That Would Put Into Effect the 5-3 Ratio For Ships

FURTHER MEETINGS

ALL BRITISH DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE SAIL FOR HOME DEC. 31

(Continued from Page One) WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—All British delegates to the armament conference except Sir Auckland Gosset, the ambassador here, have arranged to sail for home December 31, feeling that the main issue of the conference will have been disposed of by that time.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Instructions from Tokyo regarding the decision of the Japanese government on the naval ratio question are in the hands of the Japanese delegation. The nature of the communication was not made known but it was indicated last night that further meetings of the big three probably will be necessary before Japan's stand on the 5-3-3 capital ship ratio will be announced definitely.

The idea prevailed here in well informed circles that Tokyo did not regard the arrangement as to strength of naval bases and fortifications in the western Pacific as completed and that further conversations on this point as well as on the question of retention of the Mutsu may be necessary.

SLAUGHTER'S BODY FOUND IN THE WOODS WHERE HE WAS KILLED

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 12 (By the Associated Press).—Finding of the body of Tom Slaughter, notorious bandit and outlaw, by a posse in the woods twenty miles northwest of Benton today corroborated the story of J. C. Howard one of the six other convicts that Slaughter gave a chance for liberty when he made his escape from the penitentiary here Saturday, that he shot Slaughter while the latter's back was turned.

With half of the face shot off and a wound in one side, the bandit's body was found lying on its side. According to Howard's story of the affair he shot Slaughter while he was reclining before the camp fire which the seven convicts had built after they had abandoned the automobile in which they escaped from the penitentiary.

Howard said the seven men, two whites and five negroes, kept together and escaped the posses which trailed them several times, and late in the afternoon came to the secluded spot where they camped.

Howard said he watched his chance and got the promise of Jim Wells and Clifton Taylor, two of the negroes, to "frame up" on Slaughter and the other negroes. The plan was carried out as planned. The negroes, watching their chance, disarmed the other negroes as they slept. Howard then shouted and the Slaughter started to rise to his feet, shot him three times.

The negroes who were not in the plot fled and Howard said he and Wells and Taylor attempted unsuccessfully to capture them. He then returned to the fire, he and the negroes gathered all the pistols they could find and went to the farmhouse where they surrendered last night.

Slaughter's body was taken to Benton this afternoon.

Thousands crowded into the little town of Benton to view Slaughter's body. The crowd was so dense and so insistent that officers placed the body on a wagon on one of the principal streets and permitted the crowd to file by in pairs.

An investigation disclosed that there was a bullet wound in the dead bandit's back as well as the head and side.

The great task is not to define Americanism, but to refine it.

O'CONNOR LEADS MERRY CHASE OVER HILLS

INSTEAD OF BEING LED TO HIS EXECUTION TODAY AT CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Lucky Tommy O'Connor, gunman and killer, who was to have been led today to the death cell in the Cook County jail to await hanging Thursday morning for the killing of a policeman, instead was leading combined force of five thousand police and deputies a merry chase after sensational escape from the county jail. The jail break which occurred yesterday was characterized by Chief of Police Fitzmorris as "a frameup between O'Connor and jail officials" and the chief ordered his men to bring in O'Connor dead or alive. Sheriff suspended three guards and also offered five hundred dollars reward for the apprehension of O'Connor.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—The police at 10 o'clock said they believed they had O'Connor surrounded in a house on the South side. Rifle squads and tear gas bombers equipped with bullet proof steel shields mounted on wheels were dispatched to the scene.

When the police arrived they found the tip false. When the police rushed the house a surprised man appeared and identified himself as Bishop Charles Anderson, of the Episcopal church.

Judgeship Bill Passes House; Florida In It

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—By a vote of 197 to 90, the Walsh bill providing for the appointment of twenty-two additional federal district judges was passed late Saturday by the house and sent to the senate after an amendment which would have required federal judges to devote all their time to judicial duties had been ruled out on a point of order.

Creation of the judgeships was advocated by Chief Justice Taft, Attorney General Daugherty and a group of federal judges and district attorneys which made a survey to determine the causes and extent of docket congestion in various districts and the means of expediting the handling of cases.

Under the bill the new judges would be allotted to the Middle Tennessee and Southern Florida districts in the South.

