WAR NEWS IN EUROPE CONFLICTING

LITTLE MONTENEGRO IS WHIPPED AND NOW SUES FOR PEACE

London, England, Jan. 17.—The little news of the fighting which has come in from various fields of action the past twenty-four hours is very conflicting. The Bulgarians claim the Russian forces have gained more ground in Galicia in the neighborhood of Czernowitz while the Austrians report that the Russian advance has been checked, due to its magnitude, by the assistance put up by the Austro-Hungarian troops along the Galician front and that some of the Galician trenches have been taken.

Another report was made in the house of commons today that the Turkish forces in Mesopotamia have taken a gain of six miles of territory.

Decision in Caldwell Case

The following decision in the Caldwell case rendered by Judge Call will be interesting to Sanford readers. It is taken from last Friday's Times Union:

An opinion in which it is held that the solvency of one partner at the time of filing a petition in bankruptcy against a firm was a valid defense against bankruptcy proceedings was rendered yesterday morning by Judge P. M. Call of the United States district court, in the case of D. A. Caldwell and Sons and D. A. Caldwell, D. D. Caldwell and H. W. Caldwell, individually of Sanford.

The opinion was rendered by Judge Call, following withdrawal of a demand for a jury trial upon an amended petition joined in by over a dozen creditors of the firm who alleged the insolvency of the partnership and each member thereof and that while involved on the 15 day of April, 1915, said firm did it was of an alleged conspiracy to transfer its partnership property with intent to hinder, delay, defraud and to defraud their creditors.

The original petition was filed by three creditors and later dismissed by Judge W. H. Sheppard, who, however, allowed the petitioners to amend, which was done. The amended petition was filed by the same creditors, acting as attorneys for the petitioners, moved for the appointment of a receiver and for the appointment of a receiver. The petitioners alleged that the Caldwell and Sons partnership, created by the partnership agreement of 1914, was a partnership for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding their creditors and with the purpose of evading the insolvency of the partnership and the assets possible beyond the reach of their creditors.

This allegation was based upon the fact according to the petition that D. A. Caldwell and H. W. Caldwell transferred their interest in the firm to D. A. Caldwell for a certain consideration shortly before the petition was filed and the latter to sustain the charge, alleged among other things that the partnership and each member was insolvent, that the third partner was the head of a family entitled to a homestead and that the three resided on a portion of the partnership real estate not mortgaged to the partnership and that the partnership was insolvent at the time of the transfer and the assumption of the partnership in addition to a consideration, which petitioners alleged was not paid.

When the case went to trial during the latter part of December a mistrial resulted and the parties concerned withdrew the demand for a trial by jury and submitted the facts to the court for ruling. The action of Judge Call is hereby affirmed.

As a matter of law I find that the partners could dissolve the partnership by two of them selling their interests to the third, that the assumption of the firm debt by the buying partner, and giving notes secured by mortgage on part of the heretofore firm property is a good and valuable consideration for the transfer, that the solvency of one partner at the time of filing the petition in bankruptcy against the firm is a valid defense against the bankruptcy proceedings.

Funeral of Mrs. Blaine. The funeral of Mrs. Emma Blaine held in the Congregational church Tuesday with Rev. F. P. Strong officiating, marked the passing of one of Sanford's oldest and most respected citizens.

Mrs. Blaine, thirty years ago Mrs. Blaine, with her husband and children came to Florida and settled at Fort Reid near Sanford. Later, as the town of Sanford developed, they purchased property here and resided in their own home until Mr. Blaine's death about five years ago, since which time Mrs. Blaine has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lyman Phelps at Lake Orono. The deceased has been in failing health for some time past and the end was not unexpected.

About seventy-five years ago, Mrs. Blaine was born in Washington, O., where she spent her early youth. After coming to Sanford Mr. and Mrs. Blaine united with others in forming the First Congregational church, and were among its original charter members, only four of whom are living today. Mrs. Blaine was an earnest and consistent Christian and her home was always open to the demands of her church. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lyman Phelps of Sanford, and Mrs. Carrie Yeiser of Jacksonville, and a son, William Blaines of New York city. Interment was at Lakeview Cemetery, Sanford.

