OPPOSITION TO THE DIS-
ARMAMENT PLAN

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Commercial ship builders now engaged in naval construction are greatly concerned as to what impending naval reductions mean to them and the government is beginning to get reaction from that quarter. None of the builders who visited Washington, however, has voiced direct opposition to the program whatever they may feel. Their inquiries, it was learned today, were devoted largely how to keep their plants working at least for a time and are discussing salvage operations. American officials giving some thought to the possibility of salvaging as non-combatant naval or commercial craft three new battle-ships now afloat but which under Hughes naval program would not be completed.

BONES ARE EXAMINED

(By The Associated Press)
VERSAILLES, Nov. 24.—A small tin box containing a pound and a half of bones was passed around today for examination by the jury that is trying "Bluebeard" Landru, for murder. Prosecution said they were all that were left of his 11 alleged victims. They were so small that they had to be examined by means of a microscope. Defense counsel denied the authenticity of the bones, attaching great importance to its claim that the police of Mantes search Landru's villa at Gambais without finding any such evidence of violence, although the Paris police found the bones there later in the same year.

CENT EXPOSURE OF SENSATION

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 24.—Inquiry into the suffocation of sixty-four Moplah prisoners recently while being transferred in closed railway wagons in Madras district, India, revealed that the incident created a sensation among natives and provided national press with effective propaganda material. Times correspondent says examination of railway wagon shows ventilating panels recently painted, this particularly closing their mesh. Moplah imprisoned five hours on journey and first intimation of their condition was when the conductor went to give them water. There were evidence of a desperate struggle for life, the dying prisoners having bitten each other in their fight for air. Only thirty-six of the hundred in the vehicle survived.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN SANFORD MEANS SO MUCH TO ALL PEOPLE—MAY THEY LIVE LONG AND PROSPER.

The Greatest Day in the History of Thanksgiving
Since the Pilgrim Fathers Gave Us the Day for Special Thanks to Our Master

Thanksgiving Day in Sanford seems to mean more than a mere Thanksgiving in some other part of the world. We gather here today to give thanks for the many blessings that have been given us during the past twelve months and as we ruminate over the past and look ahead to the future there is so much for which we can be thankful that the full significance of the day bursts upon us in all its glory shorn of all panoply and pageantry.

Thanksgiving in Sanford is Thanksgiving in the full sense of the word. Here in the greatest farming and winter vegetable section and fruit growing section of the world, with the finest climate and the best location in the state for a big city, with prosperity on every hand and a peaceful and contented people there is no discordant note to mar the real happiness of a real Thanksgiving Day.

As our people gathered at the churches this morning to render thanks for their manifold blessings it occurred to each and every one of them that their lot had been cast in pleasant places.

There is so much for which we can give praise and thanksgiving songs. Nature has been so lavish with her gifts and the hand of man has but supplemented her gifts and made them larger and finer and there is so much that the future holds for our citizens here on the shores of Lake Monroe that we can all sit down today for an hour of pleasant retrospection and reading of the future with such an abundance of all the good things of life that even the poorest among us can enjoy some of the material blessings and all of the spiritual blessings. There is so much that is being done and that will be done here for the glorification of mankind and the making of a great city. There is so much in the thoughts of our spiritual leaders today as they call attention to the many gifts showered upon us and regardless of the dark days that creep into the lives of all of us the bright ones certainly predominate.

Let us then, today, pause in our work and our play to render thanks for the many blessings that have been bestowed in the year gone by and look ahead to the future with that upstanding faith that has carried us through many privations and trials and tribulations in the past and with the unending faith in our city and our fellow man and the faith in the promises of Him who rules the universe we can take up the burdens tomorrow with a much stronger faith and the feeling that we have been endowed with new strength for having turned aside for one day to give Him the thanks due for these blessings. And keep the faith in our fellow men and our city and our county and our state and our big country that just now is going through another struggle that will develop into that universal love of mankind necessary for world disarmament and the end of all wars.

WAS WILLIAMS FORGER? SHOT BY TOM MARTIN AND DIED AT PALATKA

Dispatch From Jacksonville States He Had National Reputation

Was Williams, the man killed at Palatka by Tom Martin, special officer for the A. C. L. and resident of this city, a noted forger who was sought by the police of many cities?

