Search For Typhoid Source Grows

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Health Director Julian Fried emphasized today no typhoid cases nor any increase in intestinal disease has been reported in Oviedo Oaks Unit I in the wake of typhoid bacteria findings in effluent from malfunctioning septic tanks in the development.

But, Fried said, the typhoid incubation period is two weeks and his department is collecting samples from subdivision residents in a search for a typhoid carrier.

The State Department of Pollution Control Monday afternoon slugged land developer, Calbert Construction Co., the City of Oviedo and homeowners in the affected area with notice of violation of the anti-pollution law and demanding corrective action.

An informal hearing has been set at 9 a.m. Wednesday at DPC office, 3319 McGuire, suite 222, Orlando, to discuss immediate action to correct the problem and to determine who is responsible for a long range solution.

Oviedo Mayor Leon Olliff, although in city hall at a "construction conference" this morning was not available for comment.

Fried said his office will be testing today to determine if the typhoid bacteria has been carried in the runoff from effluent saturated lawns in Oviedo Oaks to Sweetwater Creek and Mead Manor lakes, until laboratory tests are completed.

Fried has urged the residents to receive typhoid shots or other from their family physician at the health department. He has also alerted Seminole County Doctors to watch for intestinal diseases or typhoid.

Water sample collections from all homes in the oak division will be completed this afternoon, Fried said, urging that the residents there continue to boil water or use bottled water for drinking purposes.

Commissioners discovered after accepting $36,675 from Lakewood Development Ltd. for a city-owned lot on Seminole Boulevard west of the former Standard Oil tank farm that the deed delivered to the buyers has no reverter clause.

Lakewood Development Ltd. received an exclusive, non-assignable open end option in March to purchase the lot.

The option was conditioned on a master lakefront development plan being presented to city commissioners before the actual sale took place.

When the option was granted William Hutchinson, attorney representing Lakewood Development Ltd., told commissioners planning consultants wouldn't be hired to do a master plan until all properties in the development area had been purchased.

He called the city-owned lot the "key" to the project and said if it wasn't purchased it could possibly terminate lakefront development plans.

In mid-August the city agreed to extend the deadline for development of 11 acres of lakefront landfall sold to a group headed by Ft. Myers architect W. R. Frizzell. The city is receiving $1.5 million in taxes during the delay before construction of an apartment complex.

McClanahan said Monday he thought similar "strings" on development were to go on the lot being sold to Lakewood Development Ltd. He said his reasoning in instigating the closing on the lot sale was the city should have the money and draw interest in the interim before development.

"There should have been the standard conditions and reverter as on other property sold by the city in the last three years to developers," McClanahan said.

McClanahan and commissioners Gordon Meyer and John Morris have asked City Manager Warren Knowles to research recordings of previous meetings on the subject of any contingencies on the single lot sale.

Killing Suspect Questioned Two Men Sought in Dump Murders

By MARK WEINTZ
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County sheriff's detectives said today they believe an Orlando girl, whose body was found in an Altamonte Springs dumping area Aug. 22, was at a Winter Park theater with two young men at 9:30 on the night she vanished.

In other developments in the case, investigators said Jack Knight, accused pop-bottle murderer of a Tall grandmother, is being questioned.

Laura Lynn Harberis, 18, an Orlando hospital clerk missing since Aug. 5, was seen by a friend at the theater where she and the two unidentified young men were waiting to see "Jesus Christ, Superstar," Seminole Sheriff's Lt. George Abby said today.

"It was the last time she was seen alive," Abby said.

"Anyone having any information on the identity of these two males should contact me through the Seminole County Sheriff's Dept.," Abby said.

Another body found with the young blonde-haired girl's corpse near Lake Lotus just off SR 431 is still unidentified, according to Abby.

A report from an anthropologist is still pending and Abby said this report may provide new information on the corpse's identity.

Abby said he believes the unidentified body was ditched at the dump sometime prior to the murder of Miss Harberis. He said the difference in the state of decomposition of the bodies indicates the two bodies were probably placed there at different times.

"I do believe the bodies were put there by the same person," Abby said.

The last time Miss Harberis was seen alive she was wearing a grey dress, according to Abby's reports.

"On the basis of interviews with her friends we have learned it is unusual for her to wear a dress," Abby said.

Earlier in the investigation Abby said he believed Miss Harberis left home Aug. 5 with someone she knew because she changed clothes before she left.

Her neighbors said they did not see anyone pick her up the day she disappeared, Abby said. Authorities have made no mention of finding a grey dress near the make-shift graves; however, a unique birthstone ring was found near the bodies and Abby said today that he believes the ring may lead to a break in the case.

"No one we have interviewed recalls Laura wearing or owning the ring," Abby said.

$6 Million Condominium Project Plans Dropped

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

Plans for a $6 million condominium project on 20 acres of groves straddling Country Club Road south of Mayfair Golf and Country Club in Sanford have been dropped.

Gary Martin of GMC Builders and Developers Inc., Orlando, said today the purchase of the tract will not be made because density of eight units per acre, imposed by city commissioners Monday in rezoning the property, makes the proposed project economically unfeasible. Martin said the sale contract was contingent on higher density zoning.

Commissioners instructed City Manager Warren Knowles to research "the ultimate size" needed for a new sewer force main to serve the Winston project and several other planned multi-family developments already announced for the area along SR 46-A on the city's western side.

Knowles said none of the developers have been told the present sewer main would handle their developments.

"We shouldn't allow them to tie into the present six-inch main serving Idlewild Section Three," he said.

Knowles said none of the developers have been told the present sewer main would handle their developments.

"There should have been the standard conditions and reverter as on other property sold by the city in the last three years to developers," McClanahan said.

Longwood Hills Loses Lake Mary Fire Guard

By J. RICHARDS
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY - City council Monday night decided to accept two-thirds of the county's proposed "triple option" fire protection contract, leaving the Longwood Hills area unprotected.

The council accepted contracts to protect Loch Arbor for $10,373 and the remaining unincorporated portions of the old Lake Mary district for $11,130. The county offered $4,560 to protect Longwood Hills, just north of Longwood and below the old fire district line, but the city's volunteer firemen opposed the plan for that area.

Council approved first reading of its utility tax ordinance set at eight per cent, expected to bring in $20,888 according to the proposed budget for 1974. Also passed on first reading was the Florida Power franchise ordinance at six per cent, expected to bring in $12,600.

Council discussed its proposed expense ordinance to give salaries to councilmen, but took no action on the matter and did not say what the proposed salaries were to be.

Lake Mary will become the first city outside the southern area of the county to join CALCO (Council of Local Governments) at the beginning of the year, deciding to join the organization at a $250 fee. Sanford and Oviedo are the only two municipalities not members of the organization.

