

U. S. Agriculture Had Banner Year During 1952 Span

Meat Animals, Grains Show Biggest Gains Over Previous Mark

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Newsfeatures

WASHINGTON—American agriculture turned in its biggest production job in 1952.

The combined output of food and fiber crops and livestock and livestock products was the largest in history. It topped the previous year's production by 3 per cent. Biggest gains were in meat animals and food grains.

Reflecting heavy consumer demand for more beef and favorable prices, farmers expanded cattle numbers to a record level. Those numbers now stand at more than 100 million head. This is an increase of more than 13 million head in four years.

A further expansion in cattle is expected in 1953—a year that may see consumer supplies of meat become the largest in any peacetime year.

Farmers harvested the second largest wheat crop and the second largest corn crop in history. These crops served to assure ample supplies and reserves for possible emergencies for at least another 15 months.

Produced also were larger than average crops of oats, flax, rice, soybeans, tobacco, fruits and vegetables.

BUT FARM returns did not match farm production. The agriculture department reported farmers received a total net income—income left after paying production costs—of 14,200 million.

This is about 15 percent less than the record received in 1947, and virtually the same as the amount received in 1951.

Farmers actually received about 3 per cent more dollars for their products in 1952 than in 1951. But their production costs were higher. Had farm prices kept pace with increases in prices farmers paid for production materials, their income would, of course, have topped 1951.

Farm receipts from livestock products were down about 3 per cent as lower average prices more than offset a 3 per cent increase in volume. Returns from crops increased about 12 per cent, mostly because of a 9 per cent increase in the volume of production.

This year's decline in livestock receipts was largely in meat animals, eggs and wool. Dairy receipts were up nearly 6 per cent, mainly because of higher average prices.

Farm economists say farmers are not likely to receive more from marketings in 1953 than they received in 1952. The domestic demand for farm products will probably be well maintained during the coming year, but some reduction in demand for export seems likely. As a result, prices received by farmers in 1953 may average a little lower.

THE LEVEL of economic well-being was not uniform for the various farming regions. Many producers in Eastern, Southeastern, South Central and Southwestern areas suffered heavy crop losses from a severe early summer drought. Those losses were reflected in the total production. Livestock feed grains, hay and pastures.

As a consequence, many farmers were forced to sell off some of their livestock because of inadequate feed supplies. Others were enabled to keep stock through government help in obtaining feed supplies from more plentiful areas.

The spectre of a severe drought in 1953 hung over many of the same areas adversely affected in 1952. Prospects were darkest in the winter wheat producing area of the southern great plains. Little hope was held for a bumper food grain crop in the new year. But ample reserves will prevent a shortage.

A major development on the national farm front in 1952 was a congressional investigation of shortages of government-owned grain and other products stored under price support programs. In a number of cases, private storage concerns converted these commodities to their own use and were unable to make good to the government.

Critics of the Truman administration blamed these losses—estimated all the way from about one million to 10 million dollars on lax administration. Several storage concerns were prosecuted. The government tightened up its storage regulations in a move to prevent future losses.

THIS YEAR brought few changes in farm legislation and in federal farm programs. The only measure of any importance passed by Congress was one extending high-level farm price supports for basic crops for another two-year period—that is, for the 1953 and 1954 crops.

Under this measure, the government is required to support producer prices of wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts at not less than 90 percent of parity for the two years. This is the level at which these crops have been supported in recent years. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, declared by law to be equally fair to farmers and those who buy their products.

Meanwhile, the year saw a split view between the Truman administration and some farm organizations over government farm price supports. The powerful American Farm Bureau Federation and National Grange argued that the government should support prices of all farm products at parity. The farm organizations argued that the government should support prices of basic crops at parity and that of other farm products at a level below parity.

ORLANDO (AP)—Pig production in Florida in 1952 was 852,000 head, the U. S. Department of Agriculture said today.
This was 4 per cent over the 810,000 production in 1951 but 2 per cent under the 10-year average of 871,000.
The report said Florida farmers indicated 85,000 sows would farrow in the spring, an increase of 5 per cent or 4,000 head over last year. The 1953 national pig crop was 91,800,000, a drop of 10 per cent from last year.

of Agriculture Bureau.
The Bureau and Grange argued that the administration's policies would soon put farmers under complete domination of bureaucratic agencies.
This issue of conflict over farm price support levels will be passed on to the Eisenhower administration to settle. Before 1953, this administration must decide whether to continue the 90 percent support level, or all back on a parity basis. The farm support system endorsed by both major parties in 1952.
Of major interest to farm people is the fact that the farm support system will be passed on to the Eisenhower administration to settle.

