

AVIATION FIELD HERE WOULD BRING FLIERS THINKS BOARD TRADE

WILL DISCUSS PROJECT NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT.

The regular meeting of the governors of the Sanford Board of Trade will be held Monday evening 8:00 o'clock, Sept. 9th, at the new Board of Trade rooms over the Herald office, Magnolia avenue.

Tuesday night, Sept. 10th, at the Court House, the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will convene. After this month's meeting, all meetings will be held in the hall of the Board of Trade at their new headquarters. It is hoped that all interested members and citizens will be present Tuesday night. Our Board of Trade is now on a solid working basis; it has already accomplished much good and will accomplish more merely by your showing an interest in working land for your county and city. Indications are that a larger than usual number of tourists will come to Florida this year and Sanford wants her share and to get them we must work together for that end.

At the Tuesday night's meeting we will also take up the question of erecting a landing station for airplanes from the Carlstrom and Barr Fields at Arcadia.

Weather and Crop Conditions

Temperature.—Temperature ranged from 2 deg. below normal in the west to 1 deg. above in the northern portion. Midday temperatures were moderate.

Precipitation.—Except locally, where the rainfall was somewhat above the normal, there was a general deficiency, being most pronounced in portions of the central and southern divisions. The weekly total was particularly heavy in Bradford, Baker and Putnam counties, where the totals ranged from 4 to 7 inches. Showers occurred almost daily in some localities, where nearby districts received but little.

Condition of Crops.—Practically all growing crops need rain, especially cane, though this crop was greatly benefited where rains occurred. Irish potatoes, strawberry plants, seed beds and some peanuts, velvet and castor beans. Preparations are being made for truck generally, and some small crops have been planted, although the weather has been too warm and dry for much activity. Sweet potatoes as a rule are doing well. Much of the corn crop has been harvested; the yield is poor to good. Cotton is being picked generally; there has been some deterioration, and weevil are bad in some localities. The yield is fair to good. Citrus fruits are generally promising.

Word for the Sailors

Atlantic Squadron, Aug., 1918.

Dear Sir—I have read quite a few letters sent to the Herald by the boys across and those going across and they seem very proud of the fact that they are over there, or going over soon, which they should be. I envy them very much but it looks like they are trying to give the boys that are hooked over here the razz, so please do not forget that the boys of the Atlantic Squadron on this side sweat just as hard for Uncle Sam as those "over there."

Respectfully,
A Sanford Sailor.

TOOK JOY RIDERS NAMES

Those Who Rode on Sunday Will Be Sent to Washington

While the Fuel Administrator does not wish to be mean about the request to put up the joy wagon on Sunday he will send in the names of all those who were seen on the streets last Sunday, and next Sunday all who are on the streets unless they are on business that is allowed them will have their names taken and they may be stopped and questioned by the officers in the efforts to find out just why they are riding. This joy riding edict at present is not mandatory but it will be made mandatory if necessary and it behooves the people to pay attention to the request and to keep the cars in the garage on Sunday unless it is absolutely necessary to use them. This of course does not apply to the people from the country who come in to church or other good and sufficient reasons.

Death of Infant Daughter

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Munroe died at Daytona Beach Tuesday after a lingering illness of many months. The baby had been sick almost from infancy and it was thought that a change to the beach would effect a cure but it seemed destined that the little bud was to be plucked from earthly fields for those above and the little spirit winged its flight after all that skilled physicians and the best of nursing could do.

The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Milo Massey of the Baptist church officiating. Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery. The sympathy of their many friends is extended to the bereaved parents.

WORK ORDER IS WRONG IN SPOTS

SENATOR FLETCHER FINES U. S. RULING.

The work or fight order promulgated by the State Council of Defense seems to have been too sweeping in many respects, and people all over Florida have been wanting more definite information regarding the order and also wanting to know whether the state order superceded any other orders or not. Accordingly the Miami Metropolis wrote Senator Fletcher regarding the order and the following from the Metropolis will be interesting:

Credit must be given the Miami Metropolis for obtaining an authoritative ruling on a question that has been raised by a recent order of the Florida State Council of Defense. This was to the effect that men engaged in the building trades would have to transfer themselves to war work by September 15. The Metropolis immediately applied to Senator Duncan U. Fletcher to secure an official interpretation of the act as far as it relates to the question at issue. It will be noted that the Senator's reply, which is appended hereto, finishes with the statement that "the Department recognizes the great danger of too broad and too general application of the work or fight order." Senator Fletcher's account of his interview with the Provost Marshal General, whose decision that the meaning given to the order to the Council of Defense was "without the consent or approval of the War Department" must, of course be accepted as final, reads as follows:

"The Miami Metropolis, Miami, Florida:

"Your wire of Saturday received about one o'clock Sunday afternoon and was submitted this (Monday) morning to the provost marshal general, and was advised that no such

FERTILIZER FACTORY BURNED

PLANT OF VIRGINIA-CAROLINA CO. DESTROYED.

Tuesday evening about 7:30 the alarm of fire brought the department to the plant of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., where the roof of the older part of the building was discovered on fire and a fire that burned so quickly that the entire old and new building was ablaze and burning fiercely in a short time that made the efforts of the fire department useless as far as the plant of the V. C. Co. was concerned.

The night watchman discovered the fire almost as soon as it started but it had been developed by spontaneous combustion of the chemicals and was so fast that almost before he found it and could get back to the telephone to call the department it had seized upon the entire building and he had barely time to grab the adding machine from the front office when the fire was flung upon him.

The fire department stayed on the scene and rendered good service in putting out the blaze on a string of A. C. L. box cars on the track near the plant. The switch engine pulled out the train and saved three cars and the other seven were pulled out and extinguished by the department, but not however before they were almost destroyed.

Several of the employees lost personal property in the fire as nothing could be taken out after the fire started on account of the rapid headway gained by the flames. Supt. Downing lost a number of valuable draughting instruments and several suits of clothing.

The loss cannot be estimated at this time as some of the fertilizer can be salvaged and the records being burned copies will have to be sent from the main office to be checked but it can be placed over the $150,000 mark it is said as there was a

MELLONVILLE EARLY DAYS DESCRIBED BY GROWER; MENTIONS OLD SCENES

COVERED WITH GLORY

Y. M. C. A. Workers Under Fire Help Boys

Paris, Sept. 3.—True to the best traditions of the Red Triangle, the workers attached to a famous army division that participated in the big push on the Chateau-Thierry front have covered themselves and the Y. M. C. A. with glory.

The trucks on which Y. M. C. A. free supplies were transported were under fire constantly for several nights and were frequently hit by shell fragments and shrapnel. In several cases the supplies distributed by the "Y" men were received by soldiers who had had practically no rations for two days. One officer whose company was given food from a truck asked the driver to go to another position where there was a body of troops suffering for food. The ride was over a road swept by shell fire and the driver was in momentary danger of being blown off the face of the earth, but he found the suffering men and distributed his entire truck load of rations among them.

Letter From Joe Chittenden

The following letter from Joe Chittenden recently wounded in France will be interesting:
Somewhere in France,
August 3, 1918.

Dear Mother:
Well, it didn't take long for them to lay me up, but I thank God it is an injury that will get well. I wrote you a couple of weeks ago and have not had a chance to write since. I don't even know whether that letter was mailed or not as we left the same night. I was assigned to Co. D, 168th Infantry, one of the oldest regiments on this side.

We started moving as soon as we got there, and I got my first glimpse of the REAL army. That night we hiked about 12 miles (7 1/2 miles) and had to stop about every 15 or 20 minutes to keep a Boche plane from shooting us down. Well, we moved that way for four nights and finally ended up with a trip in trucks to the Chateau Thierry front. We were in there for seven days under shell fire all the time and part of the time under machine gun fire. I stayed with them until the last day, but they got me then. We had advanced up a hill under heavy fire and were lying on the crest of it. The first thing I knew I felt a heavy thud and found that my leg was broken. The bullet went all the way through my thigh and came out the other side. I was sure lucky, as I lay there four hours before the fellows could get me out.

