

Set Your Burden Down.
 Following is an extract from a little article in Farm and Fireside: "An aged, weary-looking woman, with a heavy basket upon her arm, entered the train at one of the way stations. Carrying her burden with some difficulty down the aisle, she found an empty seat of which she took possession. Instead of placing her burden upon the floor or upon the seat beside her, she continued to hold it, shifting its weight now and then from one knee to the other. A working man across the aisle watched her for some time in silence, but at last when he could stand it no longer he reached over and touched the woman upon the arm. 'Madam,' he said, 'if you will set your basket down the train will carry both it and you.' How much of human nature there is in this little incident! Some people never try to 'ease the burden' which circumstance has decreed shall be theirs. They insist on carrying it even when they might temporarily lay it down and ease their backs."

Alleged Critic Punished.
 A lively scene was created at Aberystwyth, Cardigan, Wales, recently by students from the University College. Adverse criticism of the college Rugged team in a local newspaper brought outrageous punishment down on a student alleged to be the writer. At the close of the morning lectures he was seized by his fellow students and marched to the castle ruins overlooking the sea. There he was bound, and upon his head was poured the contents of a can of syrup, while bags of confetti were flung at him from all sides, until he looked like a human kaleidoscope. Then he was borne on a truck like a trussed fowl through the streets of the town and along the Marine Promenade and afterwards released.

Derivation of "Cop."
 "When the policemen are referred to as 'cops' or 'coppers,' it is a very legitimate and historical appellation," said the old-timer. "You've never heard whence the term was derived? Well, here it is. "The first uniformed police force succeeded the old night watch, in the early days of the English possession, and the patrolmen wore large shields of copper. They were burnished until they could be seen shining like a beacon in the reflected rays of the sun, and even at night scintillated in the light of the torches which were forerunners of the white lights of Broadway. In no time the policemen were known as 'coppers.' Pert Young America found that too long, and 'cop' was the result."

Purely Mental.
 Mrs. Holden had been blessed with remarkable eyesight all her life. It was a great trial to her when, at the age of seventy-two, she was obliged to put on "reading glasses." "But they are really becoming to you, Aunt Hilda," said a gentle niece, by way of consolation. "No, they aren't," said Mrs. Holden, with her usual scorn for compliment. "Anybody's eyes look better without a glass in front of 'em, and you know it." "But you couldn't read without them," ventured the niece, "and you love—" "I could, too, read without 'em," said the old lady, refusing to be soothed. "I could read most as well as ever, but I couldn't sense it all—that's the only trouble."—Youth's Companion.

Demand Too Much.
 As a nation we are intolerant of rest. If we have a brilliant man, we insist upon his always shining. We want our rose bushes to bloom all the year 'round, we would have our trees all bearing fruit, and our suns always shining. We kill three-fourths of our truly great men in the prime of life by expecting and exacting too much of them, and then call the legitimate results of our forcing system a dispensation of Providence. Like the earth, minds must lie fallow at times. Perpetual crops will exhaust any soil, and perpetual excitement will wear out any mind or body.—Waverly Magazine.

Avoiding a Cold.
 Avoiding a cold is to a certain extent a matter of constitution, of habit, of manner of living and of mental hygiene. Some persons instinctively know the moment a cold begins to come on, and by stamping their feet hard on the floor and mentally defying it break it up at once. Others sit down by a hot fire and drink very hot water and get into a perspiration and then go to bed. Others inhale very hot air before a hot wood fire for a few times. A cold is a sort of nervous disease, caused probably by nervous shock from cold air on the neck or the base of the head or abdomen or back or feet or legs. These are the parts most susceptible. By toughening the skin and its nerves they bear cold better, and thus colds are avoided. The habitual cold bather rarely has a cold, but many do not think they can bathe regularly, and so the skin becomes more and more sensitive, until finally the very least change of air produces a bad effect.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurred Readers

West Virginia Democrats will hold district delegate conventions in the five congressional districts of the state Tuesday and the following day the state convention will convene at Parkersburg to select six delegates at large. The fight for a majority of the sixteen delegates is between the forces of Speaker Champ Clark and Governor Woodrow Wilson. Gov. Judson Harmon is a contender.

Friends of Col. Roosevelt announced today that the first real test of the strength between their candidate and President Taft will come next Thursday when R. B. Howell of Omaha, National Republican committeeman-elect from Nebraska, will demand to be seated as the successor of Victor Rosewater, acting chairman of the National Republican committee, prior to the hearing of contests by that body.

Gov. Francis McGovern of Wisconsin, chairman of the Wisconsin delegation to the Republican national convention in a telegram today answering an appeal by William Barnes, Jr., of New York, refused the support of Wisconsin for Senator Elihu Root as temporary chairman of the convention. Gov. McGovern's reply said Senator Root represented "political views and methods that should not be sanctioned at the Chicago convention" and that Root's selection would invite defeat in November.

Congress is about ready to investigate another so-called "trust" and in consequence some of the big men in the packing industry, who recently were acquitted in criminal proceedings in Chicago, probably will be summoned to Washington to tell why the price of beef and other meats has gone up. After a conference between Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the house rules committee and Representative Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the judiciary committee, a joint statement was made public indicating that such an investigation would be made.

Estenoz, the real leader of the negro insurgents, has captured and burned down the town of La Maya, on the branch line of the Cuban railroad, thirty miles from Santiago. The government gave out this information to-night. A column of regulars, commanded by Major Sanguily, had occupied La Maya for the last two days, but sallied forth last evening in search of insurgents. Hardly had the regulars left, when Estenoz with 800 men attacked the handful of regulars. Citizens armed themselves and attempted to oppose the insurgents, but were compelled to retreat, losing several wounded. Estenoz then entered the town, which he burned and sacked.

Fire at Fort Lauderdale

Fort Lauderdale, June 2.—The busiest section of Fort Lauderdale was swept by fire at 2 o'clock this morning, causing a loss, roughly estimated at $200,000. The Miami and Palm Beach fire departments were called on for aid, but reached the scene too late to get into active service.

A partial report of the losses is as follows:

Wheeler Mercantile Company, $70,000; Stranahan & Co., $65,000; Everglades Grocery Co., $15,000; postoffice wiped out. Other places destroyed which the losses have not yet been estimated were the Ft. Lauderdale Pharmacy, Pioneer Realty Co., C. Gutchins' Bakery, C. G. Rhodes' residence, Williams Bros., contractors, Snyder & Short, real estate; Johnson's millinery store; Jeffries' meat market, Herald printing establishment.

The Ocoola Hotel and adjoining properties were saved by dynamiting the adjoining buildings.

The number of crimes is on the increase, and they can be traced back to homes in which parents were too ambitious for their children in the direction of social prominence and too neglectful of them in the direction of character.

PRESS ASSOCIATION MEETING

Palatka Expects to Show Press Boys A Good Time

Tallahassee, June 1.—State Printer T. J. Appleyard, who is secretary of the Florida Press Association, is having his hands full getting ready for the meeting of the organization at Palatka June 20-22. From the replies coming in from newspaper men generally (and all of the craft has been invited to be on hand whether members of the association or not), there will be a large attendance at this meeting. Out of 150 letters sent out, only one editor so far has said he could not attend, and a great many have said their wives or daughters would be with them; sometimes wives and daughters.

The program, now being filled out by the Palatka people as to the musical features, will be a most interesting one. The Southern Printers' Co. Congress, recently in session at Chattanooga, was attended by Mr. Harry L. Brown, ex-president of the state association. Mr. Brown made arrangements to have some of the most experienced men in the trade attend this meeting and explain the "cost" system, which is a great help to the craft. These will include Mr. Frank W. Heath, secretary U. T. A., Philadelphia; Mr. R. T. Purse, of Savannah; Mr. W. O. Foot, of Atlanta; Mr. Hutto, another prominent member of the U. T. A., and Mr. William Pfaff, also a leading U. T. A. man.

The advertising discussion will be in charge of Mr. St. Elmo Massengale, of Atlanta; Mr. Glenn, of the Glenn-Reagan advertising agency, Tampa; and Mr. H. C. Clark, an advertising expert of Jacksonville. The whole time of the meeting will be strictly business, in considering matters of supreme importance to the newspaper men of the state.

Besides the social features, and the usual literary program always furnished by the association at its meetings, a banquet tendered by the board of trade of Palatka on Friday evening, June 21, at the Putnam House, will give free rein to the gentlemen who may have speeches to work off.

A very low rate has been arranged, participated in by all the railroad lines from all points in the state to Palatka. This rate is about one fare, except over one line, which is a little higher.

Every newspaper man ought to be present and hear the experts tell about "cost" and "advertising."

Murder at Clermont

A murder of such atrocity as to be well nigh unparalleled in the history of the criminality of Florida was committed Saturday afternoon at Clermont, when Mrs. E. H. McNeill's sister, Mrs. H. B. Hough was murdered in cold blood by her husband.

She was shot down shortly after two o'clock, as she sat at a sewing machine singing. Her little six year old son witnessed the tragedy.

Hough, crazed with liquor and dope, entertained a suspicion of a Doctor Baker, who had been attending the children for measles. That was the excuse he gave, but his mind was by no means clear on the point, because, after the shooting, he said he knew his wife was innocent.

Picnic is Postponed

The picnic that was to have been held at Geneva Ferry has been indefinitely postponed on account of the rainy season. The picnic was scheduled to have occurred next Thursday and had been anticipated with much pleasure, not only among the town people, but all the good folks of the East End, and many matters in the way of improvements were to be discussed. It is to be hoped that later in the season this picnic can be combined with the Growers' Picnic and take place some time in August.

A bank has just been organized at Umatilla with George V. DeVault as president. The institution has a capital stock of $15,000.

For a Clean City

The ladies of the West Side Improvement Society have had trash cans made and placed by seats on streets, so that persons can deposit trash when they sit on seats and eat lunch, instead of throwing it in parkway and on streets as they have done heretofore. The ladies hope now to have the streets look better and hope the people will appreciate the effort they are making to help keep Sanford clean.

AT ROLLINS COLLEGE

Interesting Exercises at Close of This Great School.

A LARGE CLASS GRADUATES

Long and Varied Program Rendered at Closing Exercises of Rollins on Friday Last Winter Park, June 1.—The graduating exercises took place on Thursday morning in Knowles Hall, the following being the programme:

Organ prelude, March, Op. No. 3, (Guilmant). Florence M. Smith. Prayer, Rev. Arthur Cushing Dill, D. D.