A BETTER WORLD?

There's plenty of room for improvement in this old world of ours. Of course, it is just about perfect from a structural standpoint. It spins through space with such mathematical precision that man can count days and months and years—and even print them on calendars without fear of error. But where life and people are concerned . . . even a child can see that things are pretty badly muddled. What of 1953? Will it bring a better world? Will there be more happiness and less sorrow . . . more love and less hatred . . . more good, less evil? Our world will always be what we are. Only as the lives of men change, can the life of the world improve. The Church is dedicated to building better lives. By religious education, by worship, by preaching the highest moral and spiritual standards, the Church can make a better you and a better me. There is no other way to a better world. The Church is the salvation of mankind.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

McCarthy To Launch Probe Of Colleges

Senator Will Seek To Root Out What He Calls Communist Thinkers In Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today that one of the first things he will do in the new Congress will be to investigate the nation's colleges in a search for subversive influences.

"It will be an awfully unpleasant task," he said, observing that he expects "a hell of a lot of break hose and that there will be screaming of interference with academic freedom."

But McCarthy indicated he believes it is of pressing interest to root out what he called "Communist thinkers" from the nation's colleges. He said he'd rather use that expression than the bald word "Communists."

McCarthy told interviewers for the weekly news magazine U. S. News & World Report that this was the first time he had discussed his projected plan of "going into the educational system."

The magazine published today a copyrighted account of his interview with McCarthy and other ranking Republicans who will head major committees in the 83rd Congress, which opens its session Saturday. McCarthy will be chairman of the Committee on Government Operations and the permanent Senate investigating committee.

Rep. Velde (R-Ill.), who will head the House Committee on Un-American Activities, also expressed a desire to weed out Communists from the nation's colleges and "all fields of education."

"This has been largely left untouched up until now," Velde said. And, he added:

"I realize, of course, that we're going to have a lot of opposition from various educators, particularly from the left wing educators, but I believe that it is a very fertile field for investigation and that it should be done."

McCarthy said he did not expect the work of his investigators to duplicate that of Velde's committee. And he pointed out any suggestion that he inquired into the nation's colleges would lead to thought control.

Operating Costs For Hospital Are Explained To Club

Norman Losh Reveals Why Hospitals Cost More Than Hotels

Why it costs more to run a hospital than a hotel was explained to Rotarians today by Norman L. Losh, administrator of the Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando.

Losh, who spoke at a meeting held in the hotel last night, explained that the hospital's normal operating costs are $10.72 per patient day, compared with $3.11 in the average hotel.

Declaring that the Orange Memorial Hospital is typical of 95 percent of the hospitals in this country, Mr. Losh presented figures on the operating costs of the Orlando hospital showing that the room cost there is $10.72 per day, compared with $3.11 in the average hotel.

This was explained largely by the fact that dietary costs at the Orange Memorial last year were $1,339,184.88, Mr. Losh said. With 81,928 patient days, the gross room revenue was $766,770.40. With an average room income of $9.37 and an average room expense of $10.72, the average loss of $1.35 per day, or a total annual loss of $110,466.10.

Part of this loss is made up through charges for extra services such as drugs, x-rays, and laboratory tests, but there are also other losses and expenses, Mr. Losh declared. About ten percent of all anticipated revenues are charged to such debts, or are otherwise uncollectible. This represented about $140,000 last year. Orange county contributed $100,000 last year to pay for welfare cases and to help offset this loss, and is scheduled to give $140,000 this year.

"But if you think your hospital bills are high," Mr. Losh declared, "you should remember what they were in your grandfather's time. The average cost of hospitalization then was $56.68 as compared with $139.08, but in those days an income of $852 was equivalent in purchasing power to $2,500 today, and so for all factors considered and with the same illness, grandfather lost 64 days or 21 percent of his income in 1890, as compared with 12 days or 7 percent (Continued in Page Two)

Psychologist Hits Idea That Mom's To Blame For All Child's Troubles

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A woman psychologist today lambasted the idea that "mom is to blame" for all of a child's troubles and ills.

Psychologists write a lot about childhood psychology, but practically nothing about the psychology of parents, she said.

