Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson Hello. Well I wonder what the groundhog will do when he comes out of his hole Saturday morning? Of course we hope he doesn't see his shadow don't we? I think we have had our share of cold weather this year. Let's keep our fingers crossed. The rain was a big help wasn't it? . . . My we have some birthdays this week. First I want to wish several a delayed Happy Birthday. Claude Hittell and Claude Hawkins who both reached Jack Benny's age last week. Happy Birthday boys. . . And for a very young one, a very Happy Birthday to Mrs. Emma Vihlen, who was 85 years young yesterday. . . And to Rena Hawkins who also had a birthday yesterday. Happy Birthday Rena. I think Claude and Sidney took her out to dinner. . . Don't forget the Fair that will open Monday. Go out and enter those pretty jars of canned fruits and vegetables or handiwork or any handmade articles of any kind. And if you don't do that, go see the fair anyway. . . So very sorry to hear that Bea Corbett is ill. Bea and Jim are former Monroe residents and now reside in Punta Gorda. Bea is in the MacDill AFB hospital in Tampa. We wish her a speedy recovery. . . Mrs.

A. H. Almond motored to Jacksonville last week and brought back a brand new Nash Rambler. When she returned home here was her son Billy and his family here from Lee, Fla. . . That was a nice shower that Juanita Pent and Mary Oglesby gave for Martha Ann Barrow, the other night at Juanita's home. Martha is an engaged young lady. She received some nice gifts. . . R. C. Swope was re-installed as an Elder in the Upsala Presbyterian Church last Sunday, during the morning service. . . Real glad to hear that Sara and Ben Hodge are in their new home at last. As you know they lost their home several months ago by fire. As they were out of town at the time they did not get to save anything. So I know that they are very glad to be able to settle down again. They had a house rebuilt on the same property. So you all go to see them. Sara will be glad to see you. . . At the Monroe PTO meeting the other day, it was decided to have an evening's entertainment at the school. So this Friday evening (tomorrow) the second grade class will present the play Snowwhite and the Seven Dwarfs. They have been practicing hard with their teacher Miss Mable Chapman and they are now ready to perform. So be sure and go to the school tomorrow night and watch these kiddies. They are really cute in their costumes as I got to see them Tuesday. After the show there will be refreshments for sale in the lunchroom. . . And also the PTO is going to put on a women's sewing and variety show in April. Any one who has an act of some kind or you sing, dance or play an instrument, contact Mrs. Morris Metts by phone and let her know what you will or would like to do. There is plenty of good talent here in the county so call Mrs. Metts real quick. . . The Monroe Home Demonstration Club will meet next Thursday at White Hall of the Upsala Presbyterian Church. Lorena Tindel and Mildred Standifer will be co-hostesses. All those interested in HD work come out and join us next Thursday evening. We will be very glad to have you. . . Wish you could have seen Nellie Ruth Boyd one day last week. Guess what she was doing or that she said SHE was doing? She called it spring cleaning. She was cleaning out some shelves in Garrett's Dept. Store. . . You ought to have seen the High School Band Tuesday. They were practicing marching down through Country Club Manor. They are invited to be in the big Gasparilla Parade in Tampa on February 11th. They were certainly strutting their stuff and they will be doing this every day now until time to go. The Band Assn. held a barbecue last Saturday at the Elks Club. And in spite of the rain there was a good turnout for it. And was the supper good. . . you really got your money's worth. So glad that it was a success. This will help pay the expenses of the trip to Tampa. They are going by Greyhound Buses this time BUT Grace Edwards and I will be going with them just the same as they have asked us to go with them as two of their chaperones and you can bet your bottom dollar that we said yes. Have never had the chance before of being able to go to Tampa at Gasparilla time so Grace and I are looking forward to going. . . Have had a request for the writing of Life's Recipe. So will give it this week. It goes like this:

Lobby News Stand Here For 30 Years Closes

The Lobby News Stand, which has served patrons of the Sanford Atlantic Bank Building and the casual reader for more than 30 years pulled down the shutters for the last time Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Roberts, who have taken turns running the little stand for the past nine years are having to retire, due to Mrs. Roberts' ill health. Even though the owners are only asking $1,500 for the stand, plus the inventory, there haven't been any takers. "Nobody wants to invest any money in downtown Sanford, it seems," said Mrs. Roberts. "But it's a good little business and we've made a good living here. It's ideal for a man and wife." Mrs. Roberts usually comes in about 6:30 a. m. and works until noon and then Roberts takes over for the afternoon shift until 3:30 p.m. The little news stand will be greatly missed by its patrons, who are used to getting the papers from all over the country and the latest magazines, plus candy, cigarettes, cigars, ice cream and other little tidbits, everyday. "Anybody want to buy a newstand?"

