County Board Votes Pension For The Aged

Payment Contingent On Each County In State Appropriating Required Fund

$12 A Month To Persons Over 70

Money Taken Out Of Race Track Funds, Tax Not Increased

County Commissioners meeting in special session today voted to appropriate funds for paying Seminole County's share of pensions to persons residing in this section who are above the age of 70 years and are on relief rolls.

Members of the board, however, said they wished it made plain that the voting of the appropriation does not guarantee that pension payments will, as made, begin next July, as under federal provisions every county in the state must appropriate funds, and if one county fails to do so, then the whole plan will fail. Twenty counties have appropriated funds. There are 67 counties in Florida.

The old age pension plan contemplates the payment of $12 per month to persons over the age of 70 years and who are on relief rolls. One-half of this amount will be paid by the federal government and one-half by the counties. There are 48 eligible for the pension in Seminole County, which will require a monthly payment by the County of $576.

Today's appropriation was for 1934, sufficient for the months of July, August and September, providing all other counties in Florida appropriate funds and the pensions are thereby put into effect.

The pensions will be dispensed by the State Welfare Board. All the commissioners of the various counties do it to appropriate the funds.

Seminole County's pension appropriation will be taken from the unexpended balance of the race track receipts and therefore there will be no increase in taxes, it was explained by members of the board.

Kiwanians Told By Rev. Fr. Kellaghan Of Life In Europe

"When I first went to Italy in 1925 conditions there were simply terrible and poverty was everywhere," declared the Rev. J. J. Kellaghan, pastor of the All Soul's Catholic Church, in a short talk before the Kiwanis Club today when he was asked by the program committee to discuss conditions in various European countries while he lived there.

"I am sure," the Rev. Kellaghan continued, "that after living in Italy, France, Germany or other nations of Europe one will gladly assert that America is the best country in the world." He further pointed out that although we have poverty in this country "in Europe the poor are poorer and the rich richer."

Dr. B. D. Caswell discussed plans for the inter-city entertainment to take place at Sand Lake Springs on the first Thursday following the election. Members of the Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs with their wives are expected to attend.

Congressional Candidates Differ On Proposed Canal And Townsend Pension Plan

Majority Favor Both The Big Ditch And Aid To Aged People

The Cross-State Canal and the Townsend Pension Plan were put forth as leading issues in the present campaign by most of the six congressional candidates who addressed a large audience in the Court House last night.

Most of the speakers said they favored both the canal and old age pensions, though two were doubtful as to whether the Townsend Plan will bring about the benefits promised for it.

With only two exceptions, every speaker went beyond his time limit and it was 10:30 before the last congressional candidate spoke. Ray Selden of Daytona Beach, chairman of the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee, presided.

J. J. Dickinson of Orlando was the first congressional candidate to speak. He said it is conceded by all that something must be done for the aged, but he was not committed to any plan. He also said he thought something ought to be done about improving the St. Johns River.

Royal C. Dunn of Astatula declared that he is a "strong supporter of the Townsend Plan" because it would put a large amount of money in circulation and place the aged instead of younger persons on the lists of unemployed. He also stated that he favors the cross-state canal, because if between 140 and 200 million dollars of federal money is spent on the big ditch in the next five or six years it will prosper to every county in the state, and that people would come by the tens of thousands every month to see this "wonder of the world," and they would leave millions of dollars in Florida. Since millions are being spent on other projects "we here in Florida should not sit like dumplings and let all the money get away, but we should get our share," Mr. Dunn declared.

O. Raymond Ellars of Orlando followed Mr. Dunn and said that while the government was not originally intended to be a Santa Claus, "many people now feel that the government owes them a living, that it gets money from the trees and that it is the duty of the congressmen to get it from the government. So long as that feeling prevails I see no reason why we should not get our share."

Since half the people of the state want the canal Mr. Ellars said he would use his best efforts to get it built "so long as it is not harmful to other sections of the state," because canal construction would put a lot of money in circulation in Florida. Should investigation show that the canal would be injurious to any section then, the candidate said, he would oppose it.

Mr. Ellars said that pensions for the aged is a step in the right direction and that he "favors the ideal and aims of the Townsend Plan," though he said he has his doubts if handing $200 every month to each aged person would bring back prosperity. "Those who have studied the tax structure declared that government and business can't stand such payments," he said. "I don't know. But I do not think we should attempt new theories, to try new experiments and adopt measures not commensurate without ability to pay. Let's travel along the same sensible path that in 150 years has made us the most prosperous nation in the world, but don't follow dreams."

Identified Youth In Precarious Condition
Identified as James Durranse, son of Mrs. Bell Durranse of 844 Osceola Street, Jacksonville, the young man picked up on the DeLand highway last Thursday midnight, remained in a critical condition today with no hope held for his recovery. His skull was fractured and he suffered internal injuries.

Identification was made by Mrs. Virginia Goodwin of Lake Monroe and the young man's mother was located in Jacksonville by the police department. She was taken to the hospital this morning by Constable W. A. McMillan, who investigated the accident.