The bill also provides for the holding annually of a conference, to be presided over by the chief justice of the United States with senior circuit judges, district judges, if deemed advisable, and the business transacted in various courts during the year and plans made for relieving delays in the administration of justice.

Woman Who Killed Man Attempting to Attack Her is Freed

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 12.—"We the jury, find the defendant not guilty."

This verdict was brought in by the Knox county jury trying the case of Maude Moore, charged with the murder of LeRoy Harth, September 8, 1919, after having been out fifteen minutes, following the charge of Judge T. A. R. Nelson, which was completed at 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

One halloo on each of three counts upon which the defendant might have been convicted—murder in the first degree; murder in the second degree, and manslaughter, was taken. The result was unanimously for acquittal in each case. The jury reported fifteen minutes after the charge had been delivered and when read in open court a mighty shout went up from the crowd, which was quickly quelled by court attendants.

The defendant received the verdict with calmness, although tears streamed down her face as she grasped the hand of each juror. She will return to Tacoma, where she will make her home. She declared she had no malice toward anyone who had participated in the trial, not even towards the family of Harth.

"I shall lead a better life henceforth. It was a terrible thing to do, but I had to do it," she said.

Says State Has No Money For Capitol Wings

OCALA, Dec. 12.—An injunction to prevent any work upon the proposed extension of the state capitol will be sought if the board of commissioners of state institutions awards a contract, H. M. Hampton and Anderson & Anderson, notified the board formally Saturday.

The board has advertised that bids for the work would be opened December 12th. The attorneys representing certain citizens of the state, whose names were not given, informed the board that the law passed by the legislature last summer, authorizing the alteration, enlargement and repair of the capitol, provides that the sum of $250,000 or so much thereof as may be required, is appropriated "out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated."

Attorneys declare that from the investigation, "there is no money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated which may be applied toward the extension and enlargement of the capitol building, and therefore, there is no authority upon your part to let any contracts and it is our purpose to undertake to restrain the execution of any contract should such be let."

The attorneys said it was their information that other appropriations previously made are yet unsatisfied and that the act does not contemplate the doing of the work or the expenditure of the money so long as other appropriations remain uncompleted.

"We are further prepared to show from the records that when the other appropriations previously made have been cared for that there will not be any funds in the state treasury within the next twelve months, at least for the purpose of capitol extension as provided for in the act," the attorneys concluded.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Unswerving support of Irish republicans who demand complete political divorce of Ireland from the British empire was pledged yesterday by the National Convention of the Friends of Irish Freedom.

The pledge constituted one of several clauses in a "declaration of principles, formally subscribed to by the organization before adjournment of the convention. Another clause denounced the proposed settlement through the setting up of an Irish Free state, while a third condemned as a "betrayal of American principles" the four-power treaty proposed at Saturday's session of the armament conference.

"Ireland is to remain in the British empire under the designation of the Irish Free State," the declaration said, "on condition that her representatives swear fealty to the king of England, who is given authority to appoint a governor-general."

"We reiterate our belief that the manhood of Ireland enrolled in the Irish republican army and who have endured untold suffering and made sacrifices unsurpassed in history, never intended that their blood and the lives of their kin should be given for a change in the character of English rule in Ireland, or for any measure of freedom less than national independence."

LOCAL MERCHANT STEALS PURSE OF CUSTOMER

AND FOUND SOMETHING OF GREATER VALUE THAN MONEY

One of our local merchants found a lady's purse in his store and upon opening it found the following letter.

Dear Madge:

When your letter came urging me to do your Christmas shopping I confess I was overwhelmed with the suggestion. However, the fact that you are marooned out on the ranch with your hands full I determined I'd do the very best I could for my old college mate.

