

Cliburn, Mikoyan Join In Songfest

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Only the piano and one of the singers gathered round made the event noteworthy.

But, it's not every group singing that has the talent of prize-winning Texan Van Cliburn at the piano and a mustached Russian vocalist named Anastas I. Mikoyan.

The incident occurred Monday night at the Russian embassy. Deputy Premier Mikoyan was the guest of honor at a reception given by the Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

The tall, slightly pale Cliburn was greeted with cheers and loud applause when he appeared at the party 10 minutes after it was scheduled to close. He strode straight to the piano and played first, with Mikoyan singing, "Moscow Nights."

Then came Liszt's Twelfth Rhapsody.

Cliburn won the Soviet Union's international Tschakowsky competition in Moscow last April.

Clubs, in a New York speech before the Eastern Frozen Foods Assn., said "consumers continued to buy our products in high volume despite increases brought on by the reduced supply."

He said "23 years of continuous advertising by the Citrus Commission in behalf of Florida citrus paid off handsomely."

Demos Not Scared By Ike's Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democratic congressional leaders were not frightened today by President Eisenhower's warning that they will be blamed if the government continues to spend more than it collects.

In the first place, they saw no real hope that the government—which is now running a record-high peacetime spending deficit of 13 billion dollars in the current fiscal year—could actually achieve the 70 million dollar surplus envisioned in the President's budget for the new fiscal year starting July 1.

In the second place, they figured the American people, given a choice, would rather have an unbalanced budget than accept the "austerity" program recommended by the President.

Welfare Spending Bills

Challenging Eisenhower to veto them, the Democrats pressed ahead with plans for early congressional action on three welfare-spending bills, any one of which could throw out of kilter the President's new precariously-balanced budget.

Two of these measures would provide bigger federal spending for housing programs and for economically-depressed areas than proposed by the President. The third called for a larger program of federal aid for building airports than the President proposed.

Youth Sentenced; Term 'Up To Him'

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—A 16-year-old boy accused of setting two buildings on fire today faced a prison term that may last 10 years, or may end in six months.

"It's up to you to convince them when you are ready to leave," a judge told Milton Lawson Luke of Gainesville.

Young Luke was sentenced in Circuit Court Monday for starting fires at the cafeteria of Buchholz High School and a nearby supply company warehouse last Sept. 28. There were no injuries but damages were estimated in the thousands of dollars.

The boy, who earlier served a term for arson at the Industrial School for Boys in Marianna, underwent extensive medical and psychiatric study before his latest trial.

"All the people you've been examined by say there is nothing wrong with your mind," said Judge John A. H. Murphree.

"You have plenty of sense. You just do these things to gain attention, I reckon."

Luke's sentence will be served at the Apalachee Correctional Institution at Chattahoochee.

11 Dead Due To Cold; Crops Survive

LAKELAND (UPI)—Florida's citrus and vegetable crops survived the state's coldest spell of the season with only minor damage, weather officials said today.

However, the cold wave was blamed for the death of at least 11 persons from fires, gas fumes or suffocation.

Temperatures were expected to climb into the balmy 70's today, with no more frost danger at least through Thursday. Early morning readings today were forecast from near 30 in the extreme north to near 50 in southern portions.

The Frost Warning Service here said the three-day cold wave which hit the state over the weekend did "rather severe" damage to tender truck crops in the Everglades region.

But thanks partly to precautionary measures by growers, most other areas were spared, forecasters said. That included the state's vast citrus groves.

General Manager Robert W. Rutledge of Florida Citrus Mutual said there was some leaf damage to young growth and to fruit in unprotected groves. But Forecaster Warren Johnson said extensive grove heating and use of wind machines apparently helped keep damage to a minimum.

In a preliminary report on the cold snap, the Frost Warning Service said some additional damage was done to vegetable crops in north and central portions, with "accumulative cold damage to tender truck crops rather severe in the Everglades and unprotected seed beds along the West Coast."

Strawberry blooms and berries received damage in the Plant City-Webster area, while unprotected home plantings and gardens suffered heavily in some isolated spots.

The cold spell broke Monday afternoon after temperatures again dropped below freezing early Monday morning. Readings as low as 23 were reported in a few low isolated spots.

Among the latest victims of the cold spell was a seven-month-old Negro girl who smothered near

Lowell, early Monday after her parents took her to bed with them to keep warm. Ten others died over the weekend.

The Miami Weather Bureau said temperatures probably will average about five degrees below normal for the next five days, with normals ranging from 65 to 78 in the day and 42 to 65 at night.

"It will be a little cooler again about Thursday, but nothing like the weather over the past weekend," said Forecaster Philip Ackerman.

Two Homes Burn; Subdivision Saved

Navy and Lake Mary fire trucks today were given credit for saving the Lockhart Subdivision last night when flames consumed two dwellings and threatened the entire area.

After an oil heater exploded in a large, two-story frame house on Alexander Ave., a fire quickly spread through the house and leaped to the neighboring dwelling. Two other frame houses on the street were reported as scorched. A lumber yard in the neighborhood was not touched.

A Navy tanker answered the call at 6:08. Fire Chief C. M.

Whitten sent for a pumper after arriving at the scene. The 750-gallon pumper rushed to the area (just off Grapeville, near Country Club Road), and with the help of the Lake Mary Fire Department, the fire was controlled in 30 minutes.

Whitten said this morning, "The whole area would have gone up in conflagration if we hadn't gotten there when we did. The houses were surrounded by frame dwellings. Today, there might not have been a Lockhart or Goldsboro."

Whitten praised the Lake Mary volunteer firemen for their assistance in getting down the neighboring dwellings and exposed area. He also commended Constable Slim Galloway for handling traffic and keeping back a curious crowd which formed almost immediately.

The two-story building was owned by Mrs. Lilla Fouka. The first floor was used as a best garden, with living quarters in the upper story. The two burned homes, which are in a Negro section, were demolished.

Answering the call with Chief Whitten from the Naval Air Station were J. H. Lee, J. E. Roussau, W. H. Brown, Samuel Gay, John Toner, and two Seabees, R. C. Williams and A. Luke.

Six men accompanied Ed Zimmerman on the Lake Mary truck. The firemen were all volunteers and serve a two-mile area around Lake Mary.

Galloway told a Herald reporter this morning, "We really appreciate the protection given us out here by the Navy and the Lake Mary Fire Department. They did a wonderful job of controlling the fire and should be commended for it. Had the fire not been checked, the results would have been disastrous."

Chief Whitten said that most of the damage had been done before the truck arrived.

In Sanford, They Wonder About Sanford (Florida)

In Sanford, N. C., they wonder about us in Sanford, Fla.

There are many similarities between the two cities; even to the name of the newspaper. The North Carolina paper carries the name of The Sanford Daily Herald.

Charles Preslar, editor of The Herald (N. C.), has written The Herald here, asking for information about the town, and offering a swap of stories and pictures.

The letter stemmed from an incident in a Sanford, N. C. cafe, when Editor Preslar saw a stranger (They do stick out, don't they?), discussing his paper with the proprietor. She evidently was amazed that the North Carolina town also had a Sanford Herald. So, she must have been one of our Sanforites.

Sanford, N. C., has a population of 13,750, and is a shipping and industrial center, 40 miles southwest of Raleigh. The principal shopping center has six blocks of chain stores and independent merchants.

There are six neighborhood shopping centers. With 207 stores, sales average $19,841,000. Average sales in Sanford, Fla. are $18,093,000, with 231 stores. Sanford, N. C., must shop at home.

Freshmen Attend School To Learn Ways Of Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Being a member of Congress is getting so complicated that House freshmen this year are going to school to learn the ropes.

Much of the advice they are getting boils down to one word: Don't.

Don't talk until you have something to say. Don't try to make every cocktail party in town. Don't put your feet up on the seat of the fellow in front.

Free advice for new members of Congress has always been plentiful and often has been worth what is cost. The school is an innovation, and most of the students are ready to give it a cheer.

"Extremely helpful," said Rep. David S. King (D-Utah), who last week to school in 1947.

Heretofore, first-terms, after kind words and a pat on the back from congressional leaders, have been left to sink or swim. As a result even some old-timers never have learned more than a legislative dog-paddle.

The 18 new senators, as in the past, are getting their education informally. Senate employees serve as instructors.

But there are so many freshmen members of the House that it was decided to set up a special school they could attend.

About 60 new members have been attending the five-day orientation course suggested by older members who had to learn the hard way. Classes on the rules, tradition, and folkways of the House have been held in an auditorium in the Library of Congress at 2 p. m. daily.