COMMISSION PLANS RAISE IN FLORIDA

PROPERTY WILL BE ASSESSED AT FULL VALUE INSTEAD OF HALF

Florida counties will be assessed on the full value basis if the command of the state tax commission means anything. Some time ago they sent out word to all the counties to let the commission know just what they thought about the full value plan and not receiving any reply have decided to raise the taxes to full value in every county in the state.

The following is the order sent the assessors by the tax commission:

Tallahassee, January 15, 1916. To the County Tax Assessors of Florida: The time asked for by the assessors in convention at Jacksonville, Fla. on December 8-9 to arrange an agreement as to the basis on which property should be assessed for the year 1916 has passed and no agreement has been reached.

The commission is now in the process of assessing all property for the year 1916 at full cash value in compliance with law. Every assessor in the state, knowing the changing conditions heretofore and now existing, is directed to assess all property in compliance with the necessity of the order and to suspend hope that they all will voluntarily proceed to assess all property in their respective counties at full cash value as the law directs and work in harmony with the state tax commission in their efforts to get a uniform assessment throughout the state.

The state tax commission will use every legal means within its power to secure an assessment in compliance with law and to see that boards of county commissioners who change any assessments when properly made restore same to the assessor's valuations. There is no need to fear that a full cash value assessment will work a hardship on the taxpayer as millage rates are assessed in proportion to the amount of valuation. The tax commission will this year make every possible effort to have property throughout the state assessed on a uniform basis, that every county shall pay its just proportion of state taxes. We will appreciate a few lines from every assessor acknowledging receipt of this communication and signifying his willingness to work in harmony with us and to aid us in our efforts to enforce a uniform assessment throughout the state.

Some member of the tax commission will visit every county in the state from time to time and confer with the assessors and boards of county commissioners in tax matters, and we will at all times work for the best interests of the state and counties. We hope to have the support and cooperation of all who are interested in this greatly needed work.

Yours very truly,
John Neel, Chm.
R. J. Patterson,
John S. Edwards,
Tax Commission.

CANAL TROUBLES

The East Coast Canal Cannot Accommodate Big Freight Boats

The St. Johns river advocates stated in the various meetings that the East Coast Canal had never been dredged to a sufficient depth to accommodate the larger vessels. That this is the truth is amply shown by the many reports of boat troubles in the East Coast Canal and one of them from the New Smyrna News of last Friday is given below.

The Howard Transportation company has been having its troubles during the last week, but every possible effort has been made to keep boats running to handle the heavy freight business at this time of the year.

The first serious trouble happened when the steamer Swan broke her shaft in getting away from the dock in Daytona last week. It was necessary to send to Jacksonville for an expert welder, who succeeded in getting the shaft welded in a couple of days and the steamer went back to Jacksonville, loaded up and started for another trip down the East Coast waterway. Between Jacksonville and Augustine the shaft broke in two where it had been welded, leaving the big steamer beached.

The steamer McNeil, which made its trip to New Smyrna yesterday, was the only steamer which was able to get through Saturday night and Sunday morning and did not get stuck in the canal. Efforts to float her back have been unsuccessful and Manager J. H. Hill is at the head of the McNeil Monday morning, waiting for the tide to get the steamer out and see what could be done about getting her off the bars. He was at the McNeil Tuesday evening, waiting for the tide to get her out and see what could be done about getting her off the bars.

Nobody but Father

Mother gets most of the poetry, and she is entitled to all she gets, and more too, but father is a member of the family and deserves some recognition. The following tribute to "Dad" contains more truth than poetry, by some one unknown to the Record, maybe it was a mother—God bless her if so—is worthy of a careful reading.

Nobody knows the money it takes To keep the home together; Nobody knows of the debt it makes, Nobody knows—but father.

