7 Sanford Homes Burglarized

Valuables Worth $1000 Are Stolen

Seven homes in the Wynne-wood section of Sanford were broken into Saturday night and more than $1,000 in valuable jewels and money stolen, police reported.

Police Chief Roy Williams said he believes all the burglaries were connected and done by the same party.

All the homes were entered by the burglar using a screw driver to pry open the doors.

Police said that the home of Circuit Judge Volie Williams Jr. was entered at 1202 Washington Dr. and $30 in cash stolen from a jewel box.

Entry was gained by prying the lock on the back door.

Another break-in occurred at 1221 Randolph, the home of Victoria Rock where two silver dollars were missing.

At 1602 Forest Dr., the home of Herman Fore was burglarized and ransacked with $900 stolen.

The Colley home at 2403 Stevens Ave. was burglarized and ransacked with five silver dollars stolen.

At 1911 Mellenville, Dr. Lip-ton's house was entered and a valuable watch, estimated to be worth $250 taken.

Darwin Smith's home at 2000 Adams was entered the same night and a large amount of cash as well as a diamond ring are missing.

Wade Tye's home at 2417 Summerlin was entered also with valuables missing.

Police are continuing their search for the burglars.

Big 3 Agree To Try Again

GENEVA (UPI)—The Big Three nuclear powers today agreed on an intensified new effort to end the test ban stalemate.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin accepted a long-standing Western suggestion for a three-nation subcommittee within the general disarmament conference to try to resolve the deadlock.

British and American official spokesmen immediately welcomed the Soviet move.

Zorin told a news conference Russia would like to have France on the subcommittee.

But he said the Kremlin was willing to go ahead without her if President Charles de Gaulle persists in his refusal to send delegates there.

A British spokesman said: "We welcome today's statement by Mr. Zorin. Both we and the United States have made it clear to the Russians that we would welcome their participation in such a committee."

137 Million Russians Vote

MOSCOW (UPI)—An estimated 137 million voters Sunday cast ballots for a single slate of Communist-approved candidates for the Soviet parliament.

Based on past performance, more than 99 per cent of the voters are expected to approve the hand-picked slate, including Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. Results probably will be announced Tuesday.

Men and women 18 years old or over streamed to the polling booths all day Sunday under cloudy skies.

Driver Injured In Casselberry Crash

A Johnson Electronics employee, Russell Harris of Fairy Lake, was reported in fair condition at Winter Park Hospital at 10 a.m. today after he was injured in an early morning traffic accident in Casselberry.

Report on the extent of injuries was not available.

According to eyewitness accounts, Harris, driving a late model panel truck, pulled out from the intersection at the electronics company building and Hwy. 17-92 and was hit broadside by a loaded Winn-Dixie semi-trailer traveling south.

Simon Boyd of Jacksonville, driver of the semi, was checked at the hospital for possible leg injuries and released.

The panel truck body was ripped open by the impact. Damage was estimated at $2,200. The seat had to be unbolled before Harris could be removed in order to prevent further injuries. Damage to the semi was estimated at $1,500.

Casselberry Volunteer Fire Dept. stood by while Harris was removed and until all danger of fire was checked. On the scene medical examination was made by Dr. Stanley Rapaport.

Spring Shows Up In Some Areas

By United Press International
Spring was only a day away today, and for a chance it felt like it in much of the nation.

For the second straight day temperatures were mild in the winter-wracked North but rain and thawing added to flood threats in Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri.

The thundershowers in the middle Mississippi Valley and rain in the corn belt brought an end to a spring-like day which saw temperatures in the 60s as far north as Nebraska.

The Weather Bureau warned of floods in northwestern Missouri and southwestern Iowa.

City Manager's Right To Check Expenditures Cited

City Manager W. E. Knowles questioned the handling of public funds at a special meeting of the City Commission Saturday afternoon.

Knowles referred to recent City Commission action to appropriate $1,000 to the newly formed Industrial Board of which Commissioner Joe Baker is chairman.

Knowles emphasized that it was no criticism of "Mr. Baker but there's a special provision in the charter that the manager should approve and have an opportunity to check all expended funds."

Knowles said that a special fund was set up for the Park board "and that a $200 check was drawn without my knowledge."

Records at City Hall today reveal that the check was made out to Architect Jim Chapman for park layout plans.

A special banking account was set up for the Industrial board in the Sanford Atlantic Bank.

Serving on the board with Baker is Bob Crumley and Art Harris.

"I don't want to be responsible for those public funds," Knowles said.

"I would like to be relieved of all responsibility in relation to them," Knowles added.

He said that all vouchers for funds are signed by the city manager. "Bluntly, special funds were set up without my knowledge and I don't want to be responsible for those expenditures."

The commission, after a short discussion, took the responsibility from Knowles.

Army Acts To Void Election Of Peronists

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—The cabinet of President Arturo Frondizi resigned today less than 12 hours after a sweeping Peronist victory at the polls.

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Argentina's military leaders moved today to nullify elections in 10 provinces where supporters of former dictator Juan D. Peron were elected Sunday.

Informal sources said the secretaries of the Argentine army, navy and air force decided at an emergency meeting to tell President Arturo Frondizi to proclaim federal intervention where the Peronists won power.

Under the Argentine Constitution, intervention would nullify the results of the elections and prevent the Peronists from taking office.

Peron had urged from his exile in Spain that Argentinians demonstrate their loyalty for him by voting for his supporters—also backed by the Communists—against candidates running in congressional and provincial elections with Frondizi's backing. The dictator was ousted by a military coup in 1955.

The Peronist victory did not affect Frondizi's tenure as president, which has two more years to run, but it indicated a popular dissatisfaction with his government's austerity program.

The meeting, attended by the three secretaries and their aides, broke up just before dawn.

Cracker Days, Star-Studded Success

SQUARE-DANCING EXHIBITIONS were given in downtown Sanford Friday night, to provide added entertainment for the pleasant sound of jingling cash registers as crowds thronged into town just like the "good old days on Saturday night." (Herald Photo)

Merchants, Customers Cheer

By all standards, Old-Fashioned Cracker Days were a complete success in Sanford as merchants and customers alike were well-satisfied with the happy results of two big days of sales and promotions, sparked by old-fashioned costumes, in the most cooperative enterprise seen in recent years.

