Lewis Asks Repeal Of Labor Laws Of Last 21 Years

Says Unions Can Now Stand On Their Own

By HOWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur today asked Congress to repeal major labor laws of the past 21 years and Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) quickly asked if it would not mean to return to the law of the jungle.

Lewis, testifying before the Senate Labor Committee, told that unions have now reached the point where they could grow and foster without the protection of either the 1947 Taft-Hartley law or its predecessor, the Wagner Act.

Sen. Taft, majority leader, and Lewis, president of the United States Workers Union, kept a packed gallery in laughter with a quick exchange of comments over the law. Taft helped write and Lewis has called "Bob Taft's slave statute."

Lewis said Congress "became afraid too soon" in writing the law.

The 73-year-old union chief told the committee to give serious thought to his proposal. He said unions could grow and foster without the protection of either the 1947 Taft-Hartley law or its predecessor, the Wagner Act.

Sen. Taft, majority leader, and Lewis, president of the United States Workers Union, kept a packed gallery in laughter with a quick exchange of comments over the law. Taft helped write and Lewis has called "Bob Taft's slave statute."

Plan For End Of War Given By MacArthur

General Sees Threat To China Effective

By EDWIN R. HARRISON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur today declared that the United States must strike at Red China to force Russia to settle the Korean War "pending global issues on equitable terms."

Vigorously renewing the controversial program which in part is his masterly former President Truman as the "Allies' Far East commander," MacArthur said in a letter made public today.

"We still possess the potential to destroy Red China's (Hsin) industrial base and sever her tenuously supply lines from the Soviet Union," a warning of action of this sort is a warning of the danger to the Soviet Union to bring the Korean struggle to an end without further bloodshed.

Such a threat, MacArthur said in a letter dated April 19 and received by Sen. Byrd (R-Va.), would force the Communists to face a possible "Red China debacle." When the Soviet said the U. S. had "the will and the means," he said, "it might well settle" Korea and all other world issues equitably.

He declared he was sure it would not lead to World War III. MacArthur blamed "the inertia of our diplomacy," for throwing away what he called "the golden moment to achieve peace" after he had badly beaten the North Koreans in October, 1951.

Not only was this opportunity thrown away, he said, but a failure to capitalize on the situation contributed to the entry of the Chinese Communists in the fighting, creating what he termed "the new war."

He wrote that normally the Chinese would not have dared to risk entry into the war, but "they are a process or another it was conducted by, or conveyed to, the Red Chinese," that their territory would be designated as sanctuary from U. S. attack.

MacArthur agreed with Byrd, who had written asking his comments, that there were ammunitions shortages in Korea, he said, the late Gen. Walter Walker's Eighth Army was once down to "five rounds per gun."

He said his requests to bomb and blockade Red China and use Chinese Nationalist troops were initially approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Jan. 12, 1953.

"But somewhere between the office of the secretary of defense, the secretary of state and the President, those recommendations were pigeonholed," he said.

At the time, Gen. George C. Marshall was secretary of defense, Dean Acheson was secretary of state and Truman was President.

MacArthur said this country then "took the course leading to the present stalemate of positional warfare," which "necessitated tremendously increased expenditure of ammunition to protect our lines from enemy infiltration or collapse."

The general now is an official of Remington Arms.

Farm Problems Are Considered By Market Group

Members of the advisory committee of the Sanford Market met yesterday afternoon at the market to discuss ways and means of improving marketing facilities. They also studied the problem of trying to develop a better understanding between farmers and dealers.

Following the session, Chairman R. F. Cooper called another meeting which will be held May 14 at 8:00 a.m. to consider further the problems of growers and marketers.

Present at yesterday's session were Joe Corley, John Brumley, M. B. Smith, W. A. Lorlor, and Manager Sandy Anderson, who acted as secretary.

Mr. Cooper stated that Manager Anderson has done and is still doing all he can to help the farmer and added that the advisory committee hopes to be able to determine and to advise Manager Anderson on what will be the best way to solve the problems.

There was a discussion pertaining to acreage control, but no action was taken. Chairman Cooper called for another meeting after a full discussion of the marketing conditions with no constructive solution being reached.

Today Mr. Anderson issued the following statement in regard to the problem:

"The basis of America's economic structure, without a doubt, must lie in its agriculture. Food and fiber for civilian and military purposes, and the raw materials for industry, are produced on farms. If farmers provide these essential crops, they must have something more than the cost of production. This they do not get today.