Nobody knows that the boys need shoes And girls hats with a feather; Nobody who old clothes must choose, Nobody but father.

Nobody loves that the coal and wood And flour—out together; Nobody who must make them good, Nobody but father.

Nobody's hand in the pocket goes So often wondering whether There's any end to the wants of those Dependent only father.

Nobody thinks where the money will come To pay the bills that gather, Nobody who looks so blue and glum; Nobody but father.

Nobody tries so hard to lay Up something for bad weather, And runs behind, do what he may, Nobody but father.

Nobody smiles from the world's joy, Nobody who tries to cheer, Nobody who brings welcome warm, Nobody but father.

Nobody who home life pure, Nobody who all secure, Nobody who all secure, Nobody but father.

Nobody who home life pure, Nobody who all secure, Nobody who all secure, Nobody but father.

if she lived in a little cottage with a rambler rose vine over the door, half a dozen ragged, dirty children and a husband coming home at night with his face grimy with sweat and his red flannel shirt sleeves rolled back upon his sinewy arms.

But what's the use of talking about the unattainable?

Think of all the women who would be happy if their husbands could get jobs! Yes and think of all the other women who would be filled with unutterable joy if they could get even husbands without jobs!

The following from the Grand Rapids, Mich. Herald is a sermon within itself and should be read by every boy and girl in Florida.

"Just a little message to the boys and girls in your school," the Herald calls it, and it is a message meriting delivery to every class of pupils in the public schools. Read this to the boys and girls.

Don't be one of those foolish children who are simply trying to "pass" instead of trying to learn. You will find that you will have to depend upon your knowledge long after "standings" are forgotten.

Don't think that you are cheating the teacher when you skip through a lesson with a hair breadth escape. You aren't cheating the teacher. You are cheating yourself.

Don't think about what you are going to do after school until school is out. Concentrate on your work the same earnest enthusiasm that you concentrate on your play. It will make the work easier and the play more fun.

Don't gape at a well passed successful recitation or a well passed test. It isn't worth your while to let the teacher know you were that smart. It is worth your while to know yourself.

Remember that you are cheating yourself when you skip through a lesson with a hair breadth escape. You aren't cheating the teacher. You are cheating yourself.

your opportunities. Be honest with yourself.

The spring crop of candidates are coming out and out of sympathy for them I print the following from the New Smyrna Breeze:

The candidate is with us. He has come to stay and will be a constant companion until the 6th of June. There are candidates of all sorts and conditions, but all candidates for office.

We have before us the biographical sketch of one candidate, written by a close, personal friend. This candidate is a native of Florida and has been honored by the people of his native town, county and state, until he has reached next to the highest place within the gift of the people of Florida, and he is now seeking the highest honor.

This man may be truthfully called a self-made man. Raised a poor boy on a South Florida farm he has made good. In the sketch of his life he is pictured as an industrious, studious boy and his ambitions grew as he advanced in years. His Christian virtues are pictured with "Faith, Love and Charity."

Upon his young shoulders were left family responsibilities, and he took them up and bore them like a man. He was a man true to his kindred ties.

Such a man was naturally honored by those who knew him, and his fame spread until he is known throughout the state.

The man is again a candidate for office. The highest within the gift of the people of Florida. His career and his life has probably not been without spot or blemish, but it has been above the average man.

But he is a candidate and there will be other candidates for the same office. Men who have not climbed step by step the ladder of fame as this official and candidate has done, and whose record as a citizen and an officer is as good.

As a candidate he will be a target for every political gun. Even the small politician who will have nothing to gain will take a shot at him, and it is possible that the friend who wrote this splendid biography will not know him by the time of the primary election.

Such is the life of a candidate. No matter how good he may have been in private life, no matter how true he may have been to the duties of his office, he will be made out for the public.

Remember that you are cheating yourself when you skip through a lesson with a hair breadth escape. You aren't cheating the teacher. You are cheating yourself.