Hopeful Signs In Strikes

United Press International There were hopeful signs today in the New York newspaper and Philadelphia transit strikes. No progress was reported in the Cleveland newspaper and Florida East Coast Railway walkouts. New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner said in a short statement that "several issues" had been settled in the 56-day-old newspaper strike. But he said "two critical issues"—understood to be the basic wage and the length of the work week—remained unsettled. Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton conducted talks in the 18-day-old Philadelphia bus, streetcar and subway strike in an air of optimism. A company spokesman said the major issue now was the size of the financial package. In Cleveland, no progress was reported between the newspaper guild and the publishers of the Press and Plain Dealer, struck since Thanksgiving. The roadblock continued to be union security. In other labor developments: —The Transport Workers Union, representing 150 drivers and 70 maintenance men, went on strike early today against the Bee Line Bus Co., the second largest commuter carrier in Long Island. The buses carry 40,000 daily fares in populous Nassau County. The union demanded a 65-cent hourly raise in a two-year pact. —The 1,000 striking miners voted today on whether to return to work at the U.S. Steel Co.'s Robena complex near Carmichaels, Pa. They walked off the job Tuesday to protest what they called a safety violation.

POWERFULLY IMPORTANT!

Are we letting it fade away?

One of our fundamental freedoms, so basic as to be often taken for granted, is the freedom of the individual . . . our right to be like everyone else (compulsory in Communist nations) or to strive to rise above all others. It's the magic ingredient that enables a hitherto to become a millionaire, a bootblack to become an outstanding scientist, a newsboy to become President of the United States.

Under this vital freedom of opportunity, initiative blossoms and flourishes. As an employee, a man's salary will be commensurate with his value to the firm; as a businessman, his profit will depend upon his value to the consumer. Contrast the incentives of a free economy with the initiative-stifling "each-according-to-his-needs" credo of the Communist robot world.

This freedom of individual initiative and enterprise has made us the mightiest, most prosperous nation in the history of mankind. And, through this great freedom, America's investor-owned, taxpayer power companies have made our nation the world's most prosperous electric nation—without governmental pressure, coercion or interference.

And the build-up of America's electric power muscle continues. Florida Power & Light's plant expansion projects for the 5-year period, 1962-1966, are adding a total of 1,875,000 kilowatts, virtually doubling our system in an all-out effort to help make Florida . . . and America . . . even more powerful!

FPL's newest expansion project is a 425,000 kw power plant at Cape Canaveral. Together with other Florida power companies, we are expanding and strengthening our interconnecting network of transmission lines to assure plenty of dependable power for Florida's growth and expansion.

Raceway Opens Tonight

THE JOCKEY IS UP!—One of the fine quarter horses here for the racing at Seminole Park Raceway is being walked and readied for the next race. Quarter horses, some of the world's fastest, will race in three featured events nightly.

A pair of features head a nine-race program tonight that will launch the new Seminole Park Raceway's 32-night pari-mutuel harness and quarter horse season.

The first of the nine events at the track, located on Seminole Blvd., off Hwy. 17-92 between Orlando and Sanford, will begin at 8 p. m. after a brief ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Features will be the seventh and eighth races. The former is The Inaugural, a $500 event of 350 yards for 3-year-olds and upward.

The eighth race will be a one-mile invitational pace, the Bill Yocum Memorial. It also will carry a $500 purse.

The race is being run in honor of the former racing secretary and general manager at Seminole Park. He died of a heart attack just 10 days before the opening date.

"In our feature," Racing Sec. Walter Bonafice said, "We have tried to put together a field of consistent, honest, game competitors who will race to form. I think we've accomplished this."

April Chief, Jarrettown Benny, Edgewood Heather, Wildwood Council, Blackstone Widower and McDaniel O'Boy are listed for starts in the six-horse field.

April Chief is one of the most consistent standardbreds in Seminole's stables, having placed in 23 of 27 races last year with three wins, 14 places and six shows.

Horsemen at Seminole consider Blackstone Widower one of the most amazing of all the horses in competition at the track. He's an 11-year-old who only last year receded off a mile in 2:12. He has won $78,008 during his long racing career.