"There are those who say the farmer should reduce his cost of production. In my opinion, this is a silly remark. It would be equally silly to say that the farmer should reduce his cost of making loans; that the contractor should lower his cost in the construction of buildings; that the manufacturer should reduce his cost in the production of clothing, automobiles, tractors, and farm equipment.

"It could also logically be said that the cost of government should be reduced.

"The hard fact is that the farmer does not control the cost of the product, but is a creature of circumstances. He must buy his supplies and labor from other farmers and he must pay whatever is asked. He has no choice.

"The fact is — and I must stress this — the farmer's primary concern is to produce his products in proportion to the general economic level of prices that he is compelled to pay before he can produce farm products.

"I sincerely hope that the local advisory committee of the Sanford Market will work out some solution whereby the growers will realize a profit for his hard labor."

The robbers were surprised by two policemen, who were cruising through a couple of blocks of the Southwest Bank in the 2000 block of Lacey South Kings Highway in West St. Louis, about 11:20 a.m.

There is also an upstairs section measuring 72 by 90 feet for athletic goods, tents, along with other equipment plus a section for reserve stock.

This Sunday Family Communion Sunday. The Gospel story is from St. John chapter 16, verses 16-22. "A little while you shall see me no longer, and again a little while and you shall see me because I go to the Father." The sorrows of this life are very real and no one can avoid them. But in the light of faith and belief in heaven, they become short and trivial compared to the everlasting joy of eternity. And therefore you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one shall take from you."

That the belief of death will be eventually supplemented by the realization of eternal life is the keynote of services in Christian Science churches next Sunday. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "PROBATION AFTER DEATH".
The Golden Text is from 1 Corinthians (6:14): "God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power."
Included in passages from the Bible is this: "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lend me in the way of truth." (Psalms 139: 23, 24).
Correlated citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Anatomy, when conceived of spiritually, is mental self-knowledge, and consists in the dissection of thoughts to discover their quality, quantity, and origin. Are thoughts divine or human? That is the important question" (p. 102).

What does Water mean to You?

Are you a fisherman? Then a rippling, tree-lined stream like this beckons you to drop in your line.
But perhaps you're the athletic type. Then you would like to swim. Or you're interested in boats and paddling a canoe would appeal. A weary traveler would long to bathe his face and hands.
A farmer visions fertile acres fed by its life-giving flow. The scientist contemplates the living minutiae in its depths. The engineer calculates its hidden power.
Water is all things to all people. Without it there could be no life.
God is like water. Without Him there can be no life. Without His refreshing invigoration, your soul would shrivel and die. Without His strength and power there would be little good in the world. Without His cleansing love, life would be sordid and unpleasant.
And through the Church you can find Him.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

State Legislature

both sides of the turnpike issue after their views after hearing State

Road Chairman Richard H. Simpson discuss his recommendation that the state proceed now with construction of a Stuart-to-Miami turnpike, with extension of the 40-mile superhighway northward left for further study.

The road department's proposal was to go before the Legislature in the form of a bill which would create a five-man turnpike authority empowered to borrow money through revenue bonds to build the 50 million dollar Stuart-to-Miami tollpike. The bonds would be repaid solely from tolls.

Interest charges, based on a 30 year maturity of the proposed bonds, would run the total cost to 96 million dollars, Simpson told the house committee.

The road department has suggested an alternate financing plan that auto tag receipts, not already earmarked for school construction, be used to pay for the turnpike as it is built. This would eliminate interest charges, Simpson said.

However, the financing alternate is not included in the road department's turnpike bill, since it would be an appropriations measure and should be handled separately, Simpson said.

The Legislature already has before it a bill to provide for construction of a state-long toll road running down the east coast from Jacksonville to Miami, with a cross-state leg to the Tampa Bay area. This proposal, which was backed by the Warren administration, would cost an estimated 255 million.

On Monday, Thursday, the British sovereign traditionally distributes specially minted money to as many needy persons as there are years in his (or her) age.

STATE IMPROVEMENT
TALLAHASSEE — A Senate committee today withheld action on two bills dealing with the controversial State Improvement Commission to make further study of the situation.

One of the bills, by Sen. Ripley, Jacksonville, would abolish the agency completely. The other, by Sen. Gaudier, New Smyrna Beach, would limit its spending to $10,000 in any two year period without express legislative approval.