I'll be all right again in three or four months so don't worry about me. Just get back to a base hospital today and I will be all O. K. here. We have some mighty fine officers and the attendants do all in the world they can to help you. Guess I'll quit now, as I feel a little tired. Don't worry. There isn't any more to worry about, than there would be if I was in the same shape at home. Love to all.

large stock of valuable materials on hand. Nothing can be learned of the plans of the company regarding the rebuilding of the plant. This is the second time within a few years that it has been entirely destroyed by fire and while fertilizer plants are a necessity even during the war it may be that on account of the high price of materials and scarcity of labor that the plant will be a temporary structure until after the war.

The plant carried insurance but the building would cost more now to erect and this may discourage the V. C. Co. in their plans at this time. This field, however, is too big to be ignored and it is certain that some time in the future a big plant will be rebuilt here. The loss is keenly felt in Sanford and vicinity where the plant made a showing in weekly pay rolls and it is hoped that the company will rebuild as soon as possible and build bigger and better than before.

MAN WHO PLANTED LARGEST ORANGE GROVE.

At the close of the Civil War a boy in Tennessee, just from the army with a horse and a little money concluded to go south. No danger of getting lost, as he has no special place in view. He found Atlanta in ashes, spent Sunday in Hawkinsville; passed where Jeff Davis was captured; one little store at Valdosta.

Likke City, Gainesville and Ocala were small villages. He stayed all night at Moss Bluff on the Oklawaha river. Fifty miles to Mellonville and only one house on the road, Mr. Stewart's near where Apopka is now. Stayed all night there and to Mellonville next day—that was as far as he could go.

There were no roads nor settlements south of Mellonville, which was the head of navigation on St. Johns river and named for Captain Mellon who died there and was buried on the bank of the river. The soldiers had built Fort Reed two miles from there. There were about twenty houses in that neighborhood, a little store and no post office. Some of the soldiers were discharged there and commenced the first white settlement while in Orange county. The county was about ninety miles long by sixty wide and had seventy-five registered voters. There was no town or court house in the county.

Went hunting with Arthur Speer and killed a big buck the first day. Went fishing and caught an eight pound trout. Went fire hunting with Mills and killed one of Woodruff's milk cows the first shot. Fell in love with Florida and concluded to stay and raise an orange grove.

The largest grove in the state was four acres at Mellonville. Most of the old settlers had a few trees in their yards, but no commercial groves and none being planted. Commenced looking for a location. There was a settlement on south Apopka. The settlers said they were protected from cold by the big lake and had never had a killing frost. There were a great many wild orange trees growing around the lake.

Bought forty acres from the state with a wild grove on it, cut the trees off three feet from the ground, budded them and had fruit in three years; added to it and made thirty acres. It is now the oldest grove in the state, and has been bearing fifty years and has a good crop now. Some of the trees will have a yield of ten or twelve crates.

The question has been asked, does orange growing pay? We have to go by what has been done.

The writer selected a location, prepared the land and planted a 30-acre grove for T. C. McKey of Valdosta, Ga.; thirty years ago. He had accumulated $200,000 from the profits. He got $20,000 for the crop last year and the crop is as good or better this year. If there is any evidence wanted in this case we refer to Mr. McKey himself and to Walker Bros., packers at Orlando, who have bought the crop several years and to L. W. Moore, who takes care of the grove.—B. S. M. in Florida Grower.

Roy Chittenden in Cuba

Roy Chittenden, who is with the U. S. Marines stationed in Cuba and the camp paper gives him an item about a ball game recently played down there. It seems that Roy is still hitting the old horsehide and running bases as well as ever and war has had no effect on his prowess. The following item is from "Rumor," the camp paper:
"Our first run in the second inning was the work of Chittenden, who after getting a hit stole second, third and to cap the climax stole home. The stands went wild when he did this and the echoes are still ringing through the hills and valleys."

IN DEFENSE OF THE TICK

Dr. Dolan Thinks They Are Barrier Against Diseases Much More Dangerous.

There are two sides to the question of the eradication and elimination of the cattle tick.

It has been said the tick must go. The cattle tick, also called Texas fever tick, is going to be exterminated if what we read in the papers is so, and none to raise a voice in its behalf, for the good it has done for the great state that has given it shelter so long. The verdict has gone forth and the Texas fever tick must go.

Why don't they call it the Florida tick? It looks as if that would be a better name and more appropriate than the Texas tick, but as everything from Texas is supposed to represent something great as the state is large, I am sure the tick comes under that head or class, for it has accomplished some great things for the state of Florida.

One man says in his writings, "I attribute the opposition to tick eradication to gross ignorance."

Well, I want to show some of the friends and enemies of the tick some of the great things it has accomplished.

Florida does not have that dread disease Anthrax or Charbon. Anthrax exists in most countries of Europe, in Asia, Africa, Australia and in our own country, especially in the lower Mississippi Valley, the Gulf states and in some of the eastern and western states. While it is chiefly limited to cattle and sheep, it may be transmitted to horses, mules, goats, dogs, hogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs and mice. The variety of domesticated animals which it may attack renders it one of the most dreaded scourges of animal life and men, women and children are subject to this infectious disease.

In the time of Alexander the Great, thousands perished, but it has not entered our Florida cattle for the tick stood guard. Anthrax is no respecter of persons, rich or poor, and claims its victims every day.

Another disease, Black Leg is produced by a specific bacillus readily distinguished from that causing Anthrax. Cattle between six months and two years of age are the most susceptible to this disease, but it has not entered Florida for the tick stands guard.

Hemorrhagic Septicemia is a highly fatal and infectious disease to cattle and other animals. The disease is essentially a septicemia or blood poisoning, and the invasion occurs from inoculations. In Florida, however, the tick has stood guard against this disease.

The last but not the least of infectious and communicable diseases is tuberculosis. I have never seen it in Florida cattle and I have been testing it for years but when Florida tick is eradicated, then the get rich quick, regardless of who suffers, will begin to get in their work and tubercular cows condemned in other states will be shipped in by the hundreds. But as long as the Florida cattle tick stands guard they will be kept out.

Why eradicate the Florida cattle tick when by so doing you open the way to other diseases more deadly to man and beast? The tick does not attack man, woman or child, but the other diseases do. Tick fever is not an infectious disease. It is not carried from one animal to another but Anthrax is. If animals having ticks die you can sell the hide and the meat also can be utilized. But in the case of those having Anthrax the only safe remedy is to burn the animals.

AMUSEMENT

"OVER THERE" SELECT PICTURES

AT THE STAR FRIDAY

"Over There"

Reports that have been received by Arthur S. Kane, General Manager of Select Pictures, indicate that one of the reasons why "Over There," the new Select production starring Charles Richman and Anna Q. Nilsson, which will be shown at the Star Theatre next Friday is being heavily booked throughout the country, is because of its very direct appeal to men of enlisting age throughout the communities where it is shown. It is estimated by those who have seen the picture, that its presentation will have an appreciable influence on recruiting for the United States army, and in this connection the famous land battleship "Recruit," which is anchored in Union Square, plays a leading part.

"Over There" is a big patriotic play built above the thrilling scenes which followed our declaration of war with Germany and concerns the lives of a small group of young people who in their various ways rise to the occasion. During the action of the story, both stars, in their respective roles enter into Uncle Sam's whirlwind recruiting campaigns, and a number of stirring bits are staged on the speaking deck of the "Recruit." This is the first time that the celebrated dry-land man-of-war has entered into the making of a photo drama, and its appearance on the screen invariably gets a hand.

The picture was produced under the direction of James Kirkwood and its subtle scenes have been especially commented on for their careful staging and attention to detail. It is a red-blooded play of war and love and adds a new feather to Select's cap.

Death Ends Revel in Maniac's Hare

The surest sign of a man's mental dissolution, psychologists tell us, is fung out when he indulges in magnificent dissipation. Nero had his hanging gardens, Louis XVI had his Versailles with its love courts and countless other rulers and men of powers have had their pavilions, their pleasure palaces and their retreats, secret and otherwise.

"Decadent modern millionaires have their studies and mountain lodges concealed until some tragedy reveals their existence to the public. In view of this it is only natural that the authors of "Blue Blood," a Select drama starring Howard Hickman, should have devised a like form of indulgence for the principal character in their play. He is Spencer Wellington, the last of a long line of supposed aristocratic ancestors, who marries a girl of fortune without telling her of the taint of madness in his blood.