Like Budget Called 'Very Near Fraud'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Democratic Advisory Council today criticized President Eisenhower's 1950 budget as a combination of "defeat, deception and denial" that comes so close to being a "fraud" on the American people.

It also predicted the Democratic-controlled Congress would increase spending to meet foreign and domestic needs allegedly ignored by the budget.

The council, which includes former President Harry S. Truman and two-time nominee Adlai E. Stevenson, said no country could afford to base its policies on "such false reasoning and foolish inconsistencies" as presented in the narrowly balanced 71-billion dollar budget.

It sharply rejected the President's "attempts to justify" his claims that it is balanced.

The council's three-page statement argued that a budget that "does not meet the economic needs of the nation and the people cannot meet the financial needs of the treasury."

Democratic leaders Tuesday accused Eisenhower of misrepresenting his budget by leading the people to believe it would clear the way for a tax cut.

Two Cars Collide; One Bounced Off, Hits Parked Auto

Robert Byron Meyer, Sanford Naval Air Station, caused considerable damage last night when he failed to stop at the intersection of 24th St. and Elm Ave.

Meyer drove into the path of a northbound automobile on Elm, bounced off and skidded into a parked car, officers said.

Damage was estimated at $400 on the car driven by Mrs. Irene Crosthwaite Jones. The parked car, owned by Mrs. Gayle Naomi Moss, sustained damages of $150. Meyer's convertible was hurt to the tune of $100 and he was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control by Sheriff's Deputy L. J. Kria.

The accident occurred at 6:30 p. m. Kria said the Ross car was parked off the street.

Birthday Blowout Erupts With Roar

YEOVIL, England (UPI)—James Batstone made a big impression on his birthday.

He and two friends detonated a birthday bomb of their own making that blew a huge crater in James' yard and blasted chunks of iron a quarter of a mile.

The three celebrants were hauled into court, given a lecture and a year's probation.

Judge Gets Robes; Court In Session

The fall term of Circuit Court continued today with Judge Volie Williams Jr. wearing his new judicial robes. Civil cases will be tried until Jan. 27.

First on the docket at 10 a. m. was a damage suit against Riley Truck Co. The plaintiff, Charles H. Johnson, is suing for $10,800. The case is the result of a trucking automobile accident nearly a year ago.

Health Dept. Hampered, County Commission Told

The County Health Department is hampered by poor facilities, Dr. John Thurmond told County Commissioners yesterday.

"We want to stir up some interest in our new buildings with our present equipment and room we are unable to carry out most of our functions," the doctor said.

Dr. Thurmond cited the need for an X-ray machine, "so we can be sure that the people who serve you food in public eating places don't have TB."

Further needs included a well baby clinic, heart clinic and office space.

"We have the money, and certainly are interested in the building," John Krider, board chairman, told Thurmond. "We will set

King's Attorneys Ask For Evidence

BARTOW (UPI)—Defense attorneys for former state Sen. Harry King, on trial for perjury in a political pay-off scandal, today demanded the right to examine secret statements by the state's two star witnesses.

Judge Roy H. Amidon took the defense motion under advisement and both sides continued the tedious process of selecting a six-man jury for the trial.

King is accused of conspiring with two former Polk County deputy sheriffs—James Busbee and Hollie Arnold—to lie before a grand jury. The jury was investigating a charge that King gave former state Rep. Boone Tillet $10,000 not to oppose him for the Senate.

Busbee and Arnold pleaded guilty in their second trial for perjury and the state had summoned them as its star witnesses in King's second trial.

Mikoyan's Failure Expected To Bring Berlin Pressure

LONDON (UPI)—The apparent failure of Soviet Deputy Premier Nikita Khrushchev's mission to the United States may lead to new Soviet pressure on Berlin, diplomatic sources said here today.

They said Mikoyan's angry attack on the U.S. State Department that climaxed his tour probably was the starting signal of a new tough policy line which Premier Nikita Khrushchev may outline in detail before the 21st Communist Party congress opening in Moscow next Tuesday.

The diplomats said Mikoyan delivered his blast on direct orders from Khrushchev, who, they believe, wants to exploit Mikoyan's visit to support tougher and more sweeping internal economic and political measures and a more stringent foreign policy.

There was some uneasiness that Moscow might even advance its own withdrawal from East Berlin, which could make the entire Berlin issue more acute.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told Parliament Tuesday that his country was ready to take up Russia's proposal of new East-West talks on Germany.

West German Foreign Minister Lohy promptly replied that the polonium 210 used in the device was contained in a triple jacket that assured "complete safety."

Lapp said the generator contained an immense amount of one of the most potent radioactive poisons. He said the original model probably was safe, but warned of its use in space rockets.

Lapp said in a letter printed in the Washington Post and Times Herald, "If all the polonium in the gadget taken to the White House were released, it would constitute a radiation hazard such that Washington would have to be evacuated for years. The power source placed before the President contained 10 billion lethal units of polonium."

Atomic Generator Termed 'Lethal,' Radiation Hazard

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A nuclear scientist and the Atomic Energy Commission were at odds today over whether a live-joint atomic generator unveiled by President Eisenhower was a radiation hazard.

Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, a physicist and author who frequently has clashed with the AEC, said the live generator which was shown to newsmen at the White House last week carried enough lethal radiation in its power source to make Washington uninhabitable for years.

AEC Commissioner Willard P. Laby promptly replied that the polonium 210 used in the device was contained in a triple jacket that assured "complete safety."

Lapp said the generator contained an immense amount of one of the most potent radioactive poisons. He said the original model probably was safe, but warned of its use in space rockets.

Buses Integrated In Atlanta Today

ATLANTA (UPI)—Racial integration of Atlanta buses was accomplished peacefully today.

Backed up by a federal court order declaring segregated seating unconstitutional, Negroes began sitting where they desired.

In practically all cases, Negroes chose to sit where they were accustomed to in the rear section of the city's many trackless trolleys and buses.

Several trolleys were sighted, however, with Negroes occupying front seats and white passengers the middle or rear sections.

A spokesman for the Atlanta Transit Co. said there had been no incidents. Police officials backed up that observation.

Gov. Ernest Vandiver said he was being "kept informed" of the situation but reported his informants said there had been no attempt at desegregation during the early morning rush hours.

Vandiver would not say whether the state planned any action in an attempt to enforce segregated seating despite court orders. His predecessor, Marvin Griffin, contended that the state could intervene on grounds of keeping the peace.

Little Rock Asks Schools' Opening

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—The Little Rock School Board decided today to ask federal district court to allow it to open the city's four closed public high schools on a segregated basis by Jan. 26 and to let the board assume full responsibility.

The board promised to come up with some plan to operate the schools under decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court not later than Aug. 15. The board did not indicate if the plan would be for operation on an integrated basis, but it scuttled the Blossom plan of gradual integration.

Today's action was in reply to a recent order by Federal District Judge John E. Miller to develop a plan within 30 days to operate the schools integrated.

Gov. Orval F. Faubus kept the schools closed last September to prevent their mixing the races.

The board said it was both willing to accept to explode "with deliberate speed" all avenues which could lead to a lasting solution and one which would be acceptable to the court.

Board President Ed L. McKinley, elected to the board in August and as a segregationist, said the governor had indicated he would approve the plan.

Cecil DeMille Dies Of Heart Attack

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Movie titan Cecil B. DeMille, one of the founding fathers of Hollywood and a leader in its development for nearly half a century, died today at the age of 77 of a heart attack.

The slight, balding tycoon, known throughout the world for such biblical epics as "The Ten Commandments," produced 70 films since opening Hollywood's first feature movie studio with Sam Goldwyn and Jesse L. Lasky in 1913.

With the famed movie man when he died at 5:30 a. m. were his physician, Dr. Hans Schiff, his daughter, Cecilia, and son-in-law Joseph Harper. DeMille's widow, Constance, has been in ill health recently.

DeMille, frequently referred to as a giant among the giants of Hollywood, was born Aug. 12, 1881, at Ashfield, Mass.

The family name was spelled De Mil when its first member arrived in the new world from Holland in 1628. DeMille's mother was born in England.

Childhood Training
DeMille, often praised for his films based on the Bible such as "The Ten Commandments" (1923 and 1936), "The Sign of the Cross" (1932) and "Samson and Delilah" (1949), was influenced greatly by his father, a playwright. It was a nightly custom for the DeMille boys—Cecil and his brother, William—and their father to read about two chapters of the Bible plus a chapter on American, English or French history.

County Hires Firm For Growth Survey

A 10-year program for building and improvements in Seminole County may be presented soon, following a decision by County Commissioners in an afternoon session yesterday.

