John Dillinger Again U. S. FARMERS Eludes Police After TO GET MUCH Bloody Gun Battle FEDERAL CASH

2 Men Killed During Desperadoes' Flight From Ambush Of 28 Federal Men, Others

MECER, Wis., Apr. 23.—(AP)—Fighting off an ambush of 28 federal operatives and groups of state officers, John Dillinger, America's public enemy number one again stalled off capture at Bohemia Camp on Lake Vilas today, and was reportedly headed south.

In a prolonged shooting affray two men were killed and four were wounded seriously.

Federal operatives, after the apparent escape of Dillinger from a resort used as headquarters by the gang for three days, arrested the three young women.

Those killed in the attempt to arrest the gang were Carter Baum, federal agent from Chicago, Eugene Boisneau, CCC worker, and an unidentified man.

The shooting took place in an isolated region of northern Wisconsin, and meager reports, which filtered through, varied widely in detail.

Federal forces made reports direct to Washington that Dillinger had escaped and was heading South. No further word was given out from Washington pending a promised statement from Attorney-General Cummings. The women arrested refused to give their names or admit that they knew the outlaw.

The noted outlaw and his gang forced the proprietor of the resort to turn the place over to them a few days ago, keeping him virtually a prisoner.

They mounted a machine gun on the roof and told the resort keeper they intended to fight off any attempt to arrest them.

They fled into dense woods during the battle with the officers this morning, and escaped.

A man believed to be Dillinger and two companions, in a Ford are believed to have exchanged shots with a Dakota squad car at a St. Paul suburb just before noon.

The possibility that Dillinger was maintaining a hideout in a sparsely settled section of Michigan's upper peninsula was given attention by federal officers last night after they had missed catching up with the desperado as they came up with a sister of one of his henchmen.

Arriving by airplane Saturday five Department of Justice agents Saturday night raided the home of Mrs. Isaac Steve and her son, Charles Campbell, to learn that Dillinger and John Hamilton had spent Tuesday night at the house, departing Wednesday morning, accompanied by a woman.

Mrs. Steve, 39, a sister of Hamilton, and her son, were questioned (Continued On Page Four)

146 Miners Suffocated By Terrific Explosion

SARAJEVO, Yugoslavia, Apr. 23.—(AP)—The number of miners killed in a terrific explosion Saturday in Kakanj coal mine near here was estimated officially yesterday at 146, as rescuers continued their efforts to reach those still trapped in distant galleries.

Sixty bodies had been recovered last night, and those still in the mine were listed as certainly dead. Approximately 15 men were able to escape at the time of the blast and were saved later.

The recovered bodies were charred and mutilated, indicating that death came quickly with the earthquake-like explosion which shook the countryside Saturday.

PITTSBURGH, Apr. 22.—(AP)—William Thaw, II, commander of the heroic little band of American fliers who formed the Lafayette Escadrille and made blasting history in the history of wartime aviation, died yesterday after a week's illness.

BUSINESS SHOWS ABNORMAL GAINS FOR THIS SEASON

Government Has Only Begun Spending For Benefit Of Grower; Another Billion Due

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—(AP)—

American farmers, already enriched by nearly $200,000,000, will pocket $1,095,005,010 in benefit payments before the end of 1934.

An analysis of expenditures to be made by the Farm Administration during the present year in its wheat-corn-hog, cotton-tobacco, and dairy reduction program indicates that it has only begun to approach its spending stride.

Retail trade was somewhat hampered by cold, rainy weather, but weekly trade surveys indicated this was merely encouraging to retailers to look for continuance of active spring shopping well into early summer.

Up to Apr. 1 the Administration had paid out $179,702,682 to farmers who had agreed to reduce their cotton, wheat, and tobacco acreage. Benefit payments to corn and hog farmers are just beginning to trickle out, the dairy program is in its formative stages, tobacco farmers have received only a portion of the money coming to them, and the second payment to wheat farmers is yet to be made.

The payments do not include the $53,346,622 spent by the Administration in purchasing wheat, meat, and dairy products for relief needs to eliminate surpluses and remove them as price-depressing factors from the market.

