Pills Pocketed, Alleged Thieves Flee, Guard Apprehends One

A security guard was suspicious of two men outside the Altamonte Mall, State Road 436, Altamonte Springs, after he saw one of the suspects take a bottle from the waistband of his pants and put it on a ledge.

The guard chased the pair and caught one. That man allegedly threatened to kill the guard and tried to escape, an Altamonte Springs police report said.

The second suspect got away. When Altamonte Springs police arrived on the scene, workers at the nearby Vine and Harvest nutrition store reported that the bottle the suspect discarded and a second bottle of non-prescription pills were suspected of having been stolen from that store just before the guard spotted the suspects.

James Martin Gary, 20, of 4000 E. Palmetto Ave., Longwood, was charged with strong arm robbery at 7:27 p.m. Monday at the mall. He has been released on $2,000 bond to appear in court March 7.

Once Gun Seen, Cocaine Found

The driver of a car who was parked outside a boarding house at 301 E. First St., Sanford, got out of the car at about 2 a.m. Monday when questioned by Sanford police. Police said they spotted a gun in the car when the man picked a tennis shoe up off the floor of the car.

The man was arrested, and cocaine was reportedly found during a search of the car.

Charlie Davis, 20, of 407 E. Ninth St., Sanford, has been charged with possession of a concealed firearm, possession of a firearm in a felony and possession of cocaine. He has been released on $2,000 bond to appear in court March 7.

Two Snooze, Awake To Arrest

A couple sleeping in a car at Lake Jesup Park. S. Sanford Avenue, rural Sanford, at about 12:16 a.m. Tuesday, was arrested by Seminole County sheriff's deputies after marijuana and drug paraphernalia were reportedly spotted

Charged with possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia were: Diane Collet Schneider, 29, of Orange City; and John Gregory Mason, 26, of 2760 Ridgewood Ave., Sanford. They were being held in lieu of $500 bond

Cocaine Sample Sold To Agent

A man who allegedly sold a $20 sample of cocaine to a City County Investigative Bureau agent at about 5:46 p.m. Monday has been arrested on charges of possession and sell of cocaine.

The sale and arrest were made at K-Mart Plaza, U.S. Highway 17-92, Fern Park.

Calvin Gadson, 35, of 406 Basewood Lane, Altamonte Springs, was being held in lieu of $2,000 bond in the case.

Quick Work Produces Suspects

Two Sanford men who allegedly stole a bicycle from a neighbor's porch at 614 Magnolia Ave., Sanford, at about 11:47 p.m. Monday, were captured within about 10 minutes on that street.

Sanford police reported recovering the bicycle and Bartown, 19, both of 601 Magnolia Ave., on charges of burglary to an occupied dwelling. They were nabbed on Magnolia Avenue. They were being held in lieu of $5,000

Drug Handoff Spied, Man Nabbed

Robert Earl King, 21, of St. John's Village, Apt. 230, Fern Park, was arrested Sunday morning in an alley just off of Marker Street in Altamonte Springs and booked on suspicion of possession of drug paraphernalia, and possession of less that 20 grams of marijuana. He was being held in lieu of $500 bond.

According to the arrest report, King was observed by a deputy as he made a drug transaction in the alley with a man who drove up in a car, and drove off afterward. King was allegedly found possessing the marijuana, which was wrapped in some money, and paraphernalia used in handling crack cocaine.

Burglaries And Thefts Reported

Allison Lee Johnson, who allegedly told Seminole County sheriff's deputies that she was driving on Jackson Street at Morse Street in search of illegal drugs to buy. reported that her purse was snatched out of her car by a man who walked up and shoved her back in her seat. The purse and its contents were valued at about $100. The incident occurred at about 10:30 p.m. Monday.

A $400 refrigerator and a $300 range were stolen between Friday and Monday from a Florida Residential Communities of Altamonte Springs condo at 998 Congress Court, Casselberry, a sheriff's report said.

Naoemi Pepperdine, of 393 Gilston Court, Heathrow, reported to sheriff's deputies her $300 camera and a $200 lens were stolen between Jan. 24 and 30 during a move. The loss was reported Monday.

The 1988 Chrysler of Lee Parker Fitzhugh, of 163 E. Lake Brantley Road, Longwood, was stolen from 220 E. Wekiva Springs Road, Longwood, Monday, A sheriff's report valued the car at $20,000.

Nice Week-End Is On Its Way

Mon.

By Fred H. Cooper Herald Staff Writer

This day grew in wisdom and stature moment by moment. Actually there was only room for improvement considering the way it began. Remember?

Of course not. How could you remember something which you can't see. If you got into your car early, and you were located in a muckland area, ice on the windshield greeted you. So you trudge back, get warm water to melt the stuff, and try again. That Ho! You still can't see, and now you can't blame it on ice because the temperature is well above that figure which usually produces that silly frozen stuff. So, you clean your glasses - or shades - and try again. Fog. Like in London or San Francisco.

Thickness varied about Seminole with, perhaps, the worst on State Road 46 between Sanford and I-4. Yes, it caused accidents and plenty of tension for drivers. May come back, so plan for tomorrow.

We're going to keep mild temperatures for a while. Even into the week-end. Beginning Friday, the chances of rain will be very good - call them scattered showers. Temperatures over the week-end will be from the 50s well into the 70s, which means it will be balmy because the winds will be fairly gentle. However, skies will be partly cloudy to cloudy.

Yesterday the highest high in the nation was at a California town which must have gotten its name from a far north place - Thermal, Itwas 84 degrees out there. Lowest low was at West Yellowstone. Wyoming with a minus 12 degree reading.

Up the Atlantic coast, it should be sunny today and tomorrow. Temperatures will be well below what we're relief for the natives up there. Might be cooler in New England since word is they're losing a lot of hot air in New Harnoshire.

A review of weather conditions around the nation reveals some contrasts.

Pregnancy Center Remakes Crises

By Nancy Simmons Herald Staff Writer

The Crisis Pregnancy Center. now located at 25th Street and Princeton Avenue, is a successful ministry of New Life Assembly, according to its director Barbara Greanya.

The Crisis Pregnancy Center began a few years ago while the church was still located on 27th St., Greanya said. (The church is presently located at Kennel Road and State Road 46.) Then the center's location was moved to a small office in Lake Mary. Then. last June they moved to the little house at 25th and Princeton. The house needed a lot of work. but it was donated to the crisis pregnancy ministry-so church voluteers, plus a lot of friends. went to work, she explained.

They were so excited, Greanya and other church workers did not realize they needed site plan approval, from the Sanford Planning and Zoning Commission. Opening the ministry there is considered a change of use. However, Pastor David Bohannon, Greanya and the leaders at New Life have been talking with city officials and are scheduled to go before that commission later this week.

The center is open four nights a week, Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, from six to eight o'clock, and three or four volunteer counselors are available to talk with clients. The number of clients averages to three or four per evening. Greanya said.

How do they deal with young women seeking their services? The first purpose of the center is to give clients a free pregnancy test and counseling. Greanya said. "Girls come here asking if we give abortions." Greanya said. "We tell them no. However, we do give them a free pregnancy test." She emphasized that the test is free, whether the client requests further services

While waiting for the results of the test, the client is shown into a small living room area, where she can watch a 28-minute video film called "A Matter of Choice." ministry, as an extension of the church, does not approve of ents all sides of the abortion issue in a balanced way.

Once the client has viewed the film, the counselor talks with her to find out what her needs and desires are, the director continued. And even if the young woman is determined to have an abortion, the main thing the volunteer counselors want to convey to her is that they care, just need to know someone cares," she added. It took a lot of effort on the part of many to restore the building. Volunteers from the church worked entire weekends, begins ning in May last year, she said. And while some worked on the house and yard, others right on location held bake sales and yard sales to raise the money needed for the house's rehabilitation. And another crew kept all the workers supplied with hot dogs and cokes.

Volunteers came from other sources too. Greanya added. "At least five or six churches helped-Methodist, Baptist; Catholic, and others," she explained.

Illegal Aliens Need More Time

The Immigration and Naturalization Service is purportedly considering an extension for undocumented aliens who are unable to apply for amnesty by the May 4 deadline specified by Congress. Purportedly is the operative word, because none of our INS personnel contacts even acknowledges the existence of such a plan. Still, we believe these aliens should be accorded more time in which to make application and prove they have lived in the United States continually prior to Jan. 1, 1982.

Actually Congress, which set the May 4 deadline in the landmark immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, would have to approve any formal extension. Two bills currently in the House and Senate would extend the May deadline to 1989. The INS, which reflects the Reagan administration's apposition to both measures, contends there has been plenty of time for persons to apply for legal status.