In a secluded part of his estate there is created a building of marble and gilt. Inside all the luxury of the Orient is recreated for the jaded young man, including a veritable harem of girls. The end of his orgies occurs in a mad revel, the like of which is never seen in public, preceding the death of the pitiable wreck of manhood. Wellington's folly is said to have been inspired by the life of a California prodigal whose exploits are known everywhere. The play comes to the Star Theatre on Tuesday--Today.

Tells German Secrets

"Is it not a shame that the world should have been so disturbed, that peaceful men are compelled to lie in mud and filth in the depth of raw winter, shot at and stormed at and shelled, waiting for a chance to murder some other 'inoffensive fellow creature? Why must the people of old Poland die of hunger, not finding dues enough in the streets of Lemberg? The long lines of broke peasants in Serbia and Roumania, the population of Belgium and northern France torn from their homes to work as slaves for the Germans; the poor prisoners of war starving in their huts or working in factories and mines; the cries of the old and the children wounded by bombs from Zeppelins; the wails of the mothers for their sons; the very rustling of the air as the souls of ten million dead sweep to another world why must all these horrors come upon a fair green earth, where we believed that love and help and friendship, genius, science and commerce, religion and civilization once ruled?"

In the introduction to Ambassador James W. Gerard's remarkable book, he so eloquently asks these questions which all the world is interested in. In the big, remarkable film production of the book, "My Four Years in Germany," you will find the answer why the world is at war, you will see unrolled before you the whole history of German intrigue and plot.

Senator Trammell has appointed R. R. Tomlin of Plant City to succeed R. A. Gray as his secretary. Gray has been commissioned as captain in the motor transportation division. Gray was once a newspaper man and so was Tomlin. The latter was administration house leader under Trammell as governor, and exhibited marked ability as a parliamentary tactician.

Volusia county will vote on compulsory dipping of cattle November 5th, Brevard county recently carried its election and St. Lucie county is preparing to hold an election this fall. Palm Beach county carried some time ago, Broward county and Dade county are tick free, so there is a very good chance for the entire East Coast to lead the state in this great movement for freedom.

Alachua, which is one of Florida's leading cattle counties is just beginning to get ready to eradicate the tick. Alachua took first prize at the state fair.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN FOR W.S.S.

FLORIDA MUST TAKE TEN MILLIONS MORE.

If Florida is to do its full duty by War Savings Stamps as it has by Liberty Bonds, Red Cross and the U. S. A. it will be necessary to sell about $15,000,000 worth of War Savings Stamps between now and December 1. Approximately $5,000,000 of this has already been pledged and another $5,000,000 already bought, leaving a little over $5,000,000 to be actually bought in addition to the amount already pledged.

With this situation confronting the state, there was no other alternative but to put on another intensive campaign period from September 9 to 14. It is realized that this comes at a bad time of the year, but war is rapidly teaching the nation that it cannot arrange its programs for the accomplishment of any purpose at the most convenient time, or to suit personal wishes.

The Liberty Loan drive will begin the last two days of September, which made it impractical to have a War Savings drive any later than September 14th.

This county is far behind in its quota, both in amount purchased and amount pledged. The county organization is hopeful that the full amount will be raised, and is leaving nothing undone to bring War Savings and the splendid feature of this plan as an investment, as well as the discharge of a patriotic duty, to the attention of every man, woman and child in the county.

There are many people in Florida who do not yet understand what a War Savings Stamp is. Many are under the impression that it is a form of contributing money to the government, others are under the impression that it is a campaign seeking to interest women and children in saving. War Savings Stamps are designed to convert to the uses of the government in this critical time every possible ounce of labor and material by encouraging people to refrain from the purchase of non-essentials and place the money so saved at the disposal of the government. For this service the government pays 4 per cent annually, compounded quarterly, with an additional attractive feature that the purchaser of these securities can have his stamps redeemed, if he should need the money, by giving ten days' notice at any money order postoffice.

Every man, woman and child in this county, and every other county in the state is urged to be prepared to sign a pledge that they will save and sacrifice, and lend their money to the government.

The machinery has been set in the building of the Plant City Growers' Association for the grist and feed mill to be operated under direction of that organization, and the meal and feed mills were tested out recently. There is a grots bolter in connection, but this is not yet in operation owing to non-arrival of some small but necessary part of the machine.

HOME TOWN HELPS

PLAN FOR FUTURE GROWTH

Reasons Why Town's Development Should Be Looked To Many Years Before It May Come.

This is the spirit of the publication, but under the heading "Provision, Prevention and Preparedness" the editor lays down certain principles that apply generally and will be repeated in all sorts of variations at the joint housing and planning conference. These principles run as follows, and are worth quoting:

"City planning is the exercise of municipal imagination. It is the scientific and expert vision of inevitable city growth and the preparation of plans to provide for that growth. It is municipal prevision, municipal prevention and municipal preparedness.

"City planning is the civic sense that refuses to build today what must be torn down tomorrow; that refuses to believe that the future will not be greater than the past; that refuses to act on the theory that the growth of ten years gone by will equal the growth of ten years to come.

"City planning is the wisdom that insists the distrust of the future insures distress in the future; that doubt of future growth insures beyond doubt an unhealthy growth; that lack of preparation for growth means future expense in correction of unregulated growth.

"City planning is economy. It is not the economy of doing without. Doing without is not economy. It may be extravagance. A city that does without parks and playgrounds in abundance is extravagant in life and health. A city that ignores an opportunity for the acquisition of the things that make for health and happiness may lose the opportunity altogether."—Milwaukee Tribune.

The following is a letter to Mr. A. S. Hawkins from his brother, John, who is now in France:

Somewhere in France,
July 21, 1918.

Dear Brother:

Just a few lines to let you all know I have not got knocked out yet, and I have been over here for quite a while.

I am well and enjoying good health and have had a good time since I have been here, and believe me I have seen some of France.

It is a mighty pretty country. Of course some parts of it are nicer than others.

I am sure glad I was one of the lucky ones to get over first. I do not regret my trip one bit. If I do get back alive, which I am figuring on doing, it will be worth all of my other roaming around, and believe me, boy, there are some good looking "Janies" over here and I am having some time.

I have got so I can speak enough French to get along with.

There is plenty of beer, wine and champagne, the latter being very cheap (so you see I am not scared of bad water).

Well, the way things look now, all of us that are coming back will be back sometime this winter. I hope so anyway, for I have had enough of war, and I am ready to come back to the good old U. S. A. any old time that the Germans are licked but not before. I want to be sure they are whipped.

I have not heard from any one of you since I came over, only had two letters from Mama and two from Cora, but I get one from my girl about every time the mail comes in, but I would like to hear from you all once in awhile.

You all must write often for I cannot write very often from where I am at now.

Albert, there isn't any more news that I can write in a letter, so will close. Write soon and long letters. With love to all,

John.

Pvt. J. E. Hawkins,
Co. C, 15th U. S. Eng.,
A. E. F., France.

ELDER SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lord and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Humphrey have returned from a two weeks stay at Daytona Beach.

Mrs. Geo. Gregory of Winter Garden was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Humphrey last week.

James Cassidy was called to the colors last week and left Wednesday for Camp Wheeler, Ga.

Quite a number of folks from this vicinity attended the big celebration at Daytona Beach Monday. Among those were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Humphrey, J. M. Lord, M. M. and R. W. Lord.

Mrs. S. Barnhart entertained at dinner last Sunday in honor of her son, James Cassidy. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Nolan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wheeler, Mrs. Leon Summerlin of Fernandina is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Humphrey.

Mrs. W. C. Riley has been quite sick with fever this week.

Mrs. J. M. Wynn is spending some weeks with her new grandson, Karl Lenard Sanderson on Fifth street.

Misses Mary Bell and Eunice Lunell are awaiting call to go as Red Cross nurses to France.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wheeler came home for a few days Saturday returning Monday to Jacksonville.

Next Sunday will be our regular preaching day. All are invited to attend. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The night service will include a program by the children and a lecture by the pastor.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Dr. Brower of Sanford has returned from his vacation, built up in health we trust and will again preach for us, Providence permitting, in Upsala church Sunday at 3:00 p. m.