This information is now being sought by the officers who are working on the clues that Williams usually worked on the same basis as he did in Florida and posed as an American Legion member. The following dispatch from Jacksonville is interesting:

"John R. Williams, who died in a hospital at Palatka several days ago after he had been shot by a special officer, when found on an Atlantic Coast Line freight train and whose funeral expenses were paid by the American Legion of that city, had a nation-wide reputation as a forger, according to Federal officers here today. They said the man's real name was George Mitchell and that he had been sought from coast to coast on charges of robbing the government of thousands of dollars by forging treasury warrants.

"The officers said Mitchell, posing as a veteran of the world war would ride into town on a freight train, clad as a hobo and armed with a hard luck story of not getting his claims of compensation granted by the government promptly and then offer a signed treasury warrant, explaining that it arrived too late for him to realize upon it.

"Preying upon the sympathy of patriotic citizens, according to the officials, he would get the warrants cashed and then disappear. The officials believe Williams had several confederates."

WATER SOLD AS WHISKEY

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 24.—Ferdinand Ehl, owner of 26 barrels of insipid water for which he considerably paid $14,000, today identified Emil Wentz, of Grand Forks, N. D., as one of the three men who convinced him by a plausible test that the barrels contained 103 proof whiskey. Ehl told the police he had been permitted to select a barrel, to bore his own hole, to insert a rubber tube and to sample what ran out. He did not learn until the trio had disappeared with his $14,000 that one of them had connected the tube up with a rubber bag beneath his coat which contained real whiskey.

Each was released on bail; Crossland, $6,000 and Dampier $3,000. It is charged they tried to land liquor at Atlantic City and Long Island from the schooner Henry L. Marshall last August.

HAMMOND URGES PUBLIC FUNDS BE SPENT BY REALTORS

MIAMI, Nov. 24.—Thomas C. Hammond, Tampa, president of the Florida Realtors' Association, in convention here Tuesday, urged the cities of the states who have public funds to turn over such moneys to their real estate associations. He declared that the real estate men would bring returns that would far overshadow those now obtained by Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Hammond spoke in reply to an address of welcome delivered by Mayor Lester, of Miami.

A fund of $250,000 a year for five years with which to advertise Florida in the largest dailies in America was advocated by Gordon Nye, of Miami, publisher of the Florida Real Estate Journal. NEW VEGETABLE IS SENT INTO FLORIDA.

The United States department of agriculture has just sent Miss Stella M. Wiley, Hillsborough county home demonstration agent, with a new southern vegetable which is a native of Mexico and Central America and which an effort is being made to introduce into South Atlantic Gulf States and California. Its name is chayote (pronounced chi-o'-tay), and the specimens sent to the local home demonstration office have the appearance of large green peppers. They grow on vines.

The federal government of agriculture supplies a little book of recipes for creamed chayote, fried chayote, stuffed chayote, chayote baked with cheese, salads, fritters and pickles. The new food is said to taste much like a squash.—Tampa Times.

In spite of the moil that is being made concerning the high cost of living and the low wages—in some places—it has been determined, beyond any doubt, that if genuine service is rendered, the average person proves to you that service is what is necessary to keep business going good. You can advertise "your head off" about the bargains you are offering, but if you are not able to show, or deliver the goods, your advertising is in vain.

BY-PRODUCTS OF LITERATURE

Author, Planning African Trip, Certainly is Overlooking Nothing That Can Be Made Useful.

Using the by-products is the most characteristic feature of distinctly modern industry. How thoroughly this principle has been applied to literature comes out in an interview with a charming and able Chicago novelist who is taking her five-year-old daughter into Africa gorilla hunting with Carl Akeley's party.

The author in question will make the trip to collect local color, the basic material in the fiction industry. The first product will be a novel, with a movie to follow. But not all the local color which an African trip is bound to yield can be used in a novel, so the author plans to work over the waste in a travel book, which will find a ready sale to that small but choice public which has weaned of fiction. The third and rather special product will be the story of her small daughter's reaction to the adventure, which is expected to make another interesting book.

Each of the three books is a separate product of the basic local color; each will satisfy a certain special need and reach a public of its own. Between the fiction readers, the armchair travelers and the students of the child-mind, this author pretty well covers the book-buying classes. Considering how little daughter will probably react when she sights her first gorilla, the "child reactions" book may fairly be called "utilizing the squeal."—Chicago News.

KNOWS RIGHT TIME TO FISH

Man's Many Friends Have Furnished Him Just the Particular Dope, and the Rest is Easy.