No formal extension would be necessary if INS made allowance for those aliens who were unable to meet the amnesty deadline for reasons beyond their control.

After all, it's difficult for undocumented workers who have covered their tracks these many years to suddenly produce rent receipts or other materials that pinpoint their resistence in the United States prior to 1982. Moreover, many of the would-be applicants were reluctant to come forward and apply for amnesty, fearing the new law was a ruse to round up and deport illegals. And numerous employers have been slow to provide documentation of an alien's job history.

These factors may account for the disappointingly small number of applicants who have sought amnesty under the 1986 law. No one knows for certain how many unliocumented workers are living in the United States, let alone the number that could qualify for amnesty. But the INS expected far more applicants than the 1.1 million who have registered to date.

All the more reason why the Immigration and Naturalization Service ought to make some exceptions to the May 4 deadline. For example, those individuals who make a good-faith effort to comply with the law should be allowed a grace period under the department's regulatory powers.

The immigration reform's tough enforcement provisions should be tempered so that undocumented persons who have lived in the United States prior to 1982, have, as the statute intended, the opportunity to become part of mainstream America.

Waldheim's Lies

The nagging question of whether Austrian President Kurt Waldheim committed war crimes as a young German officer in World War II is a bit clearer now, but not enough. An international commission failed during eight months to pin specific atrocities on him. But the panel of six military historians did conclude that Lt. Waldheim "went along with unlawful acts and thereby made it easier for them to be carried out."

Meantime, Mr. Waldlheim lied deliberately in covering his tracks. He long concealed his service with an SS unit in the Balkans.

The salient issue is not that a junior officer in Hitler's legions was unable to prevent atrocities, but that he deliberately concealed his role, however indirect, in those outrages. That is Kurt Waldheim's crime, and he stands guilty as charged.

U.S. May Approve Legal Marijuana Uses

BOSTON (NEA)—After half a century of terrorizing citizens with lurid accounts of "reefer madness" and "killer weed." the federal government may soon sanction marijuana usage for medical purposes.

Although occasional use of marijuana is not likely to cause serious long-term medical problems, most health professionals agree that regular use over a prolonged period is not just a "harmless high."

But the few potentially serious side effects do not justify the bizarre treatment the federal government has given marijuana as a carefully controlled medical substance prescribed by physicians. Consider, for example, these incontrolled.

• A federal law, the Controlled Substances Act, empowers the Drug Enforcement Agency to restrict the availability of drugs likely to be abused. Acting under that authority, DEA has placed cocaine on "Schedule II," allowing physicians to prescribe it for specific medical purposes under strict controls.

But marijuana is confined to "Schedule I,"

which means it has no recognized medical value and all distribution is strictly prohibited.

•In 1986, DEA made an arbitrary exception to that classification, ruling that artificial marijuana could be distributed under controlled circumstances for medical use. Natural marijuana, however, remained banned, along with heroin and LSD.

That disturbs Laurence O. McKinney, president of the Cannabis Corporation of America in Cambridge, Mass. An eighth-generation Harvard University graduate and an authority on marijuana, McKinney says his firm is prepared to produce natural, pharmaceutical-grade marijuana for medical purposes at a cost far below that of the synthesized product—but has been stymied by DEA regulations.

The government's hostility toward marijuana dates back to the heyday of Harry J. Anslinger, who was the second-ranking official in charge of enforcing Prohibition in the late 1920s and early 1930s.

After the ban on liquor was lifted, Anslinger became the first commissioner of the Treasury particular.

Department's newly created Bureau of Narcotics. In that post, he waged a relentless campaign against drugs in general and marijuana in particular.

That often emotional crusade spawned frenzied charges that marijuana transformed its users into "flends." After serving more than 30 years as the country's anti-drug ezar. Anslinger retired in the early 1960s—but his legacy remains in the form of wholly unscientific prejudices about drugs.

Although the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare concluded in 1975 that marijuana's "most promising therapeutic applications" included use "as an antiemetic (an agent to suppress nausea and vomiting) for cancer patients receiving chemotherapy," DEA waited more than a decade before designating synthesized marijuana as a legitimate drug for that purpose.

Other ailments whose conditions might be ameliorated by marijuana include glaucoma, asthma, epilepsy, hypertension, anorexia and multiple sclerosis.

Late Train Blamed For Missed Vote

By Mary Beth Freaklin WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senators

have sometimes been accused of railroading a plan through Congress, but now there's a new twist: some want a plan to railroad themselves through Congress.

Like a tardy officer worker who explained to his boss that the train was delayed, eight senators complained earlier this month that they missed a vote on the Senate floor because the subway car from their office building arrived late.

A mini-subway exists in the bowels of the Capitol transporting senators, staff and visitors back and forth to the three Senate office buildings.

Several senators suggested ways to improve the situation and Rules Committee Chairman Wendell Ford. D-Ky., revealed that his panel is considering a $10 million plan to refurbish the current rail system.

On Feb. 2, Sen. Howard Hellin. D-Ala., said he would have voted "yea" on a bill to increase the number of federal inspectors charged with ferreting out government waste, fraud and abuse, but he missed the 15-minute vote deadline because of a subway car delay.

"I am not alone in missing this vote," Hellin said. "We must have had on this car seven or eight senators who arrived late."

He traced the problem to the fact that only one of the system's four subway cars connects with the Hart Building, the farthest of the three Senate buildings and the one where half of all the senators have offices.

"I do feel there is an inherent problem that exists in getting to the floor from the Hart Building," Heffin

"I left my office with eight minutes to go," he said. "I must have just missed it because I waited a long time."

There were extenuating circumstances as well, he added.

"There were blind people on the subway car and it took some time to get them off."

Senate Democratic leader Robert Byrd expressed his sympathy to those senators who were unavoidably delayed but said the vote could not be reopened once it had been announced.

"We are in the process now of looking at the cost of putting in a new subway on that side which will be a continuous car route." Ford added. "Maybe that will eliminate the problems ... that we are facing now.

WILLIAM RUSHER

Robertson's Flock

The lowa Democratic caucuses produced no great surprises, though I treasure certain examples they afforded of how our liberal media cope with disagreeable news.

The liberal favorites in the Democratic contest were Paul Simon and Michael Dukakis—not because there is anything notably conservative about Richard Gephardt, but because Simon positively brags about his liberalism and Dukakis is known to be in the liberals' pocket.

So when the caucuses reported their percentages (Gephardt 31, Simon 27, Dukakis 22), the media obligingly declared that the three top candidates were "tightly bunched." Dukakis, appearing on a national news show the next morning, was even described by one enthusiastic interviewer as having achieved "a virtual dead heat" with Gephardt and Simon. He must have been a little staggered, but he recovered neatly, accepted the compliment and vowed to do even better in New Hampshire.

It was in the Republican caucuses, however, that the real surprise occurred. Vice President George Bush's thrashing by Sen. Robert Dole (37 percent to 19) was, impressive, but—aside from its severity—not unexpected: Iowa adjoins Dole's native Kansas, and it is not overly fond of President Reagan, with whom Bush is tightly iden-

The truly surprising performance in the Iowa Republican caucuses was that of Christian broadcaster and businessman Pat Robertson, who shouldered Bush out of second place and racked up an imposing 25 percent of the votes cast.

Following right after Robertson's remarkably strong showing in the murky battle for Michigan's delegates, and his landslide victory in the Hawaii Republican straw politwhich local GOP leaders saw coming and tried unsuccessfully to stave off by postponing the votel, the lowa results are a clear signal that Robertson is going to be a formidable factor in the Republican contest this year, and thereafter fat least indirectly) in the effection itself.

What the Robertson surge means is that there are large numbers of people who respond to the concerns he expresses: generally conservative concerns, it is true, but with a heavy emphasis on "social conservative" issues such as family values, old-fashioned inorality and the like. Moreover, they are often people who have never participated actively in politics before, or who at least have not been litelong Republicans (a fact that may diminish his clout in primaries that are confined by law to enrolled Republican voters).

Such an influx of new participants into caucus or primary processes strikes establishment politicians as a distinctly mixed blessing. It upsets the existing distribution of forces, and the newcomers' policy preoccupations often unsettle longtime loyalists who would rather emphasize other issues (e.g. economic issues). The social conservatives' stress on morality particularly tends to unnerve Republican yuppies, who in turn become the object of Democratic blandishments.

On the other hand, no sane political party will turn away armies of fresh troops.

