Cabinet Meeting Today Assures Adherence By One Of Original Signers

PARIS, Mar. 2—(AP)—The cabinet meeting today assured that the tripartite naval agreement between Great Britain, Italy and France was satisfactory. Thus France's adherence to the arrangement which will now be submitted to the United States, Japan and all other nations is virtually assured.

The text of the agreement was submitted to Washington and Tokyo, as both the United States and Japan were signatories to the London naval pact. It also was sent to Canada and other British dominions which participated in the London conference.

The accord which was reached by the British and naval ministers of France, Britain and Italy, was submitted to the respective governments with a recommendation that it be approved.

Foreign Minister Briand and Charles Dumont, French minister of marine, approved the proposition after it was explained to them by Arthur Henderson, British foreign secretary, and A. V. Alexander, first lord of the British admiralty. The Englishmen arrived in Paris Sunday afternoon from Rome, where they had been conferring with Italian officials.

It was announced that the agreement will be approved by the British cabinet today. Henderson said that the agreement will be approved by the British cabinet today.

The French foreign minister held a series of interviews toward the United States and it is necessary to keep the details of the agreement.

Fire In Old Mexican Theater Snuffs Out Lives Of Fourteen

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 2—(AP)—The daily smothering of a fire in a Mexican theater snuffed out the lives of fourteen people at stake, and when police firemen were able to clear some of the debris after a long fire had swept the 13th street old Theater Principal, 34 persons and other bodies were recovered today.

The fire started just at the end of the regular performance when a stagehand lit the curtain and an electric spark which had been causing the curtain to burn, trapped behind the blazing curtain, and with other exits cut off by the flames, most of the people were unable to escape.

Most of the victims died from smoke and children who were crowded to death in a small room of persons trying to get out of the theater, which was soon surrounded by fire. At least a score of persons were injured, some of them seriously burned about the face.

STRONG BANKING STRUCTURE RISES IN DIXIE AREAS

Elimination Of Weak Institutions In 1930 Is Seen Beneficial

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Mar. 2—(AP)—A new banking structure is springing up in the South out of the ashes of last fall's collapse. Bank officials say it will be stronger than the old because the weak institutions have been eliminated.

Those which have survived banking records show, are operating with larger cash reserves and generally are in a sounder position than formerly.

Out of the ruins of the failures, old banks are staging "comebacks" and new ones are emerging to take the place of the weaker ones.

Though the dramatic features which marked the swift closings are absent, a survey of some of the hard hit southern states shows banking systems are making progress in their fight to recover a sound footing.

Arkansas, where bank failures followed each other so swiftly for a few weeks that a rumour of collapse of banking structure was feared, is setting the pace in the return.

State banking department figures show that considerably more than half the banks which closed since the fateful day of Nov. 17, 1930, have reopened. Other through adjustment of their finances, reorganization or mergers with other institutions.

Out of 98 state banks which closed, 57 have reopened.

In addition several national banks caught in the whirlpool of failure have reopened.

HOOVER VETO OF SHOALS BILL SEEN CERTAIN

Hopels Abandoned For Enactment Of Any Other Legislation Before Adjournment

WASHINGTON, March 2—(AP)—Congressional leaders yesterday abandoned hope for enactment of any other general legislation before adjournment in the face of a prospective veto from President Hoover on the Muscle Shoals bill.

The President's statement Saturday characterizing the Norris measure for Government operation of the Muscle Shoals power and nitrate plant as "a political symbol" was accepted on Capitol Hill.

With only two and a half days remaining, Republican leader Watson conceded yesterday it would be next to impossible to secure action on anything controversial.

He will press today for Senate adoption of the $100,000,000 second deficiency bill which Chairman Jones of the appropriations committee is ready to report.

Then if Mr. Hoover vetoes the Muscle Shoals bill it will go first to the Senate. The subsequent row over this is expected to consume what time is left of the dying Congress. Leaders believed the veto would be sustained if brought to a vote.

Senator Norris, (R. Neb.), sponsor of the Muscle Shoals legislation providing for Government operation of the power plant, yesterday chided the President for his failure to announce a decision.