The commission is under fire from a House committee investigating alleged irregularities in state building projects the commission supervised, and has been criticized by some legislators for its role in financing millions of dollars worth of public projects through revenue bonds.

The Senate Governmental Reorganization Committee, although expressing opposition to the borrowing and spending policies of the improvement commission, decided to delay formal action on the bills until Gov. McCarty has opportunity to act.

McCarty, who has said he plans to limit the commission's borrowing powers to emergency projects, has only now gained control of the board through appointment of his own men to succeed members named by the Warren administration.

On Monday, Thursday, the British sovereign traditionally distributes specially minted money to as many needy persons as there are years in his (or her) age.

Father Of Four Slain
Children Being Held

QUEBEC — A 45-year-old laborer, the father of four children, was slain with an ax, was held in jail today awaiting the outcome of a coroner's inquest.

Solicitor General Antoine Rivard said the father, Georges Hebert, was arrested last night in a tavern and has made "statements" to the police which would be introduced at an inquest.

No charges can be laid under Quebec law until the coroner's jury has returned a verdict.

Hebert was picked up shortly after he visited the local morgue and said his four children had been killed in a railway crossing accident. A morgue employee who admitted his story telephoned the police.

Officers went to the Hebert three-room apartment in West Quebec and found the bodies of the children—Henri, 9; Louise, 7; Nicole, 3; and Gaetan, 3. Their heads had been smashed with an ax.

A wife, who had been at the home of her parents since Saturday, was being held as a material witness but no charges would be filed against her.

Tuesday night, the police said. They said Hebert's pregnant wife, who had been at the home of her parents since Saturday, was being held as a material witness but no charges would be filed against her.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Jesus of Nazareth trained a dozen men of most humble callings and education. These men turned the world upside down. Men have latent powers of which they do not dream. Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.—Mat. 4:19.

Don't you feel better today because you gave to the cancer fund last night?

The Times-Union joins those of us who are no natives for economic concern over the prospects of peace in Korea. "These fears of a 'recession depression', it says, 'need to be kept in mind that a cut in armament expenditures is certain to be followed by a cut in taxes.' And so the money which has been spent on tanks, guns and the powder to blow them up, will instead be spent on radios, refrigerators, and clothing.

Earl McGrath resigns in a huff as federal commissioner of education over what he calls an "indecent budget cut which reduces the quality of education of American children". Whether the quality of education being given American children is due to the commissioner of education or any federal bureau or to county school boards and teachers is something which we hardly need to argue. The trouble with federal aid to education is that most of the aid would go to bureaucrats.

Senator Sparkman of Alabama who was nominated by the Democrats for vice president last year, may not even be able to carry his own state for re-election as senator next year, according to John Temple Graves of Birmingham who says, "When you add all the double talk on FEPC and such during the presidential campaign which John Sparkman will have to explain when he runs for re-election, you wonder 1) if he can be re-nominated and 2) if he can be re-elected if he gets the nomination.

Dan McCarthy thinks that because of his heart affliction he will make a better governor than he otherwise might. "Since I've been in bed", he says, "I have become the state's champion reader of newspapers—and it's astonishing how much you can learn by reading them closely". It's astonishing how many people do not read their newspapers thoroughly. Too many of them read the comics, the personals, sports, and skip the really important news. They do not know that the horse is being stolen until after the barn door has been locked, and then it is too late to do anything about it.

A number of people have asked us why we do not launch a crusade to do something about the Jeffreys report. We do not know what good a crusade could do now. Mr. Jeffreys has fled the state and has taken our money with him. Even if he were caught and brought back, we do not believe we could get our money back. Besides Fort Lauderdale is making every effort to do just that and if it is successful in arresting him, then would be the time for us to file our claim. The Commission made a mistake, all right, in hiring an ex-convict to make a crime survey, but who can say he has never been taken in by a slick-talking, slick-of-hand pocket-picking swindler?

The House vote in favor of a constitutional amendment giving 18-year-olds the right to vote again suggests that if a man is old enough to fight for his country at 18, he is also old enough to vote. However, it by no means follows that a person who can shoot straight with a Garand rifle or march 50 miles in a day with a 60-pound pack on his back can also vote intelligently. Some of them can, of course, but a lot depends upon where their interests lie. If boys of that age are interested in civic affairs, government and politics, no doubt they are able to exercise properly the right to vote. But most of the boys of that age whom we know are far more interested in girls, baseball, and the

Southern Memorial Day

On Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock a program will be presented in the Lakeview Cemetery in memory of those soldiers, North and South, who died in the War Between the States. There will be a prayer, a hymn, a recitation, an address by the Rev. J. E. McKinley and taps.

