

AMERICAN DELEGATION TO ARMAMENT

Conference Has Been Named by President Harding

CHOSE BIG FOUR

HUGHES, ROOT, LODGE AND UNDERWOOD WILL PROBABLY BE THE ONES.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—President Harding today announced the full American delegation to the armament conference. It consists of four members:

Charles Evans Hughes, secretary of state, former justice of the Supreme Court, one-time candidate for the presidency and twice governor of New York; lawyer by profession.

Elihu Root, once secretary of war, later secretary of state, former senator from New York, lawyer, jurist and statesman of international reputation. The late President Roosevelt his close friend and colleague, once paid tribute to his attainments by describing him as "the ablest man in public life in America."

Henry Cabot Lodge, senator from Massachusetts, Republican floor leader, chairman of the foreign relations committee, long time student of international affairs, and author of many works of an historical nature.

Oscar W. Underwood, Democrat, senior senator from Alabama, leader of his party in the senate as he was in the house of representatives, regarded by colleagues of both parties in the senate chamber as "safe and sane," lawyer by profession and in public and political life since 1892. He was for the treaty of Versailles and the league of nations covenant, with or without reservations.

These four will represent America at the table at which will be gathered four from each other nation represented.

Confidence that both Mr. Root and Senator Underwood would serve was expressed at the White House. Senator Underwood's position as minority leader in the senate, where he might be called upon to sign any treaty or other agreement reached was not expected to preclude his acceptance. In event, however, that he should find it impossible to serve, it was intimated unofficially that John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain might be the democrat member of the American delegation. Mr. Underwood at present is in the mountains of Tennessee.

BAHE SETS RECORD.

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Babe Ruth today equalled his world's record of 54 home runs in a season in the fourth inning of the game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Yankees. The Yankee slugger established the record on Sept. 29 last year. Ruth's homer was probably the greatest drive ever hit at Ebbets Park. The ball sailed high in the air into deep left center and cleared the Somerset street wall of the park, cutting through a tree growing on the curb. The Yankees made six runs in the sixth inning.

CLEAN-UP SQUAD TO BE AT ORLANDO THURSDAY, 15TH

EX-SERVICE MEN ARE REQUESTED TO GET IN TOUCH WITH THEM

The Clean-Up Squad, sent out by government agencies, the Red Cross and the American Legions, arrives in Orlando on September 16th, and will establish headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce. The squad will remain there until September 19th, during which time, the members will work with one end in view and that end is to get in touch with every ex-service man who has a claim against the government, and set in motion the machinery to get quick and satisfactory adjustment of that claim. The paramount idea of the Clean-Up Squad is to cut red tape that has prevented hundreds of disabled veterans and ex-service men in general from receiving the compensation that the government is glad to give. In this work the Red Cross and the Legion have every assurance from the government of complete and whole hearted cooperation.

Under the plan of campaign, the Squad composed of experts who are thoroughly familiar with every detail of the workings of the War Risk Insurance Act and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, will get in personal touch with every man who has a claim or thinks he may have a claim, take up his case as an individual proposition, avoid lengthy and nerve wrecking correspondence, and get results. With that thought in view the Squad will visit centers in every state in the southeast and before the campaign is concluded, every county in the section will be covered. It is believed that by bringing this opportunity right to the doors of the veterans every man entitled to compensation, will get it and get it speedily. The Squad furnishes the big opportunity for the veteran to have straightened out all his difficulties of compensation and vocational training and medical treatment right at home. It is, as well, the chance of many to find out if they have claims and if they have, to get them filed properly, so that response will be satisfactory and immediate. To reduce trouble, delay, and expense to a minimum, the Squad will furnish each disabled veteran, who reports at squad headquarters, with transportation back home and meals and lodging until his business is completed. While the squad is in Orlando, it will take up in addition to the affairs of local veterans, the affairs of ex-service men in Orange, Seminole and Ocala counties.