In reply to Mr. Hoover the Nebraska Senator said: "The President in his statement says: 'This happens to be an engineering project.' The President being an engineer it would seem he would have no difficulties in solving the problem and therefore it is rather surprising to learn from his statement that he is referring the matter to the heads of his departments, none of whom are engineers."

"The great engineer is seeking advice on an engineering project from those who are not engineers and when those who are not engineers tell the engineer what to do with an engineering project the engineer will know whether to sign or veto the bill."

"It reminds me of the New England country justice who at the close of a law suit said he would take it under advisement for three days at which time he would render judgment for the plaintiff."

Senator Hebert, (R. R. I.), will renew his effort in the Senate today to obtain action on the Yastal copyright bill. It already has been approved by the House, but with stiff Senate opposition manifest.

Change In Veterans Loan Bill Will Aid Borrowers At Once

Senator Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, introduced in the Senate a resolution to amend the present law which prevents loans from being made on certificates until they are two years old. The amendment would allow loans to be made anytime.

HOOVER AIDE IS OPTIMISTIC OVER BUSINESS TREND

Improving Rise In Conditions Revealed By Survey Of Country

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2—(AP)—An improving trend in the condition of American business, was discerned yesterday by Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the national business survey conference appointed by President Hoover.

In a report on the mid-winter economic status of the United States, Barnes saw a number of optimistic signs. Outstanding features of the report were summarized as follows:

"Recurring demonstration that industry generally has attained an adjustment of stocks, production and marketing in which even a moderate expansion in demand will have immediate results."

"An improving trend from the low point in December."

"Evidence that reduced city spending reflects into lower farm prices for products in which there is no apparent depressing surplus, such as most dairy products."

"Clear indication that the volume of savings in their various forms has been large and is still mounting."

Barnes said his summary was based on reports from the chief lines of American business. He added, they had been accompanied "almost uniformly by expressions of confidence and energy which are apparently themselves the fruit of improved conditions."

Discussing international conditions, Barnes said "repeated evidence of improved conditions are recorded."

At the same time Senator Stewart, republican, Utah, issued a statement praising the results of the tariff law. The chairman of the senate finance committee added that on the basis of quantity United States foreign trade for 1930 was 7 percent greater than the yearly average from 1922 to 1929.

ORLANDO FIVE WINS DISTRICT COURT HONORS

Sanford Quintet Bows To Fast Team From Orange County In Thrilling 23-21 Tie

By PETER SCHAAL
Amid scenes of wild confusion, and with an audience of nearly 600 frantic basketball fans on edge throughout the entire game, Coach Boone's Orlando Tigers, twice victorious over Coach Leonard McLucas' Seminole High quintet in early season games, won a spectacular 23 to 21 victory at the Seminole High School Saturday night in a game which was not decided until the last minute of play.

It was the final game of the fifth district of Florida championship, and the two ancient rivals, who had come through two days of tournament play with some stage a game which will long be remembered for its action and speed.

Although both teams were assured of an entry in the state tournament at Gainesville this week by their semi-final wins over Leesburg and New Smyrna, two of the favorites, the stakes of district honors add a huge edge to the game doubly interesting.

Superior defensive play of the Orlando team, led by Hughes and Williams, guards, proved to be the stumbling block for the local outfit, which had difficulty in solving the case with which the Orlando players covered the efforts of McLucas' men. Williams' great exhibition was acclaimed as the finest bit of guard playing of the entire meet, and his selection on the first team was not doubted. The usual fine play of Hughes, the forward, proved to be a unanimous choice for the team.

The team was overhauled by the great work of the two Orlando guards, and Ponder was bottled most effectively, although he scored eight of the 21 points. Kanner, his running mate, played a marvelous game and made a vain effort to make victory for Sanford sure, but his efforts were of no avail.

While the Orlando guards were holding local scoring in check, a tiny Orlando forward, "Rui" Fairfield, was running away from Jackson and Moyer, Sanford guards, and it was his great play, never wavering to the final whistle, which brought victory to Orlando. Fairfield was here, there, and everywhere, and because of his small stature, he was often able to dive into a swarm of players to leave a foot taller than he and come out of the pack with the ball headed toward his own goal in a burst of speed which was almost halted. He scored the last two baskets by just such play, and Sanford's inability to stop him proved fatal. His running mate, who also very much in the game, and his shots were recorded throughout applause time after time.

