

Northeast Florida League Blows Up After Three Years; Palatka Heads New Loop

JACKSONVILLE, May 3.—The Northeast Florida Baseball Association, after three years of operation, was tossed into the discard here yesterday, but for a few moments was this part of the state without a semi-pro circuit.

Immediately after representatives of Gainesville, Palatka, St. Augustine, had decided to join the old league, another, that will be called the North Florida League, was organized.

Hughes Thornton, head of the Palatka team, had been elected president of the new league. He and Herb Thomas, Palatka manager; Fred Francis, St. Augustine manager, and J. M. Butler, Gainesville, sat in the session.

Another meeting will be held at St. Augustine Sunday night at 8 o'clock, at which time it is hoped to set up a permanent organization.

Continuation of the North Florida League depends upon efforts of the enthusiasts to get the game together by Sunday, the deadline set by the league. Local interests are certain that sufficient backing can be obtained by that time.

It appears that the game will be in the league for his final play and successful management and who is popular in Jacksonville will be brought here as manager of the team. It has been requested that his name not be mentioned until it is certain that he will make a change.

The new league, formed for the game at St. Augustine, is scheduled at the Ancient City, today.

It is believed that enough good players are on the ground now to form a team, and that only a few additions would be required to make the team pennant contenders.

If Jacksonville continues in the league, it is expected that the schedule adopted for the North East Florida League will be carried out.

The game scheduled today at

Trade Body Gets Endorsement Of Many Residents

(Continued From Page One)

when Sanford and Seminole County are coming into their own, and the trade group agency is needed more than ever."

Courtney Board Chairman John Melton, Jr., in a telegram to Senator Parrish said, "Seminole County needs its publicity fund continued. This money is being carefully spent and it costs each taxpayer very little."

"Arthur Branen said that "I object strenuously to House Bill No. 765 the passage of which would result in the death of the present Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. Whether you know it or not, the chamber and Karl Lehman made a mistake. In my opinion the chamber has received more for his money in the small millage for our Chamber of Commerce than any other association except that for schools."

"I have taken no interest in Seminole County politics but I assure you if this bill goes through, I surely will the future. Don't let petty personal friction stand in the way of future advancement of Seminole County and like Orange and Orange County wake up when it's too late."

As secretary of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, Mr. Nixon told me following telegram to Senator Parikh and Representatives Brady and Herndon:

"Sanford Kiwanis Club at regular meetings today voted to vigorously oppose bill eliminating public school Seminole County. We believe this small levy for publicity really would benefit all."

RESULTS FROM WANT ADS

(Continued From Page One)

Here the adult flies lay their eggs and the young larvae enter the skin through the holes made by the larvae or maggots destroyed by the application of commercial 20 per cent rotenone.

The ear tick is a chief offender in this respect. When absent, these ticks cause the ears of animals to become swollen and painful.

Adults who only a small portion is present at the site of the infestation, it is often necessary to remove the flies by means of forceps or other instrument.

When the larvae are reduced to a small portion of the ear, it is necessary to bathe the area with a solution of borax for three days to prevent the other insects from laying eggs.

The wings may be treated with a strong decoction of water and pine tar oil. This material should not be allowed to run down the ear, but care should be taken to remove it.

The ticks may be killed by washing the ears of the animal with pine tar oil. This material should not be allowed to run down the ear, but care should be taken to remove it.

The wings may be killed by washing the ears of the animal with pine tar oil. This material should not be allowed to run down the ear, but care should be taken to remove it.

The wings may be killed by the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white, oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

the adult flies are numerous larger than the common house fly. Adult screw worms are found in the ground in color with black stripes across the wings. The head is brown to orange-yellow.

The eggs are small, white,

oval-shaped, laid in the crevices of the fly. The female maggot hatching from the eggs are very small at first, becoming larger as they grow, reaching a length of one-half inch.

The wings may be killed by

</div

The Sanford Herald

Established in 1881
Published weekly—$1.00 per copy
Subscription $2.00 per year
Editorial office, 205 Park Avenue, Sanford, Florida.

Advertisers are invited to submit their copy to the publisher at the time of publication or not later than 12 noon on Friday.

HOLLAND L. BRADY

GORDON READINGTON, Manager

RESCRIPTION HABITS

Over 100 prescriptions daily

Drugs, cosmetics, soaps, etc.

All additional services, words of thanks, remittances and notices of various kinds will be charged for at the regular rates.

Frank, Lewis and Nichols, proprietors of the National Bank of America, have established a branch office at the corner of Church and New York.

The Mizell's are members of the American Legion. They are the one and only organization of our nation represented by any other organization.

