

Celery Feds Change Name To Warriors; Daytona Buccaneers Win Friday Game

Changing their name from Celery Feds to Warriors and smearing their faces with rouge failed to save the Sanford football squad from a 35 to 0 defeat by the Daytona Buccaneers Friday night at Seminole High School Field.

Writer Lists 3 Possible Players On All-American

By DILLON GRAHAM, World Sports Editor. PICKERER and all-America selection time is a long way off but already in the early games some hopefuls for top football ranking have turned in exploits that put them in the running.

SUPERSTITIOUS PLAYER

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 12. (AP)—Marquette football players, with one exception, are numbered by positions. The exception is halfback John Strzykalaki, who is superstitious and argued Coach Tom Stidham into allowing him to wear No. 17, his high school jersey number.

U. OF T. IS FAST

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 12. (AP)—Track and football are developing fast backs at the University of Texas these days. Both Jackie Field, Mission flyer, and Max Minor, Tahoka junior wingback, were members of the sprinter's championship-winning relay team last season.

CREW CUTS IN!

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 12. (AP)—Tom Stidham, Marquette football coach, has ordered crew haircuts for all his players.

The Buccaneers however, lived up to their name and put up a game defense fight, all the way only to have their line repeatedly torn to shreds by the fast stepping Bucs with their famous 'step' formation.

During the latter part of the game however, Assistant Coach Dick McLaulin sent in Buck Hale from Kentucky to bolster up the backfield of the Warriors. Buck immediately began to open up an aerial attack with a series of cannon ball passes. One of these to Daniels was good for 25 yards. However, a number of them were muffed, being apparently too hard to handle. The Warriors threatened to score several times, but flizzed out at the last moment.

The Bucs started the fireworks in the first quarter by a 10 yard plunge by Marsh through the Sanford center. Then quarterback Ted Pollitz heaved a 35 pass clear over to Wayne Leonard at left end. Pete Westberry then crashed through center for the first Daytona touchdown. Pollitz kicked for the extra point.

At the beginning of the second quarter, with the Bucs in the shadow of the Sanford goal, Hale receiving the ball behind his own goal was tackled by Leonard, and the Bucs were awarded two more points.

On the next Sanford kickoff Westberry took the ball for a 30 yard gain. Followed plunge on 14 and 10 yards by Ted Pollitz, and then Westberry smashed through center for another Buc touchdown. No goal was kicked however.

Westberry started another score with a 35 yard run. Ted Pollitz then started more plunging gains and finally squirmed his way through the middle of the Sanford team for another touch down, and then himself kicked goal for the extra point in the third quarter. Westberry again reeled off a 25 yard gain on the kickoff. Billy Ford then went around the Sanford left end for a 88 yard touchdown.

In the final period, Ted Pollitz threw laterals pass to Marsh good for 14 yards. Coleman played at fullback, gained 22 yards around left end and Westberry scored the final Daytona touchdown.

Joe Louis States He Will Quit Ring

OMAHA, Oct. 12. (AP)—Heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, in an almost casual manner, last night told the Associated Press "My fighting days are over."

"I'm in the Army now," he said. "And they are taking care of my plans, but by the time this war will be over, I'll be in my 30's, and that's too old for a fighter. I'm too old for it now, Joe is 28."

His remarks, made while he was surrounded by autograph hunters and friends, brought immediate repercussions from fight circles in which Joe has been the No. 1 figure for the last five years.

National Boxing Association President Abe J. Green said at Patterson, N. J. Louis may be leaving his rough with boxing but neither boxing nor the entire fight world will ever be through with Joe Louis.

Navy Announces Destruction Of 3 U. S. Cruisers

Marines Reported Enlarging Positions On Guadalcanal In Solomon Islands

WASHINGTON—The Navy announced today that the United States Marines have succeeded in enlarging their positions on Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands during two days of offensive fighting in which the Japanese had many casualties. An announcement was also made of the destruction of 18 Japanese planes, and damage to two enemy light cruisers and the loss of 100 Japanese soldiers in action on Oct. 11.

Loss of the U. S. heavy cruisers Quincy, Astoria and Vincennes during a fierce five-day night battle in the opening phase of the Solomon Islands invasion last August was revealed last night by the Navy which said a majority of the personnel were saved but that "there still were many casualties." It was the biggest single blow suffered by the fleet since the Jap sneak attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7 sent five warships to the bottom.