In the sulky behind McDaniel O'Boy will be Bill Robinson, the leading driver at the Sciotta Downs track last season.

Seven of the quarter horses, noted for their exceptional swiftness over short distances, will go to the post in the Seventh Race with Charlie Brown's Big Reward the probable morning line favorite.

Brown's speedster was a qualifier in one of horse racing's richest events, the $22,000 All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs in New Mexico last Labor Day and was the winner in a qualifying race at Seminole Park Wednesday night.

Kessing, 72, was cited for services in the Mexican and both world wars before succeeding Admiral Jonas H. Ingram, USN (Ret.) as commissioner of the AAC in 1949. He served in that capacity until several members of the AAC joined the National Football League in the 1950 merger.

Miss Bettye Freeman, J. D. Henson Wed In Ceremony At Attalla, Ala.

Miss Bettye Gemay Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Freeman, of Gadsden, Ala., and Jerald David Henson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Henson, of Sanford, were married Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. in the Cherry Street Baptist Church of Attalla, Ala.

Rev. M. B. Cunningham officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar highlighted by two tree candelabra. Six seven-branched candelabra entwined with greenery and holding burning white tapers, emerald palms and ferns graced the altar.

Two white floral arrangements in alabaster urns on pedestals were on either side. The prayer bench was covered with white satin and frosted grapes and white satin bows marked the pews.

Mrs. J. D. Smith Jr., organist, presented a program of nuptial music and accompanied soloist, Dewey Stansell, who sang "Through the Years," "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk tulle gown designed with a scooped neckline, basque bodice and long sleeves ending in calla points over her hands. A band of lace traced in seed pearls and sequins accented the neckline and lace applique trimmed the full skirt which terminated in a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of lace and tiny seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, lilies of the valley, white tulip, tiny seed pearls and white satin streamers, tied in love knots. Her only jewelry was a silver bracelet, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Eddie Bynum of Attalla was matron of honor and Miss Jean Henson, Sanford, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Other attendants were the Misses Barbara Smilthermon, Addie Fuller, Bobbie Freeman and Mrs. Charles Scott. They wore identical street length dresses of pale pink taffets, with matching crowns of peau de sole, seed pearls and short veils. They each carried a single white rose.

Tommy Bone served as ring bearer and Darlene Rogers of Sanford was flower girl. She wore a pink silk organza dress with full skirt, round neckline accented with tiny rosebuds, matching gloves and carried a white basket filled with pale pink rose petals which she scattered in the path of the bride.

Berl Henson served his son as best man. Ushers were Ronald Jones, Paul Harlan and Bob Gleason, all of Sanford and Harold Potter and Don Ellis of Attalla.

Mrs. Freeman chose a pastel green costume suit of brocade with frosted tulle trim, matching accessories and a corsage of pale yellow rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a beige brocade original, matching accessories and a corsage of pale pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Ray Freeman greeted guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, their parents and attendants.

A four tiered wedding cake decorated with pink spun-sugar roses, orchids and ivy centered an elaborately appointed table. Mrs. Milton Rowan and Mrs. John Freeman cut the cake; Mrs. Gerald Patterson and Miss Becky Freeman presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Edward Smith served the coffee. Mrs. Larry Harmon kept the bride's book and background music was presented all during the reception hours.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a three-piece royal blue suit with patent accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside at 310 Wylie Road, Marietta, Ga.

Other Sanford residents among the out of town guests were Miss Jeannie Markham and Ronnie Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Berl Henson entertained members of the wedding party and out of town guests with a party, following the rehearsal.

The cake was iced with green and yellow frosting with a dancing ballerina on the top. Other refreshments were ice cream, minis and nuts. While the children were enjoying their refreshments, the mothers attending were served cake, ice cream and coffee.

Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners. Each guest received a straw hat as a favor and the birthday girl wore a "Happy Birthday" crown of rhinestones.

Friends enjoying the party with Debra were Mary Lou Baldree, Sherry Rogers, Frankie Baldree, Mary Ann and Billy Fox, Butch and Rocky Darnell, Pauline Widener and Debra's sister and brother, Hope and Worth Jr.

If you're planning alterations for the bathroom, add one of those low shower heads in the shower stall, placed just high enough on the wall to shower you from the knees down. It's a quick way to achieve a relaxing foot bath.

SIDE BY SIDE ON ONORA RD.

With this column we're initiating something new for Herald readers. From now on we'll be giving you a brief rundown on what is going on at our local entertainment spots, hoping to help you plan your weekend fun.

