Political Rally

chairs, a pitcher of ice water, Senator L. F. Boyle presided and introduced the speakers. The sun shone and so did Seminole County voters, among them, E. E. Brady, veteran candidate for sheriff, who when he finally stepped from the platform after reviewing his record as sheriff and legislator and poking fun at certain opponents, was told by Senator Boyle, "This is the first time I have ever heard you talk yourself out, Brady."
This provoked considerable merriment, but the crowd howled with glee, and many candidates doubled up with laughter when County Clerk O. P. Herndon as a tribute to assisting off cakes for the benefit of the high school band, donned a wide brimmed hat, after a mock introduction by Mr. Boyle as a "late arrived candidate for sheriff," and based his "phony" platform on his desire to "vote" a pistol.
The hottest contests developed in the Sheriff's race, Alex R. Johnson, versus Supt. T. W. Lawton for the office of county superintendent, and refections by J. Bradley Odham, incumbent candidate for the Legislature, against previous statements by J. R. "Happy" Lyles in regard to his "playing ball with legislators by bringing up the 'bribery incident.'"
Mr. Lyles had reviewed his record 17 and 44 promotion as a former member of the Legislature, his Spanish War record, including three years in the Philippines, and other accomplishments and had sat down, when Mr. Odham arose, and after introduction, quoted his opponent, in a previous talk, as questioning whether, he, Rep. Odham, would ever be of any benefit to the County in the Legislature after the Pay bribery incident.
"Is my opponent saying I am too honest?" questioned Mr. Odham. He then declared that most of the legislators he has worked with were men of high honesty, and showed confidence in him. He also told of his work on the House Finance and Taxation committee, and as a member of a five-man committee appointed to study a request, which they disapproved, of $30,000,000 additional state taxes. He declared he would give labor impartial consideration in all matters brought before him.
Sheriff P. A. Mero declared that he would try to enforce the law to the best of his ability, and described new methods of modern law enforcement introduced by his office since appointment by Governor Caldwell following the death of Sheriff Hand. This, he said, included two radios in cars, photographic and fingerprinting equipment and FBI training for deputies. He said that he had eliminated illegal operation of slot machines and punch boards, and warned against "false propaganda" by gambling interests. E. E. Brady, jilted at his opponents in the sheriff race as "wanting to be sheriff to tote a pistol." He complained because his rivals had not complained about him, reviewed his mule selling, and his legislative record and said that as former sheriff he had returned to the county $3,500 a year for four years. Lewis Tate laughed off a jibe by Brady that he had been "handicapped in infancy," and said that he was glad that he had someone with better ability than E. E. Brady to raise him. He told of his long record of service with the ACL railroad, then "lashed back," "Mr. Brady is a good orator, but I have to work for a living." Then seriously he said that he believed that he could co-operate with other law enforcement officers if elected.

Ed Walker, another candidate for sheriff told of his record of public service since 1919, declared that if elected he would not let "uke joints run on Sunday and that he would catch Sunday violators of the whisky selling law. He said there had been a lot of people had been killed here and the murders unsolved.
C. E. Carl Williams, stated that he had been a public service officer for 15 years and his record was open for inspection. He declared that he had no defamatory word against any of his opponents.
Jack Hickson told of his service as a deputy sheriff since 1929 and his resignation following the death of Sheriff Hand. He said that he had but one promise that was to co-operate in enforcing the law, if made sheriff.
J. Ross Adams declared that if elected sheriff, he would maintain 24 hour a day service, and that either he or a deputy would answer all telephone inquiries at all times. He stated that he intended to have dependable men as deputies.
In the race for school superintendent of Seminole County, Alex R. Johnson, after reviewing his record as a teacher of high school agriculture and crafts, and his War Production School direction, read reports on the conditions of schools in the county, citing the need for repairs in five schools and declaring two were beyond repair. He wanted to know why Seminole County had not shared in a $923,000 school appropriation. He also declared that he honored T. W. Lawton for his long service to schools.
Supt. Lawton agreed with Mr. Johnson in some statements and said that the State Citizens Committee had found the physical conditions of schools in practically every county in the state in a "deplorable state of repair." During the past six years, he explained, it has been impossible to get the necessary labor and materials, and the dollar value of tax money has shrunk. Provision has been made in the long range program to the miners' pension proposal.

In New York, the threat of a strike by the CIO transport workers union arose in a pay dispute with five companies that operate 98 trolley and bus lines serving 3,350,000 persons. Union President Michael J. Quill said members of his union are "getting very restless" over delay in settling correct these conditions, he said, also to respect raising teachers' salaries.
Other speakers included: H. H. Pope, incumbent chairman of the County Commission; and Boston Steele in District No. 1; L. T. Bryan and H. J. Overstreet incumbent in District No. 2.
Speaking for county judges were: R. W. Ware, incumbent; Karlisle Householder, John G. Leonard, James G. Sharon and O. Douglas Stenstrom. Talks for county registrar were given by Lourdes A. Beal and Hugh Dunstan. Herman L. Brumley and R. L. O'Neill spoke for constable in District No. 4.
John L. Galloway incumbent spoke for election as county tax collector, and his opponent, Ned Smith, a Legion delegate in Panama City, sent a letter to be read in his behalf.
Richard (Dick) Mack of Miami spoke for re-election as a member of the Railway Commission, and explained rate regulations. Victor Green spoke for Nathan Mayo for Commissioner of Agriculture.
Dick Cooper, candidate for governor and Stetson law student, outlined his own platform. Virgil Conner of Apopka and John W. L. Hicks spoke as candidates for Congress in the Fifth District.
Rohy Laing of Sanford spoke in behalf of Colin English for governor; Martin Segal of Orlando for Fuller Warren, Edwin Shindler for Dan McCarty, John Sauls for W. A. Shands.

Also in New York, the CIO fur and leather workers' union officially declared today that 10,000 of its members were on strike against 750 firms. Most of the shops have been closed since Apr. 2 in a dispute over contract demands. Some 600 manufacturers were not affected by the strike.
A threatened strike of 4,000 CIO United Electrical Workers at the Buffalo, N. Y., plant of Westinghouse Electric Corp. was averted when the union accepted four management proposals on job classification and other changes.
In Cincinnati, O., Local 3 of the AFL International Typographical Union asked the ITU's International Executive Council for permission to strike against three daily newspapers. The union had taken similar action in February, but a federal court decision at Indianapolis voided the request.
HOATING DISASTER
MACON, Ga., Apr. 26—(AP)—Another fishing on the bank of the Ocmulgee River stood helpless and saw her three-year-old daughter drown in the muddy water less than 20 feet away.
The child was Merita Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson. She was riding in a motorboat with her sisters, Martha, 12 and Linda, 6, her eight-year-old brother Jack, and two other children. The boat struck a snag and capsized yesterday.

Military Leaders Offer Compromise Training Program

Plan Is To Give All Eligible 18-Year Olds 1 Full Year In Armed Forces

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—A program for drafting 161,000 youths from 18 through 25 years for one year training service was outlined today for the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Chairman Gurney (R-MD) said the new administration defense program also covers these points:

1. Drafting for two years service of men 18½ through 25 years with 190,000 expected to be inducted the first year. Most of these will be non-veterans.
2. Holding the Air Force to 66 groups instead of the 70 urged by congressional air enthusiasts.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Military leaders are proposing a full year in the Armed Forces for 18-year-olds under a "compromise" universal training program.

It was learned today that this is being suggested to congressional committees which are considering a broad defense program revolving about three points: 1. Universal training; 2. Temporary revival of the draft; and 3. Expansion of the Air Force.

The original "compromise" idea on universal training was that 18-year-olds should have six months of training to be followed by service in the National Guard or some other active, organized civilian reserve.

