

Seminole To 'Pink-Slip' 15 MVI Employees

Fifteen persons employed in the state motor vehicle inspection (MVI) program in Seminole County are to be notified that their jobs are being abolished.

In a work session Monday the Seminole County Commission instructed County Administrator Roger Neiswender to notify employees of the county's three MVI stations the service will go out of business Sept. 30.

Two weeks ago Commission Chairman Bob Sturm and Commissioners Robert Feather and Sandra Glenn told Neiswender to gather information on the possibility of the county continuing on a six-month trial basis a voluntary MVI program at the Sanlando Springs station.

However, Commissioners Bill Kirchhoff and Barbara Christensen, absent from that meeting, both voted "no" Monday on the idea of any type MVI program when the service is no longer required by state law after Sept. 30.

Neiswender forced the issue Monday, saying the commissioners had an obligation to the 15 employees operating the program to give them at least 30 days notice if their jobs were to be eliminated.

Neiswender said if the program were going to be halted, the employees needed time to seek new jobs and the county administration needed time to place as many as possible in other positions.

"We would retain the most qualified if you decide to keep one station open," he said.

The commissioners agreed unanimously to notify the employees that their jobs are being eliminated.

Mrs. Glenn said she would not want to give the employees false hope that their jobs may continue. She also said since the state did away with the program she doesn't want Seminole County taxpayers subsidizing it.

Sturm said earlier a movement existed among insurance companies to give persons obtaining voluntary safety inspections a break in their insurance rates. He said Monday, however, the company at which he is employed—Sentry Insurance Co.—is applying for permission to give a rebate to customers for inspection costs.

He said the application being filed with state Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter's office asks permission to refund to Sentry's clients the cost of the voluntary inspections.

The commissioners agreed to accept proposals from persons wishing to lease the three inspection stations at Sanford, Casselberry and Sanlando. If the stations are leased, the commissioners decided, the leases would be for no more than two years and major alterations would not be permitted.

Neiswender said this would give the county the ability to go back into the MVI business if the state should change its mind about the program.

Don Mattoon, director of the county's MVI program, said many persons, while getting their vehicles inspected recently, have said they would like to see the program continued on a voluntary basis.

He said a voluntary program would cost the county about $44,000 annually and five employees would be necessary.

Even though the inspection program is to remain in effect until Sept. 30, Mattoon said business at the Seminole stations was off last week by 30-to-37 percent. The county still made a profit of $671 for the week, however, he said.

Mattoon added he expects business this week to be about 30 percent lower than the same period last year. He said he still expects the county to make a small profit.

"The final week in August can be expected to be very busy," he said. — DONNA ESTES

MICHAEL GRAY Gray Appointed To Water Board

Michael Gray, an associate in the Sanford law firm of Cleveland and Bridges for the past 15 months, has been appointed by Gov. Bob Graham to the St. Johns River Water Management District Board of Directors.

Gray, 33, a resident of Sanford since his youth, is a graduate of the Cumberland Law School of Birmingham, Ala. He has been actively involved in the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce St. Johns River Task Force. He and his wife, Mary Lynn, son, Tyler, and daughter, Jessica, make their home in Sanford.

Altamonte Residents Help

Stricken Child Will See Disney

With the help of Altamonte Springs volunteers, Franis Geringer, an 8-year-old South African boy suffering from premature aging, will get to visit Pinocchio at Disney World after all.

Volunteers in Altamonte Springs, Winter Park and St. Petersburg have raised more than $3,000 to bring Franis and his family to the United States this fall.

Fraül and bald, Franis has progeria, a rare disease with an unknown cause that can age victims 10 times faster than normal.