Take our lawyers, for instance. They are always getting laws passed that nobody can understand. Then they try to hire the lawyers to explain the laws to them. Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, was working to get the income taxes reduced, because he was very rich and had to pay big taxes. But Senator Constance, who was also pretty rich, fought for higher and higher income taxes, because he had all his money invested in tax-exempt bonds.

So it is with the representative Brady. Mr. Brady is in the mule business, one of the most flourishing enterprises in Sanford. Mr. Brady sold mules and horses from one end of this country to the other and his establishment at the corner of First Street and Sanford Avenue was the cynosure of all eyes. Then, changes began to be made in our ways of doing business and our methods of trade. The Chamber of Commerce was organized. Tractors were built. Most of the old landmarks began to disappear and automobiles and tractors began to take the place of horses and mules.

And so to Mr. Brady would abolish the Chamber of Commerce which he sees as somehow connected with all the progress and development which has taken place. He wants for those good old horse-and-buggy days when our streets were paved with sand and the suburbs aroma of their peculiar fragrance. Like the medieval gladiators that he is, he would stop the hands of progress, stamp out this progressive spirit that has fastened itself upon the lives of our people, and turn the country back to the Indians.

After all, the mule business must be preserved!

A Vote for Peace

In the British national referendum held in Great Britain an overwhelming vote is piling up in favor of such peace measures as adherence to the League of Nations, abolition of military planes and abolition of private manufacture of armaments.

As we recall it was the way of the old Greek democracies were run.

Government officials say they intend to eliminate all grade crossings on the main line railroad.

It is the same with the roads which the government has to speed. In every event, we want to stop, look and listen just as we have been doing for several years.

One of the bills introduced in the House of Commons is a bill against all bondholders.

It is a bill that would limit the amount of one million dollars a year.

A great idea! It's a wonder no one thought of it before.

The Mr. Peterbrough Independent has figured out that there are six different bondholders committee on each bill.

That's the way it is.

But, even so, there are two million dollars a year of new revenue for the state so what's all that talk about a tax for new money?

For general information see the front page of the Standard.

For abolition of the private manufacture of arms 30 percent.

For collective security by economic action 94 percent.

For collective security by military measure if necessary 74 percent.

"I am confident we will have close to 10,000,000 votes when the final results are announced on June 27," Lord

Walter explains. "When you consider there are just 29,000 registered voters in Britain, that means getting a good proportion. We have had up to 90 percent in some districts."

Who's Dizzy Now?

Infusions have been made in sponsoring the bill for the abolishment of the local Chamber of Commerce. Representative Brady was motivated largely by spite. As a friend and constituent of Mr. Brady, we received some strong words of chiding and personal attack. We therefore feel that Mr. Brady is more to his constituents' activity to be influential in the slightest degree by Karl Lehmann's oversight in not inviting him on that boat ride last Fall.

Of course Mr. Brady is human and is naturally going to promote legislation which is likely to react favorably upon his own interests. Mr. Brady has gone to Tallahassee as the representative of the people of this country. He goes to represent his constituents and we also expect him to sponsor any bills for his own personal benefit. As everyone knows, it is an old American custom for our representatives to pass laws just to help themselves.

Take our lawyers, for instance. They are always getting laws passed that nobody can understand. Then they try to hire the lawyers to explain the laws to them. Take Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury. All the while he was secretary of the treasury, he was working to get the income taxes reduced, because he was very rich and had to pay big taxes. But Senator Constance, who was also pretty rich, fought for higher and higher income taxes, because he had all his money invested in tax-exempt bonds.

So it is with the representative Brady. Mr. Brady is in the mule business, one of the most flourishing enterprises in Sanford. Mr. Brady sold mules and horses from one end of this country to the other and his establishment at the corner of First Street and Sanford Avenue was the cynosure of all eyes. Then, changes began to be made in our ways of doing business and our methods of trade. The Chamber of Commerce was organized. Tractors were built. Most of the old landmarks began to disappear and automobiles and tractors began to take the place of horses and mules.

And so to Mr. Brady would abolish the Chamber of Commerce which he sees as somehow connected with all the progress and development which has taken place. He wants for those good old horse-and-buggy days when our streets were paved with sand and the suburbs aroma of their peculiar fragrance. Like the medieval gladiators that he is, he would stop the hands of progress, stamp out this progressive spirit that has fastened itself upon the lives of our people, and turn the country back to the Indians.

After all, the mule business must be preserved!

A Vote for Peace

In the British national referendum held in Great Britain an overwhelming vote is piling up in favor of such peace measures as adherence to the League of Nations, abolition of military planes and abolition of private manufacture of armaments.

As we recall it was the way

of the old Greek democracies were run.

Government officials say they intend to eliminate all grade crossings on the main line railroad.

