Seminole Schools Return To Normalcy

Sanctions Near End

"Everything is back to normal ... or as near normal as it ever will be." This was the consensus this morning of William Phillips, Seminole school superintendent, and William Layer, president of the Seminole Education Association.

L ayer was confident the FEA will lift the sanctions against Seminole County schools, "maybe even today—but surely by the end of the week."

L ayer related the sanctions last week when L ayer, assistant principal at Lyman High School, and Rupert Jenkins, principal at Monroe Wilson School, were reduced to teacher rank by the School Board.

To forestall a potential all-teacher walkout yesterday, and because of the sanctions, the School Board reinstated L ayer and Jenkins in an emergency session late Friday afternoon.

He said teachers agreed to the settlement. "I think they consider it somewhat blackmail."

Protest Offered By Firm

Seminole Port Authority is "doing it up brown," as the saying goes. Port Administrator Francis Roumillat has been renting office space at $125 a month to the Authority.

County commissioners today granted the zoning change presented by Seminole Port Authority Attorney Gordon Frederick, which will allow the way for construction to begin on the new Port of Sanford on the St. Johns River.

In last night's meeting, held in the Port Authority's office at First and Park, Francis Roumillat, administrator, advised the board that Merry Brook Company was making strong efforts to downgrade the quality and the cost of the port.

It was pointed out that the financing of the port and its facilities is being done by public funding and it would not be proper for a single potential subscriber to dictate changes solely to lower its own cost of operation in the future.

Members of the Port Authority voted that the administrator and the chairman meet with the officials of the Merry Brook Company on its protest of the high quality of the port facilities and endeavor to dissolve the problems.

The engineering firm of Lockwood and Green has proposed changes and reallocations of costs which have changed the original figure of $765,000 to $905,000.

Sanford's city police cars are carrying a message on the side of their doors. "Protect and Serve!" Makes sense. How many times have you heard references made to the police department in terms other than to protect and serve?

Seminole High School Boosters Club would appreciate your help. Two items which will be going out this Saturday night are a color console TV set and a surfboard (gen. just what I want). President Pojar says they have a few tickets left—like 10 million, Paul?

Must have been all the rain we've been having here in Sun Florida lately which prompted 13-year-old James Robert Johns Jr. to run away from home.

Word down Forest City way is that the Highway Center plans to run for the 1968 election in the next bid held by James Birkenmeyer.

Convict Escapes

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Winston Moseley, convicted of killing Katherine "Kitty" Genovese, slugged a prison guard and fled from a hospital.

The stabbing death of Miss Genovese, 28, in New York City in 1964 sparked controversy when it was learned that 38 of her neighbors in Queens either saw the crime or heard her screams—but not one called police or attempted to aid her.

'64 Slogan Hasn't Changed It's 'LB' All The Way'

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Just what we need," said Lyndon B. Johnson, as he then proceeded to deliver more than 1,000 words of a speech that would be his last public address in Vietnam, but to help secure his political survival.

The speech ever needed proof that the President is a campaigner. Johnson, here was not so much a statesman as a politician. He had changed from 1960 to '64, it's 'LB' all the way.

From a look at the week-end headlines, one might even get the impression that, when Johnson survived in state, he had been a political survivor.

Behind the 1964 counter-attack, the headlines reflected a solid word of bad news, from the "The New York Times" by Robert J. Kennedy, Jr., and by James J. McCarthey in New Hampshire's Democratic primary. Kennedy, D.N.H., and McCarthey, a gold-digger, are the only two candidates to have won more than 50 percent of the vote in their respective states.

One might suspect Johnson would have been dismayed if he had seen all this. As he stepped into the campaign, he left the curtain of events. He came back fighting hard, and he has not been seen since to become anything but a platform orator more pointed as the challenge grew.

The "New York Times" story of the Johnson counter-attack against the forces arrayed against him.

On Saturday, Kennedy was accorded five television-radio spots to announce his candidacy for the presidency. Initially, it was thought that he would be the headline wrapped up for Sunday morning newspapers.

