Longwood Chief Threatens To Sue Commissioners

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

Longwood Police Chief Greg Manning said Tuesday he is considering filing suit against two city commissioners, but would not reveal what the possible allegations might be to avoid tipping them off in advance.

One of the commissioners, Lynette Dennis has asked City Administrator Ron Waller for a report on an investigation of Manning's so-called "unprofessional behavior" in a dispute with the other commissioner, Dave Gunter.

Elected in December and sworn in Jan. 5, both commissioners have been critical of the way the police chief runs his department during their campaign for election and since. "I'm waiting to see how far they are going to go," Manning said. "I'm not going to lie down and play dead while they try to get me out as police chief.

"I'm tired of it. They sit around making bull accusations but aren't willing to confront me. If they are going to play games they better be prepared to deal with it," he added.

Longwood City Administrator Ron Waller said Tuesday he has been told there is a possibility of litigation involving a dispute between Manning and Gunter. However, Waller declined to name the person who may file suit and who it would be against.

Waller, who has power to hire and fire the police chief, refused Monday night to report on the results of the probe requested by Mrs. Dennis.

But he told the Sanford Herald Tuesday. "I have not disciplined anybody." Asked if he will be submitting a further report, he replied, "I may have something further to report later. I can't predict what's down the road, but it's always possible."

Waller questioned by Mrs. Dennis at Monday night's commission meeting, refused to comment for the record, saying "I gave it to you this afternoon and I'd rather not go into it at this point."

Mrs. Dennis, who said she wanted it on the record for people to know, asked at the meeting, "Was any action taken to discipline Mr. Manning?"

Girls' Drill Team Takes Top Honors

Lake Mary High School's girl drill team, the Lake Marionettes, took top honors at a statewide competition in Winter Haven.

The 62-member drill team, sponsored by LHS dance technique instructor Connie Mosure, won first place in overall team competition at the Winter Haven Optimist Statewide Drill Team Contest.

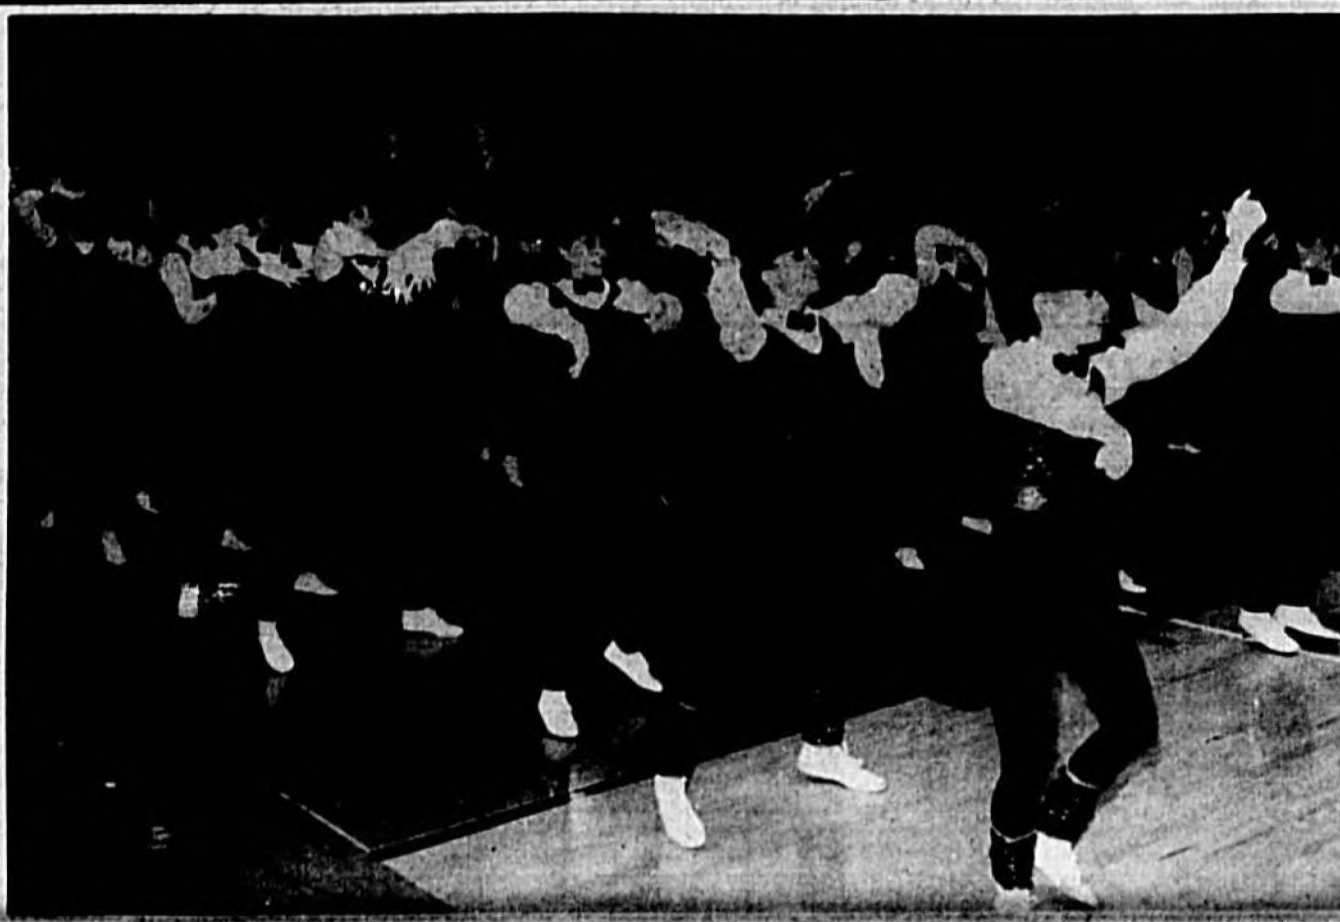

The close-knit team also took first place in the high kick category receiving a perfect score of 100 from all five judges.

The competition was held Saturday.

In all-star competition, 140 girls from across the state performed a routine they had learned that day. Sixteen of the girls, including four from the Lake Marionettes, were chosen for the all-star squad.

The girls, Ms. Mosure said, consider the group "family" and have as their motto discipline, desire, dedication and dependability.

Lady Rams Cager Status Questionable Residency Change Probed

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

Fred Rozelle, executive director of the Florida High School Activities Association, will meet with Lake Mary High School Principal Don Reynolds and several staff members Thursday to discuss possible violations of activities association rules concerning basketball player Gabriella "Gabby" Olden.

Reynolds said it was brought to his attention that Olden, a foreign exchange student from Sweden, may have violated a residency requirement in which there was a change of her U.S. host parent without proper approval. Rozelle said he would also look into another possible violation: that Olden was recruited.

Olden, a senior, has been a main cog in Lake Mary's 22-1 record and No. 3 Class 4A ranking in the Florida Sports Writers Association Poll. The 5-foot-6 point guard is averaging nine points, seven assists and six steals.

"I don't think there is anything to it," Reynolds said. "But I called for this meeting to clear it up."

Rozelle said today that if he rules Olden ineligible, Lake Mary would have to forfeit its 22 victories according to the FHSAA bylaws.

Roger Riske of the Education Developmental Resource Trust (EDRT) in Los Angeles, Calif., who places foreign exchange students with host families in the United States, said that Olden was enrolled at Lake Mary High through Ed Visscher, a former Orlando Luther High basketball coach, who now works for EDRT in Europe.

Riske said Visscher made connections through Ken Patrick, who planned to have Olden stay at his home with her and his wife. She arrived last August. Patrick, who lives in Lake Mary but is in the Seminole High School district, said when he accepted a position as assistant coach with the Miami Lady Hurricanes he could no longer provide a place for Olden to stay.

After a week to 10 days at the Patrick home, 110 W. Greentree Lane in Lake Mary, Patrick said Olden moved in with Mike and Karel Averill at 215 Crown Oaks in Longwood, which is in the Lake Mary school district.

Averill, though, said he was offered the junior varsity basketball coaching position at Lake Mary in September, which created a problem. "I didn't think my wife and I would have enough time to spend with a foreign exchange student with the additional coaching duties," he said.

Averill said Olden stayed at his address for two weeks before she moved in with Judy McNaughton at 100 Bridgeway Circle in Longwood.

Patrick said he informed Riske and the EDRT that Olden had

Blood Shortage Spurs Call For Donors

The Central Florida Blood Bank, which serves 30 area health care facilities including Sanford's hospital, reports a shortage of blood, especially O positive and O negative types.

So far the shortage, which blood bank spokesman Stephanie Fuller said is caused in part by people scheduling post-Christmas elective surgeries, has not impacted on Central Florida Regional Hospital in Sanford, a hospital spokesman said.

Some elective surgeries have been canceled in Orlando because of the blood shortage, however, Ms. Fuller said. She added that the blood bank is trying to stockpile a supply to meet the need for a couple of open heart surgeries scheduled in Orlando this weekend.

The supply and need for blood varies throughout the year, she said. The response to this latest appeal for donors has been good, she said.

The main blood bank at 1300 S. Kuhl Ave. in downtown Orlando will be open until 8 p.m. tonight for additional donation. Weekend hours are also scheduled for 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday and from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday at that blood bank branch.

The Sanford blood bank is maintaining its usual hours of from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday and Wednesday and from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. "Remember humans are the only source of blood we have," Ms. Fuller said.

Blood donors must be at least 17 years old, must be free of cold or flu symptoms, must not have received a transfusion within the past six months and must not have donated blood within the past six weeks, she said.

All blood types are needed.

Delivery Man's .38 Puts A Hole In Pizza Robbery Plan

HOMESTEAD (UPI) — A man armed with a gun and notes on how to commit a robbery ran into someone more prepared.

Police said Hugh Cave, 28, was arrested when he tried to rob a pizza delivery man of $8.50. Inside Cave's car, police found how-to notes on committing a robbery, along with several pages torn from a telephone book and maps of the community.

John Jensen was delivering a pizza in Homestead, about 30 miles south of Miami, Sunday night when he was approached by a man who pulled out a gun, police said.

The gunman ordered Jensen to put

School district official Jack Heisler, and Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith, center, join audience in listening to teen tell of her problems.

Teens Tell Of Problems

The reality of problems facing teenagers became personal Tuesday as people heard testimonial from kids with problems.

Speaking at the Civic Center in Sanford the teens told of their problems from alcoholism to pregnancy, said Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith. She and about four dozen other people attended the program, "Generation At Risk," a discussion following a Public Broadcast System show of the same name. That show was a national perspective on teen problems and what some communities have done to solve them.

The Sanford meeting was sponsored by the Seminole Chemical Awareness Network. (SCAN) said Mrs. Smith. The organization, intent on addressing the problem of chemical abuse especially among kids in the county, next meets Feb. 11. Mrs. Smith chairs the organization. "It was an excellent meeting," said Mrs. Smith. "A lot of good suggestions were made."

"We asked the persons who were there to give us their name and addresses and their top priority," she said.

Besides the problems of drugs, including alcohol, the group were told about peer pressure and teens being intimidated into having sex, Mrs. Smith said.

One pregnant girl said she was aware of birth control but simply thought she would not get pregnant. An audience member suggested that we should teach teenagers that it is all right to say "no" to various activities.

Mrs. Smith said that self-esteem seems to be a problem during the

Insuror Says Port Storage Tanks Risky

By Kathy Tyrity
Herald Staff Writer

The liquid storage tanks at the Seminole County Port Authority have been called dangerous by an insurance inspector and his company has refused to insure the 15-tank terminal. The Port Authority decided on a self-insurance plan Tuesday.

Members of the Port Authority learned of the decision by Cincinnati Insurance Co. at a regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in which Port Administrator Dennis Dolgner told them he had contacted a number of other insurance agents to get coverage, but to no avail.

Although the insurance company cut out liability coverage for the tank terminal, where fuels and chemicals are often stored, it continued insurance for the rest of the port at a cost of less than $10,000 a year.

The port, being a government agency, is required to have $200,000 coverage on the terminal per incident, and could have several incidents a year, but the authority board went along with Dolgner's suggestion to "self insure" from a fund that has $125,000.

"We expect the fund to increase to $200,000 by the end of the year," Dolgner said. He added that, if possible, the port will look for "umbrella" coverage beyond the self insurance up to $1 million liability.

Dolgner said the port is required to insure the storage terminal against hazard for up to $100,000 per person and $200,000 per incident.

The port came into the liquid storage business, in which liquids brought by barge are stored in tanks that hold up to 540,000 gallons apiece, in November after the oil companies operating and leasing the facility concluded their contracts and did not renew them. The Port Authority decided to go into the business itself and got a 3-year $230,000 contract with LCP chemical company of Edison, N.J.

That company, Dolgner said, has a barge filled with sodium hydroxide waiting to come to the port and empty into two large tanks. But plans were snarled when no insurance could be found. LCP, which manufactures the chemical in Brunswick, Ga., plans to ship the liquid to Seminole Port Authority in Florida, where it is intensifying a sales effort.

POLICE

IN BRIEF

Suspect Bolts When Policeman Speaks, Is Chased, Arrested

A walking man who reportedly ran after a passing Casselberry policeman on patrol spoke to him on U.S. Highway 17-92 in Casselberry at about 1 a.m. Tuesday was chased and caught by the officer.

The foot chase ended at 4420 S. U.S. Highway 17-92, and a police computer check showed that there was a warrant for the suspect's arrest. The man said he was walking from the dog track in Longwood. Casselberry police reported finding a carpenter's knife in his possession. Charged with possession of burglary tools and prowling was Bruce Richard Polak, 36, of Orlando. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond on the Casselberry charges and without bond on the warrant.

Phone Theft Calls For Jail

Seminole County sheriff's deputies reported charging Randle Lee Davis, 18, of 2114 Sheiler Road, Apopka, with burglary and grand theft in connection with the theft of a telephone from the car of Susan Barry, of 109 Ridgewood Court, Longwood.

Davis was arrested at 9:30 a.m. at the Seminole County Courthouse in Sanford. He was being held in lieu of $2,000 bond.

Driving Under Influence Arrest

The following person has been arrested in Seminole County on a charge of driving under the influence: —Richard Lowery Smith, 57, of 1130 Brownshire Court, Longwood, was arrested at 7:35 p.m. Monday after his car was in an accident on State Road 434, west of Longwood. He has also been charged with failure to maintain a single lane.

Burglaries And Thefts Reported

An employee of Yusuf Mohamad Excavation, Inc. of Orlando, reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies that a $1,000 power saw belonging to that company was stolen from the bed of his pickup truck while parked at 6124 Bear Lake Terrace, Apopka, Sunday or Monday.

Morris L. Tyrell, of 2105 Howell Branch Road #17-B, Maitland, reported to sheriff's deputies that a $200 watch was stolen from his home between Jan. 14 and Wednesday.

Gary W. Carter, 48, of 128 W. Lauren Ct., Fern Park, reported to sheriff's deputies that a $245 radar detector was stolen from one of his vehicles and a $50 pellet gun with an $8 holster stolen from the other at his home Sunday or Monday.

Elliott G. Davis, of 114 Fairlane Circle, Sanford, reported to sheriff's deputies Saturday that a tenant left a home at that address and allegedly took about $4,000 in household furnishings, which belong to Davis.

A $2,800 ring was stolen along with about $500 worth of additional jewelry from the home of Teresa F. Crady, 26, of 316 Wymore Road #204, Altamonte Springs, between Jan. 20 and Sunday, a sheriff's report said.

Elton H. Coody, 51, of Sanford, reported to sheriff's deputies that 43 boxes of tile and eight marble window sills belonging to him were stolen from the Heathrow Racquet Club Villas, Hampton Crest Circle, Lake Mary, between Jan. 23 and Monday.

Health Tests Thursday

The Sanford Seventh-day Adventist Church will sponsor health tests Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Publix Market in Seminole Centre on U.S. Highway 17-92. Tests offered will include blood pressure, glaucoma, hemoglobin, and diabetes.

Jury Returns Guilty Verdict In Drug Case

An Ocala man was convicted Monday of trafficking and conspiracy to traffick 10 kilos of cocaine.

Alex Cohen, also known as Alex Cohen-Velasquez, 48, faces a minimum mandatory sentence of 3 years and a $50,000 fine when sentenced in about six weeks. He was found guilty by jury.

Cohen and a codefendant, who testified against him, were arrested in August after agreeing to sell two kilograms of cocaine for $18,000 each to undercover Drug Enforcement Agents.

The deal was reportedly made at Raffie's restaurant in the Altamonte Mall, State Road 436, Altamonte Springs. They were arrested when they produced one of the kilos. Another nine kilograms were found in one of the suspect's car.

The 10 kilos had an estimated wholesale value of $180,000 and perhaps $600,000 on the street, according to one estimate.

Couple Pleads Guilty Of Drug Possession

A Sanford couple arrested after being charged with drug possession have entered guilty pleas in case. It was one of three cases heard recently.