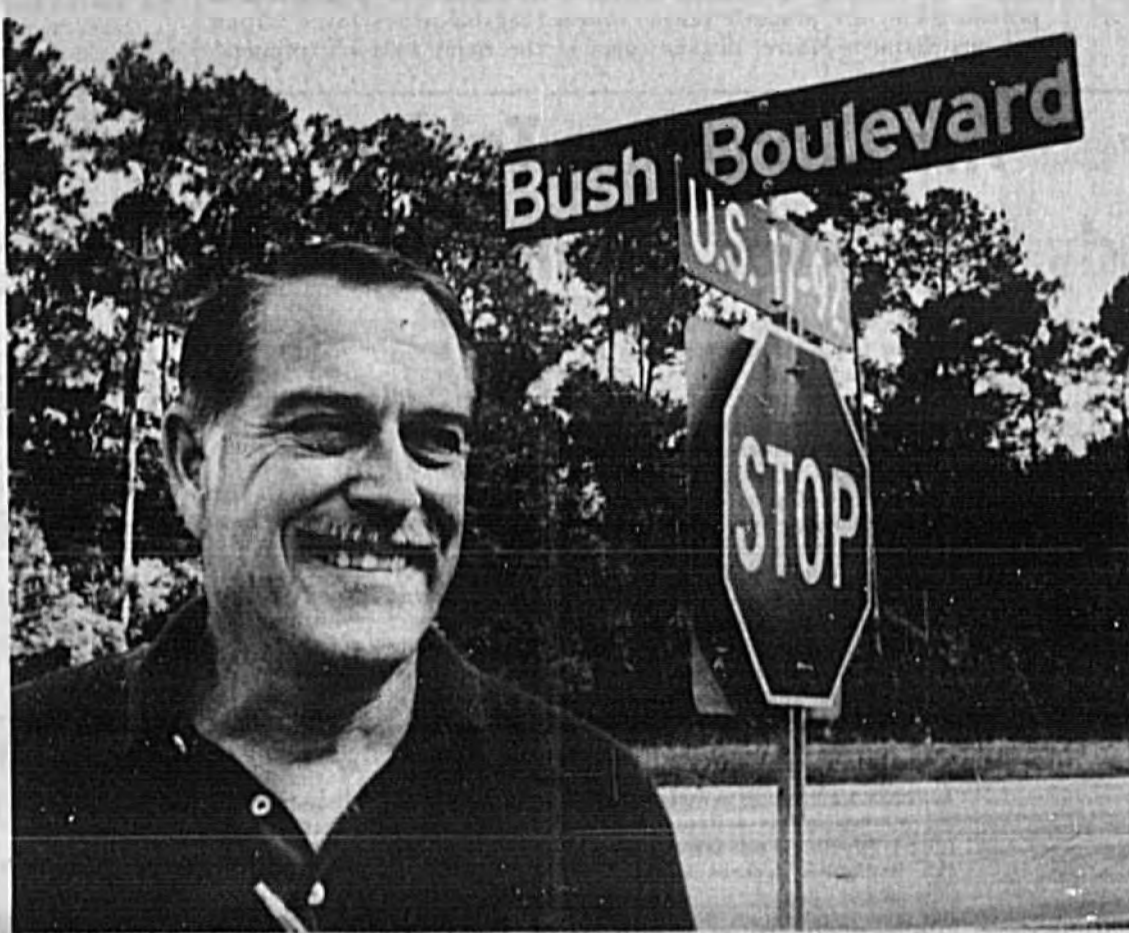

Expected to live only to age 16 or 17, he is considered a hopeless case. His father, Herman, said last week he couldn't afford to bring Franis from their home in Orkney, South Africa, to see Pinocchio and the other Disney characters.

Since his story first appeared in newspapers, scores of donations have flooded into bank accounts in Altamonte Springs and St. Petersburg. A Winter Park father of three has also offered to contribute $4,000 if needed and to host the Geringer family.

"I've got three kids of my own who I've been very fortunate to have come up fine and very healthy," said Solomon Schick, a Winter Park financial consultant. "I think each kid should be able to fulfill his dreams ... this kid needs a break."

Scott Simmons, of the Sunshine City Jaycees in St. Petersburg, said travel for Franis's family will be handled by the Sunshine Foundation, a non-profit group in Philadelphia that specializes in fulfilling the wishes of children in hardship cases.

Simmons said Franis, his parents, his 10-year-old brother Paul and a nurse will probably make the trip in October or December. The itinerary will include stops at Disney World, Sea World and St. Petersburg in central Florida and may swing out to Disneyland in California.

IT'S OFFICIALLY 'BUSH BOULEVARD'

County Engineer Bill Bush poses with his namesake, "Bush Boulevard," at the entrance to the county's service complex at Five Points in south Sanford. The entrance drive to the complex was officially named during ceremonies Monday afternoon. The Seminole County Commission voted earlier to name the road "Bush Boulevard" to honor their 20-year veteran engineer. Four of the five commissioners — Chairman Bob Sturm, Bill Kirchhoff, Sandra Glenn and Robert Feather — participated in ribbon cutting ceremonies Monday to formally open the road. In addition to commissioners and county staff special guests at the ceremonies included: State Rep. Robert Hattaway, Circuit Judge Kenneth Leffler, Longwood Mayor John Hepp, Oviedo Administrator Bill Pinch and land developers Bush has worked with over the years.

Casselberry Council Approves Rules For New Senior Citizen Center

By KATHY GRANT
Herald Staff Writer

The Casselberry Senior Citizen Multi-purpose Center was the star of the show at the city council meeting Monday night. The council approved unanimously four nominations for the center's Board of Directors and gave final approval of its rules and regulations.

During the council work session, which followed the regular meeting, the council discussed the city's contract with two social service groups — the Seminole County Mental Health Center, Inc. and the Federation of the Senior Citizen Clubs of Seminole, Inc. The two groups will provide for several needs of the elderly at the center. By moving into the new facility the groups will offer their services at one convenient location and meet federal guidelines.

Construction of the center began in February, 1981 after a 1978 census determined a growing senior citizen population and a need for a central location for already-existing services for the elderly.

Ninety percent of the center's $2.94 million construction cost was provided by a federal Housing and Rehabilitative Services grant, said Casselberry's grants coordinator Leona Cadenhead. The city and Seminole County paid for the rest with matching funds.

Casselberry assumed $25,972 of the bill in cash and labor costs, while Seminole County assumed a cash match of $12,500.

Because of the heavy federal financing of the center, Casselberry is obligated to meet federal obligations until the year 2001, Cadenhead said.

"In essence it's a federal building," she said. "After 20 years the building is turned over to the local government (of Casselberry)."

