

Seiyukai Leader Declares For Closer Relationships Between U. S. And Japan

TOKYO, June 27.—With the recent election of General Baron Tanaka as president of the Seiyukai, the second largest party in the Diet, political conditions in Japan are diagnosed by observers as "brightening." General Tanaka, formerly minister of war, succeeded Baron Takahashi as head of the Seiyukai. Immediately after his election Gen. Tanaka brought about the merging of the Kanushiro Club containing about 20 members from the Chuseikai, another minor party, and brought the total membership of the Seiyukai in the Diet up to 101, as against a membership of 162 for the Kenseikai, the government party headed by Premier Kato.

The vernacular newspapers report that Gen. Tanaka also has approached the Seiyuhonto, the third largest party in the Diet, with a view of bringing its members back into the Seiyukai fold. The Seiyuhonto party is composed of members who broke away from the Seiyukai just prior to the accession of the Kato ministry. This latter merger, however, apparently has met with some opposition and it is believed by many that Premier Kato will be able to maintain his present coalition ministry at least until fall and perhaps face the next Diet. The cabinet now has Seiyukai members in it, but it is declared the leaders of this party are dissatisfied with the coalition and wish to place their own premier in power. For the present, though, the situation is very much unsettled.

Baron Tanaka in a recent newspaper interview, declared that "continuous efforts toward the development of closer economic relations between Japan and the United States on one hand, and China on the other, will be the keynote of the diplomatic policy of the Seiyukai." He continued: "I believe that it devolves upon the statesmen of the various countries of the world to fight vigorously and persistently against those injurious campaigns which tend to increase international complications, and lead finally to clashes between nations and races. With this in mind, the Seiyukai will do its utmost to dispel the mistaken views held in regard to the present and future relations between Japan and America. In this effort we hope to obtain the wholehearted sympathy and co-operation of the American statesmen and leaders."

"I am convinced that the efforts recently made by President Coolidge and many other distinguished Americans to correct the dissatisfaction felt in Japan over the passage of the immigration law has already reacted favorably on the country and has impressed our countrymen with confidence in the future relations between Japan and the United States."

Italy has grown tired of inadequate telephone service which it has endured under government ownership, and is now turning over its telephone system to private companies. European nations can afford to study America's system of private enterprise and industry, which has made this nation a world leader in less than 150 years. No Jazz or Ragtime For This Orchestra

Joseph Knecht's Waldorf-Astoria Musicians Stick to Classics

New York City.—Night clubs may come and night clubs may go, but there is one place in New York where the conservative may be certain of having real music with their salaries.

This is at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel where Joseph Knecht has played Victor Healey, Chopin and Gilbert and Sullivan for fifteen years, unobscured passing time.

Ragtime, blues and jazz have gone unshy by Mr. Knecht. He doesn't see why anybody makes a fuss about them. They all die, don't they, as soon as their little day is done? Menntime, here is Schubert always waiting, and Tchaikovsky.

The only concession Mr. Knecht will make to the mode of the moment is the inclusion in his program of pieces like "The Mid-night Waltz," which he says has the magnificent rhythms and real melody of the standard favorites. Music will always be, but we haven't had much of it written lately around New York, Mr. Knecht comments mildly.

A visit to Coral Gables is part of every complete Florida tour—and it makes a delightful outing. Call at our local office and let us tell you how you may see Coral Gables with no transportation cost to you.

One good investment is worth a lifetime of labor

ONE GOOD investment beats a life time of labor. There are thousands in Florida today who realize the full truth of this because they have profited by it.

CONSIDER the Palm Beaches, Miami, and Coral Gables and scores of other cities where one good investment has resulted in happiness and independence of hundreds.

THOUSANDS today look back at opportunities lost and in their moods of regret they fail to see and grasp opportunities equally as good. For instance—Oak Hill.

TOMORROW Morning, July 1, all prices on Oak Hill lots will be advanced $100. This slightly increase in valuation is only a small amount to what property in this location will be worth during the fall.

THE MAN that acts today will be the man that will reap the profits in the fall. There is not one day to lose. Drop in the office and see the easy purchase plan that we have mapped out for all those who desire to own lots in Oak Hill.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Up on the next twelve months' political developments growing out of Senator Robert M. La Follette's death depends national Progressivism's future, perhaps for many years.

Is Progressive-ism a movement of which La Follette was no more than a part—a mighty important part—but only a part?

Or was he the whole thing? If the former's the case, of course, even the death of a strong leader can spell no more than a temporary setback, a little more delay.

If the latter, the cause, too, is dead.

To be sure, there'll be progress, with a small "p," but the group the Wisconsin senator led inevitably will break up—various political careers probably will end with the expiration of current terms.

