Lions Club Contributes $5,000 To SA Campaign

The Sanford Lions Club unanimously voted to subscribe a total of $5,000 toward the new Salvation Army community service center to be constructed on a four-acre piece of property between 22nd and 23rd Streets off French Avenue.

In announcing the support of the Lions Club, Wade S. Snyder said: "The membership of our Lions Club is interested in the success of this building fund drive. We do not have a large membership, but we are an active club. Every member of our club can appreciate the importance of our local Salvation Army. For the past 43 years it has struggled to serve Seminole County. It has never had an adequate place from which to operate and in spite of this it has kept on serving the people."

The new center will be a facility that can be used by every area of our community. Our Lions Club can use it as well as other clubs and organizations. We believe that this building fund offers us the best and most practical opportunity we will ever have to create a facility that can and will become a real community service center."

The membership of the Lions Club suggests that other clubs and organizations within Seminole County join with it in the support of this building fund drive. They said, "We know that every club cannot make a contribution of $5,000 but we believe that most clubs can make a meaningful contribution. Our commitment is budgeted over a period of five years and we plan to contribute $1,000 each year for a total contribution of $5,000."

In accepting the contribution from the Lions Club, Harold Kastner, co-chairman of the building fund, said: "This is a wonderful expression of support. I hope that the generosity of the Lions Club will serve to inspire other groups to join in the support of this community project. This new facility will be available for all groups to use. It is a community center. It will exist for the use and benefit of the people, groups and organizations of Seminole County."

Capt. Billy Lyons, commanding officer of the Salvation Army, said: "Our prayers are being sent to be answered. The Sanford Lions Club has become the first club to support our building fund drive. Our funds have been maintained so that they would be supporting our building fund. Even some of the churches have indicated that they would consider supporting the building fund."

"This is the spirit that we need, the kind that begins in people's hearts and grows through their actions and their support. We are thrilled by the contributions that we have received. We have received contributions from $500 to $5,000. Everything that we seek to do and to build is for the betterment and benefit of the people of Seminole County."

Any group, organization or individual wishing further information about the building fund drive is asked to call Captain Lyons at 322-2642 in Sanford. All contributions to the fund drive may be budgeted over a period of five years.

Two Are Arrested In Burglary Series

Persistent investigation paid off for Seminole Det. Raymond Parker Tuesday night with his arrest of a Lake Mary man and the resulting recovery of $5,000-$6,000 worth of property reported stolen in Seminole and Orange Counties.

Louis Cassidy, 20, Country Club Road, and a 16-year-old companion from South Seminole, were apprehended by Parker, after the law man spent three weeks parked on various county roads until the early hours of the morning watching for a station wagon bearing a Maryland license plate, which had been observed by several witnesses at various county homes where burglaries occurred.

Cassidy was driving such a vehicle when Parker arrested him on five charges, including two counts of grand larceny, one count of burglary and two counts of petty larceny, after finding numerous items listed as stolen in the man's home.

Cassidy's juvenile companion, who resides in English Estates, also was arrested by the detective on similar charges. Parker said among the items recovered were several 10-speed bicycles, three guns, three silk screen paintings, two motorcycles, several stereos and other assorted items.

The accused is charged with taking an estimated $1,500 worth of stereo equipment from the Oviedo home of Mitchell Hancock, Parker said.

Other charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny are expected to be filed by Orange County authorities for alleged offenses there by Cassidy, Parker added.

At Altamonte Springs Sunday Liquor Sales Near

By DONNA ESTES
ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — All that stands in the way of the Sunday sale of alcoholic beverages in restaurants serving 200 or more persons in this city is the technicality of adoption of an appropriate ordinance.

Councilman Dan Dorfman Tuesday night said he favors the plan, which brought to three the public commitments for the change that will benefit especially the new hotels to be built in the city and the Leary's Restaurant currently under construction.

Councilman T. A. Radloff earlier had stated his support as had Mayor Lawrence Swiford. Swiford reiterated last night that he is "willing to go along with state law governing special liquor licensing."

The owner of Leary's restaurant, located at 430 and Boston Road, said he does not feel the restaurant can operate on Sundays without alcoholic beverages.

A representative of the planned Holiday Inn said the hotel will be competing with neighboring hotels for business and desires the Sunday sales with meals. He said the hotel would have a convention center seating 300, a dining room seating 180 and have sections for another 140 in the cocktail lounge. When asked directly if the hotel dining room will be able to seat 200 to comply with the law when adopted, the representative said if one wants to get technical some 800 can be served in all. He also revealed the hotel will begin operation with 200 units and eventually expand to 350 units.

William Doyle, of Barney's Barbecue, said, "Unless you let me do the counting, we don't have 200 seats." He continued that denying a small restaurant the right to serve beer and wine with meals is like denying a gas station with two pumps the right to operate while allowing one with four pumps to continue in business. He said such an arrangement would be inequitable.

It was explained, however, that the city ordinance will follow the guidelines of state law concerning special licensing for alcoholic beverages.

Councilman Dan Dorfman said socially, even in Altamonte Springs, generally the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages on Sunday is accepted. Radloff added it is obvious if people use the facilities they want the service.

Open 7 a.m. to be allowed on Sunday was generally agreed to be 11 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Councilman Helen Keyser, an opponent of Sunday sales, said she would check out requirements for the state license with the liquor control board. City Atty. Joseph Davis Jr. was instructed to prepare the appropriate ordinance for adoption at next week's Council meeting.

A 'Bedroom Resident' Sen. Jackson: Florida Is The Key

By FRED VAN PELT
The Florida presidential primary next month will be a major guiding influence in the outcome of the political party conventions in their selection of presidential nominees, in the opinion of Henry M. Jackson, The Washington Democrat visited for more than an hour this morning, touching on all political issues, with Sanford Herald news editor.

Senator Jackson left it doubtful he feels about the Florida vote, pointing out he has almost become a "bedroom resident" of the state since starting his campaign for the Democratic nomination for president in the March 14 Democratic primary.

An Associated Press dispatch this morning quoted Merrill Winsett, Florida campaign director for Jackson: "I can't quite see any candidate catching fire in this state because there doesn't quite seem to be that much public interest in the whole thing."

On reading the dispatch, Jackson stated: "I'm going to have to deny this. I had not seen it... and I don't know what Merrill was thinking about, or any such thing."

"Because, frankly, I believe Florida is the No. 1 key to the party nomination. It's no longer 'as New Hampshire goes so goes the nation.' It's 'as Florida goes so goes the nation.' As I said just recently and repeat here now for you: South Florida is representative of the North; North Florida is representative of the South; and Central Florida has everything else."

Questions were popped by The Herald's newsman and it soon became evident to the questioner that Jackson's stand is that the No. 1 issue in the current presidential campaign is inflation — unemployment, each of which is linked with the other. He was emphatic that the Vietnam war is not now the No. 1 political issue.

He pointed out that President Nixon has been advocating for the way out to victory, a cease-fire, South Vietnam elections and a pull-out of American troops along with release of American prisoners of war. Jackson then displayed a copy of a letter which was drafted — Sept. 1, 1970 — signed by himself and 39 other members of the U. S. Senate, and addressed to Nixon, in which he advocated the very same policy Nixon is now pursuing.

Senator Jackson did say Nixon should be permitted to continue with his negotiations to end the war, without domestic criticism — save the criticism until he accomplishes "his purpose," seemed to be the gist of Jackson's statements.

President Nixon has "missed the boat" entirely in the main issue of the current political campaign and "it's too late now for him to recognize the error of his ways and to modify that mistake," Jackson continued, that at least two years ago, if not before, Nixon should have started ways and means to solve the domestic economy problem. "But, it's too late now for this campaign," he added.

Jackson touched on Nixon's foreign policy, saying that Henry Kissinger should have been secretary of state in fact; on the war, on economy, on the space program, on the mounting national debt. He parried all questions with answers well thought out in advance.

While Senator Jackson lacks the masculine glimmer held by some of his political opponents, he has well trained and educated himself for the chair he seeks in the White House. He is friendly, quick to smile and seems to enjoy his campaigning. He leaves no doubt he wants to be President.

At the conclusion of the interview, Mrs. Bill Gielow popped the question on many minds: "When did you get the nickname of 'Sleepy'?" "I was on a newspaper," to which he responded, "No—but when I was four years old there was a newspaper character, a lazy newspaper reporter named 'Sleepy,' who was always managing to have other people do his work. My sister was quick to note the resemblance and nicknamed me 'Sleepy.'"

Mrs. William Norris welcomes to Sanford U. S. Sen. Henry M. Jackson who met with the public for an hour this morning at Holiday Inn in his quest for votes in the March 14 Democratic presidential primary election. Jackson then spent an hour with Sanford Herald editors.

Nixon's State Of The World Doors Are Closed— But Quickly Reopened

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here, at a glance, is what President Nixon told Congress today in his third annual "State of the World" message.

Accomplishments
Striking progress was made in 1971 toward building "a stable structure of world peace... a more-balanced alliance with our friends—and a more-creative connecting with our adversaries."

Disappointments
Chief among the "several sharp disappointments" of 1971, was the failure to negotiate a Vietnam peace. Others included the inability to prevent the Indian-Pakistan war, lack of success in finding a Middle East solution and the expansion of Nationalist China from the United Nations.

Dangers

Prospects
A first-step agreement in the U. S.-Soviet strategic-arms limitation talks might be ready for signing by the time he reaches Moscow in May.

Further, while leaving for the time being deep differences, his trip to China later this month will eliminate "a sterile and barren interlude... between two great peoples."

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon told his Democratic rivals today that candidates for President should carefully examine any criticism of administration policy in Indiana to make sure their statements do not give "the enemy an incentive for continuing the war."

Sewer System Is Debated

By DONNA ESTES
LONGWOOD — City Council Tuesday night continued its discussion with land developers proposing large scale home building within the city and the possibility of joint venturing either a sewer package plant or a permanent bob-lot sewer plant.

Developers present included Gene Cooper of Seminoles Construction, P. A. Radloff of Calzon Builders; Irving Berger and Sanford Key, of Winsor Manor; George Nader, of Nader Homes; Albert Clark, of Calbert Construction, and representative of W. H. Green & Sons, William Goodman and other builders.

With the exception of the Green Company representative, who insisted his firm has no plans for development, all of the others indicated they would be willing to contribute funds for "pump type sewer systems" if the system is organized by the city.

Cooper, however, said while

the theory of having developers joint venture a system sounds good it is not practical. He suggested instead that the same time work be being done on the central sewer plant. Developers are allowed to put in sewer package plants on their land. The builder said the package plants if turned over to the city will become increasingly valuable as lift stations in the permanent system.