The Navy said the sinkings had been withheld until now for reasons of military security. The battle was the same which resulted in the sinking of the Australian cruiser Canberra, announced previously from Australia.

The loss of these four cruisers, the Navy said, "has been offset by the appropriate reallocation of ships which is made possible by new ship construction." The battle was the same which resulted in the sinking of the Australian cruiser Canberra, announced previously from Australia.

Red Caucasus Army Throws Back Nazis

Enemy Renews Attack In Voiga Area To Break Three-Day Lull In Fighting

(By Associated Press.) Russia's Caucasian armies are officially reported today to have thrown back the Germans in a critical struggle for the Voiga oil fields while in the 60-day-old siege.

A Stalingrad Nazi infantry regiment led by 50 tanks advanced slightly in a costly renewal drive toward the Voiga. Breaking the three-day lull and the German launched a series of attacks amid the skeleton ruins of Stalingrad, but the Russians declared their defense lines held firm and frustrated a Nazi attempt to smash into the northwest factory district.

"Pravda" news sheet said the Reds still held the Stalin Tank Plant, where repaired tanks were progressing with German shells screaming overhead. From the central Caucasus, Soviet dispatches reported the Germans have moved fresh divisions and tank columns into the battle but Soviet counterattacks scored gains in a number of areas.

Fighting broke out again inside the city of Stalingrad yesterday after a lull of several days. The Russians announced in their mid-night communique today: "Nazi troops gained slightly in southern part of the city." "A regiment of enemy troops supported by 50 tanks three times attacked our positions," the communique said of the Stalingrad fight. "All the attacks were beaten off. Only in one block our detachments were driven back by a surprise attack by the enemy."

Labor Shortage

The proposal for the drafting of teen age boys into the armed forces of the United States, poses another serious question for Sanford which cannot long be ignored. The withdrawal of these youngsters from our midst, as well as the drafting of older men, or their departure for work in war industries, can only serve to increase the local labor shortage which has already become acute.

Seminole County has already contributed close to a thousand men to the Army, Navy or Marine Corps. Hundreds more have left here to enter war industries while hundreds of others have been lured away to larger centers of population by the higher wages paid on government projects or by prosperous civilian enterprises.

As a result of this depletion of our labor supply, Seminole County farmers are faced with the most serious situation confronting them in many years. One farmer told us the other day he was trying to put out his crop with just half the crew he had a year ago. Some farmers have been forced to reduce their acreage while others are still wondering whether they will be able to put out any crop at all.

But it is not only the farmers who are suffering from this labor shortage. Sanford's largest and most popular restaurant gives notice to the service clubs that it can no longer accommodate them at luncheon because of its inability to obtain enough cooks and waiters. Several smaller eating places have been forced to close for similar reasons.

There is not an industry or a business in the Sanford area which has not felt the effect of this labor crisis. In many instances service to the public has necessarily been curtailed. In other cases inefficient and incompetent persons have been put to work at risk both to themselves and to the public. Many of the merchants report difficulty in obtaining clerks and salesmen.

Meanwhile antiquated legislation prevents the employment in many cases of youths under 18 at work they are fully competent and qualified to perform. Maximum hour laws restrict labor to 40 hours a week where time and a half is not paid and most large concerns prefer to "pirate" extra labor from smaller enterprises rather than pay time and a half. A new government decree prevents the raising of wages by an employer but does not keep the employee from leaving his job in order to find higher wages somewhere else.

There may be no easy solution for this problem but it is one which demands the attention of Sanford's civic leaders. A government official predicted not long ago that over 300,000 concerns would go out of business within the next year. We do not want all of them to be in Sanford. It may be a good thing for so-called non-essential civilian enterprises to fail, but if they do they can no longer pay for the war.

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN

I CAN'T BELIEVE IT—A recent Gallup poll points out that the Democrats may lose more than thirty seats in the House of Representatives. One of the main reasons that Mr. Gallup gives for this is because the vote will be lighter and he assumes that out of those not casting votes the Republicans will lose one and the Democrats two. I cannot believe this because it is a known fact that the large cities and thickly populated centers vote heavily Democratic and this should be favorable to the Democrats because in the cities and thickly populated centers it would be closer to the polls and there will be fewer people not voting there than in the rural sections. I want to predict that the Democrats may not lose any seats and providing of course for a margin of safety if they lose any seats they would not lose over a dozen, which would not greatly change the complexion of the House.