Part of those federal obligations include an agreement to provide the elderly with at least two social service agencies. Thus, according to the proposal, the County Mental Health Center, Inc. will rent out space in the center for no more than $90 a month for services provided during weekdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

And the Federation of Senior Citizen Clubs of Seminole County, Inc., will rent space for no more than $60 per month to provide meal programs, legal assistance and employment services to Casselberry and Seminole County residents aged 60 or over. The county Seniors' club will serve the community during weekdays from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Both services' contractual agreements will be on the agenda for council's Aug. 24 meeting.

Despite its pending acquisition by Hospital Corp. of America, Hospital Affiliates International will move ahead with proposals to construct a $22 million, 150-bed hospital in Longwood off State Road 434.

Jim Ryan, a development and planning consultant and field representative for Hospital Affiliates (HAI) told Longwood city commissioners Monday night the proposed "Caloosa Medical Center" would be built, if state approval is granted.

Ryan said at this time HAI is still an independent corporation. He said he was told to proceed with the project in a telephone conference with HAI and Hospital Corp. of America (HCA) officials early Monday.

"HCA doesn't feel the proposed Longwood hospital would be competing with the HCA hospital in Sanford," Ryan said.

HCA is currently constructing a $25 million, 226-bed hospital at U.S. Highway 17-92 and Mangouline Ave. in Sanford.

While Longwood city commissioners adopted a resolution some weeks ago stating their position that a new medical facility is both needed and desired in Longwood, they did not Monday night specifically endorse the HAI proposal on advice of City Attorney Marvin Rooks. Rooks said it would be improper for the city to endorse a specific hospital unless they gave public notice of their intent.

"It is not the city's business to endorse one private enterprise over another," Rooks told the commission. "If you are going to endorse one, put it on the agenda and allow everyone to speak," he said.

Despite Rooks' reservations, Mayor John Hepp said the commission at its meeting next Monday night will consider endorsing the HAI proposal. "We will extend an invitation to anyone interested to come before us," Hepp said.

Commissioner J.R. Grant said that he personally is not interested in seeing Florida Hospital-Altamonte receive permission from the state to build a 50-bed addition rather than the new HAI facility being built in Longwood.

"The distance from here to Altamonte is further than it was a few years ago," Grant said.

Grant explained that is because traffic problems on State Road 436, where Florida Hospital is located, are severe. He said it would be better for Longwood citizens to have a hospital in their own community.

Commissioners Tim O'Leary, June

Lormann and Steven Uskert also voiced their support of a hospital for Longwood and the Hospital Affiliates proposal appeared to be their favorite.

Meanwhile, City Administrator David Chace posted on the city hall bulletin board an open letter to the citizens of Longwood urging them to be present at a public hearing scheduled by the Health Systems Agency of East Central Florida (HSA-ECF) for 7 p.m., Sept. 2 at Lyman High School. The HSA is part of a nationwide network of health advisory groups.

"If possible, please attend this public hearing and also inform your neighbors and members of your association of the public hearing so you can all keep informed on the progress of the hospital," Chace's letter says.

At the public hearing before the HSA, not only will the application of HAI for a hospital in Longwood be considered but also an application from Hospital Management Associates to construct a 100-bed hospital which will include psychiatric beds and also be located in Longwood will be considered. On the agenda for that meeting as well will be Florida Hospital's request for a 50-bed addition.

The HSA makes its recommendation on new hospitals and additions to the state Office of Community Medical Facilities, which makes the final decision.

HAI several months ago announced its intention to build the hospital within the city. Ryan, as representative of HAI told the commissioners the medical center would be a three-story structure built on 28.8 acres on the north side of SR 434 adjacent to West Lake Avenue. He said the facility would have 117,000 square feet. He said in the hospital's first year of operation it would employ 218 persons, most of whom would be from the local area.

Ryan said the hospital would include 24-hour emergency services, in-patient medical-surgical care with 126 beds; intensive care with six beds; intensive cardiac care with six beds; obstetrical care with 12 beds and newborn nursery with 14 bassinets.

Services at the hospital would be enhanced by the intended HCA acquisition of HAI, Ryan said.

The combined corporations will be the largest operator of hospitals in the world, Ryan said.

"In the hospital industry, it will be comparable to IBM in the computer industry," he said.

When Seminole's Broncos Southern Zone Championship shot exploded Saturday afternoon at the Five Points Baseball Complex in Winter Springs, it had some far-reaching reverberations. Seminole's come-from-behind 8-4 victory over Miami Avanti stunned the powerhouse from the South and also shook a few heads as far away as Lafayette, La., the site for Thursday's Bronco World Series.

"Miami is always so strong, we were sure amazed to hear that Seminole had beaten them," drawled Tournament Chairman Danny Fabacher. "Seminole sure must have a strong club."

The Broncos open play Friday night at 8 against the winners of Thursday night's matchup between the host region, St. Bernard Parish (just outside of New Orleans), and the North representative.

The North team had yet to be decided Monday night, but Oak Park, Ill. was undefeated and needed just one win to wrap up the tournament. A similar situation existed in the West Zone where Hawaii was unbeaten and awaiting a 5:30 p.m. clash between host Richmond, Cal. and Terry Hills, Cal. Hawaii played the winner at 8:30 last night.

In game two Thursday night, the East representative, Puerto Rico plays the host team, Lafayette at 6. All games are scheduled for 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. Thursday through Tuesday.

