LONG CURSED AT HEARING ON NOMINATION

Henry, However, Asks
That Vituperative
Statement Be Set
Down In Records

WASHINGTON, Apr. 4—(AP) Long, however, was cursed today at a hearing, but he said, "Let it go into the record."

At a hearing on the confirmation of D. D. Moore as Internal Revenue Collector of Louisiana, a Roosevelt nominee opposed by Long, the Senator so aroused Colonel John Sullivan of New Orleans that the latter matted, "You know you can never trust, you rotten — that made this type."

Sullivan cursed Long under his breath but loud enough for Long to hear.

Long said, "That's all right, let him say it, let it go into the record."

Long had declared that E. R. Bradley, and Sullivan manipulated him into race tracks "At the expense of the interests of the United States."

Summoned as a witness by Long at the hearings, Bradley arrived in the capital yesterday and said he was not interested in Louisiana politics. "My only pecuniary interests in Louisiana have been as a shareholder in the Louisiana Jockey Club, he said.

Long said, "A 'club' operated by Bradley at Palm Beach is the sportiest, and sinistest, gambling house in the world."

At New Orleans, a federal grand jury yesterday returned an indictment against Lawrence A. Merrigan, former collector of internal revenue for Louisiana, charging him with violation of the corrupt practices act.

Bradley, usually retired from the Internal Revenue office here in favor of D. D. Moore, whose nomination as collector is being contested in Washington by Senator Henry P. Long.

There were 42 counts in the 38-page indictment returned against the former collector, charging him with soliciting and collecting from his office employees in the summer of 1933 campaign contributions for opposing the Republican presidential campaign fund.

The indictment said the money, ranging from $50 for women employees to $100 for men employed, were remitted to J. R. Nett, treasurer of the Republican National Campaign Committee in Washington.

State Supreme Court Hears Testimony Charging Kress Stores With Law Violation

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 4—(AP) The supreme court yesterday took under consideration the suit by a Key West drug store seeking to divest S. H. Kress & Company, of its business license on charges the five and ten cent store organization is violating the anti-trust laws.

At a hearing yesterday on a motion by the company to quash the quo warranto proceedings brought by the drug firm, attorneys for the latter described the Kress Company as "a menace to the common welfare and contrary to the public policy," while defense lawyers replied that it was "a corporation of the type that made this country."

Calling the claims made in the action "vague and indefinite," A. G. Turner, attorney for the Kress Company, declared the information says the policy of the state in granting licenses to foreign corporations is unwise and that's about all it does say."

He said the company, licensed under an act of 1907, is known as the S. H. Kress and Company of Texas, which he added was owned by the S. H. Kress and Company of New York. Because of this complete ownership, Turner said, "There can be no combination of skill or capital in restraint of trade where the companies are one and the same."

"There is no conspiracy or combination," he said. (Continued on Page Two)

Dick Reynolds Gets $25,000,000 Legacy On 28th Birthday

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., (UPI) — Richard J. Reynolds, Jr., the unassuming young man who took to aviation, shipping and backing a Broadway show to earn a little money, inherited in the neighborhood of $25,000,000 today. The sum was left him by his father who provided a small tobacco factory here into a huge money-making industry. The sum came into the hands of the son who was 28 years old today.

Reynolds, Jr., was left the money in trust by his father who amassed a reputed $100,000,000 fortune in the manufacture of cigarettes, and who apportioned his wealth to his other children, one of whom was Smith Reynolds, mysteriously slain two years ago at his palatial home here. Although this was a red letter day in his life, Richard had nothing to say to the public.

The allegations were made before the Senate banking committee by Edward L. Backus, former president of the Minnesota and Ontario Paper Company, and were directed at the Chase National Bank and the First National Bank of Boston.

The "trail of evil," he said, also ran through the International Paper and Power company. (Continued on Page Three)

Wilson War Secretary Says Interests Of World Peace Would Be Served By Move

WASHINGTON, Apr. 4—(AP)

Secretary Morgenthau yesterday held the treasury's billion dollar financing to a strictly refunding basis and by seeking no new cash indicated curtailed government spending in the immediate future.

A series of 10-12 year treasury bonds paying 3 1/4 percent was offered holders of a billion in four Liberty bonds maturing April 16 and of $244,234,000 in treasury notes maturing May 2.

By allowing only exchange subscriptions, Morgenthau gave evidence that the treasury's present supply of ready cash $2,000,000,000 excluding the $2,000,000,000 profit on dollar valuation—was ample to meet spending needs until the end of the fiscal year on June 30.

With the deficit at the end of nine months reaching only $2,420,000,000, Morgenthau financing plan was interpreted as indicating the year-end deficit would fall well below $1,000,000,000 as compared with January budget estimates of more than $7,000,000,000.

The new issue of bonds will be dated April 16 and mature April 16, 1940, but the treasury may call them on or after April 15, 1940.

Holders of the called fourth Liberties and May 2 notes have the option of taking the new bonds in exchange or accepting cash.

The treasury expects a big majority to avail themselves of the exchange opportunity.

Morgenthau's financing announcement coincided with figures on the treasury's financial condition as of March for the first nine months of the fiscal year. In this nine months period, the government had taken in $2,062,000,000 and had spent $1,685,000,000 on routine costs and $2,860,000,000 on emergency recovery outlays. The deficit of $2,512,000,000 compared with an excess of $3,000,000 on the same day last year of $2,564,828,000.

Dade Teachers Told To Stop Selling Magazine

Miami, April 4.—(AP)—Dade teachers were told by the school board yesterday to refrain from urging sale among pupils of the publication, the Dade County Teacher.

"I have no reason to believe any teacher would be in fine condition for another season which he anticipates to be better than that of 1933 when he was two years younger," said the teacher.

The action followed the making public Monday by Governor Shultz of five British naval officers who had come from Hong Kong, China, last May in a 54-foot ketch, "The Taimoshan," arrived in Bermuda yesterday afternoon.

They were arrested for piracy.

Shultz, who is president of the Miami Education Association, said:

"I am sure that the teachers will be more tomorrow to their own benefit."