It is the same with the roads which the government has to speed. In every event, we want to stop, look and listen just as we have been doing for several years.

One of the bills introduced in the House of Commons is a bill against all bondholders.

It is a bill that would limit the amount of one million dollars a year.

A great idea! It's a wonder no one thought of it before.

The Mr. Peterbrough Independent has figured out that there are six different bondholders committee on each bill.

That's the way it is.

But, even so, there are two million dollars a year of new revenue for the state so what's all that talk about a tax for

new money?

For general information see the front page of the Standard.

For abolition of the private manufacture of arms 30 percent.

For collective security by economic action 94 percent.

For collective security by military measure if necessary 74 percent.

"I am confident we will have close to 10,000,000 votes when the final results are announced on June 27," Lord

Walter explains. "When you consider there are just 29,000 registered voters in Britain, that means getting a good proportion. We have had up to 90 percent in some districts."

Very often people who make a thousand or fifteen hundred and live a year are inclined to believe that their money is well spent. They don't know that their people, if not their parents, may have to go through the same experience.

Mr. Fred Wissman, carrying Elder Springs water to Virginia, noted to the regret of many friends that his people had to go through the same experience.

Mr. Wissman, the well known entrepreneur, has returned from a trip to Lauderdale and other points on the East coast.

He has been to the South and the West.

He has managed to get up to several hundred dollars on a few weeks.

Mr. Wissman has purchased the new home recently built by Mr. J. E. Morrissey.

Mr. Morrissey is a well known architect.

YCEES Protest against Brady, erdon Measure

(Continued from Page One)
bank of the following measure which would have been to change the city for new members. M. Robert, Clyde Ramsey, Andrew Sawyer, Bill Biggar, Irving L. Simon, Jack McDonald, Roy J. Johnson, H. L. Tracy, Harry White Jr., Harold Powers, E. R. Gray, Bob Reitz, and Gordon Gandy.

Mr. Reitz also was named to represent the organization on a Cross committee. President Barnett gave a detailed report on the recent state convention at St. Petersburg where adjournment, members of the organization referring to board of directors a suggestion to build a highway connecting the highway leading to the Sanford Hospital Zoo, and learned that J. J. Kellahan was the first top member for the new year.

ussia Plans To verthrow British overnment Soon

(Continued from Page One)
and supporters, and support the navy, and naval forces, with Red. The diehard statesmen, Kremelin specialists forces the country of regulating the British empire, and dividing which among the provinces. It adds that the Communists do make no attempt to collect investments abroad, but propose to buy up the British troops, and he recalled from the documents and the dominions would gain independence, according to the Mail.

ITY NEWS BRIEF

(Continued from Page One)
tent meeting revival service, which opened at 17th Street French Avenue last night at 10 o'clock, and was attended by Rev. J. E. Redman, one of the leaders in the church. The service will continue for the next few days, added.

More than 125 pounds of group and other winter fish were sold at the Gandy's Market yesterday afternoon by a local fisherman which included Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Brumley, and others. They reported that Mr. Brumley caught but did not land a black salmon, while Mrs. Williams hooked and got a 30 pound shark.

The Herald today was in receipt of the following letter from Will Lovell, secretary of the Florida Primary election. "The South Side Primary and P. A. wishes to express

FOR SALE
Farms—100 Acres
Lots—Plants—Pots
Harry A. Russell Seed Co.
100 W. Park Ave. Phone 41-4

BARWICK'S SEWING SHOP
Cord & 4 Palmetto
Hemstitching
Dressmaking
Woolen Shirts & Blouses

REPAIR SERVICE
Generators, Starters
Batteries
Ignition
RENAUD BATTERY SHOP
100 W. Park Ave.

Henry McLaulin
Jeweler
Established in 1890
Engagement Rings
Certified Watchmaker
Watch Repairing
Jewelry Repairing
Diamond Mounting
112 S. Park Ave.

MARTIN'S GARAGE
Body & Body Repairs
207 Oak

the sincere appreciation for the services you have given us through your paper, we send our thanks to the editor of the South Side P. T. A. I want to thank you for the meetings we have had with you, and the extra publicity given us, and for the unfailing co-operation of your office with Mrs. Fox, our publicity chairman.

C. G. Brown, young Ormond man who was arrested Wednesday evening, was released Saturday morning after obtaining money under false pretenses. He was released from the County Jail today after his father had arranged to pay $2000 to him to settle the debt he had incurred in the course of his work at the level I can recall—29 cents a bushel."

But that's all over now. Wendell looks to the future but finds himself in the record books in 1934.

"Last year was as good as the last year I've ever had," he says. "And this year will just go as good, or even better."