Hark, The Trumpet, (Buck). Messrs. Pope, Wetherill, Inman and Blackman. Address, Rev. J. W. Stagg, D. D.

Dance of the Fairies, (Denza), Eva C. McQuarters and Adelaide Voorhees. Presentation of diplomas and certificates, President Blackman.

Meditation, (piano, organ and flute). (Meitzke), Agnes Hill, Florence M. Smith and Elizabeth Krause.

Benediction, Rev. W. L. Harze. Organ postlude, (Beethoven), Florence M. Smith.

The musical numbers were rendered with great effect. Buck's brilliant Hark, the Trumpet, being sung with a special delicacy and power by Rollins' famous male quartet, who responded with an encore with The Night Has a Thousand Eyes, the exquisite song composed by our own Prof. Pope.

The commencement address was given by Rev. J. W. Stagg, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church of Orlando. Dr. Stagg is a warm friend of Rollins, and has had a son enrolled in the student body during the present year. He is an unusual degree familiar and sympathetic with college life, having been successively tutor, professor and president in important colleges and universities in the south. Dr. Stagg spoke of the conquest of Fear, and his address was one of the best ever heard at Rollins; it was characterized by Professor Blackman as being at once the address of a scientist, a sage, a prophet, a preacher and an orator.

Before introducing Dr. Stagg, Dr. Blackman spoke briefly of the twenty-seven years of accomplishment at Rollins, of the disastrous fire of two years ago which was so serious a handicap, and of the recovery and advance which have marked the year now closing. The registration has shown an increase of some fifteen per cent, in all departments over the previous year, and an increase of over one hundred per cent in the School of Music. Dr. Blackman also read parts of a letter which he recently sent out to all former students.

Certificates in various departments were given to the following persons:

Ira Jewel Williams of Jacksonville. Lashie Bruce Donaldson, Battle Creek, Mich. Inez Dunlap Guiteras, Mantanzas, Cuba. Ruth Hollinger of Altoona. Gladys Allen Lovell of Lakeland. Herbert Freeman Duncan of Clearwater.

Cecilio Donato Lopez of Tampa. Augusta Nelson of Mantanzas, Cuba.

Before dismissing the audience, Dr. Blackman spoke appreciatively of the faithful and efficient work of the faculty during the year, especially of Deans Hodgins and Ferguson, of the ill-health of Dr. Thomas R. Baker, for twenty years the beloved head of the Department of Science at Rollins, now retired on a Carnegie pension, and of the lovely character and remarkable efficiency of Miss Julia B. Reed, for eleven years director of the School of Expression.

A meeting of the Alumni Association was held at the close of the commencement exercises, at which Rev. F. P. Ensminger of West Tampa was re-elected president and Miss Grace Boone of Orlando as secretary. It was decided to hold a week-end meeting of all graduates and former students some time in March.

At 1 o'clock the Alumni dinner was held in the dining room, attended by many graduates and invited guests, at the close of which post-prandial speeches, full of wit and wisdom, were made by Rev. Dr. Cramer, pastor of the First Baptist church of Orlando; Miss Julia B. Reed, the retiring teacher of expression; Miss G. H. Abbott of Daytona, the only person who has taught at Rollins under each

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETS

Vote in Second Primary Canvassed on Last Friday

The official count made last Friday by the Democratic Executive Committee in session at the court house gave Kirkwood a majority over Hand of 99 votes. Clark's majority over Hilburn's was 311.

The auditing committee composing G. R. Calhoun, E. M. Strong and W. F. Dunn, reported that the books were correct to date, with a cash balance of $750. The bills for the secondary primary however are not paid.

Mrs. Ferris was voted $50 for efficient service in aiding the secretary in his work.

The auditing committee recommended to the general committee that the members be paid for their attendance at the committee meetings. No sooner had Secretary Ferris finished reading the recommendation than Mr. Whitner of Sanford was on his feet, protesting that the service of committeemen was a patriotic one, and should not be commercialized.

Mr. Calhoun of Sanford rose and spoke favoring the measure. His point was that some of the members come from long distances, that they are inconvenienced, and put at an expense to attend, and therefore should be paid.

Seth Woodruff rose and said that he doubted whether the law, if the question were tested, would permit the members of the committee to accept payment for their services.

Mr. Calhoun said "Gentlemen we haven't a quorum here today for the very reason that the members cannot afford to attend."

The recommendation was finally turned down, however, all the members voting except Mr. Calhoun.

The question came up whether the reorganization of the committee should be effected at once or be deferred until after the general election. The latter course was decided upon, and immediately before adjournment Seth Woodruff was elected temporary chairman of the committee. This was suggested as an enforcement of the chair "in case of death." In reality it will have the effect of practically giving Mr. Woodruff the chairmanship of the incoming committee.

The following changes will take place in the personnel of the new committee. Sam Griffin was elected in the 24th precinct to succeed Seth Woodruff, and Mr. Woodruff was elected to succeed Doc Abernathy in the first precinct. John Harris will take the place of J. H. Sweet. G. B. Bray, of Winter Garden, succeeds G. J. Bracy, Joe Barber of Conway will take J. E. Crawford's place.

Looks Like Extra Session

Tallahassee, June 1. There seems to be considerable chance now of an extra session of the Legislature. The Jacksonville board of trade has been in communication with the Governor concerning this, and has also sent letters to all the members containing an agreement for them to sign that they would limit the session to three days and in return the Jacksonville board of trade agrees to pay all expenses of the three days session. It is understood that a large number of the members have signified their willingness to abide by this arrangement and it is also understood that the only objection the Governor would have to calling the session would be that it might be the Legislature would desire to go into an extended sitting, for which there does not seem to be any great necessity now. But if a majority of the members agree beforehand to limit the session to three days it will in all probability be called.

of its presidents, Dean Hodgins, Hon. W. R. O'Neal, secretary and treasurer of the college for many years; Rev. P. P. Ensminger of West Tampa, graduate, professor and enthusiastic friend of the college; and Dr. O. D. J. Schadt, formerly instructor in modern languages, who is now doing so much for the development of Florida by bringing tourists and home-seekers to it.

In the evening, Miss Julia B. Reed recited in the gymnasium, by special request, George Ade's opera, after which the faculty, students, former students and invited guests gave themselves up to social festivities.

Thus ended the twenty-seventh year, and began the twenty-eighth, of Rollins College, the oldest institution of higher learning in Florida, the mother of many good men and women, esteemed and beloved by multitudes of friends.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Work on the new postoffice building in Sarasota is progressing nicely and the building is to be completed by the 1st of August.

It is almost a certainty that St. Augustine will have the Ponce de Leon celebration next spring, and it will be more elaborate than ever before.

Six baby ostriches were hatched a few days ago at the Ostrich Farm in Jacksonville. They are on exhibition there and are attracting lots of attention.

A tarpon fishing club has been organized at Anna Maria Beach. The club will give a $50 cash prize to any one catching the largest tarpon with the lightest tackle before September 30th.

Did you know that Florida leads all the states of the Union in the production of fuller's earth? Well, she does. Last year she dug up 27,658 tons and $265,000 of cash on this product, considerably more than half the entire output of fuller's earth in the United States.

Death of Geo. B. Dickinson

Hon. Geo. B. Dickinson died last Thursday after a lingering illness and was buried at Orlando on Sunday. He leaves a wife, two daughters and one son to mourn his loss.

Mr. Dickinson was one of the most prominent citizens of Orange county holding several positions of trust in the county and at Tallahassee, where he was a familiar figure at every meeting of the Legislature. Until the infirmities of old age crept upon him he was active in politics and was one of the best posted men on local affairs in the county. Being a good descriptive writer Mr. Dickinson was often called upon to furnish articles for the local press and his mind was a wonderful store house of information on men and measures.

Of a most lovable disposition, George Dickinson was a friend to all that knew him and his circle of friends was not confined to Orange county or the state.

He served full time in the great conflict and was a good soldier, as his comrades all testify, and their appreciation of his worth was attested by their attendance at the obsequies in Orlando, when the United Confederate Veterans buried him with honors.

His faithful wife has been a resident of Sanford for several years and the sympathy of the community is extended to her and the family in their hour of bereavement.

Warm, showers tonight or Wednesday, some today, tomorrow, and all summer.

Circuit Court Postponed

Circuit Court which was to have been held on June 4th, has been postponed until the 2nd day of July, by order of Judge Perkins. All witnesses in civil and criminal cases must be on hand on that date.

War in Cuba

Santiago, Cuba, June 3.—Many refugees have arrived here from Lamaya, the little town which the negro rebels under General Estenoz burned last Wednesday. Most of the refugees have been hiding out in the daytime and making their way through the night lest they should encounter roving bands of rebels and be killed.

These refugees report that on Wednesday last a band of about 600 negroes entered the town very suddenly, shouting "Death to the whites!" and proceeded first to loot the stores and dwellings, driving the white inhabitants from the village. Then every one of the seventy or eighty houses in the town was set afire and burned to the ground. After the fire had attained good headway the rebels withdrew to the hills.

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em'— So Says Saunterer.

¶ Coming from a revival meeting the other night a gentleman remarked to me that he did not believe in that thing at all. That a man who had to join the church through a revival would not amount to much anyhow. I did not have the time or inclination to argue the question with him but the greatest argument that I could put up would be for him to take a glance over the sea of faces at every meeting in the tent and there he will see people interested in the word of God that perhaps have not been inside of a church for years. Mind you I do not say that the tent revivals are better than the churches, for I am a church member, but it simply takes a different kind of treatment to bring people to the right way of thinking, just as it takes different kinds of treatment for different kinds of diseases. There is more or less of an exclusiveness about the church and it is more noticeable to the humble sinner than to most of us. This is an exception to the rule I am glad to say, but any other church member will agree with me that in every church there is more or less of an inner circle that takes cognizance of a man's social standing and the man in the humbler walks of life has a delicacy in breaking in and naturally stays away. Then there are men in plenty who are hard to get into a church building at all—you couldn't drag them in with a team of horses and yet they will go to a tent to hear the same gospel preached that they could get in the church under different circumstances. If these men can be brought to the right way of thinking by a revival there are just that many more souls saved and it matters little about the manner in which they are saved. There are many good church members today who were touched for the first time at a revival meeting and the chances are strong that they would never have been touched at any other time or place. I can well remember some forty years ago when camp meetings were in vogue all over the nation and I ascribe the great religious awakening of that time to these same outdoor meetings, where all were equal and where every one could come and worship God under the blue canopy of heaven. I favor the churches. I favor the revival meetings. I favor the camp meetings. I favor any and all methods that are orthodox in their teachings and that will bring the great masses to the sinner's bench. Probably the main point of the gentleman's objection was that of the direct way in which Mr. Bass soaks the people right and left without exception, and he probably stepped on the gentleman's pet corns. Preaching is much like newspaper work. You always like to see the other fellow soaked but your broad grin is changed when it comes to your turn. I believe that the revival meetings will do more to bring the people of this city to their senses than anything else. Sanford is not such a wicked city, but some of the people here are in need of an awakening to their lack of support of the churches and many of them have forgotten all about the Bible in the mad chase for pleasure and material gain. Nothing extremely bad, but just enough to prevent them ever getting a glimpse of Heaven, and it is the mission of Bass and Stapleton to reach out and bring them in and since hearing them I have no doubt of the result.

