Brisk cool breezes and sunshine greeted participants of the 11th annual Golden Age Games, which got off to an enthusiastic start this morning with the lighting of the torch at opening ceremonies at Sanford City Hall following the Fallen Arches Parade up Park Avenue.

With a low temperature in the 40s predicted for Tuesday, the location of the half-mile swim at 10 a.m. Tuesday and the swimming events scheduled for Thursday have been relocated from the Sanford Landing Apartments outside pool to the

Reagan Orders Probe Of Leaked CIA Report

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, angered by news leaks, has taken steps to determine who leaked secret CIA plans to undermine Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy and will take "appropriate action" against those involved.

Breaking with past practice of not commenting on such matters, the White House announced Sunday that Reagan ordered an investigation to track down the source of the classified intelligence information leaked to The Washington Post.

At issue was a report that Reagan authorized a covert plan to thwart Libyan support for terrorism and topple Khadafy by promoting insurrection within the Libyan military or giving one of his U.S.-backed neighbors a justification for military action.

The newspaper reported that the top two members of the Senate Select Intelligence Committee — David Durenberger, R-Minn., and Patrick Leahy, D-Vt. — wrote to Reagan asking how the plan would not conflict with a longstanding prohibition against U.S. involvement in assassination plots.

The administration has reaffirmed that policy on repeated occasions and is said to have told Congress any operation aimed at Khadafy would be consistent with the law.

While refusing to comment on "alleged intelligence activity," White House spokesman Bill Hart described Reagan as "very concerned over the unauthorized disclosure of intelligence and classified information."

"The president is ordering an investigation of the disclosure of the U.S. intelligence documents cited in this news report in an effort to determine who is responsible for such disclosure and to take appropriate action," Hart said.

Reagan ordered a similar Justice Department investigation in 1983 after news accounts of high-level discussions of military and diplomatic strategy in Lebanon.

The Post said Reagan approved the anti-Khadafy plan in a signed presidential "finding." The article also referred to two other secret intelligence documents: a 29-page CIA study titled "Vulnerability Assessment" of Khadafy dated June 18, 1984, and a Special National Intelligence Estimate titled, "Libya's Khadafy: the Challenge to the United States and Western Interests," completed earlier this year.

The CIA study concluded that "no course of action short of stimulating Khadafy's fall will bring any significant and enduring change in Libyan policies" and predicted that the proper circumstances could spur "disaffected elements of the military" to move against Khadafy, the Post said.

The other document said Khadafy "provides money, weapons, a base of operations, travel assistance or training to some 30 insurgent, radical or terrorist groups" in such countries as the Philippines, New Caledonia, Pakistan and Zaire.

New Tribes Ponders 'Trade-Off' For Kidnapped Members

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

While peace commission members make their way deep into the Colombian jungle to meet with the leftist rebels that kidnapped three New Tribes missionaries a month ago, the motivation behind the journey is being pondered at Sandord mission headquarters.

The possibility of a "trade-off" between the rebels and the Colombian government, with the missionaries serving as collateral, was raised today by E. Mel Wyma, New Tribes foreign secretary.

"Our people may be used as a way for the rebels to make demands on the Colombian government," Wyma said. "They may want some of their own released from jail before freeing ours."

Wyma said he has resigned himself to "a long hard wait" because "we're dealing with very unreasonable people."

Wyma also discussed this possibility in relation to New Tribes refusal to pay $130,000 in ransom for Bonnie Cain who, along with her husband Tim, and Steve Estelle, was kidnapped by guerrillas of the Colombian Revolutionary Armed Forces (FARC) on Oct. 5 from the mission's outpost in Morcal Viejo.

"The rebels may want to save face and because we wouldn't pay, they might be looking at another way to get something out of this."

This, Wyma said, may prompt the rebels "to turn their demands toward the government."

On Friday, three peace commission members entered the jungle "and haven't been heard from since," Wyma said, adding that the trail they've taken is a slow and winding one, along the narrow rivers that compose the interior's "highways."

The journey to the hostages resulted from a meeting last Tuesday between representatives of the FARC and other rebel groups, the Colombian government and the New Tribes Mission. Three members of this peace commission were selected to meet with the kidnapers, although Wyma said he does not know which representatives were chosen for the journey.

"All we know is they've gone in and it's anybody's guess where they're right now," he said.

Wyma also said the rebels "may want to justify their act to an audience," before releasing the three missionaries because "there are things they want to say and the commission would be able to get the message back."

"They want one thing and we want another," he said, adding, "Unfortunately, right now they have all the advantages."

Firm Sues School Board Over Land Deal

By Jim Searis
Herald Staff Writer

Kenneth Wright, spokesman for Allison Development Company, said the city of Sanford made his company "jump through hoops" to get an 11 acre parcel rezoned. Wright, who is also a lawyer, said that is the basis for the suit he has filed in District Court in Sanford. He said a clause in the contract signed Feb. 14 was violated when his company was unable to get proper zoning.

Allison Development is suing the Seminole County School Board for return of $20,000 in deposits on the property, $1,847.75 in legal fees and treble damages $60,000, Wright said.

The suit, according to Allison officials, is based on paragraph (d)-section 5 of the addendum portion of the original contract. It states, "The obligations of the buyer under this contract are contingent upon the following: ... (d) That the property be rezoned for the permitted use and that all of the property (including alleys and streets lying between any of the lots) be available for use by the buyer, and that any necessary conditional use for the permitted use shall be obtained."

Ned Julian, school board attorney and partner in the Sanford law firm of Stenstrom, McIntosh, Julian, Colbert & Whigham, said that the issue is not the paragraph dealing with rezoning but something else entirely.

"I know about paragraph (d) and that has nothing to do with the basis of our defense," Julian said in reference to the Allison suit. "It has to do with... I am not going to comment any further on this matter in public, you will have to talk with Bob Hughes (school superintendent) about it."

While Hughes was unavailable for comment Friday, Robert Worman, attorney for Allison Development, expressed high regard for Julian personally but had hard words for the school board's actions.

"I can't guarantee success with this suit," Worman said. "But I will present a plausible case for recovering $60,000."

"Those people on that board are elected officials and they can't do this to private citizens or to a privately owned company and get away with it," he said. "Sooner or later somebody has to stand up and say enough is enough. If this high-handed attitude of theirs is any indication of their usual behavior the public should know about it... they sure thumbed their noses at my clients, they insulted them."

Wright said they wanted to build a 200,000-square foot, combination shopping mall and housing development on the property. To do so Allison had to get the land rezoned from single-family residential to single-family residential and commercial within 90 days.

The Seminole County school board had agreed to sell the "surplus property" across from Sanford Middle School in exchange for $600,000 if the buyer could get it rezoned within 90 days. The original buyer, Donald M. Huber, was unable to obtain rezoning and sold his rights, plus $10,000 to cover his deposit, to Wright's company. The contract also stated the buyer had the option of a 90-day extension of the closing date if the buyer placed an escrow deposit of $10,000 with the school board.

Senators Aim To Curb 'Ultimate Ego Trip'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two members of Congress say it's time some government officials stop taking the "ultimate ego trip" and start walking instead.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and Rep. Lee Hamilton, D-Ind., said Sunday they will introduce the The Chauffeur Limitation Act of 1985 this week.

Proxmire said "the Reagan administration's fiscal watchdog," the Office of Management and Budget, has proposed legislation that could increase the number of officials eligible for chauffeurs by 25 percent.

"There is nothing — but nothing

— a bureaucrat treasures like having his own limousine and chauffeur," he said. "Why? Because the limousine is the ultimate ego trip — the supreme sign of success."

A General Accounting Office investigation shows that 128 officials were using government vehicles for home-to-work transportation. "At least 79 of whom were in violation of the law," Proxmire said.

He said his bill "establishes a firm cap" on the number eligible for drivers, cutting the executive and legislative branch by one third.

NATION IN BRIEF

EPA: 26 Percent Of Vehicles In Anti-Pollution Law Evasion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — About one in every six drivers pumps leaded gasoline into a vehicle requiring unleaded fuel and evidence of tampering with pollution control devices is "significantly high," the government says.

The results of the survey, released Sunday by the Environmental Protection Agency, "show tampering and misfueling persist at a significantly high rate," said Charles Elkins, acting EPA assistant administrator for air and radiation.

In cases in which catalytic converters were removed, the agency added, two-thirds of the vehicles showed lead in the fuel tank.

"Catalytic converters are removed for different reasons ... but most of the motivation is related to misfueling," the agency said.

Using the data to calculate the actual number of vehicles nationwide affected by emission control tampering, the EPA placed the figure at 26 percent of all cars and light trucks that are subject to emission inspection and anti-tampering programs.

Spy Trial Jury To Try Again

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jurors in the spy trial of former FBI agent Richard Miller were told to spend their weekend thinking over the judge's request that they reconsider their announcement that they cannot reach a verdict.

The six men and six women were to return to court today, when U.S. District Judge David Kenyon could order them to go back to the jury room and re-evaluate the evidence in an attempt to break the deadlock.

The jury in the trial of the only FBI agent ever charged with espionage announced Friday it was unable to reach a verdict on whether Miller had betrayed his country to the Soviets for sex, a trench coat and the promise of $65,000 in cash and gold. The announcement came on the 11th day of deliberations following an 11-week trial.

The jury sent a note to the judge saying that "after careful consideration of the testimony and the evidence presented, we are unable to reach a unanimous verdict on any of the (seven) counts."

Carolina Wants Guru Gone

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UPI) — Law officers overwhelmed by tension, threats and phone calls say they eagerly await the return of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh to Oregon to face immigration charges — which could come as early as Tuesday.

"When you see the United States Marshals with automatic weapons outside the jail and how much security it takes to transport him in and out, you understand how much pressure the jail is under," said Meeklenburg Sheriff C.W. Kidd.

Rajneesh, 53, the leader of an Oregon commune, jailed on charges of arranging sham marriages for his followers to avoid immigration laws, has been held in the county jail since last Monday.

U.S. Magistrate Barbara Delaney ordered the self-proclaimed "rich man's guru" held without bond last Friday, saying there was substantial evidence the guru might flee the country.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Shultz Arrives In Moscow; Meets With Gorbachev Tuesday

MOSCOW (UPI) — Secretary of State George Shultz, arriving in Moscow to lay the groundwork for the Geneva superpower summit, said today he hoped his meetings with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev and the Soviet foreign minister would be "candid" and "productive."

Shultz was to meet later today with Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze. On Tuesday, he is to meet with Gorbachev and again with Shevardnadze.

"I look forward particularly to meeting with General Secretary Gorbachev tomorrow and I will welcome this visit and hope that it will be productive," Shultz told reporters at Moscow's Vnukovo airport after arriving on a flight from Helsinki, Finland.

"Foreign Minister Shevardnadze and I in our meetings have had discussions that have been candid and productive and I suspect that our meetings here in Moscow will be that way as well," he said.