Robert Jackson and Ethel Mae Jackson, 36, of 1121 W. 7th St., entered the pleas before Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr. who set March 19 for sentencing. Jackson, a convicted felon, pleaded guilty to possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm. Mrs. Jackson pleaded guilty to conspiracy to possess a controlled substance.

Sanford police served a warrant at the home in June and arrested the Jacksons on possession of cocaine and hashish charges. A .32-caliber handgun was found under Jackson's mattress, records show.

In a second case, a 25-year-old Sanford woman who forged and cashed three checks has pleaded guilty to forgery and petty theft.

Terri Ann Woosley of 1235 S. Pine Ridge Road, Sanford, entered the plea before Davis who set sentencing for March 19.

The checks were drawn on the account of Sod Sales, of Country Club Road, in Sanford, an arrest report said. The checks were cashed at Freedom Bank, 201 N. Park Ave., in Sanford, between Sept. 2 and Sept. 16. Ms. Woosley was questioned at the police station and then arrested there on the 18th, records show.

In a third case, a man whose car was stopped because of faulty equipment and ended up with a charge of possession of Vallium, was sentenced for having the drug.

Bennie Nelson Mason, 38, of 331 Nursery St., Oviedo, was sentenced to 5 years probation by Circuit Judge O.H. Eaton Jr. Eaton also ordered Mason to serve 90 days in the county jail. He was given credit for two days already served.

He was arrested in July, according to a report. His vehicle was stopped because it had only one brake light, according to an Oviedo police report.

Wanted: Hispanic FBI Agents

MIAMI (UPI) — The FBI is looking for a few good men and women and has taken to the local airwaves to make their appeal and fill what the bureau calls a critical shortage of Spanish-speaking and Hispanic agents.

Special agent Gregory Kiszynski, who is leading the local drive, said Tuesday the first stop for eligible recruits would be Miami. He said a critical shortage exists of Spanish-speaking and Hispanic agents.

"We have a need for additional Spanish-speaking agents," Miller said. "Not only in south Florida but elsewhere in the country. We want the word to get out that we're looking for qualified people with good backgrounds."

The Miami office has grown over the last few years, and its participation with the Drug Enforcement Administration in investigating drug activity has increased its workload and its need for Spanish-speaking agents, FBI spokesman Paul Miller said.

Kiszynski and Special Agent Alina Martinez have already spoken on one local radio station, Miller said, and will set up at WQBA, one of the largest Spanish-language radio stations in Miami, all day Wednesday.

The FBI has 363 Hispanic special agents among its 9,069 agents, said Bill Carter, public affairs officer in the bureau's Washington headquarters. Some non-Hispanic officers are fluent in Spanish, he said.

Robbers Strike Couple At Motel

An elderly Minnesota couple, who were followed into their room at the Quality Inn on State Road 434 at Interstate 4 in Longwood by two men who claimed to be checking on the water, was robbed by the pair at about 7:10 p.m. Monday.

Raymond William Carlson, 72, and his wife Dorothy, 70, told Seminole County sheriff's deputies they had come from their car and entered their room and were closing the door when the two men pushed the door open.

The men said they were there to work on the water and one walked into the bathroom and turned on the water. Carlson approached the second man and he pushed Carlson to the floor. That robber held one of his hands in his jacket pocket, which made Carlson think he might have a weapon, a sheriff's report said.

The attacker took Carlson's $800 watch and $125.

Mrs. Carlson began asking questions and the second robber approached her and pushed her. He took a gold chain valued at $150 from her neck. The Carlsons were ordered to go into the bathroom.

The suspects left and a witness reported possibly seeing them flee in a white Toyota pickup truck with a camper top. The suspects were wearing gloves, but investigators believe they may have left a calendar in the victims' motel room, the report said. The Carlsons were not injured.

Mild Weather Soothes Nation

By United Press International

Unseasonably mild, dry weather prevailed across much of the nation today interrupted by snowfall in mountainous areas, the Great Lakes and New England and by scattered rain along the northern Pacific and Gulf coasts.

A gale warning was issued early today along the Washington coast as an approaching cold front produced high winds.

Only one travelers' advisory was issued by the National Weather Service anywhere in the continental United States overnight, said spokesman Paul Fike. Travelers in Victoria, Texas, were cautioned that morning fog reduced visibility to less than an eighth of a mile.

"It's a pretty quiet morning," Fike said. "There's not much precipitation across the United States this morning."

Early today snow fell in the northern Rockies, the northern and eastern Great Lakes, parts of the central Appalachians and northern New England. Rain was scattered over the western Pacific Coast, the central Rockies and the northern Pacific Coast.

Morning temperatures were in the 20s and 30s over the northern and central states and in the 40s and 50s over the Pacific Coast across the southern Plateau, the southern Plains and the Gulf Coast to the Atlantic coastal states.

Late Tuesday, snow showers were scattered from northeast Minnesota across upper Michigan. Snow also fell in northeast New York, while rain spread over the remainder of the state and into northern Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Snow was scattered over the central Rockies and the Idaho panhandle, and rain extended across western Utah and along the northern Pacific Coast.

Sun Bank Won't Back Longwood On Joining County Sewer System

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

Longwood received another roadblock Monday on the way to hooking up to the Seminole County sewer system. Sun Bank, which had agreed to loan the city $2.5 million to build its own sewage treatment plant, said in a letter received by Longwood at 5 p.m. Monday that it cannot approve the city's sewage treatment and disposal agreement with the county.

Pamela L. James, assistant vice president of corporate banking, said the rate to be paid to Seminole County appears too high to allow the city of Longwood to meet its debt requirements. The agreement with the county has been approved by the city and county contingent on financing availability.

She said she has several concerns after reviewing the agreement and accompanying projections from the engineering firm of Dyer, Riddle, Mills and Precourt, Inc. In addition to not showing the debt service being met, the projections show $50,000 from the Freedom loan refinancing. "This is not appropriate since our bond documents require that this balance be placed in the sinking fund of the Utilities Construction Fund," she stated.

Also the projections show large amounts of Development Assistance Fees, which appear to be optimistic and cannot be substantiated by the information given, she added. Ms. James was also concerned about projected operating expenses in 1987 exceeding operating revenues by almost $50,000.

"This shortfall is of concern," she said, "and so is the question it raises: Can the reduced operating costs shown for the following years adequately service the system?"

Also of concern to the bank is the fact the county can raise wholesale rates to the city at any time and while the agreement only calls for the county to provide sewer capacity for the city for 10 years. Sun Bank's proposed financing was to go through August, 1998 or for 11 and a half years.

Ms. James advised the city that final approval by Sun Bank of any agreement would be subject to review and approval of the bank's counsel, with fees for this to be paid by Longwood.

Waller pointed out that if the city hooked up to the county's Greenwood Lakes treatment facility it would not only have to pay the county and the bank, but would have the costs of running its lift stations and maintaining sewer lines in the city.

The city commission meeting Monday night learned from Ronald R. Shuck of the accounting firm of Kane and Shuck that a final report on alternatives for acquiring additional sewage treatment capacity for the city (financial feasibility of the agreement with the county vs. the city's building the Grant Street facility) would not be ready until Feb. 16. He said he hopes to finish a preliminary draft for the commissioners to look at by the middle of next week.

Several residents of the Skylark subdivision where the existing plant is located complained about the additional delay in solving the city's sewage problems. They said the tanks are leaking and the odor from the plant has been bad. The city has been using a masking agent to try to deodorize the plant, but is now trying to get at the cause by introducing a bacteria culture that feeds on grease and other substances found in the sewage.

B.J. Chalker, president of the Skylark Homeowners Association, told the commission, "We can't live with that plant the way it is, we need some help. We have got to have our say and this has got to be fixed. The longer the delay, the more the chance the county may pull out. If it's going to affect the present sewer customers let us have a say.

"I, for one would not buck a dollar or two increase to have it taken out of my front yard."

The commission again continued a public hearing on changing Development Assistance Fees to $5.50 plus the sewer capacity charge to the city from Seminole County until it receives the figures from Kane and Shuck.

The apparent high bidder on the Grant Street plant has extended his deadline for the city's acceptance of the construction bid from the Jan. 22 deadline to Feb. 19 at the request of City Engineer Chuck Hassler.

"We may have to go back to building our own plant," Commissioner Harvey Smerilson said Monday night.

Grapes Vs. Carrots

Cost Of Liberty Is Vigilance

On June 13, 1966, in Miranda vs. Arizona, the Supreme Court barred the use of evidence of any statements stemming from the interrogation of persons in custody unless those persons had been told of their rights to remain silent and to have assistance of counsel and had been allowed to exercise those rights if they wished to do so.

Law-enforcement agencies long ago accommodated themselves to those requirements: any 6-year-old who has ever watched a TV cop show probably can recite: "You have the right to remain silent Though the Miranda rule is now accepted as a basic American right, many law-enforcement officials oppose it, arguing that it hinders criminal investigations.

Attorney General Edwin Meese agrees. He has attacked the ruling in a long law-review article, which is expected to be published this year, and he probably will seek a Supreme Court review if an appropriate case comes before the court.

Meese and other opponents of the ruling argue that criminals are less likely to confess their crimes and provide other critical information when informed that they have the right to remain silent and to have counsel and that their statements may be used against them in court.

They are absolutely right. The rules fixed by the court for in-custody interrogation make the work of the police more difficult. The same can be said of the rule that forbids searching a house without a warrant. Or the rule that forbids use of the thumbscrew. Constraints upon the police are constraints upon enforcement of the law.

And that is as it should be. The men who wrote the Constitution were prepared to accept a measure of risk to public safety for the sake of protecting the rights of the individual. They did not, as Justice Brandeis once remarked, exalt order at the cost of liberty.

It's a notion that Attorney General Meese seems to have trouble accepting.

The Miranda ruling has been misused on occasion, though it hardly seems likely that American cops, because of Miranda, are in full-scale retreat from their ongoing battle with the robbers. Effective law enforcement should not have to depend on sweating out a confession from a defendant ignorant of his rights and without the assistance of counsel promised him by the Constitution.

The police can live with Miranda, as they have for more than two decades. They can depend on good and thorough police work to suppress crime and protect the public. And the attorney general, in this year of the 200th anniversary of the Constitution, surely can find better things to do than seek the repeal of a basic American right.

Dole's Half Right

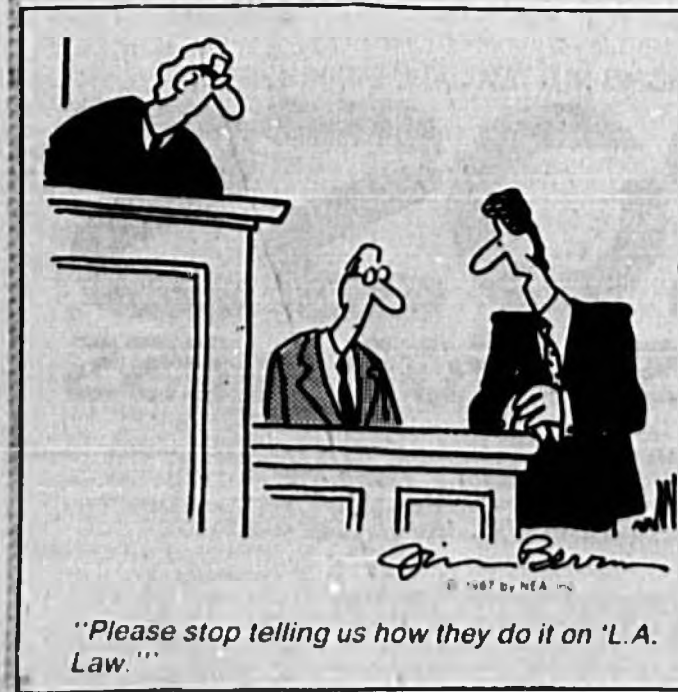

U.S. Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Dole got it half right in ordering drug testing of airline flight crews and suggesting similar measures for railroad employees. But Dole strayed from what presumably was her intention to ensure that those who transport others are drug-free when she imposed tests on more than 25,000 Department of Transportation employees, many of whose duties appear to have nothing to do with safety.

"When it comes to drug use in transportation, there can be no compromise," Dole said emphatically.

Agreed, at least to the extent that those responsible for the safety of others clearly must be drug-free. But does the Transportation Department really employ 25,000 people in that capacity?

We suspect Dole may be playing to the crowd a bit, especially since she readily acknowledges that her action probably will be challenged in court. If drug testing is to survive court challenges, its use must be confined to those situations where it is clearly warranted — when, for instance, there is cause to suspect that a pilot or engineer is dipping into drugs. So far, Dole has not made a convincing case.

Speakes Sports New Classy Coiffure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Larry Speakes, who has left the White House for greener pastures on Wall Street, is sporting a new fluffier hairstyle. But he insists that his new image is not because he will be mingling with high-powered investment brokers.

He changed his hair style at the urging of two sons, Jeremy, 16, and Scott, 23, who wanted him to be more "in fashion."

Speakes, who kept voluminous flies, carted away with him the papers he is allowed to remove from the White House.

His last few days in the White House were jam-packed, including a farewell party given by his staff. He dissuaded reporters from holding a luncheon in his honor.

Speakes and deputy White House press secretary Peter Rousset, both of whom manned the barricades during several Reagan administration crises, said their goodbyes to the president in the Oval Office.

Both Speakes and Rousset plan to write books about the Reagan administration but they are bound to be more flattering than the scathing memoirs of former budget director David Stockman, who was one of the first of the insiders to be published.

The President and Mrs. Reagan may not necessarily move into that $2.5 million mansion in the exclusive Bel Air section of Los Angeles.

Elaine Crispin, the first lady's press secretary, said Mrs. Reagan did look over the property and "will continue to look."

The 1 1/2-acre property was purchased by a group of the Reagans' California friends, including Earle Jorgensen and Holmes Tuttle, reportedly with an eye toward use by the president and his wife when they leave the White House.

"It's not a gift," Crispin said. "She has said she will continue to look. They're not bound to buy it. They're not obligated. She liked it but she has not made a definite decision."

Many of the Reagans' closest friends in California live in the high-fenced fashionable Bel Air area.

Marlin Fitzwater, President Reagan's new chief spokesman, says he has been listening to the White House press briefings for several days and "I'm scared."

Fitzwater said he is wondering what he is getting into, taking over the podium from Larry Speakes and facing daily the hard-driving White House press corps.

Fitzwater, who was press secretary to Vice President George Bush, said Bush is still looking for his replacement. He said the vice president "is looking at two or three candidates."

Meanwhile, Steve Hart and Gayle Fisher, both assistant press secretaries, will carry on in Fitzwater's absence.

Edmund Morris, the president's official biographer, is getting a first-hand view of White House life. He has been sitting in on the senior staff meetings during the Iran arms crisis and can observe first hand the debates and give and take among the staffers on how Reagan should approach the problem.

Morris did not go to the summit meeting with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev at Reykjavik, Iceland, because of only a limited staff was accommodated.

Foreign Money Muddle

WASHINGTON — At the moment, no one has accurate information on the extent to which American resources and properties are owned by foreigners. Consequently, Congress and the Executive Branch can't judge the degree to which economic decisions affecting the American people are made by non-Americans.

Business Week magazine recently discussed this subject in an article titled "The Quiet Billions Uncle Sam Can't Track." According to Business Week, "the flow of undocumented dollars that flow into the U.S. most probably averages $25 billion a year."

A variety of federal and state agencies gather information on this subject, but it isn't coordinated. Investment in real estate doesn't show up because the federal government collects data only on commercial properties. The Foreign Agriculture Disclosure Act of 1978 requires that foreign purchasers of farms and ranches to register with the Department of Justice. But Business Week says that "investors can easily remain anonymous — and often do — by hiding behind dummy corporations."

A key concern is drug money from Latin America which is invested in the United States. Purchasing U.S. properties with drug money can give the same influence in America business and society as investments made with legally-acquired funds.

Much of the foreign money flowing into the United States may be "flight" money from unstable countries. The U.S. government needs to know how much of this money might be pulled out if there were a bank crisis.

The American people also need accurate information on the extent to which Japanese companies are buying into U.S.-owned corporations. Without this information, the U.S. could be subjected to unexpected economic imperialism, and to becoming a branch plant economy for parent Japanese corporations.

Statistics such as these are the lifeblood of economic analysis. In an age of electronic financial transfers, a country has need of disclosure laws that have teeth in them, laws with significant penalties for non-reporting or inadequate reporting.

U.S. Rep. John Bryant of Texas has introduced legislation that should receive prompt bipartisan support in the new Congress. His bill would tighten disclosure requirements for foreign investments in the United States.

Singapore's Leader Keeps It Thriving

By Jack Anderson
And Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON — Although he's only 63, Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew is the dean of democratic politicians in the Far East, having held power for 28 years. He has announced he'll retire next year, but don't bet on it.