Goodman said current city regulations requiring installation of lift stations are expensive and sewer lines are expensive to developers. He pointed out a builder could save about $300 per home if installation of sewer tanks were not required. A portion of the resulting savings he said could be used to ward cost of the package plant.

Commissioner Al Davis presented to the Board of County Commissioners a check for $3,400, which represented an amount for the Forest City citizens participation with the County on the paving of Virginia Drive from West Lake Branch to the east for a distance of one-quarter mile, with the residents supplying the materials and the county supplying the labor on a time available basis.

Stenstrom Realty Observes Birthday

HERBERT E. STENSTROM

Stenstrom Realty, Sanford's largest real estate agency, will observe its 13th anniversary Friday, according to Realtor Owner Herbert E. Stenstrom.

Featuring the observation will be an open house all day Friday at the firm's newly redecorated and enlarged office complex at 2563 Park Drive. Customers and other friends of Stenstrom and his staff of associates and employees are invited to inspect the agency's new suite of offices.

Stenstrom, who is a registered mortgage broker and heads the firm's appraisal staff, founded the business in 1957. Later he conducted his operations on North Park Avenue in downtown Sanford. The rapid growth of the agency necessitated the need for additional office space and parking facilities for clients and customers. Stenstrom moved to his present address where he has maintained the business since January, 1964.

Apartment Trend Reversal Is Urged

By DONNA ESTES
ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — An agreement between city and county officials to reverse the trend in apartment construction in Altamonte Springs-South Seminole area in apartment development is being pursued by Councilman T. A. Radloff.

Radloff asked for and got approval from the City Council last night to approach the county with a proposal that Altamonte will refuse future sewer service connections if the county will agree to disapprove requests for sewer package plants in the same territory.

The Councilman in his second year in office, gave the opinion that denial by both governmental bodies of sewer and water service to areas such as the planned 400 unit expansion of Spanish Trace Apartments and another planned apartment building to have 840 units adjacent to Spring Lake Hills will reverse the trend in building.

2-County Pollution Meeting

The pollution control office of Seminole County will be working with the State Department of Pollution Control in Tallahassee beginning on Feb. 21.

This report was made by Langley Adair, pollution control officer for Seminole County, to the Tuesday meeting of the Board of County Commissioners.

The purpose of the effort will be an extensive stream sampling portion of the metro water quality study. First efforts have begun with some samplings directed to Crane Strand Canal.

Ex-Astronaut Interested In New Motel

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Plans are in the hopper for the construction of five motels on four corners of the intersection of SR 436 and Maitland Avenue. The building is to have 37,200 square feet of floor space. Developer Wilson A. Knox informed Council a second office building containing 30,000 square feet will be built adjacent to the first and it, too, will have four stories.

Delayed approval of request for annexation of the eight-acre tract fronting on Palm Springs Road on which 60 patio homes are planned for construction, pending receipt of report from the city engineers on capacity of the sewer plant. Developer of the tract is Seacoast Construction Company.

Complaints On Roads Continues

According to Commission Chairman Sidney Vihlen, the State Department of Transportation has not done a very good job of maintenance on secondary roads in Seminole County, County Road Superintendent J. C. Lavender reminded the Board of Commissioners Tuesday that the contract with DOT is renewable on July 1. He said that the County is being billed $76,346.96 annually for the maintenance, and he wanted to know whether the County should take over the job of maintaining our own secondary roads or let State DOT keep them in their stead.

Baseball Field Equipment Offered

By DONNA ESTES
NORTH ORLANDO — Donation of backstop and equipment for the Little League ball field being built at the Village Recreation site was offered by Nolan Reed, Florida Land Company resident manager, last night.

The offer to give the Village the items estimated to cost some $400 was made in a lengthy report by Troy Pfiland, recreation commissioner, of the site and Council discussion of whether the Village could afford the expenditure.

Councilman Herbert Fox, finance commissioner, pointed out the village at end of January had about $2.25 in its bank and with approval last night of payment of another $1,000 in bills, the city's bank balance was at $1,200. Fox said if the $400 for the ball field were given the village, "and an emergency hit, we're in trouble."

Cambodia Moon Shoot Shows Need For Caution

Sometimes a single, sort of bizarre event sheds light on what has been a kind of dark, mystifying and altogether puzzling happening — such as the dramatic war in Indochina.

This time it took place in Cambodia, that troubled nation which rests in Indochina with Thailand and Laos at its head, Vietnam on its right and hovering above all the great landmass of China.

On Jan. 20th there was an eclipse of the moon. Nothing out of the ordinary to most. But to the Cambodian soldiers it was a terrifying, ominous event during which the legendary monster leahou, malevolent brother of the sun and moon, would devour the moon and make all nights dark forever and ever.

Brought up in a land where fabulous beasts and monsters survive in slayer legends, sure that city great noise would prevent this disaster, the Cambodians shot the eclipse for about an hour.

So great was the fury of the attack that the sky over Phnom Penh was alight with tracer bullets. So angry was Premier and commander-in-chief of the Cambodians — Lon Nol — that he took to the radio and threatened court-martial for the officers who allowed and the men who had wasted precious ammunition.

Insignificant? Something to accept as amusing in a tragic way? An event which need not be more than mentioned in a dispatch and then forgotten?

Not at all. For in this instance there is to be seen, by those who want to, the tragic fact that in our attempt to take part in an Asian land war, there has been opposing any success the deep-rooted nature, not only of the enemy, but of our allied forces.

The waste of ammunition left the hard-pressed Cambodians without sufficient to oppose a major enemy thrust. To the military this would be given top rating.

To the American taxpayer, however, this sky-lighting volley was one more illustration of what some of the millions of dollars which have been spent in Indochina and have come out of American tax funds have been spent for.

It is a long, long way from the embattled forces in Phnom Penh to the senate chambers in Washington where foreign affairs is being given consideration at a senate hearing.

Yet there is a link. For what such formidable and informed senators as William Fulbright, whose study of Indochina and whose opposition to the expanded Vietnam war as a result stand as historic facts, are looking at now is China.

If the American public's concept of Indochina is dim, the word China must be rated as existing in almost complete darkness. Certainly the announcement of the imminent visit of Peking by President Nixon has triggered a sharp interest in the great land mass of China, its people and its government.

But to prevent the misunderstandings, such as the Cambodian fusillade at the eclipsed moon illustrates, there must be the very best information about the Peoples Republic of China afforded the American public.

The sorry history lesson which has been imposed by the tragedy of the Vietnam war should be heeded. The American nation, its leaders and its people, is about to venture into China. To do so wisely will be difficult. But the one safeguard which can be accepted as valid is to await facts, avoid accepting impressions, and give support only to policies which meet this criteria.

Troublemakers

The challenge to our government's power to ban foreigners who seek to come here to advocate communism or dictatorship touches the bedrock of basic national survival itself.

The critical test will occur when the Supreme Court considers in Federal District Court's ruling that some portions of the McCarran Act are unconstitutional.

Under assault are sections of the act which prohibit visas for alien Communists or for foreigners who advocate establishment of totalitarian regimes in the United States of America.

The lower court already has ruled that the law denied the right of Americans to receive information, citing government denial of a visa to Dr. Ernest E. Mandel, a Marxist economist.

The Mandel case is only one of a long line of decisions that have accorded Communists extensive freedom of activity within our national boundaries.

These troublesome rulings include a decision to throw out a provision of the Subversive Activities Control Act that made it a crime for a member of a Communist action group to work in a defense plant; a Supreme Court finding that a merchant seaman who is a member of the Communist Party cannot be banned from employment on a U.S. vessel, and a law that Communist Party members do not have to register with the U.S. Government.

It stuns the imagination to hear Americans claim that they are being denied access to opposing ideologies just because alien Marxists are denied visas.

By its very nature, the open American society is exposed to the activities of revolutionaries. To go the final step and give these people the right to import alien troublemakers would expose our heart itself.

"Sudden Death" in Primaries

By BRUCE HOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NSA)—The primary election season is well under way and the graveyard of 1972 hopes for three or four Democratic presidential bidders?

Despite brave talk from the victors, it is not the year when consistently losing vote performances are going to keep the old circulation going. Money is too scarce, and it is going to dry up fast for losers.

Of course, every candidate is on test in the first spate of primaries in March and April. But they are more critical for some than for others. A few examples:

Sen. Hubert Humphrey, presently a strong second to Sen. Edmund Muskie in the national Gallup Poll, probably has to run abroad of Muskie in either Florida or Wisconsin—and prefer Florida.

One fairly independent source sympathetic to Humphrey thinks he has to outdo Muskie in Florida by from five to 10 points to make any kind of dent on the broad center of Democratic voters who now lean to the Maine senator. (Only a few apparitions believe either man will head off George Wallace for first in Florida. The race is thought to be for second place.)

If Humphrey has not shown someone named by Wallace for first in Florida, he may very well through. He could hang on for preliminary district meetings. His talented aides will have to get him a lot more in Florida and Wisconsin to color him plausible as a contender. If he merely leads the pack of also-rans by running fourth, it won't do.

Then there's Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington, who truly is giving his all in Florida. It's supposed to be his turf, but right now he's slipping on it. Wallace is said to be killing him in conservative sectors where he should be strong. Very possibly, however, Jackson's prospects have been overstated all along.

His people have a poll by Oliver Quayle, taken in December, purporting to show him to five points (to 12 per cent and fourth place) from a previous Florida check. It seems a thin reed.

Jackson has little going for him in crucial Wisconsin. His effort to have the Tennessee primary date advanced from early May to late April, is a desperate carry. It's a salvage job. Even if the date were changed and Wallace beat Wallace and Muskie, it might not get him past his own five-year line. He has to do it in Florida.

This game is not for noble losers. It's for winners. And what is being forgotten—for those who win the delegates needed for nomination at Miami Beach in July.

Presidential Hopefuls' Hazards

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks that a candidate for a presidential nomination gets tired of hearing:

"You have to admit that it isn't exactly easy to make Phineas Tetchum Weatherall a household name to every voter in America."

"There's at it's one advantage you have over all the other candidates. After all, you don't have a record of any kind for them to shoot holes in."

"If we could count on all our other contributors like we do your mother, we wouldn't have to worry where our money is to come from. She sent another $5 today."

"Remember, eat lots of cheese when we swing through Wisconsin. It's a big dairy state. No, I don't think you have to eat anything special in New Hampshire. I don't think the natives there eat much more than elm bark in winter anyway."