Stuart Gatchel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gatchel and senior student at Monteverde school in Lake County, has been elected to the Lake Co. youth committee, and was chosen as the chairman of Class II schools at the First-Grade High School Musical Festival in Tampa. He is also a member of the school band, and has been a leader at the school last week.

He took first place in the music runs for boys, second in the music runs for girls, and third in the vocal runs with a tone of 124 feet, 4½ inches. He also won first place in the solo water polo record of 10 yards.

The World Cup trophy of the five periods of the League's return to the League.

The Nazi government still tries to keep Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's policy.

2. International policy.

3. Germany's proposed general restoration of colonies lost to the World War.

4. The possibility of the Reich's return to the League.

5. The Nazi government's attitude toward Versailles, Locarno, and other existing or re-existing facts.

Gathering lunches part of the session of the retiring, which covers the returning points.

1. Germany's

Additional Society

Annual Celery Ball Given At Trianon

With about 500 persons in attendance, the first annual Celery Ball, sponsored by the Railroad Fraternity, was presented Thursday evening at the Trianon Dance Hall on the Sanford-Orlando Highway in honor of the celery growing and shippers of the Sanford and Orlando section.

Dancing was enjoyed from 10:00 P. M. until 2:00 A. M. to music furnished by Merv's Orchestra. The grand march, conducted early in the evening, was led by Mrs. J. E. Abernathy and J. A. Zerrinner.

Throughout the evening novelty paper hats and clappers were distributed through the courtesy of the Valder Hotel. The grand door prize, a treasure chest donated by Perk's Place, was awarded to Mrs. J. E. Abernathy.

Among those seen dancing were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Day, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dewey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hunter, D. Mayo, and J. L. Murray of Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Partidge, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dupre, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Denardi, F. P. Sandford, Russell Woods, R. H. Burgin, M. H. Lillard, J. H. Hendley, J. G. Meshan, H. L. Morgan, G. H. West, O. T. Lampkin, W. D. Simola, D. F. McDonough, F. H. Bryant, H. C. White, and Charles H. White, of Jacksonville; W. H. Redding and H. R. Barrett of Tampa, E. R. McMillan of Wildwood, and A. M. Chapman of Leesburg.

Also Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zerrinner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Pace, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thustrom, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lunde, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holleheys, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. V. Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Whitelock, Mr. and Mrs. F. Addison Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dighton, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gorst, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. John Meisch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James J. H. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. V. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Willis.

Also Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. S. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. West, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schmehl, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lutwyche, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gandy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Witte, Mr. and Mrs. John Schirard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Schirard, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Varn, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Bach.

Also Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Staley, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Laing, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bishie, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Whelchel, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Kari Nordgren, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steenwerth, Mr. and Mrs. Drummmond, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dens, Mr. and Mrs. R. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Masin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Witte, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Daus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Niblock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Varn, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mathews, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dorn.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carraway, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cates, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Bach, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Barnabottom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnabottom, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tolzer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grinball, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trubuck, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hofmann, and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Kayer.

Also Mr. and Mrs. George Weinstain, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Branam, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Belts, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burgin, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Mellings, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. John Spangenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tingley, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McEwan, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sanford, Judge and Mrs. James C. Shatton, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hilly.

Also the Misses Catherine Lake, Editha Ladd, Louise Ramsey, Alice Aiken, Margaret Barnes, and E. E. Simpson, Charles Duran, Jennings Peay, Ray Evans, Sykes, Jr., W. D. Sonds, Lynn Howard, Mayes, T. L. Turner, Robert May, Jim Partain, H. F. Barrett, Jim Wilson, W. H. Gause, C. C. Hart, and Mrs. E. C. Hart.

ACCOMMODATION SHOP

Robidoux, Russell Wallace, Max Jones, Burn Metcalf, Gus Steele, Robert Pearson, G. W. Ward, J. H. Smith, J. L. Cochran, H. A. Newman, Jack Varn, Robert B. Ast, Billy Thompson, G. H. Powell, William W. Dubois, Max Rumbley, Ira Thompson, W. Waters, Gene Turner, Bernard Schirard, A. M. Chapman, Sam Galashaw, O. T. Lampkin, Charlie K. Ferguson, H. E. E. Abernathy, Dan DeGigue, Arthur Partin, Tony Gersiel, Walter Kline, Jessie Smith, Simon Kilday, Dick McClelland, Bud Saule, E. L. Topping, M. B. Lowe, Marcus Tyre, Jessie McGowan, and F. H. Bryant.

Surprise Party Given By Truth Seekers

A surprise party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Alden Brown, corner Twentieth Street and Palmetto Avenue, by the members of the Truth Seekers Class of the First Methodist Church in honor of Mrs. Brown, a former teacher of the class.