It is believed that Elmer Bergquist is "somewhere in France," as when last heard from they were ready to sail from New York. Elmer thinks Uncle Sam does injure the boys. Indeed he ought to when they are giving their lives for us.

Mr. Larson has returned from Arcadia and is again at home with Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer Lundquist.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lundquist are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Magnuson.

Mrs. Buckins and little son of Sanford were visitors last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Hilmer Lundquist and on Thursday Mrs. Edwina Lundquist and little Raymond also spent the day there.

T. O. Tyner took his nephew, Eugene back to his home in Tampa, returning Labor Day.

Most of the people here remained at home Labor Day, engaged in their work.

Geo. Ballinger was a caller Thursday at the home of Alfred Ericson.

We are glad to hear that some of the town lads and lassies are trying to help out in "the win the war" program, and honor to them, but our country boys and girls have been at it day after day, not only picking cotton but hoeing it as well as corn, potatoes, etc., making hay and chopping wood, doing almost a man's work. But then we look for the country boy to take the lead in all good work, and in spite of it all they are a jolly lot with plenty of spirit left for fun and frolic.

Gotham.

The original Gotham was an old parish and village in Nottinghamshire, England, the inhabitants of which are reputed to have shown their wisdom by playing the fool in order to dissuade King John from passing through their town, and thus save them the expense of maintaining and entertaining him. The city of New York was first called "Gotham" by Washington Irving ("Salmagundi," 1807), in allusion to the pretensions to wisdom of its inhabitants.

The Cuck.

The cuck is a fish of the cod family and has much the same habits and characteristics. It frequents rocky ledges in the north Atlantic, especially off the shore of Newfoundland and Scandinavia. It is more extensively used in northern Europe than in America, but it is sold in considerable quantities at the fish markets in New England.

A Poet's Inspiration.

Sir Joshua Reynolds, who was a great friend and admirer of Goldsmith, came upon him unexpectedly one day when he was writing "The Traveller."

Sir Joshua, approaching the door, heard Goldsmith discoursing most earnestly as if delivering a sermon. Entering, the artist friend found the writer lecturing a little dog which was trying to balance himself on his hind legs. Looking over Goldsmith's shoulder, Sir Joshua found that the ink of the last line of "The Traveller" was still wet, indicating that a dog may be an inspiration to a poet.

The Chow Dog.

The chow dog is a diminutive breed of the Siberian sledge dog improved and developed in China, from where they began to be imported into Europe and America about the beginning of this century. These dogs have the coat and form of the sledge dogs and are very compact and sturdy of frame and lively in disposition. In color they are either all black, even to the tongue and inside of the mouth, or all white, blue, red or yellow. The chow made its first appearance in America at the Westminster kennel show, New York, in 1901.

World's Languages.

It has been estimated that the one billion people of the world speak 8,064 languages. The number of men and women in the world is said to be about equal.

A Negligee in Simple Effect.

Although it seems to follow the straight and simple way, this negligee shows its versatility by lending to two or three different methods of development. It may be worn full length, or cut to fall below the hips in points. The yoke may be outlined with lace and insertion or finished with buttonholed scallops. Kimono sleeves are cut in with the yoke. Pink or blue cotton crepe would be ideal for such a model, medium size, requiring 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material, with four yards of lace banding and 4 yards of ruching to trim.

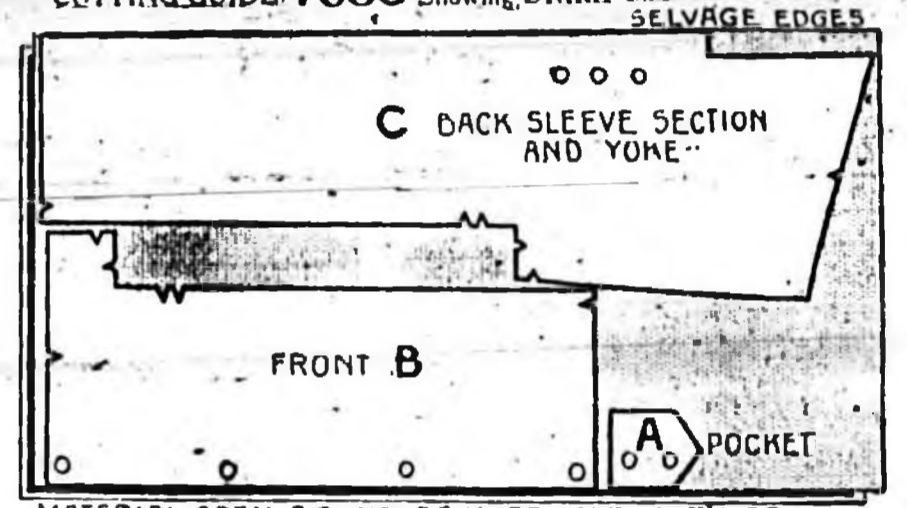

On account of the kimono sleeves the pattern widens at the top, making it necessary to place bands of the front and back sections on an open width of material. The large "O" perforations in the front rest on a lengthwise thread, the straight edge of the pattern being laid on the selvaqe of crepe. To the right of the front is the pocket, large "O" perforations on a lengthwise thread.

Along the other selvaqe of the goods place the straight edge of the back of the pattern, large "O" perforations on a lengthwise thread. For the shorter negligee cut off from lower edges of front and back or turn a hem the desired amount.

Cluny or valenciennes and insertion may be used to outline the neck, yoke and sleeves, although there is also a great demand for flat.

Blue or pink cotton crepe would make up this negligee effectively. It is trimmed with lace and insertion and has the kimono sleeves cut in with the yoke.

IN DENENSE OF THE TICK

We find the tick doing its most deadly work on cattle that are shipped in from a state that is tick free. If that animal is properly treated when the fever commences, he will recover, but with tick fever, like other diseases, people wait for something to turn up or let nature take its course and it generally does. Procrastination kills more animals in the country than anything else. In winter, when rations get low and cattle commence to lose flesh the cattle tick is blamed for it. Did you ever see an animal under any circumstances that did not lose flesh when food gets scarce? They will tell you to raise food stuff to feed them. It has been tried many times and the result is absolute failure. The only men that raise cattle in Florida and make money are the cattlemen that have them on the free range. We have land in Florida that will raise feed and keep cattle but as the land can be utilized to raise other products more profitably, cattle raising could not be thought of as a money proposition on that land.

If you put tick cattle on alfalfa fields in the spring and summer and feed them alfalfa, clover hay, turnips, beets, corn, cottonseed and linseed meal cakes in winter, you will have fat cattle for beef and rich milk. The whole thing centers on food and plenty of it. They say it takes so much more to feed them than those that are tick free. I say it will not and will place them side by side. For instance, we will go on the range in the month of July and look at the fat cattle, cows and bulls, muscular, with hides thick to protect them from the flies and eyes bold and brilliant. They will charge you at the drop of your hat and many are the narrow escapes that could be recorded from these liberty loving animals, free from disease, except what the tick has implanted in their veins. They show up mighty well under such a so-called deadly maldy—thousands of them that did not cost a cent to raise. Can you beat that in food conservation? The cry goes up to import new blood to improve our cattle. I would not exchange one Florida tick bitten bull for a car load of the imported ones that I have seen come in. If all the weaklings die out that are bitten by the tick it will be the survival of the fittest and we will have strong, healthy cattle. Go to the plains and you can refuse the charge that the tick is such a menace. Why does not some one talk about getting rid of mange mite, or and calf lice which are causing more trouble in our animals than any other parasitic infection? An animal infected with the mange mite would have to be dipped three hundred and sixty-five days in the year for they burrow deep in the skin. Did you ever see a cow infected with lice? It is a sorry looking object. We cannot get rid of lice and mites. They will be with us always, like the tick, even to the end. Dip the cattle, horses, mules, hogs, sheep, goats and dogs once or twice a year. It will benefit them. Let us look at some of the statements that have been made in the states that are free from the Texas fever tick. "In Vicksburg, Mississippi, the Board of Trade is urging every owner of stock in the district, in which was Anthrax in 1917 to have his live stock inoculated as soon as possible. The total loss in the county probably exceeded $50,000." Remember, this inoculation has to be given twice every year. "In Litchfield, Illinois, several cases of hemorrhagic septicemia having been discovered in a herd of cattle in the vicinity are to be vaccinated to prevent further spread of the disease." "The Utah state live stock board has appraised the maximum value of purebred tuberculosis animals as condemned and killed at $200 and that of grade cattle at $100." "After investigation concerning

