

BIG HIT SCORED BY HOME TALENT

"OUT OF THE FOLD" WAS CLEVER EXHIBITION OF SANFORD TALENT

The Herald has often stated that Sanford had exceptionally clever talent not only in the circles but also in histrionic lines and every home talent play demonstrates the truth of this assertion.

For the past few days the girls and boys have been most active in campaigning for tickets, arranging programs and costumes and there was an air of expectancy in the city, greatly enhanced by the business-like air of Mrs. Marks, who had charge of the play under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

The night was cool, but the audience froze up when the first act opened with a most realistic snow scene and the play was on with the usual suffering of the heroine, the bad villain and all the other characters that form the threads of the melodrama.

"Out of the Fold" is a very difficult piece even for professionals and the judgment of Mrs. Marks in selecting the different ones was unerring and one perfectly fitting the part.

Neal Crane, the schoolmaster and one of the principal characters was skillfully played by Clarence Maloney. He had quite a lot to memorize and was equal to the occasion, carrying it off like a veteran.

Miss Florence Frank also had a difficult part as the heroine of the play in Helene, the girl who had stolen money but wanted to marry a man and was fooled for the time by the villain who happened to know her early history and sought her out in the peaceful seclusion of a country school.

Mrs. Cobb, the village gossip portrayed by Mrs. R. A. Newman was one of the surprises of the evening, being perfect in the part and showing remarkable aptitude in very particular.

Suzanne, the tomboy, played by Miss Olga Schultz and Marie Lathrop, by Miss Gretchen Schultz were both remarkably good. These young ladies made their debut in this play before a Sanford audience and demonstrated their talents. They have received good training in dramatic art and each scored a hit in their respective parts.

John Lathrop, the college bred young man and also the villain of the play was taken by S. M. Lloyd, an old favorite and while the part was one most difficult Mr. Lloyd was excellent and made himself most unpopular trying to expose the heroine, Helene on her wedding day.

Daddy Pinchback, the editor, was the part assigned to E. F. Householder and while he libeled the Herald and editors in general, he did it in such a manner as to bring down the house. It was also one of the difficult parts of the play but Mr. Householder proved to be a star.

Felix Frank is always good and always a favorite with Sanford people, and he was at his best as Toby, the boy who would rather eat than think and he gathered all the comedy to himself and kept it during the evening. He was the scream of the piece and made his usual hit.

STILL SEARCHING FOR MURDERER

ST. PETERSBURG POLICE HAVE MYRDER MYSTERY TO SOLVE

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13. With a dozen negroes in jail held as suspects, St. Petersburg authorities this morning continued their efforts to solve the problem of who killed Ed F. Sherman, but little headway was made. The injured woman, who was criminally assaulted, is rational to day and says that the negroes who killed Mr. Sherman were both black, one of them tall and the other short. She does not remember anything that happened yesterday, so that her failure to identify the negroes taken before her yesterday is regarded as of little significance, and it is thought that the police will be unable to solve the mystery of the murder without the aid of a witness.

A police working on the negro quarters and night rounds are right now looking for a man who has been seen in the quarters. It was hoped that the woman would be able to identify one of them. She seems to think that one of the men who attacked her was an employee of Mr. Sherman. St. Petersburg is quiet today and the negroes are being watched.

Plenty of Literature At the Commercial Club headquarters in the Herald office there is plenty of literature descriptive of the city and county and the real estate men and others who are interested in boosting the city can find what they want at the headquarters. Secretary Haynes is on the job every day and will do all that he can to further the advertising in every way. He has lists of prospective residents that are open to the public and the office is ready to serve the people.

Have Purchased Fountain The ladies of the Civic Department of the Woman's Club are true to their word and lost no time after the entertainment Tuesday night to order the drinking fountain. This was primarily the object of presenting the play and as soon as the performance was over Mrs. W. E. Watson ordered the drinking fountain and it will arrive in a few days to grace the city streets and be a refreshment alike to man and beast. The ladies are to be congratulated not only for their entertainment but for their promptness in making good the object of their organization.

BAPTISTS GATHER IN ASSOCIATION

ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED UNDER FAVORABLE CONDITIONS

The Seminole Baptist Association was organized at Sanford yesterday as the state Secretary of Missions most aptly expressed it, the baby was born full grown.

The delegates from the various churches met at Sanford with the First Baptist church of this place, yesterday morning and the meeting was begun with a devotional service in charge of Rev. Wm. Stones of Oviedo. This was followed by an address by Rev. C. M. Brittain, business manager of Columbia College at Lake City. He presented the work of the college and the needs of a college in a strong and forceful manner.

At noon dinner was served at the church by the ladies, in the "Chululota" style. A long table had been prepared on the grounds extending nearly half a block, and it was heaped with the good things the ladies of Sanford know so well how to prepare, and the visitors as well as home folks did full justice to the occasion.