Point Of View

Mimics' Art Is Shadow

By DON FREEMAN
Copy News Service

HOLLYWOOD—Why is it, I wonder, that the comedy mimics dwell so rarely on contemporary figures? When's the last time you saw a mimic do his impression of Dustin Hoffman? Or Elliott Gould? Or Candice Bergen? Or, for that matter, Sonny and Cher? Or Dennis Hopper?

I suppose you might say that the new crop of names are actors rather than personalities. But that's only a partial explanation. It doesn't really wash. Richard Dreyfus, Marion Brando, Rod Steiger—they are all actors and the mimics have done them to a fare-thee-well. James Cagney, in his heyday, was a walking good actor as well as a personality.

Just possibly, the new group of players is lacking in a distinct stamp, a handle for accurate caricature, as well as funny-mimicry. A mimic could do a take-off on Jack Nicholson, for instance, but who would care? Has a mimic ever done Robert Redford or "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid"?

Now that I think of it, I don't recall ever seeing an impression of Paul Newman from that movie or any other. A fine actor, Paul Newman, and a forceful personality and he's been around. But the mimics inevitably give him a pass. Why is that, anyway?

It's a fascinating field the dark art of mimicry and there are undoubtedly more capable practitioners around than ever before. It is also a surely gam-bit. Audiences won't tolerate a bad snapper but they delight in the ever worst of the comic impersonations. I have no idea why that is, but it is.

Every few years, it seems a new breakthrough occurs among the impersonators. Dean Murphy was one of the first with his steady accurate take-off on Franklin Roosevelt, with cigar-

Don Oakley Says:

"Antipreneurs"—Negative Lot

By DON OAKLEY
NEA Editorialist

The term "muckraker" is coming into fashion again in this day of consumerism and consumer alertness. It was first applied by Theodore Roosevelt to journalists and others who were exposing irresponsible businessmen and monopolistic practices in the early part of the century.

A modern businessman suggests a different name—"antipreneur."

"If you accept 'entrepreneur' as the generic term for 'businessman,'" says G. Howard Hardisty Jr., senior vice-president of Continental Oil Co., "perhaps we can refer to these single-minded, persistent and totally myopic critics of businessmen as 'antipreneurs.'"

The "anti" prefix is appropriate, he says, since those who hammer away at the business community are for the most part of negative lot. "They reject and they rebuke and they reproach and they frequently view with alarm, but hardly ever do they come up with anything constructive."

And, he charges, "They are converting the United States from a nation that once respected initiative and economic achievement, that honored the rags-to-riches hero, to a nation that impudently bids its businessmen the most venal motives and most despicable conduct, that is coming to idolize the reverse-trust, riches-to-rags antihero."

He cites a survey on public attitudes toward businessmen conducted in 1966 by Social Research, Inc., which found that 38 per cent of all Americans polled agreed to the statement that "big business is dangerous to our way of life."

Five years later, in 1971, the same organization asked the same question and this time the "yes" vote was 46 per cent. In other words, nearly half of all Americans now regard the nation's businessmen as a threat to their existence.

Hardisty demands that the nuclearists or "antipreneurs" be held to the same standards of accountability as those they attack and recommends that they take to heart Roosevelt's original definition of "muckraker."

PROBLEM PERSPIRATION Solved

—even for thousands who perspire heavily

A different formula has been found to keep underarms absolutely dry — even for thousands who perspire heavily. Drier than any anti-wetness agent that can be put in any aerosol spray can! By anybody.

After decades of common "deodorants," it took a chemical invention to make this truly effective protection possible — with the same safety to clothing — the same skin mildness as popular "deodorants." Called Mitchum Anti-Perspirant, it is the product of a trustworthy 57-year-old laboratory. By the thousands, women with problem perspiration are finding the protection they need — and never could find before. And fully effective as a deodorant, too, of course.

If you perspire more than average — even heavily — get the positive protection of Mitchum Anti-Perspirant. Liquid — smears on dry skin. Or cream — soothing, non-sticky, fluffy-textured. Each $3.00.

BOTH HAVE MONEY BACK GUARANTEE — If you are not entirely satisfied with Mitchum Anti-Perspirant, liquid or cream, return package to the store where you bought it. Stores are authorized to refund full cash price.

Mitchum ANTI-PERSPIRANT

Broken Dental Plates fixed in 8 minutes.

PLATE-WELD is a complete emergency repair kit for broken dentures. It repairs in just 8 minutes.

Bloated Stomach?

Buffered Antacid Tablet Soothes Stomach Pressure. If your stomach feels heavy, uncomfortable, bloated after overeating — there is a remedy. Buffered Antacid Tablets. It's called AMITONE.

Now stop Gluing your dentures

If you glue your dentures to your gums with paste or powder, you have to do that messy job over and over again. Once, twice, sometimes three times a day.

Next time try ACRYLINE — the remarkable temporary denture adhesive. Used as directed, ACRYLINE is safe to use, gentle to gums, easy to apply and easy to remove. And the best part is: you don't use it every day. Just once every couple of months. You'll eat, drink and laugh the way you used to.

Ask for ACRYLINE at your drugstore. Your dentures will feel so good, you'll forget about your dentures.

Relieves major cold symptoms for hours to help assure the restful sleep his body needs.

- Helps clear stuffed-up nose
- Relieves aches and pains
- Reduces fever
- Calms coughing
- Soothes sore throat
- Helps break up phlegm

The maker of famous Liquiprin Liquid Pain Reliever has formulated the very first nighttime colds medicine ever made especially and exclusively for children. Liquiprin Nighttime Colds Medicine for Children acts safely and gently to relieve the major discomforts of a cold so that your child can sleep soundly and healthily. And doctors will tell you that's what his body needs.

Introducing the first anti-perspirant stick for problem perspiration.

Now Mitchum, maker of the largest selling liquid and cream anti-perspirants for problem perspiration, has discovered the way to put the remarkable Mitchum formula into a stick. So quick, easy and convenient to use. Non-greasy, non-sticky. Mitchum solves problem perspiration... even for many who perspire heavily. Helps keep underarms really dry and odor-free, yet it's buffered to be mild to skin, safe for clothes. Mitchum... for maximum perspiration when others fail.

"Good Looks" Cream for Whole Family

3 month's supply $2.50

A "good looks" cream for family skin problems! Called Esoterica. Invisible — fast acting, because it carries medication in the skin where these problems start. So effective, Esoterica is now featured by leading stores everywhere.

Fades Age Spots on hands

*Weathered brown spots on your hands and face tell the world you're getting old, prevent them before you really are. Fade them out with Esoterica, the medicated cream that breaks up mass of pigment in the skin to help make it look white, smooth and young again. Younger folks may use Esoterica to help retard age spots indefinitely.

Helps Irritated Pores

Often a man's first "old age mark!" Open irritated pores may cause your complexion to look rough, and unclean. Regular use of Esoterica helps shrink the opening to smooth out roughness. Have a tip for you. Use Esoterica daily. Leaves skin supple, cleaner and clearer. Its delicate fragrance soon disappears, yet the beneficial result is long-lasting because Esoterica works in the skin.

Surface Pimples

Stubborn outdoor pimples caused by weather and neglect. Use Esoterica. It cleans up skin troubles where other creams have failed. No longer need you suffer the embarrassment and loneliness caused by these angry little blemishes. Apply Esoterica at night — tomorrow, your mirror will stare to reveal a clearer, brighter and smoother skin. It's not a cover-up. It penetrates deep to work from inside out.

ESOTERICA SOAP softens skin, helps clear surface blemishes. Combats dryness.

New formula hand lotion fades age spots... moisturizes

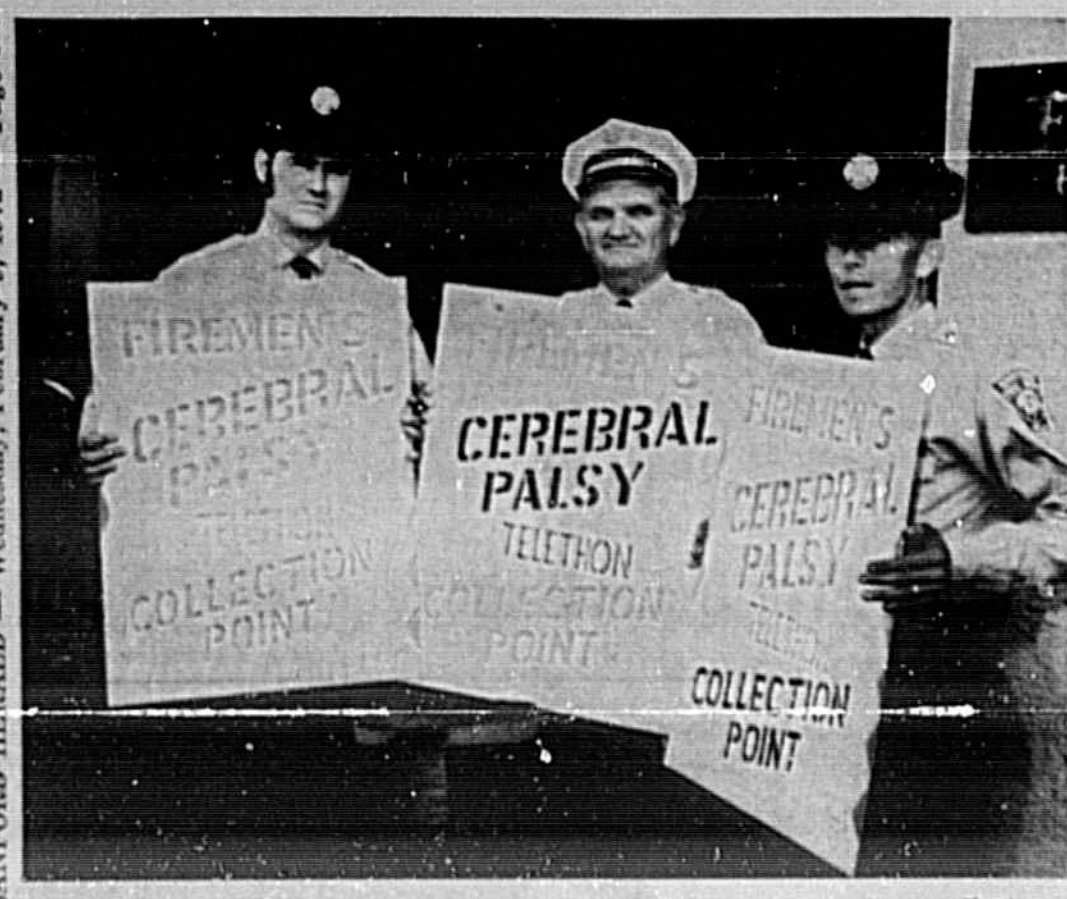

ESOTERICA is no ordinary hand lotion. This special lotion actually fades age-revealing brown spots while it softens skin texture. Not a sticky cover-up — ESOTERICA contains Dermolite, a remarkable ingredient that penetrates the skin surface and breaks up unattractive pigment masses that cause spots. It gives your skin a lighter, brighter, more youthful appearance.

