Law Booklet Presented At Lions Meeting

Sanford Lions Club was host Sunday to a meeting of District 35-0 of the Lions of Central Florida, at the Civic Center.

Nearly 200 representatives of clubs from Seminole, Orange, Osceola, Lake, Volusia, Sumter, Flagler and Marion counties were present for the meet.

District Governor Myrl Kiehl, with men from 41 clubs taking part in the activities and bringing reports from their respective clubs.

President Jim Lee of the Sanford Lions Club presented to the Central Florida group a description, summarization and explanation of the Sanford Lions new booklet, "The Law and You."

This booklet was compiled and published by President Lee with the assistance of Seminole County Judges, Kenneth W. McIntosh of the Sanford municipal court, C. Vernon Mize Jr. of the County and Juvenile Court and Hon. Volie A. Williams Jr. of the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court.

Copies of the booklet have been presented to Principal A. J. Bracken at Seminole High School, who has approved the use of the booklets as supplemental material in the civic and social studies classes.

Bracken spoke of the group describing the development of the material and the use to which the booklets are being put in the classes.

Also addressing the group was Lt. Cdr. Harvey Smith, HAWKING PIO and Legal Officer at the Naval Air Station. Harvey asked permission to use the report material, which was granted. He said that the booklet would be used in the leadership training program and would be helpful in teaching Navy and civilian responsibilities.

The new booklet, which describes the What and Why of Law, the functions and operations of the Juvenile Court, gives a listing of Crimes and Penalties, describes Criminal Process and the citizen's duties and responsibilities to the law.

It was enthusiastically received by the representatives of the Central Florida Lions clubs and taken under consideration for further implementation in other areas.

It was announced that the Florida Lions will have a candidate for third vice president of Lions International, Dr. Walter Campbell of Miami. Plans were discussed for the state convention in May and the international convention in Nice, France.

By the law of love, above every other law, men ought to live. It provides the constraining dynamic for spiritual and moral achievement. God gave the law and to live by it is to live on the highest level of human experience.—Clifton J. Allen.

The newly appointed franchise committee made up of City Manager W. E. Knowles, Bill Lefler and Bill Kratzert met Thursday to begin preliminary work on a new directive. First order of business was the dumping or easing of the mandatory sewer connections and changing the franchise from 30 years to 20 years. Final report will be finished in 30 days.

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. reports that Seminole county's secondary road funds are not as bad as many seem to believe. There's a balance of $475,145 for the county in this fund as of Jan. 1, 1962.

By the way, speaking of Mack. Tuesday qualifications open for the Legislature. Will close March 6.

County Attorney Harold Johnson and Engineer Carlton Bliss are racking their brains on the legality of participating in four-laning Seminole Blvd. It will go to the Attorney General's office for an opinion.

The same thing for using road and bridge funds for a master drainage plan... Dick Ervin will have to hire a special secretary to care for Seminole's needs.

Since doctors can park by the hospital free of charge how about a place for lawyers by the courthouse... that's their hospital.

I TOLD YOU SO DEPART-
MENT: Around The Clock, May 13, 1961—"Do the county commissioners know what's going on at Dike Road, if they don't watch out, they'll end up in court."

From The Herald Feb. 14, 1962—"Property owner files damage suit on Dike Road."

That meeting to discuss a mass transportation system for the county tonight will be by invitation only. Will be held at the Winter Park Bank office in Fern Park.

The court will appoint two appraisers to check the controversial SR 436 stretch on Feb. 20.

Ray Lundquist asks this question. If the County Commission is so concerned about appraisals of that property now, why didn't they question the state in the fall when the SRD accepted the report and it was turned over to the county?

Congressman Syd Herlong said Wednesday that postal exams for the postmaster's job here have been ordered and the exams will be held within the next few months.

It just takes something new and different to put the eyes of other people on us. Preliminary activities of the builders of Sanford's new marina have resulted in widespread notice for the city. A yachtman from Tuckahoe, N. J., stopped at the San Aleo Harbor office Wednesday to say he had heard about the marina and wanted to bring two boats here. Important thing is this—he said he knows of many others from the New Jersey area who would like to spend the winter season here each year.

Oops, That Long Range Road chamber meeting is next Thursday and not tonight as we mentioned the other day. I must get a new typewriter.

Our commendations to the Seminole DeBary Heart Council for making possible the trip to the heart research laboratories at the Medical Center in Gainesville for some of the county's high school seniors who are interested in medicine.

Thai Troops Move Up To Laos Border

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—Thailand has moved troops to the critical border provinces along the Mekong River near Laos to tighten its border defense, it was disclosed today.

The troops, received their marching orders Tuesday morning, occupied Nan province, Chiangkarn district in Loey province and Nakornpanom province.

Nan is only about four miles from Nam Thon in Laos, scene of bitter fighting between royal Laotian government troops and Communist-supported rebels.

This troop movement, which is costing Prime Minister Sarit Thanarat's government a great deal of money, is an indication that Thailand views the fighting in Laos as a threat to its own security.

Sarit told newsmen that his government decided to bolster the border defenses after long deliberation. He said this would make intrusion by Communists more difficult.

The Interior Ministry announced that 20 checkpoints would be opened in Hongkhai province across the river from Ventiane to check the flow of illegal entrants.

Kennedy Warns Indonesians

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, in one of the liveliest question-and-answer sessions of his visit, warned a group of Indonesian students today against becoming "slaves to slogans."

Kennedy told the students at Gadjah Mada University that the United States "is not the society described by Karl Marx or the Communist party of Indonesia."

The comments by the President's brother were evoked by a student's question about "capitalist monopolist America."

The question, which drew heavy applause, obviously upset Kennedy. He began pacing the platform, raised his voice, and called for an interpreter to translate his reply.

"What I want to make sure is that you don't become slaves to slogans," Kennedy said, drawing applause in return.

Citing American social progress in recent decades, Kennedy said the difference between the United States and the Communists is that Communists cannot tolerate diversity.

"Look what happened to Boris Pasternak," he said, referring to the late Soviet writer who was condemned in Russia for his writings critical of communism.

Allies Ignore Red Corridor

BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet MiG fighter planes today flew within 20 feet of a U. S. Air Force glidermaster transport flying to Berlin in a new Soviet harassment of Western Allied Air traffic.

BERLIN (UPI)—Allied planes flew into West Berlin today through air space the Russians had tried to reserve for themselves.

The West ignored the possibility of new shadowing flights by Soviet planes the Russians said would saturate the altitude below 7,500 feet in the Frankfurt-Berlin air corridor over East Germany.

A U. S. Air Force spokesman said no trouble was expected.

Commercial airline passengers who flew into Berlin today reported sighting Russian jets only at a "great distance." Tempelhof airport authorities said traffic was normal and that there were no incidents.

The United States, Britain and France today protested to the Soviet Union against Russian interference with western flights in the air corridors.

A written protest was delivered to the Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

Woman Killed By Driverless Car

CORAL GABLES (UPI)—Mrs. Geraldine C. Hudson, 66, was killed Wednesday when struck by a driverless car.

Police said the accident happened in front of the Riviera Country Club, where Mrs. Hudson was employed as a bookkeeper.

Officer Charles Harris said the vehicle was parked at the top of a descending rampway when it began rolling down the incline. He said Mrs. Hudson apparently did not see the vehicle rolling towards her.

U. S. May Let Canada Send In Cuban Cigars

TAMPA (UPI)—The Tampa cigar industry was hit a possible damaging blow today when H. J. Sponheim, assistant customs collector, said there were no specific rulings on cigars manufactured in Canada being brought into the United States.

Thus, if the Treasury Department, under which customs operates, acts as it has in the past, cigars made in Canada from Cuban leaf will be allowed to come into the U. S.

Tampa cigar industry leaders said such action thus causes the actual effectiveness of the President's embargo on Cuban tobacco to be questioned.

Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., said in Washington that "My feeling is that we are hurting ourselves more than we are Castro, because he can dispose of his tobacco elsewhere."

Cigar manufacturers said that if Cuban leaf cigars are allowed to be transported into the country from Canada, the industry would be severely damaged and there would be no need to attempt to produce a comparable tobacco in Florida.

Meanwhile, two boat loads of Cuban tobacco which arrived in Tampa last week were still being held by customs officials today.

Attack Embassy

TOKYO (UPI)—A shouting, singing mob of Indonesian students attacked the Dutch embassy today, shattered windows and injured three Japanese policemen who attempted to intervene. At least three students were arrested.

NLRB Hearing On Miami Bus Strike

MIAMI (UPI)—Miami's bus drivers strike began its 18th day today with the battle being fought on two fronts.

In Washington, the National Labor Relations Board was to open a hearing on the complaint of the striking drivers union against both Dade County's Metropolitan government and William D. Pawley, the man from whom the county bought four bus lines.

The union charged that Metro and Pawley had engaged in unfair labor practices and caused the strike.

Extraditions Asked

MIAMI (UPI)—The State of Florida has begun attempts to extradite three men from Northern states on bookmaking charges in connection with the race wire service which was raided here Tuesday. The men are Angelo Manj Rossetti, 49, of Boston; Albert (Al) Tolin, 38, of Wilmington, Del.; and Fred W. Pratt, 25, of East Boston, Mass.

Stenstrom Outlines Course Of Cooperation For County Growth

The fact that there is no place in Seminole County's future for sectionalism or any condition even remotely connected with it was repeatedly stressed Wednesday night in an address by Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Long Range Planning and Development Committee.

Speaking at the Mid-Florida Country Club before a dinner meeting sponsored by the South Seminole Democratic Women's Club, Stenstrom explained purposes and aims of the committee formed to help the county plan for the tremendous population increase and all of its diversified problems related to the Nova Project in the next eight years.

"In the remaining years of the 1960s this area will meet problems it never has met before. There is no alternative except to look ahead and try to prepare for it and if the planning is done wisely and not recklessly, sensibly and not sensationally and by citizens with an attitude of good will, no harm will result from this rapid growth," he declared.

Explaining that there is a part for all citizens to play, he said that the first step, "as it is in any problem, is to keep informed." Borrowing Lincoln's words, he emphasized that "the Foundation Stone of American Democracy is an informed citizenry."

Pointing out that 52 percent of the county's residents have moved here in the past 10 years, he urged the people to make every effort to understand all sides of the picture in all parts of the county.

He also urged prospective political candidates to exclude any hint of sectionalism in their coming campaigns and asked that they not campaign in any area strictly as a candidate of that area.

"A man should stand for election as a Seminole County citizen and work for all of us regardless of where he lives or where we live," Stenstrom cautioned.

Speaking in general on help the committee will need on all phases of its program, he brought out the fact that much of this work must come from the south end of the county, since the majority of the population and of the registered voters now lies south of Five Points.

In closing remarks directed to the Democratic Women's Club and to its President, Mrs. Hope Bennett, Stenstrom commended the group on its action and stated that it is his opinion it "will get plenty of chance to operate this year."

Commie Bloc Beats Drums For Summit

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Communist bloc today began drumming up support for Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's call for an 18-nation summit conference on disarmament.

Czechoslovakia fell into line with the Russian position when President Antonin Novotny and Premier Vilam Shiroky accepted invitations to a heads of government meeting.

The official Communist newspaper Pravda front-paged both acceptances and said Novotny and Shiroky agreed fully with Khrushchev.

Informed political observers here said Poland, Romania and Bulgaria could be expected to follow Czechoslovakia's lead shortly. All are members of the forthcoming Geneva conference.

Pravda labeled a Western refusal to go to an 18-nation summit "irresponsible" and said it showed the West is unwilling to reach agreement on disarmament.

A Tass report of President Kennedy's call for progress first at lower levels was published in Soviet newspaper today.

