Plans Being Mapped Out For Hanging Of Hitler's Henchmen

Redoubled Force Of American Guards Surround Ancient Palace Of Justice

NUERNBERG, Oct. 2 (AP)— Allied Control Council delegates are disclosed to have met secretly today to map out details for the hanging of Hitler's eleven surviving henchmen.

The detail committee was composed of four men, one each representing Britain, Russia, France and the United States. They assembled under a security blackout in a courtroom where for ten months Nazi's leading war criminals were tried.

A redoubled force of American guards surrounded the ancient Nuernberg courthouse to assure that justice is not hampered. The American soldiers are under orders to "shoot to kill" in the case of any provocation and it has been announced that security measures will be maintained until the day of retribution has passed.

Meanwhile, with the shadow of the gallows hanging over the doomed war criminals, their defense attorneys are busy preparing appeals. The four-power Allied Control Council in Berlin is the last hope of the condemned Nazis. But there appears little likelihood of a reversal of the decision of the International Military Tribunal.

The convicted war criminals have until midnight Saturday to file their pleas.

Unless there is a reversal of the tribunal sentences, Goering, Von Ribbentrop, Keitel, Jodl, Buehler and the rest of the international gangsters, will hang on Oct. 16, two weeks from today.

Convicted Nazis who drew prison terms, from ten years to life, will serve their time in a four-story jail in Berlin, in which they once ruled supreme. The names of the prisoners is being withheld for the present for "security reasons."

For the same reason, the time of the transfer of the prisoners is being kept secret.

The three defendants whom the court restored to freedom shortly will return to their proper domiciles. The freed ones, Hjalmar Schacht, Franz von Papen and Hans Fritzsche—spent last night in jail.

In jail, in greatly improved quarters, they merely are awaiting the arrival of proper papers and for transportation.

There still is the possibility, however, that they must face German denazification boards in their home areas. The point has not been settled.

London Conclave Is Temporarily Adjourned Today

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)— An official British source today announced the temporary adjournment of the Palestine Conference at London. The spokesman says the Arab plan for settlement of the controversial Holy Land problem will be announced tomorrow.

It was said, meanwhile, that the Arab delegations probably would return to their homes as a result of the indefinite adjournment and that the British and Arab views on the desirability of the adjournment would be disclosed later today.

The official said that a date for reconvening the Palestine Conference would be announced later. The spokesman made his disclosures after Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Colonial Secretary George Hall today attended the sixth meeting of the Arab sessions, begun 22 days ago.

Marshall Dendy And Alex Waite Speak At Kiwanis Luncheon Today

Catholic Bishop Declares Future To Vindicate Him

Bishop Joseph Hurley Of St. Augustine Is Attending Trial

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, Oct. 2 (AP)— A Franciscan monk today testified that Yugoslav Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac once wrote a pastoral letter which called for passive resistance against the government of Marshal Tito. The monk, Father Modesto Martincic, testified that the Archbishop had told him "if Rome thinks I am harmful to the Catholic Church, I will abdicate. Otherwise I will continue to fight for the rights of the church."

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, Oct. 2 (AP)— The trial of the head of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, today entered its third day. The churchman staunchly maintained that his future will vindicate him of charges of collaboration with terrorist groups.

An American Catholic Bishop termed Stepinac's trial by a three-man people's court as "one of the most important events of the century."

So far, the Yugoslav churchman reserved his defense plea. He declared yesterday, "when it is possible to publish documents, and when each can speak without fear, there will be none who will say a word against my Archbishop."

QUAKE RECORDED

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)— The seismograph at Fordham University today recorded two earth quakes described as being "of moderate intensity." The tremors, one last night and one this morning, were said to be more than 5,000 miles away, probably Chile.

Loyalties grow out of conviction that are deep and fundamental. Dr. Marshall Dendy, Orlando Presbyterian pastor and president of the Orlando Kiwanis Club, told Kiwanians today at an interclub meeting attended by many visitors from Winter Park.

Possibilities of the Rollins College football team were optimistically outlined by Dr. Alex Waite, line coach under Jack McDowell and professor of psychology at the college.

Final announcement of voting on Kiwanis officers and directors carried over from last week resulted in announcement of the following men elected: Lester Tharp, president; Frank Lanson, first vice president; W. A. Morrison, second vice president; P. P. Campbell, treasurer; Oscar Harrison, financial secretary; also as directors, Roy Mann, Dr. L. T. Doss, Ed Lane, E. G. Kilpatrick, Joe S. Field, S. F. Doudney and B. B. Crumley.