The Commission authorized the employment of Gamble and Rogers, engineering firm. The firm will prepare a survey of the county, and will submit a suggested improvement plan, including public buildings, zoning laws and road projects. The suggestion will aid commissioners in planning for growth of Seminole County.

The board discussed county roads without reaching any decision on priority. Each commissioner will submit a new priority list for road construction and repairs in his district.

22 More Executed; 500,000 Gather To Roar Approval

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI)—An estimated 500,000 Cubans massed before the presidential palace today to roar their approval of revolutionary justice. Havana was a holiday air, but at least 22 more executions were reported from the interior.

The rally was called by Fidel Castro as a demonstration of the people's support for the provisional government's series of "war crimes" trials against the followers of ousted Dictator Fulgencio Batista.

Already, more than 300 persons have died before firing squads as a result of these summary trials. Castro has said 400 to 450 will die before the trials are finished.

Army officials here said that a total of 1,450 will be tried in a new series of trials scheduled to begin in Havana Thursday. About 600 of these are held in Havana's Cabana fortress.

Congressmen Arrive
The summary nature of the trials to date has brought sharp criticism from abroad, particularly from the United States. Cuban leaders retorted with accusations of U.S. "meddling" in their affairs.

Two U.S. congressmen and a group of American newsmen were flown here to witness events in Cuba since Batista's overthrow Jan. 1. Delegations of newsmen from other countries also have been brought in.

Twelve men were executed by firing squads in Pinar Del Rio this morning. Three others also condemned to death there were spared until further evidence can be brought against them. Eight others were executed at Jiguani and two at Cardenas.

Girl Scout News Told

The latest activity of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 284 was hostess duty at a regular monthly school dance at the USO on January 16. This is part of the requirements for the dance badge.

The girls served refreshments of sandwiches, punch, and a large cake decorated in the Girl Scout theme. Clean up duty followed the dance.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Johnson, Chief and Mrs. F. E. Cooper and Lcdr. and Mrs. B. J. Haccash. Also present were the troop leader, Mrs. C. Fernandez Jr., and the assistant leader, Mrs. H. A. Shield.

Jaycee Wives Have Meeting

The Jaycee Wives Club will assist the Jaycees with the Victor Borge concert scheduled for January 31.

The regular monthly meeting of the club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Betty McKee. Hostesses were Mrs. Fay Stetson and Mrs. Jane Keeling.

It was announced that the club was to have a recent plastic ware party. The group will receive a $35 check for assisting the Jaycees in the sale of Christmas trees.

Mrs. Robert Parker, a cosmetologist, gave a demonstration on skin care and make-up.

The hostess prize was won by Mrs. Betty Erikson, a new member. The next meeting will be held Feb. 2 at the home of Mrs. Lou McDonald on French Ave.

Hostesses will be Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Billie Burke.

Bethany Class Meets — The Bethany Class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lewis Monday night.

Mrs. H. E. Taffer showed the class gifts that are being donated to a needy individual. A bud vase was presented to Mrs. Gustave Bamberger, class member who is moving to Melbourne.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Bamberger. It was agreed that members of the class will present the devotion each month. Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, class teacher, discussed the church study course on the Book of Mark.

The 14 women present enjoyed a game of charades. Refreshments of pie, coffee, nuts, and fruit were served.

Girl Scout Council Meets Monday Night

The neighborhood meeting of Seminole County Girl Scouts was held Monday night at the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Randall Chase presided. She was unanimously re-elected as president for this year.

Brack L. Perkins reported that the scout funds would be seriously curtailed by the United Fund failure to reach its goal. This leaves the scout organization with a third less funds than had been anticipated.

The main interest of the evening developed when Mrs. L. R. Bauer presented her ideas for programs for Girl Scout Week, March 8-14. Tentatively selected was a plan to elect one representative from each troop to serve one and a half hours in each of the 27 local, city, county, and state offices.

This will carry on the year's theme of "Citizenship at Home and Abroad." Each representative will report to her troop the knowledge gained through first hand experiences with local government in action.

The final activity of the week will be a camporee of all Intermediate and Senior troops at Ticochee over the weekend of the 14th of March. A picnic for all Brownie troops would be held on the same day. Brownies are not permitted on overnights.

It is hoped that plans can be completed for these activities.

CAMELLIA CIRCLE

Azaleas and camellias grow throughout the southern states, northern and central Florida. However in central Florida, they require some protection from the summer sun. Planted in the shade of larger trees and shrubs they grow best.

The ideal planting mix for these shrubs is 1/3 peat moss, 1/3 acid soil and 1/3 leaf mold. In soil that has a tendency to be heavy, sand should be substituted for leaf mold. These plants are shallow rooted and should not be planted in too large a hole. The planting level should be about 1/2 inch below ground level and preferably on a slope.

Cultivating around azaleas and camellias should be kept to a minimum because of their shallow roots. Weeds should be controlled by pulling to remove rather than hoeing. Adding mulch such as oak leaves will also help to hinder growth of weeds and add moisture to the plant.

Camellias and azaleas are acid loving plants and should be fertilized with specially formulated acid containing fertilizers. The best time for fertilizing is after blooming, repeating the application every month up to September.

Insects that attack azaleas and camellias are grasshoppers, caterpillars, beetles, weevils, aphids, lace bug, white fly, red spider and scale. These can be kept under control by using spray three times a year, covering the entire plant and surrounding ground area.

A common disease of azaleas and camellias is flower rot or flower blight. The appearance of small, brownish spots on the bloom is the first sign of this disease. Under most conditions the spots enlarge and sometimes cover the bloom. The last stage of the disease is the bloom turns completely brown and falls to the ground. There it continues to infect the area around it and other plants.

To control flower rot the plant should be sprayed with a fungicide, weekly during blooming. Burn the fallen blooms or bury them and spray the surrounding soil.

Moisture is most important to both azaleas and camellias. Keeping the soil moist, is preferable to heavy soakings. Pine needles, acid peat and leaf mold all help to conserve moisture. Over watering rots the roots and it is as severe as no water at all. Plants can't live in soggy soil. If you live in an area where sulphur water is used for your garden, it is advisable to water around the bottom of the plant and not spray the entire plant. If sprinkling is necessary have the spray high enough to aerate the water, therefore removing some of the plant damaging sulphur. Better care of your shrubs means more beautiful gardens.

Successful Merchant Seeks New Customers

The merchant who goes after the customer is the merchant who gets the business.

This was one of the important statements of Norman B. Thomson, College of Business Administration faculty member at the University of Florida, in a speech to the Rotary Club.

Thomson said that 1959 will reward those who are prepared to do a good merchandising job. Customers cannot be secured by those who sit idly by and do nothing, the speaker told Rotarians.

Club members were told that the business outlook for 1959 can be measured, to a great degree, by the personal outlook of the individual merchant.

Good merchandising, advertising, selling and promotion were points emphasized as necessary to a successful sales campaign this year.

This, of course, is something the average man knows. Coming from an economist of Thomson's stature, however, more weight is added to the advice. Thomson is a member of the American Economic Association, the American Finance Association and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, among other organizations.

The mucky-duck-taxes total in 1959 is expected to set a new record; the amount of money spent by consumers is expected to be the highest in history.

An average merchant, looking at these figures, might be tempted to sit back and tell himself: "If this is true, I'll get my share." Such an attitude, however, is dangerous, according to Thomson. In the business recession of last year, the total spent was not the big news. It was not a matter of not spending on the part of the public, it was a matter of money spent for items not purchased before, Thomson said.

Merchants, therefore, can't afford to depend on average for their success in '59. They must wage an active campaign to get new customers, keep present customers.

This is good advice for local merchants, now engaged in a trade-at-home campaign. Aggressive selling, competitive prices, good merchandise and advertising will do the

School To Disappear

The County School Board has authorized demolition of the building formerly occupied by Sanford Junior High School.

Condemned first in 1947, the two-story structure at Ninth and Palmetto was vacated at the close of the 1957-58 school year. The newer part of the building, constructed in the 1920's, will be left standing. It will be utilized by the Vocational School.

The School Board accepted a bid of $3,650 to demolish the school. School officials had hoped that materials from the building might be salvaged, or that a wrecking company might pay the board for the privilege of tearing the building down.

Salvage potential is so low, however, that would not be a profitable venture for wrecking firms.

An engineering firm last year told the School Board that the walls were in such a poor state of repair that fire escapes could not be installed, and that concentrated movement in the building might bring about total collapse.

The building served its purpose in its time. Now, it will come down. Such is progress.

Counsel Service Elects Officers

Dr. W. J. Brooks has been elected chairman of the Board of Directors for the Family Counseling Service.