Outlook 'Not Good' For Glenn Friday

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—Bad weather forced still another postponement of John Glenn's space flight today and forecasters said the outlook for Friday is "not good."

Today's was the ninth in a series of delays since December for the Mercury man-in-space program, reported that weather conditions in the morning probably will be "not what we would call good conditions at all."

If the countdown is resumed for a launch at 7:30 a. m. Friday "it must be with the realization," Amman said, "that we might lose it later on, due to weather."

He indicated that if the shot is not made Friday, it may have to be put off for several days.

"It appears to us that Saturday is very much of a lost cause," the weatherman said. "If we don't go Friday, the area around the cape most likely will be experiencing high winds the following day."

Amman went on to say that February in this part of the world is "rock bottom" as far as desirable launching weather goes and that March is not much of an improvement.

On the average, he said, satisfactory weather occurs only about one day in every three during this period.

When Glenn was awakened to be told of the delay he had breakfast, then went back to bed.

Two Argentine Diplomats Quit

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Two Argentine diplomats resigned under apparent military pressure Wednesday night, and Foreign Minister Miguel A. Canciano was expected soon to follow suit.

The resignations were regarded as the start of a general housecleaning at the Foreign Office, intended to eliminate anyone who helped to enunciate Argentina's "soft" line on Cuba at the Punta del Este Organization of American States conference.

Canciano looked tired and drawn when he announced the resignations of Foreign Undersecretary Oscar Camillon and Adolfo Musich, a presidential economic adviser.

The generals and the admirals who run Argentina's armed forces told President Arturo Frondisi last week that Argentina must break relations with Fidel Castro's Cuban regime—as it has since done—and that he must get rid of the diplomats who represented this country at Punta del Este.

Boy Admits He Set False Alarms

A 17-year-old Lake Mary boy walked into the juvenile judge's office in the courthouse Wednesday and confessed to calling some 12 false fire alarms in the area within a six-month period.

The boy, turned over to juvenile authorities, will appear before Judge Vernon Mizre next week.

He admitted calling the volunteer department and giving false information on the whereabouts of various fires in Lake Mary.

Break For Cohen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas today struck down a bail condition which has been blocking the release of racketeer Mickey Cohen from the Los Angeles County jail.

Plans To Be Reviewed At Public Meet

The State Road Department set next Wednesday for a mass public hearing on SR 436 to review plans for the road before letting a contract on the two-mile project, it was announced today.

The hearing will be held at 2 p. m. in the courtroom.

The four-laning will extend from Hwy. 17-92 to a point beyond Red Bug Road, ending at a small stream which crosses 436. From this point a new right of way will be laid out at a future date.

Cost of the project has been estimated by the state at $250,000.

The state will pay for the road construction with the county paying for rights of way.

The court will appoint two appraisers next week to check rights of way as condemnation proceedings open here before Circuit Judge Volie Williams Jr.

Water Protest Group To Meet

The "Water and Sewerage Protest Commission Committee," organized in the Lake Mary area several months ago in opposition to the County Franchise Directive, has set another meeting in the Lake Mary Fire Hall for Friday at 8 p. m.

Prospective political candidates for county offices expected to attend the meeting include County Commissioner Ted Williams, Longwood Mayor A. H. Lorman and W. Bill Varney of Fern Park.

Committee reports and plans for future organized action will be made in a brief business session prior to opening the meeting to general discussion when potential candidates will conduct a question and answer period, according to Col. Paul Hissel, committee chairman.

Bryant For Holding Line On Personnel

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant said today a legislative council request that the Cabinet hold down personnel expansion in federally supported programs went right along with his thinking.

"We must be sure we do not commit ourselves beyond the federal funds," Bryant told the news conference. The governor several times has checked closely into agency requests for increased personnel based on expanded federal programs. The governor said a case in point of new expansion because of new federal programs was the Industrial Commission, which experienced a jump of 130 employees during the year.

Bryant said such increases create a problem, especially when the federal supports were cut off. "It's awfully hard to mind for the post prior to the retirement of Hobson, Bryant said he had long heard rumors of an impending retirement from the high bench. He said he had picked Caldwell as his first choice.

The governor also said he could see no reason for local and some state office seekers to be tied too closely to national party lines. He said most local and state issues were completely unrelated to national issues.

Bryant sidestepped questions on whether he favored a two party system for Florida. He said it would depend whether the party set up was formal or informal. He said there were two lines of thinking within the Democratic Party in Florida, which over the years had given Floridians a chance at two candidates whose political policies were different.

Bryant pointed out that under Democratic Party rule, Florida has been the fastest growing state in the nation and one with little scandal in high places. The state is strongly Democratic, except that in past years it has been in the Republican camp in presidential races.

'Instant' ICBM Missile Fired

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—The United States fired a Minuteman "instant ICBM" today in a successful military test today.

The 56-foot rocket, rushed back onto the schedule after the federal space agency postponed the space voyage of astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., thundered from a buried launching tube and 15 minutes later the nose cone landed in the target area 3,900 miles away.

Women's Clubs Have Day In Court

Members of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs had their day in court Wednesday when Judge Vernon Mize invited them to sit in on two juvenile court hearings, one involving a traffic charge and one for a court of breaking and entering.

Court was held in the County Commission chambers, with regularly scheduled cases. Prior to, between and after the two hearings Judge Mize talked with the women, who were from many communities in the county, explaining court procedures to them, and giving explanations of the points of law involved in the two cases.

The first case was that of a juvenile charged with failing to make a turn signal. Since it was the first offense, a warning was given by the Judge, with the promise that any further violations of the law would result in the suspension of the driving license.

In the second case of a juvenile charged with breaking and entering, it was found that this was also a first offense, and that the parents and school authorities had reported no troubles with the young offender previously.

Voicing a stern warning as to the consequences of further disregard for the law, the Judge placed the youngster on probation and paroled him into the custody of his employer, who was appointed a special probation officer by the court.

Prior to the court hearing, Judge Mize spoke to the members of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs at a meeting and luncheon held at the Woman's Club.

Hostesses of the local club in charge of arrangements for the Day in Court were Mrs. W. L. Gramlow and Mrs. W. L. Kirk. Dr. Gertrude Forman of Altamonte Springs assisted with arrangements as did Mrs. R. W. Estes of Oviedo.

Army Officer Fatally Shot In Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—A U. S. Army officer was shot and fatally wounded while reading in bed Wednesday night by a bullet fired through a window of his home. Police arrested a Congolese suspect.

The victim was identified as Lt. Col. Hulon D. Stogner, 39, of El Paso, Tex., where his wife and six children live. He was assistant army attache at the U. S. Embassy.

His El Paso address is 3012 Titanic Drive.

Officials said Stogner's assailant evidently stood on a ledge and fired through wooden shutters into the bedroom.

An embassy secretary, Miss Elizabeth Tryn, found Stogner with a bullet wound in his neck. She telephoned the United Nations Hospital which rushed an ambulance but he died at the hospital two hours later.

Officials said the shooting occurred about 9:20 p. m.

Congolese troops immediately cordoned off the park area in which Stogner's home was situated and about midnight arrested a suspect.

Informal sources said the man under arrest worked as a chauffeur for the embassy.

An entire battalion of Congolese surrounded the park and carried out orders not to let anyone leave the area.

Today Leopoldville police went from house to house in the park collecting testimony.

United Nations Chief Robert Gardiner put Nigerian police in Leopoldville at the disposal of the Congolese to aid the investigation.

WAITING LINES, seen approaching the kitchen and serving area in the above photo, formed all the way to the street for the recent Friday night Oyster Stew sponsored by the Altamonte Springs Garden Club. Committee chairmen have reported that more than 200 persons attended the supper bringing proceeds up to some $300. (Herald Photo)

Summit Fever Running Too High?

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some veteran American diplomats fear that "summit fever" is beginning to run too high and could lead to eventual disillusionment and dismay.

They feel that too much public attention is being paid to Kennedy's expressed willingness to meet Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev after some progress on cold war issues and not enough emphasis is being given to the specific conditions the Chief Executive laid down.

The President, himself, they acknowledge, contributed to this atmosphere by his natural desire to avoid rocking the diplomatic boat at a time when Khrushchev is showing somewhat greater cordiality.

Kennedy worded his rejection of the Soviet proposal for a March 14 disarmament summit in gentle terms and spoke almost enthusiastically of the possibility of a later meeting if the Geneva talks made some progress.

This studied effort to appear most reasonable tended to obscure the hard-core conflicts on disarmament and other subjects and the vast gulf separating Moscow and Washington on critical cold war issues.

Kennedy mentioned, but did not stress, some of these hitherto insoluble differences: —Pre-summit disarmament progress must include some advance toward an inspection and control system, which the Russians have stated flatly they will never accept.

—The Berlin situation is still a "crisis" and there will be no let-down in American military preparations unless Russia withdraws her pressure.

—The Laos cease-fire is dangerously "frayed" and resumption of the civil war between pro-Western and Communist forces would force him to "a most serious decision."

Veteran diplomats recognize that in a world beset by frustra-

Summit Fever Running Too High?

tion and fear, the psychology of a summit meeting tends to catch on even when there is little practical basis. This generates allied and neutral, as well as some American, pressures upon the President to attend in hope of making progress instead of waiting until after such progress has been made."

Seven Children Burned To Death

KANKAKEE, Ill. (UPI)—Seven children, ranging in age from 1 to 12, burned to death when fire swept a rural home near here late Wednesday night.

Authorities said the fire destroyed the house belonging to the mother of six of the children, Mrs. Gwendolyn Mallory, about 40. She was visiting the home of a friend about a mile away when the fire broke out, police said. The father is deceased.

The five-room frame house was located in St. Ann Woods, about 15 miles east of Kankakee, near the Illinois-Indiana border.

The victims, whose bodies were found in the rubble of the home burned almost beyond recognition, were identified as Michael Mallory, 12; and his brothers, Harold, 8; Bruce, 7; Claude, 5; Robert, 2; Mark, 1 1/2; and Barbara Ewing, 3. The girl was being cared for by Mrs. Mallory while her mother was in Central Hospital at Clifton, Ill.

Police said the father, Robert Mallory, was killed last year in Chicago when the top floor of a building that was being wrecked collapsed, plunging him into the basement. He was a laborer for the wrecking company.

Police said the house was "probably not much more than a shack" and was located in a poor, unincorporated area in the woods.

Authorities believed defective wiring caused the fire.

Mrs. Hilliard Of Longwood Dies

Mrs. Lillian Mae Hilliard, 71, wife of Earl Hilliard of Longwood, died Wednesday in an Orlando hospital.

A native of Glens Falls, N. Y., she had lived in Longwood for the past six years, coming there from Waycross, Ga. She was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Sanford.

Other than her husband, survivors are a son, Elder Floyd Hilliard, a granddaugher, Mrs. Patricia Kierstead, and a great grandson, Donald Kierstead, all of Pawtucket, R. I.; sisters, Mrs. Julia Monroe and Mrs. Nellie Everts, and a brother, Merton Wilcox, all of Glens Falls.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at Brison Funeral Home with Elder R. L. Matthews officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn Memorial Park in Orlando.

Empress Of Ethiopia Dies

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (UPI)—The death of the Empress of Ethiopia, wife of Emperor Haile Selassie I of Ethiopia, was announced today.

The Empress, the former Princess Woynzero Menen, was 71. They had seven children. Three are still living—two sons and a daughter.

Selassie and the princess were married in 1912.

The empress was a member of the Coptic Christian faith, and carried out every law of the church. She disliked travel, except for a pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

Retired Officers To Meet Feb. 23

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy told millions of television viewers Wednesday night that she is preparing a new waiting room so the President's visitors will not have to dodge baby carriages.