"I have the accurate dope now on just when to go fishing at the lakes," said a man who expects to take a vacation soon.

"I talked to a man last week and he said if I wished to do any good, to fish from 12 midnight to six in the morning. He used frogs and spottail for bass and caught lots of bass and also bluegills at that time. Besides it isn't hot then."

"Talked to a man Monday and he told me just when to catch them. I learned from him that the time to fish was between sundown and 12 midnight. He caught lots of bass and bluegills and crappies at that time."

"Talked to another man and he told me the best time to fish was from sundown until about 10 o'clock, and from 4 p. m. until dark."

"There was another neighbor of mine who gave me good advice. He never fishes after dark, but says he never paid any attention to the heat and that he always caught as many fish in the middle of the day as he did early in the morning or in the cool of the evening."

"So you see, I know just when to do my fishing."

Hints to Young Authors.

John Augustus Scribble wearily opened the envelope that brought back from its twentieth journey his "Ode on a Crushed Caterpillar."

There dropped upon the floor this letter from the regretful editor:

"Hint 1—Borrow half a dollar's worth of stamps."

"Hint 2—Don't begin to write till you feel you must. Such an attack is heralded by dizziness, listlessness and pains in the back."

"Hint 3—Then write down just enough words to relieve your pent-up emotions."

"Hint 4—Erase every second word."

"Hint 5—Carefully erase all the remaining words."

"Hint 6—Sell the stamps."—Pittsburgh Sun.

Disappearing Eagle.

Americans have made war to such an extent upon the national bird—the American eagle—that few specimens of the species are left in the East, and when one of these birds does show itself the first impulse of the man or boy who sees it is to shoot to kill. Yet the eagle is a harmless bird and does ill to nobody. Now and then a bald-head eagle flies over the national capital and a few are to be seen in the region of Washington, but they have become rare. Last spring a large and handsome member of the species was shot and killed in the woods bordering Neabsco creek, about thirty miles below Washington and close to the junction of that creek and the Potomac river.

Beirut's Housing Problem.

The return of many Syrians from North and South America, the presence of the French army of occupation, civil officers, European commercial travelers, tourists and refugees have together caused an unprecedented housing shortage in Beirut which is becoming a serious problem. The local government has attempted to control the rents by a decree, but the upward trend continues.

The several hotels deserving of mention can accommodate only about 250 persons in all. The city, with a population of 100,000, has no first-class hotel.—Commerce Reports.

Canada Liberal to Its Veterans.

The gratuity paid by the Canadian government to her World war veterans was by far the most liberal of all the allies. A married man, with three years' service, received a minimum of $600, and a single man $420, while the officers and noncommissioned officers received more, according to their rank.

THE SCHOOL OF EXPERIENCE

Hundreds of thousands of healthy men and women are today healthy because they have learned from actual experience that:

CHIROPRACTIC The Drugless Health Science, is THE MASTER KEY TO HEALTH

The exponents of this Science locate the CAUSE of so-called disease, and having located it, proceed to remove it by CHIROPRACTIC VERTEBRAL ADJUSTMENTS, given with the bare hands only.

Become a student in this School of Experience and you will be able to add your testimony to that of those who have received such wonderful benefit from CHIROPRACTIC.

The man who has never taken Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments and who knows nothing about the Science, has no right to tell you "There is nothing to it." He does not know. He has never tried it. He does not want to know. He does not want to try it.

FIND OUT FOR YOURSELF—JUDGE BY YOUR OWN EXPERIENCE.

We do not promise you that the benefits will be apparent immediately, especially if your trouble is of long standing; but WE DO PROMISE YOU that if you will follow the advice of your chiropractor and will take CHIROPRACTIC VERTEBRAL ADJUSTMENTS when he wants you to, good results will ultimately appear and you will say: "How foolish I was not to have tried Chiropractic long ago."

Give Chiropractic a fair trial. You will never regret it.

IF BACK HURTS
BEGIN ON SALTS

FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS OCCASIONALLY IF YOU EAT MEAT REGULARLY

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urino so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

SAGE TEA TURNS
GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—Adv.

According to a press dispatch from Ocala, Marion county has the pre-entest hogs in the south. Nothing personal, we trust.

We long for the days when we could have two turkeys for Thanksgiving and then live off the scraps for a whole week afterward.

The new cattle bank at Bartow will extend loans on cattle in tick-free areas. In other words you cannot get any tick if you have the tick.