New Faces Are To Be Seen In Next Assembly

48 Not Seeking Re-election And Most Of The Others Are Having Opposition

TALLAHASSEE, May 20.—(AP)—The new governor of Florida will find a lot of new faces in the Legislature when he goes before the Senate and House in joint session next April to report the condition of the state.

Forty-eight members of the 1935 House of Representatives are not seeking re-election and most of the other 47 who hope to come back are facing opposition in the election. There will be at least nine new senators, and 11 others seeking re-election face opposition.

The "turn-over" is not unusual. Generally, there are about 55 new men in the House membership of 98, and about 10 new senators. Senators are elected for four-year terms and only half the membership's terms expire this year.

Half a dozen members of the last Legislature are seeking election to the Senate this year, while some other representatives and senators are seeking other offices.

Missing in the 1937 Legislature will be the "clean" of the House in point of service, I. N. Kennedy, of Lake county, who served in six consecutive sessions. His partner for four sessions, George F. Westbrook of Lake county, is seeking election to the Senate, and therefore Lake county will send a new delegation to the House.

The veteran A. O. (Abe) Kanter of Stuart, only representative from Martin county has had since it was created in 1925, also will be missing from the House. He is seeking election to the state Senate, and to somebody else will go the distinction of being Martin county's second representative.

The House's silver-tongued orator, S. P. (Pet) Robinson of Dade, who served in four sessions, also is among those not seeking re-election.

Entirely new delegates will come from three of the five counties which have three representatives each. They are Dade, Hillsborough and Pinellas, whose 1935 delegations are not asking re-election. Duval and Polk counties, which have three representatives each, will send at least one new man each.

Broward county for the first time will have two representatives instead of one, and Santa Rosa county will have one instead of two, by reason of legislative re-apportionment on the basis of population.

The colorful Senator H. Hays Lewis of Jackson county is dead, and there are three candidates for his unexpired term. The veteran Senator John W. Watson (Continued on Page Five)

Negro's Arrest May Solve Many Crimes

In the arrest last night of Joe Jones, negro known as Sunny Boy, Chief R. G. Williams believes the department has solved many recent petty crimes.

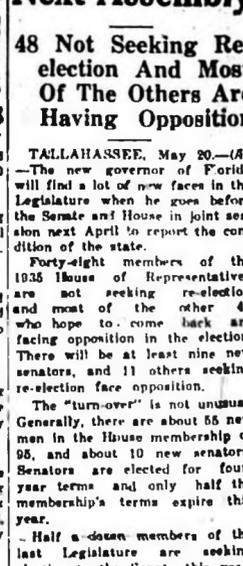

The negro has confessed to many of them, the chief said. These consist of the entering of seven homes, the attempt to enter one, and three attempts at purse snatching, all since early in January. He came to his undoing when he returned to the R. E. Crumshaw house on Seventh Street which he robbed for the second time. A neighbor saw him and telephoned a good description to the police, and Sunny Boy was soon behind the bars.

STORM LEAVES 4-FOOT HAIL DRIFTS IN NEBRASKA

A violent hail, wind and rain storm caused extensive crop and property damage, and injured eight persons at Omaha, Neb. This car, (top), half-submerged in a pile of hail stones and debris, was typical of the storm aftermath, with hail drifts four feet deep in many places. ## Right Of Cities To Borrow Funds Argued In Court

Both Sides Of Question Presented By Corps Of Lawyers

TALLAHASSEE, May 20.—(AP)—Two dozen lawyers appeared before the Supreme Court today to discuss whether Florida cities may borrow money from the Public Works Administration without first getting an approving vote of property owners.

They are presenting both sides of the question. Directly at issue are four cases, but closely linked will be public projects estimated to cost $111,254,967 on which PWA financing is sought.

The major question presented is whether municipalities and other political subdivisions may issue "revenue certificates" pledging collection from operation of utilities without first submitting the proposal to the freeholders in a bond election.

Another question is whether such revenue certificates are "debts" and therefore whether a public property may be made to bear the burden of paying them if revenue from the utilities is insufficient to repay the borrowed money over a period of years.

Cases before the court are State of Florida v. City of Clearwater, B. C. Wilson v. City of Bartow, Walter Hygena v. City of Sebring, and Kathleen Citrus Land Company v. City of Lakeland.

Each case is an appeal from the lower courts which held revenue certificates could be issued without approval by freeholders.

In each instance, the city proposes to construct some type of public service project. It would make charges for the service rendered to users, and these collections would be allocated to repaying the money borrowed from the PWA to construct the projects.

A number of Florida cities and districts which have made PWA loan applications will send attorneys here for the hearing. Others will appear as "friends of the court" on both sides of the questions presented.

