CALL ME KATO — Yes, I know Melville started his white book "I" at way but this is about dogs... I'm the guy all the fuss will be about tonight...
Excuse me, I hate to interrupt but let's keep this column dignified...
What could be more dignified than a four-legged German shepherd? ... Can I continue? Anyway, I still have not been subpoenaed for this civil service board meeting at 7 tonight... But I'll be sniffling around... I'm probably the key to the city's entire case... Listen carefully...
Before you start, can I mention a few things?...
People would rather listen to a talking dog than...
PLEASE — The Sanford Industrial Board is writing Gov. Kirk they don't want to retain the Naval Air Station... They want Kirk's cooperation to make the base an air oriented industrial park as well as regional jet port... As a matter of fact... there's a meeting in Orlando tonight in which Orlando Mayor Carl Langford will propose joint analysis study on expanding McCoy and utilizing NAS Sanford for freight, air mail...
Can I continue now...? I was Hickson's dog for some two years... He was paid about $50 a month to take care of me... I'd like to tell my story... Tonight, that is... You don't think I'm gonna let you try this case in the newspaper. Whatever would become of my image?...
Your image? I can see your image elsewhere on this page... Say, between Bill Hutchison and Gordon Frederick...
This morning a dog was hurt on San Carlos... A woman galled the Humane Society. They said call the police... the police said they don't handle it... and meanwhile the dog still lies in the gutter...
That's very interesting, but can I say a few more things before we run out of space? I've got some left over City Commission notes...
Put 'em in the story. I'll write the clock today...
Move over... The Fleet Reserve plans to be out of its building by Seminole Boulevard by July 1... Air conditioned Ten City set there... City fathers said "No" to Coast Guard Auxiliary using the facility... City Manager W. E. Knowles goes to New Orleans for a few days next month for conference on code enforcement...
One commissioner last night said "Give him $50 and a bus ticket"... Another commissioner chimed in: "What's the $50 for?"...
This is Kato again... Can I get my two cents in...? Bet you didn't know there will be one teacher from each school in Seminole going to Tallahassee tomorrow on this teacher crisis?...
At taxpayers' expense?... No, no, no. Schools will foot the bill. And if the House Education Bill 225 passes Seminole will get $2,362,580 for the 1967-69 biennium for general operating...
Will they cut the millage then?...
We're almost out of space so let's wrap this up... Police picked up three 12-year-old kids on the sniffling... Helpless to do anything about it... no laws on the books... Good to see County Judge Karlisle Housholder back in court again... Street broke up at 11th between Hickory and Locust... hole four feet in diameter... one and a half feet deep... Police and deputies investigating mass vandalism episode... some five or six phones ripped up along French Avenue... You can have the last word...
I'll have mine tonight!

Elrod Nixes Urban Renewal — Except As 'Emergency'

WEATHER: Cloudy and showers thru Wednesday.
VOL. 59 NO. 197 — AP Leased Wire — Established 1908 — TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1967 — SANFORD, FLORIDA — Price 10 Cents

Sanford City Commission today rejected a proposal to move the city's capital to the Naval Air Station (NAS) in Sanford, Fla., unless it is an emergency.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said that special "urban renewal" legislation is necessary if the "model city" program is to be pursued. Otherwise Sanford may as well forget its application for a "new approach" to the station by July 1968. It was pointed out that in addition to sufficient land area and buildings, the site also has a ready-made airport.

This morning Sen. Robert Elrod, chairman of the Seminole-Orange legislative delegation, said a "new approach" has been formulated in the proposal to move the capital to Central Florida.

"Legislation is being drafted," he said, "that a feasibility study be conducted by the Florida Development Commission and report back to the 1969 Legislature."

He added one point in the criteria will be the need for tax-exempt land "and there is plenty of that at Sanford Naval Air Station." On the other hand, he stated that no one piece of correspondence has been received from the Sanford area promoting the use of the base area as a capital site.

"Sanford is missing a bet," the lawmaker said.

Seminole County Port Authority's legislation earmarking race track funds in the amount of $600,000 was given a "boost" today when the House local government committee reported favorably on the bill and placed it on the House calendar for consideration, according to Rep. Jan Fortna.

The measure would earmark a part of the county's race track tax allocation for the purpose to serve as collateral for a $900,000 loan from the state to build a race track at the site of the old Sanford race track. The bill also would provide for the construction of a grandstand and other facilities. The bill also would provide for the construction of a grandstand and other facilities.

Port Gets Boost; Committee Okays NAS Annexation

TALLAHASSEE (Sp.) — Capital corridor light vein gossip about "move the state capital to Sanford Naval Air Station" began to take on a serious note here today.