At 1:00 the meeting was called together for devotional services led by Rev. J. G. Parsons of Titusville. A temporary organization was effected and letters from churches wishing to join the new association, together with the names of delegates, presented, and read for and are given below.

By unanimous vote the name chosen was that of The Seminole Baptist Association. A constitution and articles of faith were adopted. Mrs. H. C. Peelman addressed the Association in behalf of the Woman's Missionary Union. She said that Seminole means in the Indian language "wanderers," and she hoped that the Seminole Association would be wanderers from ways that are inefficient. The aim of the W. M. U. is to have every woman enlisted.

The nominating committee appointed by the moderator made the following report, which was adopted: Executive Committee: Rev. Wm. Stones of Oviedo, Rev. W. W. Wilhian of Tavares, Rev. J. G. WIRELESS STATION HIDDEN IN FLORIDA

GOVERNMENT MAKING A SEARCH FOR RADIO OUTFITS

A report that hidden wireless station somewhere on the Florida peninsula is in communication with either Germany or Japan, and that government officials are investigating, is colored by the fact that Lieut. Hargraves of the U. S. radio service was in Jacksonville three days ago on an unknown mission.

He called at the local station of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. though his visit there was purely an official, but efforts to locate him later proved futile. Operators of the private concern did not know why he was in town, though they knew him as a government expert.

According to Washington advices, the rumors of the operation of the hidden station have been persistent. The radio stations are supposed to be in communication with belligerent cruisers at sea, and to be serving as information bureaus.

It became known today that plans for the search have been discussed at conferences between Counselor Laurence of the state department, Secretary Daniels and Capt. Bullard, in charge of the naval radio service at Washington.

According to the reports both Germans and Japanese have equipped wireless outfits, and it is believed that the hidden station is in the heart of the forest. Local experts add that aerials would work almost as successfully rigged up inside a vacant loft in a tall building; the main requirement being that the building was high enough, and the loft of sufficient length.

Kites have also been used for similar installations, the kite being flown on a wire, the lower end of which was connected through the regular coils and detectors.

The regular aerials now in general use consists of from four to eight wires hung on two stretchers between tall poles, exactly as a hammock is swung, the wires being spaced two or three feet apart, and at least a hundred feet long. Such an installation would be easily recognized by anyone acquainted with wireless, though it would not be visible any great distance. It is expected that the federal authorities will welcome any information of this sort.

Arkansas Statesman Here Hon. R. M. Wallace of Hot Springs, Ark., has arrived in the city to join his wife and expects to remain during the winter. Mr. Wallace is prominent in his home state having served in the U. S. Congress for six years and received additional honors in his native city and state. He recently married Mrs. Mary E. Snydes of this city, the marriage occurring in Michigan and Sanford and surrounding country looks most favorable to Mr. Wallace, this being his first visit to the state. Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—Six policemen recently matched coins to see who would adopt an abandoned baby found by an officer on a doorstep.

CHULUOTA SNAPSOTS

One of the most beautiful church weddings ever solemnized at the Chuluota Baptist church was that of Mr. James M. Osteen of Kenansville, Fla., and Miss Angie Stogy of this place, which occurred Sunday evening, Nov. 8th, at 7:45 o'clock.

The decorations were planned and arranged by Mr. C. F. Smith and Mr. J. T. Jacobs and were very artistically done. The bridal arch was formed from sage palm fronds and pink and white roses and was all that could be desired.

G. G. Jacobs was the genial usher and escorted the guests to their places in his own pleasant manner.

The bridal party entered to the strains of "Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus," played by Mrs. J. Tilden Jacobs, and according to entrance were: J. Frank Story, only brother of the bride with Miss Sadie Blackburn, Adolph Swanson with Miss Rosa Jacobs. These two bridesmaids were elegantly clad in creamy white silk with white lace drapery, silver bandeaux containing a single white rose, with white rose girde bouquets. Then came J. Tilden Jacobs as best man, with Mrs. W. S. Borgardo of Winter Garden, youngest sister of the bride, as matron of honor. Being herself a bride of only a few months she was clad in her own beautiful wedding gown of snowy white satin with silver drapery, silver bandeau containing a white rose and white rose girde bouquet.

Little Hazel Jacobs, bearing a lovely white satin rose, which contained the wedding ring, preceded the two little flower girls, Evelyn Jacobs and Verlie Prevatt, who preceded the bridal couple and scattered before them, from dainty white baskets a perfect shower of rose petals along the aisle to the arch. The bride and groom entered together and proceeded down the aisle to the bridal arch, where the beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hope of the Methodist church of Oviedo. Directly after the ceremony the party left the church and repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Story, where a delicious wedding supper was served to the guests and the immediate families of the bride and groom.

The bride was beautifully gowned in pure white satin, made en traine, with white lace overdraperies and trimmed with pearls and wore a pearl necklace. The sheeny bridal veil was arranged in the latest cap effect and was caught in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of asparagus ferns and brides' roses.