Mrs. Kennedy gave a guided, televised tour of the White House and heard her husband's praise for helping to restore the mansion as a center of "American historical life."

The changes, he said, should inspire boys and "even girls" to want to occupy it themselves someday.

The hour-long, taped program was carried by the CBS and NBC networks.

The Central Florida Chapter of the Retired Officers Association will hold a luncheon meeting on Friday, Feb. 23, at the McCoy AFB Officers Club beginning at 11:30 a. m. with a social hour.

Colonel William G. Walker Jr., Commander, 404th Strategic Wing, McCoy AFB will give a short briefing and a conducted tour around the base.

All retired officers in Sanford and Seminole County are invited. Reservations should be mailed to Lt. Col. Paul H. Whelan, c/o U. S. A. 2150 Tradewinds Trail, Orlando.

Local Navy Man At Whiting NAS

MILTON, Fla. (PHTC)—John H. Patterson, machinist's mate first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Cowan of Route 2, Sanford, is serving at the Whiting Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Milton.

He reported to the station, Jan. 20, from the guided missile light cruiser USS Galveston, operating out of Philadelphia, Pa.

Whiting Field, one of the largest auxiliary air stations in the Naval Air Basic Training Command, is where student pilots are trained in the instrument and tactics phases of flying.

Patterson entered the Navy in May, 1942.

Milk Board Asks Show Cause Rule

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Milk Commission has ordered Polar Ice Cream and Creamery Co. of Pensacola to show why its license should not be revoked for allegedly underpaying farmers more than $10,000 for dairy products.

The commission, in issuing the show cause order, set a public hearing on the matter in Pensacola for March 8.

The commission also said Borden's under-paid farmers $4,078 and Pensacola Dairy Co. owes its farmers $1,623.

Commission Administrator E. V. Fisher said Pensacola Dairy had agreed to repay its producers and Borden is going to court to settle the issue.

Cracker Jim Gives Tips On Fairs

"The American way of life should be shown at your county fair," County Agent, "Cracker Jim" Watson of Jacksonville told members of the Kiwanis Wednesday.

The well-known radio and television star has conducted his own 15 minute television show each weekday morning for the past four years. He is county agent of Duval County and a past president of the Jacksonville Kiwanis. He is also state chairman of the Kiwanis agricultural committee and past state president of the County Agent's Assn. He is now president of the Greater Jacksonville Industrial and Agricultural Exposition.

It was in the latter capacity that he spoke to the Kiwanians, concerning county fairs. His list of points for a good county fair included having a good board of directors, a good foundation of exhibits, and good advertising.

Watson said that the Florida legislature has passed laws setting up minimum standards for county fairs, and emphasized that people should be able to go there and learn something from the educational exhibits.

The Exposition director brought out the fact that the tremendous agricultural production that Khrushchev saw when he visited this country made a lasting impression on the Red leader, and repercussions are still being heard as a result of that visit.

Watson was introduced by Seminole County Agent, Cecil Carlton. A guest of the Kiwanis was livestock director

Laborer Identified As Missing Prof

ROCKFORD, Ill. (UPI)—A $1.00 an hour factory laborer at a paint plant here was identified Wednesday as Dr. Carl Vernon Holmberg, Syracuse University research chemist who vanished from his home six years ago.

Authorities said the man arrived in Rockford early in 1956, hitchhiking in from Elgin, Ill. He called himself Verne Hansen and he carried a briefcase with the initials V. H.

After a series of odd jobs he obtained employment as a laborer at a woodworking company and in five years worked up to shipping clerk. Two years ago he obtained employment as a pigment grinder at the paint factory. In the interim he married Mrs. Mabel Ostling, a woman with a daughter by a previous marriage. On his marriage license application, dated Nov. 20, 1959, he listed his birthplace as Sand Point, Idaho. It said he was born Aug. 21, 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gunnard Hansen.

The Hansens' married life was troubled. Hansen read a lot—only education books, no cheap fiction," his wife said. "He was very happy but he did drink an awful lot." He encouraged Mrs. Hansen's daughter to read. Finally the couple separated and Hansen moved into a hotel.

On Feb. 4 Hansen was arrested for drunk driving and fined $100. He spent six days in jail in lieu of paying his fine and his fingerprints were taken.

Police forwarded the Hansen fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a routine check.

Wednesday police learned from the FBI that the man who called himself Verne Hansen was Dr. Carl Vernon Holmberg, a research chemist at the Syracuse University College of Forestry, who vanished from his home in May, 1955, leaving a wife and three children. He held degrees from Michigan State, Idaho, and Syracuse universities.

Tail That Wagged The Dog

Political pundits around the County say there's a very good chance that the reapportionment amendment will be approved by Florida voters this year. They point out that key legislators from both large and small counties are urging its adoption at the polls.

The proposed amendment would provide seven more senatorial districts (from the present 38-to-45), and increase membership in the House of Representatives by nine (from 95 to 104).

But for the benefit of those who think redistricting is a new problem in Florida, here's a little item we dug out of the Senate Journal for the year 1868.

Listen to this plaintive complaint voiced by a senator from Leon County:

"In the assembly, 8,300 voters in rebel counties choose 27 members and one Indian, while 18,652 voters in Union counties choose 26 members. Madison (Union), with 1,802 voters, sent two representatives, while the Rebel sent from Dade County has a constituency of only 15 voters, and the Rebel from Brevard represents a bona fide constituency of eight registered voters!"

Yes, dear reader, in those days Dade and Brevard were tiny counties, the "tail that wagged the dog." And populous Madison County was victimized by a districting system that in effect disenfranchised a large number of its voters.

We looked carefully, but couldn't find any offers from the Dade and Brevard delegations to give up their representations of a combined total of 23 voters.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Active support for giving United States surplus foods to the famine-stricken people of Communist China, on strictly humanitarian grounds, has just been made a high-priority objective of the Friends Committee on National Legislation.

This is a Quaker organization whose purpose is described as "translating the beliefs of the Society of Friends into political education and action." They support admission of Red China to the UN to bring peace to the Far East.

The committee is registered as a lobby with Congress. Its executive secretary is E. Raymond Wilson, long active in Quaker relief and other projects all over the world.

If any organization other than one connected with the Society of Friends advocated feeding the mainland Chinese there would probably be instant and loud criticism, Wilson says they are prepared to take it, but they aren't alone on this.

When the Papal secretary of state, Amleto Cardinal Cicognani, was in Washington last December he was asked if the Vatican would support famine relief for the Communist Chinese. His reply was the simple Biblical admonition, "Feed the hungry."

And in a Gallup poll last March, 52 per cent of the people queried said that the United States should offer some of its surplus foods to mainland China. Only 37 per cent were against it, with 11 per cent expressing no opinion.

The issue is nevertheless very much up in the air for the simple reason that this is where the Peiping government seems to want it. Red China has never asked for food.

The few offers of aid that have been made through organizations like the International Red Cross have been spurned.

Nationalist China's offer of 100,000 tons of rice a year ago was not even answered. The general conclusion is that any expression of need would be an admission of failure for the Chinese Communist system of agricultural communes. And they must save face, even though their bellies are empty.

Red China has not even officially admitted there is a food shortage from crop failures and floods, though Peiping has bought over $400 million worth of foodstuffs from Australia, Canada, France, Burma and the Argentine. About three-fourths of this was contracted for last year, but some deliveries are called for during the next three years.

No official Chinese mainland crop figures have been released for the last two years, but 1961 is believed to have been the third year of crop failures in a row.

All Chinese deliveries of food to Soviet Russia are reported to have been stopped. But there have been a few shipments to smaller countries for purely political propaganda purposes.

There has been no official statement of U. S. policy on furnishing surplus American foods to the mainland Chinese since President Kennedy's reply to a press conference question a year ago. He said the United States would consider any expression of need for food, regardless of source, but that there was no indication Red China would respond favorably to any approach by the U. S.

Even the Quakers admit that U. S. law would have to be changed before there can be any famine relief to the Communists. All shipments to mainland China have been barred by the Export Control Act since December 1950.

Public Law 480 prohibits sales of U. S. surpluses for Communist country currencies. Long term credit is limited to "friendly nations" and Red China is not one of them.

One of the Friends' committee objectives is to get present law changed. One opportunity for this will come through President Kennedy's new farm message request to Congress for a new Title V, Public Law 480, the Agricultural Trade Development Act. It would authorize U. S. grants of agricultural surpluses to an international food bank agency which would make distributions to needy nations. A $100 million pilot project is proposed, to be run by the UN Food and Agriculture Organization, FAO. An amendment to this new legislation might authorize grants of such surpluses to any nation.

There are no delusions that any donations of food to mainland China through such an agency would make the Peiping government more friendly to the U. S.

Dache It All

WASHINGTON (UPI)—I am too much a gentleman to argue with a lady, particularly one as renowned as Lilly Dache, the internationally known designer.

But when Miss Dache starts discussing men's clothing, it seems to me that she is talking through one of her famous hats.

I heard Miss Dache expound her views on this subject at the annual male apparel fashion preview staged here this week by the American Institute of Men and Boys' Wear.

The American male, she said, dresses in a manner that is "excessively dull." Although he is collectively a world leader in commerce and industry, he always has been behind in fashions.

Why is this? Miss Dache claims it is because American men spend too much money on sports cars, hi-fi equipment, free form swimming pools and other such contrivances.

She suggested that the failure of men to dress properly has had an adverse effect on the younger generation and is somehow partly to blame for "anti-social behavior" among teenagers.

The implication was that if men would channel more cash into their wardrobes, America would be a better place in which to live.

With all due respect to the sum that Miss Dache commands for touching up a swatch of felt, I don't believe that she came to grips with the basic problem.

It has been my observation that the amount of money spent on clothing has little bearing on sartorial elegance. Let some poor slob make a pile of dough, and what happens? He becomes a rich slob.

I myself have a clothing budget that has made my name a byword in department store basements from here to Culpepper, Va. Yet I went around for years looking as if I had dressed in a dark room.

The fault, I discovered, stemmed from the fact that men's ready-made suits are designed to show up well in store windows and racks, where they can be admired by the customers.

They hang beautifully when we are feeling the goods and inspecting the price tags. But when we try them on, they seem to lose their shape.

I have found a way to overcome this, and I recommend it to other American males.

What I do when I put on a suit is leave the coat hanger in the jacket.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE L-441: Marsha M., aged 29, is the wife whose husband was growing plump due to her fat figure.

"Dr. Crane," she exulted, "notice my figure now," and she prouced around the office in her new Spring outfit.

"The 10 couples in our church group not only added that extra $515.75 to the Easter offering.

"But all of us wives are thrilled to death to feel so much younger. Our husbands also have perked up and are much more romantic."

"I have now reduced to 128 pounds from that original 158, and my husband doesn't want me to take off any more. For he says I am just right."

Wives, when your waistline equals your bust line, you begin to look like a "good old motherly soul."

Such a female may evoke respectful kisses that are dutiful little pecks on the cheek.

But if you wish a siren type of kiss, such as the thriller-diller variety enacted on the movie screen, then take off that excess blubber. It will not only be a great tonic to the ardor of your semi-plump husband, but will also make you look 10 years younger.

You can't feel like a sports roadster with the chassis of a truck.

But dieting is easier if you have company, so get your church group or husband to join you. If he is not fat, then coax him to stop smoking to match your dieting.

It is actually harder to diet than to stop liquor or tobacco, for you can break off those habits entirely.

But you simply taper down when you diet. And we psychologists have shown "at it is much harder to taper off than to make a clean cut break with a previous bad habit.

Dieting is also harder if you sit at a table loaded with platters of food, family style.

For we subconsciously set our capacity to fit the amount of food.

Even hungry hens were found to eat far more when they were placed in front of a 200-gram pile of wheat vs. a 100-gram amount.