"Parenthood is just a developmental stage between childhood and old age," declared Dr. Jane Loevinger of Washington University, St. Louis, in an address to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Coming to the defense of sometimes over-criticized mothers, Dr. Loevinger cited five statements buttressing her argument that there's too much emphasis on a mother-blaming complex:

1. "Parenthood has never been recognized officially as a branch of psychology, nor as a normal developmental stage."

2. "Child psychology is one of

Dixie Expert Named By Ike To Farm Post

Southern Co-op Executive Named To Advisory Body Along With 13 Other Men

ATLANTA (AP)—A Southern cooperative executive, who believes farmers should do a better marketing job, will help shape new commodity farm policies.

He is D. W. Brooks of Atlanta, general manager of the Cotton Producers Association, a 120,000 member South Farm cooperative national organization. President Dwight Eisenhower to a farm advisory committee of 14.

An Eisenhower aide in New York said the group, representing a cross-section of the agricultural industry, will be called in to advise on farm problems before the farm-to-consumer and perhaps farm-to-school programs. It is a member of a bipartisan agricultural commission promised by Eisenhower during his campaign.

Brooks also is president of the National Council of Farm Cooperatives, in which he has been a leading figure for many years. He is a close friend of Ezra Taft Benson, the Utah co-op specialist who will be the Eisenhower secretary of agriculture.

Brooks said last night at 10 o'clock that he will be in New York for the next few days, but he will be back in Atlanta by the end of the week. He is a close friend of Ezra Taft Benson, the Utah co-op specialist who will be the Eisenhower secretary of agriculture.

Brooks said he is convinced that a better selling job will be a long way toward solving farm problems. He declared the South cooperative press had for greater consumption of such products as cotton, tobacco and rice at home and abroad. He favored "more trade and less isolation" in dealing with foreign nations.

Chairman of the President's farm advisory committee is Dr. W. F. Meyer, dean of the Cornell University College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y., a state jobs farmer and seed breeder, and Harry B. Caldwell of Greensboro, N. C., master of the South Carolina League.

Meeting Is Held By Fish Trustees On Hospital Plan

F. F. Tucker, chairman of the Sanford Fish Trust, held a meeting last night at the Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando to discuss the plan for a new hospital building.

A resolution proposed by F. F. Tucker, chairman of the Fish Trust, was passed by the trustees at a meeting held in the hospital last night. The resolution called for the construction of a new hospital building in Sanford, Fla., to be completed by the end of 1953.

Police Continuing Campaign Against Shine And Bolita

Chas. of Dixy Walden, 45, 1319 Williams Avenue, in which he is charged with possession of liquor paraphernalia, was arrested Saturday night by Sanford police.

The accused was arrested Saturday night under bonds totalling $100. He is being held in the Sanford jail.

In bringing about the arrest, Chief Williams said, police "made a buy under a search warrant." A large amount of funds used for bootlegging were picked up in the raid, and from appearances it seemed like a big operation to me," the chief disclosed.

The police found the moonshine in making the raid for bolita.

The chief commented there has been "a lot of moonshine" traffic in Sanford but that police have "been knocking it out pretty fast."

He expressed the opinion that high federal taxes are contributing to this traffic and said, "Some of them try to take a chance."

Psychologist Hits Idea That Mom's To Blame For All Child's Troubles

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A woman psychologist today lambasted the idea that "mom is to blame" for all of a child's troubles and ills.

Psychologists write a lot about childhood psychology, but practically nothing about the psychology of parents, she said.

"Parenthood is just a developmental stage between childhood and old age," declared Dr. Jane Loevinger of Washington University, St. Louis, in an address to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Coming to the defense of sometimes over-criticized mothers, Dr. Loevinger cited five statements buttressing her argument that there's too much emphasis on a mother-blaming complex:

1. "Parenthood has never been recognized officially as a branch of psychology, nor as a normal developmental stage."

2. "Child psychology is one of

Eisenhower And Taft Will Meet Tomorrow For Legislation Talk

Wage-Price Controls, Filibusters, Civil Rights Will Be Discussed At Meeting

NEW YORK (AP)—President elect Eisenhower meets tomorrow with Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and other GOP Senate leaders to discuss the new administration's legislative program, including the question of whether to continue wage-price controls.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, announced today that Eisenhower and the Senate leaders will get together at a four-hour conference at the general Commodore Hotel headquarters.

