The Wednesday Club

The club met at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Dickens, Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the illness of Mrs. S. O. Chase, the secretary, Mrs. Dickens read the minutes of the last meeting. The committee appointed by the president to select a suitable color and motto for the club, made their report, subject to the approval of the club.

Miss Florence Frank entertained the club with the very interesting "Story of Sigmund," one of the traditional valiant hero princes of Norsland. Mrs. L. R. Phillips read the "Story of Sigmund," one of the mighty kings who reigned and did marvelous things in those ancient days. This paper was prepared by Miss Farnsworth, who could not be present. "The Story of Helge," the warrior son of Sigmund, and the noblest of them all, was written by Miss Alice Whitner, who was not able to be present, and read by Mrs. M. H. Bowler. Mrs. Henry Wight gave "The Origin of the Niebelungenlied."

Mrs. L. R. Phillips invited the club to make her house their club home for the month of December. The next meeting, on Dec. 6th, will be held at Mrs. Phillips' residence.

One visitor was present, Mrs. Maris, the charming daughter-in-law of Mrs. Geo. L. Maris, the president.

An Appreciated Treat

Miss Carrie Ensminger, one of the members of the Lend A Hand Society, where so many good and helpful ideas originate, enlisted the sympathy and interest and suggested the thought to her companion teachers of the Grammar school of promoting the helpful spirit among the school children, by interesting them in a kind and lovable way of doing a good deed, in trying to give pleasure to others less fortunate than themselves.

Each child was asked to bring a nice, good apple to the teacher the day before Thanksgiving. The collected apples were to be sent to the orphans at Enterprise, from the school teachers and children of Sanford.

The result was wonderful; a barrel of beautiful apples were sent to the Orphanage as a Thanksgiving offering. How those children enjoyed those apples.

Beautiful made audible often multiplies into beautiful acts. This object lesson of self-denial, even of one apple, will not be wholly lost. "Blessed is He who Remembereth the Poor."

Bridge for Mrs. Bell

Mrs. C. F. Smith, most delightfully entertained at Bridge, complimentary to Mrs. Charles Eric Bell of Atlanta, Ga; the charming guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schumpert. The hall and rooms were artistically decorated with graceful green vines. The flowers lending their beauty to the decorations were yellow daisies; green and yellow being the color scheme. The stairway, was interlaced with the trailing green vines, the chandeliers and portiere rods, were gracefully entwined with the glistening vines and suspended from each, were handsome clusters of yellow oranges. The rear of the long hall facing the front door, was banked with lovely palms and ferns. Seven tables of bridge was played. Mrs. O. W. Brady, made the highest score, and won the first prize, a lovely gold brooch. The booby prize, a very pretty china match stand was received by Mrs. F. E. Roumillat. Mrs. Deane Turner drew the consolation prize, a pack of cards in a handsome leather case. After the cards a delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Smith's charming assistants: Misses Rose Dickinson, Irene Brady, Mabel Bowler. The occasion was a very brilliant and enjoyable social event. Mrs. Smith's guest were Mesdames Chas. E. Bell, O. W. Brady, A. W. Brown, S. O. Chase, A. P. Connely, A. M. DeForrest, J. W. Don't Buy Your Fall Outfit Until You Have Seen Prinzess Garments

THAT'S a strong assertion--Isn't it? But You'll agree with us that you would be making a mistake if you purchased before you had examined and personally tried on either a Prinzess coat or suit.

There's a delicacy of line--a smartness of style to a Prinzess that really places them in a class alone.

They really confer on their wearer "Distinction in Dress," and that's what you are seeking.

The General News of The Land of Flowers.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Active preparations are being made in Tampa for the erection of the new factory of the Tampa Brush and Specialty Company. This company is organized for the manufacture of specialties from pallet wood.

The Woodmen of the World in Jacksonville are soon to erect a handsome home in that city. Plans for the new structure will be prepared at once and actual work on the building will commence as soon as they are completed.

Fort Pierce is planning a big celebration when the good roads boosters meet there on the 6th of this month. A barbecue will be enjoyed.

Several hundred acres of land has recently been purchased in the vicinity of Palmetto and 150 acres of the land will be planted in sugar cane.

Supt. Holloway has designated January 5th, 1912, as Arbor Day. All the public schools are requested to observe the day by planting trees, and an appropriate suggestive program has been issued by the State Superintendent of schools.

Wednesday is the date for the good roads rally when the boosting clans of the East Coast will gather together in council at Fort Pierce. This meeting is expected to have a far reaching influence upon the rushing forward of the work of building a highway from Jacksonville and St. Augustine to Miami.

The State Drainage Engineer will soon issue the first accurate map of the Everglades for distribution. The great work of surveying the Everglades is being done by Engineers Fred C. Elliott and Mr. Ingess, of Tallahassee.

A Gainesville dispatch says: The store of J. E. Thrasher, with all contents, burned at Micanopy this morning. His general stock of merchandise, hardware and farming implements was destroyed, aggregating a loss of $40,000, with insurance of about $5,000. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been burglary and incendiary, as no fire had been in stoves all afternoon. Mr. Thrasher is one of the oldest merchants in Micanopy, having been in business there many years. He will rebuild at once.

This morning State Attorney John C. Jones filed a motion with Circuit Judge W. H. Price, in which he asked that Elder Egbert Gillette, whom the grand jury refused to indict for the murder of Sister Sadie Marchant, a member of the Shaker colony at Ashton, this county, be held without benefit of bail to await convening of the court for the spring term, that the grand jury, to be impeached then might consider his case and that of Sister Elizabeth Sears, his aged co-defendant. The motion will be argued this afternoon.

Mrs. W. J. Quinan, who left Lakeland Tuesday night for her home in Savannah, had the misfortune to be relieved of the contents of her pocket book on an A. C. L. Pullman just a few miles out of Jacksonville, her loss being in the neighborhood of $100.00, half of which was in bills.

Election Very Quiet

The regular election of city officers is taking place today, and what a difference between the election and the primary. Then all was bustle and hustle with the candidates taking the voters in free country churchyard, even the inspectors being silent. The voter who wanted to vote walked to the polls and the candidates never even noticed the voters.

The election today is merely a ratification of the choice at the primary and is the legal election. As every one seems satisfied it is not anticipated that any changes will be made.

The first regular session of the Sixty-second Congress convene at noon yesterday. Legislative machinery is ready for a long session. Speaker Clark and other leaders having predicted that adjournment may not come until after the national conventions of the two big political parties have been held.

LODGE OF SORROW

Elks Held Annual Memorial Services Last Sunday Afternoon

The annual Lodge of Sorrow of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was held at the Imperial Theatre last Sunday at 2:30 p. m. This was the first memorial service ever held by Sanford Lodge, and there being no deceased members of this lodge part of this beautiful ceremony was withheld, but enough could be given to impress the audience who had gathered to witness the exercises.

Hon. W. R. O'Neal made the annual address and was at his best. He spoke of the value of fraternal organizations at this period of our development, and of the need of cooperation among men to further the cause of good government and the general advancement of mankind.

The solos rendered by Miss Hayes, Miss Bowler and Frank Campbell were fitting additions to the services, as was also the reading of "Thanatopsis" by Mrs. J. W. Barnes.

Sanford Lodge of Elks now numbers over eight hundred members and is in a most flourishing condition. Their annual memorial services are a most fitting tribute to the absent brothers, and are greatly appreciated not only by those bereaved but by the general public.