RAIL UNIONS ASK PROBE OF WRECK OF A. B. & A. TRAIN

ATLANTA, Sept. 10.—The federal bureau of safety will investigate the wreck of an Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic railroad freight train here Wednesday night which leaders deny was caused by dynamite or other explosives as claimed by officials of the road, it was announced last night by J. M. Larissey, vice-president of the Order of Railway Conductors.

Mr. Larissey, who asserted that the wreck was caused by defective equipment and track, made public a telegram from W. P. Borland, chief of the bureau, promising the investigation which Mr. Larissey had requested. Inquiry into the wreck which cost the life of the engineer had previously been promised by Governor Hardwick who told a delegation from the International Association of Machinists he would appoint an investigating commission if they formally requested such action. They drew up a petition for presentation today and Col. B. L. Bugg, receiver for the road, on being told of this, declared he would welcome such inquiry.

The machinists' petition declares that the wreck was not caused by an explosive but by a defective engine, saying that investigation will show that "one of the pony truck wheels came off and because of the great speed at which the train was being run at the time, the engine ran from the rails and turned over."

The petition also pledges every effort to apprehend and convict the perpetrators of the crime if it can be shown that the wreck was planned and commends the governor's stand in efforts to break up lawlessness. Colonel Bugg, who recently told the governor there had been thirty-three such wrecks or attempted wrecks since strike trouble on the road had begun last March, declared the train was under orders not to run more than twenty miles an hour and asserted there was proof that an explosive had wrecked it.

Rewards totalling $5,500 have been offered for apprehension and conviction of any person responsible for the wreck.

Experantists throughout the world are publishing seventy periodicals in that universal language.

San Antonio Damaged to the Extent of Millions

TEN INCHES RAIN

PLAYS HAVOC WITH BUSINESS HOUSES—TORNADO SWEEPS WEST INDIES

(By The Associated Press) SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 10.—Seventeen bodies, mostly of women and children, are in the morgue at noon today. Estimates of probable loss of life continue to be large. Police still placing it at five hundred. Property loss is certain to be many millions. As the waters recede workers are searching ruined houses.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 10.—Six are known dead and property in the center of the city damaged several million dollars by the flood which swept San Antonio last night. Estimates of life loss, and property damage were difficult early today. Swollen by heavy rains for the last two days the San Antonio river and Alazan Creek overflowed into the down town business district, spreading over an area about twenty-four blocks. At the office of the San Antonio Express water reached into the first floor at 12:45 a. m. and a few hours later the telegraph, and telephone connections were severed. Over ten inches of rain had fallen at one o'clock this morning over Austin and all the surrounding country with the storm unabated. Water in the vicinity of the telephone building here is twelve feet deep.

Water from San Antonio river and Olmos Creek, which wind through the city, flooded the business section for many blocks to a depth of ten to fifteen feet. San Pedro Creek, on the west side of the city overflowed and joined the waters from the river and swept through the Southern part of the city. The water was fifteen feet deep in the lobby of Gunter hotel. The power house will be out of commission for at least two or three days. Partial telephone service has been resumed. The water service will be cut off at least twenty-four hours. Street car service is cut off indefinitely. Alarming reports of life loss in valley of San Antonio river south of the city is coming in but unable to confirm them. It is believed the greatest loss of life in the city occurred in the Mexican district. Phil Wright, commissioner of fire and police, stated at 8 o'clock this morning he believed the loss of life was very high. Only six bodies have been recovered so far. Wires of Commercial Telegraph companies went down early today and scores of persons anxious to get word outside that they were safe came to the office of the San Antonio Light and appealed to have messages sent over the wires of the Associated Press, which were working.

Rise in Cotton Brings Prosperity To the Nation

And Especially Throughout the Great South

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The present spectacular rise in cotton prices is generally regarded throughout that and allied industries as the breaking of the key log in the prosperity jam.

A canvass of the bigger cotton brokerage offices here yesterday revealed that while there have been some marked indications of a return to normal economic conditions in other lines, shaking off of the inertia in cotton is having a nationwide stimulating effect.