"On advice from our volunteer firemen," said Councilman Harry Terry, "We decided to reject the county's offer to protect the Longwood Hills area."

Terry went on to say the firemen said a lack of fire department volunteer members, not necessarily equipment, was council's reason for excluding the area below the old fire district line from protection.

DIGGING IN FOR MENTAL HEALTH FACILITY

AMONG officials taking part today in groundbreaking ceremonies for Seminole County's $427,000 mental health facility to be built behind Florida Hospital North in Altamonte Springs were (l to r) Commissioner John Kimbrough, Altamonte Mayor Lawrence Swofford, and Robert Scott, executive vice president and administrator of Florida Hospital. To be staffed by the hospital, the 24-bed facility will also treat outpatients. Architect is Eoghan Kelley and contractor, Hudson Company of Florida. Kimbrough credited the League of Women Voters for sparking the $325,000 bond issue to fund the badly needed facility.

Nixon Re-Elect Corps Defense Cost $280,000

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Nixon's re-election committee has spent $280,000 in the past three months to defend itself and top officials in legal actions arising from the Watergate break-in and other campaign activities.

The committee, in its quarterly report to the General Accounting Office released Monday, listed $48,000 in legal expenses for finance chairman Maurice H. Stans.

Stans, former secretary of Commerce in the first Nixon term, was scheduled to go on trial today in New York along with former attorney general and Nixon campaign chief John N. Mitchell on charges arising from a secret $200,000 campaign contribution from financier Robert Vesco.

A committee spokesman said Stans' legal expenses have been paid in connection with various civil suits and grand jury and Senate testimony but not in the New York case.

Under a policy adopted last April, the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President says it will pay legal expenses of its current and former officials, but only up to the filing of formal criminal charges.

Stans reportedly has spent $100,000 of his own pocket in the New York trial.

According to the quarterly report, Stans remains on the committee payroll at $1,500 per month.

The next largest payment for legal expenses was $28,750 to the law firm representing Jeb Stuart Magruder, former deputy campaign chief who pleaded guilty to charges of conspiracy to obstruct justice in connection with the Watergate break-in.

Another $24,495 in legal fees were paid for former campaign treasurer Hugh W. Sloan.

Nixon's Lawyers To Appeal Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Nixon's lawyers were expected to argue before a nine-judge appeals court today that the president is not subject to court orders.

The lawyers hoped to convince the U.S. Circuit Court that Nixon cannot be compelled to turn over the White House tape recordings on Watergate sought by special prosecutor Archibald Cox.

The appeal stemmed from the Aug. 29 order by Chief U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica that he be allowed to hear the tapes to determine what, if anything, should be turned over to the grand jury.

The appeals court Monday rejected a request from the Senate Watergate committee to force time to present its own arguments as a friend of the court.

That left today's hearing a three-way argument over Sirica's attempt to nullify Sirica's decision, Cox's attempt to expand it, and support of Sirica's position by two law professors selected by the judge.

House intelligence subcommittee last July in its probe of alleged Central Intelligence Agency connections with Watergate.

He already is serving an eight-month contempt-of-court sentence for refusing to tell what he knew to the Watergate grand jury. After that term, he faces an 80-month to 20-year prison term for his conviction in the Watergate break-in.

The congressional contempt charge carries a maximum of one year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

In the written arguments filed Monday, Nixon's lawyers argued that it was not the force of law that prompted Sirica's ruling, but pressure exerted by the "sordid and unhappy episode of Watergate."

To bow to these "hydraulic" but temporary pressures would irreparably harm the office of the presidency and put the nation on a road "toward government by judiciary," they argued.

For his part, Cox urged the appeals court to remove any requirement for inspection in private by Sirica and order the Watergate conversations presented directly to the grand jury.

National News Briefs

Bank Deposits Increased

WASHINGTON (AP)— Savings and loan associations have complained that action by the Federal Reserve Board has cost them thousands of customers and dried up their funds available for housing mortgages. After the board's book ceilings of interest rates in July, the large banks have increased their net deposits in consumer accounts by $10 billion while savings and loan institutions lost $13 billion that month.

Steel Hike Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)— A two-stage increase in the price of steel has been approved by the Cost of Living Council. The total hike will amount to $9 a ton on flat rolled steel. The increase is expected to reach the consumer, and a steel official said it would raise the cost of a car by about $11.88, of a refrigerator by 56 cents and of a toaster by a penny.

Costs Cannot Be Compared

WASHINGTON (AP)— Rep. Andrew J. Hinshaw, R-Calif., says the cost of protecting President Nixon's homes cannot be compared with that in previous administrations because there is a lack of total documentation for money spent on security for the homes of Lyndon B. Johnson, John F. Kennedy and other presidents.

Willing to Meet Halfway

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congressional leaders have indicated that they will consider some of the proposals made in President Nixon's new State of the Union message. However, there were indications that the legislators will not act on all the proposals. House Speaker Carl Albert, D-Okla., said, "We are willing to meet the President halfway."

Strike Strategy Outlined

DETROIT (AP)— Strategy for a possible strike Friday night against Chrysler Corp. is being outlined today for plant-level leaders of the United Auto Workers, although there were some signs of progress in contract negotiations.

Crewmembers to 46th Day

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)— The high-spirited Skylab crewmen, who used the tape recorder voice of astronaut Owen K. Garriott's wife to pretend a woman was aboard Tuesday, continue scientific experiments today, the 46th in their 59-day mission.

Prices Will Stay Same

NEW YORK (AP)— The first day after the lifting of the ceiling on beef prices saw most wholesalers and retail stores taking a wait-and-see attitude, with prospects that the family meat bill will stay the same, for the time being at least.

Wiretap Info Stalls Kissinger

WASHINGTON (AP)— Senators considering Henry A. Kissinger's nomination to be secretary of state have dusted off a 20-year-old precedent in an effort to get access to FBI administration wiretaps.

Sen. J.W. Fulbright, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, named two members Monday to a subcommittee to try to get access to FBI summaries of the national security wiretaps on 17 persons.

In a similar case 20 years ago, a two-member subcommittee obtained access to government files.

However, they indicated the effort will not stop to obtain the information on who authorized the 1969-1970 wiretaps on 13 government officials and four newsmen and why.

Reflecting that determination, the committee voted 14 to 10 Monday afternoon to establish the subcommittee. Fulbright said the subcommittee would seek an appointment with Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson, who earlier in the day had refused for at least the second time to give the committee the summaries.

Justice Department sources said that, while Richardson was firm in his position not to allow disclosure of these summaries, he hoped for a compromise.

The similar dispute in 1953 involved the nomination of Charles Bohlen as ambassador to the Soviet Union.