Stress, Health Linked

By Peg Byron

NEW YORK (UPI)—Anecdotes about links between emotion and immunity are legion, from nervous teens and their cold sores to be reaved widowers suddenly be set with ill health.

Scientists have long suspected stress can interfere with physical well-being and even increase the risk of death, but are just beginning to discover chemical links between the neurological and immune systems that could explain the observations.

Older studies have shown, for example, that bereaved people are more likely to succumb to illness than are men in the general population. Stress, even from less directroumstances, often seems to result in illness, such as for the anxious teenager who develops a cold sore just before the school prome.

"Until recently, the immune system was thought of as autoregulated. Indeed, it is exquisitely self-regulating. But there is a compelling amount of data now that indicates that stress is linked with lowered immune system activity. Nesself-Dr. Maryin Stein, professor of psychiatry at Mount Small.

He cited a study of 75 medical students who showed a significant drop in the numbers of white blood cells important to the immune system during the month before final exams.

Another study of a group of men whose wives suffered fatal cases of breast cancer showed the widowers had lowered immune system activity, which appeared related to the anxiety and depression they were suffering at the time.

It is known that the hypothalamus, the part of the brain that controls the autonomic nervous system, and the hormonal system can moderate immunity. And immine system cells, callled lymphocytes, have surface receptors where hormones and chemicals from the brain can attach and affect immune functions.

Other studies have located nerves that connect directly to immune tissue, feeding back to the central nervous system.

"They are intimately related to one another." Stein said of the immune system and the brain. "So it makes good sense that behavioral states influence immunity." said Stein, who is a leading researcher in this field.

Congress: Our Intrepid Explorers

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON—There were plenty of congressional junketeers traveling on the taxpayers' dollar during the January recess, but the "Most Intrepid" award goes to the merry band with the mission to watch a Coast Guard cutter smash through ice near Antarctica.

But hold your admiration for these fearless travelers. You can't get there from here without passing through Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii. The trip was not without its warm days—10 to be exact—spent coming and going through the sunny South Pacific. There were three days in Antarctica.

As we reported earlier, the January congressional recess brought a bumper crop of lawmakers with urgent business way down south where summertime is in full bloom.

The Antarctica delegation was led by Rep. Earl Hutto, D-Fla., chairman of the subcommittee on Coast Guard and Navigation, Apparently, it was vital for seven representatives, six staffers and four military escorts to see firsthand the Coast Guard's Polar Star ice breaker thud its way into McMurdo Sound.

A spokesman for Hutto said the committee members needed to witness the annual ice-breaking event so they could assess the Coast Guard's needs. This is a national security issue, he added. The ice-breaking fleet has shrunk to just two of the 398-foot vessels, and the committee needs to decide whether to push for the purchase of another ship.

In light of a $100 million cut in the Coast Guard's budget, the likelihood of Congress buying another $300 million ice breaker any time soon is absurd, a Coast Guard spokesman told our associate Jim Lynch.

A subcommittee staffer confirmed that the visit to the ice breaker was the major, if not the lone reason for the 13-day trip for the 24-member delegation, which included five wives of Congress members. They needed to see the ice breaking for "informational" reasons, he said.

Apparently, Congress hasn't heard of video tape.

Unfortunately, the U.S. Navy base in Antarctica was not equipped to host the entire delegation. Two representatives, two staffers, two military escorts and the five wives had to cool their heels in New Zealand's quaint English town of Christ Church while the others went to Antarctica for the ice breaking.

After the men returned from the show, the delegation flew to Sidney, Australia, and spent another four days Down Under. In both New Zealand and Australia, the group met with members of parliament and maritime officials.

From Sidney, the group flew to Honolulu for two nights. They had spent two nights there on the way down, also, but not strictly as tourists: the delegation spent three hours touring a U.S. Coast Guard base. On the way back, they had to stop to refuel the plane.

It's not clear what the taxpayers back home gained from the trip, but it is fairly certain what they lost. The private C-137 jet used by the delegation costs $7.445 an hour to fly, for a total aircraft cost of $369,272. The delegation spent $11,600 for accommodations and personnel provided by the Navy. And the representatives and their staffs were entitled to $125 a day each for expenses.

Joining Hutto on the trip were Howard Coble, R-N.C.; Norman Shumway, R-Calif.; Owen Pickett, D-Va.; William Lipinski, D-Ill.; and W.J. "Billy" Tanzin, D-La.

The Hutto group was just one of three congressional delegations that passed through Australia and New Zealand on "official business" in January. An official at the New Zealand embassy in Washington said it was the biggest influx of congressional visitors in four years.

Rep. Neal Smith, D-lowa, led a group on a 19-day tour through New Zealand, Australia, Tahiti, New Guinea and Taiwan, Flight expenses alone for the Army C-135 they traveled on were $216,000.

A spokesman for Smith said the major work of the trip was inspecting U.S. embassies.

More inmates Win Early Release

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) - Prison officials were to grant early release today to another batch of state inmates under a law designed to keep Florida in compliance with court-ordered prison population limits.

Sixty-five inmates were to be released under the administrative gain time law approved by the Legislature in February 1987. Of those slated for release, 38 face outstanding warrants and will be held to face charges or extradition, officials announced Tuesday.

The law proposed by Gov. Bob Martinez permits officials to deduct up to 60 days from the sentences of inmates who were already earning time off for good behavior. Twenty days administrative gain time were deducted toward today's release.

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (UPI) - A fired computer company employee who went back to see a co-worker he had fallen in love with killed seven people and wounded five others after she slammed a door in his face, police said.

After holding several employees hostage for nearly six hours Tuesday, Richard Farley, 39, walked down from the second floor of ESL fac. in the Silicon Valley with his hands in the air when a police negotiator offered him a sandwich and a soft drink.

When police searched the building, they found seven bodies, five men and two women, whose names were no immediately released. Five other people, including the woman Farley had fallen in love with, Laura Black, 26, were wounded. About two dozen people had hidden in various parts of the building and were not hurt.

Bush, Dukakis Shine In Primary

CONCORD, N.H. (UPI) - In the snows of New Hampshire, George Bush rescued his slipping Republican presidential campaign and Michael Dukakis made himself a Democratic force to be reckoned with as the race for the White House turned toward warmer climes today.

The vice president, badly wounded by a third-place showing in last week's lowa caucuses, firmly re-established himself as the GOP front-runner Tuesday night with a convincing defeat of Senate Republican leader Robert Dole in the nation's first presidential primary.

Dukakis, governor of neighboring Massachusetts, posted a commanding victory that, coupled with his relatively close third-place showing in Iowa Feb. 8, gave him a strong boost heading into Super Tuesday - the 20-state state of primaries and caucuses held mostly in the sunny South

RAMALLAH, Israeli-occupied West Bank (UPI) - Israel is trying to jam the signal of a clandestine Arab radio station that features a "Top Ten" list ranking riots, not records, and is guiding the bloody Palestinian protests in the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip.

Since going on the air a few days after the unprecedented anti-Israeli unrest erupted Dec. 9, the station, called "Al Quds," Arabic for Jerusalem, has developed a wide audience in the West Bank and parts of Gaza.

The station has urged Palestinians living in the territories to increase attacks on Israeli soldiers and has issued "hit lists" ranking towns and U.N. refugee camps based on the scope and intensity of local protests.

It broadcasts political polemics and odes to the "hravery" of the rock-throwing protesters confronting Israeli troops in what the Palestinians call the "intifada," Anable for "uprising."

Britain Looks For Waldheim Link

LONDON (UPI) - Britain is reopening its investigation into the disappearance of six British World War II commandos to determine if they may have been interrogated by Austrian President Kurt Waldheim, then a German army lieutenant, before being executed.

"There is no evidence to substantiate a link between Dr. Waldheim and the British commandos," Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher said in announcing the reopening of the investigation Tuesday.

"But," she said in a written statement to the House of Commons, "we have taken the allegations concerning Dr. Waldheim very seriously."

Introducing Area Code 407. The number of new Florida residents has grown so much that we're creating a new area code-407-for the region north of the Broward/ Palm Beach line to just north of Orlando. The creation of the new 407 area code means we'll be able to continue serving customers by providing new phone lines well into the next century.

Area code 407 will take effect on April 16, and there are a few things we suggest you do by then.

If you live inside the portion of area code 305 that will change to 407, you can tell friends and relatives about the upcoming conversion. (Your 7-digit telephone number won't change-only the area code.) And if you live outside this area. but call any numbers inside area code 407, you can correct your records to reflect the new numbers. If you have any questions or yould like a free brochure about area code 407, please call us toll free at 1800 331-2355. One more helpful tip about this change. It's easy to remember when area code 407 will be in effect-it starts one day after a date that's unforgettable to all taxpayers.