The groom and groomsmen were dressed in the customary black, with white rosebud buttonholes.

The bride is one of Chuluota's most lovable young ladies of beautiful Christian character and is a leader in the Sunbeam Society and Sunday school of this place.

The groom, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Osteen of Christmas is an excellent and enterprising young man of sterling worth, who has won a warm place in the hearts of the people of Chuluota, as well as at Kenansville, where he is engaged in the general mercantile business. He has a nice new home there ready and waiting for its charming mistress to make complete and to this place goes with the newly-wedded pair the wishes of many friends that this home life may long and ever be filled with love, contentment and prosperity.

Kitchen Shower

Mrs. J. W. Nixon and Mrs. I. B. Collins and her charming daughter, Miss Ethel gave a delightful kitchen shower at their home last Thursday afternoon in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Angie Stogy. After the guests had spent some time in pleasant conversation and refreshment, Mrs. Nixon presided and presided over the shower.

The shower was a most successful one and the presents and read the verses which accompanied them. This produced much laughter and merriment as the witty rhyme which the shining presents bore made some very striking hits. Mrs. Nixon, the hostess, served delicious refreshments and a delicious cake. A lot of time was spent in expressing their appreciation and the shower was very much enjoyed by the entertainers a great success.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Household.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my household work. I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off. I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I had taken it. After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely. I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether. Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild tonic effect, on the womanly constitution. Cardui makes for increased strength. Improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy. Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today. Write to Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for complete instructions on your case and 64-page book 'Treatment for Women,' sent in plain wrapper.

The regular monthly missionary service of the Methodist Sabbath school meeting in the Star Theater every Sunday morning at 9:45 was very interesting last Sunday morning.

The Wesleyan Truth Seekers' class was unusually large last Sunday morning having four more present than the Men's Brotherhood class.

We are happy to announce that we are holding our annual conference at the Star Theater on Sunday, Nov. 22nd.

What the Farmer Did

A farmer recently visited the "country" and returned with the following report: "We have certainly been having fun the last few days."

We have had pretty good times here the last few days. We bought out to Uncle Ned's and went out to the back lot, where we baseballled all that afternoon.

HOME TALENT SCORED BIG HIT

Minerva, the girl with the mumps was taken by Virginia Brady and made the jaws of the audience ache with sympathy.

The music was furnished by Dr. and Mrs. Carl Burr and Miss Wilhelmina, an artist mark in the illustrations of the play.

A total sum was made by the ladies of the Civic Department by the entertainment, another success scored by the players and to Mrs. Marks much credit is due for the delightful entertainment.

All are cordially welcomed to all of the church services.