So use my dehydration plan and shed your first 10 lbs. in 10 days, as a morale booster.

You women can limit your calories to 800 per day. Men may have 1,200.

But restrict your total fluids to just one full glass (8 oz.) on that first day. Raise it to two glasses on the second; three on the 3rd, and remain at three through the 10th day.

This will dry out your system. Your mouth will feel cottony, and your gastric juice apparently is also curbed, so you don't feel too hungry.

Use a multiple vitamin pill and take an aspirin that first day or two if you get a caffeine headache from lack of coffee.

After 10 days, you'll be delighted with that quick 10-lb. loss, even if part of it is due to drying out.

Then you can shift to a slower diet, where women may eat 1,200 and men 1,600 calories per day.

For a calorie chart and further data, send for my booklet "How to Lose 10 Lbs. in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c.

Get your Ladies Aid to join you, for this is a simple method to raise an extra $500 to $1,000 for church or charity.

Strife Becomes A Way Of Life

(UPI)—In the small restaurants near the Paris opera, diners scarcely pause at the sound of a plastic bomb exploding in the heart of the city.

In Algiers, scarcely a pistol shot from the gleaming government buildings atop a terraced slope leading up from the Mediterranean. Arab shopkeepers stack their long loaves of bread and hang their meats in the open air.

For just as London, Berlin and other European cities found a way of life under the rain of World War II bombs, so in France and Algeria there is a way of life amid the terror of plastic bombs and the tommyguns of self-appointed Arab and European executioners.

There is no time to mourn the dead of yesterday, for more will be dead today and still more tomorrow.

This is the agony through which France and Algeria are passing and which can have but one conclusion no matter what events may intervene.

In a world of cold wars, of leaders who vie for space in the public prints and of great decisions, it is possible to lose sight of the real story which is the people.

In Algeria, nearly 600 persons are dead and more than 1,000 have been injured in bloody snatches sweeping Algiers, Bone and Oran.

In Paris, Communist-trained street fighters stir up an orgy of violence and eight persons died in a head-thumping collision with riot police.

In Elysee Palace, President Charles de Gaulle, standing increasingly alone between the extremes of right and left, pursues inexorably the course which he believes leads to his own and France's destiny.

On the Franco-Swiss border, Algerian and French negotiators seek a ceasefire before the next and final explosion expected to be the supreme challenge to De Gaulle by the secret JAS led by Gen. Raoul Salan.

It is a part of the sadness of these days that the disruptive forces tearing at France do not represent the majority. The majority seeks only an end to the seven-year Algerian conflict.

In the minorities who oppose De Gaulle there is an illustration of how that conflict has changed.

On the one hand, to the far right, is the dissident Salan who believes he fights not only for a French Algeria but also against communism in Africa.

On the other, to the far left, are the Communists, who would welcome civil war as their own path to power.

Orange Belt Conference Opens Here

Seminole Play Cats

By Ronnie Broadway
Action in the Orange Belt Conference Tournament begins this afternoon at 5 in the Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium with Leesburg's Yellow Jackets meeting Lakeview's Red Devils.

The Yellow Jackets are expected to come home the winners by some tea points. If this happens, Leesburg will go on to another round of play.

Following the Leesburg-Lakeview game, the DeLand Bulldogs do battle with the Wildcats from Wildwood. This should be a close contest and anything is expected to take place. This game will get underway at approximately 7 p.m.

Coach Bud Layer's Seminoles, the host team for the tournament, tangle with the Winter Park Wildcats in what is expected to be a real battle. The Seminoles defeated the Wildcats last Tuesday, following an earlier season defeat by the Wildcats.

The Seminole tilt should get underway at about 8:30 p.m. The Seminoles will be taking an 11-7 season record into the tournament.

The second round of play gets underway Friday, with the winner of the Seminole Winter Park contest facing Apopka, the leaders in the OBC. Apopka drew a bye in the first round of play. Also, the winners of today's first two games will meet to determine the other team to go on to the final round of play.

Apopka's Blue Darters are expected to repeat last year's tournament win, with Wildwood taking second honors. Leesburg, DeLand and Winter Park are expected to place in that order. But no one can tell what may happen when these teams get together.

Central Florida basketball fans should be in some of the state's best will be in action in this tournament. The tournament continues through Saturday.

Bradley Suffers Staggering Loss

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI)—Bradley's fifth ranked basketball team, with a 17-3 record, suffered from a staggering punch today after 6-8 starting center Joe Strawder was suspended from school for disciplinary reasons. Strawder and two freshmen, Eddie Moore, Chicago Heights, Ill., and Ray Banks, Harvey, Ill., were suspended indefinitely Wednesday for "conduct detrimental" to the school. They may not apply for readmission before September.

Klu Ready To Quit Baseball?

By United Press International
Ted Kluszewski, the mountain of muscle who has handled opposing pitching for 16 major league seasons, says he is ready to quit baseball—unless any of three clubs will take him on as a pinchhitter at a salary to which he has become accustomed.

Speaking on a television interview in Cincinnati Wednesday, Kluszewski quipped: "I'm an ex-player. I'm going to stay home and enjoy life."

Big Klu later qualified this remark by saying: "I would give a second thought to this for three teams if I got a good offer as a pinchhitter."

He did not identify the three teams, however.

Kluszewski, 37, was let go by the Los Angeles Angels at the close of last season. He played in 107 games for the new American League entry, batted .243, and hit 15 home runs.

Those 15 homers brought his lifetime total to 279, most of them hit while he played for the Cincinnati Reds. Kluszewski has said he would like to hit 300 homers before he retires.

While Kluszewski appeared to be nearing the end of his career, one of his former Pittsburgh Pirates teammates, outfielder Bob Skinner, told his boss he couldn't wait for the 1962 season to start.

In returning his signed contract for the next season, Skinner revealed that he has given up smoking, gone on a special diet that has added 20 pounds to his frame and he has worked out all winter in a gymnasium in San Diego, Calif.

"I feel the best I have in years," Skinner told General Manager Joe L. Brown of the Pirates by telephone. "I'm rarin' to go."

Skinner, troubled by an allergy for the last two seasons, hit only 3 homers and batted in only 42 runs in 1961 for his poorest major league campaign since 1956.

Skinner, incidentally, was the 10th and last, Pirate player to reach a salary agreement.

Jim O'Toole, Cincinnati's 25-year-old left-handed pitcher who lost two World Series games to the New York Yankees, signed Wednesday at an estimated $24,000 salary. O'Toole had a 19-9 record last season, winning 11 of his last 12 decisions.

Elsewhere on the major league front:

The Chicago White Sox signed infielder Sam Esposito, pitchers Russ Kemmerer and Alan Biecer, and outfielder Ken Berry, bringing 32 of their 39 players to terms.

A rookie battery of pitcher Dennis Ribant and catcher Bob Uecker signed with the Milwaukee Braves, while the Washington Senators signed outfielder Joe Hicks and pitchers Joe Schaffernoth and Carl Bouldin.

Tucson Open Now Underway

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—The big little $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament gets underway today—and when it is over on Sunday, the pitch-and-putt championship of the Western winter tour of the Professional Golf Association will have been decided.

Dave Hill of Denver, Colo., is the defending champion. But Davey hasn't been any ball of fire on the tour so far this year and there are a half dozen other who rate ahead of him. And most of the shot makers figure it will take a man who is good with the approaches and strong with his putting to win.

"It's all a matter of pitch and putt," said Joe Campbell, the ex-purde basketball star who has been winning money at the rate of nearly $1,000 a week.

The personality of the St. John River shad as a routin' tootin' game fish continues to lure new people to our shores.

The shad season has become a nationally known calendar item during the past couple of years, but two Columbus, Ga., men probably beat all for being determined to dunn a shad rig.

Cecil Goodman, a builder, and Tom Patterson, a sergeant at Fort Benning, drove more than 400 miles to Sanford, launched a boat at Crowe's Camp, fished one day and drove back home.

That's an 800-mile drive just to get a sample of the shad's agility. They caught 16 and took the largest (nearly four pounds) to show their Columbus neighbors.

If it's shad you want, it would be a good idea to get up a trip with Dr. V. H. Trayham.

For the second weekend in a row, he has been in a party netting a fifty percent roe catch. Accompanying him last time out were Cdr. E. G. Weigle and Preston Woodville and the three caught 16 shad, with eight roe.

There was an exchange of compliments Tuesday at a meeting of the county commissioners and the chairman of the St. John River Valley Advisory Committee.

Commissioner Jim Avery expressed admiration for the help given by the committee in getting a new public boat launching ramp at Mullet Lake. Then Sid Porter, chairman of the governor's committee, said that the project couldn't have been accomplished without the cooperation of the commissioners, who got through a lease of the necessary land for the ramp.

In case you haven't been out that way lately, the new ramp, located at the northwest end of the park at Mullet Lake, is almost finished. And the county has done a good deal of work on improving the road from SR 46 into the area.

The Seminole County Sportsman's Assn. will meet at 8 p. m. Monday to discuss among other things, a proposal to close an area south of Sanford to Lake Jessup to hunting and make it a bird sanctuary.

A petition has been circulated to establish the sanctuary and the sportsman's group appears favorable toward the action, vice president Jack Wilber said.

The association's president, Col. W. R. Jennings, will miss Monday's meeting. He's hospitalized in a Texas military hospital for awhile.

AN 800-MILE DRIVE was made just to get in a day's shad fishing by Cecil Goodman and Tom Patterson of Columbus, Ga., shown with the souvenir shad they kept to take home and show their friends.

Watch Bark Softening, Lundberg Says

By Earnest C. Lundberg Assistant County Agent It seems we have experienced all the extremes in the weather in a relatively short period of time—too wet, too windy, too dry and too cold.

The grovers in Texas have been through a very severe freeze and we have been through a freeze that will take some time to determine the full extent of the damage.

One thing a grower can look for now is bark softening and sloughing in the bark where young trees have had the tops killed. This can be serious and is particularly noticed when warm weather follows freeze damage. When the bark is found to be getting soft, the bark should be at least partially removed to expose some live wood so that the trees can "breathe."

Highlights

8-9 p. m. (CBS) Frontier Circus. "The Courtship." Quite a few full stretches in this one, but good light-hearted acting by guest stars Henry Jones and Jo Van Fleet. Jones plays a marshal who won't let the circus play his town until Casey (Chill Wills) agrees to marry the town's leading citizen, played by Miss Van Fleet. The town is in pretty bad shape and Casey barely escapes getting trapped into the role of Miss Van Fleet's—

9-9:30 p. m. (NBC) Dr. Kildare. "The Dragon." You may find it had to adjust to the change in former child-star Margaret O'Brien, who sheds her sweetness-and-light image to try to romance Kildare (Dick Chamberlain) in this episode. This, she figures, she must do to save her inter-finance (Scott Marlowe) from exposure by Kildare as an incompetent doctor. There is another romantic entanglement in the plot, involving another nurse and her deserting husband. Strictly for femme viewers, but Miss O'Brien proves a fine adult actress.