Early Friday morning, Crackers and Yankees, country and city, urban and suburban folks began to crowd the streets to shop and buy, listen and look and thoroughly enjoy the fun and entertainment promoted by the downtown Sanford merchants who participated almost 100 percent in dressing for the part.

Store clerks, and sales people, owners and managers alike all said they hadn't had "so much fun in a long time." And the fun was communicated to the customers, who came in crowds to see and buy.

Merchants, happy with the zing and spirit of the venture expressed their satisfaction

IF THERE HAD BEEN prizes for the most authentic costumes for Old-Fashioned Cracker Days, Mrs. Eunice Jenkins would surely have won one, as she hobbled down the street on her cane, her market basket loaded and her shawl draped about her shoulders. She was one among many Sanford salespersons who used their imagination and enthusiasm to arrange very realistic portrayals of "crackers."

WAITING FOR CUSTOMERS, country-store style might be the caption of this picture as Chester Oxford rocks gently in front of the shoe rack. But actually the store was full of customers who were busy taking advantage of the bonus buys on Old-Fashioned Cracker Days. (Herald Photo)

THIS EYE-CATCHING display stopped many a person downtown Sanford Friday and Saturday as it depicted a man's legs sticking out of a washing machine. Here two cracker ladies peer in amusement to see what happened to the rest of him. (Herald Photo)

Bear Lake Community Club Elects Nominating Committee

By Shirley Wentworth

The regular monthly meeting of the Bear Lake Community Club was held last Thursday at the Florida Power Club on Bear Lake.

First order of business was the election of a nominating committee. Named were Miss Helen Cockley, chairman, and Mrs. J. N. Ancrum, Mrs. Stan J. Bury, G. C. Aldrich and Mrs. Russell Loomis.

Reports also were made regarding the distribution of flyers to Precinct 16 regarding the membership drive now underway. Under discussion was the reworking of the Little League Baseball field in order that it will be ready for the playing season. The club voted to give financial assistance towards getting clay for the project.

A card party to be sponsored by the club was planned with the date to be announced. Chairman of this event will be Mrs. Robert Conover assisted by Mrs. Ancrum, Mrs. Raymond A. Jackson, Mrs. Edith LaCorte and Mrs. Allen Wentworth.

Speaker on the evening's program was Joe Davis, candidate for the State Legislature in Seminole County group 2. Davis explained the duties of the office and spoke briefly on his personal background and work.

A social hour followed with Mrs. W. Conover and Miss Louise Shaw as hostesses.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Ancrum and Mrs. Jackson.

Supper Set To Organize Ebenezer Men

A dinner, prepared by a special ladies committee at cost, will be held at Ebenezer Methodist Church at 5:30 p. m. today to discuss organizing an Ebenezer Chapter of Methodist Men.

Guests of honor will be Chaplain Robert L. Deal of Sanford Naval Air Station and Herbert S. Talton, district director of Methodist Men.

"Hone Fire"

"Honefire" actually means "bone fire" being so named in 10th century England because martyrs' bones were burned in large fires.

Jason And Medea Rule Banquet

The Latin Club of Seminole High School turned the cafeteria of the school into a Roman Banquet Hall Thursday night as they staged their annual Latin Banquet, in full costume and in keeping with the best Roman tradition.

Reigning over the festivities were the Goddess Medea, (Judy Buntin) and the God Jason (Johnny Phillips). They were seated on cushions beneath a bower of roses, and served by their own personal slaves, first year students Myra Meeks and Jerry Whitmore.

Other second and third year students also came in appropriate costumes as Greek and Roman gods and goddesses, while all first year students wore the white toga and sandals of slaves.

Honored guests were members of the faculty of Seminole High School.

The Romans were entertained royally by various means including dancing girls, jousting gladiators, jugglers, singers, guitar playing and command performances of slaves who were required to perform as many different tricks as possible.

Richard E. Byrd and Floyd Bennett were first persons to fly over the North Pole, May 16, 1926.

Central Florida Navy League Meets At NAS

The annual meeting of the Central Florida Council of the Navy League was held Thursday at the Naval Air Station, with RADM (ret.) W. R. Hollingsworth, assuming the office of president.

Activities began with a welcome by Capt. Robert M. Ware, commanding officer of NAS, Sanford, and a briefing by Capt. Joseph H. Tully, Jr., commanding officer of Heavy Attack Wing One.

Later the group, who had gathered from all over central Florida, viewed a static display of aircraft, a helicopter exhibition and observed field mirror landing practice, under the direction of Lieut. Harvey Smith.

At 6 p. m. the group adjourned to the NAS Ballroom where they enjoyed cocktails and dinner.

The annual business meeting was held during the dinner, with reports from the officers of the organization, and the report of the nominating committee.

In his president's report, outgoing president James A. Wright said, "During the past year our Council membership was increased from 142 to 230 members, representing an increase of 55 percent."

Wright enumerated the many activities in which the Council has participated during the past year including visits to industries and military installations, attendance at the Southeastern Industrial Exposition, attendance at change of command ceremonies honoring Capt. F. G. Edwards, a formal dinner on Navy Day, attendance at the Southeastern Regional Council meeting, a cruise on the FDR aircraft carrier, and a trip to sea by the president about the Missile Frigate USS Dahlgren.

President Wright also expressed appreciation to Captain Ware, Captain Tully and members of their staffs, and to Joe Calloway and Cdr. Joe Antlik.

The meeting was concluded with the showing of films of aircraft carrier operations.

North Orlando Girls Mark Friendship Week

By Ginny Skisak
In observance of World Friendship Week, North Orlando Girl Scout Troop 594 was host to the mothers and Longwood Elementary sixth grade teacher last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Pike, leader. Mrs. Robert Davis, co-leader of the troop, assisted with the program.

Expressing their love of flowers, homes, pets and the whole world by a fitting display signifying each, the troop acquainted guests with its present neighborhood projects.

The sale of Girl Scout cookies, one of the projects, still is in progress.

A candlelight investiture was conducted for Peggy Ann George and Becky Allen, new members. Three large and ten small candles formed a heart shaped background for the ceremony. The new members lighted the three large candles to represent the three parts of the Scout Oath while repeating it. The remaining 10 girls, each lighting one of the smaller candles, recited the 10 scout laws. Guests were Mrs. Herbert Earle, Mrs. W. W. Anderson, Mrs. Dale Williams, Mrs. John George, Mrs. Glenn Atchison and her mother and the Misses Sara Jane Grove and Marilyn Barber.