Since I've been elected to the entertainment committee, I'll be "Table Hopping" around the Sanford area, letting you know what's new and different, in addition to the tried and true house specials.

What's new at Jim Spencer's is a big yellow umbrella in the middle of the dining room. The Spencers have installed great whole cheeses and big pieces of cold meats on a table under the umbrella and you can whack away to your hearts content. It is almost a meal in itself, but don't fill up on it if you are going to have the seafood special . . . all you can eat of lobster.

Leave the table for a while and "roll" out to Skate City on the Dog Track road. Besides getting that much needed exercise and relaxation (sitting on the floor?) you can help a worthy cause if you go next Thursday night between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m. All proceeds for the evening will be turned over to the Serepta Home and you can get tickets from any Seminole County 4-H member or Skate City Rollers Dance and Figure Club. The donation is 50 cents and 25 cents more will provide skates.

If you are all dressed up and looking for something a little more exotic and exciting than usual, stop in at the Mayfair Inn Shalimar Lounge. Open from 5 p.m. till midnight nightly, the mood of the Shalimar is richly Oriental. Big carved brass platters serve as cocktail tables and the ceiling is draped with colorful heavy cloth. There's dancing every evening to the music of Lou Feldman who plays a real fine tune.

How about a charcoal broiled steak at the Lake Monroe Inn overlooking beautiful Lake Monroe? The Inn, on 17-92 North, serves a delicious steak and it's a fine place to take your guests. Call for reservations if you have time, or just stop in. There is also a package store, and of course drinks are served with your meal or at the bar. They are open from 8 a.m. till 2 a.m.

When you and the family get tired of sitting around watching TV, load them all into the car and drive on out to the Jet Lanes — Melodee Skating Rink. For good, all round family entertainment, you really can't beat this combination. Try both the lanes and the rinks, or send each member of the family his own way. Snack bars in both of course . . . Also, all equipment for both bowling and skating can be rented.

When you are in the mood for some late evening entertainment head out for the Drift In on Beardall and Geneva. The "Casuals" entertain from 12:30 till 2 a.m. on Friday and Saturday nights with their singing and playing. The Drift In, formerly known as George's No. 2, is still under the same management and there is still dancing to juke box music six nights a week. For a hearty sandwich, try the ham stacked high on rye.

Lots of new things at the Club Diamond on 17-92 North . . . Besides a fresh coat of paint and some new decorations, there is also a new owner and entertainer. Recently taken over by Mel Murray, formerly of the Daytona Beach Tee-Pee Club, Club Diamond is getting back into full fledged operation. Mel, who has appeared on the Ed Sullivan show as a piano comedian is doing the same stint at the club seven nights a week. The diamond shaped sign outside is in working order now, so you just can't miss it.

New decorations in the Caribe too, but you'd better go see for yourself. It would be easy to spend an entire evening just wandering around the rooms, reading the hilarious captions on the very classic pictures. But don't forget that the Caribe serves meals until 8 p.m. and Bill Slayton and his "Hideaways" entertain six nights a week. . . . A tip to the ladies . . . If you are in town shopping and want some place nice to stop for a drink and lunch, the Caribe is the place.

Two meals for the price of one . . . at the Capri you can practically fill up at the salad bar while awaiting your main dish. The salad bar has hot, cold, sweet, sour, and every other kind of salad and relish you can imagine. Big Bill and his Velvetones play Friday and Saturday nights in the dining room and Lenore Ward sings and plays piano Monday through Thursday in the cocktail lounge. Versatility is the word at the Capri . . . It handles luncheon for two or banquets for 20 equally well.

Comedy Set For Ritz Theatre Sunday

Tony Franciosa, Jane Fonda and Jim Hutton form the laugh triumvirate of "Period of Adjustment," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's screen version of Tennessee Williams' big stage hit and his first comedy coming to the Ritz Theatre Sunday.

This story of the trials and tribulations of a pair of newlyweds whose disillusionment with married life begins even before the honeymoon is over has all the richness of Tennessee Williams' popular works, but this time the famous playwright has mixed his tongue-in-cheek barbs with touches of tenderness and sympathy, all of which add up to a delightful whole.

The pert and attractive Mia Fonda plays Isabel, the nurse in a Y. A. hospital who cures patient George Haverstick (Jim Hutton) just in time to marry him. But the submissive George of the hospital bed is far from the domineering and grumpy husband who after a rainstorm lands Isabel soaking wet in a dirty and depressing motel and whose idea of an ideal honeymoon supper is a hamburger in a roadside joint.