Salina, Utah, the doctor pronounced it Anthrax. The carcasses were ordered burned to prevent the spread of the disease. "Owing to an outbreak of Blackleg near Oregon, Illinois, large numbers of cattle are being vaccinated to prevent further spread of the disease." "Under verbal instructions from Governor Gardner, no slaughter of animals in Missouri has been ordered recently by state veterinarians. It was feared that the expense of paying for the condemned cattle would prove too heavy. The last legislature appropriated $120,000 to pay for cattle condemned during the biennial period of 1915-16." "An entire herd of twenty-eight head of cattle at Aberdeen, Kentucky, was recently lost because of Anthrax. The cattle had been purchased near Bethel, Ohio, by a cattle dealer who expected to place them for sale at the monthly stock sale at Maysville. The day prior to the sale two of the cattle were found dead and two of the cattle ill. Dr. C. L. Chollar of Maysville was called and gave a diagnosis of Anthrax but owing to the seriousness of the case, called Dr. Hyde and his staff. All dead animals were ordered burned. The official test at the state laboratory corroborated Dr. Chollar's ante-mortem diagnosis and Dr. Hyde and his men returned and destroyed the remaining half of the herd, half having already died from the disease. Steps were taken to prevent further spread of the disease." The states that were closed to cattle dealers before the tick was eradicated were opened and cattle reeking with diseases were brought in and sold. The time is ripe in Florida and the cattle dealers are just waiting to hear that the state is free from the tick, whether it is or not, so that they may rush in their breeds of cattle. Men of Florida, will you stand for this wrong to be done to this state, the gem of all the states? It is a question whether the state of Florida shall become a barren waste because of disease and pestilence more deadly than war. Let the men who want to eradicate the tick go through the states where diseases are rampant and use the so-called Dakin's solution and leave the tick alone. I will explain why I call it the so-called Dakin solution. Several years ago a man in France placed on the market a solution of chloride of lime and added boracic acid to take the sting out and called it "Dakin's New Antiseptic" for cleansing wounds and healing them. It does the work. If the tick eradicators would go to our fairies men and wash their stalls and cattle, contagious abortion and white scours would disappear as if by magic and we would have clean, wholesome milk for our children to drink. Let them go to the states where deadly diseases lurk and eradicate them instead of taking away our bulwark against these diseases. When they have accomplished that we will have no more use for the tick. Then we will eradicate it and I am sure you will freely consent. The dealers who sell improved cattle are so anxious to make you rich that they cannot wait. They have been exploring the country and planning to ship in and sell at enormous prices improved breeds of cattle, already with the deadly culture injected into their veins that may break out in its most virulent form at any moment. You wake up some morning to find your cattle dead or dying from the dread disease Anthrax that kills man as well as animals. Today the Florida cattle men are asking for relief and no one comes to help them. But remember that you are a power in this state and if you will assert yourselves, you and your friends can remedy this great wrong. A. Dolan, Veterinarian.

Quick Action. Quick action has become the byword of commerce. Fortunes have been made and lost and remade in the time the undecided person wavers in his or her decision. But quick decision must not be confounded with jumping impulsively to conclusions. This extreme, which admits of little or no thought at all, is always as bad as the other. Train your mind to act quickly. Plunge forward or draw backward, but don't stand flatteringly in the middle, for you stand in danger of being laid low by indecision.

"She Stoops to Conquer." "She Stoops to Conquer" grew out of an incident that occurred in Goldsmith's travels about Ireland. He found himself one night far from home and inquiring the way to an inn, some wag directed him to a gentleman's private residence. There he went, ordered out his horse, demanded the best supper the place afforded and generally gave himself airs. He did not discover his mistake until the next morning when he was about to pay his bill.

Few Words Needed. It is declared by a philologist that nine words do one-fourth of our verbal work and 43 one-half. The nine most useful words are: And, be, have, it, of, the, to, will, you. The 34 more that with these nine do half our literary work are: About, all, as, at, can, come, day, dear, for, go, hear, her, if, in, me, much, not, on, one, say, she, so, that, there, they, this, too, time, we, with, write, your.

Business and the Golden Rule. Business men testify that the way of treating people represented by the expression, "Business is business," is going out of fashion. They say the best business is to work the Golden Rule into it wherever it is possible. Everybody notices that courtesy and politeness are more in evidence among the employes toward customers and among successful employers toward employes. Men and women get on best in all business relations when they treat each other as equals, and give what they like to receive.

Needs Trained Muscles. The capacity to exert will power, to make firm resolutions, to decide and to judge propositions accurately on their merits calls for well-cultivated and trained muscles. A flabby-muscled man is apt to be a weak-willed one.—Dr. Leonard Hirschberg.

Nothing is Lost. Everything lives, flourishes and decays. Everything dies but nothing is lost. For the great principle of life only changes its form, and the destruction of one generation is the vivification of the next.—Good.

OUR PLEDGE

Appreciating to the utmost the supreme unselfishness of our American manhood which is offering its very life upon the altar of freedom for the world, we the members of the South Florida Press Association, in semi-annual session assembled, do hereby

Resolve, That in this crisis and as long as life shall last, we dedicate all that we are and all that we have to the support of our glorious nation, our righteous cause, and our illustrious government. And be it further

Resolved, That every newspaper holding membership in this association display this resolution in bold type at the masthead of its editorial page throughout the month of August, and that copies be sent to the president and our representatives in congress.

Done and ordered in the city of Wauchula, state of Florida, this 12th day of July, 1918.

All dogs on the streets must now be muzzled. Those at home must be tied as there is hydrophobia here. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

It seems that Lenin will not be after all. He was shot in Moscow. Now if they can shoot him just behind the Hindenburg line it might prove fatal.

The Germans are conducting a MASTERLY retreat and we hope they will keep it up until they reach Berlin. We always did like a German MASTERLY retreat, especially since Pershing is doing all he can to assist them.

Florida is a state of magnificent distances. It is about 300 miles from Miami to Pensacola—785.5 miles by auto route, to be exact—Lakeland Telegram. Just about as far as it is from Miami to Asheville, and yet there are some folks who object to a division of Florida into two conveniently sized states—Miami Metropolis.

We should make the Fourth Liberty Loan the greatest answer to the Kaiser that has ever been known since we went into the war. The Fourth Liberty Loan should by all means be the greatest in our history and now is the time to prepare for it. Get busy on the idea of what you will give—not what you can give—and the merchants should assist by generous advertising.

The Iowa Arrow, a Republican newspaper, puts patriotism ahead of party, as is evidenced by the following, and it will do no harm for the Democrats and members of all other political parties to read it and make it their personal expression:

"We're for Woodrow Wilson, President of our country and commander in chief of our army and navy. No partisan appeal will turn us from him. He's on the job, and we must win or lose with him. He's an American, and that beats being either a Democrat or a Republican. If there is anything a weak minded, weak-kneed lover of the good old U. S. A. can do to help win out we're at his command. Up with the Star Spangled Banner and to hell with Wilson's critics, until after the war, at least."

"RIDE WITH ME"

When you're driving down town and see a Yank or Jackie standing on the corner waiting for a street car or hoofing it along on the sidewalk, give him a lift.

Let him ride with you. If you're going near his destination give him a lift as far as you go. Maybe it wouldn't interfere with your plans to go a bit out of your way and set him down where he's headed for.

If you're driving home in the evening let a Yank drive with you on the way out.

He's YOUR soldier, you know. He's going over there to fight YOUR battle in YOUR country's war.

You cannot do too much for him. The least you can do is to give him a lift.—Tampa Tribune.