The late Sen. Joseph McCarthy charged Bohlen with being a poor security risk. The committee then sought government files on the career diplomat.

The committee, after being refused access to the security files, established a subcommittee to read the material. One of the members of the

Legal Descriptions Contain Mistakes

By DONNA ESTES, Herald Staff Writer

CASSELBERRY—The city council Monday night agreed to authorize City Engineer B. C. Conklin to work with the Meadows Development Co. surveyor to clear up legal descriptions of the Land O'Lakes Country Club property and golf course.

The Meadows Co. is planning to build 60 condominiums and 200 apartment units on the large tract of property.

City Atty. Kenneth McIntosh told the board cartographer Barbara Dampier has been working on charting out the land descriptions, but has only got a good start on the job.

He said Ms. Dampier, found many mistakes in the legal descriptions indicating portions of the property do not close (have beginnings but no ends) while others overlap.

Ms. Dampier over the years has found many city parcels with incorrect legal descriptions.

Bissonette Gets 15 More Years

By MARK WEINTEZ, Herald Staff Writer

A 15-year-old New Jersey youth, serving a life sentence for the May 12 murder of an Orlando chef, pleaded guilty to an escape charge Monday and got an additional 15-year sentence.

"I escaped from the Seminole County Jail," Roy Vin Williams told Judge Volie Williams.

Williams sentenced Bissonette to a 15-year term for the escape and said that term would run concurrently with the life sentence he is now serving.

After a week-long trial in Titusville in August Bissonette was found guilty of first degree murder in the shooting of Charles Newell. Newell's body was found in May punctured by 10 bullets near the 14 Lake Mary exit.

At the trial Bissonette said he shot Newell in self-defense after the 31-year-old chef made repeated sexual advances.

Bissonette's attorney, Gerald Rutberg, assistant Seminole county public defender, said he has filed a motion for a new murder trial for his client.

Rutberg said he took the action to "find out whether there was a reversible error made at the trial."

"If we believe in the penal system as a system of rehabilitation then sentencing a young man to life imprisonment is contradictory to that belief and it is in fact cruel and unusual punishment. It precludes the possibility of rehabilitation," he said.

Under a new state law a prisoner given a life sentence is not to be considered for parole until he has served 25 years.

Rutberg said his motion for a new trial is also based on the premise that Judge Richard Muldrew did not give the jury instructions on ex-cusable homicide and refused to allow evidence to come before the jury which would have shown Newell was a aggressively bisexual person.

"It is a routine procedure to appeal a decision," Rutberg said. "I want to stress that I believe Judge Muldrew is a fair judge and that my motion for a new trial should not be construed otherwise." Rutberg said.

A decision on a new trial for Bissonette should be made within 10 days Rutberg said.

"If the motion for a new trial is not granted I will appeal the verdict," Rutberg said.

Says Drummond Ordinances 'Too Much'

By CHRIS NELSON, Herald Staff Writer

A work session on the proposed county law clearing law turned into a philosophical debate in Seminole County Commission Chambers today, with Commissioner Greg Drummond declaring "we are being ordained to death around here."

Drummond, charging "We are getting too many ordinances where, with a little bit of effort from the commission, we won't need them," said the problem of lot cleaning should be handled by warning letters from individual commissioners.

"Pretty soon we'll need a permit to breathe," Drummond continued, "as Sid Vihlen quipped, 'You must have been to a CROP meeting last night.'"

Vihlen directed administrative assistant Betty Simcoe to poll each commissioner "to see just exactly what we're trying to accomplish here."

Airport Board Sets Shining Example

With the costs of government and services increasing for Seminole's citizens and their needs, one governmental body shines brightly with a cash surplus and a self-supporting entity that requires no tax dollars.

The Sanford Airport Authority has adopted a $93,905 budget for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1. The nearly $100,000 increase over the current budget is made possible by a projected $40,000 industrial revenue increase plus an $80,000 increase in cash surplus from previous years.

With tight administration by Airport Manager J. S. "Red" Cleveland, the airport authority board members, who don't receive salaries for their work, have included expansion of facilities at the 1,635-acre former Naval Air Station.

Included are 32 new "T-Hangers" that will be rented for small airplane storage and a 3,000-square foot addition to a building leased by a millwork firm and expansion of facilities for the Sanford Crime Lab that serves Central Florida law enforcement agencies.

Cleveland expects aviation revenues to drop $3,000 next year to $95,926 but the 67 present industries, businesses and warehousing operations located at the airport are expected to continue pumping more dollars and jobs into the Sanford economy.

Sanford city commissioners, voting themselves a $100 a month raise in salary, have kept property taxes at 8.5 mills for next year by juggling figures in the $2,792 million general government budget and raising sewer service

Other Thoughts

In the flow of the English language—as Americans use it—there is a certain smoothness of words that go together in a familiar order. We have in mind such words as "husband and wife," "cops and robbers," "male and female," "sequences that when reversed do not sound right."

Thus, we note with some distraction while walking through the Yellow Pages of our telephone book what seems to us to be irregular juxtapositions. For example, it one looks for "nuts and bolts," he is referred to "bolts and nuts." And looking for "tool and die-makers" the reference is back to "die-makers."

We do not hold that Ma Bell's publication is the standard for language usage, but it should not nilly-willy turn our phrases turvy-ty. We are unwilling to bear it and grin without having our so-say.—Columbia (S.C.) State

Dilemma Of Political Power

Central Powers Show In Watergate

By JEFFREY ST. JOHN, Copy News Service

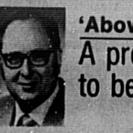

WASHINGTON — "Much that passes as idealism," observed the late Bertrand Russell in 1952, "is disguised hatred or disguised love of power."

Since the FDR New Deal, the thrust of liberal "idealism" has been to concentrate enormous power in the hands of the federal government, denying these many decades that it was an "extreme" danger. The Watergate affair, however, has demonstrated what happens when political and economic power are centralized in the White House.

While much of the liberal community here in the nation's capital has seized on Watergate as a weapon to use against President Nixon, the scandal has profoundly shaken and confused many of the nation's most prominent liberals. We have two illustrations to offer as evidence.

Liberals are now well aware of the contention by conservatives that the federal government has become too powerful, as richly vindicated by scandals like Watergate. Liberals are at a loss to know what to do about a massive bureaucratized government and a strong executive which they supported for decades. One suggestion in the wake of the Watergate affair is to clean up political campaign contribution practices.

John Gardner, former Health, Education and Welfare secretary in the Johnson administration and now chairman of the liberal activist group Common Cause, advocates such a cure to prevent future

Webster defines a politician as being, among other things, "a schemer; an intriguer."

Although this definition is marked as "obsolete," it is a fact certainty that if a poll were taken among Americans today, a heavy majority would opt for this meaning of Webster — "one versed or experienced in the science of government" — a statesman.