When proponents of the move-the-capital-to-Central Florida proposition first bronched the subject, some Capitol wags suggested the Navy base at Sanford since the Navy will be phasing out the station by July 1968. It was pointed out that in addition to sufficient land area and buildings, the site also has a ready-made airport.

Hickson Hearing Set Tonight

Police Chief Ben Butler received a resounding vote of confidence by the City Commission last night, Butler, who was certified by the Civil Service Board last week, was put on "permanent" status.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham, who made the motion, complimented the chief for his handling of the department since he was named to replace Arnold Williams some three months ago.

The normal procedure is for a chief to serve one year on an acting temporary status. Butler's appointment comes on the eve of the Joe Hickson dismissal case set before the City Commission tonight at 7 at City Hall.

Hickson was ousted from the department in late March for conduct unbecoming an officer, negligence of duty and improper care of his police canine "Kato."

Indications are an all-out battle between Hickson's attorney Gordon Frederick and the city will start tonight with the calling of some 12-15 witnesses.

Representing the city will be William Hutchison.

Hickson was accused of public intoxication and threatening two subordinate officers. He had been with the force for 18 years.

Sunland Urges Lake Cleanup

Charging Lake Wildwood in Sunland Estates constitutes "a health hazard, is a breeding place for mosquitoes, is an eyesore and violates state law" members of the Sunland Estates Improvement Association appeared before the County Commission this morning demanding something be done to clean up the lake.

Thomas Freeman, association attorney, after stating "ownership carries with it responsibility" reminded the Commission that the Lake Wildwood property of the county and urged the county "set a good example for other property owners by taking care of your property and eliminating this public nuisance."

He pointed out the lake is overgrown with water hyacinths and cattails and "the safety of neighborhood children is a grave concern. We are tired of waiting, we want something done before someone gets hurt. If a child should fall into the lake, he would drown before he could be found."

When J. C. Lavender, county superintendent remarked, "That will never be a permanent lake." Freeman answered, "Then fill it in."

The board agreed to investigate the problem fully before decision on proper action to be taken.

In other business, the board authorized County Attorney Harold Johnson to notify the developer of St. Johns River Estates the time has elapsed for completion of the roads in the subdivision and notify the bonding company as well. "It looks like the St. Johns River Estates roads are right back in the Commission's laps," the Commission Chairman John Alexander stated.

Instructed the county engineer and superintendent to prepare a report on the problem of the water hyacinths in Bear Gulch Lake as presented by Col. Raymond A. Seifer.

Requested the county attorney to investigate and make recommendations of the proper course of action on request from W. J. Garnett that a park in Flamingo Springs Subdivision on U.S. 17-92, across from platted area off the Longwood-Longwood Plaza be returned to his ownership.

Accepted Virginia Drive and Forest Slopes into the road area as well as the street paving and drainage in Eastbrook, Unit 12.

Ordered emergency maintenance on 300 feet of Blackwood Drive in Rolling Hills and 600 feet of Brooks Lane.

Deferred action on a request for road construction approval prior to a plat recording for development of some 52 acres near English Estates School by SR 435 and at the same time turned down a request for road construction approval in an un-platted area off the Longwood-Longwood Plaza be returned to his ownership.

Chamber Sets 'Coffee' At College Thursday

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club will meet in the library of Seminole Junior College with Dr. Earl S. Waldon as host on Thursday at 9:10 a.m.

Cars will leave the chamber building at 9:10 for the coffee, orange juice and doughnut session which will be a first visit to the college for some of the coffee clubbers.

A space will be reserved for visitor parking, and all chamber members and heads of new business firms in the area are invited.

Guests of honor will be the Board of Seminole County Commissioners.

County Waters 'Satisfactory'

The waters of the lakes of Seminole County which are used to any extent for swimming purposes have been found "satisfactory," County Sanitarian Val Robbins told The Herald today.

Period checks for contamination are made of the lakes, according to Robbins. "And public pools are checked monthly."

There are no current plans to do tests of the St. Johns or Wekiva Rivers. However, the St. Johns is not considered suitable for swimming purposes.

Monday's Brief Rainfall — It Came Too Late!

Monday afternoon's rainfall was welcome but came too late to save a goodly part of Seminole County's parched crops, in the opinion of growers.

Seminole Agriculture Center registered .7 of an inch of rain while Central Florida Experiment Station recorded .52 of an inch yesterday afternoon and evening.

"Cabbage and corn were too far gone for the rain to do them any good," said Dr. Gerald Greene, assistant entomologist at the experiment station.

"Too, we have been informed that next year's citrus crop has been severely damaged, young fruit already dropping for lack of moisture."

Governor Will Boycott FEA Sanctions Meeting

Democrats Scuttle GOP S Bill

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A proposed $1.350 billion general appropriation bill offered by Republicans—and heavily by Democrats—will die Monday and legislators turned to the Democratic version.