In the next eight months the Administration will continue purchasing wheat and pork in reduced amounts, will make drastic surplus-reduction purchases of dairy products, and will enter the beef cattle market for the first time to make unestimated purchases for relief needs.

In addition the Administration will purchase and destroy diseased dairy cows. A total of $5,000,000 is provided in the Jones-Cunningham Act for this purpose with the possibility that additional funds may be expended.

Cuba Seeks An End To Bombing's Terrorism

HAVANA, Apr. 23.—(AP)—A general police shakeup and "Sternest measures" to end terrorism in Havana were ordered yesterday in the wake of bombings which killed one person and injured two.

Heavy property damage resulted from the blasts which sounded yesterday as a sinister prelude to the new Chief of Police Lieutenant-Colonel Jose Pedraza.

Authorities attributed outrages both to communists and to racketeers selling "protection."

Soldiers and sailors today joined police in patrolling downtown Havana.

MRS. TOUHY RELEASED

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Apr. 23.—Jessie Touhy, wife of Tommy Touhy, Chicago gangster, brought here to face charges in connection with a $105,000 mail robbery at Charlotte, was freed yesterday because of insufficient evidence.

Irate Father Shoots Attacker Of Daughter

MOBILE, Ala., Apr. 23.—J. A. Dennis, 43, was held in county here without bond today after he confessed and voluntarily surrendered to officers that he shot and fatally wounded James Otis Myers, 38, proprietor of a cleaning and dyeing establishment here and socially prominent.

Members of Campbell-Lassing Post of the American Legion conducted a brief service at the graveside, with Rev. J. H. Root of the First Congregational Church acting as chaplain.

Mr. Higgins is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mae Gaines of Sanford, and Miss Merle Higgins of Jacksonville.

Sailors "I'e a eafully" Occupy Canal Zone

PANAMA CITY, Panama, Apr. 23.—(AP)—Some 10,000 white clad sailors of the United States fleet completed a "peaceful" occupation of the Canal Zone yesterday.

On shore after Saturday's final destructive "warfare" ending joint Army and Navy maneuvers, Navy men left the anchorage and swarmed through the city.

"I shot him because he wronged my daughter," officers charged Dennis as saying when he appeared at the sheriff's office to surrender. Court records showed a warrant was issued for Myers last June charging him with seducing Dennis' 17-year-old daughter. The case later was not pressed.

Eugene Meyer Blasts Away At Brain Trust

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—(AP)—

The country's "most immediate danger" was said last night by Eugene Meyer, publisher of the Washington Post, to lie in the experience of the young intellectuals who are now apparently directing the policy of the Administration.

Meyer, governor of the Federal Reserve Board during the Hoover Administration and member of the war industries board under Pres. Wilson, was addressing the American Society of

Celery Rate Case Decision Is Due

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—The long-awaited decision on the celery rate case will be issued next week. Representative W. J. Sears was advised here yesterday by the ICC. The examinee's report on which the commission's decision may be based, recommended a reduction from 45 percent of the first-class rate to 40 percent of the first-class rate, and a reduction of the minimum carload from 25,000 pounds to 20,000 pounds.

COAL INDUSTRY GIVEN NEW NRA WAGE STRUCTURE

Southern Miners Told That Differential Is Not In Danger

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—(AP)—The soft coal industry was given a new wage structure last night, the South was assured its wage differentials were not endangered, and President Roosevelt requested striking miners, number nearly 50,000 to return to work.

Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, ordered a $3.80 daily wage for Alabama miners, thus restoring the state's differential which virtually had been erased by the Mar. 31 mandate establishing a $4.60 scale.

The new order retaining the seven-hour day throughout the industry, partially restored the differentials in favor of the Southwestern operators in Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Kansas, and in southern Tennessee, but assured the Mar. 31 amendment does for the Eastern region of the United States would be available in that invasion.

STATE CAN'T PAY FLY LOSS SAYS SHOLTZ

Fletcher Frankly Told There Is No Reason Why Florida Should Pay Half Of Damage

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 23.—(AP)—Governor Sholtz informed Senator Fletcher yesterday that "there is no chance under the sun for the state to take on an added indebtedness" in paying jointly with the federal government, losses incurred by Florida citrus growers in the Mediterranean fruit fly infestation.