In reply to questions, Hagerty said he had no information regarding a filibuster report. The senators plan to seek Eisenhower's views on the issue of changing Senate rules to make it easier to limit Senate debate.

Hagerty said that matter is not on the agenda, and he suggested that newsmen ask the senators in Washington whether they plan to take the initiative in bringing up the debate limitation matter.

In Washington Republican Senate leaders let it be known they will discuss the whole subject of filibusters and civil rights legislation with Eisenhower.

In Clarksburg, W. Va., Sen. Taft said the discussion with Eisenhower tomorrow probably will include price-wage controls and Taft's announcement by Premier Stalin he is favorably disposed to confer with Eisenhower.

Besides Taft, who is slated to be majority leader of the new Republican-controlled Senate, Eisenhower will meet with:

Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, who will be president pro tempore of the new Senate; Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the conference of all GOP senators; Everett S. Saltzman of Massachusetts, who is expected to be a minority leader in the last Congress; and Milton Young of North Dakota, a farm leader.

Eisenhower, who has learned has instructed a group of advisers to come up with recommendations on whether the new administration should ask Congress to extend the two-year wage-price control law until an action on the present law expires.

An informed source who asked not to be named, said the advisory group has been studying "the whole complex matter" for some time, but has not reached even a preliminary decision.

Lions And Eagles Begin Training For Tangerine Game

Light Workouts Held And Texas, Volunteers Get Set For New Year Contest

ORLANDO (Special)—Interest in the Seventh Annual Tangerine Bowl game reached a new high Saturday afternoon as the Lions from East Texas State and the Eagles of Tennessee Tech arrived in Orlando almost simultaneously. Both squads went through light workouts on the Boone and Edgewater High practice fields after being welcomed to the city by the Tangerine Bowl Committee.

The Tech boys will hold practices at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. at the Edgewater field and the Texans will practice at the same times on the Boone field. Both teams are planning scrimmages.

Tech held a light workout yesterday morning before visiting Cypress Gardens.

One matter concerning the parade Wednesday was cleaned up yesterday also. It had been announced that in the parade, both the Lions and the Eagles would not be in the parade. They will not be in the parade. They have not announced that their band will be here.

With reserved seats practically all gone the city is now busy erecting 2,000 additional bleacher seats. They will be for general admission and will sell for $1.50.

These may be purchased at the Tangerine Bowl booth in the lobby of the San Juan Hotel. Any tickets that are left at game time will go on sale at the stadium.

At this time there are about 300 reserved seats still available at the booth. John Tilden, ticket chairman, suggests an early purchase of non-reserved seats since no standing room tickets will be sold.

The Texans, with 39 players and their coaches, sportswriters and trainer, landed at Municipal Airport Saturday while the Eagles, also with 39 players and three assistant coaches, arrived at the Atlantic Coast Line depot.

Whisked downtown to the tune of Marine auto horns the two squads were quartered in the usual headquarters with East Texas at the San Juan Hotel and Tennessee Tech at the Angebilt.

Shortly after checking in, the two squads unloaded their make of equipment and headed for light workouts. East Texas went through a brief session on the Boone practice field, running through plays and working on their passing and kicking. Tennessee Tech, meanwhile, held a similar drill at the Edgewater field.

Coaches Catfish Smith of East Texas and Puffy Overall of Tennessee Tech were primarily interested in working out the travel kinks from the long trip here.

The third sellout in the history of the stadium is virtually assured. Only two crowds of 12,000 have ever seen a game here. The first was for last year's Slaton-Arkansas State game and the second was for the Boone-Edgewater clash of last month.

Hands from the two schools are expected to hit town later with their arrival tentatively slated for Wednesday. Both units are scheduled to march in the parade Wednesday afternoon and will stage impressive halftime demonstrations on the night of the game.

Stiff Workouts Held By Rose Bowl Teams

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Wisconsin and Southern California head into the final phases of conditioning today and the coaches of both Rose Bowl teams admitted are seeking the answers to question marks as their New Year's Day battle draws near.

Coach Ivy Williamson of Wisconsin, while seemingly not seriously disturbed, said today he might fiddle his backfield offensive combination for the kickoff.

USC Coach Jess Hill is still tinkering with his defensive secondary lineup to plug the gap caused when left halfback Jim Patton was declared ineligible by the coast conference last week.

Plenty Of Tickets For Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Step up, if you want a ticket to the Gator Bowl football game between Tulsa and Florida Tech Jan. 1.