At the same time, rich moisturizing emollients help soften skin and smooth away crepe wrinkles due to dryness. Satisfaction guaranteed by Mitchum, or return to your store for full cash refund. To make your hands look — and feel — years younger, try ESOTERICA Hand Lotion today! $2.50.

Smooth Traffic Flow Sought By Sanford

Sanford City Commission has instructed Mack Lazebny, city engineer, and Gerald Dake, city planner, to conduct a comprehensive traffic study of the city with an eye toward formulating a new traffic plan for Sanford.

Lazebny already has conducted a preliminary survey of the intersections of the city as requested by the commission on Dec. 12, 1971. These intersections reviewed are tabulated with comments by Lazebny concerning each and are divided into two categories; those involving state roads over which the city has no control and those involving city streets only.

Starting with those intersections involving state roads over which the city has no control, Lazebny reported the following:

Orlando Drive (US 17-82) and 27th Street (SR 47A)—Traffic has recently been counted here and signals will be installed.

French Avenue (US 17-82) and 3rd Street—Traffic was counted here last October and no further signalization is warranted. I recommend, this being the case, that the existing flasher be replaced by one with a more alerting frequency.

French Avenue (US 17-82) and Ninth Street—In October the traffic at this intersection was counted and no signalization is warranted. I have seen this intersection and concur with the result.

Celey Avenue (SR 415) at Sanford Avenue and 13th Street at Sanford Avenue—The City having no control over any signalization at these intersections the only alternative is to ask the State to count the vehicles using these intersections and consider their recommendations.

Celey Avenue (SR 415) and Locust Avenue; French Avenue (US 17-82) and Santa Barbara Drive—General surveillance of these intersections should be monitored for increasing traffic and associated problems due to the additional construction now going on.

Park Avenue at 25th Street (SR 46) and Park Drive at French Avenue (US 17-82)—The State should be requested to count the traffic crossing these intersections in light that additional signals may be warranted.

Sanford Avenue (SR 427) and 25th Street (SR 46)—The traffic through this intersection was counted a few years back and additional signalization was warranted. The County agreed to install the signals when the City widened the North portion of Sanford Avenue. I recommend that this construction be undertaken by the City and the State asked to recount the traffic that uses this intersection today so adequate signalization can be installed. Twenty-two accidents have occurred at this location—Six involving personal injuries.

Concerning city streets over which the commission has control, the following intersections are suggested for signalization, or existing signals be changed:

First Street and Palmetto Avenue.

20th Street and Sanford Avenue.

Celey Avenue (SR 415) at Sanford Avenue and 13th Street at Sanford Avenue—The City having no control over any signalization at these intersections the only alternative is to ask the State to count the vehicles using these intersections and consider their recommendations.

Halftime Talk Does Trick As Seminoles Post Win

Evidently Seminoles High basketball coach Joe Mills found the right time to say to his team during halftime last night. They went to the dressing room trailing, but came back to post a 68-57 win over the Seabreeze Sandcrabs, getting revenge for an earlier loss to the same team. Seminoles is now 17-6 on the season while the visitors fell to 10-12.

The Seminoles jumped to an early 14-7 lead, but the Sandcrabs put together seven points in a row to take command and held a 20-17 margin at the end of the initial period of play.

The Tribe pulled to within one three times in the early minutes of the second period, but then Seabreeze scored nine consecutive points over two minute time span. They led 23-23, but the Seminoles came back strong to score the last nine points of the half and trailed by only one, 33-32, as they went to the dressing room.

The third period was the turning point as the Seminoles put seven quick points on the board and held the lead, 39-33. They outscored the visitors 20-9 in the quarter and took an impressive 52-42 lead into the final frame.

With 1:34 left in the game the Seminoles led by 18, 68-50, but Seabreeze took advantage of the many substitutions coming off the bench for Sanford and scored the last seven points of the contest.

Ricky Smith, who has been the hottest player on the Seminoles team recently, scored 18 points for the second straight game. But the thing that most impressed Mills was that Reggie Dickerson, the man Smith was guarding, scored only one point. He also pointed out a fine defensive effort by the other guard, Pat Crimmins, who scored 11 points.

Three other players were in double figures for the local team. Greg Mitchell hit on five field goals in the final frame to give him 18 points for the night. Clifford Martin finished with 12 and Frank Sloan added 11.

Late Toyota

The rich got richer as far as the team standings were concerned in the Late Toyota last week. The front running 2's & 3's swept the series and their lead to two full games. Pacing the leaders was a sparkling 223-208 by Johnny Jacob and a 204 by Bob Barbour.

The Celtics and Sedans each won two games last week to remain tied for second place. Eddie Adams 196 paced the Sedans while Faye Senkirk 187 and Tom Callis 181, 186 led the Celtics.

Jim Brown fired a 200 for the No Way, which lost three to the Sedans while Dottie Jones 272 (her average is under 100) helped the Big Whosays win from the Celtics.

Georgia Coyne's 183, 175-510 helped the Radiators knock the B-Sers down a peg. Ed Mallon 189 and Chuck Baker 187 led the B-Sers.

High series in last week's action was a 271 by Jack Rogers who had games of 200, 197 and 184. Other fine efforts last week were turned in by Singer Larson 182, 182, Bob Jones 181, Jo Ann Wright 186-203, Rich More 182, 184, Wiley Burrow 185-220, Jay Parent 181, 179, Gary Spotts 182 and Alan Barton 210.

Florida State Bank Mixed

Through the efforts of Dick Spencer 320, 185 and Bill Painter 188 the front running Money Riders increased their lead by one game last week as they won three from the Top Dollars.

Mainly the Mustangs moved into a tie for second place as they won a pair from the Liquidators and the M & M's were being swayed by the Cartwheels.

Spurds for the Mustangs were Jack Kaiser 186 and Joe Reddick. Second row, Bobby Rapp, Ronnie Ryan, David Craig and Kenny Brown. They completed their season last Saturday.

Other fine performances last week came from Phil Varner 181, Dot Lee 164, Millie Garner 186-207, Sue Williams 170, Eva Hitchcock 176, and Rose Messersmith 180, 171.

Hi Nooners

It continues to be a team battle as the Stenstrom's hold but a half game lead over Joe's Leandry. Both teams captured three wins in last week's action.

Millie Gaudry had a 198, 193-473 for Lam's of Winter Park but Joe's Leandry still won three games. High for Joe's was a 193 by Kay Samsam. Stenstrom's was led by Libbie Whitehead's 196. High single game of the week was 172 by Janet Bure.

Adcock Mixed

Two pins was all that John Bryant was short of reaching the magic six last week. John really gave it the old college try, firing a booming 333 in his final game but had to settle for a 208 set.

In the team battle only a half game separates the top clubs. But now it's the Tarheels who enjoy the edge. They won four from the Hammerheads behind Johnny Jacob 189 and Jim Carter 191, 190-208. The other top contender, the Plasterers won three from the Three-On-One.

Other high last week came from Bill Wagner 179, 176-211, Bud Larson 188-226, Charles Simms 188-223, Jay Parent 215, Agnes Butcher 204, Ed Lee 195 and Bob Steiner 202.

Sanford Plaza Merchants

It was just about all or nothing last week in the Sanford Plaza Merchants' bout with four teams coming up with sweeps and two others winning three.

Brenda Lewis 192 and Dick Lewis 190 helped the Jet Ladies to a sweep. Zita was behind the brilliant 200, 190, 190-204 of Jim Carter. U.L. bank and Don's Shoes also won four games but did so with solid team efforts.

Other top scorers were turned in by Barney Heckrick 184, 185, Milt Fricke 187, 196, and Peggy Towles 176-206.

Shooting Stars

The two-way battle in the Shooting Stars loop has suddenly turned into a three-way struggle with the Merle Norman Cosmic entry vaulting up the ladder.

Ronnie Eggs Farm has the lead but Merle Norman is in the second spot after taking three from State Farm. For the Cosmic keepers it was Marge Miller 161 and Carole Mace 176-184 leading the way. Kathy Cooper had a 186 to help State Farm to its lone win.

Polly Snyder 186 and Rose Patrick 185 led Bonora's to three wins over Link Construction. High for Link's was Donnie Lank's blistering 207.

Key high scores last week were Stella Brooks 198, 160, Audrey Bolser 196, and Nancy Rivers 167.

DAV Bentam's

The Chicago Teddy Bears have a three game lead in this league, thanks to the efforts of Aaron Kaufman 160-177, Tracey Towers 143-164 and Jim Walker 164-132.

However, the top effort in the league last week came from Gene Baker of the Queens. Who fired a 165-421 and will receive a 450 patch for her effort.

Other high series last week were turned in by Jack Doyle 134-206, Ricky Lawrence 115-233, Janet Spolski 190-220, Norman Platt 150-175, Bob Burkart 188-220, Mike Link 181-241, Kelly Daugherty 190-222 and Don Wigmore 184-211.

High singles were by Larry Jones 428, Bill Deardoff 110, Jimmy Miller 100, Mike Towles 327 and Bruce Annett.

Generation G's

The pace setting Allie-Best-All fell three times last week as Jose Nordquist fired a 384-440 to spark the Stephenson Chemicals.

Jill Habel had a lousy 170, 172-465 set to pace Spinto to three wins over the Southern Leasers.

Other high games last week came from Dorothy Smith 170, Alice Hanson 162, Cora Hancock 163, Phyllis Welch 156, Frankie Kaiser 159, Dicie Bacon 165 and Shirley Blinn 165.

Trinity Prep Records Overtime Win

By LARRY NEELY

Trinity Prep recorded a 29-22 overtime win over the Florida Central basketball team last Saturday night at the end of the first period, and charged to a seven point lead by intermission time. The Saints' 29-22 halftime lead vanished quickly in the third period as Florida Central burned up the court.

In the fourth period Fiquette totaled eight points and added five more in the overtime. Mike Austin, the leading scorer, rebounded Austin pulled down 10 in the face of Hooper and came up with 13 points. Fiquette contributed seven rebounds to the Saints with Knight also appearing in double figures totaling 34 points for the evening.

The Trinity JV's continued with their winning ways as they recorded their 15th win of the season. The Saint quit has lost only two contests this year. Paul Murphy's crew easily handied the Red Devil junior varsity 37-21 behind the scoring of Betty Parsons, Rick Lapp and John Kerbs. Parsons netted 15 points for the Trinity junior; Lapp with 11 and Kerbs contributing 10 points.