The recently-formed board will promote the operation of the Counseling Service, which was established in 1957.

Judge Wilson Alexander will serve as vice-chairman, Mrs. V. C. Messenger as secretary and Mrs. B. E. Chapman as treasurer.

The Board of Directors met recently at the First Baptist Church to discuss the future of the service. Others attending the meeting were Mrs. R. F. Cooper, Mrs. A. R. Key, Mrs. C. L. Park Sr. and the Rev. T. C. O'Brien.

ANOTHER CREW CUT?

Inez Robb Says

BY INEZ ROBB

Well, sir, I don't flatter myself easily. But I never expected to see the day when a young mother would be the subject of scarcely veiled criticism because her infant was unexpectedly offered a piece of candy by a politician, even though the politician is Anastas I. Mikoyan!

But jingoism is having a field day now that the Soviet Premier is touring the United States. I have just read a censorious piece in the mother whose hapless infant was a tempting object for Mikoyan and a piece of candy when the latter visited a super market on the edge of Washington, D. C.

Apparently the mother, if she had been a true-blue American would have spat in Mikoyan's face and the infant, if it had been a 100 percent American, would have instantly fawned up on the deputy premier.

Just how chauvinistic can you get? Even the manager of the supermarket got his jumbo because he smiled politely at the Russian party when it made its unexpected visit to his bawliwick. Presumably, he should have run for the egg bin and started pelting Mikoyan.

Every American knows Mikoyan for what he is, a ruthless Communist with all that implies. But he is a guest in the United States, if not an official guest of the United States. And no less a person than President Eisenhower himself, whom, I presume, even the jingists exempt from any charge of softness toward communism, has asked the nation and its people to receive him politely. Not cordially, just with civility.

Mikoyan is no ordinary tourist, as he claims. He is here as the eyes and ears of his master, Khrushchev. He is only too obviously in the United States to gauge the political climate, to sense our firmness of purpose, our unity as a nation, our industrial capacities, and the sternness of our will to preserve democracy at any cost.

When he goes back to the Kremlin, I would like to believe that he will report that we are 100 percent in all these qualities. And I do not want his judgment warped by hatred engendered by incivility and rudeness at every turn. One does not even have to be moderately well acquainted with history to know that the course of world events has been changed more often by wounded vanity and outraged feelings than by all the conference tables in captivity.

It is not at all improbable that Mikoyan's visit can be one of the turning points in history, if he goes home and reports to Khrushchev this nation, powerful and united, and as he sees it — a nation confident, unafraid and willing to defend what it passionately believes to be right.

But the jingists are beginning to move in. They are beginning to question the motives of even a baby who received a piece of candy from Mikoyan, much less the business and industrial leaders who have been invited to meet him. How soon will it be, if the chauvinists have their way, before these men are called in Washington to explain why they broke bread with the Russian or showed him the powerful sinews of America in, say, Detroit?

Give the chauvinists their way, and the same kind of spitting, murderous rabble that endangered Vice President Nixon in South America will be threatening Mikoyan.

It is one woman's opinion that in this delicate diplomatic maneuver, because that is what Mikoyan's visit is, we can do without the jingists who continually shout, "Look at me! My father is more anti-Communist than your father and he can lick any other anti-Communist in our alley." It is pretty tiresome stuff when even babies are interdicted.

Conference Held Here By Veterans

The Seventh District Conference of the Veterans of World War One was held in the Sanford Civic Center.

Members of the Auxiliary joined the veterans in registration and preliminary exercises conducted by Joel S. Field, Commander, Sanford Barracks No. 486.

"To the Colors" was played by Miss Vivian Ferrell, first clarinetist of the Seminole High School Band. Mrs. Ed Ludecke of the Sanford Auxiliary played the piano as the entire audience sang The Star Spangled Banner.

More than 150 veterans and Auxiliary members were welcomed by Mayor Al Wilson, and John Kriner, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.

New officers were installed by the veterans. The Auxiliary conducted a memorial service for Mrs. Mildred Wild, former president of the Sanford Chapter. Mrs. Wild died last December.

Dinner was served by the Sanford Auxiliaries in the Campbell Leasing Building following the business meeting.

The next conference will be held April 15 in Deland.

Seminoles Defeat Lakeview, 49-36

By JERRY COVINGTON
The Sanford Seminoles picked up their second OBC victory in a row here last night, defeating the Lakeview Red Devils, 49-36.

In the JV contest a bigger and more experienced squad handed the local junior varsity its second loss of the season, 42-29.

In the varsity game coach Bud Lauer's squad made its best showing of the season to date, dominating the defensive work was the best of the season and the six-foot forwards of Lakeview practically were useless.

With the improvement shown here last night the Seminole squad should be a top contender when the OBC tournament comes about next month. It looks as though the attack has finally "jelled."

All-OBC guard Ray Lundquist put on a one-man show, pacing his squad with 21 points. He was a great performer all evening on defense and had the opposing guards on the run. In the final period he staged a one-man freeze against the Red Devils. He hit from the outside, inside and made seven of nine free throws.

He is, without doubt, the best to be seen in many years. As a freshman he made the varsity at Seminole, and although he only stands about 53, there never has been any better at the local school.

Although Jimmy Gracey experienced his coolest night of the season, the 6-foot senior played one of his best ball games. He controlled the board on his side and played a great defensive ball game. Last week against Leesburg he set a new scoring record with 31 points.

Alex and Clifford McKibbin, the Seminole brother act, also played a big role. Each hit for 10 points. Cliff has found the range now and has hit in double figures in the last three outings. Alex was the top rebounder for the evening and did not give his man much of a chance at the hoop. Both are quick thinkers and will be a big help when the tournaments arrive next month.

In the JV contest, the Lakeview squad had a great height advantage but Coach Silvers' lads still made it a ball game. They now hold a fine 9-2 record with half the season remaining. The locals were paced by Sophomore Mike Roberts with 15 points.

The Seminoles will play here again Friday, when they face Florida Military School in a return engagement doubleheader. In the first meeting, the Seminoles took both games with little difficulty.

Red Sox: Pitching Holds Key

EDITORS NOTE: This is the eighth of 16 dispatches by the major league managers giving mid-winter appraisals of their teams.

By MIKE HIGGINS
Manager, Boston Red Sox
Written For UPI

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Pitching, just like last year, holds the key to the Red Sox' fate in 1939.

Our pitching didn't come up to expectations last season, what with Tom Brewer and Willard Nixon getting away to slow starts and Nixon eventually having to go home with his bad arm.

At that, we finished third at though the Delock's 14.8 won-loss record was the highest on the staff. He was 10-0 as a reliever, then slumped as a starter.

Nixon still remains a big question mark, but we should get better performances from Brewer (12-12), Frank Sullivan (13-9), Dave Sider (8-9) and possibly from Delock.

Then, too, Ted Bowfield, who beat the Yankees three times among his four victories, and Bill Monbouquette (3-3) could develop into starters on the basis of what they showed last year after being brought in from Minneapolis.

Others Show Promise
And Herb Moford, whom we obtained from Detroit, is a better pitcher than his 4-9 record with the Tigers would indicate. He had six complete games and his 11 starts and had a 3.60 earned run average.

Frank Bauman, who wasn't at all consistent last season, could also come around and live up to the promise he showed in three real good games. Then, there's Murray Wall and Leo Kiehl for good relief duty and a couple of promising lefties up from Memphis—Dean Stone and Tom Bourland.

Elsewhere, the Red Sox should have more punch than a year ago. The reason should be Vic Wertz, for whom we gave up Jim Piersall in a trade, and maybe Jim Busby, for whom we traded Billy Klaus.

Wertz has had some fabulous days—against us in Boston, now, maybe we can get that help for our side.

We need help on the road. We couldn't win away from home last year, losing 32 against only 22 victories after nearly a 50-50 break the year before.

Wertz will go at first base with Dick Giernert, who hit .237 and year and isn't apt to need relief. At short, Don Buldin should be over the rustiness acquired during two years in service and be more consistent than last year. He should be a 250 or 270 hitter instead of .237.

Williams and Jackie Jensen, the RBI king with 122 and 33 home runs being his 286 average, are fixtures in left and right field.

And, Busby, a fine base runner, might return to the form of two or three years ago with the change of scenery and improve on that .232 he had with the Orioles. He or Gene Stephens will be in center.

Sammy White and Pete Daley return behind the plate and could get some stiff competition from Heywood Sullivan if the youngster recovers from a disc operation that cut him down last year after a good spring.