The concensus ran something like this:

"The marking up of raw cotton prices to something like their real value has created confidence among the bankers and merchants who have been 'carrying' the growers, textile manufacturers, fabricators of cotton goods and the employes of all of these.

While raw cotton remained at an abnormally low figure, buyers perversely expected it to go even lower. There was a general stagnation in all trades using cotton, the ramifications of which are almost endless. Then there came the sudden realization that we have a real cotton famine.

"The rush of buying sent cotton up nearly 100 per cent. Now textile mills are reopening. Automobile tire manufacturers and other users of cotton have begun to place orders. Mill machinery makers are starting up again. Hundreds of thousands of persons affected directly or indirectly by cotton are preparing to go back to work. Banks and merchants who loaned money or goods to the growers are being paid back.

"The present upturn in prices should be followed by a sharp reaction, and this by another upturn. These variations probably will continue up to the first of the year, but the average price should continue well above 20 cents a pound."

It was pointed out that with an acreage 28 per cent below normal; the condition of the American crop is the poorest in history—49.3 per cent, compared with a ten-year average of 67.7 per cent. This is an indicated yield of about 7,000,000 bales, as against last year's crop of 13,500,000 bales. Buyers suddenly realized that the supposed "carry over" of 9,000,000 bales largely mythical and that there is a cotton "famine."

"They are only doing what they should have done months ago," one broker said. He added that while the consumer will have to pay more for fabricated cotton, the prosperity resulting from the stimulation of trade will more than offset this.

700 PUPILS ENROLL IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS AT STATE CAPITAL.

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 9.—Although approximately 700 students have been enrolled in Tallahassee's public schools the maximum has not yet been reached, according to an announcement Wednesday by City Superintendent of Schools R. F. Senley. The enrollment, Mr. Senley says, will continue for several days and will not reach the high mark for about two weeks.

Prof. Senley and the faculty members of Tallahassee's public schools are greatly pleased with the opening and are looking forward to a splendid year in the work as a whole.

The lunch room at the Lon high school opened Wednesday and students of all departments will be permitted to take their lunch by paying a small sum to help defray expenses of its operation.

Planing down the waves that occur in bituminous surfaced roads is the purpose of a new heavy machine intended to be drawn by a tractor or power driven roller.

FEDERAL OFFICERS SHOOT GEORGIA MAN IN RAID ON HOUSE.

HAZELHURST, Ga., Sept. 8.—In raiding the place of J. M. Brand, near here yesterday, federal prohibition officers shot and probably fatally wounded Bruce Kirby whom they said attempted to shoot the officers. They also claim to have found a fifteen-year-old girl, Alice Moore, dressed in men's clothing, whom they charge was held in peonage. She is from Nunez, Emanuel county, the officers said.

Kirby is in a local hospital with his intestines punctured in thirteen different places, from buckshot.

Brand is under arrest on charges of illicit distilling and peonage and the girl is being held as a witness. Both will be taken to Savannah, in a few days.

The officers stated that after the girl donned men's clothing she said she was told that her services were needed as a guard at the distillery. She said her life was threatened if she tried to get away.

BRADENTOWN WILL VISIT SEVERAL FLORIDA TOWNS TO LEARN SOMETHING

Next Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock the Bradentown boosters will leave for Lakeland, Orlando, DeLand and Daytona on a "get better acquainted with their neighbors" trip. The plan is for the motorcade to take lunch and see Lakeland before one o'clock Wednesday, then go on to Orlando where the boosters of that city have prepared to show Bradentown people a good time, and chiefly to show them what the inland metropolis of Florida is doing in the development line. The Bradentown contingent will enjoy a banquet at Orlando in the evening and the Orlando folks will tell us what they have been doing recently and just what they expect to do in the near future. At Lakeland at the luncheon we will have learned of the things worthwhile that Lakeland is doing.