If Seminole wins its Friday game, it would play Sunday at 8 p.m. A victory Sunday would put Seminole one game away from the World Series championship and into Tuesday's 5 p.m. title tilt. A loss Tuesday would force a second game at 8:30 p.m.

The Five Points entry proved its strength by downing the Miamians, who Fabacher believes won the World Series last year, not once, but twice.

On both occasions, the Broncos rallied from deficits in the final innings. Saturday, Seminole pushed across all eight runs in the top of the seventh. Thursday, it took eight runs in the last two innings to withstand a furious Avanti five-run seventh which fell short, 10-9.

Sanford right-hander Terry Miller turned in a sparkling five-hit performance against the hard-hitting Avanti club in the title contest. Miller struck out seven. Miller also picked up Seminole's first win against San Antonio with a four-hitter, 11-1. Sean Flaherty was the winner in the first win over Miami. He pitched three innings and struck out six in relief of Mark Coffey.

And Flaherty is also swinging the hottest stick for Seminole. He has five raps in nine at bats for a .556 mark. The wild Irishman has driven in three runs. "Steady Eddie" Evans, the 11-year-old

FOOTBALL UPS AND DOWNS

Seminole's football team experiences the "ups and downs" of high school football Tuesday morning at the high school. Coach Jerry Posey's Tribe has a few days left of shorts and shirts conditioning before putting on the pads later this week. The Fighting Seminoles open the season, Sept. 11 at home against Titusville Astronaut.

Terry "The Cat" Miller gets set to fire a fastball in Saturday's 8-4 Southern Zone Bronco championship over Miami. Miller, from Sanford, held the heavy-hitting Avanti team to five hits and struck out seven. Seminole Manager Richard Coffey is expected to throw his ace Friday night when the Broncos open World Series play in Lafayette, La.

Remarkable John Shakes Off Rust, Adversity, Pitches Like $1,000,000

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tommy John has to be one of the most remarkable players around today.

Never mind he was told he'd never pitch again seven years ago after undergoing surgery in which they practically made him a new left elbow by using a tendon from his right forearm. Forget that he won 22 games for the Yankees last year, 21 the year before and at 38 came back from a strike and pitched like a million dollars.

His immediate concern right now is not baseball, but the welfare of his 2½-year-old son, Travis, who is in critical condition in a New Jersey hospital following a fall from a third-story window Thursday.

Baseball aside, what makes Tommy John even more remarkable is his general thinking about the game, his ideas. He doesn't go by others' theories. He creates his own. And most of them are well thought out.

At this stage of his career, he's naturally thinking about what he'll do when he can't pitch anymore although it's hard to conceive that time will ever come.

The Yankee lefthander says he wouldn't mind staying in baseball when he's finished playing. Most players who say that think in terms of managing in the big leagues.

But, Tommy John is different. He'd rather work in the front office and anyone can tell you there isn't any glamor or that much money there.

The obvious question is why. "Because I think I understand enough about what free agency is all about now and how to cope with it," John says. "I think I know how not to spend exorbitant prices for free agents."

Milton Richman

"How do you do that?" a radio man asks him, because this is the answer the whole baseball world is waiting for.

Tommy John shakes his head. "Oh, no," he says, making it clear he's keeping this one for himself. "It's up here," he smiles, pointing to his head. "I'll tell you this, though. I take my hat off to George Steinbrenner. He has got more for what he has spent, more per cost, than anyone else I know of...."

John did an excellent job of bargaining when he became a free agent with the Dodgers and signed with the Yankees in November of 1978. Steinbrenner says he has never enjoyed negotiating with any other player more. Would John use the same approach he did if he was the general manager and had to deal with a player instead?

"Yes," he says. "I think the most important thing you have to bear in mind is to be honest with yourself and with the guy sitting across the table. You know what the Bible says — 'Do unto others.' I believe in that no matter what... Live up to your word."

"I remember my Dad's reaction when I signed three years ago with the Yankees," he says. "He thought it was a lot of money, but he felt I deserved it.

My Dad made probably $12,000-$14,000 maximum during all the time he worked. He was a lineman and that meant he worked hard. He worked his back off in Indiana and never made anywhere near the money I have, but our jobs are altogether different.

"The fans have a hard time understanding something like that. They have to be educated to the fact we aren't people working on an assembly line. In our work, there are only 650 of us. Maybe some of us are overpaid, but is a Bruce Springsteen overpaid when he gets $500,000 for one of his rock concerts? Is Muhammad Ali overpaid when he gets $5 million or so for a fight?"

"Take the meal money we get. We get around $30 a day. I've had people tell me they can live like a king on $30 a day. I guess you can if you go to 'Joe's Beanyery' or 'Harry's Hash House' to eat. Big league ballplayers are at the top of their profession. Why should they have to do that? You order a cheeseburger, french fries and a couple cokes in some of the hotels we stay at and the bill comes to almost 20 bucks."

Tommy John has a point but there are people in this country who will tell him they eat for $10 a day and even less. He has done it, too, he says, when he had to. But now he doesn't have to anymore and nobody can argue that.