The Democratic bill totals $1,226 million.

Defeat of the GOP bill came in a 50-46 vote after nearly five hours of sometimes heated debate which saw House Speaker Ralph Turington blast the GOP proposal as "politically deceitful proposal."

A similar fate last week befell the Republican party's $1,283 billion 1967-68 proposal in the Senate, where it was beaten in strictly partisan voting, and Democratic leaders accused GOP senators of similar deceit.

"This employs the concept that we should stay within our income and not listen to agency heads who want more money than they can spend," said Rep. Donald Reed, R-Boca Raton in defense of the bill that took over two hours.

The Republican bill was an omnibus proposal patterned after the Senate GOP measure which included teacher pay raises which Democrats plan to consider later.

Turington, D-Gainesville, said it was "an economy package that is not an economy package" and called it a "tax on means, tax on milk, the elimination of free textbooks and the increasing of fees on junior college students."

"Florida's free educational system is not free. The whole question is who is going to pay for it," said Reed.

One of the Democrats who spoke for the GOP budget was Rep. George Stallings, D-Jacksonville who said he was against further "tax-itis" which has hit his home county of Duval.

Though it was in session an hour longer than usual Monday, the Senate cleared only a few items.

However, one of them was a major one—the historic code of ethics for senators and lobbyists. The code was written into the Senate rules after approval by voice vote.

The rules go into effect immediately.

The Senate also approved a concurrent resolution praising Mrs. Nell P. Foster Rogers of Gainesville, the well-known "blonde girl," who has attended legislative sessions for nearly three decades as a self-styled spokesman for the "little people."

Senators then got locked in a lengthy debate over a controversial "strip count" bill aimed at cutting down on the taking of small shrimp in Florida waters, and amended a House-passed measure on it. It now goes back to the House.

Earlier in the day, various legislators discussed the possibilities of votes from Republican Gov. Claude Kirk of appropriations measures.

Senate Minority Leader Bill Young of Pinellas Park said he thinks Kirk will veto any bill where spending exceeds expected income.

Rep. Henry Land, D-Tallahassee, said in a news conference that he followed "young" that Florida "might as well face up to" the fact that new taxes will be required to meet state needs despite Kirk's no-new-taxes pledge.

He virtually accused Kirk of absenteeism, saying that "I do not recall any governor who has stayed out of office as much as the present governor." In past years, he said, "The governor has been available when you needed him."

In a newsletter to constituents, Rep. Lou Wolfson Jr., D-Miami Beach, said he is threatening to "throw the state into chaos" by vetoing any legislative appropriations bill.

Shah To Visit COPENHAGEN (AP)—An underground radio station went on the air Monday night calling for donations to the Viet Cong and demonstrations against the visit of U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk to Denmark June 15-16.

Protest LONDON (AP)—Red China delivered a strong oral protest to British today over what it called continued atrocities by British in Hong Kong.

PROCLAMATION declaring May 26-27 Poppy Days in Casselberry is signed by Mayor Arthur Wheatley as Cathy Casselberry, junior member of American Legion Auxiliary Memorial Unit 256, presents him with the first poppy.

Middle East War Threat Heightens

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A few hours before Nasser announced he would block the Gulf of Aqaba, State Department officials told editors and broadcasters that a foreign policy briefing that the United States would consider the closing of the waterway a very serious matter.

Kirk, dressed in a dark blue suit, with blue shirt and red tie, said he would not discuss the question of the Gulf of Aqaba for about 45 minutes. The news conference was part of a new program initiated by the FEA. "I'm not referring to the great majority of teachers," he said.

He said that in many discussions over education, "I fail to hear the word child being mentioned. Let's use the word child. We've got to be child-centered in our demands."

Asked what he would do if the FEA imposed state-wide sanctions, Kirk replied, "I'll meet with the teachers and people in the world is going to go on, we're going to have education, teachers, industry."

Kirk, dressed in a dark blue suit, with blue shirt and red tie, said he would not discuss the question of the Gulf of Aqaba for about 45 minutes. The news conference was part of a new program initiated by the FEA.

Through there has been some rain, South Florida drought-stricken areas have not received enough and he is disappointed over the slow pace with which he said state and federal agencies have responded to the emergency.

"We're trying to get out of the situation. I'm concerned we can't get federal agencies and state moving when we have dead cattle . . . what's it going to be like when we have more dead cattle . . . what's it going to be like when we have more dead cattle . . . what's it going to be like when we have more dead cattle . . ."

He said water pits have been dug for cattle in some 18 counties, but again, the water pits are not being dug fast enough. Kirk said he was not sure if the federal defense personnel did not continue the pit-digging project on Sunday.