Rescind That Order

The recent action of the Federal Housing Administration and VA in issuing a stop-order for speculative building in Seminole County is seriously threatening the economy of this county.

While we do not deny the urgent need for market analysis and the streamlining of FHA procedures for handling foreclosed properties, we submit that such drastic action as embarked upon without preparation of, or notice will seriously affect the building industry and the economy of the area.

FHA's insured residential construction in this area comprises 68 percent of the total, and 80 percent of all residential construction is speculative building. In Seminole County, in which of course we are primarily concerned, this action caught our FHA Builders and developers totally unprepared. The immediate effect is the unemployment of hundreds of workers. The loss of income may well be expected to cause even more foreclosures. The cure in this case is more severe than the illness.

In a discussion with the FHA office in Tampa we were given to understand that this stop order would be in effect until the market analysis was completed and they said it would take several months. ANY DELAY WOULD BE CATASTROPHIC.

We urge in behalf of the builders immediate rescinding of this order. We realize the necessity for corrective action and pledge complete cooperation and support toward its accomplishment. If, in so doing, we will be allowed an opportunity to adjust to the changes required without undue jeopardy to our local economy.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE L-467: Claude E., aged 21 is a bookkeeper in a department store.

"I don't seem to understand the psychology of women," he reluctantly confessed, after admitting a quarrel with his fiancée.

"Georgia and I seem to get along fine for a while, and then we have a row. She is so unpredictable. By the time I think I have her catalogued, she does something unexpected."

"Dr. Crane, is it ever possible to understand women?"

Women have a different psychology than do men, for they have a very different outlook on life.

"Let's take a boy and a girl in kindergarten. Both are surrounded by "giant" teachers and "giant" parents. A father, for example, may be twice as tall as his child and four or five times as heavy.

For us adults to visualize this situation clearly, just imagine that we are ordered around by men and women 11 or 12 feet tall and weighing 500 to 600 pounds.

Suppose we saw "a table" twice as high as those we adults now use. Imagine our plates doubled in size, with knives and forks 18 inches long.

Suppose we climbed into a bed that was level with our chins when we stood on the floor, or that was 13 feet long by 9 feet wide when we finally clambered into it. Well, Well, this is the sort of world confronting our children.

Because of their superior intelligence, too, parents and teachers appear psychic or omniscient to children, for adults can out-reason a child.

Youngsters look forward eagerly to the time when they, too, will reach the promised land of adulthood. When they will not have to come home at dark, or go to bed at 8 o'clock.

Meanwhile, every badge of adulthood is greatly cherished by the youngster. Thus, he delights in dressing up in his parents' clothes, or receiving a pocket knife "Just like Daddy's." The little girl also wants to use her mother's rouge and lipstick.

For 16 or 18 years this yearning to be the equal of the bossy adults in their environment, is paramount in the minds of children. Then the boys finally arrive at the goal. They are physically the equal of anybody.

But their sisters reach only the half-way mark. Although they become as tall and strong as those much admired "giants," they don't reach the height and strength of the grown male.

Women are as intelligent as men. They are usually better practical psychologists, too, for they have been compelled to watch people throughout their childhood in order to know when to ask for a toy or an addition to their allowance.

Because their brothers were stronger and rougher, girls have also had to use diplomacy and strategy to procure what they wanted. Boys can rely more on brute force, but girls must use their wits.

But because women still subconsciously feel inferior to the male half of the adult population in strength and height, they retain many childish attitudes intermingled with their intelligent adult views. A girl may thus be a very efficient business woman and even out-think a man, but she may break in to tears the next moment over some item which appears trivial to a man.

Because she always remains psychologically part child, part adult, she usually understands children better than does the adult male, so she is more sympathetic and considerate as a parent or teacher.

Like the child, though, she wants the assurance of having a strong male protector. In a crisis, therefore, a woman looks to a man to run the show, thereby demonstrating her childhood deference to giants.

She thus remains eternally half child in her emotional outlook.

Dick West Says

-- But You Can't Sing It

WASHINGTON (UPI) — I hold these truths to be self-evident: —That "The Star Spangled Banner," when played by a band, is a stirring tune which starts your patriotic juices flowing.

Russia Warned In Angry Blast

GENEVA (UPI) — Lord Home, Britain's outspoken foreign secretary, used strong language in his protest against Soviet harassment of Berlin air corridors that it amounted to an implied threat to leave Geneva, it was disclosed Thursday.

A British delegation source said Home first protested to Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Sunday at a meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and again Tuesday night when just the two of them met.

Home was incensed upon learning that the Communists had heeded the air with "chaff" to confuse Western radar screens.

Although the British delegation source could not confirm the exact wording, another source said Home told Gromyko he felt "like turning back to London."

Lord Home is known to be a man who does not hesitate at expressing himself directly without mincing words.

Gromyko, for his part, was reported not to have made any commitment to use his influence to stop the Soviet harassment tactics.

Thus there was no indication here whether Gromyko had anything to do with the sudden cancellation Wednesday night of four Soviet flights scheduled in the Berlin corridors at the same times as Western flights.

—That the same song, when sung by anyone except Lucy Monroe, generally creates vocal chaos.

This brings us to Rep. Joel T. Brohill, a Virginia Republican who is trying to persuade Congress to adopt an "official" version of the National Anthem.

In an effort to enlist support for his proposal, Brohill Thursday obtained the use of Constitution Hall and arranged for a demonstration.

As Brohill pointed out, when Congress formally designated "The Star Spangled Banner" as America's theme song in 1931, it failed to spell out exactly what "The Star Spangled Banner" is.

Opinions vary, as witness the fact that 171 different versions of it have been copyrighted. Even Francis Scott Key, who wrote the original lyrics, changed a word here and there in his later copies.

The melody, based on an English folk song, is subject to even wider interpretation. This was pointed out by the Army band, which played some of the more familiar arrangements.

In one, the melody was overpowered by drum beats, giving it a jungle flavor. In another, the melody was embellished with counterpoint, so that it sounded something like a Bach fugue.