¶ A mendicant struck me on the street the other day to buy a pencil from him and following out the generous impulse that has always prompted me I started to haul out a nickel and then remembered our charity association plan and gave it not. I sprung the association on the fellow and told him in dulcet tones that we would like to help him if he would only present his claims for charity to the proper parties. I had no idea but what Rev. Waldron would buy all his pencils at once and give them to the school children. But the professional beggar would have none of it, and further conversation revealed the fact that he had spent the winter in Florida and was going back north to work the summer resorts with his graft. He did not want to see the secretary, but wanted to ply his trade among the business men because he knew that in a day's time he could rake in a bunch of money and get away with it. He was strong and able bodied enough, and the picture arose before my mind of this man spending his summers north and winters south, and the hard working people paying for his traveling expenses. I turned him down and left him hurling anathemas at my devoted head. But I was comforted with the thought that next winter these professional beggars will not have the opportunities to rob the people that they have had heretofore in Sanford and I sincerely hope that no more Sanford money will be given promiscuously to the curbstone tourists. Let every one become a member of the Sanford Charity Association and be rid forever of these Sanford nuisances.

¶ One of my merchant friends jumped on me the other day about the article in this column last week regarding early Saturday buying. The strangest part about this newspaper game is that when you try to do a fellow a favor he usually reciprocates by wanting to curse you out. I advocate the early shopping on Saturday because it relieves the tired clerks, the tired horses and drivers and prevents the delivery of groceries on Sunday morning when they should be delivered on Saturday night. My friend takes the stand that now the ladies call him up and if he is unable to make the delivery early they refuse to buy at all, which shows the power of the press in reforms, and my lady friends are evidently coming round to my way of thinking. Two wrongs never make a right and just because the merchant may lose a small order on account of the hour is no good reason why the whole of Sanford should wait until late Saturday night to order food that should have been ordered earlier in the day. I admit that a late order for meat for the Sunday party has no ice, and yet there are very few people in Sanford that cannot afford to keep ice and with ice you can keep the meat over one day at least. I still contend that I am right on the question and while not wishing to take trade from any one or hurt their business in any way, I will say that trading at midnight on Saturday can be avoided by the patrons themselves. I have lost business all my life because I stood for what I believed was right, and while I will never be rich in this world's goods the thought is always there to comfort me that I have not lived in vain and the world may be better off for my having lived in it. The greatest trouble in Sanford today is the idea of the majority of the people that they are living to pile up money and no thought is given to the hereafter.

¶ A farmer finds a one-dollar bill and appropriates it, by right of discovery to himself. He goes to town and pays it to a newspaper man on what he owed him; the newspaper man hands it over to a merchant to settle his account; the merchant pays his meat bill with it; and the butcher pays it back to the original finder to finish paying for a calf he had purchased, after which the farmer takes it to the bank and discovers it to be a counterfeit, and on the ensuing Sunday puts it into the missionary collection. Query: Are all these debts cancelled with the spurious one dollar?

¶ Merriopathy is the science of the healing laugh. Merriopathy is better than homeopathy or allopathy for curing all the gloom diseases and grouchy complaints that make life miserable. Some idleness needs drugs, some need the surgeon's knife, some can be smiled away, but neither you nor I ever knew of a sickness that was cured by a frown.

The wise physician well understands the therapeutic value of fun and a cheerful spirit. Medicine may be a necessary and powerful agent in the treatment of illness, but it may fail where fear and melancholy join hands with the disease. Laughter is one of the best medicines in the world, and lengthens life as well as brightens it. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," said the wise man, consequently we may employ it in

Great Revival On At The Big Tent

From day to day the increased interest in the meeting being held in the big tent, under the auspices of the Methodist church continues to surprise the Sanford people. Our town has had the reputation of being indifferent and cold toward such a religious movement, for reasons which cannot be explained, but much to the gratification of those in charge of the work, widespread interest is being manifested.

Evangelist Bass is a preacher of the old time type, who hews to the mark and allows the chips to fall where they may, and is as fearless as a lion. True to the reputation which precedes him, he is preaching in that same fearless manner and is sparing no words in expressing what he wants to say about the Sanford people. With every utterance there is a peculiar force which finds its way into the hearts and consciences of the congregation.

There was some speculation as to how the Sanford people would stand for the frankness of the discourses, but with each message there is every evidence of the deepest interest of the audience, even bending forward to catch the message from the pulpit. Never has there been seen a more anxious and hungry hearted people, says the preacher. While the large majority of people of the section have come here either to make money or to get well or both, and have almost forgotten there is a God, there is a decided change in the atmosphere of the town while the meeting has been running one week.

Not until the second Sunday of the meeting did Rev. Bass make a proposition to admit any one to make a profession, and he had been urged many times during the week to give the sinner a chance.

Surely our town is on the verge of the greatest forward movement the church and Christianity has ever seen in the section. Already the interest has surpassed the expectation of many of our citizens.

The hardest things said by Evangelist Bass are about the hypocrites, both in and out of the church.

On Sunday night the service held in the opera house was one of the best attended services during the week and many pronounced the sermon on "What shall the end be" the most forceful one preached by the evangelist. This is true, however, of each one you hear, the more you hear, the more you like him.

The Christian forces of the town seem to realize the need of Sanford and have united for the greatest possible benefit to be derived from the work of these two evangelists, who come so highly recommended, which reputation they have made good.

Debt paying, apologizing, dishonest deeds made right, loving instead of hating, ceasing to gamble and drink liquor are some of the reformations going on now.

The meeting is watched with unabated and unusual interest, and great things are expected to happen in Sanford before the end of the week.

The singing under the leadership of Mr. Stapleton, who ranks with the foremost leaders of our southland is proving a great drawing card to the meeting. His solos are forceful and full of gospel, many expressions of appreciation are heard of his splendid leadership and his solo work.

The congregational singing does great credit to Sanford, and there are few people who go into a song service who can listen and not become so enthused as to begin singing themselves.

The large choir is rendering some beautiful and attractive music, with Messrs. Brock and Thornton at the organs, and Mrs. C. H. Summers and Mrs. Davis of Orlando at the pianos, all of whom are rendering efficient service.

Altogether it is the best organized the best equipped, most impressive meeting that has been in our midst, and Rev. Summers, our Methodist pastor, has the cooperation of the other pastors of the town, and great good will surely come from the tactful organization, preaching and effort along all lines.

Rev. Bass will preach to women only on Wednesday at 4 p. m. A full account of the meeting, its organization and progress will appear in the next issue.

Flash Lights From The Big Tent

Some church members in Sanford are so cold and indifferent that if any one should sit down where they have been sitting there would be danger of taking pneumonia.

Even the churches of the town are so indifferent that the men who want to live right will tell you they would, but there is no one to help them.

You people of Sanford will put your preacher in an ice house, spiritually speaking, and cuss him because he don't sweat.

It is hard to be religious without religion. It is hard to be Christly without Christ in your life.

Any man who objects to a close gospel has sin either in his social, business or home life, and is leading a broad life and oft times a double life.

The hardest things said about the preachers and revivals are said by hypocritical church members.

Every Christian church member in this town can lead at least one soul to God, and if you are not where you can do it there is something seriously wrong.

Some of you church members in Sanford know no more about old time repentance than a hog knows about a side saddle.

Any man who is not willing for his wife, daughter or mother to live as he lives is rotten to the core.

The home is God's first and holiest school. God save you mothers from turning it into a dancing and card playing institution.

Age of the Gambler.

The eighteenth century was the age of the great gamblers. On February 6, 1772, there was a debate in the house of commons on the 89 articles, and it was noticed that Fox spoke very indifferently. Horace Walpole suggests an explanation: "He had sat up playing at hazard at Almack's from Tuesday evening, the 4th, till 5 in the afternoon of Wednesday, the 5th. An hour before he had recovered £12,000 that he had lost; and by dinner, which was at 5 o'clock, he had ended losing £11,000. On the Thursday he spoke in the above debate, went to dinner at 11:30 at night, from there to White's, when he drank till 7 the next morning; thence to Almack's, where he won £6,000, and between 3 and 4 in the afternoon he set out for Newmarket.—London Chronicle.

Both Sides of It.

"What's the use of disturbing the present system?" asked the man who had just received a quarterly dividend check of large proportions. "What's the use of keeping it as it is?" came the answering question from the man who had spent the day looking for work, but without finding it.—Life.

Filial Self-Sacrifice.

Asking that a sentence of three years in jail imposed upon his father be imposed upon him and that his own sentence of two years in jail be reversed to his father, a young man broke down in the Criminal court in Baltimore, Md., one recent morning and wept bitterly. The judge complied with the prisoner's unusual request and the lad seemed much relieved when given the chance to exchange sentences with his father, giving the elder man the benefit of one year. They were arrested some time ago on a charge of obtaining money through bogus checks passed upon tobacconists and confectioners. Several days ago they were convicted. Touched by the loyalty of his partner in crime, the elder man asked that the original sentence be adhered to, but the judge carried out the reversal.

Dangerous to Motorists.

With the coming of spring, it is said, those who own motor cars in a certain section of Massachusetts operate them with considerably less speed, not, however, always because of the county ordinances or out of consideration for their fellow citizens' safety. On one occasion two motorists were crawling up a highway where lately a friend (then riding with one of them) knew they had formerly gone at top speed. The friend asked why the car was running so slowly. "Why," explained the driver of the car, with perfect naivete, "everybody's carrying home garden tools now, and you can't run over a man without risking a puncture"—Lippincott's Magazine.

How Men Judge Dress.