He intends to promote a "lights on for safety" program for the Memorial Day weekend in an effort to cut down on traffic deaths in Florida.

Chicago probably won't have its massive McCormick Place convention hall repaired in time for fire damage and this puts Miami Beach in an even better competitive position for getting one or both of the national political conventions next year.

Florida never has had "a major-major convention" and one drawback, as indicated by the recent gubernatorial visit to Chicago, is the lack of adequate facilities—particularly for "booth facilities."

Competition for the national political convention has hotted down between Miami Beach, Houston and Chicago. He doesn't know if the proposed branch banking bill defeated 43 by a subcommittee Monday night, would be a "re-lease" to Florida Millionaire Ed Ball, but that he favors a branch banking provision for large, growth centers.

"One of the problems is making available lines of credit that compete with other states," Kirk said, drawing on his experience as a banker.

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. Claude Kirk said in firm tones he won't attend tomorrow's special meeting of the militant Florida Education Association and, in a widely publicized, indicated support of a bond program with an increase in the gas tax—if the people approve.

"I'm not going to be summoned to any meeting by anybody," said the Republican Governor of the FEA meeting.

The FEA, pressing its educational demands before the Florida Legislature, set the session tomorrow during weekend holidays and strongly suggested that Kirk and legislative leaders be there to discuss their views of education.

"It's strange indeed, the aversion of the FEA," and told newsmen mail received in his office indicates strongly that "when I see FEA I'm not referring to the great majority of teachers."

He said that in many discussions over education, "I fail to hear the word child being mentioned. Let's use the word child. We've got to be child-centered in our demands."

Asked what he would do if the FEA imposed state-wide sanctions, Kirk replied, "I'll meet with the teachers and people in the world is going to go on, we're going to have education, teachers, industry."

"We need branch banking in the non-populous areas. There is strong reason for not having it in the non-populous areas," Kirk said.

He will review all appropriations bills passed by the Legislature "item by item" on the basis of whether they "represent the needs, requests of Florida," but won't commit himself on his veto plans.

"We have to have a total balance budget," Kirk said, however. So far, Democratic-proposed budgets are balanced, but call items for additional legislation on such items as teacher pay raises that will boost total expenditures beyond estimated revenues for 1967-68.

Commiss Observe Truce

SARAGON (AP)—A 24-hour truce for Buddha's birthday prevailed over much of Vietnam today, but the U.S. Command said 10 Americans were killed and 17 wounded in Communist attacks since the allied ceasefire went into effect at midnight Monday.

The U.S. Command also announced that in the 24 hours preceding Buddha's birthday, three American planes were downed over North Vietnam and two over South Vietnam, while U.S. fighters shot down another Communist MIG. Four American pilots were listed as missing.

A U.S. spokesman said aerial reconnaissance reports were not yet available to indicate whether the North Vietnamese were taking advantage of the truce to increase their movement of supplies to South Vietnam as they have done in the past truce periods.

The allied stand-off is to end at midnight Monday EDT. The Communist forces had announced they would observe a 48-hour truce ending at 7 a.m. Wednesday local time, or 7 p.m. EDT tonight.

The U.S. Command said that in the 12 hours of the one-day allied truce, 21 incidents were reported, with a dozen of them considered "significant."

In the worst, a platoon patrol of the 10th Airborne Division was fired on in Quang Nam Province early today and a firefight followed in which six Americans were killed and nine wounded. Whether this was a Red violation of the truce depended on whether the U.S. patrol was considered offensive or defensive.

Several other incidents were clear violations—such as the mortaring of a U.S. command post and the machine-gunning of a village militia post, and grenades buried into night bivouacs of small units.

The center was opened in 1965, and is classified as an "open institution"—without fences or gates. Browning said some patients have mental illness but that retardation, if any, is usually mild.

Browning said the two boys were leaders of a youthful gang that had formed at the closed section of the State Children's Hospital and threatened other patients and attendants.

The youngsters were moved into a cottage several days ago, Browning said, so they could receive group therapy. But they failed to respond favorably and became more vocal in their threats, Browning said.

At that point, the director said, he decided the two boys should be placed in the truck body.

"We cannot tolerate violence here," Browning said.

More Rain Seen; Tornadoes Hurt 4

MIAMI (AP)—Three tornadoes, thunderstorms, hail and the first drizzling statewide rain in months have been generated by the weather system that ended Florida's drought.

The Weather Bureau in Miami sounded an all-clear last Monday night after a five-hour tornado alert was posted over central and north Florida.

More thunderstorms were forecast for extreme north and west Florida through midday Tuesday. Small craft warnings were up on both coasts by 10:30 a.m. today.

"I think everybody got it Monday," said a forecaster. "These points that didn't get it will probably have rain today."