Townsendites Have Paid In About One Million Dollars, Townsend Tells Committee

Author Of Plan Says That They Got Out What They Put In

WASHINGTON, May 20.—(AP)—Dr. F. E. Townsend told the House investigating committee today that "in the neighborhood of one million dollars" has been collected by the Townsend old age pensions organization since its inception.

Asked what the contributors received, Townsend said "they got out of our organization exactly what they paid for. We have 8,000 club throughout the country and a live working organization." James H. Sullivan, committee counsel, brought out that Walter Warmbold who headed a Townsend caravan when it left California for Washington was relieved of leadership in Oklahoma. Sullivan asserted that bathing beauties were on the caravan cars when they left California and that Gomer Smith, Oklahoma Townsend director, spent $2700 of Townsend funds for "fire water" for Oklahoma Indians.

Townsend asserted he knew nothing of what happened, except he understood "there were difficulties." Sullivan said Warmbold was charged "with kissing an Indian square in public."

Senator Fletcher said he would oppose Robinson's suggestion that the date for filing engineers' reports be extended. "We don't want any more delay," he said. "Funds will run out about July 1. I want the resolution to stand just as it is."

Senator Robinson told the Senate commerce committee today he would be willing to amend his resolution on the Passanunghi Power and the Florida Ship Canal projects to extend time for reports on the two plans.

Senator Vandenberg, who has opposed both projects on the Senate floor, suggested resolution be split to give separate consideration to each. At the suggestion of Senator Fletcher, supporter of the canal project, that the resolution in its present form be considered on its merits, Vandenberg denied that it gave them proper consideration.

Questioned by Senator White, Republican, Maine, Robinson said if the committee would amend its resolution to provide direct authorization to the President to allocate money to the projects instead of placing the matter in the hands of study boards "it would be personally pleasing to me."

Senator Fletcher said he would oppose Robinson's suggestion that the date for filing engineers' reports be extended. "We don't want any more delay," he said. "Funds will run out about July 1. I want the resolution to stand just as it is."

Senators Draft Substitute For Guffey Coal Act

WASHINGTON, May 20.—(AP)—After hours of secret conferences, a substitute for the invalidated Guffey coal control act was drafted today for immediate introduction in Congress.

Price-fixing constituted the heart of the new measure in the hands of Senator Guffey, Democrat, Pennsylvania, author of the original act. It would seek to regulate the soft coal industry through the commerce clause of the Constitution, eliminating labor provisions on which the Supreme Court based its decision declaring the old law unconstitutional. Whether White House support will be given the bill and whether it will be pressed for passage at this session was not known immediately.

Committee Approves 80 Pct. 'Windfall' Tax

WASHINGTON, May 20.—(AP)—In its first decisive action on the tax bill, the Senate finance committee today approved in modified form an 80 percent "windfall" tax on processors who escaped payment of old AAA processing taxes. Changes were designed largely to make the tax less stringent in application.

Vice Chairman Asks Meeting Of Committee

Donnell Wants Early Primary To Nominate Candidates To Succeed Trammell

(By The Associated Press)
Led by Vice-Chairman E. B. Donnell of the State Democratic Executive Committee, proponents of an early vote for a successor to the late Senator Park Trammell today began a movement to have the committee meet in Jacksonville next Monday to discuss holding the primary on June 23.

Donnell at West Palm Beach said he had polled 67 committee members, and at noon today had received 30 replies showing the ratio so far four to one in favor of holding a primary earlier than the September date suggested by Chairman J. B. Hodges. Hodges today also wired committee members saying he would issue a call for a committee meet on June 30 to consider calling a primary and that he had not called an earlier meeting.

Some observers questioned whether Donnell has authority to call a meeting of the State Committee. Hodges could not be immediately reached for comment.

Hodges has said it would be illegal for the present committee to fix a senatorial primary and that it should be left to the committee which will be elected in the June primary.

Followers of the Townsend movement entered the picture today by suggesting the appointment and election of Nathan J. Roberts, of Jacksonville, district Townsend manager, as senator. Roberts said he had been urged to get in the race, but was undecided as yet.

S. A. B. Wilkinson, Seminole County member of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has received telegrams from both Chairman Donnell and Vice Chairman Hodges, but he said he would not reply to the Hodges wire which was received after the telegram came from the vice chairman.

Music Hath Charms

Bordering on communist Russia is Poland, one of the republics carved out of conquered territory following the World War. Poles looked forward to years of peace and prosperity once they had gained their freedom and were governing themselves in a free and independent nation.

But there are now more than 450,000 registered unemployed in the country, more than 600,000 registered unemployed. And in addition, there are more than 2,500,000 Poles living on farms who are in dire need of assistance.

Serious rioting in various parts of Poland has lately caused much concern. Lwow, Krakow, and Czenstochowa, particularly, have been scenes of bloody disturbances by the unemployed. A more energetic economic policy is being demanded so that this discontented group will be provided for and will not give an attentive ear to every radical soapbox orator who comes along.

The Federation of Army Veterans passed a resolution immediately after the Lwow riots calling for "a speeding up of economic life in the widest sense, which is necessary not only because of the poverty of our country and the duty to overcome it but also because of the necessity of preparing proper defense of our country."

