WASHING HAS TO AMEND WASTED ACT

Prohibition Of Liquor In Home Will Be Unlawful If New Plan Is Put Into Effect

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(AP)—A measure to amend the Volstead act, making the possession of liquor in the home unlawful, and placing "the burden of proof" upon the possessor was introduced yesterday by Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas.

Senator Sheppard said his bill would amend the language being interpreted in some quarters to permit the possession of liquor in the home for use exclusively in the home.

Simultaneously, conditions under the dry laws in four states drew sharp criticism from the Wickersham commission while enforcement in a fifth state was delayed.

Commission data transmitted to the senate covered the states of New York, Illinois, New Jersey, Louisiana and Colorado. In all except Colorado widespread violations of the liquor laws were reported. Disregard of prohibition was declared so flagrant in and around New York city that 93 percent of all criminal cases instituted there arose from this law.

The survey of Illinois spoke frankly of widespread corruption among public officials. It listed the names of 330 reputed Chicago gangsters together with their names of rackets and reported such details as the discovery of "three quantities of poison diploids built" in reports said to have been received by Al Capone's followers.

Apparently fearing reprisal by Capone, the author of the prohibition bill, introduced the name of "Guy L. Nichols" in the bill. This information has been in the hands of federal authorities for nearly a year.

The report characterized Al Capone as "Alphonse Capone—vice, gambling, booze and beer."

The list of alleged gangsters, many of them new blood, was obtained from the secret files of the Chicago crime commission. Each name was accompanied by a "detailed description" or "booze and beer."

The entire second floor of a 50 room hotel is occupied by the Capone outfit, the investigator said. "Guards are stationed on the floor and no one has access to it unless his identity is satisfactory."

Local Farmers To See Slow Motion Pictures

At the weekly meeting of the farmers' club at the Seminole High School tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, the feature of the evening's discussion will center on the special roll of motion pictures, filmed in slow motion, depicting how diseases attack plants. The films were made in government laboratories, and each step in the growth of fungus diseases is clearly discernible.

John R. Johnson will conduct the discussion at the round-table which will be the growers, experts in the number who will explain to the members as they apply to the special roll of motion pictures.

The pictures are beneficial to the growers and should be seen by all district members.

Court Decision Seen As Partly Effective

TAMPA, March 4.—(AP)—D. C. Skinner, president of the Florida Bryoder Distributors, Inc., said today that the Federal supreme court decision invalidating his corporation's patented citrus preserving process will have no effect on the process rights. He said the patent was held invalid but it covers the use of borax only, and all the other processes are not affected by the courts ruling.

MIAMI, March 4.—(AP)—G. L. Tarleton, Chicago, was made defendant yesterday in a $50,000 lawsuit filed by Mrs. Minnie Reid, whose husband was fatally injured when struck by an automobile driven by Tarleton's chauffeur.

ST. LOUIS GROWS WEAKER

ST. LOUIS, March 4.—(AP)—Ban Johnson, former president of the American League, was being slightly weaker last night. No hope was held for his recovery. His physician, Dr. Robert H. Smith, said the former baseball star was delirious with the fever.

Al Smith In Typical Form As Reporters Question Him On Matters Of Party Policies

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith was in 1928 campaign interview form yesterday when he received the Washington correspondents, many of whom made the three-months' three-time swing around the country with him.

Asked if he thought any harm would be done if a free and frank discussion of the party's employment, the tariff, etc. were had Thursday, at the meeting of party leaders, he said:

"Whenever the democratic party gets itself into a position where it is afraid to discuss anything that affects the liver, morals and well-being of the people, it becomes responsible to the republican in the party sense."

PROSECUTION IN CONGRESS QUILTS CARD GAME CASE FOR TERM AFTER SCORES WITNESS

KANSAS CITY, March 4.—(AP)—Presentation of defense evidence at the trial of Mrs. Myrtle Bennett, charged with slaying her husband, was halted yesterday to permit the prosecution's attempt to impeach defense witnesses.

The witnesses were Mrs. Alice Adkins, 67-year-old mother of the defendant, who collapsed during the noon recess, and Mrs. Mayne Hoffman, participant in the Bennett's last big game.

James R. Page, prosecutor, contended Mrs. Adkins and Mrs. Hoffman had repudiated by their testimony statements made to officers after the slaying of John G. Bennett in his fashionable apartment.

He attempted to show that Mrs. Hoffman and the defendant's mother had changed their stories to fit in with the accidental shooting version of the defense, by testifying they did not witness the shooting and leaving Mrs. Bennett, the only person able to recount the actual details.

Page sought to overthrow the defense theory that Bennett was slain accidentally while grappling with her.