BIG MEN FOR BIG WORK

A state-wide interest will be taken in the decision of Robert J. Holly, well known editor of the Sanford Herald, one of the leading members of the newspaper profession in Florida, to engage in war work under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Editor "Bob" as everybody familiarly calls him, will probably sail for France about the first of the year, to do his bit in defeating the Hun. He is past the draft age, even under the new law, but feels that this is no reason why he should not join his splendid young son, Reginald, who is already in the service of his country in the trenches. It is men of Robert Holly's splendid type who are making the Y. M. C. A. work in the trenches one of real blessing and benefit.—St. Augustine Record.

You overwhelm us with blushes, old fellow. Thanks and many of them but we are only 42 years of age and ready to serve wherever they place us in the army, navy, Y. M. C. A., or Red Cross but we intend to go over if necessary as a stowaway or stoker or cabin boy. Not that we have any hankering for war, but we are anxious to be home, but war is the main issue now and it is the main issue that we stand for every time.

THE HOME GUARD

The thousand odd Guardsmen who attended the encampment at Daytona on Sunday and Monday and other thousands of civilians now have a new understanding of what the Home Guard means to Florida and a clearer insight into the mission that inspires those who have enrolled in this important service. It was not "just for the fun of it" that induced hundreds of men far beyond the draft age to go into camp, do whatever duties might be assigned and march possibly ten or twelve miles during the two days in the September sun. Some of the companies in the Duval battalion have enrolled in their membership many old veterans, so that it was an inspiring sight to see these old men trudge along by the side of the younger chaps many of whom will soon be tramping the road toward Berlin. There is much to be said about the Daytona encampment—it demonstrates the fact that Florida has few real slackers and that the people of this state are anxious and willing to do their part in the winning of the war no matter what part that may be.

Another noteworthy fact stands out prominently, the splendid drilling and marching of men who have been organized in companies and battalions less than a year. To experienced military men who observed the evolutions the work was amazing. With a permanent organization as the Florida County Guard Association the future ought to hold out bright prospects for still greater service to the individual communities boasting of a county guard company and to the state at large.—St. Augustine Record.

METROPOLIS GREAT WRITE UP

We wish to thank the Jacksonville Metropolis for their great write-up of the state guards encampment at Daytona in which the Seminole Guards were not even mentioned. It seems that the Seminole boys were so far ahead of the rest of the bunch and carried off everything that it knocked the Metropolis speechless and in this case silence is the sincerest flattery. Thanking the Metropolis for past and future favors we beg to remain, etc. P. S.—The subscribers of the Metropolis are especially grateful also.

Chimes From the Temple
Rev. H. S. Rightmire, moderator and Rev. Wm. Stone, chairman, of executive committee were in Sanford Tuesday on matters pertaining to affairs of the Association.

Rev. B. F. Green of New Smyrna, who recently held such a good meeting at Monroe has accepted a call to one of the Jacksonville churches and will leave about the first of October for his new field.

Mrs. F. R. Savage has returned to Sanford after several months' stay in Jacksonville. We are glad to welcome her back in our Sunday school and congregation.

Mrs. S. F. Weeks and two sons have returned to Sanford after spending some time at the old home near Ft. White. Mr. Weeks went up and accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Arthur Jr. arrived last Sunday afternoon from their trip to Alabama.

Mrs. T. E. Speer, after several weeks absence in Alabama has returned home. She found that Mr. Speer had made great improvements in their home on Third street recently bought of T. J. Miller.

Comer Whittle is now on the oil wagon, and is helping to keep things running smoothly in the navy at Key West.

W. T. Wheelless attended the big gathering of A. C. L. shop foremen at Jacksonville during the past week.

Announcement has been made that the Baptist College at Lake City has closed for the duration of the war, and the buildings and grounds which are valued at $250,000.00 have been tendered to the government for use while the war lasts, in any way the government sees fit to use them.

Miss Beulah Sears is home again after spending two weeks very pleasantly in Mayo, Fla., with friends. The Baptist pastor at Mayo, Rev. E. C. J. Dickens is a cousin of our present pastor, Mr. Massey, and also a cousin of our former pastor, Dr. Hyman.

Mr. Hurley, the father of J. P. and J. G. Hurley has been in Sanford visiting his sons. He resides in Winter Garden and returned home last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolie Williams and Mrs. A. C. Williams left by auto last Tuesday for Americus, Ga., for a brief visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. W. E. Seoggan writes from Martinsburg, West Virginia, a most cheerful and encouraging letter.

Wherever they go, he and his excellent family take part in the Sunday school and church work. He writes "I enjoy the Chimes from the Temple. I always look forward to receiving my Herald and look for the Chimes the first thing. A hearty welcome awaits their return to Sanford."

A letter has been granted to Miss Edith Stewart to unite with the Roxborough Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa. We predict that she will be of great assistance in their Sunday school work and with their music. Miss Stewart was superintendent of our Sunday school until she left to enter St. Timothy's Hospital to fit herself to become a Red Cross nurse. She holds our Sunday school blue seal diploma and also gold seal post graduate diploma.

The annual report prepared by Schelle Maines, secretary of our board of trustees, is the most complete church report we have ever seen, and shows at a glance every expenditure of the church for the past year.

Our pastor is very anxious that every member of the church within reach shall attend the services next Sunday morning. He has a message in regard to the work we hope to accomplish during the coming year.

At our annual business meeting last Wednesday evening the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year, beginning October 1st:

Church Clerk: Mrs. E. E. Cox; Sunday School Supt.: Jno. D. Jinkins.

Board of Trustees: Joe Cameron, D. R. Brisson, F. P. Rines, W. E. Seoggan, Schelle Maines, W. E. Betts, R. M. Grovenstein, M. L. Wright, Jno. D. Jinkins.

Board of Ushers: J. P. Hurley, S. F. Weeks, Schelle Maines, W. T. Wheelless, W. E. Betts, J. W. Barnes, R. M. Grovenstein, W. E. Seoggan, M. L. Wright, W. C. DeCoursey, Kenneth Robbins, H. M. Jernigan.

Music Committee: K. R. Murrell, Mrs. W. E. Seoggan, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, M. L. Wright, J. C. Roberts.

Two deacons to serve unlimited terms: Geo. D. Ballard and W. E. Seoggan. Forty officers and teachers of the Sunday school were elected to serve during the coming year. Supts. of Departments are as follows: Mrs. M. M. Stewart, Supt. Home Dept.; Mrs. F. R. Savage, Supt. Cradle Roll; Mrs. Geo. D. Ballard, Supt. Beginners Dept.; Miss Allie Trafford, Supt. Primary Dept.; Miss Clara Millen, Supt. Junior Dept.;

Reports from all departments of the church showed excellent work during the past fiscal year, and notwithstanding the fact that a number of our people have moved away, we have made a satisfactory net gain in membership. Our finances are in excellent condition, and our contributions to missions and benevolences have been liberal.

The KITCHEN CABINET

The happiness or unhappiness of men depends no less upon their dispositions than their fortunes.—Rochefoucauld.

MORE GOOD SAVING DISHES.

As potatoes are plentiful this season as well as cheap, we may use more in our bread, adding to its moisture and keeping quality as well as making a palatable loaf. Where a large proportion of mashed potato is used it is necessary to add the flour gradually or it will not work in and if not enough flour is added the bread will be undesirable.

Scalloped Potatoes and Hominy.—Put six medium-sized potatoes through a ricer. Butter a baking dish and put a layer of potato in the bottom of the dish, then a layer of cooked hominy, seasoning well and cover with a layer of grated cheese. Repeat until a cupful of hominy, a cupful of grated cheese and the potatoes are all used. Cover with a cupful of milk and finish with a fourth of a cupful of dried crumbs well buttered. Bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

Slice bananas and brown in a little hot fat, sprinkle with lemon juice and a few grains of sugar. Serve with meat as vegetable.

Oatmeal Macaroons.—Take one and a half cupfuls of oatmeal, parch it until it is light brown, then put it through the meat grinder, unless it is the steel cut oatmeal, that does not need grinding. Add a half cupful of coconut, a half cupful of sugar, creamed with a tablespoonful of fat, one well-beaten egg and mix all together. Drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet and bake until brown. This recipe makes two dozen macaroons.