Press Bulletin to Florida Farmers and Growers

Tallahassee, Fla., Jan. 14, 1916
Leached Ashes

Caution Leached Ashes from unlawful shippers, not guaranteed, shipped into the state by irresponsible shippers.

The state of Florida is flooded at present with leached ashes from various states and from Canada, sold without guarantee by irresponsible parties. Such ashes are not subject to free analysis by the state laboratory. They seldom contain more than 2 per cent potash, more frequently less than 1 per cent.

Florida growers should consider the fact that the demand for potash is not only in Florida but throughout the nation, and that there is a great demand for unleached ashes at remunerative prices locally. That it is not probable that unleached ashes will be shipped into Florida from other states where the demand is equally as acute as it is in Florida.

It is the duty of all sheriffs to attach and sell at public sale all packages of ashes, or other commercial fertilizer offered for sale in Florida that do not bear the guarantee of a reliable registered dealer, and the inspection stamp on each package.

So-Called "Ball-Potash"

Caustic Soda, so-called "Ball-Potash," "Concentrated Lye," "Canned Potash,"

We have received numerous letters asking if the ordinary "ball-potash," "canned potash," or "concentrated lye," could not be used as a substitute for potash (KO) in fertilizer.

This material is not potash, has no potash in it whatever. It is simply caustic soda which, on account of its cheapness, has entirely replaced caustic potash. Potassium Hydroxide in the manufacture of soap.

It has no fertilizing value whatever. There is no substitute for potash in fertilizers. Careful culture, deep plowing, rotation of crops, the planting of legumes, the use of phosphate and ammoniacs with a liberal application of ground limestone to aid in releasing this making available the insoluble potash in the soil is the best practical method of securing the necessary potash for the crop.

There is no doubt that potash fertilizer is a very valuable material, demonstrated that equally as the crop has been produced with a 4 per cent potash as were formerly grown with a 10 per cent formula.

Florida growers have countless times exaggerated the use of potash and other high grade commercial fertilizers. Equally as good results can be obtained by the use of phosphate and ammoniacs with a liberal application of ground limestone to aid in releasing the potash naturally in the soil.

Swat the Manure Pile and Kill Flies

Manure piles are the favorite breeding places of house flies. These manure and stable flies are a nuisance and a pest. Sprinkled with a solution that will kill the larvae, they need not become a nuisance.

The following treatment recommended in United States Department of Agriculture Bulletin 118 will control flies and according to John M. Scott, animal industrialist to the University of Florida Experiment Station will make a noticeable reduction in the number around a given place.

Dissolve three fourths of a pound of hexax in two or three gallons of water. Spray or sprinkle manure piles and stables with the solution about twice a week.

This will kill the larvae which hatch from eggs laid in manure. The danger to human health from flies is sufficient to make the wise farmer take these precautions, but if he looks for further justification, it can be found in the protection to livestock. Human diseases are spread by flies and livestock are worried by them. The danger to human welfare must be considered, but the loss to livestock is not so easily seen. Animals which are bothered by the will lose flesh, and stable flies rob them of blood.

Grow Fruits and Winter Vegetables Where There Are No Damaging Frosts

Farmers have been growing fruits and winter vegetables in the semi-tropical region of Florida for many years without loss from frosts. This region is in Lee County, south of Chesapeake Bay and east of the Gulf of Mexico.

These farmers make large crops on a small acreage, a conservative estimate being from $100 to $150 an acre. Many of them do this in the young citrus fruit groves. They grow peppers, beans, cucumbers, tomatoes and eggplant, followed by other crops.

Our Lands Are Located In the Protected Area

We own a large body of choice land in this semi-tropical region of Lee County, which we are selling in small farm tracts for winter vegetable growing and citrus fruit culture at reasonable prices and on easy terms. You do not need a large acreage.

These lands are served by hard surfaced boulevards and are close to Fort Myers the County seat of Lee, and one of the most fascinating of South Florida towns.

Write for illustrated descriptive booklet now and testimonials of growers.