Thursday morning at six o'clock the motorcade will move towards DeLand and at the Athens of Florida breakfast will be served, and the new buildings and other new development going on will be seen. DeLand is said to have under construction, or have just finished nearly two millions dollars worth of new building this year. The Art Gallery at Stetson College will also be visited. Thursday noon the party will reach Daytona, and that afternoon will be spent seeing Daytona, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze, etc., and finding out what is being done at this marvelous east coast resort city. Bradentown is now just becoming a resort town, and undoubtedly can learn much from Daytona as to the operation of the beach resorts and other worthwhile things. The entire trip is one of education and development. We should learn much that will help in building up Beautiful Bradentown. Everyone who can should take the trip, and learn how other towns and cities are going ahead.—Bradentown Journal.

Even though the cost of building has gone down some 25 per cent or more under what it was last year, the past month's building permits show a substantial gain over what they were last August. A total of 110 permits were issued with an aggregated outlay of $281,305. For the first six months of 1920 the permits issued tallied $1,244,735, against $1,305,323, for 1921.—Reporter-Star.

Col. G. W. Knight Receives Medal for Distinguished Service

It is not everyone who goes to war that is accorded the great privilege of doing something that would entitle them to a medal. These tokens of the appreciation on the part of the government are not pretty baubles to be given to special favorites but are for real service and are only given after mature deliberation and rigid investigation. The following letter to Col. G. W. Knight, of this city, demonstrates that he served his country faithfully and well in the real fighting:

"To Col. G. W. Knight:

Dear Sir:

"Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 9, 1918 (Bul. No. 43, W. D., 1918), a distinguished-service medal was awarded on August 12, 1921, by the War Department to you with the following citation:

"For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services near Bethincourt, France, on September 25, 1918. He was assigned the task of placing foot bridges over Forges River and cutting the wire in front of the enemy positions. In this, his inspiring leadership and constant supervision were conspicuous. Later he organized the regiment for the November 1st offensive which entailed the building of nine bridges, every one of which was completed in time for the artillery to keep pace with the Infantry. His organization of the work at hand enabled the advance to proceed without delay and also enabled the Infantry to have the support of the Artillery, and to keep in close touch with their transport."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

It is expected that delegates from women's labor organizations of 49 nations will attend the second International Congress of Working Women to be held at Geneva next month.

Lady Surma Mar Cimoom, who has been chosen as the leader of the Assyrian nation, and the first woman president in the world, is a native Assyrian who received her education in France and England.

Lady Ithodda, who controls enormous financial and industrial interests, gives it as her opinion that women on the whole are as fit to tackle big business as men. The commonsense and practical ability which women have are a natural asset, she says, and the difference between men and women today is mostly a matter of environment and training.

Miss Tillie Ruppel, chief operator of a suburban telephone exchange in national chase after two desperate men who had escaped from the state penitentiary. Believing that she recognized the two men as they passed down the road on their way to the open country, Miss Ruppel notified the authorities and they kept constantly on the trail of the fugitives by calling each farmhouse in succession along the road they were traveling. Thus, when the sheriff's posse was formed, she was able to tell the members exactly where the men were, and they were soon overtaken and captured.

Hats are the finishing touch to the costume, and they make or mar its success. There is a hat for every face, one that will enhance its good points and be kind to its faults. Every time you send out of town for anything you are injuring your home town that much. It is really asking too much to go after the business men of Sanford for every enterprise and then send this money out of the town to help other people. If our people would just learn this rule there would be more money here than ever before.

We would respectfully ask all those concerned to stop the "drives" for a while and get busy on the Merchant's Gala Day in which everything is free and no one is asked to be tagged or hooked or hitched. Honestly the business men of Sanford are tired and then we are at the fag end of a hot summer and we are weary of so much giving and soliciting and running to and fro. It hits the same people every time and it is high time those who have not been giving were approached to give up something. The idea is all wrong. All this money should come from a publicity tax and let everybody pay their just share. The "good fellows" have been worked to death.