Quarrels and recriminations lead George to look up his old Korean war buddy, Ralph (Tony Franciosa), who has married his boss's daughter, and from whom he hopes to get a few tips on What Makes Marriage Work. But Ralph's own marital status with Dortha, who is aware that he is proaching the divorce stage, and he could use a few tips himself.

FRANK SINATRA

Sinatra Stars In Local Fare

"The Manchurian Candidate," starring Frank Sinatra, Laurence Harvey and Janet Leigh, opens Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre, through United Artists release. Written for the screen by George Axelrod (who co-produced with director John Frankenheimer) the suspense drama is based upon the highly controversial novel by Richard Condon. Angela Lansbury, Henry Silva and James Gregory co-star in the exciting tale of Washington espionage and political intrigue. As in the book, the film chronicles the experiences of a heel (Harvey) whose Achilles heel is a personality weakness resulting from utter domination by his mother, Angela Lansbury. Returning from the Korean conflict a medal-of-honor winner, Harvey has no way of knowing that he is really a remote-controlled tool of the Communists who had captured him. It is Frank Sinatra who finally uncovers the terror and the national menace implicit in this one man, and who leads the chase to prevent disaster. The other feature on the program which will play through Tuesday is "The Far Country" with James Stewart. On Wednesday and Thursday, "7 Ways To SUNDOWN" and "Back Street" will play. Three films are scheduled for Friday and Saturday. The three are "Scarface Mob," "The Naked Spur" and "King Solomon's Mines."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My sister asked me to be god-mother for her son, but she wouldn't let me hold the baby while he was being baptised. Her excuse was that I had a few drinks in me at the time. I did have a few drinks, but I didn't feel them at all. I was very hurt about it but didn't say anything. I gave the child a nice gift anyway. My sister is a little nutty on the subject of drinking and she won't let anyone who has had a drink touch any of her children. Somehow I don't feel that I am really the godmother of this boy because I didn't get to hold him while he was being baptized. Am I? IN DOUBT

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with John for almost two years. I am 21 and he is 23. John has dated me a lot, but he dates others, too. His mother treats me like a daughter and invites me to her house to keep her company. I help her with the ironing and spend all my spare time there. My mother says it isn't helping me with John and I am beginning to think she's right? How can I get John to ask me to marry him? He works steady and nothing is stopping him. WANTS TO MARRY JOHN

DEAR FLORIDA: There are probably more unattached women between the ages of 48 and 50 in your state than in any other. Keep your eyes open and your mouth shut. He who advertises sugar attracts flies.

Jacoby On Bridge

A New York reader wants to know how he and his partner should have bid today's hand. His letter reads:

"With 14 points and 4-3-3-3 distribution I had a perfect two no-trump response. When my partner rebid three clubs it seemed that it would be much easier to make nine tricks at no-trump than 11 at clubs so I went on to three no-trump. I don't think that he should have passed with a singleton spade and, of course, if he had gone to four clubs I would have raised him. I will appreciate your comments since six clubs was a laydown and I went down one trick at three no-trump when both clubs and hearts failed to break."

DEAR ABBY: I am 67 years old. I have a thousand-dollar-a-month business, and can retire any time. I lost my wife (we had no children) and now I am alone. My friends think I am crazy to want to get married again. I can give the woman any kind of a home, car or clothes she wants. I own two homes, a motel and some real estate. There are several young girls interested in me but they are too young. I want a lady about 48 or 50 who wants to get married and stay married. I don't want to be a Sugar Daddy to a gold-digger. I want to be a husband again.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

By the way... what in the world happened to the fine, old habit of making resolutions? Time was, when almost everyone periodically drew up a list of resolutions designed to make a better person of himself. Perhaps what has happened is that as far as personal reform and betterment are concerned, every day has become a kind of New Year's day. Most people were quite satisfied with themselves back in the days when they thought about self-improvement only now and then. Oh, they knew they weren't perfect of course. But they accepted themselves pretty much as they were. However, since those easy-going times Americans have been bombarded with self-help books, articles and lectures. And they have been weighed down with such accusing magazine articles as "Are You Neurotic?" "Are You in a Mental Rut?" "Are Working Mothers Responsible for Juvenile Delinquency?" "Would Your Husband Marry You Again?" "Are You Keeping Up With Your Husband?" "Do You Hate Housework?" and so on and so on. So we are not only encouraged daily to take stock of our shortcomings but to get busy NOW doing something about them—right now, this minute. We take all this to heart, so much so, that you rarely talk to a woman for even a few minutes without having her confess that she is just starting some new self-improvement routine. She's on a diet, or she has taken up a new hobby, or she has enrolled in a class, or she has given up bridge, whatever she is momentarily convinced is a time-waster. With every day Self-Improvement Day—who needs to make resolutions?