A third arrangement had the middle part, where the rocket glares and the bomb bursts in air, played so softly that it sounded like a lullaby.

I wouldn't have been surprised to have heard a "Star Spangled Banner Cha-Cha."

The band then played its own arrangement, based on the version in the Brohill bill. Here the regular brass section was augmented with herald trumpets, and it was a grand thing to hear, provided you don't have tender ears.

But when the last note died away, a little old lady, who identified herself as Miss Tilly Sutor, age 90, of Baltimore, stood up in the audience and voted a protest.

"No one can sing it," Miss Sutor complained, and I could only agree. Some of the notes were so high they would make my nose bleed.

The program ended with a Brohill plea for unanimity, but somehow I doubt the conflict will ever be resolved. The only solution I can see is to have two National Anthems, one for instruments and one for voice.

Political Notebook

Peter Edson

WASHINGTON (NEA)—On the same day that the White House announced postponement of the exchange television broadcasts between President Kennedy and Chairman Khrushchev because relations between the two countries are so bad . . . On this very same day the State Department's Charles E. Bohlen and Russia's Cultural Relations Deputy Minister S. K. Romanovsky signed a new two-year exchange agreement because peaceful coexistence between the two countries is so good.

This paradox is obvious in almost every paragraph of the long and detailed document. It covers every kind of culture from art and athletics to jazz; every science from agriculture to zoology.

It puts down precisely how many people can be exchanged by each country on each of more than 100 missions involving up to 2,500 bodies; how long they can stay and what they're supposed to do away from home.

This is said to be a 15 percent step-up from the American-Russian cultural exchange rate of the past two years. There will be, in addition, more than 2,000 American tourists visiting Russia in each of the next two years, as compared to under 500 Russian tourists visiting the U. S. These are last year's figures.

Increased exchanges are also called for in motion pictures, radio and television recordings, books, scientific journals and traveling exhibitions of communications equipment and metal cutting machinery, if you call them "culture."

No exchange exhibition is called for to show off Russia's big rocket boosters, the one

Thoughts

To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ—II Thess. 2:14.

The main object of the gospel is to establish two principles — the corruption of nature, and the redemption by Jesus Christ.—Blaise Pascal, technical field in which they would like to learn a few tricks. Here the Russians keep their know-how secret.

But in nearly all of the other areas of exchange — clothing, manufacture, rural electrification, meat and dairy production, urban development, sanitation and all the things which go into the higher American standard of living, the United States has more savvy and the Russians stand to gain more from the cultural swap.

Viewed from this angle it looks like an uneven barter, with the Russians getting the better of the deal. This comparison can be made without belittling their real accomplishments in the arts and sciences. It is arguable that the Russians are giving more than they get in sending to the United States the Bolshoi ballet, Ukrainian dance group and Leningrad philharmonic in exchange for the New York ballet, the Robert Shaw Choral and Benny Goodman.

But there is a more material advantage falling to the Russians through the unconvertibility of the ruble.

American artists, technicians, scientists, students or professors going to Russia have to be paid in dollars. Russians coming here will also have to be paid in dollars because the ruble is no good in this country.

Nobody seems to know how much the cultural account books are thrown out of balance by this exchange. But the President's budget shows that expenses for cultural exchange with "Eastern Europe" are being stepped up from last year's $1.2 million to $3.3 million for next year. The taxpayer's question is, "Is it worth it?"

The answer given is that cultural exchange is the great and almost the only way the United States can get more intelligent Russians into the United States to see what a free society and a higher standard of living can do for people.

This is the one way for getting more Russians back into Russia with first-hand knowledge of what it's like outside. If the Communist dictatorship can be broken down only by internal pressures from the Russian people themselves, this is one approach.

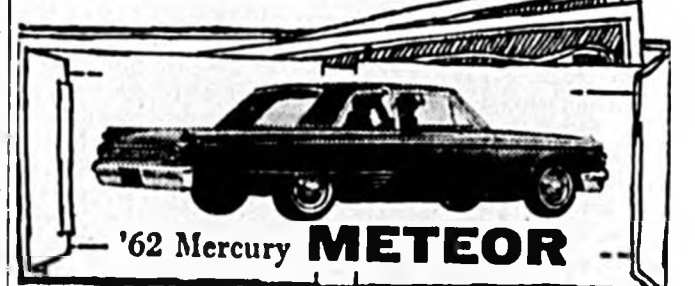

Also, it doesn't hurt to get more Americans into Russia to see what they can see and learn what they can learn.

Little League Tryouts To Open March 27

Crowe's Camp

KNEE DEEP IN Outdoors

By JACK TRIM
Extension of the Fishing Liars Contest brought forth a rash of last minute lying, but Vernon C. Feddersen of Sanford wrote in this request:
"Would you please enter this TRUE story in your Fishing Liars Contest?"
"That usually opens the door to some real fancy fabricating, and here is Feddersen's true story."
"One day last summer while fishing in Lake Jessup I decided, since the fish were not biting for a chance, to get out of my boat and relax on Bird Island."
"I walked over to a fallen log and a moosebitt bit me in the leg right above the ankle. Realizing the distance from a doctor, I sat down on the log to think it over."
"The last thing I remember was falling off the log. When I awoke, I was lying on the ground with my leg over the log and then I remembered what happened."
"After looking at my leg, I realized what had saved me. There were about a gallon of dead mosquitoes lying on the ground."
"They had bitten me and got all the poison out of my leg and they died from it."
Well, sir, that true story is officially in the liars contest.

And here is another entry in the contest, sent in by W. B. Lynch, Rt. 2, Sanford.
"I caught a bass so big that when I put him in the boat, it shoved the water out of the river and into the woods and the boat stuck in the mud."
"I had to put the bass in the woods to force the water back into the river."
If a new record size shad is going to be caught this season, the next few days may tell the story.
Jim Crowe said Saturday that there's a noticeable increase in the average size of the rye fish being caught from the new run in now and that the removal of the commercial nets on the March 15 deadline for commercial shad catches should "let at least one big one through."