The meetings in Moscow are not expected to produce any breakthroughs. But Shultz hoped to advance the summit process by clearing up details, enabling the two leaders to give "political impulse" to the issue of arms control.

Elections End Military Rule

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — Vinicio Cerezo of the center-left Christian Democratic Party took the early lead today against seven other candidates in presidential elections to end 31 years of military rule launched by a CIA-backed coup.

Arturo Herbruger Asturias, president of the Supreme Electoral Tribunal, estimated 70 to 80 percent of Guatemala's 2.75 million registered voters cast ballots Sunday for president, vice president, 100 Assembly members and mayors.

Observers from 14 countries, the United Nations and the Organization of American States were on hand, including a U.S. delegation led by Richard Lugar, R-Ind., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Rep. Charles Roemer, D-La.

Alfonsin's Party Ups Majority

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI) — President Raul Alfonsin's ruling Radical Civic Union Party increased its majority in the Chamber of Deputies today and swept provincial legislatures in Argentina's first presidential midterm vote in 20 years.

The balloting on Sunday was seen as an endorsement of Alfonsin's anti-inflation program and his decision to place nine former military junta members on trial for massive human rights abuses during the 1970s.

Half the chamber's members, a total of 127 seats, were up for vote, along with about 6,000 lesser provincial and municipal offices.

The elections were the first midterm vote in Argentina in 20 years because of a string of coups and constitutional changes.

Face Life In Prison

French Agents Plead Guilty In Greenpeace Sabotage

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (UPI) — Two French secret agents pleaded guilty Monday to reduced charges of manslaughter and sabotage in the fatal sinking of the Greenpeace protest ship Rainbow Warrior in Auckland harbor.

The surprise pleas by Maj. Alain Mafart and Capt. Dominique Prieur, both French intelligence agents, came before the start of a preliminary hearing in the case.

Prosecutors dropped murder charges against the pair, paving the way for the guilty pleas, minutes before the hearing was to begin under the strictest security ever mounted in a New Zealand courtroom.

Prosecutor David Morris told Judge Ronald Gilbert that authorities agreed to accept the pleas because they were unable to prove the two agents planted the mines that sank the protest ship.

The French government has admitted it sent the agents to New Zealand to sabotage the Rainbow Warrior in July.

The two defendants wore headphones in the 19th-century courtroom as they heard the charges against them. Both entered their guilty pleas in English.

Gilbert set sentencing for Nov. 22 in the High Court. The defendants face maximum sentences of life in prison.

The Rainbow Warrior was preparing to lead a protest voyage against French nuclear testing in the South Pacific when it was sunk by two mines attached to its hull while it was anchored in Auckland harbor July 10.

A photographer for the London-based environmental group was trapped aboard the vessel and drowned.

France has admitted responsibility for sinking the vessel. The incident has shaken the French government and caused bitterness between France and New Zealand.

The two French agents were arrested shortly after the sinking. New Zealand authorities believe at least four other French agents were involved in the plot and have escaped to France.

Greenpeace International Director Patrick Moore said the blast aboard the former fishing trawler was an "attempt to assassinate" all seven Greenpeace directors who were in New Zealand at the time. He said the directors made a last-minute decision not to hold their meetings on the vessel.

The French government's admission of responsibility in the incident has led to the resignation of former Defense Minister Charles Hernu and the dismissal of the head of French intelligence, Adm. Pierre LaCoate.

New Zealand Prime Minister David Lange has called the mining "an act just short of war" and is considering suing the French government for millions of dollars in compensation.

Widow Of Malcolm X: Farrakhan 'Opportunist'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan is an "opportunist" who creates "public disarray," says the widow of Malcolm X, the man who recruited Farrakhan into the Black Muslim movement more than two decades ago.

"I regret the day I ever had the unfortunate opportunity to meet him or to know him," Betty Shabazz said of Farrakhan in an interview Sunday on WNBC-TV. "My opinion is that he's an opportunist."

Malcolm X recruited Farrakhan into the Nation of Islam 21 years ago. Ms. Shabazz said, but she insisted "he was not a close associate." In fact, she said, Farrakhan had been among those who called for her husband's death when he left the movement headed by the late Elijah Muhammad.

Ms. Shabazz was in the audience Feb. 21, 1965, when her husband, who took the name Shabazz before his death, was killed while speaking at the Audubon Ballroom in Harlem. Three Black Muslims were convicted and sentenced to life in prison for the slaying.

Ms. Shabazz, now a public relations director at Medgar Evers College in Brooklyn, said she believes Farrakhan's priorities are skewed.

"I would think that he would be more concerned with what's happening in South Africa and what is happening in Mozambique and Angola and in the rest of that part of the world," she said.

Ms. Shabazz also spoke of Farrakhan's impact of the Jesse Jackson presidential campaign when he allegedly threatened a black journalist for reporting Jackson called New York "Hymletown," a term disparaging Jews.

"I think that (Farrakhan) caused some concern, and a lot of people did not vote, because of it," she said.

"We do not need leaders who constantly create disarray in public," she said. "I think that there are enough problems already."

In Los Angeles Saturday night, the spiritual leader of the largest group of black American believers in Islam criticized Farrakhan's view of the faith.

Warith Deen Muhammad, son of the late Elijah Muhammad, said Farrakhan "has made anti-Semitic statements" and has failed to "stick with what is universal, true Islam."

Muhammad had changed the course of the organization created by his father, renaming it the American Muslim Mission. The Mission was dissolved in May and affiliated mosques are considered part of the worldwide Muslim community.

Farrakhan left the Mission and formed The Nation of Islam to retain the viewpoint of racial separatism advocated by the original organization. Its membership, kept secret, is believed to be only several thousand.

Illinois Teachers Vote To Strike

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (UPI) — Teachers in East St. Louis, working without a contract since Aug. 25, went on strike today, claiming school district officials reneged on a tentative agreement reached last week.

Picket lines were expected to be set up early this morning.

Approximately 500 to 600 of the Federation of Teachers Local 1220 members voted Sunday to strike, but final totals were not yet released.

The strike will affect about 18,600 students and 1,300 union members.

The strike came after union leaders claimed school district officials were playing "Mickey Mouse games" by reneging on a tentative contract agreement reached Tuesday.

Union spokesman Sandra Rule said the teachers voted to strike "because the board was unwilling to negotiate in good faith."

District officials denied they had backed away from the agreement.

"We don't think the union membership will tolerate the Mickey Mouse games being played by the board," Rule said before the vote was taken.

"We don't think we can trust their word any longer."

District Superintendent Leroy Duckworth, the district's chief negotiator, said he refused to accept the contract only because the union had included a "fair-share" provision to which the school board had not agreed.

That provision would require the district to deduct union dues from paychecks of teachers and other non-teaching employees, including those who choose not to join the union, as long as the employees get the benefits that are in the union's contract.

The teachers have been working without a contract since Aug. 25. They had planned to take a strike vote last Tuesday, but that was shelved after negotiators reached a tentative oral agreement.

"The body voted out of a sense of frustration," said Rule, adding that union members were "very disappointed" at the turn of events.

Aside from the dispute over the "fair-share" provision, the oral agreement called for a one-year contract with a 6.5 percent across-the-board salary increase.

The agreement also called for better medical benefits.

Whale Talk Brings Humphrey Closer To Home

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Navy patrol boats kept watch today over Humphrey the wrong-way whale, lured into San Francisco Bay and within 3 miles of his Pacific Ocean home by the familiar sounds of other rare humpbacks.

The 40-ton whale, nicknamed Humphrey during his three-week sojourn in the Sacramento River, had confounded scientists and whale-watchers who tried everything from Japanese underwater pipe-banging to marine-style roundups to get him back in the ocean for his migration south.

But Sunday, the experts tried something new — an underwater transmitter that emits high-pitched "whale sounds." It was wildly successful.

Maybe Humphrey just needed someone to talk to.

Trailing a boat carrying the transmitter, Humphrey traveled an unprecedented 53 miles down river to the salty waters of the San Francisco Bay and to within sight of the open ocean.

But the humpback whale, which took a wrong turn at San Francisco Bay Oct. 11, suddenly stopped and turned around again Sunday night and officials decided to wait until daybreak to plot their next move.

To guard against the possibility he might start upriver once again, the Navy put 10 patrol boats in San Francisco Bay to watch Humphrey overnight.

The whale progressed as far as Raccoon Strait near Angel Island in the middle of the bay before he backtracked, officials said.

"He moved away from the Golden Gate Bridge and swam back 2 or 3 miles toward Point Richmond," said rescue spokesman Hal Alabaster. "He was sighted there by a tanker about 6 miles from the Golden Gate."

The whale-watching scientists planned to meet later today.

"He's now in a salt water environment where his health is no longer in jeopardy," said Jay Ziegler, a spokesman for the rescue effort. "The meeting will decide whether or not to just make sure he doesn't swim back" to the fresh-water river.

"He just may choose to swim to the ocean during the night and we would be all absolutely overjoyed," he said.

Humphrey's refusal to go the final 3 miles to the ocean followed a day of unprecedented success in getting him to follow the enticing sounds of his own kind.

"It worked, and it's worked all day," Alabaster said, crediting the idea to Dr. Louis Herman, director of the University of Hawaii Marine Mammal Laboratory.

Man Charged In Murder Of Estranged Wife

A 49-year-old Seminole County man was being held today without bond charged with murder in connection with the shooting of his estranged wife during a domestic dispute at Charlie's Lounge on Howell Branch Road at Lake Howell Road, near Winter Park.

Kathleen Yates Foley, 44, of Orlando was shot once in the head at about 3 p.m. Saturday. She was pronounced dead at Winter Park Memorial Hospital at about 4:22 p.m. Charles Vernon Foley, 49, of Lake Howell Road, Winter Park, was charged at the bar with murder at 4:24 p.m., a sheriff's report said.

According to sheriff's reports the couple met at the bar at about 10 a.m. and argued about their marriage. The suspect went home, next door to the bar, and slept for awhile. After he awoke he armed himself and returned to the bar where he allegedly pulled a .38-caliber handgun from his boot and shot Ms. Foley once in the left side of the head.

Investigators he remembered hearing the shot but did not remember firing the gun.

LIGHTS OUT, CAR STOLEN
Sanford police who tried to stop the driver of a car with its lights out on 18th Street caught the man who ignored signals to stop, jumped out of the still running car and ran to nearby woods where he was nabbed. Police determine the car had been stolen in Orlando Sept. 23, a police report said.

The running car continued to roll for about 20 feet when the man hopped out of it at 2323 W. 18th Street. Police and Seminole County sheriff's deputies pursued the driver on foot into nearby woods where he was caught at about 4:48 a.m. Saturday, the report said.