For the first time this season Lindsey, Sanford center, failed to score a single point, and although he had no equal as a backboard and follow-up man during the entire tournament, his failure in ring the basket in half a dozen times was sorely missed. Kinlaw, Sanford guard, was the most aggressive and consistent player.

Food Price Probers Urge Scrutiny Into Big Trust Monopoly

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2—(AP)—The Senate's four price investigating committee today recommended a careful scrutiny by the federal trade commission and justice department of the "alarming tendency toward monopolistic control" of the nation's food by a "small group of powerful corporations and combinations."

The recommendation was embodied in the committee's report to the Senate of its inquiry into the prices of bread, meats, sugar and milk.

The report found the responsibility for the failure of the retail price bread to reflect a decline in the price of wheat "rests primarily upon the large wholesale bakery companies which called to pass on to the consumer recent reductions in the cost of their ingredients."

MR. TILDEN AND HIS NEW RACER

By Burris Jenkins Jr.

STILL REMAIN HOLD IN SOUTH

 Col. Luis M. Sanchez says:
 "It is imperative that we overthrow the tyranny of the Southern States government which was established for the purpose of maintaining the segregation of the races."
 "We demand that election called immediately with a secret ballot and that the government establish a form of taxation which is light on small incomes, heavy on big incomes, luxury articles and large aggregations of capital, and establish a system of public works to employ the unemployed."
 "We also demand that the violation of the constitution be punished by the courts and that the bounty of a national government be restricted to the maintenance of the ship."
 Referring to the revolution of Colonel Garcia, he says:
 "Colonel Garcia is a present movement in Lima and he supports the revolution of the army. We don't wish to force him to be a candidate for president in the new government against the wish of the country."
 Former President Augusto B. Leguia and his fellow delinquents, O'Connell, Garcia and others, should be tried and punished for their crimes.

Now We Are Three
KATHERINE AND BILL—what fun it is to know them! They seem to get so much out of living. You met them just a little over a year ago—the week before they were married. Ten days later it gave you a pleasant glow of anticipation to receive the trim card telling you when they'd be "at home."
And today you got another card headed "Now we are three!" Bill's signature comes first, then Katherine's and then—the guided, demure, bewitching of the newcomer, Jeremy.
You happen to know that although he is in line for an important promotion, his present salary isn't large. Most other young couples would consider themselves "up against it" if they had to manage on so little. Yet Katherine and Bill maintain a standard of living that is the admiration of all their friends.

Yet you'll meet me in the thick of a Broadway crowd
It's a far cry from the cow country to Broadway. But what it takes to make the broncho buster "open up" about his cigarette is exactly what you want in your smoke. Good taste—and lots of it! And that is fine matter of tobacco quality, never forget it! When you taste in Chesterfield is riper, better tobacco—not smoother, blended and "cross-blended" to a fragrant, satisfying mixture that is Chesterfield's own.

LEAD VINCER OF BELLAIR MATCH

Leads Great Field To Grab West Coast's Honors For 2nd Year

BELLEAIR, Mar. 2—(AP)—Never relinquishing the lead he assumed here Saturday at the outset of the tournament, Gene Sarazen, stocky Italian professional of Lakeville, N. Y., yesterday won the Florida west coast open golf championship for the second consecutive year.

Sarazen's 72-hole score of 278, the result of rounds of 67-72-69-71, came within two strokes of equalling the record for the event, made in 1923 by Walter Hagen.

Sarazen's 779 has been equaled only once, and that was two years ago when Tony Rackliffe, Chicago, tied off top honors.

Sarazen's victory yesterday cost him $100,000 in prize money, and sent him well up the list of money-winning professionals for the winter campaign. He also will have his name inscribed on the Morton Plant trophy.

Struggling along with a fine pair of 69's, "Light Horse" Harry Cooper, Chicago professional, secured second place with a total of 280.

Four strokes behind Cooper came Edmund G. Hagen, Jr., Bridgeport, Conn., who added a 69 and 71 yesterday to his 148 total of Saturday to clinch third place, and $500.