For Sunday, Apr. 26, is Southern Memorial Day, sometimes known as Decoration Day, observed in the northern states and in Virginia on May 30, in Louisiana and Tennessee on June 3, in North and South Carolina on May 10, and in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Florida on Apr. 26. In recent years this occasion has been devoted to memorials to deceased veterans of all wars as well as to those of '05.

The first Memorial Day is reported to have been observed in Columbus, Miss., not far from where the battle of Shiloh was fought, when a group of ladies decided in April, one year after Appomattox, to place flowers on the graves of Northern soldiers buried there, as well as upon the graves of their own sons.

On May 30, 1868, General John Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued an order designating May 30 "for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country", and that date has remained to the observance of Memorial Day in northern states ever since.

While we pay tribute to the fallen heroes of this war, it is well to keep in mind the sorrow and suffering of this fratricidal strife, what a hell on earth can be caused by extremists on both sides who are so sure they are right they cry for the blood of the other in the name of Christian civilization.

There would have been no War Between the States if the counsel of cool heads had prevailed. If the people of the South had known that most of the people of the South were not slave owners at all, and that many of those who did own slaves were seriously concerned with this problem.

But because of slogans, and politics and battle-cries, bullets flew and men died. The graves of six hundred thousand wearing the Blue or Gray were counted at the close of the war and within a few years there were hundreds of thousands more filled with the bodies of those who had been sick or wounded.

Today it hardly seems possible. And yet it happened.

Does The Veep Return

The Veep may not be through with politics. After serving in the House and Senate for 30 years and being vice-president for four, Alben W. Barkley is apparently ill at ease in a retirement from office which has lasted ever since last January. At any rate he is reported to be considering a race next year against Senator John S. Cooper, Kentucky Republican who will be up for re-election.

Success in this race might console him for his disappointment last year when he was told that a 74-year-old man could not be considered for the presidential nomination. He must since have reflected that had he run, he undoubtedly would have been swamped by General Eisenhower.

Is he too old for the Senate? Presumably he does not think so. Perhaps he has heard of Edmund W. Pettus, senator from Alabama half a century ago. Pettus had applied at 75 for a federal judgeship, but was told by the senator who was making the recommendation, that he was too old to be a judge. "Well, I'm not too old to be a senator," retorted Pettus. He ran against the man who had rejected him, beat him, and served 11 more years until his death in 1907.

The Veep has a lot of life in him yet.

Jobb Address Will Highlight Rollins Activities Sunday

WINTER PARK (Special)—An address here Sunday on British foreign policy by Sir Gladwyn Jebb highlights activities at Rollins College.

The address, on Britain's role in the United Nations, will be given at 9:30 a.m. in the Knowles Memorial Chapel at Rollins. It is part of special convocation exercises at the college, at which Sir Gladwyn will be awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

Sir Gladwyn and Lady Jebb will arrive at the Orlando airport Saturday afternoon, accompanied by press attache Paul Wright. They will return to United Nations headquarters in New York, where Sir Gladwyn is permanent representative from the United Kingdom, on Sunday afternoon or Monday morning.

His address is described as "a major speech" and one that would not "normally be given out of New York." College officials consider it more significant than addresses given in February by General Omar N. Bradley and U. N. assembly president Lester Pearson.

Particular attention has been given international affairs by Rollins during the past several months. Following their appearance on the Animated Magazine program Feb. 22, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hollingsworth began a move to establish an endowed chair of politics at the college, and

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY

By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the green grass quiver,
Asleep in the ranks of the dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one the Blue,
Under the other the Gray,
These in the restings of glory.

These in the gloom of defeat;
With the battle-blood sooty,
In the dusk of eternity meet;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the laurel the Blue,
Under the willow the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers
Alike for the friend and the foe,
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the roses the Blue,
Under the lilies the Gray.
So, with an equal splendor
The morning sun rays fall,
With a touch impartially tender
On the blossoms blooming for all;

Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Browned with gold the Blue,
Mellowed with gold the Gray.

So, when the summer callith
On forest and field of grain
With an equal murmur falleth,
The cooling drops of the rain,
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Wet with the rain the Blue,
Wet with the rain the Gray.

Shall, but not with unbraiding,
In the storm of the years that are fading,
No braver battle was won,
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the blossoms the Blue,
Under the parsnips the Gray.