Frank F. Hillsman, 20, of 27 Castle Brewer Court, Sanford has been charged with grand theft auto, resisting arrest without violence and fleeing to elude. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Highland St., Altamonte Springs, told sheriff's deputies a man she had danced with disappeared along with her purse containing a $300 diamond ring, while she danced with another man at the Post Time Lounge, U.S. Highway 17-92, Longwood. The purse was taken from the bar at about midnight Friday.

Grant Delay Stalls Head Start

The Seminole County Head Start program, to be run this year for the first time by the school board, will not open Nov. 4 as had been expected by school officials. Dr. Sammie Tomblin, director of special projects for the board, said approval of the program has not yet been formally forwarded by the Health and Human Services regional offices in Atlanta, Georgia.

"If they (HHS) would just give us a letter of confirmation to approve the $380,000 grant we were initially promised the school board could go ahead and advance the funds to open the Midway site," Tomblin said. "The federal government's new budget year started Oct. 1 and it was expected that after that date we would get the go-ahead. I talked to Atlanta Thursday and was told it would be another week or two so it there shouldn't be too much more delay," Tomblin said.

The program had traditionally been operated by the Seminole Community Action but last July the state department of Health and Rehabilitative Services recommended to the federal government that SCA not be allowed to operate the program. The state said that the SCA had too many financial problems in the past to manage the program properly. The SCA voted to disband shortly after that.

The school board had voted unanimously in a regularly scheduled meeting Sept. 26 to take over the troubled program for disadvantaged pre-schoolers if the federal grant could be obtained. Tomblin said 200 children were expected to participate in the program that usually starts in the fall.

Tomblin also said the delay may force the board to cancel plans to open the center at the Rosenwald Exceptional Child Center in Altamonte Springs until a later date because of the shortage of funds.

Marion Giannini, assistant superintendent for instructional services, said nothing has been done yet in terms of hiring personnel, purchasing supplies or paying licensing fees. Mrs. Giannini approached a school board meeting Wednesday and told board members she visited the Midway site earlier in the week and was unable to find as much as a roll of toilet paper there. The board voted unanimously to allocate some supplies to the site.

According to Tomblin, Head Start is a 20-year old program created by President Lyndon Johnson to help underprivileged children get pre-school education and to prepare them for public education. He said the program is for children of low income families.

"It emphasizes educational, nutritional and social services for pre-school children. The basic objective is to give low income children the necessary preparation for school that their parents can't afford," Tomblin said.

About 40 youngsters ages 3-5 will attend pre-school classes at two portable classrooms and shortly after a second temporary school at the Crooms Center for Alternative Education, West 13th St., Sanford, is to open. The permanent site for this pre-school is expected to be at Hopper Exceptional Education Center, 1101 Bay Ave., Sanford.

Marcos Calls For Elections

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — President Ferdinand Marcos today announced plans to call a snap presidential election in January and predicted an easy victory over his political rivals.

In a television interview broadcast in the United States and the Philippines, Marcos said the vote would resolve "fundamental issues" on the effectiveness of his government and the military.

The 68-year-old Marcos invited members of Congress to observe the voting, which one civic leader said would "determine the future of democracy" in the Philippines.

Marcos said he would call a caucus of his New Society Party this week to discuss the plan, then submit a proposal to the National Assembly that would allow him to sidestep a constitutional provision calling for the president's resignation in the event of a snap election.

But Sen. Arturo Tolentino, a former foreign minister in the Marcos government, warned that a presidential election held under a cloud of "constitutional doubt" would "destabilize the entire government."

"I understand the opposition has been asking for an election," Marcos said during the interview on the ABC News program "This Week with David Brinkley."

"In answer to their request, I announce that I am ready to call a snap election. ... All these childish claims to popularity on both sides have to be settled."

Mid-East Peace Is Up To Arabs

As most often in the past, the forces arrayed against a settlement between Israel and its Arab adversaries are formidable. And yet, the peacemakers who labor onward are not without fresh cause for hope.

Largely overlooked in the excitement of the Achille Lauro hijacking episode was the destruction in London of the initiative carefully crafted between King Hussein and Jordan and Yasser Arafat, chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization. The arrangement that was to be the Arab basis for negotiations with Israel on the future of the Israeli-occupied West Bank conceded Israel's right to exist in return for Palestinian self-determination.

The PLO's lip service to this concept was exposed as being fraudulent when Mr. Arafat vetoed the PLO's signed acceptance of a document drawn up by the British foreign office. This repudiation denied King Hussein the Arab support he has always insisted upon when it came to negotiating with Israel. It formally confirmed as never before the PLO's dedication to endless conflict with Israel.

Subsequent events have isolated the king even further.

Prime Minister Shimon Peres of Israel seized the peace initiative in a brilliant, eloquent address before the United Nations that has commanded world attention. He unilaterally declared an immediate end to the state of war that has existed between Israel and Jordan since 1967. He offered to go to Jordan or any other mutually agreed upon site for talks. He implored Jordanians: "Let us argue, not fight; let us arm ourselves with reason. Let us not reason with arms."

And in perhaps the furthest reach yet by Israel toward a West Bank settlement, Prime Minister Peres acknowledged "...that there is a Palestinian problem. We recognize the need to solve it honorably. We are convinced that there is no solution but through diplomatic means..."

Such a reasoned bid makes Arab hostility indefensible as well as disreputable. Indeed, even as Mr. Peres mounted the U.N. rostrum, every Arab delegate stormed from the hall with the single exception of Egypt, which signed a peace treaty with Israel in 1979.

With the PLO effectively eliminated from West Bank negotiations by its own indiscriminate terrorism, Egypt's role becomes more critical than ever. Cairo better than Washington can serve as an honest broker between Jordan and Israel.

It is highly significant, therefore, that Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak met with King Hussein in Amman, Jordan, to discuss the Peres proposal.

Although Jordan and Syria, in rare agreement, quickly rejected Israel's offer of a unilateral peace settlement, King Hussein praised Prime Minister Peres as "a man of vision" facing "enormous difficulties." He hailed the Peres address for being "positive in spirit." At the same time, he reaffirmed his demand that Arab-Israeli negotiations be within the framework of an international conference that would include the Soviet Union, a condition opposed by Israel and the United States.

In Israel, members of the hard-line Likud bloc in the Cabinet and Knesset are vigorously attacking Prime Minister Peres for going too far — for exceeding the guidelines set forth by his fragile coalition government.

Where is the peace process more difficult than in the Middle East?

Considering the coalition arrangement wherein Likud will take the reins from Mr. Peres next September, the Arabs must realize they have now the best opportunity they can ever expect for a compromise solution to the intractable West Bank issue. Time is not on their side. Unless the moderate Arab states, led by Egypt, go along with direct negotiations between Jordan and Israel at an early date, a successful Likud leadership in Jerusalem will undoubtedly close the door to any concessions and will, instead, strengthen the strands that have bound the West Bank and Gaza to Israel for 18 years.

Activists Steal Tapes To Prove Violations

WASHINGTON — National Institutes of Health has grudgingly extended its suspension of federal funding for head-snapping brain-trauma experiments on monkeys at the University of Pennsylvania's Experimental Head Injury Laboratory.

In announcing Oct. 4 that the research project had violated federal animal welfare policy, NIH gingerly avoided any reference to its own negligence in overseeing the multi-million-dollar grant. How could a laboratory that NIH called "one of the best in the world" little more than a year ago so swiftly fall from grace? Here's the story:

On May 28, 1984, underground "animal rights" activists broke into the university lab and took more than 60 hours of videotapes of injury experiments with baboons. The tapes revealed multiple violations of federal animal welfare rules. Among them: callous comments and laughter by unsupervised technicians, inadequate sedation and anesthesia of the animals and lack of aseptic techniques in surgery on surviving monkeys.

Yet complaints by People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals — which obtained the tapes but had nothing to do with their theft — were at first ignored by NIH officials who continued to approve funding for the head injury research.

The lab's investigators "have consistently received excellent evaluations of their research and their compliance with animal welfare standards," affirmed an official at NIH's National Institute of Neurological and Communicative Disorders and Stroke (NINCDS) on June 18, 1984. Even when an NIH site-visit team reviewed the lab's grant renewal application last February, they awarded it the "highest possible rating."

By early April, NIH's director, Dr. James Wyngaarden, told Rep. Doug Waigren, D-Pa., in whose district the lab resides, that, lacking access to the videotape evidence, NIH "... has been unable to demonstrate noncompliance by the University"; and further stated that the February site visit "found no evidence of mistreatment of animals."

As recently as last May, the National Council of NINCDS approved further funding of the head injury grant application. These actions not only flew in the face of the videotape evidence, but also appeared oblivious to past violations of animal care standards by the lab.

Yet NIH publicly brushed off complaints about animal mistreatment until animal welfare activists staged a four-day sit-in at NINCDS offices in mid-July. That forced Health and Human Services Secretary Margaret Heckler to step in and quell a storm of controversy by suspending funding for the experiments, pending further investigation.

By early September, the U.S. Department of Agriculture found the lab was guilty of violating animal welfare regulations and filed a cease and desist order. More than 30 House members mounted a drive to halt funding for the project.

HHS and NIH officials finally bowed to the obvious. They announced that the lab's grant would remain under suspension until its practices were remedied.

Labor Has Many Sorrows

By Arnold Sawicki
UPI Senior Editor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Forty eight years ago, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers union and founder of the CIO, had something to say about ungrateful politicians.

During a particularly nasty steel strike in which both company and union rejected efforts to mediate their differences, President Franklin D. Roosevelt declared in exasperation, "A plague on both your houses."

Lewis, in response, laid upon FDR what Edward R. Murrow called "the lash of his biblical oratory."

"Labor, like Israel, has many sorrows," the shaggy-browed union leader intoned. "Its women weep for their fallen and they lament for the future of the children of the race."

"It ill behooves one who has supped at labor's table and found shelter in labor's house to curse with equal fervor and fine impartiality labor and its adversaries when they are locked in deadly embrace."

Last week, John L. Lewis' heir, president Lane Kirkland of the AFL-CIO, had a similar, if less theatrical, message for politicians who have deserted what labor feels is the path of rectitude.

First, Kirkland said, the current fervor to control the federal deficit has served to "cow and intimidate all progressive instincts" of some politicians.

Then he added, "Certainly we want to keep faith with our political tradition of supporting the friends and opposing the enemies of labor. But it is getting harder and harder to tell them apart."

That comment was read as a message to several leading Democrats.

First, to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts and other Democrats who bowed to the Gramm-Rudman deficit-cutting plan in the Senate, it was word that labor was not happy with their retreat from the fight to save what remains of federal social welfare programs.

Second, to Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul Kirk Jr., it seemed to be notice that the AFL-CIO will not agree to his request to withhold a 1988 presidential endorsement until the Democrats have chosen a candidate.