President Roosevelt recently proposed that the state pay half of the losses attributable to the Mediterranean fruit fly infestation, the Governor added.

"If an armed force invaded this country, setting foot first in Florida, the entire resources of the United States would be available in that invasion.

"The Mediterranean fly, if it ever existed, was unquestionably a foreign enemy. It did not originate in the State of Florida. To

SCHALL INFERS FIRST LADY IS PROFITEERING

Senator Says She Asks Too Much For Furniture She Makes; She Denies Charges

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23.—(AP)—After Senator Schall, Minnesota, Republican, had failed to keep an appointment with her at the White House, Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt today arrived late for her press conference and sweepingly contradicted a statement the senator issued yesterday against her furniture factory.

The managers, after Joseph R. Eastman, federal coordinator of transportation had retired as mediator, charged labor with causing the breakdown of negotiations by refusing to agree to suggestions of President Roosevelt that the 1 percent deduction from basic wages be continued for another six months.

Gene Tunney, boom time boxer of bicycle fame, is one of the men who made money in the Twenties and kept it. He not only made money, but he married more, and kept them both. Now, according to O. O. McIntyre, he lives the luxuriant life of an English country gentleman. He has an estate in the country about an hour from New York, but is seldom seen on the Gay White Way. He prefers to walk through his acres with his police dog, doze after lunch in the shade of an old apple tree, and spend his evenings in the solitude of his study where he cultivates the bards of time. What would John Le think of him?

Governor Talmadge of Georgia releases two hardened criminals from the penitentiary where a jury of their peers had sent them.
Governor Talmadge says it is not fair to keep criminals like this locked up, while other criminals notably bankers, who have fleeced widows and orphans, continue to enjoy their freedom. Nor is it fair, we might add, to release these two criminals for the reason given and not release all the criminals in the Georgia jails. We may not be able to put all the criminals in the country behind bars, but it would certainly be encouraging to most of us if we could keep them there after we put them there.

Philadelphia society women, feeling that they must do something to benefit the world, have gotten together to prepare a code for domestic servants. They would limit working hours to 60 a week, and would require wages of at least $10 a week for servants who live in the home. Those who have their own homes or live out would get $16 a week.
This code will appeal strongly at first to servants, all of whom think they work too hard and are paid too little. But it will not appeal to them when they discover they can no longer find any jobs. Philadelphia society women, with more money than sense, can well afford to hire several servants, pay $16 a week.
Others cannot.

An Unpardonable Act

It does little good for law enforcement officers to risk their lives in apprehending criminals, for state's attorneys to prosecute and courts convict, for federal laws to be passed clamping down on criminal activities, and for the American Legion to volunteer its help on anti-crime wave drives, if Governors and Pardon Boards are going to release the criminals, once jailed, on the slightest pretext.

Leland Harvey and Aubrey Smith were highwaymen of the most dangerous type. They had been caught, convicted and sentenced to something like a hundred years in jail. The five years of their sentence which they had served was not notable for their good behavior. They had made their escape on more than one occasion and had been brought back only after the bloodhounds had tracked them down.

Now Governor Talmadge of Georgia pardons them. He turns them loose again upon the public after serving less than one-twentieth of their sentences with the humorous admission to "go straight." The Governor excused his act with an appeal to class prejudice against bankers by saying it was not fair to keep these highwaymen locked up as long as bankers who had beaten widows and orphans out of their money had been allowed to escape.

We are sure that we hold no more grief for dishonest bankers than Governor Talmadge does. Any banker who has taken an unfair advantage of any widow or orphan, or who has stolen any depositor's money should be locked up, but the fact that many of them were not is no excuse for turning dangerous convicts loose to prey again upon the public. Those whom the public has been fortunate enough to jail should be kept jailed.

It is difficult to understand the mental reasoning which could lead to such an act as that of Governor Talmadge.
What encouragement does he think he is offering to the sheriffs and police and his state, or of the whole country, when he turns loose a criminal whom they have risked their lives to take? What fear does he think he is instilling into the hearts of criminals still loose, and other weak-willed individuals, when he lets them know that a sentence in jail means nothing, that he will pardon them.