No more shall the war cry sever,
Or the winding rivers be red;
They laughed our anger forever
When they laured the graves of our dead,
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Love and tears for the Blue,
Tears and love for the Gray,
Judge J. M. Finch.

Bill Passes Senate Fixing Liquor Hours

TALLAHASSEE (Special)—It would be unlawful to sell or consume alcoholic beverages on licensed premises after midnight Saturday evenings or Sunday in Seminole County, according to terms of a bill passed by the Senate today.

Authored by Senator Boyle of Sanford, the bill specifically includes the sale or consumption of any beverage containing more than one per cent of weight of alcohol.

Penalties for violation would be a $1,000 fine or a year in prison or both, if the bill is enacted into law.

Earlier this week Senator Boyle introduced Senate Bill 344 amending laws relating to extension of city limits to include property in single ownership. This bill was referred to the Cities and Towns Committee.

ORDERED DEPORTED WATERMELON DISEASE

TAMPA (AP)—Alonso Montes, 33, a resident of Tampa who has been ordered deported to Honduras where he is a citizen, was indicted Thursday on a charge of illegally landing aliens in this country.

The Federal grand jury indicted him remained mild when he was Congress leaving his program to tactics. Congress would be providing the leadership.

Eisenhower's policy of being nice to Congress is conscious, deliberate and careful and, as Nixon indicated, rooted in the belief that a soft word turns away wrath and will win congressional support.

The President gave a good example of his method at yesterday's news conference. On Wednesday the House voted down his administration's request to build 35,000 low-cost dwelling units, a program begun under former President Truman.

Eisenhower said, when asked, that he didn't agree with the House action. But he quickly added he was sure the House members had voted according to their consciences and besides he had not asked them to support the housing program.

He noted the Senate hasn't acted yet. If the Senate reverses the house action, the House members might be more willing to do an about-face than if Eisenhower had antagonized them by blasting them yesterday.

Nixon said of Eisenhower: "He consistently reminds the members of his Cabinet that it is the responsibility of the administration to gain congressional support for their policies through persuasion rather than through threats and ultimatums."

While those instances when a controversy develops between the White House and the Congress will be magnified and will make the news, there is one prediction I can safely make.

"It is that President Eisenhower will have the overwhelming support of Congress for the program he presents to it."

This may be an accurate forecast. Eisenhower so far has had congressional blessing on most of what he wanted, although nothing of major importance has been acted on so far.

There has been one notable exception. He asked Congress to approve a resolution condemning the Russians for enslaving people. But Congress wouldn't approve unless they could include criticism of dealings with the Russians by his predecessors. President Roosevelt and Truman, which Eisenhower left out.

When the Republicans who control Congress saw the Democrats in the Senate wouldn't go along, they ditched the whole idea.

This was a defeat for Eisenhower, but he didn't fuss about it. Why he felt it wasn't important enough.

His assistant, Sherman Adams, said yesterday that those who look for the President to make an attack on Congress are going to be disappointed. He was talking to the Republican Conference of Women Leaders here.

The deeper question in this policy of being nice with Congress does not involve attack or tongue-lashing. Rather, it is this: Will Eisenhower follow the policies at any cost? It gets down to a question of leadership.

Opening Of Melton Autorama Will Be Event In Hipoluxo

HIPOLOUXO, Fla. (Special)—This tiny community on the Palm Beach County coast, home of the historic Papefoot Matman, will make a row bid for fame this weekend with the opening of the James Melton Autorama.

Autorama, which also deals in history—the automotive industry—will feature Mr. Melton's famous collection of vintage autos and other transportation vehicles which were the pioneers of the first days of the "gas bugles."

Formal opening of the new museum of automotive memories has been set for Saturday with a press preview called for Friday evening. Formal dedication ceremonies will be under the direction of E. V. Faircloth, president of the Autorama corporation. A special concert featuring Melton as the vocal artist will also be a part of the opening as will a flag-raising ceremony to be conducted by a crack squad of Airmen from International Airbase at West Palm Beach.

The new attraction which promises to be one of the most outstanding in the state, is located in the former Lake Blythe Club in the shadow of the historic postoffice in which the late-foot Matman made his headquarters. The museum is eight miles south of the Palm Beaches on U. S. Highway 1.