As president of the class, Mrs. Brown with a corsage and a lavender and pink crystal bowl of harmonizing spring flowers, tokens of appreciation for her work as teacher. Mrs. T. W. Williams who celebrated her birthday anniversary on that day, was given a corsage and linen handkerchiefs from the class by Mrs. R. W. Turner.

Entertainment during the evening included harmonica solos by Phyllis Allen, readings by Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Elizabeth Turner, and Miss Bonnie Young, poems of Marguerite Pierre, and a reading, "Parry and Joan," by Mrs. John Vaughn.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by Mrs. P. D. Parker, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Crawford, Mrs. R. W. Turner, Mrs. O. J. Pope, and Mrs. R. F. Crenshaw. The refreshments accentuated the chosen color motif of pink and green.

Among those present were Mrs. John Alden Brown, former guest and Mrs. H. N. Kayer.

Also Mr. and Mrs. George Weinstain, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Branam, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Belts, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burgin, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Mellings, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. John Spangenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tingley, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McEwan, Judge and Mrs. James C. Shatton, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hilly.

ACCOMMODATION SHOP

Mrs. R. A. Moffett, Mrs. Emma Alcorn, Mrs. C. A. Pender, Mrs. L. Graw, Mrs. Philip Allen, Mrs. Judi Smith, Mrs. T. W. Williams, Mrs. O. J. Pope, Mrs. H. F. Phillips, Mrs. J. F. McClelland, Mrs. G. A. Radford, Mrs. W. E. Wells, Mrs. John Vaughn, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. R. L. Shinholas, Mrs. F. R. Mitchell, Mrs. C. L. Geddes, Mrs. P. D. Parker, Mrs. J. R. Crawford, Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Mrs. W. M. McKim, Mrs. J. K. Mattinger, Mrs. R. F. Crenshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoochian, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schmehl, and the Misses Anna Lenora Brown, Dorothy Smith, Elizabeth Turner, Bennie Young, and Phyllis Allen.

The domestic motion picture industry in India is making notable school cafeterias with about 70 persons in attendance.

Each student of Caesar attended the banquet and used an eman-ent Latin student as his slave.

Oliver Miller, representing

Cesar, lounged under a purple canopy as the slaves brought food and finger bowls for the guests and fanned them with large palm-leaf leaves. The slaves wore tunics and the masters donned togs and crowns of flowers.

Entertainment during the banquet was furnished by Miss

Daphne Takach, violinist, and Miss Marjorie Cogburn, dancer.

Miss Cecilia Trulock sang,

"America," in Latin after which a Latin tragedy, written by Raymond Monsalvatge, was presented by Miss Nancy Rosette, heroine, and Raymond Monsalvatge, violinist. Miss Nellie Williams, Latin teacher, had charge of the affair.

Classical Club of Seminole High School Tuesday evening in the

A fountain pen, buried in 1909 when a rancher's yard near Santa Rosa, Calif., was first terrace, was found to be in excellent working condition when recently uncovered.

Tobacco Snuff and Dust

and DUST with all the nice things it.

Keep your leaf papers, bags etc. cut the inside out of the flowers and all other leaves off of tobacco, cinnamon, cloves,

etc. Throw partly on the plant—then burn them, good fire and other leaves, etc. If there is no fire, use a match or cigarette

but do not smoke it.

Only good tobacco.

Distributed by

J. J. Cates Co., Inc.

Sanford, Fla.

Phone 362-A, after 7 P. M.

Stock Quotations

Furnished By

FENNER & BEANE

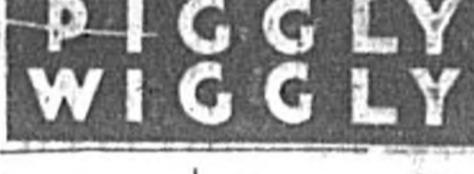

Members:

New York Stock Exchange and Other Leading Exchanges

Orlando Office: 47 North Orange Avenue
Phones 6191-6192

WEEK-END FOOD SPECIALS!