In his talk, Dr. Dendy stressed the Kiwanis motto of primacy of the spiritual over the material and in translating the Golden Rule into private life. He told of the need of aiding the churches in fighting evil, intemperance and immorality. He pointed out that juvenile delinquency is on the increase and told of a nest of 12 boys in Orlando recently for stealing. Stories of business men who had done outstanding aid to young men were cited. New and latent possibilities of life as revealed by research such as was done on penicillin and the sweet potato by George Washington Carver, the great negro scientist, were explained.

H. H. Coleman Reviews County's Progress During Past Year; Higgins Is Lauded

W. V. Biting, manager of Touchton Drug Store, was elected president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the board of directors held in the Chamber building last night. E. G. Kilpatrick was elected vice president, J. L. Ingley, treasurer, and Edward Higgins, manager.

The retiring president, H. E. Coleman reported on the progress of the Chamber of Commerce since 1945 and particularly stressed the accomplishments of the past year. The organization at present has a membership of 427, he said, with an annual budget of $19,100 and a cash balance of $6,073. Mr. Coleman also thanked the directors for their cooperation and for their contribution to the uniting work of Manager Higgins and the efficiency of Miss Margaret Deila.

Upon suggestion of George Touhy, Senator L. P. Boyle was appointed temporary chairman of the meeting. A nominating committee was then appointed consisting of R. L. Dean, H. James Gut, John Ivey, Andrea Carraway and W. A. Patrick. They retired and later presented a list of nominees for the various offices. Nominations were called for from the floor, but there were none. The nominating committee's elections were unanimously elected.

In addition to the officers already named the following district vice presidents were elected: District No. 1, Frank Shames; District No. 2, B. H. Crumley; District No. 3, J. A. Bithune; District No. 4, H. P. Hester; and District No. 5, W. G. Kilbee.

Previously in the meeting, the directors adopted the report of a committee, headed by Lea Leshner to complete improvements to the home of "Whittling Willie" as authorized by the Chamber of Commerce two and a half years ago. And a request from the Junior Chamber of Commerce for assistance in establishing a Tourist Information Booth was granted to the extent of $150.

Fred H. Wilson and W. A. Laffie were appointed as a committee to present to former President T. W. Lawton a plaque expressing the appreciation of the Chamber of Commerce for his unselfish work for the organization during the years of 1943-45.

Outlining the work of the organization during the past year, Mr. Coleman had particular emphasis on the importance of the various jobs being done. He mentioned the bridge project, government action in holding up virtually all public works projects, and the assurance that both the proposed 10-foot channel and the 12-foot channel would be completed within the coming year. He also said that progress has been satisfactory in establishing a large line on the river with lower freight rates in prospect.

The Chamber of Commerce has been active, he pointed out, in assisting in the reconversion of the Sanford Naval Air Station to peacetime activities. Contracts have been signed with Roy Browning to operate the airport and with the Intercession Institute to operate a vocational training school. The Fernald Lighthouse has taken over the Naval dispensary and is expected to occupy it within a short time. Applications are pending for the use of a number of other buildings at the station.

Mr. Coleman mentioned the work of the Chamber in promoting road construction in this county, revealing that No. 44 is about completed from Mims to Lake Jessup, that No. 293 will be under contract in about 30 days, that No. 292 will be rebuilt this year and that approximately $100,000 will be spent improving No. 17 to Orlando.

Goering Termed As Phony By Experts

NUERNBERG, Germany, Oct. 2 (AP)— Two experts on mental disorders at Nuernberg agreed that at least one of the Nazi ring leaders condemned to die is strictly a phony.

The phony is the titular head of the 11 Germans who will be hanged two weeks from today — Hermann Goering.

The experts said Goering liked to think of himself as a devil-may-care type, but that in reality he is a phony through and through — and all the other defendants know it.

NANKING, Oct. 2 (AP)— The official Chinese Communist news agency, New China, today claimed that Chiang Kai-shek is using more than 1,700,000 men in China's civil war. The Communist agency alleged also that the fighting to recapture the Nationalist government approximately 350,000 men in five months. New China said that was 70 percent of the Nationalist government's strength.

21 Percent Rise In Auto Drivers Permits Revealed

A 21 percent increase in automobile drivers license applications as compared with those issued up to Oct. 1, 1945, was reported today by County Judge J. W. Ware. At 5:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the last day licenses could be secured without taking a drivers' test, 8,327 licenses were issued as compared with 6,896 issued at this time last year. However, during the fiscal year, licenses issued totaled 9,690, but it is believed that this figure will be exceeded during the present year ending Oct. 1, 1947.