Mrs. Emma Robinson Blaine died January 9, 1916. She was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Phelps of Lake Okechobee.

She was born at Washington, D.C. Feb. 27, 1838. She had many years experience in Florida business with her husband. She was deceased in 1908. She has worked hard and enjoyed the holiday air of the Sunshine State.

She leaves three children one son, Wm. F. Blaine of New York city, and two daughters, Mrs. Lyman Phelps of Lake Okechobee and Mrs. Carrie Blaine Yeiser of Jacksonville.

She was one of the charter members of the Congregational church, and had always shown great interest in its best welfare by her untiring labors of love. In more recent years the infirmity of old age and illness kept her from that church activity which was her manner of showing her devotion to the Christian faith. Her husband, John Newton Blaine, at the time of his death was deacon emeritus in the Congregational church. 39-8c

Mrs. J. C. Sharp left yesterday for St. Petersburg where she will visit home folks for several weeks. Capt. Sharp will be in this vicinity for the next month and Mrs. Sharp will return to Sanford for several weeks before the boat goes to new waters.

Miss Marguerite D. Von, the prima donna in the New York Globe Theatre musical comedy sensation "The Red Rose" that comes to the Allen Theatre Tuesday night, Jan. 18th is the youngest and most popular American singer on the stage today. New York critics were compelled to sit up and take notice of her admirable work in this musical success as produced by John C. Fisher known throughout the country for his greatest of all musical successes, "Florodora." Miss De Von is surrounded by the original company and complete production that characterized its season of over a year in the metropol.

Reginald Holly left Sunday morning for Washington where he will take up his duties as page in the House of Representatives. He expects to spend the summer in the north and will probably be absent from Sanford for some time. Reginald is one of the few boys in Florida that have become pages in the National House of Representatives and his many Sanford friends are glad to hear of his good fortune.

After a record of a year's run at the Globe Theatre, New York and long engagements in Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago, "The Red Rose," John C. Fisher's musical comedy success will be seen at Allen's Theatre tonight with the original cast and large singing and dancing chorus that made this musical comedy a Broadway success. The fact that Robert Hood Bowers, who wrote the score of "Peggy from Paris" and "The Rose Maid" is the composer of the music of "The Red Rose" will give some idea of the brilliancy of the numbers. The past two seasons failed to produce a song which met with more favor than did "Bohemian," which may be regarded as the feature number of "The Red Rose." The piece will be given here in its entirety with the largest musical cast ever seen on the local stage.

Shoe Shine Stand Open next door to Allen's Theatre. Open day and night and Sunday morning. Ladies can send shoes to stand. Sent for and delivered. 41-tf

Religious Services at County Home A representative body of women from the social service committee of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, accompanied by a number of others interested in this particular line of work, held a series of meetings and sang at the county home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. Mettinger was chosen leader for this the first of a series that will be a series of attempts to get the boys out of the playgrounds for the winter and to get them into the gymnasium and to get them to cooperate and to get them to take part in these services. The committee of the home showed 1915 appreciation of the children's work in paying heartily in the singing and urging the ladies to come again. The Methodists will have their third Sunday in each month. Members of the social service committee took active part in the prayer services as well as in the singing. Having this in mind, the committee will be glad to see you at the next service. 31-tf

Mrs. Emma Robinson Blaine died January 9, 1916. She was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Phelps of Lake Okechobee. She was born at Washington, D.C. Feb. 27, 1838. She had many years experience in Florida business with her husband. She was deceased in 1908. She has worked hard and enjoyed the holiday air of the Sunshine State.