Travis Unconscious

NEW YORK (UPI) — Travis John, the 2-year-old son of Yankee pitching ace Tommy John, was still unconscious early today, but hospital officials said there is no evidence the boy suffered permanent brain damage in his three-story fall last week.

Blair Agency Emphasizes Friendly, Reliable Service

Professionalism and service are the key words to describe the Blair Agency on South Park and Oak Avenue in Sanford. Genie Blair owns the agency, and Steve Blair is office manager.

We don't consider our agency a selling agency," said Blair. We are a service agency. We are in business to help people."

The agency specializes in writing non-standard insurance, the type of insurance which is difficult to acquire at some agencies; insurance for those who have traffic violations on their records, and insurance for the younger and older citizens of the community.

It's a specialty market, and Genie and Steve Blair are specialists in that field. But this doesn't mean they cannot sell you all other types of insurance except life and health, because they can.

One of the first things Blair sees as a necessity for people buying insurance is that they receive from the agent complete information about the various types of insurance available. With this knowledge, clients can decide what is best for them.

Trust between a client and his insurance agency is vital. After all, the agent, by his professionalism and desire to serve, will play an important role in the client's future.

I'm an advocate of making sure people are buying the right kind of insurance to protect their futures," Blair stressed.

In keeping with the agency's policy of complete service to its clients, financing is made available for those who need it.

Steve Blair has

strong feelings about PIP" (personal injury protection) insurance. Currently, he explained, state law permits drivers to have either PIP or liability insurance on their vehicles, or both. Many drivers take the PIP rather than liability insurance, believing they then are protected from liability, Blair said. But this is not true.

It's a terrible trap people are getting into," he said. They are lured into it by the cost."

Actually PIP does not protect a driver against liability, and its cost is much less than liability insurance. The premium for PIP is equal to the down payment on liability insurance if it is financed," Blair said. I explain this to the customers. PIP is cheap — and you get what you pay for," Blair, however, will sell the PIP insurance to those clients who wish it.

The Blair Agency offers a special insurance package to senior citizens, who are considered to be in the 50 to 80-year-old bracket. The package can include not only automobile insurance, but also insurance on the senior's home. Savings of as much as 20 percent to 30 percent can be gained in certain insurance packages for qualified seniors.

Genie and Steve Blair are willing to talk with you on the telephone to help solve your insurance problems. Call either 323-7710 or 323-3866. Or stop by the office, which is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Fridays.

Cards Herr(y) Past Padres; Raines Bags 2

By United Press International
Tommy Herr, the winning run, stood on third base. Ken Oberkell took a lead off second, George Hendrick strode off first. The score was tied 1-1 and Glenn Brummer, a rookie, was in the batter's box for the St. Louis Cardinals.
"All I could do was look at the pitcher and relax ..."
Brummer said Monday night after his fielder's choice grounder drove in the winning run that helped defeat the San Diego Padres, 2-1. "I can't hit nothing if I'm shaking."
Brummer swung at a Gary Lucas slider on a 3-2 pitch and hit the ball into the hole in short. Orzle Smith snared it and went for the only play he had — an inning-ending double play. He only got half of it and Herr crossed the plate with the winning run.

Brummer's game-winning RBI was the first of his major-league career.
The victory went to Jim Kaat, 4-2, who pitched the 13th inning. Lucas' record fell to 3-6.
Cubs 3, Dodgers 1

In Chicago, Doug Bird pitched a six-hitter and Ken Reitz's fourth-inning sacrifice fly snapped a 1-1 tie to give the Cubs the victory. Bird, 2-0, won only the third complete game by a Chicago pitcher this year.
Giants 5, Pirates 1

Joe Morgan hit a three-run double with two outs in the 11th inning at Pittsburgh and Enos Cabell followed with an RBI single to power the Giants. The victory went to Greg Minton, 3-3, who pitched 1-3 of an inning in relief of starter Vida Blue.
Expos 6, Astros 2

At Houston, Andre Dawson drove in three runs and Tim Raines and Ray Burris had an RBI each, to lead Montreal.
Raines also increased his league-leading stolen base total to 52 with two thefts.

Baseball Decides Playoff Is Way Off

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new playoff format for this strike-plagued season is expected to be announced today by major league baseball, one executives hope will ensure the integrity of the game.

Having been embarrassed by a hastily created gimmick playoff procedure that was full of more holes than Swiss cheese, baseball's top executives met Monday to formalize an alternate plan.

Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, American League President Lee MacPhail and National League President Charles Feeney were the principals involved in restructuring the playoffs.
Chuck Adams, a spokesman for the commissioner's office, said a decision would most likely be made today.

The playoff system was forced to be overhauled following revelations last week that some teams might intentionally lose games to qualify for postseason play.

However, any proposal to change the approved format for a split season and playoff series between first-half and second-half winners would have to be approved by the Major League Players Association, which represents baseball's 650 players.
"They can't revise it unless we agree to it," said Don Fehr, an associate counsel for the association. "We'll wait to see what they come up with."

The problem with the current split-season format, approved by the owners Aug. 6, is simple. Some teams theoretically could lose games on purpose late in the season to help their chances of making the playoffs.

Managers Tony LaRussa of the Chicago White Sox and White Herzog of the St. Louis Cardinals — whose teams finished just off the pace in the first half of the season — ridiculed the system and said they would either forfeit games or ask their players to lose if that meant a possible playoff berth.

