PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thorntun returned yesterday from Lakeland where they spent the holidays with their sister Mrs. B. E. Haley.

Mrs. Margaret L. Edwards arrived by plane on Wednesday night from Pittsburgh, Pa. where she was called due to the death of her oldest daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Garrett and daughter Kitty of Frederickburg, Va., returned to their home today after visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sline.

Mrs. Harry Hansen and three children returned to their home in Hollywood after spending the holidays with Mrs. Hansen's mother, Mrs. E. C. Echols, and other relatives.

Among those attending the Tangerine football game on New Year's night in Orlando were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dyal and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Griffin and two sons, Donald and Sidney, of Tallahassee, Fla., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker of Lakeland last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Tate.

Mr. J. S. Lee returned today to his home in Shelby, N. C. after visiting for the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Alexander, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Messenger.

The Misses Edna and Laura (children) returned from Falls Church and Arlington, Va., where they visited relatives. Their sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Chittenden, returned with them to spend some time in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Morris, Miss Elizabeth Woodruff, Miss Colleen Engstrom, and Robert and Grace Morris, attended the Orange Bowl football game and parade over the New Year's holiday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perry.

Mrs. True Entertains For Her Daughters

Mrs. R. E. True of Lake Mary entertained Tuesday afternoon for her two daughters, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. George Edwards, and Mrs. James Haslam of Warrensburg, Mo., with an informal coffee at her Crystal Lake home.

A lighted Christmas tree and greens carried out the holiday decorative theme in the party rooms. The refreshment table was overlaid with a linen cutwork table cloth and centered with a large white candle whose light shined in holly, hollyhock and individual fruit cakes, mince, nuts and bon-bons were served with coffee which Mrs. James M. Thomson poured from a silver service.

For the occasion Mrs. True chose a red and black print, while Mrs. True wore gold crepe and Mrs. Haslam a deep purple with accents of pink. A dozen of Sanford and Lake Mary friends called during the party hours.

Britain To Boost

But it warned that the alliance faced a double threat. "We must reckon," it declared, "not only with the risk of sudden aggression but with an attempt to disrupt the Atlantic alliance from within which is the proclaimed purpose of the Soviet government."

"Continuous and excessive strain on the economies of Western Europe would be the surest way of accentuating this danger," it continued.

"The shape and size of our defense efforts must therefore be related to both these threats."

Britain's original defense program has been trimmed twice since it was first launched by the former Labor government in 1924. But after both cuts the cost of individual arms rose so much that the total bill was more instead of less.

The program originally called for the spending of 4,700,000,000 pounds ($11,150,000,000) over a three-year period.

Britain's present defense expenditure runs about 1,400,000,000 pounds ($4,000,000,000) annually.

Rollins College And Duke To Cooperate

WINTER PARK (Special) — Rollins College and Duke University today announced a cooperative program for students interested in preparing for a career in forestry.

Under the new program, which will begin with the next fall term, students may attend Rollins for a period of three years and the Duke school of forestry for two. At the end of the fourth year they will be awarded a bachelor of arts degree from Rollins, and at the end of the fifth a master of arts degree from Duke.

This program is part of a plan being launched by Duke in conjunction with 20 of the better liberal arts colleges of the nation. Other institutions are located in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina and Nebraska.

According to Dean Clarence F. Kestring of the Duke Forestry school, this program will be a means of placing an emphasis on the quality of students entering this professional area.

"We are looking," said Dean Kestring in announcing the plan "for students who show promise of future achievement in forestry and who are capable of extensive personal and professional development."

The program for such students at Rollins will be the normal one pursued by candidates for the bachelor of science degree, with a major in biology.

The cooperative program was worked out between Presidents Hugh F. McKean of Rollins and Hollis C. Baker, Dean Edwin R. Walker and Dr. Paul Vestal of Rollins, and Dean Kestring.

Market Managers

(Continued From Page One) — The same period last week, when it is noted that commodities have been good throughout the month, even during the holidays.

While all commodities are in fair to good supply, the outlook at present does not indicate an over-supply of any major crop.

Mr. E. E. Williams, manager of the Fort Pierce Market reports, "A light volume of tomatoes continues to move through our market, approximately 15,000 crates for the week ending December 29th."

