributed toward the building, after which he called on Paul Campbell, the contractor of the building, to come forward and receive the keys to the building.

Commission Maps Program For '51 Secondary Roads

The County Commission yesterday completed its program for secondary road construction to be presented to the State Road Department in Tallahassee next Tuesday for approval.

The following projects are included: Resurfacing of the road from Monroe Corner to Seminole Boulevard, about one and a quarter miles; resurfacing at its present width the Chulotna-Genova Road from the bridge at Econloch-Katharine to a point near the home of Sam Long.

Another secondary project in the resurfacing of two miles of the Old Highway 40 from near Mrs. Endor Corlett's home near Geneva two miles eastward.

Projects which include County and federal aid are the rebuilding of the Big Tree Road from the Orlando Highway to the Big Tree crossing. A road running south two and a half miles from Oviedo will be resurfaced. One mile of South Sanford Avenue will be reconstructed and widened to 18 feet, from Pineway Drive to Nelson Road near Lake Jessup.

Commissioner H. B. Pope stated today that he is going to request that the State make a survey of Lake Mary Boulevard during the coming year in order that it can be incorporated in the 1952 budget. He added that he hopes to get that done by the end of the year in order that the work can start in 1952. The present clay road extends about three miles from the Orlando Highway to Lake Mary.

Efforts will be made to have included as a primary road the proposed Sanford-Oviedo road with a fill over Lake Jessup, said Mr. Pope.

Primary roads which the commissioners will try to get into the 1952 state budget are the widening and repaving of French Avenue; widening and resurfacing of Celery Avenue and securing additional right of way; an rebuilding Geneva Avenue from the new bridge to Mellonville Avenue.

A project on which the State is now working is the resurfacing of the Old Orlando Road from Twenty-fifth Street to the Longwood A.C.L. crossing.

Seminole County Banks Show Large Deposit Increase

Evidence of the growing prosperity of Seminole County is reflected in recent bank statements that show that combined deposits of the three banks increased $1,226,416 during 1950.

Deposits as of Jan. 1 amounted to $10,857,510 of which the Sanford Atlantic National Bank has $5,283,460, the Florida State Bank, $4,205,641 and the Citizens Bank of Oviedo, $1,368,409.

In January, 1950 the deposits of the three banks totaled $9,631,094. Of this total the Sanford Atlantic National Bank had $5,151,083, the Florida State Bank, $3,057,410 and the Citizens Bank of Oviedo $1,422,601.

During 1950 deposits at the Florida State Bank increased $1,148,231; the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, $132,377 and the Citizens Bank of Oviedo had a decrease of $54,192.

During 1950 the Sanford Atlantic National Bank increased its surplus from $118,000 to $200,000, J. L. Ingley, president, reported.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11—(AP)—Muzzling Europe today is fundamentally a question of morale, guns and planes.

A large part of Europe hasn't the will now to defend itself. A grand scale General Dwight D. Eisenhower is in the position of a football coach trying to install the "will to win" in his team.

Eisenhower must try to install the "will to fight." Without it the United States can pour arms into Europe from now until doomsday without the slightest result.

This colors the way Hitler looks on the East-West conflict and the way Americans look at it. Europeans are no less conscious of an American's sense of the menace of Soviet aggression. The vast majority of French, Germans, British, Italians and other Europeans have no more liking than Americans for Communism.

They shudder at the Kremlin's efforts to introduce the Russian system.

Senator Holland To Present Bill To End Poll Tax

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11—(AP)—Senator Holland (D-Ia.) planned to introduce legislation today aimed at abolition of the requirement in seven states that poll taxes be paid as a prerequisite for voting in federal elections.

Holland told a reporter that 11 other southern Democratic senators are cosponsors of the measure. They are senators Smathers of Florida, George of Georgia, O'Connor of Maryland, Byrd and Robertson of Virginia, McClellan and Fulbright of Arkansas, Ellender and Long of Louisiana, and Hooey and Smith of North Carolina.

Holland said he had been assured by other southern Democrats that they would support the proposal.

The same legislation—a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment—was introduced by Holland last year but died in committee. At that time it had the support of nine other Southern Democrats.

At the present time the states requiring payment of poll taxes as a prerequisite for voting are Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. Holland said abolition of the requirement in South Carolina is "imminent."

He made it clear that the amendment he proposes would apply only to federal elections.

"There is no thought," he said, "of repealing the poll tax."

Thomas Delahanty Dies At Age Of 79

Thomas Delahanty, 79, a retired professional basketball player who for the past 20 years operated the Shool Fighting Camp on the St. Johns River at the Geneva Bridge died at 4:00 P.M. yesterday in the local hospital following a brief illness.

Mr. Delahanty was born Mar. 6, 1871 in Cleveland, O. where he played professional basketball and was a former toolmaker for the Kilbuck Tool Company. He came to Sanford in 1928. He was a member of All Souls Catholic Church, S. J. 9-7-30.

He is survived by three sons, Will, Frank and Jim Delahanty, all of Cleveland; one sister, Mrs. Melodie of Miami.

Funeral Mass will be held at All Souls Catholic Church at 9:00 A. M. Friday with Father Anthony McGowan officiating. Burial will follow in the Catholic Cemetery. The accompanying article is the first of two stories summing up his personal impressions.