REDUCED PRICES For Friday and Saturday, May 3rd and 4th
Quantity Rights Reserved

 PIGGLY WIGGLY	LOVETT'S Groceria
BANANAS 5 lbs 15c <small>For Cooling, Delicious Beverage—</small>	TOMATOES 3 No 2 cans 22c <small>Standard Quality—Heavy Packed cans</small>
LEMONS dozen 12c <small>Favorite of Southern Housewives—Land O' Sunshine</small>	MATCHES 3 boxes 10c <small>Strike-A-Lite—for home use</small>
BUTTER pound 35c <small>You'll Like It—Meramee Roll or Print</small>	GINGER ALE 4 12-oz. bottles 25c <small>Biltmore Club—12-oz. bottles</small>
SQUASH Pound 2c <small>Fresh Pickled</small>	PICKLES 24 oz. jar 14c <small>Sweet Mixed</small>
GREEN BEANS 2 Lbs. 5c <small>Luby's Vienna</small>	JELL-O pkg 5 1/2 oz. <small>Six Delicious Flavors</small>
SAUSAGE 3 cans 25c <small>Undercooked Delicited</small>	COFFEE lb 29c <small>Maxwell House</small>
HAM can 12c <small>Early Standard Potted</small>	FLOUR 24 lbs 85c <small>Dixie Rose—Ask for it by name!</small>
MEAT 3 cans 10c <small>Luby's Vienna</small>	RICE 5 lbs 19c <small>Blue Rose</small>
RELISH 2 for 19c <small>Three Popular Sizes</small>	CERTIFIED 5 rolls 15c <small>Toilet Paper</small>
MUSTARD .2 for 19c <small>4-oz. cans</small>	APPLE BUTTER 15c <small>Luby's 20-oz. jars</small>
PIMENTOS 3 for 15c <small>Phillips Delights</small> PORK & BEANS 6 16-oz. cans 25c <small>No 13 cans Standard</small>
APPLE SAUCE 2 for 15c <small>Fried & Drawn Hens ea. 87¢</small> <small>Fat: Plump Fryers lb. 26¢</small> <small>Fat: Weiners lb. 15¢</small> <small>Tender Beef Steaks lb. 19c</small> <small>Tender Beef POT ROAST Lbs. 12 1/2c—15c—18c</small> <small>Fresh Creamed Cabbage</small> CHEESE pound 15c <small>Fancy Sliced</small> BACON lb 32c <small>Smoked</small>
BACON lb 32c <small>Unsmoked</small>
	<small>Here are famous cuts of quality meat to make your Sunday dinner a success and look at the prices—of course not</small>
	<small>PRIZE QUALITY FANCY WESTERN BEEF</small> <small>Fat Roast Chuck Roast Brisket Roast</small> <small>lb 15c lb 23c lb 15c</small>
	<small>PRIZE QUALITY SPRING LAMB</small> <small>Round Leg Rib Roast Loin Roast</small> <small>lb 25c lb 25c lb 25c</small> <small>Whole Shoulder</small>
	<small>ROAST lb 17c</small> <small>Lean Western Pork Loin</small>
	<small>ROAST lb 25c</small> <small>Assorted Cold Cuts</small>
	<small>Ready-to-Eat Luncheon Meats 1/2 lb 15c</small>

SENATE OKAYS BILLS TO AID CITRUS SYSTEM

Continued From Page One
writing campaign, would provide the public and the industry with the sale of immature fruit, require the bonding and labeling of all who handle fruit, prohibit the use of dangerous matter.

It was not until the last bill reached, that dealing with regulatory price level, that raised objections.

Mr. Murphy of Zolfo Springs said "we've done nothing here neither but make monkeys of ourselves and our growers back home."

Rose of Orlando described the proposal as "the most impracticable bill yet proposed for the citrus industry."

A House committee recommended that the House pass a Senate-approved bill to outlaw chain stores, with chains owned by Florida citizens exempted, and the entire act subject to a referendum.

Chairman McLeod of the House appropriations committee said his group would have the biennial appropriations bill ready for House action within 10 days.

New legislation proposed today included measures to move the seat of the state government to the geographical center of Florida to boost the salaries of members of the State Highway Com-mision and give them broader powers in handling property, and to establish a state boxing commission.

The citrus price bill, that was defeated provided that upon the petition of growers of 51 percent of the state's citrus fruits prices less than the cost of production would be prohibited.

Holland contended the industry would be amply protected and explained that the bill was aimed at the canning industry.

On roll call only six Senators voted for the measure. They were Holland, Lundy, Parrish, Shelley, Sikes and Sweger.

Minor amendments were added to the bills earlier in the week when opposition developed.

The commission, among other things, would be empowered to establish standards of quality for the sale of Florida fruit and to exercise its jurisdiction over the entire industry.

Administration of the advertising fund also would be a part of the Commission's duties.

The state would be divided into seven citrus districts.

A sixth citrus bill designed to protect the owners of field boxes against theft was given Senate approval earlier in the week.

Holland said citrus fruits committee would offer one to regulate the packing industry. St. Lucie county would be in District Five including also Brevard, Indian River, Martin, Palm Beach, Brevard, and Dade.

Seminole County would be in District Three including also Alachua, Putnam, St. Johns, Flagler, Volusia, Marion, and Levy.