Dancing Academy

Messrs. Maloney and Witherington have leased the City hall and will give regular dances every week. Good music will be furnished on each occasion and good order will be preserved.

LETTUCE BRINGS GOOD PRICE

Record Sale of Some of Our Sanford Lettuce

A. H. Gerber, who is temporarily located at Sanford in the interests of Crutchfield & Woolfolk, the well-known distributors, of which firm he is sales manager, reports the arrival and sale of their first straight car of Sanford lettuce, which sold at an average of $3.00 per hamper delivered, or a net to the shippers of about $2.00 per hamper f. o. b. Sanford.

This car was packed by Roy F. Symes and was only of fair quality, and was shipped in order to take advantage of the Thanksgiving market, but on account of a slight delay en route it did not reach the market until too late for Thanksgiving trade.

Mr. Gerber states that Crutchfield & Woolfolk are more strongly entrenched this season to look after the Sanford growers' interests, which fact is clearly demonstrated by the sale of the car of lettuce above referred to. Crutchfield & Woolfolk have been identified with the Sanford deal for many seasons and have been instrumental in introducing Sanford products in a large number of markets; also in effecting a very wide distribution, and are constantly developing new outlets.

Now is the time for shippers to arrange for the marketing of their season's output, and to take advantage of the excellent facilities offered by this up-to-date firm.

Lend A Hand Society

This society will hold a meeting in the Welaka Club rooms Friday afternoon, Dec. 8 at 3 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present, as important business will be discussed. The members are reminded that the dues are to be paid at this meeting.

There can be no broader or more suggestive promise of usefulness than the declaration of the Lend A Hand is, that the object of the society shall be mutual helpfulness and promotion of a broader spirit of neighborliness. This society promises to be just what every town needs, an avenue for systematic benevolence and judicious helpfulness. The city should gratefully sustain them in their efforts in behalf of those who need help and always be ready and willing to lend them a hand when it is needed.

Mannford, Okla., a town of 600 people resembles an armed camp tonight according to reports received here in fear of a race war as a result of a series of events in which one white man, Fred A. Evans, was killed, another, Rollie Johnson, was seriously injured, one negro, Bud Walker, was lynch, and his brother wounded.

The nursing home at 5th and Elm Ave. is prepared to care for a limited number of surgical cases. Mr. Wright, nurse in charge.

ORANGE COUNTY FAIR

Greatest Fair On Earth Will Soon Open Gates

EVERY ONE SHOULD GET READY

Sanford Expects To Send Full List of Her Many Exhibits This Year

Hon. W. R. O'Neal, the hustling secretary of the Orange County Fair, was in the city a few hours this week and was greatly enthused over the prospects of the Biggest Fair On Earth, to be held in Orlando, January 31 to February 4th. The many new buildings erected since last year will greatly enhance the value of the exhibits.

Details of the program are completed, and the new buildings are progressing rapidly. There are two absolutely new buildings, and a considerable addition to the poultry pens. The grounds have been thoroughly gone over, palm trees planted along the walks and drives; the roads have been straightened and made permanent, and laid with fresh tan-bark; new water tanks have been placed near the stables, and an addition to the stock pen is planned.

The first new building that the visitor sees upon entering the grounds is a ladies' rest parlor, which is under construction near the east gate. This is very neatly designed, with a squarish veranda, at the corner of which is a booth, where the Fair will dispense light refreshments, such as coffee and sandwiches.

To the west of the rest parlor is the new Manufacturers' building, newly completed. This building is a hundred feet long by forty broad, and will be used by the manufacturing exhibitors. This feature of the exhibits during former years was in the north corridor of the main exposition building, which this year will be devoted to amplified fruit and vegetable exhibits.

The Manufacturers' building is immediately opposite the main building, with the rest parlor to the east. Practically the same distance to the west of the Manufacturers' building are poultry pens, which have been amplified to the number of 55, and removed from the west section of the grounds. It has been the purpose of this year's management to concentrate the buildings, making it far more convenient for the visitors to see all the exhibits, and at the same time it leaves the west section of the grounds comparatively free from buildings, and lets a free and open expanse, which is extremely pleasing.

We're going to have "Lucky Baldwin," in his famous "Red Devil" aeroplane. He is going to fly on three different days.

The noted "Camden Polo Team" will be down to tackle the local boys.

"California Frank" will be there with his great "Wild West Show."

Ben Krauss will bring his "Carnival and Midway" attraction. There will be a thousand feet of midway.

There will be a horse breeder and trainer from New Orleans, with a string of fast ones for exhibition purposes and for sale.

And we're going to have everything on show that's worth seeing in Orange county.

Fire Saturday Night

The fire department was called to the residence of Rev. C. H. Sommers last Saturday night, where the roof had caught fire from sparks from the chimney. When the fire was finally located the department did mighty fine work, and Rev. Sommers is loud in his praises of the new truck and the chemical apparatus. With this up-to-date method the damage from water can be obviated.

THE LOST TRAIL

Splendid Play Drew Large Crowd At Imperial Theatre

Mabel Paige and company of splendid players are here this week and as usual the Sanford people have greeted the petite, Southern actress with large houses. The play last night of the "Lost Trail" was one of the best melodramas ever given in Sanford, full of startling climaxes and a thrill every minute. Next to Mabel Paige the audience favors Ed Lawrence, the Silver King, so named because of his wealth of silver gray hair. Mr. Lawrence is a finished product of the stage and like old wine he grows better each year. As Bud Larrable in the Lost Trail Mr. Lawrence is at his best and his free and easy manner faithfully portrays the Western character.

Miss Paige as usual was in sympathy with her part and the audience was in sympathy with her. It seems that Mabel Paige can carry an audience with her through the whole play and The Lost Trail was no exception to the rule. The rest of the cast was just as strong in their different characters and lack of space forbids a special mention of each one.

Suffice to say to any one in the city who has not witnessed a good play by a good company, see the Mable Paige Co., because they are always top notchers.

Tonight in "Billy" they will convulse the audience for the better part of two hours and if you want to forget your troubles come out and enjoy a good laugh. The management has put the prices within the reach of all and you can't afford to miss it.

RECORD OF BRIDGE TRAFFIC

Travel of East Coast Ferry Warrants A Drawbridge

Through the courtesy of Commissioner F. L. Woodruff the figures completed of one half months business at the East Coast Ferry, have been compiled as follows:

For the past fifteen days there have passed over the ferry 91 automobiles, 51 double teams, 189 single teams, 73 foot passengers, and 8 head of cattle. These figures represent the business of just fifteen days, and would certainly warrant the placing of a steel drawbridge at this point.

New Smyrna has promised to raise $2,000 or more, and Orange County will do her share. There will be a steel drawbridge at this point ere another summer.

Looks Like Murder

The body of the man found Saturday morning on the Seaboard Air Line Railroad tracks, south of Spring Lake, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Orlando cemetery.

Thus far, he lies with the unknowns. Sheriff Kirkwood telegraphed to the postmaster at Burlington, New Jersey, to inquire if J. H. Coombs was known there.

That was the name written in the memorandum book found upon the corpse. Following is the reply to the telegram: "Onr J. H. Coombs is at home." Signed, "Postmaster."

The coroner's jury was discharged late Saturday afternoon, subject to call, without reaching a decision as to whether or not the man was murdered.

Sheriff Kirkwood, who made an exhaustive examination of the premises where the body was found, persists in the belief that the man was the victim of highwaymen.

