brought in to go all out next week and Saturday to come up with the money. With the wonderful offer made by the Pirates it is hard to see how we can miss it if this small group here tonight is willing to work and come up with the cash needed." Kridler, who has seen many rough seasons here with the local clubs, feels that five thousand dollars would be sufficient to start the season and give plenty of room to take care of any situation that might come up during the season. "Back in the days when Sanford enjoyed many wonderful seasons here, the town was much smaller and we were still able to come out, so with the greatly increased population it is hard to see how we could fall if the people prove, in the next few days, that they really want baseball back again. "If we want it let's show it and let not let the club be up as a good try and forget about it."

Kridler introduced Fred Hering, Southeastern Scouting Superintendent for the Pittsburgh Pirates, who outlined the very outstanding full working agreement that his club is anxious to place here. Hering presented a full agreement in a package deal that would more than top any offer that has ever been made in this league. He assured the group that the Pirates would furnish a fine supply of outstanding coaches as well as a Manager and several seasons of veterans. Hering stated that "the Pirates have expressed a wish to place a class D club here in Sanford above all other towns that have come up as prospects." He feels that the facilities here are top for a club and it would give the Pirates an opportunity to find plenty of baseball talent around the central part of the state. He stated that "I have never recalled an occasion that a club has dropped out of the league because of mis-understandings with the Pirates on a working agreement." "With the possibility of one of the Pirates class-C clubs dropping out this season it should re-assure this city of an abundant supply of young talent that could boost a club through a very fine season." All that you are asking of you here is that you will show that you are willing to work and support a club and the Pirates will go all out to bring a fine ball club here."

Kridler stated at the climax of the meeting, "Why not set a deadline to create interest—by Saturday."

"I will contact several people who might be interested and if they are we can go on from there," he said.

Kridler said that if anyone is interested "I can be contacted so that plans can be furthered for additional meetings and plans."

Schaal said, "Let's show now that we are ready to turn on the lights at the Sanford Memorial Stadium this coming April 11 by expressing your interest in a local baseball club."

Employment

Representatives of the Central Florida office of the Florida State Employment have come to Sanford weekly to take unemployment claims and to distribute checks. They have used the second floor of the city hall for this purpose. "This will be an excellent opportunity for homeowners to secure domestic help," Kridler stated yesterday when the announcement of the new local office was made. "and, of course, it will be a tremendous value to new industries locating here and eventually expanding."

WAYNE D. OVERHOLSER'S new Western thriller DESPERATE MAN

Nothing different than what I measured. "Put your horse in the shed," he said. "You've got a pot of mulligan on the stove. It'll be ready to eat before long." I put my horse in the shed behind the schoolhouse, next to the store. When I returned, he opened the door, calling out in his cheerful way, "Come in." He lived in this single room behind the store. The kitchen was on one side with a range and shelves that were filled with canned goods and stacks of food and dishes. A table and two rickety wooden chairs were in the middle of the room, and a bed was on the other side, with a rocking chair beside it. The room was in the valley claimed by the mountains under the floor. That may or may not have been true, but one thing was sure; he was an old man who lived in a austere life and he'd go on living it as long as he was alive. He stirred the mulligan, crowning it with a dollop of butter, and pushed the dish of mulligan at me. "There is an image of God in every man, and we should try to see it, but with men like Ryan and the Toll it's hard to do. Ryan was a poor man to start with. I knew him years ago in Wyoming when he was just a little rancher. We had had hard times and he'd come to me after that, nothing could stop him. Seven years after he was bankrupt, he bought the bank and fired everyone who had been working for him. I had all men as his enemies except those who work for him." Editor Says Government Secrecy 'Suffocatingly' Widespread WASHINGTON (UP)—A prominent editor hit at government secrecy today as "suffocatingly" widespread.

J. Russell Wiggins, vice-president and executive editor of The Washington Post and Times-Herald, called for legislation to shield the people's "right to know." He supported a measure requiring government agencies to give out information unless empowered legally to withhold it.

The bill would prevent agencies from using the so-called government "housekeeping" law as justification for denying information to the public. Passed by the First Congress in 1789, the law provides for maintenance and use of government documents.

A spokesman for the American Civil Liberties Union, Irving Ferman, in more testimony prepared for the opening of hearings on the bill said it was "almost shocking" that all 10 government departments have opposed the bill. The hearings are being conducted by a House government information subcommittee.

Space flights seen Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson said the United States is on the threshold of more "exciting developments" in space. He said there were "practical plans on drawing boards for reconnaissance satellites, manned satellites and eventually space ships."

Johnson is expected to head a 13-member special Senate Committee on Outer Space to determine whether a civilian or military agency should plan the nation's drive to explore the unknown to the moon and planets.

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) said it is "high time" the government takes note of danger signals in the economy and acts to prevent a "serious" depression. He said the nation has the "strength, resources, programs and experience to prevent such a catastrophe."

Tax Cut Urged

At the same time, 20 state chambers of commerce urged Congress to chop income and corporate taxes to lift the economy out of its slump. A spokesman, Clarence D. Laylin of Columbus, Ohio, recommended cutting back the rates 1 to 9 per cent immediately and eventually scaling back the maximum income tax from the present 91 per cent to 60 per cent.

Romance rang through Capitol Hill corridors. Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R-N.D.) said he has two new girls on the string if his plans don't materialize to marry a Chile blonde divorcee who is inher 30s. Burdick, who is going to be, said "I'd almost get married to anyone. I've been alone long enough."

Other congressional news:

Speaker Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission told the Joint Atomic Energy Committee a National outer space program was a "must." But he declined to say whether his agency should direct the nation's non-military space travel planning.

Defeated: The House completed legislative action on an emergency bill providing $1,000,000,000 in extra funds for missiles and other space-age defense projects.

Both houses also approved a companion measure authorizing expenditures of $540,000,000 of the funds contained in the money bill.

Dulles: Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) made a rare foreign policy speech defending Secretary of State John Foster Dulles against a surveillance bill providing $1,000,000,000 in extra funds for missiles and other space-age defense projects.

McLeod Campaigning For Divided State

Chairman Needed For Local Jaycee Safety Committee

We are searching for a chairman for the Safety Committee, M. L. Raborn Jr., president of the Sanford-Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce, told Jaycee members yesterday at the weekly luncheon meeting.

"As soon as we find a chairman for the committee," Raborn said, "we will be ready to set a date for the first meeting."

The local Jaycees are planning to head up, as a club project, the organization of a safety committee to study traffic and highway problems existing now.

Members of the committee will be chosen from the various civic clubs and other interested organizations of the community.

Interest was aroused among members of the local Jaycee organization when Sgt. Ben Butler of the Sanford Police Department recently spoke to the members and demonstrated some of the police department's equipment. "We really need an effective safety committee," Butler told the Jaycees and "I know of no better organization than the Jaycees to create such a group."

Krider Going To D. C. In Behalf Of County

MIAMI (UP)—Dele County Commissioner John McLeod said today he is "deadly serious" about his campaign to split Florida in half and make south Florida a 49th state.