NRA Looks To Friends For Hand Gun Bill

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON — Seated at a desk just below the House Speaker's imposing rostrum, a "journal clerk" has been presiding for the last couple of weeks over a piece of legislative legerdemain titled simply, "Petition No. 4." From time to time, a member quietly slips up and signs the petition, and the clerk checks off the name on a secret tally sheet.

Under House rules, no one may linger over the petition, or copy down the names of the signatories. The clerk's office will divulge neither the names nor the number of members who have signed.

What is this document that requires such tight security? Petition No. 4 is a discharge petition prepared by the National Rifle Association's friends in the House. If it hits its target of 218 members' signatures, Petition No. 4 will blast an NRA-backed bill out of the Judiciary Committee directly to the House floor for a vote.

The legislation would weaken the 1968 Gun Control Act, and the

Suit Cost $200 Million

LOS ANGELES (NEA) — "This court case," says one lawyer here, "has everything except sex — secret meetings, anonymous informants, vast amounts of money, awesome displays of corporate power and price-fixing conspiracies."

That's probably an understatement. This decade-old civil suit has become a forum for the resolution of virtually every real or imagined grievance against the nation's petroleum industry that has surfaced during the past quarter of a century.

The defendants have included all of the country's major oil companies — Exxon, Mobil, Shell, Chevron, Texaco, Atlantic Richfield, Sun, Amoco, Unocal, Gulf, Phillips and Conoco. Their accusers have been the attorneys general of seven states stretching from Connecticut to California.

The legal costs probably exceed $200 million, with most of that money going to more than two dozen law firms.

The case has generated millions of pieces of paper. If the original copies of the thousands of legal documents on file at the U.S. District Court here were placed on top of each other, the stack would be more than 50 feet high.

The illegal activities ascribed to the oil companies include conspiracies spawned by joint exploration and production ventures, contrived shortages designed to maximize profits, and manipulation of prices and supplies to destroy independent petroleum marketers.

Lawyers for the plaintiffs have accused the oil companies of "extravagant antics" and "unjustified intransigence," while defense attorneys have alleged that the states have produced only "sweeping, unsubstantiated generalizations" and "a fabrication of misleading innuendo."

The case dates back to mid-1973, when Connecticut and Florida initiated court action against the oil companies. Connecticut's suit charged that, beginning in the mid-1950s, employees of various firms "contacted one another for the purpose of fixing prices... on gasoline marketed in the states of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware."

In the ensuing years, similar action was taken by California, Oregon, Washington, Kansas (which subsequently withdrew from the litigation) and Arizona.

In autumn 1975, a California deputy attorney general received the first of about 16 telephone calls from an anonymous informant "who identified himself as a person employed in the petroleum industry for many years."

The whistle-blower never provided further identification, but told state law enforcement officials "that there was a group of high-echelon executives from various oil companies who continually communicated with each other concerning the pricing of petroleum products."

They have identified 31 of the first 68 House members who signed or said they would sign the petition in the first two days it lay on the journal clerk's desk.

Federal Election Commission records disclose that the petition signers have received a total of $275,002 in direct or indirect donations from the rifle association's political fund during the past 30 months. Here's the breakdown:

— Of the 12 signers who received contributions in the first six months of 1985, the top amount of $4,950 apiece went to Reps. Tommy Robinson, D-Ark.; Beau Boulter, R-Texas; Larry Craig, R-Idaho; Bill Schuette, R-Mich.; and Paul Kanjorski, D-Pa. Rep. Tom DeLay, R-Texas, received $3,000; Rep. John Grotberg, R-Ill., $2,500; Reps. John Dingell, D-Mich., and Larry Combest, R-Texas, $2,000 each, and Reps. Volkmer, Alan Mollohan, D-W.Va., and Charles Wilson, D-Texas, $1,000 each.

The Victory Fund had already shelled out a total of $39,697 during the 1983-84 campaign period to Craig, Dingell, Grotberg, Mollohan,

Ladybugs Increase For Okra

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Many American gardeners possibly entertained more European ladybugs than usual this year and probably are wondering why.

The National Geographic Society may have accidentally stumbled upon the answer in a report on insect-against-insect warfare.

Ladybugs, the Geographic says, "pioneered in biological control." It seems that nearly a 100 years ago, when aphids were threatening to destroy citrus trees in California, it was discovered that Australian ladybugs like nothing better than to munch on citrus aphids.

Aphids for breakfast, aphids for lunch, aphids for dinner — apparently it made no difference to Australian ladybugs.

One thing led to another and now biological control agencies are importing European ladybugs to prey on other types of aphids.

Just one of these black-spotted beetles can consume more than 200 aphids a day, according to entomologists. Furthermore, an insect specialist was quoted as saying that European ladybugs "don't fly off when the job is done like some native American ladybugs. They have a tendency to stay around and not leave the original area when the host has died off."

Maybe that explains what happened to my okra this year.

It has been years since I have been troubled with aphids in my garden. But this summer ladybugs — or something — were feasting on the okra with abandon.

I can only assume that once all the aphids have been devoured, European ladybugs hang around and develop a taste for whatever vegetation is handy — including okra.

How, a gardener might well ask, did ladybugs brought to this country from Europe to wipe out aphids that destroy alfalfa and grain crops wind up eating my okra?

Once again, I quote from a Geographic news release: "The Agriculture Department didn't actually have to import the seven-spotted ladybug (Coccinella septempunctata). She got here on her own, possibly flying in on jets that landed at Kennedy International Airport."

Well, I don't live anywhere near Kennedy International Airport but my backyard Victory Garden is not very far from Dulles International Airport, where jets from Europe frequently land. So maybe that explains that.

Volkmer and Wilson.

— Among the discharge-petition signers who benefited most from the rifle association's largesse during the 1983-84 period were Reps. J. Alex McMillan, R-N.C., $35,819; Jim Lightfoot, R-Iowa, $28,145; Dan Schaefer, R-Colo., $20,988; David Monson, R-Utah, $19,340; Robert Smith, R-N.H., $17,885; and Barbara Vucanovich, R-Nev., $11,957.

Almost as generously treated were Reps. John Kasich, R-Ohio, $8,339; Ron Marlenee, R-Mont., $8,019; Bob Stump, R-Ariz., $7,507; Jack Fields, R-Texas, $6,524; and Dan Burton, R-Ind., $6,140.

Signers getting less than $6,000 from the rifle association during 1983-84 included Reps. Tom Foley, D-Wash., $5,924; Arlan Stangland, R-Minn., $5,854; Bill Emerson, R-Mo., $5,257; and Thomas Daschle, D-S.D., $3,250.

Footnote: Handgun Control Inc., a public-interest group, has asked legislators not to sign the discharge petition. So far, 180 members have given their pledge.

Payne Unveils Best Team Ever

(Editor's note: This is the first of two parts on the Seminole Community College boys basketball team which opens Tuesday night against Brevard).

Basketball

What Payne did have in the past was 20-game winners, a string he hopes will continue despite the stiffness of competition. Payne's record is 64-34 since he took over for Joe Sterling in 1982.

Despite the 20-victory seasons in each of the past three years, Payne's Raiders have not earned a trip to the state tournament. Again this year, Payne sees Florida Junior and Daytona Beach as the obstacles to a first visit to the JUCO dream at DeLand's Stetson University.

"I think this team can go to state," Payne, who will be assisted by Dean Smith and Mike Gaudreau, said. "The problem will be Daytona and FJC. Daytona is so tough to match up with. They always have three or four players 6-2 and 6-3.

"FJC has style of play that is wild. With a shot clock it will make it interesting."

After a two-year absence, all of Florida's JUCOs will adhere to NCAA's 45-second clock this year. "It shouldn't effect us too much," Payne said. "We've used it in practice games a couple times and we've never failed to get off a shot. Forty-five seconds is a long time. But it will stop the all-out stall."

Most of Payne's optimism for the '85-'86 season is based on his biggest recruit — 6-8 center Vance Hall. "Vance is the best big kid we've had," Payne said. "He's a true center. He's a good shooter with good moves in the post. He's also a good rebounder and a great shot-blocker."

Payne said the only thing his Seminole Osceola High School product lacks is aggressiveness, which he hopes will develop as Hall, who weighs just 175 pounds, adds some needed

Bill Payne said this year's SCC squad is his best in his four-year career.

Joining Hall in Tuesday's starting lineup will be point guard David Gallagher and shooting guard Tony Roberts. Greg "Slim" Johnson, 6-7 sophomore, will start at strong forward while Payne is still undecided on his fifth starter.

Schubert's 5 FGs Boot Tampa Bay

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (UPI) — Eric Schubert made a lot of friends on the New York Giants Sunday, and his five field goals were only part of the reason why.

"He's a fighter, he's one of the guys we all like," New York nose tackle Jim Burt said of Schubert, who helped the Giants to a 22-20 victory over Tampa Bay Sunday. "The whole team rallies around Schubert."

"He fought his way from an assistant high school coach, he was a free agent nobody wanted. He got a tryout because he heard All Haji-Sheikh got hurt (in preseason). Now, he comes in and kicks five field goals for us to win the game."

Schubert's field goals of 24, 36, 24, 41 and 33 yards capped a hectic five days. He had a tryout with the Giants Wednesday after St. Louis claimed recently-waived Jess Atkinson and Coach Bill Parcells decided Haji-Sheikh wasn't ready to come off injured reserve.

Thursday night, Schubert was out buying lottery tickets when Parcells called and told his wife he would be signed.

Saturday, Schubert helped coach his old high school, Lakeland Regional in Waukegan, N.J., during its 14-7 loss to Montville High.

"Last week I was coaching and watching the (Giants) game on TV, today I was on TV," Schubert said.

Schubert knows his reign with the Giants will probably end when Haji-Sheikh's hamstring mends. He beat the Jets with an overtime field goal during the preseason, then was cut two days later.

New York also got a boost Sunday from Joe Morris' second straight 100-yard rushing game to win their third in a row and improve to 6-3. The Buccaneers, the NFL's only winless team, fell to 0-9.

Tampa Bay scored on passes of 25 and 1 yard from Steve DeBerg to Jimmy Giles and field goals of 53 and 20 yards by Donald Igwebulke.

Giles' 1-yard TD came with 2:27 left and the Bucs last chance to win ended when Terry Kinard intercepted a DeBerg pass with 24 seconds left. The interception came one play after a 14-yard pass to Adger Armstrong to the Giants' 38 was called back by a holding penalty against tackle Sean Farrell.

"It's the hardest thing to lose in that situation," DeBerg said. "We felt we could've won and should've won. If the flag wasn't called for holding, we're in position to win the game."

Farrell thought the flag shouldn't have been thrown by line judge Dick McKenzie.

"It came almost five seconds after the play," Farrell said. "If there was that much indecision, he shouldn't have thrown it in that situation."

The Bucs blew their sixth halftime lead of the season. Morrison, who gained 132 yards in 26 carries, tied the score 13-13 with a 3-yard run on the Giants' first second-half possession. Schubert added three field goals before Giles caught his seventh TD in three games.