Some familiar faces will be in a new location from now on and a veteran fishing camp operator will be sidelined.
Bill Cagle, owner of Cagle's Gun and Tackle Shop, and Paul Johnson, former owner of the Big Dip on Park Ave., have bought the Osteen Bridge Fish Camp from Phil Stallings.
Cagle and Johnson will run the camp themselves and were moving in Saturday. Their moving in was pleasantly complicated by a goodly number of fishermen who braved the chilly weather to keep them busy their first day.
Stallings and his wife have made a lot of friends on the river, but Phil has had another operation on a bad leg and will have to take it easy for awhile.
Chances are that he will be a frequent visitor to the camp though, since he knows where to catch fish and probably never will be able to resist the urge to prove it.

And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.—1 John 3:3.

Don't Laugh---Watch Those Cubs
United Press International
Stop laughing—the Chicago Cubs may yet prove that brains can win over brawn in baseball.
The Cubs have been the butt of countless dugout jokes because of owner Phil Wrigley's novel "board of directors managerial system." They limped home seventh in 1961, the first year of the experiment, and they lost their first three exhibition games this spring.
But all that wisdom Wrigley's nine coaches have dispensed must be taking hold because the Cubs have won six straight games and their 6-3 spring record is second only to the New York Yankees perfect 8-0 slate.
The Cubs stretched their winning streak to six games with Sunday's 6-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox at Scottsdale, Ariz., and once again it was rookie outfielder Lou Brock who shined the way. Brock, who hit .361 for St. Cloud in class C ball last season, had a triple and four singles in five tries to raise his spring average to .432.
Don Cardwell turned in his second one-run, four-inning performance of the spring to win his second game for the Cubs, who breezed with a 6-1 lead in to the eighth inning when the Red Sox scored four runs off Jim Brewer.
The Yankees spotted the Chicago White Sox a 2-0 lead and then scored six runs in the fifth inning to pave the way for a 10-3 triumph. Cletis Boyer homered for the Yankees, whose pitching was handled by Jim Coates, Robin Roberts, Al Downing and Jim Bouton.
Minnie Minoso singled with two out in the 11th inning to drive in the run that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 7-6 decision over the Milwaukee Braves. The Cardinals had taken a 6-2 lead on Bill White's grand slam homer in the top of the ninth but the Braves staged a counter rally to send the game into extra innings.

Sahlers Having Very Busy Winter

By Frances Wester
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Sahler of Lake Mary and Greenwood Lake, N. Y., have been having a busy time at their winter home in Lake Mary this year.

They have spent much of their time getting ready to move into another most attractive new home they are having built near Crystal Lake. They sold their present home to the First Baptist Church of Lake Mary for a parsonage and Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor expect to move here from Orlando with their four children as soon as school is out.

Besides all this they have had lots of company from the North. The most recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Conklin and sons, Joseph and David, from Sloatsburg, N. Y., who were here for two weeks. During that time they visited Cypress Gardens, Bush Gardens and the beaches. On their way home they stopped at Marineland and St. Augustine.

They liked Lake Mary best and got so much sand in their shoes that they want to come right back. They think it is a lot better than the snow they had to shovel when they got back home.

Other guests have been Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck Decker. Mrs. Decker is Mr. Sahler's

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Everyone at our bridge club roared over the letter in your column from the wife who complained because, in 37 years of marriage, her husband had not had 37 baths. I wasn't laughing, because I am married to a man something like that. He will bathe, but he won't wash his head because he thinks that too much water will cause him to lose his hair. I have yelled myself hoarse about how a clean scalp will help him to KEEP his hair, but it does no good. You know how terrible an unclean head can smell. Well, he has a big nose, but can't smell a thing. I usually end up by saying, "O.K., so go down and sleep with the dog." And he does. What should I do?

DEAR DISGUSTED: Yes, but don't be too critical. Her personal performance is more important than her possessive pronouns. DEAR ABBY: We have a problem. There are six of us brothers and sisters. Last NOVEMBER we gave our parents a beautiful golden wedding anniversary party. They had their pictures in the newspapers and it was a big social event in town. This APRIL our oldest brother will be 50 years old and his stupid wife wants to give a big 50th birthday party. According to our calculations, he was born five months after our parents' marriage. Don't you think she should forget his 50th birthday party idea? THE FAMILY

DEAR FAMILY: Not all birthdays and anniversaries are celebrated on the exact date. If your brother's wife were to give the 50th birthday party some time during the "golden year," it would serve the purpose. (Silence, too, is golden.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO SAMMY: When the cat's away, some mice act like rats. Next time stay home.

Stop worrying. Let Abby help you with that problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

DEAR NOT: Any woman who can tell her husband to go down and sleep with the dog, and get away with it, has no problem. But her husband has. When he writes to me, I'll tell HIM what to do.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter-in-law is a pleasant enough person. She is a good mother and housekeeper, and my son seems to be satisfied with her. But she is a "ME" and "MINE" person. She says, "MY house, MY children, MY car and MY everything." Don't you think she should be thoughtful enough of her husband's efforts to say "OUR" instead? She reads your column. DISGUSTED MOTHER-IN-LAW

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

This week's articles will discuss the two no-trump responses. This response is a popular one. Everybody likes to bid no-trump. In standard American bidding it is a game force and shows a balanced hand, 13 to 15 high card points and preparation for the lead of any suit except that bid by partner. It is also generally abused because somehow or other most bridge players like to bid no-trump at the first opportunity so that if the hand plays in no-trump they will be declared. South has a perfect book to game. Of course, North has a bare minimum bid, but the two no-trump response is a force and North must bid again. Many players would rebid to three spades with the North hand, but there is no reason to make that bid. North has no-trump distribution and South wins the opening diamond and promptly rattles off 10 tricks. He has nine cold tricks against any lead. Playing at four spades North would make only eight tricks. The defense would collect two clubs, two diamonds and a ruff before North could get the lead.

Compton, Bomb Developer, Dies

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Nobel Prize winner Dr. Arthur Holly Compton, one of the men directly responsible for the development of the atomic bomb, died Thursday at the age of 69. Compton was admitted to a hospital March 1, suffering from dizziness and nausea. His illness was diagnosed as a cerebral hemorrhage. He lost consciousness March 3, and remained so until his death, which came at 5:20 a.m. The tall, bushy-browed scientist won the Nobel Prize for physics in 1927 for his investigation of X-rays and their interaction with matter. He became best known, however, for his work as both administrator and scientist in the development of the atomic bomb.