Herald Sports Editor WINTER PARK - After knocking on the door practically all night long. Lake Mary's Rams finally broke it down as Rod Bittlering headed in a rebounded shot in the first five-minute sudden death overtime period to give the Rams a 1-0 victory over Winter Park's Wildcats in the 4A-5 Region playoff before 791 fans at Ward Park.

Lake Mary, 21-3-5, advances to the 4A-3 Section playoff Friday night at home against Eoca Raton Spanish River, Spanish River advanced with a 3-2 victory over Merritt Island in Region 6. Friday's winner goes on to the Class 4A State

"We fought a lot of adversity tonight and found a way to win," Lake Mary coach Larry McCorkle said. "Winter Park is always tough to beat, especially on that field."

Lake Mary too immediate control in the first half as it came out with an all-out offensive assault. Winter Park, though, bunkered in on defense and played the Rams to a scoreless tie after the first 40 minutes.

Early in the second half, it was Winter Park that got what seemed would be a big break. A Winter Park defender climbed up the back of Lake Mary's Frank Ramseur but the official didn't see it. The official did, however, see Ramseur kick the Winter Park player in retaliation and Ramseur was red-carded. Lake Mary played the remainder of the game with 10 players.

The score remained tied after regulation and two 10-minute overtime periods. Early in the first sudden death period. Lake Mary's Ernie Broennle got open for a shot and ripped it high and on frame. Winter Park goalkeeper David Turner leaped and got a fingertip on the ball which deflected off the crossbar and out to Bitterling who turtled it in for the winning score

"Ernie (Broennle) hit a good shot but the keeper got a piece of it and it hit off the post," Bitterling said. "I was about two yards out and it just came right to me. All I saw was the back of the net and I put it in.

The Rams, who outshot the Wildcats, 36-10, knew it was just a matter of time before Winter Park's charmed life came to an end. Lake Mary's defense held the Wildcats to few good scoring chances while the Rams continued to plug away "We were threatening all night but we just couldn't find the frame." Broennle, who created several good scoring opportunities, said, "Even when we were a man down we still took it to them and we knew sooner or later we would score." Lake Mary appeared to score a goal in the last 15 minutes of the first half when Scott Schmitt hit an indirect free kick that looked to glance off a player and into the goal. The official however, said the indirect kick was not touched before it went in, therefore nullifying the goal. The Rams had another near miss with three minutes left in the first half when Jim Spicher served a nice ball in front of the goal and John Mora headed it high but Turner made the save. Turner had a good game for the 'Cats with 10

Soviets Accused Of Doping

CALGARY, Alberta (UPI) -Olympic officials must rely on words instead of technology to refute accusations that blood doping is being practiced by some athletes at the Winter Games.

Without a workable test to detect the practice, the International Olympic Committee was unable to issue a credible denial Tuesday of charges that Soviet athletes blood doped before competing in cross country races this week.

"In one or two years it will be possible for the IOC to detect blood doping," IOC spokeswoman Michele Verdier

Although undetectable, blood doping is banned by the IOC. along with substances that can be traced, such as steroids, stimulants and narcotics.

In blood doping, blood is removed from the system and stored. It is reinjected just before competition so that the added blood increases the body's oxygen supply and improves stamina.

Blood doping could be more talk than fact. There have been persistent rumors and speculation that the practice exists among cross country skiers. blathletes, distance runners and distance speedskaters.

But few cases have been documented.

The most publicized case involved American Kerry Lynch, who admitted he used blood doping before his second-place finish in the nordic combined event at the 1987 World Championships. He was subsequently suspended from competition until 1989

In the Tuesday edition of the Calgary Sun. Canadian Coach Marty Hall said he believes the Soviet cross country skiers commonly use blood doping. "It's the most logical thing," he said. "I'm going to get in trouble for this 'cause I'm a loud mouth in the international scene.

The Soviets linished first and second in both the women's 10-kilometer and men's 30kilometer races. Four of the top live women finishers were from the Soviet Union and the Soviets placed three among the men's Verdier said the IOC medical commission had checked out Hall's claims with doctors at Canmore, the site of the cross country events.

"The IOC medical commission made a report this morning and there is absolutely no truth to the claims of the Canadian coach," she said. "They received a report from doctors at Canmore and there was nothing to substantiate the claims."

Scientists are working on a practical test to detect blood doping but the procedure is not yet available for Olympic drug screening. Sports officials say an exam has been developed, but it takes too long to complete and the results are not reliable enough to withstand a legal challenge.

Hall acknowledged the Soviets have long had a strong cross country program but said the performance in the races Sunday and Monday were so powerful they were suspicious.

"They could be this great. They have a hell of a program. They've got a lot of skiers in their program, a lot of coaches. These guys have been good for a long, long, long time.

'But you have to wonder when you come to a champion-

LAND O' LAKES - Land O' Lakes came up with an early goal and fought off a tremendous second half effort by Oviedo to take a hard fought 1-0 victory in the Class 3A Region 4 playoff Tuesday night before 351 fans at Land O' Lakes High School.

The Gators improved to 17-1-2 and will travel to Daytona Seabreeze for the Sectional playoff Friday. Oviedo completed its best season at 15-7-2, setting a school record for wins.

The Llons dominated the entire second half and did everything but put the ball in the net. The Land O' Lakes defensive was able to keep the Oviedo offense confused by dropping the ball back to goalie David Hohenthanear.

'We had a great second half and dominated the play," Ovjedo coach Dave Jekanoski said. "I admire the way the kids hustled, they played their hearts out in the second half."

The Gators came ou early and had three excellent chances to score early. Oviedo goalie Jeff Holfman, though, came up with a pair of great saves as the other shot bounced off the left post and away from the goal. The Lions then gained control of the game and came up with a few opportunities of their own. Tim Waisanen had Oviedo's first shot of the night and drilled it right at Hohenthaner who covered the ball at the 22:53 mark, Kenyon Ross then had a header go wide of the goal on a corner with 19.00 to play in the opening

The Lions were attacking once again when Gator sweeper Tim-Yeisley cleared the ball. The long kick was run down by striker Todd McHaffey who worked his way around a defender and sent a shot by Hoffman who had charged him. The ball just did find the net as it hit the left post and spun into the goal.

"I don't know what the hell we were doing in the first half." Jekanoski said. "We were out of control and weren't playing our style of game. I believe the two and a half hour bus trip over here caused us to come out flat. After we woke up we controlled the game, we just couldn't SCOFE.

Scott Waisanen did a fantastic job against the Gators leading scorer Steve Dornic. Waisanen run at Seabreeze in the fourth marked him all night and Dornic did not have a legitimate shot to score at any point in the game.

Oviedo Has Potential For Championship Season

Oviedo High School has one of the most consistent tennis programs around. They are always good. This year is no exception. Dan Gustafson, the boys coach and Louie Tulp, the girls coach, once again are loaded and another outstanding year should be in store for Oviedo High.

The boys team lost only two players from last year's outstanding team. Those two players were high quality players and will be hard to replace. Gone are last year's #1 Greg Lampke and #2 Greg Brick. Lampke is playing tennis this year at Greenville, S.C., Jr. College and Brick is playing soccer (?) at Flagler. It's hard to replace players like Brick and Lampke but with the outstanding tennis tradition.

that prevails at Oviedo, it can be done. One of the really super up and coming players at Oviedo is sophomore Chris-Westherz. Westherz is very, very good. In fact, he is a prime candidate for the #1 spot. Back from last year's team and also fighting for the top spot, will be Pat Schuermann, Scott Lugering, Jeff Griffin and Rob Seltzer. This quartet of talented players will certainly give Oviedo the leadership and maturity it needs for another fine year.

Among the newcomers to this year's squad will be John Comellos. (?) Stewart

Eden, Nam Ngugen, Brent Edelman and 43 in 187, Lisa Frang: Pane (?), a much Bill Crain. All of these young men are solid players and will add much to the depth of this year's squad.

Oviedo is still IIIA and are in a very large district. (21 teams) Two of the last three years, Oviedo has been runner-up to Titusville Astronaut. Again this year, it looks like Astronaut will be the favorite but look for Oviedo to give them a good run for the title.

On the girls side, it looks like it's going to be a great, great year. The top four girls from last year are back. All are improved and all are very eager to have another great year.