Under the current plan, the winners of the first half of the season — Philadelphia and Los Angeles in the National League and New York and Oakland in the American — are assured of spots in a "mini-series" against the second-half winners.

A possible second-half scenario could have Oakland and Kansas City battling for the second-half championship — with the White Sox in third, substantially ahead of Texas and still comfortably ahead of Kansas City in overall records.
By throwing the four-game series against the A's in late September, the White Sox could help Oakland to the second-half title and get themselves a playoff berth as the team with the second-best overall record.

"If it turns out you have to lose a game to get in there," LaRussa said, "I would not tolerate nor would I ask my players to lose a ballgame. So the best way to do it is to refuse to take the field. You accept a loss that way."

Several ideas possibly under consideration would be to give a team winning both halves a bye into the league playoffs. Another would pit a doublewinner against the team finishing second in the second half — not the team with the second-best overall record.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

State Warned To Brace For Further Federal Budget Cuts

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — President Reagan's budget cuts will have a smaller impact on Florida than once feared but Gov. Bob Graham's budget director warns the worst is yet to come.

Testifying Monday before a state Senate select committee studying the cutbacks, Tom Herndon, Graham's director of planning and budgeting, said the newest estimate is that the state stands to lose $671.9 million in the current and next fiscal years, $458 million of it in aid to cities and counties.

In July, state officials projected a much higher figure — $1.3 billion — but this has now dropped because Reagan did not get the caps on Medicaid he sought and education cuts were not as severe as expected, Herndon said.

The major cuts for Florida will be in sewage and water treatment grants, various welfare programs, transportation and the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) jobs program, Herndon said.

Because future cuts will be needed for Reagan to meet his pledge to balance the federal budget, Herndon warned that the state should brace itself for further bad news in the months and years ahead.

Jet Skids Off Runway

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) — Officials say it was a collapsed landing gear that sent a Pan American World Airways jetliner skidding off a rainslick runway and across a muddy field Monday.

The Boeing 727 came to rest on its belly with its nose in the air. Three of the 65 passengers and crewmembers aboard suffered only minor injuries and were treated and released at a hospital.

"The gear collapsed," said Ken Wallace, tower chief for the Federal Aviation Administration at Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood Airport. "It didn't appear there was any fire... the airplane looked intact." Pan American flight 953 was in the process of taking off for Houston and Las Vegas when the landing gear buckled.

Wallace said the passengers got off the plane by using emergency slides from one side of the plane. They were taken to the air carrier's hospitality suite where reporters were barred.

Shuttle Tests Late

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — Testing on equipment aboard the space shuttle Columbia is three days late but officials say they can't tell yet if that means a delay of the rocket ship's second launch Sept. 30.

The interface test, which began Monday, is behind schedule because of a number of minor problems that have cropped up with the shuttle this summer. A new series of tests will include dress rehearsals by astronauts Joe Engle and Richard Truly and their backups, Thomas Mattingly and Henry Hartsfield. They will board the shuttle next Monday for orbital maneuvers and a dry run of what it will be like to re-enter the atmosphere.

Longwood Increases City Fees

The Longwood City Commission Monday night adopted a new fee schedule for annexations, re-zonings and other similar activities in the city on the recommendation of City Administrator David Chacey.

But the commissioners warned Chacey they will review the fees in six months and reduce them if it is shown that the city is making a profit.

The commission's warning came after B.D. "Bo" Simpson, a local realtor, admonished the commission not to attempt to generate general revenue funds from fees. "Have some realistic fees so you don't make money from them," Simpson said.

Chacey recommended the fees be increased, saving the actual costs for the services are steadily increasing. He said even though the current year's budget was increased from $1,000 to $2,000 for advertising zonings and annexations and other legal matters, actual costs through July were $2,253.39, leaving a deficit of nearly $300 with two more months to go in the fiscal year. At the same time, he added that City Clerk Donald Terry's office is running $72 in the red for postage connected with the work.

He said the city's new zoning ordinance requires the city to notify all persons residing within 300 feet of property to be rezoned, annexed etc. and this requirement has become costly.

The following fees were increased: change in zoning from $100 to $200; annexations from $200 to $300; variances and special exceptions from $50 to $100; site plan review from $50 to $100; site plan review under 10,000 square feet from $50 to $75 and requests for permit for trailer for construction-security from $50 to $75. Where no fee has been charged in the past for review by the historic commission, constitutional use authorization and requests for special permits, a fee of $50 per request will now be charged. — DONNA ESTES

Lyman Orientation Set

Orientation for Lyman High School freshmen and students who are new to Lyman will be Tuesday Aug. 25 at 1:30 p.m. in the school's auditorium. Schedules will be given out at this time, said Lyman Assistant Principal Gretchen Schapker.

Returning sophomores, juniors and seniors may pick up schedules on Aug. 27 and 28 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the guidance department she said.

Golden Anniversary

Mr., Mrs. J.P. Wilson Honored At Reception

Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Wilson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at the Woman's Club of Sanford.

Their son, David, and his wife, Ginny, of Orlando, were hosts for the happy occasion held Aug. 2, between 2 and 4 p.m.