A Duty, Not a Responsibility—It is the duty of all American citizens engaged in war work to vote in the elections this year. Donald M. Nelson, chief of the War Production Board, declared recently, Mr. Nelson made the declaration in reply to a letter from a war worker who said that he thought it more patriotic to "stay and work" than it was to "take time off from the plant to go and vote." There is only one answer to that question. Mr. Nelson said, "While I understand fully the men who think they should stay on the job, voting is a duty, not a privilege. It is a duty, however, that is allowed only to free men. The right to vote is, in short, what this war is all about; it should be one of the very few exceptions to the all-important rule of staying on the job and getting the war materials off the production line and on the battlefronts. The exception applies to all elections, national, State or local. I am completely confident and what parties any and totally uninterested in what one votes for. That is none of my business. I have only one suggestion—when you vote, vote fast and get back on the job. The war worker is first of all an American citizen and the first right and duty of an American citizen is to vote. That is the difference between us and our enemies."

A Good Idea—At the beginning of every Congress the Florida Delegation plans to meet together once a week, the Senators and Congressmen, for a luncheon, and discuss matters of interest to the entire State. I say we plan to that is about as far as it usually goes. The Florida Economic Advancement Council headed by Bill Outman and assisted by Howard Barra, are doing an excellent job in the Capital and one week, every Tuesday, they hold a luncheon in the Speaker's Dining Room and invited all the members of the Florida Delegation and any citizen from Florida who happens to be in the Capital on that day. These luncheons have been a success in that they have gotten the delegation together and that we have been able to discuss problems of mutual interest. It was my pleasure to take my wife to the last meeting and she may take over from here.

Can It Be Done?—All of Florida including the entire Congressional Delegation was quite upset about the order issued by Mr. Joseph E. Eastman, President of the Florida Railway Commission, which does not allow for special winter trains for people visiting Florida. Naturally if these special trains would interfere with our war program in any way I am sure that everyone agrees that they should be eliminated but we are not sure that the Defense Transportation section gave due consideration to this problem. The Florida Delegation has all intentions of calling upon Mr. Eastman when further details have been developed. We hope that we can get relief but we do not know if it can be done. In any event, it is possible that even if the railroads can

Hawkweed and Indian paintbrush, wild yellow and wild red, are splashed across the tall hills' faces. And on the hill's high head, maples are scarlet feathers, and gold the shagbark trees. ### The Wages of Inflation

The Petrilos and the Lewises are not the only spokesmen for organized labor nor are they the only counselors to whom ear is given. They shout louder, and get the bigger headlines because of the extremity of their views and the offensiveness of their manners, but eventually, they defeat their own purposes and ambitions. Public patience with them runs out, and they go to the limbo of those who strut and fret their hour upon the stage and then are heard no more.

The most practical essay on the relationship of the wage-earner to inflation that we have seen is an editorial in the union publication, the International Teamster. It is worth quotation because it is brief and is by language anyone can understand. The editor writes:

"When President Roosevelt says that wages must be stabilized, he is trying to protect what you now have. Under inflation you will lose what you have. The president is trying to protect labor, and labor should be intelligent enough to help him.

"When the war is over, we can get some of the bugs out of our economic system, provided we win. The best way not to win is to disrupt production and destroy our economic balance by inflation. It must be avoided at all costs, because, if we lose the war, we lose everything we are fighting for. You will be all through so far as having anything to say about your wages, your hours or your working conditions. You'll do what they tell you and you'll say 'Yes sir,' when you do it. It would be a lot smarter to lose a pay raise now, than the whole pay check later."

There is an editorial worth half a dozen columns of close reasoning put into three syllable words by a Ph D.—Atlanta Journal.

Hoarding Gasoline

The National Safety Council today suggested a safe rule for hoarding gasoline—don't do it! Hoarding of gasoline not only is unpatriotic, but extremely dangerous, said the Council. "The motorist who tries to hoard gasoline by laying in a supply of gas literally is storing up danger and trouble for himself."

"While the storing and handling of gasoline can be perfectly safe when done by experts, the average person would be just as safe with a supply of TNT in his home. No matter how careful the average person may be in storing gasoline, there is a definite danger that its vapor will escape. This vapor is highly explosive, and a chance spark or flame may set off an explosion that can wreck a house and cause death or injury."