Watergate, of course, is chiefly responsible for the fact that the word politician has taken on such unwelcome connotations. Also, behind much of the reaction against the Senate's inquiry into the scandal is the belief that it has degenerated into a political smear campaign against the President, who should be "above politics."

President Nixon is reading this popular mood accurately when he says that it is time to leave the matter to the courts and let him get on with the "urgent business of the nation."

Yet in the opinion of one student of the presidency, what has gone wrong with the White House is that too many presidents have tried to hold themselves above politics — or at least give that impression — rather than engage in it deeply enough.

The process of political bargaining is the only way to keep the White House in touch with reality, argues Thomas Cronin, a fellow at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, in an interview with the editors of The Washington Monthly.

In His Trucks

Ex-Multimillionaire Wheels To Top

By HAL BOYLE, TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Jim Walker at 50 is a multimillionaire who makes success look worthwhile.

"Life is a joy to me," he remarked. "I quit working just for money a long time ago. I get a kick out of putting things together and making them work well."

The biggest thing he has put together is the Jim Walker Corp., a sprawling network of several companies and 125 plants which he expects will do a business of $1.1 billion in the building field this year. The firm is now America's top producer of building materials and ranks fourth in the nation as a builder of homes.

Jim, a young truckdriver with only a high grade education, started the firm in 1946 with $400 he had saved and $400 he borrowed from his father.

Watergates. In a recent appearance on NBC-TV "Meet the Press" he was, with this columnist as a guest panelist representing Copy News Service, Gardner acknowledged that "unbridled presidential power" not to be Watergate and that the political system was in grave danger. He denied, however, in answer to a question put to him by this columnist, that Common Cause seemed more intent on curbing the political power of business while leaving labor untouched.

Caught Snooping. But it wasn't until the FBI was caught snooping into the private life of a Democratic congressional candidate six months later that Gray had been collecting information on both congressmen and candidates since 1950.

Several congressmen, eager to find out what the FBI has been compiling about them, have asked to see their FBI files. But the bureau has contended that the law prohibits the destruction or dissemination of existing files.

Now the mighty House Speaker has joined in the inquiry. As yet, Kelley hasn't responded to Albert's request. But he has been turning down other congressional requests.

For example, Rep. Edward Koch, D-N.Y., a leader in the effort to close the books on the FBI's political files, got nowhere with Kelley.

"Equally entitled" "I am confident," responded the FBI chief in a private letter, "that you have file references in your office on me and my predecessors (to locate correspondence). I see nothing sinister in your maintenance of file references on me and I trust you would agree this bureau is equally entitled to maintain such file references concerning you."

From our own access to the FBI's secret files, however, we can report that the FBI references, in addition to newspaper clippings and biographical data, also contain eavesdrop information, surveillance reports and gossip from informants.

Speaker Albert's FBI file, for example, contains a report about his relationship with lobbyist Fred Black, based upon conversation picked up by an FBI listening device.

By agreeing that the president becomes more "presidential" when he drifts above the compromise and negotiation of the political process, we acquiesce in a general debase of the value of politics, says Cronin.

"Certainly there are dishonest men in government, but we forget that there is a clean politics, and that it is the only way a democracy can work."

"We must start regarding the president as a politician once more. A president cannot and should not avoid being openly political. A president in a democracy has to act politically if we are to have any semblance of government by the consent of the governed — that is, he must negotiate between groups, compromise differences and find acceptable alternatives."

The last words contain a description of "politician" better than anything in Webster, and constitute a goal we had better start working toward instead of indulging in cynicism or despair.

"I might depend on what day you look at the stock market returns," he said.

When policy is being set, the president ought to consider objections and arguments. But the structure of his own White House staff, says Cronin, virtually guarantees that the more important for him to take part in political negotiation.

But because the president would look bad if he participated in party politics, his aides must go through grotesque contortions to prove that their boss never had a political thought in his life.

Congressional Files Sought

by Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — House Speaker Carl Albert has asked the FBI's new boss, Clarence Kelley, to advise him on the "very serious matter" of FBI congressional files.

For years, we have been reporting on the FBI's habit of keeping files on prominent Americans, including members of Congress. As evidence, we have quoted excerpts from the secret FBI files.

When Kelley's predecessor, Pat Gray, took over the FBI, he blandly assured newsmen: "None of you guys are going to believe this and I don't know how to make you believe it — but there are no dossiers or secret files."

We immediately offered to tell Gray, since he was new around the FBI, where some of the secret files were stashed. He even printed several of the file numbers to help him locate the hidden dossiers.

Caught Snooping. But it wasn't until the FBI was caught snooping into the private life of a Democratic congressional candidate six months later that Gray had been collecting information on both congressmen and candidates since 1950.

Sanford Closes Cue Center

Sanford City Commissioner A. A. McClanahan said today he thinks commissioners' revocation Monday of billiard and coin machine licenses at the Cue Family Recreation Center on East First Street "may result in a lawsuit."

Co-owner Richard Hall's only comment after a public hearing was, "I've already got 15 pool tables stored. I guess now there'll be some more."

A platinum blonde haired woman, who refused to identify herself, told reporters, "We have no plans" and declined further comment as she took Hall by the arm and guided him out of City Hall.

Mayor Lee Moore voted with commissioners Gordon Meyer and Julian Stenstrom to revoke the city licenses. McClanahan and John Morris opposed the motion.

"I'm rather hesitant to suddenly eliminate a man's income on an investment without bending over backwards," McClanahan said. "I want to give Hall opportunity to follow through with his promised clean-up of the establishment."

McClanahan said he's for "stopping the present type operation" but believes courts may find Hall wasn't given due process of law.

In sworn testimony in the public hearing, Downtown merchants operating stores adjacent to the Cue said the establishment had deteriorated steadily during five years of operation to the point citizens found it difficult to walk in front of the Cue due to rowdy youths, parked bicycles and obscene language.

"What's been told is mild as to what goes on inside and outside, the corner of Ro-Jay's dress store, Herman Jacobson said. He told commissioners of loud cursing and said one night he sought help from an instructor at a nearby karate school in breaking up "a potential racial fight" among youths in front of the Cue.

Jacobson said the youths were armed with bricks from a damaged city sidewalk planter when they were dispersed. Merchants told of summoning police numerous times when groups gathered in front of the Cue.

Most of the complaining merchants admitted they'd never talked to Hall about the problems.

Hall testified he had plans to get older managers, do away with snack machines and take a "firm stand against troublemakers and keep them out."