Julian and Frances met when they each went to McReynolds Drug Store, Sanford, on an errand in 1929 after he came to Sanford from Hawkinsville, Ga., in 1928.

They were married Aug. 11, 1931 in the Baptist parsonage by the late Dr. W.P. Brooks and have spent almost their entire married life in Sanford.

Julian was employed by the Crown Paper Company at the time of their marriage and stayed with the business until it closed. He then became associated with the Gulf Life Insurance Company until his retirement in 1968.

Frances was employed for some years as receptionist-secretary in the offices of Dr. A.W. Woodall, retiring in 1973. She enjoys gardening and both enjoy home activities.

A meaningful part of the celebration was the prayer of blessings given at the beginning of the festivities by Ned Julian Jr., chairman of deacons of Seminole Heights Baptist Church.

Julian and Frances' only grandchildren, Jennifer, 12, and Michael, 10, were in charge of the guest registry.

They were seated near the entrance at a table covered with a white floor length cloth with a lace ruffle around the edge and centered with an anniversary candle surrounded by flowers in colors of yellow and white.

Frances received the guests attired in a lilac jacket dress with off white bodice and bone shoes. She wore a corsage of rose colored miniature orchids and carnations and white button pompons surrounded by gold flecked net and tied with gold ribbon.

Punch was served at two tables that were covered with lace and linen cloths over an underlay of white.

The second table held silver and crystal epergnes with tapers and flowers identical to those on the other serving table.

The epergnes were placed on either side of the crystal bowl. Punch was poured by Mrs. J. Leo Carey. Others serving were Mrs. Al Humiston, Mrs. W.A. Kratzert, Mrs. Hubert Pearce and Mrs. J.P. Holtzclaw.

The three-tiered cake, surrounded by fern and baby's breath and topped with a nosegay of fresh flowers, was served from a table featuring the same type cover as the punch tables.

Smaller decorated sheet cakes were placed on either side of the wedding cake and created an unusually pretty effect.

The cake was served by Mrs. Carl Grundler, the mother of Mrs. David Wilson, Mrs. Homer Little and Mrs. Gordon Sweeney. A smaller table covered with a white linen and lace cloth was centered at the end of the serving area near the stage and held crystal dishes of nuts and mints.

Flowers and other appointments were similar to those used elsewhere. Ferns, palms and potted plants transformed the stage area into a lovely background for the reception.

The mantel was covered with magnolia leaves, fern and daisies, with tall yellow candles at either end. The fireplace was banked with magnolia branches.

Floating hostesses were Mrs. J.L. Horton Sr., Mrs. Robert Dunmire, Mrs. John Rivers and Mrs. Philip Hapeman. The yellow and white color scheme was used in all the refreshments. Those who served were presented corsages of yellow daisies, baby's breath and net tied with gold ribbons.

Approximately 175 relatives and friends called during the afternoon.

Among those attending from out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo Carey, Unalaska, sister and brother-in-law of Frances, and Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Wilson, brother and sister-in-law of Julian, Jacksonville.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. John Rivers and Kathy, Mrs. Ruth Lord, Atlanta, sister of Julian. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carey and children; Green Cove Springs, Mrs. Irving Clark; Ormond Beach, Mrs. Rose Woodall, Mr. Ed Terry; New Smyrna, Mr. Bill Carey, Lakeland, Mrs. Robert Dunmire and Rob Dunmire; and Daytona, Mrs. Lorene Pope.

Also from Ocoee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Truett, Mr. and Mrs. Al Niblack, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grundler, George Grundler, Mrs. Glen Jackson; Orlando, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Herbat Jr., and children; Clearwater, Mrs. Philip Hapeman; Troy, Michigan, Mrs. Deborah Mashburn; Crystal River, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roundtree, Jeff and Brian, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sassard; Winter Park, Mrs. David McNab and Mrs. Barbara Swaggerty; Palatka, and Mrs. Harry Hanson of Hollywood. — RUBY DAVIS

Monday Night Comedy

"Measure for Measure," one of William Shakespeare's less frequently seen plays, tells a story of lust, betrayal and deception in a corrupt Vienna. The extraordinary dark comedy will make its encore appearance as part of "The Shakespeare Plays" Monday. (Local times may vary; check listings.) Set in a corrupt and browling Vienna, "Measure for Measure" tells of the peculiar attempt at moral reform undertaken by Duke Vincentio (Kenneth Colley), Vienna's ruler. Pretending to leave Vienna on a journey, he appoints a deputy to rule in his place — Angelo (Tim Pigott-Smith), a supposedly upright man "whose blood is very snow-broth." Then the Duke assumes a friar's habit and secretly remains in the city. Once in power, one of Angelo's first acts is to enforce the ancient law prohibiting premarital sex by condemning Claudio (Christopher Strauli) to death. Hearing of Claudio's death sentence, his chaste sister, Isabella (Kate Nelligan), who is about to enter a convent, returns to Vienna to plead for her brother's life. Angelo falls in love with the beautiful Isabella, and tries to strike an unholy bargain with her: If she will sleep with him, he will free her brother. The Duke, meanwhile, discovers the plight of the brother and sister and resolves the conflict through an involved, secret plot, tricking and finally exposing Angelo for what he truly is. The production also stars John McEnery as Claudio's friend Lucio. "Measure for Measure" was directed by Desmond Davis. Executive producer for "The Shakespeare Plays" was Cedric Messina. Alan Shalcross was script editor, with Dr. John Wilders of Oxford serving as literary consultant. Jac Venza is executive producer for WNEThirteen, New York. A presentation of "WNEThirteen, New York, "The Shakespeare Plays" is a six-year series beginning its fourth season this fall on public television. It is made possible by grants from Exxon Corporation, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company. "Measure for Measure" originally aired in April 1979.