Chuluota Legion Post To Meet By Joan Margis Chuluota's American Legion George M. Jacobs Memorial Post 223 will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Saturday at the Lake Catherine Inn. Commander W. M. Jepson urges that all members attend to discuss and vote upon the important business matters to be presented. Included on the agenda are plans for building the new post home, the organization of baseball in the community and the selection of young men to attend Boy's State. The meeting is open not only to members but all interested veterans also are welcome to attend.

Filibuster Fight

'Breathing Spell' Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield hoped today that a weekend "breathing spell" might clear the outlook for ending the Senate's anti-filibuster rule fight.

The Senate, apparently moving into the final stages of the prolonged battle, was in recess until Monday.

Senate liberals lost by a 53 to 42 vote Thursday in the first test on the short-cut route they have been using to amend the existing gag rule. Their defeat, for all practical purposes, spiked chances of a rule change this year.

But Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, (D-N.M.), author of a pending amendment to let three-fifths instead of two-thirds of those voting halt a filibuster, said the struggle might go on until next Friday. Most members looked for its final collapse earlier than that.

Anderson's motion to call up his three-fifths rule amendment is the pending business. It also is subject to a tabling motion, could be withdrawn or sent to committee. Southerners will filibuster against its adoption.

On Thursday's vote, first roll-call of the year, the Senate tabled the liberals' claim that at a season's start a majority of members should be able to kill a filibuster. The present gag rule requires the votes of two-thirds of those present.

Southern Democrats were joined by small state senators plus a scattering of other members voting to table the matter. The break down was 32 Democrats and 21 Republicans for tabling and 31 Democrats and 11 Republicans against.

The liberals bypassed the normal process of clearing rule amendments through the rules committee. They contended that at the opening of a new Congress a majority should be able to amend the rules.

Teacher Defends 'Objectionable' Book

WRENSHALL, Minn. (UPI) — A discharged high school English teacher, now making his living as a hod carrier, said Thursday he still feels the novel "1984" is unobjectionable.

Richard Wyman, 39, was fired by the Wrenshall school board last March because he included the George Orwell novel on the reading list for senior English students preparing for college. The school board called the book "obscene and immoral." The controversy erupted after a girl student showed the novel to her parents.

Since last autumn, Wyman, a father of 13, has been carrying bricks at the same school, where a Duluth construction company is erecting an addition to the building.

Even that job has been interrupted temporarily because of the cold weather and Wyman picked up his first unemployment compensation check Thursday in Duluth.

"It's a new experience for me," he said, "I've never been unemployed before."

Wyman, who holds a master's degree in education and has 10 years teaching experience, said he has applied to more than 100 area high schools but his applications have been rejected each time.

"I don't feel that the school administration is black-balling me," the now bearded ex-teacher said, "but then I guess they aren't giving me the best of recommendations either."

A copy of the controversial book still rests in the Wrenshall school library but no student is required to read it and its contents are not made the subject of term papers as in Wyman's classes.

Supt. E. C. Hedegard said the school administration has not changed its opinion of the work.

"Some parents object to the book and we're not going to force anyone to read it. They can if they want to," he said, "but it's not mandatory."

Wyman said he has not changed his mind about the book, either, he said he would include it in a "recommended" reading list for seniors if he lands another teaching post.

"The book is not a great literary work, but it has some value for college bound students. What good is it to study English writing if you don't include English authors?"

Forest City Baptist Church Opens Crusade At Banquet

By Shirley Wentworth

Twenty-five Sunday School teachers of the Forest City Baptist Church attended a "Blast Off Banquet" last Saturday evening to open the SS-200 Crusade being conducted to increase enrollment and enlargement of the Sunday School department.

The "Space Age" is being used as theme for the three-month crusade and each room has a large poster displayed to record progress. As the attendance grows a rocket will climb higher and higher into outer space among the indicated planets.

The crusade is being conducted under supervision of Sterling Copeland, educational and promotional director of the church. Upon its conclusion early in May another banquet will take place with both the teachers and class members attending. The class bringing in the largest increase in enrollment will be honored at this time.
