REA Express Goes Bankrupt; 8,000 To Be Out Of Jobs

NEW YORK (AP) - REA Express, Inc., the nation's largest surface carrier, has been judged bankrupt and will go out of business in a week to 10 days with a loss of about 8,000 jobs, a company spokesman said today. Judge John J. Galgay of the federal bankruptcy court made the decision Thursday and the business will now be Chapter 11 of the bankruptcy laws since Feb. 18. When it filed for reorganization in February, the company made various cutbacks that included holding back about 10 per cent of the weekly pay of its employes. At the time, the employes were told they would get the money after the company got back on its feet.

NYC Aid Opposition Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) - The AFL-CIO is voicing opposition to legislation granting loan guarantees to financially ailing New York City because aid bills now before Congress would leave city labor contracts at the mercy of the Ford administration.

A spokesman for the labor organization said New York aid bills approved by the House and Senate banking committees are unacceptable in their present form and will be opposed unless they are changed.

Meanwhile, the House Ways and Means Committee today takes under consideration the House Banking Committee's loan guarantee bill. The taxwriting panel could either consider the entire bill or it could decide only to review and act on a provision which would make taxable any bonds issued by New York state to help the

Hearst Awaits Decision

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Patricia Hearst waits in her jail cell today for the decision by a federal judge on whether she is mentally competent to stand trial on federal bank robbery charges.

The ruling will be issued in a written memorandum from U.S. District Judge Oliver J. Carter, whose decision comes after lengthy consideration of reports submitted by three psychiatrists and a psychologist who examined the 21-year-old heiress in jail. One of Miss Hearst's attorneys, Albert Johnson, was ex-

Berserk Student Shoots Four At School For Dropouts

MIAMI (AP) - Four persons were shot Friday by a youth who police said went berserk at a Miami school for high school dropouts.

Jose Vila, a teacher at the Latin Street Academy, said a student at the academy came to school with a pistol and shot a teacher and two helpers before fleeing. Vila identified the victims as Roberto Lopez, the teacher; Miguel de la Torre, a counselor, and Elion Ruiz, a teacher's aide. Police said only one was seriously hurt.

Oil Spill Ship Identified

MIAMI (AP) - A tanker owned by a London company has been identified as the ship that dumped about 100,000 gallons of crude oil off the Florida Keys last summer, the Coast Guard says. The ship's captain, known only to the Coast Guard as V.

Psarroulis, was charged Thursday with willful pollution of the ocean and the Keys. He was to be arrested today when the ship docked in Philadelphia, the Coast Guard mayor's office and 17 men and required. MIAMI (AP) - "I'm personally not against helpin' a neighbor out, even a know-it-all New Yorker," says Craig Davie, explaining why he's offering aid to New York City. Davie, 50, an Oakwood, Okla., farmer-salesman here on business, said he decided to be neighborly and mailed New York a check for $24 - the price, according to tradition, originally paid to Indians by Dutch explorers for Manhattan island.

The check was sent The Miami Herald to be forwarded to the Treasurer of the City of New York. Davie added a personal note to the people of New York.

Kidnap Victim Killed Early

PENSACOLA (AP) - A Pensacola woman whose body was found 13 days after her disappearance was shot and bludgeoned to death long before her kidnapers made their last ransom demand, authorities say. An autopsy Thursday showed that Alma Charbonneau Hartley was shot once in the back of the head and struck with a sharp object, State Atty. Curtis Golden said. "It appears that Mrs. Hartley was killed quite soon after she was abducted," he said.

Youths Charged In Murder

WEST PALM BEACH (AP)- Two teen-agers, one of them just sentenced to life in another case, have been indicted on murder charges in the 1974 slaying of a Delray Beach policeman. The sealed indictments were revealed after police picked up Wesley Hostzclaw, 17, at his Delray Beach home Thursday night.

Also charged was Willie C. Simpson, 19, of Delray Beach, who was sentenced to life in prison earlier this week for the holdup-slaying of a Boynton Beach man.

Ford Shows Way To Cut Spending

Democrats in Congress are persisting in their complaints that President Ford has thrown them a curve in demanding a $28 billion cut in federal spending as the price for a $28 billion tax cut. If they are surprised it's because they haven't kept their eyes on the pitcher. Mr. Ford has been winding up for this new thrust at budget control for almost a year.