She leaves three children one son, Wm. F. Blaine of New York city, and two daughters, Mrs. Lyman Phelps of Lake Okechobee and Mrs. Carrie Blaine Yeiser of Jacksonville. She was one of the charter members of the Congregational church, and had always shown great interest in its best welfare by her untiring labors of love. In more recent years the infirmity of old age and illness kept her from that church activity which was her manner of showing her devotion to the Christian faith. Her husband, John Newton Blaine, at the time of his death was deacon emeritus in the Congregational church. 39-8c

The Red Rose The Red Rose, a musical comedy, embracing a score that is catchy, without being ragtime, and a consistent and dainty love plot are summed up in the entertainment offered by the world famous musical comedy, "The Red Rose," which comes to the Allen Theatre tonight, Jan. 18th with the original John C. Fisher Company and production. The Red Rose, some time ago set a record of one year at the Globe Theatre, New York City, six months at the Grand Opera House, Chicago, five months at the Forrest Theatre, Philadelphia, and four months at the Colonial Theatre, Boston.

"The Red Rose" is in three acts with books and lyrics by Harry B. and Robert B. Smith, authors of "The Spring Maid," "Robin Hood," "Watch Your Step," and last season's greatest musical success, "The Debutante," as produced by John C. Fisher. The scene was written by Robin Hood Bowers, who has to his credit over twenty popular musical comedy hits in America, and his "Bohemia," "Men, Men, Men," and "Come Along, Ma Cherie," have all proved greater musical numbers than did Leslie Stuart's sextette number, "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden!" in "Florodora."

"Safety First" the Big Laughing Musical Hit is Coming "Safety First," the most popular slogan of the day has been dramatized into one of the biggest laughing musical farces of recent years and will be seen Friday, Jan. 21st at Allen's Theatre. The story of "Safety First" is extraordinarily funny, the song hits are fresh and sparkling, the melodies easily played, sung and whistled. The dance tunes are lively and infectious and the cast has been carefully selected for its singing and acting ability, and is above the standard heretofore set by Halton Powell, a professional who has always aimed to play fair with the theatre-going public. The chorus is not only pretty and able to sing and dance but can wear gracefully the scenic musical gowns which have started every city where the production has appeared. Special attention has been given to the stage settings which are pretty and tasteful.

The Millennium Nobody has the slightest idea when it ever, the war of competition is to cease. It may be that sometime men will live only in thoughts, not deeds in a beatific contemplation of their own ideas. Sometime the valleys may be exalted and the mountains brought low and we shall live on a high plane of cooperative equality, when to supply his wants, a man will have only to touch a button and the machinery of government will do the rest. Fruit as Food Fruit is a most important food not so much on account of the nourishment it contains for it is nine-tenths water, but because of its valuable acids and organic salts. It is nature's medicine. That is why some say they cannot eat fruit. It physics them, cleanses the system. These people should persevere until they are able to eat fruit. Then they will know that their blood is comparatively pure.

Ragtime, Tango time, Funny time and Splendid time, anything and everything in time, harmony and splendid ragging you will get with the new quartette in Coburn's Minstrel, next Wednesday, Jan. 19, at the Star Theatre. There is never a day that some inquiry is not made of Manager Coburn of his company, "Have you got a good quartette?" There seems to be something about the harmony of male voices and quartette melody, which is as much in demand with a musical attraction as the end men, the dancers of the street parade. Lester Luca's splendid band is well known to minstrel admirers. Joe M. Gura's baritone, Harry Newland's lead tenor and

RICHARD C. TRAVERS IN "THE MAN TRAIL" AT THE STAR THURSDAY

California Flooded

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 19. Although the flooded waters from the rain storm which has prevailed over Southern California for almost four days were receding today in the districts near the mountains, the crest of the flood has not reached the lowlands along the coast, and it is feared these sections will be further inundated.

Trans-continental traffic was practically at a standstill late last night, but railroad officials stated they hoped to have the overland trains moving sometime today.

Five westbound trains on the Southern Pacific were stalled at Yuma, Ariz. Three Santa Fe and two Salt Lake trains were stalled during the night at Canon Pass by landslides.

Railroad officials say the damage from the storm is the heaviest that has been suffered in this section in many years.

Flood conditions also prevailed in Central Arizona. Reports from Phoenix indicate that the Gila river will rise to the highest point there in twenty-five years.