Looks Like Ohio State, Cincinnati In NCAA Finals

United Press International It's just like the experts said even before the start of the season: Ohio State and Cincinnati are heading for the final in the NCAA basketball tournament. To which Wake Forest and UCLA chorus a loud, "Say who!" These four teams advanced to the national semifinals Saturday night with victories at four different sites. Next Friday night at Louisville, Ky., Ohio State meets Wake Forest and Cincinnati plays UCLA. The survivors clash Saturday night for the championship. Ohio State and Cincinnati were ranked 1-2 in the nation all season long by the United Press International Board of Coaches. It seemed inevitable that they would meet in the NCAA final for a repeat of last season's showdown, which was won by Cincinnati in overtime, 70-65. Now only the inspired Deacons from Wake Forest and the fast-breaking Bruins from UCLA stand in the way of that "dream" match. And no one can blame Coach-of-the-Year Fred Taylor of the Buckeyes and Ed Jucker of Cincinnati for casting a few apprehensive thoughts about these two upstarts. Jerry Lucas & Co. reached the NCAA semifinal for the third straight year by defeating Kentucky, 74-64, at Iowa City. Cincinnati crushed Colorado's Big Eight champions, 73-46, at Manhattan, Kan. Wake Forest, which had won its two previous NCAA games in overtime, did not need an extra period Saturday to beat Villanova, 79-69, at College Park, Md. and UCLA drubbed Oregon State, 86-6, at Provo, Utah.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

I'm an avid reader of household hints—those little items that tell housewives the easy, sure way to do things. It's a passion akin to reading recipe books—and not much more productive. For just as you rarely get around to trying the recipes in the books you pore over, you never seem to remember a household hint at the precise moment when it would come in handy. Spill a bottle of ink on the living room carpet and you know you read just the other day how to take care of the situation. But what did the household hint say? Did it tell you to use milk or tooth paste to clean up the mess? Well, anyway, household hints are usually harmless—even if you can't recall them in moments of crisis. But today I came across one that I am afraid will wreak havoc in the American home. This little tip was for a housewife to save her husband's old, bedraggled and discarded golf bag to use as a handy carrying case for all her clean-up equipment. Put a broom where the five iron once nestled, a mop in place of a putter, dust cloth where the golf bag away in the and so on. Then the housewife stows the golf bag away in the broom closet—and presto, when there's a clean-up job to be done she slings it over her shoulder and marches to the fairway—sorry—meat. There's no doubt but what a golf bag would carry cleaning equipment compactly—even an old discarded golf bag. But think of the mental process of the wife using her husband's old golf bag as a cleaning carrier. If she is human she will begin to think of all the carefree, happy hours he has spent knocking a little ball around while she has been scrubbing the kitchen, polishing furniture, washing finger marks off walls, waxing floors and so on. The longer she lugs that golf bag full of cleaning equipment from room to room the madder she will get. So here's a tip for husbands: When your old golf bag has had it, don't bring it home. Throw it in a trash can at the country club. If not—you may never get to use a brand new one.

Highlights TV Time Previews

8:30 p.m. (CBS.) Pete and Gladys. If Lucille Ball hadn't created the role of "Lucy," Cara Williams in this series might have been more popular, and it's sure she would have been just as entertaining. In tonight's episode, the villain is a dentist and his weapon, anesthesia. After unconsciousness, Gladys succumbs, finding herself as groggy as a sailor on a week-end leave, afterward. This could mean disaster, since Pete has invited an important executive to dinner and Gladys is hardly up to preparing it. Cara Williams and Harry Morgan co-star with Francis Rafferty, Don Beddoe and Barbara Morrison featured. 8:30 p.m. (CBS.) Father Knows Best. "Kathy Grows Up." (A Repeat) The authors of this series found solutions, then fit family problems to them, judging from the crisis that crop up from week to week. Tonight's problem is a common one, familiar to most families — that of growing pains in a young daughter. Kathy resigns from her circle of friends, declaring that from now on she should be treated as an adult. To test her, father takes her to a country club dance in her mother's place, an act that turns out to be a good solution to a simple problem. Robert Young, Jane Wyatt and Lauren Chapin star. 9:30 p.m. (CBS.) The Danny Thomas Show. Situation comedy series are defined loosely as "in the kitchen" shows, and this episode certainly is that. Bunny Halper (Pat Carroll) gets needed help from Kathy in trying to prepare a gourmet meal for discriminating Cousin Herman (Louis Nye), but gets little help from Danny (Danny Thomas) and Charley Halper (Sid Melton). Some good laughs, especially from Nye, whose toothy smile alone is quite mirth-provoking. Also in for some good chuckles is Amanda Randolph, in her regular role of the maid. 9:10 p.m. (NBC.) Special. "Hollywood Melody." (Color) Taped several weeks ago, this entertaining hour is themed as a "Hollywood Special" of Hollywood-filmed musicals, from "The Broadway Melody" (1929) to the current "West Side Story." Donald O'Connor is host and also is fine in displaying his comedy and dance talents, particularly in tandem with Nanette Fabray, whose antics provoke the show's biggest laughs. Showing the most vocal class are Shirley Jones and Howard Keel. "Dr. Kildare" fans will shriek with delight when Richard Chamberlain debuts as a singer with "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World." Technically, however, he displays just a fair vocal talent, albeit his delivery is polished. MGM star Yvette Mimieux's talents are limited to pleasant chatter, but her beauty alone enhances the show. Juliet Prowse dances ballet to jazz in her solo spot, and if you think she didn't have too much to do, it's because time problems occasioned elimination of her second solo spot. A good, well-balanced show. 10:10-10:30 p.m. (CBS.) Hennessey. Chick (Jackie Cooper) resorts to "Pygmalion" technique with effort to make a "lady" out of a rowdy wave (Yvonne Othoin), whose over-exuberance threatens to see her transferred away from the hospital. Some good fun here, with plenty of crockery breakage for good slapstick effect, thanks to the Wave's bull-in-the-china-shop clumsiness. Admiral Shafer (Roscoe Karns) is as impatient as he is exasperated with Dr. Chick's

Garden Circle Hears Talk On Amaryllis

Mrs. J. N. Anrum of Bear Lake filled in for Miss Helen Cockley, who was unable to attend as program speaker for the Bear Lake Garden Circle meeting held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Kowalski of Shirley Dr., in Bear Lake Manor.