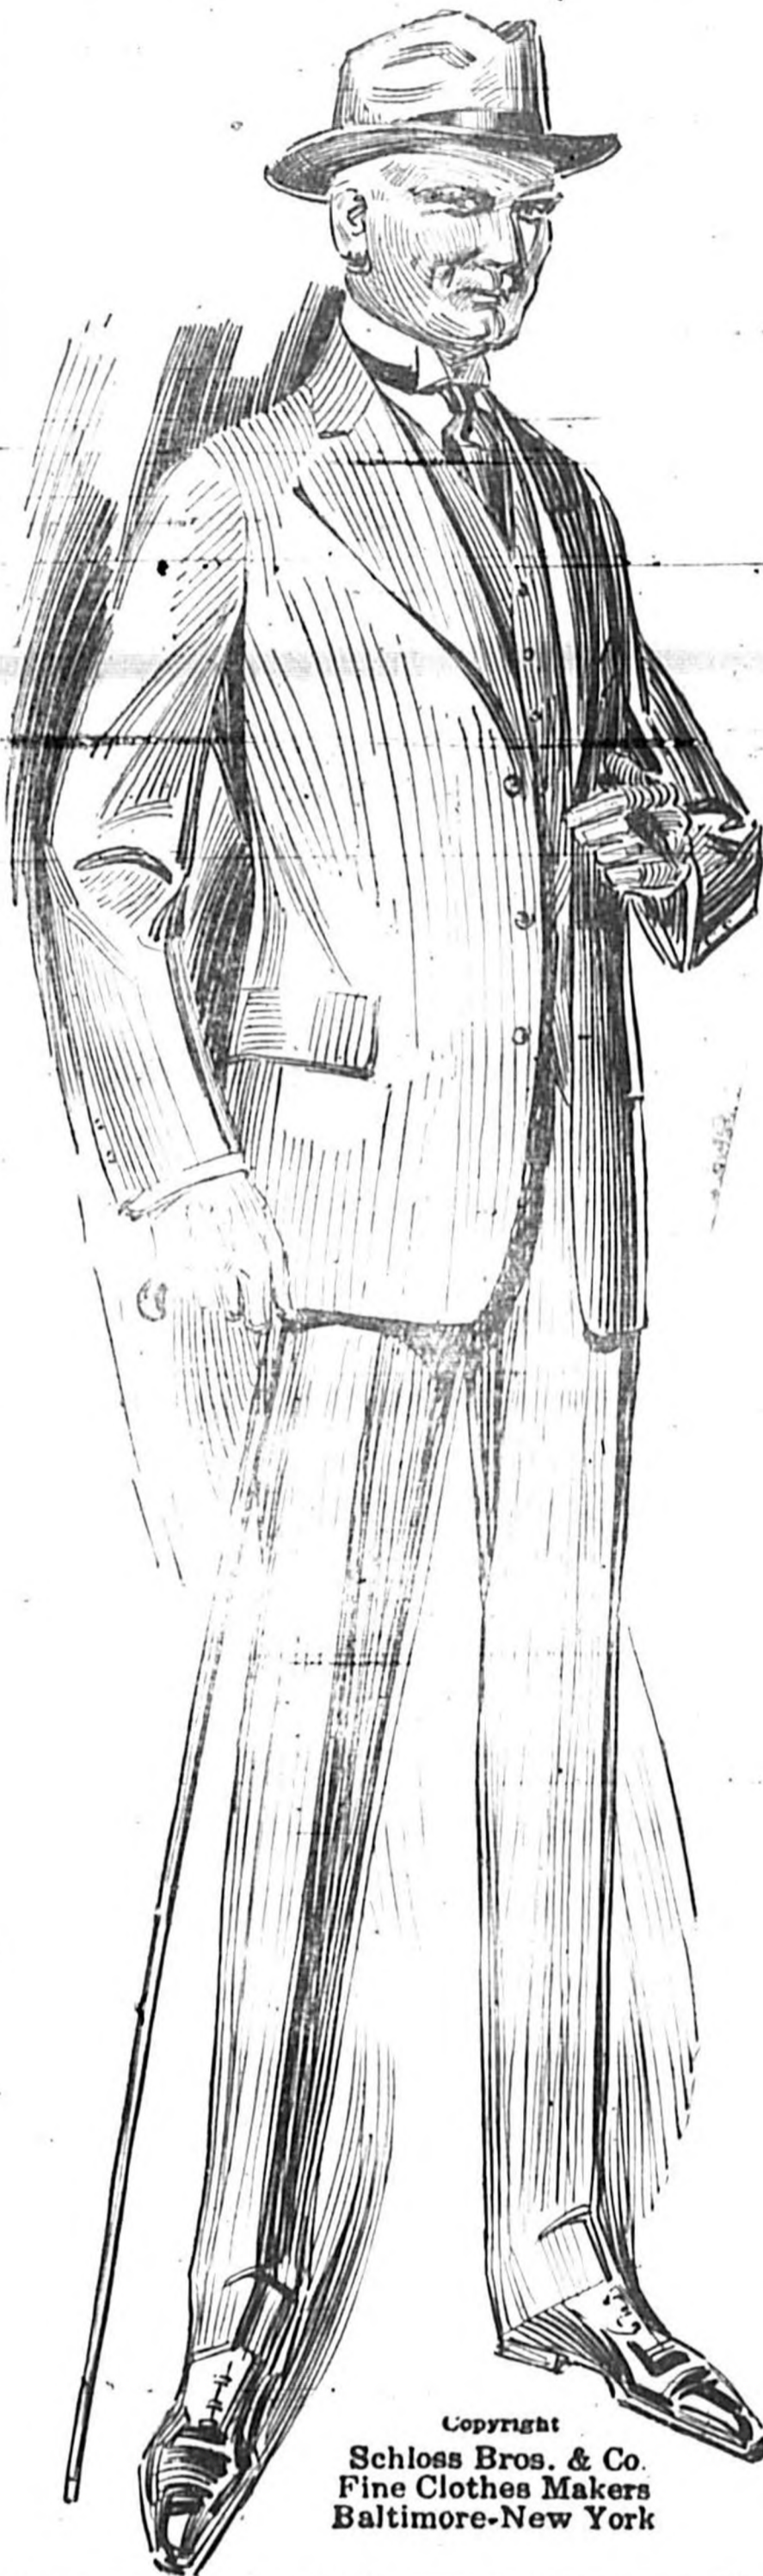

God Football Game

The first game of the season was played Saturday, Nov. 14, at the Sanford grounds.

Both teams played to the 17 yard line, but could get no further. Considering the fact that St. Augustine has one of the strongest high school teams in the state and that Sanford was at a slight disadvantage...