Adoptee's Love Extends To Natural Mother, Too

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for saying that when adopted children become adults they have the right to know who their natural parents are, providing the natural parents want to be found.

I'm adopted, but I am not an adult yet. I love the parents who raised me very, very much, but I would like to know my natural mother. I often wonder, do I look like her? Is she happy? Do I have any half-sisters or brothers?

To my "Mom": Wherever you are, if you bore a daughter on Dec. 10, 1967, I love you.

Dear Abby

N.Y. 10633. CUR, P.O. Box 573, Milford, Mass. 01857. DEAR ABBY: I just graduated from college and really treasured my diploma because I worked very hard for a long time to get it.

My mother was also proud so she decided to surprise me and frame my diploma Abby, instead of taking it to a professional framer, she took scissors and cut it down to make it fit an old 8 1/2 picture frame she happened to have lying around the house! When I saw it I nearly fainted. The diploma is noticeably reduced in size and looks terrible.

My mother refuses to admit she did anything wrong. I want two things from her: 1) an apology; 2) I want her to arrange with the college to send me a replacement. I know I could request a replacement of that diploma myself, but I think since she's the one who mutilated it, she should replace it.

She reads you faithfully in the Los Angeles Times and respects your judgment, so please put your answer in the paper.

BURNING IN RIVERSIDE, CALIF.

DEAR BURNING: I think your well-meaning mother owes you: 1) an apology for her poor judgment; 2) a replacement. DEAR ABBY: Do you think it's really possible to forgive and forget?

VIRG

DEAR VIRG: I know it is. Were it not so, we'd all be living in an awful kind of hell. DEAR ABBY: Was I ever relieved to see the letter from MOLLY, whose husband can't hear unless he has his glasses on! For years I thought I was the only person with this freaky problem. I'm extremely nearsighted, and I can't hear without my glasses — especially on the telephone. Thanks, that letter made my day!

FELLOW SUFFERER

DEAR SUFFERER: According to my mail, you have a lot of fellow sufferers, but here's a new one: DEAR ABBY: Tell MOLLY her husband is not crazy. I always thought I was because I wear glasses and also teeth, too, and would you believe when I take out my teeth and take off my glasses, I can't hear a thing, either?

DEAF IN WYOMING

CONFIDENTIAL TO "M" IN ST. PETERSBURG: Don't turn up your nose at a good man because he has a little dirt under his fingernails. Maybe he got it from burying money in his backyard.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Reader Confused About Exercise

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'm considering beginning an exercise program to get in shape and to avoid having a heart attack. But I remember that the doctors told my father that he should not exercise because it was dangerous and he might have a heart attack from exercise.

DEAR READER — There is no rule that fits all cases I would say that it is hard to prove that anyone who is completely free of heart disease has ever had a heart attack from physical exertion.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My boyfriend and I have been going out for four months. He told me that when he was younger he had encephalitis. Because of this he is deaf in one ear. Could you please tell me exactly what encephalitis is?

DEAR READER — You have nothing to worry about. "Encephalo" refers to the brain and "itis" means inflammation, so your boyfriend had inflammation of the brain.

Since many people spend a lot of time in physical activity you can expect some people to die during some form of exertion. This is discussed in The Health Letter number 4-2, Jogging, Exertion, Sudden Death, which I am sending you.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Wednesday, August 19, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY

August 19, 1981
Give vent to your artistic, musical or other creative talents this coming year.

Capricorn

(Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Normally you're prepared to stand up for your rights, but today you could yield to stronger personalities and act against your own best interests.

Leo

(July 23-Aug. 22) Unless you are careful today, there is a possibility that you will repeat a mistake you've made in the past.

Aquarius

(Jan. -Feb. 19) You're not the type who likes to shift the blame for your mistakes onto others.

Pisces

(Feb. 20-March 20) Be extra-mindful of your own possessions today, as well as those of others.

Aries

(March 21-April 19) Try not to be too insistent upon having things done your way today, especially if you have to deal with one as strong-willed as yourself.

Virgo

(Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Do nothing today that could make you look like you are taking advantage of a friend.

Taurus

(April 20-May 20) You are not likely to operate too well under pressure today, so schedule your tasks property.

Libra

(Sept. 23-Oct. 23) In partnership situations today neither you nor your ally should make decisions without consulting the other.

Gemini

(May 21-June 20) This is not a good day to gamble with friends. If you are playing any games of chance, don't go above penny ante stakes.

Scorpio

(Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Coworkers or persons in your charge could be a trifle incompetent and difficult to handle today.

Cancer

(June 21-July 22) Careful planning will be required today in order to achieve goals of importance.

Sagittarius

(Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You're very trusting today. This is admirable, but be wary of having too much faith in persons who don't