The veterans' federation also has a scheme for breaking up large land holdings for the benefit of the landless peasantry. But there is no cash to carry out the plan. The federation has proposed a new government party along the lines "dictated by the late Marshal Pilsudski" wherein former army men would play leading roles.

In the midst of all this excitement, a demand has gone up for the return of Ignace Paderewski, the world renowned pianist who served the country as its first premier after the World War. Writers on foreign affairs insist that Paderewski is the one man who can weld together all the discordant notes of the unharmonious political situation and save the country from complete chaos.

Someone has said that "music hath charms to soothe the savage beast," and it may be that this genius of the piano can again charm his people into happiness and contentment as he so admirably and remarkably did once before in the first years of the republic.

Accidental Deaths

While politicians are promising to cure the ills of mankind and make everyone happy and prosperous by merely a wave of a magic wand, they might give some thought to the importance of doing something toward relieving the ghastly toll of accidental deaths. If they can pay out billions of dollars to give everyone a job, without costing anybody anything, why not wave the wand again, and prevent automobile accidents?

Every five minutes of every day last year a human life was snuffed out by an accident, according to Dr. C. H. Watson, president of the National Safety Council. For 365 days the hand of death reaped with bloody regularity until it held within its grasp the bodies of 99,000 American citizens. Maimed and torn, they had stumbled into eternity by their own negligence and by the negligence of us, the living.

Here are the bitter fruits of a land at "peace": 99,000 killed. 365,900 permanently injured. 9,100,000 temporarily disabled. $2,350,000,000 cost in wage loss and medical expense. Analyze those figures, reduce them to days, 11 every minutes; 271 killed every day, 11 every hour, 1 every five minutes; 25,000 injured every day, 1,000 every hour, 17 every minute; 1,000 permanently injured every day, 42 every hour.

"Men, women and children were being killed as we drank our orange juice and ate our bacon and eggs in the morning," Dr. Watson writes. "As we sipped our second cup of coffee, some precious life ended its usefulness. No alibi can render less terrible this background of destruction that must color every estimate of the year 1935. I present a picture of ruin that should be framed in the heart of every man, woman and child; a picture of burned, broken, mangled bodies pleading for the living and the unborn."

Death marshaled well its forces of demolition. In the front ranks of the attack appear the speeding phalanxes of the motor vehicle, which killed 36,400 people in accidents. The physical law of gravity, that brooks no interference from people, caused the death of 24,000 more, who died from falls of one kind or another.

The Inquisitors of old Spain cleansed the souls of their victims with smoke and fire, but the burning tortures of the Inquisition pale beside last year's accident record of 8,000 seared and suffocated bodies. The working conditions in our industries have been improved greatly, but the record of 16,500 occupational deaths should make us only more vigilant of the future.

The sanctity of the home was violated many times by the terror of sudden, accidental death. There were 31,500 fatalities as a result of accidents in homes. And so on until the Reaper had recorded to its principal assistants the following credit of 99,000 lives:

- Motor vehicle, 36,400. Other public, 17,500. Home, 31,500. Occupational, 16,500.

One glimmer of brightness in the accident picture for 1935 is the decline in deaths of children under 15 years from 15,400 in 1934 to 14,300 in 1935. This drop in child fatalities places them 23 per cent below the 1922 total, when there were 18,576 child deaths from accidents. During this same period, accidental deaths to adults increased 46 per cent.

FLORIDA HIGHLIGHTS

The interesting BIRD OF PARADISE FLOWER was grown in the green-house in the garden of the "Oldest House," St. Francis St., in St. Augustine. The plant, which is known as the Travelers Palm, is very rare in the United States, but is found growing in widely separated Florida localities.

The above so-called "bean" is really not a bean at all although it looks remarkably like one. It is known as the SNAKE GOURD and belongs to the squash family. A stone or other weight is often attached to the bottom of the fruit to make it grow straight instead of curling up.

The most extraordinary exploit in the history of the Florida State Public Courts Tennis Tournaments was performed by HUDSON HAMM, of Ft. Lauderdale, at Jacksonville on December 31, 1932, and January 1, 1933. During these two days, he won the men's doubles, men's singles, junior singles, and mixed doubles. It is of interest to know that, though only a junior player, he was seeded number one in every division.

$50,000 Demanded By Man Who Says He Was Kidnaped

TALLAHASSEE, May 20.—(AP)—A suit for $50,000 damages, charging kidnaping, assault and false imprisonment, was filed in Federal Court here Monday by Lewis Key against M. N. Drew, Douglas Smith, Ben Smith and Harold Santini of Quincy. Key charged the four men kidnaped and beat him when he appeared in Quincy to deliver a letter to Jean Randall Santini, and that afterwards Drew had him placed in the Quincy jail without any charge being made.