I went down early yesterday to browse among the stores and get ideas and I believe the problem is solved, and all in one store! Remembering Fred's newly acquired Masonic degrees I was attracted by a window display in McLaulin's Jewelry Store. There spread out was every type of emblem in pins, charms and rings. Particularly attractive were the belts with the silver buckles, and instead of the usual monogram were the emblems of the orders. The part that struck me was that this store had good looking articles priced for every one's pocket book. I was so interested in this display I asked Mr. McLaulin to show me other things a man might like. I explained to him my mission and never have I received more courteous treatment. There is one thing certain, he'll not only get you Christmas trade, but mine, too. I can't tell you of all the things, but among the line of goods dear to the smoker's heart there were smoking stands and cabinets in mahogany, brass and walnut. Particularly nice for the man who takes a piece for his tobacco, cigars and things were the humidors. Especially nice were the cigarette holders and silver cigarette cases suitable for the most fastidious young man. Next came his line of watches he had everything from the smallest wrist watches to the high grade railroad watches. The military and traveling sets were very good in Ivory and silver, some good looking ivory shaving sets were visible, too. I paused a minute or two looking at the Ever-sharp and Pal pencils which always come in handy for a man or boy, and besides there were his Sheaffer fountain pens from plainest to elaborate gold ones. For that bookish brother of yours I saw some new ideas in book ends and desk sets. If your men folks need bill folds, he has them in every desirable size in alligator lather. Before leaving the men's department I stopped to look at his rings, from plain but massive signet rings to more elaborate ones in gold and platinum with sparkling diamonds. I found the same rich variety in the cuff buttons and Waldemar chains and fobs. So you see you can find any thing you might want for the men of your family here in this store.

I knew that next in importance to Fred was that precious baby of yours and so I asked to see baby things. He pulled out a drawer of sterling ware for "little men and women." There is the greatest variety of lockets and chains, tiny bracelets, tiny strings of gold beads and even tiny pearls. I've always found the bib clasps mighty useful and also pins and stud sets. For meat time some of his non-breakable plates would come in handy.

When I came to choosing for your sister and the girls I was bewildered of course, I looked at diamonds first. I was astonished at the line he brought out, the assortment would have reflected credit on some of our larger city stores. The solitaires and dinner rings were beauties. He had some clusters that gave the impression of solitaires. The black onyx set with diamonds is good this year in either rings or lockets. The diamond and platinum bar pins were beautiful, but he also has a line of cheaper pins that are splendid values and while I am on pins, why now is your chance to get a good value in cameos. He is going to make a run on them during the holidays and you had better decide on one right away.

Then I was attracted by the toilet sets in Pyralin Ivory, some of them went up to seventy-five dollars, but oh they were beauties. He had manicure sets of this grade, too. Why not start the girls a set of this best grade ivory, beginning with the mirror of course! I could picture you and Fred in the silver and poly chrome frames that were displayed.

For Louise I chose an Ever-Sharp or Pal pencil to wear on a ribbon, or a fountain pen, for one of the other girls I suggest one of the butterfly lockets, or a coin purse, if you wished something a little more expensive, a silver vanity or mesh bag or a string of La Tosca pearls. I almost forgot the cut glass powder jars that appeal so much to girls. If you want a breath of Florida, get one of the hand painted pins with a Florida scene in miniature. Words fail to do them credit. The very latest thing in beads though are the genuine African Elephant ivory beads and they are not any more expensive than the pearls.

Then I turned to the things for the house and again it was hard to choose. Mr. McLaulin carries a complete line of sterling silver such as attractive trays, salad bowls, cream and sugar sets. Quite as attractive were the tea sets in Sheffield. Just across from the silver display was a show case full of Pickard's hand painted China, any piece of which would make an acceptable gift. In less expensive was I saw three patterns in open stock, two very pretty border designs and the popular gold and white. Just across from the Pickard China was a display of Hawks Cut Glass, ranging from Cologne bottles to water sets. In less expensive glass ware I found so many desirable gifts, too, baskets, sherbet cups, jam jars, guest room sets. There were some such attractive pieces of stationery and pottery that would make an ideal gift. The tall floor lamps threw a glow over the entire store, and I tell you the atmosphere was such that you would want to visit McLaulin's store frequently.

I remembered your special note about your glasses needing mending and I was delighted to find optical parlors with a registered optician ready to make the changes you'd need in your glasses. Just across were two watch makers busy at their repair desks, so this store not only sells you gifts for this Christmas but also mends your old ones.

Feeling sure that you will find all you need for your long list of friends am eagerly waiting for your note to tell me to go ahead and buy them.