DeBerg completed 21-of-42 for 239 yards and one interception. Giants quarterback Phil Simms finished 18-of-31 for 204 yards and was sacked four times.

James Wilder led the Bucs with 75 yards on 21 carries.

Lyman junior Charlie Rose backstrokes his way to a victory in the 200 I.M.

Greyhounds Take Care Of Business

Rose, Mooney, Barnett Lead Boys; Depth Propels Girls To SAC Title

By Chuck Burgess
Special to the Herald

LONGWOOD — The sign on the Lyman chalkboard read Taking Care of Business. And that is just what Don Clark's Lyman Greyhounds did.

In the first Seminole Athletic Conference Swimming Championships at Lyman High Friday and Saturday, the Greyhounds posted easy victories in both the boys and girls meets to extend their dominance over conference opponents.

The 'Hounds scored 324 points to second place Lake Brantley's 241 in the girls' meet and 355 points to Lake Mary's 273.

"Our slogan was to take care of business," SAC Coach of the Year Clark said. "We came here with a job to do and we did it."

Winning the title gave Clark and his business-like team their seventh conference championship title in the past eight years, a feat unsurpassed by any team in Seminole county swimming. The previous seven were won while competing in the Five Star Conference.

Clark was intense throughout the meet as he watched his teams win their most impressive crown ever. "I appointed each of my kids someone to beat in their events," Clark said. "In 90 percent of the swims, they did their job and beat their people."

Beating more swimmers than usual was junior Greyhound Tom Mooney. Mooney compiled two individual firsts and tacked on another to his list of three by swimming the backstroke leg of the winning 200 medley relay. Other members of the relay included Charlie Rose, freshman Chuck Reinighaus and sophomore Rich Ott.

Mooney pulled his first surprise with a convincing win in the 200 freestyle over Lake Mary rival Todd Stebbins with a time of 1:51.97. "I thought Todd (Stebbins) would fade out, but he hung tough," Mooney, who is also an excellent student, said. "I'm just happy I pulled the race out."

Mooney also lullied a win in the 100 back where his time of 59.12 was six seconds ahead of the rest of the field. "Tom Mooney is one of the true leaders of our team," Clark said. "He is the epitome of a scholar athlete."

Swimming

The epitome of a swimmer was shown by junior flash Rose. Rose equalled Mooney's feat by winning three events. Rose took the 200 individual medley in 2:05.23 and streamlined to a first in the 100 free in 51.65.

"He (Clark) told us to go out there and kick butt," Rose said. "So we did."

Another of the growing Greyhound blue-collared swimmers was senior Ken Barnett. Barnett edged Lake Mary's Stebbins to claim the 100 fly in 54.72 and easily disposed of the pack in the 50 free in 23.1.

"It feels great to conference champs," Barnett said. "It also feels pretty good to swim my best times when we're at our hardest part of the season."

Clark, who noticed Barnett's determination this past weekend, regarded Barnett as a swimmer who would rise to the occasion. "Barnett is a tough competitor," Clark said. "If I asked Ken (Barnett) to go through a brick wall, he would."

Two-sport standout Nick Radkewich added a first-place to the Greyhound total when he won the 500 freestyle in 5:08.11. Radkewich, a freshman, also runs cross country and is one of the top triathletes in his age group.

Despite being overshadowed by the Greyhound boys, Walt Morgan's Lake Mary Ramphibians also had a few swims worthy of recognition.

Senior Stebbins, who recorded two second places, was the highlight of the meet in both of his events. Stebbins struggled with Lyman swimmers and pushed them to the limit before falling the last 10 yards in both races.

Stebbins took seconds in the 100 fly, 55.58 and the 200 free, 1:52.09.

"Todd (Stebbins) provided a lot of team leadership and was there mentally," Morgan said. "His heart was in both events and he showed great sportsmanship."

Another impressive Ram swim came not in one package, but in four as the quartet of freshman Steve Kostowicz, freshman Karl

District Picture Loses Fuzziness

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

What was once a confusing district football picture became a little less confusing Saturday morning. Lake Mary, Lyman, Seabreeze and Apopka all reduced the fuzziness with victories Friday night.

Here's a look at the three district involving county teams:

● District 4A-5: Seabreeze, which holds narrow victories over Seminole (7-0) and Oviedo (14-6), blanked New Smyrna Beach to take first place with a 3-0 record. NSB is 2-1. Seabreeze can clinch the district with a win over 1-2 Titusville Friday.

Seabreeze will also win the district if Seminole beats NSB at its homecoming Nov. 15. Seminole, which nipped Oviedo Friday, is 1-2. Oviedo is 0-3.

● District 5A-4: Lake Mary, which eliminated Mainland Thursday, and Lyman, which eliminated Spruce Creek Friday, will decide the district championship on Nov. 22 at Lake Mary.

Both have 2-1 records, Mainland is 2-2. DeLand and Spruce Creek are 1-2.

The Nov. 22 date may also decide the Seminole Athletic Conference championship. Lake Mary, which travels to Lake Brantley Friday, is 3-0 in the SAC. Lyman, which journeys to Lake Howell Friday, is 2-1. Both need wins to force a double-championship showdown.

District 5A-5: When Apopka whipped both Winter Park and Evans convincingly earlier this year, the district was decided. No one else was going to beat Apopka if these two traditional powers couldn't. Apopka is 4-0 after beating Lake Brantley Friday. The 4-0 Blue Darters, ranked second in the state, can clinch the district with a win over West Orange on Nov. 15.

Apopka can also clinch if Winter Park and Evans, both 3-1, lose. That won't happen, however, until they met on Nov. 15. Lake Howell, which lost to Evans Friday, is 1-3. West Orange, which lost to Winter Park Friday, is 1-3. Lake Brantley is 0-4.

Berry Surprises Old Coach, Miami

Dolphins' 28, where they were faced with fourth down.

After a Patriots' strategy timeout, Grogan handed off to Most Tatupu, who flipped the ball back to the 11-year veteran and Grogan hit Greg Hawthorne with the 28-yard scoring pass.

"You take a chance you're going to suck 'em in and we sucked 'em in," said Grogan, who calls almost all his own plays. "But I'm not sure I would have had the courage to call that."

New England's comeback was completed by Grogan, who scored on a 1-yard run for the decisive points with 3:03 remaining.

The victory gave the Patriots,

6-3, sole possession of second place in the AFC East, one game behind the New York Jets. The Dolphins, 5-4, have lost three of their last four games and drop to third place.

Berry, in his first full year as a head coach, played five years for Shula of the Baltimore Colts.

Shula, in his 23rd year as an NFL head coach, said of his former player's crucial decision. "It was a risky call, but when it works, it's a great call."

Sunday's victory improved Berry's career mark against AFC East teams to 8-0.

New England limited Miami's offense to 236 total yards, allowing just 82 yards in the second half. The Patriots offense picked up 176 of its 378 yards in the fourth quarter, Grogan twice marching his team 80 yards for touchdowns.

Lake Mary's Kelly Wise comes up for a breath of air.

Good News: 4 Tied For First; Bad News: 4-5 Records

United Press International
The American Football Conference Central is carrying the good news, bad news joke a little too far.

Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Houston all awoke this morning in first place in their division. Unfortunately, they all also faced a new day in last place.

With the Steelers beating the Browns Sunday while the Oilers and Bengals registered victories, all four AFC Central members had their records move to 4-5. The four-way tie will be history next Sunday after Cleveland plays at Cincinnati.

The division was almost won by a team with sub-.500 record last season. The Bengals, who lost their first five games in 1984, won their final four to finish 8-8. They would have captured the Central if Pittsburgh had lost to the Raiders in Week 16.

This season, the Steelers had struggled to try to retain their division crown. However, over the years, there has always been one cure for Pittsburgh: a home game with the Browns.

Gary Anderson connected on a 29-yard field goal with nine seconds left Sunday, lifting the Steelers to a 10-9 victory over the Browns. Cleveland has never won in Three Rivers Stadium since it was opened in 1970, including a 23-20 loss last year when Anderson cracked the winning field goal with five seconds left.

Trailing Buffalo 10-6 at halftime, Cincinnati put the burden on the shoulders of Larry Kinnebrew. Kinnebrew rushed for 128 yards to lead the Bengals ball-control attack that outgained the Bills 207 yards to 89 on the ground and controlled the ball for 40 minutes and 37 seconds compared to 19:23 in a 23-17 victory at Orchard Park, N.Y.

Redskins 44, Falcons 10
At Atlanta, quarterback Joe Theismann ran 11 yards for one TD and threw 34 yards to Art Monk for another during a 28-point second-quarter that lifted Washington, 5-4. The Falcons, 1-8, have lost 17 of their last 18 games.

Bears 16, Packers 10
At Green Bay, Walter Payton rushed for 192 yards, including a 27-yard fourth-quarter TD, that helped the Bears, 9-0, remain the NFL's lone unbeaten team. William "The Refrigerator" Perry scored on a 4-yard TD pass from Jim McMahon.

Chargers 30, Broncos 10
At San Diego, Dan Fouts threw for 284 yards and two TDs — both to Wes Chandler — to lift the Chargers, 4-5, over the Broncos, 6-3. Touchdown passes to Chandler of 19 and 8 yards, sandwiched around the first of three Bob Thomas field goals, staked San Diego to a 17-0 first-half lead.

Seahawks 33, Raiders 3
At Seattle, Byron Walker raced 56 yards with a blocked field goal, and Terry Taylor returned an interception 75 yards to spark Seattle's 23-point second quarter. The Seahawks are 5-4. The Raiders, 6-3, had their six-game winning streak snapped.

Rams 28, Saints 10
At Anaheim, Calif., Dieter Brock threw for 256 yards and two TDs, and tight end Tony Hunter caught six passes for a career-best 113 yards and a score, leading the Rams. Los Angeles is 7-1 and the Saints are 3-6.

Jets 38, Colts 17
At Indianapolis, Ken O'Brien threw a career-high three TD passes, and Freeman McNeil rushed for 149 yards on 26 carries to pace the Jets. New York, 7-2, dropped the Colts to 3-6.

49ers 24, Eagles 13
At San Francisco, Matt Cavanaugh, starting for injured Joe Montana, completed 20-of-32 passes for 255 yards and one TD to lead the 49ers, 5-4. The Eagles, 4-5, had their three-game winning streak broken.

Competitors in the girls' division of the Longwood Elementary School Invitational Road Race jockey for position Saturday morning.

Keith Runners Dominate Elementary Road Race

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

While David Simek ran away with the boys overall title, schoolmates Jenny Coste and Shannon Young locked up in a close battle in the girls race Saturday in the Longwood Elementary Invitational Road Race.

Simek, an 11-year old who attends Keith Elementary, finished the 1.6 mile course with a time of 9:27. In the girls race, Coste nudged out Young at the finish line by one second. The two Keith Elementary students finished with times of 10:42 and 10:43, respectively.