Oviedo Upends Apopka; Firms Orange Belt Lead

By LARRY NEELY

Herald Sports Writer

Apopka held on to their 8-6 lead only for seconds in the second period. Frank Gooch made both of a one and one put Oviedo into front, but Richard Durden tied the contest at 10 all. Then Oviedo broke loose. Tossie scored from under the net and combined with Doug Allen to establish Oviedo. In the second period alone Tossie and Allen netted eight points each as the Lions took a 15 point lead by outscoring Apopka 23-8 in the second frame.

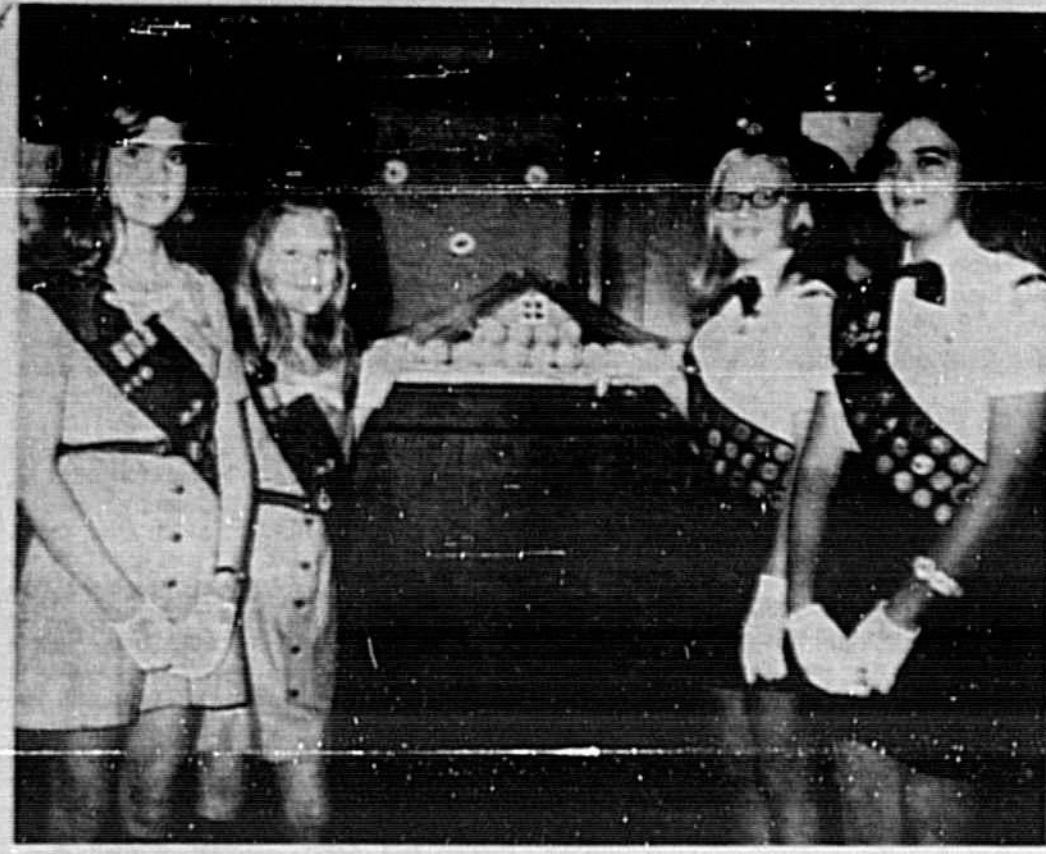

Oviedo put the press to work to prevent any attempts by Apopka to repeat the stall they used in the first period and it flustered the Blue Darters to the point they could hardly do anything right. The press continued to work for the Lions in the final frame as well and the Lions tallied a little themselves in the final period.

Tossie made both of a one and one charity opportunity as Oviedo stretched their lead beyond the 20 point mark. Oviedo mentor Dave Miller freely substituted in the final frame, and the Lions still retained the composure and never faltered. It was the seventh OBC win for the Lions against no losses. Oviedo continues to lead the Orange Belt standings. Ovicoe is still in the number two spot, one half game behind the Lions with one loss, that to Oviedo. Oviedo's overall mark stands at 14-6 while Apopka dropped to 10-11 overall and to 5-4 in the conference.

Tossie led all scorers with 23 points on nine field goals and five of five from the free throw line. Allen also appeared in double figures for the Lions with 10 points on four field goals and two of two at the free throw line. Leamon Hall was the only Apopka cager to appear in double figures as he hit for 12 points.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIE time is here and Blanch Kirtley, G.S. board member, has taken advantage of her cooking to build a cookie house, which is now on display at Citrus Council's Girl Scout Service Center in Winter Park. It required two boxes each of mint, peanut butter, assorted sandwich, butter, and one box of the pecanettes. Showing it off are (left to right) Elizabeth Uptake, Tanglewood Junior Troop 638; Lisa Train, Winter Woods Junior Troop 737; Sandra Schmid, Cadette Troop 755; and Cynthia Gacha, also of Troop 755.

Nina Denies Report By Admitted Lover

Editor's Note—The following story was written by Nina van Pallandt in collaboration with London Sunday Mirror writer Don Short.

By NINA VAN PALLANDT
Writer for the London Sunday Mirror

LONDON (AP) — It's all going a little bit like James Bond, the events of the past four days have been in a world of sheer fantasy.

All I keep hearing are two names. One is Howard Hughes, the eccentric millionaire I've never met in my life. The other is Clifford Irving, the name of a man I have loved and an author I will be leaved has pulled off the literary coup of the century.

It's Clifford who got into the world headlines. I know my affair with Clifford, however discreet it was, would still be a secret today.

There is nothing I can do. What damage has been done, has been done, but I fervently hope it will not break his story.

Clifford and I were together for 10 years. I know he is very happy to see me. It was 7 1/2 years ago in Ibiza where we found ourselves in a small beach party together.

Clifford—I read several of his books and knew him by reputation—was in the party and we discovered we both lived on the island.

I was then living with my husband Frederic and our children. I got a call from Clifford. "It's a small island and it isn't long before I was bumped into Clifford at cocktail parties and other functions. He became a family friend.

It wasn't until last year that our friendship developed into any kind of relationship. Clifford was then married to Edith, his fourth wife, and my own marriage to Frederic had broken up.

One night at my Chelsea home I got a call from Clifford saying he was coming to London and I invited him in to have dinner that same night with other friends.

Nixon In State Of World: 'Generation Of Peace' Is Seen

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon issued a lengthy foreign-policy report today, claiming dramatic 1971 breakthroughs toward his generation of peace goal, but acknowledging a half-dozen "sharp disappointments."

The President also used his annual "State of the World" message to Congress this election year to urge public support for his handling of pressing foreign-affairs problems ahead.

Saying the diplomatic policies of the past year will be a springboard for the future, Nixon indicated historic agreements on a first step in curbing the U. S.-Soviet nuclear-missile race will be reached about the time he visits Moscow in May.

At the same time, the President coupled avowed hopes of improving U.S.-Soviet relations with serious questioning of the "expansionist implications" of current Russian diplomatic and arms policies.

Nixon's $4,000-word account of global affairs portrayed 1971 as a "watershed year" for his administration's long-term peace efforts.

The President mentioned his forthcoming visits to Peking and Moscow, new economic relationships with European and Japan, and "reiteration of a new environment for the world's monetary and trade activities."

Nixon also said his Peking starting next week will not solve quickly deep U.S.-Chinese differences but will end "a sterile and barren interlude" between two great powers.

"It will represent a necessary and giant step toward the creation of a stable structure of world peace."

—Reporting his greatest disappointment in the unraveling of free world cohesion.

"It is beyond dispute that we have made signal progress," Nixon said in his 236-page report. "For too long, American policy consisted of reacting to events."

And this in the direction of a new structure of global relationships in which all nations, friend and adversary, participate and have a stake "and a habit of moderation and compromise can be nurtured," he said. "This is what we mean by a generation of peace."

Under the heading of unfinished business, Nixon listed as pressing problems the need for greater U.S.-Soviet accommodation and self-restraint; a better relationship with China, disarmament, more effective aid to poor countries, trade and monetary reform, and improving the United Nations.

He professed "a very sober awareness of how great a task still lies ahead and voiced his hope that his report will help promote a solid consensus of American public understanding and support" for his future efforts.

Dock Strike Ends Excepting Details

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Negotiators worked today to perfect details of a tentative agreement to settle the West Coast's dock strike as it entered its 12th day.

A settlement awaits final negotiation of complicated traffic machinery. The drive to complete it is in a race with Congress, where the Senate passed and sent to the House Tuesday a bill to put the 13,800 longshoremen back to work immediately and settle the dispute in 46 days of compulsory arbitration.

Arbitration could be lifted if the secretary of labor certified that the two sides had reached agreement.

Mediator Sam Kagel, who served the negotiations between the striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union and the employers Pacific Maritime Association last Wednesday, announced the tentative settlement Tuesday.

Agreement has been reached on all economic issues, he said, adding that he would resolve, if necessary, arbitrate the unsettled non-economic questions.

By agreement with both sides, no details were disclosed pending submission of the settlement to the membership of both parties.

At Kagel's right, ILWU President Harry Bridges, jokingly denied the settlement had come as result of White House and congressional pressure but said his negotiating committee would recommend its ratification.

At Kagel's left, PMA President Edmund G. Flynn, looking cheerful, said, "We are satisfied with the terms, or we wouldn't have agreed."

Prior to the session Tuesday, the major economic issue settled was retroactively for pay increases. These increases included a 72-cent pay boost, raising the present base wage of $4.28 per hour to $5 for the first year, with an additional 40 cents after July 1, 1972.

Barbecue Benefits Fire Dept.

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

The annual barbecue benefit held by the Lake Mary Fire Department was a smash success. According to Fire Department Auxiliary member, Kay Sasseman, 1,900 take-out dinners were sold, with the figures for the dinner served on the premises still not totaled, but estimated to be around 600.

It was a happy, satisfied group of well-fed folks seen leaving the Fire Department building following a fine repast of barbecued chicken done "just right," baked beans, slaw, and dessert and a choice of goodies from the refresh trays.

The money earned from this benefit will be used to acquire equipment needed for the operation of the department. During the hour a call was received from a distressed resident in Midway and the volunteers who man the trucks in Lake Mary were off and away in 3 mere flash.

Donald Mletz is president of the department, Ralph Schwewerick, treasurer, and Louis Schwewerick is the fire chief.

Eighth Graders Tutor Youngsters

By MARILYN GORDON
Casselberry Elementary School, in cooperation with neighboring South Seminole Middle School, has initiated a reading tutoring program.