Sincerely yours, MARY.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

The Temple Club was the scene of a beautiful party Saturday afternoon when Miss Clara Millen entertained at a "miscellaneous shower" complimenting Miss Winnie Brown, a charming bride-elect of this month. The Club was beautifully decorated with festoons of red and green crepe paper, holly, Christmas bells, red roses and poinsettias. The color motif of red and green was artistically carried out in every detail both in the decorations and later in the refreshments. Several contests afforded much merriment among the guests, one being a love story, the answers being the names of the states. Mrs. George Hyman and Mrs. Farrel tied in having the most correct answers, and presented the prize, gold lingerie clasps, to the honoree. Another contest was

"Words of Advice made out of the word 'Matrimony'" the bits of advice being very witty and clever.

Mrs. Hoy delighted her hearers with two vocal selections, "I Love You Truly" and "Sweetheart" accompanied by Miss Mardre. Miss Ruth Kinner gave a humorous reading and Mrs. Tom Moore also gave a reading. Several instrumental selections were beautifully rendered by Miss Mardre during the afternoon.

The presentation of the shower was very effective and in keeping with the season. The ringing of sleigh bells announced the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus (little Miss Clara Bray and Billie Barber) who opened the doors of the living room displaying a lovely Christmas tree heavily laden with gifts for the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus presented the gifts the bride-elect with appropriate sayings.

Following the presentation of the shower the hostess served fruit salad, angel food cake, mints and coffee, on each plate were red roses which were used as favors.

There were about thirty-five of Miss Brown's friends present.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR MISS HERNDON

Miss Norma Herndon was the charming honoree at a pretty bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. R. A. Newman, at her home on Fourth street, there being four tables of players and several tea guests. The rooms where the card tables were arranged, were effectively decorated with quantities of cut flowers and potted plants.

In the interesting game of bridge played during the afternoon, high score was made by Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, who was awarded a hand-made apron which she presented to the honoree. The cut prize, a card table cover, was won by Miss Sara Wight. Low score was made by Mrs. Joe Chittenden, who was given a potted Maiden hair fern. The honoree was presented silk lingerie.

At the conclusion of the card game the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments, the table being beautifully decorated with cut flowers carrying out the color motif of pink and green. Place cards were hand-painted with little brides and grooms.

Delicious refreshments of heart-shaped salad, and other accessories followed by an ice cream were served, the favors being pink paper baskets with dainty bride's maids, holding salted nuts.

Mrs. Newman's guests included Miss Herndon, Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, Mrs. Dick Brown, Mrs. Robert Hines, Miss Thelma Fraser, Miss Anna Lou Huff, Mrs. Ben Caswell, Miss Frances Gonzales of Miami, Miss Esther Miller, Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, Miss Sara Wight, Mrs. Joe Chittenden, Mrs. R. E. Chittenden, Mrs. Ed. Betts, Mrs. J. E. THE HOME BAND

A number of cities in Florida are paying several thousand dollars a season for bands for the winter season, and after the season is over the band is gone for the summer. New Smyrna, for the first time in a number of years has a good band and it is getting better all the time. Unfortunately the band is composed of young men and ladies, many of whom are not financially able to carry their part of the burden. They are willing to give their time for practice and concerts, but they expect and should have the financial support of the people of the city. The city has built one of the best band stands in the state, and now if the people will come to the support of the band we are sure they will not only be able to enjoy the open air concerts through the winter, but through the summer as well. A small contribution each week from the head of each family in New Smyrna would keep the band in splendid financial condition. Don't leave the support of the band to the business men, unless you happen to be one of those unfortunates who has no soul for music. Do your part and we will have a good band and enjoy the music.—New Smyrna Breeze.

FOURTH DAY OF METHODIST CONFERENCE

WAS ONE OF BUSIEST OF THE ENTIRE SESSION AT ORLANDO

ORLANDO, Dec. 12.—The fourth day's session of the Florida Annual Conference was opened Saturday morning by Bishop Warren A. Candler, who led the devotional services, using as his scripture lesson a portion of the 20th chapter of Matthew. He emphasized the necessity of building up the kingdom of God, which is a spiritual kingdom, by the use of spiritual forces, and advising the brethren against self-seeking, especially in the matter of electing delegates to the general conference, and in the matter of appointments, "Looking not upon your own things, but upon the things of others."