"Furthermore, no matter where you live, the chances are that your fire insurance is automatically void if you have more than a very small quantity of gasoline. And even that must be stored in an approved safety container. You may get an extra ride by hoarding gas, but the chances are it will be to the hospital."

"There is only one safe rule for hoarding gasoline—Don't do it!"

First Fall Meeting Of Garden Club Held

MRS. JULIUS DINGFELDER
The first general meeting of the Sanford Garden Club was held on Friday evening at the Episcopal Parish House, with Mrs. O. P. Herndon, president, presiding. Rev. Frank Pulley opened the meeting with prayer, after which Mrs. A. M. Phillips rendered "Long Live The Garden Club," a song written by club member; Mrs. Phillips was accompanied by Mrs. R. G. McCall. Plans outlined for the fiscal year were reported by the standing committee chairman on Beautification, Conservation, Horticulture, Courtesy, Highway Development, Visiting Gardens, Jr. Gardens, and Publicity. Mrs. S. C. Dickerson, chairman of the Garden Center announced her office hours to be each Saturday afternoon from 2:00-6:00 P.M. at the Smith Furniture Store; she invited not only club members but all residents of Seminole County to avail themselves of the free advice given there on soil analysis, pest control, gardening problems on ornamental as well as on "Victory Garden" plantings.

Program chairman Mrs. Leo R. Leisher introduced the program for the day: "Garden Clubs in War Time." Mrs. Endor Curlett led the panel discussion. Seated with Mrs. Curlett at the speakers table and participating in the program were Mrs. C. Bills, representative of the Garden Club on the Seminole County Defense Council; Mrs. James Mcughton, president, Sanford Woman's Club; Mrs. Ouida Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent; Mrs. F. E. Roumliat, chairman, Sanford chapter American Red Cross, and Mrs. Harry Heeren, Sanford Garden Club. Mrs. Curlett, in defining "morale," pointed out that morale is "state of mind," the moral out of the moral of the individual, and with its influence, the moral of a nation. "We find God in our garden," "we feel God in our garden"—this finding of God gives us strength; it gives us morale," the speaker declared.

Mrs. J. C. Bills stressed, in planting a "Victory Garden," that one must have good planning and must first analyze the needs and the culinary tastes of one's family. When space is limited, she suggested share-cropping and bartering with gardening neighbors. Mrs. Bills advocated the budgeting of time as well as money, and urged the raising of produce that will re-use itself, such as New Zealand spinach, which is particularly rich in iron and vitamins. Mrs. Bills displayed a variety of home-grown products and home-canned goods, which she preserved with honey, from her own beehive.

As president of the Sanford Woman's Club, Mrs. James Moughton promised and urged the full co-operation with the Garden Club, and other local agencies, in maintaining the "soldierly morale" of our civilians. Mrs. Moughton reiterated historical data to emphasize our "Madonna" motto: "pluribus unum—there is strength in unity."

Mrs. Ouida Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, was high in praise of the Garden Club's cooperation in a short-course, held in Altamonte Springs this summer. Mrs. Wilson also spoke on the high percentage of malnutrition among Americans and blamed it on the lack of understanding of the important vitamins; she listed fruits and vegetables rich in vitamins, contents, with the guru heading this list.

Representing the Garden Club, Mrs. Harry Heeren declared that the club aims and will see adaptable to the growing of aromatic and medicinal herbs; she revealed that the State Departmental Station in Cantonment is especially growing "Jasmine" mint, used for the pharmaceutical market. She named a variety of herbs and spices which she said for her own "Kitchen Pharmacy" in entertaining and serving the needs of the "Madonna" motto: "pluribus unum—there is strength in unity."

Sanfordites Give Ideas On Drafting 18-20 Year Boys

"I am in favor of the drafting of 18 to 19 year old young men for our armed forces, but believe they should be trained intensively for at least a year before they are put into battle," J. L. Ingley stated.

"Young men of this age are fearless and adventurous, and it is my opinion that the battles of the war will be won by young men who can stand the rigors of hard fighting."