But some officials contend now that a man with only six months training would be of little value in a military unit and that his minimum time should be at least one year.

The draft and training proposals are tied in closely with the controversy over how large the Air Force should be. Some air men want a 70-group Air Force. Secretary of Defense For-

State And County Candidates Rally As Race Nears End

With the May 4 primary election drawing near, and political activity growing hotter and hotter, citizens of Seminole County will have the opportunity this week to lend their ears to further nominations and back-firing lines, platforms and candidates for state and county offices.

Tuesday evening, Chuluota will hold a "rally under direction of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee, which is headed by J. H. Lee and has Andrew Caraway as secretary. Supper will be served starting at 8:00 P. M. under direction of the Chuluota PTA.

Thursday evening another rally will be held at Lake Monroe School with speaking starting at 7:30 o'clock. No food will be served as far as the committee knows at this time, said Mr. Caraway.

Saturday night will mark the final round-up rally for Sanford. There will be a downtown parade (Continued on Page Two)

Lewis Pension Plan Is Still Unsettled

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The $100-a-month pensions John L. Lewis wants for retired coal miners still are out of reach today.

Lewis thus is in about the same fix he was in before the now ended pension strike started six weeks ago.

He can't get an agreement for pension payments out of the $33,000,000 miners' welfare fund.

Lewis and his wife follow trustees held a two-hour meeting yesterday. Apparently they couldn't agree, however, on only "no comment" for reporters' requests.

Remmie Steele Bridges (R-NY), the neutral trustee, conceded that no deal had been set for starting the $100 monthly pensions to miners 65 years or older with 20 years' service but Lewis had agreed on Apr. 12.

William Knudsen, 69, Industrialist, Dies After Illness

He Gave Up Presidency Of GM To Head War II Rearmament

DETROIT, Apr. 27.—(AP)—William S. Knudsen, World War II coordinator of America's industrial might, died today following a long illness. Death came to the 69-year-old former president of General Motors Corp. at 4-49 A. M.

The white-haired Danish immigrant was known by fellow industrialists as "the greatest production genius of modern times."

He gave up the presidency of General Motors, the country's largest producer of automobiles, in 1940 to head the mammoth rearmament program initiated by the late President Roosevelt.

Knudsen was commissioned a lieutenant-general, the only civilian ever to move directly to that high military office. He frequently admitted his embarrassment, remarking "I'm not a military man," he said; "my business is to make things."

Although the well-known automobile pioneer had been seriously ill for 16 months, death did not seem imminent until shortly after midnight, when he lost consciousness.

His wife, Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Knudsen, and their four children were called to his bedside. Doctors Charles E. Lemmon and A. C. Ernste were in attendance.

It was believed that an extended tour of the battlefronts during the closing months of hostilities was a serious strain on the energies of the industrialist. Close associates said he never fully regained the vigor of the early war years when he directed the rearmament program.

Arriving here from Copenhagen in 1899, the young son of a Danish customs inspector worked in a shipyard and as a shop-hand on the Erie Railroad.

He soon found his way into the new automotive industry. By 1913 he had served as assistant manager of a Buffalo concern which later merged with the Ford Motor Co., and then entered the Ford Detroit plant.

Becoming a citizen in 1914, he directed the Ford boat-building plant in the First World War.

Police Hunt Man Who Wanted Reuther Shot

DETROIT, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Police were hunting today for a man reported to have said he wanted to take a shot at CIO United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther.

The man was carrying a .38 caliber revolver, Commissioner Harry S. Toiv said, when he told an unidentified informant:

"Somebody ought to shoot Reuther. I'd like to take a shot at him myself."

The tip received yesterday from a man brought here from Toledo, O., was the latest and most "startling" in the police hunt for Reuther's Apr. 20 assailant, Toiv said.

Reuther's arm was nearly torn off just a week ago by a shotgun blast fired through the kitchen door of his home. He is reported to be making good progress toward recovery, and physicians believe the arm may be repaired.

Stop-Stassen Movement Countered By Predictions In Washington Vote

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Growing signs of a stop-Stassen movement were countered today by claims that Harold E. Stassen may grab a share of Washington's state's 19 GOP presidential nominating votes.

Stassen spokesmen here said supporters of the former Minnesota governor, by working down into the precincts, have put themselves in position to challenge Governor Thomas E. Dewey's men for control of the state's May 15 GOP meeting.

That gathering will name the 19 Washington delegates to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia this summer.

The story told by Stassen's backers is that his workers showed up in force at precinct meetings and succeeded in naming many delegates of their choosing to several county conventions, including the one in Spokane.

With this as a starter, the Stassen supporters contend they are certain to break into the national convention delegate line-up. That group had been generally regarded as likely to shift largely to Dewey after possible early ballots for Senator Harry Cain (Wash.) and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Dewey backers returned, however, that Stassen is only whittling to keep up his courage in Washington. They said control of Seattle and Tacoma delegations will freeze the Minnesota out at the state convention.

Backers of Senator Robert A. Taft said no one will have to look farther after the Ohio vote. The former Minnesota governor is trying to grab 23 of the state's 63 delegates away from Taft.

Seminole County Faculty Attends FEA Miami Meet

Approximately 32 teachers of Seminole County white schools attended the annual meeting of the Florida Education Association in Miami Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and through the courtesy of the School Board and Supt. T. W. Lawton, were provided with a school bus, which was piloted by SIS Principal Herman E. Morris.

According to Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, principal of the South Side Primary School, the teachers and principals from this county were the only group, as far as she knew, who were provided with such a bus, and they had a fine time going and coming and enjoyed group singing.

"It was one of the nicest and well planned FEA meetings we have ever attended," commented Mrs. Mitchell. She reported that M. Mitchell Ferguson, supervising principal of the Sebring schools, was elected to succeed Dr. W. T. Edwards as FEA president. The latter had charge of the sessions.

Miami's youthful Mayor Robert L. Floyd, gave a fine welcome to the teachers and got a big hand, said Mrs. Mitchell.

Outstanding addresses at the initial session, Thursday, were those of Collin English, state superintendent, who reported that Florida is going ahead on education and the annual address of Dr. Edwards.

House Group Urges Increase Of Funds To Combat Mental Ills

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—A $2,467,000 increase in funds to combat mental illness was recommended today by the House Appropriations Committee. The $10,278,000 fund approved for the fiscal year starting July 1 was more than a fourth larger than this year's appropriation. But it was $1,123,640 below the amount asked by President Truman.

The committee acted after receiving testimony that "personality disorders constitute our largest problem of national health."

Dr. Robert H. Felix, chief of the Public Health Service's Mental Hygiene Division, told the committee:

"In the next 40 years, the number of persons aged 65 and over is expected to double. Since the incidence of mental disease increases with age, we can forecast an increase of mental cases out of all proportion to the increase of total population."

Truman's Aide Predicts Era Of Prosperity

Adds Warning Of Inflation If Defense Spending, Foreign Relief Continues

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, presidential economic adviser, said today that unless the war clouds deepen, "business prosperity might well be sustained for several years ahead."

Addressing the 30th annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Nourse added this warning: Continued spending for foreign aid and national defense may revive a "menacing" inflation, treasury deficits and higher taxes.

But as matters stand, he said, most business men and economists agree that without the European Recovery Program and the preparedness effort, "domestic business would have shown a sagging tendency during 1948."

"It might have gone into the dimensions of a mild recession, but presumably would not have got really out of hand in view of several strong underlying recuperative factors."

Nourse is chairman of the President's council on economic advisers. That body has the duty of keeping a constant check on the nation's economic health and prospects.