State Attorney Says Witness Repudiated Earlier Testimony

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Seventy First Congress adjourned today after a session of 100 days, the longest in its history. The session was marked by a record number of bills introduced and passed.

The House passed a $20,000,000 hospitalization bill before yielding to farewell ceremonies which marked the end of official life for more than 40 Republican members. The bill was signed by the President, and became a law.

With his cabinet, the President went to the Capital in the final hour to sign other last minute bills and say goodbye to the leaders. The galleries were packed from early morning, when both Houses reassembled.

Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma held the floor in the Senate in a stubborn but futile attempt to vote on the resolution for an inquiry of the oil industry. He wanted an embargo on oil importation and he talked until two minutes of 12 despite the protests of his colleagues. Promptly at noon Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Longworth fell their gavel in the Senate and House.

In obedience to a constitutional mandate necessary before adjournment, notice of contest against the election of Josiah Bailey, Democrat, North Carolina was filed in the Senate in behalf of George Pritchard, Republican candidate for the senatorship who was defeated in the November election. The intemperate Thomas filibuster killed all pending legislation, including the maternity aid bill; the Jenkins bill for a 90 percent cut in immigration for two years; a batch of nominations, and the Vestal copyright measure.

Mild Political Revolt Stirs Staid Vermont

MONTPELIER, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Conservative Vermont awoke today from a minor revolution in politics. She is still Republican but has turned against her best known leader by nominating Warren Austin, for the United States Senate. Austin has still to defeat Stephen Driscoll, Democrat nominee, but he was as good as elected yesterday when he won the primary race from Senator Frank Parridge.

SLAIN WOMAN'S DAUGHTER DIES FROM FUMES

Police Think She Took Her Life Because Of Notoriety Caused By Mother's Death

(AP)—Benita Bischoff, 16-year-old daughter of Vivien Gordon, slain New York actress, died in a hospital yesterday an hour after she had been found unconscious in a gas-filled room of her home here by her stepmother, Mrs. Eunice Bischoff.

Her father, John F. C. Bischoff, a deputy United States marshal, was not home at the time. Mrs. Gordon was Bischoff's first wife.

Police said last night they had not determined whether Mrs. Bischoff's death was accidental or planned. They expressed the opinion that she had ended her life because of the notoriety that attended the post-mortem of her mother, who police believe was strangled to death because of testimony she had threatened to give in an investigation of vice and graft conditions in New York. The attractive high school girl left no note or farewell message.

Friends recalled, however, that Benita had been "different" since her mother's death. She seemed reluctant, friends said, to face the other students.

Mrs. Bischoff found her stepdaughter lying unconscious in the kitchen. The jets of a gas stove were open.

Bischoff is stationed at Lorton, Va., where he is in charge of the business administration of the District of Columbia reformatory.

Dutton Firm Is Now Selling Pyrethrum Insect Destroyer

A representative of the John Powell and Co., Inc. of New York City, specialists in Pyrethrum, a natural insecticide which is especially adapted for use in celery fields has been in Sanford for the past few days on a mission which has for its purpose the eradication of every insect, bug, or worm which causes farmers even the slightest anxiety or loss.

In order to facilitate the handling of the product, F. E. Dutton Sons Co., Inc., pioneer Sanford vegetable growers and shippers, have been appointed as local agents. They now have on their floors a plentiful supply of the product, and they also maintain a special department of information.

The John Powell Co., Inc., has specialized in the highest grade of Pyrethrum for many years, and they maintain a complete entomological laboratory where experiments are constantly going on. Insects of every kind are bred throughout the year under standardized conditions, and results of tests on them furnish the basis for the approximate amount of Pyrethrum needed to eradicate the pest.

Their PowCo brand Pyrethrum is a carefully tested product, and it is now available to celery growers in a freshly milled, finely pulverized form which carries a guarantee of complete satisfaction.

RASKOB STATES PURPOSE OF BIG MEET THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Chieftains of the Democratic Party assembled in Washington yesterday, but after many conferences left the rank and file still in doubt whether the meeting to be held Thursday would be a love-feast or a family quarrel.

As demands came from the East, West and South that economic conditions instead of prohibition be made the predominant issue in 1932, Chairman Raskob of the party's national committee issued a statement reiterating the purpose of the committee session was to discuss "future policies and finances."

About the same time and across the hall from the chairman's hotel suite, Alfred E. Smith, the party's presidential candidate in 1928, told newspaper men he was "a hard newspaper man but I am a soft heart in the national committee discussing informally all public questions."

He insisted, however, it was not for him to determine what the meeting should consider as he was not a member of the committee. He added the committee could not fix policies for adoption by the national convention.