By 7 p.m. Monday rainfall was measured at 2.82 inches in Tallahassee, 3.54 inches in Gainesville, 50 inches in Jacksonville, 70 inches in Pensacola, 30 inches at Ocala. The heaviest rain was the four inches marked at Eagle Lake near Lakeland.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Miami said that the rain was a relief to the drought-stricken areas. "I think everybody got it Monday," said a forecaster.

Several other incidents were clear violations—such as the mortaring of a U.S. command post and the machine-gunning of a village militia post, and grenades buried into night bivouacs of small units.

The center was opened in 1965, and is classified as an "open institution"—without fences or gates. Browning said some patients have mental illness but that retardation, if any, is usually mild.

Browning said the two boys were leaders of a youthful gang that had formed at the closed section of the State Children's Hospital and threatened other patients and attendants.

The youngsters were moved into a cottage several days ago, Browning said, so they could receive group therapy. But they failed to respond favorably and became more vocal in their threats, Browning said.

At that point, the director said, he decided the two boys should be placed in the truck body.

"We cannot tolerate violence here," Browning said.

'I Was Wrong,' Says Man Who Locked Up Boys

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—"I have to admit I was wrong," said the man who ordered two mentally retarded boys locked up for 17 hours in an abandoned truck body.

The admission of error came as investigators probed records and talked to patients at Sandway Training Center in Dade County. The findings from the investigation were scheduled to be aired today at a meeting of the State Cabinet.

Center Director John Browning, in admitting he was wrong, said the center had 380 patients ranging in age from six to 60 and has no detention facilities.

The old truck body, a quarter of a mile away from the center's main area, was used to house a military explosion between Israel and the Arab nations in the Middle East.

A White House spokesman said Monday that this government has been in touch with all parties concerned in the Middle East dispute. But press secretary George Christian would neither confirm nor deny that the President had urged the Soviets to help head off a conflict.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright said in advance of a scheduled appearance by Rusk today at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that he fears an outbreak in the Middle East might find the United States overextended militarily because of Vietnam.

The State Department said Monday that the United States stands behind a 1950 guarantee of territorial integrity in the Middle East.

"What are we going to do in an interview. I think it's a very dangerous situation. When you get to using violence and threatening violence, anything can happen."

"The Arkansas Democrat is asking what action, if any, the Johnson administration may take to try to bring the United Nations into the Vietnam conflict."

200 Missing, 13 Dead In Blaze

RUSSELLS (AP)—Aron was suspected today as the cause of a Brussels department store fire in which some 200 persons were reported missing. At least 13 persons were known dead.

Fire brigade officers said 100 persons were injured. A spokesman for the store said the list of the missing, both customers and store employees, was still growing. It was feared it would be the world's worst fire since 323 persons were killed in a circus fire in Niteroi, Brazil, Dec. 17, 1961.

The fire raged through the five-story Innovation department store at the peak of Monday's mid-afternoon shopping crush.

It quickly engulfed the steel and concrete structure and burned out the entire block of buildings.

Pierre Balle, vice president of the store, said the fire broke out simultaneously at opposite corners of the building on the first and third floors. He said the whole building was in flames in 10 or 15 minutes. A police officer spoke of other scrambling over each other. Some were lying on the floor. We managed to evacuate a number of people by ladders.

"The basement, ground floor, first and second floor were evacuated in relative calm," said Balle. "But it was very different with the upper floors. The people were out of their minds," said one fireman, "running wildly in all directions, scrambling over each other. Some were lying on the floor. We managed to evacuate a number of people by ladders."

Land Lambasts Governor Kirk

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Sanctions threats touched off new legislative criticism of the Florida Education Association today as the House started lengthy debate on its general appropriations bill.

House Appropriations Committee Chairman Henry Land (D-Tangerine), cautioned the FEAA to "tread lightly."

Land, in commenting on the nine-billion House appropriations package which totals $388 million above revenue estimates, said the state "might as well get up" to the need for new taxes despite Republican Gov. Claude Kirk's pledge against them.

"I don't think there's a member of the Legislature that in his heart thinks we can take care of the needs of the state without some new taxes," he said.

The veteran Democrat, now serving his sixth term, from Seminole-Orange, also criticized Kirk for absenteeism and lack of executive leadership.

"I don't recall any Governor who has stayed out of his office as much as the present Governor," he said, adding that "legislation is something that should be of executive concern."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You printed a letter from a teen-age girl who was "embarrassed" to show in the nude with 20 other girls after gym class. She said her mother thought she should have more privacy. And you sided with the girl and her mother. Abby, it is a safe assumption that exaggerated feelings are a cover-up for opposite feelings which shame a person into lurching these pull-feelings deeply in their sub-conscious—the better to hid themselves.

course, they could be normal, and so are you, but I would never faintly state, simply because a teen-age girl objected to public showering, and her mother supported her in her objection, that they both need treatment.