It would seem that the Governor could have no sound reason for his act. We are inclined to wonder how much it cost Harvey and Smith to gain their freedom.

Automobile Accidents

If a person were expected to drive an automobile off a ten story building, he could readily appreciate that the top at the end of his fall would be both sudden and terrific.
But how many people bear in mind that an automobile driven at sixty miles an hour comes to the same terrific stop when it hits a telephone pole as a car driven off a ten story building.

Even at twenty miles an hour it is no joke to hit a telephone pole. It has the same capacity for inflicting damage as if driven off a one story building. The faster one drives the damage capacity increases not by arithmetical progressions, but by geometric progressions. A car driven 40 miles an hour puts the passengers in the same relative position, if it hits anything, as a car driven off a four story building.

One should keep these facts in mind as he drives along the highway. We do not mean that he should worry about it, but he should remember that his danger increases much faster than his speed increases. And he should remember further that a large percentage of all accidents are a direct result of excessive speed. According to the Automobile Chamber of Commerce, one third of all automobile accidents are due to speed rather than to the other faults in driving.

During the past few years the power of automobile motors has been tremendously increased. Among the popular low priced cars, the horse power of their motors has been increased from 20 in 1925 to 30 in 1934. This represents an increase in power and speed which not only connects a much improved motor but also a much greater capacity for inflicting damage to one's self and to others on the highways.

If there had been a corresponding increase in caution among drivers, and skill in driving, the results might not be so serious. But there has not been. The average driver is not competent to handle the excessive power which vastly improved motors have given him. As a consequence the annual accident toll is increasing year by year until the casualty lists resemble war-time killed and wounded.

Since the beginning of 1930 nearly four million persons have been injured and approximately 125,000 have been killed in automobile accidents. During the past ten years more people have been killed in automobile accidents than have been slain on the field of battle in all the wars in which this country has engaged throughout all its history.

NEAR ABOLITION STATE CAN'T PAY FLY LOSS JURIES PROPOSEDA Amendment Will Give Attorneys Power To Indict Directly

protect not only the citrus industry of the whole United States but also other fruits and vegetables throughout the country, the entire crop of thousands of citrus bearing acres in Florida was sacrificed and a tremendous acreage of Florida citrus groves was permanently destroyed.

"Because the campaign was considered necessary by the federal government," the Governor continued, "then the least that the federal government can do is to reimburse our growers for the actual losses incurred in saving the citrus of the United States and other fruits and vegetables to the advantage and benefit of all the citizens of the country.

It would grant to the state attorney broadened powers enabling them to file direct informations, without grand jury indictment, against persons charged with all crimes of less than capital degree, excepting impeachment or military court cases.

Similar authority already is conferred upon county solicitors in counties where criminal courts of record have been established.

The present grand jury system is provided in the declaration of rights of the Florida constitution which was adopted in 1865. The grand jury usually meets twice a year, but is subject to call at any time by the presiding judge.

Excepting counties where criminal courts of record are established, all criminal cases are considered by the grand jury, and a trial can be had only upon indictment returned by the grand jury.

"I yield to no man in my loyalty to the President and my appreciation and gratitude for the many wonderful things he has done for our state. He has shown human understanding so great that I am sure that if you explain the situation to him he will waive the requirements or suggestion that we attorney will have the same right, the right to make investigations of conditions in the county also would continue with the grand jury.

The legislature would have power to regulate the number of grand juries required to vote and to return an indictment.

The amendment does not take away the constitutional rights of the grand jury, it still can try indictments, but the state match federal repayment for damages sustained by the people of our state for the benefit and advantage of all the people of our country."

The governor told Senator Fletcher that "as you know, the state is prohibited under its constitution from borrowing money and there is no other possible source of revenue that could be tapped without making fruitless and useless all of the hard work this Administration has been doing in an effort to balance our budget."

President Roosevelt's letter to Senator Fletcher, under date of April 7 was published by the senator and Governor Shultz said his reply was sent only after he had read the letter, "with careful thought."

Conferences are now being held between internal revenue bureau officials and Farm Administration representatives to draw up plans for collecting the tax of 10 percent of the market value of cotton which does not have exemption certificates. The internal revenue bureau soon will begin the task of identifying cotton harvested prior to this year in order that it can be exempted from the tax.