9-9:30 p. m. (CBS) Tell It To Groucho. The pace of this new series noticeably picks up as Groucho speeds through four guests with unusual problems. Best fun, with Groucho at his quipping best, is a spot with a German war bride, who is anx-

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I could write a book about what I've been through these past three years, but that good would it do? We've been married 29 years. I am, and have always been, 100% loyal to my husband and I know he has been the same to me. Yet he has accused me of infidelities with the janitor, the plumber or any other man who comes to the house on business. When we walk down the street I have to keep my eyes on the ground or else I am "flirting" with every man I pass. I have to take a bath with the lights out because my "shadow" might be seen from the outside. I am so nervous I am ready for an institution. Should I see a doctor? NERVOUS WRACK

DEAR NERVOUS: By all means see a doctor and take your husband with you. From your description of him, he needs a doctor worse than you. His behavior is far from normal. Make an appointment for TWO without delay.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem boy named Gilbert. I like him very much but I know he doesn't care a thing about me. He comes over and we make out, but he tells me not to take it to heart because he only kisses me because he needs the practice for the real thing when the right girl comes along. I try to stay away from him but I can't do it because I really like him a lot. Can you help me? HELPLESS

DEAR HELPLESS: No one can help a girl who refuses to help herself. Your only hope is to gather your willpower and refuse to have anything more to do with him. Practice makes perfect, but this kind of "practice" is making a fool of you.

DEAR ABBY: Two months ago we buried a very close relative. We received many baskets and bouquets of flowers. The cards were left on the flowers, so I picked them up and gave them to one of the daughters. This caused a lot of trouble. I was told I should have left the cards on the flowers. I want to know, was I wrong in taking the cards off the flowers or should I have left them there? RIGHT OR WRONG

DEAR RIGHT You were wrong. After the services are over, the funeral parlor furnishes the family with a list of people who have sent flowers. The cards should have been left on the flowers.

SOVIET CHILDREN are introduced to the space age through these plastic cosmonaut dolls. The smallest appears to have just emerged from a toy model of the ship in which Yuri Gagarin made his globe-girdling flight.

Flying Billboard

DAYTONA BEACH—Colorful tires that glow in the dark, and the nation's only flying billboard will be featured attractions at the annual Daytona 500 stock car race.

Both of these products of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company will be on hand for pre-race activities.

Cruising the streets beginning today will be a Dodge convertible riding on experimental tires that could be the tires of the future. And drifting overhead will be "Mayflower II," the only non-military airship still operating in this country. It is scheduled to arrive here Feb. 16.

The translucent tires, made by pouring Neothane synthetic rubber into a mold and curing in an oven, have no fabric or laminations.

Equipped with lights inside them, the tires shine in the dark. The models on display will be red, but translucent tires can be made in virtually any color.

Although tests indicate the tire eventually will provide treadwear far beyond today's standards, more research and development must be done before the tire is marketed, according to Goodyear.

Germ Fighters

One virus, which looks something like a tadpole when magnified tens of thousands of times, uses its tail to penetrate a bacterium's outer covering. A living hypodermic needle, the virus sends material into the bacterial cell and, about 20 minutes later, the cell bursts and yields perhaps a hundred duplicates of the original virus.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

South's jump to five clubs was a multi-purpose bid. He rather hoped to make the contract and he wanted to shut the opponents out of the major suits. Furthermore, he had the medicine to set a five-diamond call.

If South's play had been as enterprising as his bidding, he would have been on his way home with the rubber, but South could not stand prosperity.

West opened the deuce of diamonds, East's king fell to South's ace. Without stopping to consider that the deuce of diamonds might well have been a singleton South re-queen of diamonds. West ruffed and led a trump whereupon South's slam had turned out to be down one at five.

Could South have made the hand? Yes!

At trick two he should have led the four of diamonds, not the queen. He would lose that trick and would have to lose a spade some later time, but he would be able to ruff his ten of diamonds with dummy's ace of trumps and make the 11 tricks he had contracted for.

Of course, South needed the diamond opening, but he already had that.

evening watching young people dance it.

It may not be the most graceful or romantic or dignified of dances—but it certainly looks harmless enough.

To begin with, a pair of twisters never embrace or touch each other. There's enough space between them for a chaparrone.

And not only do the dancers never touch each other—they scarcely look at each other. So if the dance is suggestive, only those who aren't out on the floor twisting are aware of it.

The twisters themselves are too engrossed in their own twisting to watch their partners. The look on their faces is one of total concentration and what they are concentrating on is their own dance. They are as self-absorbed as runners in a race.

So, why worry about young people doing the twist? When they're twisting they aren't romancing—they're working hard, just how hard no adult could imagine unless he had spent a whole evening doing the twist himself.

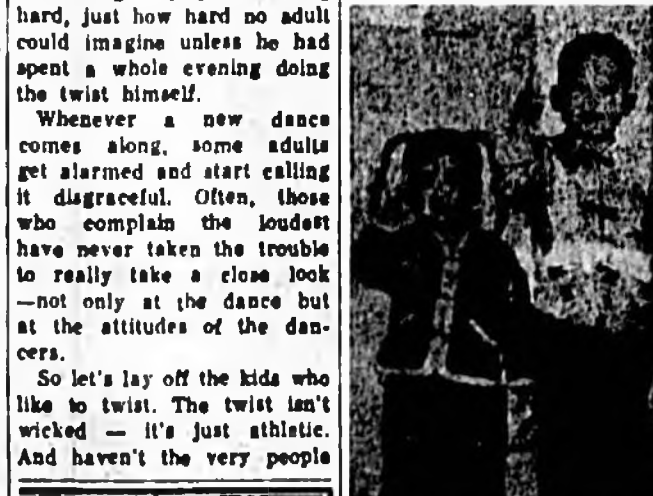

Whenever a new dance comes along, some adults get alarmed and start calling it disgraceful. Often, those who complain the loudest have never taken the trouble to really take a close look—not only at the dance but at the attitudes of the dancers.

So let's lay off the kids who like to twist. The twist isn't wicked—it's just athletic. And haven't the very people

DeBary Club Holds Luncheon Meeting

Members of the DeBary Business and Professional Women's Club held their monthly meeting at the DeBary Restaurant.

Dr. William Fidler spoke to the group on public relations. He told them that resentment usually closes the door to further understandings and being able to meet each other half way, and not looking for a means of escape, will determine how much we can use knowledge gained.

Other guests of the club were Mrs. Fidler and Mrs. Edna Payne of Arlington, Va., who has held several state offices including the presidency. She spoke briefly and related some of her club activities.

Mrs. Jo Peck, president, inducted Evelyn Drick as a new member and presented her a BFW pin. A nominating committee was appointed to present a slate of officers for election at the March meeting. They were Mrs. Marion Roberts, Mrs. A. Warner and Mrs. M. Williams.

During the business session,

Mrs. Peck gave a resume on the West Volusia Round Table meeting, held recently in De-

Land. Mrs. Roberts spoke on the Federation of BFW Clubs and the good will of the federation in other countries, illustrating her talk with lighted candles.

ACT TALL

There's a very simple way for a short girl to appear tall: just stand up straight. Carry yourself tall, your head poised high. It works wonders in the way of illusion, wonders that very high heels never can.

Keep your stomach flat, your hips trimmed down and your derriere tucked under. Strive, in short, for a proud carriage. And bear in mind girls envy your petite size and would love to trade places with you!

"Fun Night" Held In DeBary

MRS. HAROLD WILLS, in Dutch costume ready to greet guests attending the recent "Fun Night" held by the DeBary Woman's Club. (Cox Photo)

The DeBary Woman's Club sponsored a "Fun Night" for members and their husbands recently at the DeBary Community Center.

Mrs. Harold Wills, general chairman, attired in a Dutch costume, greeted guests at the door. Dr. George Frison Sr., emcee, introduced a barbershop quartet and Marjorie Gallea and her accordion, who gave several selections.

A square dancing group with their caller presented several square dances then asked the audience to join in the fun. All guests who were in costumes walked around the room while the judges selected winners.

Mrs. Viola Howard won first prize with her "Gun-smoke Kitty" outfit. Other outstanding members and their costumes included Mrs. E. Shoptaugh as "Tobacco Road Sally"; Mrs. M. Accardi and Mrs. Peck as gypsies; Mrs. Adam Muller as Sophie Tucker; H. Hill as a Greek god and Earl Merrill, a sheik.

Several members were very colorful in Japanese, Spanish, Quaker and Western attire and Mrs. Kay Ryan portrayed a "Cockeyed Mayor." Refreshments were served by the committee while various types of dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. E. S. McCall Sr. presided and announced that the circle would have charge of the beautification of the park on Mellonville Ave. and Second St. Mrs. E. C. Dickerson offered to do the planting and Mrs. R. F. Robison will see that the plants are watered. The park was recently the project of the Palm Circle.

Mrs. F. A. Palmer, civic beautification chairman, asked that everyone please report corners and intersections that are overgrown with brush and shrubbery so that they may be cleaned off to prevent accidents. She also suggested that anyone knowing of a garden that would be suitable for the Garden of the Month award to notify the beautification chairman.

The circle voted to donate $4 for the maintenance of the Blue Star Marker on highway 17-92. Mrs. Myron Smith suggested that since this was Valentine month, it be appropriate for each member to take a plant to a slut in as garden therapy.

The president announced that the annual flower show will be held in April at the high school gymnasium, and the Junior Garden Club workshop will be held in October. All circles will donate sandwiches to be sold with the money going to the general fund.

The Dirt Gardeners will have charge of the flowers in the hospital lobby and reception rooms for March.

All members are reminded that there is a good selection of garden and flower books in our local library and we should take advantage of this. Mrs. McCall also stated that the DeBary flower show will be held on Mar. 23 and anyone interested in making arrangements should have their reservations in by March 16.

Make Your Habits Work For You

By Alicia Hart, NEA

Habits are formed by doing the same things every day in much the same way. And they can work for health and good looks or against them.

Coffee drinking can be delightful, and therefore an enjoyable habit. But if you overdo it, it becomes a bad habit. Slumping is a bad habit and, if kept up, will give you a dowager's hump and other figure lumps.

Sitting up straight is easy and produces a better figure immediately. Obviously, this is a good habit, one that works for you. When you say you haven't the necessary time to exercise, remember this:

Good habits can help you. Standing erect, breathing deeply, walking rather than riding, touching your toes 30 times daily are all good habits that help you keep a lithe body.

And yet none takes any great amount of time. Try them and see.

THESE GIRL SCOUTS OF TROOP 102 celebrated a big day in their lives today they posed for this picture. They had put the finishing touch on the room in the Educational Building of Barnett Memorial Methodist Church, that had been assigned to them to paint and decorate to use for their meeting room. They held open house for the court of awards and their parents and friends came to help them celebrate. They plan to use some of the proceeds from the annual cookie sale to help send a girl to Savannah, Ga., this summer. A benefit chicken Hawaiian dinner will be given by the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on March 3. The recently completed Educational Building of the church at 103 W. 25th Place will be the site of the sumptuous layout of food, with serving from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

In announcing this new idea in banqueting, the co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert J. Provencher and Mrs. H. Stanley Ale, pointed out the wide public acceptance of the same group's smorgasboard dinners. The same excellent cooks will prepare this Hawaiian meal. The menu will include a chicken Hawaiian dish, fluffy rice and chow mein noodles, assorted relishes, a variety of bread and butter, drinks and pineapple ice cream.

In the past, committee members said, "The patrons of the church's dinners have acclaimed the excellence of the home made candy and pastry that has been offered," and again this popular feature will be included in the gala affair.

It is the plan of the committee to provide the utmost in Hawaiian atmosphere with special decorations and a background of Pacific Island music. leis will be furnished to the diners.

Tickets are available from any member of the Ladies Aid and because of the necessity of properly preparing the gourmet dishes, no tickets will be sold at the door. The sale will be limited to 200. Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Herbert Goerss and Mrs. Vernon Federson.

GOP May Blow Whistle On Kennedy Raps

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There were indications today that some Republican leaders might want to blow the whistle on snap GOP criticism of the Kennedy administration's military buildup in South Viet Nam.

President Kennedy, answering a charge by the Republican National Committee that he has followed a "secretive" course, told his news conference Wednesday that congressional leaders of both parties have been kept informed of the policy in Viet Nam.