Sports Spotlight

By J Richards
Herald Sports Editor

Just as soon as the archery hunting season opens, count on a 16-year-old to bag a 100 pound deer... with our grace and woodsmanship we could use a 155mm howitzer and still not count on bringing anything home. Seems as if this week is the first of everything: football, college pros high school and hunting season. Anytime now we expect a press release to cross our desk telling us this week's been designated "The First Week of the Year" in sports.

All Back Again

And so it goes. The Louisville Lip eludes fate once again. Muhammad Ali, we mean, and boy did he look like a sinking ship going right up to the fight with Ken Norton. We'd hate to even guess what kind of purse he'll get for the next fight. If he loses, though, does he get another reprieve rematch to save himself again? His saga has more twisted endings than anything O'Henry ever wrote. Despite his failings and his falling down on the mat of late, he is without a doubt the greatest force in boxing to come along since the late greats.

710 For Hank

And then another "first" of its own kind. Hammerin' Hank Aaron slaps number 710 over the fence and rests just shy of tying the Babe. Wonder what kind of salary increase he'll be asking for come next season — especially if he's sitting on 714 at the end of the year?

Friday night's the big 'un for local football fanatics when Seminole and Oviedo tangle in Sanford Memorial Stadium. The SHS Booster's Club is conducting its week-long membership drive right now, and sure could use some extra help promoting the local lads. They can also use a few more concession stand volunteers, too.

Thursday, we'll carry predictions on all of the county's grid contests for the weekend, and if we remember correctly, last year we split on our first outing. Half of the coaches we called on the following Monday laughed at us or yelled at us. This time out, we intend to pick everyone to win and save a lot of embarrassment.

RANDY BROWN BAGS DEER

Brown Bags Deer As Season Opens

The archery hunting season got off to a fine start for 16-year-old Randy Brown Sunday. Hunting in the Lake Ashby area with his brother Gary, the local youth brought down one of the first deer of the season, if not the very first.

All the boys in the Brown family are archery enthusiasts and Randy showed the results of constant practice as he dropped his deer, a 100 pound doe, with an almost perfect shot through the back.

On the fishing front, surf casters will be glad to know the first bluefish run has already started.

Mixed in with the bluefish are plenty of fall whitening which seemed just as happy to hit strips of cut mullet as the blues.

A personal visit to the beach below New Smyrna Sunday showed anglers lined up from the South city limits of the town to the old Coast Guard station where the dirt road has been blocked by the Merritt Island Wildlife Management.

Sunday turned out to be one of the most beautiful days seen on the beach in a long time; the water clear and blue, fingerling mullet running in a deep trough with easy casting range, and fish biting almost before the bait hit bottom.

A very light sprinkle or two failed to dampen the enthusiasm of either the fish or fishermen and at the end of the day, we were surprised to find our tally had run up to 20 blues, 14 whitening and two pompano.

Locally, we witnessed the weighing of an eight and three-fourths pound bass at Osteen Bridge Fish Camp Saturday morning.

Bob Gaffney, fishing a small lake near Osteen with Bill Girard, latched on to this one bait. The pair, who had fished Winter Park, landed two other smaller ones.

Another "BIG ONE" came out of the river near the Osteen Bridge Saturday, this one landed by Richard G. Williams on a lure called the "Red Devil." Williams is a resident of Apopka but fishes this area frequently.

Wilbert Williams, who has been giving the speckled perch a bad time around Osteen Bridge, changed his routine a little over the weekend and came up with a limit string of bluegill bream. Wilbert fished in his usual place around the bridge piling.

Saves Career With Win

Ali Prevails In Split Decision Fight

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — One round saved Muhammad Ali from oblivion and will bring the boxing world what it once thought would be the greatest fight ever—Ali versus Joe Frazier.

That fight, in the advanced planning stages, will gross more than a million dollars but Ali showed it will be fought between a pair of has-beens.

George Foreman knocked out Frazier in two rounds and Ali needed everything he still possessed to win the 12th round at the Forum on Monday night. That won a split decision over Ken Norton.

If he had lost, the era of Ali in boxing would have ended. Norton had beaten him, breaking Muhammad's jaw, last March 31, and the San Diego puncher landed the harder blows in the rematch.

At 31, the former heavyweight champion said, "I looked at movies of this fight and movies of my early fights, you would see I haven't slowed very much. I have made my comeback. I would like to fight Frazier next."

Joe Frazier outpointed Ali in 15 rounds on March 8, 1971, and reigned as the champion, a position Ali never has attained since he was stripped of his crown on draft evasion charges which later were reversed by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Even the highest court couldn't have ruled the Ali of Monday night in the class of the Ali who knocked out Sonny Liston twice. He had trained to 212 pounds and looked trim. He also looked old.

All danced his way to a big early lead, then was slugged into corners by Norton and finally won the 12th round. Referee Dick Young scored the fight 7-5 for Ali and Judge John Thomas saw it 6-5 for the ex-champ. Judge George Laika scored 6-5 for Norton, the same as The Associated Press.

Had Norton won the 12th, he would have won the fight. There was bedlam as the fighters went to their dressing rooms. First there was microphone trouble when they were supposed to hold a joint news conference.

Then there was nearly a battle between newsmen and special patrolmen when Ali went to his dressing room. Those who could reach Ali heard him say:

"I tried to win the 12th round, I've, but he couldn't. I'm satisfied with my comeback. I am scheduled to meet Rudi Lubbers in Jakarta and then I'd like to meet Frazier."

The fight against Holland's heavyweight champion has been on tap since last spring. First Ali suffered a cut eye in beating Joe Bugner of England and then Norton broke his jaw.

The Lubbers fight is scheduled Oct. 20.

Foreman watched the fight, talked with Ali and said his next defense probably would be in November against Jerry Quarry, a trial horse who has been kayoed by Ali in the fourth round Monday but twice has been kayoed by Ali and once by Frazier.

Central Florida Cheers Ali

By LEE GEISER
Herald Correspondent

A crowd of over 2,800 came to the Orlando Municipal Stadium to cheer "The Peoples Champ," and from the very beginning any mention of Ali drew deafening roars of approval.

The picture flashed on the 12x14 foot screen was sharp, but in black and white. Announcer Chick Horn mentioned that some theaters had color reception, but alas, not Orlando.

Most of the seats were filled when Quarry took the ring against Doyle. It was obvious that the powers-to-be were showcasing Jerry for an upcoming match with George Forman the present champ. Quarry knocked Doyle down with a left in the first and a right in the fourth before it was stopped.

During the half hour wait for the main event, the theater audience was treated to four of the best rounds from the first Ali-Norton match last March 31.

An electricity filled the auditorium after Norton arrived in the ring, it was time for Ali's appearance. It was very obvious that defeat had not diminished his popularity.

When Ali finally came into camera range, they really "let it all hang out." Norton did not get nearly that kind of response.