He told his business audience that prospects of checking inflation are "a little brighter" because of the post-war "inflation" boom prospects and recent price cuts in "several strategic points."

While the business outlook for the "near-term" may be "favorable," the longer-range economic prospect may be called "unfavorable." Production and employment may continue high, he explained, but purchasing power — or real income — will be measured by the price level.

Publisher Brands Ike Delegates As For Pepper Slate

FORT MYERS, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The "Loyal Democrats for Eisenhower" slate of candidates for delegates to the Democratic National Convention was branded today by a leader of a rival group as "the Pepper slate, pure and simple."

Carl Hanton, publisher of the Fort Myers News-Press, and a candidate on the "Solid South" ticket, made the charge in a telegram to Governor C. D. White.

Hanton renewed his demand in the telegram for an investigation of an anonymous letter from Tallahassee recommending a slate of delegate-candidates which included the Eisenhower group of 28 candidates was announced yesterday in Orlando.

The "Solid South" ticket is labeled on the ballot for Fighting L. Wright, governor of Mississippi and a leader against President Truman's Civil Rights Program.

"You will recognize, said Hanton's telegram to Caldwell, "the loyal Democrats" as loyal only to Senator Pepper. This is his slate, pure and simple."

Flood Damage Hits Millions In Canada

WINNIPEG, Man., Apr. 27.—(AP)—Flood damage ran into millions of dollars today across the Canadian prairies.

Manitoba's position is still the most perilous of the three prairie provinces, even though there has been some abatement. Saskatchewan and Alberta are regarded as "over the hump."

The death toll from the floods stood at 12.

In Winnipeg, city authorities expect the murky waters of the Red River to reach the 25-foot mark by the end of the week. This would be three feet over flood stage. Between Monday noon and midnight the river rose only 1 1/2 inches, to 22 1/2 feet, compared with an average daily advance of one foot since late last week.

Approximately 40 Greater Winnipeg families have been evacuated.

City Commission Studies Ordinance Of Building Code

Law Allows City To Dispose Of Property 70 Percent Burned

An ordinance which would give the City the authority to dispose of property or buildings 70 percent destroyed by fire, in case owners fail to remove the ruins after due notice from the City, was given its first reading at a meeting of the City Commission last evening.

The City can dispose of the property by foreclosure proceedings after due notice if the lien on such property is not paid within a year, City Manager H. N. Sayer pointed out this morning.

The ordinance is in the form of an amendment to the building code.

A new dog ordinance is being drawn up and read by City Attorney Fred Wilson. It was reported at the meeting it is planned to cover all forms of canine misbehavior including barking, biting and destroying property, with the owner paying the penalty.

Mr. Sayer's Employment of a dog catcher during May and June and September and October was authorized.

The Commission directed that all delinquent tax property be sold on July 1.

The deed from the W.A.A. dated Saturday to the City for school property and buildings west of the air strip area, was put on file and recorded, said Mr. Sayer.

Statement Follows News Of Trans-Jordan Legion Occupying City Of Jericho

JERUSALEM, Apr. 27.—(AP)—A competent Arab source said today troops of an Egyptian armored division crossed Palestine's southern frontier at dawn, but Egyptian government sources in Cairo denied it.

A flood of rumors of impending Arab invasion developed in Jerusalem, where chattering madame-monsieur heralded a renewed Arab Jewish fighting. One of these reports — from a Jewish Agency spokesman — was that Trans-Jordan's parliament has decided to send troops into Palestine immediately.

The report came on the heels of a Damascus statement that a Trans-Jordan Arab legion had occupied the town of Jericho and was moving into the Dead Valley of Palestine.

This was discounted here since legion security forces are on loan to the British under both the old and new British-Trans-Jordan treaties.

Reports that Hafsa is being sheltered from Arab across the bay, were unconfirmed.

An official British Army spokesman in Jerusalem said one company of the Arab legion "under British Army orders" had entered Jericho on specific duties. "When their duties are finished," he said, "they will be withdrawn."

A Palestine government spokesman said that "any Trans-Jordan troops now in Palestine are under the command of the British general officer commanding and their conduct is not in question. We have not heard of any declaration of war and consider any such declaration as extremely un-justified." (Continued on Page Eight)

U. S. Will Demand Reds' Explanation Of Officer's Flight

BELLEVILLE, Mo., Apr. 27.—(AP)—American authorities announced today they will demand an explanation from the Russians concerning the flight of a Communist officer from the Western zone of the city.

They said the chief, Hans Kung, told them he ran to escape being arrested by Soviet officials, questioning him about the deserting of a policeman who had a German citizen in the Russian sector to be kidnapped.

The Western zone Socialist Press reported a new kidnapping of a German citizen today and one paper published safety rules titled "How to guard yourself against kidnapping."

The paper said a male German living in the Soviet zone was seized by two armed Russians who held off German police and escaped with a pistol, then took their man away in a car.

The newspaper warned jittery Berliners: "Be careful, distrustful of strangers, and defend yourself with all means."

Dan McCarty To Speak In Sanford

Dan McCarty will make his final appearance in Sanford before the May 4th primary tomorrow afternoon when he will address a rally to be held at 3:00 o'clock on the corner of First Street and Magnolia Avenue, Mary McCauley Peterson, secretary of the McCarty for Governor Club, announced today.

McCarty is coming here from the lower East Coast where he has been campaigning yesterday and today and where he is known to have an unusually strong following. After his address here, he will move into Orange county and will address Orlando voters Wednesday night.

N. O. Garner Attends Civil Service Meets

N. O. Garner, assistant secretary and examiner of the Sanford Civil Service Committee, attended the state convention of Civil Service personnel in Jacksonville, Apr. 21, 22 and 23rd, also the Regional Assembly of civil service of the United States and Canada.

Many subjects were discussed by high officials from 15 southern states including several from New York City. It was advertised that more publicity be given to Civil Service, said Mr. Garner, in order that the general public be enlightened more fully on the merit system, where employees can be promoted on merit and not on "pull" or politics.

Much information was gained which will be helpful towards making Sanford's Civil Service State the most efficient in the State.

U M T Program

restal has been battling to hold it to 66 groups.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) said Forrester's 66-group proposal is "a lot of poppycock" and a "camouflage" for Universal Military Training.

Johnson told reporters the 70 group program the House has voted to get underway is the least needed for national security.

The Colorado senator lit into the Forrester compromise plan as committees on both sides of the Capitol kept at the job of charting military preparedness. Here is the picture:

1. The Senate Armed Services Committee called Secretary of the Army Royal to a closed session for details on a plan to blend the proposed temporary draft and long range UMT.

2. The House Armed Services group assembled to start section-by-section voting on a draft bill. As introduced, it provides for induction of men 18 through 25 and registration of those 18 through 20. The committee hopes to finish its job by tomorrow night.

3. A Senate Appropriations Subcommittee scheduled an afternoon session to hear Secretary for Air Symington and other Air Force officials on the 66 air group plan.

Symington has been one of the leaders of the battle for 70 groups. He spoke out first when the administration was advocating only 55 groups.

Forrester told an appropriations subcommittee yesterday that the Air Force now is backing the 66 group plan because of the need to limit military spending to prevent too great a blow to the domestic economy. Forrester said that from a purely military standpoint, he and the joint chiefs of staff agree there should be 70 groups.

Johnson called the Forrester proposal "a compromise without substance -- a play on words." He said, "What they want is UMT -- period. All the other is just a camouflage for it."

Prosperity Era

buy -- may suffer.
He went on:

"Five, ten or 15 billion dollars worth of goods and services a year cannot be withdrawn from our economy during the next few years and still leave the real income of consumers as high as it would otherwise be during this period."