The entire Melton collection of antique autos has been moved here from its former location in Connecticut. The vintage autos, stage coaches, firetrucks, bicycles and other exhibits are all being displayed in a spectacular setting of colorful mural paintings—most of them with tropical Florida themes.

Blues In The News By BOB ANTHONY

Tonight is the night of the big USO hayride which is scheduled to leave from Highway 1, S. E. building on First Street at 7:30 p.m. and keep a nice slow pace until it reaches its destination of Rock Springs. At Rock Springs there will be a winner roast and group singing around an open fire.

The hayride tonight is one in a series of "special" events which have been taking place at the USO since Navy men and junior hostesses have been allowed to serve on the USO committees. These young men and women have ideas of their own about the kind of fun they like and as a result of their offering suggestions to the committee, there is definitely a greater interest being shown in the organization by the men at NAAS.

Having so many nights during each month filled with "special" programs is a tremendous amount of work and credit can be given to no one individual. The entire USO Committee, Senior Hostesses and Junior Hostesses are responsible for the "new look" at the USO and it is to each and every one of them that the credit must be given. The Navy representatives on the committee are Bill Brennan of NAAS, Ralph Gasman of Farson B1, Al Ioznowsky of VCS and Jim DeWolfe of WJ-42. To all these individuals, who are giving so freely of their time to make the Sanford USO one of the best in the country, goes this week's "Blues in the News Salute!"

It's a girl for the Folker family of 818 Park Avenue, Sanford. It is Elwyn and Audrey, first child and she was born Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. in the Orlando Air Force Base Hospital, weighing 7 pounds, 3 ounces. When I asked the father who his new daughter looked like, he gave me the best answer I've heard yet—"It's too early to tell," he said. Elwyn is an airman and is attached to Farson B1 here aboard the station. Congratulations Elwyn and Audrey!

Miss Frances "Boots" Moore has been chosen a "Miss NAAS Sanford" for 1953. Boots, who is also Miss Sanford, will compete in the Florida Pageant to be held in Daytona Beach beginning April 29. Good luck to you, Boots. Hope you can bring home a winner!

Two newcomers to NAAS are Robert C. Ginnas and Gerald F. Foley, both seaman apprentices. The two men checked aboard the station yesterday after completing their "boot" training at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md. Bob has from Toledo, Ohio and has been assigned duties with the Communications Department here while Gerry's home town is Newbury Port, Mass. and he will be working with the Administration Department of NAAS. Welcome aboard, men!

Last night at 7:00 p.m., the whistle aboard the station sounded two long blasts for thirty seconds each. This was done in cooperation with the city of Sanford announcing the opening of the Cancer Fund Drive. There are about twelve containers for the American Cancer Society located in various places aboard the station for your contributions. Don't wait to be asked. Be a volunteer and give generously. The drive ends May 1, so make your contribution Monday!

There will be a Captain's Personnel Inspection tomorrow morning at 7:30 a.m. for all NAAS personnel. Uniform for enlisted men will be undress whites with neckerchiefs while officers are required to wear their service dress khaki with ties but no coats. The inspection will take place on the grounds behind the Administration Building.

NEW ZION CHURCH

The Vocal Harmonizers, radio and concert artists, will appear at the New Zion P. B. Church on Sunday night at 8:00 p.m., Rev. F. Martin, pastor, announced today. A free will offering will be taken.

Record Budget For Diocese Approved

ST. PETERSBURG (Special)—The diocese of St. Petersburg of the Episcopal Church has approved record budgets for 1954 for Diocesan expenses and missionary work. The missionary budget of $150,228 includes $76,483 for mission work outside the diocese and $73,745 for work inside it.

The $71,213 allocated for Diocesan expenses includes $10,000 for a priest of the church to become executive secretary to the Rt. Rev. Henry I. Louttit, bishop of South Florida. At the closing session of its annual convention Thursday the Diocese went on record as being unopposed in admitting Negro students to the theological school at the University of the South, Seawane, Tenn.

WINTER PARK (Special)—

Shells from the Pacific island of Guam will be featured in the Beal-Mallie Shell Museum at Rollins College during the last week of its showing this season. The museum closes May 1. The shells have been loaned to the museum by a Rollins student, and were collected on Guam by a serviceman during World War II. They are typical of the shells found on so many Pacific islands where American servicemen fought. Even though some shells are in the museum's collection, this special exhibit contains some never before displayed here.