In a further interview this morning, he said: "Thought over the circumstances of the case, has confirmed my belief that the man was murdered. I have been a railroad man and my experience has taught me that it is impossible for a man to jump or be thrown from a moving train without plowing up the sand. The body was found in a sandbed.

The only disturbance to the sand we found, was evidence of the surface of it having been scraped, as if by a dragged body. This marking was very slight, such as would have been made by the tail of a coat being drawn over the surface. Reporter-Star

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

As reported by special bulletin from the Associated Press late Saturday afternoon, James B. McNamara pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree, admitting that on October, 1910, he blew up and wrecked the plant and building of the Los Angeles Times, causing the death of twenty-one persons. John B. McNamara, brother of James, also pleaded guilty of dynamiting the plant of the Lewellyn Iron Works at Los Angeles on Christmas Day, 1910.

The Standard Oil Company has been divided into thirty-three subsidiary organizations, and no one knows any more about the secrets of the greasy octopus than they did before the government went a-hunting.

The first woman in the state of Washington, and possibly in the Pacific Northwest, to sit on the bench as a regularly qualified judge is Miss Mildred Henthorne, who tried the case of C. C. Fleet against J. Riggs. Miss Henthorne took the case under advisement, so for three days she will have the right to the title of Judge Henthorne.

Estimates of the Treasury Department for running the government during the next fiscal year, submitted to Congress today, contemplates a saving of $21,283,921.43, as compared with the amount appropriated for the fiscal year of 1911-1912. The total amount estimated for all expenses of government is $745,834,563. This amount does not include the appropriations for the Postoffice Department, which is expected to be self-sustaining. The appropriations made by Congress for the present fiscal year aggregate $767,218,485.

With a concussion that broke hundreds of windows in Pittsburg, the boilers of the towboat Diamon on the Ohio River exploded Sunday, killing the captain and four of the crew and injuring five others, two of whom are dying. The boat lies at the bottom of the Ohio.

"I probably shall have a formal statement to make but positively not until I have returned to my headquarters in Washington and gone over the McNamara cases thoroughly," said Samuel Gomuel Gompers today.

The recent report of the Commissioner of Pensions brings out the startling fact within thirteen years of the close of the war with Spain, and eleven after the subsidence of the Philippine insurrection, there are no less than 23,383 invalid soldiers of these wars on the pension rolls, in addition to 3,032 dependent mothers, 522 fathers, nine brothers and sisters, 1,217 widows and 327 children.

Tod Schriver, a well-known American aviator, was killed last evening in an exhibition flight which he was making at Porto Rico. Schriver fell from a height of 200 feet into a cane field and died within half an hour, while on the way to a hospital. Thousands of spectators witnessed the accident. Schriver ascended over Ponce in a Baldwin aeroplane and went through a number of evolutions. Apparently he lost control of the machine in making a turn. The aeroplane swooped to the earth and landed with a crash, Schriver being half buried in wreckage.

Both houses of the Sixty-second Congress convened at noon yesterday. Practically every member of each house was in his seat. The galleries were crowded and hundreds of people were unable to gain admission. The expected speech of Representative Littleton of New York, regarding the steel trust question was the sensational incident featuring the opening day of Congress.

District Attorney John D. Fredericks today informed the Associated Press that Bert H. Franklin, a detective employed by the McNamara defense, and now under arrest on a charge of attempting to bribe George N. Lockwood, a venireman, with $4,000, actually paid to Robert F. Bain, the first sworn juror in the case, $400, and promised $3,000 more at the end of the trial if he would vote acquittal, or cause a disagreement of the jury.

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em"—So Says Saunterer.

The Country Weekly
 On the little country paper so modest, thin and small:
 Among all the great big dailies I love it best of all.
 And cheerfully unfold it, and read each item through:
 How they fill my heart with gladness though they simple seem to you.
 Bill Hogan's just got married and Aunt 'Liza's got the grip.
 And Ben Davis and his daughter is on an auto trip.
 How many great big taters was raised on Scranton's farm.
 And how little Mandy Starbird is singing like a charm.
 How Ralph Parker's awful busy a-filing up his shed.
 And Dan Duffy's old horse Nero is numbered with the dead.
 How Jake Horn and his son Willie 's yarding in the logs.
 And Ned Hudson 's still a-drinking and going to the dogs.
 And I see the Chester homestead has passed to other hands.
 And the children, all that's left of them, now live in other lands.
 There was one among their number that was once quite dear to me.
 And I used to think—Well, never mind, I found 'twas not to be.
 Oh, the coming from the old home of that little weekly prize.
 Though sometimes it brings a sadness and a tear-drop to our eyes.
 How lovingly we read along each item to the end.
 An'echo from the old home, so like an oldtime friend.
 How useless seems the struggle for stock and bonds and cash.
 Ofttimes they lose their luring and all the lot seems trash.
 How freely we would give them all to be a boy once more.
 And come in again to mother, in through the open door.

There are others in the state who are inclined to refuse charity to every travelling fakir who comes around soliciting alms for the poor in foreign countries. The following from the Plant City Courier shows that the only way to do is to turn the travelling fakir down cold:

Plant City has been worked this week by one of those missionaries from Hindoostan, Beloochistan, the Fig Islands or some other far away uninteresting place, asking alms for the orphans of some place or other. According to the best of our understanding of his poor English, he gave his name as Cross George and his place of residence as Babylon. He was big, black and bearded, suave, sanctimonious and salivary. He had credentials duly signed by men we didn't know and of whom we had never heard. His credentials may have been good but they had an equal chance of being bad. After we had, in a most kindly manner referred him to the fact that we had orphans at home who needed help and that the churches of this country had a regularly constituted board with authority to collect and distribute funds for missionary work, orphanages, etc., and that we would prefer to contribute our little mite through some such board than to give it to a man of whom we knew absolutely nothing and who might take our little contribution and give it to one of the seven institutions in our city whose business it is to rob the orphans rather than support them, the bearded gentleman retired with a muttered prayer or curse, we couldn't tell which.

Paper bag cooking is making it easier for mother. But mother is not the only one who is getting something out of the onward march of civilization. They are making alcohol in chunks now and a father may have a paper bag jag. Read this from "County Life." It says:

"A new form of alcohol, which is known to few housekeepers, is solidified; that is to say, it is made in lumps and can be taken out of any jar in which it is kept with a spoon and dropped on to an alcohol flame which is dying down, without danger of explosion. The flame resulting from the burning of the lump may be extinguished at any moment and the lump relighted when desired until it is used up. It is as cheap as other alcohol and is far more convenient."

How fine it will be for the happy household when the fireless cooker prepares the predigest food for the tireless hired girl and the bridgeless mother comes home from a footless excursion down town and finds the grouchless father of her motherless children filling his bottomless tank with solid comfort out of a paper bag while the noiseless room goes round and round, and his songless voice rises like a squeak from a creaky wind mill on the endless expanse of a rolling prairie.

Perhaps no class of people meet with so much or so severe criticism as teachers. Much of this criticism is unjust and exists solely because parents and others listen to unvarnished reports and do nothing to acquaint themselves with the real inner workings of the school room. Any person experienced with children knows that these reports, even when absolutely truthful from their point of view, cannot be relied upon. Again, any one who has the training of children, has experienced the mortifying that even the best trained children sometimes woefully lapse from their knowledge of good manners and courtesy when away from home and among other children. Some mothers will not tolerate any correction of their children's manners by the teacher, taking it as a direct insult to their home training, when it is but the result of childish heedlessness or self will. No greater injury can be done a teacher than to condemn her at home in the presence of pupils. There are many—they usually allude to a teacher as school marm—who persist in believing and encouraging that a school teacher is never to be regarded with other than suspicion.