If a substantially enlarged military force is a sort of new "white man's burden" which must be borne indefinitely, Nourse said, the United States may have to revise downward its goals of purchasing power for consumers.

Foreign aid and preparedness, he said, have postponed the day when the United States must readjust to a "bona fide peacetime economy."

Stassen Bid

fended his labor record and the controversial Taft-Hartley Act today and criticized the stand of Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

Taft started a tour of Ohio's third congressional district today, where Stassen stumped last week in his fight with the Ohioans for 23 of the state's 53 delegates to the Republican National Convention. Both want to be the Party's presidential candidate, and Taft is the Ohio Republican organization's favorite son candidate.

In a press conference, Taft declared that Stassen was "appealing to the employers by saying he is for the Taft-Hartley Act and appealing for the labor vote by criticisms."

Stassen would repeal the requirement for union leaders to take an anti-Communist loyalty oath, he said, then added, "This is one of the most desirable and effective provisions."

PHILADELPHIA Apr. 27 (AP)—An expression of presidential preference by write-in balloting drew the principal interest in today's Pennsylvania primary election as Republicans aspirants matched strength in the politically important Keystone State.

On the Republican side of the ledger, a blank space on the ballot was expected to provide a sampling of voter sentiment on the party's leading candidates although the balloting will have no pre-convention effect on the state's 73-member unpledged G. O. P. delegation.

Democratic voters, at the same time, were expected to select their 74-member convention delegation which already has been pledged to support the candidacy of President Truman.

Only about 30 per cent of the state's 2,076,972 registered Republicans and 1,778,096 Democrats were expected to visit the polls, open from 7 A. M. to 8 P. M.

A light vote was anticipated partly because of a lack of statewide contests and partly because some of the presidential candidates had campaigned actively in Pennsylvania prior to the primary.

Knudsen Dies

in 1922. Soon he was named vice president of the Chevrolet Division.

When he left General Motors to head the vast rearmament program, Knudsen had a word of gratitude:

"This country... it has been pretty good to me," he said. "I felt that if I could do something, I'd like to do it."

His Army service as production "trouble shooter" won him the Distinguished Service Medal and an oakleaf cluster for "brilliant accomplishments."

"By his foresight and ability, he has not only saved this country millions of dollars, but by expediting production of critical weapons he has saved countless American lives," his citation read.

After the war he returned to General Motors briefly in an advisory capacity. Later he became chairman of the Hupp Corporation, a former automobile concern that converted to the production of automobile parts and equipment.

Knudsen's body will lie in state at the W. R. Hamilton funeral home through Wednesday. Final rites will be held at 10 A. M. Thursday at the Epiphany Lutheran Church.

On the same day that Seminole County citizens will be balloting for sheriff, county judge, and points South, the people of Ohio will be declaring their preference for president as between Harold Stassen and Senator Taft. That, too, will be interesting.

We see where horse stealing seems to be coming back into vogue, now that horseback riding is becoming more popular and the demand for good horseflesh is increasing. They had a very effective system for breaking up that practice out West back there in the good old days. They put a rope around his neck, tied the other end to a limb and drove the horse out from under him. A man didn't steal a horse more than once in those days.

A booklet has recently been put out by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis defining precautions which can be taken against this disease. "Practice cleanliness," it says, "don't get overtired, avoid chilling, don't swim in polluted waters, get your family doctor's advice and call your doctor if, in addition to fever, any of these symptoms appear: headache, nausea, a cold, upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness."

We are glad to see the Miami Herald joining that rapidly growing list of Florida newspapers which are supporting Dan McCarty for governor. In Sunday's issue the Miami Herald says, "In these circumstances The Herald recommends that you vote for Dan McCarty of Fort Pierce. The times call for a governor of the native ability, capacities and youthful vigor and experience of this distinguished citizen."

Lessons Of The Past

We are sorry that Winston Churchill's Memoirs, currently being published in Life Magazine, cannot be more widely read throughout the United States. In a democracy it is the average man, who likes to go to the ball game, play golf, and read the comic magazines, who determines the foreign policy of this country, and decides whether there is to be peace or war, far more than the officials in Washington.

If there is any hope that the historic blunders which permitted Adolf Hitler to build his vast military machine and to dominate most of the continent of Europe are to be avoided, it must come from the belief that ordinary citizens everywhere will take the time and trouble to inform themselves on the issues of the day and the lessons of the past.

"It may be well here to set down some principles of morals and action which may be a guide in the future, Britain's wartime Prime Minister writes. "No case of this kind can be judged apart from its circumstances. The facts may be unknown at the time, and estimates of them must be largely guesswork, coloured by the general feelings and aims of whoever is trying to pronounce. Those who are prone by temperament and character to seek sharp and clearcut solutions of difficult and obscure problems, who are ready to fight whenever some challenge comes from a foreign power, have not always been right. On the other hand, those whose inclination is to bow their heads, to seek patiently and faithfully for peaceful compromise, are not always wrong. On the contrary, in the majority of instances they may be right, not only morally but from a practical standpoint. How many have been averted by patience and persisting good will! How often have countries fought cruel wars and then after a few years of peace found themselves not only friends but allies!"

"The Sermon on the Mount is the last word in Christian ethics. Everyone respects the Quakers. Still, it is on these terms that Ministers assume their responsibilities of guiding States. Their duty is first so to deal with other nations as to avoid strife and war and to eschew aggression in all its forms, whether for nationalistic or ideological objects. But the safety of the State, the lives and freedom of their own fellow-countrymen, to whom they owe their position, make it right and imperative in the last resort or when a final and definite conviction has been reached that the use of force should not be excluded. If the circumstances are such as to warrant it, force may be used. And if this be so it should be used under the conditions which are most favourable. There is no merit in putting off a war for a year, if, when it comes, it is a far worse war or one much harder to win. These are the tormenting dilemmas upon which mankind has throughout its history been so frequently impaled. Final judgment upon them can only be recorded by history in relation to the facts of the case as known to the parties at the time, and also as subsequently proved.

There is, however, one helpful guide; namely, for a nation to keep its word and to act in accordance with its treaty obligations to allies. This guide is called honour. It is baffling to reflect that what men call honour does not correspond always to Christian ethics. Honour is often influenced by that element of pride which plays so large a part in its inspiration. An exaggerated code of honour leading to the performance of utterly vain and unreasonable deeds could not be defended, however fine it might look. Here, however, the moment came when honour pointed the path of duty, and when also the right judgment of the facts at that time would have reinforced its dictates.

For the French Government to leave her faithful ally Czechoslovakia to her fate was a melancholy lapse from which flowed terrible consequences. Not only wise and fair policy, but chivalry, honour, and sympathy for a small threatened people made an overwhelming concentration. Great Britain, who would certainly have fought if bound by treaty obligations, was nevertheless now deeply involved, and it must be recorded with regret that the British Government not only acquiesced but encouraged the French Government in a fatal course."

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Palestine crisis has taken on fresh international importance as the result of Russia's sensational about-face in joining the United Nations trusteeship council after boycotting that body for 13 months.

The Moscow action apparently is an effort to further a double ambition: (1) To gain a foothold in the militarily strategic and oil-rich Middle East; and (2) To prevent extension of American power in the vital area.

The development has a somewhat complicated background, but on thumbnail it is this: The U. N. Political Committee, comprising the entire membership of the peace organization, has for some time been considering an American plan for trusteeship over Palestine. Russia has opposed any trusteeship, claiming that the U. S. A. is maneuvering for military bases and petroleum in the Middle East.

Well now, any trusteeship would have to be handled by the trusteeship council. The Soviet Union belongs to the council but has been maintaining a boycott until now, when the council has suddenly assumed unusual importance. Hence Moscow's cool move at long last in naming a representative to that body and thus getting set for action.