His statement was generally confirmed by Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. Dirksen and most other GOP legislative leaders were absent from Washington honoring Abraham Lincoln at fund-raising rallies when the committee issued its criticism Tuesday.

Republicans shared in a briefing on world trouble spots at a January White House breakfast which included a rundown on the Viet Nam situation. Other Republicans have attended closed-door briefings in Senate and House committees.

One Republican observed that with that kind of background, and in view of the delicate situation in Viet Nam, any party spokesman "ought to be cautious" in expressing a GOP viewpoint.

The Republican national committee's publication Battle Line demanded that Kennedy make a full public report on what U. S. forces were doing in Viet Nam. It asked whether this country was "moving toward another Korea" and suggested that Kennedy "drop the pretense" been only a military adviser that the United States has in South Viet Nam.

Teamsters Invited To AFL Conference

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters Union officials said today they have been invited to send delegates next month to a legislative conference here sponsored by the AFL-CIO Building Trades Department.

Harold J. Gibbons, executive vice president of the AFL-CIO Building Trades Department, said this was an "illustration of the support we have" inside the labor federation.

The teamsters were kicked out of the AFL-CIO in 1957 on charges of corrupt domination. This led to a directive from George Meany, AFL-CIO president, barring any dealings between AFL-CIO affiliates and the Teamsters on the national level.

Gibbons said the 300 locals in the Teamsters engaged in building and highway construction work have been invited to send representatives to the conference, opening March 5. The meeting usually is attended by 2,500 to 3,000 AFL-CIO building tradesmen who spend part of their time lobbying for labor-backed legislation on Capitol Hill.

The building trades have traditionally had close ties with the Teamsters because of the truck union's importance in strikes or organizing campaigns. Nearly all materials arrive on construction job sites by truck.

A report circulated by the Western Conference of Teamsters said the invitation from the AFL-CIO department was "another affront to . . . Meany." It said this continued a relationship with the building trades that could hardly be closer even if the Teamsters were readmitted to the AFL-CIO.

Meany, who has made it plain he will not favor Teamsters' re-entry as long as James R. Hoffa heads the outcast union, was not available for comment on the Teamsters' statements.

When we say people are "double-jointed" it means that the ligaments at their bone connections are slightly looser, allowing the limbs to be bent in many directions. Acrobats usually have permanently stretched their ligaments.

Casselberry Scout Gets Eagle Award

By Jane Casselberry
Pete Carlson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Carlson of Mobile Manor, culminated four and one half years as a Boy Scout in Troop 341 of Casselberry when he received the highest rank in Scouting at an Eagle Court last Sunday night at the Lyman School Auditorium.

To make Eagle, a boy must achieve the rank of Life Scout and earn 21 Merit Badges (Pete has 23) and then the candidate must pass the high standards set by the Eagle Board of Review.

Pete was a Cub Scout for a year and a half before joining Troop 341. A sophomore at Lyman he is an honor student and plays football and basketball on the Junior Varsity teams.

Suffering from a case of jitters before Sunday night's program began, Pete was heard to comment "the hardest part of the whole thing is the presentation ceremony."

Members of his troop took part in the impressive candle lighting ritual and formed the color guard. Wally Krohne, council vice chairman of leadership training, presided over the ceremony opened by Rev. Darwin A. Shea, troop chaplain, who gave the invocation.

Wekiwa District Scout Executive Al Fiori charged the candidate with responsibilities of an Eagle Scout and members of the board of review reported on results of their inquiries on his qualification. Presentation of the badge was made by W. T. Daniel Jr., scoutmaster of the troop and Carlson presented his son with the certificate from the National Council of Honor. Pete pinned a miniature replica of the badge on a proud and beaming mother to conclude the presentation. Entertainment for the evening was presented by Lake Mary Troop 242 which performed a number of its Indian Tribal Dance routines.

Eagle Scouts of the area receiving recognition included Randall Chase Jr. of Troop 212; Russell Rose of Troop 62 of Walter Park and Carlton Beusse of Troop 22 of Lockhart.

Other scout officials in attendance were Jim Hays of Sanford, St. Johns River District commissioner and Randall Chase Sr., vice president of the Central Florida Council.

Troop 211 of Apopka attended in force as well as many friends and members of the Casselberry Lions Club which sponsors Troop 341.

NEW EAGLE SCOUT PETE CARLSON of Casselberry Troop 341 receives a congratulatory handshake from Scoutmaster W. T. Daniel Jr. and beaming approval from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Carlson. The award was made at Sunday night's Eagle Court held in his honor at the Lyman School Auditorium. Other Eagle Scouts of the area shown with Pete, third from left, in bottom photo, were also recognized during the ceremonies. Included were, from left, Randall Chase Jr. of Lake Mary Troop 242, Russell Rose of Winter Park Troop 62 and Carlton Beusse of Lockhart Troop 22. (Herald Photos)

Men Consider Fire Hall Plan For Lake Mary

Discussion of a proposal to draw a rate schedule for use of the Lake Mary Fire Hall by other social and civic groups was considered by members of the Volunteer Fire Dept. at their monthly business meeting Tuesday night.

Harvey Pugh, custodian of the hall, Ed Zimmerman and Harry Bucklew were appointed as a committee to study the matter and prepare a recommendation to be presented to directors of the organization for their approval before any further action is taken on the proposal.

Reports were read on the annual chicken barbecue sponsored last Saturday by the firemen and members of the Auxiliary with this year's proceeds of some $300 to go towards payment for the new building additions in the hall, which are nearing completion.

Letters of appreciation also were read from Morris M. Ruby, principal of Monroe-Wilson Elementary School and from John Schirrad Jr., who credited the volunteer department with saving his Loch Arbor home on Feb. 7.

Ruby cited the department for its prompt attention and cooperation in fighting a fire in the vacant lot next to the Lake Monroe Elementary School and stated that their action prevented any loss of structures.

Schirrad, who also sent a sizeable donation, highly commended the Lake Mary men for bringing the fire under control with "so little confusion and at so slight damage in doing so."

In other business, an announcement was made of a general meeting of interest to residents, voters and property owners in the area to be held at the Hall beginning at 8 p. m. Friday night. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss civic matters and developments and to introduce any prospective candidates for political offices of the county.

Longwood P-TO Fashion Show Brings Full House At School

By Mona Grinstead
Models and entertainers played to a full house at the Longwood Elementary P-TO Fashion Show and program last Thursday night featuring the latest styles in women's and children's wear.

Women's clothing, modeled by members of the faculty and P-TO came from Play Girl Fashions of Fern Park with the exception of the lovely bridal gown worn by bride-elect Miss Dorothy Fournier. Fern Park Clothiers provided styles shown by the children.

Entertaining during the intermission were Art Rhodes of North Orlando and Mrs. Eida Nichols of Longwood who combined talents to present an original and comical Hobo Song and Dance routine.

Anthony Fariello, violinist, opened the show and set the theme by playing a selection of Italian melodies.

A note of the unexpected came during the show when Jeanne Elkins of the competitive Maitland Shop proved to be the lucky winner of a sports outfit featuring the latest in slimmings from Play Girl Fashions.

Mrs. Rhodes, president of the organization, served as narrator and Mrs. Myra Stodden was pianist. Hair styles were by Neil's of Casselberry and set decorations were done by Pauline Stevens and Joe Mathieux.

Members of the school lunch room staff and of the P-TO were in charge of the refreshments which were served at the close of the program.

Spare Ribbers Announce Time Change

LATEST HOBBO FASHIONS were worn by P-TO members Art Rhodes and Mrs. Eida Nichols for their comedy and dance routine at last Thursday night's Fashion Show at the Longwood Elementary School. Clashing colors and air conditioning were right in style for these two travelers of "the happy highway." (Herald Photo)

Board Gets Legal Opinion On Voting

Attorney General Richard W. Erwin has advised the Casselberry Board of Aldermen that it is legally permissible for its members to cast a vote on all municipal matters although the issue at hand directly involves them in capacities other than an elected official of the town.

His letter suggested, however, that perhaps it would be to the best interests of the town for the board members to hold only their elective posts.

The attorney's opinion was requested after voting powers of Chairman Paul Bates and Alderman C. L. Overman were questioned at the January meeting. Bates is Chief of the Volunteer Fire Dept. and Overman is the town's building inspector.

Bates did not even open the matter for discussion at Monday night's regular board meeting, explaining that "the people knew I was fire chief when they elected me and I have no intention of resigning."

Casselberry Women's Club Names Officers

By Jane Casselberry
In a special election held at the Feb. 7 business meeting, the Women's Club of Casselberry named Mrs. Frank Gingham as its new president to fill the vacancy created by the untimely and accidental death of Mrs. Kenneth Green early last month.

Replacing Mrs. Bingham in the office of vice president will be Mrs. Albert Grinstead.

Club members also conducted a memorial service in Mrs. Green's honor during the meeting with Mrs. Joseph Laird presiding in the absence of Mrs. Bingham due to illness.

Oviedo High Plans Annual Coronation Ball

By Jean Lyles
Miss Linda Harris and Johnny Courier will be crowned reigning queen and king of Oviedo High at the school's annual Valentine Coronation Ball Saturday night.

The coronation ceremony is set for 8 p. m. in the school auditorium and will be open to all parents, friends and interested residents of the area.

Miss Sandy Mays and Tommy Estes were next in line for the honor titles and the court will be made up of two girls from each under grad class. Included will be Suzanne Partin and Ann Slavik, juniors; Ann Ridenour and Rhoda Haynes, sophomores; and Marilyn Partin and Jan Beasley, freshmen.

Mrs. John Courier and Mrs. Young Harris head the committee in charge of stage decorations for the big event of the school year and Mrs. James Partin and Mrs. Wesley Swenson are in charge of party and dance preparations.

A nominal admission charge has been set for the dance.

Party Was Fun After Initial Shock Wore Off

By Jane Casselberry
How does the average couple feel when 32 people drop in unexpectedly for supper on moving day...?

This is exactly what happened to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shook of Casselberry recently when they moved from their home in North Orlando to their Lake Kathryn home here and after the initial shock wore off, they enjoyed every minute of it!

Proving that old fashioned neighborliness isn't dead yet, a group of their friends brought a complete picnic supper with them as well as dishes and silver and even groceries to stock the new pantry.

Participating in the surprise and fun were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McClain and son, Rev. and Mrs. Darwin Shea and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Krohne Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Messick and family and Mrs. Don Montgomery and family as well as the Shook children, Larry, Steve, Ricky and Patty and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCombs who make their home with the honored couple.

County Clubs Set Train Trip

Seminole County boys and girls of the 4-H Clubs, the 5-H Club and adult leaders and members of Home Demonstration Clubs will ride before the cock crows Saturday morning to board a 6:50 a. m. train bound for the Florida State Fair in Tampa where a State 4-H Council Meeting and Awards Program will take place during the day.

Making the trip with the local groups will be County Agent Cecil Tucker and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Myrtle Wilson. Slavia 4-H Club members, going by bus, will be met at the Fairgrounds.

Arrival of the special train in Tampa is set for 9:30 a. m. and departure has been scheduled for 2:30 p. m. in order that the return to Sanford can be made by 8:10 p. m.

Women's Club Sets Luncheon

The Women's Club of Casselberry will sponsor a luncheon and card party beginning at 12:30 p. m. Thursday at the Club Building on Overbrook Dr.

Table and door prize will be awarded during the event which is open to the public.

'Reports Untrue,' Homeowners Say

By Mona Grinstead
Reports that members of the North Orlando Homeowner's Assn. have been advised by an attorney not to vote in the coming Village election have been termed "just rumors and completely untrue" by R. C. Sullivan, newly elected president of the group.

The association was organized early last year by community residents protesting annexation of their properties into the village.