QUALITY CLOTHES

For Particular Men and Young Men are the Sort You'll Find Here

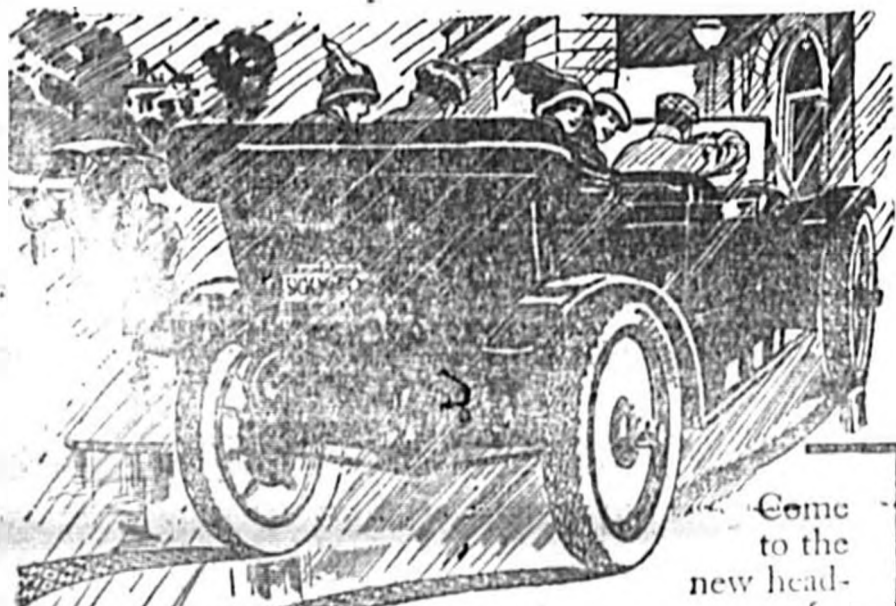

Clothes-quality, you'll find is a great deal more than a name at this store. We have studied this question of "quality" so long and thoroughly that we have brought our buying and stock departments up to a very unusual degree of excellence.

Clothing salesmen from some of the best makers in the country have repeatedly said that we were among their most critical and hard-to-please customers.

The result is that when you examine a suit here, you are in the position of a man who examines a college graduate regarding his "A-B-C's" or the multiplication tables.

castine has one of the strongest high school teams in the state and that Sanford was at a slight disadvantage a number of the regular men being unable to play, a better game could not be desired. War Figures Appalling

Dr. Frank Crane, who writes classics for the newspapers, tells in a gripping and gripping way what he would call the war billion dollars that were spent in the first one hundred days of the war in Europe.

One is amazed and almost stunned in contemplating these figures as they are laid out in his hands. He says: "I have seen the war in the eyes of the people who work."

I will strike at the root of crime, idleness, vice and poverty, by giving to every worker living wages;

I will bring comfort and plenty into every home, light, liberty and joy to every slave;

I will enable every young couple to marry without the dread of want.

I will put every child on earth to school, to be suitably trained for a life of competence;

Instead of millions of armed men marching to kill, I will organize vast armies of school teachers and their with overrun the earth.

I will have thousands of educators instead of battleships and destroyers, and have them sail to the seven seas, to make war upon ignorance, incompetence, laziness and animalism;

I will build parks, playgrounds, libraries, theaters, concert halls, until every son and daughter of man shall be as cheered as kings;

I will dress every human being as the nobles are dressed;

I will pile every home table with delectable food, fill every home bookshelf with books, and put music in every house;

I will endow the common people with the luxury of lords.

I will establish a church in every hamlet, and pay the living of every preacher of righteousness.

I will federate the nations and furnish funds for one international executive, legislative and military equipment, so that international war shall be impossible and in time forgotten.

I will check the way for the advance of science, religion, and humanity.

I will stop the advance of science, religion, and humanity.

I will so develop the resources of the land, and so encourage invention, manufacture, and scientific distribution, that there shall be no more any famine.

And I will brighten up this planet until it all shines like the sun in its place in the heavens, and all the stars shall wonder.

And shall give, still glowing to the young, each generation, and to Peace be within this world of temples, Tellus, and prosperity with in thy parades.

One Lump Instead of Two

The best sugar factories throughout the country are facing a peculiar situation. After working at full capacity to meet a supposed demand for high priced sugar, they find that there is no such demand. Although the sugar is offered at six cents per pound, wholesale sales are slow. The jobbers and wholesalers, it seems, stocked up heavily when the war broke out and, with warehouses loaded to the rafters, they are not eager to put more money into the product. So the sugar is going begging at six cents. How long this condition will last is a question. The consumer however, as long as he uses the usual quantity of sugar may rest assured that he will not profit. The retail price of sugar has been advanced to about eight cents a pound and it is likely that it will be kept there, indefinitely. The old "law" of supply and demand appears to have been repealed in this century. The only way to touch the speculators is through the pocket. A lack of demand or a falling off in demand is likely to result in a reduction in price, for the jobbers will not care to carry big stocks that are slow sales. Therefore, if every American would cut down his allowance of sugar, just a trifle, we would see the prices tumbling in a few weeks. One spoonful or one lump, instead of two in your coffee every morning for a month would result in a return of five cent sugar before Christmas.