Mrs. Anrum gave a most enthusiastic and interesting talk on the culture and care of the Dutch amaryllis, explaining that the amaryllis as we know it today had its beginning in 1606 when it was known as "the American Lily." Its name comes from the Greek word "amorphos" which signifies "sparkle."

The speaker brought with her many species and varieties of the plant and displayed a bulb in the growing stage. She advised that some amaryllis blooms run as large as 11 inches in diameter and bear three to five blooms on a single stalk.

She warned that the bulbs should not be planted too deeply and that sand, peat and loam should be kept damp and not wet. The amaryllis takes two years to reach the blooming stage and ultimate success for a grower is the achievement of a pure white bloom.

Mrs. Anrum also discussed pollination and explained various methods for treatment of diseased bulbs. She has grown amaryllis for some years and now has more than 2,000 varieties.

In business of the club a nominating committee of Mrs. Richard Scott, Mrs. Jay W. Malone and Mrs. Vernon Herrington was appointed and plans were made for a fashion show and reception to be held at the Bear Lake Community Club on May 11.

Mrs. Malone won the door prize gift certificate which is given each month to the club by the Azalea Park Nursery.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Allen L. Wentworth, Lake Asher Circle, Bear Lake Manor.

The question of putting up a plaque on the old county jail was brought up at a short meeting with Police Chief Roy Williams, Architect Jim Chapman and Pete Knowles Monday. Pete vetoed the idea.

One more item on the jail... The price (including architect's fee) won't exceed $12,000 "even if we have to leave a hole in the roof," said Mr. Knowles today.

SCRAMBLED NOTES FROM AN UNSCRAMBLED REPORTER:
Board of Realtors Monday night backed up the FHA and VA on their temporary ban on speculative buildings... Realtors say they want to protect property values... They watch those unemployment figures.

The realtors made public for the first time the recently completed survey on vacant homes in Seminole County... survey shows that north of Five Points there are 272 vacant homes and 712 in South Seminole.

Figures revealed also that since 1959 there were close to 5,000 new homes built... according to the realtors... 1,000 vacant... which means that 4,000 new homes are now being occupied.

One builder laid off 24 men last week.

Realtor President Bryan Kimball reported that 416 of those vacant homes are above the $12,000 price range.

The survey only includes single family homes...

Here's a breakdown on vacant homes on an area basis:
Chuluota, 67 out of 300 homes are vacant... Tangiwood area, 49... Hefster Homes and Casselberry, 87... Weatherfield, 37... Saulando Estates, 9... Bear Lake Hills, 57... Oakland Hills, 28... Gulfview across from Mobile Manor... 22 homes... all but two vacant.

AND SOME MORE:
Lake Harriet Estates, 50... English Estates, 42... Longwood, 28... North Orlando, 68... Altamonte, Oriente and Del-Ray, 65... Oviedo, (hold your hats) 1.

AND SOME MORE:
Pinecrest (all three additions)... 37; Country Club, 36; Dreamwood, 9...

ONE MORE WORD: The FHA should have limited its ban to low cost, dollar down homes and leave the capable builders working on the $14,000, $25,000 class alone.

Don't forget homestead exemption time is running out. Deadline is March 31.

County Engineer Carlton Jiles and Attorney Harold Johnson hard at work on the county's new right of way policy which will be presented to the County Commission Friday.

Congressman Syd Herlong's office called today reporting that the regional post office has granted city mail delivery to Fern Park although the post office serves only 1,379 patrons. The postal office department has waived the requirements setting up mail delivery only for a population of 2,500.

Christmas seals contributions totaled $9,670.50, Chairman Claude Hittell told us today.

Seminole Democrats announced today that they will sponsor political rallies beginning next week. First on the schedule to be reported in Wednesday's Herald.

QUERY FOR THE DAY: Anybody ever hear about our getting a new post office. It seems I heard a few years back we were getting one.

Troops Guard Argentina

Military Set To Put Down Any Violence

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — Troops took up positions today, ready to deal with any violence that might result from government takeover of 5 of the 11 provinces that went Peronist in Sunday's election.

All military leaves were canceled and other security measures were ordered on a precautionary basis. Apart from a few protest bombings, however, there was no immediate report of violence.

Civilian administrators were appointed for Buenos Aires, Rio Negro, Santiago del Estero, Tucuman and Chaco—the five provinces taken over by the government—but for the moment the military was in effective control.

No immediate takeover was ordered in the other six Peronist provinces—Chubut, La Pampa, Misiones, Nuequen, Salta and San Juan—or in Jujuay, where the Christian Democrats won with Peronist support.

Leaders of the strongly Peronist CGT Union Federation need today to discuss possible reaction to the government move. Observers said the union leaders might call a nationwide general strike.

Monday's crackdown was the most drastic anti-Peronist action any Argentine government had taken since 1955, when ex-President Juan D. Peron was kicked out by the army.

It followed the first election since Peron's overthrow in which his supporters had been free in most cases to nominate their own candidates.

Intervention, a fairly widespread Latin American custom, enables the federal government to take over any province which it regards as "maladministered."

BRADENTON (UPI) — Fire struck Monday at a house where six Negro children were alone. All died in the blaze.

A woman who was the mother of two of them was gone when the fire broke out in the little frame house. She tried to get in the house to save some of them, but a man pulled her back after the fire burned her face and arms.

The youngest of the children, a girl 10 months old, was apparently the only one who had any chance of getting out. A witness saw the infant crawling toward a window, but the blaze engulfed the child before the witness could reach in and pull her out.

The other five children, the oldest four years, were found burned to death in another room.

Public Letter Knowles Clarifies Funds Statement

The Herald today is publishing a letter by City Manager W. E. Knowles in the hopes of clarifying the position of members of the industrial board in regard to the handling of public funds appropriated to the board.

Last Saturday, Knowles at the City Commission meeting, questioned the handling of these funds and asked to be relieved of all financial responsibility in regard to the funds.

Following is Mr. Knowles' letter:
"Regarding the story of the handling of funds for the Industrial Park, I wish to make it clear that at no time was any member of the Industrial Park Committee in question nor were the thoughts or proposals of said board.