The suit said Key was employed by E. W. Randall, father of Jean Randall Santini, to deliver a letter to her in Quincy "where she was confined secretly in the custody of the defendant, M. N. Drew and his wife, Alene Drew, without being permitted to write letters or receive mail before it was censored."

Key also charged that Drew employed Santini, 23 years old, "to take, carry away and marry one Jean Randall, then 15 years old, without the consent of her father and natural guardian." Santini and Miss Randall were married Dec. 17 last. Shortly after he sought to deliver the letter in Quincy, Key charged in his suit that he was taken from his boarding house by Drew, the Smiths and Santini and held "for a long period of time, during which the defendants did flag, beat, bruise and mistreat the plaintiff maliciously and without cause." Randall, named by Key as his employer, was indicted and tried at Ellijay, Ga., last year on charges that he killed his wife, a relative of Drew. Randall asserted she was killed in an automobile accident. He was acquitted by a jury.

Magyar Sun Cult Is Being Revived After 900 Years

Baptismal Rites of Quire Disfiguring of Baby For Life

By A. D. STEFFERUD OROSHAZA, Hungary, May 20.—(AP)—Half-moon scars on his cheeks always will remind Arpad Jenko that he was the first baby "baptized" into the revived Magyar sect of Hadur, the sun god. Arpad was born to rich young farmers, the Turanian birth records say, on the 15th day of the 10th month of the Winds in the 152nd year since Attila's reign, and was inducted into the ancient cult two weeks later.

The strange ceremony, with its disfigurement of the child, occurred recently at daybreak near this town, the center of the pagan cult that disappeared upon the Christianizing of Hungary 900 years ago, but now is attracting hundreds of adherents.

Police, criticized for not stopping the rites, snatched the newborn child from the baby's face to give the appearance of blood. But spectators insisted the slashes were real.

The 30-year-old father, Andras Jenko, who coasted before the assembly that no member of his family was a Christian, held the baby in his arms.

The "sanna," or pagan priest, lifted his arms to the skies and intoned the hymn of the sacred flames as the sun rose.

Then a flag was unfurled—blood red, white, and green, with golden edges and in the center, the "sanna," legendary bird of the Magyars.

The child's sponsors, called the "sun father" and "sun mother," kindled torches from the altar and white-robed girls chanted a throbbing refrain beginning, "The sacrificial fires are aflame, are aflame."

The "sanna," or physician-priest, Dr. Zoltan Eles, came forward, knife in hand. He bowed low before the infant, then, "in conformity with an ancient Turkish custom" cut a crescent-shaped slit into each of the baby's cheeks.

The child howled. Dr. Eles blessed him on the forehead.

Dr. Batu Ajnoy, the "talton" of Grogod, then displayed a golden mirror the "symbol of conscience," saying, "Stainless you come, without sin; Clean are you in body and soul." He then enjoined the sponsors: "You sun-parents, I make: At your duty to keep this child from the spiritual quagmire of the West. Keep him as stainless as he is now, for the god of the Magyars stands beside you only when you do not forsake him, our Arpad!" Ajnoy, who claims descent from the descendant of Genghis Khan, the golden invader of the 13th century, bowed before the child and the girls' chorus sang a thank-you to the "holy flames."

To Catch A Cold

With the right sort of food and proper exercise, constipation might be rare, but in actual life it is a common ailment. It is a sign of weakness and a source of trouble to escape it.
Mr. Clyde Martin, of no. W. Va., recently very aptly wrote that "constipation is the root of a lot of sickness, but if Black-Draught is taken right it will keep down constipation."
"If I let myself get constipated," he explained, "and my system filled with impure matter, I feel bloated, take cold easily, and feel out of sorts in a lot of ways. I will take about two good doses of Black-Draught. It seems to cleanse my whole system and I feel like doing my work."

Right Of Cities To Borrow Funds Argued In Court

(Continued from page 1) City to join in the case, and Chief Justice J. R. Whitfield said the court hoped to write a decision that would cover the entire field of such public borrowing. Records submitted in the case showed that up to Mar. 2 Florida political units applied for loans of $77,782,991 and grants of $43,870,308, or a total of $121,653,299 from the Public Works Administration. In some instances, the money already has been obtained and expended. The court already has made decisions in cases somewhat similar to the four now pending. It held the City of Miami would borrow $500,000 of revenue certificates to finance improvements to its water system, and it held the Town of River Junction could not execute a mortgage on public property as security for a loan. Several days ago the court in the case of the City of Miami, Fla., against the State of Florida, held that the city had the right to borrow money for public works. The court in that case held that the city's borrowing was for a public purpose and that the state's prohibition against such borrowing was unconstitutional. The court in the present case is expected to reach a similar decision. For sale, of this building.