Pellagra Still a Mystery
 Washington, Dec. 4.—After many months of investigation of Pellagra in the Southern States, the scientists of the public health and marine hospital service are in as much doubt as ever as to the cause of the scourge. Meanwhile the disease appears to be gaining and it has been reported that nearly every physician in South Carolina has from five to fifteen cases in his private practice.

Assistant Surgeon General John D. Long says it has been demonstrated that cures can be affected even up to the fifth attack, but that there is little hope when the patient has reached the stage of insanity.

Will Get Them "Higher Up"
 Los Angeles, Dec. 4.—The United States government and California authorities are co-operating to uncover one of the most gigantic conspiracies ever conceived in the history of this country.

This was the declaration today of Assistant District Attorney Joseph D. Frederick and the man who was arrested in Indianapolis for illegal extradition of John J. McNamara.

Circus Day Not Far Off and the Kids Are Planning a Big Holiday

A few more days and Sparks' world's famous shows will hold forth in this city for a matinee and night exhibition, and the rare, unique and wonderful things that have been promised on paper will become a reality.

The airy riders who, in diaphanous skirts, have been pirouetting on the expansive backs of beautiful and speedy circus horses (on the billboards) will be seen in all the gorgeousness of tulle and seductive smile; the elephants will copy their pictured acts of comedy and go them one better; the contortionist will proceed to disentangle himself from the knots he tied in his responsive body last year; the acrobatic families will turn dizzy somersaults and the clowns will work off their latest comedy stunts to the great delight of the crowds present—we all like the clowns.

There is nothing on earth like the circus. It is the people's show par excellence. It is the one great American amusement that appeals to all the people. The expert knows what is coming every minute of the show, but he wouldn't have it changed for worlds. The very conventionalism of most of the performance is what makes it so delightful.

The merit in a big circus like the Sparks shows is in the fact that everything in the show is the very best of its kind. There must inevitably be riding acts, but the riders are the leaders of their profession. There must be acrobats, but the acrobatic artists and aerialists are gathered from the wide world, and are the best that money can procure.

It is this superiority in the quality of the performers that makes the Sparks shows such a welcome visit.

The Next Chief of Police

Mayor-elect Spencer has an opportunity of doing a signal service for his city. All depends upon the kind of men that he chooses to aid him in administering the city government.

Mayor Strong of New York City knew men and made brilliant selections. As head of the street cleaning department he chose Colonel Waring, and under his leadership the "white wings" of New York became famous the world over. Mayor Strong put Roosevelt at the head of the police department and that organization became the most efficient the city ever saw.

The key to most efficient government in Sanford is the police department. Under the new charter most of the large powers of the Mayor can be concentrated under the chief of police. If Mr. Spencer wants to have a notable administration let him select as chief of police the very best man that the city affords and then give him a free hand. The place calls for a man, not of mediocre abilities, but of strong constructive statesmanship.

It goes without saying that such a man would fearlessly and impartially enforce the laws. He could and would do vastly more. He would so lead public sentiment that Sanford would soon have a city government so remarkable that other cities in Florida would begin to sit up and take notice. There could be no better advertisement of our city; there could be no better city in which to live. —CRITZEN.

Just A Few Remarks

A few notes picked up between Brad y's store and the Postoffice, "called the West Side." It can produce almost anything, from twin babies to flowering lettuce. Another thing—let your hearts rest easy; when the fire alarm was rung on Saturday night, our streets were blocked with three cars across First street crossing (a car to any incorporated city), but the engine got there just the same. This question has been asked a number of times by those who live east of the tracks under like circumstances. The engine and driver has proved an answer, so do not fear.

A question to be answered by the man entering the byways of new territory: Why don't the city council put an electric light upon the Clyde Line dock? The one placed last year at Mr. Gabbot's place, for his individual use, only accommodates him a little here, about seven months in the year, while for the Clyde Line it would do good the year round. World the asking brings scale halapage to equal weight?

The in the lake and at the dock that which should gladden the eyes of all Sanford—the DeBarry, William Howard, Heck, the U. S. dredge boat and Merrel Stephens, besides our city boats, in one day of our beautiful Lake Mohrus. All Orlando's new houses would not make such a picture.

"Jewel" Bazaar

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a "Jewel" bazaar in the Crisped music store, Railroad avenue, next Saturday afternoon and evening. Xmas articles and cooked foods for the Sunday dinner will be for sale.

All fancy articles should be handed in Friday afternoon at the place of sale.

Temperature for the Week

Washington, Dec. 3.—There are no indications of unusually low temperatures the coming week in any part of the country according to the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau issued tonight.

Temperatures will average near or about the normal in all districts and the only change to colder weather in sight, the bulletin, "will occur in the northeastern districts on Monday following the eastward movement of a disturbance that was over the Ohio valley on Sunday. This disturbance will be attended by snows or rains, followed by clearing Monday in the middle Atlantic and New England states. Aside from the precipitation attending the storm, the next several days will give fair weather in practically all districts east of the Rocky mountains.

The next disturbance of importance to cross the United States will appear on the north Pacific coast Tuesday or Wednesday, across the middle west Thursday or Friday and the eastern states at the close of the week; this disturbance will be preceded by a general rise in temperature and be attended by rains on the southern and rains or snow in northern districts from the Pacific coast, followed by rains in the northwest at the close of the week.

CIRCUS DAY

Coming Soon to Brighten Humdrum Existence

The sun peeps over the eastern hills in a blaze of glory. The world awakens and starts another busy day. The small boy hies him from his bed and hurries from home while the dew is still left on the grass. The country folk arise before the dawn, hurry through their chores, don their Sunday clothes, and start for town, where all about is an air of waiting expectancy and gathering crowds in holiday attire. The anxiously awaited event has come at last: Circus day is here.

With the coming of dawn the circus train pulls into town, and at once commences a scene of hustle and hurry. Orders sharply given and quickly obeyed by a vast throng of workers who help to unload the train. Even the elephants are called into service. All is noise and excitement, while all about are spectators staring with eager eyes and guessing at the many marvels and wonders still covered with protecting canvas.

On the show grounds the same hurry is going on. Acres of canvas cover the ground, stakes are driven, the big tent pulled to place, and in the twinkling of an eye the large pavilions are raised, while over all many colored banners float in the soft morning breeze. Suddenly the bugle calls horses in gay trappings appear from nowhere apparently. Scores of people in bright colored costumes, golden mirrored chariots and wagons, elephants, camels, zebras, and other strange animals form in line. The big bands in gay uniforms suddenly blare forth and the parade has started down the street, which is lined with eager, smiling, happy faces.

This is the daily experience of a big circus, requiring the most careful generalship to accomplish the seemingly impossible feat of getting ready for the afternoon performance, and such are the scenes to be witnessed when the John H. Sparks World's Famous Shows exhibit here.

Making A Hedge

This does not mean that the Peoples Bank are hedging but that they are having a fine Privet hedge planted around their property at the corner of Herald square and First street. The work was done by L. H. Temple the well known florist who assures us that in a short time this hedge will be so thick that even an overdraft cannot blow through it. This hedge is getting quite popular as a fence and in time there will be extensive plantings of it as Mr. Temple states that the price of the hedge and planting entails but a small expense.