It is a tragedy that the sanguinary Jewish-Arab struggle over the Holy Land should be complicated by rivalry between Russia and the major Western allies for domination of the Middle East. These two elements so dovetail as to constitute a grave menace to global peace.

However, we at least have the satisfaction of seeing the present phase of the big power competition confined largely to the United Nations. The hope naturally is that it can be kept there.

The most important issue revolves about the question of sending an international force to Palestine to maintain peace. The Russians would give their shirts to get a Red army into the Middle East, thereby establishing a military grip which they could exploit as they have their hold on Eastern Germany. That would get the Bolshevik boot into the door of one of the world's most important areas.

Washington has made it clear that the United States is firmly opposed to any U. N. plan which would involve the sending of Russian troops to Palestine. However, that is a ticklish position to maintain and observers anticipate that America will do all possible to avoid being maneuvered into a position of taking a formal position on the matter in the United Nations. Whether she will be able to avert a showdown is a matter of speculation, since the Palestine situation is fluid and the future is uncertain.

Meantime the civil war pursues its bloody and destructive course in the Holy Land. From Cairo comes a report that forces from Trans-Jordan and other Arab countries are planning an immediate invasion of Palestine. There also is a hint of Egyptian action in support of the Arabs.

A fierce battle seems to be boiling up between Jews and Arabs for possession of ancient Jerusalem, holy place of three great religions—Christianity, Judaism, and Mohammedanism. Both sides have drawn up their armies on the southern edge of the city. Back in Lake Success the United Nations, taking cognizance

Coal Strike Effects Will Delay Change To '49 Car Models

By DAVID J. WILKIE Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT Apr. 26 (AP)—The effects of the coal dispute may delay the change over to 1949 model automobiles planned for early autumn.

Ford escaped the worst effects of the coal tie-up and has 1949 model introductions well under way. Elsewhere in the industry, however, many car makers had plans completed to start on their next models around Oct. 1.

Already one manufacturer who expected to be well into 1949 model work by October has now set the date for Nov. 1. Others undoubtedly will have to revise their new model planning. At the same time it appears fairly certain virtually all 1949 models will be rolling from assembly lines by this year's end.

The coal dispute hit the car industry a lot harder than was immediately apparent. Besides getting enough sheet steel and foundry metal to maintain a 100,000-unit a week production level the car makers had hoped to build up large inventories to offset possible curtailments later in the year unrelated to the coal stoppage.

The trade paper Automotive News touched upon this in today's issue, saying: "Aside from the coal strike's effects, it now seems certain the auto industry will be denied a large amount of steel when buying for the European Recovery Program really gets under way."

Besides closing its foundries and machine shops because of materials shortages, General Motors also had many of its car assembly plants idle today. Most of them are expected to reopen production this week will close down later for at least one week.

Automotive News, reporting last week's output at 71,284 cars and 129,173 trucks, said the nation's auto plants "scraped the bottom of the barrel" for steel. Ward's reports put the week's production total at 69,990 cars and 30,004 trucks in United States plants.

All trade sources agree production next month will take a major slump.

GUERRILLAS TRAPPED ATHENS, Apr. 27—(AP)—The general staff said today Greek troops are hunting down some 2,000 guerrillas in their last hideouts between the Vardoulia and Ghiona Mountains.

The heavy fighting in the Jornos River Valley north of the Gulf of Corinth. Press reports said the destroyers Hastings and Themistocles had bombarded the trapped rebels several hours from the sea yesterday.

Memorial Day Is Observed By U. D. C.

Southern Memorial Day was observed by the N. de V. Howard Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, with a meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Claude Herndon. Mrs. B. L. Perkins served as co-hostess and Mrs. Herndon accompanied the singing of "America" after which the pledge to the Star Spangled Banner and the salute to the Stars and Bars were said in unison.

In opening the meeting Mrs. A. K. Rosseter, chaplain, gave an appropriate devotional from John 16:12-22. She compared Pilate's answer "What I have written, I have written" with the scripture "What has been done is done."
During the business meeting Mrs. J. J. Bolly, president, appointed Mrs. L. A. Brumley, Mrs. Rosseter and Mrs. F. E. Roumillat as a nominating committee to select officers for the new year with names to be submitted at a meeting on May 28 at the home of Mrs. W. C. Hill.

Mrs. Bolly, who stated that she will be unable to attend the May meeting, thanked the members for their "splendid cooperation" and asked that the incoming officers "accept their duties as an honor bestowed upon them in carrying on the great heritage left to them." Each member was presented with a corsage of red and white roses by Mrs. Rosseter.

Stanley Brumley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brumley and grandson of the historian, Mrs. L. A. Brumley, sang several selections including "Swanee River" and "Ole Black Joe." He also led the group in singing a verse of "Dixie."

Mrs. E. A. Douglas, the chapter's oldest charter member and who, at one time, served as a state officer, was given a beautiful bouquet of red Etoile de Hollande and white Frau Kaitzin Druschki roses. Mrs. F. L. Woodruff, Sr., a visitor and charter member, was also presented with a lovely arm bouquet of white Easter lilies and red amaryllis.

Mrs. E. H. Laney, radio chairman, played a record of the Memorial Day radio program presented over Station WTRR and as the names of the Confederates were read a flower was placed in a vase by Stanley Brumley. Mrs. Bolly stated that a large basket of lilies and gladioli were placed on the grave of Dr. N. de V. Howard.
At the conclusion of the meeting delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. Brumley, Mrs. J. H. Truhler, Mrs. George Bishop, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Laney, Mrs. J. M. McCaslin, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. M. Mary Leffer, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Rosseter, Mrs. J. M. Hayes, Mrs. Thea Pate, Mrs. Roumillat, Mrs. Bolly, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. M. D. He stated that there are now 500,000 acres in the park, including the gift of the Royal Palm State Park from the Federated Women's Clubs, and that the total acreage will reach 1,000,000, making Florida a gift to the nation the largest ever made. There are about 29 state parks in Florida, he declared.

Lana Nervous, Bob Calm As Vows Said

BY GENE HANDSAKER
HOLLYWOOD Apr. 27 (AP)—Well, it was quite a production, Lana Turner, the bride, was radiant, and nervous. Her white-orchid corsage trembled. She went upstairs and lay down to rest for a half hour after the ceremony.

She spoke her "I wills" at just above a whisper. The nervous blonde-vase girl, 27, was far from poised in the 11 times she has been married in well-rehearsed movie scenes.

Her dark-haired, million-dollar-hollywood, Henry J. Holt, 30, pink, 31, held to a simple fortune, said his vows with calm assurance.

The black-robed clergyman told them solemnly in the ceremony: "Henry and Lana, let us believe that in the presence of God you have at last found each other." He advised them to "plan together, play together, and most important of all pray together."

Like a well-prepared movie script, the marriage of the movie Cinderella girl and the million-dollar everything had everything.

Glamor: Lana wore a sheer champagne lace gown over a champagne satin slip that did full justice to her celebrated figure. Her blue eyes sparkled, her cheeks were a faded pink, her ceremonial room was fragrant and aglow with green fern and white blossoms—arranged by a studio prop man in cooperation with florists.

Demean: Lana was married in the white-plaster-walled living room of William R. Holt's Hollywood movie trade-pub. publisher, who associated her to movie. It was a simple affair, as was reported by Holt's secretary.

Excitement: 25 reporters, photographers and a married man jamming the doorway to Holt's two-story, Red Arrow home as the ceremony started at 2:12 P. M.