Two missed short putts on the 18th green cost Sarazen a chance to tie Hagen's record, and when Walter hung up his fine 70, he had a remarkable 22 under par.

A remarkable 22 under par in between three steady but no so sensational rounds, Saturday and yesterday Gene found his putter a trusty blade until he reached the final green. On both occasions he missed short putts to take a birdie.

There was nothing sensational about Sarazen's golf for the first nine holes yesterday morning. He went a stroke over par by pulling a tee shot to the rough on the third hole, but compensated for the lapse by laying his second 10 feet from the pin on the par five fourth. On the seventh he sent his second into a trap to again go over par, but holed a 10-footer for a birdie on the eighth, and reached the turn on even terms with par.

Gene began to hit a backbreaking pace after rounding the turn. He clicked off four consecutive pars and then treated himself to a duce by holing out a six-footer on the 14th. A hooked tee shot cut him a stroke on the 16th, but he finished with a pair of threes for a 23 coming back.

On his final round Gene played flawless golf. He slipped a stroke on the fifth hole, but neutralized that lapse with a fine birdie four on the long ninth to reach the half way point in regulation numerals. Coming back he parred every hole but the final one, where his putter played him false, and he took a five for 71.

GATORS ADVANCE TO SEMI-FINALS

Have Barest Hopes Of Win Over Kentucky; Georgia Plays Also

ATLANTA, Mar. 2—(AP)—The Southern conference basketball championship held by five teams during the "rain-year" tournament competition, will pass into new territory Tuesday night.

Nine of the four teams reaching the semi-final, this year have never held the title, although Georgia has been in the next-to-last round on four occasions, and Kentucky twice. In 1927, Georgia was a finalist but lost to Vanderbilt.

In its two previous tournament appearances, Florida went out in the first round in 1924 and 1928. Maryland advanced to the quarter-finals in 1924 and 1927.

Florida will meet Kentucky at 8 o'clock tonight in the first of the semi-final games, while Maryland plays Georgia an hour later. Kentucky and Georgia have been established as the favorites.

Sport writers attending the games praise Maryland's passing and floor work as the best in the tournament, but the Old Lineers have experienced trouble in winning both of their early games because of faulty shooting.

Kentucky also has a fine and smooth passing system and many experts think the Blue Grass cagers have an excellent chance of winning the crown if Lewis McGinnis, the dynamic little forward, and his mate, Carey Spicer, get "hot" at the same time. McGinnis was looting them from all points Saturday night in Kentucky's win over Duke, scoring 18 points.

In both of its games Georgia was slow in starting and left trailing at intermission time. But the spark of attack always clicks in the last period and the Bulldogs flash ahead.

Florida is a black and darkhorse at the tournament has even seen The Gators barely qualified for semifinal, and were expected to fade out in the first round.

But the Florida team is composed of tall, rangy boys with plenty of stamina and these youngsters have been able to keep up a fast game throughout and win as their opponents weakened under the strain.

No previous tournament has ever witnessed so many good teams and such close scores. Georgia added an overtime period to beat Washington and Lee in its first game, and every other contest has been close. In the largest margin of victory to date Auburn downed Virginia by seven points.

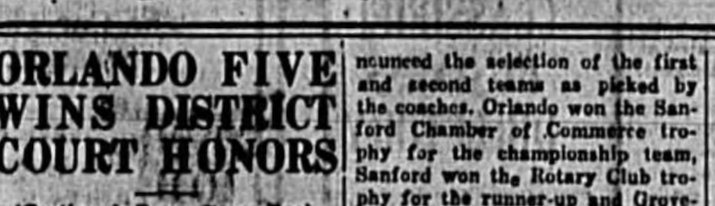

Daughters of the Confederacy hostesses, 4 p. m.; Stetson play, under direction of Dr. I. C. Stiver, honoring delegates, Assembly hall, 8 p. m.

Thursday—Business session, Woman's club, 9 a. m.; Memorial service, 12:30 p. m.; Luncheon, 1:30 p. m.; Hotel Putnam. Closing business session, Woman's club, 3 p. m.; Arrangement.

An ex-state officers dinner at 5:30 Thursday evening at the Hotel College Arms has been planned at the close of the conference.