I did question the administrative procedure followed when setting up the $1,000 appropriated by the City Commission for the use of the Committee. This concerned solely the accounting management of the funds.

In discussing this item, it was pointed out that Section 27(d) of the City Charter holds the City Manager responsible for the financial condition and reporting to the City Commission. In addition, it was pointed out that the City Commission had designated the Manager to sign all city vouchers concerning the expenditure of city funds.

Saturday it was brought to light that $1,000 had been drawn on city funds and set up in a special bank account without the City Manager's knowledge or signature. This is the incorrect administrative procedure under discussion. There is absolutely no question of the whereabouts of any of the funds.

I believe it would be well to clarify this matter for the benefit of the Industrial Park Committee," Knowles said.

ISRAELI, SYRIAN Exchange Gunfire
TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI)—Israeli and Syrian troops exchanged gunfire across the border at the Sea of Galilee today, an Israeli spokesman reported.

It was the second outbreak of shooting around the sea, which also is known as Lake Tiberias, in recent days. Last week an estimated 30 per cent were killed in a border clash.

The military spokesman said Syrian troops opened fire with machineguns, recoilless rifles, anti-tank guns and mortars at an Israeli patrol boat this morning, and Israeli troops returned the fire.

He said two Israeli policemen were wounded by the Syrian shots.

France Warned Of Drastic Transformation

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle told Parliament today that the ceasefire pact with Algerian nationalists will bring such a "sweeping and profound transformation" he must ask the French people to sanction it by referendum.

De Gaulle made the statement in a three-minute message read for him at extraordinary sessions of the two houses.

Deputies and senators stood in silence to hear the message except for three independent "French Algeria" deputies who remained seated in protest. There was no applause at the end.

De Gaulle said the country would be called upon under Article II of the Constitution to endorse a bill which would:

Approve a communique issued by the French cabinet Monday night announcing appointment of diplomat Christian Fouchet as Algerian high commissioner in Algeria and other measures that will set the territory on the road to independence.

Authorize De Gaulle to arrange a referendum vote in Algeria and to set up an independent state there in cooperation with France if that is what Algerians want.

Since the nine million Moslems of Algeria will be able to smother the 1.1 million residents of European extraction at the polls, it is generally conceded Algeria will become independent.

MIAMI (UPI) — U. S. Customs Commissioner Philip Nichols said Monday the United States is not to blame for the food shortage which has led to rationing in Cuba.

Premier Fidel Castro blamed the U. S. embargo for the shortage of food, but Nichols pointed out the embargo does not prohibit food and medical shipments to the island.

"The U. S. government has done nothing to prevent this (food) trade," said Nichols, here on an inspection tour. "Castro apparently just doesn't have the dollars to buy."

The Israeli government said the shooting followed violation of Israeli territory by Syrian Soviet-made MIG17 jet fighters this morning.

George Holder Runs For County Board

GEORGE HOLDER

George Holder of Mobley's Corner, at the junction of SR 434 and Hwy. 17-92 has announced his candidacy for the County Commission race in District 4 in the Democratic primary.

Holder, 51 years old has lived in Seminole County for the past 17 years, coming here from Tennessee. He works in the mutual department of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

"I believe I can represent District 4 as a commissioner better than it has been in the past," Holder said today.

"I believe in a full time medical officer for the County Health Dept., in open meetings to the public and press, safety for the schools, improvement of all county roads and traffic lights for all dangerous intersections," he added.

"I believe the county board can work with the Winter Park Telephone Co. and the Southern Bell Co. for direct dialing from South Seminole County to Sanford. I believe the county should require and furnish physical examinations each year for school bus drivers for safety of all our children," Holder said.

The new candidate resides with his wife and has two sons, George Jr. with the Florida Highway Dept. and Richard, a student at Florida Southern College.

REDS Offered Test Gains If They Sign Pact
GENEVA (UPI) — Britain said today the Soviet Union could have the military advantages gained in its nuclear tests last autumn if it will sign a test ban treaty with adequate international inspections.

The Earl of Home, Britain's foreign secretary, warned the 17-nation disarmament conference "the dreary danger" of competition would "begin again" unless there is an iron-clad policing of nuclear tests.

He said verification lies at the heart of the disarmament and nuclear tests problems. In the opening speech of the morning session, Home urged the Soviet Union to agree right away to a treaty with effective international controls.

President Kennedy has announced plans to hold American nuclear tests in the atmosphere unless Moscow agrees to a test ban treaty with international controls by mid-April. Kennedy decided on the tests after studies showed Russia gained military advantages from the tests it conducted last autumn.

State OKs $16,460 To Fight Indecent Literature

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Cabinet today provided the Children's Commission with $16,460 to finance an ambitious program to fight indecent literature and homosexuality among Florida children.

The Cabinet Budget Commission agreed to immediate release of $1,750 for the remainder of the present fiscal year and pledged $14,700 for next year. The money will come from deficiency funds.

The total amount was $1,000 less than was sought by the commission. The budget agency cut $1,000 out of travel expenses.

Comptroller Ray E. Green, who in the past has fought most attempts to draw money from the deficiency fund, gave his wholehearted support to the program.

It also drew praise from Gov. Farris Bryant, who said the Children's Commission program was operating smoothly.

The commission voted Monday to ask the Cabinet to take the money out of deficiency funds.

The money would be used for a new administrative assistant at $1,000, for a total of $6,000 in travel expenses, and for a news bulletin and two projectors and screens.

The commission program was recommended by a governor's advisory committee. The commission agreed Monday to take on the program.

The program consists of compiling all information available indicating the prevalence of homosexuality in the state, using the material of a legislative investigating committee to analyze the methods of homosexuals, and to educate parents to the realities of the problems.

Commission members said it might be necessary in some cases to shock parents into understanding the extent of the problems.

The commission also plans to draft a report on the estimated number of homosexuals in the state, the nature of their activity and their methods of inducing others—children in particular—into sexual deviation.

A speakers bureau and a lecture series for parent-teacher and other organizations is planned. The commission said it hopes to organize a public demand on the Legislature to approve funds for public health education courses in Florida schools.

Another program the commission plans is a study of homosexual cases already disposed of in the courts. Through this, the commission hopes to be able to recommend optimum ways of dealing with such cases.

Mrs. C. D. Johnson of Quincy is head of the commission.