As the aftermath of a spirited fight on the floor of the House yesterday, that battle preceding further tough bidding for the proposal, a plan for the reorganization of Florida to give each of the five congressional districts a seat instead of one being the congressman for the state-at-large, will be before the legislature as a special and continuing order beginning at 11 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

Under the provision of the measure before the House for consideration the state would be divided as follows:

First district: Charlotte, De-

Soia, Glades, Lee, Hendry, Pasco,

Hardee, Highlands, Hillsborough,

Manatee, Pinellas, Polk and Sarasota counties.

Second district: Baker, Bradford, Clay, Columbia, Dixie, Duval, Gilchrist, Hamilton, Lafayette, Levy, Marion, Suwannee and Union.

Third: Bay, Calhoun, Escambia, Franklin, Gadsden, Gulf, Holmes, Jackson, Jefferson, Leon, Liberty, Madison, Okaloosa, Santa Rosa, Wakulla, Walton and Washington.

Fourth: Broward, Collier, Dade, Indian River, Martin, Monroe, Okeechobee, Palm Beach and St. Lucie.

Fifth: Brevard, Citrus, Flagler, Hernando, Lake, Marion, Orange, Osceola, Putnam, Seminole, Sumter, St. Johns and Volusia.

The measure was before the House yesterday on the recommendation of the rules committee. It had not been reported out by a committee, but C. Fred Ward of Orange, as the chief introducer, several days ago had gained its withdrawal from the general and appropriations committee, because of the committee's delay in reporting out the measure, and had had it placed on the calendar without recommendation from the committee. S. Pierre Robinson of Dade, chairman, included it among the list of special order measures on yesterday's calendar.

15 Killed As Result Of Electrical Storms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fifteen persons were dead to day from electrical storms which broke over six states accompanied by furious winds and drenching rains.

Arkansas counted 11 dead, three were killed in Western Kentucky and Southern Indiana and one victim was claimed by a lightning bolt in Texas.

Lightning and high winds took a toll in property damage in Louisiana and Tennessee where trees were uprooted and power lines knocked out of commission.

Texas was mostly plagued with the appearance of rolling dark clouds over the western part of the state.

Striking late yesterday, the storms signified eastward spread, leveling trees early today after spreading damage in Kentucky and Indiana.

The United States Department of Agriculture predicts a relative shortage of chickens until spring hatchings of 1935 begin to affect the supplies.

STARTS TOMORROW ! FOR ONE WEEK SANFORD'S FIRST USED CAR SALON

FEATURING —

1933
Austin Coupe $195
1st Class Condition

TYPICAL EXAMPLES OF VALUES BEING OFFERED BY STRICKLAND MOTOR CO.

SQUARE DEAL Used Cars and Trucks

Save Money — Buy With Confidence

A GOLD CERTIFICATE WITH EVERY CAR!

SPECIALS

You Will Find
On Our Lot

Perfect Condition
1933 Deluxe Tudor Ford $450

Bargains Every Day
At Give Away Prices

1934 FORD DELUXE FORDOR	$495
1930 Ford Roadster	$175
1930 Ford Tudor	$225

FREE Balloons To All Children Accompanied by parents.

Like New
1935 Willys Sedan $495

STRICKLAND MOTORS, INC. Every Car A Bargain!

OFFICE — CORNER COMMERCIAL & PALMETTO

USED CAR LOT — 3RD & PARK Buy Now And Save Money

NEXT TO A FORD V-8 — SQUARE DEAL USED CARS ARE BEST

Fisher Bests Hardin After Sensational Hurling Duel; Cocoa Swamps Daytona, 10-9

By PETER SCHAUER

unable to penetrate the mid-season offerings of Lefty Gene Fisher, the Central Florida Baseball League's leading pitcher, Manager Joe Hartman's Sanford Colerlyfeds dropped a 2 to 1 decision at Municipal Park yesterday afternoon before a large crowd.

It was the fifth straight defeat for the Feds, the sixth straight win for DeLand, and Fisher's fourth victory without a defeat. The Feds, as a result, dropped into last place in league standings.

The contest produced the second best pitcher's battle of the season, with Fisher having the edge over Doc Hardin who was making his first start of the year.

The slender DeLand fork-handled the Feds under control all the way, giving up a run which was unearned, and never being in any difficulty. He faced 31 batters, allowed six of them to reach first and only two of the six to reach third. He retired the last 13 men in order, and in six of the nine innings he faced only three men. His control was near perfect, for he failed to walk a man, and he had jam-up support in the field.

Hardin held the Reds to six hits and had a world of stuff on the ball. However, the Reds' hits usually came at the beginning of an inning and DeLand had to be down to retire the next three men.

Johnson's Produce Market Now Moved

Now located at roadside market at the corner of French and Lake Shore boulevard. Mr. Johnson says he will carry fresh vegetables from the North during the summer at prices that will please the housewife and grocer—Adv.