Last year's #1, Adrienne Wood, is back and is only a junior. Wood was 17-4 last year at the tough #1 spot and looks like one of the very best high school players in Central Florida. Also back from last year is junior Mandy Ehrhart, #2 from 1987, Ashley Ehrhart, who was 20-3 at improved player who was 22-1 at #4 in '87, and good enough to possibly now challenge for a spot in the top two positions.

Newcomers to this year's team are freshmen Jenny Wise and Jill Wise. These two young players are stars of the future and will add to the depth of the squad.

No positions have been chosen and indeed the comptition is so keen that it will be difficult to pick the lineup. However, it turns out you can bet that the Oviedo High girl's team will be at the top of the district championships.

When we talk about area high school tennis, two or three teams are always mentioned or having quality programs year in and year out. Oviedo is one of those schools; a super program that will only gain in stature this year. Next week: Lyman High School.

At about the same time, a Soviet sports official accused Canadian coach Marty Hall of slander for stating that Soviet athletes were blood doping to improve their performances.

Ute Oberhoffner, 26, completed runs of 45.906 seconds and 46.057 seconds to take a 0.038 second lead over teammate Steffi Walter. Cerstin Schmidt is in third place with a cumulative time of 1:32.098.

The final two runs are scheduled for Wednesday.

"This is their life. Their entire life is nothing but luge from morning to night, from the time they're 10 years old," said American Bonny Warner of Mount Baldy, Calif., the top U.S. finishafter the two runs but was confident she could finish as high as fourth.

Warner had been given the hest chance of knocking off one slow start to both runs, finishing about 2-10ths of a second off her best training times.

"Fourth is definitely a possibility. To finish in the medals, I'll Germans," sald Warner, 25.

It seems unlikely, though, that the East Germans will falter. The next Olympics seems a more logical bet for a medal for Warner.

"I think this crop of girls should be retiring in the next year," said Warner of the East Germans. "I will not be retiring. so in 1992, I'll be the one they have to look out for."

Veronika Bilgeri of West Germany is currently fourth at 1:32.696 and Soviet Ioulia Antipova (1:32.874) is fifth.

SCC's Dunning A Steady Force

By Mark Blythe Herald Sprorts Writer

Barry Dunning, in his sophomore season with Seminole Community College, is not a very flashy player and does not rack up incredible stats. Dunning, though, does what it takes to bring the Raiders a Dunning, a 6-7 power forward, came to SCC from Montgomery Alabama via Bill Ryan, who has brought a few other quality players to the Seminole program.

"I chose to come to Seminole because it has a great winning tradition." Dunning said. This is the fifth straight season the school has won 20 or more games."

Dunning played quite a bit on last years squad which made it to the state semi-finals and finished with a phenomonal 30.5 record. Dunning is a prime time player on a squad that is 21-6 and he will have to be at his best over the final portion of the season for the Raiders to return to the state playoffs.

"He's a great kid, he doesn't say much but is one of our leaders." Seminole coach Bill Payne said. "He's our top rebounder and has been instrumental in our offense all

Dunning's experience has helped to have a good season. the only reason he has not had a great season is an injury to his right elbow just after the Christmas break

"He would of had an outstanding season if he hadn't been injured." Payne said. "He's just now getting back to 100 percent and hitting the boards like he was before the break.

The sprained elbow forced Dunning to sit out for six games. When he returned he was a little tenative but now he's playing with confidence and has returned to full strength.

"I was a little timid going to the boards when I first game back," Dunning said. "I've regained my confidence now and I'm rebounding much better and my shot is coming Dunning has been the Raiders leader in the middle this year, a place where Payne believes the game is won. Payne has come up with a very strong inside gaine attack and has a confident group of athletes willing to work the ball to the middle.

'Coach (Payne) told us at the beginning of the year that if we wanted to win we'd have to get the ball down in the trenches," Dunning said. 'After the break we've been getting the ball down there and been playing well. Holly Keller, Malcolm Houston and Robert Thomas have all been making great passes and been hit the shots when we're covered."

Payne felt at the end of last season that the Raiders would be returning a strong sophomore squad, and so far that has held true.

"I felt we would have a strong top four in Dunning. Houston, Keller and Rob Williams," Payne said. "They've all done a nice job this year and been our nucleus."

Houston has led the Raiders in scoring, but it has been the combined efforts of Dunning. Williams and a pair of freshman (Vince Emerson and Terrell Barnes) that have given them a strong season.

"Our inside game has come a long way," Payne said. "We knew we would have to be tough in the middle if we wanted to win."

Dunning signed early with the University of Southern Illinios and will finish his college career at the four year Division | College.

"I decided to go their (USM) after talking to their coach and hearing about the program." Dunning said. "They aren't winning many games right now, and they will graduate most of their players in the middle. I think I'll be able to play quite a bit for them."

SCC AT JACKSONVILLE

Dunning and the rest of the Raiders will hope to come up with a nice performance tonight when they travel to Florida Community College-Jacksonville. Seminole has not won at FCC-J in five years, if they win tonight it would mean an automatic berth to the state tourney. A loss would probably bring the Mid-Florida Conference Tournament to

The winner of the MFC will also qualify for the state tourney but the Raiders will hope they can prevent hosting the tourney

Birle, Weger Lead Rams Over Evans

By Chris Pieter Merald Sports Editor

Alex Birle turned in an impressive pitching performance and Wes Weger drove in the winning run in the ninth inning as Lake Mary's Rams opened the season with a 7-4 victory over Orlando Evans Tuesday in the Apopka Rotary Tournament.

The Rame return to action in the single elimination tournament Thursday night against host Apopka. Apopka advanced with a 3-0 victory over Lake Howell.

"Birle pitched one excellent ballgame." Lake Mary coach Allen Tuttle said. "He must have threw 130 pitches. His curve had them off blanace all night long."

Evans jumped out to a 3-0 lead with one run in the first and two in the second. The Rams got on the board with a run in the top of the fourth when Weger drilled a double, took third on a groundout and scored on Jeff Hagen's sacrifice fly.

Lake Mary tied it with two runs in the sixth.

Shane Stufflet led off with a walk. Weger walked and they moved up a base on a wild pitch. Eric Birle's sacrifice fly to right scored Stufflet and Hagen singled in Weger to tie it at 3-3.

It remained 3-3 after seven innings and Lake Mary then scored once in the top of the eighth. Weger led off with a single and stole second but he was tagged out when he overslid second base. With two outs, Hagen singled and he went to third on a hit-and-run single by David Fencik. Trevor Moore then singled to right to drive in Hagen for a 4-3 Lake Mary lead.

Evans was able to retie it in the bottom of the eighth when it scored on a pair of Lake Mary single to drive in Stufflet for a 5-4 lead. After Weger stole second. Eric Birle singled to left to drive in latarola and Weger for a 7-4 advantage.

The Rams then put together a three-run rally in the top of the ninth to sew up the victory. With one out. Stufflet roped a double to right center, Aaron latarola walked and Weger smashed a BASEBALL

Evans made a threat in the bottom of the ninth when it put runners on first and second with one out. latarola then made a nice running catch of a long blast to center field for the second out and a fielder's choice ended the game.

"That was a heck of a catch." Tuttle said. "He (latarola) was right near the 385 sign in center when he hauled it down."

Alex Birle, a senior righthander, gave up just five hits over nine innings, struck out 12, walked three and hit two

APOPEA BLANKS HAWKS

In Tuesday's late game. Apopka's Darryl Stokes and Lake Howell's Bobby Lieflander locked up in a pitching duel as there were a total of five hits in the game. Apopka was able to push across two runs in the fourth and one in the sixth en route to a 3-0 victory.

Apopka, 2-0, goes on to the semifinals against Lake Mary white Lake Howell. 1-3, plays in the consolation round. Lieflander allowed just three hits in the game but the Lake Howell bats were kept silent by Stokes who gave up only two hits.

SEMINOLE IN TOURNEY

Seminole High. 20 for the scason, will put its win streak on the line Thursday as it travels to Orlando Edgewater to play in the Edgewater Invitational. Seminole opens play in the tourney Thursday at 3:30 p.m. against Orlando Bishop Moore, Jeff Blake is the probable starter on the mound for the Tribe. Blake tossed a three-hitter in Seminole's season-opening 2-1 victory over Edgewater.

Lake Mary May Be 1988's Team Of Destiny

Look in the latest edition of the dictionary rd "adversity" and you'll see a ake Mary High soccer team. The Rams have had more than their share of hard times 1987-88.