C. M. Todd, Manager of the Pahokee Market reports, "With winter in season, we expect continued improvement of crops and gradually increased movement. Corn, last week ranged from $1.50 to $1.55 per bushel, celery $2.50 to $3.00 per bushel, beans $1.50 to $1.75 per bushel, and potatoes $1.25 per bushel, and lettuce just beginning."

Ralph L. Alvarez, Manager of the Fort Myers Market reports good weather and an increasing volume of citrus, eggplant, pepper, tomatoes and squash.

Henry R. Hilton of the Plant City Market reports sale for the week ending December 30th of 27,500 bushels of strawberries at an average price of $1.42 for a gross of $39,250.00. Crop conditions good.

Department Of

It was the same time, no organization dedicated to law and order in world affairs can hope to survive if its own administration actions are arbitrary based on mere suspicion and devoid of the due process to which all civilized people are dedicated.

It should not be expected that the secretary general will arrive at serious decisions on evidence which has been denied him, or given him only through the press or hearsay.

Easy and wonderful dessert. Fresh pears served with a blend of Roquefort and cream cheese. Mash the cheese through a sieve and smooth texture. Refrigerate until serving time.

Gold cash prizes frozen in ice were silver dollars for the winning dance party at the 1300 Christ- mas dance. Miss Betty Hall, junior hostess, and Spenny (center) of the Sanford Naval Air Station, winners, are looking out the picture, frozen in block of ice. Paul Kestring and Mr. E. F. Lane are judging the contest.

The exciting moment of making sure that ever thing was in order for the wedding came in the hallway of the First Baptist Church before the Say-Wright wedding when the bridesmaids were assisted by the ring bearer, Jimmy Barks, and tiny flower girl, Martha Jean Tropic, in inspecting the bride's lovely gown. From left to right are Miss Ho on Wright of Savannah, N. C., Miss Cynthia Sinclair of Atlanta, Mrs. Kenneth Berry, the bride, Mrs. Robert Welcher, Mrs. Charles Lettelle of Orlando, Mrs. Robert Frisch of Long Island, Mrs. J. Lee Keyes of Cocoa Beach and Mrs. Lee Draper of Lake Wales.

Mrs. Burke Steele Entertains At Tea

Mrs. Burke Steele entertained a tea on Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. honoring Mrs. W. P. Chapman Jr., of New Jersey, a recent bride, Miss Maile Chapman of Tennessee, and Miss Virginia Chapman of Cuba, who are all visiting in Sanford. The rooms of the Chapman home at 208 Elm Avenue were beautifully decorated with red poinsettias and silvered glass. Other attractive Christmas decorations were used.

The tea table was overlaid with white lace cloth and centered with a miniature Christmas tree on a reflector. Red candles were placed in crystal candelabra and crystal appointments were used.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Blake Sawyer, and assisting with the guests were Miss Jeanette Loring, Mrs. E. A. Lundberg and Mrs. J. L. Jackson. Tea was served by Mrs. Ray Heron. Small open faced sandwiches, eggs, salted nuts and candies were served with the delicious drink.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Chapman, Miss Maile Chapman and Miss Virginia Chapman were Mrs. W. P. Chapman Sr., Mrs. Walter Steele, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Eugene Williams, Mrs. Nancy Slagter, Mrs. Lloyd Swain, Mrs. Marvin Dyal, Mrs. Ashby Jones, Mrs. Harold Heckenbach, Mrs. J. M. Leonard, Mrs. Heron, Mrs. Benny Austin, Miss Thelma King, Miss Laine, Mrs. W. H. McKinley, Mrs. O. K. Goff, Mrs. E. G. Kilpatrick, Mrs. H. B. McCall, Mrs. May Brock, Mrs. Lamden Berg, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. U. H. Hultshon, Mrs. Don Bullitt, Mrs. E. L. Ley Jr. and the hostess.

Maxine Holcombe Is Wed To L. D. Harrell

Miss Maxine Holcombe became the bride of L. Duane Harrell on Christmas Eve at the Church of the Nazarene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holcombe and Mr. Harrell's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harrell all of Sanford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. E. White.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a dress of blue tulle with Navy blue accessories. Her carriage was of white roses and carnations.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Harrell, sister of the bridegroom, and Leslie Holcombe, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man.

Soft piano music was played during the ceremony by Miss Elizabeth White, and "Because" was sung by Leslie Holcombe.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Rushton. The young couple are now residing in Orlando where Mr. Harrell is associated with the State Road Department.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Duane Harrell, whose marriage took place on Christmas Eve at the Church of the Nazarene. The bride is the former Maxine Holcombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holcombe of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Harrell are now living in Orlando where Mr. Harrell works with the State Road Department.