DEAR ABBY: I just received the following letter from a sister-in-law who is old enough to know better: "I am writing to thank you for the card and gift you sent for Jimmy's birthday. I think it was nice of you to interrupt him and get into his grousing, and to tell him that he was wrong. It was a great idea. I have something to say about this related business. Once in a while I can understand a slip-up in the mails, or a momentary lapse of memory, but each and every time you send something late, you are pushing a person's tolerance a little further. I feel it is better to rely on my family or an occasional neighbor to get it here on time and it will be appreciated. I am writing to you to let you know that I am not a patient person."

DEAR ABBY: I was stumped. What would you do about such a letter? PITTSBURGH: I would send it sister-in-law a "get well" card. She's sick.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is certainly one of the days when it is necessary for you to use much self-control and to refuse to say or to be talked into making any commitments that can be objected to by those with whom you have any contact whatever. You would be wise not to correspond to more any changes of an important nature.

ARIES: (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) It is better that you easey through with what has been tried and is found true, be it in business or personal matters, than to dash off to the alien. Be loyal to old friends. Old friends are present.

TAURUS: (Apr. 20 to May 20) Analyze well your true position with others but don't go about telling others, criticizing, etc. Stop being so unrelenting with one you love, which is more understanding.

GEMINI: (May 21 to June 21) Be more willing to support partners instead of being overly critical, otherwise you may be faced with a severance of connections. Be more understanding.

MOON CHILDREN: (June 22 to July 21) Many duties are ahead of you, but it is best to shoulder most of them instead of helping others in a social way, or expecting co-workers to do your work. Be more understanding.

LEO: (July 22 to Aug. 23) Forgetting one's pleasure to see what you can do to make others happy around you is a fine trait, but do not let it get in the way of your own life. Be more understanding.

VIRGO: (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Make it your duty to assist those at home in new ways instead of dishing out thoughts ready to be accepted as truth. Be more understanding.

LIBRA: (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) If you study to know more of your own life, you can get ahead much faster in the future. Be more understanding.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Have more concern with respect to financial matters and take care you do not neglect present security by any harsh word, surely action regarding others. Your hunch regarding some property affairs is correct. Do not follow it.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Take care you do not permit that unhappy feeling to cause you to act in a hasty manner when you go out socially. Be particularly polite and charming with others instead. Get ahead that way.