But that seems rather unlikely without Johnson. Unannounced, he went before an audience of top-drawer businessmen and won a rather demoralizing defeat. He has his embattled Vietnam policy.

And that was only the beginning.

Simultaneously, "reliable sources" disclosed that Vietnam troop reinforcements would be moderate compared with the reported request for 200,000 additional men by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam.

What's more, the same sources disclosed that Johnson was secretly collaborating with leaders of Congress to make a significant cut in the federal budget—as the price for the higher taxes the President seeks.

Result: Johnson and the anonymous sources, wrapped into a single news account, carried headlines from Kennedy in many newspapers around the country.

Johnson, when pressed, is adept at using the power of his office to put down any challenge. So was John F. Kennedy. Barry Goldwater once complained that every time he had the potential of making headlines in the capital, the late President found a way to top him.

On Sunday, the challengers to Johnson had an ostensible two-week advantage in network television time, and presumably in headlines Monday morning.

The line-up on network questions-and-answer programs was Kennedy and McCarthey vs. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

RFK Launches Bitter Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's battle with Lyndon B. Johnson for the Democratic presidential nomination may be more bitter and personal than Kennedy apparently intended at the onset.

"The issue is not personal," Kennedy said in the exchange over the commission, he uttered this phrase Monday before 17,000 people at the major issue America faces, he said.

But the chemistry of two emotion-charged university students from the President of the United States may have changed that.

He might like to see to it that Kennedy's battle with Johnson is not so bitter and personal as it has become. Kennedy said he would not stay out of the race if Johnson would appoint a high-powered Vietnam commission to review U.S. war policy.

While Kennedy feels he came out to support the exchange over the commission, he uttered this phrase Monday before 17,000 people at the major issue America faces, he said.

Rockefeller Is Expected To Enter Race Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller is expected to announce his candidacy for the presidency, initially, it was thought that he would be the headline wrapped up for Sunday morning newspapers.

Exemption Gives Break To Farmers

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A $130 million tax exemption for farm animals approved in the last session of the Legislature should give farmers the break they need to stay in business, according to a cattleman-lawmaker who pushed for passage of the measure.

Rep. Ted Alvarez, D-Jacksonville, a dairy owner, said the action will not cut down on tax income because the livestock will be more fairly assessed.

In the closing hour of the recent session, the Florida House approved an amendment which includes livestock in the new inventory tax law and estimates it to be assessed at 30 per cent of true value in 1968 and 25 per cent from 1969 on just like stock in trade at a retail store.

The Senate accepted the amendment as the deadline for adjournment approached.

Livestock has been taxed as personal property, supposedly at 100 per cent valuation, in past years.

"If we don't start doing something in years to come, we're going to be subsidizing the business," he said. "It's not profitable."

"Over half of my income is livestock," he said. "I'm a dairy farmer, you've got to have a good living. For a farmer, you've got to have a good living." The inventory tax will be assessed as an emergency measure to make sure that business machinery and equipment don't

Marines Overrun Commie Regulars

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines overran a rocket-throwing band of North Vietnamese regulars Monday and reported killing 47 of the enemy in new fighting below the eastern end of the demilitarized zone.

This brought enemy casualties to more than 1,000 since March 1. Twelve Marines were killed and 26 wounded in the clash Monday.

The heavy fighting was reported to have given the Marines supply base.

Over 150 Marines were maneuvering to attack the enemy position when they were flanked by about 40 rounds of 140mm rocket fire. Allied artillery, helicopter gunships and fighter jets pounded the enemy lines for an hour, and then the Marines attacked.

The allied command reported that in the 56 hours of the fighting, 47 North Vietnamese were killed, 26 were wounded and 12 were captured. The Marines captured three prisoners.

The fighting ended quickly, as the enemy fled. The Marines captured three prisoners.

A Lion's Tale

By LARRY NERBY

There are some mighty unhappy Tri-Hi-Sel members at Orlando. Their long awaited science convention at DeLand has been called off. It seems that not enough schools will be able to participate because of the lack of science teachers.