Lee has been Singapore's leader since the former British colony achieved limited self-rule in 1959, then through two difficult years in a federation with Malaysia and finally independence in 1965.

"I didn't set out to build an independent Singapore," Lee told us recently. "I set out to build a Singapore which is part of Malaysia. ... After 1965, the question was: Could we survive? Without Malaysia, there was no hinterland to keep the place going. ...

"We are like a heart without a body without Malaysia. And we then had to reach out to the world and make ourselves relevant to the rest of the world. So our trade lines

Spanish Spoken Here

SAN ANTONIO (NEA) — The Hispanic-American vote traditionally has been lopsidedly Democratic, by something like 95 percent.

In the 1984 presidential election, the Reagan-Bush ticket got 47 percent of it by the Republican National Committee's count. The atypically strong showing attests to the enormous political appeal of the man heading the ticket.

Lionel Sosa doesn't dispute that. On the other hand, he also thinks he had more than a little to do with it. He handled the Hispanic-focused segment of the Reagan-Bush campaign in '84, as he did in 1980 election.

Sosa heads his own advertising and marketing firm here specializing in the Hispanic market, a specialty he first got interested in via politics. That was in 1978, with the re-election campaign of then Sen. John Tower, Republican Tower won by a microscopic margin of 0.1 percent of the total vote, to which 36 percent of the Hispanic vote was crucial.

"It was significant," says Sosa of that race, "that we were able to convince the Hispanic to do something contrary to natural inclination."

Sosa has since played similarly successful roles in campaigns of former and now again Texas Gov. William Clements and Sen. Phil Gramm, both Republicans, as well as San Antonio's three-term Hispanic mayor, Democrat Henry Cisneros.

Meanwhile, Sosa was also pioneering the nationwide Hispanic consumer market, currently estimated at more than $70 billion and numerically the fastest growing segment of the total market. The Hispanic population is increasing at a rate more than six times that of the general population.

How high is the sky?

One of the most effective ways to tap that market, Sosa frequently advises his clients, is community assistance. So, for example, he is developing a multimillion-dollar scholarship program for a major food products corporation.

Hispanics are the most undereducated segment of the population. Their high school dropout rate is 50 percent and only 7 percent complete college.

This is not, says Sosa, because of disinterest in education. Quite the contrary, Hispanics want to improve their situation but are uncertain as to how to go about it, in large part because they have what he identifies as "a low self-perception" of their role in the broader American society.

That needs to be changed and can be, maintains Sosa, noting that the low Hispanic college attendance figure, from a 1985 study, nevertheless represents more than a doubling in just three years.

Sosa sees the upcoming 500th anniversary of the discovery of America as a golden opportunity for raising the Hispanic image. The public spotlight will be on an immense contribution to the New World, celebrating a heritage for today's Hispanics who have long felt like second-class citizens.

"It will be an educational thing," says Sosa. "This is where you came from and this is your contribution to this country. Be proud of it!"

He sees a more immediate opportunity in the new immigration law that will legalize the status of millions of aliens who have entered the country since 1982. He is already involved in seeking them out and judges most of those he has talked with to be well above average intelligence.

They are going to be, Sosa predicts, "very, very good" citizens.

Koch's Racist Hoax

New York's Mayor Ed Koch called it "the most horrendous incident" in all his years as mayor, spent hours in conference with black leaders, and descended upon churches to moralize. The usual spokesmen spoke, Ben Hooks of the NAACP blaming it all on Reagan, but taking the relatively moderate position that the president probably did not consciously intend anyone's death. And, of course, as Martin Luther King's birthday rolled around were instructed that "racism" — white racism, that is — is all around us, "just beneath the surface."

Howard Beach, a peaceful enough middle-class neighborhood in Queens, is suddenly famous as "Archie Bunkerville," though a long-term black resident told reporters that he had lived there for 20 years with his family, attended the local Catholic church, and never experienced any racial unacceptability at all. His children stay overnight at white homes and vice versa.

Howard Beach is the neighborhood near JFK Airport where a mob of white youths chased and beat three blacks, one of whom ran onto a highway and was killed by a car.

Mayor Koch called the white youths a "lynch mob," referring to lynchings in an earlier American South. But the analogy is inexact. A Southern lynch mob expressed the animosities of that region in those days. There is no evidence that anti-black feeling is prevalent in Howard Beach. One of the youths charged in the case has a black girlfriend.

In fact, when Mayor Koch descended upon Our Lady of Grace Roman Catholic Church in Howard Beach and told the congregation that "Those people who beat and ultimately caused the death of a black man don't represent you, they don't. Absolutely not," a woman present asked angrily, "So why are you here?"

The truth is that Koch had joined the racial racketeers, the moral stickup men who have designs on your wallet, and are claiming special privilege and status. The "racism" that is "just beneath the surface," i.e., no one can see it, is the greatest gimmick since Michael Harrington discovered "invisible poverty." That discovery was worth billions. If we're suckers and give in to the racial stickup men, you can be sure that it will cost us further billions, and that the blacks, like the poor, will be worse off than before the federal programs went into full aila.

able to do it. ...
"It's a target I have set in order to force the pace for the younger men to come forward and take over the job. (It just depends upon whether somebody can take over this job and run it. I think I have a good team of younger colleagues who can run the government."

Asked about his son, Brig. Gen. Lee Hsien Loong, Lee described him simply as part of that team. Some observers believe Lee is trying to set up a Chinese dynasty through his son, and Lee may in fact have that in mind. "Somebody has got to take over this job and provide the captaincy of the team," he said.

Asked what he would like to be remembered for, Lee said: "As someone presented with an awesome challenge who managed to keep the place alive and found a younger group of people to keep it going, improve on it and prosper after my colleagues and I were too old to do it. That's about it."

NATION IN BRIEF

U.S. Boosts Naval Force Further In Mediterranean

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States marshaled a major naval and Marine force in the eastern Mediterranean Sea today but an administration official said it would not be used in anger if American hostages in Lebanon are kept alive.

A five-ship U.S. assault force carrying about 1,900 Marines and tanks pulled out of a Spanish port two days ahead of schedule Tuesday and headed east to join 22 other American warships in the eastern Mediterranean, three of them with another 1,900 Marines aboard, Pentagon officials reported.

The five ships led by the helicopter carrier USS Inchon will link up with two aircraft carrier battle groups with about 180 planes to stand by if needed for response to the hostage crisis in Lebanon, the officials said.

The apparent total of 27 surface warships will represent an assemblage of U.S. sea power ranking among the biggest ever massed in the area — roughly south of Cyprus and due west of Israel — but an administration official said the armada was not dispatched for "offensive purposes."

"We're not gathering forces to order a strike," said the official, who like the others spoke on condition of anonymity. "They're there in case of some horrendous occurrence so the president can make a decision to use them if he wanted."

Cabinet Officers Split On SDI

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Star Wars," already at the center of the U.S.-Soviet arms control tug-of-war, now is tied up in a rift between President Reagan's top two international policy advisers.

Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, in an unusually public campaign, pressed harder Tuesday for quick deployment of Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative, the formal name for the "Star Wars" space-based missile defense system.

But Secretary of State George Shultz told a Senate hearing there is nothing to deploy and said Reagan will not make a decision on deployment for at least a year. That decision, Shultz indicated, could carry with it the effect of U.S. withdrawal from the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty.

Cost Of Congressmen Goes Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House Speaker Jim Wright, D-Texas, insists that opponents still have a chance and that a missed deadline does not mean a big pay raise will kick in automatically for lawmakers and other federal officials.

But critics accuse Wright and other leaders of deliberately sliding through the midnight Tuesday deadline for rejecting the pay hikes in an effort to secure the 15 percent raise with minimal political fallout.

The salary increases for some 3,000 top federal officials were proposed by President Reagan last month following recommendations of a special commission. The law forces the new levels into effect automatically unless Congress votes to reject them within 30 days and the president signs the disapproval measure.

The increase boosts salaries for members of Congress from $77,400 to $89,500 a year. The vice president moves from $100,800 to $115,000; Supreme Court justices, from $107,000 to $110,000; Cabinet officers, from $88,800 to $95,900; and other top federal officials, by similar ratios.

House May Arrest Speed Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For more than a decade, Americans have struggled — and often failed — to drive at 55 mph. The Senate is now willing to raise the speed limit on most interstate highways, but the proposal faces a rough road in the House.

Rejecting arguments that increasing the speed limit could cost thousands of lives, the Senate voted 65-33 Tuesday to give states the power to raise the limit to 65 mph on interstate roads outside of urban areas.

The speed-limit language, which President Reagan supports, was added to a four-year, $52.4 billion highways bill — setting up a confrontation with the House, which refused to ease the nation's blanket 55 mph speed limit in its version of the measure.

New Racial Indictments Expected

NEW YORK (UPI) — Special investigators were given a different version of the Howard Beach racial attack that was expected to result in murder indictments against white youths not originally charged in the case, reports said.

The new account comes as a result of information provided by a participant in the Dec. 20 attack, who apparently agreed to cooperate with investigators, authorities said Tuesday.

Special Prosecutor Charles Hynes was not available for comment, and it was not immediately known whether the new witness had come forward on his own or whether he was offered immunity.

Congress To Convene In Philadelphia

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress will meet in Philadelphia July 16 to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the Constitution, marking the day the Framers agreed on the Great Compromise that kept the 1787 constitutional convention together.

The historic session will be the first time Congress has met outside the seat of government since it moved to the District of Columbia in November 1800.

Senate officials said Tuesday that plans for the celebratory meeting, in the works for a year, are "quite far along" in Washington and Philadelphia.

Dick Baker, the Senate historian helping to coordinate the event, said the Senate and House must pass a concurrent resolution authorizing the meeting in Philadelphia. Congressional leaders also still must determine whether to hold legislative or ceremonial sessions.

"The idea is to have two separate sessions and a joint session but the two leaders have to get together and decide what actually to do," said Joseph Stewart, secretary of the Senate.

Baker discounted the possibility that President Reagan would be invited to a joint session, which would focus "exclusively on Congress" and not the executive or judicial branches of government.

Baker said the July 16 date has historical significance for the Constitution because on that day the wrangling drafters adopted the Great Compromise, also known as the Connecticut Compromise, ending a dispute that threatened to end the convention in failure.

On that day, in 1787, the drafters voted 5-4 for a plan under which the states would be represented equally in the Senate and the people would be represented in the House according to population.

Adopting the compromise "really saved the Constitution from breaking down between the large states and the small states," Baker said.

Tentative plans, Baker said, call for a Senate session in early afternoon, a House session later in the day and a joint session at night.

A permanent pavilion is under construction at the Independence National Historical Park outside Constitution Hall, where the Framers worked in secret from May 25 until the Constitution was signed Sept. 17.

The joint session would be held on the pavilion but the Senate and House sessions would take place in separate temporary structures, Baker said.

A gala dinner, which probably will be held the night before the special session, will take place in the temporary building put up for the House.

Kennedy Proposes Welfare Reform

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., proposed legislation Tuesday that would reform the welfare system by paying bonuses to states which train and find jobs for long-term welfare recipients.

Kennedy, chairman of the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee, said the bonuses paid under the Jobs for Employable Dependent Individuals program would be based on federal savings produced by state efforts.

"The federal government will not hand out any bonuses until after the savings have already been achieved," Kennedy said.

Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, a potential presidential candidate, told Kennedy's committee about the success of his state-based job training program which served as a model for Kennedy's proposed program.

"It is possible to crack the cycle of long term (welfare) dependency," Dukakis said, citing 30,000 Employment and Training program graduates who were placed in jobs in three and a half years.

Under Kennedy's plan, states would get 75 percent of the federal benefits that otherwise would go to the welfare recipient, but not until the recipient has been in a job for a year. The state would get 50 percent of the welfare payment in the second year of work and 25 percent in the third year.

The program is aimed at those who have received welfare for at least two years and are jobless, or under age 22, have not finished high school and have had no job for a year, Kennedy said.

Kennedy and other Democrats are pushing for federal welfare reform this year. President Reagan, in his State of the Union speech, called for "welfare reform through state-sponsored, community-based demonstration projects" and said he would send a proposal to Congress soon. "This bill is action where it is needed and when it is needed — now, before more families are needlessly confined to years of destitution, dependency and despair," Kennedy said.

The Rev. Leon Sullivan, chairman of the board of Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America, said some urban areas of America are getting ready to explode because of high unemployment.

"Not since the days before the riots have I seen so many people on the street corners of America with nothing to do with their time," he said. "The problem is social dynamite."

In response to questions from other senators, Kennedy said welfare beneficiaries would not lose their Medicaid benefits while undergoing job training.

He said the program would not cost the federal government money, because it would spend the same money that would have been spent on welfare and would use some now surplus funds in the current Job Training Partnership Act program.

Nelson Feted For Farm Aid

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Musical superstars gathered Tuesday night to honor Willie Nelson, who learned the rigors of working the soil in his native Texas and organized efforts to aid the American farmer for the past two years.

Nelson, a native of Fort Worth raised by his grandparents on a farm near Abbott, Texas, is the second recipient of the Roy Acuff Community Service Award.

Country-pop superstar Kenny Rogers was cited previously for his work on world hunger.

The award, established in 1981, is named after the Grand Ole Opry star known as the "King of Country Music." It is sponsored by the Country Music Foundation and The Tennessean, Nashville's morning newspaper.

The awards ceremony at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum follows a private dinner and remarks by Country Music Foundation President Emmylou Harris, Foundation Chairman Joe Talbot and John Seigenthaler, president and publisher of The Tennessean and editorial director of USA Today.

Iranian Prime Minister Says U.S. Reporter To Be Expelled

United Press International
Iran's prime minister today said World Street Journal correspondent Gerald Seib, accused of being a "spy for the Zionist regime," will be expelled.
"After the interrogations are complete, we will expel him," said Prime Minister Mir-Hossein Musavi told Tehran radio.

There were reports Seib will be released in two or three days. He was detained Saturday night while visiting Iran with a group of Western journalists.

Seib's parents in Hays, Kan., learned of the reports through pre-dawn calls from journalists. Seib's wife, Journal reporter Barbara Rosewicz, reportedly left their Cairo home for an unspecified destination.

Official Blasts 'Interference'

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI) — Foreign Minister Ruelof Botha said blacks in South Africa kill other blacks because of "outside interference," particularly from the U.S. Congress.

Botha, speaking Tuesday to foreign correspondents during the first week of Parliament, said, "I hold Congress responsible for the murder of black people by black people."

Botha said fear was keeping moderate black leaders from coming forward to negotiate with the white-led government.

More than 2,300 people — the overwhelming majority of them black — have been killed since an uprising began in September 1984 against the white government and its policies of racial separation, known as apartheid.

Moscow Says Arms Scandal Hurts Talks

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union said the Reagan administration is too consumed with the Iran arms-contra aid scandal for substantive progress to be made at the superpower talks on space and nuclear weapons.

The claim was made on two occasions Tuesday by First Deputy Foreign Minister Yuri Vorontsov, leader of the Soviet arms delegation.

In Moscow, the official Soviet news agency Tass said the Kremlin's unilateral moratorium on testing gave the United States "a chance to choose between silence at long last at all nuclear testing ranges in the world and a resumption of nuclear explosions with redoubled force."

"On refusing to stop nuclear explosions, President Reagan decided further to balance on the brink of the nuclear precipice," Tass said. "The explosion, two days earlier than expected, undoubtedly will hold a special place in the Reagan administration's already odious service record over the past six years."

Vorontsov also renewed Moscow's threat to end its 18-month-old unilateral moratorium on nuclear testing after the first U.S. test this year.

The underground explosion was expected on Thursday, but the Department of Energy said it was conducted Tuesday morning at Yucca Flat, Nev., 86 miles northwest of Las Vegas.

Vorontsov told the 40-nation U.N. Disarmament Conference that the United States has "been concerned with something else." And at a Geneva Foreign Press Association luncheon, Vorontsov said the American arms delegation "obviously has its hands tied" and apparently lacks new instructions.

Vorontsov was asked if he was trying to say that Washington was preoccupied with the controversy surrounding the secret arms sales to Iran and diversion of profits to the Nicaraguan rebels. "That is our assessment," he replied.

The scandal has confronted President Reagan with the worst crisis of his presidency.

The U.S.-Soviet arms talks began March 12, 1985. The current round — the seventh since the talks began — opened Jan. 15 and is scheduled to end on March 4.

Vorontsov said there is some progress in that negotiators "for the first time are using paper and pencils" to draft general "guiding lines" for the "framework" of an agreement.

But that does not mean substantive progress on actual terms of any treaty, he conceded.

Such progress is being blocked, he charged, because Washington "is sticking to its old positions," especially its insistence on continuing research into a space-based missile defense.

Militia Warns Against U.S. Attack

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — A Shiite militia official warned that the United States "will pay a very high price" if Navy and Marine battle groups poised in the Mediterranean strike at Lebanon in a bid to free the American hostages.