Immense Crowd Applauds P aty In Tallahassee

TALLAHASSEE, May 20.—A crowd jamming the grandstand in the Tallahassee city park and taking up all available standing room about 11 last night, shouted, laughed and applauded as R. F. Patsy, candidate for governor, smashed against hammer blows at Administration policies, lambasted the Governor and Senator Wm. C. Rorer, Senate president, tutted Charlie Hunter, editor of the Florida State News, and dealt backhanded blows at Amos Lewis, candidate for governor, who was on the same stand with him. Patsy opened his audience with the remark that this is to be a transaction tax, and as such it will not bring out hidden sources of revenue. After the exemptions cited under the McGroarty Act were extracted from the total $1 transactions the amount available for payment of old age pensions would be $75 instead of $200 a month, Mr. Banks said. But in his opinion this is too large since the average income of all persons employed is only $475 per year, and the pensioned aged would be getting $900 a year. He quoted from reports showing that the proposed transaction tax would increase the cost of living by 12 percent, all merchandise would be marked higher, the result would be fewer sales, and in the end there would be more unemployment, in his opinion. Mr. Banks said he had studied the canal proposition and had "found it to be economically sound and will be glad to help it and will continue to do so while its construction is under the superintendency of competent engineers." The last congressional candidate to speak was Judge Jas. G. Sharon of Sanford. With the exception of the first speaker who made no reference to the matter, Judge Sharon was the only candidate to speak against the canal, and he was the only one not to make any reference to the old age pensions. He was also the only one to urge reimbursement of Florida farmers for the tremendous losses inflicted upon them when the federal government destroyed their groves in the campaign to eradicate the Mediterranean fruit fly, and the only speaker to defend the independent merchant. As to the canal, Judge Sharon said that the general interests of Central Florida are paramount, that was why the Fifth Congressional District was organized, and that "when we are building the cross-state canal we should remember that the man who knows Florida best is our own state geologist, and he says that the canal will harm the underground water supply. I believe we should proceed slowly, sink some test wells and watch for water fluctuation. We had better spend five million in finding out than 200 million in finding harm to this great state." Judge Sharon declared that the chain stores send their profits to Wall Street and "remove the peace and contentment of the small merchant," and he therefore favors a law controlling the price large manufacturers shall quote to large distributors. The hour was late so Judge Sharon spoke only a few minutes closing his address without repeating his oft-asserted advocacy of the Townsend Pension Plan minus the present directing heads of the movement.

Congressional Candidates Talk Of Canal, Pension

(Continued from page 2) Mr. Ellars with unqualified endorsement of the Townsend Plan, declaring that he will "sponsor the program knowing and courageously." Enforcement of the criminal laws is costing 15 billions and racketeers are taking care of those two sources to care for the aged," he declared. "Clean up conditions, stop throwing money away, and we can take care of the old people." Mr. Scofield read from his printed platform that he "favors construction of the canal with the definite assurance it will not injure the fresh water supply." James J. Banks also discussed the Townsend Plan which he said had strayed far from its original purpose. He said he is in sympathy with an old age pension movement and cited his legislative record as proof, but in his opinion the sum asked by the Townsendites is too great and the proposed transaction tax to raise the pension fund would increase the price of commodities that the sale would drop and that would be followed by further unemployment. The McGroarty Townsend Plan bill is to levy a transaction, or sales, tax of 2 percent with the idea that it will not money in circulation," said Mr. Banks. "We already have enough taxes, and these taxes, have not brought us prosperity. Bear in mind that this is to be a transaction tax, and as such it will not bring out hidden sources of revenue." After the exemptions cited under the McGroarty Act were extracted from the total $1 transactions the amount available for payment of old age pensions

Dawson Says Farmers Can Now Apply For Benefits Under Act That Replaces AAA

Plant Cover Crop To Rebuild Soil

Celery Growers May Get $60 Per Acre For Land Taken Out

Seminole County farmers can now apply for benefits under the new Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act passed to replace the invalidated AAA. It was announced today by County Agent C. E. Dawson following an all-day conference in Orlando yesterday with government officials empowered to put the new law into effect in the citrus producing and truck growing areas. The law was passed about two months ago and has been in operation for some time on the West coast where staple crops are grown.

According to Mr. Dawson, the new law will affect every grower in Seminole County when all of its provisions are in force.

The county agent explains that the prime purpose of the program is soil conservation, with erosion reduction as a secondary aim. Soil conservation, as applied to Seminole County, is to be accomplished by making "soil building payments" to citrus growers and truck crop growers. Under the act, land taken out of production and allowed to remain idle, but the soil and conservation of the soil shall be built up through the planting of such cover crops as cow peas, velvet beans, cowpeas, leguminous or any of the usual soil-building crops.

As explained to the growers by Mr. Dawson, the second aim (sovereign reduction) is to be accomplished by making "crop diversion payments." This, he said, means that if the grower takes out of production a portion of his acreage he will, in effect, be renting his land to the secretary of agriculture. Not more than 15 per cent of a farmer's acreage may be so rented, with the stipulation that a minimum of 15 per cent of the total acreage will be planted to a recognized cover or soil-building crop.