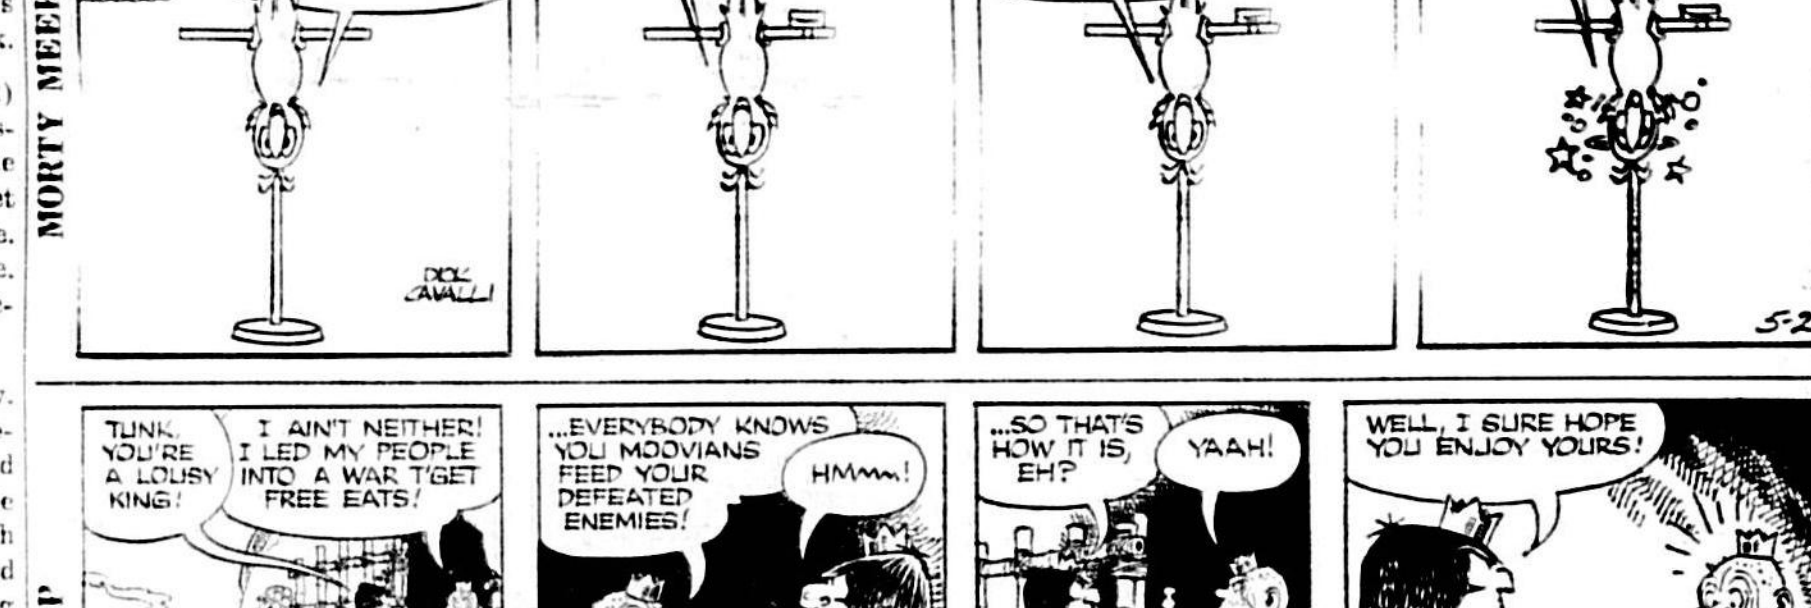

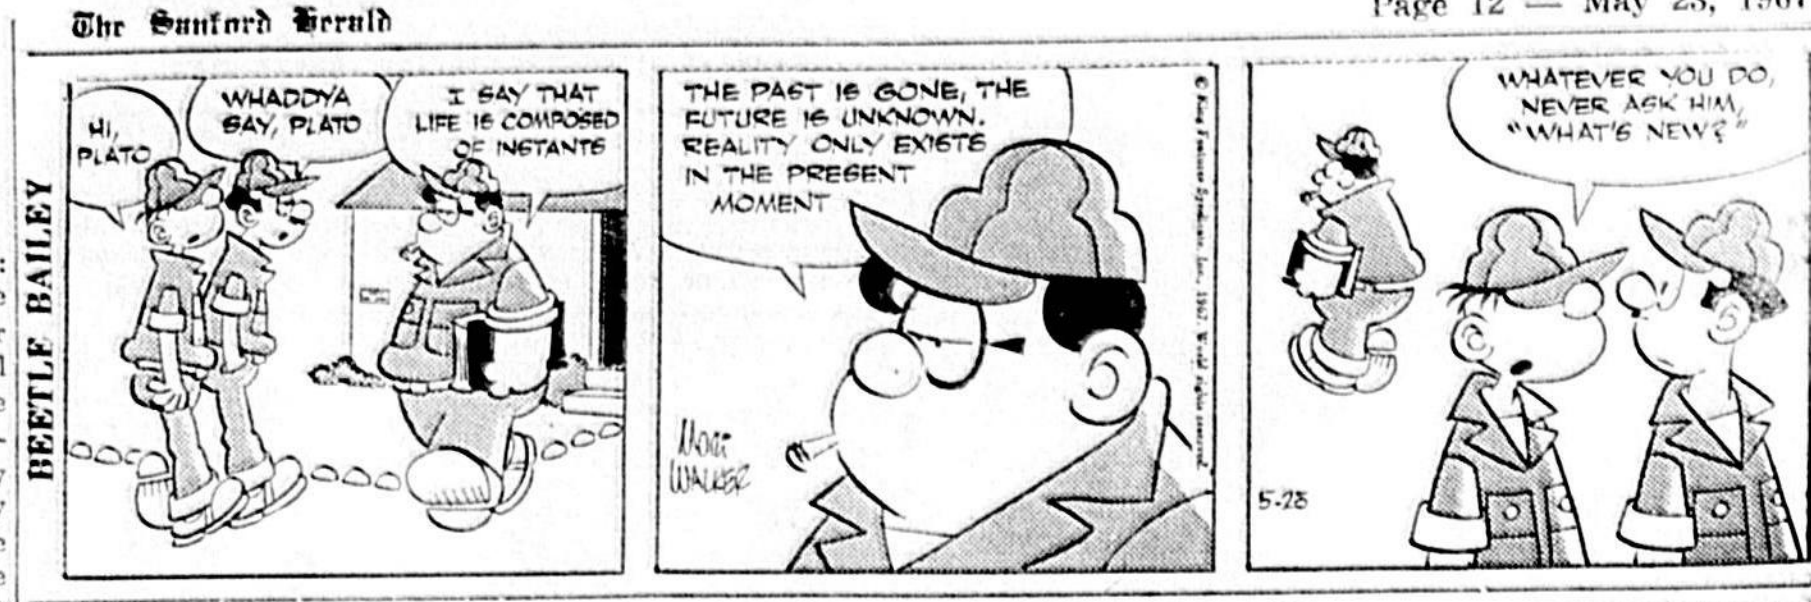

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are in a state of depression if you do not start to think constructively, know that there is a right solution. Stop clear of violating confidence. Keep your purse zipped.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 21 to Feb. 17) Do not enter into those discussions with good will right now, since they will fail to understand your motives. The social is not good at this time if an affair is unavoidable, use diplomacy.