Ike's Background Well Suits Him In His New Capacity

By SHERRY BOWEN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower became a civilian in 1952 when he resigned his commission and went on to be President-elect of the United States. Associated Press newspaper and radio editors chose him Man of the Year on the basis of his landslide victory which ended 20 years of Democratic control in the federal government. That choice dictated his designation as political man of the year.

"Ike" became an international hero in World War II. He led the Allied armies that smashed Hitler's fortress Europe. After a term as chief of staff, top U. S. Army position, he retired in 1948 to a civilian role as president of Columbia University.

But with the cold war piling problems, President Truman called Eisenhower to Washington as temporary chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The general took a short leave from his civilian job. It became a long leave in 1950 when he was called to help organize and lead the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

Retired from Army
This was the job he had in January 1952 when he said he would accept the Republican nomination for President of the United States if it were offered. At first he said he would not campaign but in May, after he had shown great strength in several state primaries, he again suffered. He left his NATO job and had himself placed in a retired status without pay.

He toured the country in what became a sharp contest with Sen. Robert Taft. After his nomination he resigned his commission, ending all connections with the U. S. Army.

There were still months of campaigning before election. But he was ready for the victory. As President, he will become the civilian commander in chief of all U. S. military forces.

Long before inauguration, he prepared for that role by a visit to the battle front in Korea.

Royal Succession
"The king is dead. Long live the queen." Tragically struck Feb. 6, 1952, Elizabeth II became "Queen of the realm and of her other realms and territories, head of the Commonwealth, defender of the faith." She is, by vote of the editors, Woman of the Year.

Animals Will Have Priority On Space For Inauguration

By ROBERT E. GEIGER
WASHINGTON (AP)—It's easy for inauguration visitors to Washington to get good sleeping accommodations — unless the visitors are human.

Inauguration officials said there is plenty of space at stables here or nearby for the 400 animals which are coming for the Jan. 20 events. Practically all hotel rooms for humans have long since been booked up.

Upsala Church Marks 61st Anniversary

In the last Sunday evening service of the year, Dec. 28 of the Upsala Community Presbyterian Church, recognition was made of the church and its many years of service.

After the Pastor's messages, the candle light service followed. The center candle, representing the Church was lit by the Pastor, C. C. White, with appropriate remarks.

This church was erected 61 years ago, and still in splendid condition. The church has the regular Sunday morning and evening services and mid-week meetings with prayer and Bible study.

or eight solid dogs in the parade, Arrala said. The sled will be equipped with wheels to mull along the pavement of Pennsylvania Avenue.

Some famous palomino horses from California are being shipped here by the Long Beach mounted patrol and the Contra Costa sheriff's posse.

Lubbock, Tex., was invited to send a mounted sheriff's posse, and the Texas Cavaliers of San Antonio are expected to have 15 horses with their marching group. Similar outfits from Denver, Colo., and from Nevada also have been invited.

Mounted police have been invited from Cleveland, Ohio, and from the Pennsylvania state police. As for human beings, some committee members expect about a half-million visitors, although only half or less will stay overnight.

The scramble for rooms brought on charges of attempted price scalping. A House executive expenditures subcommittee, which looked into them, was told by Washington hoteliers they are charging their usual rates, despite the heaviest demand in history.

The committee was told a bloc of 25 rooms in the Statler Hotel had been reserved in Vice President-elect Nixon's name for the use of his friends. The Republican National Committee said a $250 check for the deposit on them was written by Nixon's campaign manager, Murray Chotiner of Los Angeles.

If only she knew—

She's sad and old beyond her years—this child of the world. And hopeless, too.

A candy cane and a box of nuts from a Christmas tree—when what she wanted more than anything else was to be loved and cared-for, with the promise of a better tomorrow.

If only she had heard, at home and Sunday school, the story of the Christ-child who came to bless little children, she would feel loved.

If only she had heard of the Child who grew into a Man, dependable, strong, and wise, she would feel confident of loving care. If only she had heard how He brings triumph over poverty, pain, and failure, her eyes would mirror hope.

Be sure that the light of faith shines from your child's eyes. Be sure that through Church and home, she—and other little ones—learn all about God's ever-present love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