There are 10,000 left, says Business Manager George Olsen. The stadium has 37,000 seats.

Paid attendance last year when Miami beat Clemson, 14-0, was $4,500—highest in the game's history—and each team received $75,000.

The ticket office did not open on that New Year's Day. It'll be open this time, however, Olsen said, adding that the seats left are mostly in the end zone but include some on the sidelines.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla.

—Florida's star center, Rick Casares won't be on hand—he's being saved for football—but the Gators are the favorites in the Gator Bowl basketball tournament opening here tonight.

Other teams in the event, one of the features of the annual Gator Bowl sports festival, are Georgia Tech, and Georgia Tech's College.

Georgia, which has a 2-3 season's record, and Georgia Tech, 1-2, 1-2, are the favorites.

At Memphis Friday and Saturday Auburn and Mississippi join Memphis State and Arizona in the Memphis Invitational tournament.

Auburn, idle last week, owns the only perfect record in the conference (5-0).

In last week's scanty program, SEC teams won two games and dropped three. LSU's loss to Tulsa was the hardest blow to the circuit's prestige. The Tigers bowed, 84-58, while Tulsa restrained Bob Pettit to an ineffective 14 points.

In previous games, the 6-9 center had averaged 30 points per outing and LSU had averaged 90.

Cincinnati topped Tennessee, 78-74, in a mild surprise, and Columbia downed Georgia, 61-51. SEC successes were Vanderbilt's 73-66 decision over Baylor and a 78-68 Mississippi victory over Arkansas State.

Only two games this week count in league standings: Tennessee at Vanderbilt Tuesday and Vanderbilt at Tulane Saturday night.

Other tilts, excepting the tournament tussles: Tuesday—Alabama vs. Maxwell AFB at Tuscaloosa.

Thursday—Vanderbilt; Alabama vs. Keesler AFB at Tuscaloosa.

Friday—Georgia Tech at Tampa; Alabama vs. Keesler AFB at Tuscaloosa.

Saturday—Georgia Tech at Miami.

Paris Report Wins Inaugural Handicap At Longwood Track

LONGWOOD (Special)—Paris Report won the inaugural Handicap Saturday at the season opening program of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Owned by E. L. Beckner and trained by Ike Tinker, Paris Report had won all three of its schooling races.

Then McGregor all but topped this display by wearing down young Tony Trabert under a searing sun and finally beating him by scores of 11-9, 6-4, 6-1.

The first set between McGregor and Trabert deserved to rank as a classic between two great serves. But once Trabert wavered and lost his delivery in the final game, it was all over. From there McGregor was unbeatable.

The great crowd of well over 15,000 gave Trabert and Seixas a sincere ovation when they walked from the court.

Trabert was so completely frazzled that just before he reached the arway leading to the dressing room he was seen to waver in his stride and an alert ambulance crewman grabbed him and guided him the rest of the way.

The long struggle in heat over 90 degrees was a tough experience for the Cincinnati youngster, who was playing his first really hard competitive match in approximately a year.

The only argument heard as the great crowd broke up was whether Sedgman or McGregor played greater tennis in what probably will be their swan song to Davis cup singles.

After today's great display only one could be assumed they would team up to smack down Seixas and Trabert in tomorrow's doubles. In that event, the Australians could be expected to permit the other two members of their squad—Mervyn Rose and Lewis Hoad—to close out the series in the concluding singles Wednesday.

It is understood that both Sedgman and McGregor will announce they are turning pro after the Davis Cup banquet Thursday night.

Rough Scrimmage Is Eliminated By Alabama's Coach

Red Drew Thinks His Men Are All Set Orange Bowl Game

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Alabama and Syracuse, who meet in the Orange Bowl football game New Year's Day, return to the practice field today after a Sunday layoff but neither team plans contact work.

Alabama's Coach Red Drew changed his mind about having a scrimmage and said he believes his team has had enough rough work.

"We'll run dummy scrimmage and half-spect stuff in our drills the rest of the way," Drew said. Contrary to popular belief, Alabama isn't overworked with first-class material in all positions, Drew explained. Depth is thin in spots.

One freshman, Tommy Tillman, 190-pounder from Haleyville, Ala., moved up to defensive left end, replacing Jerry Lambert. Gadsden sophomore who injured an ankle in October and now has a bone chip.

Nick Germanos, 185-pounder from Montgomery, Ala., twisted an ankle Saturday while sprinting across the practice field but trainers said they hoped to have him ready for the game. Germanos is a replacement for Joe Curtis, Bama's offensive left end.