In answer to the question, "Who remain on trial?" H. B. Boyd, Clyde C. Frazier, Walter Kinard, James Elbert Lewis, Elias L. Ley, Marshall E. Myer, B. T. Raper, Jr., James W. Windham, not having passed the required examinations, remain in the class. John P. Gaines, George C. Herndon, William H. Herndon, John E. Skipper of this class were advanced to the class of the second year; Leonard D. Eldridge, was discontinued at his own request, and the name of C. H. Rose, transferred from the North Carolina Conference, was announced as a member of this class.

In answer to the question pertaining to the class of the third year, A. H. Hancock was continued in the class; R. L. Ramsey and George E. Summers are students in Emory University.

The committee on nominations for trustees of Southern College was announced as follows: W. P. Buhrman, J. B. Rooney, C. F. Blackburn, C. E. Earnest, A. W. McLaren. This committee will nominate a sufficient number to fill the board and they will be elected at this session of the conference, some for one, some for two and some for three years.

The secretary called the roll of the members to be received into full connection, Karl H. Koestline, Fred B. Langford, F. Sanz, S. C. Gardner, and Leon Picone, they were addressed by the Bishop, and by vote of the conference admitted into full connection. The unordained men will be ordained Sunday. The address of the Bishop to the young men contained many wholesome and helpful lessons.

The complete list of delegates elected to the general conference follows: Clerical: I. C. Jenkins, Gainesville; M. H. Norton, Miami; J. B. Mitchell, Jacksonville; J. P. Hillburn and W. A. Cooper, Orlando; lay delegates: L. P. McCord, Jacksonville; J. T. Therrell, Ocala; L. W. Duvall, Ocala; L. N. Pipkin, Lakeland; G. W. Tedder, Madison. Alternates: S. D. Harris, St. Petersburg; E. T. Roux, Plant City; Mrs. J. T. Fuller, Orlando.

The new board of trustees of Southern College is composed of J. M. Gross, G. F. Scott, R. I. Barnett, E. E. Edge, J. Edgar Wall, G. W. Tedder, for one year, John A. Hendry, W. A. Cooper, J. P. Hillburn, G. S. Roberts, L. W. Duvall, L. P. McCord, L. B. Giles, C. L. Johnson, for two years; L. D. Lowe, J. B. Rooney, J. Edgar Wilson, J. T. Mitchell, E. T. Roux, T. L. Hendrix, for three years; Alumni trustees: J. H. Daniel, one year; W. C. Fountain, two years; W. C. Norton, three years.

The report of the committee on temperance and social service recommended C. W. Crooks for appointment as representative of the Anti-Saloon League.

Board of Missions presented report number, giving 75 missions in the Florida Conference. Hereafter all applications for aid will be granted only upon recommendation of the Quarterly Conference. This board recommends for appointment Ira S. Patterson as missionary secretary; J. S. Chapman and J. B. Culpepper as conference evangelists; F. P. McCall, W. H. McLeod, S. A. McCook, T. E. York, and H. L. Ezell were endorsed as evangelists, and W. H. McLeod and F. P. McCall as general evangelists.

The orphanage board reported 71 children in the home at Enterprise and the work in fine condition, and recommended for re-appointment as superintendent, Rev. J. R. Cason.

WHY BUY A HOME?

Andrew Carnegie advised every young man to go in debt.

But he was careful to add, that the safest, wisest way to do it was to buy a home.

Buying a home compels thrift in a pleasurable way.

Owning one's home is life extension insurance.

There would be a few poorhouses in the world if every man realized the vital importance and economy of buying a home.

In this one respect savages are wiser than many civilized folks. Every Indian with a family owned his own wigwam, every Eskimo father builds himself a house of ice, even the wandering Arab of the desert carries with him his tent-home and his furniture, of which he is proud, and to which he is deeply attached.

You would hesitate to wear rented clothes; but when you think of it, to live in a rented house is almost as unnatural. Men and women like to own the intimate things that surround their daily lives.

You would hesitate to drive—month in and month out—a rented motor car; yet when you think of it, to live in a rented house is almost as unbusiness like. If it pays another to own the house you live in, it would certainly pay you to own your own.

House ownership means: Independence. Pride. Stability.