So, we shouldn't finish any lower than a year ago. And, if both Wertz and the pitching come through, we could be right in there battling for the No. 1 spot.

United Press International
Rob Pettit is determined to rewrite the National Basketball Association record book.

The former Louisiana State All-American set the season's scoring high mark Tuesday night when he netted 52 points to give the St. Louis Hawks a 119-114 victory over the Boston Celtics.

Cincinnati trimmed New York, 114-108, in the opener of a doubleheader at St. Louis.

Pettit, the NBA's leading scorer, broke his own previous season high of 51 and established a Kiel Auditorium record as he poured in 32 points in the first half for a 63-55 St. Louis lead at intermission.

The Celtics, with Rob Cousy recovering from a second period leg injury, battled back to trail 37-41 late in the third period. Pettit, however, led a Hawks rally that carried St. Louis to a 100-86 lead.

The Royals staged a last period scoring surge against New York as they netted 12 of the last 17 points. Jack Teyman, of Cincinnati, the NBA's third leading scorer, dropped in 20 points on nine field goals and 12 free throws. Frank Selvy paced New York with 21.

Furnituremen Cop Three Games In Sanford Bowling

Mather of Sanford tacked down its claim to fourth place in the Sanford City Bowling League last week as it swept three games from fifth-place Celery City Printing.

Mather and Celery City both were led by 503 series, with Al DePalma rolling the score for the Furnituremen and Captain Bob Steele topping the same number of pins for the Printers.

In other league action, Paul Perold led Bukar's Music Shop to a two-one victory over league-leading Burnett Painters, closing the Painters' gap by one game. Perold rolled 484, while the Painters were led by Don Stietler's 501. New York Life Insurance also closed on the Painters by taking two games from Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners. Jesse Cook led the Insurers with a 529 series. Bill Kaeze rolled a 314 for the losers.

"Spill-shrinkers" for the night were Bob Borsdorf with a 5-7 pick-up, Bill Kaeze and Gerry Fox with a five and dime to their credit, Larry Pivec with a 4-57, John Harrison with a 5-79, Hank Kreutzer with a 3-7, and Carl Von Herbulis, who got the 3-7-10.

"Match of the Week" tonight will be on alloys 5 and 8, where New York Life Insurance will try to cut the lead of Burnett a little more. Lanes one and two will have Celery City Printing against Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners, and Mather of Sanford will try to continue its "maple mastery" against Bukar's Music Shop on three and four.

Averages for the league after last week's bowling are:

DePalma and Fox at 145, Richards—164, Von Herbulis, Best, Wheeler, and Stietler at 162, Kaeze and Maloney at 161, and Steele at 160. Perold, Callan, and Cook at 158. Swann—158, Bukar—157, Ferguson and Kerns at 156, Ring, Kreutzer, Rucenstein, Pivec, and Galtzap at 154, Kirschhoff and B. Borsdorf at 153, Huhn—152, and Hoiler at 150.

Burnett, Proctor, and Herbst at 149, Brown—148, Madeira—147, Pierey—145, Estridge—143, Harrison—131, O. Borsdorf—128, and Prescott—117.

Lyman Cagers Lose In Final Quarter

The Mt. Dora Bible Bulldogs edged out the Lyman basketball squad, 58-40, last night at Mt. Dora.

Leading by two points at the end of the third quarter, Lyman went down in defeat when it could score only one point in the final quarter of the game.

Lyman's Newell contributed 17 points for the team, making him high point man. Close behind was Tennant with 11 points.

J. Pickren was high point man for the Mt. Dora team with 16 points followed by Padgett with 13.

More than 14 million Americans are over 65.

Titusville Breaks Oviedo Win String

For the first time in 17 years, Oviedo last night lost a basketball game to Titusville.

Trailing by one point, 9-8, at the end of the first quarter, Oviedo just couldn't pull out in the remainder of the game. The final score was 31-38.

Mike Duda led the Oviedo team as high point man with 16 points, followed by Jimmy Brookshire with nine. Titusville's Dick Morecraft was high point man with 27.

For Oviedo, Joe Duda had 6, Wayne Kelsey four and Alfred three.

Mays 'Satisfied,' Hopes For Pennant

United Press International
Willie Mays, "definitely satisfied" with a new $40,000 contract, looked forward today to a "steady 340 season" and a possible National League pennant for the San Francisco Giants.

"We have a good chance for the pennant because the young players who helped us so much last season should be better," said the brilliant, 27-year-old center-fielder. "I'll be satisfied if I can have a good steady season and wind up around 340."

Mays hit .341 and missed his 210-pound batting championship by only three points last year but conceded, "I dropped a lot in the middle of the season." Willie was hitting more than 400 at the end of May but then went into a long slump that didn't end until September.

Willie's new contract makes his second only to Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals. ($100,000) on the National League pay scale.

Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox is estimated to receive about $125,000 and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees is believed to be getting for $85,000. Mays' 1938 contract was estimated at $75,000.

On other fronts:

—The Pirates signed "hard luck" pitcher Ronnie Kline, a 210-pound fast-baller who had a 13-16 record but who lost four games by one run and three by two runs. He is regarded as a potential 20-game winner.

—Veteran outfielder Carl Furillo, pitcher Bob Gialombardo and first baseman Jim Gentile signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

—First baseman Mickey Vernon, 41, signed with the Cleveland Indians for his 20th season in major league baseball.

—First baseman Frank Torre became the sixth member of the Braves to agree to terms. He alternated with Joe Adcock last season but is expected to take over the regular job this year.

—Pitcher Willard Schmidt, outfielder Bob Thurman and infielder Bobby Henrich signed with the Cincinnati Reds and Dick Harris, 25-year-old son of General Manager Bucky Harris of the Boston Red Sox, signed with Washington—the club Bucky started with in 1919.

Ervin Says State Needs To Broaden Assignment Laws

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin says segregation rulings in other states point up a clear need for broadening Florida's own Pupil Assignment Law.

Ervin said Tuesday he will call on the next Legislature to make changes and additions in the present law, adopted in 1956, to slow down racial integration.

He also said he could ask for an amendment to the Constitution authorizing the state to pay tuition grants for youngsters to receive private schooling.

Ervin said Florida's law should be more closely patterned after one in Alabama which has been upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court in theory.

Both Florida and Alabama laws give the county school boards absolute authority in deciding what school each child shall attend, based on certain psychological and sociological factors. But the Alabama law also specifies that a board can take into consideration possibilities of breaches of peace or ill will, economic retaliation in the community, and the home environment of each pupil.

It also lets the school boards assign pupils to school by sex, segregating the boys from the girls.

Ervin said Florida should have these criteria in its law.

He said a provision also should be made to permit the state to provide assistance in the way of tuition for children in private schools as well as public schools to avoid a situation such as Virginia now faces.

Rig Hits Oil, But 'Well' Abandoned

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The Sooner State Drilling and Producing Co. of Coleman, Tex., recently brought in the world's shallowest oil well, a healthy 4,000-barrel-an-hour gusher in southern Oklahoma at a depth of 2 1/2 feet.

Unfortunately, the well nine miles east of Brecht, Okla., had to be abandoned soon after it came in.

The well sprayed over the top of the rig and continued to flow at a rate of more than 4,000 barrels an hour, until it was choked off 40 minutes later.

There was no fire, no damage to drilling rig and no crew injuries. About 2,700 barrels of oil were recovered, most of which flowed into an adjacent slush pit.

All was going like clockwork when suddenly the happy smiles on the faces of the drillers turned to frowns, then astonishment, and finally horror.

What caused the consternation was the unhappy discovery that the oil was coming from a 16-inch pipeline, owned by the Service Pipe Line Co., of Tulsa.

The line was repaired and the rig moved for another try.

Mrs. Bruce Plans To Attend Meeting Mrs. Camilla Bruce, president of the Florida Association of Superintendents of Registration, will conduct the mid-winter meeting of supervisors Friday and Saturday in Orlando.

The Association will be brought up to date by the legislative committee which met last fall to recommend changes in registration procedures. Recommendations included changing primary elections to May, instead of September, and eliminating the long form required annually of handicapped voters.

Attending the session will be R. A. Gray, secretary of state, two assistant attorneys general, 57 county supervisors and various deputies and custodians from Florida counties.

Rosi Faces Elorde SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Paolo Rosi of New York will meet Flash Elorde, Filipino flyweight and lightweight champion, in a bout at the Cow Palace, Feb. 23. The fight will be held in the afternoon.

University Loses Teacher To Castro GAINESVILLE (UPI)—A Cuban educator due to take over a job as a visiting professor here has accepted instead a government post under rebel leader Fidel Castro.