W. H. LONG

Meat Market
Cor. Sanford Ave. & 3rd St.

VIA FLORIDA MOTOR LINES

LET'S take a land cruise to vacation land! A cruise by bus is an economical voyage—a ship-shape way to travel . . . In your wake leave worry and care, for you'll find a refreshing relaxation beyond the horizon . . . Cruise o'er the blue of rolling hills . . . sail past seas of golden grain . . . or come in with the tide of companions vacationers to fascinating ports-of-call . . . You're abroad at home, skimming over smooth highways, intimate with nature, steering clear of the usual responsibilities and weariness of travel.

ROUND TRIP cruises are good for six months . . .

Charleston, S. C.	11.35
Washington	24.70
Quebec	58.90
Houston	37.30
Orlando	.75
Savannah	8.75
Atlanta	12.80
Chicago	32.90
Norfolk	20.55
St. Augustine	3.70

UNION BUS STATION Seminole Hotel

Phone 60

FLORIDA MOTOR LINES GREYHOUND

threat by pitching to the Reds' two last batters. Hardin and Letts, Sloan has opened with a single and had been sacrificed to second by Culp. Roberson, league's leading batter flied out to short-left and Letts was an easy infield out.

Except for the eighth when Hardin doubled to deep right center, only to be retired when Sherrard hit into a double play, the Reds won the game in the ninth on an earned run. The errors were committed by outfielders who mopped up what should have been easily handled balls.

Sanford scored first, and with two out, it was the second inning and Red Ashe had smacked a single into right with two away. Beck Burchardt hoisted a clean single back of short stop. However, Sloan, with an easy chance in front of him, let the ball get away from him and before he found it in the grass, Ashe had scored from first and Burchardt was on third. Schirard flied out to right.

The Reds had threatened in the second when Letts reached third on his single, a sacrifice and stolen base, but Hardin bore down, and, aided by Pete Schirard's sensational catch of Lacroute's short fly and a strike out, he retired the side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schirard singled to left and went in second on an infield out before Schirard flied out to right at second.

It's threatened again in the sixth but Hardin cut off the

side.

Roberson doubled with one away in the fourth but Letts hit into a double play when his bid was taken by Yowle, who caught Roberson off second.

The Reds evened the count in the fifth. Moseley singled to center when Gleason made the same mistake Sloan did in the second—permitted an easy single to get away from him as Moseley pulled up at second. Lacroute's infield out sent Moseley to third, and he scored on Doussette's single double to right. The hit was similar to Hardin's single, and Moseley's single except that it was ten times more difficult to handle. Connell and Fisher were out in the infield to retire the side.

The Feds put a man on second in the fourth with two out but died there when Ashe struck out, and in the fifth with one away, Schir

Seminole County Produces
More Fruits And Vegetables Than Any Similar Area In America

The Sanford Herald

AN INDEPENDENT DAILY NEWSPAPER

VOLUME XXIV

Member Associated Press

SANFORD, FLORIDA, SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1935

Established In 1903

NUMBER 155

Sanford Is The Only Central Florida City Affording Rail, Highway,
And Water Transportation

Green Denies He Would Call General Strike

F. O. L. Head Said
By Cincinnati Lawyer
To Be Considering Such An Order

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, denied today he told Nicholas Klein, Cincinnati lawyer, "or anyone else" that he would call a strike of all federation unions in the automobile industry unless there is speedy settlement of the Chevrolet walkout. Green said he had not talked to him and refused further comment.

CINCINNATI, May 4.—(AP)—Green, for striking Chevrolet Company and Fisher Body company workers, here said to the American Federation of Labor is considering calling a general strike in the automobile industry unless the present labor disputes with the General Motors corporation is quickly settled. Nicholas Klein, Cincinnati attorney as the strikers' counsel, said the threat known after meeting with Green by telephone Washington today.

"Unless," he quoted the labor leader as saying, "there is an early settlement there is a possibility calling a general strike of all automobile workers of all species."

Time Chain Letters Said As Illegal By Postal Authorities

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(AP)—"Send-a-dime" chain letters that first attracted attention have been declared illegal by post office department.

A number of such letters even reached the national capital, Attorney General Cummings warned employees of the post office department not to participate in the chain.

The letters are designed to teach writer $150 if the unbroken.

Editor Crowley recently informed the postmasters at Denver, St. Louis, and Des Moines that the "send-a-dime" letters violate the fraud and libel sections of the postal laws.

Post office inspectors are on tour to find the originators of the scheme.

MARITIME NEWS

From the Port of Central Florida at Sanford.

Campaigned daily by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce during arrivals and departures St. Johns River. Saturday, May 4, 1935.

GENERAL CARGO.

GENERAL