One thing which suggests weakness, at first thought, may prove to be Progressive-ism's strength—though referred to as a "bloc," it never was a hard-and-fast alignment, like a party, with regular adherents, requiring to be led.

Still, La Follette did sound the call for every rally which the independents made.

Will somebody else be found to do this in his place? Or is no particular leader needed?

The next session of Congress will begin to show. Administration spokesmen profess to feel sure already that insurgency is a thing of the past.

In reality, nobody can tell with a definite test.

If Progressive-ism's fate depends on a successor to La Follette who can fill his shoes, nobody's in sight.

Senator Borah has the necessary qualities of strength, courage and magnetism, but he isn't a Progressive—with a big "P"—all the time. A follower may be a part-timer, but a leader must be consistently on the job.

Senator Norris is so regular in his Progressive-ism as to be al-

Herd Of Antelopes Thrives In Canadian Park Of Nemiskam

CALGARY, Alta., June 29.—Antelope which were threatened with extinction in Canada have been successfully preserved in Nemiskam National Park. When the preserve was established in 1915 there were only 45 in the herd, the last survivors of the thousands that once roamed the prairies. There are now 235 animals in the herd, a gain of 190. How well they breed in captivity is shown by the fact that there was an increase of 55 in 1924 alone.

Antelope once were prized trophies and suffered such ravages in numbers that extinction of the species was a sight. A herd finally was discovered in Southern Alberta and the tract of 5,000 acres on which the animals were feeding was surrounded by a fence of woven wire and all the work was done without disturbing the animals.

Fur Traders of North Win In Winter Battle

EDMONTON, Alta., June 30.—Delayed word received here this summer from Jack Harnby, Malcolm and Allan Stewart, and Capt. Critchell Bullock, who journeyed last year into MacKenzie, a district in the Northwest Territories of Canada, to buy furs and explore, said the party was forced to live in a hole dug in the ground during the winter, because high winds prevented the erection of a tent or any other structure.

Fish caught below the ice and caribou hunted far out on the Barrens, a region northwest of Hudson Bay, formed the winter diet of the explorers. Fuel was hauled 80 miles to the dug-out.

When the old Atlantic dries up--- Miami's Prosperity May Cease

When the Gulf Stream and the Trade Winds Fail, Miami May Become Less Popular

BUT THAT IS A LONG WAY OFF

After all, these are the influences that make for Miami's hold upon the people of the Nation, and with the knowledge of their permanence—with the knowledge that no other spot on the continent is so favored—it is a reasonable conclusion to reach that Miami's growth and expansion must continue just as long as those who are learning day by day of Miami decide to enjoy their share of the "Health, Wealth and Happiness" that comes with the privilege of living in this land of palms and sunshine.

And so, Miami Shores—"Miami's duplicate"—as so many express it—gives to you today the privilege of investing and profiting as did those who, in the early days, bought in Miami, when there was not the definite assurance of Miami's future that there is today.

MARRIAGE MISS CAROLYN SPENCER TO PAUL L. REDFEARN IS PRETTY EVENT AT METHODIST CHURCH

An event in which a great deal of social interest centered was the marriage of Miss Carolyn Evans Spencer to Paul L. Redfearn, which took place at the First Methodist Church this morning at 10 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. T. J. Nixon officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated. Palms and ferns were banked about the altar; here were four tall French baskets filled with shasta daisies and joined with filmy yellow tulle. The chancel rail banked with fern and myriads of shasta daisies. The window rails and columns were entwined with asparagus fern. Seats for the family and close friends were marked by a daisy-studded chain of fern.

Preceding the ceremony a musical program was given by Miss Lillie Ruth Spencer with Miss Charlotte Smith at the organ. Miss Spencer beautifully sang, "Until" and "God Touched The Rose." Miss Smith played "To a Wild Rose" softly during the ceremony.

As the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played, the wedding party advanced. The two ushers, Robert Thrasher, of Sanford and Boyd Heath, of Orlando entered first, Miss Le Claire Jones of Sanford and Miss Beatrice Heath, of Orlando, the two brides-maids entered next, with the groomsmen, G. W. Spencer, Jr., brother of the bride and Allan Jones following. Miss Jones was lovely in a gown of yellow flat crepe fashioned on becoming straight lines with pleatings and small buttons. Her hat was of white horse hair with a single white rose. Miss Heath also was lovely in a gown of yellow and white flat crepe, made with pleated skirt. She wore a small close fitting hat, adorned with a white rose. Both carried arm corsages of shasta daisies.

Miss Emma Spencer, sister of the bride, as maid-of-honor entered alone. She wore an attractive

He is the first member representing the club to win the amateur cup in 30 years or since it was won by Leslie B. Melville in 1895.