The President's ideas about the growth of the federal budget were spelled out in his State of the Union message last Jan. 15. "For decades," he said, "we have been voting ever-increasing levels of government benefits-and now the bill has come due. We have been adding so many new programs that the size and growth of the federal budget has taken a life of its own.'

He called then - and in his budget message that followed on Feb. 3 - for a policy of embarking on no new spending programs and for restraining the built-in momentum for growth of those already on the books.

Mr. Ford has sent the current Congress no fewer than 64 specific recommendations for budget recissions and deferrals that would check the rate of spending growth. This desire to hold back the expansion of existing programs is woven through the messages that have accompanied Mr. Ford's vetoes of several education, health and welfare measures this year.

The White House disclosed recently that Mr. Ford began last June to get heads of federal departments and agencies to look at their budget requirements for 1976-77 within the framework of a slowed-down rate of growth. The President now has in hand projected budgets which represent the $28 billion in "cuts" that would be hiked to a tax reduction next year.

What tends to be lost in the political outcry from Congress is that Mr. Ford is actually proposing a $25 billion increase in federal spending for the next fiscal year - a budget of $395 billion compared with the current $370 billion. The trimming he proposes would prevent the budget from increasing to $423 billion, the figure it would reach if the growth syndrome which he warned about last January were to continue unchecked.

The howls of protest from congressional Democrats may be premature. There is nothing to suggest, as some have complained, that Mr. Ford has taken a wild swing at budgetary figures in his tax cut-spending cut proposals. Congress now faces the fact that when the President asks for a $28 billion tax cut to be enacted ths fall, he is prepared to submit a budget early next year that embodies $28 billion less in new spending — reductions which so many members of Congress say it is impossible

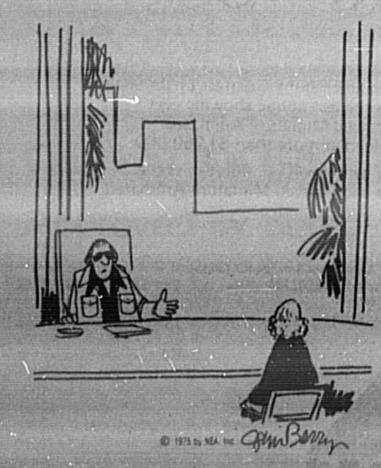

Some Democrats say Mr. Ford is trying to create a campaign issue for 1976 with his proposal That it could become a potent one is obvious. At this point it would seem the only hope for the Democrats to defuse it is to stop crying "can't do" - which only plays into the President's hands and give the $28 billion reduction goal the same serious consideration that budget officials in the administration already have given it.

Samplings of complaints received by the U.S. Postal Service have shown that patrons gripe the most about letters, cards and packages taking too long to be delivered or not being delivered at all. Undaunted, the Postal Service is setting up a new nationwide complaint service which provides for disgruntled citizens to write out their tale of woe - and entrust it to the mails.

Still, the new system does tell us something about the Postal Service's confidence in itself. Local postmasters who want to impress patrons with an efficient response to their complaint are being told they do not have to reply by mail. They can use since they seized it months ago.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) - Prime Minister Indira Gandhi won her battle in the courts today to void the conviction on charges of corrupt campaign practices which led her to resort to emergency rule four months

After seven weeks of arguments and four weeks of deliberation, a five-member panel from the 13-man supreme court unanimously upheld the legality of retroactive amendments to the election law which Parliament passed to extricate Mrs. Gandhi from her legal diffi-

Bangladesh Has Upheaval

NEW DELHI, India (AP) - Bangladesh had another upheaval in its top government echelon today as the army chief ousted four days ago announced he was running the country as chief martial law administrator. Radio Bangladesh said thousands thronged the streets of Dacca, the capital, to cheer the "heroic comeback" of

Maj. Gen. Ziaur Rahman. There was no mention of Abu Sadat Mohammed Sayem, the chief justice of the supreme court who was sworn in as president Thursday; his predecessor, Khondakar Mushtaque Ahmed, who became president when Sheik Mujibur Rahman was murdered last August, or of Maj. Gen. Khalid Musharaf, who replaced Gen. Rahman as army chief of staff Monday.

Someone else is pulling the strings. Someone else is speaking behind the scenes. Someone else is making the audience laugh, or even cry a little.