Meanwhile, old and new Senate Democrats, including the party's floor leader, demanded with emphasis that economic rehabilitation be put forward as the dominant issue in the next presidential race.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, floor leader and vice presidential nominee on the Smith ticket, said in the Senate that Republican leaders still were currying on a campaign to make the people believe the country is prosperous.

To support his argument he cited a recently published article by Senator Peas of Ohio, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Senator Walsh of Massachusetts in another floor speech, said:

"This is a time to be setting up straw men relating to the wet and dry issue, to religious or to racial issues, when men and women are starving."

Edward P. Costigan, senator-elect from Colorado, asserted in a public statement a canvass of the judgment of Democratic leaders in the North, East, South and West disclosed "overwhelming support for the far-sighted view that the liquor question in America must not at this time be converted into a partisan issue by the Democratic National Committee."

Muscle Shoals Bill Veto Is Sustained By Senate, 49 to 34

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(AP)—President Hoover's veto of the Muscle Shoals bill was sustained by the Senate.

The vote was 49 to 34.

The bill, which the President said in his veto message squarely presented the issue of government operation in competition with private interests was killed when its friends failed to obtain the two-thirds vote necessary to pass, it over a veto.

The vote came after several hours of debate in which Senators Norris (R. Neb.) and Black (D. Ala.) led an attack on President Hoover for not signing the measure.

Norris charged the President was "with the power trust" and Black asserted he violated his campaign promises by vetoing the bill.

Administration Senators forced the vote when Norris and other advocates of the bill attempted to lay it aside, declaring a vote was useless in view of the impossibility of passing the measure in the House over the veto.

Sixteen Republicans voted to pass the bill over the veto while three Democrats joined with 31 Republicans to sustain it.

Two-thirds were necessary to pass the bill over the veto.

RECORD TIDE STOPS ALL NEW ENGLAND'S OCEAN-FRONT TRADE

BOSTON, Mar. 4.—(AP)—The highest tide in 22 years, aggravated by a strong wind today, inundated the New England coast, inundated streets, stalled automobiles, and marooned many occupants of waterfront buildings.

Transportation service was at a standstill in many sections, and because of the approaches, under water ferry service in Boston harbor was suspended. Property damage is expected to be great.

Rowboats were employed on the Boston water front when docks and streets were inundated. Automobiles were stalled throughout the coastal region and the main highway from Lynn to Boston was impassable. The wind reached a maximum velocity of 60 miles an hour. Six cottages were battered to pieces by the waves at Revere Beach and 500 others were flooded.

The President suggests that Alabama and Tennessee lease Muscle Shoals because they are more familiar with the project which lies in their States," the governor said. "But President Hoover has had his men on the ground too, and they also are familiar with the entire Muscle Shoals plant."

"I think that his suggestion that we lease the plant when he declines to approve a bill allowing the government to do this, is an inconsistent one."

PEACE IN INDIA RESTORED BY TRUCE SIGNING

Mahatma, Irwin Come To Agreement After Weeks Of Debating; Effective At Once

NEW DELHI, India, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Peace at last has come to India, racked for a year by a civil disobedience movement which defied all the authority of the British raj (government). The jails of the country and was responsible for millions of dollars of economic loss.

After nine hours of almost continuous discussion, lasting until 1:30 o'clock this morning, Mahatma Gandhi, Indian nationalist leader, and Viceroy Lord Irwin, at high noon today signed a truce which ends the nationalist civil disobedience campaign, and secures nationalist cooperation in the working out of a qualified dominion status for India.

The truce culminated negotiations of several weeks which reached their fulfillment in the agreement which Gandhi presented to the nationalist working committee. It voted unanimous approval, and the signing of the truce followed at once.

It is known that the viceroy yesterday gave tacit agreement to the important contention of the nationalists that Indians have the right to make their own salt. He agreed that those living along the coast could manufacture the salt from sea water and thus avoid purchasing from the government monopoly.

No more amazing setting or atmosphere for a peace conference could be imagined than that in which these midnight negotiations occurred.

Rain was pouring down upon the deserted building which, with its darkened windows and grim gray tower, resembled a tomb more than a palace of peace. From the clock tower of a neighboring British church came the solemn tolling of 2 o'clock.

Suddenly the piny and white-clad figure of Gandhi emerged from the huge stone gate of the Press correspondent, who was the viceregal palace. The Associated Press only newspaperman on the spot asked:

"Will you sign an armistice today?"

"Better ask the viceroy," replied the nationalist leader with his habitual diplomacy and thus the news of an agreement came from others than him.
