bers to attend the meetings of the committee. Pred Wilson, chairman of the committee reported that owing to lack of attendance of the committee members and to the important matters to be discussed the last meeting saw very little action but that a session next Tuesday had been scheduled. Matters vital to the welfare of Sanford are to be threshed out at that time, it is said.

Senator Overstreet, of Orange county, addressed the gathering for a few moments following the close of business and explained matters of interest pertaining to the Everglades Drainage district. He urged the Seminole County people to support the move to make the project one of state interest.

A belated Christmas story: A young woman of evident refinement brought a neatly sealed package to the Forty-fifth street post office. The stamp clerk began breaking the seals in accordance with parcel post rules. The young woman remonstrated and plain-fively exhibited a finger burned of the sealing wax, which she had applied with great care. The heart-lens clerk was unaffected.

The rage for antiques here takes requent homely turns. Now it's amps, and the old cil burner which customarily was turned down and suffed into extinction just before the cat was put out for the night, is in demand. A plain, clear glass litchen lamp that sold in small towns once for 25 cents now fetches $5.

Another object of art, if not of asse, for lovers of antiques is the all four-poster. A celored woman roun the South, strolling down to sington Avenue, was aghast and mused at the exhibits. "Why," ald she, "where I come from it as only the down-and-out that the popular.