The first three rounds were very tame. The Ali of old was in there, dancing, moving and winning. Norton tried to catch up but he didn't have the necessary foot speed. Ali stood between rounds, danced right before each bell, and the crowd ate it up.

During the fourth Norton began to score with long rights as he stalked his opponent.

The fifth was the start of the action that would take place in each succeeding round.

They traded rounds in the sixth and seventh, the former going to Ali, the latter to Norton. Both men took hard shots to the head and body in each session.

The eighth went to Norton as he pulled Ali around the ring. Muhammad was now sitting down between rounds, and he had stopped dancing. He, and everyone else knew that he was literally fighting for his life.

The ninth was close and the tenth went to Norton. The Orlando crowd was beside itself as Norton battered Ali through most of the eleventh. The fight and his career were slipping away and he seemed too weak to do anything about it.

In the closing seconds of the 11th Ali put on a rally that won the round and most likely the fight.

Norton needed the twelfth, but it was not to be. Ali stomped out of his corner to pound him for the first minute and one half, then coast home with his split decision.

When Referee Dick Young's deciding card of "7-5 Ali" was announced to the hushed gathering, all hell broke loose. It was as if their religion had been returned to them, and maybe in some ways it had.

The crowd left satisfied. They saw their man win in a great fight. They had viewed it in comfort, and the whole thing only cost six bucks. In this time of inflation, they had gotten something very rare—their money's worth.

Aaron Bashes '710' Despite Cramps

By FRED ROTHENBERG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Neither wind, nor rain nor Don Carrthers could stop Hank Aaron from No. 710, but stomach cramps kept the Atlanta slugger from his next appointed round tripper.

Aaron posted his 710th career homer in the third inning off a Carrthers' delivery, leaving him just four short of Babe Ruth's record 714. But in the fourth he ran into something not on the Giants' roster and had to leave the game.

"Hank had severe stomach cramps so they took him to a doctor," Manager Eddie Mathews said after his club knocked off the Giants 4-1 Monday night. "The doctor called about 11 and said he was okay."

Actually, against that opponent Aaron was defenseless and winning. Norton tried to catch up but he didn't have the necessary foot speed. Ali stood between rounds, danced right before each bell, and the crowd ate it up.

During the fourth Norton began to score with long rights as he stalked his opponent.

SSA Swimmers Net $3,000 For Benefit

More than $3,000 in pledges were received at the first Sanford Swim Association Swim-A-thon held Saturday at the Sanford Bath & Tennis Club Pool.

The event was sparked with 18 SSA swimmers swimming 5,000 yards. First to finish the marathon was Junior Olympic First Place winner, Mike Smith who swam the 200 lengths of the pool in 1:03.5.

Second place in the Group 1 swimmers was Chuck Fraser followed by Happy Deas in third place.

Finishing first in Group 11 was Timmy Aiken in 1:34.0 followed by Matt McDonald and Art Woodruff.

Adding to the entertainment was the appearance of several guest swimmers. Leading the field with 30 lengths of the pool was Seminole High School Principal Don Heynolds. Dr. C. F. Brooks Smith lasted for 20 lengths of the Sanford Rotary Club President, Reid Brodie swam 11 lengths.

Sanford Attorney Ken McIntosh made 10 lengths or 250 yards, while Alice Trammell and Dr. Anthony Gigliotti swam 8 & Hank Elwood of WTRR swam 6 as did Bill McLoughlin of Sanford Lions Club.

To please his swimmers, SSA Coach Tom Bonniol swam six lengths of butterfly. This is considered to be the most difficult stroke.

Tom McDonald, Past District Governor Rotary International swam his four lengths earlier in the day because of a previous commitment.

Other SSA swimmers swimming 200 lengths include Anne Smith, Kevin Smith, Theresa Hennis, Mark McIntosh, Fred Trammell, Jason Lingle, Robert Neville, John Smith, Terry Gibson, Paul McNulty, Dina Lee and Cynthia McDonald.

Also participating were Patsy Lingle, 124 lengths; Susan Shiberger, 114; Susan Swinners as well as Sanford Swim Association.

Mrs. Glen A. Lingle was coordinator of the Swim-A-thon that will benefit The Little Red School House, the Swimming Hall of Fame, and the Sanford Travel Fund for Olympic Swimmers as well as Sanford Swim Association.

Mrs. James McKee, president of Sanford Swim Association was co-chairman of the event. Bill Brock of WTRR Radio was announcer.

Casselberry Council Actions

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Resolutions setting $3,386,581 utility and generation operation budgets for the 1973-74 year were adopted by the city council Monday night. The exact date for a public hearing on the budgets, however, was left to City Clerk Mary Hawthorne to schedule.

The general operation budget is $1,521,814 while the utility department budget is $1,864,767.

The resolution on the general operation budget passed 4-1 with Councilman Ed Orr casting a negative vote. She insisted the $250,000 budgeted in cigarette tax receipts is excessive.

She predicted with construction of Altamonte Mall the city will see a decrease in cigarette tax revenues and at least $20,000 should be cut from anticipated returns there.

City Manager Ron Bergman said the figures shown were provided by the state Department of Revenue.

City Credit Problems

Several vendors are refusing to sell their products to the city because of lack of payment, the city clerk reported to the board.

It was made clear the city is not in financial distress. Rather, the requirement that any three members approve bills for payment is not being met and discounts are being lost, she said.

The council approved a resolution seeking $17,031 in federal and state funding to set up an investigation unit in the police department.

Council Chairman John Leighty, Embree and Duerr were named the city's delegation to the Florida League of Cities convention in late October with Leighty to be the voting member.

Revenue Sharing Funds

A budget for spending $37,500 in federal revenue sharing funds was approved and the board decided to abandon the plan to move a donated house to city property.

The budget designates $2,500 toward a rescue vehicle, $10,000 for a weir on one of the city's lakes and $25,000 toward construction of the Red Bug Road firehouse.

Mayor Bill Grier said the senior citizen group in town say the donated house is inadequate and a facility is needed to hold persons at meetings.

In other business, the council:

Delayed calling the Reliable Carbage Service bond since favorable reports were received during the past month on the franchised company's operation.

Referred backhoe bids to the city manager for review and recommendation. The apparent low bidder was C and C Tractor Inc., Deland, at $15,999.

Two More Utilities

A new fiscal agent, Harvey Henann and Co., was appointed by the city council Monday night on the city manager's recommendation.

Henann said he will be working with city officials on a study for acquiring additional private utility companies.

Duerr said the city is considering acquiring two separate utility companies operating within the municipal bounds — General Waterworks and Indian Hills Utilities.

The city's present utility system was acquired in May.