The human touch: The mother of honor confessed guilt, after the ceremony was over, "my feet hurt." And the cute flower girl—a 6-year-old Cheryl Christian, Lana's daughter by a previous marriage—Stephen Crane—said, "I'm tired."

The newlyweds and they would remain here overnight, go to Palm Springs for a few days, then fly to New York City. They left May 5 on the Macauley for London.

was well reported that he was asked for a copy by Mrs. B. K. Fleming, national federation corresponding secretary, to pass on as a guide for other clubs to use.

During the afternoon she was permitted to take the delegates to the Albert's Grand Hotel in Mandarin where a tea was enjoyed. Mrs. Curlett declared this meaning that the flower arrangements at the convention headquarters, Garden Center ten and Albert's tea were "the only decoration, ever made of art where she wanted to linger and admire." She added that this was the "longest and most outstanding convention ever held with a feeling of cordiality toward all which will be long remembered."

Art Dunham To Face Daytona In Contest Here Tonight

Locals Defeat Bucs By 10 To 8 Score; Tyler Chased In 8th Canto Of Tiff

The Sanford Giants will meet the league leading Daytona Beach Icelets at the Municipal Park tonight, for the first engagement at the local ball orchard this year, at 8:00 o'clock with Art Dunham handling the pitching assignment for the locals.

Tomorrow evening Manager Don Anderson brings his St. Augustine Salts into Sanford for the last of the current schedule, and the Sanfordites open the home and home series play with the DeLand Red Hats in DeLand on Thursday night. The Hats return to the Municipal Park for a tilt on Friday evening. Saturday night the Giants invade Orlando and the Senators come to Sanford for a Sunday afternoon contest. Monday will find Palatka here.

Last night the Giants scored a 10 to 8 victory over the Leesburg Pirates in the Lake County city.

Sanford falled one run in the opening frame, added five in the fifth and led the contest in the eighth with a four run uprising.

Tim Tyler, Sanford third sacker, was ejected from the contest in the bottom of the eighth frame, after Manager Eddie Leiper had stolen third base. Tyler disliked Base Umpire Bill Reedy's decision on the play, and protested too strenuously, being waved from the game by Reedy. Tyler had the honor of being the first Sanfordite chased from a contest this year.

Left fielder Vince Mullin paced the Sanford attack on the two Pirates hurlers with two hits in five trips to the plate. One of the blows was a three base hit.

House Group Asks Shakeup Of U. S. Federal Agencies

Cuts 20 Millions Off Security Agency's Next Year's Funds

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27. (AP)—A shakeup in the Social Security Administration and the U. S. Employment Service was ordered today by the House Appropriations Committee.

Slashing $20,673,000 off next year's funds for the Federal Security Agency, the committee approved a $969,050,000 money bill to finance operations starting July 1.

The committee also added a provision barring use of the funds to government workers belonging to a union whose officers have not signed the non-Communist oath required by the Taft-Hartley Law.

This is the first time the fund-withholding weapon has been used to back up this section of the labor law. In a previous effort to attach an anti-racial discrimination provision to a money bill, the committee was overruled by the House.

The Social Security Administration, which came in for the major fund trimming, is but one of the agencies under the overall direction of the Federal Security Agency. The $969,050,000 recommended by the committee also would provide for operations of such other units as the Public Health Service and the Food and Drug Administration in Alaska.

The bill includes these specific health and social welfare appropriations: 1. $1,000,000 for the Public Health Service to train dentists and dental technicians in the new procedure for using sodium fluoride to check tooth decay.

2. $2,250,000 for research grants and scholarships to promote study of mental illnesses. 3. $700,000 for an immediate survey of what the committee called "rather serious" health and sanitation conditions in Alaska.

The bill, written by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Keefe (R-Wis), recommended a "far-reaching overhaul" of the Social Security Administration. It pruned the administrative superstructure by:

1. Denying $50,838 asked for 11 jobs in the Coordinating and Procedure Division, saying "There is absolutely no need for this intervening layer."

2. Cutting the request for the agency's publications and information service from $109,997 to $30,000.

In addition the committee ordered all regional social security offices shifted to the Federal Security Agency. It recommended a raise in the FSA director's salary from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

The committee also said the U. S. Employment Services (USES) should be transferred at once to the FSA. Under present law, this transfer would take place automatically six months after the official end of the war.

Further the committee said the FSA should set up a Bureau of Employment Security. This would be outside the Social Security Administration and combine the work of the USES and the present Unemployment Compensation Division.

For this new bureau the committee recommended an appropriation of $123,000,000. The budget bureau had asked $145,000,000 for the two job agencies separately.

SENTENCE UPHOLD

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The Florida Supreme Court today upheld the death sentence of Elbert Eugene Harper, Winter Haven negro, for the hatchet slaying of Thomas P. Smith, a white man.

Harper pleaded guilty to the murder of Smith, a brewing company agent, on Aug. 8, 1947, and was sentenced to death in the electric chair.

Justice H. L. Sebring, writing the court's unanimous opinion, said "the evidence clearly and unequivocally establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was guilty of murder in the first degree."

Silent Struggles In Washington Try To Iron Out Atomic Labor Relations

By MAX HALL. Associated Press Labor Reporter

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27. (AP)—Without hubbub or headlines, groups of men in Washington are struggling with the baffling problem of labor relations in atomic energy plants.

Fifty thousand persons work in and around these plants. They work for private companies, though the plants are owned by the government.

The companies and the workers haven't proved they can settle their disputes without work stoppages. This is the heart of the problem.

The U. S. Atomic Energy Commission is urgently searching for a solution with the help of AFL, CIO, and management leaders.

Meetings are being held almost every day. David Lillenthal, the commission's chairman, has told Congress that work stoppages must be avoided, either by voluntary agreement or "force of law."

The joint congressional committee on atomic energy is standing by to see whether there will be voluntary agreement on an overall plan. The congressmen are ready to recommend a new law if necessary, but don't know whether it's necessary or what kind of law would be effective.

The Lillenthal commission wants an overall labor policy—agreed to by the unions and the employers—that would do three things at the same time:

- (1) Assure continuous operations. (2) Draw the best kind of workers and managers into the atomic industry and keep their morale high. (3) Assure that not only the employees, but also their union officials outside the plants will be loyal to the U. S.

"This loyalty angle may be a big headache of the future. The great problem of the moment is 'continuity of operations.' If possible the government would like to achieve this without interfering with the rights of labor and the efficiency of management. That explains the emphasis being put on voluntary agreement rather than compulsion.

Leaders of the AFL, the CIO and the government are agreed that strikes in atomic plants are "unthinkable."

Yet strikes are possible under the present system. And twice the country has moved near an atomic strike at Oak Ridge, Tenn. (1) A CIO crisis occurred last December.

(2) An AFL crisis occurred in March. It took a federal court order to block an AFL strike Mar. 19.

The Taft-Hartley Act outlaws strikes by government employees. But atomic plant workers aren't government employees. They work for Carbide & Carbon Chemicals Corporation, General Electric, the University of Chicago, and other employers that have atomic contracts with the U. S.

The 50,200 employees are divided this way: 20,400 are at Oak Ridge; 17,900 are at Hanford, Wash.; the other 11,900 are at Chicago, Los Alamos, N. M., Schenectady, N. Y., and other places.

Some of the employees are scientists and supervisors, who don't belong to the unions in the atomic plants. But unions are assuming more and more importance.

Thursday evening, the setting for the meeting was under the twinkling lights of Bayfront Park where Rear Admiral Ellis M. Zacharias spoke on "Today's World Tomorrow." A reception by the Dade County PTA at the auditorium preceded this event.

On Friday, there were group meetings and talks on child development and growth, the impact of technological development on the South, and talks on how to educate the exceptional child.