By any chance, does that remind you of yourself? Do you sometimes feel that you are a puppet, not a person? That someone else is putting words in your mouth, calling your plays? Well, the Church won't stand you on your own two feet and cut the strings. But it will help you find the right kind of scissors . . . to get a new perspective, to reassess life, and yourself . . . to be your own person.

Golden Age Olympics Set For Opening

Dateline Sanford — . . . This city's name will appear on newspaper pages across the country next week as the Golden Age Olympics takes its place in the sports world. When 69-year-old DeBary resident John DaPonte races down Sanford Avenue Monday at 10 a.m. and lights the flame to kick off the week-long events, surely more than a touch of nostalgia will be at stake.

The Golden Age Olympics is not designed as mocker of the old. An area radio station has been plugging the Olympics in a fake-raspy voice and requesting all ambulances meet contestants at the finish line and take them back to the nursing home.

WFL Players May Find Refuge In Tampa

Aaron To Play One More Year MILWAUKEE (AP) - The Milwaukee Brewers called a 11 a.m., CST, news conference today to announce appointment of Alex Grammas, long considered one of the major leagues' best baseball minds and coaches, as Hank Aaron, the Brewers' 41-year-old designated hitter and baseball's career home run record holder, had been considered the No. 1 candidate when the Brewers fired Del Crandall as manager on the last day of the past season. However, it is believed the club later removed Aaron from consideration by mutual agreement. Aaron and the Brewers jointly announced late Thursday that the fading slugger will honor the final year of his $250,000 a year playing contract in 1976 and then join the club's front office as a vice president.

All-Star-Cuba Series Planned

Grammas Named Skipper;

IN BRIEF

NEW YORK (AP) - Major league baseball appears on the road to sending an all-star team to Cuba next spring for an exhibition series, the first since Premier Fidel Castro came to power and political relations were broken off with the United States 15 years ago.

Boston pitcher Luis Tiant and Cincinnati first baseman Tony Perez probably will head the team, which figures to be made up of of 14 players from the National League and 14 from the American League. It is almost certain to be heavily accented with Caribbean talent. Plans for such a trip have been formulated by the office of Commissioner Bowie Kuhn. And if the present series

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Bigmouth Bobby Riggs is at it again, but this time the king of the hustlers will let his feet do the talking in a match race across Death Valley. The 57-year-old Riggs, who helped bring tennis to national attention with a pair of matches against women two years ago, will race experienced distance runner Bill The race, in typical Riggs fashion, will be a handicap affair, Emmerton, 56, has run across Death Valley three times and is the "world record holder" for the pace. He is to run 100 miles. Riggs gets a 50-mile head start.

Pate Takes PGA Command

ORLANDO (AP) - Jerry Pate has taken command of the Professional Golf Association's Qualifying School tournament, but the concern of his chasers is not catching him but being among the top 21 finishers. The PGA announced after Thursday's round that the top 21 finishers and ties in the 108-hole event will be awarded playing cards for the 1976 tour.

Rozelle said the NFL owners failed in Thursday's all-day meeting to finalize a plan on stocking the new teams. "We've got the mechanics pretty well set, but not the numbers," he said.

The commissioner said the clubs had different ideas on putting together the new teams. "Those clubs that don't have many draft choices say 'Let's give them a break in the draft. That's how you build a club. Those clubs that have plenty of draft choices want to do it a different way."

Both teams will be stocked in January before the Pro Bowl in New Orleans.

Rozelle said the procedure for signing WFL players would be to have the players request clearance through the NFL of-

A south Seminole man arrested during mid-August raids by sheriff's agents in connection with a multi-county "steal-to-order" theft ring has pleaded guilty in circuit court to attempted possession of a stolen motor vehicle. Circuit Judge Robert B.

McGregor accepted the guilty plea from Stanley G. Stroupe, 35, 119 Ruby Court, in a case involving a $15,000 motor home stolen from an Orlando dealership in April 1974. Judge McGregor ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Stroupe and scheduled sentencing for Jan. 19. Stroupe had been scheduled Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the B.E. Link residence on Vihlen Road, Sanford, early Saturday. County firemen were assisted by Sanford fire units in battling the 3 a.m. blaze that investigators said is believed to have started in an attic area in the center of the three bedroom structure. Link, a contractor, and his family were reported visiting in Fort Myers at time of the fire. County firefighter Jerry Gleaton was treated for a chest burn sustained in fighting the fire, officials said.