Honesty might be the best policy but with all those cold storage turkeys on hand we cannot see why they are so high in this part of the world.

The ten story hotel at Orlando will cost a million dollars, they say. That's $100,000 a story. But few writers get $1,000 a story. The hammer is mightier than the pen.

Just as we thought, that Florida has impressed the world that it was not all swamp, the December Cosmopolitan prohibition article tends to make them believe it is quite soggy.

If Pinellas county can milk the state for $100,000 for bridges, why don't Seminole and Lake put in a plea—and pray—for the cost of the new Wekiwa bridge? We built our roads without state aid the same as Pinellas.

BUSINESS IS GOOD, VERY GOOD.

We asked a business man one day this week, "How's business?" His reply was, "Business is good, very good," and that struck us as being a very good slogan to use right now.

Business is good here in Sanford, has been good and, according to one of our biggest financiers, the prospects are good. He says that conditions here at this time are as good as those of any fall; the only difference being the apparent desire of so many to put off paying up their obligations.

The uncertainty of the past few months should not influence our affairs now. As winter approaches, many feel the pinch, in fact we all do, and we all work that much harder.

AMERICA FEEDING A HUNGRY WORLD.

Frank A. Vanderlip, the distinguished New York banker, has been making an extended tour of Europe which took him through the wartorn regions of France and Belgium, and through Germany and Austria as well, and as far east as Constantinople. He has seen things with the eye of a trained observer, and has written a series of interesting letters to friends and journals at home. He saw the swarms of Russians, Armenians and Turks amounting to half a million in number, who fled to the Turkish capital when driven from their homes by the cruel forces of war, pestilence and famine. He had a splendid opportunity to examine the functioning of the various American Relief associations working in that center of distress and destitution, and has the following to say concerning them:

"We may be charged with shirking our political responsibilities in the Near East and with desertion of our associates in the late war when they came here to administer an exceedingly awkward and difficult situation. But there is nothing but praise for America for her wonderful relief work here."

Mr. Vanderlip said Americans had signally distinguished themselves in their work in behalf of the 500,000 Russian, Armenian, and Turkish refugees who fled to Constantinople. He continued:

"The American Red Cross has furnished these unfortunate refugees with $10,000,000 in supplies and transportation. They have been the chief instrument in moving refugees to where they could have an economic life. Their work has just ceased. There are still tens of thousands of refugees. There are 15,000 utterly without means of support.

"Every American here feels the Red Cross work should be continued for a short time until these remaining refugees are able to secure subsistence for themselves."

"The Near East Relief committee is feeding more than 50,000 children in Asia Minor and the Caucasus. The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. are doing a great efficient and noble work. The Mennonites have made a splendid contribution to assuage misery. The International Christian Students' Relief is doing one of the most valuable tasks of all. It is of vast importance for the future of Europe that the torch of higher learning shall be passed on.

"There is a passion in this part of the world for education; the means are pitifully lacking. No contributions are better placed than those for student relief. The influence of the old American colleges here for good is beyond measure.

"All these efforts to help humanity in a pitiful plight, but still a humanity that is tremendously worth helping, give America a unique prestige. I believe we should go on with our efforts and continue to deserve that prestige.

"America is the hope of the world and nowhere more so than in this part of the world. Let us redeem that hope and bring it to a living realization among those needy and distracted people of the Near East. Let us carry on."

OWN A HOME

The "own-a-home" propaganda is presented in a new and interesting light by the figures showing the comparative number of owned and rented homes in twenty-one American cities of over 100,000 population. In New York 87.3 per cent of the population live in rented quarters. In Des Moines, Iowa, which shows the lowest percentage of renters in the list of cities quoted, the figures are 48.0.

In all of the other cities the renters are in a clear majority. Tenant's organizations are becoming popular everywhere, and they are forcing municipal legislation in their interest. Such movements in this country are always uncertain. With tenants in the majority in all the larger cities, it is easy to imagine what might happen if they were to draw their organization lines tight enough and take possession of the city governments. And there is nothing on earth to prevent them from doing so if they take a notion.

Heretofore, the abundance of room, the ease with which money for building could be obtained, and the widely prevailing low rents have prevented any serious friction. But with the long suspension of building attending the war, an entirely different situation is presented. Rent paying is now the heaviest burden which a majority of the people in the larger cities have to bear, and it is constantly growing heavier.