Fears of an imminent U.S. military strike mounted in Beirut Tuesday night. Civilians hurried home before dark, and Moslem militiamen manned roadblocks and anti-aircraft guns across the capital.

"We call upon the American people to pressure their government not to commit a foolish action in Lebanon and not engage the American people in a new quagmire," said Tarek Ibrahim, military affairs spokesman for the Shiite Moslem militia Amal.

"The Americans will be foolish if they attempt to carry out a military operation in Lebanon," Ibrahim said. "We are always ready for them, and we are always on alert. But we think they are exaggerating their threats."

"They will not do it, and if they do it, they will pay a very high price," he said in a telephone interview.

U.S. officials in Washington gave no details of any plans for the force in the eastern Mediterranean. The U.S. forces were put in place after two Moslem extremist groups renewed threats to kill their American captives.

Diplomatic sources predicted any American attack could result in heavy casualties among U.S. forces and death for the hostages.

A possible U.S. attack is "all the talk in diplomatic circles," said a Beirut-based diplomatic source. "But a SEAL landing on the beaches of the southern suburbs will make Karbala-5 look like a weenie roast."

Karbala-5 was Iran's January offensive on the southern Iraqi port of Basra in which tens of thousands were killed and wounded. Beirut's southern suburbs and eastern Lebanon's Bekaa Valley are a hotbed of Moslem fundamentalism. SEAL refers to Navy underwater commandos.

Two threats against the hostages were made Monday, first by the pro-Iranian Islamic Jihad and later by the Islamic Jihad for the Liberation of Palestine, a previously unknown group that claimed responsibility for abducting four college professors, three of them Americans, on Jan. 24.

The first threat was accompanied by a photograph of American Terry Anderson, kidnapped by the Islamic Jihad March 16, 1985. The other came with a photograph of American Alann Steen, abducted Jan. 24 by the second group.

Islamic Jihad is holding Anderson, an Associated Press reporter, American University of Beirut official Thomas Sutherland and three Frenchmen.

In exchange for the Americans, Islamic Jihad demands the release of 17 Iraqis and Lebanese jailed in Kuwait for a series of bombings in 1983. For the release of the Frenchmen, it wants Paris to end support for Iraq in its war with Iran.

The Islamic Jihad for the Liberation of Palestine is threatening to kill its four hostages unless Israel frees 400 Arab prisoners by Feb. 9. Israel has rejected the demand, citing its policy of never dealing with terrorists.

The group is holding four Beirut University College professors — Americans Steen, Jesse Jon Turner and Robert Polhill, and Indian-born U.S. resident Mithleshwar Singh.

Eight of the 28 foreigners missing and believed kidnapped in Lebanon are Americans. Thirteen of the captives have been seized since Anglican Church envoy Terry Waite came to Beirut last month for his latest mission.

Waite has been negotiating with the Islamic Jihad for the release of Anderson and Sutherland. Some Moslem leaders say Waite, missing for two weeks, also has been seized by the kidnapers.

In London, several members of Parliament announced Tuesday they have nominated Waite for the 1987 Nobel Peace Prize, calling him a "shining light" in the troubled Middle East.

New Oath Required By Philippine Military

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — The Corason Aquino government, worried over a divided military, announced today it would require members of the armed forces to take an oath of allegiance to the newly ratified constitution or face expulsion.

In the first Cabinet meeting since Aquino received an overwhelming vote of confidence in Monday's constitutional plebiscite, the president expressed concern over a large number of "no" votes to her charter in military camps, her spokesman said.

Armed forces chief Fidel Ramos also approved the creation of military tribunals to handle court martial proceedings against 500 mutinous troops who staged an aborted coup last week.

Ramos's orders included the dismissal of any soldier who has been unaccounted for since Jan. 26, the eve of the rebellion, and an education program for troops "to correct a certain undesirable state of discipline and order in the armed forces."

The 11-month-old Aquino government has survived two military coups, the latest one last week.

Defense Minister Rafael Ileta told the Cabinet the negative votes in the 250,000-member armed forces were "really not that serious," press secretary Teodoro Benigno said.

Ileta, a West Point-trained retired general, said that once the government's Commission on Elections ratifies the new constitution next week, the military would ask the soldiers "to swear an oath of allegiance to the charter."

"Minister Ileta said the few who may not want to would have to leave the military since the constitution compels or emphasizes respect and allegiance to the constitution," Benigno said.

The commission began an official count of the votes today after receiving returns from the provinces.

Unofficial returns compiled by the Independent National Citizens Movement for Free Elections, or Namfrel, as of today showed "yes" votes totaled 16,589,407, or 78 percent of the counted ballots.

Iran Identifies Detained Reporter As 'Zionist Spy'

By Louis Toccano
United Press International

Iran acknowledged for the first time Tuesday it was holding Wall Street Journal correspondent Gerald Seib, calling him "a spy for the Zionist regime." An independent news service said the journalist was suspected of collecting secret military information.

Seib, 30, was taken into custody on Saturday for unspecified reasons.

In a one-sentence dispatch that broke Iran's official silence on Seib's detention, Tehran radio Tuesday said, "The United States has officially requested the freedom of Gerald Seib, the spy for the Zionist regime, who entered Iran disguised as a journalist."

The reference to the "Zionist regime" was not explained.

Iran's official news agency, IRNA, had earlier reported only that a "spy," whom it did not identify, had been arrested in Tehran.

The South-North News Service, a little known news agency based in Hanover, N.H., and established in 1986 to cover Third World countries, said Seib was being held in solitary confinement.

In its Tehran-dated report, the agency quoted an unidentified Iranian intelligence source as saying Seib had collected sensitive information about Iran's military defenses and unspecified charges would be filed against him.

Seib, who is based in Cairo, Egypt, was among more than 50 U.S. and other foreign journalists invited to Iran by the government to visit the battlefield of Iran's war with Iraq.

The journalists were ordered to leave the country by Saturday, but Seib and several others requested visa extensions.

An Iranian official was a UPI correspondent in Tehran last week that any reporters who tried to extend their stay "would face serious problems."

The United States, which has no diplomatic relations with Iran, learned of Seib's detention from the Swiss government, which represents U.S. interests in Iran.

U.S. officials Monday asked Iran to release Seib, saying his detention was "unwarranted." Wall Street Journal officials denied Seib was a spy and speculated his arrest was a "mistake."

In Hays, Kan., Seib's parents expressed concern about the Iranian report.

"We are very concerned at the present moment over the reports that Iran is holding somebody as a spy," said Seib's father, Richard. "Jerry is being held on a visa mixup, and these are two separate incidents as far as we know."

Richard Seib said his son, a native of Hays who has worked for the Journal for eight years, would not "spy for anybody."

"We want to stress his Catholic background, his German Volga background, his ethnic back-ground," said Richard Seib, a printer who works for the Hays Daily News. "His upbringing did not have anything to do with the type of person who would spy for anybody."

Teachers at Thomas More Prep, where Seib attended high school, began a round-the-clock prayer vigil Monday. A yellow ribbon was tied around a candle in the school's chapel to start the vigil.

The Seibs talked by telephone Monday to their son's wife, Barbara Rosewicz, also a Middle East correspondent for the Journal.

"She's very confident this will be resolved," Richard Seib said.

Seib's mother, Annette, said she and her husband has encouraged their son to work in the Middle East, despite the risks.

"It's not a chance that everyone gets," she said. "If you don't take it, you'll always have regrets."

Chinese Official Ousted

PEKING (UPI) — The Chinese Communist Party announced Tuesday the removal of propaganda chief Zhu Houze, an advocate of liberal reforms and the second highest official ousted in a campaign against Western influences.

Chinese sources said Zhu's removal was linked to a campaign against Western political friends launched by the party last month in response to student demonstrations for democracy that erupted in at least 13 cities in December.

A party spokesman said "Zhu Houze is no longer working" as head of the party Propaganda Department, which is responsible for overseeing ideological education and disseminating the party line.

He said Zhu was replaced by Wang Renzhi, deputy editor of the party's theoretical journal, Red Flag, Wang, believed by Western diplomats to be a hardliner, is also one of the party's 209 Central Committee members.

The spokesman did not say if Zhu, a leading advocate of liberal reforms, was transferred to any other post and gave no reason for the reorganization.

Zhu was rumored in early January to have been suspended for failing to curb the spread of "bourgeois liberalism," a catchphrase for capitalist tendencies. The official media recently have criticized unnamed senior party members for ideological weakness.

Zhu is a protégé of Hu Yaobang, who suddenly resigned his chief of the 44 million-member party on Jan. 16 after admitting mistakes on "major" political issues. Western diplomats believe Hu was blamed for being too soft on Western trends.

Zhu and Hu are the highest ranking victims of the crackdown, which also prompted the expulsion of three prominent intellectuals from the party and sent a chill through press, cultural and academic circles.

Last month, Information Bureau director Zhong Peizhang was sacked in a Propaganda Department shakeup. Two new deputy directors also were named.

Little is known about Zhu's replacement, Wang Renzhi. But a Western diplomat said, "He is definitely associated with the conservative wing of the party."

He said it is "not at all surprising" that the party appointed Wang because officials believe the propaganda department has become too liberal.

Zhu, in what was then viewed as a victory for reformers, replaced hardliner Deng Huan as propaganda department head in July 1985. But this year's campaign against "bourgeois liberalism" has seen the re-emergence of Deng and several other hardliners. Some analysts believe Deng, a member of the powerful 11-man party secretariat, is one of the main leaders of the crackdown on Western influences.

Western diplomats, however, believe the Chinese leadership is trying to prevent the campaign from getting out of control. Premier Zhao Ziyang, who took over as acting general secretary of the party, said on Jan. 29 that the campaign will only be waged within the party and will not affect rural areas.

Conner Returns The Cup

FREMANTLE, Australia (UPI) — Dennis Conner, fulfilling a three-year, $15 million quest and avenging yachting's most historic loss, returned the America's Cup to the United States today when his Stars & Stripes scored a 1:59 victory over Kookaburra III for a 4-0 sweep of the Australians.

In 1983 Conner, of the San Diego Yacht Club, became the first American in 132 years to lose the cup. His victory over the Australians makes Conner the first man to win, lose and regain the trophy over three regattas.

Conner sailed on Ted Turner's Courageous as tactician in 1974. He successfully defended the Cup in 1980, only to gain greater fame upon losing it.

Stars & Stripes led around all eight marks of the 24.1 nautical mile course, thwarting every Aussie bid to break his cover. When Conner noticed the victory was secure, he raised his arms in triumph and immediately grasped tactician Tom Whidden. Whidden stood by Conner three years ago on Liberty when Australia II wrested the cup from the United States.

Conner crossed the finish line to an explosion of red, white and blue fireworks set off by screaming fans from the huge spectator fleet. Conner drank champagne from magnums and hugged his crew.

"Hip! Hip! Hooray!" shouted a jubilant Conner and his crew in a tribute to beleaguered Kookaburra III skipper Iain Murray before circling Challenger Harbor.

Conner, a 44-year-old drapery manufacturer, will have to wait until Friday to receive the America's Cup, known as the "Auld Mug." The 27-inch-high prize currently resides behind a glass security wall on red velvet in the Royal Perth Yacht Club.

Conner, who defeated 12 other challengers from six countries during the grueling months of competition since October, rounded all 32 buoys ahead in the final best-of-seven series, with Kookaburra III only gaining one start.