Immediately after the game, Professor Treloar, of Leesburg, awarded the various cups, and announced the selection of the first and second teams as picked by the coaches. Orlando won the Sanford Chamber of Commerce trophy for the championship team, Sanford won the Rotary Club trophy for the runner-up and Groveland won the Lions Club trophy for the first team.

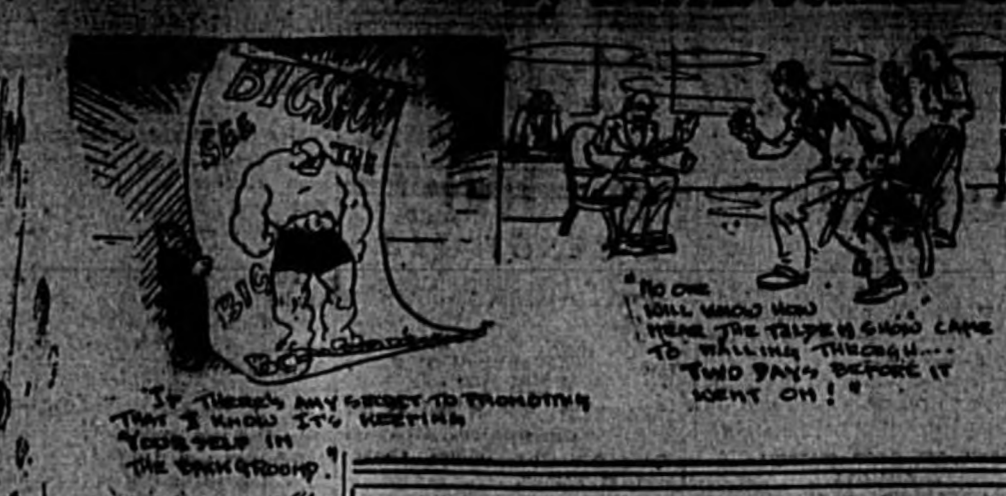

The first team selection: Ponder, Sanford and Rice, Groveland forwards; Herlong, Leesburg, center; Williams, Orlando, and Kinlaw, Sanford, guards. Second team: Barcus, Leesburg, and Zant, Montverde, forwards; Lindsay, Sanford, center; Hughes, Orlando, and Jewell, Apopka, guards.

While the Sanford team failed to win the conference honors, it brought many other titles to the city. It placed two men on the first team, and one on the second. It scored 116 points in three games, the high record, and administered the worst defeat of the tournament, the 50 to 23 win over Clermont in first round play.

Ponder, in crack forward was high score man of the meet with 48 points out of the 116 scored by Sanford in three games. He also was high single-game scorer of the meet, with 25 points chalked up in the Clermont game.

The tournament brought to Sanford teams from the following cities: Orlando, Leesburg, Daytona, Montverde, Apopka, Orlando, Ocoee, Winter Garden, Winter Park, Tavares, Bunnell, Seville, Clermont, Sanford, Umatilla, New Smyrna, and Groveland. Nearly 200 coaches and players, accompanied by at least 300 fans, were in Sanford during the two days of play, and the tournament was considered one of the best held in this district in recent years.

Immediately preceding the championship game, two undefeated girls' teams, Leesburg and Daytona Beach, played a fast, interesting, and hard-fought game which ended in 26 to 18 victory for the Leesburg outfit. Maugan, Leesburg forward, was the star of the game, scoring 21 of the 26 points, and leading her mates in every bit of action. Summerlin, Daytona forward, was close on her heels, scoring 10 of the 18 points made by her team. She had little assistance from her running mates Nushaum and Hansard, however, and great defensive play by the Leesburg guards, Peacock and Hamilton, made Miss Summerlin's efforts futile.

They also pointed out that the agreement must have the ratification of the parliaments of the governments concerned, including the United States and the London treaty.

The agreement forms a basis for the negotiation of a final naval strength and building program from 1936 and likely up to 1940. The absence of these two countries to the London pact, however, is to a five-party agreement.

The negotiators adopted a set of guiding principles, each of which is covered by specific parts of the agreement. It is quite clear that the old city of party, which included all efforts to secure a final agreement previously, had significantly been kept out of the picture.