WILLING TO KISS HIS HAND

Only a very few years ago the people of West Palm Beach urged Joe L. Earman to fill the post of police magistrate. He, very reluctantly, accepted the position—and he filled it right. His decisions were just—and tempered with mercy and fairplay. Then a bunch of cheap rubes and yaps, sore but not sorry, signed a petition calling him all sorts of names and urged his resignation. On the whole petition there was not the name of a manly man. Joe resigned. Since that time the people there have been "experimenting". Now a big lot of the decent folks—and some of the cheap skates who signed the first petition—are begging him to accept the job once more. But Joe is a wise gazaboo—and he merely grins when he tells the applicants that there's nothing doing. One time seems to be enough of such stuff.—Kissimmee Gazette.

THE ST. JOHNS RIVER OUR MOST VALUABLE ASSET

The St. Johns river, our most valuable asset, has lain at our very door for many years. Before the advent of the railroad into Sanford the river had dozens of good steamers bringing freight and passengers to and from points in South Florida. It was cheap transportation and good transportation and suited everyone perfectly. With the coming of the railroads all this was changed although the Clyde Line in later years with the dwindling of the river traffic absorbed the other lines and has continued to give us a good service commensurate with the amount of business that we have given the Clyde Line. That they are feeling the effects of the ship-by-water movement now that such a movement is almost state-wide is also apparent. The Florida Metropolis has the following to say regarding the river transportation:
"The DeLand News is agitating increased use of the St. Johns river transportation facilities by the merchants of their city. They have started a campaign which is being watched by every city in the state which has even a remote chance of ever becoming an 'inland seaport.'
"If one were to compute the monetary value of the St. Johns river, alone, to the state, one would have to go beyond the six-figure mark," the News says. And we believe that the News has been very conservative in estimating the value of the big river. "Jacksonville people who have lived along the banks of the St. Johns for many years are prone to accept the big body of water as a matter of course. There are hundreds of persons in this city who do not realize that the river is Jacksonville's one biggest asset.
"The Hudson and North rivers coupled with the Erie canal, made New York the first city of the world.
"The Delaware river made Philadelphia.
"The Patapsco river and the Chesapeake bay made Baltimore a city nearing the million mark.
"New Orleans would never have been the city she is but for the Mississippi river.
"And so on through the entire list of the principal cities of our country.
"It is not hard to imagine what Atlanta would give to be located on the St. Johns river.
"Birmingham, Ala., is trying to link herself with the Gulf by way of the Warrior river.
"It is easy for one to overlook the big assets that the Almighty has given a city.
"Jacksonville will grow and develop as quickly as the port of Jacksonville grows and develops.
"This is as true an axiom as 'the shortest distance between two points is a straight line,' which has been accepted as a profound truth for years and years."

USE THE ST. JOHNS.
Orlando, DeLand, Sanford and other points on and contiguous to the St. Johns river are thoroughly aroused to the importance of again utilizing the wonderful waters of the St. Johns river to bring freight from tidewater into interior Florida. A decade ago Sanford, Orlando, DeLand, Leesburg, Ocala, and even as far south as Lakeland, Bartow and Tampa, received all of their freight by boat from Palatka. Palatka was the rail's end and freight coming from the west was routed through here to the river boats, and thence to those towns that happened to be off the waterway.
That was before the advent of the truck. Now Orlando, DeLand, Daytona, Leesburg, and contiguous points are seriously aroused to the possibilities of a resumption of use of the St. Johns. Orlando is discussing it in a very practical way, as one of the contiguous points. Facts and figures are being assembled to show that Orlando can route freight by water to Sanford and thence by truck to Orlando a great deal cheaper than it can be routed direct by rail. Daytona will also be interested when the proposals assume a more practical phase no doubt, and once the movement is under way it cannot be stopped by railway overtures.
Plans are already being discussed here for a joint meeting between representatives of the Chambers of Commerce of Palatka, Sanford, DeLand, Orlando, Leesburg, and Daytona, at Sanford to discuss a carefully worked out plan for either extending the Palatka-Jacksonville steamer line to Sanford, or establishing a line, with the Palatka line, as a nucleus, with daily sailings. Such a plan is inevitable, and there are many who believe that now is the time to inaugurate it.—Palatka News.

GOD AND OTHERS SEE US.