"Then, too, the world will be run by young men but they should be adequately trained for the job. In this way no doubt there will be fewer lives lost unnecessarily and after the war is won we hope that these same young men will have been sufficiently trained to carry on the huge task of running a war torn world so that the same mistake will not be repeated soon," he concluded.

more than two weeks at a time in one of these honey Army camps." There's a reason for his travels: he knows machine guns, and most of the raw recruits never saw one before they hit camp. He loves machine guns, too, but what he'd love more is a chance in radio. "If I knew radio, after the war I could set up my own shop. A lot of fellows and a spool of wire, and I'd be in business."

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

HAPPENED to me only yesterday. I step on the starter of my car. Engine turns over O. K. but she won't start.

So I look under the hood just as if I know what's the matter. Tap a few things with a wrench. While I'm standing there, wondering what to do next, a young soldier stops alongside.

"Need some help?" he asks. "Got her almost fixed," I says. "But still she won't start."

"Looks like your carburetor's flooded," he says. "Got a screw driver handy?"

That young soldier knew what he was doing all right. Went to work just like a professional.

"She'll be O.K. now," he says, straightening up and smiling.

Boy's face looked sort of familiar. And darned if that soldier wasn't young Charlie Jenkins from Elm Street. Used to be a round-shouldered kid—one of those jitter bugs you hear about. Say! You wouldn't know him after six months in the Army, fifteen pounds heavier—straight and tan and real sure of himself. The Army's done a lot for Charlie. Made a man out of him—and I guess that goes for lots of other young fellows, too.

The other day I read how some folks worry about the soldiers havin' a glass of beer now and then. Well, after seein' Charlie, I don't think there's much cause for people to fret.

Just like Charlie says—"If you can trust us with guns and ships and tanks, I guess you can trust us with a glass of beer once in a while. If we happen to want one."

And I know the beer industry is co-operating with the Army and the law-enforcement officers to see that beer is sold in good, clean, decent places.

From where I sit, this country's never seen a finer, cleaner, better behaved lot of men than the ones in uniform today. I'm not wrong, in 'bout 'em!

Independent Team Trounces Navy Navigators 13-8 In Softball Tilt

A six run rally by the Navy Navigators of the Sanford Naval Air Base taken at the expense of relief pitcher Evans in the sixth inning of the game at City Diamond Ball Park last evening moved too little and too late to defeat a hard hitting independent team of Sanford stars. The score, Independents 13, Navigators, 8.

The Independents started hitting pitcher Evans' offerings in the first inning with singles by Stegle and Moore. Stegle was forced at third on a fielders choice by D. Altman who remained on first. Then up came swarming Buck Ferguson and cleaners the bases with a homer in the second inning the Independents got two more runs, and in the third, Buck hit another long homer, adding to the four run rally. Three more independent runs were scored in the fourth inning, and a lone tally in the sixth by Buck Ferguson.

Ferguson's speedy shoots proved too baffling for the Navigators. However, they took more kindly to Evans' offerings with Collins Higgins and Blenstrom, opening hard grounders good for singles, followed by walkoffs by Grunningater, Everson, Happ and Evanson, all good for singles which added up to six runs.

Florida Gators Scrimmage To Meet Villanova

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 13. (Special)—Florida's light-hearted Gators Monday went through the first of three practices scheduled this week in preparation for their inter-sectional tilt with Villanova at Philadelphia Friday.

The Gators came through their upset victory over Auburn last week in fine shape and gave evidence yesterday that they were ready for any and all competitors.

The entire squad drew praise from Head Coach Tom Lieb for their showing. He mentioned in particular the work of two linemen, Guard Floyd Konefsky and End Nick Klutka. These players worked nearly the entire 60 minutes against Auburn and at the last were still giving an excellent account of themselves by bruising blocks and alert defensive plays.

Florida's hopes are high for the first time in many years that one of these Gators will receive national honors for their play this season.

Although forest indoors, Coach Lieb sent his charges through a snappy signal practice in the school gym, after giving them a chance to take the kinks out of their muscles with a brief calisthenics drill.

Konefsky, a product of German Township high in New Salem, Pa. has been named to captain the Gators before his home state fans in the Villanova contest.

Edwin Teale Is Photographer Of Small Insects

By ROBERT COOL
 Wide World Features Writer
 BALDWIN, L. I. Oct. 13. To most of his neighbors Edwin Teale is known as the man who can spend a solid day in a two-acre field without (1) being on a picnic, or (2) apparently doing a stroke of work.