My apologies for omitting one of the main sponsors of the recent OHS Science Fair, Nelson and Company of Orlando. This company has supported Science Fairs, both local and regional, in Seminole County since their origin seven years ago.

Sadie Hawkins Day was a success at OHS this past week. Some of the setups were just too much or not quite enough. Congratulations to Phillip Walker and Adrienne Abrieaux for winning the title of Lip Abner and Daisy Mae.

"The Tyndall Effect" consisting of three OHS musicians, has come along greatly in the past year. You will surely be hearing of them around Central Florida a long time.

Chances are looking slim for the post school trip to Washington, D. C. Steve Stevenson, a biology teacher at OHS, is trying to find enough interested students to make a visit to the nation's capital.

Coach Dave Miller of OHS will be the traditional basketball coach at the state level. Miller, whose office has been used as a model for similar operations throughout the state, said, "It is my desire to continue to serve Seminole County in the position I hold."

Arthur H. Beckwith Jr. today qualified as a Democrat for reelection to the position of clerk of circuit court in and for Seminole County.

Beckwith, whose office has been used as a model for similar operations throughout the state, said, "It is my desire to continue to serve Seminole County in the position I hold."

Several senior English students made a trip to Rollins College to see the Amle Russell production of "A Raisin in the Sun." Their teacher, Mrs. Mary Henry, plans several more field trips, including one to see the classic of the American picture screen, "Gone With the Wind."

All year long the Student Council under the direction of the president, Mark Colbert, and sponsor, Mrs. Mary Ann Koon, has operated a school store containing all the necessary school supplies. It is operated at the convenience of the students both during lunch hours and before and after school. Proceeds are used to sponsor dances and other extracurricular activities.

The senior class sponsored two fairly successful slave days. The money collected will go in the class treasury for graduation activities.

Mrs. Louise Gore's fourth grade class held their own "Slave Day." The entire sum netted $20. Day. The sale went to the Little Red Schoolhouse. Don't let me miss are selfish these days.

Quarter exams are coming up on the school dockets within less than two weeks. Students will be busy next weekend cramming for all the important tests they must pass.

It is supposed to be a secret but the Junior Class picked the Tuppers as their representative to the State of Florida. This year's Junior-Senior Prom.

Think it but don't say it: No one has a big enough memory to be a good liar.

Rare Fish Displayed

CHICAGO (AP) — A living of land vertebrates that do not fit called a coelocanth, credited from the two-man team as harpooned off the Congo coast in the Indian Ocean south of Africa Aug. 25, 1967.

This rare specimen of prehistoric life is now on display at the Field Museum of Natural History.

"It is like finding dinosaurs in a day," said Field Museum's Dr. Karl F. Lam, assistant curator of vertebrate anatomy.

The 100-foot, 30-pound specimen was donated by the College of Medicine of the University of Illinois.

Lam said it is an amazing example of a creature that has evolutionary change in 200 million years. The coelocanth is the predecessor of the shark.

Happy Birthdays—Sanford Lodge No. 1241, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks! For it was on March 19, 1911 that this lodge, which has played a prominent role in the history of Sanford, was chartered. Let that date and those times live in memory or in the tales told by those who have lived the eventful 57 years since.

Throughout these decades the B.P.O.E. reflects in their records the march of events. Today the present Seminole County Courthouse stands as witness to the days when this was the lakeside front and a hand of Elks opened the drive which resulted in their clubhouse—now the courthouse—being constructed.

Sanford was very busy in trying to promote the canal and trying to make the best at Lake Monroe, being as we are located on it. This lake is some type of a religious attraction could also be used. It would seem Lake Monroe has many possibilities.

N.Y. Girl Works Math In Calif.

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight-year-old Ellen Rubinick sat down at an electric typewriter, pecked out her name and started doing arithmetic problems with a computer in California.

The seven Monday was P. B. 244 in Brooklyn as the board of education inaugurated what officials said was the nation's largest computerized instruction program in an elementary school system.

Ellen and her third-grade classmates are among 6,000 youngsters at 16 New York City schools who will use the new system which officials labeled a "breakthrough" in education.