In discussing the problem of what a woman should wear, if she desires to please a man, Emily Post says, in the current number of Dress that outline and color, most especially outline, are to be considered first. But whether the lace is real and the embroidery by hand he has no idea, she declares. If women dressed for men, they would spend about a tenth of what they now do. Certain things men appreciate, softness of textiles and beauty of cut—a man is very appreciative of cut especially of nice finish, good lines, good colors, but when it comes to this year's fashion or the fashion of before the flood—he does not know a thing.

Claude L'Engle has taken Toomer's waste basket and will use it in Washington as Exhibit A.

Once again, my countrymen, will you have that tourist hotel this year or wait until Hilburn is elected.

If Sanford wants a glad hand, do you think Kirkwood? Quick, Watson! with the shoe horn! Lake is running again!

If Sanford wins from Kimmee today what would Kimmee do to Morrow? Hurry, Harris, with the fire truck!

The Sandspur League will open this week and what do we care if Watson carried New Jersey or Claude L'Engle the waste basket?

The Sanford Herald is real proud of the parkway in front of the office and the example of keeping the premises clean could be followed by other business houses.

Senator Fletcher has a very fine press bureau, under the management of Mack Catheart, whose early experience was developed on the Tampa Tribune. Even now Mack talks in Gran Orient phrases.

The Herald wants to caution the Orlando and Sanford teams against any rough stuff with the Kimmee team. Those boys have been raised right and are Jersey fed and they go to bed every night when the curfew rings.

Mr. J. H. Reese, for the past four or five months in charge of the literary end of S. J. Hilburn's congressional campaign and who has made his headquarters in this city, will leave this week for Kimmee, where he goes to take charge of the editorial department of the Kimmee Valley Gazette, already one of the best paying newspapers of interior Florida.—Palatka News.

FOR BETTER WATER

At the meeting of the city council last night the question of better water and more of it was brought up and discussed in all its phases. There was no definite action taken but the council will have another special meeting to take up this most important matter at once. The Herald is gratified to find the city council take this action. The question of a better water supply for Sanford has long been the principal need of our city and now that the results of our crusade are bearing fruit the day is not far distant when Sanford will either own her water works or can be guaranteed a sufficient supply of pure water at all times.

MUNICIPAL DOCKS

Now that the agitation of municipal ownership of docks is being made in all cities in Florida that have fronts would it not be well for Sanford to consider the subject before all this valuable property is gobbled up by private parties. The question of a lake front has been spoken of many times but no action has every been taken regarding same. The bulk heading of the lake front if it is ever done will conflict with the ownership of the property along the lake shore and this question will have to be settled in the near future. Sanford will one day be a great shipping center for all the river trade and the municipal ownership of docks will then be a thing of the past. While taking up other subjects for the welfare of the city would it not be well to include the subject of municipal ownership of the dockage.

AN INSURANCE LEMON

As a result of the re-rating granted by the Southeastern Tariff Association because of the improved fire apparatus and facilities, about all of our brick store risks have been increased. This is the kind of a lemon handed DeLand by the fire insurance trust. As this association is an interstate affair, the attention of the members of Congress should be called to the matter and an effort made to have the trust investigated. In the meantime, our new senator and two members of the House from Volusia county, should see that the trust is outlawed in Florida, and the various companies constituting the trust forbidden to do business in Florida as long as they remain in the trust. Such laws have been enacted in Texas and Alabama and have resulted in a great saving to property owners in those states. Under the law in Florida at present, a combination of insurance companies is allowed to rob the people right and left and the Legislature has continued to tie their hands behind their backs and let the insurance barons go through their pockets in broad daylight.—DeLand News.

WHO WILL BE DELEGATES

We have not seen a complete list of the delegates to the Baltimore convention who were elected at the recent primaries. The following is the list in full for the information of our readers:

- From First Congressional District:
W. Hunt Harris of Key West.
A. P. Jordan of Punta Gorda.
- From Second Congressional District:
Dr. B. C. Abernethy of Orlando.
Robert E. Davis of Gainesville.
- From Third Congressional District:
Frank Mays of Pensacola.
J. F. C. Griggs of Appalachicola.
- From State at Large:
A. W. Gilchrist of Punta Gorda.
Frank E. Chase of Jacksonville.
Frank Harris of Ocala.
E. D. Lambright of Tampa.
B. S. Williams of Pensacola.
Dr. E. S. Grill of Palatka.

GIVE HIM A CHANCE

The Herald is sorry to see several state papers still talking about the great show that Claude L'Engle will make when he takes his seat in Washington. Hon. Claude is now the Congressman from the whole state, the first time such an honor has been conferred upon a Floridian and it behooves us as citizens of this state to grant him the same courtesy that we always grant the man who has won such a high office. It seems to the editor of the Herald, who is a personal friend of L'Engle's that the best or the least we can do for him is to grant him a chance to make good, and that Claude will make good is a certainty with all who know him. He is also a fellow editor and the members of the press gang should be more charitable in their criticisms now that he is not a candidate, but a Congressman. Claude may have his faults, but ignorance is not one of them and he will grace his seat in Congress with honor and dignity. His career as a newspaper man and his future career as a Congressman will be along widely divergent lines.

SHOULD BE CONGRATULATED

Florida, in the election of Mr. W. N. Sheats to the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, which he honored for twelve years, has not only shown that she wishes to give her school system to the direction of a man who is brainy and efficient, but that she is glad to take an opportunity to vindicate herself for failure to re-elect him eight years ago.

Mr. Sheats is an educator both by training and a liking for the work—two essentials. He is forceful and logical and of especial benefit in his position—he is well acquainted with school systems all over the country, by his wide reading and intercourse with the best educators of the country. And he wants to see Florida have the very best.

On account of a supreme court decision against the high school bill, by which it was required that all high school principals and teachers possess state certificates in the higher subjects, it has developed that numerous teachers and principals are teaching in our secondary schools without possessing high grade certificates. One principal of a high school we know has nothing but a first grade county certificate and there are high school teachers in Florida with the same sort of licenses.

Under Mr. Sheats' supervision it may be expected that a much higher standard will be set. It may be expected too, that many shams now permitted to exist for political reasons will be done away with. In fact, there are much brighter days ahead for the educational work of Florida and the state deserves congratulations.—Miami Metropolis.

Yesterday was Jefferson Davis' birthday. The only observance of the day was made by the banks and postoffice, which remained closed.

Residence For Sale

Tom Watson Arrested
Augusta, Ga., June 3.—Thomas Watson, one time Populist nominee for president, now a member of the Georgia delegation at large to the Democratic national convention, was arrested on a federal warrant today brought to Augusta and put under a bond of $500. Watson anticipated the service of the warrant, charging him with sending obscene literature through the mails in Watson's Magazine, and had his automobile at the depot in Thompson to meet United States Marshal George White. At Mr. Watson's home he played the part of congenial host to the marshal at a mid-day dinner upon the conclusion of which, Mr. Watson invited Marshal White to Augusta in Watson's automobile, the invitation being accepted.

Upon their arrival in another automobile, Mr. Watson's having broken down on the road—the former Populist leader was greeted with a cheer from some hundred people who had gathered in anticipation of his coming.

A qualified bond was arranged in the sum of $500, preliminary fixed for Friday morning at 11 o'clock, and Mr. Watson returned to his home this afternoon.

Mr. Watson's defense in the case will be that he published in his magazine matter quoted from Catholic books, or repeated editions which were copyrighted by the United States government; that the language and wording used in the Latin reprint in his magazine to which the postoffice department raises objection was an exact reproduction from these copyrighted books. He will be his own counsel in the trial.

"Dad."
"Dad" and "daddy" were well known in this country in the sixteenth century; "papa" did not come in, borrowed from abroad, until the seventeenth century was well advanced. Florio, at the end of the former century, defined the Italian "pappa" as "the first word that children are taught to call their father, as ours say 'dad,' 'daddie' or 'bab'." "Dad" seems to be the commoner to mankind of the two. Nausica in the "Odyssey" calls her father "pappa phile," dear papa; but Greek has "tata" also, and Welsh has "tat," and Irish "dadd."

New York Uses Much Water.
In the whole world there are only about 1,500,000 people. An inch of rain on our watershed normally would give two gallons of water for every man, woman and child on the surface of the earth. Put it another way: If every man, woman and child on the face of the earth should walk up to the lakes, reservoirs, etc., which hold New York city's water supply, and each pour in two gallons of water, it would not be enough to last that city ten days.

Infant Mortality.
Infant mortality is the most sensitive index we possess of social welfare of sanitary administration, especially under urban conditions. A heavy infant mortality implies a heavier death rate up to five years of age; and right up to adult life, the districts suffering from a heavy child mortality have higher death rates than the districts whose infant mortality is low.—Neusholme in the National Food Magazine.

Sheer Waste.
"The coal supply of the earth is limited," said the scientist. "No one can say how long it will last." "Great Scott!" exclaimed a man in the back row; "and here we've gone and wasted more'n a bushel of it beatin' the hall for this lecture."—Washington Star.

Ideal Temperature of Room.
An ideal room temperature for the sedentary is that between 66 and 70 degrees. Below these temperatures the heat regulating apparatus of the body finds it necessary to close up the peripheral vessels more or less, internal congestion slowly begins and the conditions for a cold are secured.

Every Week Bridge Club Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin delightfully entertained the Every Week Club at her home Thursday afternoon. Two tables of cards were played. Mrs. O. W. Brady made the highest score and received the first prize, a hand painted china bonbon dish. The low score prize, a deck of cards, was won by Mrs. G. F. Smith. After the much enjoyed game was over a delicious salad course was served. Those enjoying Mrs. McLaughlin's hospitality were Mrs. Forrest Lake, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. O. W. King, Mrs. C. M. Vorce, Mrs. W. D. Holden, Mrs. R. L. Hughes.

The Cecilian Music Club

The music program given by the Cecilian Music Club in the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson last Friday morning was a very delightful occasion.

Specially interesting were the piano solos of the young "musical debutantes" from the ages of eleven up. Their performance gives great promise to Sanford's present list of musicians.

In addition to the piano selections was a vocal solo by Miss Mercedes Munson, which was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Bertha Packard read quite an interesting paper on "What a Grecian statesman thought of music."

The program concluded with a group of choice readings by Miss Carrie Ensminger. Miss Ensminger is a talented reader and is always a great pleasure to her audience.