All cotton sold this year will be required to carry a tag showing the tax has been paid or return an indictment.

If voted, the amendment will be effective at midnight on Dec. 31, having been grown prior to this date, without the necessity of an exemption certificate is held.

Caryl Oakes, noted violinist, will appear in concert at Sanford Woman's Club Building at 8:00 o'clock for the benefit of the Club-building fund and the Sanford Elks Club's fund for underprivileged children.

West Side Primary Presents Operetta

Considered one of the most interesting affairs of its kind ever produced in Sanford was the presentation of an operetta, "In the Princess' Garden," Friday evening at the West Side Primary School in its new auditorium before an audience of nearly 300 persons. Mrs. Helen Stephen served as director for the affair while Miss Annie Belle Dyson was pianist.

The stage, which was decorated to resemble an informal garden bore festoons of asparagus fern entwined with pink-petaled roses which were arranged in adventurous locations about a stone wall. Large colored parrots and canaries in cages added a note of color as did the groups of children dressed to represent ladies, maidens, larksheep, and other flowers.

The program for the evening began with the rendition of a march and a waltz by the orchestra, boys who were dressed in white suits and entered with a large American flag recently donated to the school by the Fourth Grade. The orchestra was composed of

KLAN PARADE AT CLEARWATER 1ST HELD SINCE 1932

Speaker Raps Group For Failure To Salute American Flag

CLEARWATER, Apr. 23.—Cloaked and hooded members of the Ku Klux Klan paraded through Clearwater's business district recently and then rallied at the City park for an address on citizenship by a klansman from out of town.

It was the first demonstration by the local klan since 1932.

Despite the suddenly chill April weather, a crowd of spectators in parked cars and afoot gathered along Cleveland St. to watch the white-clad figures pass. Some scores of them went later to the park for the speaking program.

The parade was led by a color guard, bearing eight two-American flags. Later at the park, the klan speaker took his audience to task for not saluting the flags as they passed.

None of the marchers, believed to be from out of town, were unmasked. The white costumes in some instances were varied by red caps, red insignia,

There was no fiery cross burning on the causeway wall, as there was at the demonstration two years ago. A small, electrically-lighted cross glowed in front of the speaker's place on the City Park bandshell.

The speaker declined to reveal his name. He said in the course of his talk that he was a minister and a former army chaplain.

His address was devoted largely to an appeal for a greater interest in government by Florida citizens and winter visitors.

"Americanism is the religion of the Ku Klux Klan," he said. "The Klan is the only organization which is trying to keep the government in the hands of Americans and not foreigners and communists run away with it. The Klan is an effort on the part of native Americans to keep alive the spirit bequeathed to us by our forefathers."

"We cover our faces in order to submerge our individuality for the good of the Commonwealth. We don't give a continental whether anybody knows our names or not. We are here for the good of the Commonwealth."

He mentioned the changes in communism at Washington made by Dr. William Wirt. Other editor.

"With Dr. Wirt is trying to force a congressional committee to plot for a Kerensky and a Stalin in our government. It's time that you follow up your rank and file motto and quit boughing at the Klan," he declared.

"Everyone of our own right ought to be in the Klan."

Following his address, each of application for membership in the Klan were distributed among the audience.

Displayed at the back of the speaker's stand were signs with the slogan "Let America Get Together," "External Separation of Church and State," "The Bible in Every Public School" and "Save the Klanman's Criterion."

In the meantime, Dr. Thomas G. Fowler, of Dunedin, New Zealand, Captain Alan Innes-Taylor, head of our busy dog department and I have set up housekeeping in a portable dwelling we built in our spare minutes on the day ship Jacob Ruppert on the way down. It is made of every piece of wood we were able to bring from New Zealand or snatched from crates and boxes. It stands 12 x 12 feet with wind-proof walls ten inches thick. It has all the comforts of home—we have all the comforts of home—well, not all of them, but a lot—including a stove, bookselves and a clothes locker.

The house is just up and already it is half buried with snow.

We've had a busy time around here this week.