Those drivers who now wish to secure licenses may obtain them by contacting state highway officials at the Sanford Army on Mondays and Thursdays at from 2:00 to 4:00 P. M. Before taking this test, it is advisable to carefully study the booklet on driving put out by the State, and available at the Court House.

Moslem League Head Talks With Viceroy

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 2 (AP)— The president of the Moslem League, M. A. Jinnah, conferred for almost an hour today with the Viceroy of India, Lord Wavell. Jinnah himself made no comment, except to say that he would meet again with the Viceroy.

George Touhy To Direct Christmas Seal Sale Here

George Touhy has been named chairman of the committee which will direct the 1946 Christmas Seal sale throughout the county. The sale is for funds for tuberculosis control work according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Mary Rawlins, president of the Seminole County Tuberculosis Association. The county campaign is part of the nation-wide 40th annual Christmas Seal sale which opens Nov. 25 and will continue until Christmas.

"We are deeply gratified that we shall have a man of Mr. Touhy's caliber to head our annual fund-raising campaign," said Mrs. Rawlins. "We know that the contribution which he will make to our program to prevent and control tuberculosis will extend beyond seal sale time into the year ahead when seal sale funds will go to work to improve the health of our communities."

Mr. Touhy said he readily accepted the chairmanship because he recognized the value of the work of the association and because he knew the people of the County were 100 percent back of the association in its fight against tuberculosis.

Within a few days, he added, he will name a committee to assist him in conducting the campaign.

"I should be happy to have people volunteer for the committee," Mr. Touhy added. "Anyone who feels he can help in this important community undertaking will, I hope, communicate with the office of the association."

Haynes and Williams hold a 2 to 1 game margin over the Security Lumber aggregation. Play will be resumed at Lake Front Park on Monday night.

We are rapidly approaching the time when loyal Americans will have to stand up and be counted," says FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover of the Communist menace in America. American tolerance of those who would destroy our country is the worst of our vices.

George Wallis, former Under Secretary of State, said one of the reasons we are losing so many jobs to this country is that we don't produce as much as they do. He said that the reason we don't produce as much as they do is that we don't have as much machinery as they do.

Nuernberg Verdicts

Enthusiasm for the verdicts in the Nuernberg trials is tempered only by the thought that it might have been better to have shot the whole kit and kiboodle of Nazi leaders within a few short hours after they were captured.

However, they have probably not enjoyed their imprisonment during the past year, nor the necessity of sitting in court while their crimes were paraded before them for the whole world to see. The postponement of their punishment, which is now so soon to come, cannot have afforded them much relief.

Although one can agree with the verdicts in most instances, unless we are to assume that hanging is too good for them, it is a little hard to understand why that arch-conspirator of modern Germany, Franz Von Papen, was acquitted. So were Hjalmar Schacht, who supplied the financial brain for the Nazi heirarchy, and Hans Friche, the radio propaganda chief.

But Von Papen was a scoundrel of the first water long before Hitler came into power. During the first World War he was a military attache at the Germany embassy in Washington, and finally had to flee for his life as a result of his espionage activities at that time.

He was the last German chancellor before Hitler and is accredited with having been largely responsible for influencing President Von Hindenburg to turn the country over to the Nazis. Though Hitler repaid the favor by ordering him "murdered" in 1941 when his life was saved only by the timely intervention of Von Hindenburg.

After a period of "retirement" Von Papen again appeared upon the European scene when, apparently having made his peace with Hitler, he was sent as a special envoy into Austria, just a short time before the German invasion. Many similar odd jobs were performed by Von Papen during the Nazi regime, the last being his mission to Turkey where he is assumed to have been responsible for keeping that strategic country out of the war.

Although it would have seemed to have been a rank miscarriage of justice to allow this master schemer and diplomatic stool-pigeon to go free, the trials on the whole mark a vast improvement in dealing with international criminals; and their verdicts, if promptly carried out, should have a wholesome effect on others who at some future time may be tempted to lead their nations into reckless adventures.

For, as the court held, it is the waging of aggressive warfare that is the supreme crime. The fate of the Nuernberg defendants should serve as a warning for all time to come.

Eyes On New Jersey

The whole nation will watch reports of New Jersey's special legislative session called for Sept. 30 to study veterans' housing. Gov. Walter Edge claims the federal administration suddenly has shifted responsibility to state agencies, whose funds are inadequate to meet housing needs of former service men.

New Jersey veterans' groups want $10,000,000 for moving and reconstruction of army buildings into dwelling units. The governor says this sum is insufficient for such a project, and anyway, long-range permanent housing should be encouraged instead of this emergency type.