In the boys eight-year old age group, Thomas Blackwell of Casselberry outduced four Keith runners for first place. Blackwell, the son of Lake Howell High track coach Doug Blackwell, took first in the division followed by Greg Ickes, Frank Ciento, Dee Purdy and Jonathon Brown.

The top nine-year old was Keith's Jason Eaddy who topped schoolmate Rolf Meiner. Casselberry's Stacey Merrell was third in the division followed by

Running

Crockett, Casselberry's John T. Crowley and Casselberry's Aldrin Lago.

In the girls eight-year old division, Keith's Susan Sloas took first followed by Casselberry's Tamara Falaman, Keith's Jill Huff, Casselberry's Allison Noone and Longwood's Alissa Lawrence.

The nine-year-old winner was Keith's Lisa Payne, daughter of Seminole Community College basketball coach Bill Payne. She was followed by Keith's Jennifer Madden, Casselberry's Michelle Bishop, Longwood's Heather Moss and Longwood's Amanda Lawrence.

Shannon Young, of Keith, was the top 10-year old followed by Keith's Leslie Richardson, Keith's Barbara Bartels, Casselberry's Melissa Baugh and Longwood's Jennifer Ducker.

In the 11-year-old division, Keith's Jennifer Larkin was first followed by Casselberry's Tammy Turnage, Casselberry's Lynnette Ugran, Keith's Kristine Neufeld and Keith's Laura Thorwegen.

There were 80 competitors in Saturday's race.

Leading the way was sophomore Heather Heikkila who finished eighth with a time of 12:53.3. Heikkila's previous best was 13:56.3 at the Postal Run (on the track) and her best cross country time had been 14:01. "Heather (Heikkila) went out and ran a great race," Gibson said.

Heikkila was followed by freshman Debi Smith who placed 11th with an impressive time of 12:59.4. Smith's previous best was 14:29.

Sophomore Tabatha Gano was the next Lady Ram across the finish line as she took 15th place at 13:45.9. Freshman Donna Rohr, in only her second meet, finished 19th at 14:16.2. Rohr, sister of boys standout Ken Rohr, ran a 15:16 in the SAC Junior varsity meet.

"Going from number one JV to number four on varsity in one week is quite an accomplishment," Gibson said of Rohr. "And she has the potential to drop another minute."

The number five runner Saturday was junior Lisa Shelby who finished 21st at 14:24.5. Shelby's previous best was 15:07.

Also running for the Lady Rams were seniors Marjan Stonerock (23rd at 14:27.6) and Niki Hays (25th at 14:44.5).

While Lake Mary came away with the runnerup trophy, it also got a chance to run on the Trinity Prep course which will be the site of the 4A-5 District Championships this weekend.

"We primarily went there to run on the course," Gibson said. "But we also went to build up confidence."

Poltowicz, in her final regular season home meet, ran away with the individual title with a time of 11:24. Poltowicz was pushed in the first mile by Keswick's mighty-mite Jenni Soles who is only a seventh grader. But Poltowicz pulled away the second mile and Soles wound up in second at 12:00.

Trinity's Becky Baskin gave the Lady Saints a strong top two as she finished sixth at 12:48.

In the boys meet Saturday, Lakeland Christian dominated with three of the top four runners and a team score of 28. Trinity Prep placed three in the top 10 to take second at 61.

The Saints' top three included Jon Fritz (second at 16:05), Mike Brumbaugh (eighth at 17:03) and Brad Shapiro (10th at 17:06).

Lady Rams' Rebuilding Nears Peak

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Lake Mary girls cross country coach Mike Gibson knew he had a rebuilding year ahead of him in 1985. But, instead of dwelling on it, he went out and started rebuilding right from the start.

Gibson put the finishing touches on his construction job after the Seminole Athletic Conference meet and unveiled the new-look Lady Rams Saturday at the Trinity Prep Saints Invitational.

With a positive outlook from the start, the Lady Rams went out and turned in their best performance of the season as they took second place. Defending 1A State Champion Lakeland Christian claimed first place with a team score of 37 compared to 69 for Lake Mary.

"When the season started, people were telling me I didn't even have a team," Gibson said. "I'm so proud of what the girls did Saturday. I just told them to have a positive self image. If they think they can do it, they can and they went out and did an outstanding job."

Trinity Prep, led by individual champion Adrienne Poltowicz, was third at 72 followed by Keswick Christian at 74. Lakeland Christian, Trinity and Keswick are traditional 1A powers.

All of Lake Mary's top five varsity runners Saturday chopped one minute or more off their previous best times.

Hall: Win Over Auburn Biggest Ever

United Press International
Galen Hall has won 15 games and tied one in his 16 games as head coach of the Florida Gators and says Saturday's 14-10 win over No. 5 Auburn stands head and shoulders above the rest.

Florida, 7-0-1 and unbeaten in 18 games, is an outstanding football team that is ineligible for votes in the UPI Top 20 because it is on probation. But that didn't take any of the luster away from the Gators win at Jordan-Hare Stadium in Auburn.

"Yes, this was the biggest win I've ever had as head coach," Hall said. "It was a great victory for the coaches and our program. And this is the first senior class in Florida to defeat Auburn three out of four years."

Auburn fell to 6-2.

The probation also prohibits the Gators, at 4-0 the only unbeaten team in the SEC, from playing in a bowl game and from appearing on television. Linebacker Leon Pennington said the probation has not caused the Gators to lose their incentive to win.

"People say, 'Why are you playing so tough when you can't go to a bowl or be on television or win the Southeastern Conference?'" he said. "We're just trying to prove we're the best team."

The best team in Tallahassee Saturday was the 12th-ranked Miami Hurricanes, who rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat No. 9 Florida State 35-27. Miami, which has won seven straight after opening the season with a loss to the Gators, used four touchdown passes by quarterback Vinny Testaverde to top the Seminoles, 6-2.

In other Florida college football action, Howard Schnellenberger's Louisville Cardinals crushed Central Florida 42-21. Bethune-Cookman topped North Carolina A&T 20-14, and Alcorn St. bested Florida A&M 28-7.

At Auburn, Ala., a stingy Florida defense did a job on Tiger running back Bo Jackson for the third time in four years, holding him to 48 yards on 16 carries. Jackson, who carried just once after halftime because of a thigh bruise, gained only 23 yards against the Gators in 1982 and 16 yards last season. Jackson did burn the Gators for 196 yards as a sophomore in '83.

"It was very frustrating to lose this game," said Jackson. "I really wanted to get back out there and play the second half, but I started to have spasms and was very frustrated not to get to play. A helmet hit me in the thigh."

The Hurricanes gave Coach Jimmy Johnson a big win Saturday in front of numerous bowl representatives, including the Orange and the Fiesta. Johnson said the Hurricanes showed great poise in rallying from a 24-14 halftime deficit.

"This is a character-builder for us, without question," Johnson said. "This says so much about our guys. We asked them to keep their poise, believe in themselves, and come back in the second half. And they did."

Testaverde, who was sacked seven times, rallied the Hurricanes and finished with 23 completions on 41 attempts for 339 yards, four touchdowns, and for the third straight week, no interceptions.

One of the touchdowns went to Mike Irvin, who set a school record by catching a touchdown pass in his seventh consecutive game.

"This was definitely bigger than the Oklahoma game," Irvin said, referring to Miami's 27-14 win at Norman two weeks ago. "Oklahoma got us into the Top 20. We looked at this one as the chance to open people's eyes and get them to realize that our home is in the Top 10."

Seminole's Coach Bobby Bowden had his eyes wide open, and he saw too much Testaverde for his liking.

"No doubt in my mind, Testaverde was the difference," Bowden said. "Bernie Kosar (who left the Hurricanes for the NFL after 1984) never hurt us like this guy. Testaverde was just too much."

...Payne

day thing with Carl," Payne said. "He just doesn't have confidence that it's healed yet."

In Poellnitz' place will be either guard Mike Landell, forward Jeff Day or forward James Morris. Payne said he will decide when he determined what type of style Brevard will play.

"Day will help us on the boards, Morris provides scoring punch and Landell will give us defense and quickness," Payne said. "We'll just have to see whom will help us most."

Payne said the strength of his club is at the guard position, which will dictate his style of play. "We'll press and run a lot," he said. "We've got some dandies at guard. We will pressure the other teams' guards a lot which will allow us to play a lot of people."

Some of those dandies include Roberts, David and Darris Gallagher, Landell, Erem Brooks, Scott Hughes, Calvin "Kiki" Bryant and Richard Reilly. England's versatile Landell, Apopka's supersub Hughes and Seminole's sharpshooting Bryant are all returnees. David Gallagher played for Payne three years ago while Roberts is a transfer from Western Kentucky. Brooks, from Lake Howell, and Darris Gallagher, from Orlando Edgewater, are two hotshot freshmen. Reilly, from Pennsylvania, walked on and made the team. The Gallaghers are brothers.

"Roberts is a great shooter and David Gallagher is a good ballhandler and very unselfish," Payne said. "Johnson gives us good leadership and rebounding. Hall is what we've always wanted in the middle. Poellnitz is a great leaper who complements the other four well."

The forward corps is fortified by freshman Morris, from Orlando Jones, Carl Hackworth, from Mobile, Ala., Monticello sophomore returnee Day, 6-6 St. Pete Dixie Hollins freshman Claude Jackson and Poellnitz. Hackworth and Poellnitz were high school teammates at Mobile Murphy.

"We're going to rebound well, be pretty quick and I think we'll play together real well," Payne said about the team strengths. "We have good players at all positions ... maybe too many good players at all positions."

Getting everyone playing time will be a problem, Payne said. "Another weakness is our experience," he said. "Poellnitz hasn't played in two years and Roberts didn't play much last year. Johnson has experience but the rest of them are real young."

Rubbert Hurls Louisville Past Central Florida

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Quarterback Ed Rubbert threw three touchdown passes Saturday to lead Louisville to a 42-21 homecoming victory over the University of Central Florida.

The Cardinals, who led 35-7 at halftime, expanded their lead on a touchdown by quarterback Jay Gruden, who took it over from the 1 yard line with 10:57 remaining in the third quarter to end Louisville's scoring.

UCF rallied briefly in the third quarter when Tony Lanham threw a 44-yard touchdown pass to Brian Glasford and halfback Aaron Sams scored on a 2-yard run with 20 seconds remaining in the quarter.

The Cardinals took an early lead when Rubbert threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Givins and Danny Cerione kicked his first of six extra points.

Lanham put UCF on the scoreboard by throwing a 55-yard touchdown pass to Ted Wilson that capped an 85-yard drive in five plays.

Rubbert hit wide receiver Calvin Dixon on a 24-yard touchdown strike on the next series to put Louisville up 14-7 and fullback John Adams scored from 10 yards out with 10:32 to go in the second quarter to cap a 49-yard drive in seven plays.