Our scientists have erected three buildings where they can be away from the noise of the rest of the crew. Here they will pursue their scientific studies and research work. These buildings also contain a big library of books. Books to me you never realize how valuable books are, especially books that give you some useful knowledge, until you are off in some far corner of the world like this where you can't get any except those you brought along. We have several hundred books of various kinds and they are almost our most priceless possessions.

Yesterday I helped dig out of the snow the remains of the Fokker plane which had crashed. Com. Schlesbach and three other men crashed the other day. It is a mess, but already Bill Bowlin, Neelius and Paul Swan are busy salvaging the motor and instruments for future use in some other plane. The rest of the aviation group are working hard trying supplies to Mountaineer House, our southern base 12 miles away. We have already made the first flight and tractor journey to this spot on your map. Well this is where Admiral Byrd sent another plane, soon he will be near him again to spend the winter. Admiral Byrd will be alone in the snow, he will be absolutely alone in it, they have buried him in the snow, obliterating his tracks.

Giants Sailed Through Opening Week Tiffs;
Scoring 5 Victories

NEW YORK, Apr. 23.—(AP)—Picking up right where they left off last October, the world champion New York Giants sailed through the first week's games on the crest of a great pitching wave to lead all the major league clubs from the openings last Tuesday up through Saturday's contests.

The Giants won five games in a row, mostly on their pitching strength, but oddly enough they found the Chicago Cubs trailing right along their beaten path. The Cubs won four straight on exactly the same system. No other big league clubs got through the five days without a defeat. In the American League the Detroit Tigers made the best showing, winning three games and losing only one.

The Giants and the Cubs each held their opponents to six runs for the week and the Cubs, who had the only perfect record of having all starting pitchers hurl complete games, granted only 20 hits as they opened with Lon Warneke's one hit performance against Cincinnati. The Giant's rivals made 30 blows. The New Yorkers, however, made a much better showing than usual at bat. With 23 runs, they were second in their league to the Pittsburgh Pirates, who scored 25 times on 45 hits but only

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS DUE BY JUNE 1

Review Of Legislative Situation Convences Democratic Steers- men Near End Nears

WASHINGTON, Apr. 24.—(AP)—Democratic leaders in the Senate sized up the legislative situation today and set May 20 to June 1 as the latest adjournment deadline.

Congressional tasks likewise were reviewed with President Roosevelt by Speaker Rainey and other leaders.

The Senate still resounded with the airmail argument.

The House business was on an amendment to the naturalization laws.

The Senate silver bloc openly defied the expressed wishes of President Roosevelt yesterday and decided to work vigorously for legislation looking toward re-monetization of the metal.

The result, Administration leaders said last night, was that possibilities of compromise which appeared after the senators had discussed the problem with the Chief Executive on Saturday, were now appreciably diminished.

At an informal meeting, the

Mr. Bullock, 96, Pioneer Resident, Died Late Monday

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Bullock, 96, whose impromptu talk at the annual Pioneer Reception in Lake Mary last January was a feature of the evening, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. M. J. Lorig, late yesterday afternoon. She had been ill for only a short time.

Funeral services were held at the Erickson Funeral Home this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, with Rev. E. D. Brownlee of the First Presbyterian Church officiating.

The body will be sent by early morning train to Steubenville, Ohio, where burial will be made.

Mrs. Bullock was one of the city's most picturesque figures. A resident here for over 35 years, she came to Florida in search of her health. She attributed her unusual age to the climate of this section.

"Live in Florida, watch your diet, and you'll live as long and as happily as I have," was her admonishment to the many pioneer and younger persons who gathered at Lake Mary for the ninth annual reception last New Year's Day.

Mrs. Bullock's greatest interest during her latter years was her association with Presbyterian Church circles. She rarely missed a meeting of her group, and her stories of early days in Ohio and Florida are those which many local persons declare the most interesting they have ever heard.

Mrs. Bullock was born at Steubenville, Ohio, on Nov. 6, 1837. Her survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Kirk and Mrs. Sarah M. Clark of Steubenville; 6 grandchildren, Mrs. Lorin of Sanford, W. R. Kirk, Paul Kirk, Mrs. Marie Wiggin and Miss Margaret Clark of Steubenville, and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy of Cleveland, Ohio; several great-grandchildren, including Miss Ruth Remond of Sanford, and a great-grandchild.