New Jersey's problems are typical of those in other states. A good deal that will come to light here will be applicable elsewhere. One conclusion, however, is apparent, even before the legislative reports: veterans' housing is the victim of buck-passing between federal government and states. Each one is trying to pin responsibility and the expense on the other. In the meantime, the veteran and his family live with the in-laws.

Life Among The Lolos

The recently revealed capture of American flyers by the Lolos in Southwest China gave many people their first news that China has other people besides the Chinese. In the South-west mountains are several primitive peoples, perhaps China's earliest inhabitants, pushed out of the lowlands by the Chinese.

Besides the Lolos there are the Mossos and the Miaotzes, short dark people of unknown race. Nominally under Chinese rule, they pay little obedience to their supposed governors and even raid Chinese territories from time to time. Their languages are somewhat like Chinese but not related. They use a picture-writing known only to the priests of their spirit-worshipping religion.

Life among the Lolos with their low standard of living cannot have been very comfortable for our flyers in their two years of slavery. But at least they have not been deliberately ill treated, like prisoners in supposedly civilized Germany and Japan.

Turning to industrial public relations, Josiah Ferris, Jr., assistant to the president of the United States Sugar Corporation in Ocala, told how Florida's largest industrial organization has attained leadership and goodwill through the employment of an intelligent and constructive public relations program. He termed the fundamentals of good public relations "sound judgment or horse sense."

Speaking at the noon luncheon, Urie Davis, of New York, national public relations authority, stressed the work that had already been done to publicize our state and pointed to the need for even greater effort in the future. Roger Wollin, Ronald S. Gall, M. N. (Jack) Frost and James H. Byrnes Sees No Danger Of New Conflict

Secretary Of State Concedes, However, Serious Differences Exist Among Allies

PARIS, Oct. 3, (AP)—Secretary of State James C. Byrnes today conceded that there are serious differences among the Allied nations but, similar to the remarks made by Prime Minister Stalin, he felt sure there was no immediate danger of a new conflict.

The state secretary, speaking to the American Club in Paris, said that such differences are normal and that they are not a danger of a new conflict.

Mr. Byrnes made three important points in his speech, one pertaining to Russia, another on Germany and the third on American foreign policy.

Regarding the Soviet Union, Byrnes expressed the hope that Stalin's recent statement would put an end to charges that any single power or group of powers is trying to strangle Russia, and that Stalin's words also would dispel accusations that the United States is trying to use the atomic bomb as a threat of force against the Soviet Union.

Following up this implied answer to Henry Wallace, the Secretary of State asserted that the chief point of American foreign policy is a determination not to go back to isolationism.

Most of his speech, however, was devoted to the future of Germany. Byrnes said the did not want Germany to become a pawn of a partner in a struggle for power, between the east and west. The occupation of Germany, he added, must be continued, and the country must be divided into zones.

Byrnes said, "Engineers" and "scientists" are being used to spot any argument made by manufacturers. Elaborating on this, the Secretary of State said that should any suspicious war production arise, a report would be made to the control commission.

Higgins Says Cattlemen Show Lack Of Interest In Fire Control Unit

Owners of large areas of outlying land definitely indicated last evening by their lack of attendance at a meeting on fire control at the Community House that they are not interested in the proposal by the Florida Park and Forest Association to establish such fire control in Seminole County, manager Edward Higgins of the Chamber of Commerce declared today.

Many cattle owners have telephoned Mr. Higgins that they would not sign a petition to bring the matter of county fire control to a vote in the Nov. 5 election.

In order to have the matter brought to a vote, it is necessary to have land owners controlling 66,000 acres in the county, sign the petition. Signatures of those controlling 58,000 acres were secured, or 40,000 short, said Mr. Higgins.

Present at the meeting were Owen Douglas of the state fire control department, and E. J. Mohan, and William Jacobs of the State Forest and Park Association.

U. N. Group Approves Big Refugee Budget

LAKE SUCCESS, N. The vote was taken after nearly every member of the 18-nation council reserved the right to raise objections when the parent general assembly received the report. Dr. Steelman Warns Nation Of Depression

Reconversion Chief Makes Declaration In Quarterly Report To President

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—President Truman has agreed with Reconversion Director John Steelman's prediction that the meat shortage may become worse this winter. Previously Mr. Truman had expressed the hope the meat situation would ease somewhat in the next few months. The Chief Executive said today that there is no conflict between his own views and those of Dr. Steelman's report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Reconversion Director John Steelman today sharply warned the nation against the threat of another depression.