On The Job

Sanford, Orlando, Winter Park and Apopka have been heard from on the hog question, and they say he must go. Zell Wood, Paula and Bay Ridge also voted on the question Tuesday, but have not been heard from.

Sanford to Miami

Subscription Price, $2.00 a Year In Advance

Printed as second-class mail matter August 22nd 1908, at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida, under Act of March 3rd, 1879.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 148

Editor Hetherington of the Lakeland Telegram has a touching article in that paper about the "blessings of rest."

The Herald several weeks ago advocated a "great white way" for First street during the winter months.

The state press will sympathize with Bro. Nathan Stout in the loss of his father, F. H. Stout, who died at his home in Ft. Myers last Saturday.

One of the best and brightest things we can give is kind words. They have well been likened to the bright flowers of earth's existence.

Do not lie in bed in the mornings. The early bird catches the worm, and if you are up a sufficiently long time before him you may read your neighbor's papers before he comes down to take them from the step.

NOT THE LABOR UNIONS

The McNamara brothers confessed to the crime of dynamiting and the crimes will cover a list extending from ocean to ocean entailing a loss of life and property that is appalling.

But the mere fact that the McNamara were members of the union does not mean that the labor unions as a body would countenance such deeds of violence to gain their end.

The McNamaras have dealt organized labor a fearful blow and just when these same unions were raising money in their behalf.

MOST IMPORTANT CONGRESS

"The most important session since the Civil war" is the prediction made by many Democratic leaders for the first regular session of the Sixty-second congress which opened today.

"Stirring days ahead" are forecasts by Republican members, and on both sides of the big party line members in the house and senate are drawn up to fight out weighty problems of legislation in a session that will lead up to the presidential campaign of 1912.

Of importance as to the bearing it will have on the approaching political contest of the nation; of particular interest because of party differences—regulars and insurgents on the Republican side; reactionaries and progressives among the Democrats—and of unusual significance because of the heavy legislative program.

With the gavels falling in the house and senate at noon, the tariff and the trusts stood out as the most important subjects for legislation with a "big fight" assured in both houses. Many other great questions confronting the congress all of them to be approached vigorously, include monetary reform, ratification of arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, and the loan treaties with Nicaragua and Honduras; Alaskan legislation; the election of senators by direct vote of the people, pension bills and the regular and permanent annual appropriations, to be under the direction this time in the house by a Democratic committee.

A LOWER FREIGHT RATE

After an exhaustive review of the efforts of the Florida Railroad Commission to regulate the reasonableness of interstate rates applying to the movement of traffic into and out of the state, the Interstate Commerce Commission this week rendered an opinion favorable to the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' association against the Atlantic Coast Line and the Railroad Commission of Florida against the Seaboard Air Line.

The whole case is substantially set out in the finding and order of the commission as follows:

"From the facts disclosed by the record held that the rates upon pineapples, citrus fruits and vegetables, which would result from the application of the distance tariff given in the report herein upon the line of the Florida East Coast Railway company, the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad company and the Seaboard Air Line railway from points in Florida up to Jacksonville, when destined to points beyond in other states, would be just and reasonable, that they ought not to be exceeded for the future, and that the present rates of those carriers are unjust and unreasonable to the extent that they exceed such rates.

These cases being at issue upon complaints and answers on file and having been duly heard and submitted by the parties, and full investigation of the matters and things involved having been had, and the commission being of the opinion that the present rates on pineapples, citrus fruit and vegetables from points on the Florida East Coast railway, the Seaboard Air Line railway and the Atlantic Coast Line railroad to Jacksonville, when destined to points beyond in other states, are unjust and unreasonable.

It is ordered that defendants Florida East Coast Railway company, Seaboard Air Line railway and Atlantic Coast Line railway company be and they are hereby notified and required to cease and desist on or before the 2d day of January, 1912, and for a period of not less than two years thereafter, abstain from exacting for the transportation on pineapples, citrus fruits and vegetables, in carloads and less than carload quantities, the carload minimum being 24,000 pounds for pineapples and citrus fruits, 21,000 pounds for vegetables under ventilations and 17,500 pounds for vegetables under refrigeration from points of production upon defendants' various lines of railway to Jacksonville when destined for points beyond in other states, rates which shall not exceed the following in cents per standard box of eighty pounds in cases of pineapples and citrus fruits and in cents per standard crate of fifty pounds in case of vegetables."

It is further ordered that said defendants mentioned are hereby notified and required to establish on or before the 2nd of January, 1912, and maintain in force thereafter during a period of not less than two years and apply to the transportation of pineapples, citrus fruits and vegetables in carloads and less than carload quantities, the carload minimum being 24,000 pounds for pineapples and citrus fruits, 21,000 pounds for vegetables under ventilations and 17,500 pounds for vegetables under refrigeration from points of production upon defendants' various lines of railway to Jacksonville when destined for points beyond in other states, rates which shall not exceed the following in cents per standard box of eighty pounds in cases of pineapples and citrus fruits and in cents per standard crate of fifty pounds in case of vegetables."

J. M. Burke and wife have returned to their home at Monroe, after spending the summer in their home town in Michigan. Mr. Burke says the climate here is worth the price, even if there was no land to be purchased.

A small fire Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage, when the roof was discovered by the neighbors, to be in flames, enveloped things in that vicinity for a while. Fortunately it was soon extinguished, without very serious damage.

The ladies of the Guild will serve theatre suppers at the bazaar, after the performance of Mabel Paige Tuesday evening. A warm and appetizing supper will be ready for all who attend the play. Do not forget the place, Stone-Gove Building, the room formerly occupied by Boston.

After spending Thanksgiving and a few days with his father, and attending to the business of his company in the city, Meade Fox left Monday evening, on an extended trip through Florida, introducing to the merchants in the state, the goods of the "Red Seal" Spice Co., of Columbia, S. C.

Misses Beth and Ruth Mettinger, were charming additions to a small house boat party last week on the house boat of Mr. Horace Richard, who with his son, are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mettinger, the other member of the party, was Mrs. Lovelace of Green Cove Springs. The boat was anchored for several days at Lake Berresford. The party also, made a short visit to DeLand.

"THE CHORUS LADY" WEDNESDAY NIGHT

A play that will be welcomed here is James Forbes comedy, "The Chorus Lady." The piece is so good that it made a big success even in London, after the failure of half a dozen other American successes. Mr. Forbes, who is the author of "The Travelling Salesman" and "The Commuters" has created a new character to the stage in Patricia O'Brien, one that will live for a long time. A novel feature of the play is the second act, which shows the chorus room of the Broadway Theatre, New York, with the show girls of a big musical production "making-up" for the performance. In this act are some of the brightest lines of the piece and in which "Pat" "gets back" at some of her enemies. The production will be of unusual merit and the company one of the best. At the Imperial Theatre on Wednesday night, Dec. 6.

Famous Dressing Room Scene from "The Chorus Lady."

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Many Bright Things Among Sanford Troops and Others

The Boy Scouts will realize a nice sum from their ball game and this will go toward defraying the expense of a camping outfit. The boys expect to hike to Orlando during the holidays and Scout Masters, Waldren and Summers are anxious to get the ponchos and other necessities ready.

A troop of Boy Scouts was organized at Fort Myers last week. The boys there are making good use of their manuals and are having a series of lectures.