University of Florida officials said Dr. Levi Marrero called them Tuesday he has been appointed to represent Cuba at the Organization of American States.

His appointment here was to fill a vacancy created when Dr. Raymond Crist left for a Fulbright Fellowship in France.

Indurall Favored, But Shook Up Eyed

Invincible Indurall, champion stepper of Sanford Orlando Kennel Club, is slated in tonight's featured 10th race, but many fans will be watching for another shakeup by Shook Up.

Shook Up paid an amazing $287.80 for a $2 win ticket Monday night when he leaped to victory in the feature. It was the largest win payoff in the kennel club's history. The brindle gent pulled his surprise from seventh post position, and tonight he drew the more popular first position.

Not many expect Shook Up to win again, but if he does, he'll probably pay plenty, possibly even more than Monday night's bag full of cash.

Favorites established by early odds are Indurall (4-5), Kiego (4-1) and Bel Del (5-1). From there the morning line odds jump up to 10-to-1 on Super Toy, Shook Up is given a 20-to-1 chance.

Also in the unusual feature are Golden Empress, Hornswoggled and Alida Jane.

The second and 11th races will be long 1/4-mile events. Society Sister, in the fifth post position, is favored at 5 to 2 in the Grade-B 11th event. The eighth race is another Grade-B test, while the ninth is Grade-A competition.

Racing begins at 8-10.

Pro Gridgers Pick Top College Stars

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The National Football League opened the college grab bag today when it resumed selection of top college grid stars as the first business of the league's annual mid-winter meeting.

Each of the 12 clubs will select 26 players in a pick and choose game expected to run into tonight. The Green Bay Packers, who won only one game during the past season, had first choice in the selection rotation decided on the win-loss percentages of the last season.

Philadelphia and the Chicago Cardinals tossed a coin to determine the second and third picks and Washington and Detroit tossed to determine the fourth and fifth choices. San Francisco and Pittsburgh selected sixth and seventh.

Alaska's Governor Fighting For Life

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — Gov. William A. Egan of Alaska remained in critical condition today in his 50-50 fight for life.

"He is desperately ill," said Dr. Joel W. Baker, "Governor Egan has a 50-50 chance to survive. It will be five days to a week before we know if the crisis is over."

Baker, chief of surgery at Virginia Mason Hospital here, performed a two-hour emergency operation on Egan Tuesday to remove an intestinal block.

Egan's wife, Neva, was at his bedside and the couple's 11-year-old son, Dennis, arrived here by plane Tuesday to be with his stricken father.

Egan, 44, took his oath of office as chief executive of the 49th state only 19 days ago. He was hospitalized four hours later.

Egan was flown here from Juneau Monday after he took a turn for the worse in his convalescence from an operation Jan. 6 during which his gall bladder and a bile duct stone were removed. Complications arose when a tube placed to drain the bile duct functioned properly.

Baker said Tuesday's operation was successful in that it had achieved its objective.

Churchill Seeking 'Right' Seat Now

LONDON (UPI) — Randolph Churchill, son of Sir Winston Churchill, got himself a map of England today and sailed forth to do battle for the Conservative seat in the House of Commons from Bournemouth.

Churchill's campaign got off to a false start Tuesday when he started politicking in the wrong district.

He called a press conference at the Royal Bath Hotel at Bournemouth to announce his arrival to "test the political temperature." He said he hoped the local voters would call on him to discuss the state of things in Bournemouth East.

"They won't come here," a reporter told him.

"Why not?" asked Churchill.

"Well, this is Bournemouth West."

"Well," replied Churchill, "I must get a map and saily forth."

Gunmen Rob Bank; Law Seeking Clues

MIAMI (UPI)—The FBI and local authorities today searched for clues left behind by two hold-up gunmen who escaped with almost $20,000 from a Miami savings and loan association.

The two men gained entry into the Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Assn. shortly after closing time Tuesday on the pretense of making a deposit.

At first the pair were denied entry by bank officials. But a few minutes later they were admitted after telling branch manager Mrs. Laura Rowell they wanted to make a deposit.

Mrs. Rowell said they forced the door at 7:30 p.m. as she turned the key. Both men wore short-sleeved sport shirts and faded blue jeans.

One said, "Do what we tell you or we'll blow your heads off."

One of the gunmen, short and swarthy, stood near the door while his tall, blond partner walked behind the counter and held six women and one man against the wall. The six were ordered to lie on the floor after the bandits scooped $19,125 in cash and checks from the cash drawers.

The pair then backed slowly out the door. Police and the FBI were summoned a few minutes later. Authorities said they did not know if the men escaped by car or on foot.

David Stuzin, president of the savings and loan association, said all the stolen funds were insured.

On Death's Brink, Found In Gutter, Musician 'Hazy'

MIAMI (UPI)—A Miami musician who was found on the brink of death with his body temperature at 73 degrees told physicians today "I feel pretty good."

Doctors at Jackson Memorial Hospital said cheap whiskey apparently helped to keep Tommy Pearce, 46, alive. He was found lying in a gutter Monday morning.

He was believed dead after a preliminary examination found no heart beat. Physicians said the piano player went into a coma, preventing him from generating heat by shivering or moving.

Normal body temperature is 98.6 and temperatures much below 90 are usually fatal.

"He had to have an awfully strong heart to survive," one doctor said.

"I feel pretty good," Pearce said. "My mind's a little hazy and I feel all hot and cold, but otherwise I'm okay."

Navy Man Killed As Car Hits Pole

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—A Navy man was killed today when his speeding car ran off a road and struck a telephone pole.

County Patrolman R. L. Webb said the victim, whose name was withheld until next of kin were notified, was thrown 100 feet from the wreckage after the car struck the pole and overturned several times south of nearby Mayport.

Manager Is Selected

The Washington Senators have chosen the man who will manage Sanford's team in the Class D Florida State League this year.

His appointment will be announced in the very near future, according to W. K. McRoberts, Selection of the Sanford manager was made in the past few days.

McRoberts, who met Sherry Robertson, Senators' farm director, said "everything is progressing nicely."

The Sanford Baseball Club, a non-profit organization, will operate the team. McRoberts said that membership now is open for prospective stockholders.

Anyone interested in putting money in the club should contact McRoberts at FA 2-0651.

14 Counted Dead, Five Missing In Floods In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The grim toll of flash floods in Ohio rose to 14 today with police reporting a number of persons missing and up to 10,000 homeless.

A cold wave stopped the record rainfall which dumped up to five inches of rain on the state but the snow and icy pavements made cleanup operations difficult.

Emergencies were declared in a number of cities, including Columbus and Mount Vernon.

Schools, stores, and factories closed in many areas. Steel-helmeted National Guardsmen joined local officials and Coast Guardsmen in rescue operations.

The Red Cross set up emergency housing facilities in schools, churches, lodge halls and private homes.

The rains came suddenly and continued without letup to cause the worst flood in Ohio in more than 20 years. In some areas, the flood was compared with the 1913 flood, the worst in Ohio's history.

The downpour turned small streams into rivers. It broke the ice in the major rivers, sending chunks two feet thick and 30 feet square pounding into bridges.

A number of bridges cracked under the relentless pressure. The highway patrol said it was impossible to make an accurate tabulation of flooded roads.

Flood damage was high in Columbus where more than 2,500 persons were evacuated from their homes. Travel across the city from east to west was almost impossible. The Scioto River overflowed, forcing evacuation of public housing units.

At Least 52 Dead In Icy Onslaught

United Press International Floods, snow, sleet, rain, fornic winds and bitter cold hit the nation today in the worst onslaught of the winter. Deaths attributed to weather conditions are at least 52.

In addition, five persons were missing and presumed drowned in Ohio's worst flood in two decades.

Thousands were left homeless by the floods and damage was in the millions of dollars.

The five missing were tossed into the raging Chagrin River in a rescue operation.

At Buffalo, N. Y., a grain boat was ripped from its moorings by gale force winds and flood currents and sent crashing into the main span of an important bridge.

The bridge was demolished.

Rivers Leave Banks In Connecticut an ice jam sent the Housatonic River spilling over its banks at New Milford, flooding several buildings.

At Sharon, Pa., the Shenango River forced hundreds to flee their homes in the worst flood in the community's history. The river, swollen by two days of rain and a 2,000 foot ice jam below the city, spilled over more than a dozen blocks.

Flash flooding in the Buffalo area was described as one of the worst in the section's history. Combined flood and wind damage around Buffalo was expected to run close to 10 million dollars.

At Madison, Ind., late Wednesday, a group of school children waded to safety through the rushing waters of a flooded stream when their bus stalled on a bridge. Minutes after the children had reached safety, the bridge buckled.