The Rams had to survive a multitude of injuries this season, including one that kept their top goal scorer out for over half the year. They rarely played a game with the entire team 100 percent healthy. Then, in the district tournament, goalkeeper Pete McNally, one of the state's best.

walked off the team (he was allowed to return). Tuesday night. Lake Mary faced one of its biggest challenges of the season in Winter Park's Wildcats. To make matters worse, the Rams had to play most of the game at a one-player disadvantage and they were playing on a field that wasn't fit for yak grazing.

For them to come out of all of that still alive and with hopes of a second consecutive trip to the Class 4A State Tournament, you have to believe Lake Mary's Rams are a team of destiny.

"We fought a lot of adversity and found a way to win." Lake Mary coach Larry McCorkle said. "I'm really proud of the team for what they've accomplished considering all they have been

Lake Mary played most of the season without leading scorer Ernie Broennie and promising transfer Chris Kenefick has still not recovered from an injury in the preseason.

Despite the injuries, the Rams showed just how deadly they can be by knocking off both Tampa Leto and Miami Killian en route to second place in the midseason Pizza Hut Tournament.

For the second year in a row, the Rams ended up finishing second in the Seminole Athletic Conference. Then, in the opening round of the 4A-9 District Tournament, McNally walked off the team during the game. He missed the semifinal match against Spruce Creek in which the Rams barely survived, 4-3, in what McCorkle said was the team's worst showing since he has been its

Only two days after the poor showing against the Creek, the Rams regrouped and played and the overtime periods. Early in the second outstanding soccer in a 3-0 shutout of Lake half, Lake Mary's Frank Ramseur was red-carded tiowell in the district linals. McNally was also back on the team for the district final. Already a man among soccer goalkeepers. McNally did some growing up as a person as a result of his ordeal. 'I made a mistake," McNally said, "Everyone is fallible and I found that out. I'm just glad I got the chance to play again. I appreciate Mr. (Don) Reynolds and coach McCorkle being so understanding.

"Now, I want to do my part to help this team win a state title."

The Rams' quest for the state title was nearly interrupted Tuesday night at Ward Park, which is actually a vacant lot with soccer goals. No clock. no scoreboard, practically no scating and the lingering odor of pond scum in the air is not exactly the setting you want for a championship

The field definitely effected the way we played." McCorkle said. "It's ridiculous to play on a field like that. You can't expect quality teams to play on that field and call it a regional championship game."

As if the playing conditions weren't bad enough. Lake Mary was forced to play at a one-man disadvantage for most of the second half after kicking a Winter Park player. Actually Ramseur was retaliating after being fouled several times. Unfortunately, the official only saw Ramseur's kick.

"I can understand Frank (Ramseur) getting the red card because he shouldn't have kicked the Winter Park kid." McCorkle said. "But the official should have called something the other way because Frank got fouled quite a few times in a row by the same kid."

Although it had a one-player advantage, Winter Park could not make anything out of it as Lake Mary's defense held tough until, in sudden death overtime, Rod Bitterling scored the winning goal.

Immediately after the goal, the entire Lake Mary team piled on top of each other in celebration and McCorkle sprinted from the sidelines and did a swan dive on top of his

"I probably injured about three guys doing that," McCorkle joked. While they have suffered quite a number of bumps and bruises from soccer wars and coach's swan dives in 1987-88, the spirit of Lake Mary's Rams has never been broken. It is a spirit they hope will live on for three more games.

free throws by Beckton, four by Smith, and two by Scott Stipsits in the final 1:17 shut the door on Seminole.

You have to give them credit." Robinson said. "We put a lot of pressure on their guards and when we have done that lately we have come up with a lot of steals. But those two veteran guards kept there composure and didn't turn it over and they made the free throws late when they needed them.

"Andre (Whitney) didn't shoot the ball as well as normal and when we switched from a zone to a man to man we were not getting as much weak side help as we should have," added Robinson. "But I hope we learned some things in this game and are ready to get after it now to get ready for the district tournament."

Seabreeze coach Joe Pigotte said his defense against Whitney was one of the keys to the game.

"We wanted to put a lot of pressure on Andre and always have a hand in his face when he shot," Pigotte said. "And we also had to help on Walker when he caught it inside. A lot of teams don't give help and he gets a lot of dunks, so we tried to stop that and for the most part it worked.

"I thought they also played much better tonight than the other two games and I hope we don't have to play them again," added Pigotte.

Seminale's Andre Whitney looks to pass off while driving to the hoop in Tuesday's game against Daytona Beach Seabreeze. Whitney poured in 22 points in the game but Seminale dropped a 57-50 decision. The Seminales close out the regular season Friday at Lake Brantley and have a shot at the Seminole Athletic Conference title with a victory combined with a DeLand loss.

the Lake Mary defense. Lake Mary got superb defensive games from sentors Schmitt and Bitterling and juntors Spicher and James Nobile, Goalkeeper Pete McNally handled anything the Wildcats managed to slip by the defense.

"Tough defense was the difference for us," McCorkle said. 'It kept us in the game and two victories in one day on territorially we were able to Tuesday. Along with its 1-0 dominate the field. We were playing defense mostly at midfield so anytime we were called for a foul Winter Park was too far away to make anything of it." Now that it has disposed of the tough Winter Park side, Lake Mary has just one more hurdle to clear to secure its second consecutive trip to the state tourney.

Bolivar Has Hot Cesta

Bolivar, the top-ranked player in the world really had a hot cesta this week. After getting only a second place Wednesday he came on in the next five performances and won 11 games and finished in the money another seven times, a total of 19 in the money finishes in 36 games. Durango also had a good week with nine wins.

The early game singles found Arana winning two games this week and in the fourth Ricardo won two as did newcomer Uralde who has now won 4-of-12, fourth game singles matches he has played in.

Bolivar's performance gave him the most wins for the week (11), followed by Durnago's nine and Ricardo's eight. Ricardo is still on top with 117 wins on the year. Andia broke the magic 100 with 104 while Pierre has 92. Andia is tops in the money with a .449 average [104-91-94/644] games), followed by Olea at .425 (87-87-101/640 games) and Arana (66-78-78/540 games).

The feature singles this week was dominated by Bolivar who won four of them in a row. giving him a record of nine wins in 31 games, or a win in every West Palm Beach. He then went 31/2 games played. Eduardo still leads with a total of 17 wins, but a few players are breathing down his neck. The feature doubles game (13) was pretty split up with only Urquidi and Lecue winning two games each. The front court is still led by Charola with 19 wins and in the backcourt it is Farah with 16 wins followed by Arca, Bob and Mendi with 15 wins each.

Andia won his 100th game of the season in the Thursday Matinee. This was the first time in his career he has won 100 games. This young 26 year old. born, Joaquin Goitiandal in Marquina, Spain, started to play Jai Alai at age 13. He became a proffesional at age 17 and played in Newport, Rhode Island and to Italy for two years before coming to our fronton in 1985. He played the front court and was told, because of his strength, he would be better in the backcourt and here he is playing in the feature games and winning 100, making Santi Echaniz, the General Manager look like a prophet in changing him from front to back court.

Andia has two brothers playing proffesionally in the U.S. During the off season he says he lives on a beautiful ranch in the mountains of Spain and trains by running up and down the mountains. He also owns one of the largest bulls in Spain which weighs 3,000 pounds and has won many competitions. Andia is proud of his strength and stays in the best possible shape to come here and play and hopes the fans appreciate his hustle and desire to win.

Sampson Bombs In Return To Houston

United Press International

Ralph Sampson received a smattering of boos upon his return to Houston then played up to his reception.

The 7-foot-4 Sampson, traded from the Rockets to the Warriors Dec. 12, converted just 2 of 8 shots from the field and finished with 8 points Tuesday night as Golden State fell 121-116 to Houston.

Sampson was held scoreless in the first half and fouled out in the final period. The Warriors' center grabbed 8 rebounds.

"I wasn't worried about the fan reaction," Sampson said, "It was basically the same I got all the time here." Sleepy Floyd and Akeem Olajuwon each scored 25 points to lead the Rockets. Floyd and Joe Barry Carroll were traded to Houston for Sampson and Steve Harris.

"My impression of the new Rockets is that they are a fine team," Sampson said. Sampson hit two free throws with 2:19 remaining to give Golden State a 114-112 lead. But Houston scored the next 9 points, including 5 by Floyd, who had 20 in the second half. The Rockets have won seven of their last eight games. "We didn't play all that well,"

Latimer said there was "aggressive" buying in secondary stocks in the afternoon and the Dowstocks "joined the party at the end of the day."

tion was to provide long-distance service for which all customers would pay $3.60 per month. whether they used the service or not. However, public officials agreed with commission members that the additional requirement that a majority of customers approve the new rate in a referendum would be a stumbling block

"I can live with the (Southern Bell) optional service plan, but I think $10.40 is too much." Smith told the commissioners.