LYMAN HIGH STUDENTS ISSUED ID CARDS

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL Jack Heisler checks student ID cards of Kathy Allard, Terri Baker and Deanna McIvone. All Lyman students are required to carry the card, which is color coded for the different grades and bears student's color photo. School grounds have been completely fenced this year to better control students leaving grounds and outsiders coming in.

Red Sox Dump Orioles To Tighten AL Eastern

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox are happy to be where they are in the American League East race. Actually, with their record they're happy to be anywhere at this stage of the season. "We just have to go on winning," said manager Eddie Kaeko after his team did just that by beating the Baltimore Orioles 4-3 Monday night to make the race a little more interesting. The Red Sox have lost six more games than Baltimore and before last week, weren't given more than an outside chance to catch the powerful front-runners. But the Red Sox took three out of four games in their Boston series last week and Monday night, beat the Orioles for the fourth straight time. "This victory gives us a lift, a little better feeling," said Kaeko, whose team has taken 11 of 17 decisions from Baltimore this season. "But we still have to beat them tomorrow and get help from the other teams."

center and threw out Jim Fuller trying to score. Bolin then retired Tommy Davis on a fly ball for the last out of the game.

A's 13, Royals 8
Vida Blue pitched a four-hitter and Joe Rudi drove in three runs to lead Oakland over Kansas City 13-0 before the largest crowd of the season at the Oakland Coliseum, 47,570. "I'm glad we didn't give the crowd a chance to boo us," said Blue. "I sure hope they come back."

Indians 3, Yankees 2
Ted Ford singled home Cleveland's first run, then tripled and scored the second, leading the Indians to a 3-2 decision over New York. Cleveland's Dick Tidrow pitched out of a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the ninth.

Brewers 6, Tigers 4
Jim Colborn scattered seven hits and Dave May contributed a two-run homer to lead Milwaukee past Detroit 6-5. Colborn won his 19th game for the Brewers.

Bobby Darwin's seventh-inning single drove in the deciding run in Minnesota's 5-4 victory over Texas. The loss was Billy Martin's first since he took over as manager of the Rangers last Saturday. The former Detroit manager had Texas Rangers 5-4 and the California Angels whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-1.

Bob Bolin pulled Luis Tiant out of a seventh-inning jam and then pitched out of a bases-loaded mess in the ninth to preserve Boston's crucial victory. With the bases loaded and nobody out in the last inning, Reggie Smith caught Merv Rettenmund's fly to short left.

National League scores: Pittsburgh 11, Chicago 3; Atlanta 10, San Francisco 4 and San Diego 5, Houston 3.

To Solve Pre-Season Blues

Shula Looks To 'Real' Game

MIAMI (AP) — Coach Don Shula isn't sure what the problem is, but the precision that gave the Miami Dolphins a perfect 17-0 season in 1972 isn't there as the team prepares to open its new campaign. The Dolphins, who open the regular season Sunday against the San Francisco 49ers in the Orange Bowl, dropped their last two preseason games as both Minnesota and Dallas staged second-half comebacks.

"Last year at this time, we were coming off a good win against Minnesota," said Shula, recalling the come-from-behind 19-17 verdict over the Vikings in the final 1972 warmup game.

"This time, we're coming off two disappointing losses, especially disappointing because we blew two leads," he added. "Our whole preseason has been inconsistent."

Shula said he doesn't think complacency is a factor in his squad.

"I've tried to look for things like that on the football field and in the classrooms," he explained. "If I had found them, I would have done something about it."

"The way we lost was alarming," added Shula. "There's no way you can be complacent about that."

Dallas completely dominated the second half in a 26-23 victory over the Dolphins last Thursday.

"I thought we were beat physically," Shula said of the game. "I thought we were a tired football team."

A rash of injuries has contributed to the Dolphins' problems. The most serious problem is at defensive tackle, where Manny Fernandez and Bob Heinz are the only ablebodied Maundy Moore for at least the first game.

Shula is expected to activate end Ron Berger, who has been groomed in recent days at tackle, as backup strength. He can also use his "33 defense," in which linebacker Bob Matheson, jersey No. 52, replaces a lineman.

The Dolphins signed free agents Jim White, a defensive end for New England last season, and rookie linebacker Bruce Bannon on Monday. Both were signed as "futures," meaning they don't count on the 40-man roster limit of the Dolphins at the present time.

Shula has until Thursday to name the seven members of his reserve squad, which may include reserve veteran offensive lineman Al Jenkins, rookie offensive tackle Leon Gray, rookie running back Tom Smith and rookie defensive back Greg Stunk.

All four were waived Monday to get the team down to the 40-man limit. But they must pass through waivers unclaimed by any other team before Shula can reclaim them.

N. Y. Jets Trade Don Maynard To Pass-Minded St. Louis 11

By HOWARD SMITH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Coach Don Coryell has St. Louis putting the football in the air more often than ever before this year, and who better to join the pass-happy Cardinals than pro football's all-time leading receiver, Don Maynard.

The Cards acquired Maynard from the New York Jets Monday for an undisclosed draft choice and were delighted to get him.

"He wants to play football and he's happy to come to St. Louis," said Joe Sullivan, director of operations for the team. "We feel he'll help our offense in many ways."

Maynard, a 36-year-old veteran of 15 pro campaigns, is being counted on to help tutor the Cards' youthful receiver corps which includes speedsters Mel Gray, Bobby Moore and Walker Gillette. And if he should catch an occasional pass here and there, just to show the youngsters how it's done, the Cardinals wouldn't mind a bit.

Maynard has been on the receiving end of 632 passes for 11,816 yards during his career and he's scored 88 touchdowns.

Blackout Legislation In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a good chance that pro football fans in Miami, Chicago, Denver and the nation's capital, among other cities, will be able to watch their local heroes on television Sunday in the opening of the 1973 National Football League season.

The House Commerce Committee takes up legislation today to lift the local television blackouts of two-out-of-home pro football games.

The Dolphins, Bears, Broncos and Redskins are among 12 of the 26 NFL clubs that sold out their stadium during the 1972 season and thus would have been required to televise their home games locally if the law had been in effect last year.

The House communications subcommittee needed less than 15 minutes Monday to approve a measure, sponsored by its chairman, Rep. Torbert H. Macdonald, D-Mass., to prohibit blackouts if the game is a sellout 72 hours in advance.

If the Commerce Committee approves the Macdonald measure, the legislation should reach the House floor either Wednesday or Thursday, in plenty of time for Sunday's games.

The Senate passed similar legislation by a vote of 76-6 last Thursday.

During hearings last week, Pete Rozelle, NFL Commissioner, said the league would act immediately if Congress enacted definitive legislation banning the blackouts.

He said the NFL would not wait until the House and Senate settled their differences on the legislation or for President Nixon to sign the bill into law.