Miamians Warned To Beware Of Damsel

MIAMI (Special)—Miamians were warned today that if a cute, teen-aged blonde with a pony tail knocked on the door and asked to use the phone they'd better alarm the door in her face and call police. A deputy sheriff reported the blonde had done just that for two nights in a row. In both cases she said her car had a flat tire. Once she was inside, male companions followed and robbed the occupants. Victims Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards. They said the young woman let in two men, their faces masked with stockings.

The bandits forced the Edwards to lie on the floor while they looted the house of $700 in jewelry, a typewriter, a watch and two guns. A third man drove the getaway car which had been stolen and was later found abandoned. Deputies said the same four-roomed Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Porke Jr. in Coral Gables Wednesday night of some $2,000 in jewelry, cash and whiskey. The same method was used.

GATORS LOSE, 2-0

ATHENS (Special)—Florida bats were quieter than ever before this season in a 2-0 loss to Georgia Thursday. The Gators got only one hit off Georgia's Allen Parrish. Virgil Martin came through with that in the eighth. Georgia got five hits off Florida's Rudy Simpson and scored both runs in the eighth on two singles, a double and a sacrifice. The victory gave Georgia a sweep of the two-game series.

Allies Offer Huge Sum For First Red Jet

Move Designed To Undermine Air Force

TOKYO.—The Allied high command tonight offered $100,000 to the first Communist pilot to land his Russian-made jet in South Korea, a move designed to undermine morale of the Red air force.

Radio appeals and leaflets carried the message in the Russian, Chinese and Korean languages.

In a move unprecedented in the Korean War, the command promised political asylum for the first pilot to come over and any others who would follow. Those who follow would get $50,000.

An official announcement said the offer was made to get "invaluable technical intelligence" and to sow distrust and suspicion in the Communist air force.

Leaflets dropped in North Korea carried a photograph of Franciszek Jurewski, a Polish jet pilot who flew his MIG-15 to Denmark and was given political asylum only recently.

The message in the Russian language began "comrade pilots" and was entitled "road to freedom."

The one in the Chinese language was addressed to "courageous jet pilots."

The official announcement said the Air Force hoped to get the same results as ground forces have had in their surrender leaflet campaign.

"The enemy," said the announcement, "has found it necessary to send out patrols to watch over ground reconnaissance patrols to keep individuals from surrendering to United Nations Command forces."

"In the same way, officers of the Far East Command believe the present operation should reduce the combat effectiveness of the Communist air force."

"Henceforth, a MIG flight leader should be very much concerned about his own flight about not down and escape. He will tend to be wary about the other pilots in his flight and they may distrust each other."

Sixteen Items Are Listed On Agenda By City Manager

Sixteen items are on the agenda for tonight's City Commission meeting in the City Hall at 8:00 o'clock.

The list as announced by City Manager Tom Lennon is as follows:

Officers of Tourist Club will appear to meet City Commission and discuss Tourist Club activities and grounds.

Officers of Tourist Club would like to learn if the City could be interested in receiving an offer for that property that is located just east of the old ball park on Celery Avenue.

Request from Al Wilson for street light on Rosalia Drive where Madiera Avenue enters Rosalia street.

Request (oral) from Clarence Hocking of McCrory's Store for permission to locate "Hocket Airplane Show" kiosk in front of his store (44 in chess wide and 8 feet long).

James Wylth of Blythe Truck Co. will appear with regard to a lease on City property just south of pump house on French Avenue and Thirteenth Street.

Request of Robert Korns to present to Commission group insurance proposal.

Machinery Expected For Dress Concern

Machinery to be used by a dress manufacturing concern to be located in Sanford should start arriving in this City the early part of this week, Ralph T. Cowan, president of Sanford Industries, Inc. said today.

He said he had received word from officials of the company which is expected to employ about 50 women that some of their equipment would be shipped out later this week.

Mr. Cowan added he had received a substantial check to be used to get a building in shape for the manufacturing firm. From all indications, the Sanford Industries president declared, the firm was sincere in its proposed transfer here.

Another dress company is considering Sanford as a site for location of a plant, but Mr. Cowan said there was nothing definite on this project. Employees for this firm would number between 250 and 300 persons.

PUBLIC RELATIONS
Forrest Brockbridge, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, attended a Florida Public Relations Association meeting in Jacksonville Tuesday.

The group discussed public relations and the importance of the connection with public relations and advertising.

Rollins Program Is Presented At Rotary Luncheon

The importance of inter-American solidarity and the Latin American Program at Rollins College were stressed today in a program presented by Rollins Dean through the courtesy of Mrs. Robert W. Crell, assistant to Dr. A. J. Hanna in Winter Park.