The first remedy that suggests itself to the tenant's mind is compulsory rent reduction, and this will surely be enforced if the present state of affairs continues; but there is an alternative remedy, much better for society as a whole, and equally advantageous to the tenant; and that is home ownership.

"Own your own home" is therefore an injunction of profound importance. The highest civic stability can exist only in a city wherein the largest proportion of the population are home owners. Encouragement of every kind should be offered—not merely in the form of lectures and editorials, but in the more substantial form of financial assistance. It ought to be so arranged that any person owning a lot could borrow, at a fair rate of interest, enough money to build a home. That used to be the case in most cities.

There is no better investment in normal times than real estate loans. Building associations and every other form of organization designed to encourage building by supplying the capital, should be promoted. And if that should fail, the subject is of such importance that the government, state, or federal, should take it up.

If the American people are to be happy, contented, patriotic and permanent in their abiding place, they must be home owners.—Lakeland Telegram.

WHEN TO ADVERTISE.

When should I advertise is a question that is frequently asked by the prospective advertiser. Should I advertise when business is good or when business is bad—when I have orders or when I need them?

This seems like a silly question and yet it is frequently asked in exactly this way.

It seems to us that the answer depends entirely upon the way the advertiser views his advertising. If he looks upon advertising purely as a luxury—if he advertises merely for the pleasure of seeing his name in large type, and some advertisers seem to—then the time for him to advertise—if he must advertise to satisfy his vanity—is when he has a big bank balance—when expenses do not have to be watched.

But if he looks upon advertising as a real selling force—if he believes, as he should, that advertising properly done will sell goods—then the time for him to advertise is when he needs business. The time for him to advertise is when he wants to sell.

When the daily ad brings in a raft of orders—when workmen in the factory are working overtime—there is not the same reason or temptation to urge salesmen to greater effort or to aid customers to increase their purchases. When business is good, each is doing enough whether he is doing his share or not.

But when the mail is light—when mechanics are idle—when employees are being laid off—then is the time when salesmen must be urged to greater effort to bring conditions back to normal.

A casual student of advertising will tell you that advertising has decreased with the gradual slump in business that has taken place during the last nine months. He will draw the conclusion from this that advertisers advertise when business is good and cut their advertising when business is bad. But the clear minded observer who analyzes carefully will tell you that although the total amount of advertising has shrunk, the old die-in-the-wool, intelligent advertisers are still running ads and that the shrinkage is due to the fact that many experimenters have dropped out.

The big advertisers—advertisers who have demonstrated the value of advertising—who know how to advertise—are still in evidence and in many cases have increased rather than diminished the amount of advertising they do.

The business world is made up of two classes of men: men with courage and men who lack courage, and men of courage do 80 per cent or more of all business that is done. It takes more courage to advertise when business is poor than when it is good, and because fewer men show courage when business is poor those who do have the marked advantage of lessened competition.

This seems like an intelligent thought. If you think it is, now is the time to advertise.—The Princetonian.

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Probably local showers tonight or tomorrow; no change in temperature.

Thanksgiving day.

In the best city in the world.

With the bright sun shining and all is peace and prosperity.

Seems funny not to have a football game of some sort today in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Holmes, of Galesburg, Ind., are spending some time here at the Montezuma.

Lieut. H. A. Bivine, of Arcadia, is spending a few days here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon.

George C. Shannon, of St. Louis, Mo., representing the Curlee Clothing Co., was a business visitor here yesterday.

Don't forget the dance at the city pavilion tonight. You do not need to go away for a good time. Have it right at home.

B. G. Brumby, of Atlanta, Ga., representing the Dixie Hosiery Co., was in the city yesterday calling on his local customers.

Every man and his brother must have gone hunting this morning. The Herald office seems to be the only place open in the city.

Sam Murrell, who is attending Stetson University at DeLand, is spending the week-end here with his parents, Captain and Mrs. K. R. Murrell.

Maybe some of those high priced turkeys will come down in time for the people to enjoy them next week. Turkeys taste good any time in season. There are a plenty of wild ones also.

James Higgins, of Haines City, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Higgins yesterday, coming over to attend the buffet supper given by Mrs. Henry Wight and Miss Sara Wight in honor of Miss Adelaide Higgins.

Frank Akers says the dinner and vaudeville at the Valdez hotel Monday night will be something out of ordinary, and the members will enjoy it as they have never enjoyed any affairs before. Let Frank know if you want a plate or a table reserved.