BASKETBALL
BUFFALO — The Buffalo Braves of the National Basketball Association acquired forward Garfield Heard from the Chicago Bulls and the rights to Chicago's No. 1 draft choice, Kevin Kunert, in return for Braves forward John Hummer and a second-round pick in the 1974 draft.

BASEBALL
ATLANTA — The Atlanta Braves acquired left-handed pitcher Dave Chandler from the New York Yankees to complete a trade that sent pitcher Pat Dobson to New York.

To Challenge USC Lead Nebraska Moves To Second Place

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Nebraska Cornhuskers, seeking their third national college football crown in four years, moved up today to challenge defending champion Southern California in The Associated Press' first regular-season poll.

Fourth in the preseason rankings, Nebraska shot up to second place past Ohio State and Texas on the strength of a 40-13 opening-game rout of UCLA. The setback dropped the Bruins from 10th to 16th.

Southern Cal, which opens this Saturday night against Arkansas, received 49 first-place votes and 1,168 points from the 18 sports writers and broadcasters who participated in this week's poll. Nebraska picked up eight first-place ballots and 1,121 points. The spread between the two in the preseason poll was 475 points.

Two first-place votes went to Ohio State, which dropped from second to third with 838 points. Texas went from third to fourth with 819 points.

Michigan held on to fifth place with one first-place vote and 683 points while Alabama, Penn State, Notre Dame and Tennessee retained the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth spots. Penn State got the other No. 1 vote.

Idle Colorado, tied with Oklahoma for 11th in the preseason balloting, moved up to 10th, replacing UCLA.

Oklahoma was 11th, followed by Auburn, Arizona State, Florida and Louisiana State, who each climbed one spot to the 12-14-15 positions. UCLA, now 16th, was followed by the hold-over 17-18-19-20 teams from the first poll—North Carolina State, Houston, North Carolina and Texas Tech.

N.C. State, the only other member of the preseason Top Twenty to see action over the weekend, drubbed East Carolina 57-8.

Baseball Season Filled With Oddity

NEW YORK (AP) — Sex, sabotage, violence and intrigue. The 1973 baseball scene has been an oddball season with more plot than a movie thriller.

Oh, there have been the usual bearhug wars, wholesale trawls, spitball flareups and pillow fights over the long summer.

But this year, the kinky has upstaged the commonplace with such bizarre affairs as:

—Two New York Yankee pitchers made the headlines as wife-swappers.

—Players tried to sabotage their home field to avoid playing an intercontinental League doubleheader.

—A Texas League game was canceled when the field was purposely flooded and part of the pitcher's mound torn up by vandals.

—An ace pitcher threw bats on the field instead of balls.

—A team was accused of using its mascot as a spy to pick off signs.

—During spring training, Fritz Peterson and Mike Yackich of the Yankees raised eyebrows with their wife-swapping revelations.

The pitchers revealed that they had traded families—including wives, children and dogs—in a real-life version of "Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice."

Not only did the situation create a generally bad image for the players, it didn't do much for their careers, either. Kekich was eventually traded and both have had off years.

In Chicago, Cubs' right-hander Ferguson Jenkins threw some high, hard ones—but they weren't pitches. The one-time National League Cy Young Award winner displayed an awful temper one day and threw four bats on the field from the dugout.

Fergie went into his tirade after being knocked out of a game.

"I wanted the bat boy to have a chance to do some work," said Jenkins in a tongue-in-cheek explanation.

Actually, the pitcher later explained, his bat-throwing tantrum was the result of "a lot of things building up since the beginning of the year."

The "things building up" included his poorest season in seven years.

In Milwaukee, the Brewers were accused of using immoral cloak-and-dagger methods against the Texas Rangers.

After losing a doubleheader, Whitey Herzog, then the Texas manager, alleged that the Brewers were stealing pitching signs with the help of an employee nicknamed "Bernie Brewer."

Herzog complained that "Bernie," stationed in a large imitation beer stein and chair in the center field bleachers, was using binoculars to steal the catcher's signs and relay the information to Milwaukee hitters.

Herzog's complaints got ballgame. The mascot's companion, a fellow who shoots up balloons following Brewer home runs, was ejected from the chalet. "Bernie" remained, however.

"I suspected something when they got 17 runs," snapped Herzog. "Hell, this is the same team as last year and they didn't look like that then. That Bob Colacello looked like Joe DiMaggio."

Jason Lingle Paces SSA At Eastbrook Swim Meet

A late Summer Swim Meet at Eastbrook Swim Club had participation by Sanford swimmers who placed in several events.

Jason Lingle, swimming in the ten and under age group took three wins with a third place medal in the fifty free and 50 breast and a fourth in 100 I.M.

A ten and under boys relay team of Neville, Lingle, Rowe and Art Woodruff placed second in the 200 Medley and 200 free.

Robert Neville, in the same age group took a second in the 50 free and third in 100 I.M.

Louis Kelly, 11-12 age group placed fifth in 50 breast and sixth in 50 back.

Others who placed in events were: Chuck Fraser, 15-17, fourth in 200 I.M., Frank Rowe, 10 and under, second in 50 breast; Tim Aiken, 11-12 fourth in 200 I.M.

Hunters Need Boots Shoe Tree Has Snake Boots

The hunting season is about to begin, and to be well prepared for the action the moment it begins, now is the time to stock up on gear, especially the essentials such as a good pair of hunting boots.

The Shoe Tree in Seminole Plaza is well stocked for the hunting season with a variety of heavy-duty slip-on boots, and lace boots, all of the finest quality to withstand miles of tramping over rough terrain.

ALAN COOPER, Store Supervisor at the Shoe Tree, tries on a pair of snake-proof boots. The store offers a wide variety of styles and caters especially to the needs of sportsmen.

Personnel Too Pushy; 'Drown' After Hiring

NEW YORK (AP)—"The surest way for the new man to commit suicide is to do dramatically what he was hired to do—namely, bring in new ideas and a fresh burst of activity."

This is the professional opinion of psychologists and psychiatrists at the Organizational Behavior Institute, which counsels and trains executives on personal relationships and advises corporations on personnel matters.

Because they are launched on a floodtide of praise and feel compelled to maintain the momentum, very effective men drown shortly after being hired, said Dr. Mortimer Feinberg, president.

Miniature Horses Are Useless

NEWBERRY, Fla. (AP)—Alma Bridges says her miniature horses are useless but are still worth up to $4,000 a pound.

"They just stand there," Mrs. Bridges says of the smaller than 34-inch horses, perfectly formed replicas of their larger cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges owned 190 of the 350 miniature horses registered in the United States but said they recently sold 40 of them to a wealthy Japanese businessman.

HYPNOSIS—FACT OR FICTION?