The youngsters were also impressed but for different reasons. "It helps a kid to concentrate," said Ellen. "Now maybe the boy behind me won't have time to pull my hair."

As the children typed, their answers were fed to a computer system in Palo Alto, Calif., which approved the answer if correct or gave instructions to try again.

The cross country hookup is temporary. In a few weeks a new computer center will go to operation here and all the data will be handled locally.

The system was built and installed by RCA. It was made possible by a $2.5 million, three-year grant from the U. S. Office of Education.

One school official said the system "leaves the teacher free to give all his creativity to each child and not spend her time in the drudgery of drill and review."

The machine directs each typewriter at the time and therefore it can formulate the tests on the basis of past progress and allow the youngster to proceed at his or her own pace.

Civic Leader Appointed Vihlen Campaign Chief

C. L. Cooper, South Seminole civic leader, today was named county chairman for the Sid Vihlen campaign for the County Commission. Vihlen, a Democrat, is seeking the district five seat.

Cooper is president of the South Seminole Optimist Club, president of the Seminole Little League and president of the South Seminole Citizens Credit Union. He was the founder and heads the South Seminole Junior Deputy Sheriffs League. Cooper is a graduate of Florence State Teachers College in Florence, Ala., and attended the University of Tennessee engineering school. He is the superintendent of gas control for the Florida Gas Company. He resides in Casselberry, is married and has three children.

Poisoning Is Threat In Home

Accidental poisoning is a common threat around the home — a threat that becomes a tragedy to more than one-half million American children each year, a single County Health Director, Frank Leone advised today.

In connection with this week's observation of "Poison Prevention Week," Dr. Leone has released a series of articles relating to most common poisons found around the home.

"Since poisoning accidents involving children are mainly the result of adult carelessness, most could be avoided," he pointed out, emphasizing "Now is the time to learn what you can do to guard your family from a needless disaster."

He urges parents to keep all medicines and household chemicals out of the reach of children, warning that there were 90 cases of poisoning in Seminole County in 1967.

"Before using any potentially poisonous product, such as a pesticide, read the label, he stresses. "Follow all directions to the letter. And store the product in a safe place beyond the grasp of inquisitive young hands," he adds.

"Remember," the doctor warns, "many common household products ranging from aspirin to bug spray, are potentially dangerous to youngsters who don't understand their proper use."

Fence In The Baby

CHICAGO (AP) — "Don't let your baby be a fall guy."

This is the warning of a Chicago pediatrician in a nationwide campaign to stem the frequency of baby falls from cribs, adult beds or dressing tables.

Dr. Harvey Kravitz, an assistant professor in the Pediatrics Department of Northwestern University School of Medicine, has outlined the problem. He said the high incidence of "falls from high places" averages 47.3 per cent among first occurrences.

He said mothers should be warned about the dangers of falls, especially when the infant is unattended. Nursery furniture also could be redesigned to lessen the risk of a baby's rolling out of a crib.

Senator Smathers Pictures Demo Party In For Bloodletting

MIAMI (AP) — U.S. Sen. George F. Smathers said the "Democratic Party is in for a lot of bloodletting," and Secretary of State Dean Rusk may have drawn the first drop.

Smathers said Sen. Robert Kennedy's entry into the Presidential race "will be unswerving and decisive."

Although he pledged no support for Kennedy or any other candidate, Adams announced he had rejected an invitation to serve as a Democratic National Convention delegate "because of deep philosophical differences with the national administration."

Adams said he had been asked to serve on a Democratic

Chancellor Appointment Surprise To Gov. Kirk

TAMPA (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk, who has had his hand in university affairs before, apparently had no hint of the appointment of Dr. Robert Mautz as chancellor until it was a fact.

"That's news to me," said Kirk in response to reporters' questions in Fort Myers, where he is alleged to be a tour.

"No further comment," he added, when asked for his opinion of the high-level appointment.

The Florida Board of Regents voted its six-month search for a replacement of J. Howard Culpeper with a five-four, closed-door session in chairman Chester Fougusson's law offices.