Friday evening the teachers got a big thrill listening to the bands and glee clubs of Miami High Schools give a musical pageant in the Miami Orange Bowl. Talks also were made on the international challenge and public schools.

Seminole County's teachers returned home on the bus Saturday afternoon, and many, according to Mrs. Mitchell, said that they would like to attend another FEA convention in Miami.

At the convention were: Miss Ruth Hand, county education supervisor, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Teague, Paul Mickler, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Durden, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, Mrs. J. C. Palestine Invasion

A Jewish Agency spokesman told newsmen Jews had learned that last night the Trans-Jordan parliament agreed to King Abdullah's demand to send troops into Palestine and ordered a general mobilization.

Armies of the four Arab nations which encircle Palestine are reported ready to invade the Holy Land before the week ends.

The reports said the forces of Trans-Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Egypt will launch the thrust in defiance of the British mandate, not scheduled to end until May 15, and of the United Nations Security Council, which has ordered a cease-fire in Palestine.

(In London, the foreign office announced that Britain will resist any Arab "incursions" into Palestine before the British mandate ends.)

Two Britons were killed in Jerusalem today, as tension increased over the threatened invasion.

Capt. R. B. Leggett, retired British naval officer, who came to Palestine last week to accept a consular appointment when the mandate ends, was shot by Arabs near Barclay's Bank in the heart of the city.

A British public works official was shot dead by unidentified assailants this morning near the Jerusalem sports club. A British source said the official, B. O. Denham, had been threatened by Arabs for "fraternizing with Jews."

A royal artillery officer, near the scene when Leggett was killed, joined in the gun battle with the assailants. He said Leggett had just emerged from the bank with 4,800 pounds (about $10,200) and was placing the money in an armored police car when an Arab two feet away fired two shots into his head and one into his chest. Some 250 people in the area fled when police and the army opened fire. One Arab was killed and two injured. The assailant escaped.

LAKE SUCCESS, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The Jewish Agency appealed today for United Nations intervention to stop a threatening invasion of Palestine by the Trans-Jordan Arab legion.

Moakie Shertok, head of the agency's political department, told the 58-member Political Committee of the U. N. General Assembly that Palestine Jews would meet any invading Arab armies with force if the U. N. failed to act.

"We certainly do not regard the Arab legion as inviolable," Shertok said.

The United States, disregarding Shertok's declaration, made a new plea for Jewish-Arab cooperation and pressed for action on the

Arabian King Says He Has Taken Jericho

Abdullah's Statement Contradicts British Denial That Only 1 Company Is In City

JERUSALEM, Apr. 28 (AP)—A Palestine government spokesman said British Royal Air Force troops today at Jewish positions in the Bath Yam region, southeast of Jerusalem, were attacking Arab forces.

Jewish sources in Haifa said Arab legion gunners shelled a Jewish settlement near Naharaim, on the Trans-Jordan frontier. Ten Jews were reported killed.

Other reports to Haifa said the Jewish militia Haganah captured two police fortresses near the Trans-Jordan frontier in the night. The Jews fought with Arabs, they said, after British forces abandoned the fortresses as part of the general British withdrawal incident to ending of the mandate May 15. The fortresses are at the all-Arab town of Samakh and at Jir El Majmie.

The Jewish underground, Irgun Zvai Leumi, said it had captured the entire Manshiel quarter of the all-Arab port of Jaffa adjoining Tel Aviv. The battle for Jaffa rose to new intensity. Irgun and Haganah fighters, newly allied, fought side by side in four key suburbs of the city. The Jews won control of Haifa last week.

It was officially announced in Jerusalem that British army units had gone into action this morning to break up the attack by Jews on Jaffa.

War Scare Blamed By Politicians For The Increasing Of Inflation

WASHINGTON, Apr. 28 (AP)—A merchandising leader told the United States Chamber of Commerce today that a war scare "discovered by the Administration" has given inflation "another shot in the arm."

Jay D. Runkle, of Detroit, board chairman of the National Retail Drygoods Association, told a luncheon session of the chamber's annual meeting:

"It was pretty evident that there were some badly scared politicians in Washington early this year who were afraid that prices might actually be reduced and bring about deflation."

"The war scare fixed that up for those who were anxious to ride the band wagon to victory in November. No one seems to want to kill Santa Claus just before election."

Politicians are again "out in full cry for controls," Runkle said in his address, contending that economic controls "would stifle our economy, restrict production and create black markets."

"Further inflation is not necessary if the government will conduct this business of rearming in a sensible manner," he said, "and if the propaganda machine is turned off in Washington."

In another luncheon talk, Joel Dean, Columbia University business economist and former OPA rationing official, predicted that prices will rise "at the same kind of inflationary pace we have averaged since OPA."

Because of tax reduction and the preparedness program, which have dimmed a prospect of a sizable budget surplus, Dean said, there no longer is assurance of any effective inflation control. He added:

"The voluntary program adopted by Congress is far too feeble to do the job. The political climate is quite unfavorable to the kind of rough and tough measures that are needed now."

He urged the business men to get out and work for a buyers' market.

Stassen Wins Pennsylvania GOP Ballot

PHILADELPHIA, Apr. 28 (AP)—White House hopeful Harold E. Stassen today won Pennsylvania's Republican presidential popularity contest.

The former Minnesota governor captured first place in yesterday's preferential write-in-vote primary. He scored a slim and surprising victory over New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

Stassen's triumph in industrial Pennsylvania followed his delegate successes in the farm states of Nebraska and Wisconsin. But the vote is not binding on the Keystone State's 73 GOP elected delegates. All were convention unpledged.

Jay Cooke, Stassen's Pennsylvania campaign manager, said the victory clearly indicates the "smashing majority that Stassen, as the nominee, would receive in the November election."

Trailing far back of Stassen and Dewey as late returns trickled in were U. S. Senator Edward Martin, Pennsylvania's "favorite son" candidate; General Douglas MacArthur, Ohio's Robert A. Taft, Michigan's Arthur Vandenberg, General Dwight D. Eisenhower and Third Party candidate Henry Wallace.

President Truman, only name on the Democratic ballot, was an easy victor. Eisenhower and Wallace picked up a handful of Democratic write-in votes.

With 6,769 of 8,282 precincts reported the GOP balloting gave Stassen 67,830, Dewey 62,840, Martin 38,778, MacArthur 13,966, Taft 12,824, Vandenberg 7,313, Eisenhower 4,250, Wallace 1,185, Pennsylvania's Governor James H. Duff 680 and Governor Earl Warren of California 590.

Truman had 234,058 in 4,684 precincts; Eisenhower had 3,844 votes on the Democratic ballot; Wallace, 3,461.

Stassen, overcoming Martin's early lead, steadily built up a 5,000 vote margin over Dewey. The Minnesotan won thumping majorities in the state's two industrial metropolitan centers. He led Dewey by 8,000 in Philadelphia, 3,500 in Pittsburgh.

Cooke said Stassen's vote was "representative of the mood of any active campaigning."

Dr. MacGowan Is Guest Speaker At Men's Club Meet

Legion Department Headquarters Will Move To Capital

American Legion Department Headquarters will not be moved to new permanent headquarters at Tallahassee before 60 or 90 days, it was announced yesterday by Dept. Adjutant A. Reid Mann, following his return from the state Legion convention at Panama City where, despite Sanford's bid for the permanent headquarters, the change was voted by the delegates from posts throughout the state.

Adjutant Mann pointed out that present headquarters, located in the Valdes Hotel since July, 1945, had been outgrown, and said that much additional space was needed, and that space offered in the Sanford City Hall would not have met new requirements.