One of the wisest of the old sayings is that "no man is a hero to his valet." Its application is by no means limited to those who are so fortunate as to be able to command the intimate personal service of their fellow creatures. It applies to every person, in all his relations with those whom he considers inferiors. When men and women meet on a social level they are usually masked. They talk conventionalities. They observe certain forms of politeness. But when they meet virtually the same sort of people, upon a different plane, where they feel that they can afford to be careless of the impression they make, they often present quite a different aspect.
Everybody you meet forms an opinion of you. The man who leaves milk at your door of a morning, the boy who blackens your boots, the barber that shaves you, the lady who dresses your hair, the fellow who delivers groceries at your kitchen—all those have you sized up, according to their lights, and the chances are that their opinion is more accurate than that of your bosom social companions.
Much is said of the exposure of the person on the bathing beach, but many a woman, by her bearing and attitude in the corner grocery, exposes more of her real self in a day than a beach rubberneck would discover in a season. It is truly astonishing with what reckless abandon small, mean, ill-natured, penurious, unfair and even dishonest qualities are fairly thrust in the face of the man who sells canned things.

Many a person, male and female, whose bearing in society says, "I am a superior person, a Christian, a model of excellence," has no hesitation in taking a cook, a housemaid, a salesman, a delivery man, or any so-called inferior aside, and saying to them, in effect: "I am a hypocrite, a sham, a fraud, ill-tempered, ill-bred, dishonest," ignorant, coarse, destitute of all inherent courtesy or refinement." They do not say all this in so many words, but often they might as well do so, so far as the completeness of the confession is concerned.
The ministers tell us that we should be careful, because God sees everything we do. That is perfectly true; and it is equally true that nine times out of ten somebody else also sees us, and draws pretty shrewd conclusions from what he observes.—Lakeland Telegram.

OLD-FASHIONED FAMILY ALTAR NEED OF DAY.

The re-establishing of the old-fashioned family altar has been urged by a Fulton county, Georgia, grand jury as the only way to check moral looseness and to train the boys and girls of today for their work as men and women.
The exercise of strict parental control over the child is urged. "The courts can do nothing. A man or woman who reaches the courts is usually a hardened person and all the fines and sentences in the world will do no good," the report read.
"This grand jury has made an extensive study of alleged whiskey and vice conditions in our county and we wave the danger flag to parents as the result of our probe. We beg all parents to 'stop, look and listen' before it is too late for them to save their children."
The Fulton county grand jury must have been made up of men who honestly sought a remedy for the increase of crime and moral looseness. The report shows that they have themselves prayed over the situation and their recommendations are along the right lines.
It is impossible to legislate morals into a man or a woman. Indictments and even chain-gang sentences on a full-grown man or woman will never in the world make them mend their ways.
"The boy is father to the man" and the seeds of decency and clean living must be sown when the boy or girl is young.
The churches and schools can assist in the moral training of a child only to a limited degree.
The real foundation for a moral life must be laid at home—around the family altar.
One does not have to hark back so many years to remember when father used to take down the family Bible, read a passage from the Old or New Testament and then the whole family, led by the father, would lift their voice in humble appeal to the Father above for guidance. Criminals do not come from homes like that.
But there is a different sense today. The family Bible lies on a shelf covered with the dust of months and years. The family hardly has time for a "blessing" at the supper table. Sister has a date to go out in the flivver with the "boy around the corner"—a boy the girl's father and mother may never have met; brother is off to the pool rooms; mother and father have a "little game" planned and the family altar is forgotten.
It is high time that the men and women of today—the fathers—and mothers—"Stop, Look and Listen," as the Fulton county grand jury suggests. There are many dangerous curves ahead and the boys and girls—who will be our men and women of tomorrow—must be guided and taught by their mothers and fathers if they are to become the right sort of citizens.
One would not think of turning a pet rose garden over to someone not interested in flowers to cultivate.
The head of the house would not think of letting an incompetent overhaul his big automobile.
But they are willing to let their children run wild, select their own associates, and learn the lessons of life from the streets.
Wake up mothers and fathers—"Stop Look and Listen."—Florida Metropolis.