The piano numbers were given by the following: Misses Mabel Anderson, Hazel Hand, Margaret Davis, Luca Chappell, Essie Purdon, Marian Packard, Hazel Packard, Ruth Kanner. The junior folks' numbers were from Jessie Pell, Alice Caldwell, Ruth Waldron.

After the programme a large dressed doll, in blue and white, and in the latest fashion even to the blue ribbon bandeau encircling her hair; was presented to Ruth Waldron, who had gotten in more hours' practice during the year than any other pupil of her grade.

This Friday musicale was indeed a very happy conclusion of the Cecilian Music Club meetings until the second Saturday in October.

Charity Meeting Postponed

The Associated Charities meeting that was to have been held last Sunday has been postponed to take place at the Star Theatre next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Let every citizen of Sanford come and help start this movement right.

Mr. D. Houston spent Tuesday of last week on his orange grove near Sanford.

Services were held here on Sunday by Rev. Strickland of Apopka.

Woodland Park Notes

The outing given to the children of the Catholic school last Thursday at Woodland Park was a grand success. A beautiful day and a nice lot of orderly people under the able management of Father Bresnahan, as party of the first part, and the Mamie and Nettie for transportation and the only Woodland Park, with its enticing swimming pool and other attractions, as parties of the second part, made and kept their agreement to the full satisfaction of all concerned. The boats brought in six full loads, besides those that came by autos and other vehicles. Mayor and Mrs. Spencer came to see where their boys spent so much time. After a swim in the pool Mr. Spencer decided the boys knew a good thing and will join them hereafter. Three sisters of the school came and were delighted with the beautiful grounds and the clean, healthy amusement provided for the public. It is safe to say everybody wants to come again. People patronized it so well that the expenses were more than repaid.

Standing-Room Only.

According to statistics, the population of Paris is 2,700,000 and there exists a carriage for each forty-one inhabitants and a bicycle for sixteen. At this rate, making reasonable allowance for the smallness of Parisian families, hardly anyone needs to walk unless by choice. The total area of the streets of the capital is 924 hectares, and it is calculated that the united length of all the vehicles in use would cover an area of ninety-eight hectares. In other words, the accumulation of vehicles would represent about one-tenth of the surface of the city streets. As the number of vehicles is duplicated every fifty years, 1950 will find the number of vehicles in Paris too large for the city streets to contain, unless they are scattered evenly throughout the capital. But perhaps by the time Paris can no longer drive through the streets, it may be able to fly over them.

Qualifications for Success.

One secret of the life successful in any quarter is perseverance. "The story of genius even, so far as it can be told, is the story of persistent industry in the face of obstacles." "Perseverance is the statesman's thought, the warrior's sword, the inventor's secret, the scholar's open sesame." Robertson Nicoll's four qualifications for success in life are: (1) a definite object in view; (2) a determination not to be defeated; (3) the capacity for exercising continual self-denial, and (4) a certain belief in one's own powers. George William Curtis expressed an evident truth when he said "an engine of one cat power running all the time is more effective than one of forty horsepower standing still."—Christian Science Monitor.

To Minimize Accidents.

An interesting method of educating the public in the prevention of street accidents, which possesses possibilities in other directions, employed by the Boston Elevated Railway company, is commented on in a recent number of the Journal of the American Medical Association. The railway company offered a large number of prizes to high school pupils for the best specimens of verses containing instruction and caution in the way of prevention of traffic accidents on the streets which would appeal particularly to children. The plan created great interest among the school children, and a large number of answers were received. The company awarded about 200 prizes, the largest being for $50.

London Plays a New Game.

There is a new game which sportsmen are playing. To travel by train the greatest distance in twenty-four hours—on paper. For it is played with a Bradshaw. The astonishing idea of studying Bradshaw for pleasure recalls Lord Chatham's hobby. Lord Chatham boasted that he had read Bailey's dictionary through twice. And there was another genius who found consolation in queer literary fields. Lord Chief Justice Cockburn had no need of the new novel. He read Euclid. "Even now," he said, "I often read some pages of it for pleasure." There is no accounting for literary tastes, as the man said who read Bradshaw and Bailey and Euclid!—London Chronicle.

Mrs. Fairchild's Distinction.

Mrs. George W. Fairchild is among the best gowned women in the congressional set in Washington. One of her dinner gowns is a model on which the ceremonial robes of the summer will be built. It is a trained robe of heavy cream satin, with panels of blue chiffon extending back, front and on the sides from the low-cut bodice and ending at the hem in tassels of crystal and cut steel beads. The diamond necklace which Mrs. Fairchild wears with many of her ceremonial gowns follows the prevailing style in resembling a delicate pattern of lace. It is about three inches in width and fits as snugly as a glove.

Strive to Be Kind.

Is not the sin of sins unkindness? Because of it tears flow, hopes die, friendships are strained, and hearts well nigh broken. Not to be kind widens the breach between rich and poor, labor and capital, the fortunate and the unfortunate. Just to be kind heartens the discouraged, strengthens the weak, and makes heavy loads easy to carry. Be kind to those about you. It costs you little or nothing and is the best investment you can make. The returns will come back in compound interest. Your employes, your friends, your household, even your foes, will respond to kindness.—J. Wilbur Chapman.

Health.

Health is a state of physical, mental and moral equilibrium, a normal functioning of body, mind and soul. It is the state when work is a pleasure, when the world looks good and beautiful and the battle of life seems worth while. Health is the antithesis of disease, degeneracy and crime. The laws of health are as inexorable as the law of gravitation, as exacting as eternal justice, as relentless as fate, and their violation is the beginning and cause of all disease, suffering and sin. Health is the most desired of earthly blessings. When finally lost it cannot be purchased by uncounted millions, restored by the alienist or returned by the pulpit. Health is that state of happiness, faith and love whose prototype was the first man—Adam; whose ideal is the Christ.—S. J. Crumblin, M. D., Topeka, Kan.

Ruins of Old Roman Fort.

A Roman fort has been found on the farm of Mumrills, near Laurieston, Dumbartonshire, a mile or so to the east of Falkirk, Scotland. While plowing operations were in progress in a field on the farm referred to there were laid bare the foundations and ruined walls which had been buried for centuries. Several of the roads or streets were traceable. A local antiquarian expert, having been advised of the discovery, assisted in the search.

Newspaper's Great Influence.

The newspaper has greater influence in the home than any other printed thing, and your neighbor's conversation is largely made up of what he or she has read in the day's paper. What reaches them for the first time in today's issue in a week or a day later has become their belief and knowledge.

Dictograph.

The dictograph consists of a series of sensitive metal plates set in a hard rubber cylinder. In its elements it is a telephone transmitter magnified. Used in a business way it enables a man to sit at his desk in his private office alone and talk off his correspondence without the stenographer being present. The stenographer may be in the next room or on the other side of the building, but she hears the words as distinctly as though she were at his elbow, and sets them down. The dictograph promises to be of great service in detective work, and is already being used in that line.

Flames From the Sea.

Strollers along the Esplanade at Oban, Argyshire, Scotland, the other night were met by an unprompted spectacle. Opposite the Alexandra Hotel great tongues of white flames were seen leaping straight out of the sea not far from the beach. The phenomenon continued for about an hour, and drew a large crowd of onlookers, who speculated freely as to the cause. Stones were thrown in upon the flames, but had no effect. No conclusive solution of the mystery could be offered, but it is explained that the apparently strange occurrence was due to a quantity of hydro-carbon, which had been thrown into the sea.

Ownership of the Air.

The question of the proprietorship of the air has been raised by an action brought against M. Maurice Farman, the airman, by farmers whose lands surround his aerodrome at Buc, France. They complain of the disturbance caused by the too frequent passage of aeroplanes over their land, claim heavy compensation, and ask for the prohibition of flying at a height less than 650 feet. Other aeronautical manufacturers have associated themselves with M. Farman in defending the suit, which has been set down for hearing next month.

Automatic Stamp Seller.

London has found yet another piece of mechanism to delight its heart in a new automatic stamp-selling machine recently erected in the public office of the general postoffice. It is one of a hundred to be supplied to all the branch postoffices in the London postal area. It supplies half-penny as well as penny stamps, and has an arrangement for detecting and returning all coins not of the same weight or size as pennies and half-pennies. Foreign coins, "bad coins" and coins of other values are automatically rejected.

Made Study of Dictionary.

To read a dictionary twice through for pleasure, as Lord Chatham did, is not a tempting suggestion. But there is a hint in Sir Mountstuart Grant Duff's diary of 1877, when he was doing a good deal of train traveling on the continent. "In these last days I have been exceedingly amused by Brachet's 'Etymological Dictionary,' which Henry Smith recommended to me when I was in Oxford the other day, and which is a perpetual succession of pleasant surprises. It is an admirable railway book for one who can only read at the stations." As the lord said who dipped into the dictionary while waiting for Sir Walter Scott, the dictionary stories are almost short.—London Chronicle.

Where Tea is Eaten.

The tea grown in Burma is almost entirely made into betel (spiced) tea and eaten as a condiment. Therefore does not affect the world's supply of tea for drinking.

What Was in Her Heart.

"Tell me," he sighed—tell me, beautiful maiden, what is in your heart?" The girl gave him a look of icy disdain, and then pronounced the monosyllable, "Blood!"

Early at the Iveries.

James E. Zitek, three months old, has four teeth and is expected to be able to play the piano when two years old.—Chicago Evening Post.

More Than That in Life.

It would be a bad day for humanity if a man's debt to his fellow-men should come to be calculated and paid solely in rates and taxes.

English Snobbery.

Many will open their purses to a society which has a countess for a patron, but will not help the poor neighbor next door.—London Mail.

Choice Reading.

There is no doubt that a good detective story is better than a bum love story or a president's message.—Atchison Globe.

Endless Chain.

A mouse is afraid of a man, a man is afraid of a woman, a woman is afraid of a mouse—and there you are.—Chicago News.

He Would Better Keep Still.

A man who smokes and belongs to clubs never has any chance in an argument with his wife about expenses.

Never Sells His Horses.

It is the proud boast of Senator Martine of New Jersey that in all the years he has been farming he has never sold a horse. When a horse gets too old to work he retires it on full rations and lets it just loaf around the pasture until it dies.

PENNANT-WINNING PLAYS

By IRWIN M. HOWE, Official Statistician of the American League

MATHEWSON'S THREE SHUT-OUTS IN A WORLD'S SERIES

CHRISTY MATHEWSON'S abiding fame came in 1905 when he performed a twirling feat that has never been equaled in a crucial series. Pitchers glory in no-hit performances. They take pride in leading their rivals in stellar feats in a league season. One player only, however, has enjoyed the exhilaration of passing through three games of a world's championship without being scored on. That player is Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants.