Scientists, however, call him "the American Fabre" and assert that his collection of 15,000 photographs of insects, most of them taken in the same two-acre field, is an important contribution to entomology. Edwin Teale himself insists that he's just an amateur who managed to make a hobby pay.

"In the index of the World Almanac," he says regretfully, "only a single item refers to the 25,000 species of insects which are fellow-dwellers on our planet. It is: Insect Strings. First aid treatment for."

Though not averse to slapping a mosquito, Teale has devoted six years to improving the world's opinion of insects. A large man

Sports Writers Put Georgia U In Second Place

By HAROLD CLASSEN
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (Special)—Ohio State, coached by Paul Brown, only two years away from capturing a high school eleven, has the best college football team in the opinion of 91 sports writers throughout the United States.

The Buckeyes, undefeated in three starts, top second place by Georgia 141 votes in the Associated Press' first weekly rating of the present season.

Although Minnesota, which was first place in the final polls of both 1940 and 1941, yielded its lofty position and slid to 14th place, the Big Ten conference dominates with the Ohioans and three other entries among the first ten.

Michigan, which has lost only to the Iowa Hawkeyes of Lieut. Col. Bernie Bierman, is third with the surprising Illinois club fifth and Wisconsin seventh, at Ohio State, with victories over Port Knox, Indiana and Southern California, drew 25 first place votes. 29 second place votes, 23 third place votes, 18 fourth place votes, 13 fifth place votes, 11 sixth place votes, 10 seventh place votes, 9 eighth place votes, 8 ninth place votes, 7 tenth place votes, 6 11th place votes, 5 12th place votes, 4 13th place votes, 3 14th place votes, 2 15th place votes, 1 16th place vote.

The Bulldogs, one of the favorites for the Southeastern conference title, drew 18 first place votes, 20 second place votes, 13 third place votes, 12 fourth place votes, 11 fifth place votes, 10 sixth place votes, 9 seventh place votes, 8 eighth place votes, 7 ninth place votes, 6 10th place votes, 5 11th place votes, 4 12th place votes, 3 13th place votes, 2 14th place votes, 1 15th place vote.

Michigan also collected 12 first place votes and 418 votes for third place in the final ranking of 1941.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, still has been good enough to subdue four opponents, squeaking by Kentucky, 7 to 6, in the upset, and then measuring Jacksonville naval air station, Furman and Mississippi University.

Reds Retake One Section In Stalingrad

Reports Say Russian Armies Are Taking Offensive Around Volga Metropolis

(By Associated Press) Berlin announced today that Heinrich Himmler, chief of Hitler's dreaded Gestapo, is in Rome for a private visit as the guest of the Fascist government but reports of German-Italian fiction suggested this might be more than a social call.

These reports indicated strongly that German suspicion of Italy's attitude toward the United States is the source of the trouble.

(By Associated Press) Marshal Timoshenko's Red armies were reported today to have driven two new wedges into the 18-mile German barrier northwest of Stalingrad, while inside the city, defenders recaptured a street, yielded to the Nazis Monday.

Russian shock troops advanced in two sectors on the northwest corner, along the vital corridor between the Don and Volga rivers, in fighting that swirled around trench lines, hills and villages.

Latest accounts said the Germans were already shivering in the chilly autumn wind and attempting to dig in for another winter's campaign. Stalingrad the battle appeared to be waning.

Since Hitler boasted last month the fall of Stalingrad was inevitable, the Russians seemed to have improved their position.

Russian troops, wresting the initiative from the Germans in key sectors of the now wintry western front, recaptured lost positions in Stalingrad yesterday and cut a new gash in the Nazi line in the northwest.

"In the Stalingrad area our troops recaptured positions which they had lost the day before in the district of the town," the high command said in its only mention of infantry activity inside the Volga city.

The fierce, unrelenting burst of German attacks Monday shaped up as a flash in the pan instead of the indicated resumption of the conquest of Stalingrad by direct assault.

The late communique and supplementary front reports said the Germans now were on the defensive at Stalingrad and on both wings of the Caucasus front, on which winter had clamped its first numbing grip.

Significance of the change in the situation on the lower Soviet front, the preamble to the night communique said merely that "no change took place on the fronts" for the first time in weeks.