Following a closed meeting of the group last Saturday at his home, Sullivan told the Herald that he had "every intention of voting in the election."

"The Homeowners were organized solely for the purpose to work toward betterment of the community. We are not planning to try and defranchise the village and our only complaint is that we feel we were annexed illegally," Sullivan advised.

He also stated that the group has no intention to back its own candidates in the election and that members will make their own decisions when they vote.

"We are not a political organization and plan no part in the election other than to vote for the man of our choice," he emphasized.

Other new officers are Fred Salter, vice president and Mrs. Salter, secretary-treasurer. All were elected after recent resignations of Art Ferrin as president and A. H. Rhodes as secretary-treasurer, who explained that pressing business duties did not allow them the time they felt should be given to the organization.

Supper Honors New Owners Of Golf Course

By Jane Casselberry
Some 200 Casselberry officials, Country Club members and invited guests attended a Saturday supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Park. Park is new owner of the Casselberry Country Club and nine hole Golf Course.

Hibbard Casselberry, president of Casselberry Gardens, Inc., developer of the course and supper host also acted as master of ceremonies for the event.

The invocation, given by Rev. Darwin A. Shea, opened the event during which Casselberry introduced club officials present. Included were Mrs. Al Vickers, president of the Ladies Golf Assn.; Mrs. C. L. Overman, social chairman who was responsible for floral decorations at the supper; Bob Harvey, tournament chairman; George McKinnon, past president of the board of governors and Irv Waterman, golf pro. Town officials introduced were Carl Stoddard, mayor, and Overman, member of the Board of Aldermen and one of the club's charter members.

Park announced future plans for expansion to an 18 hole course and for building a swimming pool with construction to get underway within a few days after the sale is recorded. His plans for the pool received enthusiastic applause for the much needed facility will be large enough to accommodate amateur swimming meets and will be a major attraction of the area, according to his statements.

Following the benediction and a brief address from Rev. Oscar C. Poole of the Community Methodist Church, guests enjoyed dancing to the music of the Harmonettes combo.

The check was presented by Thornton Smith, president of the association, at last Thursday's meeting of the Auxiliary at the Fire House.

In other business, Mrs. William West, Mrs. Theodore Cully and Mrs. Beatrice Mulder were appointed as a nominating committee and Mrs. Francis Zetter and Matilda Boyd were accepted as new members.

The program on Lincoln and Washington was given by Miss Beatrice J. Tyson who pointed out various ways the lives of these men have resulted in the building of the American nation.

Young Republicans Organize In County

By Jane Casselberry
An organizational meeting to form a South Seminole County Young Republican Club was held on Feb. 8 at the Winter Park Yacht Club under the direction of Pat McKinney Jr. of Casselberry assisted by Dick Courtney of Winter Park.

A temporary slate of officers elected at the meeting includes McKinney, president; L. E. Woodhams, secretary, and Mrs. Woodhams, treasurer.

Plans were made for the membership drive presently underway in South Seminole County in order that the group may become an affiliate of the State Federation.

McKinney advises that at least 10 more members are needed before the South Seminole Club can be recognized and asks that any interested persons contact him for details of membership and dues.

Although officers in the organization cannot be more than 40 years of age, those who are older will be welcomed and will have a vote in club affairs, McKinney says.

He emphasized that the organization is not just another social club and is not interested in becoming involved in town politics but hopes to become a real force in future county and state elections.

On Friday the new organization will be privileged to have Congressman William C. Cramer as principal speaker at a noon luncheon in the Casselberry Women's Club on Overbrook Dr.

Officials point out that the luncheon will be informal and urge businessmen of the area to attend. Fish or chicken box lunches will be available. Reservations, to be closed this afternoon, should be made with Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Woodham or Don Wilson, Seminole County Republican Committee Chairman.

Sanford Nurse Explains ANA Work And Aims

In conjunction with the Membership Roll Call now under way in all parts of the state by the Florida Nurses Assn., Mrs. Lois H. Duggar, public relations chairman of local district 37 of the organization, has released an advisory concerning purposes and aims of the American Nurses Assn.

In advising that membership in the local group automatically entitled a registered nurse to affiliation with the state and national organizations, Mrs. Duggar has personally urged all nurses of Sanford and Seminole County to join during the February drive for new members.

She explains that the ANA is an organization of men and women from all areas of nursing practice and from all parts of the country who have joined together to exchange ideas and information to promote the interest and welfare of each practitioner.

The national organization sets standards and programs to advance the profession and to insure that it functions in the best interests of the public. Its sole object is to promote "better nursing."

Every professional nurse should have a part in this process that comes through joining the organization, Mrs. Duggar concluded.

FIRST FNA MEMBER to join local District 37 during the February Membership Roll Call was Mrs. Mildred Neville, center, who was welcomed by Mrs. Lois Duggar, public relations chairman, at right, and Mrs. Mabel Plety, membership and credentials chairman, left, at Tuesday night's meeting of the registered nurses group at the Seminole County Health Center. Mrs. Neville simultaneously became a member also of the state organization and of the American Nurses Assn. (Herald Photo)

Red Officer Evades U. S. Ban

BERLIN (UPI)—Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, Berlin's soviet commandant, evaded an American ban and drove into West Berlin Wednesday through a British sector crossing point, West Berlin police reported. Police said the British had informed West Berlin border police in advance that the Russian commandant would enter at the Invalidenstrasse crossing point that is supposed to be reserved for West Berliners. He thus evaded a ban on entering West Berlin through Friedrichstrasse on the American sector border. This crossing point, according to East German rules, is the only one foreigners may use. United Press International television cameraman said Solovyev drove to the British headquarters. Police said he entered the British sector at 2:25 p.m., a few minutes after the British informed police he was on his way. Earlier, West Berlin police reported that Communist police fired on and captured two men trying to flee to West Berlin early this morning.

Another Cuban Pilot Escapes

GANDER, Md. (UPI)—A Cuban pilot asked for political asylum in Canada Wednesday after being turned down in Ireland. Immigration officials said the co-pilot of a Cubana airliner left the plane as it landed here early this morning and asked for political asylum. He was the 10th Cuban on Cubana's Prague-Havana flight to seek refuge here in the past year. The co-pilot was identified by Irish authorities as George Daural.

Kennedy Didn't Have To Duck

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UPI)—An Indonesian demonstrator threw a duck egg at Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, it missed. The egg-throwing incident took place as Kennedy entered the auditorium of the University of Indonesia's law school, where he delivered an address urging students to show "a little more maturity" in their judgments of the United States.

Taxes Seen Top Election Issue

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Taxes are expected to be the dominant issue in races for 19 seats in the State Senate and 95 in the House of Representatives this year. Gov. Farris Bryant opened the door to concentration on tax matters when he declared that his opposition to new taxes applied to the 1961 Legislature alone. He said he hoped the tax issue would get a thorough airing in the legislative races this year.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

... H. L. Johnson Another Thursday. And it's also Kids Day at the Fair. Have you been to the Fair yet? There are some nice displays this year. . . . Thanks Ray Slayton for the nice compliment. Also Helen Walker, in the County School office. Ray's daughter Betty was one of the Glee Club girls who went to Miami with us recently. She is certainly a sweet girl. . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Underwood, Mrs. Annie Hecot, and Mrs. Nora Aldridge of Waycross, Ga.

have all been visiting with their aunt Mrs. G. B. Sapp and Myrtle Nettles on the Upsala Road. . . . The Upsala Presbyterian Church is having a family supper night on Feb. 23 starting at 6:30 p. m. The Dorcas Circle will have an old fashioned cake walk. So keep it in mind. . . . Steve Cain and Raymond Freeman went to the Tampa State Fair last Friday. They certainly had a wonderful time. Also having a good time at the Fair was Linda Stapler and Sue Orseno who were with the Girl Scout Troop, Lorena Tundel and I are going down Saturday with the 4-H Group from the County. . . . Happy Birthday Wendell Allison. Wonder if I should tell them you are now at the old age of 15. . . . With somebody would lend me some of their spare time if they have any. I sure do need it. There just doesn't seem to be enough hours in the day anymore. . . . Eight Home Demonstration ladies enjoyed a craft workshop at Olga Hunters the other night. We made planters out of empty oil cans. They are certainly nice. . . . While we worked Olga served us coffee and good nie homemade cookies. She is a wonderful person and it's always a pleasure to be with her. . . . The other evening while I was preparing the evening meal my wee granddaughter Cindy came up to me and said "You are sure cute Granny." I thanked her and went on about the meal. Again she said "You are sure a pretty Granny." Again I thanked her and asked her what she was wanting and she said "Supper Granny." I knew there was a catch to it somewhere. . . . I see that a lot of the trees are starting to have leaves on them and I saw a peach tree blooming. Maybe it's a good sign of Spring. . . . Ruth and Tommy Swaggerty are planting gladiolus bulbs. And they are planting them right where I can look out of my window and see them. They are so pretty. . . . Well the Road Dept. finally has started paving the Paola road. That road has caused more inconvenience for the people than First Street has so far. Oh well, just another sign of progress. . . . So very sorry to hear that the Thomas McWaters both are in the local hospital because of an auto accident in front of their home. Sure hope they get well quick. . . . L. C. Hobby and daughters are going to Doerun, Ga., this weekend to bring Pauline home. She has been there for the past two weeks visiting with relatives. . . . I hate to remind you but there is only one week left to purchase the license tags for your cars. Avoid the last minute rush. I got mine last week and I had to wait 35 minutes. So it won't slow up now and there are four persons waiting on the customers at that. . . . The Dorcas Circle of the Upsala Presbyterian Church meets next Thursday evening at White Hall. All ladies of the church are invited to attend. The meeting will start at 7:30 p. m. . . . When you go out to the Fair be sure to notice the beautiful plastic and foam rubber hand bags made by Mrs. B. H. Gray of Longwood. They are simply out of this world. She belongs to the Longwood H. D. Club. The other evening while out there I stood there and watched her make a gorgeous hat to match one of her purses. I'm telling you we certainly have some SMART ladies in our County Home Demonstration Clubs. That's in evidence out there when you look at all of the exhibits. . . . Our thought this week is a very good one on Life. It was given to me by Geneva Bumgarner. I certainly thank her for it too.

Forest Fire Report Issued For January

Seminole County Forest Ranger Jerry W. Laws of the Longwood tower station has released a report of forest fires occurring in the County last month as compared with records of January, 1961.

In January, 1961, there were 58 fires which burned a total of 408.1 acres. Of these, 23 were incendiary, or set fires, and 35 were the result of carelessness.

Last month 50 fires burned a total of 1,732.1 acres. Fourteen were incendiary and 36 were careless.

According to Laws' report, the worst day so far this year came on Jan. 30 when five fires occurred burning a total of 835 acres. The biggest fire that day burned 466 acres near the old Osceola Airfield.

Laws points out that although there was a marked decrease in the incendiary fires there also was a notable increase in those caused through carelessness by allowing trash fires and land clearing fires to escape to adjoining areas.

He again cautioned that the county is suffering an extreme dry period and that with the high winds of March approaching, residents are urged to take every precaution possible to prevent any further destruction of the county's pasture and timberlands.

OLD FASHIONED QUILTING is being revived by members of the WSGS Sunshine Circle of the Community Methodist Church in Casselberry. ## DeBary Democrat Hear Law Official

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Howard DeMott of the Volusia County Sheriff's Dept. was guest speaker at the Feb. 7 meeting of the DeBary Democratic Club held in the Fire House.

Outlining duties and history of the law enforcement office, DeMott said that the office was created in Florida in 1885 and that the first Sheriff in the state was elected for a four year term in 1888.

Duties of the sheriff revolve around the preservation of peace and power of the office supercedes all other police work. Officers of the department serve Grand Jury subpoenas and often are called for services in law suits, divorce actions and eviction cases, the speaker reported.