The Boy Scouts of Cincinnati, Ohio, are now managing a five-cent theater three nights a week.

The Boy Scouts of Minneapolis are going to "swat the fly" and rid the city of a disease carrying pest. The Minneapolis Tribune has offered prizes to the extent of $200 for the boy catching the most flies.

The Boys Scouts of Denver took part in the children's pioneer and wild west show at Elitch's Gardens. The boys gave an exhibition of their skill in warfare, by warding off an attacking party of Indians who were capturing a stage coach and a miniature train. The Indians were decorated with red war paint and wore the costume of red men. The boy scouts fought them valiantly and gave a vivid reproduction of the scenes that were frequent in the early days of Colorado. Thousands of people witnessed the performance and cheered the Boy Scouts time and time again.

Game Warden Wm. Oaks of Lansing, Mich. is planning for a course of instruction and the prevent of forest fires and will enlist the services of the Boy Scouts throughout the state to act as forest rangers. It is his idea to have each boy reported to his school teacher when he discovers a fire and that the nearest supervisor shall then be notified. For this service he will present a souvenir medal of a suitable kind.

A boy scout was the means of averting a painful accident in Rutland, Vt. A drawing-room car was being shunted by an engine, which had moved on head of the car at the switching, the car running fifty feet or more back of it. A young woman was about to walk in between the engine and the car, and the scout with both arms, pushed her away from the track in time to avert an accident.

Shakers Go Free

Kissimmee, Fla., Dec. 1.—The Osceola county grand jury completed its investigation at 6 o'clock tonight of the death of Sister Sadie Marchant, and failed to find an indictment against Brother Eggert Gillette, who has been in jail here for seven weeks, charged with murder. Gillette was charged with "assisting her out of life," at her own request, by the administering of chloroform.

The case has attracted national attention, provoking considerable controversy as to criminal intent in euthanasia practices. The sentiment here has been entirely with Brother Gillette and Sister Sears, who were arrested following the death of Sister Marchant, but who was later released on her own recognizance.

When arrested, Brother Gillette made no effort to conceal the fact that he and Sister Sears, members of the same Shaker colony at St. Cloud as Sister Marchant had administered chloroform to the deceased at her own request. She was in the last stages of tuberculosis and medical authorities agreed that her death was a question of but a few days.

When he walked into the jail this evening, Brother Gillette remarked simply: "It is God's will."

Art Exhibit and Exchange

Do not forget the art exhibit and exchange to be held at the Welaka Club Rooms Thursday, Dec. 14. The public is cordially invited to attend.

... POTATOES ...

Last week we gave some figures of corn and compared Illinois land with Sanford land from a corn standpoint. This week it's potatoes. The general crop of potatoes is very short this year and prices are consequently higher than usual this fall.

The writer came from Michigan and just now the papers from "home" are full of articles gloating over the tremendous potato crop and consequent prosperity of the farmers in that section of the North.

It's said that "figures don't lie". (This don't always include the fellow using a pencil to make them), so let's get at the figures on the subject for the past ten years.

Uncle Sam is pretty good authority and we refer you again to the Year Book of the Department of Agriculture for 1910, page 559.

For the past ten years the value per acre of Michigan potatoes has been $37.92.

Now potatoes are one of Michigan's leading crops. The writer has grown as high as 75 acres of them in one season. I have bought and shipped hundreds of car loads of them. I know potatoes in Michigan as well as in Florida. To grow a crop of them in the North requires a whole year. To be sure they are not a whole year growing but they do take all of the growing season, or rather, it is not possible to grow any other crop on the same ground the same season. Think of it! A whole year to grow $37.92 worth of crop on an acre of land.

Now go back to the Year Book, Page 559 again and look at the column headed "Florida." We find the value to be $100.02 per acre for the past ten years.

$100.02 for Florida Against $7.92 for Michigan--almost three times as much

That's great but—that's not all.

In Florida we plant potatoes in January and we harvest them in April—three months and have our money.

After the potato crop we can plant corn, cotton, sweet potatoes—anything we care to for a summer crop, as the ground will be in perfect shape to plant again without flowing.

When Fall comes the summer crop is harvested and we can then grow a Fall crop worth more than both the others and then have the ground ready to plant to potatoes again the following January. Three crops to one and nearly three times as much to the crop—that's going some.

But the Florida figures of $100.02 per acre are for the whole state and not for Sanford. On our Sanford sub-irrigated land we beat the world. Mr. Holden raised 127 barrels per acre on his farm. Others raise 85 barrels, while 60 barrels is perhaps a good average crop. They sometimes bring $8.00 per barrel but not often. Around $3.50 to $5.00 can be expected on an average.

It's just as easy for the Sanford Farmer to grow three crops per year on his ground as for the Michigan farmer to grow one crop of potatoes.

But perhaps you think Michigan is not a fair comparison.

Some of the other states being nearer the great markets do show a little better value per acre even though the yield is less.

Here are a few:

New York.....	$52.11
Wisconsin.....	39.22
Ohio.....	49.07
Indiana.....	45.42
Michigan.....	37.92

Average for the above five states for the past ten years..... $44.75

Average for the whole state of Florida for ten years..... 100.02

Average for Sanford for the past ten—but what's the use? You would not believe it unless you come and see for yourself.

And then money is not the only thing worth living for.

Think of the comfort of being able to live and work in God's "great out-of-doors for 365 days in the year. Compare our fine, healthy, all-year-round climate with a country where you grow one crop a year then spend the proceeds trying to exist until you can repeat it again. We leave it to you that there is no comparison.

Even for general farm crops like corn and potatoes our Volusia Farms land looks mighty cheap at $30 to $50 per acre

It's the good kind and sold on easy monthly payments if you like or with 10 per cent off for cash. We throw in the climate too and that is worth as much as the land.

Sanford Music Club

The Music Club had a very enjoyable meeting at the residence of Mrs. T. A. Neal, who was leader, Saturday afternoon. The violin was the subject considered. Miss Jessie Stumon read a very interesting paper on "The Evolution of the Violin," demonstrating with her violin the names of all the different parts of the instrument, the many materials used in making a violin and the various changes and improvements since the first violin was made.

A discussion followed, led by Mrs. Munson, on "Why Call the Violin King of Instruments." Miss Jessie Stumon on the violin, Miss Josie the flute, accompanied by Mrs. Munson on the piano, entertained the club with some delightful selections from "Il Trovatore," "Faust," and "Norma."

The roll was then called by Mrs. H. E. Tolar, the secretary. Two new names were proposed for membership in the club. Mrs. Neal, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Higgins, served delicious cake and tea. The club will meet in the studio of Mrs. Munson, December 14th.

The Sewing Circle

The members of the Circle met at the home of Miss Lillian Gibson, Friday evening. While the young ladies diligently plied their needles, an interesting book was read to them. They were also entertained by several musical selections on the piano. Miss Gibson served ambrosia and cake.

The next meeting will be held December 8th, at the Sirmo House, with Miss Hopson.

The members attending Friday evening were, Misses Emma and Estelle Beard, Alice and Lucy Whitner, Annie Lee Caldwell, Alberta Hopson, Lizzie Brain, Ruth Standiford, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Miss Gail Moore.

Auction Bridge Party

Mrs. Samuel Puleston was the charming hostess of a very delightful auction bridge party, Saturday afternoon. Beautiful red roses made the pretty rooms very attractive. Four tables of bridge were played.