Banana Bread/Pudding.—Place layers of buttered bread and sliced bananas in a baking dish, beat two eggs, add a fourth of a cupful of sugar and two and a half cupfuls of milk with a pinch of salt, pour this over the bananas and bake until the custard is set. Top jelly may be used instead of the lemon juice if desired.

Bananas With Strawberries.—Peel and mash four ripe bananas; mix thoroughly with a half cupful of crushed strawberries that have been sweetened to taste. Add whipped cream and serve in sherbet cups with whipped cream and a sliced banana on top. A slice of ham spread with peanut butter and cooked in a little mix makes a change from the ordinary way of serving.

Nellie Maxwell

Shrines to Foxes. There are numberless shrines in Japan dedicated to foxes. The reader's another animal feared by the superstitious Japanese mind. It is believed to have power to annoy people, and to be able to turn into a priest at will. The crying of weasels and the baying of dogs are considered evil omens, and such insistent howlings send a shudder through the believers.

Remove Smell of Paint. Place a pan full of lighted charcoal in middle of room and throw over it two handfuls of juniper berries, shut the windows and doors for a day and the smell will disappear.

The advantage of this is, that you will not have to remove tapestry or furniture, as the smoke of the juniper berries is not injurious to them.

Three New Frocks for the Tiny Girl

Nothing in the way of an innovation appears among the displays of frocks for small girls. Plain cottons in light colors with white cuffs and collars make up the bulk of the stocks for everyday wear, varied by a reversal of this order in white frocks with collars and cuffs in colors. Old-fashioned and simple fancy stitching—the cross-stitch, feather-stitch, outline-stitch and cat-stitch among others—with smocking and simple embroidery, add their pretty, quaint touch to these gay dresses. French knots and small buttons are among those present in the little company of childish decorations that have been added to little clothes.

Julie Bottomley

Fur Used Less. In the new suits for fall the absence of fur trimmings is notable. This is partly on account of the very high prices of furs now and partly because women are at present wearing all sorts of long stoles, capes and coats of fur over their suits and dresses. It is thought this fad will carry into the coming fall and winter, and now in these days of thought for conservation of materials, all these little items are considered by the manufacturer.

Draped Hats. The draped hat, both in fabrics and brims, will be a prominent millinery feature of the autumn season. Metal ribbon in fancy weaves is another millinery feature of interest.

It shall be the purpose of each of these services to render a help in the efforts of people to live right. If you feel the need of more strength we invite you.

Wants All Names Published Sanford, Fla., Sept. 5, 1918. Dear Mr. Holly:

You have published the names of those who have bought One Thousand Dollars War Savings Stamps. Would you please publish the names of those persons in Seminole county who have bought less than one thousand dollars, but to the amount of four hundred dollars and over?

As there are numbers of men and women, who have bought four hundred dollars worth, and more, but less than one thousand, if you will publish their names, and the amount of their purchase, it may encourage others to buy more, in addition to what they have bought—and your readers will see and know who of their neighbors and friends are buying their share of War Savings Stamps.

Everyone is expected to do his or her duty to the extent of his or her ability. Thanking you in advance, I remain, Your Friend, F. E. Malo.

Theatre Party Miss May Holly has as her attractive guest this week Miss Virginia Yowell of Orlando. Wednesday night Miss Holly entertained a few of her friends at a theatre party in honor of Miss Yowell taking in the movies and afterward partaking of refreshments at the ice cream parlors.

Those of the party were May Holly, Virginia Yowell, Kathleen Brady, Gladys Wilson, Helen Gonzalez, Florence Henry and Martha Chappell.

WORK ORDER IS WRONG IN SPOTS

instruction or order as you mention has been authorized here, and is without the knowledge or approval of the War Department.

The regulations of May 23 are the last and only ones issued in which it was stated that all registrants engaged as follows are to be considered by local and district boards as engaged in non-productive occupations or employments: Persons engaged in the serving of food and drink or either in public places, including hotels and social clubs; elevator operators and attendants and doormen, footmen, carriage openers and other attendants in clubs, hotels, stores, apartment houses, office buildings and bath houses; persons, including ushers and other attendants engaged and occupied in and in connection with games, sports and amusements excepting actual performers in legitimate concerts, operas or theatrical performances; persons engaged in domestic services, sales clerks and other clerks employed in stores and other mercantile establishments.

"I am advised that an official or employee of a bank is not entitled to deferred classification as such under the laws and regulations. Also that local and district boards must consider cases of deferred classification and late order numbers with sympathy and common sense. The department recognizes the great danger of too broad and too general application of the work or light order. FLETCHER."

Feed Your Hogs Six Weeks Earlier In every lot of hogs on feed two or three weeks quickly and actually eat less than others. If all would fatten like these, the entire drove would be ready for the market six weeks earlier and to save six weeks' feed is an item that you fully understand.

The hog that fattens easily must be in prime physical condition. The B. A. Thomas Hog Powder is a conditioner for hogs. It keeps their system clean and healthy and enables them to fatten quickly without falling a prey to the usual diseases of hogs. The B. A. Thomas Hog Powder is not stock food. It's straight medicine and we took the agency because it enables you to feed out your hogs much earlier. L. Allen Seeg Co. 5-Fri-4tc

Detecting Malingers. The discovery of a Dutch physician that sudden sounds may cause the pupil of the eye to dilate momentarily is suggested as a novel method of detecting malingers claiming to be totally deaf. Placed in a strong light, the subject is told to look at some distant object and, as the examiner's assistant calls out in a loud voice a number of well separated words—such as "Attention!" and "Forward march!"—the effect on the pupils can be clearly seen.

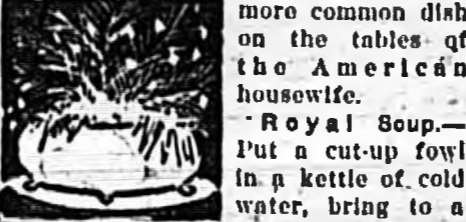

Correct Spelling. One of the most polished and painstaking of English authors regarded correct spelling as a totally unnecessary accomplishment. In his introduction to R. L. Stevenson's letters, Henry Colvin writes: "I have not held myself bound to reproduce all the author's minor eccentricities of spelling and the like. As all his friends are aware, to spell in a quite accurate and grown-up manner was a thing which this master of English letters was never able to learn."

The KITCHEN CABINET

Be resolutely and faithfully what you are. Be humbly what you aspire to be. Man's noblest gift to man is his sincerity, for it embraces his integrity also.—Henry Thoreau.

WHEN COMPANY COMES.

If each householder keeps a hen for each member of the family, chicken soup may be a more common dish on the tables of the American housewife.

Royal Soup—Put a cut-up fowl in a kettle of cold water, bring to a boil and boil ten minutes, then cover tightly and set into the fireless cooker or to simmer on the back part of the range for three or four hours. Remove the chicken which may then be used for another dish and add to a dozen small onions, two sliced carrots, one diced turnip, one cupful of peas, two bay leaves and salt and pepper. Boil until the vegetables are tender, remove the bay leaves but do not strain. Serve with grated cheese and buttered toast. Veal may be substituted for chicken or a little of both may be used for this soup.

Season all meats with salt, slightly with pepper; to beef add onion juice or a cut clove of garlic, or a minced onion cooked in fat. To lamb add onion and tomato, mint sauce or tomato catchup. To veal, minced chives, sweet herbs. To poultry add celery salt, sweet green pepper, chopped ripe olives. To fish, tomato, parsley, onion, cucumber, horseradish or pickles.

Cream Dressing for Fruit Salad—Melt four tablespoonsful of butter and add two and a half tablespoonsful of cornstarch, one tablespoonful of flour, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, three drops of indigo and a tablespoonful of sugar. Add gradually one cupful of hot sweet milk, stir and cook well. Take from the fire and add a beaten yolk and five tablespoonsful of lemon juice, one at a time, beating well after each spoonful. Add sour cream when ready to use, whip with a Dover egg beater and serve well chilled.

Strawberry Filling for Sponge Cake.—Beat a cupful of cream until stiff, add a third of a cupful of sugar, the white of an egg beaten stiff and a half cupful of well-washed strawberries. Flavor with vanilla and spread as a filling for layer cake.