And the peppery commissioner says he will call a convention in the near future of officials from 36 south and central Florida counties to work out the details. The new state would include the bulk of the state's wealth and population.

McLeod raised eyebrows recently when he proposed that south Florida "secede" from north Florida because of unfair representation in the Legislature and a tax setup which sends much of the money collected in the booming southern resort cities going to support virtually tax-free northern counties. But nobody took him seriously at that time. That is, nobody but McLeod himself.

McLeod Thursday offered a tentative boundary of the new "state" which would slice Florida in two in what is considered north Florida.

His boundary would include all the counties south of and including Citrus, Marion, Alachua, Putnam and St. Johns.

Thus the new state would be comprised of the bulk of the agricultural, industrial and resort areas of Florida, including Greater Miami, Tampa - St. Petersburg, Orlando, West Palm Beach, Daytona Beach and St. Augustine. It would include the rich citrus belt of central Florida and the vegetable growing areas of south Florida.

Stassen's Future Discussed

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower meets with Harold E. Stassen today with reports persisting the presidential disarmament advisor is about to quit to enter Pennsylvania's race for governor.

But Stassen, when asked in advance of the conference if he already had submitted his resignation, replied:

"No, I haven't."

However, Stassen declined to comment whether he might resign at the meeting with the President or whether this was the subject the two would confer about.

President Eisenhower indicated it was. He told a news conference Wednesday the meeting would be "to see exactly what we believe should be done" about Stassen's future.

Freeze To Hit State Tomorrow

MIAMI (UP)—Chilly rains and hail hit Florida today in advance of another freeze expected to sweep over north and central portions of the state Saturday.

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners okayed the proposed building plans at a meeting late in December.

The Sanford park, in which the building is to be located, is between 4th and 5th Streets on the East side of French Ave. It is the property where a trailer park was ordered vacated a number of months ago.

Jaycees say that the park area will be improved so that it can be used as a picnic and parking area for tourists and visitors. Buildings now on the property are to be removed before the Jaycee Information Booth building program gets underway.

Not My will ... but Thine!

Christianity does not offer escape from duty. If it did, most of us would never find a seat in Church. The lazy and indifferent would be standing in line hours before we arrived. Christianity does offer strength of purpose—the spiritual energy that transforms duty into achievement! God's purpose and the courage to fulfill it—these the Church reveals and imparts. In this pre-Easter season of Lent the attention of mankind is focused again on the Cross of Christ... on His strength of purpose and all that He suffered for us... on God's Victory for men. Our churches call us to the Faith which makes difficulty a challenge—dread, a stepping-stone—despair, a memory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SYNOPSIS

Dave Munro lives at the Big Ten Ranch in Dakota. He has a wife, the former Mrs. Joe Munro, and a son, the Big Ten three years ago from the Big Ten. He has been shot in the back. Dave is in love with Kitty Jordan, and she loves her sister, Mrs. Joe.

Dave and his father go into the mine. Dave is shot in the back. He is taken to the hospital. He is shot in the back. He is taken to the hospital. He is shot in the back. He is taken to the hospital.

CHAPTER 8

FOLLOWED Elder Smith through the door, not having the slightest idea why Vic Toll was here in the park.

"Step down and come in, Mr. Toll," Elder Smith said. "You're a sharp look, and asked, 'Ain't you the Munro kid?'"

"I'm Dave Munro," I said.

He sat with a hand on the saddle horn, staring at me in the dusk light. He seemed even bigger than he'd been the time I saw him in the Belle Union more than three years ago.

"You and your sister Blue the other day," he said.

"That's right."

"I was just fixing to tell you that his right arm will be good as ever. Don't make much difference, anyhow. He's a good with his left as his right. You'd better light a shuck out of the country, kid. You don't want to be a good twice in a row with Sammy Blue."

Toll's eyes turned to Smith. "You're the man I've been looking for. You'll be having a meeting before long, I reckon."

"Tonight," Elder Smith said.

"I figured so," Toll said. "You tell 'em we don't want to be no more's you park folks do, but we've always wintered a few head in the park and nobody's kicked. We don't see no reason for you people to kick now."

"I'll tell them," Elder Smith said.

We don't tell them anything else. We don't like to be no more's you park folks do, but we've always wintered a few head in the park and nobody's kicked. We don't see no reason for you people to kick now."

"I'll tell them," Elder Smith said.

"All right," the Elder said.

"Now here's something you don't need to tell 'em. From the tone of Toll's voice, I had a feeling this was what he had really

G. Moore Nears 2000th Telecast

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Garry Moore, an amiable gentleman who entered TV during its Stone Age, is approaching his 2000th telecast, a record that places him in a class with Methusalem, the Great Pyramid of Cheops and Satchel Paige.

The crew-out Baltimorean will reach the 2000 mark on March 21. As nearly as I can recall, only "Kraft Theatre" and "Howdy Doody" have been around TV longer than Moore, but neither is involved in the Monday to Friday grind. Moore kicked off his CBS-TV yodeling show back in June, 1950, and began emceeing CBS-TV's "I've Got a Secret" in June, 1952, and as he said, incidentally but succinctly, recently, "Folks, I'm pooped."

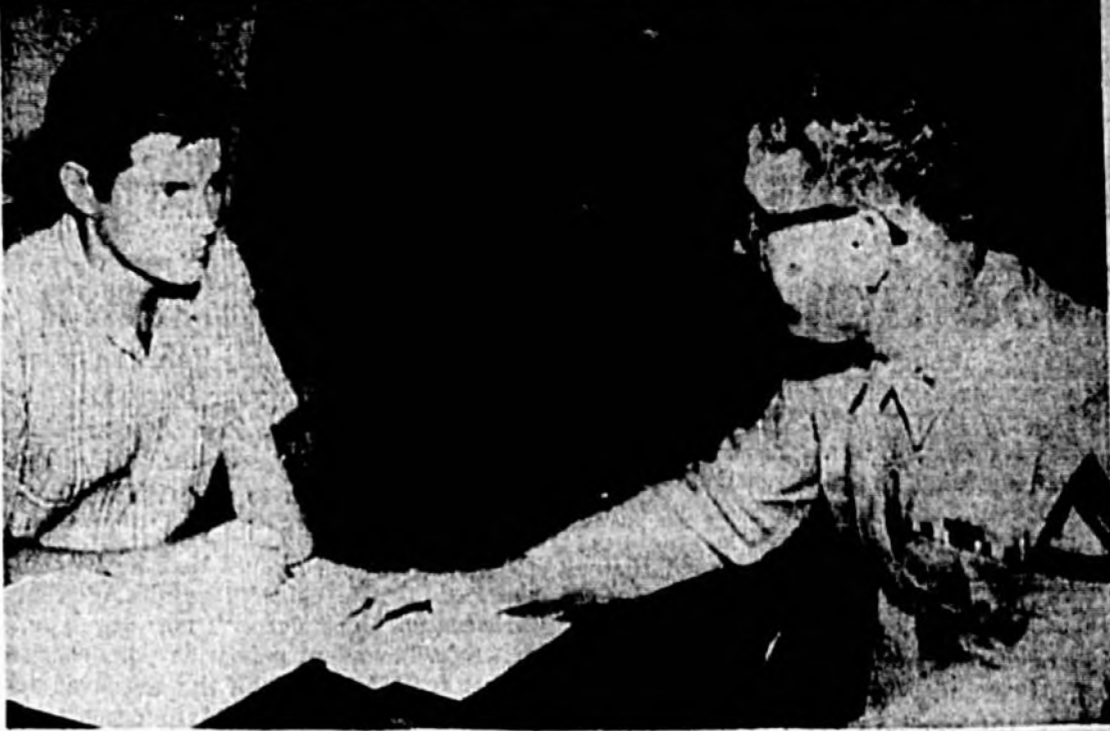

To Drop Show
Because he is pooped, Moore has announced he will drop his morning show after this season. One report has it that the dumping may take place much earlier than anyone expects — perhaps as early as April 1.

I can only say that I shall miss Moore, his banter and his show. Over his eight years, he has provided a welcome oasis in the flat and lumpy stretch of daytime TV, a programming area that operates under the assumption that housewives are a curious combination of consumer and idiot.

It is a view Moore has never shared. "The so-called housewife is 50 per cent of the people who watch Edward R. Murrow, 'Meet the Press' and nighttime television," he has snapped. "So how come she gets so smart after 5 p. m.?"

Moore's faith in his fans has paid off. In their own way, Garry Moore's watchers are as responsive as Elvis Presley's buffs. On one show, Moore asked his viewers to send in nickels to a lady guest who lived in Mt. Pleasant, Mich. His fans replied with 200,000 of them. On another occasion, Moore's fans swamped him with 100,000 pennies stuck to 100,000 postcards to help build a recreation center in Gas City, Ind.

High Standard Maintained
Moore's morning show maintains a pretty high standard of

Bandleader Longs For Good Old Days of Debuts

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UP)—Bandleader Meyer Davis, whose presence at society's coming-out parties and weddings is as inevitable as the potted palm, sighs for the good old days of debuts.

The reason: Business, not sentiment.

Davis said it used to be that a "debut" debuted singly, with maybe a whole ballroom and 75-piece orchestra to help make her way to society's success. Pappa shelled out anywhere from $10,000 to $100,000 for the event. Now, said maestro Davis, the trend is to the mass debut, with anywhere from 25 to 250 girls presented in one grand swoop.

"This," said Davis, with a twinkle in his eye, "cuts down on an orchestra's gross income."

Davis said the trend to the mass debut started about 10 years ago, apparently for economy reasons. "Now," he said, "a deb can come out for as little as $150. Not counting her gown, of course."

val band and soon was sulping party dates from the other outfit.

He's been playing party dates ever since, with his beat mostly the Eastern Seaboard. Now his bookings are a multi-million dollar operation.

Remembers Doris and Barbara

In 45 years of catering to high society, Davis has played for debuts of such glamor girls as Barbara Hutton and Doris Duke. He thinks the most fabulous party of all was in the 1930's, when one of the Widener girls in Philadelphia came out.

"We had a 100-piece orchestra, 20 hundred guests," said Davis.

CLAIM 246 DEAD
RABAT, Morocco (UP)—The "Army of Liberation of the Moroccan Sahara" claimed today that 246 Spanish soldiers were killed in fighting last week around the Ifoi enclave in West Africa. Five liberation soldiers were wounded, the communique said.

Night Club Owner Is Raising Ants

By VERNON SCOTT
United Press Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Night club owner Herman Hoyer has closed his famous Ciro's boogie emporium and taken to raising ants — that's right, ANTS—in the yard of his Beverly Hills home.

Hoyer, who for the past decade has played host to Hollywood's bigwigs and beauties and occasionally refereed one-punch fights, says his experiments with ants are strictly a sideline until he can reopen his plush drink dispensary.

"I got interested in ants while I was recuperating from an operation in the hospital a couple of weeks ago," says Hoyer.

"It's a scientific thing with me. Some friends sent me an ant farm in a plastic frame. I spent hours sitting there watching 'em dig tunnels and make roadways. They were as busy as ants, you might say."

No interests in Ants

"Funny thing, I was never interested in ants before. When Ciro's was open I was more interested in stamping them out. But when they're the scientific kind of ants. The ones in my yard are more intelligent."

Hoyer currently is free on $250 bail after an alleged row with his brother-in-law. He made news last year by pleading with his estranged

United Fruit Co. To Create New Competitor

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government has announced a consent decree under which United Fruit Co. agreed to create a new competitor in the banana industry.

Accordingly the government dropped its four-year-old anti-trust suit against United Fruit.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said the judgment calls for United Fruit to create a new competitor to take over roughly 25 per cent of its banana import business.

The consent decree was entered today in federal court at New Orleans.

The government had charged in its anti-trust case that United had "monopolized interstate and foreign trade and commerce in the banana industry." The suit also accused United of fixing the price of bananas sold in the United States.

Boy Scouts Of America Highlight 1958 Anniversary With Good Turn

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 48th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, by launching a yearlong nationwide Good Turn. The Safety Good Turn, undertaken at the suggestion of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will find 4,700,000 boys and leaders engaged in promoting traffic safety, outdoor safety, and home safety.

We are accustomed to great achievements from our Boy Scouts. Their outstanding work in the 1952 and 1956 Get-Out-The-Vote campaigns, their Conservation Good Turn in 1954, their collection of nearly two million items of clothing, foodstuffs, and supplies for the needy in 1954, and their activities in behalf of their fellow Americans have given us approximately twenty million past and present Boy Scouts who have learned the real meaning of service.

Many Ways To Help Johnny Read

There has been a lot of talk about why Johnny can't read. What of Johnny who can read, but doesn't? How can his interest in reading be stimulated? How can he be drawn into the wonderful treasure house of literature?

These questions become more important as our society grows more complex. It is increasingly true that adults must read—newspapers, magazines, books—if they are to have understanding of the world about them. That will be even more true when those who are now children take their place in the adult world.

One thing is certain: the child cannot be forced into the sort of reading that will become a pleasant and fruitful lifetime habit. If he is forced to read, the chances are excellent that reading will become hateful to him, and that he will quit it as soon as he gets out from under discipline. There are better ways.

For one thing, parents who want their children to read ought to do something about reading of their own. They should discuss what they read, making it come alive for the child who has scarcely entered the world of books. Parents also can help by reading to their children at an early age, and not dropping the practice as soon as they get to kindergarten. Children become more interested in reading, too, if they are encouraged to make things or do things based on their reading.

C. H. Greenwalt Is An Optimist

By LOUIS CARRETT

United Press Staff Correspondent
WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) —

Crawford H. Greenwalt is an optimist. He does not believe we are in for a serious recession. He's not alarmed by Russia's temporary lead in some areas of science.

He is sure that "our free system will win out" over communism "if we let it operate in the future as it has in the past."

Greenwalt is president of one of the nation's largest corporations, the du Pont Company. He is an unusually articulate executive, a logical choice to represent the business community in the panel of six famous men of whom the United Press asked the question: "What troubles you most as you look at America today?"

Greenwalt listed things that concern him — the possibility that Americans may be tempted to copy Russian methods in science and education; the discouragement of individual initiative by "steeply progressive" personal income taxes.

Expresses Confidence

But even as he talked of those things, Greenwalt emphasized his conviction that there is "nothing very much wrong with America or the American people."

The dominant note of the interview was a brisk and contagious confidence in the future.

Greenwalt was interviewed in his office on the ninth floor of the du Pont Building, facing the public square in downtown Wilmington.

Greenwalt is handsome, rather gray but friendly and relaxed in manner. His broad range of interests—he talked about bird photography, classical music, and Roman history among other things—belies the popular stereotype of the businessman with a balance sheet mind.

What about the national economy, Mr. Greenwalt? Aren't we edging into a recession?

"There's no doubt that business slipped toward the end of 1957. But not very badly."

"If people are sensible and don't get panicky, I think this adjustment will be of relatively short duration. It may be over by the middle of the year, and then the economy will begin to grow again."

"I doubt very, very much if anything remotely like the 1930's is in store for us."

Greenwalt was trained as a chemical engineer. The company he heads is one of the biggest investors in research.

Does he feel that the Russians are getting ahead of us in science and technology?

"Totalitarian countries can focus their resources on a single objective — for example, space vehicles — in a way that democracies can't. Because of this, they sometimes steal a march on us."

"But concentrating your self-life efforts on one goal is a serious disadvantage in the long run. It halts or slows progress in other fields of science, which may turn out to be tremendously important later."

"I know of no great advance that was not a synthesis of knowledge laboriously acquired in many different fields. In other words, you make real progress over the long pull only if all branches of science are free to move forward together."

The same principle applies in education, Greenwalt said.

"If we continue to allow our children to choose their own vocations, we can safely rely on human nature to maintain a good balance in our professional manpower."

"It is true that we need more scientists, and particularly better scientists. But we can get them without department from our basic principles of education."

"If there's any cloud on our horizon, it's the danger that we will fail to recognize and encourage the gifted individuals — the truly uncommon men of great talent — who break trails across the new frontiers."

"I know this will sound like special pleading, I am sincerely worried about the effect which our steeply progressive personal income taxes will have over the long run on the incentive for extraordinary achievement."

POLLINATION JOB

Income Tax Tips

The Florida Accountants Association — an affiliate of National Society of Public Accountants

The first $50 you receive in dividends is not taxable income nor is the first $100 on a joint return if both husband and wife have dividend income.

The exclusion applies only to dividends received from domestic corporations and you list them in schedule A on page 3 of the tax return.

The exclusion does not apply to dividends received from life insurance companies, mutual insurance companies, China Trade Act corporations and tax exempt corporations.

Dividends from mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, domestic building and loan associations, domestic savings and loan associations and federal savings and loan associations are not excluded.

Dividends from these organizations on deposits and withdrawable accounts are interest and must be reported on page 3, schedule B of the tax return.

Dividends from regulated investment companies do not count except to the extent that the company designates that the payments received by you are dividends.

Dividends from foreign corporations and from foreign trading corporations do not count.

Where a joint return is filed and both spouses have dividend income, then each may exclude up to the first $50 of dividend income received.

Dividends in excess of $50 are subject to a credit of 4% which is computed on page 4 schedule J and then is deducted directly from the tax on line 18 (a) page one of the tax return.

The credit is actually 4% of the dividend income, less the exclusion of the first $50 or $100, as the case may be, or your total income tax, or 4% of your taxable income, whichever is the smaller.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

"YOU TELL ME," a doctor interrupted an indignant housewife, "that your husband snored worse than any other man in New York City. What authority have you got for a sweeping statement like that?"

"Well, for one thing," snorted the wife, "we live on East River drive, and every time my husband begins snoring in midnight form, the tugboats start answering."

A Russian farmer, in the U.S.A. on an official visit, was told that Marilyn Monroe was then being considered for the role of Groucho in a screen version of "The Brothers Karamazov."

"What do you think of Miss Monroe taking on a tough assignment like that?" the Russian was asked. "I can't say," was his evasive reply. "I haven't seen her form yet."

Inside Washington

BY HENRY CATCART

Central Press Washington Writer
WASHINGTON—United States officials view the bloody upheaval in Venezuela as more than just a dispute among the military. Unlike some South American countries, civilian roots run fairly deep in Venezuela.

United States authorities now are certain that the Venezuelan people will demand a considerable restoration of democracy. The violent fighting convinced them that the man-in-the-street has decided to stake out a greater claim to personal freedom.

The revolt that finally routed Dictator-President Perez Jimenez, and sent him fleeing for sanctuary in the Dominican Republic, has left the country in turmoil and the future is still clouded with uncertainty.

However, the role played by students and workers has left the impression in Washington that civilians will no longer be content with total military rule. There is a feeling that any junta will have to make substantial concessions.

RUSSIAN MINORITY WOES
Washington foreign experts see increasing signs the Kremlin is having problems with the minority groups which make up 48 per cent of the Soviet's 200 million plus population.

Successful demands by African and Asian nations for independence since World War II are having echoes behind the Iron Curtain in such formerly independent lands as the Ukraine and Armenia and in Moslem-orientated territories such as Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan and Kazakhstan.

Now, in closely-timed moves to appease nationalist tendencies in these areas, Moscow has: 1—Named a Central Asian to the select 18-man presidium for the first time. He is Nuridin A. Mukhitdinov, an Uzbekistani.

2—Appointed an Ukrainian, Alexander I. Kirichenko, to the secretary of the powerful Communist party central committee.

3—Increased the number of non-Russian seats in the Supreme Soviet, a puppet parliament which, however, carries heavy prestige value.

DULLES VS. STASSEN—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles appears to have won the celebrated feud with disarmament aide Harold E. Stassen over negotiations with Russia. However, Stassen was exactly the loser.

The disagreement, in a nutshell, involved a point of view. Dulles thought that further talks with the Kremlin would be useless unless Russia gave more evidence of good faith. Stassen contended that the United States should take a more positive approach.

The upshot was that both President Eisenhower and Dulles in recent public statements have made it unmistakably clear that the United States wants to continue its conferences with Russia.

Diplomatic observers noted that these pronouncements were somewhat removed from the more stylized rejections which the U. S. had put out at other times, notably before the North Atlantic Treaty Organization conference in Paris.

For this, Stassen could claim measure of victory, although it is now certain that Dulles, not Stassen, still has the President's ear on disarmament talks.

Dulles nailed down his own claim in a recent speech before the National Press club which was notable for its lack of rigidity in dealing with U. S.-Russian relations.

Conning The News

Baba and Richard Deas were once well known visitors to Sanford, since Richard is a hometown product. Now the Deas are permanent residents and are becoming part of the community social life.
 Martha Ashby and Mrs. George Bishop entertained for Baba last week with an afternoon desert bridge. The guests were served luscious Boston cream pie topped with strawberries and ice cream, before settling down to the business of the day.

 Tommy and Penny Peterson are having a cocktail party tonight for Baba and Richard. About fifty guests have been invited.
 The husband and wife golf tournament scheduled Sunday afternoon has been postponed until a later date. Also the dinner following. Please take note of this, as there won't be anyone to take that white elephant off your hands if you don't.

Kitchens Needs 24 Points To Set Scoring Record

Co-Captain Jim Kitchens of the Stetson University Hatters of DeLand, needs 24 points Friday night to establish a new individual scoring record for Stetson University.

There is every reason why "Kitch" would like to do this as there would be additional pleasure of setting the record in his home town of Jacksonville where he was an outstanding player for Andrew Jackson High School.

RANDY REYNOLDS, 22, 124-pound featherweight and Joe Pickens, 21, 175-pound light heavyweight both of Sanford will take part in the State Golden Gloves Tournament in Jacksonville, Feb. 10-14

Crusaders Lead Cage Ratings

NEW YORK—The Wheaton Ill. Crusaders, who tackle a major college basketball team Saturday night when they play Bowling Green at Chicago, led the United Press small college ratings for the fourth straight week.

But the Crusaders 16-1 were only about the length of an Illinois corn cob ahead of another Midwestern school, Steubenville, an Ohio college with a 20-1 record and a 10-game winning streak, was only seven points behind Wheaton.

The nationwide board of small college coaches which rates the teams for the United Press gave coach Leo Pfand's Wheaton club 19 first-place votes and 333 points. Steubenville received seven first-place votes and 326 points.

Staubenville, which trailed by 23 points last week, gained on Wheaton by scoring heavily in second, third, fourth and fifth place votes.

The coaches based their ballots on games played through Feb. 1. Points are awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first through 10th place.

Western Illinois 16-0 advanced from fourth to third, while Evansville, Ind. slipped down one slot with a 14-2 record.

The next four teams were in the same positions they held last week.

Two Sanford boxers will participate in the State Golden Gloves Tournament in Jacksonville, Feb. 10, 11, 12, and 14, it was revealed yesterday.

Joe Pickens, 21-year-old, 175-pound, light heavyweight and Randy Reynolds, 22-year-old, 124-pound featherweight are training now for the next week event.

The two boxers have been working out with local Navy sparring partners and with Andrew Bracken principal of Seminole High School.

Training the two Sanford boxers is Hugh Grier who trained the only middleweight champion Sanford ever had, Billy Kinard of Lake Mary was trained under the watchful eye of Grier.

Both men are in "fine shape" one local spokesman said and it looks as if they have a wonderful future in the coming tournament in Jacksonville.

Reynolds, the spokesman said, gained some experience in the Navy and Pickens "picked up interest" in boxing during a vacation last year.

Sanford sportsmen will be watching the two young local boxers in Jacksonville next week as they participate in the annual Golden Gloves tournament.

Wine Four Wheaton, which won the NCAA's first small college tournament last year, won four games in six days last week to stretch its current winning streak to 11. The Crusaders defeated Wayne Mich., 84-64; Taylor Ind., 101-73; Augustana, Ill., 66-61; and Elmhurst Ill., 90-67.

SHS Suffers Second Defeat To Melbourne

for the evening. They were never out jumped but the difference in the contest was the hot spres on part of the Bulldogs in the second period. They just couldn't miss.

The Sanford Seminoles failed in their second crack at the Melbourne Bulldogs and went down to defeat by a score of 74-68 here Tuesday night. The Seminoles rolled up plenty of points to beat any club in the conference but the 30 point second quarter by the Bulldogs proved too much a margin for the locals to overtake.

The Bulldogs sported a 41-27 halftime lead but the Seminoles fought back in the last period to close the gap and almost overtake them. The Sanford Junior Varsity, however, kept things even for the evening by defeating the baby Bulldogs by a score of 51-36.

Coach Dick Silvers and his charges ruled the boards and were never in serious danger throughout the contest.

Little Ray Lundquist, sophomore guard, worked with his partner on the outside, Cecil Dandridge, and the two laid scored 17 and 11 points respectively to lead their teammates to this near miss. Both boys made it tough for the Bulldogs with their driving lay-ups and set shots from the outside.

Second string forward, Wally Phillips, also helped pace the locals with four buckets and four free throws and a total of 12 points. Although Phillips is one of the smaller members of the squad he did his share on the boards throughout the contest.

Joe High and Mike Tammy handled most of the rebounding chores and hit six points each

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press Sports Writer NEW YORK—On Mercer Beasley committed court here today by placing "Big Bill" Tilden no better than sixth on his all-time indoor tennis "Top 10."

"Pancho Gonzales is the greatest indoor player of all time indoors and — indicating how flood by at least 15 matches in their current 100-match tour," Beasley asserted.

"This is against all the odds — sentimental and practical. Because Beasley, the 76-year-old tennis coach who taught such as Ellsworth Vines, Wilmer Allison, Frank Parker, Pancho Segura, Gardner Mulloy and Doris Hart, always has rated Tilden as the all-time greatest. And Head is a 7-5 favorite to dethrone Gonzales as the pro champion in their round-the-world series.

"It's Different Outdoors "Outdoors, I would still name Tilden the greatest of all," explains the Spalding expert. "And I would put Don Budge and Vines second and third ahead of, in order, Frank Sedgman, Jack Kramer, Gonzales, Ken Rosewall, Ken LaCoote, Fred Perry and Tony Trabert."

There are even some surprises in that rating when you consider that Sedgman is ranked ahead of Kramer and Gonzales and Rosewall is placed so high. But Beasley is adamant.

He also holds firm in ranking Gonzales as the best of them all indoors and outdoors — indicating the "bound to be beaten" Head in second place.

After that I would name Trabert third, followed by Kramer, Segura, Tilden, Vines, Denmark's Kurt Nielsen, Bobby Riggs and Dick Savitt," he said.

Move Automatically The basis for Beasley's startling indoor rankings, eye-opening at least to tennis buffs, is his analysis that indoor tennis has become a blindingly fast game of only three shots.

"There is no time any more for strategy in the indoor game," he asserted. "You don't think. You move like automatic lightning or you're lost. There are only three shots: Serve, return of service—if you're lucky — and sharp volley."

Beasley types the current indoor technique as a "four second game."

"That's about all it takes for each point," he said, "and I don't think the old timers like Tilden and Vines, at the best of the games they played, could have coped with today's modern players."

He paused and then with a sigh, added softly: "But outdoors, Big Bill would still beat them all."

'White Elephant' Tournney Postponed

The "White Elephant" tournament and steak fry, announced for Sunday Feb. 9, has been postponed, according to Mrs. Earl Higginbotham, Women's Golf Association president.

"Due to unforeseen circumstances," Mrs. Higginbotham said, "we are postponing until a later date."

"We hope that all golfers who had planned to take part in the tournament will keep in mind the future date and look for the announcement in the near future," the Women's Golf Association president said.

Government Needs Told By Dovell

GAINESVILLE — The greatest need in Florida state government is to "modernize the system of county government," a University of Florida professor of political science says in a review of county government in Florida.

Dr. J. E. Dovell, writing his appraisal in the monthly Economic Leaflet published by the Bureau of Economic and Business Research of the University's College of Business Administration, claims that "county government is something of a mystery to the citizens" because of the maze of offices, boards and agencies at the county seat.

In tracing the history of county government in Florida, Dr. Dovell points out that general laws setting forth the powers and duties of county commissioners were originally passed in 1872 and amended only in 1877 and 1913.

And he shows that because of "their great dependence upon legislative enactments, Florida counties have resorted to Tallahassee for legislative help in solving virtually every problem."

The county manager form of government, or home rule, works successfully in Maryland, North and South Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee. The realignment of functions has saved taxpayers time and, more important, money, Dovell says.

Dovell cites the slow growth of the county manager plan, and suggests that the reluctance to change the old pattern is the fault of the "citizens who give lip-service to the movements for better government but are seldom aroused by waste, inaction or failure, but too generally there is no criticism of the antiquated system which promotes and prolongs these things."

Manuel Quizon became the first president of the Philippines.

Sowder said the town has been subsisting during the emergency on "hand-outs" of food from government and private sources. But he said after Feb. 17, these sources are expected to give out and the state must take over.

Indian Community Site Uncovered

The Florida Highway Archaeological Salvage Committee has uncovered the site of a large Indian community that existed just south of Grant, in Brevard County, as long ago as the 13th century.

Dr. William H. Sears, Gainesville, chairman of the committee, reported that the finds were made in a very large shell mound, on U. S. 1, that as scheduled to be removed as part of the four-lane widening of the highway in that area.

Sears said several thousand specimens of Indian pottery, animal bones, and shell tools were salvaged and would be studied within the next few months.

The shell mound represented a rather large community, Sears said, whose houses were along the edge of the Indian River. He said the Indians lived on shellfish, fish, sea turtle, and some game, and probably did some farming.

The Highway Archaeological Committee is composed of Florida archaeologists and cooperates with the State Road Department which notifies the committee where new roads are to be constructed so that sites of possible excavation may be studied before the are destroyed by bulldozers and road graders.

The Road Department also provides work crews for the actual excavations. This is the second valuable archaeological find of considerable value made in the past several months, Dr. Sears reported. The other was in Alachua County where 5000 year-old remains were found.

SURVEY OF GOVERNORS

EAST LANSING, Mich. — (UP) — Legislative experience is becoming less and less important for governors, according to a Michigan State University political scientist, Dr. Joseph A. Schlesinger. In a recent study, "How They Become Governors," he said more and more governors are chosen by the legislatures and chances are becoming slim that local officials such as mayors and councilmen will become governors.

WASHINGTON — Chairman Richard B. Russell D-Ga. of the Senate Armed Services Committee says Congress should consider reorganization of the Defense Department in one package — not by piecemeal legislation.

Russell told the United Press it would be too unwieldy for Congress to consider separately a series of changes in the Pentagon setup.

The lawmaker's stand came in the face of Republican reports that President Eisenhower plans to submit a series of messages to Congress on defense reorganization starting in the middle of next month.

Agreed on One Change

A House-Senate conference committee has agreed on one department change — giving defense officials authority to carry on space weapons research indefinitely. But the department would be limited to participating in civilian space programs, such as satellites, to one year.

House investigators recalled Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission in the inquiry into alleged official misconduct on the part of five FCC members.

Chairman Morgan M. Moulder D-Mo. of the House commerce subcommittee looking into the charges said opponents of his inquiry are trying to "smear and discredit" him personally. He did not identify the persons who he said made the attack.

Rep. Emanuel Celler D-N. Y. said he would push for passage of a presidential disability bill despite a veto threat from Attorney General William P. Rogers.

Like Growing Hair

"These threats of vetoes are about as useless as trying to grow hair on my bald head," he said.

Another Justice Department figure came under the fire of Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. D-N. C. Ervin said W. Wilson White, appointed to head the new civil rights division, gave President Eisenhower "awful bad legal advice" on the Little Rock, Ark., school integration dispute last year.

Ervin said he had not decided yet whether to oppose confirmation of White in the job. The Senate Judiciary Committee has postponed action on the appointment for at least a week.

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield renewed the opposition attack on the Eisenhower administration's foreign policies.

In a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Mansfield said continued "drifting" by the U. S. in the Mideast "can only render us susceptible to diplomatic

THE CARD OF THANKS

Very often a Card of Thanks in The Sanford Herald meets a gracious expression of gratitude to those who have sent floral tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and kindnesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot well be mailed.

Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct. Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.

There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.

THE "IN MEMORIUM" NOTICE

It is the custom of many families in this country to commemorate a bereavement by an "In Memorium" notice in newspapers classified columns. They find a real solace therein. Preparation or selection of a suitable verse brings back to them tender, pleasant recollections. As Eliza Cook, the English poet has so beautifully expressed it:

How cruelly sweet are the echoes
That stir
What memory plays an old tune
On the heart?

Most frequently an In Memorium is inserted on the anniversary of death. However, other dates, which it is felt are appropriate or meaningful are also selected. The birthday of the deceased among other significant occasions chosen.

If you are hesitant to express your tender thoughts in poetic verses, these express in poetic beauty the emotions of the heart-strings. Among them are verses appropriate to any circumstance.

THE RATE

Cards of Thanks and In Memorium notices, due to the fact they may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column each.

COL. ELMER G. BANDY (U.S. Army Photo)

E. G. Bandy Gets Rank Promotion

Elmer G. Bandy, son of Mrs. A. F. Bandy, 518 W. 7th St., recently was promoted to lieutenant colonel in the United States Army, Germany, where he is a signal plane and intelligence officer.

The Colonel, whose wife, Odette, is with him in Germany, entered the Army in 1941 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty in August 1945.

The 40-year-old officer was graduated from Seminole High School in 1936 and from George Institute of Technology in 1941.

Krider

(Continued from Page 1) of them behind us when we appear in Washington at a hearing before the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors," Krider said.

The hearing has been set for April 28-29, according to a telegram from the Rivers and Harbors Board.

A committee request to postpone the hearing from the Feb. 10 date originally set by the board was granted to attend the time necessary to prepare pertinent data to offset the "unfavorable report on the Sanford-Titusville Canal" released Jan. 10.

Senator George Smathers and Senator Spessard Holland both assured proponents of the Sanford-Titusville canal that they would support a delegation appearing in Washington in an effort to offset the unfavorable report.

Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong Jr. and Congressman Charles E. Bennett both assured those interested in the development of the Sanford-Titusville Canal that their support could be counted upon.

Congressman Paul Rogers of the 8th District said "I will be glad to cooperate." Congressman Billy Matthews of the 8th District commented in a telegram to Krider "you may be assured of my continued cooperation."

Congressman James A. Haley of the 7th District said "You may be assured of my cooperation and Congressman Bob Hikes of the 3rd District commented in his telegram "You may be assured of my sincere efforts to work things out satisfactorily."

Krider, following his return from Washington next Thursday night, will go directly to Tampa for a Feb. 14 meeting of the Florida Waterways Committee which will, no doubt, extend additional assistance and help towards securing a favorable report on the Sanford-Titusville Canal project.

APPROVE BASES

ROME (UP) — The Italian Chamber of Deputies overwhelmingly approved the government's firm pro-Western policy Wednesday night and rejected a Communist resolution against American missile bases in Italy. Only the Communists and left-wing Socialists opposed a motion supporting the NATO-oriented stand of Premier Adone Zoli's government.

Education

(Continued from page one) testing "every item we manufacture." "Our building was tailored to suit ourselves," he said when Weber explained that they moved to Caseberry from Orlando where they were organized in 1941 with three people, last November. "Now we have one of the nicest soil plants in the country," he said.

Following a 1951 symposium, in which Weber represented the transformer phase of the industry, and "where we talked for four days on mineralization" each one promised we would go back to our industry and fulfill the purpose of the meeting, Weber declared.

"It is almost unbelievable — the progress we have made," he said and described the equipment carried by a bomber — equipment that weighed "upwards of 1500 pounds." "Today," said Weber, "that same equipment, doing a great deal more, weighs only 400 pounds."

Weber described many of the items manufactured by Johnson Electronics and passed through his audience plastic containers showing the specific item and sometimes the difference between the original and the miniature. "I want to convince you," Weber said, "that our satellite weighing only 40 pounds will do more than Russia's which weighs 1,100."

Barrett, demonstrated the use of the testing equipment brought to the meeting for Jaycees to get an idea of "what we do."

"This type of equipment," he said, "will show you what is required to make a simple test on the components we manufacture."

The guest speaker was introduced by Bill Gramkow, program chairman for the meeting.

Former Resident Dies Thursday

Mrs. Eunice Louise Story, 62, of Kenansville, died early Thursday after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Story, a native of Meigs, Ga., was a resident of Sanford before moving to Ocala County 25 years ago. She was a member of the Kenansville Lakeview Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, John Edwin Story; two sons, David Story and Ary Story II; two daughters, Rubie Story and Margaret Story, all of Kenansville; one brother, Robert E. Corbin, U. S. Army in Germany; one sister, Mrs. W. E. Bennett, Sanford; and two half brothers, John Corbin and Curtis Corbin, both of Meigs, Ga.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday at the Lakeview Baptist Church, Kenansville, with Rev. Charles Vickers officiating. Interment will be in the churchyard.

Grisson Funeral Home, Kenansville, is in charge.

J. Mattocks Gets Degree At U of F

CASEBERRY — Joe Mattocks, son of Mrs. Arthur Johnson, 5 Quail Pond, who completed graduate school work at the University of Florida last December, was awarded the degree of Master of Science in Vocational Rehabilitation by the University February 1.

Graduate school studies were completed last December by Mattocks when he served an internship in research and field problems at the Florida State Rehabilitation Center at Tampa. Mattocks received a permanent appointment to the staff at the Tampa center effective January 1, prior to receiving his masters.

Harry Hayes, Service Manager for the past eight years, stated that his trained personnel and modern equipment enable him to service all Chrysler-made products.

Church's Annual Missionary Confab To Start Monday

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church will hold its Annual Missionary Convention beginning Monday evening, Feb. 14, at 7:00. Each year The Alliance Church has a Missionary Convention for the purpose of providing current information about foreign missionary work and to stimulate new interest and support for the worldwide promotion of Christianity.

The missionaries who will conduct the Convention this year will be Miss Arnie Holthaus and the Rev. David W. Ellison. These missionaries both have served in Southeast Asia in the country formerly known as French Indo China.

Miss Holthaus has taught in the school for missionaries children at Dalet, Viet Nam for 22 years. She was previously one of the pioneers of Indo China. Mr. Ellison established a number of stations for missionary outreach and also was instrumental in opening a Bible School in 1938. This school was founded for the purpose of training native Christians to carry the gospel to their own people.

During World War II the Ellison family was captured and imprisoned by the Japanese. They were interned in Bangkok and later repatriated on the exchange ship GRIPESBOLM.

Mr. Ellison was chairman of all Indo China and, when that area was divided into four fields, he was made the chairman of Cam-children had to be hured into the mission compound to hear their first gospel message. She also remembers a recent morning when through the mist she watched a long line of tribesmen starting from Dalet for their distant village bearing on their strong backs sheets of corrugated iron for the roofing of their church. The ordinary goss thatch for their homes was not good enough for the house of God. Miss Holthaus will have with her native costumes which will be displayed during the Convention.

The Rev. D. W. Ellison is a veteran missionary having begun his service under The Christian and Missionary Alliance in 1908. His field of ministry is in Cambodia, now an independent nation, which was previously one of the provinces of Indo China. Mr. Ellison established a number of stations for missionary outreach and also was instrumental in opening a Bible School in 1938. This school was founded for the purpose of training native Christians to carry the gospel to their own people.

body. The last eighteen months of his most recent term on the field he had the responsibility of evangelizing three provinces with a total population of a million and a half people.

These missionaries are representatives of a staff of 800 missionaries and 2,000 workers bearing the gospel of Jesus Christ in 32 foreign fields in which The Christian and Missionary Alliance is working. The local church is one of more than 1,000 churches at home to whom is committed the responsibility of supporting the efforts of these missionaries and native Christians in the promotion of the gospel into the remote places of heathen darkness in the world. Two aims motivate the ministry of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. One is evangelism through pioneer missionary work in places where Christianity has never before infiltrated. The other is to establish a self-supporting, self-propagating native church.

Christians of all faiths will find these meetings informative and inspirational in the stimulation of their interest in reaching lost souls for Christ throughout the world.

The public of Sanford and Seminole County is invited to attend the Convention. Meetings will be held each evening, except Saturday, at 7:45 at the church located at Park Avenue and 14th St. The Convention ends Sunday evening, Feb. 14.

Senate To Receive Names Of Men Chosen For Historic Committee

WASHINGTON (UP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon was to send to the Senate today the names of 13 senators chosen to form a historic committee to help set policy for the U. S. space program.

Seven Democrats and three Republicans were chosen from among the upper chamber's most senior and influential members to sit on the committee. They will consider among other things whether space exploration should be under the Defense Department or a separate civilian agency.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) is expected to be chairman of the new group. Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), meantime announced appointment of a "nuclear brain trust" to advise the weapons subcommittee of the Congressional Atomic Energy Committee.

Asaah Sub Hold Back Jackson, chairman of the subcommittee, at the same time assailed "tradition-bound, unimaginative carrier admirals" for allegedly holding back for a year or more development of a missile-firing submarine.

A House commerce subcommittee scheduled a closed-door meeting, ostensibly to hear chief counsel Bernard Schwartz give a briefing on its investigation of federal regulatory agencies.

Observers thought it likely the group would actually vote to fire Schwartz — probably by an 83 vote — following charges that he had padded his own expense account.

Schwartz denied filing any improper expense items. He said he planned to stay on the job and hold hearings on the role of Presidential Aide Sherman Adams, Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks, former Commerce Undersecretary Robert B. Murray Jr. and Col. George Gordon Moore—President Eisenhower's brother-in-law—in cases before the Federal Communications Commission.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) urged that all nations undertake a "cooperative exploration" of space. He said Russia should be included if the Soviet are interested.

Mansfield said in a speech prepared for Senate delivery "no nation willing to participate in good faith" ought to be left out of a pooled effort to cut the "cost, the effort, the sacrifice" of space exploration.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) proposed new programs and powers for federal implementation of the Supreme Court ruling against school segregation. His plan, co-sponsored by seven other Democrats and five Republicans, would include grants of aid for communities which integrated schools despite interference from state laws.

Weather
Increasing cloudiness today, tonight and Tuesday. A little warmer low tonight 42 to 52.

NAS Savage Sons Return To Sanford

Sanford residents were eye witnesses Saturday to the return of the "Savage Sons of Sanford" from a week of carrier qualifications off the Florida coast. Leading the formation of eight A3D "Skywarriors" from the U.S.S. Ranger was Cdr. Joseph M. Tully Jr., USN, Commanding Officer of Heavy Attack Squadron Five. As the "Red Tails" circled Sanford and landed, highlights of the Ranger Cruise were already pouring in.

Number one "first" on the cruise events was carrier qualifications of Capt. James M. Reedy, USN, Commander Heavy Attack Wing One, in the A3D "Skywarrior." Already an honorary "Savage Son," Capt. Reedy performed in such a creditable manner that he now can be considered a full fledged "Savage Son."

On Thursday, Feb. 7, the "Savage Sons" made 81 A3D landings aboard the U.S.S. Ranger for a new record of day carrier landings by an A3D squadron.

Late Thursday, Rear Admiral Albert G. Mamma, USN, Chief of Bureau of Ships, came aboard and early Friday morning qualified as an honorary "Savage Son" by flying aboard the U.S.S. Ranger in an A3D piloted by Cdr. Joseph M. Tully Jr., USN. Capabilities of the aircraft carrier, the "Skywarrior" and the Aircraft Commanders were highly evident on this demonstration.

Second Story Of Dwelling Is Damaged By Fire

The second story of a two-story frame dwelling at 720 Cypress Ave. was badly damaged by fire early Saturday morning.

Even though the blaze had fully involved the upper story of the dwelling, firemen of the Sanford Fire Department quickly brought the flames under control and confined the greater part of the damage to the two front rooms.

Apparently starting from an exploding oil heater, smoke poured from the upper floor of the house as bedding and clothing smoldered.

Before the fire was completely under control, a burning power line fell from the building straggling from water poured onto it.

Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr., who directed fighting of the fire said "severe damage from water to the lower floor was prevented when heavy tarpaulins were spread over the furnishings."

The alarm was answered shortly after 8 o'clock and the fire brought completely under control at about 8:30 a.m.

Village Bombing Creates Anti-French Feelings

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

A wave of anger against France for the bombing of a Tunisian village rolled across the Arab world with fresh momentum today and imperiled the Western — and American — position in North Africa.

Tunisia appeared ready to sever diplomatic relations with France and expel the 25,000 French troops stationed there for defense purposes.

The United States was shocked and indignant at the bombing which killed 75 persons and injured 100.

Other allies of France were deeply concerned because friendship with Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba has been the anchor of Western policy in North Africa.

Nations friendly to the United States expressed fear the bombing could turn into a major propaganda victory for the Soviet Union. Most of the 25 planes used against the Tunisian village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef were of American make and the dead included 12 children and nine women.

Egypt, Syria Capitalize

Egypt and Syria moved swiftly to capitalize on the anti-French feeling which erupted today into a general strike in the French protectorate which won its independence in 1956. President Gamal Abdel Nasser promised immediate military aid to Tunisia. Syrian President Shukri al Kuwaiti promised aid and accused France of a "savage act of criminal aggression."

The Saturday bombing attack brought these rapid fire developments:

Local Office Gets State Documentary Stamp Machine

A new gadget that further mechanizes the Seminole County Clerk of Court's office was installed Friday under the watchful eye of M. C. O'Berry, director of the Documentary Stamp and Depository Department of the State Comptroller's Office.

It is a state documentary stamp machine which issues the stamps in any denomination up to $200, ready to attach to documents about to be filed in the Clerk's Office.

It is the second such machine to be installed in the state, said O. P. Herndon, Seminole County Clerk of Court.

The machine is portable and attaches to the "base machine" on which the tape segment machine which the postage stamp meter is used.

Installation of the machine was under the direction of George H. Vincent, representative of Pitney-Bowes, Inc. and J. C. Yeagin, service representative of the Company.

W. H. Morris, Examiner for the Documentary Stamp Division of the State Comptroller's office was also on hand to see the new gadget work.

Farmers' Market Business Continues Despite Weather

Business at the Sanford State Farmer's Market is going ahead at a rapid pace despite what Sandy Anderson, Assistant Manager of the market, said is "lousy weather."

The latest report, issued by Sandy Anderson on market sales and transactions said "In spite of the deplorable weather conditions, Sanford State Farmers Market shows on a decrease of 50,013 packages and a valuation decrease of $80,998.95 as compared to January 1957 sales."

He commented in his report "Business transacted for January 1958 amounted to sales of 30 varieties of vegetables and fruit, totaling 191,137 packages at a gross valuation of $513,472.95."

Reporting on later sales through the Sanford State Farmer's Market, Sandy Anderson said "Sales of produce through the Sanford market for the first week in February amounted to 26,427 packages at a gross valuation of $76,865.05."

"Taking into consideration the lousy weather we experienced last week," he said, "and anticipating some of the same kind this week, we are expecting a light volume of approximately 25 varieties of fruit and produce consisting heavily of citrus fruit and fair to light volume of cabbage, cauliflower, celery, green onions, iceberg lettuce, and potatoes."

He added "We also anticipate a very light volume of 15 other varieties."

City Board To Discuss Sidewalk Obstructions

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners, prompted by claims growing out of injuries from stumbling over obstructions along sidewalks, will discuss the possibility of prohibiting all merchandise being displayed on public sidewalks and parkways.

In the first move to remove obstructions from the sidewalks, city commissioners ordered the removal of weighing machines, but delayed action on the prohibiting of merchandise displaying until a public discussion could be held.

Other action, included on the 12-item agenda, includes the discussion on the sale of two pieces of property owned by the city.

The city will discuss with Harry Lee Jr. the purchase of city property needed for the expansion of Lee Plumbing and Heating Co. An offer was made at the last meeting of the city board but commissioners deferred action until time was available to consider the offer and until Lee could appear before

Navy Man Wrecks Thunderbird Early Saturday Morning

A 1956 Ford Thunderbird, driven by William Raymond Wilkins, 28-year-old navy man, went out of control early Saturday morning on 17-92 just outside the city limits.

It landed in the parking area of Smith's Snapping Turtle on the opposite side of the double lane highway after apparently turning over before coming to a stop.

Neither the driver nor the passenger, George H. Jones, another navy man, were injured. Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway who investigated the accident, said Jones was "bruised and shook up."

The one-car accident occurred at about 1:15 a. m. Saturday morning. Damage to the automobile was estimated at $1,500.

Both men said they were attached to FASRON 6.

Constable Galloway said Wilkins would be charged with reckless driving while drinking.