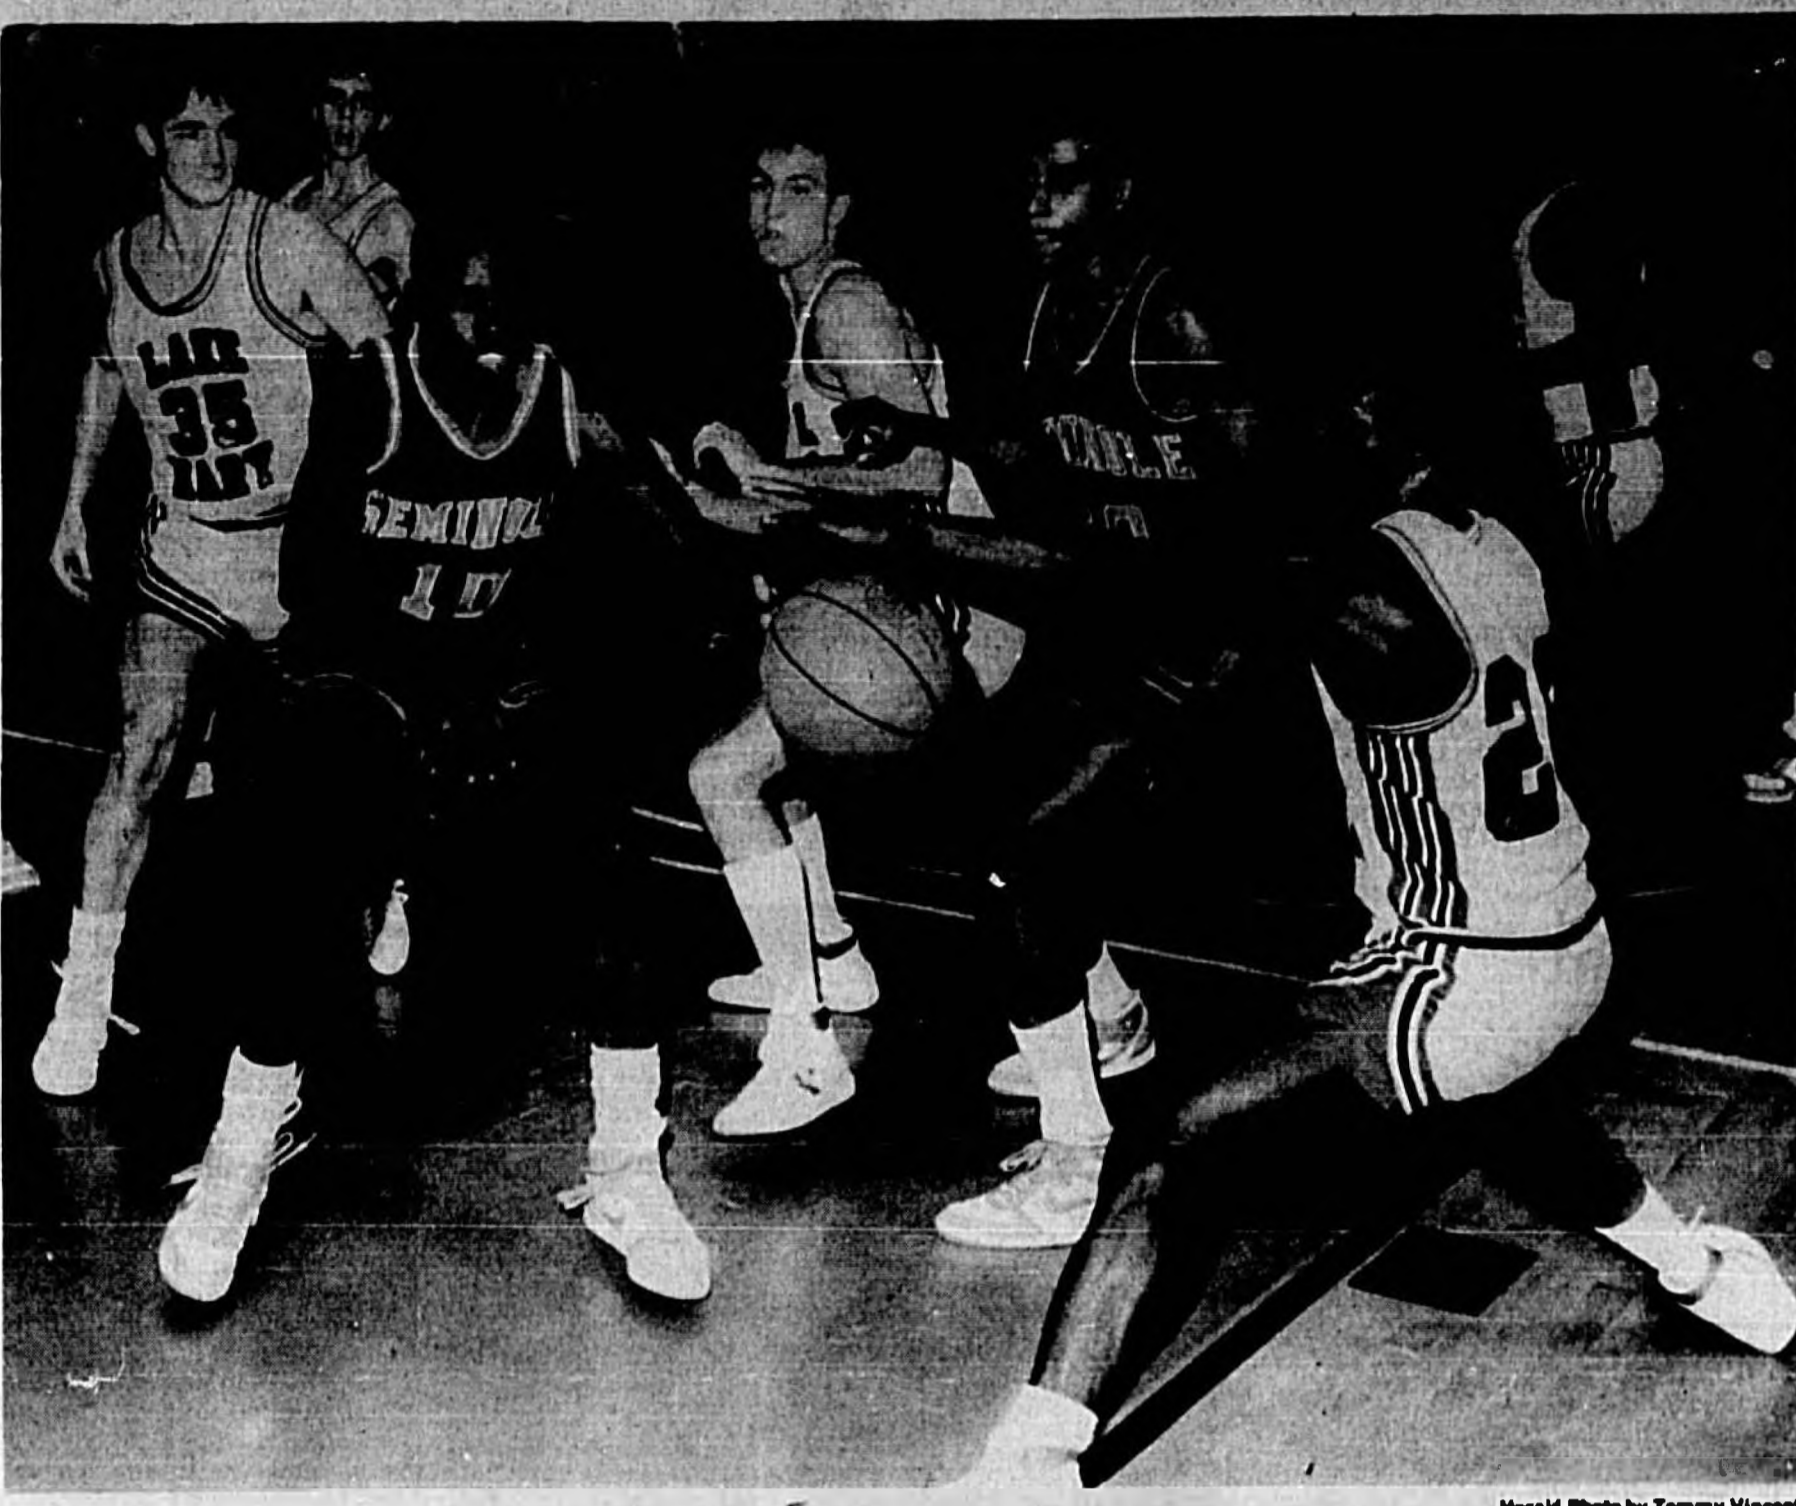

Stars & Stripes won the first race Saturday in heavy winds by 1:41 and the second race, Sunday, in light winds by 1:10. His 1:46 victory Monday came in winds of 12-to-20 knots. Conner called for a layday Tuesday, using the break to test light-air sails in preparation for Wednesday's clash.

Murray, a six-time world skill champion, was making his first America's Cup final appearance. His only previous 12-Meter experience came in 1983 when he piloted Advance, the first boat eliminated in the challenger trials.

"We've got to get it back. We lost it," said the 28-year-old Murray, unsuccessful in his country's first defense of the trophy now heading to the San Diego Yacht Club.

"We were up to speed," said Murray. "The real shock came when we couldn't catch up downwind. We were beaten by a better boat. We're disappointed. But we'll push ahead to 1990."

Moderate 14-to-19 knot shifting winds ruffled the Indian Ocean course, with Conner's incredible straight-line speed rocketing him farther ahead as the sea breeze freshened.

Seminole Slams Past Rams

Walker Hears Wakeup Call, Leads Last-Quarter Spurt

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
LAKE MARY — Craig Walker yawned and slapped a shot out of bounds. Seminole's 6-8 center then opened one eye and swatted another attempt into the cheap seats.

Seven minutes and 50 seconds were left in the game. Seminole held a precarious one-point lead against arch-rival Lake Mary. Craig Walker, inspirational for the opening period but listless for quarters three and four, needed a wake up call.

"WAKE UP! CRAIG," someone shouted. The alarm struck a cord. The maturing junior pivot answered the call with nine points, six rebounds and two vicious slams over the final eight minutes as Seminole raced past Lake Mary, 77-61, in Seminole Athletic Conference basketball Tuesday night before 1,212 fans at Lake Mary High School.

"When Craig decides he is ready to play, I don't care who is out there," Lake Mary coach Willie Richardson said. "He will dominate anybody. Nobody outrebounds him."

Richardson watched helplessly as Seminole broke loose its running game and tenacious defense over the final four minutes. The Tribe outscored the Rams, 11-0, to turn a tightly-contested battle into a 16-point victory.

"I think the morale to the story is — don't press us," Seminole coach Bill Klein said. "We played very good defense in those last four minutes and moved the ball up the court."

Seminole improved to 18-5 overall and 5-0 in the SAC. Lake Mary fell to 7-11 and 2-3. Seminole maintained its one-game lead over Lyman (4-1), which knocked off Lake Howell (1-4), 51-45, in overtime. Lake Brantley (2-3) nipped Oviedo (1-4), 52-51. The 'Noles host Lake Howell Friday while Lake Mary hosts Lake Brantley.

Until Walker opened both eyes, Lake Mary's Terry "The Cat" Miller and Jerry "Stick" Parker were shooting the eyes out. Parker, a 6-1 senior swingman, led all scorers with a career-high 29 points. He also came up with six steals and rebounds. Miller, a 5-10 junior point guard, who played himself into near exhaustion, scored 26 points along with seven assists.

"Miller did a good job," Klein said. "We couldn't stay with him."

Walker finished with 15 points, 17 rebounds and eight blocked shots. Roderick Henderson had 15 points, seven rebounds, six assists and four steals. Andre Whitney handed out eight assists and Michael "Spud" Edwards doled out seven. Whitney also had eight rebounds while he and Edwards had five steals apiece. Walter "Tipman" Hopson had seven boards.

No more than four points separated the teams during the first three quarters. Lake Mary had a 10-7 lead on Miller's steal and layup but Seminole came back on a Hopson tip to tie the score at 11. Matt Napoli tossed in a hoop for a 16-14 first-quarter lead with seven seconds left.

Oscar Merthle, who finished with 13 points, gave Lake Mary a brief second-quarter lead, 18-16, but Parker found the range with two jumpers before Reginald "Spook" Bellamy gave Seminole its biggest bulge — 24-20 — with 4:53 left in the first half.

The Rams, though, reversed the deficit as Miller and Merthle combined for 10 points and a 30-28 lead. Whitney drew the 'Noles back within range with a tip-in and a short jumper. Parker nailed a jumper with three seconds left for a 34-32 halftime lead.

The shootout continued in the third quarter. Midway through, however, Richardson had to sit Merthle and Eric "CZ" Czerniejewski with four fouls. Junior Mike Mandeville picked up the slack, banking home a jumper for a 45-44 lead with 3:48 left. Parker answered for the 'Noles Vince Florence scored a game-high 19 points to pace Lyman over Lake Howell in overtime, 51-46, Tuesday night in Seminole Athletic Conference basketball at Lake Howell.

The Greyhounds improved to 10-5 and 4-1 in the SAC. The Silver Hawks fell to 4-11 and 1-4.

"We went up by two points with four seconds in regulation," Lyman coach Tom Lawrence said. "They (Lake Howell) put into overtime with a halfcourt shot by Steve Johnson."

"We were up to speed," said Murray. "The real shock came when we couldn't catch up downwind. We were beaten by a better boat. We're disappointed. But we'll push ahead to 1990."

Moderate 14-to-19 knot shifting winds ruffled the Indian Ocean course, with Conner's incredible straight-line speed rocketing him farther ahead as the sea breeze freshened.

"We've come this far in three years. We can win it back in three more," said a solemn Kookaburra III syndicate chief Keven Parry, who spent $18 million in his bid to keep the emblem of sailing supremacy in Australia.

Basketball

Lyman managed to keep Lake Howell scoreless in the overtime as Craig Radzak, who finished with 16 points, regained the lead with a layup early in the extra period.

Florence followed up with a jumper and Robert Thomas hit a shot at the buzzer to widen the margin.

The Silver Hawks played without senior leader Alonzo Robinson who missed the game because of a pained tooth.

Randy Keller and Johnson led the way for Lake Howell with 10 points apiece as Gary Weeden clipped in eight.

Larry Nathan, Sheraton Mays and Troy Rollins came up with key victories Tuesday night as Seminole rebounded from an early deficit to claim a 39-38 victory over Orlando Evans in prep wrestling action at Evans High.

Seminole improved to 9-3 in dual meets with the one-point victory and returns to the mat Wednesday night at 7:30 at home against Spruce Creek.

Nolff's :01 Heave Nips Lions, 52-51

By Mark Blythe
Herald Sports Writer

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Joe Nolff presented Lake Brantley coach Steve Jucker with nice birthday gift when he nailed a desperation turnaround jumper with one second remaining to lift Lake Brantley over Oviedo, 52-51, in Seminole Athletic Conference action Tuesday night at Lake Brantley before 202 fans.

"I really can't explain the shot," Nolff said. "I never saw the basket. It was a nice pass from Doug (Lawson) and I just turned around and shot the ball."

The Patriots now stand at 6-9, and 2-3 in the conference. The Lions fell to 11-6 and 1-4. Brantley journeys to Lake Mary Friday while Oviedo hosts Lyman.

"It was a nice birthday present," the 32-year-old Jucker said. "We played much more as a team in the second half and that bailed us out."

Brent Bell finished with a game-high 22 points as Nolff added 12 while Doug Lawson added eight.

After trailing by six for most of the first half the Patriots then held the ball for the final 2:52 but missed their final shot to go into halftime on the short end of a 25-21 count.

Robb Hughes, who led Oviedo with 19 points, came alive in the third period, scoring eight points and controlling the defensive backboards. Bell, though, added seven points as the Patriots crept to within 37-36 after three periods.

The final quarter is when things finally fell Brantley's way. After Brian Wilson put down a jumper to up the lead to 39-36, Bell cut it back to one with a layup with 5:48 to play. Hughes then connected on a jumper inside the paint to keep the Lions back up by three with 5:34 remaining.

Bell then drove to the basket and was fouled and connected on both attempts from the line cutting the lead to one with 5:18 left. The 6-1 senior swingman later followed with a jumper to give Brantley its first lead, 44-42, with 3:45 to play.

Brantley's Barri Shirley then committed his fifth foul with 3:36 to play, sending Hughes to the line. Hughes managed one of two cutting the lead to 44-43.

Nolff and Darren Leva then dropped four consecutive free throws to up the lead to 48-43. The Lions did not quit, though, as coach Dale Phillips called time out to pull his troops together for the stretch run.

Hughes came out and nailed a short jumper with 2:42 left cutting the lead to 48-45. Dana Hill, who totaled 14 points, added a pair of free throws, cutting the deficit to 48-47 with 1:55 left.

After an Oviedo steal, Hill scored to give the Lions a 49-48 edge with 54 seconds remaining.

The Patriots then came down and worked for the good shot which rolled off the side of the rim and into the hand of Hughes who was immediately fouled with 23 seconds to play.

Hughes nailed both attempts to give Oviedo a seemingly safe 51-48 edge.

Jucker, though, Brantley rushed the ball down court and Bell scored an uncontested layup with 12 seconds remaining.

Jucker again called time out. Phillips then came up with a clever inbound play that almost worked to perfection.

Hughes first took the ball out of bounds. Hill then stepped out of bounds on the other side of the backboard and Hughes passed him the ball. Hill then preceded to pass the ball back to Hughes who broke free passing halfcourt.

Dwight Everett then came streaking down the other side of the floor all alone as the lone Patriot defender, Bo Pamplin, came up to meet Hughes. Hughes then hit Everett with a nice bounce pass but Everett couldn't convert on the layup.

OVIEDO JV TRIUMPHS
Pete Lingard scored 21 points to lead Oviedo to a 51-46 victory over Lake Brantley in junior varsity action Tuesday.

Troy White led Lake Brantley with 21 points and Billy Clark added 10.

'87 Picks: Goodbye Connors, Swedes Decline

I will be honest with you. One of my real heroes is Fearless Fister, that fantastic Sanford Herald sports prognosticator. With unerring and uncanny accuracy Fearless picks 'em all. Football is his main turf but he can predict the outcome of any game, any sport.

Fearless, however, has not stepped into the world of tennis, so I thought I would give it a go. Actually Fearless was going to predict the winner at Wimbledon last year but he had a migraine shortly after the tournament started and had to give it up.

Anyway, here is my forecast of Tennis '87:

● Jimmy Connors will announce his retirement. Connors is 34 years old. That is very old for a professional tennis player. He is still good enough to be in the top 20 but for a man with his pride that is just not enough.

● The U.S. will make a great comeback in Davis Cup play. We have been embarrassed lately, for a country that is supposed to be the best in tennis we have done poorly in Davis Cup play. McEnroe will return to cup play, and along with Flack, Seguso and possibly Connors the U.S. will take back the cup in 1987.

● Evert-Lloyd has announced that 1987 will be her last year. Navratilova will follow suit and announce that she too will retire after the 1988 season. The twist will be that both will come out of retirement and rejoin the tour after a few months of "retirement."

● There will be a real decline in the level of play of the Swedes. Stefan Edberg will stay at the top but the rest will go way down, probably out of the Top 10. Aystrom, Wilander, Jarryd and Pernfors will all struggle to stay in the top 25. Why? All except Wilander are one-dimensional players and can only counter punch. That is simply not good enough anymore. Wilander is just not as interested as he used to be.

● Ivan Lendl will again be the best player in the world. Edberg will be No. 2 and Boris Becker will come in at No. 3. John McEnroe will never be No. 1 again but will hang around the Top 10 for another year before retiring for good.

● Edberg will win the U.S. Open and Wimbledon with Lendl winning the French, and the Masters. Lendl will just barely edge out Edberg for No. 1 in the world in 1987. If Edberg had not lost to

Larry Castle
SANFORD

a couple of low-ranking players in early rounds in some smaller tournaments he would have been No. 1 in 1987.

● On the local scene tennis will continue to boom. After a slight decline for the past few years, tennis has really come on strong lately. This year will be a banner year for Seminole County tennis with the "fad sports" dying out and tennis once again becoming the No. 1 participation sport in the area.

● Lake Brantley's boys team and Lake Howell's girls team will again win the conference and district titles. Lake Mary's boys team and Oviedo's girls will be strong contenders and have very good years. Lvman senior Eric Hochman, one of the top junior players in the state, will return to play high school tennis and be the top player in the Seminole Athletic Conference and the district. After not playing high school tennis for a couple of years, Hochman has discovered that the college scouts prefer players who are part of the team atmosphere.

● This will be the year that Lake Mary's Mike Renaud emerges as one of the top high school players in Central Florida. His improvement has been dramatic and it simply could not happen to a nicer guy. Seminole's Jay Adcock will emerge as a high school superstar. Adcock has the dedication to work at it and in 1987 will blossom as a very good player.

● In 1987 there will be a move started in Sanford to build a city tennis complex. Twelve hard courts, a club house and possibly a stadium court will be proposed. Work will begin to hire a full-time pro with several assistant pros. The courts will be free to the public and many leagues and clinics will be offered to all levels of players. Sanford will be known in years to come as the tennis capital of Florida and many world class players will get there start here. ● Seminole High School will build six new courts on the high school campus. It will hire a full-time coach and start to be known as the high school tennis capital of Seminole County. (It is inevitable that this happens because so many good young players are coming up in Sanford, the local high school will have to accommodate them.)

● Rollins will finish first in the NCAA Division II tournament and Pat Emmett will again make All-American. Norm Copeland will be named Coach of the Year. Stanford will win the NCAA Division I crown and Lander will be the NAIA champ with Joey Perr being the catalyst on that team. The national junior college crown will be won by Tyler Texas, with North Greenville second and Abraham Baldwin third.

● A former outstanding college coach who still lives in the area will send shock waves through the tennis world by announcing that he is thinking about getting back into coaching. Well, I'm starting to get a migraine so I think I'll go speck fishing.

Lake Mary's Frosh Spark District Win; Lyman, Pats Advance

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

LAKE MARY — Even after the game is over, freshmen are still getting instructions from Lake Mary coach Bill Elissele. "Freshmen pick up the water cooler... freshmen pick up those three balls over there."