Seashells Instead of Glass. One curious thing noted by Americans in the Philippines was the use by natives of seashells in lieu of window glass. There is a bivalve mollusk, Nautilus, in the waters of that part of the world, which has a shell seven or eight inches in diameter, so thin as to be transparent. It is plentiful and costs nothing. Glass is expensive.

Writer's Cramp. Writer's cramp is a disease in which those who do much writing are liable toward middle age, and a person afflicted with it has no complete control over the muscles of the thumb, middle and forefinger. The typewriter has proved the best resource of those who suffer from the ailment.

Pastime in Wales. Knitting was at one time a favorite pastime among male farm workers in Wales. Fifty years ago shepherd boys in Cardiganshire were supplied with sufficient wool to provide themselves with two pairs of stockings. Sixpence per pair was paid for stockings in excess of this number.

Human Machinery. We have headaches and colds, not at all realizing our body is in need of some good, pure oxygen. Mechanics take much better care of their machinery than they do of their own bodies. They know that unless the machine is cleaned, oiled and rested occasionally it will not run properly. How often do they think of the importance of caring for their human machinery? They run it at the highest tension, feed it on stale air and improper food and then become surprised if it runs down.

Dainty Frocks for Midsummer

War does not make it a necessity to curtail dressing to the exclusion of dainty frocks for midsummer. The materials that make them are not needed by the soldiers, and the boys certainly like to see their wives and sweethearts in filmy and pretty clothes. These things look more desirable to them than ever. It is poor business to push economy in dress too far—for business must be maintained—that almost goes without saying. In the face of all its difficulties French genius has kept itself occupied turning out apparel to suit the needs—somewhat changed by the war—of its clients. In the picture above at the right is a frock from Lady Duff-Gordon, in which net is posed over taffeta in a lovely summer gown. It is trimmed with very full ruchings of taffeta, fringed out at the edges, and would be effective in almost any of the light colors or in cream-colored net over a color. Turquoise blue and pale green shades cannot be excelled by any colors used with white net for elegant effects, but it is for the wearer to choose what becomes her most in a color suited to this frock. It is not an extravagant affair and is suited to dinner or evening wear. Pale beige georgette renders a good account of itself as an afternoon frock in the dress at the left. Its collar, vest, cuffs and bodice ornaments are trimmed with silk soutache in the same shade. The bodice is cleverly designed in a modified arrangement of the surplice front and georgette makes the short ties that finish the front. A very new, and promising idea appears in the pretty dinner frocks of black net worn over foundations made of embroidered batiste or embroidered swiss organdie. Girdles or sashes of black velvet finish them off and make lines in sometimes combined with the net in bands on skirt and bodice. These are delightful interpretations of new war-time ideas in dinner and evening gowns.

Hats Worn at Weddings.

At one of the weddings, at which Lord Strathcona's granddaughter was married, the bridesmaids wore immense hats of rose chiffon and silver lace with water lilies resting against the crown and trailing over the brim. This may be a good idea for a wartime summer bride over here. At another big wedding, the bridesmaids wore coronets of gold leaves—for victory—and from them floated long tulle veils of Joffre blue.

Wide Plaits. Wide plaits rather than tucks are a feature of autumn blouses. Hand embroidery combined with fine lace on georgette is the effective combination in many light-colored blouses, white and flesh, though the preference seems to be for the flesh-colored models.

SHERM'S DOTS

THE DOTS SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE. Dear Folks:—Here we are three days out and haven't seen a submarine yet. However, we have sighted a few sailing vessels, which proves that the Germans have not sunk all the shipping on the high seas. The officers keep us pretty busy, I suppose to keep us from getting stale. Of course, we miss the hikes, but you understand that on a crowded transport there isn't much room to run around. But these officers seem to know their business, and as long as we can get out on the road and do ten or twenty miles, they do the best thing. They line us up in the morning, and then for twenty minutes we do this. To complete the picture, draw a line from dot 1 to dot 2 then from dot 2 to dot 3, and so on. Thackeray Always Late. An external stimulus sometimes is necessary to bring a writer's ideas to a focus. It was the custom with Thackeray never to do today what could be put off until tomorrow. He was, therefore, frequently behind with his copy and it was no uncommon thing for him to keep the messenger from his publisher waiting at the door while he wrote the last pages of the book.

Reasons! Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial? Take CARDUI The Woman's Tonic Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness... I would go for three weeks almost bent double... My husband went to Dr. for Cardui... After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-80

When the centerpiece and scarf described below are done in cut-work on Kensington stitch, the result in either case will prove worthy of the time, expended on the work. As pick-upwork for the summer, the development in cut-work is to be given preference. But for those who are fond of displaying their skill in needlepointing, no design could furnish greater possibilities. For this purpose an ecru linen background should be selected. The tints required for the apples, pears, grapes, leaves and stems may be matched most satisfactorily in embroidery silks, which are made in fast colors. The size of thread to choose would be that which is one degree finer than Rops silk. If one is capable of handling a brush in addition to playing the needle, there is still another treatment in view for these designs. Each figure may be outlined in colors either in Rops silk or mercerized cotton. Then the fruit, leaves

THE KITCHEN CABINET. Blessed is he who is such a friend to humanity that he sees good in every man, for his own spirit shall be constantly enriched by the Christ spirit.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Now that lettuce, even the head variety, is reasonable in price it should be used freely. In the green leaves of plants is a substance which promotes growth and is indispensable as food for children. A simple salad which will like and one which is wholesome and good for the little people is head lettuce dressed with a sprinkling of chopped onion; the mild green of the southern onion is best. Add a teaspoonful of peanut butter to the French dressing which is made by using three tablespoonfuls of oil to one of lemon juice or mild vinegar, a few dashes of salt and cayenne, all well mixed with the peanut butter and poured over the lettuce. Chopped peanuts may be used for the older people who will promise to masticate the nuts well.

Looking Through a Tunnel. The little circle of the world you see when you are looking through the length of a tunnel is always beautiful by contrast. No matter if it is only a stretch of track with a few scrubby trees and an arch of blue sky above it, you, looking from the blackness of the tunnel, think it a picture worthy an artist's brush. To the sick good health seems happiness enough, and those who are in trouble ask nothing better than a mind free from care. But sensible people do not need to be deprived of life's blessings in order to appreciate them.

Use of Cement. Cement was first put on the market in England. It was still being imported into this country in 1875. It was at this time that the use of Portland cement in the United States came into commercial prominence. When the product was first placed on the market in competition with that which was being imported from England and Germany a good price was demanded. However, production in excess of demand soon resulted and it proved in the future in the price cutting that followed.

Made Him Devout Christian. Gen. Lew Wallace said that before writing 'Ben Hur' he had no fixed religious convictions, but as the story grew and the Christ figure assumed reality his whole life was affected by it and when the work was completed he found himself for the first time in his life a devout Christian.

Barley Pudding.—Wash a half cupful of barley and put into a pudding dish with four cupfuls of milk, a third of a cupful of lumps, a half teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of cinnamon and a tablespoonful of fat. Stir often during the first hour of cooking to keep the barley from settling.

Barley Fifteen Minutes Pudding.—Take a cupful of barley flour sifted well with a teaspoonful and a half of baking powder, a half teaspoonful of salt and mix with a half cupful of rich milk. Butter small cups and put into each a spoonful of the mixture, add a tablespoonful or two of berries or any canned fruit allowed. Cover with a spoonful of the batter, set the cups in a pan of boiling water, not enough to touch up into the cups, cover with a tight cover and boil fifteen minutes. Turn out of the cups and serve with cream and sugar or with a sauce made of the fruit juice.

Curry of Beef Heart.—Pour a pint of boiling water over a beef heart and let it stand ten minutes, drain and trim. Chop an onion and brown in two tablespoonfuls of the fat, then the heart cut in bits and roll in seasoned flour. Add a half cupful of water and replenish as it boils away. When cooked add a tablespoonful of curry powder and salt and pepper to season.

What he really means is that his negative resolution is so firm that he would be willing to repeat it an indefinite number of times. So far as his meaning is concerned he might as well say, 'a million times, no.' But only a man of some habitual violence can speak such words. It gives an impression of wild extravagance. 'Thousand' while being comparatively moderate, somehow seems more forcible.