Court Again Denies Motion To Acquit Cannon, Burroughs

WASHINGTON, Apr. 24.—(AP)—For the second time Justice Payne Gordon today denied a defense motion that he instruct the jury to acquit Bishop Cannon and Miss Ade Burroughs of a charge of conspiracy to violate the corrupt practices act. The motion was made as all testimony in the case was completed.

The court also overruled a defense motion to strike out all prosecution evidence except that of W. C. Jameson, New York, showing he contributed to the initial Smith fund during the 1932 campaign.

Orlando Power Consumers Will Save $30,000 Annually Because Of Slash In Rates

ORLANDO, Apr. 24.—Orlando utility commission yesterday set up a new power and commercial electric rate that will save Orlando consumers approximately $30,000 annually.

The action of the commission in reducing these two classes of services brought Orlando into the spot light as having the lowest electric rates in the state.

The power rates were cut from eight cents per K. W. H. for the first 300 K. W. H.'s to six cents per the first 500, with corresponding reductions for larger amounts of current. The commercial rate was slashed from eight cents or seven cents for the first 500 K. W. H., added consumption of current. The residential rate was not changed as Orlando already has the lowest base in the state, it was pointed out.

A comparison of the new and old rates follows:

New power rates:
First 300 K. W. H. 6 cents per K. W. H.
Next 300 K. W. H. 6 cents per K. W. H.
Over 1,200 K. W. H. 10 cents per K. W. H.
Over 2,000 K. W. H. 12 cents per K. W. H.

Old power rates:
First 300 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Next 300 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Over 1,200 K. W. H. 12 cents per K. W. H.

New commercial rates:
First 500 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Next 500 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Over 1,000 K. W. H. 10 cents per K. W. H.

Old commercial rates:
First 500 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Next 500 K. W. H. 8 cents per K. W. H.
Over 1,000 K. W. H. 10 cents per K. W. H.

"If long continued it spells disaster," he said, noting that economic strife, "because of the bitterness engendered, leads directly to competitive agreements and suffered from them for 20 years. Had the Jews been left alone they would have made the same warning."

Secretary Hull, speaking at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, and the problems of international commerce, "are at the very core of this country's economic dilemma."

"World standards of living are bound together to decline rather than rise without the restoration and expansion of international trade," he said. "Industry and business throughout the world could scarcely be more hopelessly fettered."

He expressed gratitude that "a practical middle course between extreme nationalism and extreme internationalism" is being increasingly favored.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 24.—(AP)—The NRA yesterday urged the Interstate Commerce Commission to require all Southern railroads to limit their passenger fares to a minimum of two cents a mile on coaches.

Saul R. Rosenblatt, deputy administrator in charge of the bus and truck code, informed the commission that the NRA code had increased costs of bus operators by $15,000 a year and added 12,600 men to their payrolls. He pointed out that on May 25 all of the railroads in the South except the Southern and bus operators had reached a rate agreement and asked that the commission back it up.

The commission is investigating passenger rates in the South and West. The Southern roads have been charging 1 1/2 cents a mile on coaches and 2 1/2 cents on Pullman while the Western roads have been charging from two to three cents.

The Southern railroad recently filed an application for permission to continue the 1 1/2 and 2 1/2 cent rates after May 25 while the other Southern roads headed by the Louisville and Nashville railroad asked two and three cent rates. The Western roads asked permission to continue the same rates.

Daytona Columnist Is Found Dead On Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Apr. 24.—(AP)—The body of Arthur Sharrow, fiction writer, columnist on the Daytona Beach News-Journal, formerly a columnist and humor writer on Chicago and Evanston, Ill., papers, was yesterday found by bathers lying on the beach. There was a bullet wound through the heart.

Sharrow was 38 years old. He came from Chicago a year ago giving up his newspaper work there because of ill health. He is survived by a wife now living in Chicago.

Wallace Declares Social Planning Is Needed To Prevent Suicide Of Society

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Apr. 24.—(AP)—Social planning is necessary, Secretary Wallace told thousands of Nebraskans yesterday, to prevent the suicide of society.