With "Matty" pitching for a record in baseball, the Athletics had little chance to shine in that championship. It was a "one man" series, as all world's championships have been. Mathewson was the central figure.

Christy Mathewson.

sent the ball on a line to the outfield for a double. To be sure, there were two down, but that did not lessen the awful suspense under which Matty and his friends labored.

Chief Bender came up menacingly to spoil the fond hopes of the home rooters. The big Chippewa was at bat to drive in the tying run even if it spoiled a wonderful pitching feat never before equaled. He sized up his famed opponent and lunched on a fast one. It sailed down over third and Powers, thinking it good for a safe hit, dashed madly for home. Arthur Devlin sped toward the sphere, intercepted it, and tagged Powers racing to third.

New York fandom cheered the play to the echo for it had saved Mathewson a world's record. He was invincible thereafter. Not a player reached third after that play and not a single wearer of the Athletic colors saw the sight of the home plate for a run in the three games Matty pitched.

That final battle of 1905 won a world's diadem for Manager McGraw. And it crowned Mathewson with a jewel bedecked garland that has sparkled more brightly as time has enhanced the brilliance of his wonderful exploit.

"WAHOO SAM" CRAWFORD, THE CLEAN-UP MAN

SAM CRAWFORD, follow-up batter of Ty Cobb on the Detroit Tigers and for a decade one of the heavy hitters in baseball, was the nemesis of Fielder Jones in his ambition to lead the Chicago White Sox to a second world pennant.

It was the slugging of Crawford, more than any other influence, that baffled the brains, strategy and intuition of the crafty plot of the "bitless wonders." It was the crash of Crawford's trusty bat following the usual singles of the trio preceding him in the Tiger batting order that sent dismay to the hearts of opposing fandom and brought the first pennant in the American league to the City of the Straits.

The battle of 1907 in the American league was one long to be remembered. Four teams were in the race for the flag up to within a month or so of the season's close. Three teams, the Philadelphia Athletics, Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox, the world's champions, figured in a brilliant dash for the goal that aroused fandom to a high state of enthusiasm.

The White Sox were leading as late as August 25. Detroit and Philadelphia were only a few points behind. Jennings led his men into Chicago early in September and as the Tigers and White Sox lined up for the first game on September 3, Chicago fans were strong in the hope that their heroes would win every game and remain in the race for the pennant. They saw another world's pennant race ahead between the Sox and Cubs. With Frank Smith pitching for the White Sox and Ed Killian doing slab duty for the Tigers, with honors well divided and with the score favoring the visitors 1 to 0, the vast throng was hushed into silence as the Detroit batting artillery appeared in the fifth inning.

O'Leary led off with a single. Killian sacrificed. Jones walked, Coughlin scored a safety and O'Leary came home.

Two men were on bases when Sam Crawford stalked to the plate. The suspense was fearful. So many times had Crawford cleaned up on the White Sox that the fans feared for the result. It might have been good baseball to have passed the mighty swatsman, but Frank Smith refused to see it that way. The White Sox pitcher was after a put-out and "Wahoo Sam" had his eye glued on the fences.

Crawford as usual swung at everything that came near the plate. He picked out a fast one, yast high, leaned on the ball with all his might and it sailed out far over Eddie Hahn's head in deep right. Jones and Coughlin came home and White Sox hopes sank to zero.

That smash of wood and leather had won another game for Detroit, practically put the White Sox out of the race for another world's flag and blazoned "Wahoo Sam" as the champion clean-up hitter of the decade in his baseball orbit.

BRISCOE LORD'S BIG PART IN HUMBLING GIANTS LAST YEAR

BRISCOE LORD, left fielder of the champion Athletics played second fiddle as a hero to "Home Run" Baker in the world's baseball series October 16, 1911. Lord made one of the greatest plays of his kind ever seen in a crucial test at the season's close. This pennant winning play, marveled at by those who saw it in the tide of swiftly passing events has been forgotten. That one great stop and wonderful throw helped check the rising hopes of New York fandom, cast a gloom over the Gotham rooters and gave Eddie Plank a confidence that made him that day invincible.

Of all the great throwing outfielders in the major leagues there is none who has a shade on Lord, the pegging wonder who consummated this play.

Briscoe Lord.

the New York partisans when he met one of Plank's cross fire shoots squarely for a terrific drive to left. It was a screaming smash that looked the next door neighbor to a home run.

Lord dashed for the ball and Snodgrass, rounding first, started pell-mell for second. The fielder sped so fast his momentum-carried him over the foul line in deep left. Lord made a desperate lurch, speared the ball cleanly, steadied himself and shot it to Jack Barry, covering second, for the greatest throw of the series. Barry, without moving from his tracks, tagged Snodgrass out, and the fans gave Lord a hand seldom accorded a ball player for a similar feat. That great play, followed by Frank Baker's home run smash sounded the knell of New York's hope and gave the Athletics a confidence that made them invincible in that championship.

Cat Put Up Vicious Fight.

While calling at a friend's ranch the other day, a young Italian nobleman, who is ranching near Monterey, Cal., was attacked by a huge Maltese cat, a pet of the household, and severely bitten on the hand and in the back. He was walking up the steps of the house when the cat attacked him. The animal sank its teeth into the fleshy part of his back and clung to him with bulldog tenacity. In attempting to pull the cat off his back, the victim was bitten on the hand. The cat followed him to the gate, and he was obliged to use a club to drive it off.

Chinese Workers in Cuba.

John Chinaman is ubiquitous in Havana. The census of 1899 shows a Chinese population of 2,751, and here as elsewhere they are industrious members of the community. Chinamen are seen carrying burdens swung from balanced shoulder poles after the manner of their native country. On the outskirts of the city and in the suburbs are extensive Chinese truck farms. The market garden industry is largely in their hands. The Chinese quarter is in Zanja and Agulla streets. The Chinese theater is in Zanja street. The Chinese in Cuba are reminders of the coolie trade which brought here hundreds of thousands to virtual slavery. They were imported under a contract to serve eight years at $4 a month, and the planters paid $400 for them.—Havana Post.

Against Bogus Cripples.

The bona-fide maimed and lame beggars of Paris streets have formed an association for the defense of their privileges against the impostors who encroach on their beats. The president has been received by M. Bourgeois, the minister of public works, who promises to consider their demand of a certificate after medical examination. This will hinder, they maintain, an honorable profession from being dragged by bogus cripples, who are seldom brought to justice.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will, on Wednesday, the 12th day of June, A. D. 1912, or as soon thereafter as convenient, apply to the Honorable Albert W. Gilchrist, Governor of the State of Florida, for Letters Patent incorporating the Wight Grocery Company, under the following proposed charter, the original of which is now on file in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee.

HENRY WIGHT,
S. B. WIGHT,
W. H. WIGHT

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE WIGHT GROCERY COMPANY
The undersigned hereby associate themselves together for the purpose of forming a body politic and corporate under the laws of the State of Florida, with and under the following proposed charter.

ARTICLE I.
The name of the corporation shall be the "Wight Grocery Company" and its principal office and place of business shall be in the City of Sanford, Florida, with branch offices in such other places in the State of Florida and in other parts of the United States, and in foreign countries, as may hereafter be established.

ARTICLE II.
The general business of the corporation shall be to buy, sell, lease, and otherwise dispose of, or to improve, and to hold, real estate, and to buy, sell, lease, and otherwise dispose of, or to improve, and to hold, personal property, including, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, and other securities, and to buy, sell, lease, and otherwise dispose of, or to improve, and to hold, real and personal property, including, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, and other securities, and to buy, sell, lease, and otherwise dispose of, or to improve, and to hold, real and personal property, including, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, and other securities.

ARTICLE III.
The amount of capital stock of the corporation shall be Twenty Five Thousand ($25,000) Dollars, divided into Two Hundred Fifty (250) Shares of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, which shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, or in property, labor, or services, at a fair and just valuation to be fixed by the board of directors.

ARTICLE IV.
The term for which the corporation shall exist shall be perpetual, unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE V.
The business of the corporation shall be conducted by a president, vice-president, a secretary and treasurer, and a board of directors to consist of not less than three nor more than five of its stockholders. The directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders on the first Wednesday in June of each year at 10 o'clock a. m., at a meeting held for that purpose in its principal office in the city of Sanford, Florida, and its officers shall immediately thereafter be elected by the board of directors. Until those elected at the first annual meeting of stockholders, shall be qualified, the business of the corporation shall be conducted by the following officers: Henry Wight, president; S. B. Wight, vice-president; and W. H. Wight, secretary and treasurer, and Henry Wight, S. B. Wight and W. H. Wight shall constitute the board of directors.

ARTICLE VI.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation may at any time subject itself shall not exceed the amount of its capital stock less its surplus.

ARTICLE VII.
The name and residence of the incorporators and the number of shares subscribed by each are as follows:
Henry Wight, Sanford, Florida, 150 Shares.
S. B. Wight, Sanford, Florida, 50 Shares.
W. H. Wight, Sanford, Florida, 50 Shares.

State of Florida,
County of Orange.
On this day personally appeared before me, an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds, Henry Wight, S. B. Wight, and W. H. Wight, to me well known to be the persons who subscribed to the foregoing charter, and each for himself before me severally acknowledged that they did so for the uses and purposes therein expressed. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office at Sanford, Florida, this 11th day of May, A. D. 1912.
J. J. KINSON,
Notary Public.
My commission expires May 6th, 1914.

Decide About Exchange

This morning the directors of the Florida Citrus Exchange meet in annual session at Tampa to reorganize, elect directors at large and decide upon the methods and conduct of the exchange for the ensuing year.

The opinion is general that the exchange will continue for another year at least as a state-wide institution and there are hundreds of growers over the state who are hoping that it is so. Some of these are not members of the exchange, but they have shared to an extent in the prosperity brought about by exchange methods and they would regret greatly the restrictive plan advocated by those who have been instrumental in carrying on the work as it has been accomplished.

BIBLE STILL BEST SELLER

Continues to Hold Its Lead as the Most Popular Book Ever Published.