NOT A MODERN FABLE BY GEORGE.

Once there was a Community of Good People who lived in a Productive Country of Great Richness. These Good People worked hard and made a Good Living. Some of them accumulated a Great Deal of Money and all of them who worked industriously could have done the same if they had been Careful.
Every Time they had a Good Crop year these people were Beset with a Swarm of Locusts which in these Modern Days come in the Form of Promoters and Stock Salesmen.
Any man who did not like to Work could come to this Community and by using his Tongue get more Filthy Lucre than he could Spend. All he had to do was to say that his Company had invented an Automobile that could be built for Eighteen Dollars, that would run Seventy Miles per hour and make ninety miles on a Pint of Low Grade Gasoline and these good people would fall over themselves to get some of the stock before it was all gone.
Sometimes the Good Hearted Promoter who was selling stock that would Pay One Hundred and Forty Per Cent a month would have an Exclusive Right to Raise Oysters in the Gulf of Mexico, or a newly discovered Oil Field where the Oil Bubbled out of Springs in Endless Quantities, or a New Kind of Engine that had no Cranks or Flywheels and that would Revolutionize the Universe.
Sometimes it was a Mine that had a Solid Body of Gold two feet thick but as it was overlaid with a Body of Silver three feet thick it was necessary to Raise Capital to buy Machinery to remove the Silver.
In Every Case the Promoter desired to give the Benefits to the Common People. None of the Captains of Industry would be permitted to Gobble up the Stock.
And these Good People who made their own money by the Sweat of their Brows would get out the Old Poke and give all their Shekels to the Honest Promoter who was Solicitous of their Interests and then buy Groceries on Credit.
These Good People were Handicapped by Bad Roads so that they could only haul half their produce to market and some of them could not go to town at all when it was wet or dry. But good roads cost a lot of money and would raise the taxes to an alarming extent, so they went without good roads that never brought back any returns.

Every year they spent enough in buying stocks which their bankers would not have as a gift, to build all the good roads they needed. And when the bankers advised them not to buy they said it was because the bankers wanted to keep their money in the bank at a low interest and make the fancy investments for themselves.
Moral: The best investments are those right at home about which you know the most.—Wauchoh Advocate.

LEAGUE WILL NOT DECIDE ON BLOCKADE DECISION, METHODS TO BE APPLIED

GENEVA, Sept. 10.—The time is not ripe for a definite understanding of the methods for applying the economic blockade against offending members of the League of Nations, and this provision should not be interpreted until the authority of the League is recognized by all nations and the press, was the conclusion reached by the League's commission on disarmament at a public session held yesterday afternoon.

Carlos Schanzer, the Italian delegate, who repeatedly has urged an active disarmament program for the League, was the only member of the commission who refused to accept the conclusion. He urged that article 16 of the covenant of the League of Nations, which deals with economic weapons, should be interpreted immediately so that the League would know exactly how to proceed against an offending member.

His proposal was defeated, and a sub-committee of the delegates, including representatives of France, Japan, Belgium, Switzerland, Cuba and Italy, was selected "to summarize the conclusion of the international blockade commission's suggestions."

The sub-committee will report Monday.

LEE AND FLYNN NOT MEN WHO ROBBED SO. JACKSONVILLE BANK.

WAUCHULA, Sept. 9.—Officials of the South Jacksonville Bank, which concern was robbed by bandits who escaped in an automobile, some four or five weeks ago, failed to identify J. M. Lee and J. F. Flynn, in the county jail here today as members of the bandit gang.

Lee and Flynn are held as members of a gang of automobile thieves which has been operating in southern Florida recently. The sheriff here was notified a few days ago by Attorney W. O. Murrell of this city that Lee and Flynn were two of the robbers who held up the cashier of the bank at South Jacksonville and got away with several thousand dollars.

Murrell himself is under charges of being a confederate of the automobile thieves, it being charged that he made out fake bills of sale to expedite sales of stolen cars.
