Casselberry Council's Ouster Bid By Citizen

By TOM ALEXANDER

A "citizens forum" which follows each Casselberry City Council meeting resulted in a "surprise" for members of the council last night as one citizen suggested that he was working to have the council suspended by Gov. Claude Kirk.

Sam Gerson told the four man-one woman council that he will request Governor Kirk to remove them from office, His reason: That the city council, through its confirmation of municipal judge Thomas Freeman, a Sanford attorney, had violated their individual oaths of office.

Gerson claimed that Freeman had violated his constitutional rights in ordering that he (Gerson) be removed from a political meeting 11/2 months ago. During the city's confirmation of municipal apthat the council not reappoint Freeman.

to have Freeman disbarred from his law practice due to the incident. (Editor's note: The Herald endeavored to per mit Freeman to offer a rebuttal to Gerson's remarks but was informed Freeman was out of the

In his opening statement, Gerson requested the city fathers to investigate the possibility of the city going into the garbage collection business. Gerson's statements were taken under consideration by the

"They are giving away hundreds of thousands of dollars of taxpayers' property," said Higginbotham, "along with valuable riparian rights clear to the center of the St. Johns River channel in Lake Monroe."

The former commisioner said further: "Those property owners who will receive this land should be made to pay for it. The taxpayers have a right to be paid for that property. Why, one of the present city commissioners (Dr. W. Vincent Roberts) lives there, Higginbotham said it was illegal for the city to vacate the Seminole Boulevard right-of-way along the lake without a public hearing. He said the City Commission had considered several times previously t, that some time in the future the city may desire to extend the street through to Virginia Avenue.

He pointed that the city was required to pur chase a small strip of land when it constructed Holi day Isle. In clearing title for the island it was discovered a very small strip along the lakefront had never been deeded to the city of Sanford by a DeLand resident. The city purchased the strip for $2,250.

TALLAHASSEE - Florida sportsmen will have an opportunity to stand up and be heard on matters of hunting and fishing regulations at a series of 17 public meetings scheduled The meetings are as follows: February 17, Vero Beach; February 18, West Palm Beach; February 23, Mayo; February 24. Fort Myers, Gainesville and Naples; February 25, Jacksonville and St. Petersburg; February 26, Brookville and Miami; March 2, Miltno; March 3, Bonifay and Palatka; March 4. Port St. Joe and DeLand: March 5. Crawfordville

According to Commission Chairman, William M. Blake of Tampa, the public meetings serve a dual purpose as they give the Commission an opportunity to meet the sportsmen and hear their thoughts and opinions on hunting and fishing in and Orlando.

The meetings also give the Commission an opportunity to explain the reason and purpose for certain regulations and report on the overall progress of wildlife conservation pro-

"It is the desire of the Commission to establish hunting and fishing regulations so that sportsmen might enjoy the maximum harvest of the wildlife resource without biological damage to the individual species," Blake said. The general framework for the 1970-71 hunting and fishing regulations will be established at the March meeting of the Commission. The general framework will include dates and bag limits for resident game birds and animals and fresh water

SHAD FISHING this past Sunday was a record catching day for W. A. Hicks and Frank Levine when they caught 31 nice large shad while fishing in the Three Palms area of the St. Johns River.

This past weekend was a fisherman's holiday, with record fish catches reported in all areas, between the Crowes Camp area and the Mullett Lake area over 100 boats jammed the river while they were fishing for shad. All of the shad fishermen were trolling with shad rigs and fishing deep, the shad were mixed with about half roe and half bucks, with an occasional speck catch.

The fishing report at the Lemon Bluff fish camp was real good this past week end with a lot of nice catches of shad and some specks being caught. Mike and Fred Bellick caught 11 shad with nine roes. Maryon Leitner of Osteen caught nine shad with six roe. G. E. Dunlop of Orange Park caught nine shad with four roe, and the Reisners of Lemon Bluff caught a fair catch of specks. The speck fishing in Lake Monroe was real good this past week with hundreds of speck fishermen catching their limits while drifting around in the lake. Carden told The Herald that 35 production line workers and 12 office personnel are still employed in the production of mobile homes at the airport

The problem of high inventories and slow national economic situation were the factors listed by Carden as responsible for the layoffs, "Hopefully, we will be able to boost our production to normal by March 1,"

Carden explained The official said the firm was still manufacturing one mobile home per day. This is about half of what Vintage was doing before the layoff, Carden informed. Vintage is a national mobile home builder and has production plants in Hutchinson, Kansas; Breckenridge, Texas and Gainesville, Ga. Vintage leased two ware houses and several other airport