While the freshmen are called on to clean up after the game, they are not confined to doing only mental chores for the Lake Mary girls soccer team.

In fact, four first-year high school players, Amy Alexander, Tammy Scott, Crissie Snow and Annemieke Stonerock, are key ingredients for the Lady Rams this season.

All four frosh performed well Tuesday night as the Lady Rams, ranked eighth in the state, blanked Oviedo's Lady Lions, 4-0. In District 4 Tournament second-round action before 151 fans at Lake Mary High.

Lake Mary, 18-4-4 on the season, advances to Thursday night's semifinals against top-ranked Lyman. In the other semifinal game, fourth-ranked Melbourne is at second-ranked Lake Brantley.

In Tuesday's game, Lake Mary took 17 shots on goal compared to just five for Oviedo. The Lady Lions had a number of good offensive runs but Alexander, the Lady Rams' sweeperback, snuffed out most of Oviedo's runs before they developed into shots.

"Amy (Alexander) did a super job tonight," Elissele said. "She took away just about everything Oviedo had offensively. Amy has really done an outstanding job for us this season."

The times Oviedo did get past Alexander, Scott stopped the Lions from going any further. The freshman goalkeeper saved both balls that came her way and got off some booming punts to help Lake Mary's offense get cranked up.

Snow, who has 10 goals this season, contributed some good offensive runs and aggressive play while Stonerock was her usual steady self at midfield and on defense.

Lake Mary took a 1-0 lead less than four minutes into the game when senior Kelley Broen gathered in a free ball and ripped it into the upper left corner of the cage.

The Lady Rams made it 2-0 when sophomore Donna Rohr took advantage of Oviedo's inability to clear a ball and slipped it in with 20:57 left in the half. Lake Mary took a comfortable 3-0 lead when sophomore Michelle Mattingly controlled a ball off an Oviedo goal kick and blasted it between the pipes with 4:49 left in the half.

Lake Mary's fourth goal came with 18:36 left to play when Mattingly made a nice flick on to Broen who skipped past a defender and punched in her second goal of the night.

Most of Oviedo's best offensive runs were made by senior Kelly Price who came the closest to scoring for the Lady Lions when she ripped a shot just over the crossbar in the second half. Defensively, Ingrid Lyn had an outstanding game for Oviedo while goalkeeper Lori Blackburn had 11 saves. The Lady Lions finished the season with a 5-12-4 record.

LYMAN RIPS WINTER PARK Randi Huddleston scored a pair of second-half goals Tuesday night as Lyman's Lady Greyhounds broke open a close game and cruised to a 4-0 victory over Winter Park's Lady Wildcats at Lyman High.

Lake Mary freshman Crissie Snow, left, cranks up her leg as Oviedo's Ashley Poole moves in to defend. Mary won, 4-0.

Lyman, the top-ranked team in the state, improved to 17-15 overall and extended its unbeaten streak to 20 games.

"The girls played really well tonight," Lyman coach Laura Dryden said. "They worked the ball well and had nice rhythm."

Lyman held a narrow 1-0 lead at halftime and the one goal came on a penalty kick by senior Karen Abernethy.

Huddleston, a junior, gave Lyman a 2-0 lead two minutes into the second half when she scored on an assist from freshman Dana Boyesen. Huddleston scored again 19 minutes into the half on an assist from senior Maye Belle Bryant. Junior Bonni Steeves closed out the scoring as she blasted in an unassisted goal.

Lyman outshot the Lady 'Cats, 20-7, while goalkeepers Sarah Cobb, a senior, and Tracy Wortham, a freshman, combined for the shutout with two saves each.

LADY PATS BREEZE

Julie DelRusso scored a pair of goals off assists from Cara Marlen as second-ranked Lake Brantley moved into the semifinals with a 3-0 victory over Lake Howell Tuesday night at Lake Brantley High.

Lake Brantley, 23-1-2 for the season, will host Melbourne Thursday night at 6. Melbourne, ranked fourth, survived a scare Tuesday night as it edged Orlando Bishop Moore, 3-2. Melbourne improved to 18-1 with its only loss being to Lake Brantley in the Burger King Classic.

The Lady Patriots dominated the game Tuesday night with 28 shots on goal compared to four for Lake Howell which finished the season at 8-10-3. Both of DelRusso's goals came in the first half on assists from Marlen. Brantley's third goal was scored by Michelle Herbst in the second half on an assist from Debbie Bray.

Hawks Extend Unbeaten Streak To 10 Games, 8-1

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Lake Howell's Silver Hawks, ranked seventh in the state in Class 4A, extended their unbeaten streak to 10 Tuesday night with an 8-1 Seminole Athletic Conference rout of Seminole at Lake Howell High.

The Hawks improved to 16-2-2 overall and 9-0 in the SAC while Seminole dropped to 3-10-1 overall and 0-9 in the league. Lake Howell, which has already won the conference, concludes the regular season Thursday at home against Oviedo. Seminole hosts Lake Mary Thursday night and ends the regular season Saturday at home against Apopka.

"Our first goal this season was to win the conference and we've already done that," Lake Howell coach Glen Griffin said. "Our second goal was to go undefeated in the conference and we have a chance to do that Thursday night."

In Tuesday's game, Lake Howell pounded out 30 shots on goal compared to only four for Seminole. Todd Smith scored two goals in the first half and Dougle Lee one as the Hawks built a 3-0 lead. Smith's first goal was on assists by Lee and Jeff Phillips. Lee then scored on Smith's assist and Smith's second goal was unassisted.

Lake Howell tacked on five more goals in the second half with Erik Bird scoring the last three, two on assists by Phillips. Alejandro Ballaudo and Todd Miller also scored in the second half while Mark Gardberg and Javi Ortiz added assists.

Seminole's goal, coming in the second half, was scored by Chris Ray, his sixth of the season. Seminole goalkeeper Scott Taylor had a busy night as he made 14 saves.

Soccer

Rams Topple Brantley, 2-1

Ernie Broenne's 20th goal of the season was the difference as Lake Mary's Rams edged Lake Brantley's Patriots, 2-1, in SAC action Tuesday at Lake Mary High.

Lake Mary now stands at 15-3-4 overall and 6-2-1 in the SAC. The Rams are at Seminole Thursday at end the regular season Saturday at Daytona Seabreeze. Brantley, 6-11-4, 2-6-1, ends the regular season Thursday at home against Lyman.

The Rams' first goal was actually an own goal by Lake Brantley. On a crossing ball by Lake Mary's Jon Brooks, the Brantley goalkeeper tried to handle it but it slipped through his hands and into the goal.

"If the keeper didn't touch it, that ball really had no chance of going in the goal," Lake Mary coach Larry McCorkle said.

Lake Mary made it 2-0 in the second half when Broenne scored his 20th goal on an assist from Steve Sapp. It was Sapp's team-leading 10th assist of the season.

Lake Brantley pulled within 2-1 late in the game when Paul Ahrens scored on a rocket of a shot from 40 yards out.

Lake Mary took 25 shots on goal for the game compared to 11 for Brantley. Defensively, McCorkle said Ralph Padilla, filling in for injured Rick Morales, led the way.

"Padilla gives us some flexibility when he's in," McCorkle said. "When he comes in, we can move Pete Kinsley to midfield. Another guy who had an excellent game tonight was Lee Alexander at both forward and midfield."

Rood 2-Hits Florida College

Kevin Rood tossed a two-hitter as Seminole Community College picked up its first victory of the season Tuesday with a 6-0 crushing of Florida Community College at SCC's field.

The Raiders are 1-2 and will return to action today against Florida College in Temple Terrace near Tampa.

"I'm happy with any win," Seminole coach Jack Pantelias said. "We're not hitting like we should but it's early and we'll improve."

Things were relatively quiet for five innings with the Raiders holding onto a 1-0 lead.

Ted Papoussis rapped a one out single in the sixth followed by a two-run homer by Danny Moore upping the lead to 3-0.

Troy "Killer" Blevins then rapped a run-scoring double to give the Raiders a comfortable

5-0 lead. Chad Sims singled home Blevins for the final run. — Mark Blythe

Nordiques Feel Right At Home, Slap Around Visiting Canadiens

United Press International
The Quebec Nordiques met the Montreal Canadiens Tuesday night with a familiar result. The home team won once again.

In the first game of a home-and-home series that concludes tonight at Montreal, the host Nordiques scored a 4-1 victory to bring their season record against the Canadiens to 3-3-0.

In each game, the winning team played on its home ice. "I guess the guys get too emotional when they play in Quebec, and they seem to get away from the game plan," said Montreal Coach Jean Perron, who remained winless in his coaching career at Le Colisee.

Michel Goulet scored his 30th goal of the season and added an assist to lead the Nordiques.

The Nordiques outplayed the Canadiens in the first two periods, mounting a 4-0 lead on aggressive forechecking. Claude Lemieux scored the Canadiens' only goal as he battled a rebound past goaltender Mario Gosselin at 3:26 of the third period.

Elsewhere, St. Louis downed Edmonton 4-2 and Vancouver defeated Calgary, also by a 4-2 score.

Lake Mary Nets Win In Opener

Lake Mary won the six of seven matches on the day Tuesday as the Rams opened the 1987 tennis season with a 6-1 victory over Daytona Beach Seabreeze at Oceanside Tennis Center in Daytona Beach.

At number one singles, Shea Whigham dumped Brad Braustien, 8-2. Seabreeze got its only win of the match at number two singles where Biff Mays trimmed Mike Renaud, 9-8.

The Rams swept the rest of the matches as, at number three singles, Tom Boysen ripped Clayton Duranch, 8-0; Brett Thorpe crushed Keith Frazier, 8-2, at number four singles and Dave Sheridan downed Brent Lucy, 8-3, at number five.

In doubles, Whigham and Renaud blasted Braustien-Mays, 8-1 and Boysen-Thorpe edged Duranch and Sam Hall, 6-4.

Lake Mary returns to action Thursday at home against Trinity Prep.

Raiders Take On VCC Tonight

Coach Bill Payne's Seminole Community Raiders, desperately hoping for a slipp up by Florida Community College, travel to Orlando tonight for a Mid-Florida Conference game with Valencia Community College. Tipoff is 7:30 p.m.

The Raiders, ranked third in the state, trail FCC by one game with time growing short. SCC needs someone to upset the Stars, along with victories in its last four MFC games, to force a tie for the lead.

Malcolm Houston (21.3), Vance Hall (16.7), Darris Gallagher (14.0) and Claude Jackson (12.2) are all double-figure scorers for SCC. James Morris (9.4) completes the starting unit. Gallagher is also handing out almost 11 assists per game.

Twins Get Stopper In Reardon

MONTREAL (UPI) — The Montreal Expos traded top reliever Jeff Reardon to the Minnesota Twins Tuesday in a six-player swap aimed at strengthening their starting pitching.

The Expos sent Reardon and backup catcher Tom Nieto to the Twins for left-hander Neal Heaton, catcher Jeff Reed and pitchers Yorlis Perez and Al Cardwood.

Heaton, who compiled a 7-15 record with a 4.08 ERA in 33 games last year, was the main catch for the Expos, according to General Manager Murray Cook.

Reardon, 31, compiled 35 saves in 62 appearances last year and has averaged 29 saves over the last five years.

Seminole Invites Youth Soccer

To kick off the spring soccer season, all youth soccer club members and coaches are invited to attend the next two Seminole High School home games. All club members need only to wear their team shirt and they will be admitted for $1.

Seminole's last two home games include Thursday night at 7 against Lake Mary and Saturday at noon against Apopka.

SCC Women Clinch Tourney Berth

By Mark Blythe Herald Sports Writer
 Seminole Community College's Lady Raiders assured themselves a place in the state tournament with a 56-54 Mid-Florida Conference victory over Santa Fe Tuesday night.
 SCC is now 16-9 and 5-2 in the MFC. Santa Fe fell to 8-14 and 2-5.
 "We came out and played aggressively," Seminole assistant coach Debbie Scherr said. "The girls knew they needed the win and went out and got it."
 Pam Jackson led the Lady Raiders with 14 points. Lisa Starks, Paula White and Fatma Lafond all added 10 to pave the way to Jacksonville.
 "We had a comfortable lead of 12 points with five minutes to play," Scherr said. "We then became a little sluggish and they (Santa Fe) got scrappy."
 Jackson added four assists as Starks grabbed nine rebounds and blocked four shots. Lafond and White each grabbed five boards and White contributed six blocked shots.
SEMINOLE (54) — Jackson 6-14 2-3 14, Starks 5-10 0-2 10, Lafond 3-8 4-7 10, White 5-8 0-10 10, Patterson 3-4 1-2 7, King 2-4 1-4 5. Totals: 24-48 8-18-56.
SANTA FE (54) — T. Moore 10-11 4-7 24, James 3-6 2-4 8, Zimmerman 3-5 1-2 7, J. Moore 3-8 0-0 6, Gilley 2-4 1-2 5, Donald 1-2 2-2 4, McKinney 0-2 0-0 2. Totals: 22-36 10-17 54.
 Halftime — Seminole 29, Santa Fe 25. Fouls — Seminole 17, Santa Fe 19. Fouled out — Lafond. Rebounds — Seminole 27 (Starks 9), Santa Fe (James 8). Assists — Seminole 8 (Jackson 4), Santa Fe 7 (Zimmerman 3). Records — Seminole 16-9 (5-2), Santa Fe 8-14 (2-5).

 but Mandeville connected on a bomb from the wing for another one-point edge.
 Miller dropped two free throw for a 53-52 lead with seven seconds left but Parker came back with a jumper with two ticks left for a 54-53 edge entering the final go-round.
 Walker went to work in the fourth period. He combined with Roderick Henderson and Parker for 23 points while the tiring Rams could muster just eight. "They just have too much depth," Richardson said. "We have five or six and they come back with nine or 10."
 Bernard Mitchell gave Lake Mary its last lead with a nice left-handed move around Walker for a 55-54 edge. Henderson tied the game with a free throw before Parker's baseline drive pushed Seminole ahead, 58-55.
 Walker brought down the house when he followed up a missed layup with an elbow-scratching jam. Richardson immediately called for Miller, Merthie and Czerniejewski who were idled with four fouls.
 "When we do something fantastic like that, it takes away from the other team," Walker said. "I was tired in the third quarter but those blocks got my adrenalin going."

Moore's Hoop Slips JV 'Noles By Rams

Freshman Robert Moore tossed in a turnaround 14-footer with 20 seconds to play and Ralph Hardy added a free throw as Seminole slipped past Lake Mary, 66-63, in junior varsity basketball Tuesday night at Lake Mary High School.
 Coach Tom Smith's Seminoles improved to 4-12 overall and 3-2 in the Seminole Athletic Conference. Coach Mike Gaudreau's Rams fell to 7-10 and 3-2. Seminole hosts Lake Howell Friday. Lake Mary treks to Lake Brantley.
 Seminole trailed, 21-4, after one period but outscored Lake Mary, 28-12, in the second quarter to close within 33-32 at halftime. Danny Hartley, who led all scorers with 20 points, sparked the surge with eight in the period. Harley finished with nine rebounds, too.

 "It was a seesaw battle all the way," Smith said. "We took control in the third quarter (50-39) but they came right back in the fourth quarter."
 Seminole snapped the tie when Moore, a 6-2 center playing his first JV game, took a pass, wheeled and hit a jumper just inside of the foul line.
 Lake Mary had a chance to pull even at the other end but it missed a free throw with four seconds left. Hardy grabbed the rebound and was fouled as he raced for the other end. He made dropped a pair of foul shots to pull the Rams within 60-57, but Henderson and Walker came back with buckets for a 64-57 lead with 4:30 to play.

 Merthie then notched two free throws and Miller slipped down the paint for a dazzling left-handed layup to pull Lake Mary within 64-61. The Rams, though, would not score again.
 Walker scored the next five points, the final duce on another two-handed slam. Nineteen seconds later, Parker sent the gym up for grabs again when he bounced off both feet into a two-handed dunk and a 71-61 lead with 2:25 to play.
SEMINOLE (77) — Whitney 8, Parker 29, Edwards 6, Hopsan 2, Bellamy 2, Henderson 15, Baird 0, Walker 15. Totals: 30-17 27-77.
LAKE MARY (61) — Prom 2, Czerniejewski 4, Miller 26, Mandeville 6, Mitchell 8, Napoli 2, Merthie 13, Stewart 0. Totals: 23-15 23-61.

Prices Higher Today

NEW YORK (UPI)—Prices opened higher today in active trading of New York Stock Exchange issues.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which fell 10.97 Tuesday, was up 4.07 to 2172.52 shortly after the market opened.

Advances led declines 525-400 among the 1,396 issues crossing the New York Stock Exchange tape.

Early turnover amounted to about 13,741,000 shares.

The stock market finished mixed in heavy trading Tuesday, after profit-taking erased early gains in the blue chip sector.