Mr. Dawson said that the rate of payment for celery and other truck crop acreage has not been announced, but the figure of $60 per acre for celery has been proposed. Just what figure will be placed on celery or other crops is not known, but the payments will be based on a price index and will be in line with the rate of payment for cotton, which figures out at $10 per acre. The celery farmer receives about $15 per acre for land diverted from celery to soil building crops. That such a payment for land used in soil building is not a new thing is shown by the fact that 50 per cent of the farmers have qualified by calling on the county agent's office to register and receive the necessary work sheets.

Seminole County growers are now being notified by County Agent Dawson in each of the agricultural districts.

Pastor's Prayers Are Answered By People Of Oviedo

Churches Unite For Mid-Week Service With Dr. Carpenter

The pastor of the Oviedo Methodist Church, Dr. W. J. Carpenter, found quite a surprise in store for him when he went to his church on Wednesday evening for prayer meeting. It seemed that his prayers for a large prayer meeting had finally been answered, for shortly after his arrival cars began steaming into the church grounds until approximately 200 people had assembled, composed of old friends, neighbors, Baptists, Methodists and visitors. The occasion was in honor of Dr. Carpenter's eightieth birthday, and the Oviedo Baptist Church had called off their weekly prayer meeting to attend the surprise party in a body.

Geo. W. Morgan, chairman of the Methodist Church board of stewards of Oviedo, was toastmaster, and welcomed the friends and visitors who gathered on the church lawn, where seats were arranged to accommodate the gathering.

Dr. James S. Day, pastor of the Baptist Church of Oviedo, opened the ceremonies with an invocation, after which the audience sang the familiar hymn, "Blest be the Tie that Binds." Short talks were made by former Mayor James L. Giles of Orlando, who told of his friendship for Dr. Carpenter during the past 49 years. Following the remarks of Mr. Giles the Rev. Mr. Day called upon two young women to escort Dr. Carpenter to the front, and made presentation of a loving cup from the members of the Baptist Church of Oviedo. A bill fold was presented by Geo. W. Morgan, and when it was opened by Dr. Carpenter he found a generous gift in bills inside from friends in Oviedo, Sanford and elsewhere.

Mrs. W. E. Thornton and Mrs. Walter Morgan of Sanford also tendered gifts from friends in Sanford.

After the ceremonies were over delicious refreshments were served.

Many Absentee Ballots Asked For By Voters

Dozen Electors Who Will Be Away On June 2 Have Voted In Judge's Office

Ballots have been sent to more than 50 residents of Seminole County who are temporarily residing elsewhere, and a dozen electors now in the City but who will not be here on June 2, date for the first primary, have already marked their ballots and sealed them in the office of the County Judge. It is expected that many more ballots will be sent electors who are temporarily absent, and that as the primary date nears, more persons, as they find they will be out of the County, will avail themselves of the opportunity to vote before the date of the primary.

Ballots now being marked will be deposited in their sealed envelopes in ballot boxes on election day and the seals broken and the vote counted by the election judges.

Absentee ballots are being sent to electors who are out of the state, but Seminole County voters who will be elsewhere in Florida on election day will vote in the county where they are located at the time. Upon exhibiting certification of their registration on the books of Seminole County and poll tax receipts for the last two years (unless they are students or other voters who have just become of age and therefore are not required to pay poll tax) they will be given a ballot of the county in which they are voting.

The ballot as far as state offices is concerned is the same in all counties, but it will be necessary for the voters to write on the margin the name of the Seminole County man for whom he wishes to vote for a Seminole County office.

Governor Hoffman Elected Deleg at e To G. O. P. Meeting

NEWARK, N. J., May 21.—(AP)—Gov. Harold G. Hoffman, whose right to represent the Republican party at the national convention was challenged because of his intervention in the hectic last days of the Hauptmann-Lindbergh case, finished last among the party's four elected delegates at-large slate as Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas won a sweeping victory in the presidential preference contest.

More than 170,000 persons voted for Hoffman's foe, Franklin W. Fort, who sought election solely on the issue that it would be "rebuke" to the governor "dragging Jersey justice in the mire" in the Hauptmann case. Although he led Fort by approximately 46,000 votes, the governor trailed the state's high man, former Ambassador Walter E. Edge, by more than 67,000 votes and National Committee woman Edna B. Conklin by 700 votes.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Jacques Grossman Gutzman, 45, an attaché of the foreign department of the Russian government, was refused entry to the United States at the Angel Island port of entry yesterday.

Edward W. Cahill, commissioner of immigration, said Gutzman refused to answer when asked whether he would destroy it. Over the protest of M. G. Gallovich, Soviet consul in San Francisco, the immigration board then voted to banish the Russian at Angel Island.

Gallovich said he would appeal to Washington. He said Gutzman was unable to understand the question. Gutzman came to the United States to study dairy farming.