This program, under the direction of John Kalachian, guidance counselor of the school, is designed to give the elementary teachers aid in individualizing the reading program.

Eighth grade students from two elementary classes are used as tutors in working with the younger children. The tutors work on a voluntary basis and are under the supervision of Mrs. Louise Gilpin, guidance counselor at South Seminole Middle School.

C. M. Harp Sr., principal of the elementary school, and Kathleen feel this program will benefit not only the elementary pupils, but offers an opportunity for the Middle School students to broaden their educational experiences.

Staff members and students have incorporated the program into their daily schedule.

Students assigned to the tutoring program from the middle school are Shannon Doyle, DeDe Gregory, Ken Pease, Mary Morgan, Rodney Lark, Mark Underwood, Susan Hayes, Christy Kerr, Mitch Cavannah, Lisa Bunch, Rebecca Lockhart, Carol Dunn, Bob Beer, Randy Wunder

Haar, Lindy Helms, Cindy Stufel, Stacy Holderbaum, Karen Chaffield, Linda Wark, Judy Hood, Robert Jeter and Regina Billing.

Muriel Humphrey Honored At 'Talk-In' Coffee In Sanford

By DORIS WILLIAMS
Society Editor

A parade of high-fashion Democrats marched briskly to the beautiful Wilson Place home of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodall, to attend a coffee and guest session honoring Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey, wife of the Democratic hopeful for president, Betty South, with an identical courtesy to enhance her palomino pastime.

Highlighting the festivities of the sunny noon in the best of sunshine was Muriel inviting the guests to join her in a "talk-in," she chatted informally with the crowd and answered the many questions they asked... political and personal.

Mrs. Humphrey is an avid supporter of young people and also is vitally interested in senior citizens. Mental retardation holds a close place in her heart and she gives of herself freely in this endeavor.

Assisting Mrs. Woodall were members of the Democratic Women's Club including Mrs. Ann Brisson and Mrs. Doris Johnson with Mrs. Donald Flamm arranging transportation. Other members assisted as floating hostesses.

Greeting the enthusiastic group at the door and providing name tags were Vickie Adcock and Linda Keeling.

Presiding at the picturesque table and pouring were Berta Hall and Jo Maimone, a friend of the hostess, from Kinston.

In a distinctive antique white and gold setting in the mirrored dining room, guests were served coffee and dainty pastries. The table, overlaid with an exquisite white organdy network cloth, was centered with an arrangement of delicate pink rose buds showered with baby's breath. Silver coffee service and silver appointments completed the elegant table decor.

During the appointed hours, 10:30 until noon, approximately 60 invited persons called.

Sherry Ann Crye, W. L. Dominey Exchange Vows In Double Ring Rites

Miss Sherry Ann Crye and William Lyndon Dominey were United in Holy matrimony, Friday, Jan. 28, 1972, at 8 p. m., at Woodhaven Baptist Church, Orlando.

Rev. Walter Fortune was officiating clergyman at the candlelight, double ring ceremony. Mrs. Burnstead, organist, presided over the wedding. Little Miss Hazel Meeks was flower girl and ring bearer was Billy Black.

The bride's mother, chose a turquoise polyester crepe dress with silver trim, matching jacket and accessories and a pale yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a pink brocade ensemble with matching accessories and a pale pink corsage.

Mrs. Lena Crye, grandmother of the bride, wore a navy blue ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Social Hall of the Church. The bride's table was overlaid with a white lace cloth and held a floral arrangement of mixed Spring flowers flanked by burning tapers in crystal candle holders.

Other decor included bisque chandeliers, silver and crystal appointments.

The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with white roses and pink rose buds. Mrs. Evelyn Hancock cut and served the cake and pouring was Mrs. Bess Davis. Sharon Taylor presided at the bride's book and rice bags of pale pink tulle tied with pink satin ribbon were distributed to the guests.

For traveling, Mrs. Dominey chose a hunter green dress, multicolor coat and beige accessories. The couple left for a wedding trip to the great Smokey Mountains and their new residence is in Pine Hills. The groom is employed at Teddy Bares Barber Shop.

Out of town guests came from Sebring, Coral Springs, Ft. Lauderdale, St. Augustine, Brooksville, Daytona Beach, West Palm Beach and Missouri.

The Norman DeVere Howard, Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held the January meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Steenworth with Mrs. W. B. Wallace as co-hostess. Mrs. W. B. Kirby conducted the ritual and led the pledge of allegiance to the American flag and salute to the confederate flag.

Presiding during the business session the president, Mrs. Victor Greene, announced the Spring District meeting to be held in Leesburg, Feb. 16 and urged a large number to attend.

Mrs. J. W. Soverns informed the group the 78th General Convention of the U.D.C. meeting in Atlanta, Ga. did on Nov. 10, 1971 pass a resolution expressing resentment at the passage of H.R. 140 providing for a so-called "National Historic Site" at Andersonville, Ga.

The resolution urged the immediate repeal of the law, and in case it is not repealed that no appropriations be made unless until the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of the Confederate Veterans are given the right to place monuments honoring their Southern men (some 27,000) who died in Northern prison camps, to place markers giving the South's historic positions before the war, to include at the center information about conditions and deaths in Northern prisoner-of-war camps and the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of the Confederate Veterans to appoint representatives to serve on the "Andersonville Committee" or any historical committee concerning the War Between the States.

A member of the local chapter, Mrs. Soverns, spearheaded the action in the chapter, urged all members and friends to support the resolution by writing to the President of the United States, our own U.S. Senators and Congressmen in Washington, D.C. to repeal the passage of this law.

Mrs. Troy Ray, program chairman presented the speaker of the day, Robert F. Greene, who reviewed the best-selling book "Future Shock" by author, Alvin Toffler published in 1970.

A well-informed "ser, he told of the new 1972 society that is forming and what is happening to the U.S. culture and society in the everchanging world today. He tells this is the age of transience and we form limited involvement relationships with most of the people around us. The trend is to depreciate, to put down neighborhoods. He says "why get involved with the folks next door when next week they'll be moving on to New York or Los Angeles or Dallas"? But good neighbors are not extinct.

Beautiful camellias and red roses attractively arranged were admired by all present. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses in the guest speaker and members attending. They were: Mmes. Caldwell, Fred Harris, L. D. Hastings, W. B. Kirby, G. E. McCall, H. G. McCall, Troy Ray, F. E. Rounhill, J. W. Soverns, A. B. Wallace, E. W. Martin, and Glenn Wimblin.

Presiding during the business session the president, Mrs. Victor Greene, announced the Spring District meeting to be held in Leesburg, Feb. 16 and urged a large number to attend.

Mrs. J. W. Soverns informed the group the 78th General Convention of the U.D.C. meeting in Atlanta, Ga. did on Nov. 10, 1971 pass a resolution expressing resentment at the passage of H.R. 140 providing for a so-called "National Historic Site" at Andersonville, Ga.

The resolution urged the immediate repeal of the law, and in case it is not repealed that no appropriations be made unless until the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of the Confederate Veterans are given the right to place monuments honoring their Southern men (some 27,000) who died in Northern prison camps, to place markers giving the South's historic positions before the war, to include at the center information about conditions and deaths in Northern prisoner-of-war camps and the United Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of the Confederate Veterans to appoint representatives to serve on the "Andersonville Committee" or any historical committee concerning the War Between the States.

A member of the local chapter, Mrs. Soverns, spearheaded the action in the chapter, urged all members and friends to support the resolution by writing to the President of the United States, our own U.S. Senators and Congressmen in Washington, D.C. to repeal the passage of this law.

Mrs. Troy Ray, program chairman presented the speaker of the day, Robert F. Greene, who reviewed the best-selling book "Future Shock" by author, Alvin Toffler published in 1970.

A well-informed "ser, he told of the new 1972 society that is forming and what is happening to the U.S. culture and society in the everchanging world today. He tells this is the age of transience and we form limited involvement relationships with most of the people around us. The trend is to depreciate, to put down neighborhoods. He says "why get involved with the folks next door when next week they'll be moving on to New York or Los Angeles or Dallas"? But good neighbors are not extinct.

Beautiful camellias and red roses attractively arranged were admired by all present. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses in the guest speaker and members attending. They were: Mmes. Caldwell, Fred Harris, L. D. Hastings, W. B. Kirby, G. E. McCall, H. G. McCall, Troy Ray, F. E. Rounhill, J. W. Soverns, A. B. Wallace, E. W. Martin, and Glenn Wimblin.

Around The Club Circuit

Theta Epsilon
Theta Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, along with other area chapters recently attended the all-chapter luncheon at the Polynesian Hotel at Disney World.

On Tuesday, Jan. 25 at the home of Faye Jones, the chapter received an informative talk about hypnosis from R. D. Westley, a licensed ethical professional hypnotist.

The January social was held Jan. 28 at the Florida Club and Light Employees Club at Lake Monroe in Enterprise. Members and their husbands enjoyed barbecued chicken, roast corn, salad and beans. Dancing followed the dinner.

Garden Club
ALTA MONTA SPRINGS — Capt. David S. Rau, USN (Ret.), of Matfield will show slides of scenes in our National Parks and Hawaii at the Altamonte Springs Garden Club meeting on Thursday, Feb. 10, at First Federal Savings and Loan of Orlando, Altamonte Springs.

WOMAN'S CLUB
CASSELBERRY—The Casselberry Woman's Club will have their covered dish supper, Saturday, Feb. 12, at 6:30 p.m. for members and their families at the clubhouse on Overbrook Drive. Entertainment will follow the dinner.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Thomas Napier, Mrs. Richard Wirt and Mrs. T. R. Ford.

PILOT CLUB
Members of the Sanford Pilot Club gathered at the Civic Center for their monthly dinner meeting and enjoyed a delicious dinner of baked ham with all the trimmings. Guest speaker for the evening was Tom Freeman who chose for his topic "Interpretation of the New Law" which went into effect 1971-72.

Margaret Hodges, program chairman, introduced the speaker and Mary Rawlins was speaker. Margie Jernigan, the door prize and graciously presented the lovely wrapped box to Mrs. Freeman, a member of Mrs. Freeman's club.

Requests for Society photo coverage should be made at least a week in advance. Engagement and bridal forms are available at The Herald office, with deadlines established.