"The market is digesting its gains," said Ralph

Acampora, technical analyst at Kidder, Peabody & Co. "We're up nearly 300 points since the start of 1987, and the market's leaders, the blue chips, are resting. It's reasonable and healthy to expect the market to pause, and that's what we're doing today."

"The market is thrashing around, but it's still got a lot of power," said Dudley Eppel, managing director in charge of listed trading at DLJ Securities. "Buying is coming from all over," he said. "The market is not sinking, under any condition."

Traders said investors were focusing on prospects for improved corporate earnings.

moved to Averill's address. Riske, however, said Tuesday that Patrick "had mentioned in September that there may be a move involved, but I never received confirmation of such a move."

Patrick, nevertheless, said he did inform Riske of the change of address, but had a hard time doing so. "I must have called ten times and got a recording," Patrick said. "He was a very hard guy to catch."

Riske said no change of address was ever recorded and he knew nothing of a third move. "I don't have it in my files," Riske said. "But Patrick did tell me shortly after she arrived that there was a possible problem with the school."

"He (Patrick) said, 'If it turns out she can't stay with us, then we would move her to another family. I already have somebody in mind.'"

Riske said that would be fine and he would wait to hear from him. "It is not surprising for the students to move," Riske said. "Twenty-five percent of them do move. We have students move to go to another high school. Her moving to another family is a very common occurrence."

"That was already conveyed in September. I think it had something to do with better opportunities to participate in interscholastic sports or better coaching."

"But there is nothing official in my file," Riske added.

Lake Mary basketball coach Bill Moore, however, said the way he interprets the rule, there was no wrongdoing. "The FHSA says transfer rules do not apply to a Foreign Exchange Student who comes through a recognized agency," Moore said. "The Seminole County rule says that a player has to live in the district for which he plays. One rule cannot make you eligible just as the other rule cannot make you ineligible."

Rozelle said he will make a decision after meeting with all parties Thursday. "She (Olden) should be living at Patrick's address if they used his name," Rozelle said. "If she moves from one place to the other, the necessary change and approval must be made with the Foreign Student Program."

"If that change was not made, there may be trouble."

Moore, like Patrick, said the EDRT was informed of the move to the Averill address, but not the move to the McNaughton address. "I still don't see that as being a problem," Moore said.

Reynolds agreed: "To me, it doesn't look like there is anything to it," he said. "She has lived in our attendance zone the whole time she has been here. Patrick said he called and notified them EDRT of the change."

The county rule says that if a person in one school district wants to play sports in another, a blue waiver form must be signed by the principal.

Now that self insurance has been approved, Dolgner said the barge will deliver its load Feb. 12.

The tank terminal, built in 1975, sits on less than one acre of the 120-acre port. With 15 tanks of varying sizes, it has a total capacity of 3.5 million gallons. Two of the largest tanks will be used by LCP, and $40,000 worth of work, including new linings, went into the tanks in preparation for the chemicals.

All of the tanks are empty because of the changeover in operation to port authority control. There is a large fence topped with barbed wire encircling the facility. Some of the hazards would be if a leak occurred in a tank or pumping system, or if a tornado knocked down one or more tanks.

Dolgner said the area was made safer after a gas spill several years ago. "We revamped all the drainage to go back into the diked area," he said. As it is, he said, the diked area around the tanks would hold 1.5 times the volume of one tank.

"The inspector said he felt it was a dangerous facility, but it is not dangerous; it is one of the safest facilities around," Dolgner said.

The insurance company cut out liability coverage for the tank terminal, but the rest of the port remains insured with total costs of less than $10,000 a year. Dolgner said if hazard insurance on the tank facility could be obtained, it would probably be for a minimum of about $20,000 a year extra.

He said the area was "totally impervious to access by the public" and so should not create a large insurance risk.

all his money on top of the pizza box and leave the box and the cash. Jensen put $8.50 on top of the box, put the box on the ground then got into his car and drove about 40 feet.

Jensen then got out of the car with his own .38-caliber handgun and ordered the suspect to stop. Jensen, an alman stationed at Homestead Air Force Base, is licensed to carry the weapon.

When the suspect pointed his weapon at Jensen, the deliveryman fired a shot, hitting the suspect's car. The suspect then ran and hid behind a wall but surrendered when Jensen ordered him to come out.

Police charged the suspect with armed robbery and possession of a firearm during commission of a felony.

Besides the robbery notes, police also found an ad for Domino's Pizza in Cave's car with the address to which Jensen had been sent scrawled on it, indicating he had ordered the pizza and was waiting for the delivery truck.

ing?" and Waller replied, "I'd rather not go into it."

Mrs. Dennis said Waller's verbal "report" had consisted of replying "It's in litigation and I can't comment on it" to all her questions. She said he would not tell her "who is suing who."

Mrs. Dennis and Gunter both said they knew nothing about any litigation involving the incident. Mrs. Dennis said City Attorney Ann Colby told her she was not aware of any such litigation.

Mrs. Dennis said her next step would be to seek the advice of the city attorney — "If the city is involved in the possible litigation she should know about it."

She said she would continue to ask Waller for a report and if he refused may ask for his resignation. "It may not be the best thing," she added. "I don't know if I would get any back-up."

She said Monday night that she considers Manning's conduct in an outburst against City Commissioner Dave Gunter during a break in a Jan. 15 work session at city hall "grossly insubordinate and grounds for termination."

talk for what he might do," Mrs. Dennis said at the Jan. 19 meeting.

But Mayor Ed Myers ridiculed the idea Monday night as he asked, "Do you think we should all wear bulletproof vests?" He came to Manning's defense, saying, "I have known the gentleman before and after he became police chief and I have never known him to carry a gun." Myers said, "I'm sick and tired of all this negative publicity."

Former City Commissioner Perry Faulkner, who lost out to Mrs. Dennis in the election, said at Monday's meeting, "I have a sad and concerned heart and I ask Commissioners Dennis and Gunter to put aside petty disagreements with the staff."

Mrs. Dennis said Tuesday, "The whole thing could have been solved if Mr. Waller had done his job and responded to my request and taken care of the situation with Mr. Manning. I never asked that he be fired. I don't just jump into something to stir things up hoping they will get bigger, that's not my way."

"All I know," Mrs. Dennis said, "is what happened in front of me when Mr. Manning became so irate and told Mr. Gunter, 'If you want a piece of me, you'd better bring your lunch because it's going to take awhile.' I will continue to do my job the best I can with the information I can get, that's all I can do." She said she was surprised that none of the other commissioners had questioned Manning's behavior.

Gunter previously said of the discussion with Manning, "We hashed out some things, but when we went back into the commission chamber Greg began hollering at me and carrying on. He got uptight and created a disturbance, which apparently frightened Mrs. Dennis because she knows he carries a gun. It was uncalled for so I excused him and told him I didn't want to talk to him anymore. He is supposed to be an officer of the law and couldn't keep himself under control."

At the Jan. 19 commission meeting, Mrs. Dennis said Manning's behavior frightened her and she requested Waller to investigate the incident and report back as "soon as possible."

She said Manning was "completely out of control" after he returned to the commission chamber following a private discussion with Gunter in a back office. "It was almost to the point that as a commissioner I would be afraid to

Bernard Linton said he had been a concerned citizen for eight years and since the first of the year he has observed an undercurrent of power play. "You can sit here and sense a feeling of hatred. Let's cut it out and do what you were elected for," he added.

The city charter gives the city administrator the power to hire and fire city department heads, including the police chief. The city administrator can, when deemed necessary for the good of the city, suspend or dismiss a department head, who then has the right to a review before the city commission.

Manning started with the Longwood Police Department in October 1972 as a patrolman and was named chief in January 1977. He was appointed acting city administrator after the resignation of City Manager Dave Hacey on Jan. 7, 1985 and turned the running of the police department over to Assistant Chief Terry Baker. After an effort to hire an administrator fell through, City Clerk Don Terry was named city administrator on April 8, 1985, but when he resigned as administrator Manning again stepped as acting administrator. This time he kept his duties as police chief as well, something that was ruled unconstitutional by the state Attorney General's office.

Although Manning's resignation from the city administrator post was accepted in November 1985, he continued in the position until a replacement was found. City Administrator Ron Waller, the city's first professional administrator, assumed his duties in April, 1986.

One of Manning's staunchest supporters, Mayor Larry Goldberg, was defeated by Gunter in a run-off election.

Cook Of The Week

Former Educator, Proud Of Her Old World Heritage, Shares Unusual, Family Recipes

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

Even in this age of microwave ovens and convenience foods, it's so nice to fall back on Old World recipes that smack of family heritage and tradition. When the occasion calls for something special, our Cook of the Week, Lucy Layer, can treat her family and guests to the same delicious Armenian dishes her mother used to make.

"My mother was a fantastic cook," exclaims Mrs. Layer. "She just stayed in the kitchen all the time. That's where I learned how to cook. She used to fix Baklava from scratch, and I remember her cooking stuffed cabbage rolls. She had a lot of unusual recipes, like stuffed meatballs, that were real good. We had a Piloian family reunion January fourth and I tried to have some Armenian food there. It turned out real well."

Mrs. Layer is the daughter of a farming family whose name rings familiar to Oviedo residents and surrounding areas. Her father, "Pete" Piloian, was a prominent farmer whose sons, John and Bill, continued in the business until about two years ago. "We had fresh vegetables all the time," says Mrs. Layer. "We love fresh vegetables and I fix fresh vegetables all the time. My brother's son, Scott, farms here in Sanford, so we get fresh vegetables from him." It is not unusual to find freshly picked squash, lettuce, tomatoes, eggplant and all of nature's best on the Layer dinner table.

During her early school days, Mrs. Layer recalls being very active in athletics at Oviedo High School. "I was on the girls' basketball team. I played tennis, and I did a lot of swimming," she remembers. In fact, Mrs. Layer was a lifeguard at Sanlando Springs for years. "There was a big park there and it was open to the public," she says. "I used to lifeguard there in the summers after high school and while I was in college."

Mrs. Layer continued her education at Florida State University and received her bachelor's and master's degree in mathematics. Starting out at Lyman High School, her career spanned 31 years. Mrs. Layer has also taught mathematics at Sanford Jr. High, Lake Brantley, and was teaching at Lake Mary High School until she retired about three years ago. Her husband, William P. "Bud" Layer, is a Cincinnati native, raised in Louisville. He received his bachelor's degree from Hanover

College in Indiana. After coaching for a year in LaGrange, Ky., his hometown, he entered the U.S. Coast Guard. "His last duty station was in Alaska," laughs Mrs. Layer, "and he said that when he got out he was going to go somewhere where it was warm, so he went to Stetson University and got his master's degree in education administration."

Working together as devoted educators in the Seminole County school system, the Layers have contributed many fruitful years to its students. During those years, "Bud" Layer was principal at Millwee and Teague Middle schools until he was elected Superintendent of Schools, a position he held for eight years. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan J. Davis Sr.

Couple Mark 65th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan J. Davis Sr., 719 Myrtle Ave., Sanford, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary Jan. 28. The couple were married on that day in 1922 in Albany, Ga. Davis was born in Montezuma, Ga., and Mrs. Davis, the former Grace Shaver, was born in Morristown, Tenn.

Before moving to Sanford from Leesburg, Ga., in 1930, Davis farmed in Georgia and lived and worked in Miami and Sarasota. He was an employee of the Nehl Bottling Co. in Sanford for over 20 years followed by employment with the U.S. Civil Service Commission. Later Davis was self-employed for several years before retiring at age 75.

Mrs. Davis has always been a homemaker. Her family has come first. "You have to be there, always," she said. Both have been members of the First Baptist Church, Sanford, for more than 50 years, and they still attend regularly. Davis has been a deacon for 47 years and Mrs. Davis taught Sunday School for many years.

The couple are the parents of two children, Ouida Davis Kader, Clearwater, and Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr., Sanford. There are seven grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren who all attended the 65th wedding anniversary celebration and family get-together and dinner at the Sanford home of their son.

A quiet, loving couple, their lives have been centered around home, family, church and work. This has been their complete happiness.

A Medal For U.S. Mint Director

Bill Shepard of Sanford, chairman of the Board of Florida United Numismatists, presents Donna Pope, director of the United States Mint, with a 1908 Republican Delegate Medal during the FUN convention at the Buena Vista Palace, Lake Buena Vista. A total of 12,341 registered for the 4-day convention. The U.S. Mint booth sold U.S. coins and medals during the convention in the amount of $36,531, according to Shepards.

Children's Teachers' Workshop

A Child's World Early Learning Center is offering a three-hour workshop for early childhood teachers on Saturday, February 7, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon at the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce. Area preschool teachers are welcome. The topic is, "Teachers, Ask Yourself," which focuses on self-evaluation and methods for avoiding stress and burnout. Instructor for the workshop is Mrs. Vi Nemeck, an instructor for the Orlando Vocational Technical Center. Credit can be earned toward the 40-hour educational requirement for early childhood teachers.

Shriners' Installation

Microwave Magic

You'll Be Delighted With This Simplified Chicken Kiev Dish

Recently, I had the pleasant experience of teaching 60 senior citizens how to use their microwave ovens to better advantage. A third of the audience was made up of men who have become involved in cooking since retired. All of the audience were interested in eating a healthier diet, lower in fats and sugars and almost all were interested in having recipes using smaller portions. Since poultry and fish are economical and already important in the senior citizens menu planning, many requested small portion recipes for microwaving of these foods.

Economically, poultry adapts to a variety of dishes. Microwaving not only saves time but, brings out flavors and juiciness. A whole small chicken or turkey or even special parts can be purchased to make enough for just one meal or several. Allow approximately ½ pound bone-in poultry per person when purchasing.

You probably never thought of preparing Chicken Kiev with help from the microwave oven. You will be delighted with the results of this simplified version.

CHICKEN KIEV

(Serves 1)

- 1 tablespoon plus 1½ teaspoons softened butter, divided
- ½ teaspoon snipped chives
- Dash of garlic powder
- Dash of white pepper
- 1 boneless chicken breast half, approximately ½ pound
- Crumb Coating:
 - 2 tablespoons corn flake crumbs

- 1½ teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese
- ¼ teaspoon dried parsley flakes
- ¼ teaspoon paprika

If you want to prepare this recipe to serve 2 just double all ingredients.

Place 1 tablespoon butter in small custard cup. Microwave on 10% (low) power 15-20 seconds or just until slightly softened. Stir in chives, garlic powder and white pepper. Shape the butter mixture into a small roll and freeze 10 minutes until firm.

Pound chicken breast with flat side of a mallet to ¼ inch thickness. Set aside.

Place remaining 1½ teaspoon butter in small bowl. Increase power to 100%. Microwave 15-30 seconds or until melted. Set aside.

Place frozen butter roll at end of flattened chicken breast. Roll as you would a jelly roll folding in sides. Secure with a wooden pick. Roll in melted butter, then in crumbs. Place recalls that first summer as Mrs. Layer. "The first thing I did when we were married that summer was type his thesis. I always kept telling him I think that was the only reason he married me," she smiles, "just to get someone to type his thesis!"

Extremely proud of their daughter, Laura, Mrs. Layer relates that after graduating from Seminole High School in 1979, she went on to Duke University to complete her undergraduate work in medicine. She was graduated Phi Beta Kappa and Summa Cum Laude. Laura went on to Vanderbilt Medical School in Nashville, and is in her last semester there. She is a member of the Medical Honor Society, Alpha Omega Alpha, and has done medical mission work with a group of more than 100 doctors, surgeons, dentists and other professionals who administered their services to the poor and needy. "She is interested in doing medical mission work sometime during her career," says Mrs. Layer. "She enjoyed working with children this summer and I think she has decided to go into pediatrics."

While home from her studies this past holiday season, Laura helped her mother prepare for two family reunions. "We had a Layer family reunion one Sunday," says Mrs. Layer, "and the following Sunday we had a Piloian family reunion. We did a lot of cooking! Laura was home for about two and a half weeks and she helped me with the Baklava and the Armenian stuffed meatballs. That's one of her favorites. She always wants me to fix it when she's home — and the stuffed cabbage, she loves that. She's a good cook, and a real gourmet. She likes to cook with mushrooms and Oriental vegetables and all that. In fact, when she was in high school, she would cook one meal a week for us, and she loved doing it. And, of course, I loved having her do it. It gave me a break."

Enjoying retirement also means that Mrs. Layer has more time to devote to things that are rewarding and useful. As a member of the Central Florida Regional Hospital Auxiliary, she volunteers her time at least four days a month as a "Pink Lady." Together, the Layers attend the First Presbyterian Church, Sanford where "Bud" is an elder and Lucy is active in a circle for women. "We've been going there since we were married in 1957," she says. Projects such as making curtains for the Sunday School classes and helping people who need help are all part of the fellowship which is shared by the church's "circles." Family night suppers are especially nice, says Mrs. Layer, "and everybody takes a covered dish. Boy, there's a lot of really good food there. We have some really good cooks at the First Presbyterian Church, we really do. We have some outstanding cooks." In addition to her activities at the hospital and in her church, Mrs. Layer is also a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honor society for women teachers which helps to raise scholarship funds for needy students by holding rummage sales, auctions, bake sales, etc.