Fear is sharp sighted and can see things underground, and much more in the skies.—Cervantes.

TRICE'S TRUMPETEER

Articles Published under this heading furnished by M. P. A. Bureau, Jacksonville.

A social philosophy is current today," says an English writer, "which proclaims collective, but denies individual responsibility, which would in an even more important sense, than it is, be the cause of a social philosophy, which would remove some individuals of all responsibility, for their own conduct and would call others to account not only for themselves but for the rest of the world. These confused ideas, which isolate the names of science and social reform are the product of a civilization suffering from senile dementia. Whether we are our brother's keepers or not, we must first be our own, if there is to be any responsibility at all. To deny it, is to deny free will, which may be well enough as a philosophical speculation, but it is not a philosophy. The same writer is optimistic enough, to declare, "I believe we are still sane enough to throw off the delusions of dementia, when we see them, and to resume a healthy habit of thought to resume a healthy habit of thought."

"Such a healthy habit of thought," declares the American leader, "requires individual responsibility, and, in turn, individual responsibility requires individual freedom, which is personal liberty. If we look back over history we shall find that the finest civilization declined and fell a prey to ambition when the state undertook to care too intimately for the individual, which individual responsibility ceased and was substituted by the collective responsibility. When the Athenians took pay to attend the theaters and feasted at public expense while the armies and navies were fighting, the days of freedom were numbered. When the Roman people cried for bread, the state, and not the individual, was the cause of their poverty. When the state undertook to care too intimately for the individual, the individual responsibility ceased and was substituted by the collective responsibility. When the Athenians took pay to attend the theaters and feasted at public expense while the armies and navies were fighting, the days of freedom were numbered. When the Roman people cried for bread, the state, and not the individual, was the cause of their poverty. When the state undertook to care too intimately for the individual, the individual responsibility ceased and was substituted by the collective responsibility."

I will so develop the resources of the land, and so encourage invention, manufacture, and scientific distribution, that there shall be no more any famine.

When Everybody Eats Florida Citrus Fruits the Demand will Exceed the Supply

Citrus fruits are becoming necessities instead of luxuries. The people of the United States are learning their many merits and uses. Where formerly they were regarded solely as breakfast fruits, now they are eaten at other meals and used freely in cookery and confections. All this means a great deal for Florida, which grows the finest citrus fruits of the world. The production of her superior oranges and grapefruit can hardly keep pace with the inevitable increase in demand due to the above causes.

Buckeye Nurseries Catalog—A Citrus Handbook

All the problems that arise in the culture of oranges and grapefruit are fully covered in this book. It is how to select a location for the grove and describe the operations necessary to bring trees into profitable bearing. Everything is based on practical experience—there are no theories in the book given. No matter what citrus fruit you are growing or intend to plant, this book will be of service to you. It has been written to help alike the man with the grove and the man who expects to have one. Every person interested in the citrus industry of Florida is welcome to a copy of this book, printed at great expense. Write today for one—action is limited.

Surprise Party

To help her celebrate her eleventh birthday the young friends of Irene Norwood gave her a happy surprise party last evening. Irene's mamma who was "put wise" made numerous and long errands to get her little daughter away from the house, while the decorations and other preparations were in order.

When evening came, to more completely surprise the little lady she was given her "pound" with the information that a surprise party was being given Edna Williams. She started off gaily, but after the specified time had elapsed, while at a neighbor's home one little chap discovered that his package had been left at Irene's home. Returning to the house with this very forgetful young man Irene met the surprise of her life for there were the parlors beautifully decorated and about twenty young folks greeted her with bright and happy faces. They had brought with them plenty of "eats" which, added to the delicious fruit punch and cake prepared by Mrs. Norwood made a feast of good things which were much enjoyed by all present. Games and romps were the order of the evening and everybody had a fine time. Assisting Mrs. Norwood were Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. Williams, Miss Nita Moore, Miss Bessie Zachary and Miss Phillips. The children present were Irene Norwood, Cora Lee Tilly, Edna Battle, Edna Williams, Dorothy Rumph, Mamie K. to Williams, Anna DuRose, Maggie Pearl Smith, Robt. Miller made top score, winning a handsome bridge luncheon set. The cut prize fell to Mrs. A. P. Connelly. A dainty refreshment course was served. Members of the club present were Mesdames B. W. Hendon, C. O. McLaughlin, R. A. Newman, F. L. Miller, A. P. Connelly, S. Puleston, Miss Annie Hawkins substituting for Mrs. C. M. Vorce.