Fresh Apple Scallop
 It's the season of very good apples in many different varieties. For a new fresh apple dish, turn to Switzerland where Apple Roseli is served with meat, much the way we serve applesauce here.
 This interesting recipe can best be described as an apple custard scallop that is not sweet the way a dessert is. It's an apple bread custard combination that goes beautifully with ham or any cut of pork. It's nicely tangied with fresh lemon and a touch of spice.
 Another foreign dish that is a delightful way to use the fruit from the Garden of Eden is Apple Beignets. "Beignet" is the French word for fritter.
FRESH APPLE SCALLOP
 12 thin slices French bread
 2 cooking apples, pared, core and sliced
 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1/3rd cup chopped fresh onion
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
 4 eggs
 2 cups milk
 Lightly toast bread slices under broiler. Sprinkle sliced apples with lemon juice in a bowl. In a small skillet melt butter; add onion and cook until tender. Add to apples with bread, salt, cinnamon, sugar and cloves. Beat eggs and milk and pour over apple mixture. Toss lightly to mix well. Turn into a 2-quart casserole and bake in 350 degree oven for 40 minutes, or until custard is set. Makes 6 servings.
APPLE BEIGNETS
 2 eggs
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 teaspoon grated fresh lemon rind
 1/2 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
 1 cup milk
 4 McIntosh apples
 Oil or shortening for frying
 Confectioner's sugar
 Beat eggs in a bowl; add sugar, lemon rind, flour, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and milk. Beat with rotary beater or wire whisk until smooth; cover and let stand for 1 hour.
 Pare and core apples; cut into wedges. Dip in batter and fry several at a time in deep fat heated to 375 degrees until brown on both sides. Sprinkle with confectioner's sugar and serve immediately.
 Makes 6 to 8 servings.
APPLE STUFFING
 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1/4 cup chopped fresh onion
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 2 tablespoons chopped nuts
 2 cups chopped pared, cooking apples
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon dried leaf sage
 1 teaspoon sugar
 1 orange, sectioned (save juice)
 1 cup toasted bread cubes
 In medium skillet melt butter; add onion and celery and cook until tender. Add nuts, apples, salt, sage, cinnamon and sugar. Continue cooking until apples can be pierced with a fork but are not soft, about 10 minutes. Combine orange sections and juice with bread cubes and apple mixture.
 Makes enough stuffing for a 7- to 9-pound chicken.
GUESTS FOR LUNCH
 Deviled Ham Sponger Roll
 Salad Bowl
JEAN'S BOURNEAU BALLS
 One of the best versions of this popular confection.
 1/4 cup bourbon, 86 proof
 2 tablespoons dark corn syrup
 1 cup finely chopped vanilla wafers
 1 cup finely chopped pecans
 "Extra confectioner's sugar" into a medium mixing bowl thoroughly stir together the bourbon and corn syrup. Add the wafers, pecans and 1 cup confectioner's sugar. Mix thoroughly—mixture will be soft and sticky. Spoon portions (1/4 tablespoon for each) of the mixture onto wax paper generously covered with confectioner's sugar; dip hands in confectioner's sugar and roll each portion into a small ball; roll again in confectioner's sugar. Cover lightly and refrigerate overnight before serving—balls will keep for weeks in the refrigerator. Before serving, roll again in confectioner's sugar. Makes about 24.

Sailors' Steak Stew
 By AILEEN CLAIR
 NEA Food Editor
 Once upon a time stew was considered a peasant dish. Today a good stew served with crisp bread and a crunchy salad with tangy dressing is an overman's dish. A Sailors' Steak Stew, for example, is a hearty meal for all ages.
SAILORS' STEAK STEW
 1 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 1 large onion, sliced
 3 lbs. round steak, cut into 1 inch cubes
 2 tablespoons Angostura aromatic bitters
 5 peppercorns
 6 medium potatoes, peeled and sliced 1/2 inch thick
 2 cups light beer
 Salt and pepper
 Heat butter and onion onions until transparent. Brown meat cubes thoroughly with bitters. Add meat to onions and stir over high heat until cubes are brown. Add peppercorns and potatoes. Add beer. Cover and simmer, gently stirring occasionally for 1 1/2 hours or until meat is tender. No thickening is required in this stew as during cooking the potatoes will disintegrate in to stew, making it thicker without the addition of flour. Add salt, and pepper to taste. During cooking it may be necessary to add more beer from time to time to prevent sticking. Makes 6 servings.
EVENING REFRESHER
 Cheese, Cracker and Fresh Fruit Tray
 Walnut Sesame Brittle
 A spanking new recipe that is superb.
 2 cups coarsely chopped walnuts
 1/4 cup sesame seeds
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup light corn syrup
 1/4 cup water
 2 tablespoons butter
 1 teaspoon baking soda
 Spread walnuts in a shallow pan and toast in a preheated 300-degree oven, stirring once or twice, for about 10 to 15 minutes. Toast sesame seeds in a separate shallow pan in same-temperature oven, stirring often. 1/2 until very dry. Remove to a 2-quart saucepan. In syrup and water. CHEERY MINICMEAT PUDDING
 It's baked in custard cups.
 1 package (14 ounces) apple spice muffin mix
 1 cup toasted chopped blueberries
 1 medium green apple, pared and sliced
 1 jar (4 ounces) red marachouin cherries
 1 egg
 1/4 cup brandy or apple cider
 1/4 cup water
 1 cup ready-to-use minicmeat. Combine muffin mix, blueberries and apple in medium bowl. Drain and chop cherries; stir into muffin mixture. In small bowl beat egg, brandy and water. Just until mixed and slightly foamy; add minicmeat. Fold brandy mixture into muffin mixture just until ingredients are well blended. Spoon into 11 six-ounce custard cups. Place in pan containing 1-inch hot water. Cover with foil and bake in a preheated 375-degree oven for 20 minutes. Spoon into 11 tests done. Serve warm with Hard Sauce. Makes 11 servings. For the Hard Sauce beat together until smooth 1/2 cup melted butter, 1 tablespoon brandy and 1 cup confectioner's sugar.

Demand For Mushrooms Is Pushing The Growers' Florida Sweet Corn Graces Tables Across United States

By ALLEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

For centuries, men have relished mushrooms as a gastronomical delight. Now millions of Americans are discovering this delectable fungus that adds exciting flavor and texture to meats, vegetables, salads or when served as a main course. Demand is so great they are being pushed to grow enough cultivated mushrooms to keep up. Mushrooms are eaten raw or cooked. When preparing fresh mushrooms remember not to peel. The modern cultivated mushroom has a delicate skin unlike its wild counterpart and may be eaten without peeling. Rinse mushrooms in clean water briefly but do not soak them. Drain promptly and blot dry with paper towels if they are to be sauteed. Overcooking dries out fresh mushrooms and heating for a few minutes in hot butter, margarine or vegetable oil is enough if they are to be sauteed, broiled or simmered. An easy, tasty way to prepare them is Oven "Fried" Mushrooms.

OVEN "FRIED" MUSHROOMS
1/4 pound fresh mushrooms
1/4 cup soft bread crumbs
1/4 teaspoon Italian seasoning
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon onion powder
Dash ground red pepper
2 tablespoons milk
Rinse, pat dry and trim stem ends of mushrooms; set aside. Combine crumbs with Italian seasoning, salt, onion and garlic powders and red pepper. Mix well. Dip each mushroom into milk; roll in seasoned bread crumbs. Arrange on cookie sheet and bake in a preheated 425-degree oven 15 minutes or until browned. Serve with meat. Make approximately 10 "fried" mushrooms.

1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon onion salt
Dash of tobacco sauce
1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
4 slices bacon, crisply cooked and crumbled
Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; wash and chill. Just before serving, coarsely shred enough lettuce to make 1 quart. In a 10-inch skillet heat oil; add mushrooms and basil and cook quickly and lightly, stirring often; stir in remaining ingredients except bacon and heat; pour over lettuce and toss just until mixed. Sprinkle with bacon and serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

SOLE FILLETS WITH MUSHROOMS
How to perk up fish!
1 pound sole fillets
Flour
4 tablespoons corn-oil margarine
2 cups (about 1/2 pound) sliced fresh mushrooms
1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1/4 cup dry vermouth
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1 tablespoon minced fresh dill or dry dillweed to taste
1/4 teaspoon salt
Generous dash of pepper
Rinse and dry fillets; coat lightly with flour. In a large skillet melt 2 tablespoons of the margarine; add mushrooms; cook until golden—about 3 minutes. Remove from skillet. Melt remaining 4 tablespoons margarine in the skillet; stir in oil. Add fillets and fry on medium heat until lightly browned on both sides and fish flakes easily—about 5 minutes; place on serving platter. Return mushrooms to skillet; add vermouth; stir in parsley, dill, salt and pepper. Boil 1 minute. Spoon mushroom mixture over fillets. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Supposedly someone last year counted the Florida sweet corn growers and determined that growers sent more than 550 million ears of corn to dinner tables across the United States. This was during the months of November through May. With one of the sleeping statistics it's nice to know that fresh corn is available to almost all areas year-round. Fresh corn is shipped under layers of shaved ice to help preserve its flavor. Once purchased, cook immediately or keep in the refrigerator and cook as soon as possible. Fresh boiled corn is at its best when dropped into boiling water and cooked only 5 to 6 minutes. Bake or roast fresh corn from 30 to 35 minutes.

ON THE COB
Remove husks from ears of fresh corn and brush off silks. Drop in a kettle of boiling water to cover. Add 1 teaspoon salt and cook, covered, 5 minutes. Remove from water and serve with seasoned spread. Allow 1 or 2 ears per person.

IN THE HUSK
Remove husks from ears of fresh corn; remove silks. Pull husks back over ears and tie in place with string or strips of the husk. Soak in cold water for 10 minutes. Arrange ears in a baking pan. Place in a preheated 350-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Remove husks and serve ears with butter or margarine. All 1 to 2 ears per person.

BAKED IN FOIL
Remove husks and silks from fresh corn. Place each ear on a square of aluminum foil. Sprinkle with salt, ground black pepper and top with a thin slice of butter or margarine. Wrap securely by making a double lengthwise fold on top of the ear. Turn the ends up and fold smooth against the corn. Bake in a preheated 425-degree oven 20 to 25 minutes. To serve, open the foil and turn foil back, crimping to look attractive.

PARMESAN SPREAD
To 1/4-cup butter or margarine, softened, add 2 tablespoons freeze-dried chives, 1/2-teaspoon lemon juice, 1/4-teaspoon salt and 1/4-teaspoon ground black pepper. M. w. Makes 1/4-cup.

CHIVE BREAD
To 1/4-cup butter or margarine, softened, add 2 tablespoons freeze-dried chives, 1/2-teaspoon lemon juice, 1/4-teaspoon salt and 1/4-teaspoon ground black pepper. M. w. Makes 1/4-cup.