Work of the office also includes detection of crime and arrest of offenders, DeMott said. He pointed out that a sheriff must live within five miles of the county seat where he serves.

Club members were advised that the Volusia department handles some 75 prisoners each day and that traffic cases in the area come under jurisdiction of the Florida Highway Patrol. In addition the office provides an identification division, a plac, clothes division, radio stations at DeLand and Daytona and boat patrols for the St. Johns River and the East Coast.

Mrs. DeMott attended the meeting with her husband.

Harris M. Saxo Volusia County commissioner of roads, is scheduled to be guest speaker at the March meeting of the DeBary political club.

DeBary Firemen Answer Call For Inhalator

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Members of the DeBary Volunteer Fire Dept. who answered an inhalator call at 2:15 p. m. last Friday for Alex Bremner of Juan Rd., report that he is recuperating satisfactorily at a DeLand hospital.

Volunteers, credited with saving many lives in the community by their prompt response, have installed a telephone gong in the new building in order that men working there can hear the telephone ring.

GulfTane

FLORIDA'S LARGEST SELLING BRAND OF ECONOMY GASOLINE

GULFTANE

In two short months, Gulf's new lower priced quality gasoline for 1 out of 2 cars is a proven success. Millions of motorists have proven, in over a billion driving miles, that GulfTane is lowering their cost of driving.

Gulf research developed GulfTane specifically to meet the needs of the 50% of cars on the road that don't need—in fact, can't even use—extra octanes.

All that extra octanes can do for these cars (and that includes older cars as well as many of the newer compacts on the road) is increase their gasoline costs.

Yet, for all the economy it offers, GulfTane is a quality gasoline. In your engine, it lubricates intake valves and upper parts of the piston. It is a specially blended gasoline to give you easy starting in all seasons.

The best way to find out if GulfTane was made for your car is to try a few tankfuls. If you are driving the one car in two that doesn't need extra octanes, GulfTane will give all the performance that was built into your engine—at a lower cost.

Your Gulf dealer has always been proud to offer the finest products for your money. Now he has done it again with GulfTane New No-Nox® • Good Gulf® • GulfTane

THREE GREAT GASOLINES TO LOWER YOUR COST OF DRIVING

By LARRY VERSHEL.
I'm getting off the turkey, beans and meat circuit right now.
I spoke at the Civitan Club Thursday night . . . The fella that introduced me had a steak and the guest of honor (me?) had stew and cold rice. Just as the waitress poured me a cup of coffee they introduced me and that was that . . . and to top it off one good buddy kept asking me about "Terry And The Pirates."

We were besieged by telephone calls Thursday morning on why the school children were let out of school early to attend the county fair. Some mothers felt their kids were in school to learn. Anyway, school officials at first refused to let the youngsters go, but later in the morning changed their minds.
Speaking about phone calls we received two Thursday from the same old source. What to do about stray dogs. There isn't much I can tell them with an inactive humane society.

Interesting to note that the U. S. Chamber of Commerce asked Congress to investigate the House and Home Finance Agency. Yes, ask them about the rumormongers that gave our county board in Atlanta a few months back.

Did you know that the low bidder on the proposed post office had his $15,000 bond forfeited.

Have you noticed the way that vacant lot on Sanford Ave. between Fourth and Fifth was cleaned up

City Tax Collector Henry Tamm Jr. reported this morning that the city will start clamping down on delinquent occupational licenses.

The State Board of Health has asked the city to relocate the chlorinator room at the Ft. Mellon Park Swimming pool, or they will lose their permit. Pete Knowles says the work will be accomplished in 10 days.

It sure was a shame that our Legislative delegation wasn't invited to that meeting on a mass transportation system Thursday night.

The first phase of the courthouse renovation program will be repairing windows in the facility.

Work has already started on fixing up the stockade for the county agent. The bars will stay on the windows.

We looked at preliminary sketches for the proposed Sanford Shopping Center across from Kattif's Salvage Yard.

Hope to have a complete picture for release by next week.

Commissioner John Fitzpatrick tells us that part-time Health Director W. H. Sisk likes it so much here that he will forget about that $100 per month supplementary pay and will work for nothing.

Insiders believe that the city won't accomplish much by going about this $1,000,000 water improvement program phase-by-phase. All or nothing at all, is the way they feel about it. We'll know Monday night.

The local Moose Club is planning an extensive membership drive and will kick it off Feb. 26 at the Lake Mary Lodge Hall with a meeting open to the public. The highlight will be Magician Fred Terrell, (one of the best). Oops, forgot to mention it, but it's free and the kids are invited.

Look for an announcement soon on a proposed inter-city bus system. A group of local men plan to ask the city for a franchise agreement.

Jaycees are planning a big push to get new registered voters in the county.

Congo Arrests Two In Attache's Death

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (UPI)—Police brought in two Congolese for questioning today in the slaying of Lt. Col. Hulien Morris Stogner, the assistant U. S. military attache here.
Stogner was fatally shot in bed at his home late that night while his secretary sat nearby, and died in a UN hospital about an hour later.
For the third day in a row, the 49-year-old astronaut and all his equipment were ready. But the wind-tossed Atlantic Ocean was not. Shortly after 1 a. m. EST, project Director Walter Williams said through a spokesman: "Weather conditions preclude a launching attempt."
Fuel will be drained from his Atlas rocket, to be replaced after the preliminary countdown resumes on Monday.
Lt. Col. John A. Powers, chief spokesman for Project Mercury, said weather experts were "more optimistic" about the outlook for landing conditions Tuesday.

Group Protests Ban On Tshombe To Florida

NEW YORK (UPI) — The State Department has been accused of denying Katanga's Moise Tshombe a visa in order to prevent the American public from hearing the other side of the Congo question.
The accusation came Thursday from a spokesman for Young Americans for Freedom, a conservative group. Tshombe was to have addressed the organization's March 7 rally in Madison Square Garden.
The State Department, in effect, barred a visit by the Katanga president to this country, saying it would "interrupt and jeopardize" efforts to restore peace to the Congo and unify that nation under the central government.
The state was interpreted as a flat rejection of Tshombe's bid for an entry visa.

Transportation, Water, Land Survey Urged

Officials and civic leaders of three Central Florida counties were told Thursday night that the area's greatest need at the present time is a "transportation, water and land uses survey" which could be of unlimited value to development expected within the next few years.
"Such a survey is particularly needed for planning transportation, water management and recreation if we are to meet the demands of the next 10 years," Carl Peterson of the engineering firm, Howard, Needles, Tammen and Bergendoff, told the group.
The meeting, held at the north branch of Winter Park Savings and Loan Assn. in Fern Park, was called for the purpose of bringing together leaders of Orange, Lake and Seminole counties to discuss the feasibility of a monorial system from Orlando to Cape Canaveral.
Methods of financing the estimated million-a-mile project, needed rights of way and possible routes for connecting lines to Seminole and Lake Counties were principal factors considered. Serving as a moderator for the discussion was Douglas Stenstrom, Seminole's Long Range Planning and Development Committee chairman.
According to Peterson, mass transportation definitely will be a problem in Central Florida by 1970 and monorial could prove to be the ideal system vehicle.
The proposed system now under study would provide pick-up cars traveling at 15 to 20 miles per hour through outlying areas before joining at a major entrance station. From there the cars would move to major employment centers at an estimated 150 miles per hour, the engineer advised.
Representing Seminole County at the meeting, other than Stenstrom, were County Commissioners John Fitzpatrick and Jim Avery, Zoning Board Member George Bobrow, Hibbard and Leonard Caselberry and Scott Burns, Florida Power and Light Co. manager.

British Troops Go To Guiana Upheaval

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (UPI) — Gov. Sir Ralph Grey asked Great Britain today for troops to prevent a general strike from developing into civil strife.
In London, the Defense Ministry said two companies of combat-ready troops will be flown immediately to Georgetown "for the sole purpose of maintaining law and order."
Twenty thousand striking workers paraded through Georgetown Thursday night. It was the second full-scale public protest movement against policies of the leftist government of Premier Cheddi Jagan.
The general strike, in its third day, already has forced Jagan to announce modification of certain budget policies.
Grey asked London for aid after proclaiming a state of siege throughout British Guiana. His action was taken at cabinet request.
Jagan said he will drop plans to increase duties on most "nonessential" imports and apply his compulsory-savings plan only to those who earn $200 or more a month instead of making it effective at the $100-a-month level.
It was not certain that these concessions would satisfy the strikers.

Cuba UN Case 'Red Setback'

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Diplomats today regarded the rejection of Cuba's Communist-backed "aggression" charges against the United States as a major UN setback for Soviet prestige.
Only Cuba and the Dominican Soviet bloc voted for the measure when the General Assembly's Main Political Committee rejected by a 50-11 vote with 29 abstentions a Communist resolution calling on the United States to end its "interference" with Fidel Castro's regime.

Consider Probe Of Shell Houses

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—A state legislative subcommittee investigating the shell house industry will sound out local chambers of commerce to see if there is enough interest to have public hearings around the state.
Rep. William O'Neill of Ocala, chairman of the committee, said Thursday, "I have seen shell houses falling apart that have not been standing even three years."

Red Flights May Be Summit Stampede Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials said today Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be trying to stampede President Kennedy into a summit conference by increasing tension over Berlin.
That could be one explanation, they said, for Soviet harassment of Allied air traffic to the city at the very time Khrushchev is plugging for a top-level meeting to establish better relations.
The United States, Britain and France warned Russia Thursday they would take "necessary action" to insure the safety of their planes unless Soviet fighters stop "aggressive and dangerous" passes in the three air corridors from West Germany to Red-encircled West Berlin.
In identical notes, the three Allies said Russia was running the "greatest of risks" by trying to exclude Allied traffic from the corridors during specific periods.
Kennedy said Wednesday he would think a summit conference worthwhile only if it promised real progress on critical issues or "if there was a major crisis which threatened to involve us all in a war."
Some diplomats felt Khrushchev's current strategy might be directed toward bringing pressure on both points mentioned by the President.
Officials said two other possible explanations for the Russian efforts to restrict Allied air traffic also occurred to them:
—Khrushchev may be trying to see whether Allied preoccupation with a multitude of other matters has caused the Western powers to relax their firmness on Berlin.

New Restaurant Is Different

Press, radio and television writers, producers and advertising personnel from all over Central Florida were present Thursday night at a Press Party given at the new Rikaha Inn on Hwy. 17-92 by owner Jeno Paulucci.
Guests entering the eye-catching new-style restaurant all stopped to gaze at the beautiful entrance garden, graced with a statue of Kwan Yen, goddess of kind and good spirits, made brilliant with a blue flame dancing on the surface of the tiny pool.
In the receiving line in the Tree Room were Paulucci, general manager Bob D'Averson and Mrs. D'Averson; projects director Joseph Puglisi; Ray Denlow and Hostess Josephine Burgess. Meeting and mingling with the guests were public relations director Jim Lee, designer Kenneth McCorkell, contractor and builder, A. K. (Kay) Shoemaker, and others.
In the Good Fortune room where guests were served their choice of beverages along with delicious egg rolls, were seen the panels with Chinese figures painted upon them, with wishes for good health, good fortune and long life.
Another striking note are the two genuine rickshas, just waiting for their coolie man-power and looking romantically on their high wheels, with their cozy, colorful cushions.
There is a patio outside complete with comfortable chairs and tables for outdoor dining, with quick and efficient service.
The temple-styled dramatic sign that stands high in front of the restaurant proclaims glowing old holly on the huge gong hanging beneath it.
Heralding an entirely new kind of family-style dining out, the Rikaha Inn promises to stand high on the list of "musts" for Central Florida and tourists alike.