Flood, wind and rain damage was equalled by the snow and bitter cold which swept the interior in blizzard-like proportions.

Investigating with Duncan were Constable Slim Galloway and Deputy Sheriff Vern Brewster.

Griffis has lived in Sanford for the past nine years. He was born April 21, 1921, in Raiford. He was a member of the Elks Lodge of Sanford.

Also surviving are four children, Cathie, Judy, Johnny and David, Sanford, two brothers, James Griffis, Sanford, Rudolph Griffis, Easton, one sister, Mrs. Evelyn Woods, Sanderson.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Church of God of Prophecy, 25th and Elm. The Rev. J. H. Mosser will officiate. Burial will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park, Brissan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The President's prescription for a Republican comeback from its defeats of 1958 was contained in a message to the opening session of the national committee's two-day meeting which climaxed this week's round of planning for 1960.

Cited to Alcorn's demand that the GOP begin campaigning on a year-round basis, Eisenhower told the committee:

"I deeply regret that some people look upon our party as a kind of hibernating elephant who wakes with a mighty trumpet blast at election time and then rests calmly until the next campaign."

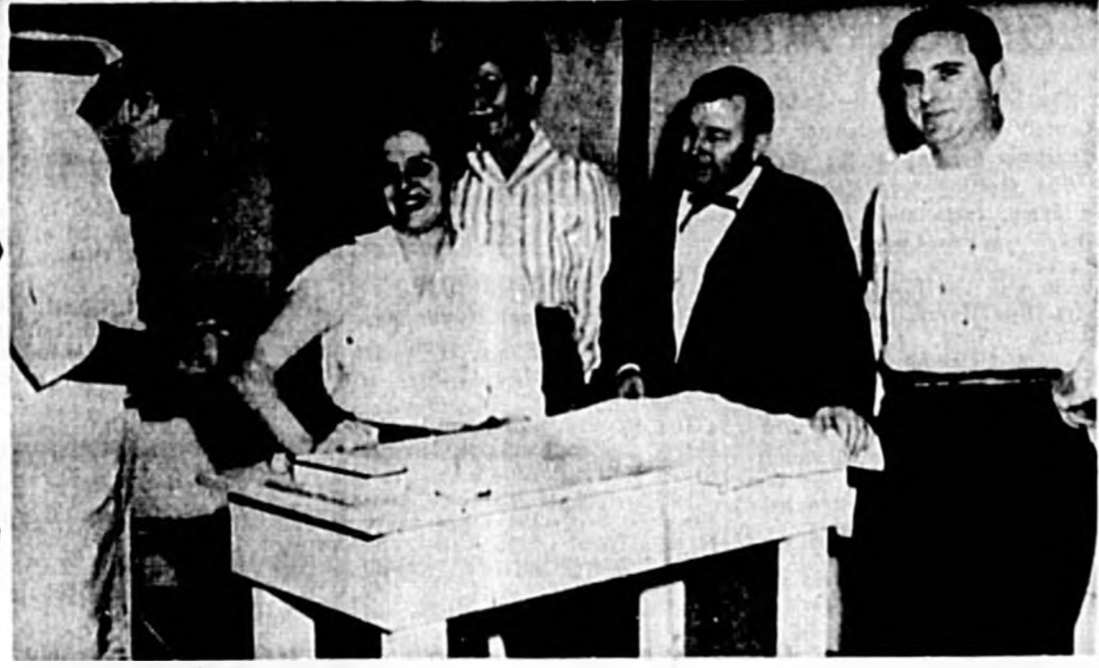

"Political activity must be a matter of unintermittent effort. It must go on 365 days a year if we are to maintain the vitality that has made our nation great."

Two Cars Collide; Drivers Not Hurt

An accident at 4:47 p. m. yesterday tied up traffic at 25th and Park, but caused no injuries, police said.

Muri Edwin Husted Jr., 113 Garrison Ave., failed to heed the stop sign as he entered 25th St. in the Foodmart.

Husted's 37 sedan sustained damages of $450 when it was hit by a car driven by Floyd Sparkman, 413 Russell Ave. Sparkman was going east on 25th St. Capt. Arnold Williams investigated.

Adults Also Need Those Polio Shots

Adults should have polio shots, too. This is the message that leaders of the Seminole County March of Dimes are stressing during January. The latest victim of the crippling disease was a woman, 35 years old.

Yesterday afternoon John Sauls, chairman of the drive, Wright Kirtley, co-chairman, Mrs. Russell

Spencer and Mrs. Martin Dyer, co-chairmen of the Mothers' March, all had their polio shots. Adults who have not been inoculated with the Salk vaccine should make arrangements with their family physicians to do so. Children through the age of 18 may get the shot free at the County Health Unit on Palmetto Ave.

Funds for the support of the National Foundation and its patient care program are being collected throughout the county now and will climax with the Mothers' March Feb. 2. The Mothers' March from 7-8 p. m. will take in all areas served by the Sanford post office.

Mrs. Spencer said "The Foundation belongs to each of us. Of the funds collected in Seminole County, 62 1/2 per cent stays here for the Patient Aid Program 27 1/2 per cent goes to the Foundation for research and scholarships. The Foundation grants more than 6,700 scholarships a year.

"While more than $5,000 was collected in Seminole County last year, more than $10,000 was spent for patient aid. The program is extended to all children through the age of 18, for research and therapy on birth defects and rheumatic arthritis, as well as the usual treatment and prevention of polio."

The Foundation has not stayed idle. With the discovery of an effective vaccine, the doors of good health have been opened to thousands of other afflicted children and adults, she added.

Jewelry stores took a different tack, and presented reasons why people shop in another city. H. N. Blackwelder, representing department stores said, "We are buying too much on Orlando and not working hard enough on things to keep people here. We can't criticize people for where they spend their money. We should devote our time and energy to one place: Sanford."

Francis Roumillat, chairman of the Division, told merchants he had received a number of letters with suggestions about improvements. Several of the businessmen felt that letters published in The Herald were bad publicity and hurt their business.

Roumillat outlined committees which will be chosen at a general meeting of the merchants, Jan. 29, in the Civic Center. The planning committee will arrange a six-month sales calendar for all categories; the promotion committee will see that the calendar works; the executive committee will secure legislation.

There also will be a board of directors composed of department heads. Roumillat urged all merchants and interested persons to attend the ratification meeting at 8 p. m. next Thursday.

Charles Staubitz, Division advisor, urged merchants to plan for spring promotions, and reminded them that the criticism they were receiving was constructive. "You have an awful lot here, but you must take advantage of it," he said.

The Division's attendance was requested at a meeting Feb. 2 of the Florida Council of Business and Industry. The Council is attempting to abolish the personal property tax.

Mrs. Rosa Warren Dies In Orlando

Mrs. Rosa K. Warren, 76, of 2020 Kuhl Ave., died Wednesday in an Orlando hospital.

Among the survivors are Samuel E. Warren of Sanford, Hawthorne Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Deer Refuses To Sleep; Has Another Day In Zoo

The six-point buck at the Sanford Zoo will have to endure one more day of captivity.

State Game and Wildlife officials fired three blanks this morning in an attempt to capture the deer. The blanks, which were thought to be filled with a tranquilizer drug, were shot from a dart gun.

The buck has become too much for the zoo to handle, and will be released in the Farmington Game Reserve to spend the rest of his life in the forest. Mrs. Arnold Hood, superintendent of the zoo, urged Herald reporters to tell the public that the deer is not going to be destroyed.

The Wildlife Commission will try again tomorrow after it has obtained the drug from Inverness. When the deer has been anesthetized, he will be loaded in a covered truck on two mattresses, and taken to the game reserve.

The big buck was born five years ago in the zoo. Thousands of children fed him as he wandered around the monkey island. When he became too aggressive for the monkeys, he was moved to the goat and deer cage. Now, zoo officials feel, the big boy has become too much for both attendants and his cage mates. The wild instincts, perhaps will be satisfied when he reaches the forest, and lives out his life with his own kind.

Merchants Discuss Aids To Business

Sanford merchants like the idea of the Retail Merchants Division. This was apparent from reports made this morning at a meeting of the representatives of each category.

The automobile dealers suggested that merchants place strong emphasis on beautification of downtown Sanford and more parking space. The dealers also requested a resolution to the city and county, asking the two governments to purchase equipment at home whenever possible.

Ed Hunt, representative for the dealers, cited a recent bid accepted for city trucks. "When the city buys from Orlando in a deal that amounts to $13,000, it is taking a lot of our money over there. The local bid was not much higher than the Orlando bid."