Six of the twelve birds flew back to Frisco from the point where they were released, 175 miles out, in six hours, setting a new record.

FLORIDA FACTS

The main portion of the capitol building at Tallahassee was struck by lightning in 1894.

More than 14,000 acres of citrus fruit are planted within a radius of five miles of the mall in Avon Park.

Brigadier General Braxton Bragg assumed command of the Confederate forces at Pensacola on March 11, 1861.

Tarpon Springs and Key West are headquarters for the largest sponge fisheries in Florida. Their annual gross output amounts to more than $2,000,000.

The highest point on the new cross state railroad of the Seaboard Air Line is at the intersection of the railroad and Pleasant Street in Avon Park.

The largest single grove of citrus fruit in the world is located near Avon Park, where a co-operative grove organization has more than 4,000 acres planted in oranges and grapefruit.

There are 80,000 acres of citrus fruit planted along Florida's scenic highlands stretching from the Withlacoochee river in upper Polk county to the Big Venus indian mound in Highlands county.

Marque LaFayette was awarded an honorarium by Congress in recognition of his service to this country during the Revolutionary War. This award consisted of $200,000 and a township of land from the public domain. The Florida gave ten thousand troops to the Confederacy Army during the Civil War and furnished large quantities of supplies. In 1864 she supplied two thousand head of cattle weekly. Most of the cattle came from the central and southern sections of the state.

The production of pecans is yearly increasing in this state. The crop is now grown in more than forty seven counties. Jefferson county leads the state in production of the pecan in size, quality and quantity. However Leon county has a million trees just beginning to bear and Baker county has 500,000 of the same age. These two counties, say horticulturalists, will probably surpass Jefferson county within a short time.

Macmillan Proposes to Broadcast His Success In Arctic Over Radio

CHICAGO, June 30.—Radio messages from the Arctic region have been brought to civilization but not yet the human voice. When the Macmillan-Navy expedition's transmitting stations are set up, one within eleven degrees of the North Pole, it is the ambition of Eugene F. McDonald, Jr., chief of radio with the party, to give listeners—in a native Eskimots' program as well as have the voice describe what the expedition is seeing and doing.

It was an undertaking in which there was not too much confidence, because it had never been done and only limited observations could be made last year when radio was first tried in the Arctic. From that experience however, and since low wave length equipment has been highly developed for this expedition, the chance of voice transmitting was considerably increased.

As all transmitting from the expedition will be on low wave, which the standard radio set is incapable of picking up, should the voice come back station WJAZ at Chicago will lift it and rebroadcast on a higher wave length so everyone can hear. Either of the polar broadcasting stations are equipped to send on a wave as low as one metre.

Special arrangements were made for distribution of the news dispatches sent back from the expedition, which first will be received by the National Geographic Society. Features in radio will be handled by the radio staff and announced at the Zenith Company here.

Prehistoric Race Is Said To Have Built Apartment Houses

TUCSON, Ariz., June 30.—The Pueblo Bonita, in northwestern New Mexico, is described by Dr. Neil Morris Judd, curator of Southwestern archeology for the National Museum in Washington, as the largest prehistoric apartment house on the North American continent.

The Bonita had 800 rooms and space enough to house between 1,200 and 1,500 persons.

Excavations of the pueblo may lead to the discovery of a prehistoric race hitherto unknown, Dr. Judd believes. Traces in the form of pottery, relics, skeletons, and hieroglyphic inscriptions are expected to lead to archaeological revelations of the first magnitude.

The Bonita contains evidences of the life and pursuits of the race which scientists believe inhabited it thousands of years ago. It covers an area of a little more than three acres. Four stories of the pueblo are standing, and Dr. Judd thinks there may have been a fifth.

Further research into the cave dwellers of southern New Mexico has established the possibility that the Carlsbad cavern, one of the largest crystal formation caves in the world, once was the meeting place for caverns of the vicinity. Hieroglyphic, not unlike Chinese characters, were found on the smooth surfaces of the bluffs and in the caves.

Atlantic Coast Line Improves Sidings In Shipping Sections

Announcement was made through the Chamber of Commerce today that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company is extending and improving a number of its sidings which affect Sanford's shipping section.

The sidings at Wainter, Stevens, Crippens, Palm Villa and Mecca have been extended from five to eight car lengths while Brissons' siding has been extended 15 car lengths, it was learned.

In addition to lengthening the sidings, the railroad company is hard surfacing the roads running along these team tracks so that the unloading of fertilizer and other products may be greatly facilitated.