State Chairman of 1951 March of Dimes

In the first in this series of articles, the discussion was centered around what polio means to the people of the nation and Florida in terms of money. However, this does not present a true picture of what the polio scourge really means, for the human factor involved must not be overlooked.

The fact that over 100,000 fellow Americans have been stricken with polio in the last three years has been repeated time and time again, but little notice has been given to the fact that there are over 80,000 volunteer workers who are regular, active members of the National Foundation's 1,252 chapters serving every county in the United States and its territories. Nor has the 800,000 additional volunteers who carry out the annual March of Dimes campaign been given much attention.

It is interesting to know, I believe, that this vast organization

Jaycees Are Shown Film Describing State Of Oregon

"The New Oregon Trail," a technical film describing the natural wonders of the state of Oregon, was shown at the Jaycees luncheon today by Jesse B. Adrian. Mr. Adrian, who is showing the traveling show through the South, was introduced by John Williams.

Oregon is pictured in the film as a state with an infinite variety of climate and natural wonders from towering snow-capped mountains to sunny beaches.

Included are shots of the Oregon cavers, Pendleton Roundup and skiing in the Rocky Mountains.

Richard Farrell read a letter of appreciation from Richard W. Kemmer, national Jaycee president, in which he thanked the local club for its hospitality. Mr. Kemmer's letter stated in part: "I think the idea of having six civic clubs participating in the meeting a very excellent one. The mayor's interest indicated the type of cooperation you must be receiving from city officials and you are to be commended on the splendid spirit of cooperation which you are maintaining."

Mr. Kemmer stated that he was looking forward to receiving a duplicate of the Seminole jacket which had been presented to him at the luncheon. It was too small, he said, to take home.

John Kauter urged every member of the club to attend the Ladies Appreciation night dinner being held at the Yacht Club Jan. 19 at 7:15 P. M. No Thursday meeting will be held next week. Mr. Kauter said. A dance will follow the dinner.

Overstreet Assigned To Tampa Inquiry

TAMPA, Jan. 11—(AP)—State Attorney Murray W. Overstreet has been assigned to assist the Hillsborough county grand jury probe charges made at the Keweenaw committee hearing here. The Tampa Times reported today.

The Times said it had learned that Governor Fuller Warren is preparing orders assigning Overstreet, whose home is at Kissimmee, to prosecute for the ninth judicial circuit.

Rep. Farrior, state attorney for Hillsborough county (13th circuit), asked to be relieved of the crime probe.

Overstreet will come here Jan. 16 and remain until Mar. 1.

PUBLIC OPINION

ZANESVILLE, O., Jan. 11—(AP)—The Zanesville Times-Signal announced that none of its readers had written letters to the editor on the international situation called for expression of public opinion by other day.

The answers filed a page in the Jan. 7 Sunday Times-Signal and ran over four columns.

The reaction ran thus: "Pro-Hoover policy, 19, pro-Administration 4, on the fence 1."

When we realize that Dade county, for instance, has had 171 cases reported through Dec. 31 of 1950, and Duval, 58, Hillsborough, 17, and Escambia, 23, we can better understand the tremendous work being accomplished by the volunteer workers in Florida's 67 chapters.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy to clear Friday, preceded by few light showers in northeast portion ending early this afternoon. Colder trend north, slightly warmer extreme south portion tonight.

Front Stabilized As Americans Beat Flanking Move By 20,000 Chinese Reds

LONDON, Jan. 11—(AP)—Britain and India have proposed a high-level conference between the United States and Red China to discuss a Korean peace, informed sources reported today. Their move had the blessing of the seven other British Commonwealth nations represented at the Commonwealth premier conference under way here.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11—(AP)—The United States has told Britain that American troops will fight on in Korea and that specifically they and Allied U. S. forces will make every effort to establish a defense position on the peninsula. U. S. government officials summed up the official attitude last night as unchanged. There will be no "voluntary withdrawal and American forces will fight on as long as possible.

TOKYO, Friday, Jan. 12—(AP)—American Second Division troops clinging stubbornly last night to a salient one and one-half miles south of Wonju on the critical Korean front, but two Korean Red divisions were attempting a flanking move from the north and east.

A spokesman with the Americans who were bolstered by French and Dutch troops, identified the Reds as about 20,000 men of the North Korean Sixth and Tenth Divisions.

The censorship withheld further details of this action, which was reported by AP correspondent William C. Barnard in a dispatch timed at 10 P. M. Thursday. (8 A. M. Thursday, EST) and received in Tokyo early Friday.

Morale Problem At U. Of F. Is Growing

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 11—(AP)—University of Florida President J. Hillis Miller today called a special campus-wide convocation for next Monday to discuss the impact of the international crisis on individual student morale.

In announcing the call, university officials said: "With the draft making greater demands than ever in the male enrollment and with many new students caught in the dilemma as to whether they should continue their studies or not, the need for such a campus-wide discussion of the pressing problem was pointed up graphically in the past week."

"During these remaining days of the first semester when approaching examinations usually hold the attention of all students, faculty members and fraternity leaders have reported that large numbers of draft age students are forsaking their studies. They are worried about the prospects of a call to active duty and the morale problem has become more acute with the passing of the days."

CARRIER RECOMMISSIONED

BOSTON, Jan. 11—(AP)—The U. S. Kula Gulf, first of a fleet of 21 escort carriers at Boston to be taken out of "mothballs" since the President declared an emergency, will be recommissioned about Feb. 15, the Navy announced today.