A wise investment. Insurance against old age. Better standing with bankers and business men.

A motive for thrift. Greater peace in mind and bodily comfort.

Better citizenship.

And—perhaps greatest of all—a permanent haven for your children, where they can grow to manhood and womanhood, with fresh air and beautiful scenery around them.—From Lake "Conies."

IN MEMORIAM

Teressa Lundrigan Chapman, wife of Ralph Chapman, of Sanford, Fla., was born at Bradford, Pa., on the fourteenth day of April, 1892. She was married on the twelfth day of August, 1916, and at once came to Sanford, where they have made their home. Of this marriage were born three children. The first, a boy, who lived but a few days, the second a girl now two years of age, and the third child born at the time of this, her last sickness, which has failed to live. Mrs. Chapman was an earnest christian, as well as a splendid wife and mother. In our conversations with her she expressed her faith in the Savior, and her great desire for the religious welfare of her family; expressing the hope that circumstances might soon make it possible to take her little one to the services of God's house. We are stunned at the suddenness of this blow which has brought deep sorrow to so many hearts. We can only lift up our eyes to the God of all comfort, that in his great mercy He may comfort the hearts of this husband and child, and all the dear ones who mourn their great loss; and with full faith that Mrs. Chapman and her two children are now with the Savior, we can look forward to the time when there shall be no more death, but a fulness of life and joy in the Kingdom of God our Savior. We need hardly say that Mr. Chapman and the living child have the sincerest sympathy and love of all who know them, in this sorrow of their lives. The funeral services were conducted at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon by the pastor, assisted by the Eastern Star, of which she was a member.

Senator Tom Watson does not want anyone to look at him. An army officer looked at him during the hearings the other day and Tom threatened to slap his face. They should have let him do it. SOUTH IS THE HOME-OWNING SECTION OF THE U. S.

Florida is eleventh in the percentage of homes owned debt-free, according to the report of the census bureau, with 77.1 per cent. The whole South makes a creditable showing in this report, which is a good barometer by which the progress of the section may be judged. In their order the Southern states are: North Carolina second, with 82.9 per cent; Virginia fifth with 79.4 per cent, tying with Louisiana; Tennessee seventh, with 78.8 per cent; South Carolina eighth, with 78.6 per cent; Georgia ninth, with 78.2 per cent, and Kentucky tenth, with 77.8 per cent. Florida is eleventh, Mississippi is twelfth, Alabama fifteenth, Arkansas sixteenth and Texas seventeenth.

These figures establish the fact the South is the home-owning section of the United States. The report is a sign the country south of the Mason-Dixon line is prospering, and that its people are here to stay. No community or section can figure on continued growth when its residents are not permanent, for the tenacity of the non-home-owning tribe is shiftlessness, here today and somewhere else tomorrow. On the other hand, the spirit of permanency is found among the home-owning class. When a man builds a home it is reasonable to conclude he has decided to settle down and lend his influence to the development of the environment about him. There are other reasons, however, why the South leads in the percentage of homes owned debt-free. The Houston Post points out a few of these:

"It is notable that the most populous states, and those which are especially noted as manufacturing states, are far down in the list. New York is forty-fourth, Massachusetts is forty-seventh and New Jersey is forty-ninth.

"This showing is perhaps surprising to many, yet the South's leadership in this particular is not difficult of explanation. For one thing, the home-owning instinct has been allowed larger play in the South. This section has not yielded to modern tendencies in residential matters as have some others. In the older Southern states, home life is nearer what it was in other days, and the older, established families are holding their homes.

"The habit of renting is not nearly so prevalent in the South as in the North. The people put a larger proportion of their savings into homes than into savings banks. There are not so many large cities, and home-owning is easier for the people in the moderate sized cities and towns than it is in the great cities where property values are beyond the reach of the average wage earner."

All the census reports have shown that the South has forged ahead, while some of the other states have stood still or retrograded, and some have moved forward with the South, but none so forward in home-owning. The South has reason to be proud of its record, which is especially splendid in comparison with the records of other sections, and Florida is justified in puffing out its chest a bit, being one of the youngest states in the Union.