Prediction Is Of Acquittal In Tampa Case

Charge To Jury Will Be It Must Acquit If Abduction Was Only For Flogging

BARTOW, May 21.—(AP)—Start of the final arguments in the lengthy Tampa flogging trial disclosed that Judge Robert T. Dewell proposes to charge the jury it must acquit the five former policemen remaining as defendants if it believes the purpose of Eugene F. Poulnot's abduction was flogging rather than confinement.

Poulnot, Sam Rogers and Joseph Shoemaker, who died of his injuries, were beaten, tarred and feathered last Nov. 13 after being seized outside the Tampa police station. Since assault is only a misdemeanor in this state, the prosecution placed charges of conspiracy, false imprisonment and kidnaping against the seven former policemen indicted in the case. Judge Dewell last week asked the jury to return a verdict of acquittal to strike all charges except that of kidnaping and to direct the acquittal of two defendants.

Information on the kidnaping count charges Poulnot was abducted "with intent to cause him to be secretly confined and imprisoned against his will." Judge Dewell furnished opposing counsel with copies of the charge he will deliver at the conclusion of the arguments, probably late tomorrow.

E. A. Boasage of the defense, who opened the arguments, told the jury that the judge would charge this intent must be specifically proved. He started to read a portion of the charge to the jury, but the judge stopped him. Boasage's argument chiefly attacked the credibility of state witnesses. The state produced a number of Tampa policemen who testified they gave false information at the Tampa police department hearing on the case.

Wallace Shafer, assistant Polk county solicitor, opened arguments for the state.

Comptroller Says $410,000,000 For Governor Traded Electrification Is Unsecured Notes Made Available

Sanford Bonds Were Bought With Paper Heavily Encumbered

TALLAHASSEE, May 21.—Two circuit judges elected in Dade county passed approval on the reorganization sale of the Dade County Security Company, State Comptroller J. M. Lee told an enthusiastic crowd in the city park Wednesday night, pointing out that the Court record bears witness that Judge Trammell swore he signed the order shortly after dinner, a week or 10 days after the matter had been laid before him.

Without referring to the governor by name, the comptroller pointed out that the $59,000 of his notes traded by the liquidator of the Volusia County Bank for $65,000 of Sanford bonds were unsecured notes, with $60,000 in unpaid judgments ahead of them. He also stated that the liquidator still holds $50,000 of the bonds, and the other $5,000 were sold at "the full cash value."

Listing four bank buildings, in Chilpay, Daytona, New Smyrna and Orlando, sold to banking institutions in each town, and eight spittoons sold to Ed Ball at $5 each, the comptroller said he knew of no other transactions between his liquidators and duPont interests.

Lee told his hearers he had permitted the staff correspondent of the Miami Tribune to make a complete investigation of bank liquidations in Dade, Volusia, Hillsborough and other counties, and that after a 40 weeks' probe the correspondent had written in his paper advising "Face it was possible he had been led astray in the preparation of some of his campaign depth bombs."

Charge Denied That Townsend Misused Mail

'Townsendgrams' Sent To Clubs To Raise Congressional Fund Of $11,490

Expects Election Of Townsendites

Author Of Plan Says His Movement Will "Sweep The West"

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—An assertion, instantly denied, that the Townsend old age pension organization used the mails to defraud was made today before the House investigating committee. James R. Sullivan, committee counsel, declared that $11,490 was raised for a "congressional fund" by appeal to Townsend Clubs sent through the mails in the form of "Townsendgrams."

Dr. F. E. Townsend, founder of movement, was on the stand for the third day and denied knowledge of the appeal "until after it was out." He added he did not believe the mails "were used to defraud." Sullivan said that prior to the "Townsendgram" appeal, the organization raised $25,000 to defray expenses of seven men brought to Washington in January, 1935, to draft the McGraw-Hill embodying a form on the Townsend plan, and work for its passage. Dr. Townsend disclaimed knowledge of Sullivan's assertion that only $1,804 of the $25,000 was used before the "Townsendgram" appeal was made for additional funds.

Dr. Townsend predicted to reporters the next Congress would have at least 200 House members pledged to his plan.

The doctor contended his organization would gain about 150 House members in addition to the 50 or 60 House Townsendites now claimed.

"We will sweep the country West of the Mississippi," he said, adding he had several conferences with Father Coughlin, Detroit radio priest, and leader of the National Union for Social Justice, and with Gerald K. Smith, an organizer for the share-the-wealth movement launched by the late Senator Huey P. Long.

The pension leader said, however, a third party alliance of the three organizations was not contemplated at this time.

Governor Lehman Of New York Will Not Seek A Second Term

ALBANY, N. Y., May 21.—(AP)—Herbert H. Lehman, successor to President Roosevelt as New York's governor and staunch supporter of New Deal policies, announced yesterday that he will not seek re-election for a third term.

Immediately, there were indications of a powerful "draft movement" on the part of Democratic leaders who had counted on the governor's candidacy to strengthen the President's campaign in his home state.

President Roosevelt expressed the hope Mr. Lehman would see his way clear to run for re-election, adding that he had known of the governor's intentions for some time.