Kirchhoff noted that customes who make more than 12 calls to Orlando during a month would benefit from the $7.40 per month option, since long distance calls to Orlando now cost 60 cents each.

Larry Strickler of Southern

Bell said the new service will probably be offered sometime during the last quarter of this Vear.

The PSC approved a fiveoption package. Here are the • Option 1: Customers basically continue as they are now, paying a $10.40 a month local service charge, and then long distance charges for Orlando calls.

 Option 2. Residential custoniers pay $7.40 a month in addition to the $10.40 basic charge for unlimited calls to Orlando. Southern Bell had proposed a $10.40 surcharge. The option will not be available to business customers. Option 3. Residential cusiners pay $3 a month, plus the $10.40 basic charge. In return. they will pay long distance charges on Orlando calls, but get a 50 percent discount. Business customers can qualify for the 50 percent discount by paying a $6 fee, plus their $25.75 basic charge.

SunTrust Walt Dianey

Westinghouse

 Option 4. Sanford customers currently can call Oyledo, Denary, Geneva and Winter Park without paying long distance charges. Residential customers opting to give this up will have their basic charge reduced to $9.20 a month. Business customers would have their charge lowered to $22,90. Their calls to Orlando would continue to be long distance calls. Option 5. Sanford residents. and business people would be able to arrange a 50 percent discount on the long distance fee for people calling them from Orlando by paying a special fee. The charge would be $5.50 for for business customers. The cost of that option was originally proposed as $8 for residential customers and $9.95 for busi-

Another Dreamwold resident. Scott Anderson, laughed and said, "Pigeons in my neighborhood, yes, there's a few that hang around, but I didn't know that there's a problem."

Eckstein told the commissioners Monday that "We are going to receive a petition from the people at Dreamwold about a person feeding an excess number of pigeons." Eckstein said he had been to the site several times. "It is a sight to be hold." he added.

Bankowski's own house and yard are clean, but he does admit that scores of pigeons do come to the neighborhood. "But look," he said." I don't have just pigeons. I have cardinals, bluejays, sparrows, all kinds of birds. I don't know where they come

At the commission workshop, Eckstein pointed out that "The code says a person is prohibited from harboring pigeons. But, he is just feeding them."

Standing in his yard Tuesday. Bankowski scanned overhead branches for birds. "So, I feed birds," he said. "It's nobody's business. I spend $21 a week to feed birds." He opened his garage door and near the front were two large bags of bird food. "I just bought that one," he said pointing to one not yet opened. "I've never seen people like this in my life." Bankowski said. They never came to me. I can't believe it.

He said he has fed the birds for about three years and in that time perhaps only a couple of people complained to him personally. "Somebody is just looking for trouble," he said. "I don't go looking for trouble, but some people do.

This is not the first time the city has been directed to the Bankowski's home. The Bankowskis were supposed to get rid of a trailer on their lot about two years ago, and City Manager Frank Falson earlier this month directed the building department to see if the trailer was gone. By this time, he said that he was alreay aware of the complaints Eckstein has been receiving about the number of pigeons.

When Building Inspector Mary Muse went to the Bankowski property recently, Bankowski told the official he was trying to sell the trailer. In a memo from Muse to Building Official Gary Winn, she said she told Bankowski that he should either sell or remove the trailer. She pointed out that she also saw bird seed on the driveway. The traffer was gone Tuesday. Bankowski said he had just sold it "for less than half what it was Both Commissioners A.A. McClanahan and John Y. Mercer said they think the city should undertake some kind of regulatory measure to control pigeon feeding.

Police Chief Steven D. Harriett, also at the workshop, said the city has an "antiquated ordinance" regarding excess pigeons. That ordinance "would require the police chief and all officers to shoot all pigeons on sight," he said.

However, Chambers said the school district has been actively working to keep local milk compantes from fixing the prices. For the past several years we've been working together with Putnam and Volusia counties on the problem." he said.

Microwave Magic

Herald Chinese New Year With Festive Fare

My granddaughter's preschool class is studying China this month in preparation for celebrating the Chinese New Year. It brought to mind some of the wonderful Chinese dishes that can be prepared in the microwave oven. These foods are also ones in which children, even very young ones, can be involved with the preparation. So plan a Chinese New Year party for your family.

Many of the recipes can be prepared ahead of time, allowing you to enjoy the occasion too. The Chinese believe that food should please all the senses: with this idea in mind you want to make every food attractive, the ingredients uniform in size. colors bright and flavors complementary.

Don't forget to use warm, moist towels, chopsticks and fortune cookles. This will make the event authentic and special. A trip to a local Oriental food store will help in getting some special things like won ton wrappers, rice vinegar, fortune cookies or even rice paper napkins.

Start the party dinner with one of these Chinese soups.

WON TON SOUP 8 ounces lean ground pork

2 tablespoons finely chopped water chestnuts. I tablespoon sherry or white

1 tablespoon soy sauce*

🧐 teaspoon sugar 24 won ton wrappers 1 quart chicken broth

1 tablespoon soy sauce 1 green onton, thinly sliced

Cook Of The Week Sanford Native's Southern Country Cookin'

Claimed A Little Bit On The 'Wild' Side

By Derethy Greene

Herald Correspondent Nobody needs a second invitation to supper when June Helms is in the kitchen, and that's okay with our Cook of the Week whose country cookin' is just a little bit on the "wild" side. This Sanford native is "game" to try anything on her old-fashioned electrified cook stove, and the results are usually scrumptious and sattsfying.

"My momma is a southern country cook type," says Mrs. Helms, "and that's what I was born and raised on. I guess my momma is the one who taught me how to cook and my North Carolina kinfolks were a very strong influence on my cooking. A lot of my recipes are from North Carolina kinfolk. We ate cornbread, black-eyed peas, collard greens, fatback, and that's still the way I cook. When I cook now, I use a lot of wild meat and wild game because my husband and my sons all hunt. I incorporate a lot of deer, turkey, duck, turtle, fish and squirrel into my recipes.

"I can remember my aunt from North Carolina, when I was a little old baby. She would make biscuits from scratch. which I do, too. When she would get started with the dough, if I was up there, she would give me a little bowl of dough to sit down and play with and make my own biscuits, and I would eat the dough. Now, always when I get through with my biscuits. I run my finger around the bowl for that last little bu!"

Mrs. Helms' father, who was a fertilizer and chemical salesman. dealt with area farmers, she explains, "and he was always bringing home fresh vegetables so we had fresh vegetables all the time. And, of course, living where I live now, right in the middle of a cabbage farm, we have cabbage three or four days. a week. If you want to know how to do it with cabbage, I can do it! We still cat a lot of fresh vegetables. My husband's daddy. has a big garden, my uncle has a garden, and they keep us pretty well supplied." Three wellstocked freezers help Mrs. Nelms keep a choice selection on handall year long, saving her from time-consuming trips to the supermarket. "Thank the Lord!" she exclaims. "but I still have to go every week to get flour, butter and other things. But it sure helps to have them to keep the meat and vegetables.

A student of Sanford schools, Mrs. Helms graduated from Seminole High "back when it was on French Avenue," she says. "In fact, there are a dozenof us, or more, who basically started out together in first grade or kindergarten that are sulf right here in town. We all went through 12 years of school together After high school, I worked for about six months at the Sanford Herald in the classified department. Homemaking and family are two of the things that put a happy smile on Mrs. Helms' pretty face, and when she's cooking for them it's even nicer. Her son, James Warner, and his wife, Monica, are welcome guests at the dinner table and both enjoy her cooking "They don't have any children yet," she says, "but we're patiently waiting." Mrs. Helm's daughter. Marti, is a student at UCF and is also a lifeguard at Heathrow. Bobby, her youngest son, works at the Sanford Airport in the maintenance department with his older brother and is also a volunteer fireman for the city of Lake Mary. Mrs. Helms' husband of more than 12 years. Carl, is a 14-year veteran of the Sanford Fire Department and, according to our cook, is "very, very handy" around the house "He's a priceless jewel with a wonderful disposition," and one who loves his wife's cooking. "Monica said. that what we needed to do is line. everybody up and let someone take a picture of us and let everybody know how good a cook I am." Mrs. Helms says with a laugh. "We're all just a sinidgen overweight!"