The Daily Herald comes out just the same today although several of the smaller dailies of the state are taking a vacation. The Daily Herald believes in giving the readers a paper all the time and much as the force would like to take the day we cannot do it and hold our job. And then our readers and our advertisers appreciate our efforts to give them a real daily every day.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

That good old summer time hangs with us and with the gentle showers and the really hot weather it don't look much like Thanksgiving—but we have so much to be thankful for here in this tight little county of Seminole that regardless of the weather we can all go to church this morning and give thanks to the Maker of All Things for the many blessings bestowed upon us. Thanksgiving Day means so much to every American and regardless of whether it is hot or cold we are THANKFUL TODAY THAT WE LIVE IN SANFORD.

LOOKED LIKE REAL THING

Scenes at Ellis Island, showing important episodes in the action of "The Land of Hope," Albee Brady's latest production, were taken under great difficulties.

The star and twenty members of her cast were several times mistaken for real immigrants and subjected to long cross-questioning by minor attaches of the immigration bureau.

Types chosen for these scenes were naturally persons who can play immigrants of the poorer classes, and once they mingled with the thousands who are waiting at Ellis Island to be admitted to New York, it was nearly impossible to distinguish and separate them.

"The Land of Hope" which comes to the Star theatre tonight presents Miss Brady in the role of a Polish immigrant girl who wins success and happiness in the land of her adoption. An added attraction will be a two-part Century Comedy.

LENA CLARKE JURY HAS BEEN SELECT'D AFTER MANY DAYS

DEAD SILENCE GREETED READING OF THE INDICTMENT

(By The Associated Press)
ORLANDO, Nov. 24.—The jury to try Lena Clarke and Baxter Patterson charged with the murder of Fred Millmore was completed here today after two and a half days spent in the selection. There was dead silence as the state attorney, Joseph Jones read the indictment.

Walk on Left Side of Road When There is No Sidewalk Built

Rule Should Be Observed and Many Lives Saved

Mr. R. J. Holly:
Enclosed find clipping from "American City" relative to foot traffic on streets which are paved but no sidewalks. This applies to Union avenue, Celery avenue, Sanford avenue south of 10th street, French avenue, Goldboro street and West First street in Sanford. A paragraph in your paper along this line may save somebody's life.

FRED T. WILLIAMS.

The article follows:

"Pedestrians who use the state highways in rural sections are urged to walk on the left side of the highway.

"By walking on the left side, the pedestrian will always see approaching cars, for he will be facing them. When walking on the right side he must trust the sight and skill of the drivers of cars and other vehicles.

"One of the most important reasons for such a movement is the safety of night travelers. A man on foot can see an approaching car long before it reaches him because of the lights, but the driver of a motor vehicle cannot see a pedestrian at night until he is almost upon him.

This idea has been tried out in various ways, and it is a big improvement over the present practice of walking on either side of the highway."

OPENING DANCE TONIGHT AT CITY PAVILION BY AMERICAN LEGION

The opening dance of the city pavilion will take place tonight when the American Legion puts on the first of the season at the new place on the lake front. The pavilion has just been completed and the live wires of the American Legion conceived the idea of opening the new structure with a dance on Thanksgiving night. They have engaged the Star Orchestra which is saying much and you will think so after you have enjoyed their excellent music.

Tonight after you have enjoyed a perfect day go down to the city pavilion and take in the dance where the waves of old Lake Monroe send you a greeting and the cooling breezes blow while you enjoy a night of real pleasure.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

One of the best programs ever given by school talent in this city was the "Better English program presented by the Grammar School Friday, November 18th.

The orchestra played and the grades filed in in wonderful order. Miss Millen brought them to attention and there was a thrill and a tear as we saw 400 school children salute Old Glory and pledge allegiance to our country.

Miss Millen, the splendid principal of the Grammar school, presided and the program progressed without delay. It seemed not a mere program but a natural sequence to the observance of Good English week.

The playlet given by the Eighth grade was interesting in theme and execution. Twelve remarkably good posters were presented by different children on Good English, in contest for a prize offered by the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club. All posters deserved honorable mention but first was given to Parks Urquhart, and second to Virgil MacAlexander.

A man is as old as he feels. When your clutch begins to slip, try something you know will stop it—or else do some experimenting.

Still, government's effort to dry will know how many books to expect an American camp by the gallows clattering up the premises.

The policy of disarmament has progressed to the point where very few people now say "militaryism."