The one hundred and seventh annual report of the British and Foreign Bible society, the largest, if not the oldest, of such organizations, shows that the Bible still holds its ancient lead as the most popular book ever published. During 1910 the society distributed, in 432 languages and dialects, no fewer than 903,827 complete Bibles, 1,199,339 New Testaments and 4,782,730 single scriptural books. Its receipts from these sales—for though its prices are very low, it seldom actually gives Bibles away—were more than $500,000, and in addition it received about $700,000 as legacies and donations and from invested funds. Since its foundation, in 1804, it has distributed nearly 220,000,000 copies of the sacred writings, at a cost of fully $50,000,000. Its colporteurs today number 1,100 and its annual output of Bibles weighs nearly 350 tons.

The American Bible society, says the Baltimore Evening Sun, ably second the work of the great British society, and is almost as old, having been established in 1816. Down to 1900 it had printed and distributed 70,000,000 copies of the New Testament and the complete Bible, and since then it has continued the work at the rate of nearly 2,000,000 copies a year. It has given especial attention to the translation of the Bible into the Indian tongues, and is now ready to supply New Testaments, at least, in every such tongue as has been reduced to writing. Of late it has also given attention to the Philippines, and its colporteurs now distribute Bibles in Tagalog and all the other dialects of the islands.

Altogether these two great societies, with their Scotch, Prussian and Russian rivals, are now distributing fully 2,000,000 complete Bibles, 3,000,000 New Testaments and 6,000,000 lesser portions of the Scriptures a year. Just how many copies of the Book are otherwise sold in the world is not to be accurately determined, but the most reliable estimates place the number at 5,000,000 a year. In the United States alone the sales often exceed 1,000,000. No other book, sacred or profane, comes within miles of this stupendous record. The Bible outsells all the other best sellers. As a matter of fact, it comes very near outselling all of them taken together.

French Sailors.

Most of the French admirals are from the south, from which we may infer the greater success of their southern friends as politicians and perhaps their own skill in hanging their hammocks at the admiralty, says a Paris letter to London Truth. The bulk of the seamen are Normans and Bretons, but the latter are much more numerous. The Normans have in modern times grown lubberly. Under the Plantagenets they were less rich, soaked infinitely less cider brandy, had no factories and were constantly spurred to naval action by hostile Bretons. This kept up that spirit of hardy seamanship which landed the Dieppois in the time of the early Valois in the Congo and enabled them to trade in cocoanuts and those elephant tusks which their sculptors transformed into such beautifully carved objects d'art. The seamanship of the Provençals was brought out by the pirates of Algierines, Tunisians and Moors. Bailly Suffren, who "skimmed" the oceans in the eighteenth century of East Indian and British merchantmen, was a Provençal. Whenever England and France quarreled in the Valois or Bourbon periods the Normans went with a rush into piracy and found in its heaps of money.

Ray-Killed Bacteria.

A method for sterilizing milk without heating or adding preservatives is claimed to have been effectively demonstrated recently in Holland. An apparatus has been constructed, it is explained, whereby the milk flows in a thin stream along an electric light, the ultra-violet beams working on the bacteria. The result is attributed to the quality of the ozone formed under the influence of the light.—The Argonaut.

SANFORD*NEXT TO POSTOFFICE*FLORIDA*Reluctant Criticism.

"Augustus, dear," said the girl, tenderly, pushing him from her as the moonlight flooded the bay window where they were standing. "I think that you had better try some other hair dye; your mustache tastes like turpentine."

Going Over the Books.

"This item in your campaign expense account mystifies me," said the auditor. "I don't understand what you mean by 'raw material.'" "That's an error on the part of the stenographer," replied Senator Borghum. "It should read, 'hurrah material.'"

Husband Got Even.

In Austria a woman was recently sent to jail for opening her husband's mail. She began a suit for divorce on evidence obtained from the letter and her husband retaliated by sending her to jail for opening the letter.

Proof of a Weak Mind.

"In matters of great concern, and which must be done, there is no surer argument of a weak mind than irresolution; to be undetermined where the case is so plain and the necessity so urgent."—Tillotson.

The Best Gift.

The best gift is the one that shows thought—an appreciation of what will be pleasing and useful to the recipient—that is what counts for value, not the price in money.

Local Pride.

"Why do you insist on investing your money away from your home town?" "Well," replied Farmer Corn-tassel, "I've got a good deal of local pride, I have, and I regard the people in this here township as 'bein' as smart that none of 'em is givin' to let any real bargains git away from him."

Scotch Alarm Clock.

A tourist in rural Scotland took refuge for the night in the cottage of an old lady. He asked her to wake him up early in the morning, warning her that he was quite deaf. Upon awakening much later than the appointed hour he found that the old lady, with strict regard for the proprieties, had slipped under the door a slip of paper upon which was written: "Sir, it's half past eight."

China's Long Waterway.

China has the longest canal in the world—the Grand. It is the longest certified waterway, and goes from Tungtu to Hangchoo, a distance of 600 miles.

Open to Suspicion.

The man who opposes the revival of the knee breeches idea will be subject to suspicion, no matter how impersonal his motives.—Atlanta Journal.

"Fear Well Founded.

"I fear," sadly said the postage-stamp, when it found itself fastened to a love letter, "that I am not sticking to facts."

A Misanthrope.

There is no use wasting sympathy on a man who can't be happy with good health, good meals and good weather.

Morally Speaking.

Morally speaking, the person usually alluded to as the man higher up is in reality the one lower down.—Washington Star.

Point for Consideration.

"We must consider, not what the wise will think, but what the foolish will be sure to say."—Sir Arthur Helps.

Her Own Hat the Obstruction.

A woman in a Vienna theater came out after the first act and asked to have the price of the ticket refunded, on the ground that having complied with the request to remove her hat she had held it on her knees and thus entirely obstructed her own view of the stage.

Altered the Case.

Mrs. de Mover—"Good gracious! This is the noisiest neighborhood I ever got into. Just hear those children screech!" Maid—"They're your own children, mum." Mrs. de Mover—"Are they? How the little darlings are enjoying themselves!"—"Tit-bits."

A Backsliding Santa Claus.

Mrs. Peavish says that before they were married Mr. Peavish used to say that if she would let him be her Santa Claus he would devote his life to sliding up and down the chimney for her. And now it makes him mad to have to take up ashes from the grate.

Young Offender.

A woman left her baby in its carriage at the door of a department store. A policeman found it there, apparently abandoned. As he passed down the street, a gamin yelled: "What's the kid done?"—Collier's.

In New York.

New York now has all-night ban's, all-night saloons, and all-night restaurants. We are informed that the churches continue to close early.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Called.

"I asked the audience to lend me their ears," said the verbose speaker. "But in three-quarters of an hour they were dozing." "I see," replied the flauter. "They called the loan."

Deceptive Label.

A mother in a West End home attended a concert, and when she returned she was met by the servant with: "Baby was very ill while you were out, ma'am."

"Oh, dear!" said the mother, "how was bad at first?"

"Yes, yes, and what did you do?" anxiously.

"I found his medicine in the cupboard."

"Good gracious," in extreme horror, "What have you given him? There's no medicine there."

"Oh, yes, there is," smiled the servant knowingly.

"And what did you give him? And how did you know it was his medicine?"

"'Cause it's written right on it," and the servant then produced a bottle labeled "Kid Reviver."—Lutath News-Tribune.

Holy Rood Day.

Holy Rood day was formerly a festival for British schoolboys, who were granted a holiday, without getting up a strike, for the purpose of going nutting. At Eton the boys had to write Latin verses about the fruitfulness of autumn or the cold of the coming winter before they were allowed to gather the nuts, which they had to share with their masters. This anniversary should inspire the city corporation and the London county council to replant the nut bushes in Epping forest and the recovered remnant of Hainault forest, of which they have the management.

The hazel is supposed to have been extirpated from the royal forest of Waltham, to prevent the "tall deer" being disturbed by nutting parties of noisy apprentices from London. At present there is only one nut bush in Epping forest, and not even one in Hainault.

NEW HOTEL IS ASSURED

Plans Have Been Formulated to That Effect

ORIGINAL IDEAS CARRIED OUT

Fuller Details Of Hotel Will Be Given Readers in Next Issue Of Sanford Herald

As the Herald goes to press we are informed by W. T. Field that the new tourist hotel is an assured fact and knowing that our people are interested in this project the item is given publicity at once. The full particulars cannot be given but enough is gleaned to give out to the world that Sanford is destined to have at once the plans for one of the finest hotels in middle Florida. The original plans will be followed and Architect Tally of Jacksonville will furnish the builders plans at once. The directors of the Sanford House and several capitalists met to-day and the stockholders of the Sanford House expressed their willingness to come in on the deal and to foster the latest plan in every way and this means that the hotel will be built.

The arcade plan looked good to the gentlemen present and also the bulk heading of the lake front and the architects plan together with full particulars will be given as soon as they are available. Meantime let everyone take an added interest in this great project that will mean so much to Sanford.

Wife Murderer in Danger

A. V. Hough, of Clermont, who shot down his young and beautiful wife Saturday in her home while she was sitting at a sewing machine, was committed without bail by Judge E. M. Tally, at Tavares yesterday.

Hough was arraigned for a preliminary hearing and plead guilty, which is taken to indicate that through his attorney Harry Duncan he means to make a fight for liberty or at least clemency.

The feeling against him in Clermont and throughout that section is running so high, however, that there is likelihood that he will be lynched. The sentiment was freely expressed in Tavares yesterday that if he were allowed to secure bond he wouldn't live an hour.

To avert a lynching, Judge Bullock has been petitioned by Sheriff Murree to hold court immediately and to make doubly sure that this move is effected the Lake County Commissioners will petition the Governor.—Reporter-Star.

Stung Josiah Ferris

Mayor Reynolds of Orlando has been soaking offenders right and left for riding bicycles on the sidewalk and his latest catch is Josiah Ferris, an alleged newspaper man, who operates the keyboard of the Orlando Sentinel. Josiah faced the mayor in all the dignity and emoluments of the editorial capacity and plead "guilty."

Said Mayor Reynolds: "You will have to get a witness to prove the truth of your assertion" and Josiah left wondering just what Mayor Reynolds meant.

Ismay Admits Truth

London, June 5.—Bruce Ismay told the British court of inquiry today that it had been planned to drive the Titanic at full speed during a few favorable hours of her maiden trip, and that he considered Capt. Smith fully justified in going at full speed through the ice region, so long as weather conditions made it possible to see ice ahead.

Sanford Man Honored

At the annual state convention of the postal clerks held in Ocala last week Mr. W. H. Wright of this city was elected vice president. Mr. Wright is one of the most enthusiastic members and this added honor is appreciated by his many friends in the state and in Sanford, where he is also the president of the local branch.