Mantle-Less American Leaguers Bow To Nationals Before 2,345

ORLANDO — Mickey Mantle was supposed to throw out the first ball Saturday night at the Old-Timer Baseball Classic. He was a no-show, however, reportedly sitting up with a sick friend.

The American Leaguers, nevertheless, didn't need Mantle's arm, they needed his bat. Old or new, serious or in fun, the result followed the pattern of All-Star games matching the Americans and Nationals. It was all National League.

Ex-Pittsburgh Pirates Manny Sanguillen (two hits) and Rennie Stennett (home run) swung big bats as the National Leaguers posted a 6-3 victory over the American League before 2,345 fans at Tinker Field.

The American Leaguers only fireworks came in the sixth inning. Although a shortened fence was erected at the warning track (300 feet down the lines), it didn't matter to ex-Twin George Mitterwald, who jerked a 100-foot "Mad Hungarian" Hrabosky fastball over the "real" wall in the sixth inning.

Hrabosky, who had uncorked his first pitch over Mitterwald's head and off the backstop, then faced Brian Doyle, who jokingly (?) wore three batting helmets to the plate. Doyle promptly sent another Hrabosky offering over the right field fence.

Other highlights included appearances by 70-year-old Johnny "Back-to-Back No-Hitters" Vander Meer and 76-year-old catcher George Sussie.

Jack Billingham, who will be the honorary chairman for Sanford's 11th Annual Golden Age Games this week, started the game and pitched one inning, allowing one hit for the Nationals.

Breeders: Gambolati Mixed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cam Gambolati, trainer of Kentucky Derby winner Spend a Buck, had mixed emotions about the outcome of Saturday's $3 million Breeders' Cup Classic, which was won by Proud Truth.

Gambolati said Sunday he was sorry to see Chief's Crown lose yet was delighted that his retired Kentucky Derby winner is back in the running for the 3-year-old colt championship and Horse of the Year.

The retiring Chief's Crown was trained by Roger Laurin, a close friend of Gambolati.

"I could never root against Roger," Gambolati said in a telephone interview from his home in Miami. "He's my friend. But I just can't see now how they can't give Spend a Buck the 3-year-old championship."

The division championship now must be considered a three-way race among Spend a Buck, Chief's Crown and Proud Truth.

Tribe, Howell in Net Opener

Following the opening match, Lake Mary takes on Spruce Creek at 5, Mainland tangles with DeLand at 6:30 and Lake Brantley faces host Lyman at 8.

In the 3A-8 District Tournament, top-seeded Oviedo plays Thursday against Wednesday's Leesburg-St. Cloud winner. In the other match Wednesday, host Kissimmee Osceola takes on Jones.

Bernard Wins Marine Marathon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Cmdr. Thomas Bernard of the U.S. Coast Guard finished first Sunday in the 11,000-runner Marine Marathon, racing around Washington's revered monuments in 2:19:16.

Brad Ingram, of Mansfield, Ohio, trailed Bernard, of Hayes, Va., across the finish line at the two Jima Memorial to snare second place at 2:19:47.

Jim Hague, of nearby Rockville, Md., came in third at 2:20:38.

At about the 20-mile mark, Bernard and Ingram broke far ahead of the pack as the winding 26-mile race reached its do-or-die straightaway, Hains Point on the Potomac River.

"I just wanted to stay neck and neck with Brad," Bernard said.

Elliott Triumphs, Says Pressure Is On Waltrip

HAMPTON, Ga. (UPI) — Entering the season's final race, NASCAR finds itself with the second closest national championship battle ever and a title chase that could land in court.

Bill Elliott, winner of Sunday's Atlanta Journal 500, trails Darrell Waltrip by 20 points entering a Nov. 17 race at Riverside, Calif.

The margin is the smallest since 1979 when Waltrip led Richard Petty by two points, then lost the title to Petty at the 1.62-mile California road course.

Waltrip's lead this year would be only 10 points if not for a NASCAR scoring error Sept. 15 in the Dover 500. Waltrip was mistakenly credited with leading a lap, and a second-place finish, worth an additional 10 points.

After Ricky Rudd protested, NASCAR admitted its mistake, but refused to change the decision.

"Based on the information that I had at the time, I made the judgement call," said Bill Gazaway, NASCAR vice president for competition. I sincerely regret the error. Other sports don't make changes based on plays, and NASCAR doesn't either. The matter has been fully resolved among the parties involved."

Harry Melling, Elliott's car owner, indicated Sunday the matter wasn't closed.

"If we finish 11 or more points behind Waltrip, there will be nothing to discuss," Melling said. "But if it is less than that, I Kuchma, senior Joe Rosser and Stebbins posted a school-record win in the 400 free relay with a time of 3:30.76.

"That was great," an elated Morgan said. "They beat the old record by about two seconds."

For Seminole, sophomore Jaime Bojanowski led the way with a second-place finish in the 500 free (5:10.41) and added a fourth in the 100 breast (1:11.45).

Although Bojanowski scored the most points for Seminole with 24, freshman Jay Adcock put in his best effort of the season by placing fifth in the 50 free (25.4) and sixth in the 100 free (58.0).

"I was real pleased with Jay (Adcock)," head coach Donalyn Knight said. "I knew he was ready for another big drop (in time)."

Knicks Remain Without

United Press International No one can accuse New York Knicks coach Hubie Brown of pessimism.

"I know this may sound strange, but we felt pretty comfortable when we were down 11 points with three minutes to go," said Brown, whose team, beset by injuries and fouls, fell to 0-5 Sunday night when it dropped a 110-96 decision to the Portland Trail Blazers.

The Knicks and Phoenix Suns, with an 0-4 record, are the only teams in the NBA without a victory. "I was telling the guys that despite being short-handed and despite adversity, we were right there," Brown said.

Kiki Vandeweghe scored 21 points to lead the Blazers, who opened a 5-point lead after the first period, and had little trouble the rest of the way.

Mychal Thompson scored 18 points, and Clyde Drexler added 17 for Portland. Drexler scored 10 points in the second half of the third period, when Portland opened the lead to 20 points.

"That's one, we take the win," said Portland coach Jack Ramsay. "Teams like New York will give you hard pressure and they're good at it. We were slow getting accustomed to that defense."

Rory Sparrow scored 22 points while Patrick Ewing and Ernie Grunfeld each scored 15 for New York. Ewing finished with 8 rebounds. Portland center Sam Bowie, who had 12 points and 6 rebounds, forced Ewing into a 7-of-18 shooting.

Bucks 120, Cavaliers 110 At Richfield, Ohio, Terry Cummings scored 23 points and Sidney Moncrief and Paul Pressey added 21 apiece to lead the Bucks. Milwaukee turned a 62-60 halftime lead into a 93-84 advantage entering the fourth quarter. Milwaukee scored the first 8 points of the third quarter and the Cavaliers never got closer than 6 points the rest of the game.

Parking Meters Take The Cake In Princeton

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI) — Motorists have wanted to do many things to parking meters over the years. But put birthday hats on them?

That is what Princeton residents did when they celebrated the 50th anniversary of the meter's invention.

With a meter maid and man appointed as queen and king of the party, they honored the machine that has driven many a driver to desperation.

The festival Saturday included a parade and contests.

Parking meters were first installed in Oklahoma City in 1935.

IN BRIEF

Legislator's Sister Killed In Dual Murder In North Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The sister of a prominent legislator and the man she apparently was negotiating to buy land from were shot to death inside a mobile home in rural Leon county, investigators said.

The victims were identified Sunday as Mary Lee Driggers, 29, of Medart, Fla., and Robert L. Harrison, 30.

Capt. Larry Campbell of the Leon County Sheriff's office said Driggers is the younger sister of Rep. Herb Morgan, D-Tallahassee. The 10-year legislative veteran is chairman of the House Rules Committee.

The pair was shot to death Thursday while seated at the kitchen table in Harrison's cluttered mobile home, on a wooded lot just south of the Florida-Georgia border, Campbell said.

Campbell said the Driggers family was considering buying some of the land, and Driggers had apparently gone to his home Thursday to discuss the sale.

Conserve Or Face Water Crisis

KEY WEST, Fla. (UPI) — South Florida's rapidly expanding population must begin conserving water now or face one of the nation's worst water shortages, regulators said.

The age of cheap and plentiful water supplies is over, officials of the South Florida Water Management District said at a weekend meeting.

"We continue the public perception that they have a right to 'free' water," said Fred Davis, the district's senior planner. "Florida is a place that anybody who wants to can come to, but there has to be a cost association with it."

percent turnout for the election of a mayor and two councilmen. The polls will be open at city hall at 95 Lake Triplet Drive. Officials serve for two-year terms. Salary for the mayor, who serves as a city administrator, is $23,114 and a councilman receives $3,588 plus travel expenses.

There are three candidates running in Casselberry for mayor — the incumbent Charles Glascock, 57, of 223 Shady Hollow; former mayor Irwin Sheppard, 56, of 430 Reflection Circle; and veteran councilman John Leighty, 55, of 661 E. Seminola Blvd.

Glascock sued to have Sheppard removed from the ballot contending his opponent did not meet the city's residency requirements. Last week, Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. in Sanford ruled Sheppard is eligible to run even though he lived outside the city for several months this year.

Council seats up for election on the city commission are seats four and five. Sheppard's estranged wife, Phyllis Sheppard, 56, of 580 S. Lake Triplet Drive, is running for seat four against the incumbent, Al Harmon, 44, of 1131 Avalon Blvd. In the race for seat five, the incumbent Tom Embree, 49, of 512 Jupiter Way, faces Ed Lewis, 31, of 1765 Holiday Drive.

Jack Horner, president of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, was master of ceremonies and City Commissioner Milton Smith gave the invocation.

Other guests of honor speaking at the ceremony included

Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith; Congressman Bill McCollum (R-Altamonte Springs); State Rep. Art Grindle (R-Altamonte Springs); Ron Dycus, chairman of the board of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce; Jane Johnson, representing Games' co-sponsor General Foods' Post Cereals; Cathy Fox, regional manager for Hartford Insurance, which has written a special group policy for the Games for nine years and Joe Werner representing Sea World and Cypress Gardens, which help promote the Games every year, and "Ronald McDonald," representing McDonalds of Central Florida, another sponsor. Ms. Johnson announced that Post, which has sponsored the Sanford Games for six years, will be sponsoring the 1986 Games as well.

"You are a wonderful example for your peers, your children and your grandchildren," she told the Games participants.

General Chairman of the Games, Jim Jernigan, who declared the games officially open, looked over the familiar faces in the crowd and said, "It's a great time to renew old friendships of the past 11 years."

The Seminole High School Marching Seminoles played for the parade and the Orlando Naval Training Center Band provided the music for the ceremonies. The Knights of Columbus honor guard led the parade and presented the colors.