Mautz, 33, is a scholar attorney who has held the $20,000-a-year post of University of Florida vice president for academic affairs. His name has been under consideration since last October.

J. Ferguson told newsmen the board obtained approval from the governor's office "although we did not get to him" and from state cabinet members.

Ferguson, secretary of state, attorney general, treasurer and school superintendent comprise the Board of Education, which must approve the appointment.

A source on the board said Kirk, who aligned with several members of the regents last fall in an effort to name Congressman Sydney Herling as president of the University of Wear A Chute, Fellahs Birds Are Flying... But Poorly!

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Baltimore Orioles have the American League pennant wrapped up.
The Orioles haven't exactly been a team in the opening stages of the baseball exhibition season, but after they haven't been getting up to the mark. Until today.
Monday, the club made a routine flight from Miami Fla. to St. Petersburg, Fla., for a game with the Chicago White Sox. At least it was as routine as a flight can be after the pilot announces that an engine has failed off.
Consequently it was an understandable minimum until the plane landed and, of course, the plane proceeded to get back on the ground. Their record now is 2-2.

In other games, Pittsburgh beat Detroit 7-3. Cincinnati took the New York Mets 5-2. Houston beat Oakland 6-4 in 11 innings. Los Angeles overcame Philadelphia 6-4 and the New York Yankees lost 2-3 to the Mexico City Reds in their 11th game in the series. The Orioles led barely led Miami when the pilot of the chartered DC7 noticed a runaway propeller on an engine and shut it off as a precautionary measure.

Philadelphia took a seven-run lead over St. Louis, but the Cards scored twice in the eighth and six unearned runs in the ninth to win. Johnny Briggs had the three-run homer for the Phils. Six of the Phillies runs also were unearned.
The Yanks got a pair of home runs from Andy Rosen and Phil Maffeo in a game with the Boston Braves. The Braves scored twice in the eighth and six unearned runs in the ninth to win. Johnny Briggs had the three-run homer for the Phils. Six of the Phillies runs also were unearned.

Braves Win First Behind Whigham Shots

The Sanford Junior High Braves opened their baseball season on a winning note Friday evening as they ventured to Leesburg to beat Leesburg Junior High, 12-4, behind the homer hitting of first baseman Tom Whigham.
Whigham went two for four at the plate but made hits count as he slammed two homers. His first round home run in the fifth inning was a two-run shot with two men on base to boost the Braves to a 3-0 lead.
Ronnie Nobles pitched the first four innings, gave up three hits and a knockout first while not walking the first player. He was relieved by Nick Brady who also struck out four while giving up only one hit.
Whigham's big inning was in the fifth when he pushed eight runs across and then added an insurance run in the sixth. Leesburg got their run in this inning, one in the fourth and three in the sixth.
Coach Ron Hunt played most of his reserves in the three innings and added experience to the club.
This afternoon the Braves will meet one of their toughest opponents when they take on Orlando Bishop Monday at the Brave Field. The game is scheduled to get underway at 4 p.m. with either Brady or Nobles on the mound.

Lyman's Hounds Break Hex By Beating Ocoee

In the second game Lyman Hounds broke the Ocoee Curse with a last inning surge spurred by Jamie Cornell's clutch triple.
Lyman's faltering diamond also finally broke their losing streak Saturday with a 4-4 win over the Ocoee Cardinals. The Greyhounds after dropping a hard fought 2-1 decision to Kissimmee Friday for their fourth loss of the season, rallied in the last inning Saturday afternoon to defeat the Cards.
In Friday's game Kissimmee drew first blood when shortstop Rob Moore singled, stole second, and scored on Allen O'Berry's double. From then on the starting two-hitter hurled by Kenny O'Dell was too much for Lyman.
The Koylows led 1-0 until the top of the sixth when Lyman left fielder Jim Lucas walked to first, stole second, and streaked home on pitcher Jimmie Hester's error. Then in the seventh inning the high pressure Kissimmee second baseman, Bill Chapman, scored the winning run by doubling. The underdog Lyman Hounds, however, were not to be denied. In the eighth inning, Lyman's slugger, Jamie Cornell, singled to center field.