DE LAND CAPTURED BY BROTHERHOOD

A PEACEFUL INVASION OF CHRISTIAN HOSTS THE CAUSE OF MEETING

It was a peaceful invasion but nevertheless very successful when about fifty members of the Sanford Presbyterian Brotherhood class captured DeLand last Thursday night. The city having capitulated to superior numbers some of the leading representatives met the Sanford army on the outskirts of the city and to the sounding of horns and plenty of noise the ten Sanford cars swept over the city of DeLand and were taken out to the beautiful new park and country club at Blue Lake. After resting here and inspecting the property the party was taken back to the city and at 7 o'clock the Brotherhood of the DeLand Presbyterian church headed by the pastor, Rev. Clarence Frazar and many of the good ladies of the church gave them the usual warm-hearted DeLand welcome and in the Sunday school department a grand New England supper was given to the invaders. There was Boston baked beans especially prepared for Jack Davison, potato salad for D. L. Thresher, ham sandwiches for Mr. Henry Boston, pumpkin bread for Rev. Rosseter, pumpkin pie for Mr. and Mrs. Herby, doughnuts for Dr. and Mrs. Brownlee and coffee for everybody.

Although after the repast the crowd was too full for utterance they were forced to get up and do their best starts and recitations and speeches followed each other with startling rapidity considering the torpid feeling of those who had been so much. The crowd was so large that very little of the night was left to the hostesses. The DeLand Brotherhood returned last night to find the city in a state of confusion. Crushed by Elevator Orlando, Nov. 17. William M. Lee, secretary of the Florida Tract Society, a Seventh Day Adventist organization, with headquarters in this city, was almost instantly killed Sunday morning about 9 o'clock by being caught in the elevator shaft of the Yowell-Duckworth building.

A friend waited at the bottom of the elevator for him to go up, and as he did not return and it was nearing train time, he went up the stairs and found the body caught in a two-inch space between the floor and the elevator. He was running the elevator himself, and evidently did not manage it right and the elevator instantly crushed the life out of his body.

Cow Mothers Fawn Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 16.—James Wilson, farmer, wondered why his favorite cow was not giving milk. He followed her one morning and found the cow was mothering a fawn that had escaped from the state game preserve.

New Orleans Also New Orleans, La., Nov. 17. The New Orleans Cotton Exchange opened for unrestricted trading yesterday. This decision was reached by the board of governors of the exchange at a meeting called after it was announced the New York exchange would open on that date. The New York, New Orleans and Liverpool cotton future markets closed in the order named. The suspension was thought by many to be a matter of only a few days and the New York notice read, "closed until Tuesday."

The situation, however, became steadily worse, as nation after nation was drawn into the European war. Matters were complicated by the fall failure in New York and exporters found it impossible to move cotton because of the lack of vessels and a foreign exchange market. January cotton in New Orleans closed at 10.65 on July 31, a net loss for the short day's trading of seventy points, or $3.60 a bale. In the liquidation trading following the prohibition to seven cents but recently it recovered with trading going on between 7.50 and 7.90. The local spot market was reopened September 23 at 8.5-8 for middling, compared with 13.5-16 on July 31, a loss of practically 5 cents a pound, or $25 a bale. In the Dallas market prices worked down to six cents for middling, making a net profit of 10. This was the worst profit of the season.

RED CROSS FUND RECITAL NOV. 20

POSTPONED UNTIL FRIDAY NEXT, WITH BIGGER ATTRACTIONS

The Red Cross fund recital, which was to have taken place on Friday, Nov. 13, at the Stetson University, has been postponed until Friday, Nov. 20, at the same place. The postponement is due to the fact that the Stetson University has been unable to secure the necessary number of performers. The recital will feature a number of attractive musical numbers and will be given by a number of talented young people.

Prof. Forrester Dabney Carr, wrote on Wednesday that he had contracted a cold from which he was suffering. The fact was announced from the stage that evening but at that time it was not possible to say what would be the result. We are glad to inform friends of the recital that the public that they are not to be disappointed. Prof. Guevchenian is a tenor robusto of great power and sweetness as well as range, and his singing is a revelation. With every one when a singer is an artist and has the ability to entrance with his art, we believe a tenor is favorite, even to greater extent than a basso. Those who have the recital interests at hand are perfectly delighted at having the good fortune of securing this superb tenor.

We also have other fine attractions, to vary the program, among them our favorite, Miss Aspinwall and the Stetson College organist, Miss Evah A. Baker, who has been enjoyed by Sanford lovers of music on a previous occasion and will be welcomed with genuine delight.

We are to hear and enjoy Miss Deaderick of Rollins College, who is simply captivating in her line. Miss Bates, one of the most charming of contraltos, and Miss Ball, a brilliant pianist, both of Stetson, Mr. Berkeley Blackman, basso, of Rollins, and our home singers, Mrs. Mettner and Mr. Woodruff, will unite to give an unusually delightful evening of good music.

The recital is going to be far more entertaining than at first planned, as there will be more varied attractions than originally intended, and everything of high-class yet thoroughly pleasing to every ear attuned in the least to musical sweetness. The tickets already purchased will be good Friday evening next.