The Golden Age Games will run through Saturday with everything from bridge to triathlon for those 55 and older. Tickets area available for the Wednesday night barbecue at the Games headquarters at the chamber building at 400 E. First Street.

mission and Planning and Zoning to approve rezoning.

The constant delays in getting the rezoning past the city of Sanford, according to Wright, were the main reason his company was unable to fulfill the time limitations involved in satisfying terms of the contract.

Wright said Friday his company had initial approval from the Sanford P&Z board for the proposed shopping center and housing development. He said that while he is not mad at the city of Sanford he does believe they made his company "jump through hoops" to get rezoning; a crucial point in the contract. The 11 acres of "surplus" school board property is directly across from Sanford Middle School.

The Sanford P&Z board had voted July 18 to approve rezoning for what was originally to be a row of 20 duplexes, a 80,000-square foot shopping center and total price tag of $3.6

Bob Martinez, mayor of Tampa and Republican gubernatorial candidate.

Brantley's announcement for lieutenant governor is expected within 30 days, according to Creamons. Martinez expects the governorship to open up with Democrat Gov. Bob Graham's intended bid for the U.S. Senate against Sen. Paula Hawkins.

District 27 includes portions of Seminole, Volusia, Lake, Marion and Putnam counties. Creamons, who owns Creamons Quality Cars in Longwood, lives on Maureen Road west of Sanford and in District 27.

Creamons said he has been active in the campaigns of Republican candidates and wants to see Brantley's seat filled by another Republican. He said he has lived in three of the counties in District 27 and is aware of some of the residents' needs.

"I am concerned with people and I want to help the people in any way that I can," he said.

The district has about 50,000 voters.

Creamons, a third generation Floridian, has three children and studied marketing at the University of Florida. His wife, Donna, is an assistant supervisor, probate division, at the Seminole County Courthouse in Sanford. The couple have three children.

million. One of Wright's associates, Robert Hattaway, then changed the plans for the duplexes substituting them for 14 single family homes to be more compatible with the surrounding area. The plans next went to the city commission who voted 4-1 to send it back to the P&Z board; a move that would mean a six week delay.

At a school board meeting in early October school board Attorney Ned Julian told board members that Allison had no basis in law for the suit and that the board could win the suit if Allison filed for the money.

"They don't have a leg to stand on," Julian said in reply to board member Joseph Williams questions about a letter that had threatened legal action within ten days if there was no reply.

Press Curbs Protested

LONDON (UPI) — The International Press Institute today condemned press curbs announced in South Africa last weekend as a travesty and a brutal assault on journalists.

IPI Director Peter Galliner, in a message to South African President Pieter Botha, said the ban on television and radio coverage of race violence and riots was a "mockery of your statement only a few days ago that press freedom would be assured."

The news blackout, barring television cameras and tape recorders from most of South Africa's trouble-prone black townships, took effect Saturday.

The press ban "is a brutal assault on both South African and foreign journalists who face indefinite detention, up to 10 years imprisonment, and fines if they are considered to act against the new decree."

Galliner said. "To accuse the media of being a catalyst to further violence is a travesty and shows contempt to the free flow of information. This suppressive law should be repealed immediately if South Africa wishes to be regarded as a member of the free world."

The news blackout drew sharp criticism Sunday from opposition politicians, newspapers and unionists, and the Sunday Tribune said the ban might force blacks to bring unrest into white cities where it will be visible.

Dr. Alex Boraine, spokesman for the opposition Progressive Federal Party, said the government brought down an "iron curtain" on news reporting.

"The blinding of the television camera and the gagging of radiomen is a flagrant violation of press freedom," he said.

Alcoholism Is A Genetic Disease, Not A Disgrace

DEAR ABBY: As one who was rescued by Alcoholics Anonymous, I have long appreciated your continuing public support of A.A. However, I was deeply disturbed to read the letter in your column from "Had My Say," who was sick and tired of hearing that alcoholism is an "illness," and went on to call it a "vice, a weakness and a lack of self-control."

Dear Abby

While I respect your policy of allowing people of divergent opinions to have their say in your column, I think you owe it to your readers to publish a responsible response.

The American Medical Association does classify alcoholism as a disease. There is documented research that alcoholics have a different physiological makeup than non-alcoholics; their enzymes, genes, hormones and brain chemistry work together to create their abnormal reaction to alcohol. And yes, it is a hereditary, genetic disease.

The alcoholic is never "cured," but by abstaining from alcohol one day at a time, he can escape the hell of compulsive drinking.

Although I had no choice of physiological makeup, today I do have a choice to stay sober a day at a time — or take one drink and spiral back into illness.

I know that I will never be able to drink "normally" again.

Knowing that alcoholism IS an illness has inspired me to seek the help I need to stay sober.

HAD MY SAY, TOO
DEAR HAD: As a recovering alcoholic, you are well aware that the alcoholic goes through a period of denial. He tells himself, "I am a social drinker ... I can take it or leave it alone." When he finally reaches the point where he is taking more than he is leaving alone, and the taking becomes costly in terms of friends, family and job, then he must face the truth: He can't drink at all. Ever. Alcoholism is a disease — not a disgrace.

Readers, if you really don't know whether or not you have a problem with alcohol, I offer you this test:

1. Have you ever decided to stop drinking for a week or so, but only lasted for a couple of days? Yes ( ) No ( )

2. Do you wish people would stop nagging you about your drinking? Yes ( ) No ( )

3. Have you ever switched from one kind of drink to another in the hope that this would keep you from getting drunk? Yes ( ) No ( )

4. Have you had a drink in the morning during the past year? Yes ( ) No ( )

5. Do you envy people who can drink without getting into trouble? Yes ( ) No ( )

6. Have you had problems connected with drinking during the past year? Yes ( ) No ( )

7. Has your drinking caused trouble at home? Yes ( ) No ( )

8. Do you ever try to get "extra" drinks at a party because you did not get enough to drink? Yes ( ) No ( )

9. Do you tell yourself you can stop drinking anytime you want to, even though you keep getting drunk when you don't mean to? Yes ( ) No ( )

10. Have you missed days at work because of drinking? Yes ( ) No ( )

11. Do you have "blackouts"? Yes ( ) No ( )

If you answered "yes" to four or more of these questions, you are in deep trouble.

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with one another so that they may solve a common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

Nostalgia For Oldtime Doctors

I'm a victim of my memories. Not the great ones, you understand, but a dribble of inconsequential mind pictures that are as much a part of me as blue eyes and graying hair.

Remember World War II? I recall our Victory Garden. How proud we were to have eked out half a meal of corn and carrots to Save Our Boys. I wasn't sure what we were saving them from; perhaps from our corn-on-the-cob, which was scraggly and boasted an in-house supply of fat green worms.

Whatever happened to sweater stretchers? Those smoothly sanded plywood forms with moveable arms were demons over which my mother — with what seemed to me infinite strength and patience — hauled, using fingernails and the entire weight of her body, ripping, newly washed woolen sweaters. One of her sweaters was light blue, and I remember a time she forgot to stretch it; when it dried, it was just big enough for me to wear.

How about wartime margarine? It came in a clear plastic sack and looked (and felt) like lard. On the inner lining of the container there was a reddish color button. It was my job every week to pop the button, release the coloring and then, through a prolonged and tiring ritual, knead the bag of fat until the entire contents were, more or less, homogeneously yellow. Heaven knows what we were eating then — probably supersaturated fat and Yellow Dye 79 — but it tasted good on a baked potato and, we were told, the fighting men needed the real butter for munitions. We were conscientiously patriotic in 1943.

I'd never do without my radio serials, though. Every weekday afternoon at 5 I would give myself over — body and soul — to Jack Armstrong, Superman, the Green Hornet, Tennessee Jed — and then, on Sundays — The Shadow, Bulldog Drummond and Jack Benny.

It's funny how things change — and not always for the better, either. What happened to doctors who made housecalls? What has become of the physician whose most natural gesture was putting his arm around you or holding your hand if you were troubled or sick? Where is the healer who was always available when needed? Where is the doctor who could balance scientific medicine with equally important medical art? Has the traditional physician, flawed but compassionate, gone the way of Jack Armstrong, Vic Hardy, Billy and Betty? Can he come back, or is he as much a trivial memory as Victory Gardens and necker's knobs? What a pity.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Pre-emptive bids by the opponents are a nuisance, unquestionably. Look at South's hand, which James Tucker of Abilene, Texas, held at the St. Louis regional tournament last August. He had plenty of high cards and if he had been dealer, there would have been a way to show 25 high-card points. Not any more. A takeout double by South might bring a bid of four of a minor by North (not on this hand), and then how could the good doctor get back into three no-trump? He found the right answer when he bid three no-trump right away. Notice, however, that it would have been OK for him to double if the pre-empt had been in clubs or diamonds. Now partner would bid a major at the three-level, and the double could get back into three no-trump.

In the play, Tucker ducked the opening heart lead. On the heart continuation, he won his ace and pitched a club from dummy. East also discarding a club. South next played his diamond ace, then A-K of spades and a small spade. East won with the 10 and then cashed the spade queen, Tucker throwing a club on the fourth spade. East then switched to the club king, which declarer ducked. On the club continuation, South won the ace and cashed his last heart, throwing a diamond from dummy. That brought in the contract, since East was forced either to unguard the diamonds or to make dummy's club 10 a winner by letting go the high club.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...
YOUR BIRTHDAY
November 5, 1985
 In the year ahead you will make an interesting and helpful new friend. You're not apt to become too involved with this person socially, but he or she will be active in your material affairs.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Things important to you might not be equally so to people with whom you'll be involved today. Avoid self-serving actions. Trying to patch up a romance? The Matchmaker set can help you understand what it might take to make the relationship work. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, Box 1846, Cincinnati, OH 45201.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Even though it will make good conversation, be careful today not to talk about something that another told you in confidence.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Business conditions are tricky today, and if you're not careful you might end up on the short side of a situation where you thought you had an advantage.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's best today that you do your thinking and talking for yourself. If you let others speak for you, they might commit you to something you've been trying to avoid.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It's best today not to voice criticism about others, especially co-workers. Your remarks could be misconstrued, and you'll end up making enemies.
ARIES (March 21-April 19) Try to avoid involvements today that smack of financial risks. Your gambling judgment could be faulty, and you may do things you shouldn't.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you fail to fulfill promises today, you're likely to catch it from all sides. It will be easier to do what you said you'd do.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Guard against tendencies today to make big problems out of little ones. Look for ways to smooth things over, not blow them up.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) The prudent part of your nature might be overwhelmed today by your wasteful or extravagant impulses. Don't let money burn a hole in your pocket.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Try not to blame others for your mistakes today, even though you may have some justification. You won't look good passing the buck.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Humility has its place, provided it is kept in proper perspective. If you see yourself as unworthy today, you might be denied something you deserve.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If it looks as though you'll get something for nothing today, be careful. You may pay a pretty penny in the long run.