Alabama expects to get plenty of work on pass defense between now and game time in a move to halt Syracuse's Pat Stark, a fine passer.

Syracuse Coach Floyd Schwartz, wader, who said he'd like cooler weather so he could use some of his men on both offense and defense, has his wish granted today, at least. The weatherman said highest temperature during the afternoon would be about 70 degrees.

Syracuse team worked out Sunday, most of the players watching the Orange Bowl Regatta or doing a little sight-seeing.

Sedgman And Ken McGregor Banish Hopes Of Seixas

By GAYLE TALBOT

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Australia's two tennis tigers—Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor—yanked the rug from under America's Davis Cup team in a hurry.

They'll play out the final three matches only because all the tickets had been sold and the rules demand that they play.

But after today's one-sided exhibition about the only thing left for Uncle Sam's lads is a faint glimmer of hope.

First Sedgman delivered one of the heaviest salvos ever seen in cup play as he opened the series with a crushing 6-3, 6-4, 6-3 victory over American Captain Vic Seixas of Philadelphia.

Then McGregor all but topped this display by wearing down young Tony Trabert under a searing sun and finally beating him by scores of 11-9, 6-4, 6-1.

O'Connell Praised For Shrine Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Criticism of Biggie Munn, Coach of The Year, for not using Holy Cross' ace quarterback, Charley Maloy, for even one play, mingled today with praise of QB Tom O'Connell and his East mates for their thrilling 21-20 victory over the West in the Shrine football game Saturday.

O'Connell, from Illinois, directed the entire East offensive. He sparked a 71-yard drive that produced the winning touchdown with 33 seconds remaining. And he set three passing records for the 28-year-old game that pours more than $100,000 annually into the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

The Engineers, boasting their first perfect-season record in 24 years, flew into New Orleans in two chartered airliners yesterday afternoon. Without fanfare, they quickly set up headquarters in a downtown hotel (St. Charles).

The players were in high spirits following the Christmas holidays and after eating a hearty dinner the main dish was an 18-ounce steak each—many of them took off for brief sight-seeing tours. Coach Dodd put the boys on their own, admonishing them only not to break training until after the game.

Many of the players brought their wives with them.

Four members of the team are newlyweds. Halfbacks Billy Teas, Chappel Rhian and Jimmy L. Morris and guard Ed Gossage were married during the yule season.

Once a day drills are planned through Wednesday at Tulane's practice field. The Tuesday and Wednesday workouts will be closed to the public.

Dodd seemed satisfied with the condition of his team, with the exception of two players.

Top defensive tackle Bob Sherman re-injured a knee while working out on his own during the holiday period. He said Sherman is lost for the Sugar Bowl game. He said Ben Daugherty will replace Sherman.

Gator Bowl Teams Are Expected To Work Out Today

Woodruff Mum On Reported Odds Favoring Florida Outfit

By F. T. MACFEELY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Tulsa and Florida football squads are due here today to finish workouts for their meeting in the eighth annual Gator Bowl game Jan. 1. Coach J. O. (Buddy) Brothers and his Tulsa squad of 48 players left Tulsa by train Saturday night and was due here at 7:30 a. m. (EST).

Coach Bob Woodruff and his Florida squad of 60 players was to leave Gainesville by bus and go through Jacksonville to Ponte Vedra Beach, nearby oceanfront resort.

Tulsa scheduled practice sessions at Jacksonville baseball park today and Tuesday. Florida planned its drills at Jacksonville Beach Fletcher High School field.

Both squads may limber up on the Gator Bowl field Wednesday. Coach Woodruff has had little to say about the odds favoring his Florida team by 7 to 10 points. The odds remained the same in spite of the likelihood Doug Dickey, Florida quarterback, may be out of action with a pulled leg muscle.

But Woodruff declared after the last heavy scrimmage at Gainesville Saturday: "We are not ready either physically or mentally. I certainly hope that we'll be ready by game time next Thursday."

John Elbner, assistant coach who does most of Florida's scouting, is concerned about Tulsa's two fine ends—Willie Roberts and Tom Miner.

"We can expect to be outweighed up to 15 pounds a man in the line. The Golden Hurricane has a fine offensive backfield, fullback Howard Waugh is the nation's leading ground gainer and from all reports a very hard man to bring down," Woodruff said.