He spoke at Nebraska's principal celebration in observance of Arbor day, the holiday originated by a former Secretary of Agriculture, J. Sterling Morton, a Nebraska man. The celebration was held at the home of Morton's old home, Arbor Lodge, now a state park near here.

Discussing the federal government's agricultural programs, Wallace said, "short-sighted, selfish and cynical people see nothing in these adjustment programs but the benefit payments. I would not want to minimize the life-saving values of these benefit pay-

State Secretary Also Warns Against Any Extremes In Economic Nationalism

NEW YORK, Apr. 24.—(AP)—Declaring the future of the nation as well as of the world depends on restoration and expansion of international trade, Secretary of State Cordell Hull sounded a warning yesterday against "extreme economic nationalism."

"If long continued it spells disaster," he said, noting that economic strife, "because of the bitterness engendered, leads directly to competitive agreements and suffered from them for 20 years. Had the Jews been left alone they would have made the same warning."

Secretary Hull, speaking at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, and the problems of international commerce, "are at the very core of this country's economic dilemma."

"World standards of living are bound together to decline rather than rise without the restoration and expansion of international trade," he said. "Industry and business throughout the world could scarcely be more hopelessly fettered."

He expressed gratitude that "a practical middle course between extreme nationalism and extreme internationalism" is being increasingly favored.

O. P. Herndon Asks Voters For Seat In State Legislature

O. P. Herndon, resident of Sanford since his birth here nearly 40 years ago, announced himself today as a candidate for the Florida Legislature, representing Seminole County in Group Two.

He is the third person to announce in this group, the others being former representative L. P. Hagan, and G. W. Spencer, now gone.

Disavowing usual campaign pledges which he and many persons make simply for the purpose of being elected, Mr. Herndon frankly stated today that "It shall be my purpose, if I am fortunate enough to be elected to go to Tallahassee with an open mind that will be ready to yield to the dictates of the people of the county."

Of the opinion that the next session of the legislature will be in which the membership will be called upon to rebuild and reconstruct the different departments of government particularly if the several constitutional amendments are approved by the people, Mr. Herndon said that the protection of the interests of the people of the county would guide his actions in consideration of these and all other measures if he is elected.

Mr. McMullen fired in the air gun but the negro did not stop, continuing through the Zoo as several visitors scattered in every direction.

Deputies Jack Hickson and Jack Flynt had in the meantime jumped into a car and sped after the negro and Phil King, negro Zoo attendant, also had given chase.

King and Deputy Hickson caught Coleman in a clump of bushes near the Cities Service terminal, and he was brought back to jail.

He served for four years as justice of the peace for Seminole County and he was defeated for the office of county judge by the narrow margin of 46 votes in the 1932 second primary in which he polled 1,412 votes.

Mr. Herndon has the distinction of having been exalted ruler of Sanford Elks Lodge for three years and his efforts are creditable with having placed the organization upon its present solid foundation. His efforts also brought him a vice-presidency in the Florida State Elks Association.

He has reason to believe that more and more farms are looking beyond the government's adjustment program, as well as to their own production schedules, and that they are beginning to get in the adjustment act at least the first crude effort to fashion the social machinery which every national administration since the war has agreed must be provided if the American farmer was ever to get a new deal."

BANK TO CLOSE

In observance of Confederate Memorial Day, the Sanford Atlantic National Bank will not be open for business Thursday. Persons needing money for payrolls on that date, are urged to attend to this matter tomorrow, along with those whose notes mature on Thursday.

JAPAN FEELS ABLE TO KEEP PEACE IN EAST

Saito Restates 'Hands Off China' Policy, Saying It Aimed At Insuring Tranquility

WASHINGTON, Apr. 24—Japan yesterday restated its government's controversial "hands off China" policy with the statement that it was aimed at insuring peace in the Orient.

Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, 78-year-old grand opera singer, who faced a death threat last night to sing at a concert to be held by the non-sectarian anti-Nazi League of New York City, declined to sing, saying, "You should not sing for Jews. Germans have suffered from them for 20 years. Had the Jews been left alone they would have made the same warning."

Japan considers herself to be the best judge of what might happen in the Orient, he indicated.

The ambassador said Japan should be consulted about any action in China which might cause friction with increased military force.