Mrs. Helms' busy days fly by quickly when she is engaged in a pleasant pastime. "I sew, I garden and I do cross-stitching." she says. "I fish, I hunt and I docanning. I like to crochet and knit, too. I do a little bit of all of it." During hunting season, the Helms family can almost surely be found camping near Osteen or at a hunting camp in Ocala. 'And every year around Thanksgiving time we go up to West Virginia and hunt up there," she adds. Mrs. Helms' sewing talents were put to the test when she created her daughter/m-law's lovely wedding gown; she passed with flying colors. She also made the jackets for the men in the bridal party, a cinch for our creative cook. "I make the majority of my own clothes," she says, "I've sewn off and on for years."

She is a member of the Laureate Alpha Tau Chapter of Deta Sigma Phi sorority and is a 25-year member. She has held every office in the organization and has also been named Valentine girl on several occasions. Mrs. Helms is extremely dedicated to the BSP's functions as a social and service organization and is quick to exclaim that her entire chapter is made up of good cooks. "We have a lot of covered dish and cookout type events," she says, "and I'm usually, almost always, either chairman of or on the social committee." When she entertatus at home, Mrs. Helms usually prepares an informal harbecue or fish-fry. "To say t entertain...l guess I do a lot of it, but I really don't say that I do, because there's usually somebody eating supper with us ; every night. But it's really not a planned thing."

Although Mrs. Helms and her husband are both "outdoors" people, there are a lot of touches that were added to their home to make the indoors just as pleasant. Planning around her husband's work schedule of 24 hours on and 48 hours off, they are usually off fishing, on the prairie riding a three- or fourwheeler, or in Ocala fishing and swimming. "We are very out-doorsy," she says. "And when we go somewhere, the whole menagerie goes. We're very family oriented. And that even includes young people from the neighborhood, kids who are in their 20s now. They would say they were mine and were just grown with mine. I hesitate when I tell you I have three Surrounded by several mounted hunting trophies, the Helms' cozy home is warmly decorated with a rustle flavor, complete with stone fireplace and roughtly textured wall paneling and shelving. Displayed on those shelves is a handsome collection of cups and saucers, each set with its own pretty design. Mrs. Helms also likes to collect frogs in all sizes and stances. "My husband built the shelving and he built the fireplace and hearth and all." says Mrs. Helms, "and he had never done stonework of any

Some day our cook and her husband hope to travel out West. 'That's our dream: to take Carl's vacation all at one time, go one way and come back the other. Some day we'll make it. We go to the Keys. We went there in August and went lobstering, I had a ball! That's something I

SCC Fine Arts Theatre To Present 'Caucasian Circle'

The Seminole Community College Fine Arts Theatre presents The Caucasian Chalk Circle, written by Bertolt Brecht. Bob Pettee of the Pendragon theatre company in upstate New York is directing this epic piece which features a cast of over twenty performers drawn from the SCC theatre program as well as several interested members from the Orlando area. The Caucasian Chalk Circle will play Feb. 24-27 at 8 p.m. with a matince on Feb. 28 at 2 p.m.

in the play. Brecht weaves a rich and theatrical tapestry touching issues of Justice, revolution, love, and responsibility. After a brief prologue between opposing members of two Russloan collectives, we leap back in time almost a thousand years. In a celebration of their decision making, the commune members will act out the ancient chinese legend of the Chalk Circle. The storyteller begins the epic tale which is actually two stories; one of Grusha the palace maid, the other of Azdak the village recorder. These two characters are "victims" of the revolution against an insensitive and corrupt aristocracy. The tale of their separate lives spins wildly towards a final meeting and the famous test of the Chalk Circle.

The SCC Fine Arts Theatre Box Office opens Monday, Feb. 15. Hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. For reservations call 323-1450 or 843-7001, Ext. 399, General admission is $5, Senior Citizens and students, $4.

LaWall To Head Hillhaven

Barbara LaWall has been named administrator for Hillhaven Healthcare Center, a 114-bed nursing center in Sanford, Richard W. Ebersole, regional vice president of the Hillhave Corporation, announced today.

As administrator, LaWall over-ees a staff of 85 employees and manages the daily operations of the nursing care center. Presently, she is supervising the final stages of a major renovation and redecorating project at the nursing center.

Lisa K. Fiola, David Dangel Repeat Vows

Lisa Karen Fiola and David Scott Dangel were married Jan. 16, at 1 p.m., at the Community Methodist Church, Casselberry. The Rev. Jerry Carris was the officiating clergyman for the traditional double ring ceremomy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bass, St. Cloud. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dangel, 311 Ferdinand Drive, Longwood.

Given in marriage by her stepfather Robert Bass, the bride chose for her vows a white silk organza gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted Venise lace bodice and puffed sleeves accented with lace and pearls. The full skirt was edged with a ruffled flounce that cascaded into a sweeping chapel train. A Juliet cap of lace, pearls. silk roses and long satin-streamer held her full- length veil of imported illusion. She carried a cascade of red and white silk roses centered with a white orchid showered with red satin streamers.

Laura Doolitile served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a red satin tea length gown with bracelet length, puffed sleeves. Her French-braided hair was adorned with small silk flowers and rice seed pearls. She carried a lace-edged nosegay of red roses and white carnations accented with baby's breath and white satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Laura Diemer, Penni Smith, Mesa, Ariz., and Susan Dangel, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns and flowers were identical to the honor attendant's.

Bryan Durkis, Tampa, served the bridegroom as best man. Usher-groomsmen were Mike Koski. Eddy Gonzalez and Ralph Calvo, all Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Mattland Civic Center, T1 three-tiered wedding cake, dec rated with cherubs, doves and iridescent bells, was cut with the cake knife used by the bridegroom's parents at their wed-

Preschools Schedule Hop-N-Ing

Children from day care centers and preschools throughout Central Florida will participate in a Disability Awareness Program organized by Easter Seals during the week of Feb. 22. Called "The Hop-N-Ing," the twopart project is sponsored by Fantastic Sam's Family Haircutters.

During the first part of the "Hop-N-Ing," teachers will familiarize children with disabilities and their various causes Easter Seals feels that such instruction at an early age is important so that children will not grow up with prejudices and fears against people with disabilities

Part two of the "Hop-N-Ing" is a special event to raise funds for Central Floridians with disabilities served by Easter Seals. The children will hop for a three-minute period and collect pledges as donations to Easter Scals. "We are especially proud to sponsor this event because it not only educates youngsters on disability awareness, but also raises funds for our local citizens with disabilities." said Harold Johnson, owner of the local Fantastic Sam's franchise. "Funds are used to provide equipment such as wheelchairs or hearing aids. to pay for therapy, and to provide recreational rehabilitative programs at Easter Scals' Camp Challenge.

All child care centers and all children will receive award certificates. In addition, the directors of centers raising $250 will receive a Fantastic Sam's gift certificate for a complimentary shampoo, conditioning, cut, style and finishing and the center which raises the greatest average amount per child, will receive a personal visit from the Easter Seal/Fantastic Sam's had never done before. And it was so gorgeous there, just beautiful." For now, the Helm's enjoy each other, their family and their home tucked away amid the orange trees and tropical greenery on the south side of Sanford. Cooking up a hearty meal in her spacious country kitchen seems to be a snap for Mrs. Helms who says she thoroughly enjoys it. She cooks with a variety of meats, mostly wild, but adaptable to any domestic cuts. Her Brunswick Stew is the perfect example. "When the kids were little, the boys would come in with squirrels and rabbits: if they killed it, we ate it. We cat a lot of deer meat. We do our own - we grind it and we have a cuber so we take the hams and cut them up into steaks and cube them just like the cube steaks at the grocery store. I cut It up into stew meat and make stew with potatoes, carrots and onions. And I use it in chilt. Put it through the grinder and use it for spaghetti, hamburgers, meat loaf - anything you can use ground meat for.

The Helms family also has a good appetite for scalood. One of Mrs. Helms' favorites is gar fishwhich she simply coats and fries in a few minutes. "It is so good," she says. "For years, it was considered a trash fish. Most people would just kill it and throw it back in-

Another of her favorites, she says, is frog legs. "Oh. I can eat that until it's coming out of my ears! That's my favorite. Just fried, no breading or anything."

One of Mrs. Helms' accomplishments in the realm of baking has been her homemade biscuits. However, she says, "It would be impossible to write down the recipe because I use so many blobs of Crisco, so many scoops of flour and so on -- I just blob it. But it is one of my better accomplishments. For years, the kids would come in from the woods and bring me flowers or a stump or something and they would tell me they were bringing me 'biscuit points,' then they would get an extra biscuit for supper All of them, not just mine, but the neighborhood kids would bring me 'biscuit points." The following is a list of some of Mrs. Helms' recipes which earn her countless biscuit points with her family:
