Whidden Makes Appeal
Yesterday afternoon Claude A. Whidden, general manager of the Sanford Baseball Association, put forth an appeal for all sellers of season passes to contact his office as soon as possible and report the number of passes sold.

Whidden said he wasn't sure, but he estimated that some 200 to 300 season passes have been sold. A meeting of the board of directors of the association was held yesterday afternoon. Arrangements were being made this morning for a conference to be held tonight between local baseball officials and Bob Tarleton, general manager of the St. Paul Saints.

Charlie Morrison, erstwhile tennis official who umpired the indoor matches Tuesday night in Orlando when Hill Tilden, Fred Perry, Vincent Richards and Jack Frost appeared in several exhibitions, said that the Associated Press dispatch from Chicago Tuesday evening nearly floored Tilden. That dispatch quoted Don Hudge, a vice president of the Professional Players Association, as saying that Tilden was a "bust" as a tennis promoter. Tilden was handed the dispatch between sets by Ash Wing, sports editor of the Orlando Morning Sentinel. Tilden, according to Morrison, was "busted up." Mr. Hudge's first remark were "Mr. Hudge voted for me and the vote was unanimous." Hudge also said that the newly formed Professional Players Association was destined to fail if Tilden insisted on playing and running the entire show.

According to several local fans who were among the 800 who turned out at the Army, declared the exhibition matches were the finest they'd ever seen. Richards opened with a 6-2 win over Josal while Tilden won the lullist set of a singles match with Perry. However, Tilden dropped the remaining two, 6-4, 6-4. Tilden and Richards teamed up in the doubles exhibition but dropped the match to Perry and Josal, 6-3, 6-4.

Thirty-four Saints of the St. Paul club of the American Association continued their Spring workouts yesterday afternoon at the Municipal Athletic Field under the direction of Manager Ray Blaemire. The Saints skipper put the athletes through a stiff hitting practice session and a throwing session to eliminate winter stiffness.

Blaemire also put his moundsmen through a short drill covering pitchers' activities in and around the initial sack. Bob Tarleton, general manager of the club, said no players had joined the club yesterday, but that Larry Rosenthal, an outfielder who in past years has performed with the New York Yankees and the Philadelphia Athletics, is enroute to Sanford today.

Catcher Ray Blaemire, who formerly toiled for the New York Giants, has not returned his contract and is reported to be holding out for a salary hike. Also in this department, Slick Coffman, who has had major league experience with the St. Louis Browns and the Boston Braves, is reported to be holding out for a salary hike. Also in this department, Slick Coffman, who has had major league experience with the St. Louis Browns

Gator Track Team To Participate In Five Slated Meets

GAINESVILLE, March 6.—The University of Florida track team will compete in five meets according to a tentative schedule released here today by Coach Raymond Beard.

With approximately 30 candidates out for the track team, Beard says he will have the nucleus of a "main" track team by the end of the year, after an absence during the war, but the squad competed on a limited schedule.

Last year members of the squad back for practice are: John Ford, recent City, Robert Hess, Gainesville, and Oscar Miranin, Tampa.

The schedule: Apr. 14, Georgia in Gainesville; Apr. 29, Florida AAU Meet in Gainesville; Apr. 27, Auburn in Auburn; May 17, days in Manchester, Conn.; May 18, Southeastern Conference Track Meet in Birmingham.

Bill Dudley Declares Sammy Baugh Is Most Valuable In Pro Football

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va.—Bill Dudley, University of Virginia's 1941 All-America football star and Pittsburg professional, classed Sammy Baugh, Washington's great passer, as the most valuable player in professional grid ranks.

"Baugh's been in there for eight years," says Dudley, who is coaching Coach Moran's 1941 national invitation tournament in the Garden. That game marked the first defeat for a Seton Hall quitter since the team had entered the line-up.

As a second baseman, Davies proved to have enough on the ball to attract the attention of major league scouts. Upon graduation, however, Davies entered the Great Lakes. He was the leading pitcher in the Chicago Bears' fall, western critics acclaimed him as one of the greatest players of all time.

Upon release from service, Davies played professional baseball with Rochester in the National League and was one of the leading stars in that circuit.

Long Distance Ruler Looks To Boston Marathon

Charlie Robbins In Training For April 19 Boston AA Run

By FRANKLIN HEALD
BRUNSWICK, Me.—A snow and ice-bound Navy airstrip isn't the ideal training spot for a runner, but it suited Charlie Robbins, national A. A. U. long distance titleholder, who has in mind the "hats" of the forthcoming April 19 Boston A. A. run.

Charlie Robbins has been on duty at the Brunswick Naval Air Station most of the winter, didn't let the "hats" down East, weather bother him at all. Daily workouts kept him in top shape.

The rugged 20-mile Boston marathon is a greater test of his endurance than the AAU 15, 20, 25 and 30 kilometer and marathon races, all of which Robbins won last fall to become the first runner to hold so many national long distance titles.

How to Charlie those who were waiting for the big test of his career—the BAA crown. The 25-year-old Robbins has been running since high school days in Manchester, Conn., when he first started jogging over back roads—a four-mile trek after visiting his sweetheart, who is now Mrs. Doris Robbins, mother of his two-year-old daughter, Christ.

University of Connecticut track and cross-country competition developed his talent. Then it was national meets for the stin, he specialized in the mile, he was a member of the Hartford Municipal Club.

Hank Berowy Views 20 Game Year With Cubs During 1946 Season

CATALINA ISLAND, Calif.—When Manager Charlie Grimm of the Chicago Cubs took his first look at Hank Berowy in the training camp here, he saw Mr. C.

The Bloomfield, N. J. bullet is a happy man these days. "And why shouldn't I be happy?" questions Hank. "Life has been at the best year of my life. I have no kick coming. I signed a good contract and became the father of a son during the winter."

"My arm feels great better than ever—and I feel confident of having the best year of my career," smiles the slim pitcher. "Berowy might have gone through his entire career unused and unnoticed despite his pitching ability if Larry MacPhail hadn't traded him to the Cubs for a reported $100,000 last July. He was in the spotlight from the time of his trade right up until the last day of the World Series. Hank, who never pitched for a team (the AA ball, jumped from the Fordham University campus to the Newark Bears. He was a star from the start and soon moved up to the Yankees, where he continued his winning ability. This is Hank's first trip to California. He has regained the weight and stamina he lost during the hectic 1945 campaign and is now carrying about 177 pounds of his six foot frame.

"I feel better than ever," says the slim hurler. "First of all, I am to know you are set with your foot on the ground. I think I have grown MacPhail wrong and although I am still turned up by his indignations, when he traded me, I think it was the best thing that ever happened to me. I want to win 20 games this year and I think I'll make the grade."

Davies sparked the famous Seton Hall team that won 42 consecutive games before running into Long Island University in the

Churchill Ignores Russia In Address

Urges U.S., Britain Stand Together In Address Before Virginia Legislature

RICHMOND, Va., Mar. 8. (AP)—Winston Churchill ignored completely Russia and Communism in an address delivered today before a joint session of the Virginia legislative session. Nor did the former British Prime Minister refer directly to his appeal three days ago in Fulton, Mo., for creation of a strong Anglo-American military alliance.

Churchill called upon the people of Britain and the United States to stand together "in defense of those causes we hold dear." Said Churchill: "Above all, among English-speaking peoples, there must be the union of hearts based upon convictions and common ideas. That is what I offer. That is what I want. In these last years of my life there is a message of which I conceive myself to be a bearer. It is that we should stand together."

However, says Churchill, this proposed standing together of Britain and America should be in malice to none. "In greed for nothing, but in defense of those causes which we hold dear, because we believe they mean the honor and the happiness of long generations of men."

Churchill then remarked that only the other day he had read an English nobleman's suggestion that Britain would have to become the 40th state in the union. But, too, Churchill said yesterday he had read an editor's opinion that the United States should not be asked to reenter the British empire.

Truman Fails To Remark On Churchill Talk

President Expresses Confidence Russia Will Go Along With Efforts For Peace

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8. (AP)—Although President Truman today declined to express his views on Winston Churchill's proposal for a mutual British and American military alliance, he told a news conference today that "Britain was a prime minister was exercising the right of free speech in America in making a suggestion a few days ago during a speech in Fulton, Mo."

Mr. Truman asserted vigorously that the United Nations would not be allowed to collapse. He expressed confidence that Russia will go along with the efforts of the world organization to keep peace.

The Russian situation came up when Mr. Truman was asked what would happen if Russia declined to comply with the American request for the immediate removal of troops from Iran. That situation, responded the President, will be handled when it comes up. President Truman made it clear today that a "Krug" will take over all the duties formerly performed by Harold Lanes when Krug becomes Secretary of the Interior on Mar. 15. The President told his news conference that Krug will be acting as acting administrator and in other continuing capacities in which Lanes served throughout the war.

The President told newsmen that there's nothing to the rumor that James Byrnes is ready to quit, that actually the Secretary of State has no intention of resigning.

Baseball Association Makes Final Appeal For Support

Group Is Named To Investigate Railway Dispute

Action By President To Delay Walkout By 30 To 60 Days

WASHINGTON, March 8. (AP)—President Truman has appointed a investigating board in the Railway Labor Dispute. Automatically this action by the President scheduled to start Monday by the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and Railroad Trainmen. Mr. Truman named three men to look into the grievances of the two railroad brotherhoods. They are Judge Earl Erickson of the Missouri Supreme Court, Frank M. Swacker, a New York lawyer, and Gilbert S. Watkins, of the economic department of the University of California.

The two railway brotherhoods had threatened a start of a progressive walkout Monday for pay and changes in working rules. The President at his news conference pointed out that wage issues in the rubber and telephone industries have been settled. They have been settled, he declared, strictly on a collective bargaining basis, and in a manner satisfactory to both sides. He added, they were settled without any help.

Attention Baseball Fans

We have a very serious problem on our hands which you Baseball Fans can help us solve. In trying to secure a franchise for Sanford we were faced with very strong opposition because of the fact Sanford had given her last franchise back to the League. After playing only a few months of the 1941 season. Also eight cities were already members of the League. After so much local interest was shown, a delegation of men practically forced Sanford in to the League. When the franchise money was put up, officers of the highest calibre were elected to inspire confidence and set that it was run in a business manner. Mr. Joel Field was elected President, Mr. E. G. Kilpatrick Vice-President, Mr. J. L. Ingley Treasurer, Julian Stenstrom, Secretary, and Mr. Claude Whiddon, Business Manager. Ed Levy-Whitner was signed to manage the ball club. He has lined up the main gobs of the ball club, and has the promise of more help when the higher class leagues cut down.

Now to lay the cards on the table: Our ticket drive has almost come to a halt with only half of the job completed. A few of the volunteers from the Civic Club and other returned valuable work, but they were not enough. Everybody seems to want baseball here this year but too few are willing to do something about it. Our biggest problem is the people still stand either we raise sufficient money to finance the full season, or we return the money to the contributors, and the franchise to the League. That means Sanford will be busy years trying to secure another franchise after turning this one back on the eve of the League opening.

It is up to the people of Sanford -- do you want baseball? There is only one way you can show it -- come forward and buy your ticket. Mr. Whiddon can be reached at Second Street and Sanford Avenue, or phone 786. We must sell at least 157 more tickets before we can announce that we are definitely ready to "take off" and this must be completed before Mar. 15.

Joel Field Asserts Serious Problem Facing Group In Obtaining Funds

By HERALD STENSTROM
Special Editor
General Manager Bob Tarleton of the St. Paul Saints of the American Association announced this afternoon that arrangements had been completed to furnish the Sanford Celery Peds of the Florida State League with several pitchers and catchers. Manager Ed Levy-Whitner of the Celery Peds is conferring with Tarleton this afternoon and looking over players listed by St. Paul as eligible for assignment to the local club. This action followed a conference last night between Tarleton and Sanford officials including Joel Field, John Krider, Claude Whiddon and Julian Stenstrom.

The Sanford Baseball Association today presented a complete picture of the baseball situation in this city as it stands at the present time. Joel Field, president of the association declared that "we have a very serious problem on our hands," and called on the baseball fans of the city to rally to the support of the association and its program to furnish Sanford people with baseball during the forthcoming season of the Florida State League. Mr. Field revealed at the present time that actually only a small number of baseball season passes had been sold to the public during the present drive. However, this does not include the number of passes that have been pledged by various clubs. Mr. Field pointed out that the club cannot operate on pledges but must count actual sales since the playing season is getting near and if we are to have baseball, we have got to start spending money to provide necessary items of equipment.

Mr. Field revealed that several thousand dollars has already been turned into the club but original plans called for a total of $25,000 to be raised or assured to complete a season's operation or the club would not undertake to field a team on opening day. Since the club has to have a base, uniforms and many other items of equipment it cannot use money already turned over to the association to buy these supplies because of the pledge that without necessary funds, the club would not field a team. In the event Sanford did not open the season, purchasers of passes were told that the money would be refunded. No one would want a uniform, a couple of bats or a few balls returned for their investment for a full year.

At the situation now stands, the club must decide whether to operate not later than Mar. 15. To field a team, representatives of the association pointed out that a minimum number of passes must be sold. At the present time, the association is organizing a group of Sanford business men to canvass the baseball fans in the city and urge them to do their part in providing the association with funds to operate the club for a full year.

Claude A. Whiddon, who is donating his time and efforts to assist the club in the capacity of business manager, until the season opens, today pointed out that no one individual in the association will gain any personal profit. The purchase of a season ticket will profit no one except the baseball minded people who want baseball.

Ed Levy-Whitner, who was signed as manager of the club several weeks ago, is getting a club lined up to participate in Spring training activities which are slated to get under way on or about the first of April if the club by Mar. 15, decides to operate.

Coleman Outlines Activities Of Chamber Of Commerce To Jaycees

President Of Trade Body Declares Sanford Is On Threshold Of Prosperous Era; Advocates Long Range Planning

The state in general and Sanford in particular are on the threshold of a prosperous era, declared H. H. Coleman, president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, last night during an address before the Junior Chamber of Commerce held at the City Hall.

Mr. Coleman, while outlining the organization of the trade body and discussing its current program, pointed out that Sanford has everything any other city has except "a sandy ocean beach." "In fact," Mr. Coleman asserted, "Sanford has many natural advantages not found in other places," and he called on the Jaycees to continue their loyal support and cooperate to the fullest extent to put Sanford and Seminole County in the "enviable position she so rightfully deserves."

Describing the Chamber of Commerce as a promotional department of the city and county, Mr. Coleman said the group acts as a connecting link between the governing bodies and the public. "Actually," he remarked, "most of the work of the Chamber has to be done with the sanction of either the City or county governments."

Mr. Coleman termed long range planning important for a community and to be in a position to take care of conditions that arise from time to time. Pointing out that among the items the Chamber of Commerce is handling that has required a great amount of time to develop is the port of Sanford, Mr. Coleman outlined the progress that has been accomplished to date on the project. He reported that a further improvement of the channel of the river to 12 feet has also been requested and added that the project has been given the approval of the U. S. Engineers.

He said it was hoped to have this project included in the next Rivers and Harbors Bill which may be formed during the current year. "The deepening of the river," said Mr. Coleman, "adds up to one thing -- a water route from eastern seaports into Sanford." To accomplish this, there must be established modes of transportation on the river, terminal facilities, handling and storage facilities, and the distribution of cargoes from Sanford. He pointed out that the city had secured property west of the river which would result in a situation that would result in a water route from eastern seaports into Sanford.

Ray Firestone Of Tire And Rubber Company In Town

Raymond Firestone, second youngest of the five sons of the late Harvey Firestone, president of Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, was in Sanford a few minutes yesterday on his way to inspect the Firestone Store, managed by R. H. Rogers. He was accompanied by John W. Thomas, honorary chairman of the board of directors of the Firestone Company, Homer J. Scott, district manager, and C. Pearson, a assistant to Mr. Thomas, of Akron, Ohio.

Mr. Firestone, Mr. Thomas and Pearson flew from Akron to Jacksonville in a Sikorski plane and then joined Mr. Scott for a tour by automobile of the 29 company-owned stores in Florida after which they will enjoy a vacation at the Firestone home on Miami Beach.

Mr. Firestone, who appears to be about 35 years of age, said his home is in Memphis, Tenn., where he manages the largest single tire manufacturing plant in the world. He said the company is international in scope throughout South America and in several other countries. "We are working with crude and synthetic rubber and adding to other things," he said, "most of which are synthetic."

When asked why these inspection tours are made, he replied, "We like to see ourselves from the store's point of view, compare in appearance to other stores in the same community and give our criticisms, if any, direct to the managers."

Mr. Firestone is a Princeton graduate and a peppy player of football. He recently received his discharge from Air Transport Command duty.

Death Claims Mrs. Rosa Bohlauer, 54, Following Illness

Mrs. Rosa Bell Bohlauer, 54, died at the home of Mrs. Fannie Eckle Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Bohlauer has been here for four months, and her home was in Canton, Tenn.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Canton. Mrs. Bohlauer is survived by the husband, William F. Bohlauer of Canton; one daughter, Miss Arlan E. Bohlauer of Canton; one son, Duane Bohlauer stationed in the Philippines with the Navy; three step-daughters, Mrs. Albert Clark of Canton, Mrs. Raymond Van Noy of Marietta, Ga., and Mrs. L. Bohlauer of Brookline, N. Y.; two step-sons, Franklin and Frederick Bohlauer, both of Canton; one sister, Mrs. Lyle Bore, a brother, Leon, Kinch and the mother, Mrs. Belle Kirby, all of Troy, Ga.

Pauley Again Flatly Denies Ickes Charge

Senators Insist Oil Man Will Withdraw Nomination For Post

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8. (AP)—The nominee for Undersecretary of the Navy, Edwin Pauley, again flatly denied that he ever had been a member of the oil trust, California oil men suggested, would contribute to the Democratic ticket in the gubernatorial election in the State of California. Pauley's new statement is in direct contradiction of the statement made by the Interior, Harold E. Ickes, recently testified that Pauley made such a suggestion to him. Pauley denied the charge at the time and reiterated his denial today.

It was reported that Pauley told Ickes in 1944 that if the government held off its Tidelands oil suit, $500,000 could be raised from oil rights. Pauley's new statement is in direct contradiction of the statement made by the Interior, Harold E. Ickes, recently testified that Pauley made such a suggestion to him. ## Three Qualify For Re-Election To County Board

Three candidates have qualified for re-election as county commissioners: H. B. Pope in District 1 east of Park Avenue, Sanford; J. P. McClelland in District 2, including the west side, Lake Monroe and Paola and C. Whiddon in District 4, including Ovidio, Slavia and Goldenrod. It was announced today by O. P. Herndon, county clerk.

Mr. Pope, who last spring was appointed by Governor Millard Caldwell to fill the unexpired term of County Commissioner A. J. Pope until Jan. 1, 1947, will run to complete the two remaining years of the four year term ending Jan. 1, 1949.

The operator of H. B. Pope, Inc., dealing in automobile accessories at Second Street and Park Avenue, Mr. Pope has been in Sanford for the past 14 years. Prior to that time he was engaged in construction work and civil engineering, and built many roads in northern states.

He declared that he was thoroughly in favor of constructing new roads in the county under county supervision, "if and when the money could be secured to build them," which he added could not be done to any extent by county taxes with the average county road costing about $20,000 a mile to build. He expressed the hope that sufficient race track money would soon be allocated to the county by the state to make some road building possible.

Mr. Pope is active in many organizations in Sanford. He is vice commander of both the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, posts, is a director of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, and a member of the Rotary Club, First Presbyterian Church, the Masons, the Elks and the Coast Guard Auxiliary. With Mrs. Pope he lives in a large houseboat anchored on the river shore at Indian Mound Village. A son, Capt. John Pope, is stationed with the Army at Nuernberg, Germany.

Mr. McClelland and Mr. Clonts could not be reached today for comment regarding their candidacy.

Fire Aboard Queen Elizabeth Put Out At English Port

SOUTHAMPTON, Mar. 8. (AP)—A fire aboard the 35,000 ton liner Queen Elizabeth was brought under control today after a 90 minute battle. Before the blaze had been extinguished tons of water had been poured into the ship's hold.

Officials of the Cunard Line, owners of the ship, said that damage was not extensive. The fire broke out in the hospital bedding store and the principal damage was in the hospital ward and on the promenade deck. The heat twisted steel work and filled cabins and passageways of the liner.

Southampton and Southern Railway police immediately began an investigation to determine the origin of the fire. The Queen Elizabeth arrived at Southampton from New York last Wednesday. The voyage was her last as a troop transport and she was docked at Southampton for refitting to enter the north Atlantic passenger service.

During the past five weeks fires have occurred on 13 ships in British ports. Special agents from Scotland Yard have been alerted to be on the lookout for sabotage.

Cotton Shirts

Senators from 11 southern states want cotton ceiling prices lifted. The argument that continuance of OPA will keep the cost of clothing down they think unimportant.

Many people—not southern senators nor OPA officials, but everyday shirt-wearing men and their wives—are asking what they get in a $3.00 cotton shirt besides ten cents worth of cotton.

First, raw cotton must be made into cloth. There are costs of designing, cutting, sewing, buttons, thread; shipping costs and selling costs, overhead, including upkeep of buildings and machinery; office help, bookkeeping, taxes.

Men do not object to paying $2.00 for a $2.00 shirt nor $3.00 for a shirt honestly worth $3.00. They want work, they get mad. Many are mad now, and more will be, as service men seeking civilian shirts increase in numbers, unless relief appears.

New Cars

The factories are building automobiles again, slowly now, but destined in a few months to pour from the assembly lines in vast and ever growing numbers.

But with level headed men and women, and even some of the boys, there is developing a sense of uneasiness as the toll of motor accidents begins to mount.

And this may be a good time to start training those who are capable of self-control. As for others, the problem is still more serious.

as a solution to our problem of national defense. I do believe that an adequate force can be procured and maintained through volunteers.

The San-Ju-Iti, inauguration of the Sanford Junior High School, is one of the largest in the state for a junior high school. According to a recent poll taken at the school of the favorite comic strips... Blondie is first, Buzz Sawyer second, Dick Tracy third and Smiling Jack fourth.

The staff took a poll also of Church attendees which showed that a little more than half of the students attend and also the number of radios, refrigerators and cars owned by the families of students.

The results got something like this... Out of approximately 240 students... three-fourths of their families own cars and radios and one-half own electric refrigerators... this doesn't prove anything, but it is interesting to know!

The CHARLIE CHAPLINS have another child. A seven and one-half pound son was born to Mrs. CHAPLIN last night. The 25-year-old mother is the famous GONNA GONNIE, daughter of playwright, F. GENE GONNIE. This is the CHAPLIN'S second child. The first baby was a girl.

Long Distance Slugging Is Feature Of St. Paul Drills

Blades And Tarleton Look Over Several Recommended Men At Montreal Camp

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

Powerful long distance slugging by outfielders Dave Bride, Earnest Davis, Homer Mathney, Glen Chapman and Al Simononis featured the drills held yesterday at the Municipal Athletic Field by Manager Ray Bades' St. Paul Saints.

Mathney, a hefty righthander, lifted a number of long blows over the left field wall as did Bride and Davis. The long drives impressed Bob Tarleton, St. Paul's general manager who pointed out that the left field wall in the Saints' home park measured only 325 feet. If this is any indication of the power of these long range hitters, he asserted, "there'll be quite a few home runs this season in St. Paul."

Several on-lookers explained that there was more long distance hitting during today's sessions than during the entire period of the Dodger school which recently in-filled here. Those participating here.

Manager Blades, in addition to putting pitchers Tom Senker, Dick Lanahan, Duane Sloan, Dick Selvig, Avitus Himsel, Ralph Wiczorek, Phillip Haugstad, Jim Schantel, Verne Williamson, Ed Weiland, Milton Goemer, Jerry Dvorak, Meade Strachan and Harry Taylor through another session of handling themselves on and around the initial sack, put several infielders through a long in-field session. Those participating were Gilbert Neumann at first base, Jack Lowe, Paul Goertin and Eddie Koshik at second, George Spears and Melvin Pige at short, Joe Vetter, a veteran Saint infielder, at third base, Fred Tschudin handled the duties behind the plate.

Moundsmen Weiland, Himsel, Goemer and Taylor took to the hill during batting practice. Tarleton checked in at night that no new men had been checked in at the camp. He stated that Milton Monty was a right handed hurler, was on his way, Larry Rosenthal is expected to arrive in Sanford today. Tarleton also declared that catcher Hudson Neely and pitcher Eugene Kelly are completing studies at the University of Minnesota and will not leave for the local camp until the middle of the month.

Tarleton also said that he and Blades, while in Daytona Beach yesterday, looked over several players recommended to them by Rodgers. Tarleton said the Montreal unit also training in Daytona Beach, has about "six players for every position and how they're going to farm them out under the present International League system, will no doubt turn out to be quite a problem."

Tarleton added that "the Dodgers

Monty Stratton Back On Mound With Single Leg

Former Chicago Hurler To Pitch In East Texas Loop

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
SHERMAN, Tex.

The pitching arm that for four years made Monty Stratton one of the stars of the major leagues returns to the firing line after eight years of professional baseball inactivity. Stratton will be playing on one artificial leg for Sherman of the East Texas League.

The 32-year-old Greenville, Tex., giant lost the leg in a hunting accident in the winter of 1938 but has now become so accustomed to getting around on the tall field on an artificial limb that he's ready to try pro baseball again.

He has made several attempts but it wasn't until last season that he could reach the stride indicating he might once more participate with the pay-for-pay boys. He was a star hurler in the big semi-pro tournament in Texas.

"Monty is 32 years old but he's in excellent physical condition despite his handicap," says President Arthur Willingham of the Sherman club. "He's still a good baseball pitcher in any man's league."

An East Texas League rule passed recently will permit Stratton to have a base runner when the lanky veteran goes to bat.

Stratton started in the game at Van Alstyne, Tex., and in 1933 a Chicago White Sox scout saw the firball pitcher and signed him. Monty first went to Galveston of the Texas League and remained a month before he was sent to Omaha in the Western League. The next year he was with St. Paul, then he went to the White Sox.

Stratton will assist Manager Guy Sturdy of Sherman in conducting a two-weeks baseball school here in early April.

He has quite a number of good players that are ex-service men and they too are loaded with talent. He remarked that the American Association player limit is 20 men with five more permitted under the National Defense regulations.

St. Paul officials had their eyes centered today on Phillip Haugstad, a tall, lanky righthander who is in his first year in professional baseball. He has plenty of stuff on the ball. Haugstad is from Humbird, Wis.

London Has Olympic Games But Can Find No Room For Athletes

By JAMES R. CHAMBERS
LONDON—Olympic games will be in London, two years from now, but the British Olympic Association doesn't yet know where they will be held. Lord Burgess, the chairman, and his colleagues will have to make up their minds very quickly.

Without a doubt Wembley Stadium will have a big share of the proceedings. But as it hasn't a running track it's more than likely that the old White City Stadium, scene of the 1908 games, will be brought into use again.

Organizing Olympic games and housing athletes are tremendous tasks, and as all building in Britain now, and for many years to come, is laid down to supply people with homes lost in air raids, it will be impossible to build an "Olympic village" as they did in Berlin to keep all athletes together.

It seems more than likely that competitors will be spread over London, that is if there is any room in hotels.

Blades Declines To Name Starters For Tilt Saturday

Manager Ray Blades of the Saints this morning declined to name a starting lineup for the St. Paul tilt here tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with the Montreal Royals who are training in Daytona Beach.

Blades remarked that yesterday's workout was only his second since he has not had time to single out the players for even tentative starting assignments. He said that the club faced a strenuous exhibition schedule but that the organization would take it "in stride if we are in shape."

General manager Bob Tarleton said that admission prices would be charged for box, grandstand and bleacher seats. He also reported that there is a possibility that one or two night games would be played at the local park.

Qualifying Rounds Slated This Weekend

Ed Levy-Whitner, manager of the Seminole Country Club, announced yesterday afternoon that qualifying rounds in the inter-city club golf tournament will be played Saturday and Sunday. The finals in the tourney will be played over the course on Saturday and Sunday of next week.

Members of the Jaycees, Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary organizations will participate in the play. The

Leslie O'Connor Still Opposed To Baseball's Chain Team System

By JIMMY JORDAN

CHICAGO—The judges right hand man has stepped into a new role and although going through a metamorphosis insofar as his baseball pitch of view is concerned, he likes it.

That's Leslie Michael O'Connor, new general manager of the Chicago White Sox, one of baseball's top figures for 25 years, but who, of necessity, will take a new slant on the game when the season opens in Comiskey Park April 16.

O'Connor, and purely by accident, too, became secretary to the late Kenesaw Mountain Landis when baseball moguls decided they needed a high commissioner following the infamous "Black Sox" scandal nearly three decades ago.

For 24 years, as Landis' right hand man, O'Connor delved into baseball law, wrote briefs on cases the judge was to decide, and was a relentless foe of the baseball farm system.

Now he is building up a farm system for the White Sox.

Like New Job
"I like it here," he said across a desk covered with papers, letters and player contracts in Comiskey Park. "We have a lot of rebuilding to do, and we're going to do it. A lot can be accomplished with the White Sox, and I feel that within a year or two we should be a first-division team, a pennant contender."

He plans to develop most of our own players down in the minor, and bring them up to the Sox, instead of tending for the most part on purchases.

Did that mean the man who proposed the revolutionary "Landis plan" that would abolish farms altogether had switched to a "pro-farm" ideal now that he was a club executive?
"Emphatically, no," he said. "I'ven't changed in the slightest degree. I am still a foe of the farm system. I still believe it is bad for everyone concerned. But I also realize that as baseball is now constituted, you can't operate without it. Therefore, we are forced into it in self-defense."

Sanford To Have Duckpin Bowling Alley Shortly

operated by Edgar Jensen of Orlando, Fla. was announced today by H. Taylor, representative of the Park Bowling Association of Normal, Ill., who is making the installation at the site of the former bowling alley on Magnolia Avenue which in November, 1944, was destroyed by fire.

Volie Williams is the owner of the building which is being reconstructed as near fireproof as possible with steel structural supports, metal roofing and sheet rock insulating board.

Mr. Taylor, who has installed many regulation bowling alleys throughout the country, said that "duckpins" is rapidly gaining as a popular sport throughout the country particularly in St. Louis, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities. It appeals to women who cannot easily handle the 12 to 16 pound regulation ball, as duckpin balls weigh only four pounds, he said. High school and grammar school children take to it and form teams, and it is adaptable to church and civic club teams, he pointed out. Elderly persons also enjoy it.

The installation of the alleys will cost more than $16,000, he estimated, and will be strictly standard for duckpins, which has for its target ten pins, the same as regular bowling. A 30 foot counter will be installed for sale of refreshments. Winter Haven was the first city in Florida to have a standard regulation duckpin alley, and installations are planned in many other cities, said Mr. Taylor.

Sanford is due within the next 60 days to have the first regulation duckpin alley in this section of the state, which will be

Florida Writing Success Chapter Into Nation's Financial Records

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 8. (AP)— Fabulous Florida, through its citizens, is writing its name into the financial records of the nation another chapter of success. It has been revealed by records

Compiled in the Banking Department of the office of State Comptroller J. M. Lee, from the current statements of state banks. With deposits mounting higher almost daily the cash resources of Florida, from private citizens to the state treasury, reads like the page of a success novel. Many elements in the financial structure of the state show resources, have often multiplied ten fold within the last ten years. In 1925, for instance, the total resources of all state bank and trust companies stood at $64,375,876.61. In 1944 it was $387,198,574.05. A year later the total had jumped to $503,232,434.47. By the end of 1945, those in an excellent position to know predict the total may be above $600,000,000.00, if the present trend continues.

We are doing everything possible to expand facilities. This year thousands of miles of new long distance circuits are being added—additional long distance switchboards are being installed in many places and hundreds of young women are being employed and trained as operators to help meet the increasing demand for more long distance service. It's a big job and will take time. Until the job is done we will continue to need your help when circuits are over-loaded by using the service only for necessary calls. Mr. Coleman described the tourist business as the second most important chamber project. He declared that this is the largest money crop in the state. He remarked that tourist resorts in the southern part of the state have become so crowded that the tourists are being allowed around and "due to the gambling and racing elements there, a great many people will find places like Sanford much quieter and more suitable for an enjoyable winter vacation." The chamber president outlined the plans of the advertising committee and termed the acquisition of the USO building as beneficial to the chamber, the tourist organizations of the city and county and the public. Mr. Coleman asserted that the chamber is doing all within its power to improve the roads in Seminole County and outlined plans for the future as well as what has been thus far accomplished in conjunction with the State Road Department. He called on the Jaycees to work with the chamber in getting new industries started here and said that within the organization, "projects along this line are being expanded and encouraged as much as possible." Mr. Coleman outlined plans of the Sanford Naval Air Station to be used to the best possible advantage as a county hospital center, vocational and military training school, public airport, county fair grounds and possibly a baseball training center for a major league club and its allied teams.

Chinese Communists Nationalist Forces Moving Into Mukden

Bitter Fighting In City Suddenly Evacuated By Soviet Forces

CHUNGKING, Mar. 11.—(AP)— Chinese Communist and Nationalist forces are said to be moving reinforcements into the area of embattled Mukden, the big industrial center from which Russian troops have been withdrawn suddenly.

The China Central News Agency says that bitter fighting is raging in Mukden between the opposing Chinese factions. Press dispatches received in Chungking say the Chinese Communists heavily outweigh the Nationalists. The Communists are said to have seized control of the power plant and northern district of Mukden—a city of 2,000,000.

Other dispatches say the Chinese Central Government has proclaimed martial law in the once-great Manchurian capital whose plants have been picked clean by the Russians.

The suddenness of the Soviet withdrawal has been blamed for the street fighting in Mukden. Dispatches received by Chungking government officials say the Nationalists did not have enough forces to cope with the situation.

Ma and K. C. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and other high Central Government officials have discussed the Manchurian situation at a series of meetings in Chungking. Chinese Information Minister K. C. Wu has denied an assertion that the Soviet navy paper—Red Fleet—had requested the Russians on Feb. 26 to postpone their departure from Manchuria. Wu said that on Dec. 30 it was agreed the Russians would complete their withdrawal from Manchuria by Feb. 1. Wu asserts that since that time, there has been no Chinese request to the Russians to postpone their departure.

Plans Made To Insert Subsidy In Housing Bill

Administration Heads Meet This Morning With President Truman At White House

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11.—(AP)— Democratic Senator Alben Barkley declared today that the Administration expects to restore a subsidy fund to housing legislation when it reaches the Senate. Senator Barkley made the announcement following a conference of congressional leaders this morning with President Truman at the White House.

President Truman has asked for $5,000,000 in subsidies on building materials as a means of keeping the cost of new homes from going too high. The House of Representatives struck the subsidies provision from the housing bill and also killed a provision that would have put ceiling prices on existing dwellings.

Senator Barkley said that Administration supporters will try to revive all features of the original housing program asked by President Truman. But he declared that the main effort will be thrown behind the subsidy payments, which the President says would enable returning veterans to obtain homes at reasonable prices.

The government is putting final touch on a new order designed to channel construction activities into the building of new homes. The order, which has not yet been issued, is understood to call for reduction in commercial and industrial construction, particularly of such buildings as night clubs and theaters. Persons who have seen a draft of the order declare that it is drastic and far-reaching.

Union Leaders Say Policy Same In GM Walkout

GE And CIO Resume First Negotiations Today In 2 Months

CITY ASSOCIATED PRESS.— Top leaders of the CIO United Auto Workers have issued a statement declaring that what ever personal differences there may be between them, they are united insofar as their policy in the General Motors strike is concerned. Rumors of a struggle for power within the union between President R. J. Thomas and Vice President Walter Reuther have been circulating. The three men in the organization, Thomas, Reuther, and Secretary Treasurer George Addes, declare that they are in unanimous agreement on the strike, and hold that the corporation alone is responsible for the continuation of the walk-out.

They assert that General Motors is responsible because of its failure to accept the recommendations of President Truman, and its refusal to arbitrate the issues that remain unsettled.

The statement was given out as the union's strike negotiating committee met in a closed session preparatory to resuming wage talks with General Motors officials this afternoon.

Meanwhile in New York, the General Electric Company and the CIO United Electrical Workers Union are to resume wage negotiations today for the first time in almost two months. The wage talks were broken off Jan. 15 when 100,000 union members struck in GE plants in 16 states.

Company President C. E. Wilson says that the only important issue still not agreed upon is wages. Wilson says he has no idea how long it will take before an agreement is reached on that score.

In Philadelphia, AF of L leaders indicate a strike at a Philadelphia hotel by 275 workers seeking pay increases may spread to five other downtown hotels. If it does, some 2,500 hotel workers would walk out in sympathy with the demands of the 275 workers who are striking for a pay hike of six cents an hour. Five AF of L unions are involved in the hotel dispute.

Celery Shipments From Florida Jump To 771 Cars During Week

Request That Price Controls Be Removed From Fresh Vegetables Will Be Sent To Congress By FVC Committee

CELERY shipments from Florida jumped during the past week from 467 to 771 cars as compared with the previous week. Quality was reported improved by heavy rains of late February. Demand is still good and considering the heavy shipments, prices have held up very well. Large sizes of special variety are quoted at about $3.00 FOB Sanford, and Golden variety, $2.50 and up.

Of the total shipments from Seminole County, 365 cars, presented nearly half with 365 cars shipped during the week of this total. Sanford shipped 254 and Ovidio, 111 cars.

New plantings are reported to be in good shape, according to Charles Sherman of Federal State Market News Service. There are in Zellwood, Ovidio and Wierdale.

There is a fine demand reported for cabbage, especially at the Sanford State Market. Prices have been rising and this morning were listed at $1.75 to $2.00 for locally grown cabbage. Quite a bit of cabbage has been planted in this section over a period of time, according to growers. The Florida Vegetable Committee has announced that ceilings on cabbage has been suspended indefinitely.

Inspector Finds Defect In Water Meter At Market

H. J. Lehman, manager of the Sanford State Farmers Market, reported today that tests made yesterday by W. C. Goshen, inspector for the State Department of Agriculture, showed that the City water meter installed there in September was registering 184 gallons for each 100 gallons of water going through the meter, and that this was due to a two inch instead of 1 1/2 inch year having been installed.

"I had noticed that since September the water bills had been much larger for the market than usual," said Mr. Lehman. "Twice I had a plumber inspect all the plumbing at the market—but nothing wrong could be found. I refused to present the water bills to the state until the reason for the large bills could be found, and requested Norman Mayo to send the inspector here."

George M. Temple Is Here On 20 Day Leave

2/2e George M. Temple of the United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Temple, is currently spending a 20-day leave in Sanford with his parents. He is scheduled to report for further duty in California about April 1.

Wilson Says State Should And Can Help To Feed European Peoples

JACKSONVILLE, March 11.—"Right now we hear the voices of millions of Europeans crying out for food," said William L. Wilson, Director of Florida State Farmers Markets here today. "The great bulk of that food must be produced from American sources. Florida can and should contribute to that production."

"I feel, however, that if we are to make a maximum contribution, it is essential that the red tape which has so frequently and sometimes disastrously hampered our efforts in these recent years, must be cut to a minimum. Florida strawberry growers, poultrymen, and other producers have some rather unhappy memories to write-off the records," Wilson asserted.

"Just now, for instance, while eggs are an almost unobtainable luxury in Britain and other lands overseas, we in Florida are faced by a condition which is forcing farmers to sell their flocks. Unless there is some re-

Marshall On Way To U. S. To Talk With President

Arrival Of Truman's Envoy To China Is Scheduled Thursday

CHUNGKING, March 11.—(AP)— The Presidential envoy to China, General George C. Marshall, left Chungking by plane today for Washington. Marshall will confer with President Truman on the Chinese military and political situation. His flight itinerary includes Tokyo, Wake Island, Honolulu, Long Beach, Calif., and then Washington, with his arrival at the Capital scheduled for Thursday.

The General will confer in Tokyo with General MacArthur. During Marshall's absence his duties will be taken over by Lieutenant General Alan G. Ladd, former commander of the 14th corps in China.

Just before Marshall left Chungking representatives of the Chinese National Government and the Communists agreed that they would meet in Chungking to discuss the military and political situation under the jurisdiction of the Peiping executive headquarters. The agreement was reached by General Chang Chih-chang, representing the Chungking government, and General Chen En-lai, representing the Communists. They decided to permit field troops to go to Manchuria to supervise putting the cease-fire into effect.

CHUNGKING, March 11.—(AP)— The official communist newspaper Pravda turned its editorial guns on former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill today. It was Moscow's first direct reply to the speech which Churchill made at Fulton, last week.

Pravda accused Churchill of trying to incite war against the Soviet Union. The Soviet newspaper asserted that if the former Prime Minister's ideas were put into effect for a British-American military alliance it would mean the death of the United Nations Organization.

The Moscow editorial said that Churchill had attempted to intimidate the whole world with the horrors of Soviet expansion and its alleged menace to true democracy in the west.

Moscow quoted the Pravda article as declaring that Churchill had tried to impress the idea that a new war is inevitable. Continuing the Communist Party newspaper accused Churchill of inciting people to this war and, namely, to war against the Soviet Union.

According to Pravda, Churchill declared the Soviet Union by saying that Russia wants the fruits of war and unlimited expansion of her strength and doctrine.

After referring to Churchill's anti-soviet attitude between the first and second world wars, the editorial cited British policies in Greece as Churchill's conception of the prototype "liberated Europe." Pravda general Russian charges that British troops in Greece were supporting what the newspaper called fascist monarchist reaction.

Mystery Surrounds Giant Egg Found By Hasky Wight

F. Hasky Wight today was unable to tell if one of his hens had laid a huge egg Saturday in the coop back of his home at 1515 Park Avenue, or whether he is the victim of a practical joke by some prankster.

The egg weighs seven ounces and measures seven inches long and a half inch in length. It is an oval shape. The other four eggs shown by Mr. Wight today were of moderate size. Mr. Wight's hens, he said, are high bred, Hampshire and white Leghorns.

"They are queer hens," said Mr. Wight. "At one time one laid an egg as small as a marble, and at another time one was shaped like a pecker."

Mr. Wight said that he has conferred with Charles "Master Mind" Morrison in an effort to solve the mystery, and to get out any possible skull-duggery in the case.