NEW COMPANY MAY IMPROVE WATERWAY

On reliable authority it is learned that serious efforts are being made to take up the matter of providing inland water route for the East Coast towns between Jacksonville and Miami, on a charter having been granted by the secretary of state to John Westcott, Harry Gaillard, James M. Colee, all of St. Johns county many years ago.

It is not learned whether the plans are to revive the ancient packet line which went out of business years ago or whether an entirely new equipment and management will be submitted. The capital stock of the company is $100,000 and the name is the Florida Coast Line Canal and Transportation Company. The charter was refilled with the secretary of state October 4 of this year.

The first work of the company will be to provide a sufficient depth of water through canals and on the Matanzas, Halifax, Hillsboro and Indian rivers; then will follow the starting of boats of sufficient draft to operate in the depth provided and large enough to make the carrying of freight and passengers profitable.

That this inauguration of water routes would be welcomed by all the towns on the route is known before hand. There will be advantages offered of great value when the towns are given transportation by rail as well as by water. Many shipments of freight can be made profitable by a

 An Irishman who was working on the A. C. L. was run down by a train one day and literally cut to pieces. The other section hands picked up what there was left of him that the wheels of the train hadn't carried away, but in a rough wooden box and leputed one of their number to take his "remains" home and break the sad news as gently as might be possible.

The emissary arrived in due course with the box on his shoulder, knocked at the door and asked:

"Is th' widdy McGinness livin' here?"

"I'm Mrs. McGinness," said the woman who opened the door "but I'm no widdy. Me husband is a wur-kin' on th' railroad."

"Yer a liar, I have 'im here in th' box," said the diplomat as he threw it down on the door step and departed.

packet line such as groceries, feed, furniture, hardware, lumber and all sorts of imperishable articles.

The citizens would certainly patronize such a line to a considerable degree for the shipments in many cases are not rush shipments, while the lower rates on water would be attractive.

It is believed in many circles that such a line would be profitable from the start. Many passengers, tourists and others who do not travel in haste but who desire to see the waters of the state and take a leisurely trip in the winter months, as well as those who travel in order to rest will find such a line to their liking.

New Smyrna would profit from such a line. There was much shipping on the old line though of course the shipments by water were nothing like so large as those made by rail. The inauguration of such a line might in time have a depressing effect on the rates by rail as much as the competition would in time be formidable.

That the inland water route would take the place of deep water here is not suggested. Deep water would mean a thousand advantages while the inland water route would mean a hundred. But while the deep water plans are still "coming", it is cheering to see plans for an inland route started.—New Smyrna News.

NEWSPAPERS CAN REMEDY CONDITIONS?

You can remedy certain conditions with the Chief, said a friend to us the other day. Perhaps so, but did you ever stop to think that it is not altogether the province of a newspaper to be remedying conditions all the time. The first duty of a newspaper is to give the news honestly and fairly. If conditions are not what they should be it is no more the duty of the editor to pry up hades and put a chunk under the corner that it is yours. The news in a newspaper reflects the community doings as a mirror reflects your face. If the mirror shows wrinkles in your face you do not blame the mirror but try to massage out the wrinkle. If you see something in the paper that is not beneficial to the town, don't blame the editor for telling the news but see to it that nothing of a detrimental nature transpires. In other words smooth out the wrinkles in conditions.—Winter Haven Chief.

Have You Ever Heard of a Christmas Joy-Box?

A CHRISTMAS JOY BOX can be the size of a half-pound candy box, or it may be as large as the largest wooden Dry Goods Box you ever saw. The size depends on what YOU are WILLING to put INTO it. Each JOY-BOX should have some candy, nuts, cookies, fruit and other goodies—a Christmas toy or two—a doll if it is for a girl—or a jack knife or top or baseball if it is for a boy—a new ribbon or two, handkerchief, stockings or a new tie, etc., if for a boy, and a little money for the boy or girl to spend as THEY may choose. THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF FLORIDA, invites EVERY man, woman and child and every SCHOOL, SUNDAY SCHOOL, CHURCH, LODGE, YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETY, WOMAN'S CLUB, LADIES' AID SOCIETY, or OTHER organization in the State of Florida, to get up a JOY-BOX for EVERY Homeless Orphan and Needy Child in our State. We want enough INDIVIDUAL JOY-BOXES for every one of the little ones in our Three Homes in Jacksonville and Pensacola, and then we want to ask for some larger FAMILY JOY-BOXES—filled with children's clothing of every kind, shape and size, hats, caps, shoes, sweaters, underwear, stockings, ribbons, ties, handkerchiefs, etc., any quantity of jellies, preserves, syrup, honey, meats, staple groceries, chickens, fruits, vegetables, nuts, etc. We can use ANYTHING that children from tiny wee babies on up—can EAT, WEAR or ENJOY. All JOY-BOXES, big or small, should be sent to our Children's Homes either at 1944 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, or to our West Florida Branch Home at Seventh Ave. and Jordan Streets, Pensacola. We have had over 1300 little homeless, orphan and needy children come under our care and attention ALREADY THIS year and about FOUR NEW children on an average are referred to us EACH DAY, so you can see that we can use an ENDLESS QUANTITY of Joy-Boxes—big and small.