The new location is in the recently constructed Tallahassee City Administration Building, and is just across from the State Capitol. It includes 3,000 square feet of floor space, half of which is located on the ground floor where the offices will be located, and the other 1,500 square feet in the basement. Due, however, to the hill slope, there is a ground entrance in the rear. There is elevator service, and supplies will be kept on the lower floor.

Adjutant Mann said that he is now giving study to the finance arrangements for the Legion sponsored Boys State, held annually in Tallahassee to enable boys chosen by various Legion Posts and civic organizations to spend a week in studying and going through the routine of state government. The program this year (Continued on Page 12)

Murray Says Third Party Is Red Party

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Apr. 28 (AP)—President Philip Murray said today the Third Party is organized by the Communist Party in New York last October. He did not mention Henry Wallace, party candidate for president, by name.

"This is no time to mine words," Murray said. "I charge that the Communist Party is directly responsible for the organization of a Third Party in the United States. There is no question about that."

Murray told the biennial convention of the C.I.O. textile workers union the Third Party is intent on causing disunity in the nation.

"Oh, yes, that is the history, that the record of the Third Party here in America," he continued. "That is the record they have maintained from day to day, since the very inception of the drive, which was inaugurated at a Communist Party meeting in the city of New York in October of 1947."

Sullivan Quits As Executive Director

WASHINGTON, Apr. 28 (AP)—Gael Sullivan resigned today as executive director of the Democratic National Committee.

He said he will become associated with the theater owners of America.

Friends said they understand Sullivan will receive about $50,000 a year in his new job.

His resignation is effective May 15.

The 62 year old Chicagoan joined the Democratic committee in February 1947, after resigning as second assistant postmaster general.

Military Men Take Troubles To President

WASHINGTON, Apr. 28 (AP)—Military leaders took the badly needed defense program back to President Truman today to see if he could untie a few knots for them.

The President asked for Universal Military Training, a temporary draft and expansion of the Armed Forces six weeks ago. He asked for speed because of the troubled world situation.

But confusion among the Armed Forces leaders over how large the Air Force should be, and disagreement between the Senate and House Armed Services Committee about draft-UMT legislation, have delayed action.

Today Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Secretary of the Army, Royal and General Omar N. Bradley, Army chief of staff, called on the President. They had nothing to say to reporters after war.

President Truman said he did not think there was any significance to the fact that Air Force Secretary Symington was not included in the meeting.

One of the major problems has been caused by Symington's insistence that the nation needs a 70-group Air Force for safety. Forrestal first recommended 55 groups, later compromised on 60. He said a larger force would unbalance the Armed Services.

Symington yesterday told the Senate Appropriations Committee that he approved Forrestal's compromise plan. Then he reversed himself, admitting that he still favored 70 groups. He was backed by General Carl Spaatz.

A number admitted they were bewildered. Symington himself said he was embarrassed by the whole thing, but he said that he must go along with his boss, Forrestal, on the balanced forces plan, but that personally he still believed a stronger Air Force was needed.

A second stumbling block in the defense picture is draft-UMT. The President wants both.

The Senate Armed Services Committee has tentatively worked out a bargain-counter measure combining the two. Teen aged trainees through 1954 would be drafted into the regular forces along with the draftees. But they (Continued on Page 12)

Truman Passes Half-Way Mark In Delegates To Win Demo Nomination

WASHINGTON, Apr. 28 (AP)—President Truman passed the half way mark today in the number of delegates needed to give him the Democratic presidential nomination.

With the hefty Pennsylvania and Massachusetts vote behind him, the President apparently has a position to shoo off all but chosen internal party moves to cast him aside.

There is no such clear sailing ahead for any Republican presidential aspirant at this point. But Harold E. Stassen's surprise showing in Pennsylvania's write-in contest yesterday provided a new demonstration of his voter appeal.

The former Minnesota governor, who ran last in a seven-man field four years ago, was leading New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey, the easy 1944 winner.

The outcome, however, will not be binding on the state's 22-man delegation. It is expected to give favorite son support to Senator Edward Martin.

As for Mr. Truman, Senator Hatch (D-N.M.) told a reporter he thinks it's all over but the shouting.

"I don't believe anybody can stop the President from getting the nomination unless he himself should decide that he doesn't want it," the New Mexico senator said. He added that he doesn't look for any such decision.

House Speaker Pepper (D-Fla.) also earlier had said he too considered Mr. Truman's nomination almost certain, and some eyebrows raising with a statement that he is glad to see so many delegates cast their Florida backing for General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Pepper and Eisenhower "would make a great President," adding that the Philadelphia convention in July would nominate "the best available Democrat." Florida names its delegates May 4. He added:

"There are many good men and women candidates for delegates from Florida to the Democratic National Convention. I am confident that the Democrats of Florida, without advice from any one, will elect a delegation and (Continued on Page 12)

Rail Strike Is Slated To Begin May 11

CHICAGO, Apr. 28 (AP)—A strike that would shut down the nation's railroad service was called today for 6 A. M. May 11.

In Washington the National (Railway) Mediation Board was known to be considering last-minute intervention to avert the crippling walkout. All previous efforts to resolve the wage dispute through the elaborate machinery of the railway labor law failed.

The strike date for 150,000 railroad locomotive engineers, firemen, engineers and switchmen was made public in Cleveland by a spokesman for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The information was given out in advance of a scheduled statement being prepared in Chicago by representatives of the three unions. After keeping newsmen waiting for nearly an hour in Chicago, a spokesman for the union committee said the group would make no statement "at this time."

The spokesman gave no reason for the delay. There is, however, a strong rivalry between the three unions, although they are acting in concert in the present wage dispute. In a previous dispute conflicting dates for the start of a strike were announced by the unions involved because one brotherhood chief gave out a date individually instead of waiting for a joint announcement.

By giving out the date by no statement "at this time," the (Continued on Page 12)

Florida Fashions Begins Operation Of Dress Factory

Sanford's new dress factory, the Florida Fashions Manufacturing Division, started operations yesterday in its modern and fast-to-plant located on East First Street in the former location of Florida Fashions, Inc.

Workers were still installing the individually powered sewing machines yesterday afternoon, 60 of which will be in operation, and two people including supervisors and foremen will be employed when the plant goes into full production. It was estimated by Philip A. Brooks, who came here from New York, to manage the plant.

It is expected that all of these employees will be from a radius of not more than 10 miles from Sanford and Mr. Brooks. He predicted that within 30 days the output will be 500 dresses garments a week, which will be handled by the Florida Fashion mail order division located at the Municipal Airport. If the project is successful, he said, steps will be taken to increase the size of the plant.

The first garment of the factory was completed yesterday afternoon by Mrs. M. J. Baker, forelady. It is known as a "Wonder Coat" or check percale, and buttons down the front, and will be widely advertised by Florida Fashions among other creations designed at the company's Miami office.

The production room on the upper floor has 3,000 feet of floor space, is lighted with overhead fluorescent fixtures, and each machine will be individually lighted, said Mr. Brooks. There is plenty of light also from windows, and large fan ventilator systems.

The office space has been enclosed downstairs, and a loud speaker system provided for the employees to enjoy phonographic music while they work. The first shipment of piece goods has been received. Cutting machinery will soon be installed, said Mr. Brooks, and cutting will start next week.

General Hutchison Explains Draft Bill

In a talk to students of Seminole High School this morning, General J. C. Hutchison said that according to the original proposal of the draft bill, HR 674, young men who became members of the National Guard, will not be subjected to the draft. He was introduced by Byron Beard, president of the Student Council.

For those who would like to serve, and at the same time continue their education, General Hutchison recommended joining the National Guard, and said that it looked to him almost certain that a draft bill will be passed.