Steelman submitted his quarterly report to President Truman and Congress. In it the federal bureau chief bluntly declared that a further rapid price rise, and a general round of large wage increases, might end with what he termed "serious economic and social consequences."

Mr. Steelman's report explained the matter this way: "If prices keep increasing and wages keep going up, spiral business and agriculture will find themselves priced out of the market and into a depression."

Almost simultaneously, the federal official warned that the government "must be prepared" to the extent that the present "extremely high" consumer and business spending should be "checked and held in check."

On the other hand, the reconversion director emphasized that the national economy is "in a position of great promise" as well as great danger.

Steelman explained that if "we have successfully started the rise in prices, the backlog of demand for goods, and the tremendous pool of savings and current income, should reduce the rate at which demand slackens."

Toledo Baseball Official To Visit Sanford Monday

Eddie Gilliland, president of the Toledo Mud Hens of the American Association, will be in Sanford Monday for a conference with Mayor H. James Gut, Mayor League Manager Lind Weber and Chamber of Commerce Manager Edward Higgins, in connection with the proposed agreement for the Toledo club to undergo Spring training activities here next year.

Gilliland was recently named head of the farm system of the Detroit Tigers. However, he will remain in his present capacity until Oct. 15. Gilliland, it was learned today, declined offers of a high position with the St. Louis Browns and also the presidency of the American Association. Roy Haney, former president of the Association and now with the Pittsburgh Pirates, was a frequent visitor in Sanford last Spring.

Gilliland was the Florida State League's first president after the league's reorganization in 1936. At that time he was also serving as secretary of the Deland Chamber of Commerce.

A. P. Official Declares Freedom Of Press Still Faces Obstructions

By KENT COOPER, Executive Director

The Associated Press National Newspaper Week this year finds the movement for freedom of the press facing obstructions and generally being buffeted around.

In the last twelve months censorship has been relaxed in some countries, but there probably is more censorship today than in any other recent peacetime era. One thing has developed that is worthwhile: public consciousness in many parts of the world that freedom of the press is an essential.

A great deal of lip service to the idea has been given by officials who would really do something about it, and it could have been put higher on the agenda of the United Nations than number twenty, under a sub-head. It should have been placed first. Another thing of great concern is that the stress seems to be on freedom of information, without realization that information that can't be printed means nothing. As I said the first of the year in a message to the United Nations: "It is my fervent hope that you and your associates will develop a program going far beyond mere access of reporters to news and communications facilities. The whole structure of human rights in a world of free men, with governments of their own choosing, rests upon one basic right—the right to know."

Vague phrases such as freedom of information are inadequate. The fundamental medium of communications is the printed word. The right to know must be implemented by the right to print, by full press freedom. This objective must not be the selfish one to get news for ourselves. World understanding can be achieved only if news flows freely to all countries and may be freely published in them."

Disabled Veterans Can Now Request Premium Refunds

PARIS, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A disabled veteran who had paid premiums on National Service Life Insurance while disabled may now be eligible to receive a refund of the premiums.

George S. Anderson, assistant regional office at Orlando pointed out that recent Congressional legislation not only liberalizes provisions governing waiver of premiums, but also permits retroactive rating for such waiver. Many veterans who at the time of their illness or disability were not eligible may now be entitled and may make application, he said.

In addition, veterans who were eligible but who were not familiar with the right to waiver of premium may also make their claim now, he explained.

To be eligible for waiver of premium, a veteran must be disabled for a period of at least six months. If the waiver is granted, he is then entitled to refund of premiums paid from the date his disability began. Future payments on his policy are made by the government for the duration of his disability. Veterans should continue to pay premiums until they are notified by the VA the waiver has been granted.

The new legislation liberalized the standards by which total disability is measured. Certain "statutory disabilities," such as the loss of both arms or both legs or eyesight, are now considered as total disability, even though the veteran might still be able to work at a job.

Town Markets Receive Big Meat Shipments Today

Meat counters of downtown stores, which for the past week have been full of cheese and pickles, presented a welcome sight this morning to housewives as they saw Chicago and round steaks and other choice cuts of beef at OPA prices.

Several large shipments of western beef were received from Jacksonville this morning, but according to butchers, this first of the month quota will be gone in a week or two. A few carcasses of quota-restricted Florida beef also were received.

Pork, including bacon and ham, lamb, and sausage were conspicuous in their absence. There was a limited amount of veal. Fish and chicken were plentiful.

Feed merchants reported that they now have sacks of white flour for sale. A shortage of scratch feed for chickens and protein feeds was predicted. Prices on these items have risen somewhat during the last few days.