Just stop and THINK of how good it would make YOU feel to get such a JOY-BOX for Christmas—and then just IMAGINE how happy one of our poor little homeless kiddies would feel.

In addition to Joy-Boxes we have OTHER GREAT NEEDS. They are equally important. One is more good FAMILY HOMES for our homeless children—the other is MORE MONEY to keep our great work going. WE PLEAD EARNESTLY for BOTH.

Won't YOU make YOUR OWN Christmas Happy—by sending us a check or money order RIGHT NOW before you forget, or take one of our HOMELESS youngsters in and give it a good home, or send us or get up a CHRISTMAS JOY-BOX or a BARREL for our Big Family of little unfortunates—PLEASE DO.

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer in extreme southeast portion tonight.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Now we are having some weather. Sun is shining in the real old Florida way again and there is a tang of winter in the air that makes one feel like going into the stores and buying Christmas gifts. This is Florida. Let the good work of boosting the trade of Sanford go forward and while boosting the trade forget to boost the prices and Sanford will be the trading center of the state. Let this week be the biggest week in the history of Sanford in the shopping line. The bulb is at 70 says our weather shark and we believe him altho it was certainly cold last night.

The Star Theatre has a fine program this week. Watch the program published every day in the Daily Herald.

Our merchants have the finest holiday stocks that they have ever shown in Sanford. Buy your Christmas goods in Sanford.

The Farmers Exchange precooling plant on Beadall avenue is assuming proportions of a big building and will be one of the greatest assets to the farming game here that Sanford has ever obtained.

W. L. Morgan was home for the week end and his many friends were giving him a warm welcome. Mr. Morgan has recently built a fine home on Park avenue and says that Sanford is the real place to live

Every day is shopping day in Sanford now and the streets were filled with cars and shoppers from early morn till late at night. It would be a good thing to keep the stores open nights during the holidays.

States Attorney George A. De Cottes has finished up with the term of Circuit Court for Volusia county and will be home now for the holidays. He made a good record for the term and has the respect and esteem of the people of that county for his good work as states attorney.

If the Sanford Band plays every Thursday night as per schedule it would be a good thing to play on the street and have all the stores open on Thursday nights and make it a "shopper's night" as well as a night for the band concert. Plenty of music, big crowds attracted to Sanford at night means more business.

The Rod and Gun Club building on the lake shore is being erected rapidly and will be ready for occupancy in time for the tourists who will visit Sanford this Spring. The buildings are large and will be up to date in every particular to take care of the needs of home people and the winter visitors.

Miss Ruby Spell of Titusville has arrived in the city and taken a position with the Herald Printing Co., as linotype operator. Miss Spell is comfortably located at the Temple Home and the Herald wishes to say that the Temple Home is one of the finest institutions of the kind in the state and great benefit to the business firms of Sanford who want good homes for their employees at very reasonable rates.

REDUCTION IN RATES ON CITRUS FRUITS

The Miami Steamship Company, operating steamers between Miami and Jacksonville, has announced that a reduction of fifty per cent in freight rates on grapefruit, oranges, limes, tomatoes, egg plants and avocados from Miami to Jacksonville will become effective December 14 and continue until February 28, 1922. The new rate will be 15 per cent standard rate and the reduction was decided upon for the purpose of co-operating with growers and shippers in the territory served by the line in order that they might handle more advantageously