The speakers on the program included: Arrie Weinstein of Philadelphia who explained the purpose of Pan American Week and traced its origin to the formation of the Pan American Union in 1901; Marco L. Ferrero of Ecuador who explained the purpose of fighting in his native land; and Miss Sheila Nally of Buenos Aires who outlined the manners and customs of the people of the Argentine.

Mr. Weinstein said that Pan American Week was observed at Rollins this year from April 8 to 15. He included the presence of Ambassador Angier Biddle Duke and R. S. Atwood of the State Department who conducted several round table conferences with the students in which the problems of Latin American relations were discussed.

He told of the Spanish Center at Rollins which is known as Casa Iberia where the Spanish language is taught to the adult public as well as to Rollins students, and where important dignitaries from the various South American countries can be entertained and made to feel at home. It is of Spanish architecture and furnished with Spanish antiques.

Mr. Ferrero said that his fight against the people of his country is like baseball to the American people and he pointed out that he believed Americans could learn to fight in the same manner as the baseball player. Rollins fighting takes place in a big outdoor stadium and a good blunder often makes between $50,000 and $80,000 in one night. He displayed a gold embroidered cap, or cape, which said to him worn by the matadors in the procession before the fight in Madrid.

Miss Nally said that Argentina (Continued on Page Three)

Position On Hike In Teacher Pay Is Told By Williams

Expressing his support of a $200 teacher pay increase per instructional unit, Rep. Volie Williams of Sanford today explained why a larger sum could not be granted without a proportionate increase in taxes.

There is not a member of the legislature who does not agree with me that to carry the favor of all groups recommending increases in appropriations for each of the state boards, bureaus, and departments; however, I would like to assure you of the following facts which I, as a Representative, cannot ignore:

The anticipated revenue in the general revenue fund for the State of Florida for the year 1953-54, approximately $384,000,000.

The House Appropriations Bill, which is a special order of business beginning today, calls for an appropriation of $12,000,000 for the salary of teachers.

House Bill Is Passed Providing Outlay Of 344 Million Dollars

President Asks New Review Of Immigration Act

WASHINGTON, P.—President Eisenhower has asked Congress to make a new study of immigration problems.

Sen. Watkins (R-Ill.) chairman of a Senate subcommittee on immigration, closed today that the President would have him suggest a review of the McCarran-Walter Act passed last year.

The President told Watkins he has received "a great many complaints" that the act "substituted many serious and undesirable restrictions."

Sen. Hall of Ohio the majority leader in the Senate was asked for his estimate of an adjournment date. With a large he said "I am not taking any time up on the Senate. We are not making any commitments on some old issues."

The House subcommittee on territories unanimously approved a resolution to adjourn into the adjournment of March 1, 1961.

Congress approved the adjournment and boundaries for years and but never get around to adjournment.

Arms Making To Be Concentrated In Fewer Plants

WASHINGTON, P.—The Truman administration will concentrate arms production in fewer plants, but keep others available for use if needed, the deputy secretary of defense said today.

Roger M. Kyes, in an address prepared for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce convention here, criticized as "fantastic" some of the planning done by the former Truman administration.

The scheme mentioned in the address would be to eliminate high cost plants and still assure enough production capacity to keep America strong in peace and war.

The criticism was a part of a plan of reorganizing the industry's plan of producing orders out among a large number of plants.

The new plan calls for orders to be increased at the more economical plants, and halted at those some of the plants when out of production will be kept on a stand by basis.

Two Million Lopped Off New Buildings

TALLAHASSEE, P.—The Florida House today adopted a general appropriations bill calling for expenditure of slightly less than $4 billion dollars on general fund agencies, institutions and services for the next two years.

The total was about two million dollars more than the appropriations committee recommended and about $2 million dollars more than the state agencies and institutions have for this biennium.

Before final adoption by a vote of 89 to 2 the House lopped $2,000,000 off a proposed outlay for a new office building and air conditioning all other structures in the Capitol Center. It left in $21 million dollars for a new building that had been put down for $3,500,000.

It approved building funds proposed by the committee for all other agencies and institutions.

A separate bill creating a five million dollar fund for construction of a University of Florida medical center in Gainesville was on the House calendar for consideration after the general fund spending measure.

It would make total general fund appropriations for the House of $4 billion minus $2 million over (Continued on Page Six)