Bonds For Building

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The city of Tallahassee has filed suit in Leon Circuit Court for validation of $4,500,000 in bonds to finance construction of a new office building. It hopes to rent to state agencies.

$1 Million Bonds Sold By Seminole

The State Development Commission today opened bids for $1 million in Seminole County road bonds.

On hand for the event in Tallahassee were all members of the County Commission and Mack Cleveland Jr., county attorney.

In a telephone conversation from Tallahassee, Cleveland said that the Seminole bonds were "bid in" by the Florida National group of banks Jacksonville, at an average interest cost of 3.24 per cent. Four firms submitted bids on the Seminole bonds.

"The commission and I are very happy at the number of bids and the low interest rate on our bonds," Cleveland said. "We recommended that the Development Commission, which meets tomorrow in Gainesville, accept the low bid for our bonds."

Cleveland said the low interest rate "reflects the good condition of the Seminole County road program." He added that the Seminole bid was "as good or better than bids on bonds offered by three other counties" at today's meeting.

The bonds will not be an indebtedness against the county. They carry the guarantee of the secondary gasoline tax, collected by the state for the counties.

The $1 million in bonds will mature in 1968.

War Trials Start For 600 In Cuba

HAVANA (UPI)—The "war crimes" trials of 600 defeated leaders of Fidel Castro, endorsed by the cheers of more than 500,000 Cubans at Wednesday's vast mass meeting here, begin today in Havana's 15,000-seat Sports Palace stadium.

In six provincial cities, firing squads awaited 42 already condemned men in a nationwide campaign which Castro says will mean death for about 400 supporters of ousted ex-President Fulgencio Batista.

The government today threatened "revolutionary justice" for 979 convicted common criminals who escaped from prison during the revolution unless they surrendered within 72 hours. Three of these were said to be Americans who were evacuated to the United States Jan. 3 with U. S. tourists.

Agriculture Minister Humberto Sorri Marin, author of Cuba's new criminal code, will prosecute the first three defendants scheduled for trial here—army officers charged with the torture or murder of more than 200 persons.

Castro after repeatedly denouncing the U. S. congressional newsman who had criticized Cuba's mass executions, told Wednesday's meetings that the number of "war criminals" his men expect to kill amount to only about one of every 1,000 persons killed by American A-bombs in Japan.

The remark drew a wild ovation from the crowd.

MEMPHIS (UPI)—They should have called the basketball game on account of rain.

But Treadwell High School beat East High here Wednesday night 54-46 as the sprinker system went haywire and cooled the Court—and many of the 3,000 spectators—with water.

Actress Admitted To Clinic Again

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Tenth Century Fox Studios announced today that sultry actress Gene Tierney has reentered the Menninger Clinic in Kansas which she left only last summer after six months of treatment.

A studio spokesman said Miss Tierney's voluntary return to the famed clinic was reported to them by her mother, Mrs. Belle Tierney, by telephone from Greenwich, Conn. He said she would not appear in "Holiday For Lovers" with Clifton Webb, with whom she also costarred in "Laura."

Mikoyan Thinks U. S. Wants Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan said today his visit to the United States has convinced him the American people want to end the cold war "once and for all" and establish "good neighbor" relations with Russia.

Mikoyan said it was the responsibility of Russia and the United States to secure the peace of Russian and American people are fulfilled.

He expressed his views in a "thank you" telegram to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. It was sent from Argentina, Newfoundland, where Mikoyan's plane was forced to make an emergency landing because of a fire in the engines. An unofficial translation was made public by the Soviet embassy.

Mikoyan told Dulles: "My trip, though not a long one, has confirmed our conviction that the American people, like the Soviet people, want to do away with the 'cold war' once and for all, to establish good neighbor relations between our countries. It is the great responsibility of both our governments to see that these desires are fulfilled as soon as possible."

"I'm Not Bomber' Bright Tells Jury

ATLANTA (UPI)—George Bright, a slender, balding man, fervently denied today that he had anything to do with the bombing of the Jewish Temple here.

Bright took the witness stand and said in the unsworn statement he submitted by Georgia law that all he knew of the Oct. 12 bombing was what he read in the newspapers.

The defense rested its case after Bright made his unsworn statement.

"I am not guilty. I have no knowledge of even how to handle dynamite," Bright said. He said the most powerful explosive he has ever used was a firecracker when he was a child.

Bright said he was with a woman identified as Marilyn Craig from well before the Sunday morning dynamiting until long after the incident. He said he was arrested and jailed without ever seeing a warrant and did not hear the charges until four days later.

He said he never advised violence of any kind, has a number of Jewish friends, has dated a number of Jewish girls and that his tentmate in the Army was a Jew.

At the end of his statement Bright stood up, raised his right hand and said:

"I swear before you, I swear before the judge, I swear before my parents who are sitting in this courtroom and I swear before God Almighty that I had nothing to do with this horrible bombing."

Sex Not Entertainment, Internal Revenue Says

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Call girls are not entertainment—at least to Uncle Sam's tax collectors.

The Internal Revenue Service said today businessmen may not deduct fees paid to prostitutes on their tax returns under the guise of "entertainment" or "public relations" expenditures.

A Revenue Service official said some firms had been nabbed trying to pass off sex-for-hire outlays as legitimate business deductions. But he said the practice did not seem to be widespread.

He said no businessman had

Contractor's Death Ruled Accidental

The death of a local contractor yesterday afternoon was ruled accidental by Coroner Hugh Duncan.

John Henry Griffis, 37, was wounded fatally when he apparently jerked his automatic shotgun from a hook in a clothes closet, causing it to discharge.

Griffis was alone in his home at West First St. when the accident occurred. The shell entered his left side, next to the heart. Investigating officers said that Griffis already had prepared hunting equipment for a trip.

The gun apparently caught on some clothing in the closet, as the hunter grabbed it by the barrel.

Griffis was a partner in the contracting firm of Griffis and Hunter, Mrs. Griffis was in Seattle Wash., when the shooting occurred.

Investigating with Duncan were Constable Slim Galloway and Deputy Sheriff Vern Brewster.

Griffis has lived in Sanford for the past nine years. He was born April 21, 1921, in Raiford. He was a member of the Elks Lodge of Sanford.

Also surviving are four children, Cathie, Judy, Johnny and David, Sanford, two brothers, James Griffis, Sanford, Rudolph Griffis, Easton, one sister, Mrs. Evelyn Woods, Sanderson.

Cold Drinks, Milk Stolen By Thieves

An estimated 50 bottles of cold drinks and a quantity of milk were stolen from the drink box at Jones Tire Shop, Ninth and Sanford, last night.

Vald Jones told Sgt. W. R. Cargrove and Howard Whelchel of the police department that the thieves evidently had pried the box open with a bar.

Even Shoplifter Bargain-Consious

HOMESTEAD (UPI)—Even a shoplifter is bargain-conscious says Virgil Kilpatrick, about 65.

When Kilpatrick was arrested Wednesday for taking three bottles of shaving lotion valued at 75 cents from a super market he told police:

"It was such a good bargain I couldn't pass it up."

'Sheriff' Brady To Have Birthday

In a pre-birthday statement, Brady said, "I consider myself one of the young men of Sanford."

Brady has lived in Sanford for 37 years.

Cold Will Arrive In Area Tonight

MIAMI (UPI)—A new cold wave moving into northern Florida today, pushing temperatures down to near freezing.

Pensacola registered 33 degrees weather and Tallahassee had 45 degrees. It was a balmy 78 in Miami and Fort Myers.

The cold wave, accompanied by scattered showers, was expected to reach South Florida tonight.

Forecasters said the mercury would dip to 45 in South Florida tonight and 25 in the north regions. A low of 50 was predicted for Key West.

The cold wave was expected to remain through Saturday.

The latest frigid spell comes on the heels of unseasonably warm and humid weather which sent vacationers to the beaches Wednesday as temperatures climbed above 80 in many cities. Ocala was the warmest spot in the nation with an 85 while Fort Myers had an 84 and Jacksonville a 70.

Captain Nominated By Three Letters

The Herald is welcoming letters citing Sanford residents for courteous acts.

In the mail this morning, there were three letters. All three lauded Capt. Arnold Williams of the Sanford Police Department for his courtesy and consideration.

The letters will appear in The Herald tomorrow but the fact that all three praised Capt. Williams in unrelated cases is worthy of mention today. One cited him for patience during an accident on 25th and Park, another for his consideration when a child was struck on French Ave., and the other for his constant courtesy as a friend and a policeman.

The letters were mailed in connection with the Jaycees' Courtesy Week, Jan. 25-31.
