The Pennsylvania executive said as he left the conference that he was unable to predict whether a strike would be called.

Heavy Showers Drench Farms In Minnesota Area

Scattered light rains were reported elsewhere. Extent and importance of rain relief given blighted regions since Sunday had not been determined but crop experts generally were convinced conditions, although acute, could get no worse.

Wheat, they said, benefited little as destructive damage already had been done. Private estimates predicted a huge decrease in the 1934 wheat crop, some asserting the loss would be enough to almost wipe out the carryover surplus.

Corn, small grain crops that mature later than wheat, forage plants and pastures, however, were virtually saved from total destruction by timely rains. Harvests, however, would be cut materially, experts said. Loss of livestock, much of which was butchered hurriedly because of food shortage while market demands slumped, was great.

Drenching showers in South Dakota permitting planting of late corn and emergency feed crops, re-planting dried pastures, Charles H. Reed, Iowa crop authority, said the drought in that state had not been broken despite heavy rains which did, he said, to arrest damage than to repair it.

NRA Gives Up Its Attempt At Fixing Prices Of Products

(Continued From Page One) know every other competitor's price will be allowed only on the terms: That the prices be reported to a neutral confidential agency; they shall become effective immediately without a waiting period for powerful competitors to argue the original price into line with their own figures; prices may not be revised upward for 48 hours, but they may be cut right away and so reported.

A provision which virtually reversed the full force of the anti-trust laws for violators said: "No member of the industry shall enter into any agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy to fix or maintain price terms, nor cause or attempt to cause any member of the industry to change his price terms by the use of intimidation, coercion, or any other influence inconsistent with the maintenance of the free and open market which it is the purpose of this article to create."

NRA declared itself in favor of "properly drawn open price provisions" so as to level out competitive extremes while "with an unduly curtailing private initiative or destroying incentives to any individual legitimately to any individual legitimately to nearly half of the first 400 codes approved by NRA contain provisions for open price reporting. Something less than one-third of the codes contained a prohibition against "selling below cost."

LIGHTS AND GAMES

LITTLE AMERICA, ANTARCTICA, CA, June 4 (via Mackay Radio)—And what do you think we are up to now? Archery, no less!

We are not actually shodding arrows around yet but we are going to. Last night Commander Noelle announced that, if we have any time at all to play after the club comes back next August, we are going to have an archery contest. Our dog sled men and Edgar Coe, our carpenter, are making a complete outfit of bows and arrows and archery being one of the most difficult and scientific of sports, it appeals to this particular crowd.

Richard B. Black, row would travel of Grand Forks, along under the N. D. Surveyor snow and never be found. I mentioned this and it was decided to hang a couple of big pieces of heavy canvas in back of the targets and thus make the archery activity more of a game than the target shooting of the club.

Our outdoor work is all over now and we are definitely indoors for the next three months—prisoners of the storms and darkness—except in the few calm hours when we can take short, torchlight walks or ski trips for novelty and exercise. The various groups are tremendously busy making definite plans for the flights, tractor trips, dog sleds, journeys and other explorations and scientific quests next spring (autumn with you). These plans will be published here during the winter night—and then they'll be in progress. Such is life among explorers.

Our club is still growing. 22,000 members now! If you haven't joined, by all means do now, with no cost or obligation. Membership card and our big map of Antarctica will be sent you if you'll send your name and address and a loose three cent stamp to: Archery, Little America Aviation and Exploration Club, Hotel Lexington, 14th Street and Lexington Avenue, New York City, N. Y.

Dorothy Dell, Star Of Movie World, Is Killed In Wreck

PASADENA, Cal., June 8.—(AP)—Dorothy Dell Goff, daughter of a wealthy retired New Orleans lumberman, who attained spectacular prominence in motion pictures within the last several months, was killed today in an automobile accident.

Her companion, Dr. Carl Wagner, 29, prominent Pasadena surgeon who was questioned by authorities several months ago in the unsolved murder of Dr. Leonard Steveland, well known Pasadena dentist, was fatally injured. He died several hours later at a hospital.

Miss Goff, known on the screen as Dorothy Dell, and Dr. Wagner had just left an Altadena inn after a gay party, police said, when the dentist's large sedan plunged off a road, snapped off a light pole, and came to rest at the bottom of a ditch. The car was telescoped to half its normal length.

More Tags Sold But Revenue Falls Off

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 8.—(AP)—Though 70,639 more automobile license plates were sold during the first five months of this year than for the same period last year, collections for them fell off $283,807.90 this year.

The decrease in revenue resulted from the general reduction in tag prices.

The state motor vehicle department today reported the sale of $15,208 tags and the collection of $3,898,326.08 up until June 1 this year. For the same period last year it reported 244,629 tags sold and $4,481,444.66 collected.

There were 1,821 tags reported lost and stolen last year, this year there were only 464.

CWA Program In County Okeyed By Commission

"The program was popular inasmuch as the community received the benefits of repairs and replacements that would otherwise have been impossible for a long time to come.

The main criticism was the rate paid the colored labor which was more than the established local rate, and the scarcity of positions for the white collar class.

"The spirit of the workers was exceptionally good, except in isolated instances. The program re-established self confidence which had been lacking for some time.

The giving to labor a task, and the completion of that task efficiently certainly built up the common morale.

"We add that without CWA there would have been no way to provide work for labor in the rural districts, and that the program had our hearty support, and like programs will receive our full cooperation."

Raymond Baker, Ed Harper, and Clint Murphy, charged with breaking and entering, were fined the costs, and turned over to the grand jury for action.

FREAK FACTS ABOUT FILM FAVORITES

Prospect Of Winding Up Congress Looms

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—A prospect of Congressional adjournment some time next week appeared yesterday as Democratic leaders continued urging President Roosevelt to abrogate the legislative program he has outlined for the remainder of the session.

The result depended upon whether the Chief Executive could be prevailed upon to abandon the Wagner labor disputes bill and this in turn, it was said, hung upon developments in the threatened steel strike.

Party leaders are anxious to let both the Wagner bill and the administration housing bill go over until next session and elimination of these measures would leave the Senate with only the silver bill, the second deficiency bill and a few conference reports to dispose of before quitting.

Resolution Would Curb Industrial Regulation

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Intent upon heading off any government interference with growth of the southern newspaper industry, Representative Vinson, Democrat, Georgia introduced yesterday a resolution to make unlawful the promulgation of federal regulations restricting expansion of American industry which must compete with large foreign imports.

Vinson said the resolution was introduced after he heard reports the government might look unfavorably upon expansion of industry in view of the proposed tariff regulations under the reciprocal trading bill.

However, President Roosevelt told newspapermen Wednesday he was heartily in favor of developing pulp and newsprint from southern slash pine.

Murder Syndicators Pay Penalty In Chair

OSSENING, N. Y., June 8.—Three of the "murder syndicate" that ended the stubborn life of "Durable Mike" Malloy paid the law's penalty last night in swift flashes of electricity through the electrodes of Sing Sing's death chair.

Those executed were: Frank Padqua, 25, undertaker; Daniel Krieger, 29, fruit merchant; Anthony Marino, 28, speakeasy proprietor.