Lamp Chimneys

In country homes the breaking of lamp chimneys often causes a great deal of bother. I have found if one will put all new chimneys in a pall of cold water and put on the fire to boil for a couple of hours the chimneys will last twice as long as an ordinary one.

O! O! O! Or-land-O!

Sanford Collegians Chased in Four Runs in One Inning

They can call it Lucky Orlando now for the rain saved the Orlando team from total annihilation yesterday. In the first inning the Collegians piled up four runs and the Tourists had never seen the ball or first base. Then came the gentle rain and pulled the veil of clouds to hide the awful slaughter and the game was stopped and Judge Warlow called it murder in the first degree.

What a story could have been told! What a fall, my countrymen!

In their new suits from McCrorys and with the eyes of the Orlando girls upon them the Tourists played like a bunch of golfers at the Orlando Country Club. The Sanford team depended upon Father Wallace to do the heaving and Lough, the receiving. Orlando depended upon a broken field by the name of Tilden to relay the ball and an ex-celery grower named Beardall to catch the ball after it had hit the back stop.

Beardall has been studying baseball for ten years at various colleges and hopes by close application to his studies to be able to make the Fort Reed team next year.

There is no authentic account of the game as the records were carried to the court house and locked in the vault after the game.

A close observer of yesterday's game however was convinced that Sanford had several ball players.

A SLOW GAME

Sanford Wins From Kissimmee by Score of 2 to 1

Last Tuesday the Cowboys tried the Collegians at Holden Park and the game proved to be nothing more than a practice game. The bleachers were filled by the faithful fans who wanted to get a line on the new players. Lee was sent into the box by Sanford and the exhibition given by him proved that Manager Steven's judgment was good. The college boys were tired from their long journey and did not show up in their true form. Wallace relieved Lee in the third and showed all of his old time form. He will be better than last year if such a thing is possible. The game Tuesday was a comedy of errors and listless playing and at that the score was good, showing Sanford 2, Kissimmee 1 at the end of the seventh when the game was called to allow the Kissimmee team time to catch the train. Buzza for the Kissimmee team was the same good little twirler and pitched a steady game although the Sanford boys seem able to find him at all times. Speed of the visitors proved true to name and did some excellent work in the grass. When the new team arrives in force Sanford will have a good bunch of ball tossers and the best part of this year's contract is the fact that they are gentlemen and there will be no rough stuff on the part of either Sanford or Orlando. Ball will be played as she is writ and the professor of profane language will not be allowed a place on the diamond.

Bad on the Watermelons

The continued rains are playing havoc with the growing watermelons and the chances for plenty of this delightful diet are rather slim. Word comes from the fields in Lake county that the rains are blighting the melon vines badly and a short crop will result. The Sanford growers report the bloom being knocked off by the rains and that the crop in this section will also be short. The melon crop last year was a source of profit to the local growers and it is to be hoped that their fears are groundless regarding the late crop for aside from the money that will accrue to the growers all of us like a few melons now and then.

For The Flood Sufferers

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Sanford desire to thank all those who so kindly contributed clothing and supplies to the flood sufferers of Mississippi and Alabama. Two barrels were forwarded to Jackson, Miss. for distribution.

The ladies also wish to thank the Southern Express Company for the free transportation of these barrels. Mr. Reed for hauling them to the station; and Mr. Stockton for the barrels.

Fort Reed Church

There will be preaching at the Fort Reed church next Sabbath at 11 o'clock, a. m., and 4 o'clock, p. m. by Rev. Rosenberg. All are invited. Sunday School at 8 p. m.

Communication from county solicitor in reference to delinquent license payers received and read.

The petitioners of Black Hammock drainage district having presented the proof of publication and the same filed, the following resolution was passed in open board:

Whereas, on the 7th day of May, A. D. 1912, a petition was presented to the county commissioners of the county of Orange and state of Florida, by Oliver L. Scope et al., requesting the board of county commissioners to establish a public drain or canal through certain described lands, which said petition was signed by a majority of those owning lands through whose property such ditch, canal or drain shall run, and those owning contiguous land thereto who are to receive the benefit of such drainage, and whereas, under and by virtue of the law, the said petition was laid over until the next regular meeting of the board of county commissioners, and whereas the said county commissioners did give notice by publication for at least three (3) weeks in the Oviedo Advance, a newspaper published at Oviedo, Orange county, Florida, that said petition would be considered at a meeting of the county commissioners to be held on the first Tuesday, being the 4th day of June, A. D. 1912, citing all persons who may be interested to appear and present any reason why such petition should or should not be granted, and whereas on the 4th day of June, A. D. 1912, the said board of county commissioners did consider such petition, and being of the opinion that such petition should be granted,

Now, therefore be it resolved by the county commissioners of the county of Orange, that the said petition ought to be granted and is hereby granted and affirmed, and that such drainage district be established.

Be it further resolved that the county

WOMAN WORKS NEW RACKET

Procures Children For Home and Deserts Them on Street

Representing herself to be connected with a prominent children's home of North Carolina, a certain woman now traveling under the name of Mrs. Kornegay, is making a business of obtaining children from poor parents, forcing them to beg for her, and stranding them when their services are no longer desirable to her in any city she happens to be at that time. According to Marcus C. Fagg, who has learned of the conduct of the woman, she has already stranded four children in different cities, and has two children with her now.

Superintendent Fagg will leave the city immediately to rescue the latest victim of the "generous-hearted" Mrs. Kornegay. He has received a telegram from Sanford, asking him to come for the child at once, and has decided that the matter is too important to delay. However, he has wired to authorities of North Carolina and says that there is no such institution as represented by the woman.

"I do not know where the woman is," she is playing a crooked game and is making children her instruments. After representing herself to be connected with a charitable institution, she has at different times gotten possession of four children. Two she left stranded at Savannah, one at Tampa, one at Sanford, and she has two more children with her now.

"According to what I have learned by investigating the matter, she calls upon poor people and persuades them to believe that she can better the condition of one or more of their children. She promises that she will pay the children's fare to the school she claims to represent, and also says she will care for the children well. She has used several names, and before she chose the high sounding name of Mrs. Kornegay, she carried on her work under the name of 'Mrs. Smith.'

"Instead of taking them to a home, this woman takes the children from place to place and forces them to beg for her. They have to go from house to house, claiming to be orphans in need of help. They show pathetic letters, and the woman is supposed to reap a harvest in what they obtain. Just why she leaves them stranded I do not know, unless she finds that 'new brooms sweep clean' and gets more results by changing children now and then.

"People should be careful, and not let themselves be duped in this manner. They should investigate before allowing their children to be taken from them. The two children who are still in the hands of the woman were taken from Lakeland. The child she left stranded at Tampa was a little girl which was obtained from her mother at Plant City. The Children's Home Society of Florida has a complete list of the children's homes in the United States, and if people would write us, we would be glad to inform them.

"People of Florida must be the most liberal hearted people in the country. There are many crooks who dress in lamb skins. I am satisfied that between $5,000 and $10,000 a year which is given away goes into improper hands. I have just received a telegram from Miami, stating that a supposed minister, calling himself 'Reverend Wilson,' had collected $150 for a children's institution of Georgia, and had left the city. They want some information regarding the institution, of which he claims to be the superintendent.

"I have wired those who desired the information that there is no such place in Georgia. That is why I say people should be careful. Our society does not want all of Florida's contributions; let the people give to other States if they please, but people who give children to those whom they do not know, are worse than those who give their money to fakers. This association, or the Associated Charities of this city, would be glad to answer any question regarding charitable institutions if people will write us. This would save money meant for good from going into the hands of rogues."—Jacksonville Metropolis.

At The Presbyterian Church

There will be the usual services at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Clarence Ferren, of DeLand. All members are requested to be present. Strangers stopping in the city are cordially invited to attend these services.

The salaries of all of the teachers in the Duval High School in Jacksonville will be increased $5 beginning with the fall term.

The officers in Tampa are going to rigidly enforce the city and State laws about screening restaurants, boarding houses, fruit stands, meat markets, etc.

A modern and up-to-date apartment house is to be erected in St. Petersburg this summer. Eight apartments will be included in the building, each equipped with bath and all modern conveniences.

Pensacola is making ready for the entertainment of owners of motor boats, from New Orleans to Tampa, who are coming to the Deep Water City on the Fourth of July for the big regatta that has been announced as the special feature of the Independence Day celebration.

News comes from Key West that the United States is now prepared for all emergencies should intervention in Cuba become necessary. Eight warships have arrived in Key West to serve as an advance guard of the intervention forces unless President Gomez is successful in crushing the negro revolution.

The trial of Willis Baxley of Sumterville, charged with the murder of John A. Jones, resulted in a mistrial, at Ocala, the jury reporting that they could not agree. Mrs. Jones, who was tried at the same time as an accessory to the killing, was acquitted. Jones was for several years the superintendent of schools of Sumter county and was well known and highly regarded. His killing caused a great sensation in this community.

An immense canning plant may be established in Tampa within a short time by the Beechnut company of New York, one of the largest concerns in the country. Secretary Ellithorp, who has been in Tampa recently, looked over the field thoroughly, and left there with a favorable impression. Before going he said he would recommend the establishment of a plant to can and preserve fruits and vegetables. It is expected that within the next few days a definite announcement will be made. Secretary Powell of the board of trade is assisting the company in every possible manner. Tampa Times.

Capt. Charles Thompson, of the yacht Samoa, was towed into Miami on Tuesday bringing with him some curious un-named deep-sea creature, about forty feet long. Capt. Thompson is unable to give the name of the creature, and no one else seems to know what it is. Telegrams have been sent to the Smithsonian institute, with an accurate description of the monster, asking for the name, but so far no reply has been received. Crowds of interested persons have gathered about the south bank of the Miami river, where the creature has been hauled out, and are eagerly paying the enterprising Captain Thompson 25 cents each for a look at the giant fish.

For Associated Charities

The postponed meeting for Associated Charities is to be held at the Star Theatre next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Be sure to be on hand and help put this most important work on its feet. The meeting is called to adopt the constitution and to elect directors and officers for the coming year.

Children's Day Next Sunday

Children's Day will be observed at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. The Sunday school has prepared a very full and interesting program which takes the place of the morning service and begins at 11 o'clock. Special features of the morning will be songs and recitations by the infant school. Let parents come out with their children and make this an occasion long to be remembered.