Russian and German cannon still dueling over Stalingrad, the high command said. Red army artillerymen were credited with knocking out three German tanks, three artillery and 10 enemy field fortifications.

Soviet guardsmen attacked German forward positions northwest of Stalingrad, the official bulletin said, and "sprung the German back somewhat." They also destroyed one anti-tank gun, 16 machine guns and one mortar battery.

Salamagundi Is Awarded Highest Honor For Annual School Year Book

Chosen As Best In 500 And 900 Class

Salamagundi, 1942 year book presented by the senior class of Seminole High School last Spring, has received the highest All American Honor Having, for high school year books, from the National Scholastic Press Association Critical Service, and was adjudged on a basis of artistic appearance, photography, material quality, and financial management.

Mr. McKay quoted a letter from the Service, "Congratulations on your All American Rating. It is a distinct honor for a book to be listed as one of the superior books listed in the National Scholastic Press Association Critical Service."

Today's two Navy communiqués brought the best news of destruction for the two actions of the Six Japanese ships sunk (one heavy cruiser, four destroyers and a transport).

One Japanese destroyer probably sunk. Three Japanese destroyers damaged, and possibly two of them crippled and knocked out of action.

Thus, the toll inflicted on the Japanese was 10 warships and auxiliaries sunk or damaged in a four-day period.

But the biggest blow of all was struck about midnight Sunday when the American task force intercepted the force of Japanese cruisers, destroyers and transports apparently bent on landing large-scale reinforcements on Guadalcanal.

This major landing attempt was promptly smashed in perhaps the swiftest and most lethal single blow ever delivered by American warships during a 30-minute period.

The following members of the 1942 "Sally" staff: David M. Gatchel, editor; Patty Hodger, Winifred Lovell, Alice Temple, Edward Marshall and Lois Nipper, associate editors; Nancy Dighton, business manager; Katharine Spencer, Earl Jeter and Susan Kirtley, advertising managers; Gladys Pippin and Clifford Proctor, snapshot editors; Elizabeth Vaughn and Kirby Fite, sports editors; Marjorie Newman, Bill Branan, Martha Wright and Stella Touchton, circulation managers; Laurille Dutton and Billy Hollyhead, junior representatives of the faculty; Miss Phyllis Smith, sponsor; Miss Rebecca Stevens, financial advisor; and Miss Lillian Dunlap, circulation advisor.

A novel feature of the Salamagundi are the two skeletons on the cover which are explained as "My whole skeleton, School Life," "My head which is my body, the Faculty; My backbone, the Classes and my ribs, all the student jokes. My arms represent activities; my legs, naturally, school; my feet, the Faculty and the pedestal on which I stand, the school."

Total Of Jap Ships Sunk Is Raised To 79

5 Japanese Warships Destroyed In 30-Minute Battle In Solomon Islands

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The Navy announced today that the announced United States Western Pacific sank a Japanese heavy cruiser, four other warships, and probably sank another, and damaged two. This report of successful attacks on eight enemy vessels in recent operations raised the announced United States toll of Japanese naval and merchant shipping to 79 sunk, 20 possibly sunk and 21 damaged, a total of 124.

American fleet units, returning to the battle of the Solomons, sank a Japanese heavy cruiser, four destroyers and a transport during a fierce 30-minute battle Sunday night in perhaps the biggest single blow delivered against the enemy fleet there. The Navy disclosed last night.

Navy and Marine topography and dive bombers pursuing the retreating Jap force Monday then knocked another cruiser out of action and probably sank another destroyer.

Only one unnamed American destroyer was lost in the sea battle. Thus did Uncle Sam's blue jackets and armor-averse the loss of the cruiser, heavy cruiser, and four other vessels, which were sunk on Sunday night in the final phase of the American offensive against the Solomons.

An announcement of the smashing victory came Sunday night after detailed dispatches that the Five American destroyers had been sunk.

It followed by only a few hours announcement that U. S. Marines have swept into the northern tip of Guadalcanal in a ground land offensive in the Solomons and a statement by a naval air chief that returned from the battle area that he can hold the Solomons and expand.

The new land drive, which is being strengthened, the American position was supported by savage offensive and defense aerial thrusts which cost the Japanese two cruisers, four destroyers and a transport.

Those attacks were completed Sunday a few hours before the American task force of cruisers and destroyers intercepted the Jap fleet unit and pounded it into defeat.