74 ACCOUNTANTS QUALIFY

NEW YORK, June 30.—Seventy-four of the candidates who tried the recent examinations for certified public accountant registration, conducted in 25 states, succeeded in passing it, according to the American Institute of Accountants, which prepared the examination. There were 430 candidates of whom 59 were conditioned and 297 failed.

The largest number of successful candidates was in Indiana, with California second and Texas third.

Favorable Action Is Asked of Railroad On Blocked Crossings

The Chamber of Commerce of this city has requested T. L. Dumas, local superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line, to take up with proper officials the blocking of various street crossings from French Avenue northeast to Lake Monroe with long cuts of cars when switching in this section, according to an announcement today.

In the complaint, said Secretary R. W. Pearman, of the trade body this morning, the danger of delay in the event of a fire by blocking fire trucks and apparatus was en-highway was temporarily closed by a dirt slide. The pavement was broken at intervals for ten miles. There was no appreciable damage at any point north of Goleta. The quake was felt, however, as far as San Luis Obispo, 114 miles north of here.

Along the main thoroughfare, State Street, there were many automobiles and trucks which had been parked at the curb and which were almost buried under the debris. It was in one of these that William Matthews, a lather, was killed.

The finest building in town, the San Marcos, a big four story first class structure, built as an L on a corner, had its whole corner center pushed into the debris. Dr. James Angle, dentist, was killed in this crash.

Father Augustin at the Old Santa Barbara Mission told a thrilling story of what he declared to be a miraculous discovery. At the first tremor, he went to the second story room where Father Englebrecht, aged priest, and author of histories of the mission, was confined as an invalid.

Priest Escaped Injury.

Lifting the invalid priest to his back, Father Augustin proceeded to the stairway when with the second shock he fell through a hole to the floor below with the invalid priest on his back. Neither was injured.

Ole Hanson, former mayor of Seattle, gave the following eyewitness account of the earthquake: "It was about 6:44 A. M., the air was sultry. Everything was very quiet. I noticed as I lay on my bed that quite a large wave dashed against the beach. The ground seemed to raise up with a crunch something like a million dogs crunching a bone. I leaped out of bed and the floor seemed to rise up and hit me. I stepped again and it seemed as though I could not reach the floor.

"Like all animals except the horse, in time of trouble, I dashed for the open air and began to hang on the neighboring bungalows to rouse the occupants and get them out in the open park.

"Then I heard an explosion like a great fuse and I saw the walls of the power plant a block away fall, then a bright blue flame, such as they use in the movies at night, lit up the heavens and then flashed out. Right behind me I heard a rending. Two blocks away I saw the walls of the New California Hotel lean over gradually and collapse, leaving the occupants lying safely in bed, some covered and some uncovered. They all escaped.

Foreign Actors Are Warmly Welcomed In Cities Of Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 30.—The best drama now offered Brazilian theater-goers is presented at Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo by visiting companies from Paris, Madrid, Lisbon, Italy, and Mexico. These companies play in their native languages and draw big crowds, if their productions are first-class, as the cosmopolitan Brazilian is an excellent linguist. One of the biggest hits made in Brazil during recent years was accorded in 1924 to an Italian company which staged a series of plays, including King Lear, Othello, and one of Ibsen's plays.

American drama recently was introduced to the people of Brazil the play being "Baby Mine," the farce by Margaret Mayo, which was given by two companies during the same week, a Brazilian stock company and a London company stopping in Rio de Janeiro on their way to Buenos Aires.

Native drama has not developed to a very stimulating level. There is one stock company giving comedies of modern Brazilian life. The Brazilian is an enthusiastic American moving picture fan.

The Pythagoreans were bound together in a brotherhood. They were taught to restrain their passions especially that of anger, and to endure with patience all kinds of suffering.

There is no single capital of South Africa, owing to the fact that, at the time of the Union, Dutch and British jealousy made it imperative to establish two capitals, one at Pretoria, one at Cape Town.

Dance Club New Fad In Many Capital Cities

TED TREVOR AND DIANA HARRIS

When the one you love loves you, — That is when your shades are blue —

New York, London and Paris Divide the "Three Graces"

New York City—America has one of the modern "three graces" this year, Paris has one and London the other. The three graces are named Harris, and the New York grace is Diana, partner of Ted Trevor, famous dancer.

Diana's two sisters are the members of famous dancing teams in the French and English capitals.

Miss Harris and Mr. Trevor have been guest artists at many of New York's night clubs.

"The night club," says Miss Harris, "is a form of theatrical entertainment that has charmed rich pleasure seekers all over the world. Dancers are getting thousands of dollars a week for appearing a few minutes every night. It reminds me of the Spanish bull fights where people trample each other to gaze at the matador.

"The night club audience want dance songs like 'When the One You Love Loves You,' with sentimental words acted by the dancers."