Mrs. A. W. Brown made the highest score and won the first prize, a beautiful glass and silver flagon sugar and cream set. The booby prize, a very pretty little picture, entitled "Play Bridge," was received by Mrs. R. J. Holly.

When the cards were concluded, delicious refreshments, consisting of croquettes, green peas in timbales, potato chips, hot biscuits, olives and chocolate were served.

Mrs. Puleston's invited guests were, Mesdames O. W. Brady, A. W. Brown, A. P. Connolly, J. W. Dickson, C. E. Bell, A. P. Driver, W. D. Hadden, L. P. Hughes, B. W. Herndon, R. J. Holly, S. D. The KIPFONEN CABINET

IN BEHIND and down below and up above all life there is one great unchanged purpose for good; every evil is a departure from that purpose. —Phillips Brooks.

TEMPTING THE CHILD TO EAT.

Any one who has the care of children knows how hard it is at times to get children to eat the food that is often necessary for their very existence. Diplomacy, tact and patience are needed to overcome the indifference of the child.

There are many devices used by patient mothers and many simple ways which will appeal to the child. One little boy who was steadily losing ground because of a poor appetite, was left for a month with his fond aunt, who being an ingenious woman, studied the problem, and decided that the youngster must be made to eat, so she started a game, using two spoons in a saucer of breakfast food and rich cream, each trying to keep the other from getting a spoonful, she, of course, seeing that he ate the most of it. At the end of a month the parents returned to find a happy, rosy boy, eating because he wanted to, and enjoying his food.

Another method has been tried and proven to be to name pieces of bread and butter for friends and playmates. They become so interested in the game that the food is eaten before they realize it.

One mother who had difficulty in teaching her child to take milk from a glass, overcame the difficulty by putting a transfer picture on the bottom, which he would be rewarded by seeing when he had drunk the contents of the glass.

Pretty dishes, cutting food in the form of animals, and a story told will often help a meal to be taken, happily. Imagination is an essential in everybody's training, and a child often needs to have it developed.

Food must appeal to the eye of the child as well as to the adult.

A set of doll dishes used for a meal will often tempt a child to eat a large amount without realizing it.

Some children with food are like those of older growth, "the good that I would I do not, and the evil that I would not, that I do."

Nellie Maxwell.

THE CIRCUS

As Viewed by the Different Members of the Family and the Inevitable Conclusion Reached by all Circus day is fast approaching and the small boy is on his best behavior. If it were not for the fact that his mother is wise to his methods his angelic goodness would give her some alarm. She knows that he is working to see "that circus." For that matter, mother wants to see it also. Father is non-committal, but it is the one best bet that he will be there if it is for no other reason than to take the boy. You see he has not forgotten when he was a little whaver himself.

Sparks' world's famous shows will soon be here and will then unfold its myriad of wonders gathered from all portions of the universe. The principal question presents itself, "Are you going to the circus?" The answer gives rise to the belief that show day will see the greatest outpouring of people from all parts of the county this city ever seen. There is every reason to expect this. The promises held forth are simply wonderful, and they come from an institution which in over a quarter of a century has never broken faith with the public or advertised things it did not have.

There is undoubted truth in the statement that the Sparks shows has reached in all its departments the highest perfection of excellence. It has ransacked Europe in its search for wonderful acts and feats. The performance is one of infinite variety, containing many acts, the mere description of which pales before its actualities.

Every regard is paid for the comfort of the people, and the show is a triumph. The tents are airy and of the lightest material, and the magic touch seems to have been played over the entire circus city, and the parade, to be given at twelve o'clock noon, will furnish a glorious prelude to the circus itself, for it will display a thousand wonders. Magnificent chariots and floats will be drawn by handsome horses, beautiful open dens showing their ferocious inmates will be in evidence and there will be many comical features to make the youngsters about with glee. Thousands of visitors are expected to come from the surrounding country to see the parade and take in the exhibitions, and it will no doubt be a big day for this city.

For the purpose of building an immense power plant to develop electricity for the operation of an aluminum plant, the Aluminum Company of America, a Pennsylvania corporation capitalized at $20,000,000, has purchased rights of way for a distance of forty miles along the Little Tennessee River in Blount county, Tennessee, and across the State line in North Carolina.

Seven dead, and eight injured, is the record of the hunting in Ohio, which began November 15 and closed yesterday. The records show that thirty persons throughout the country were killed in hunting accidents.

The supreme court of the United States today refused to grant a stay to the proceedings against the Chicago beef packers who have been indicted on several counts alleging criminal conspiracy in restraint of trade. This means that their trial must proceed at the time named by the United States district court at Chicago and is regarded as a considerable victory by the Federal prosecution.

"Not less than $50,000" was the fee received by Clarence Darrow for his services in defending the McNamara brothers in the Los Angeles dynamiting case, according to a declaration made by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and custodian of the McNamara defense fund.

Counting the returns of Tuesday's election in Los Angeles shows that the Socialists lost the majority by fully 40,000. Mayor George Alexander was re-elected over Job Harriman, Socialist, one of the attorneys for the McNamaras.

A storm has been blowing on Honduras coast for several days. There has been much damage to fruit and heavy rains have fallen. No loss of life has been reported. The storm has abated today.

An organized effort of the business men of St. Louis, headed by Secretary of Commerce of Labor Nagle, to get next year's Republican National Convention, is being made.

The stage is set for a Federal grand jury investigation of the alleged nationwide dynamiting conspiracy. Los Angeles is sore vexed by the startling ending of the McNamara case, and would gladly let go the entire affair, but this is considered impossible, as so many of those wanted for witnesses are there.

Prince Chunn, regent of the Chinese empire, and father of the child emperor, abdicated today. His place on the throne was taken by Shih Hsu, a Manchu prince, and Hsu Chih Cheng. This action followed the demands of leaders of the revolution.

A double fatality occurred at Fliey, near Scarborough, Yorkshire, England. Robert Oxley, an aviator, was instantly killed and his passenger, Robert Weiss, sustained injuries from which he died afterwards. They had ascended to a height of about 100 feet, when the aeroplane suddenly collapsed and they were hurled to instant death on the field below.

It is said that much of the spirit of revolution in China is due to students educated in foreign lands. China had to send young men abroad to keep step with other nations, and now the young men are endeavoring to make old China march along.

A woman deputy sheriff up in Pennsylvania gave up her job when she decided to get married. Evidently she captured the man who stole her heart and has given him life time unless a pardon is granted by the courts.

The ability of William J. Barna, the detective responsible for the arrest of the McNamaras is deserving of eulogy. It seems that he has a gift that makes him a near wizard. His further movements will doubtless be watched with trepidation by some of the dynamiters' assistants.

THE McNAMARAS SENTENCED

One Goes Up For Life, the Other For Fifteen Years

James B. McNamara, self-confessed murderer and dynamiter of the Los Angeles Times building, was on Tuesday sentenced by Judge Bordwell in the criminal court to life imprisonment.

J. J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Iron Structural Workers, was given a sentence of fifteen years in San Quentin prison for his part in the dynamiting exploits in Los Angeles.

John J. pleaded guilty to dynamiting the plant of the Llewellyn Iron Works company.

The following signed statement by Jas. B. McNamara has been made public: "On the night of September 30, 1910, at 5:45 p. m., I placed in the Times building, a portion of the Times building, a suitcase containing 16 sticks of dynamite, set to explode at 1 o'clock the next morning. It was my intention to injure the building and scare the owners. I did not intend to take the life of any one. I regret that the men lost their lives. If giving my life would bring them back, I would gladly give it. I have placed my life in the hands of the state."