PISCES: (Feb. 18 to Mar. 20) Use of diplomacy is important in dealing with those in official capacity otherwise you will find backing that is what. Enter into some civic matter that improves your image with the public in general. Keep busy.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY: he or she will be one of those interesting young people who think that success is only to be found in distant places, and this view, varying philosophies, etc.

What you make of your life is largely up to YOU! Carroll Righter's Horoscope Forecast for your sign for June is now ready. For your copy write to: Carroll Righter, 1921, Hollywood St., California.

Jacoby On Bridge

Jacoby and Son

Here is a hand from H. W. Kealey's book, "Killing Defense at Bridge," which shows how a defender can and should count a hand. We are going to use our own card "ARCH" to illustrate East's thinking.

East Analyzes the hand. He notes that it surely is a sub-optimal. He reviews the bidding and notes that South should hold exactly five hearts. South holds two hearts. East decides that in all probability he holds three cards in each major and diamonds. East Counts his winners. A club and a ruff are two tricks, his king of hearts will be a third trick.

East asks himself, "How can we beat this hand?" He needs to find another trick in his partner's hand. What can spades? That trick will keep a spade. West sees that if he gives his partner an immediate club ruff that the king of spades will never make a trick because South will have time to draw trumps, after East makes his king, and discard any losing spades on dummy's side long club suit.

East thinks a little while longer. If South happens to hold the king-jack, doubtless in spades East will have time to draw trumps, after East makes his king, and discard any losing spades on dummy's side long club suit.

that trick? It can be the ace of diamonds. If it is, then the trick will never get away. Suppose it is the ace of

They got into the greeting card and social stationery business almost by accident. David was art director for almost every publication at William and Mary College. He attended the Art Students League. Later, he painted scenery for Broadway.

Margery Forer is a very definite personality, just over the way shows; then off to the war, he became an officer on a sub-chaser. He lost his hearing but returned home with nine battle stars, as a lieutenant, senior grade. He then went to work at Disneyland Studios.

His wife Margery is a most creative woman. She was a bomb producer at Columbia. He took over the studio as head of all-hush-and-hush father thought she was making sandwiches at the school. Then she took up a career as a fashion editor with Foot wear fashion news. All this prepared her for the interesting career with her husband.

The Forers designed beautiful cards, very special ones. It came about when David designed a Christmas card that everyone began saying, "You should go into the business."

Florida State Bank, already holding the title of the most automated bank of its size in the State of Florida, expanded its computer services Friday to include checking accounts for the State Bank of Haines City. A whole section of the second floor is currently used for the IBM machines handling the computer work at the bank and space is available in the section for the further expansion of the facilities to take place over the next year. Magnetic tape units to replace the card system in use today are scheduled to arrive and be put into operation this week. Following installation of the card punch system more than two years ago, accounts for checking and savings accounts were done through the system. Bulls, Bears Gambol

AP Business Analyst NEW YORK (AP)—Amidst the playful gamboling of bulls and bears on Wall Street is a reality growing but behaves as a bull. It is the short trader. Some say he is bullish, others insist he is bearish. He is a hybrid, a bull in bear's clothing or a bear in mind but a bull in shape. In the past month the number of shares traded short has risen to 14,896,372, the highest figure on record, prompting a lot of analysts to question what it all adds up to. This figure means that traders have bet that many shares on a declining market. It means that close to 15 million shares have been borrowed and sold in the expectation of falling prices. So, where's the profit to be made? Simply by waiting until the price drops and then purchasing shares of the same stock. This stock is then returned to the lender in place of that borrowed capital. A transaction such as this could mean that a stock borrower sold at 95¢ could be purchased later and returned to the lender at 80¢.

Smith Sets Sights On New Dash Record

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Tomie Smith, who broke the 100-yard dash world record Saturday, said he has his sights on about the only sport mark he doesn't hold—the 100-yard dash. "I think I can get the 100-yard record in the near future," Smith said after his record setting race. "But I'm not setting a race. When the exact date will be." Smith, wearing sunglasses, roared down the stretch of the track. England based her claim to the mainland of North America on the explorations of John Sebastian Cabot.