BUSINESS BETTER IN THE NORTH

THE FINANCIAL CENTERS REPORT THAT BETTER CONDITIONS ARE PREVAILING

New York, N. Y., Nov. 17. The financial condition grew stronger last week. This helped to improve the general business outlook and increased the volume of exchanges. Clearing house certificates were rapidly retired. Plans for opening the Federal Banks were made and the resultant sentiment was a pronounced factor in easing money rates. The gold movement to Ottawa was somewhat increased and cash in banks was decreased.

Important steps were taken toward removing restrictions in trading in securities and hope of an early reopening of the Stock Exchange, at least for dealings in cash were increased. The New York and the New Orleans cotton future markets will be reopened Monday and the local metal exchange is already under way.

When trading is resumed there will be a large volume of business. The reopening of the exchange will be a relief to the business community. The reopening of the exchange will be a relief to the business community.

COTTON EXCHANGE OPENED YESTERDAY

TRADING WILL BEGIN AND THE SOUTHERN STATES WILL BE GREATLY BENEFITTED

New York, N. Y., Nov. 17. The New York Cotton Exchange opened for unrestricted trading yesterday morning. The board of governors so voted Saturday. The decision to reopen the cotton exchange was reached at a special meeting of the board of managers and the announcement was greeted with enthusiasm on the floor of the exchange, which was crowded with members in anticipation of such a statement.

The announcement of the reopening marks the end of the most trying experience in the history of the exchange. Business on the exchange was suspended July 30 and great excitement resulting from the war in Europe, and after three failures which left an unliquidated interest of fully 80,000 bales. The situation was made more difficult by the existence of a large amount of unsettled business.

ASHLEY ESCAPES

WEST PALM BEACH, NOV. 17. JOHN ASHLEY, ALLEGED MURDERER OF DE SOTO TIGER, AN INDIAN, ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE, ESCAPED SATURDAY NIGHT AS HE WAS BEING TAKEN FROM THE COURT ROOM TO HIS CELL BY DEPUTY SHERIFF BOB BAKER, SON OF THE SHERIFF OF THIS COUNTY.

The fugitive, but can find no trace of him. Ashley made a break for liberty at the jail door while the officer was turning the lock. He was not handcuffed and disappeared instantly in the darkness. The deputy fired at the prisoner as he went over the fence in the rear of the jail. Sheriff Baker is prostrated over the affair and under a physician's care. He has offered a reward of $1,000 for Ashley dead or alive. It is believed that Ashley was picked up by a waiting automobile and that he is now in the Everglades. He is perfectly at home in these practically impassible swamps, and after killing the Indian, lived there for about two years, evading arrest.

The selection of a jury had occupied all of last week, and three ventures had been exhausted. A motion for change of venue to Dade county was to have been heard tomorrow. Ashley wanted to be tried in this county, and had stated that he would try to get away, rather than be tried at Miami.

APOPKA CITIZENS WANT RAILROAD

DELEGATION HERE TO INVESTIGATE THE CHANCES FOR A CHANGE

Apopka is anxious to see some facilities and has a delegation of citizens to go to the Commercial Club and the Board of Trade to investigate the chances for a change. The delegation will consist of Mr. W. C. Clark, Mr. H. H. Witherington, Mr. J. Lovell, Mr. D. W. Clark and Lester Waite. They looked into the matter thoroughly and were promised the support of the people of this city.

The Commercial Club will also work in conjunction with the Apopka Board of Trade on this important proposition and it is to be hoped that it can be put up at the A. C. L. in concrete form and that the company will act on it as soon as possible. Having direct connection with good live towns means that Sanford will become a greater wholesale center and all of interior Florida in the southern end of the peninsula will be shipping goods through the city on account of the St. Johns river water transportation.

FEDERAL AID TO FIGHT CANKER

SEN. FLETCHER ENLISTS SUPPORT FOR THE ORANGE GROWERS OF FLORIDA

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15. Senator Fletcher of Florida has succeeded in interesting the secretary of the department of agriculture of the federal government in the matter of proverbial federal aid to fight the citrus canker, a now and virulent disease that has appeared in a number of groves in various parts of Florida. As a result the next session of congress is almost certain to make an appropriation in this behalf, as Secretary Houston has promised to back up the Florida senator in his efforts along this line. There is no appropriation available for help at this time. The appropriation that will be asked by Mr. Fletcher, with the backing of Mr. Houston, is expected to be of sufficient amount to accomplish something of real benefit.

Senator Fletcher stated today in an interview with The Times correspondent that he fears that the naval stores market is opening abroad. The state department advised him today that the American consul at Mannheim, Germany, says tar-pentine is no longer considered contraband of war and is in great demand in Germany. During the present recess of congress the state department here has been advised that the American consul at Mannheim, Germany, says tar-pentine is no longer considered contraband of war and is in great demand in Germany.