This is probably the only written statement of the case that will ever be made by the writer or his brother, John J., who pleaded guilty of dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron Works.

It is believed by officials that the confessions of the McNamaras will give the grand jury valuable information concerning "men higher up" in a nation-wide dynamiting plot. The result of the investigation, in connection with that begun at Indianapolis, it is believed will constitute one of the greatest criminal problems ever undertaken.

Sheriff's Trial Postponed

The case of the State of Florida vs Sheriff E. L. Smith of Volusia county charged with the murder of William C. McCaskell on Lake George a few weeks ago, and which was transferred from Putnam to Alachua county upon motion of the defense, took a sudden and surprising turn Wednesday morning, which resulted in the postponement of the case.

A special venire of fifty policemen had been summoned from the body of the county and were in waiting, as was also the defendant and a large number of witnesses both for state and defense, when Prosecution Attorney A. V. Long announced at the opening of the court that he had come into possession of certain facts since the case was set for this date, but which could not be secured at this time; therefore the prosecuting attorney stated that he could not go to trial with the case with justice to the state, and requested a continuance, which was granted. The case may be called at the spring term of the circuit court.

Barney Oldfield In Sanford

Barney Oldfield is touring the south in his old racing Benz car and selling Firestone tires. According to the following interview in Jacksonville he will make Sanford in his itinerary:

"I am here both for pleasure and business. Unlike many of the ex-champions I have invested some of my money and now have an interest in the Firestone Tire Company. This has a great deal to do with my tours over the country.

"I shall be here several days and intend to go down the East Coast, visiting St. Augustine and Daytona, from which places I shall go to DeLand, Sanford and Tampa. At the latter place I will ship my machine to Mobile, going then to New Orleans and Galveston."

Out Goes The Hog

The hog was "awatted" this way by voters, according to the official count: Orlando gave a majority of 130, Winter Park 27, Sanford 53, Paola 12, Apopka 29, Zellwood 11 and Ray Ridge 6. The vote was a very tight one, and the commission soon counted it out. The total number of ballots cast in all the above precincts was 389—only 60 of which favored the hog.

SANFORD'S WHITE WAY

Better Illumination Should Be Slogan of Merchants

GOOD ADVERTISEMENT FOR CITY

Cost Would Be But A Trifle When The Benefits Derived Therefrom Are Considered

For some time The Herald contended that First street should be better lighted during the winter season and as yet the suggestion has not been acted upon either by the Commercial Club, the city council or any of the merchants.

The Sanford Light & Fuel Co. have expressed their willingness to cooperate and ~~at a very reasonable rate.~~ As the lights would only burn a few hours each night and until twelve o'clock on Saturday nights the extra cost would be but very little. As a prominent citizen suggested this week, all of the old gas lamps could be taken up and placed at short intervals along First street, just as Main street in Jacksonville and other cities have done. These gas lamps could be fitted up with three good burners and the pure white light makes a very fine effect in connection with the electric lights and the electric signs. Each business firm could be relied upon to assist in this movement and our city would attract the stranger as never before. There is nothing in the advertising line that attracts attention as much as a well lighted city.

SANFORD LETTUCE IS MOVING

About Fifty Cars Will Go Forward This Week

Lettuce is on the move now and bringing good prices, which is certainly joyful intelligence to all parties concerned. This week will break the 1911 record, as about fifty cars will go forward, according to estimates based upon the amount already gone.

Much of the lettuce has not been of good quality, but on account of the demand has brought very good prices. Some good stuff brought as high as $5 per hamper in Chicago, and most of the lettuce shipped has netted the grower $2 per basket, which is an excellent price. The later crop will soon be ready and the holiday trade ought to bolster up the market and make sharp prices.

The growers are well satisfied with prices so far, and the prospects for a good season are most flattering. The movement of vegetables will materially assist in putting a brighter complexion on trade generally.

Played Joke On Parents

George Watson and Miss Carrie Abernathy accompanied Mrs. Heister on an auto trip to Orlando last Tuesday evening and upon their arrival there thought it would be a good joke to telephone Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy that they were married. Mr. Abernathy answered the phone and at the first words did not wait for an explanation but dropped the receiver in amazement.

The young folks returned later on and were surprised to receive congratulations of friends. They hastened to explain the situation to all parties concerned and the wedding presents are withheld.

ATTRACTIONS DURING THE WEEK

Sanford Had Something Doing Every Night

Theatre-goers and pleasure-seekers in Sanford did not have one dull moment this week. On Monday and Tuesday nights the Mabel Paige Co. held the boards at the Imperial. On Wednesday night the "Chorus Lady" was the main attraction, and on Thursday and Friday night Sparks' Circus was the main attraction for young and old.

The Mabel Paige Co. in "Billy," Tuesday night, fully justified their reputation as fun-makers, and there was not one idle moment from the time the curtain rose until the end. It was a screaming farce and every one of the characters were good. The work of Miss Paige and Sir Edward Lawrence, unusual, being above the average. The scene of "Billy" is laid on board the steamship Florida and the settings were all true to life. The work of the sailors and officers was especially good, and the audience did not have time to recover from one paroxysm of laughter before going into another. The Herald can recommend the Paige Co. in "The Lost Trail" and "Billy" to every other city in which this estimable company may cast their lot. Both plays are good and the Mabel Paige Co., as usual, is up to the standard.

Wednesday, "The Chorus Lady" held forth at the Imperial in all the glory and panoply of stage settings and theatrical glamour. "The Chorus Lady," played in a large opera house and by a better company would undoubtedly be a good play, but either a lack of patronage or lack of intelligence prevented a real presentation of the play. The only redeeming feature of the play was the part of Patricia, portrayed by Miss Dunne and as the Chorus Lady she was the real article.

"The Chorus Lady" is really a good play, with excellent moral lessons, and the company probably can play better than they did in this city, but whether the audience is large or small, when they give up a large iron dollar for a seat, they expect something in return.

Thursday was circus day, and every small boy in Sanford was awake on time that morning.

A number of people from near by towns were in the city and the parade drew every one to First street and then to the show grounds.

The performance was all that could be desired and was a clean show in every respect. Of course one does not expect to see any new thrills at a circus but the Sparks shows are better than the average circus, and is large enough to be interesting without the disagreeable features of the largest shows.

All the performers were good, the menagerie was good and old Mary the elephant is still the children's favorite. In all the Sparks show can be recommended highly and the management knows how to give the public a good show for little money.

Shaker Under Bond

Egbert Gillett, the Shaker colonist, who the Osceola County Grand Jury, just adjourned, failed to indict for the murder of Sister Sadie Marchant, was placed under $7,500 bonds here late this afternoon upon an order from Circuit Judge W. H. Price. He immediately gave bond and went to his home at Ashton.

The action of the court followed a motion made by State's Attorney Jones, who expressed surprise that the Grand Jury had taken no cognizance of the admissions of Gillett that he had administered a powerful drug to Sister Sadie at the time when she was seriously ill. Strong sentiment favoring the abandonment of the charges against the Shakers is believed to be responsible for the failure of the Grand Jury to act.

State's Attorney Jones asked that Brother Gillette be held without benefit of bail until the convening of the next Grand Jury, but the court decided to allow him his freedom on bail. The case against Sister Elizabeth Sears has been dropped.