CHEESE PUFFS
12 slices white bread, buttered
1 tbsp. butter
2 tbsp. all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. onion powder
1/4 cup (1/2 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
2 egg whites
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 chery tomatoes, cut in half
Trim crusts from bread; place on baking sheet; toast on one side; set aside. In one quart saucepan, melt butter; blend in flour. Stir in milk, green pepper, Worcestershire sauce, mustard and onion powder. Fold in cheese. Remove from heat. Beat egg whites with salt until soft peaks form. Fold into cheese mixture. Spread cheese sauce evenly over toasted bread.
Place two slices of tomato, cut side down, on each slice of bread. Bake in preheated 325-degree oven 15 minutes. Broil one to two minutes or until top is slightly browned. Cut sandwiches diagonally. Makes 24.

4 medium (1 1/2 pounds) zucchini
1 tablespoon olive oil
Salt
Trim ends from zucchini and discard; scrub zucchini in cold water. Cut in half lengthwise. Place, one side up, in a shallow layer in a shallow baking pan; brush cut sides with oil. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven 15 to 20 minutes. Sprinkle with salt. Skin sides of zucchini may be broiled. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Stamp Out The Ads Mess Is Brewing

By TOM HORTON
Copley News Service

NEWS ITEM: A Cincinnati advertising agency has suggested that postage stamps be used for commercial advertising to help the U.S. Postal Service overcome its annual deficit and stabilize mailing costs. The proposal is being studied by the stamp advisory committee.

WASHINGTON, 1972 — Six months after the adoption of its revolutionary commercial stamps program, the U.S. Postal Service is being sued for $1 million by a Milpitas man who charges the commercial stamps cost him his family, his business and most of his friends.

Shank signed his business selection of stamps for personal and business mail causing people to reject him as insensitive, vulgar and a source of embarrassment.

"I have always had a knack for saying the wrong thing to people," Shank said. "So some time ago I decided to conduct one of his letters with a stamp which says 'You do!'"

Sighed Shank, "How was I to know her husband had been run over by a train?"

The distressed businessman claimed the more letters he mailed using the new commercial stamps, the more people he insulted. "My friends were convinced I was purposely making fun of them by mailing them letters with stamps advertising ways to lose weight," Shank signed. "They said they refused to do business with the kind of man who would mail letters with Marlbrown County stamps. Heck, I thought I was some sort of Pony Express messenger."

A Navy Chief Chases Airline Skyjackers

By FRANK MACOMBER
Copley News Service

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Dick Wooten, now stationed at the Naval Air Station, has lived an eventful life. For eight months, he was a Navy chief. Wooten shed his uniform to play a role that took him thousands of miles.

Because his performance was flawless, the audience gave him no recognition at all. That sure didn't happen in Hollywood, you say.

Right. It occurred aboard commercial airliners, where Wooten was cast as a sky marshal. EX-AIR MARSHAL — Dick Wooten smiles as he recalls his eight months as a federal sky marshal. He shed his Navy uniform of 23 years to wear civilian clothes, a concealed snub-nosed .38 revolver and watch for suspected airline hijackers.

Go Together Like Tiger, Danger

By RUTH PEARSON

NEW YORK (UPI)—It was 10 a.m. in the middle of busy Times Square and I was waiting for the cross-town bus. A hostile-looking man came up, grabbed my shoulder bag and rushed off.

Before I realized what I was doing, with only the vision of my handbag growing smaller and smaller in the distance, I rushed after the man and emphatically kicked him where it hurt while simultaneously recapturing the purse.

It was over in seconds. But when I triumphantly marched back to the line to wait for the bus, a man who had passively watched the incident shook his head. "You shouldn't do that," he said. "You might have caused trouble."

At the United Nations where I work, I've become an object of some interest. It seems I'm one of the few people that my foreign friends know who actu-

Letter to the Editor Mother Expresses Her Views On War

Editor Herald: Your column on prisoners of war was just plain beautiful — logical in this day of illogical reasoning. I would say it was in the style of Thomas Paine, Thomas Jefferson, Adams, James Monroe and others but since their private papers earn them the title 'atheist' you might not realize I was just paying you a compliment and might think I was trying to convert you.

All kidding aside, this is the story relayed to me by my sister about her brother-in-law, then Major, now Lt. Colonel Peter Frederick.

The family did not hear for six months. His wife (with four children) was frantic — contacting the Red Cross, his commanding officer, etc., and receiving no information. Finally she got hold of the then Senator Robert Kennedy who found out for her that her husband had been shot down nearly 6 months before over Laos — and, at the time she received this information, we were still officially not over Laos or being shot down over that country. That was about five years ago.

They have told his wife he is a prisoner — or they think he is — but she has heard nothing at all. She joined with the wives of prisoners asking for information — asking for release — but when they began to support the Nixon administration (and its continuation of the war) she gave up and went back to her home country of England.

I might add that Nixon's two TV speeches in which he said that he regretted the cost in American lives but he would not withdraw as South Vietnamese might be killed did not help matters at all.

Nixon's statement, by the way, helped me get our son to Canada. I would call him a draft-dodger as I usually do, but the FBI keeps telling me I have no right to do so — that he is not a draft-dodger in that he left the United States before any draft notices were received at our home and they never sent one to Canada after him. This may explain why Nixon claims we have 70,000 boys in Canada and Canada claims over 150,000 have achieved landed immigrant status and twice that number (a total of 450,000) are merely visiting as refugees.

Another interesting piece of information is that they tell me my son is not a draft-dodger and there is no warrant for his arrest but that if I keep going around telling people I nagged, pleaded, begged, bribed, and advised him to go to Canada (as I most assuredly did) I can be arrested and sentenced to jail.

$100,000 Loss At Pinecrest Flames Demolish Restaurant

By BILL SCOTT Pinecrest Inn, at 2600 Orlando Drive, was declared a total loss $100,000 after it was destroyed this morning by Sheriff John Polk after an explosion from an undetermined source leveled portions of the rear walls and a resulting fire gutted the inside of the restaurant.

Estimates of the damages were placed at approximately $100,000 after it was disclosed that Richard L. Street paid $4,000 for the business when purchasing it from Maxine Hancock just six days ago. The burned-out bulk was still smoldering at noon today.

County deputies roped off the area anticipating sifting the debris. Sheriff Polk disclosed that the state fire marshal's office will conduct an investigation into the holocaust when it is safe to enter the smoldering remains. Lake Mary and Ginderville fire departments were called to the scene just after midnight. Sheriff Polk disclosed that the state fire marshal's office will conduct an investigation into the holocaust when it is safe to enter the smoldering remains. Lake Mary and Ginderville fire departments were called to the scene just after midnight.

The entire south wall of the structure was blown off by the explosive force but, firemen had the blaze under control by 1:30 a. m. Arthur Matus, Florida Public Utilities (natural gas) manager, this morning issued the following statement: "I have looked at the situation and my preliminary investigation indicates to me it was not a gas explosion since the main fire appeared to be in the rear building." Mother, 3 Succumb In Blaze

EATONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—An Eatonville mother and her three children died early today when fire swept their wood frame house.

Police Commissioner Roosevelt Scott said Helen Brown, her two daughters and a son were trapped in the blazing home following an explosion which was apparently caused by a faulty oil heater. Scott said the children, whose names were not immediately known, ranged in age from 18-months to 12 years.

Fire, set off by an explosion shortly after 1 this morning, gutted Pinecrest Inn, with a loss estimated at $100,000. Richard L. Street purchased the business only six days ago. (Additional photos on page 2A.)

'Ding-a-Ling With No Vote' Mayor Wants A 'Voice'

By DONNA ESTES LONGWOOD — Mayor Kenneth Brown gave his "pitch" for a strong mayor-type government with the chief executive having a vote on the Council at the initial meeting of the city's new charter revision advisory committee last night.

Only three of the five newly appointed members of the committee showed up for the gathering, attended by Brown, City Attorney S. Joseph Davis, on hand to give whatever legal advice necessary, and Councilmen William Kinloch and Dick Crenshaw.

Members of the committee present were James Brown, Donald Schweiner and Robert Duffley while Rod Cable and Rev. W. L. Holcombe were absent.

Mayor Brown, speaking on behalf of the idea of a mayor with a vote "whether it is me or someone else," declared, "It is stupid to elect a ding-a-ling who runs his tail off for the city and yet has no vote on the decisions being made."

He pointed out the city's present 1923 vintage charter virtually ties the mayor's hands making him a mere figurehead that the Council can sit in a corner and even refuse the right to speak.

Brown continued that the current process of electing the city clerk should be eliminated. He quickly added, however, that the current city clerk, Onnie Shomate, is dedicated and has served the city faithfully for 14 years. The mayor said Mr. Shomate should be assured of remaining in office as long as he wants to.

Davis outlined the present charter and the many amendments passed to it over the years including the appointment of a judge who is a lawyer; petition annexation, and new procedures in adopting ordinances. The attorney pointed to weaknesses in the present document and as one example cited the fact it does not spell out the duties of city clerk. He added he is advocate neither of an elective nor appointive clerk.

Turner Sued For Million

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A $1 million suit was filed here Wednesday against Glenn W. Turner Enterprises Inc. and one of its subsidiaries, Kaseck Interplanetary Inc.

The suit drafted by an Indianapolis lawyer on behalf of all Indiana distributors of Kaseck products alleges fraud, breach of contract and deceptive practices.

The suit was drafted by Jay Michael Brodey of Harrison, Moberly and Gaston. It mainly attacks Kaseck's method of collecting $4,000 from persons in "pyramiding" of distributorships in allegedly chain-letter fashion since Dec. 1 by a temporary restraining order in Marion Superior Court 3. The suit was filed in Superior 2.

The suit also names Glenn W. Turner, a Florida marketing expert who in less than five years has borrowed a borrowed $5,000 into a string of corporations with assets reported to total about $200 million.

The restraining order was issued on a suit by the Indiana attorney general, charging Kaseck was more interested in selling distributorships at "golden opportunity meetings" and on "go tours" than in selling cosmetics.

The Legislature appears to be taking the position the cities cannot handle their own affairs.

Speaking of the need for professional assistance in the form of a city manager, Brown noted city council is dealing with land developers who in many instances know all the tricks of their trade. He said with professional assistance by a city manager the city's interests could be better protected.

"I'm deeply concerned about the fact the Legislature continues to encroach on local government," he said.

Florida Tech Prexy Honored By Friends

By JANE CASSELLBERY ORLANDO — Dr. Charles Millican, president of "The Impossible Dream," who turned a palmetto patch into a $20 million campus with enrollment of over 6,000 students in five years, was honored last night at a banquet. Some 300 "Friends of the University" turned out to pay tribute to the Florida Technological University president.