CITY FILLED; HOTELS FULL; MANY HERE

SANFORD HAS MORE NOW VISITORS THAN EVER BEFORE

With the Hotel Carnes near Sanford House filling up, with the Semole and Robbins Nest and many others filled and rooms in private dwellings filled up with the visitors to the city it would seem that Sanford still needs another large and new hotel.

Never before in the history of the city has there been so many strangers here without any effort being made to attract them to the city.

In years gone by when systematic efforts were made in the advertising line to induce travel here the hotels were filled to overflowing, but this season when practically nothing has been done to attract them here the city is filled to overflowing.

DENOUNCED BRITISH FOR INTERFERING

HOKE SMITH SAYS THAT ENGLAND IS INJURING U. S. TRADE

Washington, Jan. 21. Hoke Smith of Georgia made British interference with neutral trade the subject of a vigorous speech in the senate today. He pleaded for action to prevent England from at once invading the United States, while trying to destroy Germany's commerce.

He declared that the trade rights being possibly secured by the British are being interfered with by the British lawless treatment of American custom trade.

He pointed out that Germany had not asked for the maintenance of a blockade for the purpose of interfering with the trade of the United States.

He pointed out that the British lawless treatment of American custom trade is a violation of the rights of the United States.

GREEK KING VERY BITTER ON ALLIES

THINKS THAT INVASION OF GREECE ON PAR WITH BELGIUM

The king of Greece on last Thursday summoned the Associated Press correspondent in Athens for the purpose of making a protest through the press of the United States, which he said was the only forum of public opinion open to him against the recent action of the allies in their operations at Salonika in blowing up the bridge at Demir Hissar in occupying Corfu and other islands which Greece claims.

He said the situation is as if a foreign power had occupied that part of the United States which had been won from Mexico after the Mexican war and that the plea of military necessity advanced by the allies was like that given by Germany for occupying Belgium and Luxembourg.

FIRST CAR OF CELERY

The first car of celery to be shipped from Sanford to the north was shipped north by Mr. Dutton.

We have not been informed as to the price of this first car but it is rumored that it brought Mr. Ward about $2 per crate or better.

As there are some thousand acres of celery in the Sanford section, it is hoped that the crop will be a successful one.

Augustine Party Here

Harry L. Brown, editor of the Augustine Record and general manager of the Record Company, Frank J. Parker, a well known Augustinian, and County Commissioner A. H. Fayer of St. Johns and F. W. Parker, engineer in charge of the water works there, formed a party of good roads boosters.

The party of good roads boosters visited Sanford briefly on Wednesday evening. They left St. Augustine early in the morning and went to Eustis where they inspected Lake County's sand-asphalt parks.

The trip was made in Mr. Parker's big Cadillac and added another record to Frank Parker's achievements.

Christian Science Services

Regular Christian Science services will be held at 11 o'clock next Sunday, Jan. 23rd, at the Woman's Club building on Oak avenue between Second and Third streets.

Celery and Lettuce Movement

Up to Wednesday night seven cars of celery left the state. All of it was from the Manatee section, 108 cars of lettuce went out during the week ending the same night.

The celery crop is looking fine. The lettuce is showing the effects of the warm weather, and in some sections not over half of it will be cut.

It is expected that good lettuce is going to sell better soon. The movement now averages about 18 cars a day as against 25 to 30 cars a short time ago.

Natal Grass

There is nothing supernatural about Natal grass. Like any other crop it must have plant food to live on. Consequently the best lands will produce best results if other conditions are happy.

It has done best on high sandy pine woods land. This is probably due to the good drainage. Favorable results have not been had generally on coarse sand, covered with scrub oak.

Like all other crops the more fertile the soil, the better will be the yield. It should not be expected that land almost devoid of fertility will give a good crop.

This opinion is current in some sections. There is a great deal of interest in the crop now. This is especially true since bankers in different parts of the state are considering furnishing seed to farmers free or at a small cost.

Others are lending money on the crop. Farmers who intend to sow small areas their seed must date it and get the best on the market.