Another pleasurable pastime that Mrs. Layer enjoys is playing bridge. "I belong to two bridge clubs," she says. One is an afternoon bridge club, and the other is a couples bridge club and we play once a month on a Friday night." The Layer family is also adept at playing pinochle. "Every time we get together," says Mrs. Layer, "that's the game we play. It's a Layer family tradition. Every time we get together, there's a couple of tables of pinochle going."

Since retiring from their respective careers, the Layers have been able to enjoy traveling more than ever. The mountains of North Carolina are a favorite vacation spot, especially in the fall when the glorious colors of fall are brilliant. "With the mountains and all, it's just spectacular," says Mrs. Layer. "We also go to Nashville a lot. We love it there, and, of course, Laura is there so we spend a lot of time there."

Back at home, Bud Layer is active in the Rotary Club of Sanford, "and right now he's working with the American Heart Association on the luncheon and fashion show which is coming up on Feb. 13," Mrs. Layer says. "Of course, he loves golf, and plays every chance he gets," she adds, "and he also loves to fish." Even though he is now retired, Bud Layer is often contacted by former students who he has seen evolve into successful young men and women and is pleased that he has had some part in the development of their lives. And, as

Mrs. Layer reflects on her years of teaching math to hundreds of Seminole County students, she hopes that her contribution has helped to formulate their goals.

Mrs. Layer has some relaxing pastimes of her own, one of which is gardening. "I love gardening. I had a rose garden that is not doing too well now, but I used to grow some nice roses," she admits. She also has an admirable collection of cookbooks which include some Armenian favorites and the ever-popular Betty Crocker and Better Homes and Gardens volumes. "I even have the cookbook (Cooking From a Melting Pot) that Liz Paulucci (Heilrich) wrote," she says, and another with favorite recipes from Red Bug Elementary School.

When it comes to entertaining, Lucy Layer is a super hostess and likes to make her guests feel very much at home. "When Bud was superintendent," she says, "we entertained. I'll bet, at least once a week. But now that we're both retired, we kind of slowed down. Now, it's mostly family and some real close friends." When she has guests, Mrs. Layer prefers informal gatherings and usually prepares some favorite casserole dishes and plenty of fresh vegetables.

Home life at the Layers' is very flexible, and "we just do what we feel like doing," says Lucy. "It's fantastic. Bud might be out on the golf course, and I'll be playing bridge. We both just really love retirement, we really do. I may not cook as much since I've been retired, so that's why Bud will say, 'Let's have company so we'll have a lot of good leftovers.'" Whenever she does make one of Bud's favorite meals, she tries to make enough for more than one meal to accommodate their busy lifestyle. "There are a lot of things Bud likes better when they're leftover," she says, "like homemade chicken soup or chili."

He likes Armenian food, and he's German, so he likes German food, and we both love Italian food."

ARMENIAN BAKLAVA
2 cups finely chopped pecans or walnuts
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
3 sticks unsalted margarine
1 pound phyllo dough
Honey-Lemon Syrup
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup honey
1 cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Make honey-lemon syrup first by boiling slowly the sugar, honey and water for 10 minutes. Add lemon juice the last few minutes. Set syrup aside to cool.

Combine nuts, sugar and cinnamon in a small bowl and set aside. Melt the butter and brush some in a 9x13 baking pan. Lift one sheet of phyllo dough until there are 8 buttered sheets on the bottom. Sprinkle some nut mixture evenly over top, putting 2 buttered sheets between each layer until all nuts are used (about 3 layers of nuts). Top with remaining buttered phyllo sheets. There should be at least 8 buttered sheets on top. Trim the edges as you go and scatter between layers. Refrigerate pan of baklava for 30 minutes or 10 minutes in freezer. With a very sharp knife, cut pastry in diamond shapes or small squares. Bake in preheated 325° oven for 55 minutes until golden brown. Remove from oven and spoon cooled honey-lemon syrup over hot pastry. Best to let it soak overnight before eating. It should NOT be refrigerated or frozen. It will keep at least one week unrefrigerated.

ARMENIAN SHISH KEBOB
(Bud's favorite)
3 pound leg of lamb, boned and cut into one inch cubes. (Sirloin steak may be used)
1 teaspoon salt
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 teaspoon dried oregano
1/2 cup olive oil
1/4 cup red wine
2 large green peppers, cut into 1 1/2 inch pieces
2 pounds fresh mushroom caps
1 pint cherry tomatoes
Place meat in a large bowl. Combine salt, garlic, oregano, olive oil and wine and pour over meat. Mix to coat with marinade. Refrigerate a few hours, or overnight, turning occasionally. Alternate cubes of lamb, green pepper, tomato and mushrooms on 6 large skewers. Brush with marinade and cook over a charcoal fire or under a broiler about 10 minutes on each side. Serves 6.

EGGPLANT DIP
3 to 4 large eggplant
1 medium green pepper, chopped fine
1 medium onion, chopped fine
3 cloves garlic, crushed
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons olive oil
salt and pepper to taste
Bake eggplant whole in 350° oven for 1 hour, 15 minutes until soft. Remove and cool. Split and remove pulp (discard seeds), and chop fine. Add all other ingredients. Refrigerate overnight. Serve with crackers.

BROCCOLI CASSEROLE
1 large bunch of broccoli, cooked in salted water and drained (3 ten-ounce packages frozen broccoli spears may be used)
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 cup sour cream
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup sharp cheese, grated
Mix together mayonnaise, sour cream, cream of mushroom soup and cheese. Place a layer of broccoli in a greased baking dish. Cover with 1/2 the mixture, then another layer of broccoli and the remaining mixture on top. Bake at 350° for 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 4 to 6.

SQUASH CASSEROLE
2 to 3 pounds of sliced fresh yellow squash, cooked and drained
2 carrots, grated
1 onion, chopped fine
1 cup sour cream
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1/2 stick margarine, melted
1/2 small package of herb stuffing mix
Grease large casserole dish. Sprinkle 1/2 of stuffing mix on bottom. Combine all other ingredients. Pour squash mixture into casserole dish. Top with remaining stuffing mix. Bake at 350° for 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 6 to 8.

SPINACH CASSEROLE
3 packages cooked with NO salt spinach, cooked with NO salt and drained
1 pint sour cream
1 envelope onion soup mix
1 1/2 cups plain corned stuffing mix
1/2 stick margarine, melted
Mix sour cream and onion soup, then add spinach. Place in greased baking dish and top with cornbread stuffing tossed with 1/2 stick melted margarine. Bake at 325° for 35 minutes. Serves 6 to 8.

BUD'S FAVORITE PECAN PIE
3 eggs
1/2 cup white sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
1/4 cup melted margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup pecans
Beat eggs slightly with fork. Add sugar, syrup, butter and vanilla, then stir well. Pour nuts into unbaked pie shell, then pour mixture over nuts. Bake at 325° for 30 to 35 minutes.

Food for Thought

by Bill Painter

Italian version of quiche calls for 1/2 cup ricotta cheese blended with 2 eggs and chopped fresh basil. Fold in parmesan cheese and coarsely grated mozzarella. Layer filling: sliced tomatoes, cheese mix, and more tomatoes. Bake 40 to 50 minutes at 350°.

Lunch box idea: chili sandwich by putting in with it a jalapeño or yogurt that's been frozen overnight. Packed in the morning, it will be thawed by lunchtime.

Leftover turkey marries well with smoked gouda cheese, tart apples, celery and toasted pecans or walnuts. Dress with mayonnaise that flavored with honey-mustard and curry.

Watching your sodium intake? It's not just salt you have to watch out for. Check labels carefully.

You can substitute 2 egg whites for a whole egg in most recipes, and never taste the difference. Important cholesterol saving, though.

Silverliners To Model Historic Uniforms

By Doris Dietrich
PEOPLE Editor

Long-time area residents will recall a fashion show-luncheon 10 years ago that generated interest from all angles. The lovely presentation, a benefit for the American Heart Association, was a big hit and registered a full house at the Sanford Civic Center. The event oozed with class and style.

And now, the memorable benefit will be repeated on Friday, Feb. 13, from noon to 1.30 p.m., at the Sanford Civic Center.

Co-chairmen of the dazzling fashion show and luncheon, aptly tagged "Have a Heart and Swing Into Spring," are Jean Clontz and Gail Stewart. One of the highlights of the gala is a drawing for a flight for two to New York, compliments of Eastern Airlines.

To the delight of the patrons, Eastern Airlines' renowned Silverliners will present a historical fashion show of flight attendants' dating back to the beginning of the hostess era.

According to Jean Clontz, a former Eastern hostess, the Silverliners, an international organization of former and current Eastern Airlines Flight Attendants, was founded in 1954. Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, founder of Eastern, gave the names to the organization suggesting "his girls were the silver lining to any dark clouds the passengers might encounter."

The purpose of the Silverliners is to raise money for charities. Mrs. Clontz said that during the 33 years, the organization has contributed more than $350,000 and 26,000 hours of service to deserving beneficiaries.

The Orlando Chapter has 16 members. Monthly meetings are held to organize numerous fund-raisers for the dedicated group sponsors. The Feb. 13 show will benefit the American Heart Association.

Patrons who attended the event 10 years ago will recall the interesting segment of the benefit staged by the Eastern Airlines Silverliners. This year, they promise more with a welcome "something new" — male flight attendants and models.

Other fashions will be from the showrooms of Lois' Place and Him's in Sanford.

Serving as models will be Shirley Schilke, Rosemary Robinson, Donna Feibelman,

Three of Eastern Airlines Silverliners who will serve as models in "Have a Heart and Swing Into Spring," are: Margaret Ross, from left, in a modified mini skirt worn in 1968 and 1969; Jean Clontz, wearing the navy blues when she was a hostess during the 1954-63 era; and Sandi McClure wearing today's uniform. Among the other uniforms to be shown are hot pants and go-go-boots from that era. Remember?

Darlene Hodek, Melody Frakes, Meghan Arnold and Mary Heckler

A mother-daughter segment of the show will be portrayed by the chairman and their daughters, Lisa Clontz and Shanah Stewart.

The attractive chairmen will also team with their husbands, Dr. Frank Clontz and Dr. Roger Stewart, in the husband-wife category, along with Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. (Mayor Bettye) Smith and Robbie and Lisa Robertson.

Male models are Dr. Tom Largen, Dr. Luis Perez, Dr. Narinder Aujla, Dr. George Gomez, Dr. Ravindra Jahagirdar, James Tesar, administrator of Central Florida Regional Hospital and John Andrea Coudriet, television personality, will serve as mistress of ceremonies for the luncheon-fashion show.

Mercer, chairman of the local Heart Association campaign committee.

Mistress of ceremonies for the luncheon-fashion show is Andrea Coudriet from WESH-TV

Channel 2. Tickets, $15 a person, for the event, being sponsored by Central Florida Regional Hospital and the Sanford Campaign Committee of the AHA, are available by calling Jean Clontz, 774-5052; Gail Stewart, 323-6880; or Kay Bartholomew at Central Florida Regional Hospital.

Jewish Community Holds Annual Business Meeting

Congregation Beth Israel (Sanford Jewish Community) held its annual business meeting Jan. 26, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Epstein.

By a unanimous vote, last year's officers were re-elected for another year: Mrs. Sara Epstein, president; Mrs. Esther Cohen, vice president; Mrs. Zelda Siskind, secretary; and Melvin Siskind, treasurer.

Discussion was held on this year's charitable donations from the interest accrued on the bonds purchased when the Congregation sold the Sanford Jewish Community Center building in 1968. It was decided to continue support for CJA, Jewish Family Services and various local and Jewish charities.

Because of a declining Jewish population in Sanford in the 1960s, Congregation Beth Israel no longer serves as a religious body. Most of its members belong to other synagogues in the area. However, it does cater to the desires of the Jewish residents of Sanford to maintain their identity and sense of "family" by meeting socially and by welcoming and helping new families when they move into the Sanford area, according to Henry Rosenthal.

Once again, the membership is beginning to grow, and the Congregation would be delighted to meet and "adopt" all new residents, Rosenthal said. Please call Sara Epstein, 322-0821, for information.

Anxiety Attacks Aren't Abnormal

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — I've heard more and more people say they have anxiety attacks. What they talking about?

DEAR READER — Anxiety attacks are episodes of nervousness and apprehension. They are milder than panic attacks. Anxiety is a universal, unpleasant sensation of tension, fearfulness and irritability. We all experience some type of anxiety on a regular basis. Most forms of anxiety need no treatment; the person copes with an uncomfortable situation and the anxiety goes away.

Many people believe that tension and anxiety are "unnatural," and they try to eliminate them by using tranquilizers or other medications. "recreational" drugs and/or alcohol. This belief is wrong — and the "cures" can be damaging. Anxiety is a normal human emotion. If people accept it as such, they will deal more effectively with stress and not have to rely on drugs or alcohol. In most cases, these simply cover up the anxiety, prevent people from finding satisfactory solutions to problems — and also can lead to habituation or abuse.

In short: Pain or distress, whether physical or emotional, mean that something's wrong and must be treated or resolved. This isn't done by covering up the symptoms.

To give you more information, I'm sending you a free copy of my new Health Report on MENTAL AND EMOTIONAL ILLNESS, which describes different problems and appropriate treatments. Others who would like a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT — Five years ago, I was diagnosed as being diabetic. I take 250 milligrams of Diabinese daily. Since then, all my teeth became loose and were pulled, my nails split easily. I'm losing my hair and I've found it increasingly difficult to become sexually aroused. I'm 50 and female. I hope you can shed some light on this.

DEAR READER — Circulatory insufficiency is one consequence of long-term diabetes. Diabetics tend to develop arteriosclerosis at a faster rate than do normal people. This blood-vessel narrowing deprives tissues of oxygen and nutrients. Therefore, diabetics are more prone to develop infections, skin ailments, dental abscesses, heart disease and vascular problems, and sexual dysfunction. Check with your doctor to make sure that your diabetes is under control and that you do not have an internal imbalance of hormones or a low-grade infection.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

Although two chances are better than one, you'll want to take your best chances. Cover the East-West hands and plan your play in six hearts.

Certainly you would win with the heart king and play to your ace. Since West is left with a natural heart trick, you cannot afford to lose another trick.

Because the diamond suit is a logical source of tricks, you would next play ace and a diamond toward dummy's K-Q. But when West discards on the second diamond, you are apparently left with deciding between the club and spade finesses for your 12th trick. At first glance you cannot take both finesses. Suppose that you cash the ace and king of spades. Maybe the queen will fall doubleton. If it doesn't, then you take the club finesse. That's giving yourself two chances, but playing for the drop has less chance than finessing in spades. What you would really like to do is first take the club finesse without the risk of being set if East holds the king. And there is a way.

After taking the A-K of diamonds (West discarding on the second round), play the diamond queen and discard the club jack. If West ruffs, he must play either a spade (clearly wrong) or a club. If West does not ruff, throw him in with a trump and he will be in the same fix. When he plays a club, you can finesse the queen. Since you have shed your club jack earlier, you will be able to ruff if East has the king and then fall back on a spade play later. That's giving yourself the two best chances.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY FEBRUARY 5, 1987

Your long-range prospects for material growth look enormously encouraging for the year ahead. Gains will be precipitated by strange occurrences.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You tend to be a bit more temperamental today than usual. Be careful that if you're angry at one person you don't take it out on another. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker set instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If something is disturbing you today it's best to get it out into the open. Talk the problem over with a close friend whose advice you respect.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be hopeful today in a situation where you anticipate material gain. However, keep your expectations within reasonable bounds so you won't be disappointed.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) The boss may not always be right, but he or she is still the boss. Don't make waves today challenging this person's authority.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Unless your plans are well thought out today, there's a chance you'll get into a bind where you have to unravel the fruits of your own poor judgment.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your friends will resent it today if they think you are too possessive or dictatorial. Allow your pals the same latitudes of freedom you want for yourself.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Being unduly stubborn won't enhance your image today. A failure to appreciate other peoples' points of view could cost you allies.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Lots of aggravation but little accomplishment could result today if you spread yourself too thin where work is concerned. Plan ahead.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be extra careful today in situations where an investment is required on your behalf. Study the matter further if you're not completely comfortable with the arrangements.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Disagreements between you and your mate should be resolved privately today. It will make matters worse if the issues are discussed with outsiders.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Unless you have something nice to say about another today, it's best to say nothing. Your comments will be repeated to the target of your attack.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Don't be the one who introduces betting into friendly competitive events today. The wallet that gets emptied could be your own.
